3. Goodman, Prebendary of the Prebend of Co- in the Cathedral Church of Bath and Wells, by Deed enrolled, did Grant, Render, and Confirm to King E. 6. Totam Prebendam ſuam de Cory, & omnia Maneria, poſſeſſiones, jura, & hereditamenta quæcunque tam ſpiritualia, quam temporalia, & plenam & liberam diſpoſitionem, authoritatem, & poteſtatem dict. Prebend. pertinent. ſpectantem, ſive Incumbentem: Habendum eidem Regi & Succeſſoribus ſuis ad eorum proprium uſum, ad omnem juris effectum, qui ex inde, &c. And after the Habendum, there were theſe words in the Deed, &c. viz. Cui in hac parte ad omnem juris effectum, qui ex inde ſequi poterit aut poteſt dictæ Prebendæ: Et omnia jura mihi ratione ejuſdem qualitercunque acquiſita, ut decet, ſubjicio, & ſubmitto. And in this Caſe it was agreed by the Judges, 1. That thoſe words were effectual, and ſufficient to make a Reſignation of the Prebend. 2. That the Reſignation of the Dignity made unto the King as ſupream Ordinary, was good to extinguiſh the Dignity, although the ſame was not made unto the immediate Ordinary. 3. That by that Deed, and by thoſe words, Canoniam ſive Canonicatum, his ſpiritual Function was ſurrendred to the King: For it was ſaid, That by the Law, Reges ſacro Oleo unctii ſpiritualis Juriſdictionis ſunt capaces; and again, Rex eſt perſona mixta cum Sacerdote. 13 Eliz. Dyer; Goodman's Caſe.

4. Note, The words of ſubſtance in the Inſtrument of Reſignation made unto the Biſhop or Ordinary, muſt be either renunciare, cedere, or remittere, in the caſe of a common perſon; for the word Reſignare, is no fit or proper word of Reſignation of the Church, as it was holden by the Civilians in Goodman's Caſe: But in Caſe of the Dignity reſigned then to the King, the words in the ſaid Grant were holden to be ſufficient to make a Reſignation of the ſame. See Dyer, ibid.

5. In every Reſignation, the time of the Reſignation is conſiderable; and therefore, If a man, Preſented to a Benefice with Cure of ſouls, be Admitted and Inſtituted by the Biſhop, the Church in Caſe of a common perſon, is ſaid to be full, and he may then reſigne: But where the King is Patron, there becauſe the Church is not full until Induction, he cannot reſigne before he be Inducted; But in no Caſe before he be Inducted, can he charge the Gleab: And if he be Inducted, and diſcharge the ſame, yet ſuch charge upon his Reſignation, ſhall be avoided, and ſhall binde but during his time: As if a Parſon or Prebendary make a Leaſe for years, and afterwards reſigne, 12. H. 8. 8. by Pollard, 26 H. 8. 2. 21 H. 7. 1. the Leaſe for years ſhall be avoided: So if a Parſon or Vicar alien the Gleab of his Church, or permute the ſame, the ſucceſſor may enter, 2 H. 4. 5. But if a Writ of Annuity be brought againſt a Parſon, who prays in Aid of the Patron and Ordinary, and the Aid is granted, and they make default, and afterwards upon their default, the Patron doth confeſs the action, and then doth reſigne, or dyeth; this by the Common Law ſhould have bounden the Patron, Ordinary, and the Succeſſor, becauſe the Patron had done as much as in him lay, to have freed the Glebe, by praying in Aid of the Patron and Ordinary. See 20 H. 6. 47. 7 H. 6. 38. 22 H. 6. 28. 4 H. 7. 2. 19 H. 6. 29. acc.

6. If a Writ of Annuity, or other Writ be brought againſt a Parſon or Vicar, and pendant the Writ, the Parſon or Vicar do reſigne his Parſonage or Vicarage into the hands of the Ordinary; In this Caſe, becauſe the Reſignation is the Act of the party, he ſhall not take advantage thereof, and abate his own Writ; But if a Writ be brought by an Incumbent, and pendant the Writ he doth reſigne his Benefice, in that caſe he ſhall abate his own Writ. See 20 H. 6. 10. acc.

Reſtitution.

Where, and in what Caſe it lyeth, and for whom; unto what a man ſhall be reſtored upon a Judgment reverſed: And where upon Reſtitution it ſhall avoid all Mean Acts, Where not.

1. B Brought a Quare Impedit againſt C. and had Judgment to recover upon a Demurrer in Law; Afterwards it was ſhewed, that B. was Outlawed after the ſaid Judgment in an Action of Debt, at the ſuit of J. S; C. reſigned his Benefice to the Queen; a Scire facias iſſueth, ad reſpondendum quare diſſa Domina Regina, ſhould not have Execution of the Judgment aforeſaid, by reaſon of the Outlawry aforeſaid, and then ſhe declared upon the Outlawry aforeſaid, and that the ſaid C. had reſigned; whereupon C. was Preſented again by the Queen, and Inſtituted and Inducted: Afterwards B. brought a Writ of Error in the Kings Bench, and reverſed the Outlawry, becauſe he was named of Hamby, when there were two Towns of the ſame name, and neither of them without addition; and thereupon brought a Scire facias againſt C. to execute the firſt Judgment, who plead all the matter aforeſaid. It was ſaid, That by the Outlawry of the Plaintiff, the Queen was entituled to the Preſentation, although it was but a thing in Action, which being once veſted in the Queen, and ſhe afterwards Preſenting C. again to the ſame Church, that the Preſentation of him was good, and ſo the Wife barred. It was the Opinion of the Court, That when the Queen Preſented, ſhe had gained a Patronage, until it was recovered again; for ſo long as the Incumbent continueth by that Induction in poſſeſſion, ſo long he who Preſented him continueth Patron; then when the Queen had Preſented C. de novo, which is done by fraud pendente Lite, and after the Outlawry is reverſed: It was the Opinion of the Court, That no act done by the Queen hanging the Writ, ſhould extinct the Plaintiff from his Execution. See 21 H. 7. If the Defendant reſigne, and a ſtranger is Preſented hanging the Writ, yet the Plaintiff ſhall remove the ſtranger. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That upon the Reverſal of the Outlawry, the Plaintiff ſhould be reſtored to his Preſentation, and that C. Preſented de novo by the Queen, upon an apparent practiſe of C. to reſigne (for otherwiſe the Queen could not have Preſented him, the Church being full) ſhould be removed. Mich. 31 Eliz. in B. R. Berkley and Cornwall's Caſe. Goldesbr. 103, 104. Leon, 63. the ſame Caſe.

2. The Sheriff by force of a Writ of Execution by Fieri facias ſold the Term of the Defendant by a Writ of Venditioni exponas, and delivered the monys in Court to the Plaintiff; and afterwards, upon a Writ of Error brought, the Judgment was reverſed. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That Reſtitution could not be made of the Term which was made by the default of the party himſelf, but he ſhould be reſtored to the monies for which the Term was ſold by the Sheriff. Trin. 20 Eliz. Dyer, 363.

3. Leſſee for 99. years, by his Will Deviſed his Leaſe in theſe words; viz. I deviſe my Leaſe to my Wife during her life; and after her death I will that it go to her Children unpreferred; and made his Wife his Executrix, and dyed: the Wife entred, and married with J. S; and afterwards for 140 l. debt recovered againſt J. S. upon a Fieri facias, the Term was ſold by the Sheriff. Afterwards the Judgment was reverſed by a Writ of Errour brought, and awarded Quod omnia quæ amiſit ratione Judicii, reſtituantur; the Wife the Executrix dyed: In this caſe, It was Reſolved; 1. That the Executory Deviſe of the Leaſe after the death of the Wife, to the daughter, was good. 2. That the Sale made by the Sheriff upon the Fieri facias, did not deſtroy the Executory Deviſe. 3. That the Sale made of the Term by the Sheriff ſtood good, although that the Judgment was reverſed, and that the Plaintiff ſhould be reſtored to the value of the Term, but not to the Term it ſelf, and that the Vendee had an abſolute property in the Term during the life of the Wife, and that the value of the Term ſhould go to the Daughter not preferred after the death of the Wife. Mich. 27 Eliz. in B. R. Annet and Lockington's Caſe. See Cook 8. Part, 96. in Matthew Manings Caſe. See Godbolt, 27. acc.

4. In Audita Querela, the Plaintiff ſhewed, That 200 l. debt was recovered againſt him, upon which he was Outlawed, and afterwards taken in Execution by a Capias utlagatum; and being in Execution, the Sheriff ſuffered him to eſcape: The Defendant pleaded, That after the ſaid Eſcape, and before the Audita Querela brought, the Outlawry was declared to be erroneous; and ſo no Record of the Outlawry: Upon which, the Plaintiff did Demur. It was Objected, That at the time of the Eſcape, the Outlawry was in force; and the Sheriff ſhould never take advantage of Errour, but ſhould be charged with the Eſcape, notwithſtanding that the Record was erroneous: But it was adjudged, That the Audita Querela did not lye. And, 1. It was Reſolved, That when Erroneous Judgment is given, and after the Judgment is reverſed by Errour, that all Collateral acts executory are thereby barred. 2. In this caſe, It was Reſolved, That there is a difference between mean acts done in Execution of Juſtice which are Compulſory and voluntary acts: As if a Judgment be given in Debt, and the Sheriff upon a Fieri facias ſell a Term, and then the Judgment is reverſed by Errour, the Term ſhall not be reſtored, but only the ſum: But if an Outlawry, by which the Sheriff is commanded to take the body, et bona et Catalla quæ per inquiſitionem venerint in manus noſtras, Capias; If by force of ſuch Writ, the Sheriff ſells the goods and Chattels, and afterwards the Outlawry is reverſed, the party ſhall be reſtored to his Goods and Chattels, becauſe the Sheriff was not commanded by Writ to ſell them. Cook 8. Part, 143. Dr. Druries Caſe. See 5 Eliz. Dyer, 223. Proſſers Caſe: And Cook 5. Part, Hoes Caſe, acc.

5. A. ſeiſed in Fee of the Mannor of S. in the County of K, had Iſſue H, who was Indicted of Felony 18 Eliz: 19 Eliz. the Indictment was brought into the Kings-Bench, and thereupon H. 20 Eliz. was Outlawed: A. dyed, H. entred into the Mannor as ſon and Heir; and being ſeiſed of the ſaid Mannor and Lands, Deviſed the ſame to C. in Fee: who conveyed the ſame to B, who brought a Writ of Errour to reverſe the Outlawry of H. And whether it would lye, was the Queſtion, he being a meer ſtranger, and a Feoffee only of the Land? It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, after many long Arguments at Barr, and debate of the Caſe in Court, That the Writ would not lye, Becauſe by the Writ reverſed, the Blood which was corrupted by the Attainder, was to be reſtored; and if the Feoffee might bring Errour, and reverſe the Judgment, he muſt reſtore the Heir in blood; and none can have Errour to reſtore blood, but he only who is privy in blood, and that is the Heir, and not B. the Feoffee. Paſch. 3 Car. in B.R. Brookers Caſe, Godbolt, 376, 377, 378.

6. A man was Indicted as Principal, for the death of J. S; and another as Acceſſary, for receiving the Principal. Afterward the Principal was Outlawed, and the Acceſſary hanged; and the Lord ſeiſed the Land of the Acceſſary for Eſcheat. Afterwards, the Principal came and reverſed the Outlawry, and was found Not guilty: The Heir of him who was hanged, entred upon the Lord by Eſcheat: And in that Caſe, it was adjudged, That in as much as there could not be an Acceſſary, unleſſe there was a Principal, It was adjudged, That the Heir ſhould be reſtored to his Lands; and that therefore his Entry upon the Lord by Eſcheat was lawful. See this Caſe vouched, Hil. 7 Jac. in B. R. in Gittins and Cowpers Caſe, Brownlow, 2. Part, 220.

7. If in an Appeal of Felony, an Exigent be awarded againſt a man, although that he cometh in upon the Exigent, yet he ſhall forfeit his goods for his Retrevit, which is a flying in Law. But if a man hath a Pardon of elder date then the Exigent, in that caſe his Goods are ſayed, for the ſaving of them appears upon Record; and the Goods (if ſeiſed) ſhall be reſtored to him: And if a Writ of Exigent doth erroniouſly iſſue forth, yet till it be reverſed, it ſtands in force, and his goods are forfeited. But his Executors or Adminiſtrators ſhall have a Writ of Errour to reverſe the Judgment upon the Exigent, and upon the Reverſall thereof, the goods of the party ſhall be reſtored unto them. 24 Eliz. in B. R. Mariners Caſe. See Cook 5. Part, 100. Long's Caſe, &c.

8. Error, Whereas the Defendant recovered damages in Debt in C. B. of 100 l. The Plaintiff thereupon had an Elegit into the County of Lancaſter, which mentioned, that another Elegit iſſued into London, and returned Nihil. And upon a Teſtatum eſt, It was commanded to extend all the Goods and Lands. Whereupon the Sheriff returned, That he took a Leaſe for years of Tythes which he delivered to the Plaintiff as bona et catalla ſua for the ſaid Debt. The Error was, becauſe the Writ Writ was with a Teſtatum, whereas there was not any Writ before awarded into London. It was held to be Error. Then it was moved, If he ſhould be reſtored to the Leaſe it ſelf, or to the value, viz. the 100 l. It was Objected, That the Sale was good, and that after, it came to two or three mens hands. But it was holden, That this Sale ſhould not bind him; and a difference was taken betwixt this Sale and delivery upon an Elegit to the party himſelf, and to a ſtranger upon a Fieri facias. For the Fieri facias gives power to the Sheriff to ſell and bring the money into Court; Wherefore when he ſells a Term to a ſtranger, although the Execution be reverſed, yet he ſhall not by vertue thereof be reſtored to the Term, but to the monies. See before Amner and Loddington's Caſe. But the Sale and delivery of the Leaſe to the party himſelf upon an Elegit, is no Sale by force of the Writ delivered in Extent, which being reverſed, the party ſhall be reſtored to the Term it ſelf. And therefore a Writ of Reſtitution was awarded. Trin. 8 Jac. in B. R. Goodyer and Junces Caſe. Y. Laverton 179. Cro. 2. Part, 246. the ſame Caſe.

9. A Judgment in Durham being reverſed in B. R. a Writ of Reſtitution was awarded to enquire what were the profits of the Land recovered, a tempore Judicii pradict. which was 7. Aug. 19 Jac. Whereupon the Inquiſition was returned, That they amount to 10 l. Exception was taken to the Writ, for it ought not to have bin what the profits amounted unto from the Judgment. Wherefore the Plaintiff in the Writ of Error had a new Writ of Reſtitution, which was to enquire what profits of the Land the Plaintiff who recovered had taken Colore Judicii pradict. which was 7. Aug. 19 Jac. and after the Reverſal thereof: which being returned, That he took the profits of the Land colore Judicii pradict. before the Reverſal thereof to the value of 10 l. Exception was taken, That this Writ was not good; for it ought to be what profits he took after the Execution ſued. But the Court held, That the Writ was good enough. For the Plaintiff in the Writ of Error after the reverſal is to be reſtored to all what he loſt, and what the Plaintiff in the Judgment by colour thereof had taken after the Judgment. Wherefore the Writ was ordered to be filed; and the Plaintiff had Execution of the damages found by that Writ. Mich. 22 Jac. in B. R. Simpſon and Juxons Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 698.

2. Where and in what Caſe a Writ of Reſtitution ſhall be awarded to reſtore a man to his Franchiſe, Place, Office. Divers Caſes thereof.

1. ONe Citizen ſued another in the Court of Common Pleas for Debt upon an Obligation, for which, and becauſe the Plaintiff refuſed to ſtand to the Order of two Aldermen, they Diſfranchiſed him. And becauſe that that was no cauſe, and there appeared to be no other cauſe to Diſfranchiſe him, a Writ of Reſtitution was awarded to the Mayor to reſtore him. Paſc. 16 Eliz. Dyer, 333.

2. Note, Theſe points were Reſolved by the Juſtices. 1. That words of contempt, or contra bonos mores, are not ſufficient cauſes to Diſ-franchiſe a Citizen or a Burgeſs; but if he doth any thing againſt the duty and truſt of his Freedome, or unto the prejudice of the City or Borough, the ſame is a good cauſe to Diſ-franchiſe him, but then there ought to be an Act done, and not an endeavour only. For Non effecit conatus niſi ſequatur effectus. 2. Reſolved, That no Freeman of any Corporation can be Diſfranchiſed by the Corporation, if they have not authority to do it by expreſs words in their Charter, or by Preſcription; but ſuch Freeman ought to be convicted by the Law before he be removed. Cook 11. Part, James Bagg's Caſe.

3. Clark, a Burgeſs of Hartford being expelled from being a Burgeſs there, had a Writ to the Mayor and Burgeſſes to reſtore him, or ſignify the cauſe, who returned, That he being Church Warden, Preſented one, being a Burgeſs, and maliciouſly without cauſe, for being abſent from one perambulation, for which being rebuked by the Mayor, he ſaid contemptuouſly, I care not for Mr. Mayor, nor any of the Burgeſſes; and for this cauſe they expelled him. It was holden to be no cauſe of expulſion of him, and therefore another Writ was awarded to reſtore him. Mich. 16 Jac. in B. R. Clarks Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 506.

4. A. one of the Councel of Coventry was removed: He had a Writ of Reſtitution, and thereupon the Corporation returned, That they had a Cuſtome to elect any to be of the Common Councill, and to remove him ad libitum. The Court held the Retorn good, and took this difference, Where Where a man is a Free-man, or Alderman, there they cannot remove him from his Freedome or place without cauſe; and in ſuch Caſe, ſuch a Cuſtome is void, becauſe the party hath a Freehold therein. But to be of Councell, is a thing collaterall to the Corporation, and ſo one may be removed. It was afterwards ſurmiſed, That he was an Alderman, and removed. Whereupon a new Writ iſſued to reſtore him. Trin. 17 Jac. in B. R. Warrens Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 540. See Trin. 23 Car. in B. R. Eſtwick and the City of Londons Caſe. Syles 42, 43.

5. In a Writ of Reſtitution to the Mayor and Burgeſſes of Glouceſter, to reſtore T. to the place of Alderman, he being removed by them. They returned the cauſes of his removal. 1. One was, for his lending of money to young men by the hands of his Wife. Another cauſe was, that he was a Drunkard. 2. They returned, That their Common Councill did conſiſt of 30 Burgeſſes, and that they called him before 30 of them in Domo Conſilii to anſwer the matters Objected againſt him, and becauſe he did not give ſufficient anſwers to the matters, they did therefore remove him. For the firſt, it was holden to be no cauſe, being but a Collateral cauſe, and not trenching to things incident to his place as an Alderman. 2. It was agreed, That if a Magiſtrate be a common Drunkard, it is a perſonal Offence, and a good cauſe to remove him, becauſe this goes to the point of Government, otherwiſe if he be drunk by accident. 3. It was agreed, That the Return was not good; for that it is ſaid, That this removal of him was in Domo Conſilii, but it was not ſaid in the Return, that it was apud Commune Concilium. Wherefore by the Rule of the Court, a new Writ of Reſtitution was awarded to reſtore T. to his place of Alderman. Trin. 14 Jac. in B. R. Taylors Caſe. Bulſtr. 3. Part, 189, 190. See Poph. 134. the ſame Caſe. And ſee there how the Caſes differ.

6. A. being put out of the Town Clerkſhip of Bedford. It was moved for a Writ of Reſtitution of him to his place. It was doubted by ſome, Whether he could be reſtored or no. becauſe the Office was granted to him in Reverſion, when it was expectant upon an Eſtate for life; and when the Officer for life dyed, one Foy was elected. And it was doubted by ſome, Whether this Court had power to Grant Reſtitution in this Caſe. But it was Reſolved, That this Court hath power to Grant Reſtitution in ſuch a Caſe where he was put out of his Office; and one Mudlicotts Caſe was vouched to have bin adjudged accordingly. And 43 Eliz. By Warrant of Fenner Juſtice, a Writ of Reſtitution was granted in the like Caſe; and ſo it was ſaid it was adjudged, 10 Eliz. in one Conſtables Caſe, and the like in 16 Eliz. Paſc. 2 Car. in B. R. Audley and Joyes Caſe. Popham 196.

7. The Cuſtome of the Ville of Stepney is, that the Neighbours in the Hamblet was to make choice of ſuch a one to be their Conſtable, and to preſent him to the Lord Wentworth the Lord of the Mannor, and then to have him ſworn; they made choice of ſuch a one to be Conſtable, and Preſented him to the Lord, who was ſworn accordingly. The ſaid Conſtable was removed by the Juſtices of Peace at their Quarter Seſſions. Whereupon a Writ of Reſtitution was prayed to reſtore the Conſtable choſen by the Ville, and ſworn. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices in this Caſe, That Juſtices of Peace are to elect Conſtables of Hundreds and High Conſtables; and theſe as they are to be choſen by them, ſo they are removeable by them if there be cauſe for it. But if it be in a Mannor (as in the Principal Caſe it was), and the Conſtable is choſen and ſworn in the Court Leet (as in the Principal Caſe he was), the Juſtices of the Peace have no power or Authority to remove him, but they may Fine him if there be cauſe for it. But it was agreed by the Court, That no Writ of Reſtitution lyeth for a Conſtable: Wherefore by the Rule of the Court, an Order was entred, That the firſt diſplacing of the Conſtable choſen by the Ville, and approved by the Lord of the Mannor, was altogether unlawful; and an Order made by the Court, for the reſtoring, placing, and ſetling him in his place of Conſtable again. Trin. 9 Jac. in B. R. the Caſe of the Conſtable of Stepney. Bulſtr. 1. Part, 174.

8. Upon a Writ of Reſtitution, the Caſe appeared to be this. An Alderman of Lincoln was removed for cauſe, J. S. elected Alderman in his place. Afterwards the Alderman firſt removed, the cauſe of his removal appearing inſufficient, had a Writ of Reſtitution granted him by the Court, with a Rule to remove J. S. and reſtore the other. Afterwards one of the Aldermen dyed, and ſo another place became now void; and by their Charter, they having twelve Aldermen: J. S. now moved the Court for a Writ of Reſtitution to be reſtored to his place again. It was the Opinion of the Court, That they could not write to them to elect ſuch a one, this Court being only to deal in Caſes of Reſtitution, by granting Writs of Reſtitution upon bad and undue removalls: The whole Court was clear of Opinion againſt the granting of a Writ of Reſtitution, as this Caſe is, unto J. S. for he cannot be reſtored to the place of an Alderman, to a new place by force of his former Election, for by his removal he is now Statu quo prius, no Alderman, and ſo not to be reſtored to the place of an Alderman. Trin. 11 Jac. in B. R. Shuttleworth and the Corporation of Lincolns Caſe. Bulſt. 2. Part, 122.

9. Langham, a Citizen and Freeman of London was committed to Newgate by the Court of Aldermen. He was brought to the bar by a Habeas Corpus: Upon which Return was made, That London is an Ancient City Incorporate by the name of Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens; and that a Court of Record had bin time out of mind, holden before the Mayor and Aldermen. And that there is a Cuſtome, That if any Freeman be elected Alderman, That he ought to take an Oath in hac verba, viz. You ſhall ſwear to ſerve the King in ſuch a Ward, in the Office of an Alderman, of which you are Elected. You ſhall duly come to the Court of Orphans and Huſtings, if you be not hindred by command of the King, or any other lawful cauſe. You ſhall give good Counſel to the Mayor. You ſhall not ſell Bread, Ale, Wine, or Fiſh by retail. And ſet forth a Cuſtome, That if any perſon be choſen Alderman, he ſhall be called to the Court, and the Oath tendred to him: And if he refuſe to take it, that he ſhall be committed till he take the Oath. And then ſet forth, That Langham being a Freeman, and having taken the Oath of a Freeman, was debito modo electus Alderman of ſuch a Ward, and being habilis et idoneus 1. Feb. was called to the Court of Aldermen, and the Oath tendred him, and that he refuſed to be ſworn, in contemptum Curiæ et contra Conſuetudines; Wherefore according to the Cuſtome he was committed. It was ſaid, That this was an inſufficient Return for the matter of it, for he is Impriſoned generally untill he takes the Oath, which utterly takes away the Liberty of the Subject, for by this means he may be Impriſoned for ever. 2. There is no notice given him that he was choſen Alderman. And 3. The Oath is naught, being unreaſonable: For he ought to forſwear his Trade; For if he did ſell Bread, Ale, Wine, or Fiſh before, he muſt ſwear he ſhall never ſell them by retail afterwards, which is very unreaſonable; for perhaps he may be impoveriſhed afterwards, and ſo neceſſitated to uſe his Trade, or otherwiſe to periſh. But the Opinion of all the Juſtices upon Argument in Court was, That the Return was good, and that the Oath was reaſonable (ſee the reaſons in the Book at large). And that the Court being a Court of Record, might lawfully commit him for refuſing to take the ſaid Oath; and that ſuch Commitment upon ſuch a refuſal, had bin admitted and practiſed, and divers Preſidents vouched to that purpoſe. Wherefore he was remaunded to Priſon. Hill. 17 Car. in B. R. Langhams Caſe. Mayſh. 179. to 191.

10. Barnardiſton being removed by the Bayliffs and Common Council of Colcheſter from his place of Recorder of the ſaid Town, had thereupon a Writ of Reſtitution granted him; upon the Return of which they ſet forth divers cauſes why they removed him. As, 1. That at a Quarter Seſſions, one A. being endicted and convicted for having two Wives, he prayed his Clergy, which was denyed by him; and being Condemned, and Reprieved, notwithſtanding that Judgment, he was afterwards admitted by him to his Clergy. 2. That he neglected to ſit at the publick Seſſions of the Peace, ſo as they could not be held for the Town. 3. He neglected a long time to ſit in Court, whereby cauſes ready for Tryal could not be tryed in delay of Juſtice. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That although ſome of theſe Cauſes might be ſufficient Cauſes to deprive him of his place: Yet in regard they had not proceeded againſt him in a legal way, for he was never called to anſwer the Crimes objected againſt him: and they ought to have convented him, and hear what excuſe he could make before they put him from his place; for he might have ſome juſt cauſe of his abſence or doing. It was the Judgment of the Court, That he ſhould be reſtored to his place of Recorder of the ſaid Town. Paſc. 1655. in B. R. Barnardiſton and the Town of Colcheſters Caſe. Style, 447.

11. Yates and five other Freemen of the Town of Kingſton upon Thames, being Diſfranchiſed by the Corporation there; they prayed a Writ of Reſtitution, which was granted: Upon which a Return was made, whereby they ſet forth the cauſe of their Diſfranchiſement to be this, viz. That there was a difference amongſt the Corporation about making an Attorney of their Court, at a Court holden for the ſaid Town; and there was like to be a Tumult about this matter. Whereupon the Bayliffs did adjourn the Court, and commanded all parties there to depart, and they with thoſe of their party went away. But Yates and the parties Diſfranchiſed ſtayed there, and ſaid the Court was not diſſolved, and did affirm they were a Court, and thereupon did make divers Acts of Courts, and cauſed them to be entred in the Court-book. And in their Return, That for ſuch Offences, perſons, by the Cuſtome, have bin from time to time removeable. This Caſe being long and often debated, and long depending; The Lord Chief Juſtice gave the Reſolution of the Court therein, and ſaid, That they were all of Opinion, That here was good cauſe to Diſfranchiſe the parties for entring Orders made by a pretended Court, which in truth was no Court, for the ſame was very prejudicial to the Corporation, and to the ill example angle of others to diſturb the Government. But Cuſtome is the main cauſe of Diſtranchiſing any perſon, for thereby the party loſeth his Freehold, and therefore not to be put in practice, but upon very good Warrant. But in the Principal Caſe, there appears no ſuch Cuſtome upon the Retorn. For the Retorn is, That for ſuch Offences the parties have uſed to be removeable and diſchargeable, which is meerly imaginary; and a thing in Fieri, and not in facto, or in uſage, and ſo it is a dead thing in the Womb which never had birth; and the Corporation hath not ſhewed, that it was at any time put in practice, or have made any direct affirmation of the Cuſtome. Wherefore it was the Opinion of the whole Court, That the Retorn was inſufficient, and that Yates and the others ſhould be reſtored to their Freedomes, &c. Mich. 1655. in B. R. Yates and the Town of Kingſton upon Thames Caſe. Styles 477. to 481.

12. Foreman, a Barriſter of one of the Temples, was expelled the houſe, and his Chamber ſeiſed for non payment of his Commons. Thereupon he prayed a Writ of Reſtitution, and brought the Writ ready framed into Court, which was directed to the Benchers of that Society. But the Court denyed to grant the Writ, becauſe there is none in the Inn of Court to whom the Writ can be directed, becauſe it is no body Politick, but only a voluntary Society, and ſubmiſſion to Government. And the Court ſeemed angry, that he had waived the ancient and uſual way of Redreſs for any grievance in the Inns of Court, which was by appealing to the Judges, and wiſhed the party ſo to do. Hill. 17 Car. in B. R. Foreman's Caſe. Marſh. 177.

13. One was choſen to be Clark of a Pariſh Church, who had continued there four years Clark, but was never ſworn. Now a new Parſon of the Church put him out, and ſwore another in his place. A Writ of Reſtitution was prayed, and the Caſe was compared to Diſfranchiſement, where Reſtitution lyeth. But the Court denyed to grant the Writ: And the Chief Juſtice ſaid, That the Parſon had no power to put him out, for that it is a Temporal Office with which the Parſon hath not to do. And ſaid, That the Clark had his remedy at Law. Wherefore they would not award a Writ of Reſtitution; but if the Clark was never ſworn, they would award a Mandate to ſwear him. Trin. 17 Car. in B. R. Marſh. 101.

14. A Mandamus was directed to the Maſter and Fellows of Gonvile and Cayus Colledg in Cambridg, to reſtore one to an Ushers place of a Free-School in Cambridge, of which they are Viſitors. It was excepted againſt the Retorn, That they had not ſhewed that they had any Authority to deprive the party of his place, nor doth it appear that they gave him notice of their proceedings. And it was ſaid, That this was a publick Office, & not a private, & tended much to the publick good, like the Caſe of an Alderman, or a Freeman of a Corporation. It was ſaid on the other ſide, That this was a Temporal Office for which he had his remedy at Law, and alſo that the Maſter and Fellows are no Corporation, ſo no Writ can be awarded to them. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That a Writ did not lye to reſtore him; for by the ſame Rule as the ſchoolmaſter ſhould be reſtored, every Scholler may claim to be reſtored: And it was the Opinion of the Court, That the Viſitors might remove the Maſter of the School if he obſerve not the Rules and Government of the School: and it is as reaſonable for them to turn out the Maſter or Uſher, as to receive them in. The matter was referred to the Chancellor of the Univerſity. Trin. 1655. in B. R. Craford and the Maſter and Fellows of Gonvile and Cayus Colledg Caſe. Styles 457.

15. In an Ejectione firme, a Verdict being found for the Plaintiff. There was afterwards an Agreement made between the Plaintiff and the Defendant, That the Defendant ſhould hold the Land recovered for the Remainder of the Term to come, and according to this Agreement, he held it for two years; but afterwards, before the Term expired, the Plaintiff took out an Habere facias poſſeſſionem, and executed it. It was moved to the Court, That the Defendant might have a Rule for Reſtitution; but it was denyed by the Court, for they ſaid, That the party might have his Action upon the Caſe againſt the Plaintiff for not performing his Agreement. Hil. 1654. in B. R. Wood and Markham Caſe. Styles 408.

3. Reſtitution; Where awarded upon Indictments upon the Statute of 8 H. 6. of Forcible Entry; Where not. And where Reſtitution ſhall be by Act of Parliament, and ſhall avoid all mean Acts: Where not.

1. NOte, It was the Opinion of the Juſtices of the Kings Bench, That notwithſtanding that a Traverſe be tendred to an Indictment upon the Statute of 8 H. 6. of Forcible Entry, That they may either Grant or ſtay the Writ of Reſtitution at their diſcretion, according as the truth of the Title doth appear unto them. Mich. 3 Ma. Dyer, 122.

2. If complaint be made to three Juſtices of Peace at their Quarter Seſſions of a Forcible Entry, and a Forcible Deteyner, and the Indictment is found. It is a Quære, If the Juſtices who were abſent, might Grant a Writ of Reſtitution in ſuch Caſe. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That if the Seſſions was a ſpecial Seſſions for that purpoſe. And the Juſtices to whom the complaint was made, had gone and viewed the Force according to the Statute, and after had enquired of it, and found it, and thereupon had Granted Reſtitution, That no other Juſtice in ſuch Caſe might Grant a Superſedeas to it, becauſe no other Juſtice hath Authority by the Statute to Grant Reſtitution, but thoſe to whom the complaint of the force is made: and before whom it is found. But the Juſtices of the Kings Bench who have Supream Authority, may grant a Superſedeas in ſuch Caſe. Mich. 3 Eliz. Dyer, 187. See Dalton Juſtice of Peace, 212, 213. acc. See Cook 9. Part, 118. in the Lord Sanchors Caſe, acc. And ſee Cook 11. Part, 59. in Dr. Foſters Caſe, acc.

3. The Statute of 8 H. 6. gave power to Juſtices of Peace to make Reſtitution, and thereby Juſtices of Oyer and Terminer, or Goal delivery, thereby ſhall not Grant Reſtitution: Yet if the Indictment be removed into the Kings Bench coram Rege, they ſhall award Reſtitution: And ſo it was Reſolved in 3 Eliz. in Daliſons Reports; And in 4 H. 7, 8. Reſtitution was awarded in ſuch Caſe. See 15 H. 7. 5. 7 E. 4. 18. acc.

4. The Court was moved to quaſh an Indictment of Forcible Entry, after the party who was Indicted, had pleaded, and a Verdict found againſt him. The Court ſaid, That they are not to quaſh Indictments for every ſmall fault, and be ſo curious in the framing of Indictments. But ſaid, If one interrupt a long poſſeſſion with force, and the other regain by undue means, an Indictment lyes not againſt him for this, for this is but vim vi repellere. And after a Verdict, and before Judgment upon an Indictment of Forcible Entry; the party ought not to move for a Reſtitution. Mich. 24 Car. in B. R. Styles 136.

5. Poole, Dean of Exeter, was attainted of Treaſon, 31 H. 8. but he was not executed by any ſentence, but his poſſeſſions were forfeited by the Statute of 26 H. 8. another was put in his place, he and the Chapter confirmed the Feoffment of the Biſhop; and afterwards, the Attaindor of Poole was Repealed by Parliament, and the Biſhop dyed. There is a Quære in 3 Mali Dyer, 123. If the Succeſſor ſhould be bound by that Confirmation, the Dean being reſtored. See Cook 1. Part, Preſidents, 300. where it ſeems he ſhall be bound by it, becauſe the Confirmation is but a meer aſſent by Deed to the Grant.

6. Two Brothers were, the youngeſt had Iſſue a ſon, and was attainted of Treaſon, and Executed; Afterwards, the elder Brother (having good cauſe to have a Petition of Right to certain Lands being in the Kings hands before the Attaindor) dyed without Iſſue, the ſon of the younger Brother being his next heir in blood, who by the ſaid Attaindor of his father, is diſabled to the Title, or Right of Action of his Uncle: The Queſtion was, If his Right was extinct, and the Cauſe of Petition of Right determined? It was the Opinion of the Court, That ſo long as the Attaindor remained in force, that it was. Afterwards the ſon is reſtored by Parliament in blood, as heir to his Father, in theſe words, viz. That he and his heirs ſhall be from henceforth enabled only in blood, as ſon and heir to his ſaid father, and made only heir and heirs in blood to his ſaid father: And alſo, That the ſaid ſon and his heirs, ſhall be from henceforth enabled to demand, vik, have, hold, and enjoy all ſuch Lands, Tenements, &c. which at any time hereafter ſhall deſcend, come, remain, or revert from any collateral Anceſtor of his father, as if the Attaindor had not been: And if by the ſaid Act, the ſon ſhall be reſtored to the ſaid Right and Title of Petition, that was in his Uncle, as heir to him, was the doubt: Note, There was a Proviſo before the Saving That this Act of Reſtitution ſhall not extend to any Lands which were in the hands of the King, or of any other, by reaſon of the Attaindor. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That by theſe clauſes, the intent of the King, and of the Parliament, was liberal liberal to the party who was reſtored, ſo as he ſhould be enabled to have the Petition of Right which his Uncle had: And it was ſaid, That there was great equity therein; for that he, nor his Anceſtors from whom he claimed, had offended the King: And this Opinion of the Juſtices, to whom the Caſe was referred, was certified to the Queen accordingly. Paſch. 10 Eliz. Dyer, 274. Grayes Caſe.

7. If there be an Indictment of forcible Entry, if it appeareth that the Plaintiff had ſeiſin at the time of the Writ brought, there can be no Writ of Reſtitution; for the Statute ſaith, If he Entreth with force, or keep him out with force, &c. the principal Caſe was, That there was an Indictment, which was, That the Defendant, adtunc & adhuc, doth keep the poſſeſſion forcibly, whereas the Plaintiff was in poſſeſſion: And thereupon a Writ of Reſtitution was awarded, by reaſon of the word adhuc. See 9 E. 4. 19. Paſch. 15 Car. in B. R. Marſh 6.

Retorn of the Sheriff.

Retorn of the Sheriff upon ſeverall Writs: And what ſhall be ſaid to be a good Retorn upon the ſaid Writ? What not.

1. UPon an Habere facias Seiſinam in a Writ of Dower of the third part, the Sheriff retorned, That he offered to the Demandants, the Seiſin of the third part of the Tenements aforeſaid, and ſhewed to the Parties what made the third part, by metes and bounds, Incertain, according to the Tenour of the Writ, and they refuſed to receive them of him. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That the Entry of the Demandants was now lawful. And although Exception was taken to the Retorn, That it was incertain, and not good for Repugnancy; yet, upon the Retorn being read, and viewed, was allowed to be good: And the Court refuſed to Award an Habere facias Seiſinam de novo; for that, they ſaid, would be a new Preſidente, the like of which was not ſeen. Mich. 11 Eliz. Dyer, 278.

2. Note, in a Quare Impedit; although that it was found, Ex Officio, that the Church was full of B, who was a ſtranger to the Writ; and it doth not appear, Whether he came in by better Title, then the Plaintiff had: Yet the Plaintiff ought to have a general Writ to the Biſhop, and the Biſhop ought to execute it (prevail who can) and the Biſhop cannot retorn upon the Writ directed unto him, That the Church is full of another; for no Iſſue can be joyned between the Plaintiff and him, for he hath no day in Court, no more then the Sheriff can upon an Habere facias Seiſinam retorn, That another is Tenant of the Land by right, for that cannot come in Iſſue between the Demandant and him, and therefore he ought to execute the Writ, and ſo ought the Biſhop to do in the other caſe; and although that a third perſon hath right, yet they are excuſed, becauſe they have their Warrant by proceſs of Law, and then the parties may try their right as the Law requireth. Cook 6. Part, 52. Boſwell's Caſe.

3. A. and his Wife, Demandants againſt J. S. in Dower of a Freehold in Munden magna, Munden parva, and D. the Sheriff retorned Pledg. de proſequend. J. D. R. R. and the names of the Summoners, J. D. R. F. and after the Summons made, and by the ſpace of 14. dayes and more, before the Retorn of the Writ, at the moſt uſual Church door of Munden magna, where part of the Tenements lay, upon the 27. of October, being the Lords Day, immediately after Service ended in that Church, he publiquely proclaimed all and ſingular things contained in the Writ, to be proclaimed according to the form of the Statute in that behalf made and provided. Exception was taken to the Retorn, becauſe that Proclamations was not made at the doors of the Churches where the Land lay: but it was ſufficient, to make Proclamation at any of the Churches by the Opinion of the Court; but becauſe he ſaid, he had cauſed to be proclaimed all and ſingular in the Writ contained; It was holden, That the Retorn was inſufficient, becauſe he did not expreſſe what. Hill. 13 Jac. C. B. Allen and Walters Caſe, Brownlow, 1 Part, 127.

4. Upon a Capias directed to the Sheriff, the Sheriff retorned a Reſcous, but did not ſhew the place where the Reſcous was done; the Retorn was holden to be inſufficient, although he ſhewed in Certain the place where he arreſted the body of the party. Paſch. 5 E. 6. Dyer, 69.

5. Note: It was holden by the Court, That the Retorn of the Sheriff of a Reſcous made to his Baily Errant by theſe words, viz. Virtute iſtius Brevis, &c. mandam balivo meo itineranti, &c. qui mihi ſic reſpondit, quod arreſtavit, &c. and ſhewed the certain day, year, and place, &c. and that Reſcous was made, was no good retorn, becauſe the Arreſt is the proper Arreſt of the Sheriff himſelf, and no credit to be given to the ſaying, or anſwer of the Baily Errant; otherwiſe it is of the Baily of a Franchiſe: And in the principal Caſe, It was holden, That if it be upon a Capias ad ſatisfaciend. or upon a Capias ut Legatum after Judgment, the Sheriff himſelf ſhall be charged with an Eſcape; except it be by the Kings Enemies. Trin. 7 Eliz. Dyer, 241.

6. Upon an Extendi facias upon a Statute Staple out of the Chancery, the Sheriff extended the Lands of the Defendant; and he priſed the Goods, and ſeiſed them into the Kings hand according to the Writ, but did not deliver them. Afterwards, a Writ of Prerogative came out of the Exchequer, commanding the Sheriff to levy 100 l. which the Defendant owed her upon his goods: and if he had not ſufficient goods, then to extend the Land: which Writ was delivered to the Sheriff after the day of Retorn of the firſt Writ; but the firſt Writ was not retorned, and the Sheriff retorned the whole Matter aforeſaid into the Exchequer: And the Sheriff was amerced for making ſuch ſpecial Retorn, and was forced to execute the Writ of Prerogative; for it was holden by the Court, That untill a Liberate, no property was in the Conuſee: But it was ſaid, That the Goods being ſeized into the hands of the King for the uſe of the party, they were privileged from all other Executions, but that of the King only. M. 3 E 6. Dyer, 67. Stringfellowes Caſe.

7. Note: It was Reſolved and adjudged, That when Judgment is given againſt Executors; and upon the Fieri facias, the Sheriff retorns, Nulla bona, that the Plaintiff may have a ſpecial Writ of Fieri facias; ſcil. That the Sheriff levy the debt of the goods of the deceaſed; Et ſi ſibi conſtare poterit, That the Executors have waſted the Goods, then of their own goods, becauſe that in ſuch a caſe, if the Sheriff make a falſe Retorn, the party may have his remedy by an Action upon the Caſe, Cook 5. Part, 32. Pettifers Caſe.

8. Matthew Herbert acknowledged a Recognizance to the King of 3000 l. and dyed, after his death, a Scire facias iſſued againſt the Executors, Teſtamenti et ultimæ voluntatis prædict. Mathæi et hæred. terrarum et tenementorum quæ fuit fuerint; and at the day, the Sheriff retorned, That he had not Executors. But Scire feci Willielmo Herbert Militi fil. et hæred. dict. Mathæi quod ſit, &c. William made default, and Judgment upon that default was given for the King, quod recuperet verſus dict. Will. Herbert, &c. And thereupon Errour was brought, and 3 Errors aſſigned: 1. That the Scire facias was hæred. terrarum et tenementorum, which was improper, and againſt Law; for always one is ſaid Heir to his Anceſtor, and not to the Land; and it cannot be ſaid that he is Filius or conſanguineus et hæres Manerii dict D. 2. Admitting the Writ good, Then forasmuch as the Writ requireth, Quod Scire facias hæred. terrarum et tenementorum, &c. And the Retorn of the Sheriff, Quod Willielmo Herbert Militi fil. et hæred. prædict. Mathæi, is not good, becauſe he doth not retorn him Heir of any Lands or Tenements; for his Warrant is not to ſummon the Heir of the ſaid Matthew, but the Heir of the Lands and Tenements of the ſaid Matthew, and each Retorn ought to anſwer the point of the Writ. 3. Admitting the Writ and the Retorn good, yet the Judgment was not good, becauſe it was general, where it ought to have been ſpecial; for by ſuch Judgment, his own Lands ſhould be charged. But theſe Points were not Reſolved by the Court. Cook 3. Part, 35. Sir William Herberts Caſe.

9. A. ſeiſed of a Houſe in London, took a Wife, and afterwards acknowledged a Recognizance to the Chamberlain of the City of London, according to the Cuſtome, for Orphanage-money; and afterwards acknowledged another Recognizance to B, before the Recorder and Mayor of the Staple: B. ſued Execution upon his Recognizance, and had a Liberate, but the ſame was not retorned, and the Sheriff upon that delivered the ſaid Houſe to B: The Succeſſor of the Chamberlain ſued forth Execution upon his Recognizance by Elegit, to a Sergeant of the Mace, immediate Officer to the ſaid Court, and had the moyty of the houſe delivered to him in Extent; A. the Conuſor dyed, his Wife had the Houſe delivered to her for her Dower. Afterwards the Wife dyed, The Chamberlain aſſigned his Intereſt over to F; and afterwards B. the other Conuſee aſſigned his Intereſt over to F: The Heir of the Conuſor, let the houſe to the Plaintiff; The Defendant under the Title of F. entred. In this Caſe, (amongſt other things) It was Reſolved, 1. That the Execution ſued forth upon the Elegit, was good, without giving notice to B. the other Conuſee, or having a Scire facias againſt him, becauſe that the firſt Execution was not retorned, nor appeared to the Court. But if it had been retorned, and appeared to the Court, then there ought to have been a Scire facias againſt him. 2. Reſolved, That the Execution of the Liberate was void; although that the Writ was not retorned. And ſo it was ſaid, It is of a Capias ad ſatisfaciend. and Habere facias poſſeſſionem, and of all other Writs where Land is to be delivered, Seiſin had, or goods ſold, although that the Writs be never retorned: but otherwiſe it is, where an Enqueſt is to be taken, there it ought to be retorned, as in an Elegit, to the in-

ment that the Court may judge of the ſufficiency of the Inquiſition. Cook 4. Part, 67. Falwoods Caſe. Cook 5. Part, 90. Hats Caſe, acc.

19. Errour upon a Judgment in C. B. in a Præcipe quod reddat: And aſſigned for Errour, for that by the Statute of 31 El. z. Cap. 13. It is Enacted, That for avoiding of ſecret Summons in reall Actions, without convenient Notice of the Tenants of the Freehold, that after every ſummons upon the Land in any reall Action, 14. dayes at the leaſt before the Retorn thereof, Proclamations of ſummons ſhall be made on a Sunday, at or near the moſt uſual Doore of the Church or Chappell of that Town or Pariſh where the Land whereupon the Summons was made, doth lye; and theſe Proclamations ſo made as aforeſaid, &c. ut in Statuto. And in this caſe, there was not any Proclamation made at the Church-door; Whether the Plaintiff ſhall have an Averment againſt the Retorn of the Sheriff, was the Queſtion? It was adjudged, That the party ſhall not have an Averment againſt the Retorn of the Sheriff; for if the Retorn be falſe, the party ſhall have an Action upon the Caſe againſt the Sheriff. Hill, 42 Eliz. in B. R. Collet and Marſh's Caſe, Goldeſb. 128.

11. Note: If a man have Judgment to have a Retorn upon a Nonſuit in a Replevin, and the Plaintiff brings a Second Deliverance, this is a Superſedeas to the Retorn; yet the Defendant in the firſt Replevin ſhall have a Writ to enquire of the Damages, which ſhall not be ſtayed by the ſecond Deliverance: but if he have Judgment in the ſecond Deliverance, then it ſhall be retorned Irreplevisable, and he ſhall recover Dammages. Hil. 43 Eliz. in C.B. Goldeſb. 185.

12. In a Writ of Partition, It was found for the Plaintiff; And a Writ was awarded to the Sheriff, That he ſhould make the Partition; and the Sheriff did thereupon allot part of the Lands in ſeverality; and for other part of the Lands, the Jurours would not aſſiſt him to make the Partition: All which appeared upon the Retorn of the Sheriff. And an Attachment was prayed againſt the Jurours, and a new Writ prayed to the Sheriff. The Court doubted what to do in the Caſe, and took time to be adviſed upon both Points. Hill. 13 Jac. in C. B. Rogell and Harry's Caſe. Godbolt, 265.

13. A. recovered againſt B. in an Action of Battery; for which a Capias pro fine, iſſued againſt B. and alſo a Capias ad ſatisfaciend. retornable the ſame Term at one and the ſame Retorn. As to the Capias pro fine, the Sheriff retorned a Cepi; and as to the Capias ad ſatisfaciendum, Non eſt inventus. For this Contrariety, the Court was of Opinion, That the Sheriff ought to be Amerced. But it was moved for the Sheriff, That the Awarding of the Capias pro fine, was meerly void: For the Fine was pardoned by Parliament. And it was alſo Enacted, That all Proceſs awarded upon ſuch Fines, ſhould be void, and then the Capias pro fine being void; it matters not in what manner it be retorned; for the Court ſhall not regard ſuch Proceſs, nor any Retorn of it, and then the Court not having any reſpect to that Retorn, there is not any Contrariety; for the Capias ad ſatisfaciendum only is retorned, and not the Capias pro fine. But it was the Opinion of the Court, That the Capias pro fine was well awarded, and the Court ought to regard it, and the Defendant lawfully taken by it, and alſo in Execution for the party in Judgment of Law, and that afterwards when the Parliament came, and Enacted, ut ſupra, although the Proceſs be made void thereby, the ſame ought to be meant as to the Intereſt of the King. in the Fine, and the vexation of the Subject by it; but not as to the Execution of the party, but the Sheriff ſhall anſwer for that. It was alſo holden by the Court in that caſe, That if the Plaintiff ſueth an Elegit upon a Capias pro fine executed, the Defendant ſhall not be adjudged in Execution for the party; for he hath made his Election of another manner of Execution; ſcil. of the Land, and he ſhall never reſort to have Execution of the body Paſch. 29 Eliz. in B. R. Hudſon and Leigh's Caſe. Leon. 51.

14. In Trover and Converſion, the Defendant pleaded, That A. recovered in Debt againſt J. P. Executor of E. P. 100 l. and 20 l. damages; the Debt of the Goods of the Teſtator, and the damages of the Goods of the Teſtator ſique fuerint, and if not of the Goods of the Executor. Upon which, A. procured a Fieri facias directed to the Sheriff of N, who made his Warrant to the Defendant, to execute his Writ. And before Execution, J. P. dyed Inteſtate, and Adminiſtration was committed to the Plaintiff, and the Defendants afterwards did Execution of the proper Goods of J. P. and ſold them, and delivered the money to the Sheriff; and averred, That E. P. had no other goods. The Plaintiff Replyed, That the Sheriff upon the Retorn of the Writ of Execution, retorned as to the principal debt, That the goods of the Teſtator were waſted; and as to the damages, that he could not execute the Writ, quia tardè: In this Caſe it was holden, That the falſe retorn of the Sheriff, ſhould not prejudice the Defendants. And at another day it was holden, That the Averment, that the Goods, put in Execution, were the goods of the Teſtator the day of the Writ of Execution ſued, was a good Averment, without ſaying, The day of the Execution done; for the Award of the Writ of Execution ſhall bind all his Goods againſt whom the Judgment was given, which he had at the day of the Writ of Execution awarded. And it was holden in this Caſe, That, notwithſtanding the death of the party againſt whom, the Sheriff might do Execution of the goods of the dead in the hands of his Executors: And afterwards Judgment was given againſt the Plaintiff. Trin. 31 Eliz. in B. R. Park. and Moſſe and Howes Caſe. Leon. 144, 145.

Writ

15. In an Ejectione Firme, Judgment was given for the Plaintiff: And upon Habere facias Poſſeſſionem, the Sheriff retorned, That in the Execution of the ſaid Writ, he took the party with him, and came to the houſe, recovered, and removed thereout a Woman and two Children, which were all the perſons, which, upon diligent ſearch, he could find in the houſe, and delivered to the Plaintiff peaceable poſſeſſion, to his thinking, and afterwards he departed, and immediately 3. other perſons which were ſecretly lodged in the houſe, expelled the Plaintiff again: Upon Notice of which, he returned to the houſe, to put the Plaintiff in full poſſeſſion; but the other did reſiſt him, ſo as without perill of his life, and of them that were with him, he could not do it: Upon this Retorn, the Court awarded a new Writ of Execution; for that the ſame was no Execution of the firſt Writ: and alſo awarded an Attachment againſt the parties. Trin. 31 Eliz. in B. R. upton and Wells Caſe. Leon. 145.

16. Scire facias in Chancery. Upon a Recognizance by one C; the Defendant was retorned dead; Whereupon a ſecond Scire facias iſſued againſt the Heir of C, and againſt the Terr-Tenants of the Lands of C. which he had tempore Recognitionis, vel poſtea: Whereupon the Sheriff retorned the Defendant Terr-Tenant of ſuch Lands, and omitted to retorn any thing concerning the Heir; Upon which, the Defendant pleaded, That the ſaid C. had nothing in the Lands at the time of the ſaid Recognizance, or after. Upon this, being at Iſſue in Chancery, and ſent in B. R. to be tryed; It was found for the Plaintiff, That C. dyed ſeiſed, and a Verdict for the Plaintiff. It was the Opinion of 3. of the Juſtices, That the Retorn was not good, becauſe the Plaintiff names and ſet forth, That there is an Heir, and there is no Retorn quoad the Heir, ſo as to him it is Pur ſi album breve, and no Retorn; and it is not aided by any the Statutes of Jeofails. But Crook, Juſtice, conceived, The Defendant ſhould not take advantage thereof; for having pleaded, and the Iſſue being found againſt him, he ſhall not now take advantage for not retorning the Heir to be ſummoned; for it may be that there is not an Heir, or that the Heir hath no Land, or may not be found. Wherefore ad informandum Curiam, Whether there was an Heir, a new Scire facias was awarded: Upon the Retorn of which, It was agreed by the whole Court, That although the Retorn had been better, if it had been found who was Heir, and that he was warned, or that there was not any Heir in the Country; yet it was well enough: For anciently, the Scire facias was only againſt the Terr-Tenant, and the Heir was not charged in the Scire facias but as Terr-Tenant: and if the Retorn be not good or formal, yet it is aided by the Statute of Jeofails; and the Miſ-retorn or inſufficient Retorn of the Sheriff alſo, quoad the Heir, (becauſe he is not named in the Retorn) is but a diſcontinuance, which is aided by the Statute of Jeofails. Wherefore the Court ſaid, There was no Cauſe to ſtay the Judgment. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Trin. 7 Car. in B. R. Eyres and Tauſtons Caſe, Cro. 1. Part, 215, and 228.

17. In an Ejectione Firme, it was found, That J. S. Tenant in tail of Lands, was bound in a Recognizance in the nature of a Statute Staple, to W. B. who, 21 Jac. made Eliz. T. his Executrix, and dyed: 1. July, 1 Car. The Executrix proved the Will; and 9. July, 1 Car. ſued out an Extendi facias retornable in Chancery, Oct. Mich. That before the Retorn of the Writ, viz. 17. Aug. 1 Car. Eliz. the Executrix dyed; and that, 22. Sept, 1 Car. the Sheriff virtute Brevis, took an Inquiſition, by which it was found, That the ſaid J. S. was ſeiſed in Fee to him and the Heirs males of his body, of the Land in queſtion at the time of the Recognizance, of the value of 14 l. 4 s. 10 d. and at the day retorned this Inquiſition into the Chancery: They find, that 19. Aug. 1 Car. Adminiſtration of the Goods of W. B. not adminiſtred by Eliz. T. (who dyed Inteſtate) was committed to R. T. Adminiſtrator; which was retorned, That 2. Junii, 2 Car. the Sheriff delivered the ſaid Lands to the Adminiſtrator Tenendum according to the ſaid Extent, whereby he entred, and was ſeiſed, &c. And that the ſaid J. S. entred, and let to the Plaintiff, whereby he entred, and was poſſeſſed, untill the ſaid R. T. the Adminiſtrator oſted him, &c. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices in this Caſe, 1. That his Extent and Liberate were void; for the Extent being ſued by the Executrix upon the Statute made to her Teſtator, and ſhe dying before the Inquiſition taken; The Inquiſition taken after the death of her that ſued it was void: For the Writ is, to apprize and ſeize into the Kings hand, ut ea Liberari faciamus to the Executrix; and ſhe being before the Inquiſition was taken, the Inquiſition taken after and retorned, is void. See 36 H. 6.

P.

Pr. Statute Merchant, 43. 2. If the Extent be not void, yet the Liberate is not well executed, to deliver it to the Adminiſtrator: For the Executrix ſuing it as Executrix to W. B. the Teſtator, and ſhe dying Inteſtate, this Writ is ſued by the Adminiſtrator, who comes paramount her, and claiming immediately from the firſt Inteſtate, cannot, upon this Extent ſued by the Executrix, have the Liberate; but ought to begin de novo, and to procure a new Certificate, and a new Extent and Liberate. Trin. 11 Car. in B. R. Clive and Veers Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 325, 329.

18. A Venire facias was awarded to the Coroners, whereas it ought to have been awarded to the Sheriff, and ſo the Jurors were retorned by one who had not authority. It was adjudged an inſufficient Tryal, and not remedied by the Statutes of 32 H. 8. or 18 Eliz. of Jeofails. But if the Venire facias had been awarded ex aſſenſu partium, then it had been good; for that aſſenſus tollit Errores. Goodwyne and Franklins Caſe, vouched in Cook 5. Part, in Boysbams Caſe, 37.

19. In Debt after Verdict, it was ſhewed to the Court, That Robert Moore was retorned upon the Scire facias, and ſo named in the Diſtringas; but in the Pannell before the Juſtices of the Niſi Prius, he was named Robert Moriee, and ſo upon the Poſtea: It was Reſolved, If it may appear upon the Examination, that his right name was Robert Moore, ſo as he is well named in the Venire facias; and alſo that he was the ſame man that was retorned & ſworn; that in ſuch caſe, the Poſtea ſhould be amended. Mich. 35 Eliz. in B. R. Cook 5. Part, 41, 42. The Counteſſe of Rutlands Caſe.

20. In an Ejectione Firmæ, after Verdict, It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That upon the Venire facias, no Retorn was endorſed, nor any name of any Sheriff appeared upon the back of the Writ, nec quod Executio patet in quodam Panello, but a Panel of the Jurors with their Mainpernors, was annexed to the ſaid Writ. Alſo a Tales was awarded, and a Pannell annexed to the Tales, but no Retorn of them, nor name of the Sheriff to it; but the Poſtea made mention, that they were retorned per Mandatum Juſtic. It was Reſolved, That the ſame would not ſerve; For the Sheriff ought to retorn the Jurours, and the Tales alſo; and where there is not any Retorn, the ſame is not remedied by the Statute of 18 Eliz. nor any other Statute. Mich. 36 Eliz. in B. R. Cook 5. Part, Rowlands Caſe.

21. Errour of a Judgment in Carnarvan: It was aſſigned, That 12 Jac. a Venire facias was retorned in this manner, Per Thomam Revenſcroft Vicecomitem: Iſtud Breve cum panello mihi deliberata fuit, per Tho. Hanmer Militem, nuper vicecomit. in exitu ab Officio ſuo; et ſic indorſatur; Thomas Hanmer Miles, nuper Vicecomes. It was Objected, That it was retorned by one who had not authority, and ſo was as no Retorn; or as if it had been retorned a Blank. But the Court held: That it was good enough: For it appears by the Retorn, That he was Sheriff next before Tho. Revenſcroft: For the Plaintiff at the Aſſizes, in July before, put in his Challenge, That Tho. Hanmer then Sheriff, was Coſen to him; and ſhewed how: and therefore prayed a Venire facias to the Coroners, and the Defendant denyed the Couſinage: Whereupon a Venire facias was awarded to the Sheriff. And then when, in exitu Officii, he delivered that Writ, Retorned Tho. Hanmer, Miles, it is ſufficient to ſatisfie the Statute: For he need not alledg his name of Office. Now the Statute appoints, That he who retorns, ſhall add his name to the Retorn; which is ſufficient, if it be his Chriſtian and Sirname; and his name of Office is not requiſite: and then the word, Nuper Vicecomes, ſhall not make the Retorn void: And the word, Nuper vicecomes, doth neceſſarily imply, that he was not then Sheriff at the time of the delivery of the Writ to the new Sheriff: Whitlock, Juſtice, doubted of it; therefore Curia aviſare vult. Paſch. 6 Car. in B. R. Bethell and Parry's Caſe, Cro. 1. Part, 136, 137, 412, acc.

22. In a Scire facias to have Execution of a Recognizance; The Caſe was, a ſpecial Supplicavit for the Peace was directed out of the Chancery to A. and B. Juſtices of the Peace, and to the Sheriff of the County of &c. to take a Recognizance of L. M. and N. for the Peace and good Behaviour; And the Commiſſion was to A. B. and the Sheriff, & cuilibet eorum: The Supplicavit was delivered to the two Juſtices, who took a Recognizance from L. but M. and N. could not be found; The Sheriff was afterwards out of his Office, the new Sheriff made a Retorn, That M. and N. non ſunt inventi in Balliva mea; and alſo Retorned, That A. and B. had taken a Recognizance of L. as appeareth per quandam ſchedulam huic annex. in hac verba: The Queſtions in this Caſe were. 1. Whether the Sheriff (as this Caſe is) may only make the Retorn? 2. Admitting that he cannot, but the ſame being Retorned, and the Chancery accepting of it, and ſending it to this Court, Whether we cannot damn the Record. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That this is a ſpecial Recognizance, grounded upon the grievance of the party, and by the Kings Commiſſion, they are made ſpecial Judges in this Caſe; and when the party, who ſues the ſame, delivers it to the two Juſtices, the Sheriff cannot intermeddle therewith, for then the Juſtices ought to Retorn the Recognizance by vertue of that Commiſſion, and they to whom the Writ is firſt directed, they are only to execute it, and Retorn it. And as to the ſecond point, although the Record is in the Chancery, and the party hath pleaded to it, yet we cannot accept of it here, if it have not due proceedings, and if the Record come not in duly, then the Court is never ſeized of the Record: Ley Chief Juſtice, was of Opinion contrary to the other Juſtices, wherefore the Caſe was adjourned, Trin. 21 Jac. in B. R. Leonards Caſe. Godbolt, 355, 356.

Sheriff

23. A Writ of Partition was brought upon the Statute of 32 H. 8. The Defendant confeſſed the Partition, and a Writ awarded to the Sheriff, quod fiat partitio; The Sheriff Retorned the Partition made by 12 men; One of the parties did ſuggeſt an unequality in the Partition, and prayed a new Writ. In 6 E. 6. Dyer, 73. It is a Quære, if it ſhall be granted: But ſee Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 171. that Quære Reſolved, and that the Partition ſhall ſtand good, being made by Writ.

24. A Writ of falſe Judgment was brought in the Common Pleas, upon a Judgment given in ancient Demeſne, in a Writ of Right Cloſe, there proſecuted in the nature of a Writ of Aiel; and divers Errors were aſſigned, and amongſt others, 1. That there was no Officer named in the Award, or Retorn of the Summons. 2. No day is fixed to the Tenant in the Summons. 3. No names of the Summoners were Retorned. The Court upon examination of theſe and other Errors, awarded that the Judgment ſhould be Reverſed, and the party reſtored, but without Coſts or Damages, Trin. 9 Eliz. Dyer, 262.

25. Note, It was holden per Curiam, That although a man cannot aver contrary to that which is Retorned by the Sheriff; yet he may ſay, That he who hath Endorſed his Name on the back of the Writ Retorned, was not Sheriff; becauſe that by the Common Law, until the Statute of E. 2. no Sheriff nor Officer uſed to put their names to the Returns; and therefore, the averment, that he who made the Retorn was not true Officer, is not taken away by any Statute, but the ſame remains as a thing at the Common Law. Paſch. 1 Jac. in B. R. in Arundel and Arundels Caſe. Yelverton, 33, 34.

26. A man had Judgment in the Kings Bench in an Action upon the Caſe; and upon a Writ of Enquiry upon Damages to the Sheriff of N. the Writ was, Præceptum eſt Vicecom. quod per Sacrament. 12 bonorum & legalium hominum de Baliva ſua diligenter inquirat, quæ damna &c. The Sheriff retorned, Quod mandavit J. S. Balivo Libertatis J. D. Militis Hundred. de B. cui executio præſ. Brevis totaliter reſtat ſiendo, & quod alias infra Com. prædict. fieri non potuit. Qui quidem Baliva ſic ſibi reſpondit; and ſets down an Inquiſition before the Bayliff, &c. Upon Error brought in the Exchequer Chamber, It was Reſolved by all the Judges, That the Retorn was inſufficient for it was apparently untrue, and againſt Law, becauſe the Warrant was directed to the Sheriff himſelf, to be executed in any part of his Shire, and no Venue is contained in this Inqueſt of Office, as there is in other Writs to entitle Bayliffs of Liberties. Trin. 12 Jac. in the Exchequer Chamber, Vavaſy and Gouſtones Caſe. Hob. 83.

27. Debt for 523 l. 17 s. againſt the Sheriff of S. and declared, That P. and others were bound in a Recognizance of 1000 l. to the Plaintiff, and that after Judgment, he ſued a Levari facias to the Defendant, which he delivered to him; whereupon the Defendant levyed the ſum, and at the day, Retorned Quod paratus habeo, and yet did not deliver it in Court, per quod &c. The Defendant quoad 308 l. pleaded Nihil debet; and to the reſt, that before the Retorn, he did pay to the Plaintiff the ſame ſum; whereupon the Plaintiff by his Acquittance, reciting that he had received it, did acquit him, upon which the Defendant did demur in Law. There were divers Queſtions in this Caſe, 1. Whether Debt would lye, becauſe there is no Contract betwixt the Plaintiff and the Sheriff? It was (as to that) Reſolved by the Court, That it would lye; for although there be no Action of Contract, yet there is a kind of Contract in Law; for when the money is levyed by the Sheriff, the Action ceaſeth againſt the Defendant, and the Action is ipſo facto tranſferred to the Sheriff, having both the Judgment to make it a debt, and the Levie to make him anſwerable. 2. It was holden, That the Defendants Plea to the 308 l. Nihil debet, was not good, becauſe it was contrary to the Retorn of Record. 3. Reſolved, That ſince the Defendant by his Retorn had charged himſelf with the whole money (paratus habeo) then to be delivered to the Plaintiff, he cannot now ſay, that it was paid and acquitted before. Trin. 15 Jac. in C. B. Spark and Richards Caſe. Hob. 206.

28. A. brought a Writ of Error againſt F. ſon and heir of F. P. upon Judgment had againſt him in a Writ of Waſte, at the ſuit of the ſaid J. P. and alſo of an Outlawry thereupon had againſt him for the ſame cauſe, and aſſigned two Errors. 1. Becauſe the Sheriff took the Enqueſt in the Town, and not upon the Land, according to the Statute. 2. Becauſe the Sheriff made a Precept to one Baylie to ſummon the Jury, who Retorned a pannel, which was Retorned as parcel of the Re-

ered, and the Sheriff took the Enquest by some who were not Returned by the Baylie. To the first it was said, That if the Sheriff cause the Jury to view the Waste, he may take the Enquest at another place. As to the second, it was said, That the Sheriff may vary from the Retorn of the Baylie; for the Sheriff himself is the person who makes the Array, who is also a Judge in this Case. Gascoigne said, That if the Sheriff had not made the Precept, and the Retorn by the Bayly had not been made parcel of the Record, it had been so; but he hath sent this Retorn as parcel of the Record, whereby he affirmeth the Retorn of the Baylie; and if he had Process against the Jury by Habeas Corpora, and had taken the Enquest by others, it had been Error, which was granted. It was the better Opinion the Retorn was not good. See 11 A. 4. 6. Cook 8. Part, 152. in Edward Altham's Case.

29. A Capias was directed to the Sheriff of London, to take the body of J. S. the Writ was Returnable die Jovis, which was All Souls day, and thereupon the Sheriff took the party, but he Returned, because that the Writ was Returnable upon a day that was not dies Juridicus, he suffered the party to go: It was holden by the Court, That the Retorn was insufficient; for the Writ was good, and the detaining of the party by vertue thereof was lawful, but yet he could not have the party there at the said day, wherefore the Sheriff was compelled to bring the party into Court, which after so he did accordingly. Mich. 2 Car. in B. R. Pasch. 205.

30. Webb was amerced at a Justice Seat in the Forrest, for putting his sheep there to pasture; he justified the doing of the same; for which his contempt he was fined; which fine being demanded of him, he refused to pay; for which he was committed to prison: He brought an Habeas Corpus: Upon which Returned, the matter appeared as before. Exceptions were taken to the Retorn. 1. Because it did not appear before whom the Justice Seat was held, as it ought to be by the Law of the Forrest. 2. Because it appeared not by the Retorn that this was an Offence within the Forrest. It was agreed by the Court, 1. That a man cannot have Common of Pasture for sheep, by the Forrest Law, unless it be by Prescription; and as to the Justice Seat, it is not material before whom it is held, if it be infra les bounders del Forrest, as Cook Chief Justice said. It was then prayed, That the party might be Bayled; which the Court would not do, but advise upon it; for if the Imprisonment be lawful, he is not Baylable; and he that justifies a wrong by Law, ought to have punishment for it: He was remanded to prison. Trin. 14 Jac. in B. R. Webb's Case. Bulstr. 3. Part, 213.

31. Doctor Alphonso being committed by the Colledge of Physitians in London, for practising of Physick, he had an Habeas Corpus, and was brought to the Bar, and thereupon the Retorn was read; upon the reading of which, it appeared to the Court, That the Retorn was insufficient; for no cause was therein shewed of his Commitment; and therefore the Court held it clearly to be insufficient. Then it was prayed on the behalf of the Colledge, that they might amend their Retorn: The Court answered, matter of form meerly in a Retorn, is amendable, but not matter of fact, which goes to the Justification of the Imprisonment; wherefore by the Rule of the Court, the Doctor was Bayled till the next Term, the Court conceiving it best for him; for if the Court should discharge him for the insufficiency of the Retorn, they would presently take him again, and commit him, and then amend their Retorn, and make it better; wherefore he was Bayled, and not absolutely discharged of his Imprisonment. Pasch. 12 Jac. in B. R. Dr Alphonso and the Colledge of Physicians in London's Case. Bulstrod. 2. Part, 259.

32. Upon a Capias utlegatum before Judgment, the Sheriff Returned, That J. S. and J. N. Rescoused the party: It was moved, That the Retorn was not good, for that there ought to be additions: But the Opinion of the Court was, That the Retorn was good without additions; for that no Statute nor Book doth compel the Sheriff to give additions in such case; and it was said, That if the Sheriff in this case Retorn, that the party himself simul cum J. S. & J. N. made the Rescous, that this is no good Retorn. In the Principal Case, the Rescouſſors being present in Court, were committed to the Fleet. Pasch. 19 Jac. in C. B. Homes and Halls Case. Winch. 10.

33. Quare Impedit against the Bishop of R. who pleaded, That he claimed nothing but as Ordinary; yet further pleaded, That the Clerk which the Plaintiff Presented, had before Contracted with the Plaintiff Symoniacally; and therefore, because he was Symoniacus, he refused him, and that the Church was then void, and so remained void; whereupon the Plaintiff had a Writ to the Archbishop of Canterbury, who Retorned, That before the coming of this Writ, the Church was full of one Dr G. ex Collatione of the said Bishop of R. which had collated by Lapse. It was holden by the Court, That this Retorn was insufficient, for that it is clear, That although the six moneths pass, yet if the Patron Present, the Bishop ought to admit, although it be after the Title devolved to the Metropolitan; and so it is, although the Title by Lapse accrued to the King as Supreme Ordinary: And in this Case, the Bishop (who is the Defendant) is bound by the Judgment, and the Writ is notwithſtanding the claim of the Biſhop, that he admit the Clerk, and the Biſhop is but as a ſervant, and ought to execute the Proceſs of the Court. Trin. 16 Jac. in C. B. Boston and the Biſhop of Rocheſters Caſe. Hutton 24.

34. Error brought to Reverſe a Judgment in the Palace Court at Weſtminſter, in an Action upon the Caſe: Two Errors were aſſigned, 1. That it is not ſhewed in the Declaration, That it was infra juriſdictionem Pallatii. 2. That there was not 15 days for the Retorn of the Venire facias, as there ought to be. Both Errors were over-ruled by the Court: For the firſt, It is good enough, becauſe the Court is alledged to be held by Letters Patents. And for the ſecond, The Court being holden by Letters Patents, the Venire may be Retorned within the 15 days, though by the uſual courſe of the Common Law it cannot be ſo. Trin. 23 Car. B. R. Moreſield and Webbs Caſe. Styles, 39, & 40.

35. A Proclamation was directed to the Sheriff of Cheſhire, againſt J. H. and the Writ was Retorned, Tali die ad Comitatum meum Tenement. in le Shirhall, &c. Proclamationem feci, ac eodem die ad generalem Seſſionem, &c. Proclamationem feci; and this matter was pleaded in avoydance of an Outlawry, to Reverſe it; becauſe theſe Proclamations were made one day, whereas the Writ was, Tribus ſpecialibus diebus, &c. It was holden by the Court to be an ill Retorn, and the Sheriff was amerced for it. Mich. 31 Eliz. in C. B. Goldsb. 111.

36. The Sheriff of a County made a Warrant Balivis ſuis, to arreſt the body of ſuch a man, and the Bayliffs of the Liberty Retorned a Reſcous: Exception was taken to it, becauſe it was Balivis ſuis, and the Retorn was made by thoſe who were not his Bayliffs: But it was adjudged, That the Retorn was good, for that the Liberty might be within his Bayliwick. Retraxit.

1. Retraxit is, when the Plaintiff or Demandant cometh in proper perſon into the Court where his Plea is; and ſaith, that he will not proceed further in the ſame Plea; this is a bar to that Action for ever.

2. A. brought a Quo minus in the Exchequer againſt B. It was found for the Plaintiff, and for default of a good Venue, the Judgment was ſtayed. Afterwards, A. by his Attorney entred a Retraxit, ſcil. Fatetur ſe in Curia ſic ulterius nolle proſequi; Upon which Judgment was given for the Defendant, Quod eat ſine die; but the Plaintiff was not amerced; Afterwards, A. brought a Writ of Error, and the Judgment was reverſed: And in that Caſe (amongſt other things) it was Reſolved, 1. That a Retraxit cannot be, unleſs the Demandant or Plaintiff be in Court in proper perſon; and it cannot be by an Attorney, becauſe a Retraxit is a perpetual Bar, and in the manner as a Releaſe: And Note, a Retraxit is alwayes on the part of the Plaintiff or Demandant, and a Departure in Court is alwayes on the part of the Defendant. 2. It was Reſolved, That in the Principal Caſe, the Plaintiff ought to have been amerced; for a Retraxit is a voluntary acknowledgment, that he hath not any cauſe of Action, and is a good Bar for ever; and becauſe the Plaintiff was not amerced, therefore it was Reſolved, That it was Error. 3. It was Reſolved, That if the Tenant do diſclaim, he ſhall not have a Writ of Error againſt his Diſclaimer; for by his Diſclaimer, he hath barred himſelf to have any right in the Land; and he cannot have Error, to have Reſtitution of the Land againſt his own Diſclaimer: But it was Reſolved in the Principal Caſe, That although that the Plaintiff had made a Retraxit in his own proper perſon, yet he might have a Writ of Error, either in the Judgment, or in the proceedings; for no Impereſection is ſaved in ſuch Caſe by any Statute, when Judgment is given in a Retraxit: And Note, The Entry of a Retraxit is in this manner, viz. Quod Querens in propria perſona ſua venit, & dicit quod ipſe placitum ſuum predict. verſus predict. defendentem ulterius proſequi non vult, ſed inde omino ſe Retraxit. Coke 8. Part, 58. Beecher's Caſe.

3. Debt upon an Obligation; the Defendant pleaded, That the Plaintiff himſelf in the Court of of P. (being a Court of Record) had brought debt upon the ſame Obligation againſt J. P. jun. wherein J. P. ſen. and J. P. jun. were joyntly and ſeverally bounden, for the payment of 40 l. After a Plea pleaded, the Plaintiff entred a Retraxit, and he avered, that it was the ſame Obligation, and that the ſaid J. P. jun. named in the Bond, and the ſaid J. P. againſt whom the Retraxit was, is one and the ſame perſon, and demanded Judgment, if againſt this Retraxit he ought to ſue; upon which it was demurred: It was argued, That this Retraxit was in nature of a Releaſe, and that the diſcharge of the one, was the diſcharge of the other. The Court was divided in Opinion; Crake Juſtice held, That it was neither a Releaſe in facto, nor in Law, but quaſi an Agreement, that he would not further proſecute. Barkley Juſtice held it was a good Bar, for it is a Bond joynt and ſeveral, and one of them being diſcharged, it cannot now be a joynt-Bond; wherefore the diſcharge quoad the one, is alſo a diſcharge quoad the other: There being no other Juſtices in Court, and the Court thus divided in Opinion, the Caſe was adjourned. Revive, and Reviver.

Where a thing once ſuſpended, or extinguiſhed ſhall be ſaid again to be revived, and where not.

1. Cranmer, Archbiſhop of Canterbury, made a Leaſe for years of parcel of the Manor of P. Afterwards, he granted a Rent-charge out of the ſaid Manor to Dr Butts for term of years: Dr Butts by his Will deviſed that the ſaid Archbiſhop ſhould have ſo much of the ſaid Rent, with the Arrearages thereof, as ſhould amount to 100 l. and if he dyed, or left his Biſhoprick, that the reſidue of the ſaid Rent ſhould remain to E. Butts his Nephew, to whom he gave and deviſed all his eſtate and intereſt in the ſaid Rent: E. Butts after the 100 l. levyed by the Archbiſhop by way of Retainer, diſtreined for the Rent, and made Avowry. It was holden in this Caſe, That admitting the Legacy and Aſſignment was good, yet the Avowry was not maintenable, for that the Rent and annuity was ſuſpended by the Gift and Legacy of the 100 l. to the Archbiſhop, whoſe perſon was chargeable to it, as well as the Land; and a thing perſonal ſuſpended, or an action perſonal ſuſpended, is gone for ever, eſpecially when it is by the act or conſent of the party himſelf, who hath the thing ſuſpended, and eſpecially of a thing againſt common Right, as this is; As if a Woman Obligee, or Obligor, marrieth with the party, and afterwards they are Divorced cauſa precontractus, yet the debt is extinct: But when it is by the Act of the Law, it is otherwiſe: As where a man condemned in Rediſſeiſin, was impriſoned by Outlawry of Felony, and afterwards pardoned, the execution of his body was (for the time he was Priſoner to the King) ſuſpended; but after the pardon granted, it was revived. Hill. 4 Mar. Dyer, 140. Cranmers Caſe.

2. Trewynnard, a Burgeſs of Parliament, was taken upon an Exigent after a Capias; and afterwards upon a Writ of Priviledge of Parliament, he was ſet at liberty. It was holden in this Caſe (amongſt other things) That after the Parliament was ended, he might be taken in Execution again; for that the Plaintiff ſhould not be prejudiced of his Execution by the Act of Law, which doth not wrong to any man. Paſch. 28 H. 8. Dyer 60.

3. Humfrey de Bohem, Earl of Eſſex, held Manors of the King by ſervice, to be Conſtable of England; he had Iſſue two daughters, and dyed; the daughters took husbands, and the husband of the youngeſt was made King; they made partition. It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That they ſhould have continuance in the other; for otherwiſe they ſhould have the two Manors without doing any ſervice for them: And it was holden in this Caſe, That if the father held of one of his two daughters, and dyed ſeized, and they make partition, if the Service be an entire Service, as Homage, &c. that the whole Service is revived. Trin. 11 Eliz. Dyer, 285. Humfrey de Bohems Caſe.

4. Two men were ſeized of two Cloſes adjoyning; one of them was bound by Preſcription to make the Incloſure, and he purchaſed the other Cloſe, ſo as there was an unity of poſſeſſion in him, and he ſuffered the Cloſes to lye open, unfenced, and had Iſſue two daughters, and dyed; they made partition of both Cloſes, and the one was allotted to one Siſter, and the other to the other, without making mention who ſhould make the Fence; and if the charge ſhould ſurvive, or was extinguiſhed, was a Quære in Mich. 13 Eliz. Dyer. It hath been ſince Reſolved, That in ſuch Caſe, the charge of making the Fence ſhould be revived, and ſhould charge that daughter who had that Cloſe. See Dyer, 295.

5. This Caſe was moved to the Court of Kings-Bench, If an Abbot hath a Parſonage which is appropriate in D, which is diſcharged of payment of Tythes; and afterwards the Abbot purchaſeth part of the Lands in the ſame Town and Pariſh where the Parſonage is. It was ſaid, That this Land ſo purchaſed, is diſcharged of Tythes in the hands of the Abbot; for the Tythes were ſuſpended during the poſſeſſion of the Abbot, in the hands of the Abbot. But after that, the Abby was ſurrendred into the Kings hands, Anno 30 H. 8. and afterwards the ſame poſſeſſions were given to King Henry 8. by the Statute of 31 H 8. Cap. 13. as they were in the hands of the Abbot. The Queſtion now was, Whether the Land ſo purchaſed by the Abbot before the Surrender, were diſcharged of payment of Tythes by the Statute, or not? It was the Opinion of Mr. Plowden, That they were not diſcharged of Tythes by the Statute; For that no Lands are diſcharged by the Statute, but ſuch Lands as were lawfully diſcharged in right by Compoſition or other lawfull thing; and the Lands in this caſe were not diſcharged in right, but ſuſpended during the poſſeſſion of the Abbot in his own hands: And ſo he ſaid it is, When the Land is purchaſed by one, and the Parſonage by another, the right of Tythes is revived, and the Lands charged as before the purchaſe of the Abbot. And ſo he ſaid it had been adjudged. Mich. 17 Eliz. in B. R. Godbolt, 1. See Cook 11. Part, Pridle and Nappers Caſe, acc.

6. A man makes a Leaſe for life, and after makes a Leaſe to another for years, to begin after the death of Tenant for life; the Leſſee for years dyeth Inteſtate; The Ordinary commits Adminiſtration: The Adminiſtrator and the Tenant for life joyn in a purchaſe of the Fee: There were two Queſtions moved in this Caſe, 1. Whether the Fee were executed in the Tenant for life, for any part? 2. Whether the Term were gone in part, or in all? It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That the Fee was executed for a moyety. Manwood, Juſtice, held, If Lands be given to one for life, the remainder for years, the remainder to the firſt Tenant for life in Fee, there the Fee is executed; ſo as if he loſe by default, he ſhall have a Writ of Right, and not a Quod ei Deforceat; for the Term is no impediment that the Fee is not executed: And in the principal Caſe he ſaid, That the Term ſhould not be extinct; for it is not a Term, but inter eſſe termini, which cannot be granted nor ſurrendred. Mounſon, Juſtice, held, That if he had had the Term in his own right, then by the purchaſe of the Fee, the Term ſhould have been extinguiſhed; but here he hath it in the right of another as Adminiſtrator. Dyer, If a woman hath a Term, and takes a husband, who purchaſeth the Fee, the Term is extinct. Manwood, The Law may be ſo in ſuch caſe, becauſe the Husband hath done an Act which deſtroyes the Term by the purchaſe. But if the Husband had entermarried with him in the Reverſion, there the Term ſhould not be extinguiſhed; for that the Husband hath not done any act to deſtroy the Term, but the Marriage is the Act of Law. Dyer ſaid, That was ſome colour, but was of Opinion, That in the principal caſe, they were Tenants in Common of the Fee. Paſch. 17 Eliz. in C.B. Godbolt 2.

7. If a Parſon purchaſe a Manor within his Pariſh, by this purchaſe and unity of poſſeſſion, the Manor which was before Tythable, is now made Non Decimabiles, becauſe he cannot pay Tythes to himſelf: But if the Parſon maketh a Leaſe of his Parſonage and Rectory to a ſtranger, now the Parſon himſelf ſhall pay Tythes of his Manor to the Leſſee of the Rectory: And if the Parſon maketh a Feoffment of the Manor, the Feoffee ſhall pay Tythes to the Feoffor the Parſon, becauſe Tythes cannot be extinct by any unity of poſſeſſion, as a Rent-Charge may be, which is a thing iſſued out of Land; but Tythes are due by the Law of God ex debito, by the Manurance and Tillage of the Occupier of the Lands, into whoſe hands ſoever the Lands come, if they come not into the hands of the Parſon himſelf. But if the Parſon let his Land which is his Glebe, rendring Rent; Quære, If in ſuch caſe, the Leſſee ſhall pay Tythes. Mich. 30 H. 8. Dyer, 43. See Cook 2. 8. The King, Lord; Abbot, Meſne; and C. Tenant of the Manor of D. The Tenant is Attainted of Treaſon; and after Office found, the King by his Letters Patents grants over the Manor to B. and his Heirs, Tenendum de nobis hered. et ſucc. noſtris et aliis Capitalibus Dominis feodi illius per ſervitia inde debita, et de jure conſueta. It was Objected in this Caſe, That the Tenure ſhould be of the King, becauſe by the Attainder the Mealty was extinct; and alſo becauſe there is an expreſs Tenure reſerved to the King; and therefore the words de aliis capitalibus, ſhall be void.

void. But it was Reſolved, That the words were ſufficient to create a Tenure in the Meſne, for ſo was the intent of the King, That the Meſne which did not offend ſhould not loſe his Services. And it was ſaid, That this Caſe differed from the Caſe in 27 H. 8. tit. Parliament 77. for in that Caſe there was not any words of gift or reviving, but in this Caſe, the Grant of the King ſhould amount in Judgment of Law, to the reviving of the Ancient Seignory. 2. It was Reſolved, That the Tenure ſhould be of the Meſne immediately, and of the King as Lord paramount, as it was before the Attainder. Cook 6. Part, 6. Sir John Molins Caſe. See Cook 9. Part, 131. acc.

9. The Queen Granted a Copyhold in Fee, and afterwards granted the Inheritance of the Copyhold to a ſtranger. The Copyholder deviſed the Copyhold to M. and afterwards ſurrendred to this uſe of his Will. It was Reſolved in this Caſe. 1. That the Cuſtome had ſo eſtabliſhed the Eſtate of the Copyholder, that by ſeverance of the Inheritance of the Copyhold from the Mannor, the Copyhold was not deſtroyed. 2. Reſolved, That notwithſtanding the ſurrender and Deviſe, the Copyhold diſcended to the Heir; for after the ſeverance of the Inheritance from the Mannor, the ſurrender was utterly void, for the Land was not parcel of the Mannor at the time; and the Deviſe only cannot transform ſuch an Eſtate, but it ought to be by ſurrender into the hands of the Lord. Cook 4. 2. Where a Rent reſerved upon a Leaſe ſhall be revived by the Entry of the Leſſee upon the Feoffee; Where not.

1. THE Caſe was, A man made a Leaſe for life of Lands, and afterwards let the ſame Land for years rendring Rent, the Term to begin after the death of the Leſſee for life: Afterwards the Tenant for life granted his Eſtate to his Leſſor, and the Leſſor during the life of the Leſſee for life, ſuffered a common Recovery: And afterwards the Tenant for Term of life dyed; And for Rent behind the Recoverors avowed. There was two points in the Caſe. 1. If the Rent was extinct by the Feoffment. 2. If the Recoverers might avow for the Rent within the Statute of 7 H. 8. cap. 4. It was objected, That if a man make a Leaſe for years, rendring Rent, and then enter and make a Feoffment, that although that the Termor re-enter, That the Rent is not revived, becauſe it was once extinct. But it was the Opinion of the Juſtices in this Caſe, That the Rent was not extinct, becauſe that in this Caſe the Rent was not in eſſe at the time of the Feoffment made, for it was not to be paid till after the death of the Leſſee for life. And they compared it to this Caſe, If I make a Leaſe for 40 years, reſerving 10 s. Rent at the end of 20 years, that after the 20 years, the Feoffee ſhall have the Rent. For the ſecond point, the Juſtices held, That it was out of the Statute of 7 H. 8. For the Statute is, That the Recoverers, their Heirs, or Aſſigns, may avow and juſtify for Rents and Services, or by them recovered, as thoſe perſons might againſt whom the Recovery was had, and in this Caſe, he againſt whom the Recovery was had, could not make any Avowry, and therefore it was out of the Statute. Hill. 28 H. 8. Dyer, 31.

2. A Leaſe was made for years, rendring Rent; the Leſſor made a Feoffment of the Land, the Termor being upon the Land; and the Termor held and occupied the Land. If the Feoffee ſhould have the Freehold and the Rent, was the Queſtion. It was ſaid, That if a Feoffment were made, the Termor agreeing to it, that the Rent was gone becauſe it was a ſurrender of his Term; but that was denyed. See 9 H. 6. there it is ſaid, That if the Leſſor make the Feoffment with the agreement of the Leſſee, that then the Feoffee ſhall have the Rent. But in the principal Caſe, all the Juſtices agreed, That if the Leſſor ouſt the Termor ſe in vita, and maketh a Feoffment, although that the Termor re-enter, that the Rent is extinct, for the Land was diſcharged of the Rent in the hands of the Feoffor, and in the hands of the Feoffee, it ſhall not be revived; no more then if the Lord Diſſeiſe his Tenant, and maketh a Feoffment, although that the Leſſee re-entreth, the Feoffee ſhall not have the Seignory. Keighly Juſtice ſaid, That there was a difference betwixt the Caſes. For in the Caſe of the Lord, for whom he re-enters, he leaves nothing in the perſon of the Feoffee, but defeats all his Eſtate; but in the other Caſe, he leaveth the Reverſion, and the Freehold in the Feoffee. The Caſe was not Reſolved, ſed Curia adviſare vult. Paſc. 29 H. 8. Dyer, 33.

3. A Leaſe for years was made of a houſe called the Greyhound in Fleetſtreet, with dive ſimplements rendring Rent; the Leſſor entred, and made a Feoffment; and for Rent behind, the Feoffee brought an Action of Debt. It was adjudged to be maintainable, although there was no privity betwixt them. And there it was ſaid, That the Rent was not extinct, but only ſuſpended untill the Termor might by his regreſs revive the Reverſion. And in that Caſe it was holden, That there ſhould be no apportionment of the Rent, there being no Eviction, but the Rent ſhall follow the Reverſion of the Land, which is magis dignum, and not the Reverſion of the Chattells. Revocation.

1. What ſhall be a good Revocation of a Will; What of a former Deed, What not, and the power of it: And where Revocations ſhall be taken ſtrictly; When not.

1. IN a Replevin, the Iſſue was, Whether the Land diſcended to Ann W. daughter of J. W. The Caſe was this, J. W. was ſeiſed of the Lands in Queſtion, and of other Lands, And by his laſt Will, deviſed all his Lands and Tenements to W. W. of London in Fee; and after and before his death, he made a Feoffment in Fee of the ſame Lands; and when he ſealed the Feoffment, he demanded, Will not this hurt my Will. It was anſwered, It would not. Then he ſaid, If this Will not hurt my Will, I will ſeal it, and then he ſealed it; and a Letter of Attorney to make Livery. And the Attorney made Livery, but not in the Land in Queſtion. The Teſtator dyed. It was Objected. That this Feoffment was a Revocation of the Will, and ſo the Deviſe void. For if the Teſtator had ſaid it ſhould not be his Will, it had bin a plain Revocation, and then the making of the Feoffment is as much as if he had ſaid, that the Will ſhall not ſtand. But it was the Opinion of the Court, That the mind of the Teſtator was, That this Will ſhould ſtand, and there is no Revocation in fact; for he ſaid, If this will not hurt my Will, I will Seal it; and although the Attorney made Livery in part; yet for the Lands in Queſtion, where no Livery was made, the Will ſhall ſtand, for a Will may be effectual for part, and for part it may be revoked. It was adjudged, That the Will ſtood good for that part. Mich. 28 Eliz. in C. B. Gibſon and Platieffs Caſe. Goldesbr. 32, 33. See Godbolt, 133. the ſame Caſe.

2. Note, by all the Juſtices, upon an Evidence to the Jury in an Ejectione firmæ, That if a man hath a Leaſe, and diſpoſeth of it by his Will, and afterwards ſurrenders it up, and takes a new Leaſe, and after dyeth, that the Deviſee ſhall not have this laſt Leaſe, becauſe this was a plain countermand of his Will. Trin. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Aſhby and

Lever

Lovers Caſe. Goldesbr. 93.

3. A Feme Sole was ſeiſed of Lands in Socage, and by her laſt Will deviſed them to J. S. in Fee, and afterwards ſhe did take the Deviſee to Husband, and during the Coverture ſhe countermanded her Will, ſaying, That her Husband ſhould not have the Land, nor any other advantage by her Will. It was adjudged upon great deliberation, That it was a countermand of the Will, the words being ſpoken after Marriage, for the making of a Will is but the Inception thereof, and it doth not take effect untill the death of the Deviſor. Mich. 31 Eliz. in C. B. Goldesbr. 109, 110. See Cook 4. Part, 61. Forſe and Hemblings Caſe, acc.

4. In an Ejectione firme, the Caſe was; A. ſeiſed of Lands in Fee, had Iſſue by ſeveral Women; F. his eldeſt Son, and W. his ſecond Son, and deviſed the Lands in Queſtion to F. his Son, to the uſe of him for life, and after to the uſe of the Heirs Males of his body, and after for want of ſuch Iſſue, to the uſe of T. and the Heirs Males of his body, and for default of ſuch Iſſue, to the uſe of his right Heirs, and afterwards he made a Leaſe of the ſame Land to W. his ſecond Son for 30 years, to begin after his death without other alteration of his Will. W. entred and ſurrendred his Leaſe of 30 years to F. who let the Land to the Defendant. Afterwards F. dyed without Iſſue, W. entred as Heir Male of the body, and made the Leaſe to the Plaintiff. Two Queſtions in this Caſe, If the Leaſe for 30 years to W. to begin after his death be a countermand and Revocation of that Deviſe totally, or only quoad the Term, and ſhall ſtand as to the Inheritance. It was Reſolved, That it was not any Revocation of the Inheritance, but only for the Term, for they both may ſtand together, and there ſhall not be any Revocation, unleſs it be expreſſed. The ſecond point was, Whether this Deviſe to F. and to the Heirs Males of his body, and for want of ſuch Iſſue, to the Heirs Males of the Deviſor, and the Heirs Males of their bodies, and for want of ſuch Iſſue, to the Heirs Males of the Deviſor, be a limitation in tail to the Heirs Males of the body of the Deviſor, ſo as W. may claim by this limitation an Eſtate in tail, or whether it veſted only in F. as Heir-Male of the Deviſor, and as by purchaſe; for if the Inheritance in Feeſimple veſted in him. This point was not Reſolved, but adjourned. Trin. 19 Jac. in B. R. Hodkinſon and Woods Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 16.

5. One Deviſed Lands to his Siſter in Fee, and afterwards made a Leaſe to her for ſix years of the Lands to begin after his deceaſe, and delivered it to a ſtranger to the uſe of his Siſter; which ſtranger did not deliver it to her in the life of the Teſtator, but afterwards, and ſhe refuſed, and claimed the Inheritance. In this Caſe, It was Reſolved, becauſe the Deviſe and the Leaſe made to one and the ſame perſon, beginning at the ſame time, cannot ſtand together in one and the ſame perſon, That it was a countermand of the Deviſe. But it was there agreed by all the Juſtices, That if the Leaſe had bin made to any other then the Deviſee, they might ſtand together, and the Leaſe ſhould not have bin a Revocation of the Will as to the Inheritance, but only during the Term. Mich. 2 Jac. in C. B. Cook and Bullocks Caſe adjudged acc. Cro. 2. Part, 49. the ſame Caſe.

6. In Treſpaſs, the Caſe was, one made his Will in Writing, and deviſed his Lands to A. H. and her Heirs: And afterwards being ſick, and lying on his death bed (becauſe A. H. did not come to viſit him), he affirmed, That A. H. ſhould not have any part of his Lands or goods. It was holden by the whole Court, That this was not any Revocation of the Will, being but by way of diſcourſe, and not mentioning his Will. But the Revocation ought to be by expreſs words, that he did revoke his Will, and that ſhe ſhould not have his Lands given her by his Will, or words which might ſhew his intent to make an expreſs Revocation thereof. Paſc. 4 Jac. in B. R. Sympſon and Kirtons Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 115.

7. In an Ejectione firme upon Evidence to a Jury. It was Reſolved by the whole Court, That if one maketh his Will in writing of Lands, and afterwards upon communication, ſaith, That he hath made his Will, but that ſhall not ſtand. Or, I will alter my Will, &c. that theſe words are not any Revocation of the Will, for they are words but in futuro. But if he ſaith, I do revoke it, and, Bear Witneſs thereof, hereby he abſolutely declares to revoke it in preſenti, and it is then a Revocation. And in this Caſe it was agreed by the Juſtices, That as one ought to be of good and ſane Memorie at the diſpoſing, ſo he ought to be of as good and ſane Memorie at the revoking of it. And as he ought to make a Will by his own direction, and not by Queſtions, ſo he ought to revoke it of himſelf, and not by Queſtions. Mich. 16 Jac. in B. R. Cranvell and Sanders Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 487.

8. Upon a ſpecial Verdict, the Caſe was, A. made a Conveyance to divers uſes, viz. to the uſe of himſelf for life, with divers Remainders over, with a Proviſo, That if he made a Conveyance of the premiſes in Fee, or in tail, that it ſhould be good, and a Revocation of the former uſes. It was found, That he made a Leaſe for years, and the next day granted the Reverſion in Fee, to which the Leſſee attorned. It was Reſolved in this

Caſe,

Caſe, That although there be not one entire eſtate in Fee conveyed, yet both being found, and that it was with an intent to make a Fee to paſs, That this was a Revocation within the Proviſo. Paſc. 13 Car. in B. R. Shepe and Tartons Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 339.

9. In an Ejectione firmæ, it was found, That G. L. the Father, by Indenture did Covenant to ſtand ſeiſed of the Lands in Queſtion, to the uſe of himſelf for life, and after his deceaſe, to the uſe of G. L. his Son and Heir, and the Heirs of his body, the Remainder to his own right Heirs. Provided nevertheleſs, That if G. the Father ſhould at any time during his life be minded upon any occaſion to make void or change the uſes, that then it ſhould be lawful for him, being in perfect health and memory, by writing under his hand and Seal, and by him delivered in the preſence of three credible Witneſſes, to declare that his Will and pleaſure is, That the ſaid uſes or any of them, ſhould be altered and made void, and that then, and from thenceforth, the ſaid uſes ſhould be void, and the ſaid G. the Father, and all other ſhall ſtand ſeiſed to ſuch uſes as by the ſaid writing ſhall be limitted. Then G. the Father made his Will in writing under his hand and Seal, and thereby did deviſe the ſaid Tenements to T. L. the Leſſor, and the Heirs of his body, and for want of ſuch Iſſue, to his Son G. in tail, the Remainder to his Daughter in Fee, and that the ſame laſt Will was Sealed and delivered in the preſence of four, being credible Witneſſes, and dyed. T. L. the younger Son entred, and made the Leaſe, upon whom the Defendant G. L. entred. The Queſtion in this Caſe was, Whether a Revocation actual, or an act implying ſo much made by Will by force, and within the meaning of the Proviſo. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. And in this Caſe, it was agreed, That in Revocations, all forms and Circumſtances muſt be obſerved; as that it be by Writing, Signed, Sealed, and delivered in the preſence of Witneſſes, which although it be not requiſite in a Will as a Will; yet as it is a Revocation within the Proviſo it muſt have them. 2. Reſolved, That although Revocations muſt obſerve the Circumſtances that the owner impoſeth upon himſelf; yet no more ſhall be impoſed upon him, but his power ſhall be taken favourably, as agreeable to nature, that every man have power over his own, which is the reaſon that the latter Act which cannot ſtand with the former uſes, is conſtrued a Revocation, though according to the expreſs words and vulgar ſenſe it is none. Trin. 17 Jac. in C. B. Kibbet and Lees Caſe. Hob. 312, 313.

2. Where a Condition or power to revoke uſe, ſhall be good; Where not. Where and by what Act ſuch a power ſhall be extinct: And where a power to revoke uſe ſhall be good againſt a Purchaſor, bona fide; Where not.

1. A. made a Feoffment in Fee to the uſe of himſelf for life, and after to the uſe of B. in tail, and after to the uſe of C. in Fee. Proviſo, and with liberty to revoke the uſes, and to limit new uſes. If A. ſurvive J. S. and J. S. dyes without Iſſue Male of his body. A. renounces, and ſurrenders to B. and C. all the power and Authority of Revocation, and Releaſes alſo the Conditions, Covenants, and Agreements, as well in the ſaid power of Revocation; and afterwards J. S. dyes without Iſſue of his body. In this Caſe it was ſaid, That an Authority which is collateral to the right of the Land, cannot be given away, or extinguiſhed by a Fine or Feoffment: as if Tenant pour vie deviſeth that his Feoffees ſhall ſell his Land, and dyeth; they make a Feoffment in Fee over, yet they may ſell the Land againſt their own Feoffment. But it was Reſolved, That a Fine or a Feoffment ſhould extinguiſh a future power of Revocation; and it was holden, That if in the principal Caſe, That if the power of Revocation had bin preſent, yet the ſame might have bin releaſed: And it was put for a Rule in Law. That when a thing Executory is created by Deed, the ſame thing by the conſent of all parties to the creation of it, may by their Deed be defeated and annulled, as Warranties, Recognizances, Annuities, Covenants, Revocations, &c. may by mutual conſent of the parties to the creation of them by their Deed, be defeated and annulled. Cook 1. Part, 110, 111. Albanies Caſe.

1. A man conveyes Land to the uſe of himſelf for life, and after to the uſe of divers of his bloud, with a power of Revocation, as after ſuch a Feaſt; and afterwards, and before the power of Revocation begins, he for valuable conſideration, Bargains and ſells the Lands to one and his Heirs. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That this Bargain and Sale was within the remedy of the Statut of 27 Eliz. cap. 4. of fraudulent Conveyances. For the Act wills not that ſuch voluntary Conveyance, originally originally ſubject to a power of Conveyance, ſhall ſtand good againſt a Purchaſor bona fide for valuable conſideration, Mich. 43 Eliz. in C. B. Standen and Bullocks Caſe vouched in Cook 3. Part, in Twines Caſe, 82, 83.

3. A. ſeiſed of divers Mannors holden in Capite, Covenanted with J. S. and J. D. to ſuffer a common Recovery to the uſe of himſelf for life, and after to the uſe of B. in tail, and after to the uſe of C. in tail, and after to the uſe of B. in Fee, with power of Revocation and declaration of new uſes in his life, or by his laſt Will. The King licenſed the ſaid A. to alliен the ſaid Mannors and Lands to J. S. and J. D. and their Heirs, without mention of the Declaration of any uſe within the Licenſe the Recovery is had. A. Revokes the firſt uſes, and declares, That preſently after his death C. ſhould have the ſaid Mannors in tail, with divers Remainders over. In this Caſe, It was Reſolved, That although no uſe is mentioned in the Licenſe, and the Licenſe was only to alliен to J. S. and J. D. that although the Land was transferred to another, ſo as the King was not appriſed of his Tenant, yet becauſe the ſame was executed by the Statute of 27 H. 8. of uſes, and an Act of Parliament, to which every one is party, can do no wrong, for that cauſe, when the King gave Licenſe to alliен to J. S. and J. D. and the Statute executes the poſſeſſion in another, there ſhould not any Fine be due to the King for this Eſtate executed. 2. Reſolved, That when A. had Licenſe to alliен to J. S. and J. D. and accordingly he ſuffered a common Recovery, which Recovery was to uſes with power of Revocation and alteration, that in that Caſe, although that he hath altered the Kings Tenant, yet becauſe the King had given him Licenſe to alliен to J. S. and J. D. out of which alliенation, all the uſes, aſwell future, as preſent, as out of a Fountain ariſe, that for that cauſe there needs no new Licenſe for all the Alliенations ariſing out of the Recovery. Cook 6. Part, 27, 28. Viſcount Mountague's Caſe.

4. A. ſeiſed in Fee, by Indenture in conſideration of Bloud, Covenanted with B. his Nephew, to ſtand ſeiſed to the uſe of himſelf for life, and after to the uſe of B. in tail, the Remainder to the right Heirs of B. Proviſo, That if the ſaid A. makes by himſelf, or by any other during his natural life, tender to the ſaid B. of a Gold Ring, to the intent to make void the ſaid uſes, that then the ſaid uſes ſhould be void. Afterwards A. 26 Eliz. is Attainted of Treaſon done beyond Sea, and Outlawed upon it. The King by his Letters Patents, leaſeth the Land to C. and D. for 40 years, the Attainder is confirmed by Act of Parliament. And 28 Eliz. by another Act at the ſame Parliament, it is Enacted, That the ſaid Act ſhall not extend to make any Leaſe made by the King after the Treaſon void; and by another Act at the ſame Parliament, That all perſons which claim any eſtate or Intereſt in the Lands of any perſon Attainted, not enrolled ſince 8 Eliz. ſhall within two years after the Seſſion of Parliament, ſhew and bring into his Majeſties Court of Exchequer, his, and their Grant, Conveyance, and Aſſurance, then the effect thereof to be enrolled upon Record, or elſe the ſame to be void. The King by his Letters Patents, reciting the ſaid Proviſo, and that the benefit of it is given to him by Act of Parliament, authoriſed E. to deliver the Gold Ring to B. to the intent to make void the ſaid uſes; he reads the Patent to B. and makes a tender to him, which he refuſeth; and certifies the ſame into the Exchequer; and the life of A. was averred. In this Caſe, amongſt many other points, it was Reſolved, That Conditions which are perſonal, and in privity, and inſeparably annexed to the perſon, cannot be performed by any other; and ſuch a Condition is not given to the King by the Statute of 33 H. 8. cap. 20. 2. Reſolved, That the Condition in the Principal Caſe, ſcil. the Tender of the Gold Ring was not annexed to the perſon of A. but any other perſon might make the tender; and it was given to the King by the Statute. 3. Reſolved, That A. had an Eſtate for life by limitation of uſe by the operation of the Statute of 27 H. 8. 4. Whereas it was Objected, That the tender ought to be found by Office. It was Reſolved, That the tender and the Certificate was good, and the party grieved, if it were falſe, might traverſe it. 5. It was Reſolved, That preſently upon the tender, according to the Proviſo, that the uſes were determined, and the Land veſted in the King by force of the Act of 33 H. 8. cap. 20. 6. It was Reſolved, That at the time of the tender, the Conveyance was in force, for by the words of the ſaid Act, the Conveyance ought to be exhibited within the two years, but the Act doth not require that it be enrolled within the two years, for it might be enrolled at any time after the two years. Cook 7. Part, 11, 12, 13, 14. Englefields Caſe.

5. Sir Thomas Griſham ſeiſed in Fee of the Mannors of M. and C. in the County of N, levied a Fine thereof, 12 Eliz. to B. and C. to the uſe of himſelf, and the Lady Anne his Wife, with power of Revocation, that if the ſaid Sir Thomas ſhould pay 40 s. to B. and C, or the Heirs of B, then the ſame to be to the uſe of the ſaid Sir Tho. and his Heirs, 13 Eliz. he levied another Fine to the ſaid Conuſees of the Mannors of N. and F, to the ſame Uſes declared by another pair of Indentures, with like payment of 40 s. B. dyed; Sir Thomas paid one ſum of 40 s. to C. for Revocation of the Uſes raiſed upon both the Fines; and this payment was teſtified under divers hands: and after he raiſed divers Uſes and Eſtates of divers Manners holden in Capite, and dyed. It was in this Caſe Reſolved by the Juſtices, That the Uſes were not revoked, but that the Revocation was void, becauſe the two ſeveral ſums of 40 l. ought to have been tendred, and not one ſum of 40 l; for they were ſeveral Indentures, and ſeveral Manners, and could not be ſatisfied with one ſum: for which cauſe, all the ſaid Manners came to the Lady Greſham by Survivor. Trin. 31 Eliz. in the Exchequer, Sir Tho. Greſham's Caſe. Leon. 89. See Cook 9. Part, 106. in Podgers Caſe, the ſame Caſe.

8. A man ſeiſed of Land in Fee, Covenanted to ſtand ſeiſed to the uſe of himſelf for life, and after to the uſe of his ſon in tail. Proviſo, That at any time during his life, with the Conſent of divers, by Deed indented to be enrolled in any Court of the King, to revoke any of the ſaid Uſes, and to limit new Uſes; and afterwards by Indenture enrolled in the Chancery, he revoked the Uſes of part of the Land, and limited the ſame to the uſe of him and his Heirs; and afterwards by another Deed he declared, That from the enrollment of that Deed in the Chancery, all the firſt Uſes in the firſt Indenture ſhould be void, and that the Land ſhould be to the uſe of himſelf in Fee, and afterwards he levied a Fine of all the Land; and if he dyed ſeiſed in Fee of the Lands mentioned in the Deed of Revocation, was the Queſtion? In this caſe, theſe Points were Reſolved, 1. That he might revoke part at one time, and part at another time, and ſo untill he had revoked the whole, but he could revoke one part but once. 2. That whereas the Revocation is to be made by Deed Indented to be enrolled, the ſame is, Deed Indented and Enrolled; for no Revocation could be before Enrollment. 3. That the Fine levied before the Enrollment, had extinguiſhed the power of Revocation. 4. That if the Fine had not been levied, then by the Revocation, the old Uſes had been deſtroyed without Entry or Claim. 5. That by the ſame Conveyance, as the old Uſes might have been revoked by the ſame Conveyance, the like Uſes might be limited. Cook 1. Part, 173. Diggs Caſe.

7. Tenant in tail of divers Manners and Lands, did ſuffer a Common Recovery which was to the uſe of his laſt Will; and afterwards by Writing under his hand and ſeal, did declare, that his intent and meaning was, That the ſaid Recoverors and their Heirs, ſhould ſtand ſeiſed of the ſaid Manors and Lands, to the uſe of himſelf and the Heirs males of his body, the remainder to the uſe of E. Daughter, and the Heirs of her body; the remainder to his own right Heirs. Afterwards, he and his Recoverors did make a Feoffment unto 3. perſons, and their Heirs, and limited new Uſes, two of which Feoffees had notice of the ſaid former Uſes; and the third had not notice thereof: One Queſtion in this Caſe was, Whether the uſes limited by the ſaid Writing under his hand and ſeal, and whereby the uſes in remainder in tail be limited to the daughter, be revocable or not. This Caſe was by the King referred to three of the Judges; viz. Mountague, Hobert, and Doderidg: It was the Opinion of Mountague, That although the firſt uſes upon the Recovery were to the uſe of the Laſt Will of the ſaid Tenant in tail, and his Heirs, and till he ſhould expreſſe his Will and Intention concerning the ſame; yet when he had expreſſed his intent and meaning once by Writing ſealed and ſubſcribed by him, and ſo once notified and publiſhed the ſame, and thereby given an Intereſt to a third perſon by Grant expreſſed, that he cannot recall the ſame, as he might have done, if the ſame had been by a Laſt Will, which is ſubject to Change. But the ſaid two other Judges conceived, That the ſaid Uſes limited by the ſaid Writing, were revocable; for when a Conveyance is made to the uſe of the Laſt Will of him that makes the Conveyance, the Recoverors in ſuch caſe, ſtand ſeiſed in the mean time to the uſe of him and his Heirs, untill Limitation be made of his Will and Meaning concerning the ſame. But when he maketh ſuch particular Limitation or diſpoſition of the ſaid Uſes, Whether it be by a Laſt Will, or otherwiſe by Deed or Writing, as long as he appointeth, that the Recoverors ſhall ſtand ſeiſed to other uſes, and buildeth the ſame upon the firm foundation, (ſcil. the Recovery) as in this caſe he did, the ſaid Uſes are alway revocable, becauſe they are grounded upon the laſt aſſurance, (ſcil. the Recovery) which was to the uſe of his Will, which is alwayes ſubject to change; and the words to the uſe of his Will, is not thereby meant, a Teſtament only, but to be extended to any other voluntary diſpoſition or gratuity whatſoever: This Caſe was afterwards referred again, and Juſtice Hutton joyned in the Reference; who agreeing in Opinion with Mountague, Juſtice; by reaſon of the difference of the Opinions of the Juſtices, the Matter was afterwards ended, by an Award made by the Kings Majeſty; and three of the 5. Manners allotted to E. the Daughter. 15 Jac. The Earl of Oxmonds Caſe. Hob. 349, 350.

Sales.

Sales.

Where, and in what caſe, good; and of what, and by whom: And what not.

1. TReſpaſſe, for taking of a Cow; The Defendant ſaid, That the Land where the Treſpaſſe is ſuppoſed to be done, is the Land of J. S; the which J. S. had loſt 4 l. Iſſues to the Queen, and that there came a Warrant to him, being Under-Sheriff, out of the Exchequer, to levy the ſaid 4 l. in the Lands of J. S: and becauſe the Cowe was Levant and Couchant upon the Land, he took her: It was ſaid by the Court, That the Sheriff cannot take the Beaſts of a ſtranger which are Levant and Couchant, and ſell them. But he might take by way of Diſtreſſe, to levy the debt to the Queen. Hill. 43 Eliz. in C. B. Goldesbr. 140.

2. The Caſe was, upon an Elegit, The Jury found, That J. S. was poſſeſſed of a Leaſe for 100 years, to begin at the Feaſt of Mich. 2 & 3 Mar. Whereas in truth the Leaſe was to begin at Mich. 3 & 4 Mar. the Eſtate and Intereſt of which J. S, the Jurours apprized to 80 l. and the Sheriff ſold the Leaſe as a Chattel for 80 l: The Queſtion was, If the ſame were good? It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That the ſale of a Term upon an Elegit, was void: For the Elegit is, That by Inquiſition of 12. Men per rationabil. extent. the Sheriff ſhould apprize the Goods and Chattels, and ex end the Land; ſo as without Enquiry, the Sheriff may not ſell: Then if the Sheriff Enquire of one Term, and ſell another, (as it was in the principal Caſe) the ſale is not good. Yet Popham, Juſtice, ſaid, That if it had been found by Inquiſition generally, That he is poſſeſſed of ſuch Land for term of divers years adtunc venter. which they have apprized to ſuch a ſum, this had been good, in as much as they have not any means to come to the knowledg of the Certainty of the Term. But when, by Enquiry in particular, a Term is found, they may not vary from that, and ſell another. Hill. 43 Eliz. in B. R. Palmer and Humfreys Caſe. Goldesbr. 172.

3. Two men were Partners in Goods; one of the Partners ſold to J. S. at ſeveral times goods, to the value of 100 l; and for the goods at one time bought, he paid the money according to the time: Afterwards, an Action was brought by one of the Partners for the reſt of the money; and the Plaintiff declared upon one Contract for the whole goods; whereas in truth they were ſold upon ſeverall Contracts made: and the Defendant in that caſe would have waged his Law. The Court adviſed the Plaintiff to be Nonſuit, and to bring a new Action, becauſe that Action was not well brought; for it ought to have been a ſeveral Action upon the ſeveral Contracts. And in this Caſe, It was agreed by the Court, That the ſale of one Partner, is the ſale of them both: and therefore although the one of them ſelleth the Goods, or Merchandizes with them; yet the Action muſt be brought in both their names. Hill. 11 Jac. in C. B. in Lambert's Caſe, Godbolt, 244.

4. In Treſpaſſe, the Caſe was; A man made his Will, and made A. E. J. and O. his Executors, and Deviſed his Lands to A. E. J. O. by their ſpecial names, and to their Heirs: And further Deviſed, That the Deviſees ſhould ſell the Lands to J. D, if he before ſuch a day would give for the ſame 100 l: And if not, then that they ſhould ſell them to any other, to the performance of his Will; viz. for the payment of his debts: J. D. would not give the 100 l; One of the Executors refuſed to entermeddle, and the other ſold the Lands. The Queſtion was, If the Sale were good, or not? It was ſaid, That it was not good, Becauſe it is a ſpecial Truſt, and a joynt Truſt; and a joynt Truſt ſhall never ſurvive: for perhaps the Deviſor who is dead, repoſed more Confidence in him who refuſed, then in the others. Alſo, the Deviſees have an Intereſt in the Lands, and each of them hath a part, and therefore the one of them cannot ſell without the other. But if the Deviſe were, That 4. ſhould ſell, they have not an Intereſt, but an authority. It was ſaid on the other ſide, That although the Deviſe was to them by their proper names, and not by the name of Executors; yet the intent appeareth, that they were to ſell as Executors, becauſe it was to the performance of his Will, in which Debts and Legacies are to be paid: and although there are divers authorities to be executed; yet it is but one Debt. The Court inclined to Opinion, That the Sale was not good, but the Caſe was not Reſolved. Mich. 29 Eliz. in B. R. Bonefant and Sir Rich. Greenfield's Caſe, Godbolt 77. See 26 Eliz. in B. R. Vincent and Lees Caſe, in Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 113. acc.

5. Note: It was moved, and afterwards agreed by the Court in the Caſe of a Prohibition to the Court of Admiralty, That if a Pyrat taketh goods upon the Sea, and ſelleth them, that the property of them is changed, no more then if a Theef upon the Land ſteals them, and ſelleth them. And in this Caſe, it appeared upon the Libell, That bona Piratica fuerunt infra Portum Argier ſuper alium mare. And for that Cauſe, the Prohibition was denyed, becauſe Argier being a Forrein Port, the Court could not take notice, whether there was ſuch a place of the Sea, called the Port; or whether it was within the Land, or not. Trin. 10 Jac. in C. B. Greenway and Barker's Caſe. Godbolt, 193.

6. Note; It was adjudged to be Law by the whole Court, That if a man bail Goods to another at ſuch a day to rebail; and before the day, the Baily doth ſell the Goods in Market overt: Yet at the day, the baylor may ſeize the Goods; for that the property of the goods was alwayes in him, and not altered by the ſale Market overt. Mich. 7 Jac in B. R. Godbolt, 160.

7. Information was in the Common-Pleas by P. againſt B. for buying of Cattell, and ſelling them again in the ſame Market againſt the Statute; which was found againſt the Defendant: Judgment was entred, quod ſit in miſericordia; whereas it ought to have been Capiatur, being upon an Information, for it is a Contempt, and puniſhable by Impriſonment: In this Caſe, upon a Writ of Errour brought in the Kings-Bench, the Judgment was reverſed. Trin. 21 Jac. in B.R. Pye and Bonners Caſe, Godbolt, 349.

8. The Defendant being a Goldſmith; and having skill in Jewels and Pretious Stones, had a Stone, which he affirmed to be a Bezars Stone, and ſold it to the Plaintiff for 100 l; whereas re vera, it was not a Bezars Stone; for which Deceit, the Plaintiff brought an Action upon the Caſe. It was holden in the Exchequer-Chamber by all the Juſtices, That the bare affirmation of it to be a Bezar Stone, without warranting it to be ſo, was no cauſe of Action. But Anderſon, Chief Juſtice, was of Opinion, That the Deceit for ſelling of it for a Bezars Stone, whereas it was not ſo, was a good cauſe of Action. But notwithſtanding, it was otherwiſe adjudged. Paſch. 1 Jac. in the Exchequer-Chamber, Chaundler and Lepar Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 4.

9. In an Action in the Nature of Deceit, the Caſe was; Queen Eliz. was ſeiſed in Fee of the Vicarage of S, whereunto the Tythes of S. appertained. To which Vicarage, the Defendant 9. Junii, 35 Eliz. affirmed, he was lawfull Incumbent, and had right to the Tythes after the death of T. V. the Incumbent. Whereupon the Plaintiff, 16 Junii, 35 Eliz. having ſpeech with the Defendant, of the buying of the Defendant the Tythes appertaining to the ſaid Vicarage after the death of T. V. (who dyed 16 Aprilis, 35 Eliz.) till Mich. following, That the Defendant actus ſcienter, that he had not any right or Intereſt to the ſaid Tythes, ſold them to the Plaintiff for 30 l. falſo et deceptive; and alledged de facto, That T. V. was Preſented, Inſtituted, and Inducted into the ſaid Vicarage, ult. Aug. 35 Eliz. and took the Tythes, and ſo the Plaintiff loſt them. It being found for the Plaintiff upon Not guilty; It was moved, That the Action did not lye; for that an Action in the Nature of Deceit lyes not, where one ſells a thing wherein he hath not any property; and although he took upon him, that he was owner, and had right to ſell, unleſſe he warrant that the other ſhall enjoy it accordingly, (which warranty ought to be at the time of the ſale) it is not good. And of that Opinion was the Court: For here he had not poſſeſſion, and it is no more then if one ſhould ſell Lands, whereof another is poſſeſſed, without Covenant or Warranty for enjoyment of it; or of the ſale of a horſe, without a warranty: but it is at the perill of him that buys, to provide for himſelf. Hill. 4 Jac. in the Exchequer. Roſwell and Vaughans Caſe, Cro. 2. Par, 196, 197.

10. Action upon Trover and Converſion of Goods, and Converting them: The Defendant pleaded a ſale in Market-overt, whereby he Juſtified the Converſion. It was holden by the Court, to be no Plea, becauſe that it amounts to the generall Iſſue: and Ruled accordingly, That if he did not plead, a Nihil dicit ſhould be entred. Trin. 5 Jac. in B. R. Johns and Williams Caſe, Cro. 2. Part, 165.

11. In Trover and Converſion of a Gelding: The Caſe was, That one P. had ſtollen a horſe, and ſold the ſame to the Defendant in open Market, by the name of Lyſter, and the ſaid falſe name was entred in the Toll-Book. It was holden by the Court clearly in that caſe, That by the ſale, the property was not altered. Mich. 31 Eliz. in C.B. Gibbs Caſe, Leon. 225.

Satisfaction.

1. DEbt brought upon a ſingle Bill; The Defendant pleaded, That he did enfeoffe the Plaintiff of Lands, in ſatisfaction of that debt; upon which the Plaintiff demurred. Upon reading of the Record, It was adjudged to be a naughty Plea to a ſingle Bill: otherwiſe it had been, upon a Bond with a Condition to pay money. Trin. 11 Jac. in B. R. Clyves and Leaſe Caſe. Brown. 1. Part, 70.

2. Debt was brought upon a Judgment, and the Defendant was taken in Execution upon the Judgment; and afterwards the Plaintiff became Feſo de ſe, by which the Almoner ſeized all his Goods: and afterwards, the Almoner would have acknowledged ſatisfaction of the debt and damages in that Judgment. It was doubted, That he could not. Paſch. 14 Jac. in B. R. Lord and Huxley's Caſe, Brown. 1. Part, 73.

3. Upon a Wager of Law, It was ſaid by Anderſon, Chief Juſtice, That if I am bound to pay you a certain ſum of money, and a ſtranger delivers you a horſe by my Aſſent, for the ſame debt; this is no Satisfaction: So if I be endebted to you upon a ſimple Contract, and a ſtranger makes an Obligation for this debt, the debtor cannot wage his Law, for this doth not determine the Contract. Trinit. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Goldesbr. 77.

4. Debt; The Defendant pleaded, Nihil debet per Legem; and in truth, the money was due to the Plaintiff; but the Plaintiff was alſo endebted to the Defendant in the like ſum: and before the Action brought, they were agreed, That each of them ſhould be acquitted againſt the other; and thereupon the Defendant would have waged his Law. Anderſon and Periam, Juſtices, doubted, Whether he might do ſo, or not; for an Accord without ſatisfaction, is no Plea: And debt cannot be diſcharged by word. Rhodes ſaid, It was good, being by conſent of the parties. And Fenner ſaid, That payment by way of Retainer, is good. See 11 R. 2. Fitz. Barr. 242. 22 H. 6. acc. Hill. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Saunderſons Caſe. Goldesbr. 80.

5. Ejectione Firme was brought againſt three Defendants; They pleaded, That after the Treſpaſſe and Ejectment done, that there was an agreement between the Plaintiff and Defendant, That one of the Defendants ſhould pay unto the Plaintiff 10 l. in ſatisfaction thereof, and give his bond to the Plaintiff to perform the ſame; which he had performed: In this caſe, It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That it was a good Plea: And Reſolved, That in all Caſes which ſuppoſe a wrong to be done vi et Armis, where a Capias or Exigent lyeth at the Common-Law, there an Accord with Satisfaction, is a good Plea for Redemption of his body from Impriſonment. Trin. 9 Jac. in C.B. Peto and Cheneys Caſe, and Shermans Caſe. See Cook 9. Part, 77.

6. Debt upon a ſingle Bill; The Defendant pleaded payment without an Acquittance; and upon this they went to Iſſue, and found for the Plaintiff: In that caſe, it was adjudged, That although payment without an Acquittance, is no Plea; and ſo an Iſſue joyned upon a thing not material: for if he payes without Acquittance, the ſingle Bill yet remains in force. But becauſe Iſſue was there joyned upon an Affirmative and a Negative, and found for the Plaintiff, It was adjudged, to be aided by the Statutes of 32 H. 8. & 18 Eliz. of Jeofails. Cook 5. Part, 43. Nicholls Caſe.

7. Debt upon a Bill of 6 l. 13 s. 4 d. After the Clauſe, In cujus rei Teſtimonium, this Clauſe was added, in nature of a Proviſo. Provided nevertheleſſe, That the ſaid 6 l. 13 s. 4 d. is not to be paid, untill ſuch a one hath had a Recovery in ſuch an Action or Suit which he hath hanging againſt the Plaintiff, upon a Bond of 200 l. Conditioned for ſaving harmleſs, or hath made an end of the ſaid Suit; And then, the Concluſion was, dat. eiſdem die et anno. To this, the Defendant pleaded in Barr, That no end was made of the ſaid Suit upon the Bond of 200 l. nor any Recovery had, but that the ſame ſtill depends, and therefore, according to the Proviſo, the 6 l. 13 s. 4 d. demanded by the Bill, is not to be paid to the Plaintiff. The Plaintiff Replyed, That an end was made of the ſaid Suit upon the ſaid Obligation of 200 l. by giving a Compoſition of 20 l. which was accepted in full ſatisfaction; viz. in plenam ſatisfactionem actionis predict. Being upon Iſſue, It was found for the Plaintiff. It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, becauſe out of this matter of fact, ariſeth matter in Law, which makes againſt the Plaintiff, ſo as he cannot have Judgment, and this giving of 20 l. in ſatisfaction of the Obligation of 200 l. is not good; for that 20 l. cannot be a ſatisfaction for 200 l. But it was the Opinion of the Court, That Judgment ſhould be given for the Plaintiff. It was ſaid, It muſt be agreed, That after the day that the ſame is due, 20 l. cannot be paid in Satisfaction of 200 l. but here it is not ſo; the 20 l. being paid to end the Suit for 200 l; and this is good: and before the ſame was due, 20 l. may be well given, and ſo accepted of, and good in Law, to ſatisfie 200 l. Alſo here the 20 l. was given in plenam ſatisfactionem actionis predict. and not in ſatisfaction of the 200 l. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff, Mich. 1 Car. in B. R. Thompſon and Butchers Caſe. Bolſtr. 3. Part, 301, 302.

8. Judgment was given upon a Bond of 4000 l. and the Scire facias was ſued for 3000 l. and he did not acknowledg Satisfaction of the other 1000 l: It was moved, That the Scire facias ſhould abate: For if a man brings debt upon a Bond of 20 l, and ſhewed a Bond of 40 l. and doth not acknowledg ſatisfaction of 20 l, it is not good. It was ſaid by the Court, That there is no difference betwixt the Action of Debt upon a Bond and a Scire facias, and the Intendment; viz. That it ſhall be intended that he was paid, becauſe that he ſued but for 300 l, will not help the Defendant: And therefore the Opinion of the Juſtices was, That if the Defendant in the Scire facias ſay nothing by ſuch a day, That Judgment be entred for the Plaintiff quod executio fiat. Mich. 29 Eliz. in B. R. Godbolt, 79, 80.

9. Debt by an Executor, upon divers Obligations made to the Teſtator: The Defendant pleads, That he did pay a leſſer ſum then is expreſſed in the Obligations to the Teſtator during his life, and that he did accept thereof in full ſatisfaction of the ſaid Obligations. To this Plea, the Plaintiff Demurred. The Queſtion in this Caſe, was, Whether the payment, or the acceptance of the money paid in ſatisfaction, be to be traverſed? The Court held it indifferent to traverſe either of them; but ſaid, It was more proper to join Iſſue upon the payment. In this Caſe, It was ſaid and agreed, That if one pay money in ſatisfaction of an Obligation, and the party to whom it is paid ſaith, that he will receive it for another cauſe; Yet if he receive it, It ſhall be adjudged to be paid in ſatisfaction of the Obligation: for he muſt receive it upon ſuch Terms as the other will pay it. Mich. 1650. in B. R. Bois and Crawfield's Caſe. Styles, 239.

10. The Condition of an Obligation was, That if the Defendant do keep the Arbitrament and Award of J. S. indifferently choſen by the Defendant and the Plaintiff, to order, rule, and final determination to make of all matters, Suits, and Demands whatſoever had or depending betwixt the Defendant and the Plaintiff, from the beginning of the World, untill the day of the date of the Obligation, that then &c. In debt brought, The Defendant pleaded, That the Arbitrator Nullam fecit arbitrium, de et ſuper premiſſis in condition predict. ſpecificat. The Plaintiff Replyed, That the Arbitrator made an Award de et ſuper premiſſis modo et forma ſequente, ſcil. That whereas there was a Suit depending between the Defendant and the Plaintiff for debt of 20 l. due by the Defendant to the Plaintiff; which debt the Defendant had promiſed to pay to the Plaintiff, that the Defendant ſhould pay to the Plaintiff for his ſaid debt due and his Coſts, 22 l. In this Caſe, It was Reſolved, That the Award was good and ſufficient; for it is an Award as well of the one part as of the other; for one Receives money, and the other a diſcharge of his debt, and of his promiſe to pay it, which ſhall be a ſatisfaction. 2. It appeareth, That the Award was made the premiſſes predict. in conditione predict. ſignificat. which words do import, That he had made an Award of all that which was referred unto him; and ſo it ſhall be intended, untill the contrary be ſhewn: For when a ſubmiſſion is general, Of all Actions, It may well ſtand with the generality of the words, that there was but one cauſe depending in controverſie betwixt them: But where a Submiſſion is of certain things in ſpecial, with a Proviſo or Condition, That the Award ſhall be de premiſſis, there it behoves, that the Arbitrament be made of all debts; otherwiſe it is void. But if divers things in ſpecial are ſubmitted, without ſuch Condition Concluſion; there the Arbitrator may make an Arbitrament of one of them. Cook 8. Part, 97. Roſpoules Caſe.

Scire

Scire facias.

Where it lyeth, and by whom, and against whom, and for whom; and upon what Recovery, or Judgment; and in what Court to be brought; Where upon Execution, and upon what, and in what Court; & è contra. What a good Plea in Bar of it; and where the Writt shall abate, where not.

1. A Quare Impedit was brought by B. against C. the Presentee of the Queen; the Plaintiff had Judgment to recover: the Queen shewed that the Plaintiff was Outlawed, and prayed a Writ to the Bishop, and a Scire facias against the Queen, wherefore he should not have Execution of his Judgment. It was the Opinion of the Justices, That they ought to stay Execution, but how Process shall be awarded, or if a Scire facias should Issue against the Plaintiff or no, they would advise; but Periam Justice thought they might have a Scire facias. Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Beverley and Cornwall's Case. Goldesbr. 44, and 55. acc.

2. Note, It was said by Popham and Gawdy, and not denyed, That if a Fieri facias goes to the Sheriff to levie the debt of the Defendants goods, and he doth not return his Writ, If the Plaintiff sues for a Scire facias upon the same Judgment against the Defendant, If he may plead this matter, and put the Plaintiff to his remedy against the Sheriff; for that the sale of the Defendants goods by the Sheriff, is good, and not to be defeated; and so it is a good Plea in Bar in another Execution, otherwise the Defendant should be put to a great mischief. Set 20 H. 6. 24. 44 E. 3. 18. Quere, If he shall not have an Audita Querela, if the Plaintiff take out a new Scire facias within the year? Hill. 43 Eliz. in C. B. Fox and Baltens Case. Goldesbr. 170.

3. A. and his Wife, Executrix of J. W. brought a Scire facias after the said Executrix came of full age, against J. D. and his Wife, Administratrix of W. D. to have Execution of a Judgment had by J. D. and H. E. Administrators, durante minori ætate of the Executrix, upon a Bond entred into to the Testator; and whether it lay by the Executrix or not, was the Question. It was the better Opinion of the Court, that it did not lye. Mich. 3 Jac. in C. B. King and Deaths Case. Brownlow 1. Part, 59.

4. D. brought an Action of Assault and Battery and Imprisonment, against W. the Defendant pleaded a special Justification, scil. That in Nov. 2 Jac. an Action of Trespass was brought in C. B. by one A. against J. G. and upon the general Issue it was found for J. G. and Judgment given for her; and before Execution, J. G. took to husband the Plaintiff: Afterwards Error was brought in B. R. and upon a Scire facias against the said J. the Judgment in C. B. was reversed, and Costs given to A. the Plaintiff, on the Writ of Error; and afterwards, a Capias ad satisfaciendum was directed to the Defendants, to take the said J. G. by force of which, the Defendants took the Wife of the now Plaintiff; with an Averment, That the said J. G. and the Wife of the now Plaintiff, were one and the same person; upon which the Plaintiff demurred. It was Objected, That the Justification was not good; because when the Sheriff is to execute a Process, he is to do it upon the right person, at his peril; and when his Warrant is against J. G. there is no such J. G; for by her marriage with the Plaintiff, she had another name, and therefore he is a Trespasser, for taking J. D. and his averment cannot help him, because it agrees not with his Warrant. But the whole Court was of a contrary Opinion; for first, the Scire facias was according to the Judgment in C. B. and well then might all the subsequent Process be according, in course of Law; But if the Husband had come upon the Scire facias, and shewed how that she was Covert, then the Action ought to have been against both of them. And 2. In the Principal Case, The parties themselves in all the Proceedings, have admitted that she was the same person, and that she had the same name; wherefore they shall be concluded from saying the contrary; and although the Sheriff had shewed the marriage, the same had been but a bare allegation of the Sheriff, and it appears not judicially whether it was so or no. And 3. It would be dangerous for the Sheriff to return a non est Inventus, because that parties have admitted her name in all the Proceeding; and then the Sheriff should be estopped also. Trin. 11 Jac. in B. R. Doyly and Whites Case. Brownlow, 2. Part, 226. It was adjudged for the Defendants.

5. The Case was, An Executrix till the Wives of the Plaintiffs came of full age, or were married, and that then they to be Executrices; This Executrix cutrix during the minority, brought an Action of Debt, and Recovered; and before Execution, the women Executrices, took husbands, and brought a Scire facias upon the Record, to have Execution upon the Judgment against the Defendants as Terr-Tenants, who pleaded ſpecially, That they had nothing in the Freehold, nor in the Land, but only a Leaſe for years, and that the Freehold was in a ſtranger; upon which the Plaintiffs demurred. It was argued for the Plaintiffs, That there is a difference betwixt this Executor, and an Adminiſtrator, durante minori ætate: If an Adminiſtrator have Judgment, and dyes before Execution, or the other have ſued out their Letters of Adminiſtration, they ſhall have no Execution of this Judgment, becauſe he comes in paramount the firſt Adminiſtration, as immediate Adminiſtrator to the firſt Inteſtate; but in this Caſe, all theſe Executors were in privity one to another, and here they are all made by the firſt Teſtator: And in the Principal Caſe, the Executors come in in privity; as in caſe where two Executors are, and one dyes, the other who ſurvives, ſhall have execution of a Judgment given for them; for Adminiſtrator during Nonage, is only to the uſe, commodity, and profit of an Executor; ſo as he being Executor to the Teſtator, ſhall have Execution. 2. It was ſaid, That the plea, that the Defendants had but for years, and that the Freehold is to a ſtranger, is not good; for as much as nothing was to be recovered but only damages: And it was ſaid, That it was adjudged in a Scire facias, to have Execution of a Judgment in an Ejectione firmæ, in All Souls Colledge Caſe; That the Plea that he had nothing but for years, was no plea; for as much as nothing was to be recovered but only the Term, and not the Freehold. On the Defendants ſide it was ſaid, That the Return of the Sheriff was void, becauſe the Writ commanded him to give notice to the Terr-Tenants of the Fee-ſimple, and he did not Return, that thoſe who he had Returned were Tenants of the Fee-ſimple, and ſo no Tenant is Returned at all: And it was ſaid, That a Scire facias to have Execution of a Fine, ſhall not be ſued againſt Leſſee for years, but againſt him that hath the Freehold. The Caſe was not adjudged, but adjourned. Mich. 9 Jac. in C. B. Kent, and his Wife, and others, againſt Laurence Trollop, and the Wife of Gunter. Brownlow, 2. Part, 144, 145.

6. Adminiſtrators during the minority, had Judgment in debt, and before Execution ſued, the Executor came of full age of 17 years; how Execution ſhould be ſued, was the Queſtion; for that the power of the Adminiſtrator was determined by the coming of the Executor of 17 years, and the Executor was not party to the Record. It ſeemed to the Court, That the Executor might ſue a ſpecial Scire facias upon the Record, and ſo ſue Execution in his own name. See 27 H. 8. 7. a. Paſch. 9 Jac. in C. B. Brownlow, 83. acc.

7. The Defendant upon a Condemnation in Treſpaſs, the Defendant appeared gratis; and to have a Scire facias pleaded a Releaſe of Executions, and found ſureties to pay the Condemnation: The Prothonotaries ſaid, That in that Caſe, becauſe it was a Capias ad ſatisfaciendum, that he ſhould not have it, unleſs he were Returned Cepi corpus, or a Reddidit ſe, and brought in in cuſtody; but that he being at large, and not impriſoned, ſhould be put to his Audita Querela; but if it be upon a Capias ad reſpondendum, or Exigent, then he might appear gratis, becauſe he had day in Court. Trin. 11 Eliz. Dyer, 285.

8. A Conuſor of a Statute Staple, ſeiſed of Lands in the Counties of D. and S. enfeoffed ſeverally A. and B. in the County of S. and C. of the Lands in the County of D; the Conuſee ſued Execution of the Lands in the County of S. only, and the Lands of A. were extended, and delivered, and the Sheriff upon the Extent returned, That theſe were all the Lands which the Conuſor had, in Baliva ſua die recognitionis, & quod nulla alia habuit terras ſeu Tenementa, &c. A. grieved by this Execution, brought an Audita Querela, and had a Scire fac. Returned in the County of D. to have C. contributory; C. appeared, and pleaded the omiſſion of the Lands in the poſſeſſion of B. in the County of S. in abatement: It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That it was no Plea; for the plaintif is not bound peremptorily at his peril to take notice of all the Terr-Tenants and Lands which are lyable to the Statute, but of his proper; and the Defendant might here well have Audita Querela, to have contribution of the other Terr-Tenants. Paſch. 16 Eliz. Dyer, 332.

9. The Tranſcript of a Fine was removed by the Anceſtor out of the Treaſury in C. B. into the Chancery, and it came in Bank by Mittimus to have a Scire facias to execute the ſame, and the Anceſtor dyed: It was the Opinion of the Court, That without a new Mittimus, the heir ſhould not have a Scire facias, becauſe by the death of the Anceſtor, the authority given to the Juſtices of the Bench was determined. Hill. 28 H. 8. Dyer, 29.

10. Quare impedit was brought by B. againſt the Ordinary, Patron, and the Incumbent; the Ordinary claimed nothing but as Ordinary; Iſſue betwixt the others was found for the Plaintiff, and Judgment given by the Juſtices of Niſi Prius, and a Writ to the Biſhop awarded; and the Record being ſent in Banco, another Writ was awarded to the Biſhop, returnable in Banco, upon which the Biſhop Returned, That pendant the Quare Impedit, an Office was found for the King, by the minority of the Plaintiff, being within age, and in Ward, and the King Preſented, of which the Church is full, which excuſed the not performing of both Writs. It was holden, That he ſhould not be eſtopped of this Return, for his plea is not any plea of plenarty; and if this Attorn be falſe, he may have a Quare non Admiſit, and alſo have a Scire facias againſt the firſt and new Incumbent. Paſch. 9 Eliz. Dyer, 260.

11. An Annuity was granted for the exerciſe of a Stewardſhip, and after Recovery in Annuity, the ſame was behinde again, and the Grantee brought a Scire facias: The Defendant ſaid, That pendant the Writ, the Plaintiff had refuſed (being requeſted) to hold Court. It was holden by the Court to be a good Plea; for upon the Scire facias he had Judgment before of the arrearages before, and pendant the Writ, where if he refuſeth, the Annuity ceaſeth; and then it was holden, he ſhould recover the arrearages by an Action of Debt only. 23 Eliz. Dyer, 377. acc.

12. An Adminiſtrator during the minority of A. B. and C. recovered Debt due to his Teſtator, and dyed; A. dyed: It was moved, if by the death of A. the whole authority ſhould ceaſe? That point was not Reſolved: But it was adjudged, That the Executors of the Adminiſtrators ſhould not ſue Execution by Scire facias upon the firſt Judgment; for that none ſhall have Execution of that Judgment, but he who ſhould be ſubject to the payment of the debts of the firſt Inteſtate, which the ſaid Executors ſhould not. Cook 5. Part, 9. Brudnell's Caſe.

13. A. brought an Audita Querela againſt B. and a Scire facias upon it againſt the ſame party. It was moved, That in as much as no Execution was ſued againſt A. upon the Statute Staple, in which he was bounden to the ſaid B. ſo as he was not in priſon, That no Scire facias ought to Iſſue, but Venire facias. The Court was clear of Opinion, That it is at the Election of the party grieved, which of them he will have: Then to it was moved, That the Audita Querela ought to be ſued in the Chancery, and not in the Common Pleas: But the Court was alſo clear of Opinion, That he might ſue in which of the Courts he pleaſed. Hill. 30 Eliz. in C. B. The Lord Dudley and Layes Caſe. See 26 Eliz. Dyer, 332. Leon, 195.

14. R. W. and J. P. brought a Writ of Error againſt the Biſhop of H. and B. upon a Recovery had by the Biſhop of B. againſt them, for that the ſaid W. had brought a Quare Impedit againſt the ſaid B. and the Biſhop, and had Recovered againſt them by default, whereupon W. had a Writ to the Metropolitan to admit his Clerk, and in the Writ of Diſceit, Judgment was given for the Plaintiffs; for it was found, That the Summons was the Friday, to appear the Tueſday after, and ſo an inſufficient Summons: And in that Writ W. and P. pleaded, That B. the Incumbent was deprived of his Benefice in the Court of Audience; which ſentence was affirmed upon Appeal before the Delegates; and notwithſtanding that Plea, Judgment was given againſt W. and P. Divers Errors aſſigned, 1. Becauſe the Biſhop and Incumbent joyned in the Writ of Diſceit; for that their right was ſeveral. 2. Becauſe it was not ſet forth in the Writ of Diſceit, That B. was Incumbent; for the Writ of Diſceit ought to contain all the ſpecial matter of the Caſe. 3. That upon a ſuggeſtion made after Verdict, That B. was Incumbent, and in of the Preſentment of the Lord S. and that he was removed, and G. in by a Recovery in a Quare Impedit by default, a Writ to the Biſhop was awarded, without a Scire facias againſt G. for he is poſſeſſor, and the Statute of 25 E. 3. gives him authority to plead againſt the King, and every Releaſe and Confirmation to him is good, It was anſwered, This is a Judicial Writ, and not an Original, and nothing is to be demanded but the Defendant is only to anſwer to the Diſceit; and the Iſſue is contained in the Writ, and the Judges ſhall examine the Iſſue, without any plea pleaded, or appearance of the Tenant, and the Judgment here is not to recover any thing in demand, but only to reſtore the party to his former eſtate: And as to the Scire facias, there needs none here againſt the new Incumbent, for that he comes in pendant the Writ, but if it had been before the Writ brought, then a Scire facias would: The Caſe was adjourned, and not Reſolved. Hill. 27 Eliz. in B. R. Williams and Blowers Caſe. Leon, 293, 294.

15. Scire facias to have Execution upon a Judgment in Debt; The Defendant pleaded, That at another time the Plaintiff had ſued Execution by Capias ad ſatisfaciendum, and the Defendant was taken in Execution. The Plaintiff replyed, It was true, That he ſued a Capias ad ſatisfaciendum, and that the Defendant was taken in Execution; but he preſently Reſcued himſelf, and eſcaped. It was holden by the Court, That the Replication was good, and that the Plaintiff not having the fruit of his Execution, he may have a new Execution; and although it is no good Return upon a Capias ad ſatisfaciendum, that the Defendant reſcued himſelf, yet the party himſelf ſhall never take advantage of his own wrong. Trin. 6 Car. in B. R. Robinſon and Cleyton's Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 174. 185. acc.

16. Husband and Wife, the Wife Adminiſtratrix

ſtratrix to her former husband, brings debt upon an Obligation of 200 l. due to the Inteſtate, and had Judgment to recover their debt and damages; the Wife dyes, and a year and day being paſt, the Husband brought a Scire facias to have Execution. It was the Opinion of the Court, That this Scire facias did not lye for the Husband, becauſe it being a debt demanded by the Wife, is in auter droit, and although ſhe recover, yet ſhe dying before Execution, the duty remains to him who takes new Adminiſtration; and although the Husband be party to the Judgment, yet he hath no property in the debt: But if Husband and Wife bring debt for a debt due to the Wife, and recovers, the Wife dyes, the Husband may bring a Scire facias to execute this Judgment; for the debt being recovered, the Husband after the death of the Wife ſhall have it. Hill. 6 Car. in B. R. Beamount and Longs Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 150. 164. acc.

17. Scire facias, ſuppoſing that he recovered in debt againſt an Executor, and had Judgment for 40 l. of the goods of the Teſtator, ſi tantum, and 7 l. for Coſts, de Bonis of the Teſtators. ſi tantum; and if not, de Bonis propriis; and before ſatisfaction, he dyed Inteſtate, and Adminiſtration was committed to the Defendant, de Bonis primi Teſtatoris, and alſo of the Executors, and that the Executor had not ſatisfied, and therefore he brought a Writ to ſhew cauſe why he ſhould not have execution: The Defendant pleaded Plein adminiſtration of the goods of the firſt Inteſtate; and upon Iſſue joyned, it was found for the Plaintiff. It was moved in ſtay of Judgment, That this Scire facias was not well grounded; for the Recovery being againſt an Execution of a debt by the Teſtator, and he dying Inteſtate, the ſuit is determined: But the Opinion of the Court was, That the Scire facias was well awarded. It is true, that as Executor, he cannot have a Scire facias by the Executor, but is put to a new Action, for that he comes in paramount the Judgment, and is not party thereunto; yet where a Judgment is againſt an Executor for the Teſtators debt, although he dyeth Inteſtate, this Judgment might be executed by Scire facias againſt the Adminiſtrator of the firſt Teſtator, who cometh in place of the Executor, and being for the debt of the Inteſtate, is lyable thereunto, but as Adminiſtrator to the Executor, he is not lyable. Mich. 5 Car. in B. R. Snape and Norgates Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 119.

18. Error of a Judgment in C. B. It was aſſigned for Error, That no Capias was awarded againſt the Principal, and yet a Scire facias iſſued againſt the Bayl, and Judgment againſt them, and the Principal and Bayl brought the Error. It was holden, That the Writ brought by them was not good; for they ought not to joyn in Error; for the Bayl may not avoid the Judgment againſt the Principal in any Error which is in the Proceeding, and the Principal hath nothing to do with the Judgment againſt the Bayl. Trin. 11 Car. in B. R. Buſſel and Yallers Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 295.

19. In a Scire facias againſt the Bayl, the Caſe was; That in Debt for 70 l. by the Plaintiff againſt L. a Capias iſſued againſt him, directed to a Sergeant at Mace, who returned a Cepi Capias; that L. ſecundum Conſuetudinem Villæ intrat ei ſecuritatem, viz. one H. who was dead, and the ſaid Defendant ad Comparandum, and if he were condemned to ſatisfie the debt, or to render himſelf to priſon: It was ſo far proceeded in an Inferiour Court at Lyon, That Judgment was given for the Defendant: And thereupon Error brought, and that Judgment reverſed. And now becauſe L. the Principal did not pay the debt, nor render himſelf to priſon, this Action was brought: upon which it was Demurred. It was moved, That this Bayl found before the Sergeant, although it was alledged to be ſecundum Conſuetudinem Villæ, was not good: For the Bail being matter of Record, cannot be found before any but the Judge of the Court: but Bail for appearance only, might be taken by the Sergeant. And of that Opinion was the whole Court, It was adjudged againſt the Plaintiff. Hill. 2 Jac. B.R. Loft and Keldridges Caſe, Cro. 2. Part, 94.

20. Scire facias againſt the Bail; The Scire facias recited, That the Judgment was given againſt C. the Principal, in debt, and that he had not paid the Condemnation, nor rendred himſelf to priſon according to the Bail. The Defendant pleaded, That the Principal was dead before the Scire facias brought. And becauſe it was not alledged, when he dyed, nor that he dyed before the Capias awarded, it was holden to be no Plea. And although Exception was taken to the Scire facias, becauſe it is not mentioned therein, That the Capias was awarded; Yet it was holden good enough; for that it is not of neceſſity to be recited. Mich. 3 Jac. in B. R. Juſtice Williams and Vaughans Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 97. Trin. 5 Jac. Tymp and Colemans Caſe, Cro. 2. Part, 165. acc.

21. After Judgment, a Capias was awarded againſt the Principal, and Returned Non eſt inventus; and afterwards a Scire facias was againſt the Bail, who was returned Nihil. A ſecond Scire facias was awarded, and then he brought in the body of the Principal, and prayed it might be accepted in Execution. It was ſaid by the Clerk, That it came too late after the Capias returned. It was the Opinion of Popham, Juſtice, That it might be very well, unleſſe the firſt be returned Warned, and Judgment given thereupon. For the Scire facias otherwiſe would be to little purpoſe: Wherefore by Award of the Court, the Principal was received. Hill. 3 Jac. in B. R. Hill and Saunderſons Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 109.

Warnel,

22. Scire facias againſt an Executor upon a Judgment in Debt againſt the Teſtator: The Defendant pleaded, That the Plaintiff ſued forth Execution againſt the Teſtator by Capias ad ſatisfaciend. and had his body in Execution; who dyed in priſon, and delivered Judgment. Upon which it was Demurred, becauſe this Execution is not any ſatisfaction. It was prayed, That foraſmuch as he did not plead, That ſatisfaction was given, Execution might be awarded, It was holden, The Barr was good: For when the party is taken in Execution, although it be not in it ſelf any ſatisfaction; yet as to him there cannot be any other Execution. But becauſe it was a new Caſe, and had not been before adjudged, the Court would adviſe of it. Paſch. 43 Eliz. in B. R. Williams and Catteries Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 136, 143.

23. Debt upon an Obligation, and a Recovery by Nihil dicit: After the Defendants death, a Scire facias was brought againſt the Heir, and a Recovery againſt him upon two Nihils returned; who dyed, and a new Scire facias was brought againſt the Heir, and a Recovery had againſt him by default. Whereupon Errour was brought in the Exchequer Chamber. Errour aſſigned, That there was not any Bill upon the File, as in truth there was not any. But upon ſuggeſtion to the Court, That it being an Ancient Judgment, the Bill might well be imbezelled off the File. It was Ordered, That a new Bill ſhould be put upon the File. Mich. 5 Jac. in B. R. Mayney and Collet Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 186.

24. Errour in the Exchequer-Chamber: Aſſigned, for that Debt was brought in Cumberland, and Judgment had by Confeſſion, and a Scire facias brought againſt his Executor in Middleſex, and Judgment there for the Plaintiff; whereas the Scire facias ought to have been brought in Cumberland, where the Original was brought; and not in Middleſex, although the Judgment was there by Confeſſion: For the Scire facias ought to purſue the firſt Action. Mich. 11 Jac. in Exchequer. Wharton and Muſgraves Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 331.

25. In an Action upon the Caſe for words, the Plaintiff had Judgment, but no Execution was ſued forth for one year following, but afterwards the Defendant brought a Writ of Error returnable in the Exchequer Chamber. The Return being removed, the Plaintiff prayed day to aſſign Errors, and at the day did not aſſign them, but was Nonſuit, and the Record remaunded. Afterwards the Defendant being Impriſoned for other cauſe, it was moved, That he ſhould be in Execution for this cauſe, although the year and day were paſt after the Judgment, ſo as the Plaintiff was put to his Scire facias to have Execution. Yet becauſe the Defendant had brought a Writ of Error, It was ſaid, That thereby he had renewed the Record, and the Record being renewed, That in that Caſe, the Plaintiff ſhould have Judgment without a Scire facias brought; and ſuch was the Judgment of the Court. Hill. 12 Jac. in the Exchequer Chamber, Sir Henry Bellaſis and Hanfords Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 364, 365.

26. Scire facias upon a Judgment in Debt againſt R. for 200 l. againſt his Ter-Tenants. The Sheriff returned, That he warned J. C. and three other Tenants; the Tenants made default. J. C. pleaded, That one R. T. was Tenant of 20 Acres in ſuch a Town, which are the Lands of the ſaid R. againſt whom the Recovery was at the time of the Judgment, and delivered Judgment if he ſhould anſwer till the ſaid T. R. be warned. It was adjudged, That the Plea was good. In this Caſe, It was adjudged for the Defendant. For it was ſaid, There is a difference betwixt a Scire facias to have Execution upon a Judgment in Debt, and to have Execution upon a Judgment in a real Action; for in the laſt, this is not any plea; for every Tenant ſhall anſwer for that which he hath, and the one may loſe, and the other not. But in a Scire facias to have Execution of a Debt, becauſe every one ought to be contributory, the one ſhall not anſwer ſo long as he can ſhew that another is contributory with him: and although that the Sheriff Return that they are Ter-Tenants; yet that ſhall not conclude the Defendant, but that he may ſay, That another is Ter-Tenant of parcell who is not warned. It was adjudged for the Defendant. Trin. 11 Jac. in B. R. Michell and Sir John Croſts Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 507, 508.

27. A Scire facias againſt the Sheriff; For that the Plaintiff having brought a Fieri facias upon a Judgment againſt one T. directed to the Defendant, he returned, That he had taken goods into his hands, to the value of 72 l. and had ſold ſo much of them as amounted to 11 l. and that the reſidue did remain in his hands pro defectu emptorum, untill ſuch a day, at which day he putting them to Sale, they were reſcued from him; upon which it was demurred. It was agreed in this Caſe, That as to the Return of the Reſcous, it was not good. The Queſtion was, Whether the Sheriff had charged himſelf by this Writ. Jones Juſtice, That he had not; For although the Sheriff hath Returned, That the goods are of the value of 72 l. that is not any Eſtoppel, but that he may ſet them for more or leſs after, as he can get for them. Dodderidge Juſtice contrary, for he cannot diminiſh ought from the power that the Law gives him; and he held, That the Sheriff had charged himſelf by this Retorn. If he had retorned only Quod remanent in manibus pro defectu emptorum, he ſhould not have charged himſelf, for he had done his Office, but when he ſaith further, That they were reſcued out of his hands, he therein had miſdemeaned himſelf, and therefore is chargeable; and in this Caſe, he is chargeable becauſe he hath his remedy over. Mountagu Juſtice agreed with Dodderidge, but yet no Judgment was. But it was adjourned. Mich. 16 Jac. in B. R. Sly and Finches Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 514, 515.

28. Scire facias to have damages recovered in an Appeal. The Defendant pleaded, That after Judgment, the Teſtator ſued Execution by Scire facias againſt the Bail, and had Judgment and Execution awarded againſt the Bail: Upon which it was demurred; And it was adjudged no Plea, becauſe it was not ſhewed, That he was ſatisfied by the Execution againſt the Bail; for otherwiſe, without ſatisfaction, he may alwayes charge the Principal. Trin. 17 Jac. in B. R. Freeman and Freemans Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 549.

2. Where a Scire facias lyeth upon a Recognizance; and upon what Recognizance; and for what cauſe, and in what Court; and where not.

1. IN Debt againſt a Sheriff for an Eſcape, the Caſe was, A. did acknowledg a Recognizance in the Chancery; and the Plaintiff had a Scire facias, and two Nihils retorned. Afterwards he had a Judgment, Quod recuperet debitum, and a Levari facies came to the Sheriff to levy the ſame, who Retorned Nulla bona. Afterwards he took out a Capias ad ſatisfaciendum to the Sheriff, who took the party in Execution, and afterwards did ſuffer him to eſcape; upon which the Action was brought. The point inſiſted upon was, Whether a Capias doth lye upon a Recognizance acknowledged in Chancery, or not? It was objected, That a Capias doth not lye upon a Recognizance taken in Chancery. And 13 and 14 Eliz. Dyer, 306, Puttenhams Caſe was vouched to be accordingly. And Cook 3. Part, 12. Sir William Herberts Caſe. On the other ſide it was Anſwered, That as this Caſe was, the Action upon the Eſcape did well lye againſt the Sheriff. For preſently after the Recognizance is acknowledged, it is a Judgment upon Record; and where a Debt is of Record, there by the Statute of 25 E. 3. cap. 17. the party may have a Capias, and the Court of Chancery hath a courſe alwayes in ſuch Caſe, to award a Capias. But admitting that the proceſs was Erronious, or that they award an Erronious proceſs, or miſ-award a Capias, by which the party is taken in Execution, yet it is a lawful Execution, and the Sheriff is chargeable with the Eſcape, and he is not to examine the Error of the Court where the Court hath Juriſdiction of the cauſe; and ſo it was adjudged, Trin. 31 Eliz. in the Exchequer, in Raſtall and Ognells Caſe, which ſee in Cook 8. Part, 141. in Dr. Druries Caſe. Paſc. 44 Eliz. Weaver and Cliffords Caſe. Bulſtr. 2. Part, 62, to 65. But ſee Yelverton, Hill. 1 Jac. in B. R. in the ſame Caſe. That it was the Reſolution of Yelverton, Gawdy, and Popham, Juſtices, That a Capias doth not lye upon a Recognizance in Chancery; and although there be Preſidents to the contrary, yet that doth not ſtop the mouth of the Judges; and therefore if the party be taken upon ſuch a Capias, and Eſcape, the Sheriff is not chargeable with the Eſcape, for he is not chargeable, but where it is upon a lawful Commitment, and ſo is the Statute of Weſt. 2. to be intended, which gives the Action againſt the Goaler, which is not in this Caſe, becauſe the Law doth not give a Capias upon a Recognizance in Chancery. See Yelverton 46.

2. A Scire facias was brought in Chancery upon a Recognizance there; The parties being at Iſſue, the Record was ſent in B. R. to be tryed, and being found for the Plaintiff, he had Judgment, and an Elegit thereupon Retorned; Whereupon divers Lands were extended and offered by the Sheriff to be delivered to the party according to the Extent, which the Plaintiff refuſed before the Sheriff, becauſe they were too high, and prayed that the Extenders might retain them; all which was Retorned by the Sheriff, and at the day of the Retorn, the Plaintiff came and prayed that the Extenders might retain them according to the Statute of Aſton Burnell. And a Caſe was ſhewed out of Bendloes Reports, 4 and 5 Mar. where it is ſet down to be Reſolved by all the Juſtices, That upon an Execution upon a Recognizance for debt, if the Land be extended too high, the Plaintiff may pray that the Extenders may retain it, aſwell as upon an Extent upon a Statute Merchant or Staple. But in a Scire facias upon Bail, and Recovery and Execution Execution thereupon, it is otherwiſe, and of that Opinion was all the Court; Wherefore it was awarded, that the Extendors ſhould have the Land at the Rate, &c. and that they ſhould pay the Debt. Hill. 44 Eliz. in B. R. Mollineux and Lazes Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 12.

3. Scire facias upon a Recognizance for the good behaviour taken in the Crown Office, the breach aſſigned was, becauſe he aſſaulted and beat one ſuch a day, and doth not ſay vi et armis, and for this cauſe after Verdict, the Exception being taken, Judgment was ſtayed. Mich. 14 Jac. in B. R. The King and Hutleys Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 432. See Baſſt. 3. Part, 220. the ſame Caſe.

4. Scire facias upon a Recognizance of the good Behaviour; the Breach was aſſigned, Becauſe the Defendant ſaid to a Conſtable, in executing of his Office, Thou art a lying Raſcal. 2. Becauſe he ſaid to another who threw down his ledges, One of you is dead of the Plague, and I hope I ſhall ſee more of you to dye of the Plague. 3. He ſaid to a Woman, That ſhe was a Whore and a Jade. 4. Becauſe he ſaid to one in the Church yard after Evening Prayer, That he was a forſworn Knave, and a perjured Knave. The Defendant pleaded, Not Guilty. And it appeared upon Evidence, That he ſpake to the Conſtable, becauſe he affirmed, that the Defendant uſed to carry Picklocks about him, Thou art a lying Raſcall, which words did not prove that it was any diſturbance of the Execution of his Office, or in any act about his Office: And for the other words, the Court held, That they did not extend to the breaking of the Peace, or to the terror of any, nor was there any act done, but only evill words; and although the manner of ſpeaking may be a good cauſe in diſcretion to bind one to the good Behaviour; yet being bound, words only would not tend to the breach of the Peace; Wherefore the Court left it to the Jury to conſider of the validity of the Evidence, who conſidering thereof, gave a Verdict for the Defendant. 3. Where a Scire facias brought by the King to repeal his Letters Patents, muſt be brought; and where not: And where the King may enter and ſeize without a Scire facias. And where a Scire facias will lye by one Pattentee againſt another Pattentee to repeal his Patent; Where not.

1. A Scire facias for the firſt Pattentee of the King, to revoke a Letter Patent of a Parkſhip upon a diſturbance; and the Scire facias being returned, Et nihil ſcivit dicere nec dixit nec potuit dicere recordum quia litera pradicti Patent. ſibi conſtit. revocari et ad nullari debeant. Judgment was given in the Chancery, That the ſaid Letters Patents ſhould be revoked. Another Scire facias was awarded to revoke and annull the Office of Grant of an Auditorſhip for a Condition broken. Another Scire facias was Granted for making void and annulling the Grant of the Officer of Remembrancer in the Exchequer, to Blage, which was granted him, quamdiu ſe bene geſſerit in Officii, he being a Baron of the Exchequer; whereas the taking upon him of the Baronſhip, determined the ſaid Office of Remembrancer. Another Scire facias Granted for the King to admit the Office of Sergeant at Arms to be exerciſed cum Caſtellario, for his not attendance, for he had a Bayliwick of Inheritance which required attendance, and the Pattent was revoked and made void ſalvo jure cujuſlibet. See Paſc. 3 Eliz. Dyer, 197, 198. for theſe ſeveral Scire facias's.

2. A Scire facias was awarded to make void and annul the Office of Receiver of the County of Eſſex, Hertford, and Middleſex, Granted to Sir Robert Cheſter for Term of his life, with a Fee, becauſe he was in Arrerages upon his Account had before an Auditor, and ſo had broken the Condition: and the Opinion of the Juſtices was, That the ſame was well revoked by the Scire facias, although the matter was not found by Office. Hill. 3 Eliz. Dyer, 211. Sir Robert Cheſters Caſe.

3. Upon a Commiſſion in the nature of a Diem clauſit extremum, a Tenure of the Queen as of the Barony of S. was Returned. Afterwards a ſecond Commiſſion was awarded, and found a Tenure nure in Knight Service, as of the ſaid Barony, and after that, a third Commiſſion iſſued Reciting quod compertum eſt per Inquiſitionem capt. poſt mortem A. tempore H. 5. That the ſaid Land was holden of the King in Knight Service in Capite, upon which Knight Service in Capite was returned prout per diſt. Inquiſitionem de tempore H. 5. Liquet. It was holden by the Juſtices in this Caſe, That the Heir needs not to traverſe the two laſt Inquiſitions, for they were without Warrant, but that the firſt Office, although againſt the Queen ſhould ſtand and be allowed, untill they ſhould be diſproved by a Scire facias, which ſhould Iſſue out of the Record of H. 5. acc. to the Statute of 29 E. 1. of Eſcheators. Paſc. 8 Eliz. Dyer, 249.

4. The Lord Brook who was Lord Chief Juſtice of the Common Pleas, did annull and make void a Grant made by himſelf before to one, of the Office of chief Prignothory of the Common Pleas, becauſe he was a perſon Inidoneus, to execute the ſaid Office, and granted the ſame to another. And in that Caſe, a Preſident was ſhewed in 5 E. 4. where the Office of Clark of the Crown in the Kings Bench was granted to one Vinter and another, and after dyed. And Vinter exhibited his Patent: And it ſeemed to the Juſtices, that becauſe he was never exerciſed in the ſaid Office, that his Patent was void; and the Juſtices refuſed to admit him into the ſaid Office for the benefit of the King and his people: And this his diſability being ſignified to the King, the King commanded them, Ore tenus without any Scire facias to ſwear and admit another into the ſaid Office. Mich. 5 Mr. Dyer, 151.

5. In a Scire facias brought by Sir Maurice Berkley againſt Sir John Sallyard; the Caſe was, Sir Maurice Berkley being a Patentee of the King of the Office of Banner bearer in the Field; upon the Coronation of Queen Mary, before one of the Maſters of the Chancery out of Court, without delivery or Reſtitution of the Letters Patents to be cancelled, made a ſurrender of them, which ſurrender was accepted of, and Recorded by the ſaid Maſter in hæc verba, Memorandum quod Mauricius Barkley Miles venit coram me W. E. Cancell. Dominæ Reginæ uno Magiſtror. 29 Sept. Anno Mariæ 1. et ſurſumreddit in manus dictæ Dominæ Reginæ Officium ſuum vacat. the Bannerſhip una cum omnibus vadiis, &c. and thereupon the Office was Granted to the ſaid Sir John Sallyard. It was a Queſtion, if the Record aforeſaid was ſufficient to make a ſurrender of the ſaid Office. It ſeemed to be the Opinion of the Juſtices, That it was not. Wherefore afterwards, Sir John Sallyard was removed, and the ſaid Sir Maurice Barkley was reſtored to his ſaid Office. Mich. 2 Eliz. Dyer, 176.

6. King Hen. 8. ſeiſed of the Manner of Torrington, and of a Fair holden within the ſaid Manner every Saturday in every Week, and of a Fair there holden yearly, in vigilia feſto et craſtino St. Mich. Granted to one V. and two other Merchants of Torrington, Mercatum infra Manerium ſuum de Torrington in Comm. Devon, et nundinas ſuas ibidem annuatim terminis in feſto St. Mich. for the Term of 31 years rendring rent, and after dyed, Queen Mary, Anno 2. of her Reign, Incorporated the Town of Torrington, and Granted to them, That they and their Succeſſors ſhould have and hold de cetero unum Mercatum in Burgo de Torrington et duas Nundinas ibidem annuatim, viz. unam in feſto vigil. et craſtino St. Mich. et aliam in die St. Georgii Martyris, et 2. dibus proxime ſequent. And in May after, the Queen reciting the ſaid Leaſe made to V. and alſo the ſaid Corporation and Grant made to them; Granted the Reverſion of the ſaid Market within the Town of Torrington, and of the ſaid Fairs, to James Baſſet in Fee, after the expiration of the ſaid Term of 21 years; the Heir of Baſſet brought a Scire facias againſt the Corporation, to annul and make void their Letters Patents, as to the ſaid Market and Fairs. It was holden in that Caſe by the Juſtices, That the younger Patent Baſſet, ſhould not have a Scire facias to repeal the Ancient Patent, but è contra. And it was holden by the Juſtices, That if the laſt Patent be of Fairs and Markets to be holden at other times then the firſt, it is no cauſe of repeal, for that it is a diſtinct thing from the firſt Granted. Trin. 10 Eliz. Dyer, 276. Baſſet Caſe.

7. Note. Theſe Rules were put and agreed for Law. 1. At the Common Law, If the King was by falſe Office poſſeſſed of any Cuſtody, or Intereſt in the Land by reaſon of Gardiſhip or Idiocy, that although that the Office was falſe, yet the party could not have any traverſe, but was put to his Petition. But where the King by vertue of any Office is only entituled, and cannot make any ſeizure without ſuit; there in a Scire facias brought by the King, the party might traverſe the Office, becauſe that nothing was in the King by the Office: As if the Kings Tenant ceſſe for two years, or had committed Waſte, or had made a Feoffment upon colluſion, and the King brings a Scire facias, the party might traverſe the ceſſer Waſte, or Colluſion. 2. That in all Caſes at the Common Law, when the Title of the King accrues to him by judicial Record; there although the King Grants his Eſtate over, the party grieved was put to his Petition, and ſhould not have a Scire facias againſt the Patentee. But when the King was entituled by by Conveyance of Record; as if a Diſſeiſor convey Land unto the King by Fine, Deed enrolled, or the like, there although the party was put to his Petition as againſt the King; yet if he granted him the thing over, the Diſſeiſee might enter, or have an Action againſt the Patentee, for that a judicial Conveyance by Record is preferred before a Conveyance of Record by aſſent. Cook 4. Part, 59. in the Caſe of the Wardens and Commonalty of Sadlers. See Cook 4. Part, 126. in Beverleyes Caſe, acc.

8. The King granted the Office of Marſhalſey for life, and afterwards granted the ſame in Reverſion for 21. years. The Grantee of the Reverſion aſſigned his Intereſt to A: Tenant for life deputed J. S. at Will, and dyed; A. aſſigned the ſaid Office to J. S: Office found, That J. S. committed divers forfeitures of the ſaid Office, by ſuffering divers voluntary Eſcapes. In this Caſe, It was Reſolved, That the King might ſeize the Office, without ſuing a Scire facias. And in that Caſe, theſe differences were taken; 1. That in ſome Caſes, the King ſhall be in poſſeſſion by Seizure without Office. As in caſe of the Temporalties of a Biſhop, or Prior Alliens, becauſe the Certainty thereof doth appear in the Exchequer. 2. In ſome Caſes, the King ſhall be in poſſeſſion by Office, without ſeizure; as of Lands, Offices; Ward of Lands whereof a continual profit may be taken; As where it is found by Office, that a Condition is broken; or that a perſon Attainted is ſeiſed of Lands, &c. 3. In ſome Caſes, the King ſhall be in poſſeſſion by ſeizure and Office. As in caſe of an Advowſon, the Rightful Patron, the King ſhall not be entituled by a falſe Office found thereof, untill the King hath preſented his Clerk, and he is Admitted and Inſtituted: For if the King brings a Quare Impedit, in that caſe he may traverſe the Office. 4. In ſome caſes, the King ſhall be in poſſeſſion without Office or ſeizure; as where the Kings Tenant dyeth without Heir. 5. In all caſes, where a Common perſon is put to his Action, there upon an Office found, the King is put to his Scire facias: but when a a Common perſon cannot enter or ſeize; there an Office found without a Scire facias, will ſuffice for the King. Cook 9. Part, 96. Sir George Reynells Caſe.

More Scire Facias.

1. FOur Women Co-heirs of H; 3. of them and their Husbands prayed a Writ of Covenant to levy a Fine againſt the fourth Siſter and her Husband: By which Fine, the Defendants did acknowledg the Tenements to be the right of one of the Siſters, as thoſe which her Husband and ſhe, and the two other Husbands and their Wives had of the guift of the Conuſees: And the Conuſees granted and rendred back the Tenements to the Wife of the Conuſor in tail, to hold of the Chief Lord per ſervitia debita et conſueta: and if it ſhould happen that ſhe dye without heir of her body, then after her deceaſe, the ſaid Tenements wholly to remain to the ſaid 3. Women Siſters the Conuſees, and the Heirs of their bodies begotten, the remainder to the right heirs of H: The Siſter who was the Donee in tail upon the Grant and Render, dyed without Iſſue; the other three Siſters and their Husbands brought a Scire facias to execute the remainder in tail to them. It was holden, That in that caſe a Scire facias did not lye to execute the ſame Remainder; For that the Conuſees had a Fee executed in them; and then the remainder limited to themſelves in tail, was void. Paſch. 5 E. 6. Dyer, 69. See 1 H. 5. 8. 42 E. 3. 5. acc.

2. A Scire facias was brought by Tho: Gale, to execute a Fine; The Fine was levied, being a Fine Sur Conuſans de Droit come Ceo, &c. between the ſaid George Gale, and Tho. Gale; by which the Conuſee rendred the Lands to the ſaid George Gale the Conuſor in tail, the remainder to himſelf in Fee: the Conuſor dyed without Iſſue, and Thomas the Conuſee brought a Scire facias to execute the ſaid Remainder: It was holden in that Caſe, That it was no Remainder, but a Reverſion in the Conuſee, it being a Fine Sur Conuſans de Droit come ceo: But if it had been a Fine executory, then it was ſaid, That he ſhould have a Scire facias in the Reverter; but as now the Caſe is, he was put to his Formedon. Paſch. 3 Eliz. Dyer, 199. Gales Caſe.

3. A. ſeiſed of a Houſe in London, took a wife, and afterwards acknowledged a Recognizance to the Chamberlain of London, according to the Cuſtome for Orphanage Money: And afterwards acknowledged another Recognizance before the Recorder

Recorder and Mayor to B; B. ſued Execution upon his Recognizance, and had a Liberate, but the ſame was not returned, and the Sheriff upon that delivered the ſaid houſe to B: The Succeſſor of the Chamberlain ſued Execution by Elegit upon his Recognizance, and had the moyety of the ſaid Houſe delivered him in Extent: A. the Conuſor dyed. It was in this caſe Objected, amongſt other things, That the Execution upon the Elegit was unlawful, Becauſe that B. was in by matter of Record, whereof he ought to take Notice, and have a Scire facias againſt him. But it was Reſolved by the Court, That the Execution upon the Elegit was good enough. But it was ſaid, That if the Sheriff had returned the former Execution by Extent; and the matter had appeared to the Court, That in ſuch caſe, the Plaintiff ought to have had a Scire facias. Cook 4. Part, 65 Fullwoods Caſe.

4. A Judgment was given upon a Bond of 4000 l. and the Scire facias was ſued for 3000 l. and he did not acknowledg Satisfaction of the other 1000 l: It was moved, That the Scire facias ſhould abate: For if a man brings debt upon a Bond of 20 l, and ſheweth a Bond of 40 l. and doth not acknowledg ſatisfaction of 20 l, it is not good. It was the Opinion of the Court, That there was no difference betwixt the Action of Debt upon a Bond and a Scire facias. And the Intendment, viz. That it ſhall be intended that he was paid, becauſe that he was ſued but for 3000 l, will not help him the Defendant: And therefore the Opinion of the Juſtices was, That if the Defendant in the Scire facias ſay nothing by ſuch a day, That Judgment be entred for the Plaintiff. 5. A Judgment was given in Debt at the Grand Seſſions in Wales againſt the Defendant inhabiting in one of the ſaid Counties; The Defendant dyed Inteſtate, one inhabiting in London, took Letters of Adminiſtration; Whether any Execution might be in Wales, was the Queſtion, becauſe he neither Inhabits, nor hath any thing there: And if not, Whether the Record may be removed into the Chancery by Certiorari, and ſent by Mittimus into the Kings-Bench or Common-Pleas, to the intent to take forth a Scire facias upon it, to have Lands out of Wales, or goods in the hands of the Adminiſtrator lyable there to it. It was holden by all the Juſtices and Barons, That he could not; for he may not have a Scire facias in any Court, betwixt the Judgment is given. Paſch. 2 Car. in B. R. Cro. 1. Part, 23.

6. Errour of a Judgment in Debt upon an Eſcape againſt a Sheriff, of one G. B; againſt whom a Recovery was in debt as Adminiſtratrix to one J. S. and that he being in Execution, the Sheriff ſuffered him to Eſcape. The Errour aſſigned was, That the firſt Recovery was as Adminiſtratrix to J. S. and the debt upon the Eſcape, is as Executrix to J. S; which cannot be, that one ſhould dye Inteſtate, and have an Executrix; and the Debt upon the Eſcape ought to purſue the firſt Action. And if an Executor brings an Action and Recovers, and dyes Inteſtate, the Adminiſtrator of the firſt man may not ſue forth Execution. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That the Action was not well brought; and therefore the Judgment was reverſed. Mich. 12 Jac. in B. R. Sir Hen. Slingsby and Lambert and Shilstons Caſe, Cro. 2. Part, 394.

7. In a Replevin, the Caſe was thus; A man acknowledged a Statute, and afterwards granted a Rent Charge; the Land is extended, the Statute is afterwards ſatisfied by effluxion of time, and the Grantee did diſtrain for the Rent; And whether he might, without bringing his Action, was the Queſtion? It was Objected ſtrongly, That he ought for to have a Scire facias; and this Scire facias ought to be ad Computandum: But the Opinion of the Court was, That he might well diſtrain without a Scire facias, for he did not meddle with the poſſeſſion, but diſtrained for the Rent; and the Grantee of the Rent cannot have a Scire facias, becauſe he is a ſtranger; and a ſtranger cannot have a Scire facias, either ad Computandum, or to have back the Land again. But if he might have a Scire facias, yet it was holden, That he might diſtrain: And Brampſton, Chief Juſtice, ſaid, You will never find any Book, where a Scire facias was brought by the Grantee of a Rent or other profit apprender; and the Judgment is a the Scire facias is, Quod tenementa prædict. redeliberentur: And may the Grantee in this caſe have the Land and thing in demand? Certainly not; and you ſhall never find in all our Books, That a man ſhall have an Attaint or a Writ of Errour, but he who may be reſtored to the thing loſt by the Judgment. See 3 Car. in B. R. Dunkers Caſe, adjudged acc. It was adjudged in the principal Caſe, for the Avowant. Hill. 15 Car. rott. 177. in B. R. Cro. 1. Part, 434. Burwell and Harwell's Caſe. 8. In Aſſumpſit by A. againſt J. S. and one Dr. T. his bail; Judgment was given in B. R. againſt the Principal, and after by a Scire facias againſt the Bail; and the Principal and Bail joyned both in a Writ of Error in the Exchequer-Chamber: The Writ by Judgment was abated, becauſe they could not joyn. Then it was deſired, That

That the Bail might have a new Writ of Errour by himself, Quod coram nobis reſidet. But it was denyed by the Court, becauſe the Scire facias is none of the Actions wherein a Writ of Errour is given in the Exchequer-Chamber. Hill. 10 Jac. in Exchequer-Chamber. Forreſt and Sir James Sandelands Caſe. Hob. 72.

9. A. recovered againſt T. H. by Judgment; who dyed, and upon a Scire facias againſt the Terr-Tenants, the Sheriff returned J. H. Tenant of a Houſe that was his at the time of the Judgment in Yarmouth; J. H. came in, and pleaded, That T. A. enfeoffed him long before the Judgment in Fee, abſq; hoc, that he was ſeiſed at the time of the Judgment, or at any time after. Upon that Iſſue being joyned, the Sheriff found the Feoffment; but ſaid, It was made by Covin to defraud the Plaintiff and other Creditors. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff; for that T. H. ſtill remained ſeiſed as to the Creditors, notwithſtanding the Feoffment: But if Iſſue had been taken, directly enfeoffed, or not enfeoffed, it had been found againſt the Plaintiff; for in that caſe, he muſt avoid the Feoffment by Covin ſpecially pleaded, for it is a Feoffment, ſuch as it is. Hill. 10 Jac. in C. B. Humberton and Howgills Caſe, Hob. 72. acc.

10. J. N. in Anno 35 Eliz. recovered in C. B. 300 l. debt againſt the Earl of Derby, and 3 l. Coſts, and made A. N. his Executix, who dyed before Execution, Inteſtate. S. took Adminiſtration of the Goods of J. N. not adminiſtred by A. N, and took to husband W. the Plaintiff, and both of them brought a Scire facias againſt the Terr-Tenants upon the ſaid Judgment, and had divers Scire facias into divers Counties. Upon one Teſtatum, viz. into the Counties of L. C. and N. returnable Craſtino Annunctia. 16 Jac. a Scire facias upon the Writ into the County of L. is returned againſt J. Terr-Tenant, Et quod non fuerunt plures, and Judgment was given to have Execution againſt him; and an Elegit awarded: Upon the Writ in the County of C, It was returned Scire facias 30. Tenants, Et quod non fuerunt plures; 10 of the 30 made default, and Judgment againſt them, and Elegit awarded; the other 20. appeared, and pleaded ſeverally: Upon the third Scire facias into the County of N; the Sheriff returned a Scire facias to the Earl of B. and his Counteſs Tenants, who appeared and pleaded; and upon any Execution done upon theſe Writs of Elegit, the ſaid W. the husband of S. dyed. It was a Queſtion, If upon the death of the husband, all the whole Writs of Scire facias ſhould not abate as well againſt the Tenants, againſt whom the Judgment is entred, as againſt thoſe who pleaded? And, admitting it ſhall abate againſt them all, Whether the Plaintiff ſhall have Execution againſt any of theſe Tenants before the Judgment be given for, or againſt the other? Theſe Queſtions were not Reſolved, but the Court would adviſe of them. Trin. 16 Jac. in C. B. Whittingham and the Terr-Tenants of the Earl of Derby's Caſe. Hob. 287. See Hutton, 32. the ſame Caſe.

11. Errour of a Judgment in B. R. where in a Scire facias upon a Judgment of 900 l. and Execution thereupon, the Defendant there being dead, The Plaintiff ſurmiſed, That he was ſeiſed of Lands in the Counties of K. and S, and prayed a Scire facias into the ſeverall Counties. The Sheriff of K. returned, That A. was Terr-Tenant of the Land in K: The Sheriff of S. returned, That B. and his Wife were Terr-Tenants of the Lands in S: A. being warned, took upon him the Tenancy of the Lands mentioned in the Sheriff's return; and pleaded, That another man in the ſame County had other Lands, whereof T. D. was Terr-Tenant; the then Plaintiff denyed it, and Iſſue thereupon, and found for the Plaintiff, and Judgment againſt A: But for the Lands in S, B. and his Wife pleaded, That they were not Tenants; and thereupon were at Iſſue: And being found for them, Judgment was given quod eant ſine die. A. brought a Writ of Errour upon that Judgment, and aſſigned for Errour, That B. was dead before the time of the tryal upon which it was demurred. It was the Opinion of the Court, That although that B. be dead, it is not materiall to A, eſpecially it being found by this Verdict, That B. was not Tenant. It was the Rule of the Court, That the Judgment ſhould be affirmed. Trin. 10 Car. in B. R. Angell and Sir William Coopers Caſe. Cro. 1. Part. 372, 373.

12. M. entred into a Recognizance of 2000 l. to H; and afterwards into a Statute of 1000 l. to D; D. extended upon his Statute the Mannor of S, which was H; And he having alſo divers other Lands: Afterwards H. ſued Execution upon his Recognizance, and had the moyty of the Mannor of S. firſt delivered to D. in Execution; but omitted divers other Lands which were of M. out of his extent at the time of the Recognizance: D. brought an Audita Querela in C. B. againſt H. and had Judgment; And upon Errour brought in B. R. the Judgment was affirmed: for D. being in by Judgment, and upon title by Execution upon the Statute, ought to have his Land lyable to the Extent upon the Recognizance; but pro tanto: and therefore he ought to have included the other Lands of M. in his Extent, as well as the Land of D: But if D. had not been Tenant by Title, but by Diſſeiſin, then he ought not to be relieved upon Audita Querela. And take Notice, That in this Caſe, It was ſtrongly holden by Yelverton, one of the Juſtices, That H. ought to have had a Scire facias againſt D. before that he removed his poſſeſſion, becauſe he was in by Title. But Quære of that. Mich. 45 Eliz. in B.R. Hinde and Deans Caſe. Yelverton, 12.

13. C. was endebted to C. in 20 l. who dyed Inteſtate; F. his Wife Adminiſtratrix recovered by Judgment againſt G; but, before Execution, dyed Inteſtate; Y. took Adminiſtration of the goods of C, and brought a Scire facias againſt G. upon the Judgment: It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That it did not lye; For one Adminiſtrator is not privy to the other; and this Scire facias being grounded upon a Record, it behoves him who will have an Action upon this Record, to make himſelf privy to him who was party to the Record: which cannot be in this caſe, for that every Adminiſtrator claims by Commiſſion, and Quaſi by a Collateral authority from another. Paſch. 1 Jac. in B. R. Yates and Gaughs Caſe. Yelverton, 33.

14. A recovered 200 l. upon a Bond againſt B. and the Action was layd in the County of C; and afterwards B. dyed Inteſtate, and W. took Letters of Adminiſtration; and afterwards the Plaintiff ſued a Scire facias to execute the Judgment againſt W, and laid the Action in W: and upon Fully Adminiſtred pleaded, the Jury found Aſſetts to 100 l. in the hands of W: It was moved, That this Scire facias ought to have enſued his Original; and that the ſame being ſued in the County of W. it was not good, but it ought to be brought in C: It was holden by the Court, That there was a difference betwixt Debt upon a Record, and a Scire facias upon the Record; for Debt upon the Record, recites the firſt Action, and the place where the Recovery was, ſo as there appears within the Record, a variance. But in a Scire facias, it is recited only Com. A. recuperaſſet ſuch a debt, quod quidem Judicium adhuc ſtat, &c. ſo as no place where the firſt Recovery was, appears: And the Court cannot take Notice, that the Scire facias is grounded upon the Record of the Judgment in C; becauſe that the Scire facias is a diſtinct Record of it ſelf, and not annexed to the firſt Judgment. Wherefore Judgment was given for the Plaintiff, and adviſed the ſaid W. to bring Errour, and ſhewed their Opinions clearly, That it would be Errour, becauſe that now after the Judgment in the Scire facias, the firſt Judgment, and this Execution upon the Scire facias, do make but one Record, of which the Judges in the Exchequer Chamber ought to take Notice. Hill. 9 Jac. in B. R. Muſgreve and Wharton's Caſe. Yelverton, 218.

15. S. brought a Scire facias againſt Liveſy, Sheriff of K. reciting, That whereas he had recovered 300 l. againſt R. P. and had a Scire facias, The Defendant returned, That he had levied 63 l. which he had ready at the day, and yet he did not bring the money into Court; and afterwards he was removed from his Office: and the Writ was, to ſhew why he ſhould not have Execution againſt him of the ſaid ſum, with which he had charged himſelf by his ſaid Return. Upon which, the Defendant Demurred. It was, upon reading of the Record, adjudged for the Plaintiff, according to 9 E. 4. 50. and 5 E. 3. 53. Fitzh. Title, Execution, 101. B. rott. 3563. Samerford and Beamonts Caſe. ibid. adjudged acc.

17. In a Scire facias upon a Recognizance, the Caſe was this; A. recovered in Debt in this Court againſt one D. who brought a Writ of Error to reverſe the Judgment in the Exchequer Chamber, which was returnable, 3. Feb. laſt, and did find Bail according to the Statute of 3 Jac. cap. 4. the Defendant being his Bail, and bound in a Recognizance, That D. ſhould proſecute his Writ of Error with effect, and to ſatisfy the debt and damages if the Judgment was affirmed. And 12 Feb. the Scire facias was brought againſt him upon the Recognizance, to know why he ſhould not have Execution, in regard D. did not proſecute his Writ. The Defendant pleaded, That whereas the Writ of Error was returnable 3. Feb. D. the the Principal 2. Feb. came into Court, and reddidit ſe in eadem Curia in diſcharge of his Bail, et per mandatum Curiæ Committitur Mariſchallo, et adhuc remanet in Execution in the Marſhalſea: Upon which Plea the Plaintiff demurred in Law. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That this Plea was not good. He doth not in the Plea ſay, Quod reddidit ſe Priſona ſed venit hic in Curia, et in eadem Curia reddidit ſe Priſona; and that is impoſſible to be ſo, for here ought to be a Court day, and no render of himſelf could be in eadem Curia it not being dies Juridicus. Alſo it ought to be, That in eadem Curia reddidit ſe, et per eandem Curiam Commiſſus, for the Court ought to commit him, and it is not ſufficient for him to render himſelf, but he ought to be committed in Execution per Curiam; and this to be ſo, is here impoſſible, becauſe it appears not to us that this 2. day of Feb. Non fuit dies Juridicus, and therefore this is without help. Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Paſc. 14 Jac. in B. R. Auſtin and Monks Caſe. Bulſtr. 3. Part, 191, 192.

18. The Plaintiff had Judgment againſt the Defendant in Debt in C. B. and a Capias for taking of him, and becauſe he could not be taken, a Scire facias was granted againſt the Bail; upon which Nihil was returned. Afterwards the Defendant brought a Writ of Error to reverſe the Judgment, and the Record was removed in B. R. after a ſecond Scire facias againſt the Bail was granted, who before the Return of it, brought in the Principal, and prayed to have this allowed. It was ſaid, That the Court of Common Pleas, and this Court, do differ in this; there in the Common Pleas, they have but one Scire facias; but here we have two, the Record is here removed before the ſecond Scire facias, and therefore he is not to bring in the Principal after this is removed by a Writ of Error; and it was ſaid, it was adjudged in Sir George Bowes Caſe, That if the Bail do bring in the Principal upon the firſt Scire facias, this de jure ought to be allowed: but if he do nothing herein untill the ſecond Scire facias, and then bring in the Principal, it is not to be allowed, Anno 8 Eliz. Sir George Bowes Caſe,: And ſo the Rule in the principal Caſe, That this bringing in of the principall upon the ſecond Scire facias, was diſallowed according to the Reſolution in Bowes Caſe, Paſch. 14 Jac. in B. R. The Spaniſh Embaſſadour and Giffords Caſe. Bulſtr. 3. Part, 182, 183.

19. A Scire facias iſſued againſt the Terr-Tenants, to have Execution of a Judgment againſt F. Earl of Derby, in 25 Eliz. The Defendant pleaded, That long before F. had any thing in the Land, That Ed. Earl of Derby was ſeiſed of the Land, and 1 Maria, enfeoffed J. S. to the uſe of the Lord Strange and his Wife in tail, the remainder over to the ſaid F; and made the ſaid F. his to the Eſtate tail; and pretended, That by this means, the Land ſhould not be lyable to this Judgment, becauſe it was entailed to F, who dyed ſeiſed of ſuch Eſtate. The Plaintiff traverſed the Feoffment made by Ed. Earl of Derby: The Jury found, the Feoffment was made by Ed. to the perſons nominated as the Defendant had pleaded; but this was to the uſe of the Feoffor for life, the remainder over to the Lord Strange and his Wife, the Remainder as before: And, if this ſhould be intended the ſame Feoffment which the Defendant had pleaded, was the Queſtion; Winch, Juſtice, ſaid, That in this caſe, there was ſuch an Eſtate found as had taken away the Execution of the Extent, and that the Eſtate for life is not material: But the Court would Adviſe. It was adjourned. Trin. 20 Jac. in C.B. The Earl of Derby's Caſe. Winch. 32.

20. Note; Where an Executor brought a Scire facias upon a Judgment given for the Teſtator in debt for him; The Defendant would have pleaded, The death of the Teſtator between the Verdict and the Judgment; but per Curiam, he cannot ſo do: for he may not plead this in a Scire facias; but the Defendant is put to his Writ of Error. Mich. 20 Jac. in B. R. Winch. 48. acc.

21. A Scire facias was prayed to the Juſtices of the Kings-Bench in Ireland; and upon the Book of 45 E. 3. 19. p. 18. a Procedendo was granted here to them to proceed there, Regiſter 43. A Writ of Fieri facias was directed to them in this manner, viz. Rex Juſtitiario ſuo Hiberniæ ſalutem. Dodderidg, Juſtice, ſaid, Nothing is to come hither out of Ireland, but only a Tranſcript of the Record, the Record it ſelf there remains, Whereby, by the Rule of the Court, in the principal Caſe, a Scire facias was granted to the Juſtices of the Kings-Bench in Ireland. Trin. 11 Jac. in B. R. Taylor and Terry's Caſe, Bulſtr. 2. Part, 118.

22. Errour to reverſe a Judgment for 200 l. in C. B. the Caſe appeared to be this; H. had Judgment againſt the Defendant: and after the Writ of Errour brought, and Errours aſſigned, H. dyed Inteſtate, and R. took Letters of Adminiſtration, A Scire facias was brought againſt him ad audiendum Errores, (the Plaintiff in the Writ of Errour had a Releaſe from him) R. the Adminiſtrator appeared here, and afterwards gave up his Letters of Adminiſtration to J. S: Upon this, It was moved to the Court, That the Scire facias might be granted to the Adminiſtrator generally. It was urged, That J. S. being now Adminiſtrator, the Plaintiff could not plead the Releaſe of another againſt J. S; And it was ſuppoſed, That this Releaſe was granted by Covin from R, and the Plaintiff in the Writ of Errour, who had the Releaſe, ſuppoſed that J. S. had got the Adminiſtration by Covin: It was ſaid by the Secondary in this case, That the presidents were both wayes; That the Scire facias might either be Administratoribus, generally, or tali Administratori. It was holden by the Court in this Case, That the death of the Defendant in a Writ of Errour, doth not abate the Writ of Errour, but that he may have a Scire facias against another ad audiendum Errores: But otherwise it is, where the Plaintiff in the Writ of Errour dyes, there the Writ shall abate. The Court gave the Rule, That the Scire facias should be administratoribus generally. At another day, the matter was moved again, and then the Case appeared to be, That H. brought his Writ of Errour, and being in Execution upon a Judgment had against him, brought a Habeas Corpus: and in this Writ of Errour, Bail was taken to prosecute the Writ of Errour with effect; and if the Judgment be affirmed, then to pay the principal; and if he do not pay, then his Bail. After this, and bail taken, and before Judgment affirmed, a Release was made to him and the Bail, of all Actions, Executions, and Demands; and afterwards the Judgment was affirmed. The money not paid by H, a Scire facias was prosecuted against the Bail, who pleaded this Release in Barr, being made before any thing was done. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That this being pleaded by the Bail in barr to the Scire facias, was a good Plea; for that by this Release, the debt is discharged. But they would not at this time Over-rule the same. Wherefore the parties perceiving the Opinion of the Court, rested satisfied, and did not further proceed in the Cause. Trin. 11 Jac. in B. R. Haxley and Harrison's Case, Bolstr. 2. Part, 231, 232.

23. A Recognisance was acknowledged at Serjants-Inne in Fleetstreet, and delivered, and enrolled at Westminster: In this Case, the Court held, That it was in the Election of the Conusee to bring his Scire facias either in London where the Recognizance was acknowledged, or in Middlesex, where it was delivered and enrolled. But afterwards, upon further advice to be of the Case, the Court was of Opinion, That the Scire facias ought to be where the Recognizance was taken; and not where it is recorded. Hill. 22 Car. in B. R. Andrews Case. Styles, 9.

24. Four several persons were bound Conjunctim & Divisim, in an Obligation to B; B. had a Judgment against them; one of the Defendants dyed: B. sued out a Scire facias against the four. And it was demurred to the Scire facias, because one of the Defendants against whom the Judgment was, upon which the Scire facias was granted, was dead, when the Scire facias issued forth. The Plaintiff perceiving the Opinion of the Court was, That the suing forth of the Scire facias was not good, moved for his own Expedition to have it quashed. Which was done accordingly. Trin. 23 Car. in B.R. Blackwell and Ashton's Case. Style, 58.

25. An Action of Accompt was brought against a Feme Covert an Administratrix and her Husband in the Common-Pleas, and Judgment against the Defendants quod Computent; the Writ dyed, and the husband brought a Writ of Errour in this Court, to reverse the Judgment. It was holden by the Court, That the Writ of Errour did not lye, because the Record cannot be removed by it, for that would disturb the proceedings in the Common-Pleas, and the party would have no fruit of his Suit, if the Record should be removed, or any remedy to recover the arrears due unto him: Yet the Original is determined by the Judgment quod Computet. Trin. 1651. in B. R. Spittlehouse and Farmery's Case, Styles, 291.

26. A Scire facias was brought by J. S. against J. D. in the Chancery, to avoid a Statute; the Case was this; A. acknowledged a Statute to J. D. and afterwards conveyed part of the Land lyable to the Statute, to B, who by Bargain and Sale conveyed the same to J. D. the Conusee: J. D. extended the Lands of J. S. the Purchasor, who thereupon brought his Scire facias to avoid the Statute, because that the Conusee had purchased parcell of the Land lyable to the Statute. This Case coming by Mittimus out of the Chancery into the King-Bench; In Arrest of Judgment, It was moved for J. D. the Defendant, That the Bargain and Sale is alledged to be made to him; but it is not shewed, that it was by Deed enrolled: but it was pleaded, That virtute cujus viz. of the Bargain and Sale, the Conusee was seised, but doth not shew, that he entred. The Question was, What Estate the Bargainee had, the Deed not being enrolled? And what Estate the Conusee had before Entry, the Deed not being enrolled; and then, if the Statute was extinguished; if it was not, then the Scire facias was not well brought. But the Opinion of the whole Court was, That the Scire facias was well brought; for it was said, That J. D. the Defendant, perquisivit sibi, & heredibus suis; and concludes, virtute cujus, and of the Statute of Uses, he was seized; which is a good averment, That he hath a Fee, and it is not material how he hath it; and this Action being an equitable Action, the Court may conceive sufficient matter to give Judgment for the Plaintiff; and in this Case, it was said and agreed, That if a man be seised of black Acre, and white Acre, and acknowledgeth a Statute, and afterwards he maketh a Lease for years of white Acre, the Reversion over in Fee, and de-rewards the Conusee purchaseth black Acre, and extendeth the Land of the Lessee for years, that he in the Reversion should have an Audita Querela, or a Scire facias for the damnification which came to his Interest: And it was also holden, That he who hath but inter esse Termini, should have an Audita Querela: Judgment was given for the Plaintiff in the Scire facias. Mich. 15 Car. in B. R. Leak and Dawes Case. Mar. 63. & 69.

Sclaunder, Sclanderous Words, and Scandal.

1. THe Defendant said of the Plaintiff these words, I will hang him, for he hath spoken words that be high Treason. It was said, That the words are not Actionable, because they are too general, because it doth not appear what the words were: But per Curiam, the words are Actionable; for words spoken may be Treasonable: As to say, That the King is a Bastard; Or, That another hath better Right to the Crown: And it is not safe for the Plaintiff to put incertain, what words he spake; because words which are Treason, are Arcana Imperii, and not to be vulgarly uttered, but to be discovered to the King, or his Council. Mich. 5 Jac. in B. R. Blanchflower and Atwoods Case. Yelverton, 107.

2. Mr Bettisford hath spoken Treason, and that I can prove, adjudged Scandalous and Actionable; for Treason may be committed as well by Words as by Actions: for every thing which discovers the minde of a man to be trayterous to his Soveraign, is capital to the party. Hill. 8 Jac. in B. R. Bettisford and Prestis Case. Yelv. 197.

3. In an Action of Sclander brought, the Plaintiff declared, That he was a Merchant, and that the Defendant having speech with J. S. of him, spake these words of the Plaintiff; He is a Bankrupt, and he is fled beyond the Seas for much money. The Defendant pleaded, That the Plaintiff at the time of the words spoken, was an Alien, and born in Brabant in partibus transmarinis, under the obedience of the Duke of Brabant, Et extra ligeantiam Domini Regis: Upon which the Plaintiff did demur. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff; for Traffique betwixt Merchant strangers, and domestick Merchants, is Warranty by the Law of Nations, and by the Law of the Land, and the Common Law in all things which concern his Trade of Merchandize, protects him; and this Sclander here, although it toucheth the Plaintiff only in his person, yet because it impairs his Credit in his Trade, by which he lives, and by which other of the subjects have the benefit of Commerce with him, the words are Scandalous, and Actionable. Hill. 8 Jac. in B. R. Tuvloose and Morrisons Case. Yelv. 198.

4. The Plaintiff is a Felon? Take heed what you say (said a stranger.) Why (said the Defendant) Is not he a Felon, which knew of a Murder and concealed it? He (meaning the Plaintiff) knew of the murder of A. L. and did not reveal it, till it was long after openly known. It was adjudged, That the words were Scandalous and Actionable, and that the subsequent words did enlarge the Slander; for although to conceal a Felony is not Felony, but Fineable, and an Offence, for which he ought to be bounden to the good Behaviour; yet the same shews malice in the Defendant, and it is a great Imputation to the Plaintiff. Pasch. 7 Jac. in B. R. Newlin and Fassits Case. Yelverton, 154.

5. Words were these, You might have known your own sheep, and not have stollen mine. It was the Opinion of Flemming and Yelverton Justices, That the words were not Scandalous nor Actionable, being only by Imputation: A Slander shall not be drawn in by a streined construction; But Crook and Williams Justices, held the contrary, and that it cannot be taken in any other sense, but by strong implication, and necessary consequence, to charge the Plaintiff to have stollen sheep; and the words being entirely spoken, are not to be taken dividedly, but ought to receive an entire construction. Quare, how it was Resolved Mich. 6 Jac. in B. R. Thompson and Knotts Case. Yelverton, 144.

6. An Action was brought for calling the Plaintiff Sorcerer, and Inchanter. It was holden by the Court of Common Pleas, That no Action lyeth for those words; for Sortilegium est rei futuræ per sortes exploratio; and Sortilegus, sive sortilegia est, qui sortes futura pronuntiat est; Inchauntry est verbis aut rebus adjunctis aliquid præter naturam moliri: He which is convicted of Sorcery and Deceit, shall only be Fined and Imprisoned: Conjuratio is derived of the words, Con & Juro, & proprie dicitur, quando multi in alicujus perniciem jurant: In the Statute of 5 Eliz. cap. 16. It is taken for the Invocation of any evil or wicked spirits, i. e. Conjurare verbis conceptis aliquos malos, & impuros impuros Spiritus, the ſame is Felony: But Witchcraft, Inchantment, Charm, or Sorcery, are not Felony, if not by them any perſon be killed, or dyeth: If a man be called a Conjurer, or a Witch, he ſhall not have any Action upon the Caſe, unleſs that he ſaith, That he is a Conjurer of the Divel, or of any evil or wicked Spirit. Mich. 7 Jac. in C. B. Mattons Caſe. Cook, Select Caſes, 49. Brownlow 2. Part, 276. the ſame Caſe.

7. Hen. Earl of Lincoln, brought a Scandalum Magnatum againſt one, for theſe words, viz. The Earl of Lincolns man, did by his commandment, take the goods of one Hoskins, by a forged Warrant, &c. And the Earl recovered great damages by Verdict. In arreſt of Judgment it was moved, That the words were not actionable, becauſe it was not averred, That the Earl knew the Warrant to be forged; and of that Opinion was the whole Court. Mich. 40 Eliz. in C. B. The Earl of Lincoln and Michel Bowes Caſe. Goldesbr. 115.

8. Scandalum Magnatum for theſe words, My Lord (meaning the Earl of Lincoln) is a baſe Earl, and a paultry Lord, and keepeth none but Rogues and Raſcals like himſelf. Upon Not Guilty, It was found againſt the Defendant. It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That the words were not actionable, for they touch not him in his life, nor in any matter of his Loyalty, nor import him in any main point of his Dignity; but are words of ſpleen, concerning his ſervants, which is not material. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That becauſe they touched him in his Honour and Dignity, and to term him a baſe and paultry Lord, is matter to cauſe contempt betwixt him and the people, or of the Kings Indignation againſt him; the words were Scandalous and Actionable. Paſch. 4 Jac. in B. R. The Earl of Lincoln and Roughtons Caſe, Cro. 2. Part, 196.

9. The Lord Cromwel brought an Action de Scandalo Magnatum, upon the Statute of 2 R. 2. cap. 2. againſt the Vicar of D. for ſpeaking of theſe words, You like not thoſe that maintain Sedition againſt the Queens proceedings; unto which the Defendant pleaded a ſpecial Juſtification, viz. That the Plaintiff procured two to Preach in his Church, which inveighed in their Sermons againſt the Book of Common Prayer; and becauſe the Defendant did prohibit them, the Plaintiff ſaid to the Defendant, Thou art a falſe Varlet. I like not of thee; To whom the Defendant ſaid, It is no marvel though you like not of me, for you like of thoſe (meaning the two that ſhould have preached) that maintain ſedition (meaning ſeditioſam illam doctrinam) againſt the Queens proceedings. It was in this Caſe adjudged, to be a good Juſtification: for in caſe of Sclander for words, the ſenſe of the words are to be taken; and the ſenſe of them doth beſt appear by the cauſe and occaſion of ſpeaking of them: And therefore in this caſe it was ſaid, That the Council of the Defendant had done well in ſhewing the ſpecial matter, whereby the ſenſe of the word [Sedition] might appear upon the coherence of all the words taken together; viz. That the Defendant meant the Seditious Doctrine againſt the Queens proceedings in the Act of 1 Eliz. by which the Common Prayer was eſtabliſhed, and that he did not intend any ſuch publique or violent Sedition as was alledged by the Plaintiff. Cook 5. Par. The Lord Cromwell's Caſe.

10. See upon this Diviſion, The Earl of Shrewſbury, and Sir Thomas Stanhops Caſe. Mich. 37 Eliz. in B. R. Poph. 68, 69, 70.

11. See alſo the Earl of Northamptons Caſe, for Scandalum Magnatum, what ſhall be ſaid to be Scandal, and where puniſhed; where it is Reſolved (amongſt other things) That if a man hear falſe and ſcandalous rumours, either of the King, or of any other the Grandees and Peers of the Realm, that it is not lawful to relate them to others, and that he had heard J. S. to ſay ſuch ſcandalous words or rumours; for that in ſuch caſe, the party ſhall be puniſhed and impriſoned, until he find out the party that ſpake them. 2. It was Reſolved in that Caſe, That if A. ſay to B. Did you not hear that C. is guilty of Treaſon; This amounts as much as to a ſcandalous Publication; and in a private Action of Sclander, of a common perſon, if J. S. publiſh, that he hath heard J. N. ſay, That J. G. was a Traytor, or a Thief; in an Action of the Caſe, if the truth be ſuch, he may Juſtifie: But if J. S. publiſh generally, without a certain Author, That J. G. was a Traytor, or a Thief, there an Action upon the Caſe lyeth againſt J. S. for that he hath not given to the party grieved any cauſe of Action againſt any, but againſt himſelf that publiſhed the words, although that in truth he might hear them. Cook 12. Part. 133. 134. 135. The Earl of Northampton and Goodricke Caſe.

12. Words were theſe, viz. It would be proved by many vehement preſumptions, That the Plaintiff was an Inventor, and the Plotter of the death of J. S. becauſe he would not ſell him his Land. It was Reſolved by the whole Court, That the words were not actionable, nor ſcandalous; becauſe he affirms nothing of the Plaintiff, but refers all to preſumptions, which are incertain; and words of Sclander ought to be ſpoken affirmatively. Paſch. 7 Jac. in B. R. Weblyn and Mayers Caſe. Yelv. 153.

13. Words, viz. Bear witneſs Miſtris, That he hath ſtollen my hair-cloth. It was Reſolved by the whole Court, That the words were not ſcandalous nor Actionable, becauſe there is not a direct affirmat-

native to charge the Plaintiff with the ſtealing of it, but it reſts only upon teſtimony and proof. Paſch. 6 Jac. in B.R. Berry and Wrights Caſe. Yelv. 116.

Seals.

1. THe King ſeized of a Mannor in Fee, in the Right of his Crown, Granted Copy-hold Lands, parcel of the ſaid Mannor, to one in Fee; and after, by his Letters Patents under the Exchequer Seal, made Leaſe of thoſe Lands for 21 years: The Leſſee for years granted his eſtate to the Copyholder: The King reciting the Leaſe for years, granted the Reverſion to J. S. in Fee; the years expired, and the Grantee of the Reverſion entred upon the Copyholder. In this Caſe (amongſt other points) it was Reſolved, That the Leaſe under the Exchequer Seal was good by Common Uſage; for that the Cuſtoms of the Kings Court are as a Law, and the Common Law doth take notice of them; And it was holden, That a Leaſe by the order of the Exchequer, by the word Commiſimus, Habend. Tenend. & Reddend. ſuch a Rent is good by the ancient Uſage there: And it was further holden, That the Law takes notice of divers of the Kings Seals: The King licenſed one to make an Attorney under his Privie Seal, and it was holden good. The King may command one that he is not out of the Kingdom under his Privie Seal, or Privie Signet: But a Proteſtion or Warranty of Attorney is not good under the Privie Seal. If the King doth diſcharge a debt due to him by the Sheriff under the Privie Seal, the ſame is not good; but it ought to be under the great Seal. Cook 2. Part, 16. Lents Caſe. See Crook 1 Part, 380.

2. Upon a ſpecial Verdict, the Queſtion was, whether a Leaſe by the King under the Exchequer Seal of Lands uſually demiſed to one for life; the Remainder for life, the Remainder to a third for life, reſerving the uſual Rent, ſhall be good or not? It was urged, That it could not; for that Freehold cannot paſs from the King, but by Patent under the Great Seal. But it was the Opinion of all the Juſtices, That Leaſes for life under the Exchequer Seal, being uſually Leaſed, and the ancient Rent reſerved, are allowable, and good for the Kings benefit, that his Land ſhall not lye unletten; and all the Barons of the Exchequer ſaid, That it was their courſe to demiſe as well for life as for years, under the Exchequer Seal; and Judgment was entred accordingly. Hill. 13 Car. in B. R. Kemp and Barnards Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 369.

3. A man ſeized of houſes in Fee, deviſed them by his Will to his Wife (ſhe being an Allien born) The King by his Letters Patents under the Great Seal, made the Wife Denizen; the Deviſor dyed, the Wife took another husband; and the Letters Patents being naught in the Teſte, they obtained an exemplification of the Enrolment of the Letters Patents under the Great Seal, which was with the true Teſte; and afterwards, an Office was found before Commiſſioners by force of a Commiſſion to them directed under the Exchequer Seal; by which it was found, That the ſaid Wife was an Allien born. It was in this Caſe (amongſt other things) Reſolved, That the Office found by Commiſſion under the Exchequer Seal, was not ſufficient to entitle the King to the Lands of an Allien born; but that ſuch Office which doth concern Fee, or Freehold, ought to be by force of a Commiſſion under the Great Seal. Mich. 30 Eliz. in the Exchequer, Cook 5. Part, 52, 53. Pagetts Caſe.

4. Note, It was Reſolved per Curiam, That when the Kings Officers by force of any matter of Record, may have ſo certain notice of the Lands and Tenements therein contained, that they may put them in charge to the King, although the Record it ſelf be not of any effect or validity in Law; yet in Judgment of Law, ſuch Lands or Tenements ſhall not be ſaid to be concealed: And therefore it is there ſaid, That any Grant or Demiſe of any Land certain under the Exchequer Seal, where it ought to be under the Great Seal, or under the Great Seal, where it ought to be under the Dutchy Seal, or under the Seal of the Dutchy, or the Augmentation, where it ought to be under the Great Seal; although that nothing paſſeth by it, yet by reaſon thereof, ſuch Land ſhall never be ſaid to be concealed. Cook 10. Part, in Arthur Legats Caſe. 111, 112.

5. Upon a ſuggeſtion by the Earl of Devon to the King, That all Munitions decayed, and unſerviceable, had been uſed to be taken as Fees by the Maſter of the Ordnance; The King by his Privie Seal, licenſed the Earl, being Maſter of the Ordnance, to take all unſerviceable Iron Ordnance, Shot, Shot, and Munition contained in ſuch a book, and to convert them to his own uſe: The Earl took the Ordnance, and Munition, and ſold them, and converted the money to his own uſe. The Queſtion was, If the Executor of the Earl might be charged to the King for the converſion of the ſaid Ordnance. In this Caſe (amongſt other things) it was Reſolved, 1. That the Earl could not claim the ſaid Iron-Ordnance as Fees appendant to his Office; becauſe the Office was erected but of late time, and then he could not claim them as ancient Fees by Preſcription to a new Office. 2. Reſolved, That the ſaid Privie Seal being made and granted upon a falſe ſuggeſtion, the King was deceived, and ſo the Privie Seal was void. 3. Reſolved, That no Officer of the King, might ex Officio, iſſue out, or diſpoſe of the Kings Treaſure, although it was for the honour of the King himſelf, or for his profit, without the Kings Warrants; and that a Warrant by word of mouth, or under his Privie Seal, was not ſufficient to iſſue out the Kings Treaſures, but the Warrant ought to be under the Great Seal, or Privie Seal. Cook 11. Part, 12. in the Earl of Devonſhires Caſe.

6. In an Action of Covenant, the Caſe was That the Defendant covenanted that he would erect three houſes upon ſuch Land demiſed unto him, unleſs he was reſtrained by the Kings Proclamation, &c. The Defendant pleaded, That ſuch a day and year, the King made a Proclamation to reſtrain Building: Upon which the Plaintiff demurred, becauſe a Proclamation was pleaded, and no plea expreſſed where the Proclamation was made, and ſo no Viſne could be, if Iſſue ſhould be joyned thereupon; and alſo, becauſe it is not pleaded to have been ſub magno Sigillo Angliæ; And of that Opinion the Court ſeemed to be upon the firſt motion, becauſe that a Proclamation binds not, unleſs it be under the Great Seal; and if it be denyed, there can be no Iſſue thereupon (but only Nul tiel Record) which cannot be, unleſs he pleads it to be ſub magno Sigillo. But yet afterwards, ſome of the Juſtices doubted of it, becauſe that when it is pleaded, That ſuch a Proclamation was made, it ſhall be intended duly made; wherefore the Caſe was adjourned. Hill. 5 Car. in B. R. Cro. 1. Part, 130.

7. In 11 Jac. in the Court of Common Pleas, It came in Queſtion, Whether that a Preſentation made by the King to an Advowſon appendant to a Mannor, parcel of his Dutchy, under the Great Seal of England, was good, or not; and whether the ſame ought not to have been under the Seal of the Dutchy? And it was Reſolved by the whole Court, That the Preſentation was well made; for that the Preſentation was but the Kings commendation of his Clerk to the Ordinary, and was not any Intereſt of the Inheritance of the Advowſon, but only it was a thing concerning the Advowſon, and but as a Flower fallen from the Stock, which did not now participate of the Root; and alſo, for that the King might have Preſented by word only: And the Caſe between the King and the Biſhop of Chicheſter, which was Mich. 8 Jac. in C. B. was affirmed to be good Law; That where the King had an Advowſon in the right of his Ward, and Preſented unto the Advowſon under the Great Seal, that the ſame was well made, although it was not under the Seal of the Court of Wards; for that the King might Preſent by word only, and his Preſentation was but his commendation of his Clerk to the Biſhop: And Stephen Gardiners Caſe was vouched by Coke Chief Juſtice, where the Preſentation of him to the Deanry of Norwich, was good, although that the King in his Preſentation did miſtake, and miſ-recite the name of the foundation of the Deanry, for that his Preſentation was but his commendation of the Dean, and touched not the Inheritance of the Deanry. Mich. 11 Jac. in C. B. The King and the Biſhop of Lincolns Caſe.

8. A. ſeized in Fee of the Advowſon of W. by Deed lett that Advowſon, and divers other Lands for years, to the Lord Zouch, and others, for payment of his debts, & dyed ſeized of the Inheritance, ſome of his Lands being holden in Knight ſervice in Capite, and his ſon and heir within age: The King granted the Wardſhip of the Body and Lands to the Leſſees, rendring Rent, with a clauſe that it ſhould be void for non-payment: The Rent at Mich. 1 Jac. was behinde; and after, in Feb. 2 Jac. the Rent due at Mich. 2. and all other Rents were paid. The Church became void during the minority of the Ward; and afterwards, the King Preſented to the Church under the Great Seal, and under the Seal of the Court of Wards; the Defendant, ſuppoſitur, was Preſented, as to a Church which appertained to the King, ratione minoris ætatis of the ſaid Ward; and afterwards, he obtained Inſtitution and Induction; and after was dead, the Plaintiff (who was Preſented under the Great Seal) obtained Inſtitution and Induction: Which of them was Parſon, was the Queſtion. In this Caſe it was agreed, That the King may Preſent to any Church which he hath in right of Wardſhip, either under the Great Seal, or under the Seals of the Court of Wards; but a Preſentation under the Seal of the Court of Wards, if he hath not right to Preſent in right of the Ward, is void, and cannot make an uſurpation. It was further made a Queſtion in this Caſe, That for as much as the Preſentation under the Great Seal, and the Preſentation under the Seal of the Court of Wards, were in the [illegible] cy, cipal Caſe both made in one day; and the Preſentation under the Seal of the Court of Wards, doth not mention the firſt Preſentation, and revoke it, whether it ſhall be good; but of this, no Opinion was delivered; becauſe it was conceived by the Court, That the Preſentation under the Seal of the Court of Wards, in the Principal Caſe, was void. Mich. 3 Car. in C. B. Stephens and Peters Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 70, 71.

9. In Error of a Judgment in the Grand Seſſions in the County of P. in Wales, in an Aſſize of Darrein Preſentment, by H. C. againſt the Biſhop of St Davids, and others; Amongſt many Errors aſſigned, one was, becauſe the Iſſue being joyned, Whether H. C. did laſt Preſent one R. D. the laſt Incumbent, who was Inſtituted and Inducted upon his Preſentation; The Plaintiff offered in evidence, letters of Inſtitution, which appeared to be, and ſo mentions, That they were ſealed with the Seal of the Biſhop of London, becauſe the Biſhop of St Davids had not his Seal there; and the Defendant had demurred thereupon, That theſe Letters were inſufficient, and the Demurrer was denyed, which was ſaid, was an Error, becauſe they ought to have permitted the Demurrer, and ſhould have adjudged upon it. But it was holden by the Court, That the admitting of the Demurrer, ought not to be aſſigned for error; for when upon the Evidence, the matter was over-ruled by the Juſtices of Aſſize, That was a proper cauſe of a Bill of Exception, and the remedy which the Statute appoints in ſuch caſe: And for the matter of the Letters of Inſtitution, ſealed with another Seal, and made out of the Dioceſs, It was holden, That they were good enough; for the Seal is not material, it being an Act made of the Inſtitution, and the Writing and Sealing is but a Teſtimony thereof, which may be under any Seal, or in any place; yet the Court would adviſe of it. Hill. 8 Car. in B. R. Cart, and the Biſhop of St Davids, and others Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 149.

10. A Bill of Intruſion in the Exchequer againſt Cater, he pleaded the Grant of the Queen. The Plaintiff replyed, That before the Queen had any thing, this Sir Fr. E. was ſeized of the Manor, of which &c. and he being beyond the Sea, the Queen ſent forth Letters under the Privie Seal, Quod ipſe in Fide & Legiantia quadiſt. Regine teneretur inde directe redire in Angliam: predict. tamen Fr. ſpretis mandatis dict. Regine, redire renuſavit, for which a Certificate was made by the Queen into the Chancery, Quod dict. Fr. in partibus Tranſmarinis ſine Licentia dict. Regine remanſit, and thereupon a Commiſſion was awarded, to ſeize the Land of the ſaid Sir Fr. which was entred in the Replication, in hac verba, reciting alſo the Privie Seal, and that the ſaid Sir Fr. did ſtay there (Spretis Mandatis, &c.) for which the Queen ſeized, and granted to the Plaintiff: Amongſt others, it was aſſigned for Error, becauſe it is not alledged in the Replication, of what date the Privie Seal was, nor that any notice of the ſaid Privie Seal was given to Sir Fr. To that it was anſwered, That the Privie Seal need not any date, eſpecially in this Caſe; for the matters which are under the Privie Seal, are not iſſueable; and this Privie Seal is not as other Writs and Precipes are, returnable in any Court, but the Queen her ſelf, from whom it originally came, ſhall receive it, and alſo the Meſſage upon it, and ſhe her ſelf (in ſuch caſe) is Judge of the contempt, and no Record of that Privie Seal, doth remain in any Court, but the Queen doth keep it; and then, when the Queen is informed of the contempt, ſhe makes a Warrant ſometimes to the Chancellor, to award a Commiſſion; ſometimes to the Barons and Treaſurer of the Exchequer to ſeize the Land, and that Warrant is ſigned with the Seal Manual of the Queen; and the Queen may certifie and ſet down the cauſe of ſuch ſeizure in the Warrant; and the Queen may certifie the ſaid Commiſſion by word of mouth; and if the other party will ſay, That the Queen hath not certified it, he ſhall be concluded by the Commiſſion which is under the Great Seal: All the matter aforeſaid, was agreed by the Chancellor, and all the Juſtices; and that no Certificate ought to be made at all in this Caſe: And in this Caſe, divers Preſidents were ſhewed in ſuch caſe; 18 E. 2. Edward de Woodſtocks Caſe. And it was holden, That the Queen having ſeized by force of the Common Law, and having made a Grant of it, now when the Statute of 13 and 14 Eliz. are made, ſhe hath not any Eſtate thereby, for ſhe had ſuch Intereſt before, and nothing accrues to her thereby, whereof ſhe can make a ſeizure; for ſhe hath departed with the whole before. Mich. 26 Eliz. in the Exchequer. Cater's Caſe. Leon, 9.

11. A. was bounden in a Statute of F. and there were two Seals put to the Statute, & Execution was ſued upon the Statute. The Conuſee brought an Audita Querela, and they were at Iſſue, If two Seals were put to the Statute, and tryed for the Plaintiff in the Audita Querela by the Sheriff of the City of Lincoln. It was moved, That the Tryal ought to have bin by the Certificate of the Mayor of Lincoln, before whom the acknowledgment was, and not by the Jury, which was denyed by the Court; for the Iſſue is not, Whether any ſuch Statute was acknowledged or not; but whether the Statute in Queſtion hath two Seals or not, and that is not Recorded by the Mayor as the Statute it ſelf is. Paſc. 33 Eliz. in C. B. Aſtew and Faliambs Caſe. Leon. 228, 229.

12. A Charter party, Indented between the Maſter and Owners of a Ship of the one part, and divers Merchants of the other part, was made. By which the Maſter and the Owners Covenanted to Ship certain Merchandizes at ſuch a Port beyond the Sea, and to tranſport them to the City of London. By which the Merchants Covenanted ſeparatim, that one Merchant would pay 3 l. and the other 3 l. &c. et ad performationem omnium et ſingularum Covenantorum quilibet Mercator obligat ſeipſum in double the Freight. The Seal of one of the Merchants was broken from the Deed. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, 1. That although the Merchants joyn in Covenant, yet this word ſeparatim made them ſeveral Covenants. 2. Reſolved, That although the Covenants on the part of the Maſter and Owners were joynt, yet the Covenants of the Merchants were ſeveral; and for that cauſe, if the Seal of one of the Merchants be broken from the Deed, yet the ſame doth not make void the Deed, but as to him only. But if any of the Seals of the Maſter and Owners had bin broken from the Deed, all the Covenants had bin defeated. But when Covenants are ſeveral, they are ſeveral although they be written in one Parchment. Cook 5. Part, 23. Mathewſons Caſe.

13. Debt upon an Obligation againſt an Executor; the Defendant pleaded Non eſt factum of the Teſtator. It was found by a ſpecial Verdict, That the Teſtator was bound [in that Obligation with two others joyntly and ſeverally; and that afterwards the Seals of the two others were eaten up with Mice and Rats: And whether it was the Bond of the Teſtator or not, was the Queſtion. It was ſaid, That the Obligation ſtood good againſt the Defendant notwithſtanding the eating of the Seals of the other two, becauſe they were joyntly and ſeverally bounden, and that is all one as if they had bin ſeveral Obligations. And Trin. 2 Jac. Banning and Symonds Caſe was put. Where the Caſe was, That 28 Merchants were bound joyntly and ſeverally, and three of their Seals were broken from the Obligation; and it was Reſolved, That the Deed did remain good againſt the others. In the Principal Caſe, the whole Court did incline ſtrongly to be of Opinion, That Judgment ought to be given for the Defendant; and their reaſon was, That if the Obligee by his own act or Lacheſs diſchargeth one of the Obligors, where they are joyntly and ſeverally bounden, that the ſame diſchargeth them all. But adjornatur. Mich. 17 Car. in B. R. Bryly and Gaſfords Caſe. Marſh. 125, 126, 127, 128.

Seiſin.

1. What ſhall be a ſufficient Seiſin to have an Aſſiſe, or an Avowry of a Rent, Common, or other thing; and by whom, and upon whom. And where Seiſin of one thing ſhall be Seiſin of another. And where Seiſin of part ſhall be of the whole, et è contra.

1. A Man held his Lands by Homage, Fealty, Eſcuage, and Suit of Court; and the Seignor had Seiſin of the Fealty only. It was adjudged in that Caſe, That the ſame was a ſufficient Seiſin of all the other Services, for Seiſin of part of any Service, is a Seiſin of the whole, and Fealty is parcel of Homage. Cook 4. Part, 8, 9. Pevells Caſe. And ſee there Reſolved, That Seiſin of any part of any Service, is an actual Seiſin of the whole, to have and maintain an Aſſiſe; and as to avow, a Seiſin in Law is ſufficient; but to have an Aſſiſe, there muſt be an actual Seiſin.

2. If the Lord granteth his Seignory to another upon Condition, and the Tenant payeth the Rent to the Grantee, and afterwards the Condition is broken, and the Lord diſtreineth for the Services, and Reſcous is made, in ſuch Caſe he ſhall have an Aſſiſe, for that the Seiſin before is ſufficient. But if a man giveth Land upon Condition, and the Condition is broken, in ſuch Caſe, the ancient Seiſin is not ſufficient, but he ought to enter, and gain a new Seiſin, ibid.

3. If there be Lord and Tenant by Knight Service, and Rent, Seiſin of the Rent is ſufficient to have the Ward of the Tenant, and a good Seiſin to make an Avowry. 7 E. 6. br. Gard. 69.

4. In a Quare Impedit, it was Reſolved, That the Preſentment alledged in the Grantee of the next Avoydance, and not in the Grantor himſelf, was a good Title for the Grantor and his Heirs in a Quare Impedit. 2. That if the Grantee for years of a Seignory, or the Gardien happen Seiſin of the Services, it ſhall be a good Seiſin for him in the Reverſion: And in the Principal Caſe there, it was adjudged, That the Preſentment alledged in the Leſſee, Leſſor, or Donor, or in the Leſſee or Donee, was not double, for that the Preſentment of the Leſſor or Donor is only traverſable. Cook 5. Part, 98. The Counteſs of Northumberlands Caſe.

5. A man ſeiſed of Black Acre for years, and of White Acre in Fee, Granted a Rent out of both to J. S. for life, with clauſe of Diſtreſs in both, the Rent was behind, J. S. avowed and diſtreyned in Bl. Acre. In this Caſe, amongſt other things, it was Reſolved, That when a man Grants a Rent out of Land in Fee, and a Term for years, to have for life, That the Freehold of the Rent ſhall iſſue out of the Land in Fee, and not out of the Tenure, which is but a Chattel. And therefore in the Principal Caſe, it was Reſolved, That the Avowry was inſufficient. 1. Becauſe the Avowant did not make mention of any Land, but of the Land in which he had but a Term for years; whereas he ought to have derived his Rent out of the Land in Fee; and every Avowry which is in the Nature of a Count, ought to have ſufficient matter upon which he ought to have Judgment to have a Retorn. 2. Becauſe the Avowant pleaded a Grant out of the Term for years only, and concluded virtute cujus, he was ſeiſed in Dominico ſuo ut debito tenemento pro termino vitæ ſuæ, which is repugnant to have a Freehold out of a Term; and ſo the Caſe was adjudged againſt the Avowant for default in a pleading. Cook 7. Part, 24. in Rutt's Caſe.

6. A man deviſed a Rent of 10 L. out of his Manor to A. for life, and by the ſame Will he deviſed the Manor to B. for years; the Deviſor dyed, the Leſſee for years paid the Rent to the Deviſee during the Term, the years expired, the Deviſee of the Rent demanded the ſame at the day which was not paid, and upon that brought an Aſſiſe. And in this Caſe (amongſt other points) it was Reſolved, That this payment by the Deviſee for years was not ſufficient Seiſin to maintain an Aſſiſe againſt the Ter-Tenants after the years expired, and that for divers cauſes. 1. In reſpect of the weakneſs of the Eſtate of Leſſee for years, who cannot prejudice or draw the Freehold into Queſtion. 2. Becauſe that he who hath not Seiſin of the Land, cannot give Seiſin of a Rent, et nemo poteſt plus juris in alium transferre quam ipſe habet. And note, 'Tis difference was taken betwixt a giving of Seiſin, and a receiving of Seiſin, for it was agreed, That he who hath but a Term for years, might take a Seiſin for the benefit of him who had the Reverſion or Freehold; but the Tenant for years by payment could not give a Seiſin to bind him who had the Freehold. And 3. It was Reſolved, That it ſhould be very inconvenient, if he who had not a Freehold ſhould give a Seiſin, for then Tenant by Statute Merchant, Elegit, or other owners of Lands might put the Lord in Seiſin of a Rent, of which they had not any Seiſin in poſſeſſion within time of limitation, which ſhould be cauſe of Suits and troubles. Cook 6. Part, 57. Bredimans Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 142. the ſame Caſe.

7. A Rent was granted to one and his Aſſigns for life pro Conſilio impendendo, payable yearly at four Feaſts; and for want of payment, if it was demanded, that it ſhould be lawfull for the Grantee and his Aſſigns to diſtrein; the Grantee aſſigned the Rent; the Aſſignee upon the Land demanded the Rent at the day, and for want of payment, he diſtreined. In this Caſe, It was Reſolved. 1. That the Aſſignee needed not to have demanded the Rent at the day; but in Caſe of Diſtreſs, he might demand it at what time he pleaſed. 2. Reſolved, That if a man hath a Rent Seck payable yearly at the Feaſt of P. and hath once Seiſin of the Leaſe, and the Feaſt paſſeth, and no tender is made, he may after the day demand the Rent upon the Land, and if none be ready to pay the ſame, it is a denyal of the Rent, upon which he may have an Aſſiſe. But if the Tenant be at the laſt inſtant of the day ready upon the Land to pay the Rent, and none commeth there to receive it, there he cannot afterwards in the abſence of the Tenant come upon the Land and demand it, and make the other a Diſſeiſor without default in him. But in ſuch Caſe the Rent ought to be demanded upon the Land with all the Arrerages; and although the ſame be in the abſence of the Tenant, yet the ſame amounts to a denyer in Law of the Rent, upon which the party may have an Aſſiſe, and recover his Coſts and damages. Cook 7. Part, 29. Maunds Caſe.

8. In a Replevin, It was Reſolved, That if a man avow for Fealty, Rent, and Suit of Court where the Tenure is only by Fealty and Rent; There the Tenure ſhall be traverſed in an Avowry. But if a man holdeth by 2 s. Rent, and the Lord upon voluntary payment of the Tenant hath had 3 s. there in Avowry the Seiſin ſhall be traverſed, and not the Tenure. 2. Reſolved, That Seiſin of more Rent then ought to be, ſhall bind in Avowry. But in a Ne injuſte vexes, Aſſiſe, Ceſſavit, Reſcous, or Treſpaſs, ſuch a Seiſin of more Rent ſhall be avoided, becauſe there the Tenure, and not the Seiſin is traverſable. 3. Reſolved, That when the Plaintiff agrees with the Avowant in the quantity of the Tenancy, and confeſſeth the Tenure by Fealty and Rent; and as to the Rent, pleads, Nothing is behind, and traverſeth the Tenure, modo & forma ſcil. abſq; hoc, that the Tenure was by Fealty and Rent, and Suit of Court (as in the Principal Caſe); that the traverſe was good, although though that the Avowry was made for Rent only: Upon which, Iſſue being joyned, it was found for the Plaintiff in the Principal Caſe againſt the Avowant. Cook 9. Part, 33, 34. Bucknell's Caſe.

9. Note in the Principal Caſe of Bucknell before, It was ſaid, 1. That Seiſin in Avowry doth receive divers Limitations. 2. The Iſſue in tail ſhall avoid in an Avowry, Seiſin had by the hands of Tenant in tail. 3. That the Succeſſor of a Biſhop in an Avowry ſhall avoid Seiſin had by the hand of the Predeceſſor. 3. That the very Tenant ſhall avoid encroachment of Rent in an Avowry if he hath a Deed to ſhew the contrary. But none ſhall have contra formam Feoffamenti, but the Feoffee and his Heirs. But the Heir of the Feoffee upon a Deed ſhewed, ſhould avoid Seiſin had by his own hands. 4. Incroachment of Seiſin is not material where there is no Tenure. 5. That ſuch a Seiſin ſhall be avoided by coheſion of Diſtreſs. 6. If a Rent be payable at two dayes, and the Lord encroacheth Seiſin at four dayes, that this Encroachment being voluntary, ſhall be avoided in an Avowry, becauſe they agree in the ſum. 2. Note, How and where Seiſin in Avowry ſhall be traverſed. 1. The Tenant in Avowry ſhall not plead ne unque ſeiſis des Services generally. And therefore, if he be Tenant in Fee ſimple, he ought to diſclaim, or ought to plead, out of his Fee, and ſo traverſe the Tenure. 2. That he who denyes Seiſin after the time of limitation, ought firſt to acknowledg the Tenure, to the end the Lord may have a Writ of Cuſtomes and Services. 3. If the Lord avoweth for Services, and alledgeth Seiſin by the hands of the Plaintiff, or another in a Replevin; the Plaintiff may plead, That the Avowant was never ſeiſed by his hands. 4. That Seiſin is not traverſable, but only for that for which Avowry is made, unleſs the Seiſin be alledged of a ſuperiour Service, which is a Seiſin in Law of the Inferiour Service. Cook 9. Part, ibid. In Bucknell's Caſe.

10. See where payment of Rent by a Bayliff, or Tenant for life or years, or at Will, works a ſpecial prejudice to the Maſter or Leſſor, it ſhall not be accounted a ſufficient Seiſin thereof. As if the Lord hath not had Seiſin of his Rent for 60 years, and the Tenant makes one his Bayliff general of his Mannor. In ſuch Caſe, the Bayliff cannot without expreſs commandment of his Maſter, pay his remedileſs Rent to the Lord. See Bradimans Caſe before. But if a man be ſeiſed of a Mannor, part in Leaſe for life, and other part in Leaſe for years: And he levyeth a Fine to A. to the uſe of B. in tail, with divers Remainders over. In this Caſe B. ſhall avow for Rent, or have an Action of Waſte, without Attornment. For when a Reverſion is ſettled in any, in Judgment of Law, and he hath no means to compell the Tenant to attorn, and no Lacheſs or default is in him. In ſuch Caſe he ſhall avow, or have an Action of Waſte without Attornment. Cook 6. Part, 68. in Sir Moile Finches Caſe.

11. In a Replevin, the Defendant as Adminiſtrator of F. avowed for Rent reſerved upon a Feoffment made in Fee of the Mannor, reſerving Rent in Fee to the Feoffor in the name of a Fee-Farm Rent, with clauſe of Diſtreſs for the non payment of it, and that the Rent did diſcend to the Iſſue of the Feoffor; and for the Rent due to the Heir of the Feoffor in his life, he avowed. The Plaintiff in bar to the Avowry ſaid, That neither the Inteſtate nor his Anceſtors, nor any whoſe Eſtate, &c. were ſeiſed of the ſaid Rent within 40 years then laſt paſt before the taking. A demurrer was, pretending, That he ought to alledg Seiſin in the Avowry within 40 years. But it was holden by the whole Court, That the Seiſin was not to be alledged, being it was by Deed made within the time of Preſcription; neither is Seiſin to be alledged, but where it is traverſable there it muſt be alledged, and in no other Caſe. Judgment was given for the Avowant. Trin. 6 Jac. in C. B. Cowper and Fiſhers Caſe. Brownlow 1. Part, 170.

12. An Avowry was made for an Amercement in a Court Leet, and ſhewed, That he was ſeiſed of the Mannor in Fee, and that he and all, &c. had had a Court Leet there. The Plaintiff traverſed, That he was ſeiſed of the Mannor in Fee. It was the Opinion of the Court, That if the Defendant had a reputed Mannor, it would be ſufficient to maintain the Avowry, although he indeed had no Mannor in truth. Mich. 8 Jac. in C. B. Brownl. 1. Part, 170. &c.

13. In a Replevin, the Defendant avowed, That the Father of the Plaintiff was ſeiſed of the Mannor, &c. and granted out of it to the Avowant a Rent of 20 l. per annum. And further granted, That if the ſaid Rent be behind ſix dayes after the Feaſts of, &c. wherein it ought to be paid ſi licet petatur, that then it ſhould be lawful to diſtrein. The Grantor afterwards by Indenture Covenants with the Lord Treaſurer and others to ſtand ſeiſed of the ſaid Mannor unto the uſe of himſelf and his Heirs, untill he and his Heirs have made default of payment of 200 l. per annum to the uſe of the Queen and her Heirs, untill 3000 l. ſhould be paid and levyed. And afterwards a Fine was levyed to the uſes aforeſaid; the Rent was behind, default of payment of the 200 l. to the Queen was made; Office was found, the Queen ſeiſed the Lands, the Avowant during the poſſeſſion of the Queen demanded the Rent, and the Attorney thereof. The Queen Granted the Lands to the Plaintiff and P. the Grantee diſtreined for the Rent. In this Caſe (amongſt other things), it was holden by the whole Court, That the demand of the Rent during the poſſeſſion of the Queen was good. For although the poſſeſſion of the Queen be priviledged as to the Diſtreſs; yet the demand is good without any prejudice to her Prerogative, for the Rent in right is due, and th poſſeſſion of the Queen is in right charged with it, and if the party ſueth to the Queen by Petition, he ought to ſhew in his Petition, that he hath demanded the Rent. See 7 H. 6. 40 The Diſſeiſee may make continual claim, although the poſſeſſion of the Land of which he is Diſſeiſed be in the King; And 34 H. 8. Br. Seiſin 48. If the Heir at full age intrudeth upon the poſſeſſion of the King, and payes Rent to the Lord of his Lands holden of a Subject, the ſame is a good Seiſin, and ſhall bind the Heir after he hath ſued his Livery, And ſee 5 E. 4. 4. Diſtreſs taken upon the poſſeſſion of the King, is not lawfull. But a Seiſin obtained during it, is good. Mich. 32 Eliz. in C. B. Wicks and Dennis's Caſe. Leon. 190, 191.

14. Lord and Tenant by Knight Service, to pay every year ſuch a quantity of Salt, but ſince 10 H. 7. the Tenant hath alwayes paid money for the Salt. The Queſtion was, If the Lord might reſort to the firſt Service, and if the money be Seiſin of the Salt. Manwood Juſtice took this difference, ſcil. Where the Lord takes a certain ſum of money for the Salt, the ſame is not any Seiſin, for that the Service is altered. As at the firſt, Socage Tenure was a work to be done by labour, ſcil. Plowing; but now it is changed to a certain Rent, and the Lord cannot reſort to have his Plowing. And he ſaid, That in Kent, divers Tenants in ancient times, have paid Barley for their Rent, but the ſame was afterwards paid in a certain ſum of money, ſo as now the Lord of ſuch Tenements cannot demand Barly. But if the ſum uſed to be paid hath bin incertain, in one year, ſo much, and in another year, ſo much, according to the price of Salt, then ſuch a payment of money is a ſufficient Seiſin of the Salt; all which was agreed by the Court. Mich. 20 El. in C. B. Leon. 266.

15. A man made a Leaſe to J. S. for 50 years if he Leſſor ſo long lived, rendring Rent at four uſual Feaſts, or within 13 Weeks after every ſeveral Feaſt by ſeven portions: After one of the Feaſts, the Leſſor dyed, his Executors brought debt for the Rent due at the ſaid Feaſt. In this Caſe, it was Reſolved, 1. That the Action was not maintainable. 2. Becauſe that the payment being limited in the Diſjunctive, the moſt beneficial ſhall be taken for the Leſſee, and before that time, the Leſſee is diſcharged by the act of God. And it was ſaid, That if the Leſſee pay his Rent before the day, the ſame is voluntary, but not ſatisfactory; but ſuch a payment is ſufficient to give a Seiſin to have an Aſſiſe. 2. Becauſe when the Leſſee makes not payment at the firſt day, the Election is paſt, and then the Rent is abſolutely due the ſecond day, and the ſecond day is aſwell paid of the Reſervation, as the firſt day. Cook 10. Part, 127. Clunns Caſe.

1. ERror was brought of a Recovery in an Action of Waſte, Where the Plaintiff declared, That he was Seiſed, and ſo ſeiſed dimiſit pro termino annorum, and did not ſhew of what Eſtate he was ſeiſed; and yet he did ſhew, That it was ad exheredationem ejus, and that was aſſigned for Error; and in the Principal Caſe it ſhall be ſuppoſed, That he had but an Eſtate for life, for it ſhall not be intended he had an Eſtate of Inheritance, without expreſſing words carrying the Inheritance. As 7. Aſſ. If I grant a Rent to J. S. and do not name what Eſtate he ſhall have in it, he ſhall have but an Eſtate for life. Sail Juſtice ſaid, It was a fault incurable. On the other ſide it was ſaid, That he might plead quod dimiſit without ſhewing that he was ſeiſed et dimiſit, and therefore it was but ſurpluſage in the Principal Caſe, and it ſhall be intended, that he that bringeth Waſte, that he hath ſuch an Eſtate that he may maintain the Action. In Adams Caſe, Plow. Com. One ſhewed, That ſuch an Abbot was ſeiſed, and that the Land came to the King by the Diſſolution, and that the King being ſeiſed, did grant the ſame, and did not ſhew of what Eſtate the King was ſeiſed, and yet good; and in the Principal Caſe it was ſaid, That the Defendant had pleaded, Nul waſt fait, and ſo by his Plea had affirmed the Declaration to be good. Brawront Juſtice held, That he ought to have ſhewed and ſaid Reverſione inde ſibi et heredibus. The Opinion of the Court ſeemed to be, That the Plea was not good, and that it was no helped by the Statute of 18 Eliz. But the Caſe was not Reſolved. Hill. 29 Eliz.

29 Eliz. in C. B. Widall and Sir John Aſton's Caſe, Godbolt, 121.

2. Errour of a Judgment in C. B. where the Plaintiff ſhewed, That dia fuit, et adhuc ſeiſitus of a houſe, &c. he did preſcribe, That he and all thoſe whoſe Eſtate he hath in the ſaid houſe, had uſed to have Common in the Waſte of L, and that the Defendant, 15 Jac. had made Waſte in making Cony-berries; quorum quidem præmiſſorum, he loſt his Common: and Judgment was given in C. B. for the Plaintiff. The Errour aſſigned was, That dia ſeiſitus was not good; for that it hath no limitation of time: and it may contain as well 40 years, as one year. Another Errour was, becauſe he doth not conclude, quorum quidem præmiſſorum prætextu, he loſt his Common: but leaves out the word (prætextu). It was ſaid, That the word (prætextu) is a Concluſion, that the particular wrong doth continue. But in this caſe, it was Anſwered, That the word (prætextu) is wanting, and a Seiſin firſt ought to be layed; and then prætextu quorum is good. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Declaration was not good. The Declaration ought to have been dia ſeiſitus, and ſic ſeiſitus, he made the Cony-berries: and if it had been ſo, it had been good; but as this Caſe is, it is not good. And it was the Opinion of the Court, That (dia) includes no certainty of time, and Quorum quidem præmiſſorum, &c. was a ſpeech without ſenſe, without the word (prætextu). And for theſe Cauſes, the Judgment was reverſed. Trin. 21 Jac. in B. R. Sir Thomas Lee and Griffeth's Caſe, Godbolt, 347.

3. An Advowſon is but a Right of Preſentation; yet in Judgment and account of Law, it is a Temporal Inheritance, which ſhall deſcend to the Heir as other Inheritances ſhall, and may be conveyed, bargained and ſold, as other Temporal Inheritances are: and although a man cannot Count in pleading, That he is ſeiſed thereof in Dominico ſuo ut de feodo, for that it is an Inheritance incorporeal, and ſavoureth not de Domo; yet may he in pleading Count or Declare, That he is ſeiſed thereof ut de feodo et jure, 34 H. 6. 24. 19 E. 3. Quare Imp. 154. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 17. and 201. acc.

Seizure.

Where it may be made, and of what things, and of what not. Of the King, where good by Office; Where without Office the King may enter; Where not.

1. NOte: It was agreed by all the Juſtices, That for a Heriot Service, the Lord cannot diſtrain out of his Fee, no more then for a Rent; but he may ſeize a Heriot-Cuſtome out of his Fee. Trin. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Goldesbr. 97.

2. In Treſpaſs, for taking of an Ox in D; The Defendant juſtified the taking in Black-Acre, and that it was his Freehold for Damage Feaſant: The Plaintiff made a new Aſſignment, That the place where he hath aſſigned the taking to be, is Green Acre in D: and the Defendant juſtified there for Heriot-Service. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Lord might ſeize for Heriot-Service; and when the Lord hath ſeiſed, the ſame is a Seiſin by the hands of his Tenant. Hil. 43 Eliz. in B. R. Bodyam and Smith's Caſe, Goldesbr. 191.

3. Dower was brought de tertia parte Reſtoria de D; and upon that a Grand Cape iſſued Cape in manum noſtram, tertiam partem Reſtoria, and the Sheriff by colour of this Writ, took the Tythe ſevered from the 9. parts, and carried them away. It was agreed by all the Juſtices, That the ſame is not ſuch a ſeizure as is intended by the Writ, but the Sheriff by virtue of ſuch Writ ought to ſeize generally, and leave them there where he found them. And the Court was of Opinion, To commit the Sheriff for ſuch his miſdemeanor. Mich. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Michell and Hides Caſe, Leon. 92.

4. It was found by Office, That T. was ſeiſed in Fee of a parcel of Marſh Land in K. and Deviſed the ſame by his Will, and all his Lands from his Heir to other perſons: and afterwards in 2 E. 6. dy'd ſeiſed of the Premiſſes, Et quod premiſſa prædict. tenentur de Domina Regina in Capite per Servitium Militare; And that C. D. was Coſen and Heir to T: And it was found, That Sir William St. Leger received the profits of the ſaid parcel parcell of Lands during the Minority of C. Anno 9. the Queen by Act of Parliament pardoned All Profits and Sums of money not afterwards excepted in the ſame Act. In the Act, one Exception is in theſe words, viz. [And alſo, Except and ſtherized out of this General and Free Pardon, all Ravishments, wrongfull taking and withholding any of the Queens Wards, or Wards Lands, at any time come or grown to the Queens hands, and not yet diſcharged: And alſo except all manner of Intruſions had made or done by any perſon or perſons, in or upon any Mannors, Lands, Tenements, &c.]. The Queſtion was, Whether Sir William St. Leger be not diſcharged of the mean Rates during the Minority. It was Reſolved, That the taking of the mean Rates during the Minority, could be no Intruſion upon any Lands within one Exception, becauſe there was no Office found for the King at that time. Beſides, the Lands therein mentioned, are the Inheritance of the Queen; and theſe words in the Exception could be but of a Chattel in her. And for the other Exception, It appeared alſo to the Juſtices, That there were no profits excepted therein, nor could the Lands of F. deceaſed, be ſaid to be Wards Lands in the Queens hands at the time of the Pardon, for that there was not a ſeizure made of them, nor Office found at that time to entitle the Queen unto them. Wherefore it was Reſolved, That the profits taken during the Miſority, were pardoned; and that Sir William St. Leger might not be charged with them. Mich. 12 Jac. in Curia Wardorum, Sir William St. Leger's Caſe. Lea, 48, 49.

5. A Fieri facias iſſued to the Sheriff, to levy a Debt for J. S; the Sheriff by virtue thereof ſeized the goods, but did not return the Writ: afterwards the Sheriff was diſcharged, and a new Sheriff made. The old Sheriff after his diſcharge, ſold the goods to the Defendant; againſt whom, Trover and Converſion was brought, and the matter aforeſaid was found by Verdict. It was in this caſe adjudged for the Plaintiff; for the ſale made by the old Sheriff after his diſcharge, was void: and where the Sheriff hath ſeized goods by virtue of a Writ of Execution, and afterwards is diſcharged, he ought to turn over the goods to the new Sheriff, as he doth his priſoners. And it was holden, That by the ſeizure of the goods, the property of the Owner was not altered, for the ſeizure is not any Execution; and the Sheriff after ſuch a Seizure, ought to declare the Writ executed in part, and cannot deliver them to the party; for as the Writ of Execution is warranted by the Roll, ſo ought the executing and diſcharge thereof appear upon Record. And it was holden in this caſe, That the Sheriff after the Seizure, although he had continued in his Office, could not have ſold the Goods without a Writ of Venditioni Exponas, which is not grantable untill it doth appear by the Return of the Sheriff, that remanent pro defectu Emptorum. Hill. 1 Jac. in B. R. Ayer and Adin's Caſe. Yelv. 44.

6. In Intruſion it was found, That A. was ſeiſed of divers Meſſuages, &c. And by Deed Indented and enrolled, bargained and ſold all his Lands, Meſſuages, &c. which lay in the Pariſh of St. Andr. in the Tenure of J. S. to B. for life, the remainder to C. in Fee; B. entred, and took huſband, who made a Leaſe for years: A. was Attainted of Treaſon; The King granted the ſaid Meſſuages to D. and his Heirs; Proviſo, That if they were not concealed, that then the Letters Patents ſhould be void. And it was found, That the Lands lay in the Pariſh of St. Sepulch. and that they were in the Tenure of J. S: In this caſe, It was Reſolved, 1. That nothing paſſed by the ſaid Bargain and Sale, becauſe that the firſt certainty, ſcil. in the Pariſh of St. Andr. was falſe: but if the firſt certainty had been true, although the ſecond certainty had been falſe, the Grant had been good. 2. Reſolved, That by the Common-Law, for Lands in Feeſimple, and by the Statute of 26 H. 8. Cap. 3. for Lands in tail, the actual poſſeſſion was not in the King by Attainder before Office; but when Tenant in Feeſimple is Attainted of Treaſon, and dyeth, there the Fee and Freehold without Office found, ſhall be in the King without Office for neceſſity, becauſe a Freehold cannot be in Abeyance: Otherwiſe it is, if the Land were entailed, the ſame ſhall diſcend to the Iſſue untill Office found: For the Act of 26 H. 8. gives only the forfeiture; and Attainder is not corruption of blood for Lands, untill the Statute of 33 H. 8. Cap. 20. 3. It was Reſolved, That although by the Statute of 33 H. 8. the King ſhall be in actuall poſſeſſion without Office; Yet when the Diſſeiſee is attainted of Treaſon, preſently by the Attainder, the King had but a right: And if the Diſſeiſee at the Common-Law is attainted of Treaſon, and the Seiſin and Diſſeiſin found by Office, the poſſeſſion ſhall not be in the King, untill a Scire facias, or ſeizure at the laſt, becauſe that when a ſtranger is ſeiſed at the time of the Office found, the King ſhall not be in poſſeſſion untill ſeizure. Cook 3. Part, 10. & 11. Dowties Caſe.

7. Note, Cook 4. Part, in Beverly's Caſe; That if in Idiot or a Natural Fool, the Cuſtody of him is given by the Law to the King as Tutor, by the Common-Law, and his Lands by the Statute of Prærogativa Regis, and the act is in the King, but but the Freehold is in the Idiot; and the King shall have the Custody of his Body, Goods and Chattels, as of his Lands, as well those which he had by purchase, as those which he hath as Heir at the Common Law. If an Idiot à Nativitate, alien his Lands at full age, upon a Scire facias brought by the King against the Alienee, the Lands shall be seised into the Kings hands, and the Inheritance vested in the Idiot: But the King shall not have the Custody of Land which an Idiot holdeth by Copy; for that is but an Estate at Will by the Common Law; and if the King should have the Custody of it, it should be a prejudice to the Lord of the Mannor. But yet an Alienation made by an Idiot of his Copyhold Land after Office found, shall be avoided; And all Alienations or Guifts made by an Idiot before Office found, shall be avoided by Office found; for no Lich.ff: shall be in the King. But if an Idiot dyeth before Office found, after his death no Office may be found; and without Office, the King cannot be entituled. And it was holden, That a Non Compos Mentis after Office found, is in the same case as an Idiot. Cook 4. Part, 127, 128. Brentley's Case.

8. The Case was, The Lord Clifford held the Barony of Sheriffwick of W. of the King by Grand Serjeanty in Capite: The King gave License to the Lord Clifford, that he might thereof enfeoffe two Chaplains in Fee, so as they gave back the Land to the Lord, and the heirs males of his body, the remainder over: The Lord Clifford according to the Licence, did enfeoffe the two Chaplains; and before they had given back the same, the Lord Clifford dyed, his Son and Heir within age, and in Ward to the King: All this was found by Office, and returned into the Chancery; Out of which, and the Charter of Licence, a Scire facias issued against the two Chaplains, If they could say any thing, Why the Lands so occupied by them, should not be seised into the Kings hands? Who appeared, and pleaded the Kings Licence, and the Feoffment of the Lord Clifford, and so they were the King's Tenants by License; and as to the re-enfoffment, That it was in their will to do it; With that, That they were ready to have made the Feoffment to the Lord Clifford in his life; but he would have it by Fine, and thereupon brought a Writ of Covenant, and dyed depending the Writ: And that after his death, they were ready, if they had the Kings Licence, to make the re-enfeoffment to his Son and Heir, according to the Condition. It was in this case adjudged, That the Lands should be seised into the Kings hands, and that he should have the profits thereof from the time of the death of the Lord Clifford; And the reasons of the Judgment were; 1. Because that by the Licence of the King which is of Record, and by the Office returned, it appeareth upon Record, That the Chaplains had no other Estate, then upon Condition. 2. It appeareth, That they had time in the life-time of the Lord Clifford, to have performed the Condition. If they had made the Guift in tail to the Lord himself, they had pursued the Licence; but when the Lord dyed, they could not by force of that Licence make the Guift to his Son; and then not doing it in the life of the Lord, it drew a Charge upon the Heir, to purchase a Licence, and perhaps the King would never give Licence, and then the Estate never should be made, and all in default of the Feoffees who had time to make it: so if that without Licence they should give it back to the Heir, his Lands should be seized into the Kings hands for alienation without Licence. And for these Causes, it was adjudged, That the Entry of the Heir was lawful. Cook 2. Part, 80. The Lord Clifford's Case, vouch. in the Lord Cromwells Case.

9. Note; It was Resolved (amongst other things), That White Swans not marked, which have gained their natural Liberty, and are natantes in an open and common River, may be seized to the use of the King by his Prerogative, as well as any other flying Fowl Royal. 2. That a Subject may have White Swans not marked in his private Waters; and if they do escape out of the private Waters, into an open and Common River, he may bring them back, and retake them: But if they do swim in an open or common River without such pursuit, In such case, the King may seize them as Royal Fowls: And the reason is, Because they cannot be known from other Swans. Cook 7. Part, 16. in the Case of Swans.

10. In a Quo warranto, for using of Waifs, Streys, Felons goods in L; The Defendant claimed Waife and Estray by Prescription; and for the Felons goods, he pleaded, That J. late Abbot of S, Licitè habuit et gravisus fuit infra L. prædict. bona et Catalla felonum ad usum suum proprium; and pleaded the Statute of 27 H. 8. That all Monasteries under 200 l. per annum, were given to the King in as ample manner as the Abbot had them; and that the Abbey of S. was under 200 l. per annum, and pleaded the Statute of 32 H. 8. Cap. 20. by which all Priviledges, Franchises, &c. which the Abbots had and used lawfully by the said Act should be revived, and should be in the King. By force of which, King Hen. 8. was seised of the Franchises, to have the Goods of Felons in L: and so seised of the Mannor of T. in L. parcel of the possessions of the said Abby, granted the said Mannor of T. to J. S. Et sic talia tanta hujusmodi eadem & consimilia, Libertates, Franchesias, &c. quæ, qualia, quanta, et quæ, the said late Abbot habuit sive habere fuit, et eo warranto clamat Libertates, Franchesias, &c. tanquam Mauricio prædecessori. It was in this Case, amongst other Points, Resolved, That because the Defendant conveyed unto himself title to the Mannor by Feoffment, which is pleaded without Deed, and doth not convey himself title to the Felons goods, which cannot passe without Deed, that for this cause, the Felons Goods should be seised into the Kings hands. Cook 9. Part, 26, 27. The Case of the Abbot of Strata Marcella.

Servant and Master.

Where the Master shall be charged for the Act, Offence, or Wrong done by his Servant; And how far he shall be charged, how far the Servant: And where the Master shall have Action, for the Wrong done to his Servant.

1. A. Recovered against B. in the Common-Pleas, and upon an Ex post Capias, the Defendant was Outlawed; and after the year, the Plaintiff procured a Capias utlegatum against him, and delivered it to the Sheriff of London; and that one L. one of the Sheriff's Sergeants, had arrested the said B, and then A. came to B. with the Sheriffs Warrant to arrest him upon the Capias utlegatum; which he refused to do: and in this case A. brought an Action against the Sheriff, and suppoſed, that the Sheriff arrested B. upon the Capias utlegatum, and suffered him to go at Large. The Defendants pleaded, Quod non permiserunt ire ad largum. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. In this case, It was Resolved, That when a man is in the Custody of the Sheriff by procesſ of Law, and afterwards another delivers him a Writ to arrest the body of him who is in his Custody; he is in his Custody presently, although he maketh no actual Arrest of him: and although he cannot arrest him whom he hath already; yet he ought to keep him safe by vertue of the Writ. 2. It was Resolved, That although the Capias utlegatum was sued after the year, so as the Defendant could not be in Execution without prayer of the party, yet the Plaintiff is prejudiced by his Escape: and therefore the Action doth lye against the Sheriff himself. Trin. 41 Eliz. in C. B. Cook 5. Part, 98. Frost's Case.

2. In an Action upon the Case, the Case was; The Defendant being a Goldsmith in London, and having Counterfeit Jewels, knowing them to be Counterfeit, sent his Servant J. S. with them to the Plaintiff, being a Merchant in Barbary, to make sale of the Jewels to the King of Barbary; to whom the Plaintiff sold them for 800 l: J. S. having received the money, went from thence; The Jewels afterwards being discovered to be Counterfeit, the Plaintiff by Imprisonment was enforced to make Restitution to the King. In this case it was Resolved, That although the Defendant did not command his Servant to make use of the Plaintiff, and that the Jewells were of some value; yet that the Action did well lye against the Master, and that the Master should answer for his Servant. Trin. 16 Jac. in B.R. Cro. 2. Part, 468. Southern and Howes Case.

3. In Debt, the Plaintiff declared, That he being an Attorney in the Common-Pleas, that the Defendant retained him to prosecute for J. S, and agreed to pay him his Fees; and shewed, That he had layed out so much for J. S. in the Suit, and the Defendant had not paid him. In Nihil debet pleaded, It was found for the Plaintiff, and Judgment: Whereupon Errour was brought, and it was Assigned for Errour, That the Defendant is but a Sollicitor, and that there is not any consideration, and it is maintenancy in him to sollicite Suits. 2. That Debt doth not lye, but an Action upon the Case, for that there is not any Contract betwixt them. But the Opinion of the Court was, That the Exceptions were not good. Hill. 3 Car. in C. B. Sands and Trivillians Case. Cro. 1. Part, 76.

4. Debt was brought against the Sollicitor of Sir Tho. Elvis, who retained the Plaintiff, being an Attorney, to prosecute a Suit against the said Sir Tho: Elvis, for his Fees; which being found for the Plaintiff, Errour was brought; And it was Objected, That Debt did not lye. But it was Over-Ruled by the Court, That the Action did well lye; and that it was a good Contract made by the Sollicitor. Hill. 16 Jac. in B. R. Bradford and Woodhouses Case. Cro. 2. Part, 520.

5. Errour of a Judgment in the Common-Pleas, in debt, for 42 l. 9 s. 3 d. and declares upon several accompts, of divers sorts of Wares sold for divers severall sums; and upon severall Retainers at several dayes, to do severall sorts of Works: and amongſt others, That he ſhould retain one J. S. the Plaintiff's Servant, to work with him for 5. dayes, Capiendo inde pro ſalario ſuo pro quolibet die 2 s. per quod actio accrevit to deliver 10 s; and ſo Accompts of ſeverall Wares bought, and ſeveral retainers, and ſeverall ſums lent, amounting in toto, to 42 l. 9 s. The Defendant pleaded Non debet, and found Quod debet 30 l. inde et quod reſiduum non debet; and Judgment for the Plaintiff. Errour brought, and Aſſigned, Becauſe the Action lyes not for the Maſter, for the Retainer of the Servant to work with the Defendant for 5. dayes; for it is not alledged, that he did the ſervice for his Maſter, but for himſelf; and the Retaining is of the Servant for his own proper labour, and by Contract with him: And, if it were the Retainer of the Servant by the Command and appointment of his Maſter, he ought to have ſhewen, that he retained the Maſter, and not the Servant: For then he ought to have declared accordingly, That he retained the Maſter, who by himſelf or Servant ſhould work. And of that Opinion was the whole Court. Wherefore the Judgment was reverſed. Hill. 19 Jac. in B. R. Treſwell and Middleton's Caſe, Cro. 2. Part, 653.

6. It was found by Office, That the Office of Marſhall of the Kings, was ipſo facto in the King, by reaſon of many Eſcapes ſuffered, which was a forfeiture of the ſaid Office: And yet it was Reſolved in that Caſe, That the Officer ought to have a Writ of Diſcharge, to diſcharge him; for that, till he be actually removed, he ſhould anſwer for all Eſcapes. And it was Reſolved in that caſe, That he who hath the Cuſtody of a Goale, whether lawfully or not, he ſhall be charged for the Eſcape of Priſoners: And if he be but a Deputy, and hath not ſufficient to anſwer for the Eſcapes; then reſpondeat ſuperiori, and he who hath the Inheritance, ſhall be charged. Cook 9. Part, 98. in Sir George Reynells Caſe.

7. In an Action upon the Caſe for Deceit, The Plaintiff declared, That A. was his Servant, and had 65 l. of his in his Cuſtody, and that the Defendant to deceive the Plaintiff of the ſaid money, procured quendam Literam to be written and directed to the ſaid A, and Counterfeited the name of the Plaintiff thereto, and ſealed it quaſi with the Plaintiff's Seal, and cauſed it to be delivered to the ſaid A, affirming it to be the Plaintiff's Letter, and that he was ſent to him by the Plaintiff: Whereupon the ſaid A. cauſed it to be read; and underſtanding that in the ſaid Letter it was contained, That the Plaintiff had appointed the ſaid A. to deliver to the Defendant 65 l. to the uſe of one J. S. to whom by the Letter it was ſuppoſed he was endebted. The Plaintiff by reaſon thereof, A. giving Credit unto him, paid and delivered to the Defendant the ſaid 65 l. ubi revera, the Letter was Counterfeit, and he never ſent the Defendant, nor was he endebted in any ſuch ſum. Upon Not Guilty, being found for the Plaintiff, and Damages 105 l; It was moved, That this Action lyes not for the Maſter, but ought to be by the Servant: But all the Court held, That the Deceit and abuſe is to the Maſter, and the loſſe only to him, and therefore the Action well lyes for him: And upon a Writ of Errour brought, the Judgment was affirmed. Hill. 6 Jac. in B. R. Tracy and Peales Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 223.

8. In an Action upon the Caſe, the Plaintiff declared, That in Common Innes, the Innkeeper ought to keep the Goods of their Gueſts ſafely, and all other goods brought into their Inn under their Cuſtody, without ſubſtraction; and that one J. S. Servant of the Plaintiff, was lodged at the Defendant's Houſe in D; and that he having a bagg there, with 8 l. in money of the Plaintiff's therein, quidam malefactores, to the Plaintiff unknown, took and carried away the ſaid bagg of money being in the ſaid Inne in default of the Defendant and his Servants: Upon Not Guilty, It was found againſt the Defendant, and moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That the Action ought to have been brought by the Servant, and not by the Maſter; for the Cuſtome of the Realm is only for Travellers, and here the Maſter was not a Travailer. But it was adjudged, That the Maſter might well have the Action; And ſo it was ſaid, it had been Reſolved before in this Court: And afterwards a Writ of Error brought, the Judgment was affirmed in the Exchequer-Chamber, Trin. 7 Jac. in B. R. Bedle and Morris's Caſe. Cro. 2. 224.

9. Treſpaſſe; for that the Defendant 20. Jan. 17 Jac. quendam J. S. Servant of the Plaintiff, did beat and wound, per quod, Servitium prædict. J. S. per magnum tempus, ſcil. à prædict. 12. Martii 17. ſupradict. uſq; 1. Martii proxim ſequent. perdidit. Upon Not Guilty pleaded, it being found for the Plaintiff; It was moved, That the Bill ſhould abate: For the Bill is brought, Hill. 18 Jac. and the Battery is ſuppoſed 20. Jan. 17 Jac. and the loſſe of the ſervice to be per magnum tempus. ſcil. à prædict. 20. Martii, 17 Jac. uſq; 1. Martii following, which was 18 Jac. which is to the time of the Action brought, and Damages are given for the time after the Action brought. It was the Opinion of the Court in this Caſe, That here the point of the Action is the loſſe of his Service; which ought to be ſhewed certainly:

rainly: for that only enables him to the Action; and if the time certain be not expreſſed therein, the Declaration is not good; and therefore the (ſtil.) for what comes after, is material; which being ill-alledged, the Declaration is not good. It was adjudged for the Defendant. Paſch. 19 Jac. in B. R. Hanbury and Ireland's Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 618.

10. An Action upon the Statute of Huy and Cry was brought by the Servant in his own name, who was robbed, and part of the goods were his Maſters, and part his own proper goods; The Defendant was found guilty as to his own goods; and a Special Verdict was found as to the goods of the Maſter: and the Plaintiff had Judgment. Trin. 8 Jac. in B. R. Needham and the Inhabitants of Staſes Caſe. Brownlow, 1. Part, 155.

11. A. brought an Action againſt B. for 20 l. The Condition of the Bond was, That whereas one R. had bound himſelf Apprentice to the Defendant for 8. years; the Defendant did Covenant with the Plaintiff, That he would retain, teach, keep, and employ the ſaid Apprentice in his own Houſe and Service, in the Art of Chirurgery during the Term: and then ſhewed, That within the Term, the Defendant ſent his ſaid Apprentice in a Voyage to Bantam in the Eaſt-Indies, which he pleaded to be in the Company of other expert Chirurgions, the better to learn the Art. Upon which, the Plaintiff Demurred. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff; for it was expreſſly againſt his Covenant: for although the Covenant was not ſo reſtrained to the houſe, but that he might ſend his Servant into other places about his Cures; yet he might ſtill be as one of his Houſhold coming and going, and in his Service, and not put over to any other. And in this Caſe, It was ſaid by Hobart, Chief Juſtice, That generally no man can force his Apprentice to go out of the Kingdom, except it be expreſſly ſo agreed; or that the nature of his Apprentiſhip doth import it: As, If he be bounden to a Merchant-Adventurer, &c. Hill. 13 Jac. in C. B. Coventry and Woodhall's Caſe. Hob. 134, 135.

2. What acts done by the Servant, or Attorney, in the name and right of the Maſter, are good and Juſtifiable: And what not.

1. A Copyholder in Fee made a Letter of Attorney to two Tenants of the Mannor, to ſurrender his Copyhold to the uſe of J. S. and his Heirs, who at the next Court brought in the Surrender, and did accordingly, no Cuſtome being found to warrant ſuch Surrender: In this Caſe, It was Reſolved, 1. That the Surrender was good, becauſe he might ſo do de Communi jure, without alledging any Cuſtome. 2. It was Reſolved, That at the Common-Law, ſome things are ſo inſeparably annexed to the perſon of a man, that he cannot do them by Attorney or other, as Homage, Fealty, &c. The Lord may beat his Villein for cauſe, or without cauſe, and he hath no Remedy; but if he commandeth his Servant or another to beat him, an Action will lye againſt him who beats him: So if the Lord Diſtrain his Tenant, when nothing is behind, Treſpaſs vi et Armis doth not lye againſt the Lord; but if he commandeth his Bayliff or Servant to Diſtrein when nothing is in arrear, and he doth Diſtrain, an Action lyeth againſt the Bayliff or Servant. Cook 9. Part, 75, 76. Combes Caſe.

2. Note: It was holden and Reſolved by the Juſtices, That if Leſſee for years or Copyholder be ouſted, or the Leſſor, or the Lord Diſſeiſed, and the Diſſeiſor levieth a Fine, and five years paſſe, that the Lord or Leſſor are barred by the firſt Saving of the Statute of 4 H. 7. of Fines, becauſe they might preſently have their reall Action, and Recover the Land; and therefore if 5. years paſſe before their Entry or Claim, they ſhall be barred: But it was Reſolved, That a meer ſtranger of his own wrong cannot enter in the name of him who hath right, and avoid the Fine, without a Commandment precedent, or an aſſent ſubſequent within the 5. years. But he who hath the Reverſion, or the Lord of the Mannor, may enter in the name of his Leſſee, or his Copyholder, as well to ſave their Inheritances, as the particular Eſtates, becauſe they are Privies in Eſtate; and that they may do without requeſt precedent, or aſſent ſubſequent; and that is a lawful Entry within that Statute. Cook 9. Part, 106. Podgers Caſe.

3. In an Action of Falſe Impriſonment againſt a man, for an Aſſault, Battery, and Impriſonment 6. dayes: The Defendant, to all but the Aſſault, Battery, and Impriſonment for 6. hours, pleaded Not Guilty; and for the Battery and Impriſonment for 6. hours, he juſtified by a Warrant from the Sheriff of S, who directed his Warrant to his Bayliff to execute it; who Arreſted the Plaintiff, and required the Defendant to be aiding to him; which is the ſame Battery, &c. Upon which it was Demurred, becauſe it was not pleaded, That the Writ being executed, was returned; for the Writ is Conditional, Ita quod habeas Corpus in Curia tali die: And therefore if the Defendant himſelf will juſtifie, It is no Plea, without ſhewing the Return of the Writ. But that Exception was diſallowed by the Court. For the Court ſaid, It is true, that the Sheriff ought to return his Writ, otherwiſe his Juſtification is not good: But it is not ſo with his Baily or Servant, for he hath no means to make the Sheriff to make Return thereof; and that which he did, was legally done, and it ſhall not be made illegal by the Sheriff's act, in not returning of the Writ. 2. It was Reſolved, That the Sheriff might by word diſcharge the Baily, that he keep not his Priſoner longer. Hill. 11 Car. in B. R. Girlings Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 322, 323.

Sheriff.

His Power and Authority; and what Acts done by him as Sheriff are good: And where he may take Poſſe Comitatus to execute Proceſs; Where not. His Oath, and by what Law; and how there may be addition to it.

1. A Brought Debt againſt B. for a great ſum of money; Proceſs continued till a Capias utlagatum. The Plaintiff moved, That the Sheriff might be Commanded to execute the Writ, which was delivered to him in Court. He ſaid, He would do his endeavour; But, B. the Defendant hath ſo long kept his houſe, that he cannot come at him. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Sheriff might take Poſſe Comitatus with him, and break his Houſe, and take him out; and ſo they ſaid, it had been adjudged. Hill. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Hart and Curſons Caſe. Golds. 79.

2. It was adjudged by the whole Court, That if a Fieri facias be directed, and delivered to the Sheriff, he may not break the Outer door of the Houſe and enter, and do Execution; but if the Outer door be open, then he may enter by that; and then he may, and ought to break the door of an Entry, or Chamber which is locked, and break open any Cheſt which is locked, and take the Goods in that in Execution: and if he doth not, an Action upon the Caſe will lye againſt him. Trin. 44 Eliz. in B. R. Brownlow. 1. Part, 50.

3. Note; When any Houſe is recovered by any real Action, or by Ejectione Firmæ, the Sheriff may break open the Houſe, and deliver the Seiſin, or Poſſeſſion thereof to the Demandant, or Plaintiff: (for that the words of the Writ are, Habere facias Seiſinam, or Poſſeſſionem), becauſe otherwiſe there would never be an end of Suits: for after Judgment, it is not (in right and Judgment of Law) the Houſe of the Tenant or Defendant; Cook 4. Part, 91. in Simons Caſe.

4. The

4. Treſpaſs, for breaking his Houſe, and breaking 3. doors, and carrying away 3. Locks of the ſame doors. The Defendant juſtified the Entry of the houſe by vertue of a Fieri facias awarded againſt the Plaintiff directed to the Sheriff; and that he being Sheriff, and the other Defendants his Bayliffs, two of the Defendants entred into the Houſe, and the door being open, took the Goods, and the Plaintiff ſhut the doors upon the Bayliffs, and Impriſoned them two hours; wherefore he broke open the doors to reſcue his Bayliffs. It was holden by the whole Court, That although a Sheriff cannot break open an houſe, being to take Execution by a Fieri facias; yet when the door is open, that he enters, and be diſturbed in his Execution by the parties who are within the Houſe, he may break the Houſe to reſcue his Bayliffs, and to take Execution. Mich. 17 Jac. in B. R. Cro. 2. Part, 555, 556.

5. Errour, to reverſe a Fine in Cheſter: The Errour aſſigned was, Becauſe the Writ of Covenant was directed to the Coroners, with this Clauſe in the end of the Writ, Quia prædict. J. D. Miles, eſt Vicecomes Comitatus Ceſtriæ fiat. Executio brevis prædict. per Coronator. ita quod Vicecomes ſe non intromittat; where the Writ was to be directed to the Sheriff. It was ſaid by the Councel of the Plaintiff, in the Writ of Errour, That if the Sheriff had been ſole party to the Fine, yet the Writ ought to have been directed to him, becauſe it is but a Summons; and the Sheriff may ſummon himſelf, and it is not retorned that he is Sheriff, and cannot ſummon himſelf, and the courſe of Law is, That the Writ ſhall be directed to the Sheriff, and not to any other, when it may be done without prejudice. But it was Reſolved by the Court, That it was not Error; for if the Writ be directed to the Sheriff, and he is a party, it is doubted, if the Sheriff as Plaintiff may execute; and as Defendant, he may execute a Writ upon himſelf; and therefore it were good, to avoid that doubt, to take a Writ to the Coroners, to avoid the doubt of delay; for if he be Plaintiff, and makes not ſuch ſurmiſe, the Defendant peradventure will take Exceptions in abatement of the Writ; and ſo if he be Defendant, he may peradventure plead an abatement of the Writ; but when it is awarded to the Coroner, if the Defendant ſhould have excepted againſt it, yet when he appears, and accepts thereof, and comes in, and levies a Fine thereupon, he never afterwards ſhall aſſign for Errour, That the Writ ought to have been directed to the Coroners, eſpecially it being upon an amicable Writ to make aſſurance: Wherefore by the Judgment of the whole Court, the Fine was affirmed. Trin. 8 Car. in B. R. Done, and Smither, and Leighs Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 300.

6. Note, It was ſaid by the Court, That if a Capias utlegatum iſſue out to the Sheriff, to take the party, and to enquire what Lands and Tenements he had; and the Sheriff by Inquiſition finds, that he is ſeiſed of many Lands, and continues poſſeſſion in them: If the Sheriff in ſuch caſe put the party out of poſſeſſion, he ſhall have an Action of Treſpaſs againſt him. Paſch. 22. Car. in B. R. Wiack. 78.

7. An Action upon the Caſe upon an Eſcape, upon a Latitat, before any Declaration; and the Sheriff retorned a Reſcous. It was the Opinion of the Court, That it was no good Retorn, nor Plea; for that he might have had Poſſe Comitatus, as well upon the ſerving of the ſame Proceſs, as he might upon an Execution. See 43 Eliz. in B. R. Rott. 279. Waldo and Lamberts Caſe. Noy 40.

8. In an Action upon the Caſe for not performance of Covenants; The Caſe was, Sir Daniel Norton Knight, Sheriff of the County of H. made one Chamberlain his Under-Sheriff at his Will; and amongſt other Covenants, there was a Covenant or Proviſo, That Chamberlain ſhould not execute any Extent, Liberate, Elegit, or other Execution, for any ſum above the ſum of 20 l. before he had firſt made it known to Sir Daniel, the High Sheriff. It was holden by all the Juſtices in this Caſe, That ſuch Covenant or Proviſo was void in Law, being againſt the Law, and Juſtice: And in that Caſe it was holden, That it was in the Election and Power of Sir Daniel Norton, whether he would make an Under-Sheriff at all, or not; Yet it was adjudged, That by any Act, Proviſo, or Covenant, he could not have him to be Under-Sheriff, and yet abridge him of the power which the Law gave him for the doing and ſerving of Execution according to the Law. Paſch. 11 Jac. in C. B. Sir Daniel Norton and Symms Caſe. Hob. 12 & 13. See Chamberlain and Goldſmiths Caſe. Brownl. 2. Part, 281. the ſame Caſe.

9. Debt upon an Obligation of 100 l. by a Sheriff; The Condition was, If J. S. appeared in the Common Pleas à die Paſc. in quindecim dier. ad reſpondendum S. A. in placito debiti, that then &c. The Defendant appeared, and pleaded the Statute of 23 H. 6. And that upon a Capias out of the Common Pleas, to take the ſaid J. S. ad reſpondendum T. A. in placito debiti de 320 l. by vertue of the ſaid Writ, the ſaid J. S. was arreſted, and Impriſoned, until he entred into the ſaid Bond, ſo it was not made according to the Statute, upon which it was demurred; and it was ſaid, That it was not Warranted by the Statute, becauſe it is not mentioned that he ſhould appear ad reſpondend. in placito debiti, nor is it according to the Writ, ad reddendum ei 320 l. for In debito generally, is incertain; becauſe it may be in Annuity, or Rationabili Bonorum, and the ſum ought to be ſhewed, that the party might know to what to anſwer. And another Exception, becauſe the Obligation is 100 l. for an appearance only; whereas it hath been been adjudged, that 40 l. bond is ſufficient: But both Exceptions were over-ruled by the Court. To the firſt, That the Statute is intended only to repreſs Extortions, and Frauds in the Sheriffs, and doth not preſcribe any ſtrict form of the Bond, but it ought to be made unto him only by the name of his Office, and to expreſs the day and place of his appearance; and although it be variant in other circumſtances, it is not material: And for the ſecond, the Law doth not reſtrain him to any ſum or ſecurities; for he may take one, or two, or more ſureties, and may take what ſum he pleaſe to force the party to appear. Hill. 7 Jac. in B. R. Villiers and Haſtings Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 386.

10. Debt againſt an High Sheriff, for an Eſcape of one C. his priſoner in Execution: Upon the Iſſue, the Evidence was, That one J. S. being Goaler of the Sheriff, having the ſaid Priſoner in Execution in his Goal at A. ſuffered him to walk abroad in the ſaid Town, yet for the moſt part with a Keeper; whereupon the Court directed, and ſo found by the Jury againſt the Defendant, as an Eſcape; for although the Sheriff may remove his Goal from one place to another within his Bayliwick, yet he muſt keep it, and his priſoners, within it, and not ſuffer them to go at large out of the priſon, though he himſelf be attending upon him, without an Habeas Corpus from ſome Court of Juſtice. Mich. 15 Jac. in C. B. Balden and Temples Caſe. Hob. 212.

11. In the Star-Chamber, the Caſe was this, The Plaintiff and K. were bound with D. W. as his Sureties, to one C. in 400 l. for the payment of 200 l. Judgment was given againſt K. but at the Suit of K. Execution was forborn by C. to ſee if any contribution could be gotten of W. the Plaintiff; for D. W. was a Bankrupt: but at laſt nothing coming, C. took of K. 270 l. in ſatisfaction of his debt; yet delivered his Bond into the hands of K. to put in Suit againſt the Plaintiff: Againſt whom K. ſent to S. a Latitat, and withal, a Capias utlegatum before Judgment, at the Suit of one B. a ſtranger, without his privity, to the end, that if the Plaintiff kept his houſe, that they might break the houſe, and ſerve it, and the Latitat: The ſaid S. the Sheriff entred the houſe in the morning, the outer door being open, but being within the houſe with ſix Bayliffs, ſhut the doors, and drew their ſwords, and preſently the Sheriff, with ſome of them, ran up to the chamber where the Plaintiff and his Wife were abed, and the door lockt, and knocking a little, broke open the door, and took the Plaintiff, and took a Bond of 40 l. for his appearance upon the Latitat, and 40 l. for ſuing out a Superſedeas upon the Outlawry, and ſo diſcharged him; and afterwards, the Plaintiff paid to K. 90 l. and had his Bond both to C. and the Sheriff delivered up: In the Star-chamber the Sheriff was fined 200 l. for the unneceſſary outrage and terror of this Arreſt, for not ſignifying that he was Sheriff, that the door might have been opened without violence, and eſpecially for diſcharging the Plaintiff upon the Capias utlegatum; and although K. did ſue his fellow ſurety for contribution, in the name, and by the conſent of his Creditor, becauſe it was a juſt ground of equity, that the ſureties ſhould be equally charged; yet for uſing the Kings Proceſs and Prerogative without Warrant of Court, or party intereſted, K. was fined 50 l. Paſch. 17 Jac. in Cam. Stellat. Waterhouſe and his Wife, and Saltmarſh and Kettings Caſe. Hob. 263, 264. See Trin. 17. Jac. in Cam. Stellat. Park and Evans Caſe, the like Caſe.

2. What

2. What ſhall be an Eſcape in the Sheriff, and where an Action will lye againſt him upon ſuch Eſcape, where not; and how far he is chargeable.

1. ACtion upon the Caſe, the Plaintiff Declared, That he recovered 30 l. againſt T. D. and ſued forth a Capias ad ſatisfaciendum, and delivered it to the Sheriff, who had taken the party in Execution, and the Defendants reſcued him out of Execution, and ſince he cannot be found, and ſo the Plaintiff is defrauded of his Execution. Upon a Verdict for the Plaintiff, it was moved, That an Action lyes not againſt the Defendant for this Reſcous, by the party himſelf who recovered, but his remedy was againſt the Sheriff, in Debt, or Action upon the Caſe, and the Sheriff ought to have his remedy againſt the Reſcouſſors: But it was the Opinion of the Court, That the Action did well lye for the Plaintiff, for he is the party who hath the loſs, and to whom the injury was done; wherefore in reaſon he ought to have the Action, and not be enforced to ſue the Sheriff, who perhaps is dead, and then no Action lyes againſt his Executors. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Paſch. 4 Car. in C. B. Mym and Comptons Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 87.

2. In Debt againſt a Sheriff for an Eſcape, The Caſe was, A. did acknowledge a Recognizance in Chancery, and the Plaintiff had a Scire facias, and two Nihils returned; afterwards, he had a Judgment, Quod recuperet debitum, and a Levari facias came to the Sheriff to levie the ſame, who returned Nulla Bona. Afterwards he took forth a Capias ad ſatisfaciendum to the Sheriff, who took the party in Execution, and after ſuffered him to eſcape: The point inſiſted upon, whether a Capias doth lye upon a Recognizance acknowledged in Chancery. It was Objected, That a Capias doth not lye upon ſuch Recognizance; and 13 and 14 Eliz. Patrixhams Caſe was vouched to be accordingly, and Cook 3. Part, Sir William Herberts Caſe. To which it was anſwered, That as this Caſe is, the Action did lye againſt the Sheriff; for that preſently after the Recognizance is acknowledged, it is a Judgment upon Record; and where debt is upon Record, there by the Statute of 25 E. 3. cap. 17. The party may have a Capias: But it was ſaid, That admitting that the Proceſs was erroneous, or that the Court do miſ-award a Capias, by which the party is taken in Execution, yet it is a lawful Execution, and the Sheriff is chargeable with the Eſcape, and he is not to examine the Error of the Court, where the Court hath Juriſdiction of the Cauſe: And ſo it was ſaid it was adjudged, Trin. 31 Eliz. in the Exchequer, in Ognell and Paſtons Caſe; which ſee Cook 8. Part, 142. in Dr Drurys Caſe. Wherefore the Court was clear of Opinion, upon the conſideration of that Caſe and Preſident, That Judgment ſhould be entred for the Plaintiff, which was done accordingly. See Paſch. 1 Jac. in B. R. Weaver and Cliffords Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 1. and Bulſtrode 2. Part, 62. to 65. the ſame Caſe.

3. Error of a Judgment in the Common Pleas, in an Action upon the Caſe, againſt the Sheriff of Lancaſt. for ſuffering one M. W. to eſcape out of Execution; and ſhewed, how he had recovered 100 l. in C. B. againſt the ſaid M. W. and after a Capias, and Non eſt Inventus thereupon returned, and a Teſtatum that he concealed himſelf in the County of L. a Writ was awarded to the Chancellor of the County Palatine, That he ſhould command the Sheriff to take the ſaid W. ad ſatisfaciendum, Ita quod the Chancellor ſhould have him, &c. and that the Chancellor commanded the Sheriff, that he ſhould take the ſaid W. Ita quod the Sheriff ſhould have him coram Juſticiariis, &c. and that thereupon the Defendant did arreſt him, and had him in Execution, and at D. permitted him to go at large. It being found againſt the Defendant, and Judgment, Error was brought, and aſſigned, 1. That this Action did not lye, but he ought to have debt. 2. That the Writ directed by the Chancellor to the Sheriff, was not warranted by the Writ directed to him, for that it varies from the command; for it ought to have been, That the Sheriff ſhould have the body before the Chancellor, Ita quod he have him before the Juſtices. 3. Becauſe the Declaration was, reciting the Writ, That whereas he hath brought a Writ of Debt againſt M. W. and recovered, &c. and then ſhews all the matter of eſcape, &c. and then it is modo Quæritur, quod cum he brought a Writ of Debt againſt the ſaid M. W. and doth not ſay the aforeſaid M. ſo it may be a ſtranger, and ſo not good: But all the Exceptions were over-ruled by the Court; for the firſt, That it is in the election of the party to bring either the one or the other. For the ſecond, Although there be Error in the Proceſs, the Sheriff cannot take advantage thereof. And for the third, Upon conference with the Prætonotories, and view of Preſidents, That it is the common courſe after recital of the Writ in the unde Queritur, to begin de Novo, and not to say prædict: The Court held both courſes good enough, wherefore the firſt Judgment was affirmed. Mich. 9 Jac. in B. R. Burton and Eyres Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 288, 289.

4. Action upon the Caſe againſt the Sheriff, for ſuffering one to eſcape who was arreſted upon a Latitat, the Plaintiff intending upon his appearance, and Bayl, to Declare againſt him, where he was arreſted by J. S. the former Sheriff, and left in priſon, and the Defendant ſuffered him to go at Liberty, without finding Sureties for his appearance: Upon Not Guilty, this being found by Verdict, That J. S. arreſted him, and at the day, retorned Languidus, and afterwards in exitu ab Officio, delivered him to the Defendant as a Priſoner for this cauſe, and the Defendant ſuffered him to go at large, and if &c. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff; for this permiſſion was a juſt cauſe of Action, for by this means the Plaintiff is defrauded and delayed of his Action; and although it be found that the other Sheriff retorned Languidus in Priſona, which is more then is in the firſt Declaration, yet that is not material to the Plaintiff, he remaining always in Priſon. Mich. 12 Jac. in B. R. King, and Sir Euſtbie Andrewſes Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 380.

5. In Debt upon an Eſcape, againſt a Sheriff, the Caſe was, A Plaint of Debt being affirmed in Norwich, an Habeas Corpus was awarded, to bring the Body, with the Cauſe, before the Lord Chief Juſtice Popham, bearing date 19 Junii, which was the laſt day of the Term, who accepted Bail, which being filed, a Procedendo was awarded the laſt day of the Term, and thereupon they proceeded, and Judgment was given; and, If the Sheriffs were diſcharged, or charged with the Priſoner, was the Queſtion. It was Reſolved, That the Sheriffs were diſcharged; for when a Habeas Corpus is awarded, and Bail taken, although they be not filed, yet preſently the Priſoner is diſcharged, and his Sureties alſo, in the Inferiour Court; and although afterwards a Procedendo be awarded, ſuch as was in this Caſe, yet the Sureties are diſcharged, and he may proceed againſt the parties, as if he had not been imprifoned, and not otherwiſe. Mich. 5 Jac. in B. R. Faintly and Boſſitts Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 203.

6. Error of a Judgment in C. B. againſt a Sheriff, for that whereas he had a Capias utlagatum after Judgment, againſt J. S. and delivered it to the Sheriff of D. to execute, who ſeeing J. S. and being deſired to execute it, did not execute the ſame, but ſuffered him to go at large; and afterwards the Sheriff retorned a Non eſt Inventus here to Weſtminſter, in deceit of the King, and prejudice of the party of his debt: The Defendant pleaded Not Guilty; which being found againſt him, and Judgment, Error brought, and aſſigned, 1. Becauſe the Action is brought by the King, and himſelf, where it ought not ſo to be. 2. That the Tryal was de Vicineto de Weſtm. where the offence is alledged to be in D. in the County of D. and from thence the Viſne ſhould come: But both Errors were diſallowed by the Court; The firſt, Becauſe it is the Kings Writ, and the King is to have the benefit of it as well as the party; and to the ſecond Not allocatur, becauſe the falſe Retorn was here at Weſtminſter, which is the cauſe of the Action. The Judgment was affirmed. Paſch. 17 Jac. in B. R. Parkhurſt and Powels Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 532, 533.

7. Debt upon an Obligation, The Defendant pleaded, that the Condition was, That he ſhould perſonally appear before the Juſtices, and ſet forth, how that he was taken by a Latitat by the Sheriff, who took this Obligation on his deliverance, and urged the Statute of 23 H. 8. that the Obligation was not according to the Statute. By the Opinion of three Juſtices, If it were in an Action wherein a man may appear by an Attorney, then it is void; and the Plaintiff ſhewed a Judgment of 27 and 28 Eliz. in Stokford and Cutts Caſe, where ſuch a Judgment was given for the Sheriff. The next Term it was moved again, and Anderſon Chief Juſtice was of Opinion, That the Obligation was void; for when an expreſs form is limited by the Statute, no variance ought to be from it: But the other Juſtices were againſt him, for he ought to appear in proper perſon in caſe of a Latitat. Anderſon ſaid, I deny that, for that Latitats have not been about ſixty years continuance. See Cook 10. Part, 12. Bretagnes Caſe. And Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 257. Hill. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Loſells Caſe. Owen, 90, 91.

8. In an Action upon the Caſe, the Plaintiff Declared, That he was Sheriff of the County of W. and a Writ came to him to arreſt J. S. at the ſuit of the Defendant, who requeſted the Plaintiff to make one R. who was his friend, his ſpecial Bayle; In conſideration of which, the Defendant did promiſe, That if J. S. did eſcape, no advantage ſhould be taken againſt the Plaintiff; whereupon he made R. his Bayly, who arreſted J. S. who afterwards eſcaped from him; and that notwithſtanding, the Defendant had charged the Plaintiff for this; and a Verdict was found for the Plaintiff. And in this Caſe it was agreed, That where a Sheriff doth make a Bayly upon requeſt of any one, it was reaſon that the ſame ſhould not charge the Sheriff with an Eſcape, by reaſon of the negligence of ſuch Bayly; for the Sheriff hath no curiey from every of his Baylies, to ſave him harmleſs; wherefore it is great reaſon, That if upon requeſt he makes a ſpecial Bayly, that the party ſhould not take advantage of ſuch Eſcape, but the Sheriff might have his Action upon his promiſe. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Mich. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Dairity Court, and Smalbrooks Caſe. Owen, 97, 98.

9. Eſcape was brought againſt two Sheriffs, and one of them dyed: The Queſtion was, If the Writ ſhould abate? The Court delivered no Opinion in the Caſe; But by the Court, this difference was agreed, That an Eſcape upon an Arreſt, by the ſame Proceſs, as a Capias ad reſpondendum, &c. the Writ ought to ſurmiſe, ad largum ire permiſit, & non comparuit ad diem, becauſe the party was Bayliable, and ſo the Sheriff might lawfully ſuffer him to go at large; but otherwiſe, if the arreſt be upon an Execution, as a Capias ad ſatisfaciendum, there ad largum ire permiſit, is good enough. Note, It was ſaid in this Caſe, That Paſch. 2 Jac. in C. B. in the Caſe of the Lady Mounſon againſt the Sheriff of the City of Lincoln, for the taking of inſufficient ſecurity, upon 23 H. 6. That the death of one of the Defendants, did not abate the Writ. See Noy 72. The Sheriff of Nottinghams Caſe.

10. In Debt, the Plaintiff Declared, That whereas he recovered againſt T. A. and M. his Wife, in Treſpaſs, for damages 203 l. and the ſaid M. was committed in Execution to the Defendant; That the Defendant 24 Nov. 16 Jac. ſuffered her to go at large, per quod Actio accrevit? The Defendant pleaded, That ſhe brake Priſon, and eſcaped, and that he freſhly followed her, and took her again 21 Octob. 17 Jac. in freſh ſuit, and had her in Execution, and yet hath her. It was ſaid, That this Plea was not good, becauſe the Eſcape is alledged 24 Nov. 16 Jac. and the Action is brought Paſch. 17 Jac. and the Repriſal is alledged to be a year after the Eſcape, and after the Action brought. It was Objected, That the Action did not lye in this Caſe, becauſe the Eſcape is of a Feme Covert, where the husband is ſubject to the Execution, ſo the Plaintiff hath not loſt his debt; for by Intendment, ſhe might not have paid it if ſhe had layn in priſon, for ſhe had nothing but what was her Husbands, and the Execution remains yet againſt him. But it was the Opinion of the whole Court, That this was not any Plea, becauſe the Action is brought, and implies a voluntary permiſſion ire ad largum, which is neither denyed, nor traverſed; and if the Sheriff voluntarily lets a Priſoner to go at large, he cannot retake him; and ſo this Repriſal being alledged after the Action brought, is to no purpoſe, nor is any plea; and the Action did well lye, or an Action upon the Caſe againſt the Sheriff, at the pleaſure of the party. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Hill. 2 Jac. in B. R. Whiting and Sir George Reynells Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 657, 658.

11. Error of a Judgment in C. B. Whereas before he had brought Debt for 40 l. againſt J. S. and had Judgment to recover the debt againſt him, and had taken forth an Elegit; That the Defendant thereupon Retorned, That he had by ſuch a Jury Appriſed ſuch goods in ſpecie, to the value of 40 l. and had extended ſuch lands, which goods and lands he delivered to the Plaintiff, ubi revera he never delivered them to the Plaintiff, per quod Actio, &c. The Defendant pleaded Nihil debet, which was found againſt him, and Judgment for the Plaintiff. Error brought, and aſſigned, That Debt lyes not in this Caſe; for it is not any debt in the hands of the Sheriff, nor is there any cauſe to maintain this Action; for if he had not delivered the goods, he ſhould have his Action for the falſe Return; and Pikes Caſe 14 Eliz. was alledged, where the Sheriff upon a Scire facias Retorned, That he had ſold the goods for ſo much money which he had delivered to the Plaintiff, and the Plaintiff averring that he had not the money, maintained an Action of Debt. But the Court held, That that differed from the Caſe in Queſtion, becauſe there, by his Return, he confeſſed he had ſold the Goods, and delivered the money; but here it is not Retorned, that he medled with the goods, or with the value of them, and ſo there is not any certainty to charge him; Wherefore the Judgment was reverſed. Hill. 15 Jac. in C. B. Coriton and Thomas Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 566.

3. Where an Action lyeth by the Sheriff for his Fees, ; What his Fees are upon an Execution ſerved ; And where, and how he ſhall be puniſhed for taking of Exceſſive Fees.

2. THe Plaintiffs being Sheriffs of Coventry, brought debt for 7 l. and 6 d. for their fees, for an Execution of 181 l. ſo that for their fees demanded was 12 d. for every pound, until 100 l. and 6 d. for every pound over and above. See the Statute of 28 Eliz. and note the Proviſo in that Statute, which doth not extend to a City Corporate ; and Note, That Statute is Introductive of a New Law for the encouraging of Officers to venture to do Executions. And in this Caſe it was Reſolved, 1. That the Sheriff may have an Action of Debt for his Fee, although the Statute doth not give any remedy : And ſo it was ſaid it was adjudged the 14 Jac. in B. R. in the Caſe of Proby and Lumley, Sheriffs of London. 2. Reſolved, That the Proviſo in the Statute of 28 Eliz. extends to a City Corporate, when Judgment is there given within their Franchiſe, and Execution upon it, and not when Judgment and Execution iſſueth out of Superiour Courts ; for in the firſt Caſe, the Officer is not at great care or peril ; but as to the Sheriff of a County, his labour and travel is all one, be it in the Body of a County, or in the Franchiſe : But if that Town be a County of it ſelf, there the Sheriffs ſhall have their Fees, according to 28 Eliz. And now Judgment was given for the Plaintiff ; but there was much doubt upon the words of the Statute, and the Court was divided in the point, If the Sheriff ſhall not have 12 d. for every pound to 100 l. or if he ſhall have but 6 d. when the Execution is more then 100 l. Hill. 1 Car. in B. R. Walden and Viſelayes Caſe. Ny. 75.

2. See Trin. 8. Car. in B. R. Lyſter and Bromleys Caſe ; What Fees the Sheriff may take for executing a Capias ad ſatisfaciendum for 400 l. Cro. 1. Part, 209.

3. Note, That the Sheriff of Berks was committed by the Court to the Fleet, for taking 20 s. for making a Warrant upon a general Capias utlagatum ; for all the Juſtices were of Opinion, That the Sheriff ſhall not take any Fees for making any Warrant or Execution of that Writ, but only 20 s. 4 d. the which is given by the Statute of 23 H. 6. for it is at the ſuit of the King. But upon a Capias utlagatum unde contractus eſt, which is after Judgment, it ſeems to be otherwiſe. Mich. 7 Jac. in B. R. Brownlow, 2. Part, 283.

More Sheriffs.

1. NOte, It was ſaid and agreed by the Court, That if a Sheriff execute a Capias, and there is no Original to Warrant it, he is excuſed in it, for he is not to examine, Whether the Original be ſued out or not. So if a Bayliff executes Proceſs made by the Steward for damages recovered in the Mannor in a thing in which they had no Authority to hold Plea, he ſhall not be puniſhed. But if Proceſs commeth to the Sheriff to Arreſt J. S. and he Arreſt J. N. or to make Execution of the goods of J. S. and he make Execution of the goods of J. D. there he is a Treſpaſſor ; for in ſuch Caſe he muſt take notice at his peril of the perſon, and of the goods. So if that J. S. come to ſue a Replevin to the Sheriff, to Replevie the Cattel of J. S. and ſhews him the Cattel of J. N. and ſaith, they are his Cattell, he is a Treſpaſſor to J. N. and the Sheriff may have an Action againſt J. S. for his falſe Information ; for the Sheriff muſt at his peril take notice whoſe Cattel they be. Mich. 5 Jac. in C. B. Buckwood and Beal Caſe. Brownlow, 1. Part, 210, 211.

2. Error of a Judgment in Carnarvon ; the Error Aſſigned was, That a Venire facias was returned thus, viz. per Tho. R. Vicecomitem ; Iſud Breve cum pannello annexo mihi deliberatum fuit per Tho. H. nuper Vicecomitem in exitu ab Officio ſuo. And was Indorſed Tho. H. Miles nuper Vicecomes, which is not good, for it appears it was returned by one who had not Authority, for ſaying nuper Vicecomes excludes him, that he was not Sheriff when he made the Return. See Coke 5. Part, Rowlands Caſe. It was agreed by the Court, That the word nuper Vicecomes doth neceſſarily imply, That as he was not Sheriff then at the time of the delivery of the Writ to the new Sheriff, So it is to be conſtrued, That by the word Nuper he was Sheriff at the time of the Pannel made ; And if he had returned it without theſe words Nuper Vicecomes, Vicecomes, it had bin clearly good; then the Addition thereof ſhall not make it ill. It was not Reſolved, but the Court would adviſe. Paſc. 6 Car. in B. R. Bethyll and Parry's Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 136, 137. See Hill. 9 Car. in B. R. Bathell's Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 411. acc.

3. In Trover and Converſion, the Caſe was, A Sheriff upon a Fieri facias ſeized goods into his hands to the value of the Debt, and paid part of the Debt, and the goods not being ſold, nor the Writ returned, the Sheriff was diſcharged of his Office, and afterwards ſold the reſidue of the goods without any Writ of Venditioni exponas. It was Reſolved, That the Sale was good, for the Writ of Fieri facias gave him Authority to ſell without any other Writ, and the Sale by him after is good, although he was diſcharged of his Office. Tr. 3 Jac. in B. R. Ayne and Adens Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 73.

4. A. T. Couſin and Heir of W. T. after his death, becauſe he had no Iſſue alive at the time of his death (but M. his Wife was then ſuppoſed to be Enſient by him) who dyed 15. Feb. 1623. and ſhe was married again to J. S. within a Week after the death of her Husband, procured a Writ de ventre inſpiciendo of the ſaid M. directed to the Sheriff of L. to cauſe her to be ſearched, Whether ſhe were with child by the ſaid W. T. et quando ſuit partura. This Writ was returnable in C. B. The Sheriff returned, That he had cauſed her to be ſearched, and returned the Inquiſition, That by ſuch perſons he cauſed her to be ſearched, and found her Enſient, et quod partura ſuit within 20 Weeks. She being removed to C. in the County of Surry with her Husband; It was prayed, That the Sheriff might take her into his Cuſtody, and keep her till ſhe was delivered of her Child, that there might not appear to be any falſe or ſuppoſitious birth. But becauſe ſhe was a Feme Covert, who ought to cohabit with her Husband, they would not take ſuch a courſe with her, but left her with her Husband, he entring into a Recognizance that ſhe ſhould not remove from the houſe they then Inhabited. And a Writ was awarded to the Sheriff of S. to cauſe her to be ſeen every day by two of the Matrons returned by him, and that three of the ſaid Matrons ſhould be preſent with her at the time of her delivery, ſo as no falſhood might be at her Birth. She was afterwards delivered of a Female Daughter, who was afterwards upon an Inquiſition, found to be Daughter and Heir of the ſaid W. T. Paſc. 22 Jac. in B. R. Theakers Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 685, 686.

5. In Aſſumpſit, the Caſe was this, A Capias ad ſatisfaciendum at the Suit of the Plaintiff was to the Sheriff of W. to take one T. H. The Sheriff mandavit A. B. C. and D. quatuor Baliviis et cuilibet eorum to take the ſaid T. H. by vertue of which A. and B. took him, and J. S. in conſideration of the diſcharge of the ſaid T. H. promiſed to the Plaintiff, &c. After Verdict for the Plaintiff, It was moved, That the reſt by two of them was not lawful. But the Court was of Opinion, That in regard that this was a Miniſterial act, and an Authority without any Intereſt, that it was well executed by two. It was alſo holden, That the Mandavit was good, without ſhewing it to be by Deed. Trin. 44 Eliz. in B. R. rott. 401. King and Hobs Caſe. Noy 47.

6. Debt againſt the Executors of W. C. late Sheriff of the County of D. The Plaintiff declared, That he recovered againſt the Executor of W. P. a debt of 100 l. and 22 l. for damages de bonis Teſtatoris ſi &c. Et ſi non the ſaid 22 l. de bonis propriis; and the Record being removed into this Court, he had a Fieri facias directed to the ſaid W. C. for the levying of the ſaid 22 l. damages of the goods of the Executor, which he afterwards levyed, and dyed, without paying it; Whereupon he demanded it of his Executors, and they had not paid it per quod actio, &c. Upon Non debent found againſt the Executors. In Arreſt of Judgment, it was moved, Becauſe he chargeth him in an Action of Debt, whereas there was never ſuch Action brought before, but if it had appeared by the Record, that no money was levyed, he might have had an Account, or an Action upon the Caſe, or a Scire facias, but never an Action of debt. 2. Becauſe that although the Action lyes againſt the Sheriff himſelf, yet it lyes not againſt his Executors. For the non-payment is a perſonal wrong wherewith the Executors are not chargeable. But it was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That the Action did well lye; And to the Objections, it was ſaid, That the Fieri facias being duly Executed, and the money levyed by the Sheriff, the Executor of P. the Defendant in the firſt Action was diſcharged, and the Sheriff is chargeable for the money to him that recovered it. The Court alſo held, That the Sheriffs Executors are aſwell chargeable as himſelf. For there is a difference where the Sheriff is chargeable in his life with a perſonal wrong or miſ-feaſance, there actio moritur cum perſona, but where he is chargeable for levying of money, and not paying it, that is for a duty; and there if he dyes, his Executors are chargeable aſwell as himſelf. Judgment was for the Plaintiff. Hill. 14 Car. in B. R. Perkinſon and Gilfords Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 387, 388.

Sommons and Severance.

Where and in what Action, and for whom, and by whom, and against whom it lyeth, and where the Defendants shall sever in their Pleas, &c. Where not.

1. A Writ of False Judgment was of a Judgment given in ancient Demesne in a Writ of Right-Close, prosecuted there in the nature of a Writ of Aiel; One of the Plaintiffs was Nonsuit, and severed. And the Record being brought in, divers Errors were assigned, viz. That there was no Officer returned of the Summons. 2. That no day was prefixed to the Tenant in the summons, but ad proximam Curiam. And 3. No names of the Summoners returned, and for these causes, amongst others, the Judgment was reversed. Pasc. 9 Eliz. Dyer, 261.

2. Three Coparceners were of Lands, one of them alliened her part; another a Writ of Partition against the Alienee and the other Coparceners upon the Statute of 31 H. 8. of Partition. It was holden in that Case, That the Writ should abate, because that a Writ of Partition in such Case did lye at the Common Law. But in that it was said, If they do joyn against the Alienee, and one of them had bin Nonsuited, she should have summoned and severed, and yet her part shall be allotted to her. Mich. 8 Eliz. Dyer, 243. See Cook 2. Part, Institutes 175. acc.

3. Three Coparceners of a Reversion, one alliened her part, the particular Tenant dyed. The eldest Sister entred into the whole. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Grantee and the other Coparceners could not joyn in a Writ of Partition against the three, because the one of them is entituled by the Common Law, and the other by the Statute of 31 H. 8. Quære, if in that Case the entry of the eldest Coparcener doth give Seisin to the Grantee, as it doth to the other, because of the Privity. Hill. 3 Eliz. Dyer, 128. Ballards Case.

4. J. Varny made a Feoffment in Fee to the use of himself and D. his Wife, and to the Heirs of their two bodies, the Remainder to the right Heirs of the Husband, and they had Issue M. and the Husband dyed: D. the Wife sold the Land in Fee. M. and R. her Husband joyned in a Fine in confirmation of the Estate, and M. dyed without Issue. Now R. and D. and one Ed. Varny as Cousin and Heir of M. brought a Writ of Error to reverse the Fine, and to avoid the Sale of D. upon the Statute of 11 H. 7. R. and D. did not appear, upon which a summons ad sequendum simul issued, which was returned Nihil, and yet after they appeared freely with the third, and they assigned Errors. Mic. 1. Ma. Dyer, 89

5. Note, If two Executors bring Debt, and the one is summoned and severed, and the other prosecuted the Action to Judgment, the Executor who is severed, cannot now acknowledg satisfaction of the Debt, because he is not privy to the Judgment; And yet if he had released before Judgment, it should have barred the other notwithstanding his severance. Mich. 14 Eliz. Dyer, 319 acc. See 48 E. 3. 14. 9 E. 4. 33. Cook 5. Part, in Middletons Case, acc.

6. If one Demandant in a real Action, or if one Plaintiff in a personal Action where Summons and severance lyeth; as in debt by Executors. If one Demandant or the Plaintiff be Nonsuit, and the other sueth forward, he who is Nonsuit shall not be Amerced. Cook 8. Part, 61. in Beechers Case.

7. In a Replevin against six, the one avowed, and the five made Connsans as Bayliffs to the first, for an Amercement for the breaking of a By-law in a Leet, and Judgment was given against them, and Costs and Damages. And the six brought a Writ of Error, and the Defendant in the Writ of Error pleaded the Release of one of the five in Bar. And in this Case it was Resolved, That because that the Law did compell them to joyn in a Writ of Error to recover no benefit, but to discharge themselves of a Charge imposed upon them, that the Release of the one should not bar the other. And it is there said, That if damages are recovered against divers in a Writ of Conspiracy, that it was adjudged, That they might all joyn in an Attorney, and that the Nonsuit of the one should not hurt the other, no more then in an Audita Querela, or a Scire facias upon a Release. Cook 6. Part, 25. Rudhalls Case.

8. Debt was brought by two Executors, the one was summoned, and severed, and dyed: It was adjudged, that in that Case the Writ should not abate; but in that Case, If the one dyed before severance, it was holden, That the Writ should abate. 2. In this Case, it was Resolved, That if two being an Original Writ real, and the one is ſummoned and ſevered, and dyeth, that the Writ ſhall abate, but otherwiſe it is where it is a Writ real Judicial. 3. Reſolved, That where the Plaintiff is to recover nothing, but only diſcharge himſelf of a burthen, there the death of one of the Plaintiffs ſhall not abate the Writ, as in an Audita Querela. And note, that it is there ſaid, That Summons and ſeverance is alwayes before appearance. Cook 10. Part, 134. Read and Redmans Caſe.

9. Error of a Judgment given in the Common Pleas in a Precipe quod reddat. It was aſſigned for Error, That by the Statute of 31 Eliz. cap. 13. It is Enacted, That for the avoiding of ſecret Sommons in real Actions without convenient notice of the Tenants of the Freehold, That after every Summons upon the Land in a real Action, 14 dayes at the leaſt before the Return, Proclamations ſhall be made on a Sunday, at or near the moſt uſual door of the Church or Chappel of that Town or Parith where the Land whereupon the Summons doth lye, be made. And in this Caſe, it was ſaid, That there was not any Proclamations made at the Church door. It was adjudged, That in this Caſe the party ſhould not have an averment againſt the Return of the Sheriff of the Summons or Proclamations, for that if the Return be falſe, the party might have his Action upon the Caſe againſt the Sheriff. Hill. 43 Eliz. in B. R. Collet and Mayſhes Caſe. Goldesbr. 128, 129.

10. Note, it was ſaid and agreed, That Summons and ſeverance lyeth betwixt Executors Plaintiffs: And if one of the Executors be Outlawed, or Excommunicated, he may be demanded, and if he appear not, he ſhall be ſevered by an award without Proceſs after he hath appeared, and the other ſhall appear without him; but if he hath not appeared, then Summons and ſeverance ſhall iſſue out againſt him. See Brownlow, 1. Part, 37. acc.

11. An Enfant brought a Writ of Error upon a Fine levyed by him within age. The Caſe was this, Husband and Wife were Tenants for life, the Remainder to the Enfant in Fee, and they three joyned in a Fine, and the Enfant only brought the Writ of Error. It was objected, That all three ought to have joyned in this Writ, and the Husband and Wife ought to be Summoned and ſevered. On the other ſide, it was ſaid, That here the Husband and Wife have not cauſe of Action, but the Enfant only is grieved by the Fine, 29 E. 3. 14. In an Aſſiſe againſt three Coparceners, they pleaded by Bayliff, Nul tenant de Franktenement &c. and it was found, that two of them were Diſſeiſees and Tenants, and that the third had nothing: And afterwards the three Coparceners brought an Attaint, and after appearance, the third Siſter was Nonſuit, and afterwards by award, the Writ did abate. It was the Opinion of Wray Chief Juſtice in the Principal Caſe, That as the Writ is here brought, it is well, for the Error is not aſſigned in the Record, but without it, in the perſon of the Enfant, and that is the cauſe of the Action by him and for no other. And it was ſaid, That if two Enfants levy a Fine, That although they joyn in Error, yet they ought to aſſign Errors ſeverally, and they may ſue ſeveral Writs of Error. Afterwards it was holden by the Court, That the Writ was good; and the Fine was reverſed as to the Enfant only. Mich. 31 Eliz. in B. R. Pigot and Harringtons Caſe. Leon 317.

12. Error of a Judgment in C. B. Whereas an Action of Debt was brought by ſix Executors, and after three of them being ſummoned and ſevered: The three others bring Debt upon an Obligation made to the Teſtator. The Defendant pleaded Non eſt factum, and found againſt him, and Judgment for the Plaintiff. Error brought and aſſigned, becauſe there is not any mention therein of thoſe that ſevered, for they being alwayes Executors, ought to be named in the Judgment. It was commanded by the Court to ſearch Preſidents, Whether upon Summons and ſeverance, Judgment ſhall be for thoſe only which Proſecuted; and it was certified, That the courſe was ſo. It was the Opinion of the Court, That it was a good courſe, and no cauſe of Error for the Executors, which are ſevered peradventure never proved the Will, and it may be they will never prove it, or Adminiſter. Wherefore when they are named in the Writ, and will not joyn, it is reaſon that Judgment be given for thoſe which proſecuted without naming thoſe which were ſevered. Whereupon it was Ruled, That the Judgment ſhould be affirmed. Mich. 11 Car. in B. R. Price and Parkhurſts Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 303.

13. In Debt for Rent, the Caſe was, A. and another were Leſſees for years by Demiſe of the Plaintiffs, rendring Rent. A. aſſigns over his part to M. one of the Defendants, the other Leſſee makes his Will, and thereby makes P. the other Defendant his Executer, and dyes; the Rent is behind after aſſignment, and after the death of the other Leſſee; and for this Rent, the Action was brought againſt the Defendants, and it was brought in the debet et detinet: the Queſtion was, If a Joynt-Action lyes againſt them both. It was urged, That ſeveral Actions ſhould have bin brought, and not a joynt Action, the contract here being determined, and Walkers Caſe, Cook 3. Part, 24. was vouched to that purpoſe. And here the Defendants have divided poſſeſſions, and divided Intereſts, he on by Aſſignment, the other as Executor. But the Opinion of all the Court was, That the Action here is well brought against them both; and Severance of the Land shall not make severance of the Actions of the Plaintiffs; if it should, great inconveniencies would follow, by several Assignments of under-Tenants amongst themselves; and therefore he may for his Rent, resort to his first Lessee; and the Action of Debt is grounded upon the Demise which continues still, notwithstanding any alteration made by the Tenants: Wherefore Judgment was given for the Plaintiffs. Trin. 14 Jac. in B. R. The Bayliffs of Ipswich and Martin and Parkers Case. Bolstr. 3. Parts 211, 212.

14. Error in Debt, The Defendant in the Common Pleas appeared the first day which he had by the Summons; and afterwards the Plaintiff recovered by Non sum informatus, but the Defendant Non in Misericordia quia venit ad primam summonitionem, and Error upon this Judgment was alledged, That there was not any Original, and upon that issued a Certiorari for the Original in that Term in which the Original Action was brought; which is certified, that in that Term there was no Original between the parties. And it was said, That the Original might be entred of another Term following. And therefore the Certiorari was too strict to tye it to a Term in specie. But it was the Opinion of the Court, That if there be any Original of another Term, it will not serve, because all the matter was begun and ended in one Term, as appeared by the Nihil in Misericordia. But where the Defendant doth not come the first day, but by mean process, there the Judgment is, that he shall be in Misericordia; and there an Original certified between the parties of any Term depending the Plea, is sufficient. Mich. 5 Jac. in B. R. Disme and Sherleyes Case. Yelverton, 108.

15. The Case was, A. man was seised of Lands in Fee, and of Lands by Copy in Fee, and he made one entire Lease of the Land in Fee, and of the Copy-Lands to H. for years, rendring one entire Rent. And afterwards the Lessor surrendred the Copyhold-Lands to the use of C. and his Heirs; and at another time, Granted by Deed the Reversion of the Freehold Lands to C. in Fee. And H. attorned: and afterwards for Rent behind, C. brought one Action of Debt for the whole Rent. It was Objected, That the Reservation of the Rent was an entire contract, and by the act of the Lessee the same cannot be apportioned. And therefore, If one Demiseth three Acres, rendring three shillings Rent; and afterwards Bargaineth and Selleth by Deed Indented and Enrolled the Reversion of one Acre, the whole Rent is gone, because that contract is entire, and cannot be severed by the act of the Lessee. But it was Resolved, That in the Principall Case, The contract was not entire, but that the same by the act of the Lessor, and the Feoffment of the Lessee might be severed, for the Rent is incident to the Reversion, and the Reversion is severable, and by consequence also the Rent. 2. It was Resolved, That although C. commeth to the Reversion by several Conveyances, and at several times; Yet he may bring an Action of Debt for the whole Rent. See Hill. 43 Eliz. inter and Lassells Case. Hill. 42 Eliz. in C. B. Rot. 181. Ewer and Males Case. And note, it was said, That in this Case, If by severance of part of the Reversion, the Ancient Rent should be lost, many inconveniencies would in such Case follow. Pasc. 39 Eliz. in B. R. Rot. 233. Collins and Hastings Case. Cook Select Cases 57.

16. Thyan brought Dower against Tyan, and had Judgment by default; a Writ of Enquiry issued to the Sheriff, who delivered seizin of the Dower recovered, and Returned the Writ: The Defendant brought Error, and assigned their Errors in the Record, 1. The Original Writ appears not to be Returned, according to the Statute; for the year doth not appear when it was Returned. 2. The Proclamation made by the Sheriff, appears not to be where the Land lyes. 3. The Return doth not mention the Proclamation to be after the Summons, as the Statute requires. 4. It is not said, That he did make Proclamation upon the Land. 1. It appears not that the Proclamation was made in the Parish where the Summons was, as the Statute directs. To these it was answered, To the first, It shall be intended to be in the year of the Reign, and not of the age of the King; though the word Reign be omitted. 2. The Land lyeth in divers Parishes, and Proclamations at the Church of any of the Parishes is good. 3. It is not necessary to Return the place of the Summons: And it was said, That it was made secundum formam Statuti, that supplies all the defects. Quære, For the and Exceptions to these points of Summons, were not Resolved by the Court. Mich. 23 Car. in B. R. Thyan, and Thyans Case, Styles, 67. 68. &c.

17. In a Writ of Dower brought by A. against W. of Lands in Magna Munden, and Munden Parva, The Sheriff returned Pledges and Summons, and then averred, That post summon. predict. in forma predict. fuit he did at Munden Magna, where part of the Tenements lye at the moſt uſual door, &c. cauſe to be proclaimed all that was conteyned in the Writ. And although that the words of the Statute of 31 Eliz. cap. 13. be ſomewhat doubtfull, (viz. Parithes, or Chappells where Lands lye) yet the Opinion of the Court was, That the Proclamation in one Town was ſufficient. Paſc. 12 Jac. in C. B. Ailes and Walters Caſe. Hob. 133.

Symonie.

Symonie, what it is, and the Nature of it: what ſhall be ſaid Symonie, what not: And, if it were an Offence at the Common Law, before the Statute of 3 Eliz. or not.

1. THe nature of Symonie is, That it is Contractus ex turpi Cauſa, & contra bonos mores; and ſo it is againſt Law, and void by the Statute of 3. Eliz. againſt party and parties, privies, and ſtrangers ſhall take advantage of it: Like as if a man be bounden in an Obligation uſurious, the Bond is void between the parties; and therefore if ſuch an Obligee makes his Executor, and dyeth, and the Executor pay the uſurious Bond, other Creditors may ſhew it, and make a Devaſtavit of it. Hob. 167. in Winſcombs Caſe.

2. It was Reſolved by the whole Court, That if any one ſhall receive, or take money, fee, or reward, or other profit, for any Preſentation to a Benefice with Cure, although he in truth who is preſented is not knowing of it, yet the Preſentation, Admiſſion, Inſtitution, and Induction, are void by the expreſs words of the Statute of 3 Eliz. and the King ſhall have the Preſentation hac vice; for the Statute intends to inflict puniſhment upon the Patron, as upon the Author of this corruption, by the loſs of his Preſentation; and upon the Incumbent, who came in by ſuch a corrupt Patron, by the loſs of his Incumbency, although he never knew of it; but if the Preſentee be not knowing of the Corruption, then he ſhall not be within the miſchief of diſability in the ſame Statute. Mic. 8 Jac. in C. B. Dr Hutchinſons Caſe. Cro. 12. Part, 101. Jenkins, 202. acc. the ſame Caſe: There he Libelled in the Spiritual Court for Tythes; The Defendant ſhewed, That the Dr came in by Symony and Corruption, and prayed a Prohibition. The Dr pleaded, That he had his pardon, and pleaded the ſame at the Spiritual Court; and notwithſtanding, the Court granted a Prohibition, becauſe the Pardon doth not make the Church to be full, but only maketh the Offence diſpuniſhable; But if in ſuch caſe the King doth Preſent, his Preſentee ſhall have the Tythes.

3. In a Quare Impedit, The Plaintiff ſhewed, That T. C. the Defendant was ſeized in Fee of the Mannor of H. to which the Advowſon of the Vicarage was appertaining, and that the Church became void by a Symoniacal Agreement betwixt R. S. the Defendant, and the Wife of the Patron, that the Patron ſhould Preſent him, and ſhewed what the Symonie was in ſpecie, and that the Patron accordingly Preſented him; wherefore by the Statute of 31 Eliz. the Church is void, and it belongs to the King to Preſent. The Defendant pleaded, That Queen Eliz. was ſeized in Fee of the Rectory of F. appropriated, whereunto the Advowſon of the Vicarage appertained, and that the Parſonage came to the King by deſcent; and that the Church being void, the ſaid T. C. Preſented the Defendant by uſurpation, and that the Defendant was Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted; and that afterwards the King Preſented that Defendant to the Advowſon of the Vicarage, and traverſed, that the Advowſon of the Vicarage was appertaining to the Mannor of N. In that Caſe it was adjudged, That the Plea was not good; for when one is Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted, by the Preſentation of a common perſon, although it were the Preſentation by the King, yet the King cannot Preſent another, the Church being full, without removing the Incumbent by a Quare Impedit; and the Church is full of him, until he be removed by a Judicial means, or by Reſignation: And in this Caſe, it was ſaid by Cook Chief Juſtice, That if a Church be void, and a ſtranger without the privity of the after-Incumbent, procures the Patron to Preſent, and gives unto him any ſum of money for his Preſentation, although the after-Incumbent is not privie to that Symoniacal Contract, yet in as much as he comes in by a Symoniacal Preſentation, the Church is void, and it belongs to the King to Preſent: And ſo it is where the Incumbent makes a Symoniacal Contract with the Friend or Wife of the Patron, and the Patron knows not thereof, and the Incumbent is Preſented by means of him that made the Symoniacal Contract, he is within the Statute of 31 Eliz. and the King may Preſent. 4. In an Ejectione firmæ, the Caſe was, The Lord of all the Court was, That the Action here is well brought against them both; and Severance of the Land shall not make severance of the Actions of the Plaintiffs; if it should, great inconveniencies would follow, by several Assignments of under-Tenants amongst themselves; and therefore he may for his Rent, resort to his first Lessee; and the Action of Debt is grounded upon the Demise which continues still, notwithstanding any alteration made by the Tenants: Wherefore Judgment was given for the Plaintiffs. Trin. 14 Jac. in B. R. The Bayliff. of Ipswich and Martin and Parkers Case. Boistr. 3. Part, 211, 212.

14. Error in Debt, The Defendant in the Common Pleas appeared the first day which he had by the Sammons; and afterwards the Plaintiff recovered by Non sum informatus, but the Defendant Non in Misericordia quia venit ad primam summonitionem, and Error upon this Judgment was alledged, That there was not any Original, and upon that issued a Certiorari for the Original in that Term in which the Original Action was brought; which is certified, that in that Term there was no Original between the parties. And it was said, That the Original might be entred of another Term following. And therefore the Certiorari was too strict to tye it to a Term in specie. But it was the Opinion of the Court, That if there be any Original of another Term, it will not serve, because all the matter was begun and ended in one Term, as appeared by the Nihil in Misericordia. But where the Defendant doth not come the first day, but by mean process, there the Judgment is, that he shall be in Misericordia; and there an Original certified between the parties of any Term depending the Plea, is sufficient. Mich. 5 Jac. in B. R. Disne and Sherleyes Case, Yelverton, 108.

15. The Case was, A. man was seised of Lands in Fee, and of Lands by Copy in Fee, and he made one entire Lease of the Land in Fee, and of the Copy-Lands to H. for years, rendring one entire Rent. And afterwards the Lessor surrendred the Copyhold-Lands to the use of C. and his Heirs; and at another time, Granted by Deed the Reversion of the Freehold Lands to C. in Fee. And H. attorned: and afterwards for Rent behind, C. brought one Action of Debt for the whole Rent. It was Objected, That the Reservation of the Rent was an entire contract, and by the act of the Lessee the same cannot be apportioned. And therefore, If one Demiseth three Acres, rendring three shillings Rent; and afterwards Bargaineth and Selleth by Deed Indented and Enrolled the Reversion of one Acre, the whole Rent is gone, because that contract is entire, and cannot be severed by the act of the Lessee. But it was Resolved, That in the Principall Case, The contract was not entire, but that the same by the act of the Lessor, and the Forfeiture of the Lessee might be secured, for the Rent is incident to the Reversion, and the Reversion is severable, and by consequence also the Rent. 2. It was Resolved, That although C. commeth to the Reversion by several Conveyances, and at several times; Yet he may bring an Action of Debt for the whole Rent. See Hill. 43 Eliz. inter and Lassells Case. Hill. 42 Eliz. in C. B. Rott. 181. Ewer and Mals Case. And note, it was said, That in this Case, If by severance of part of the Reversion, the Ancient Rent should be lost, many inconveniencies would in such Case follow. Pasc. 39 Eliz. in B. R. Rott. 233. Collins and Readings Case. Cook Select Cases 57.

16. Thynn brought Dower against Thynn, and had Judgment by default; a Writ of Enquiry issued to the Sheriff, who delivered seizin of the Dower recovered, and Returned the Writ: The Defendant brought Error, and assigned their Errors in the Record, 1. The Original Writ appears not to be Returned, according to the Statute; for the year doth not appear when it was Returned. 2. The Proclamation made by the Sheriff, appears not to be where the Land lyes. 3. The Return doth not mention the Proclamation to be after the Summons, as the Statute requires. 4. It is not said, That he did make Proclamation upon the Land. 1. It appears not that the Proclamation was made in the Parish where the Summons was, as the Statute directs. To these it was answered, To the first, It shall be intended to be in the year of the Reigne, and not of the age of the King; though the word Reign be omitted. 2. The Land lyeth in divers Parishes, and Proclamations at the Church of any of the Parishes is good. 3. It is not necessary to Return the place of the Summons: And it was said, That it was made secundum formam Statuti, that supplies all the defects. Quare, For the and Exceptions to these points of Summons, were not Resolved by the Court. Mich. 23 Ca. in B. R. Thynn, and Thynns Case, Style, 67, 68. &c.

17. In a Writ of Dower brought by A. against W. of Lands in Magna Munden, and Munden Parva. The Sheriff returned Pledges and Summons, and then averred, That post summon. predict. in forma predict. fuit he did at Munden Magna, where put part of the Tenements lye at the moſt uſual door, &c. cauſe to be proclaimed all that was contayned in the Writ. And although that the words of the Statute of 31 Eliz. cap. 13. be ſomewhat doubtfull, (viz. Parithes, or Chappells where Lands lye) yet the Opinion of the Court was, That the Proclamation in one Town was ſufficient. Paſc. 12 Jac. in C. B. Allen and Walters Caſe. Hob. 133.

Symonie.

Symonie, what it is, and the Nature of it: What ſhall be ſaid Symonie, what not: And, if it were an Offence at the Common Law, before the Statute of 3 Eliz. or not.

1. THe nature of Symonie is, That it is Contractus ex turpi Cauſa, & contra bonos mores; and ſo it is againſt Law, and void by the Statute of 3. Eliz. againſt party and parties, privies, and ſtrangers ſhall take advantage of it: Like as if a man be bounden in an Obligation uſurious, the Bond is void between the parties; and therefore if ſuch an Obligee makes his Executor, and dyeth, and the Executor pay the uſurious Bond, other Creditors may ſhew it, and make a Devaſtavit of it. Hob. 167. in Winſcombs Caſe.

2. It was Reſolved by the whole Court, That if any one ſhall receive, or take money, fee, or reward, or other profit, for any Preſentation to a Benefice with Cure, although he in truth who is preſented is not knowing of it, yet the Preſentation, Admiſſion, Inſtitution, and Induction, are void by the expreſs words of the Statute of 3 Eliz. and the King ſhall have the Preſentation hac vice; for the Statute intends to inflict puniſhment upon the Patron, as upon the Author of this corruption, by the loſs of his Preſentation; and upon the Incumbent, who came in by ſuch a corrupt Patron, by the loſs of his Incumbency, although he never knew of it; but if the Preſentee be not knowing of the Corruption, then he ſhall not be within the cauſe of diſability in the ſame Statute. Mic. 8 Jac. C. B. Dr Hutchinſons Caſe. Cro. 12. Part, 101. Godbolt, 202. acc. the ſame Caſe: There he Libelled in the Spiritual Court for Tythes; The Defendant ſhewed, That the Dr came in by Symony and Corruption, and prayed a Prohibition. The Dr pleaded, That he had his pardon, and pleaded the ſame at the Spiritual Court; and notwithſtanding, the Court granted a Prohibition, becauſe the Pardon doth not make the Church to be full, but only maketh the Offence diſpuniſhable; But if in ſuch caſe the King doth Preſent, his Preſentee ſhall have the Tythes.

3. In a Quare Impedit, The Plaintiff ſhewed, That T. C. the Defendant was ſeized in Fee of the Manor of H. to which the Advowſon of the Vicarage was appertaining, and that the Church became void by a Symoniacal Agreement betwixt R. S. the Defendant, and the Wife of the Patron, that the Patron ſhould Preſent him, and ſhewed what the Symonie was in ſpecie, and that the Patron accordingly Preſented him; wherefore by the Statute of 31 Eliz. the Church is void, and it belongs to the King to Preſent. The Defendant pleaded, That Queen Eliz. was ſeized in Fee of the Rectory of F. appropriated, whereunto the Advowſon of the Vicarage appertained, and that the Parſonage came to the King by deſcent; and that the Church being void, the ſaid T. C. Preſented the Defendant by uſurpation, and that the Defendant was Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted; and that afterwards the King Preſented that Defendant to the Advowſon of the Vicarage, and traverſed, that the Advowſon of the Vicarage was appertaining to the Manor of N. In that Caſe it was adjudged, That the Plea was not good; for when one is Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted, by the Preſentation of a common perſon, although it were the Preſentation by the King, yet the King cannot Preſent another, the Church being full, without removing the Incumbent by a Quare Impedit; and the Church is full of him, until he be removed by a Judicial means, or by Reſignation: And in this Caſe, it was ſaid by Coke Chief Juſtice, That if a Church be void, and a ſtranger without the privity of the after-Incumbent, procures the Patron to Preſent, and gives unto him any ſum of money for his Preſentation, although the after-Incumbent is not privie to that Symoniacal Contract, yet in as much as he comes in by a Symoniacal Preſentation, the Church is void, and it belongs to the King to Preſent: And ſo it is where the Incumbent makes a Symoniacal Contract with the Friend or Wife of the Patron, and the Patron knows not thereof, and the Incumbent is Preſented by means of him that made the Symoniacal Contract, he is within the Statute of 31 Eliz. and the King may Preſent. Paſch. 13 Jac. in C. B. The King againſt the Biſhop of Norwich, and Thom. Cole, and Robert Salers Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 386.

4. In an Ejectione firmæ, the Caſe was, The Lord

Lord Winſor was ſeized in Fee of an Advowſon, and granted the next Avoydance thereof to Dr G. and after, the Church became void; and after, one R. F. father of H. F. dealt with Dr G. (the Church being void) to permit the Lord Winſor to Preſent the ſaid H. F. who knew not of this agreement; and he thereupon, was Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted. In this Caſe it was Reſolved and Decreed in the Court of Wards, by the advice of the Chief Juſtice, and Chief Baron, That he was Preſented by Symonie, and that by the Statute of 31 Eliz. it belonged to the King to Preſent, without Deprivation, or removing of the Incumbent by a Quare Impedit: Whereupon the King Preſented J. S. who was Inſtituted and Inducted, and continued there three years: Afterwards, R. F. the father, ſued him before the High Commiſſioners for miſdemeanours, and procured him to be deprived, and ten days after, procured a Grant of the next Avoydance to J. N; and within ten days after the Deprivation, R. F. procured J. S. to Preſent the ſaid H. F. who was Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted, and made the Leaſe. It was holden in this Caſe, That the ſaid Preſentation of H. F. was meerly void, and that he was a perſon diſabled by the expreſs words of the Statute, to accept of that Benefice, and that his Admiſſion, and Inſtitution, and Induction thereunto, was meerly void. Paſch. 17 Jac. in B. R. Booth and Patten Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 533.

5. Note, It was ſaid, That by the Law, That the Preſentation to every Benefice, after the Church is once void, ought to be Libera, vera, pura; ſi pecunia intervenerit, non eſt Preſentatio, aut Donatio, ſed Venditio: and therefore, If there be any Covenant, Contract, Promiſe, or Agreement made with the Patron, or with any other, That the Patron for any ſum of money, gift, reward, benefit, or other conſideration, or thing whatſoever valuable, ſhall Preſent J. S. to the Benefice, being void, although the ſame be made without the conſent or knowledge of J. S. and afterwards, upon ſuch Contract or Conſideration, the Patron doth Preſent J. S. to the Benefice, and he be Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted; by the Statute of 31 Eliz. cap. 6. The Preſentation, Admiſſion, and Induction of him are void, which were but voidable before by Deprivation, and the King ſhall have the Turn, and ſhall Preſent. See Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 120. Paſch. 41 Eliz. in C. B. Baker and Rogers Caſe acc. And ſee Paſch. 17 Car. in B. R. in Sir John Rowſe and Wrights Caſe: It was adjudged, That the Church is void, without any Declaratory Sentence.

6. Parkinſon, Patron of the Advowſon of the Church of D. the Church being void, did contract with a ſtranger, That for 10 l. per annum to be paid unto Parkinſon during the life of Kitchin, that he would Preſent Kitchin to the Church, which was done accordingly: And it was adjudged in this Caſe, That although that Kitchin knew not of the Contract, nor was any ways agreeing or conſenting to the ſame, yet that he came in by Symonie; for the Statute of 31 Eliz. ſhall be conſtrued large and largely againſt Symonie and Symoniſts; and the very Preſentation, Inſtitution, and Induction of Kitchin, in that Caſe was adjudged void. Mich. 8 Jac. in the Exchequer, Cather, and Kitchins Caſe. See Godbolt, for the Caſe more at large.

7. If a man purchaſeth the next Preſentation or Avoydance, and doth not mention in certain what perſon he intendeth to Preſent when the Church doth become void, he may Preſent any perſon whatſoever, who is capable of the Benefice; but if a man purchaſeth the next Avoydance, or the next Avoydance or Preſentation be granted unto him, to Preſent J. S. by name, be it Son, Kinſman, or a Stranger: It was adjudged in that Caſe, That the ſame is Symonie, if ſuch perſon be Preſented, and the Patron ſhall loſe his Turn, and the King ſhall Preſent. And ſo it was adjudged, Paſch. 14 Jac. in the Common Pleas, in a Quare Impedit brought by Brodrick Winſcomb againſt the Biſhop of Winchester and Pulleſton, which Caſe ſee at large, Hob. 165. to 168. and divers Caſes there vouched; what ſhall be Symonie, what not.

8. If the Elder Brother giveth money to the Patron to Preſent his Younger Brother (being a Scholar in the Univerſity) to ſuch a Benefice, when it ſhall become void; or if the Teſtator contract by Symonie, That his Executor ſhall Preſent another man to the Church, the ſame being void at the time of the Contract, and the Teſtator dieth, and the Executor doth Preſent accordingly: It was holden in the firſt of theſe two Caſes, Mich. 39 Eliz. in C. B. in Ruſhes Caſe, and Mich. 3 Jac. in C. B. in the ſecond Caſe, in Freman and Engliſhes Caſe, That although the younger brother, or the other, knew not of the ſaid Contracts by being Preſented upon them, that it was Symonie; for it was ſaid, That ſo odious a thing was Symonie in the Eye of Law, That if the Church being void, a man ſeeketh for money to be Preſented to the ſame, that although that afterwards the Patron doth Preſent the ſame man gratis, yet the perſon Preſented (for this Symoniacal attempt only) is diſabled to take the ſame Benefice, although in truth he gave nothing for the ſame. And it was ſaid, That every Incumbent who cometh in by virtue of ſuch corrupt agreement, contract, or conſideration, is ſo diſabled for ever after to be Preſen-ed to the same Church: That the King himself, to whom the Law giveth Title to Present in such Case, cannot Present the same man to the same Church, for that the said Statute of 31 Eliz. being made for the suppression of Symonie, Symonists, and corrupt Agreements, doth binde the King in those Cases, That the King cannot enable him who is disabled by the Statute; and the party being disabled by Act of Parliament, the same being an absolute Law, cannot be dispenced withal by any agreement of the King, with a Non obstante, as a Law may be where a thing is prohibited sub modo, only upon a penalty to be given to the King; and if the King doth pardon the Symonie, yet he doth not make the person capable of the Benefice, who was disabled by the Statute; nor can he plead the said pardon against the Statute of 31 Eliz. See the Cases before, of Dr Hutchinson, and the Case of Saker, to this purpose.

9. Note, If the Church be void Symonie, by the Statute of 31 Eliz. That the Ordinary is not bounden to give notice of the Avoydance within six moneths after the Presentment made; for that for the most part, the Contracts by Symonie are made in such secret, that the Ordinary cannot have notice of them, and the Church is void by the Act of Parliament, and therefore no notice is requisite; and so it was adjudged Mich. 3 Jac. in C. B. in Godwins Case.

10. Debt was brought upon an Obligation, to perform certain Covenants, which Covenants were to touch made upon Symoniacal Contracts. In that Case it was adjudged for the Plaintiff; for it was said, That that Obligation was Collateral, and the Law doth not look upon, or take notice of the Symonie, eo nomine, for that it is not once named in the Statute, but only corrupt giving, &c. Mich. 41 Eliz. Gregory and Ouldhams Case, Vouch in Noy 26, in Winscomb and Pulleston Case.

11. Debt upon an Obligation conditioned; Whereas the Plaintiff intended to Present the Defendant to such a Benefice, That if the Defendant at any time after his Admission, Institution, and Induction, at the Plaintiffs request, resigned the said Benefice into the hands of the Bishop of L. that then, The Defendant upon Oyer of it demurred. It was the Opinion of the Court, That if the Plaintiff had averred, That the Obligation was made to pay such a sum, or to make a Lease, or other act, which appears in it self to be Symonie, then upon such a Plea, peradventure it might appear to the Court to be Symonie: But as it is pleaded by way of Demurrer, upon the Oyer of the Condition, it doth not appear that there is any Symonie; for such a Bond to cause him to resigne, may be good, and upon good reason and discretion required of the Patron; viz. If he be not resident, or take a second Benefice, or the like; and Jones and Lawrence Case was vouched; where such a Bond made to resigne a Benefice, when the son of Jones came to the age of 24 years, to the intent that he might be presented to the Benefice, was adjudged in the Kings Bench; and affirmed in a Writ of Error brought in the Exchequer Chamber, by all the Judges, to be good. Hill. 5. Car. in B. R. Babington and Woods Case. Cro. 1. Part, 129.

12. An Information upon the Statute of 31 Eliz. of Symonie, supposing the Church of the Tower of London to be a Benefice with Cure, and that the Defendant agreed with J. S. to give him 20 l. who might procure him to be Presented thereunto by the King, and Admitted, and Instituted, and Inducted; and he alledged, That he procured the King to give him the Presentation to the said Church, and that he was Admitted, Instituted, and Inducted. It was moved, That this being a Donative of the Kings Donation, it is not within the Statute, for that mentions where one comes in only by Symonie, by Presentation, or Collusion: Also this could not be within the Statute, because the King being the Donor, it cannot be intended that he Presented by Symonie. For the first it was said, That it was within equal mischief against that which the Statute provides, and so within the remedy. And to the second, It was said, That Symonie may be contracted betwixt betwixt strangers, without the Privity of the Incumbent or Patron. And the Opinion of the whole Court was, That the consideration to have money to procure him to be the Rector of the Church, is a Symoniacal Contract, and an unlawful act, and condemned by all Laws: But upon another matter, Judgment before given, was reversed. See Mich. 9 Car. in B. R. Mackaller and Taddericks Case. Cro. 1. Part, 241. 256. 263.

13. Note, In a Quare Impedit, that it was adjudged, That the Grant of the next Avoydance for money when the Parson was sick in his bed, ready to die, is Symonie; for that the Statute is, If the Contract be made directly or indirectly, by any way or means. Pasch. 22 Jac. in C. B. Sheldon and Bettis Case. Winch. 63.

14. In an Ejectione firmæ, the point was, The Patron takes an Obligation of the Clerk which he Presented, that he should pay 10 l. to the son of the late Incumbent, so long as he should be a Student in Cambridge, not preferred. It was the Opinion of the Court, That this was not Symonie; otherwise, if it had been to be paid to the son of the Patron: And it was said, That it was the Earl of Suffex Caſe, That an Obligation made by the Preſentee to the Patron to pay 5 l. yearly to the Wife and children of the late Incumbent, that notwithſtanding there was great oppoſition made in that caſe, yet the Parſon held his Benifice. Wherefore in the Principal Caſe, It was adjudged accordingly. Paſch. 2 Jac. in C. B. Baker and Mountfords Caſe. Noy, 142.

Statutes; Merchant, and Staple.

The Form of it, and where it ſhall have Priority of Judgments, where not: and of the Proceedings upon it.

1. NOte, It was agreed by the Juſtices, That a Statute Staple, or an Obligation in the nature of it, is but an Obligation Recorded; and one Obligation, be it of Record, or not of Record, cannot drown another: And therefore, In the Caſe where a man brought Debt upon an Obligation, and the Defendant pleaded in Bar, Quod Querens poſt diem ſolutionis, and before the Writ brought, accepted a Statute Staple for the ſame debt, in full ſatisfaction of the ſaid Obligation. It was adjudged to be no Plea in Bar; for although the Statute was of Record, yet it was but an Obligation Recorded: But it was holden, That Judgment in a Court of Record, is higher then a Statute Staple, Statute Merchant, or Recognizance acknowledged by aſſent of the parties, without Judicial Proceedings. See 2 Jac. in C. B. Brarthayts Caſe, Vouch. in Cook 6. Part, 45. in Higgins Caſe.

2. If a Judgment be given in a Court of Record, it ſhall be preferred in caſe of Execution, before a Statute: But if a man acknowledge a Statute, and afterwards confeſſeth a Judgement, if the Land be extended upon the Judgment, the Conuſee ſhall have a Scire facias to avoid the Extent upon the Judgment; but otherwiſe in caſe of goods; for there he that firſt comes, ſhall be firſt ſerved: for if I have a Judgment againſt one, and afterwards he acknowledgeth a Statute, and by vertue of the Statute, the goods of him (being dead) were taken in Execution; Then upon the Judgment, a Scire facias was ſued; and afterwards, a Fieri facias of the Teſtators goods: And it was holden, That the goods firſt extended, were lawfully extended, and ſhould be good. See Brewslew 1. Part 37. acc.

3. A Judgment was had againſt Sir Fr. Freman, and an Extent came to the Sheriff, and afterwards, & before any thing was done thereupon, a Scire facias againſt the Executor was delivered to the Sheriff: The Queſtion was, Whether the Extent, or the Fieri facias ſhould be firſt executed. Note there, If the Land be firſt extended upon the Statute, and after comes an Elegit upon a Judgment obtained, before the acknowledging of the Statute comes to the Sheriff, the moyty of the Land extended, ſhall be delivered to the Plaintiff upon the Judgment. See Brewslew, 1. Part, 38. Sir Francis Freemans Caſe.

4. In Debt for Rent, the Caſe was, A Conuſee of a Statute took a Leaſe for years of the Reverſion, and rent reſerved upon the Leaſe for years; the Leſſee attorned, the Conuſee aſſigned over this Leaſe for years: Afterwards, H, being Conuſee of a puiſne Statute, extended this Reverſion and Rent; and afterwards, the firſt Conuſee of the firſt Statute, extends this Reverſion and Rent. It was adjudged in this Caſe, That the firſt Conuſee by the acceptance of the Reverſion and Rent, and aſſigning it over, the Extent was ſuſpended during the Term, and the ſecond Conuſee might well extend it againſt him. Paſch. 15 Jac. in B. R. Herrington and Garraways Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 424. 478.

5. A. brought debt againſt B. for 100 l. and declared upon a Leaſe made of the Manor of R. and of a Capital Meſſuage, and four Cloſes of Paſture, rendring 120 l. per annum, with a Nomine pœna of 8 l. per diem for non-payment, and ſhewed, That 60 l. was behinde for the Rent at ſuch a Feaſt, and ſo remained for the ſpace of 100 days, making 40 l. ſo together 100 l. The Defendant confeſſed the Demiſe, and pleaded an Extent of the Land by a ſtranger, upon a Statute acknowledged before the demiſe; but did not ſhew that the Liberate was executed after the Rent due. Upon which the Plaintiff demurred. In that Caſe, Judgment was given for the Plaintiff, for the 60 l. becauſe it was due before the Liberate executed. But for the 40 l. Nomine pœnæ, It was adjudged againſt the Plaintiff, becauſe he layed no actual demand of his Rent at the day, without which a peyn is not forfeited. Hill. 10 Jac. in C. B. Sir Richard Grobham and Thornborough's Caſe. Hob. 82.

6. A. entred into a Recognizance of 1000 l. to H, and afterwards, into a Statute of 2000 l.

to D; D. extended his Statute upon the Manor of S. which was A. he also having divers other Lands. Afterwards, H. sued Execution of his Recognizance, and had the Moytie of the Manor of S. first delivered to D. in Execution, but left out of his Extent divers other Lands, which were the Lands of A; for which D. brought an Audita Querela against H. in C. B. and had Judgment; Upon which, Error being brought in B. R. the Judgment was affirmed; for D. being in by Judgment upon Title by Extent upon the Statute, ought to have his Land lyable to the Extent upon the Recognizance, but pro rata; and therefore it ought to have included all the Lands of A. in his Extent, as well as the Lands of D. But it was said, That if D. had not been in by Title, but by Disseizin, or by other wrongful means, then he ought not to have been relieved upon the Audita Querela. Mich. 45 Eliz. in B. R. Hinde and Deanes Case. Yelv. 12.

8. Judgment was given against B. the Defendant, in debt of 300 l. in C. B. After the Judgment, he entred into a Statute of &c. to J. S. and dyed Intestate; his Wife took Administration, and removed the Record of Debt recovered against her husband, into the Kings Bench, by Error; depending this Suit, she paid the debt to J. S. upon the Statute; and afterwards, the first Judgment was affirmed; And in a Scire facias against the Administrator, to have Execution, she pleaded the payment of the Statute, ultra which she had not Assets: The Justices of the Kings Bench being divided in Opinion in this Case, It was referred to the other Justices; and then, by the greater Opinion of the Justices, It was holden a good Plea, and that the payment of the Statute was no Devastavit; for at the time of the Execution of the Statute, she could not have pleaded the Judgment in C. B; for it was a doubt whether it should be affirmed or not; and then no default was in the Wife to discharge the Statute. Hill. 45 Eliz. in B. R. Reade and Brerelocks Case. Yelverton 29.

2. If a Statute be acknowledged, and no day of payment is expressed in it, When the money is to be payed.

R. D. being seized of Lands in Fee, did acknowledge a Statute of 500 l. to R. M. to be paid to the Conusee, &c. without expressing any day of payment: The Conusor made a Lease of the Lands to E. for years, who granted his estate to B. the Conusee: The Conusee dyed Intestate, and his Administrator extended the Land; whereupon the Assignee of the Term brought an Audita Querela. The only Question in this Case was, Whether this Statute being without an express day of payment, be good or not, by the Statutes of Burnell and Mercatoribus. This Case being argued by the Justices of the Common Pleas, It was holden by the greater part of the Justices, That it was good: for when the party acknowledgeth the debt to be due, and no time is expressed, the Law appoints the payment to be immediately; and that is such a time as the Mayor by his Certificate may take notice of. Statute Magna Charta, Cap. 2. of Relief.

1. BY this Statute, the 4th part of the Revenue which is requisite by the Law to a Dignity, shall be paid to the King for a Relief; As the Relief of a Knight is 5 l. which is the 4th part of 20 l. which is a Knights Revenue. The Relief of a Baron is 100 marks, which is the fourth part of his Revenue; for 400 marks includes 13 Knights Fees and a quarter. The Relief of an Earl is 100 l. which is the fourth part of the Revenue of an Earl. And it appeareth, that the Relief of a Duke shall amount to 200 l. and by Consequent, his Revenue ought to be 800 l. per annum. And that is the reason in our Books of Law, That every one of the Nobility is presumed in Law to have sufficient Freehold ad sustinend. Nomen et Onus. Cook 4. Part, 33, 34. in Nevill's Case.

2. Note: That in ancient time, a Plough-Land was of the yearly value of 5. Nobles per annum, and that was the Living of a Sokeman, or Yeoman; et ex duodecim Carrucatis Constabit unum feodum Militis, which amounts to 20 l. per annum. And the Relief of a Knight, and all Superiours, is the fourth part of their Revenue by the year: So una Baronia constat ex 13 feodis Militum, et de 3. parte unius feodi Militis; which amounteth to 400 marks; And by the Equity of the Statute of Magna Charta, Cap. 2. for as much as a Marquesdome consisteth of the Revenues of two Barronies, which do amount to 800 marks, he shall pay for a Relief 200 marks. And Note; At the time of the making of this Statute, There was not any Duke, Marquess, or Viscount, in England, and therefore the Statute doth not mention them. The Eldest Son of King Ed. 3. called the Black Prince, was the first Duke in England after the Conquest. Robert Earl of Oxford was the first Marquess: and before the Reign of King Henry the 6th, there was not any Viscount. Cook 9. Part, 124. in Anthony Lowes Case.

3. In an Action upon the Case of Assumpsit, the Case was; A. was seised of Land holden of the Plaintiff, as of his Mannor of W. by Rent, and by a Customary Relief of one years value, and aliened the same to H; who 10 Jac. Devised it to the Defendant: The Devisor dyed, the Defendant entred, and was seised: The Plaintiff layed, That there was Colloquium betwixt him and the Defendant, touching the Arrearages of the Rent and the Relief: and the Plaintiff said to the Defendant, That if he would not pay him, that he would sue him for it; Upon which the Defendant did promise to the Plaintiff, That if he should make it appear to the Brothers of the Defendant, that the Tenements were so chargeable with the 5 s. Rent, and with the Relief, he would pay him; and avers, That he did forbear the Suit: and at the next Court he made it appear to the Brothers per praesentationem Homagii ipsius Curiae, and by the Records of the Court, that the Rent and Relief were due by the Defendant. It being found for the Plaintiff, In arrest of Judgment, it was insisted, upon that he could not have remedy for this Relief, if the Law doth not give him remedy for it; and there the Relief is meerly due by Custome, and so no remedy for it but by Custome. But it was the Opinion of the Court, That as here it is layd, that he might distrain for it, It being Relevium cum acciderit secundum Consuetudinem Maneriі; and this is parcel of the Tenure, and therefore he may well distrain for it. See 14 H. 4. 2. in the Long Recordare by Hankeford, &c. And here it is said, That the Land is held per redditum, et Relevium. It was said, That Relief is no part of Service, and therefore Debt lyeth for it, and it may be incident to the Tenure, but no parcel of it. It was said in his Case, That the Statute of Magna Charta, doth not Introducere novam legem, but explanare veterem cum acciderit, and here the Relief due by Tenure, is a sufficient Consideration to raise an Assumpsit, because he may have remedy by Distresse. But Doddridg, Justice, said, That the Statute of Magna Charta was in part Introductionem novi juris for the Barons Relief; which before that Statute, was at the Kings pleasure. It was agreed by the whole Court, That if the Relief growes due by Custome, then he ought to have a Custome to enable him to recover it. But in the principal Case, It was agreed, That the Relief was due by Tenure, and that he might distrain for it; and therefore Judgment was entred for the Plaintiff. Trin. 22 Jac. in B. R. Hungerford and Havilands Case. Rollr. 3. Part 323.

Same

Statute of Magna Charta, Cap. 3. and 6. of Wards.

THe Queſtion was, Whether the making of the Heir within age, of Lands holden in Knight-Service, a Knight, did diſcharge him of the value of the Marriage? It was Reſolved in this Caſe, 1. That when the King makes the Heir in Knight-ſervice in Ward, a Knight, that he is out of Ward for his body; but if the King creates ſuch an Heir within age, a Duke, Marqueſs, Baron, he ſhall be in Ward, notwithſtanding the Dignity. 2. Reſolved, That when Tenant in Knight-ſervice dyeth, his Heir within age, preſently the value of the Marriage is veſted in the Lord as a Chattel; and therefore when he is made a Knight, he then, in judgment of Law, being of full age, the ſon ſhall not have the value of the Marriage; but yet he ſhall be in Ward as to his Land, by the Statute of Magna Charta, Cap. 3. 3. Reſolved, That when the Heir apparant within age, is made Knight in the life of his Anceſtor, and afterwards his Anceſtor dyeth, his Heir within age, he ſhall be out of Ward, and ſhall pay no value of Marriage, nor ſhall the Lord have the Wardſhip of his Land, for that by the making of him Knight in the life of his Anceſtor, he is made as of full age; ſo as when the Anceſtor dyed, no Intereſt either in the body, or in the Land, veſted in the Lord. And the Statute of Magna Charta for the Wardſhip of Land doth not extend to it; for the purview thereof only extends when the Heir is made Knight infra ætatem, which ſhall be intended after the death of his Anceſtor. See Cook 6. Part, 73, 74. Sir Drue Drewries Caſe. See Plow. Com. 268. in Ratcliff's Caſe, adjudged accordingly.

2. Tenant in Capite dyed ſeiſed, his ſon and Heir within age was made Knight in the life of his Father; the Son after the death of his Father, tender'd his Livery before his age of 21 years, and continued it. Two Queſtions were in the Caſe, 1. Whether the profits of the Lands were ſaved to the King, by the Tender and Continuance? 2. Whether the King ſhould have the Mean Rates within the age of 21. years. Both Points were Reſolved againſt the King: And it was Reſolved, That the King ſhould have Primer Seiſin, as if he had been of the age of 21. years at the time of the death of his Anceſtor, becauſe the King by making him a Knight, had adjudged him of full age to do Knight-ſervice. Cook 8. Part, 173. Sir Henry Conſtables Caſe.

3. It was a Queſtion moved by the Attorney of the Wards to the Juſtices, That if the King knights his Ward within age after the death of his Father, Whether thereby he loſt the Wardſhip of the Lands, ſo as thereby the Ward might preſently require Livery, though he be within age? The Juſtices were of Opinion, That although the value of the Marriage remains due notwithſtanding ſuch Knighthood, becauſe the ſaid marriage was veſted in the King before; as was Reſolved in Duries Caſe. And the reaſon of that Caſe, will guide this; for by making of him a Knight, the King allowes him to be of full age: and ſo for the time paſt, the profits are well received; but from thenceforth the Wardſhip is to ceaſe, and ſo conſequently the profits, and he is to ſue his Livery preſently. See Hob. 46. accord.

4. The time of the death of the Kings Tenant for his Heir to ſue Livery, is of Lands holden by Knight-Service in Capite, be the Heir in Ward, and then comes of full age, or be he of full age at the death of his Anceſtor, viz. the Heir male at 21. years, the Heir female above 14. at the death of the Anceſtor; and if the poſſeſſion of the Freehold doth diſcend immediately after the Anceſtors death, to the Heir, the Livery is to be ſued forthwith. If only a Reverſion doth diſcend, then not till after the death of the particular Tenant, if it be a Reverſion without Rent incident thereunto: Howbeit, the Heir at his full age hath his Election either to ſue it immediately in the life of the particular Tenant paying for Primer Seiſin but half a years value, or to tarry till after his death, and then to ſue it, and pay a whole years value of the Land: but if it be of a Reverſion with a Rent incident thereunto, and he ſueth out his Livery in the life of the Tenant, as he may do, he ſhall pay for Primer Seiſin but one years value of the Rent. See 14 Eliz. Dyer, 308. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 77. Lea, 19. acc.

Statute

Statute of Magna Charta, Cap. 10. of Diſtreſſe.

1. THe Writ of Ne injuſte Vexes, is grounded upon this Statute; and it lyeth where Lord and Tenant are, and the Tenant hath holden of the Lord and his Auncestors by Fealty, and 20 s. Rent yearly, and of late the Lord hath gotten Seiſin of greater or more Rent, by payment of the Tenant by his own agreement, if the Lord will diſtrain his Tenant for this Surpluſage of Rent, the Tenant cannot avoid the Lord in an Avowry for this Surpluſage of Rent; for the Seiſin which the Lord hath had by the payment of this Rent of his own agreement. But in ſuch caſe, The Tenant may ſue a Writ of Ne injuſte vexes directed to the Lord, which is a Prohibition in it ſelf to the Lord, that he do not diſtrain his Tenant to do other ſervice then of Right he ought to do; which Writ is in the nature of a Writ of Right; and is grounded upon this Statute, That no man ſhall be diſtrained to do more ſervice of a Knights Fee, or other Freehold, then is therefore due. See Fitzh. Natura Brevium, 10. acc.

2. A Rent gained by Encroachment by the Lord by voluntary payment, cannot be avoided by the Tenant in an Avowry: But if the Lord encroach other Services which the Tenant ought not to do, as Homage or Eſcuage, then the Tenant may avoid this Encroachment in an Avowry, becauſe the Tenant may traverſe the manner of the Tenure in that caſe; As to ſay, That he holdeth of the Lord by Fealty, and 20 s. Rent, without that, that he holdeth by Homage Fealty and Rent, in manner as in the Avowry is made: Or the Tenant in that caſe may ſue a Writ of Ne injuſte vexes, if he will: and if the Lord doth after the Writ delivered, diſtrein him, he may have an Attachment againſt the Lord. See Cook 2. Part, Inſtitutes, 21. Cook 4. Part, 11. in Bevill's Caſe, acc.

3. Note: It was ſaid and agreed, That Leſſee for life, or Donee in tail, ſhall not have an Injuſte vexes againſt their Donor, the ſame being a Writ of Right; for that in as much as the Reſervation is his Title, no encroachment upon them ſhall hurt them: but they ſhall avoid the ſame in an Avowry; and that this Statute of Magna Charta upon which the Writ of Ne injuſte is grounded, doth not extend to Donee in tail, Leſſee for life, or Grantee of a Rent-Charge, which appeareth by theſe words in the Statute, (viz. majus Servitium), which is meant betwixt very Lord, and very Tenant. Cook 8. Part, 65. Sir William Foſter's Caſe.

4. If a man giveth Lands to two Men, and the Heirs of their two bodies begotten, yielding a Hawke, and they die, their ſeveral Iſſues ſhall pay but one Hawke: And the Reaſon of the Caſe is, Becauſe the Reſervation of the Leſſor is his Title, and when he himſelf reſerveth but one, the Law which is grounded upon Right and Equity, will never encreaſe or give him more then himſelf hath reſerved. And the Reaſon appeareth in Plow. Com. 94. in Woodlands Caſe. For Encroachment by the Donor upon the Donee, or of the Leſſor upon the Leſſee, ſhall not bind them in an Avowry; as it ſhall betwixt Lord and Tenant: And the Reaſon is, Becauſe when the Donor or Leſſor, or the Heir of any of them avoweth, he ought to ſhew the Originall Reſervation by which it will appear, how much the Donor or Leſſor hath reſerved. But if there be Lord and Tenant, and the Tenant maketh a Guift in tail, or a Leaſe for life, the Remainder in Fee, there encroachment by the Lord upon the Donee or Leſſee ſhall bind them, for there the Lord needs not to ſhew the Commencement of his Seignory; but it ſhall not bind the Iſſue in tail. Cook 5. Part, 108. in Humphrey Lofields Caſe.

5. In a Replevin, It was Reſolved, 1. That if a man avoweth for Fealty, Rent, and Suit of Court, where the Tenure is but by Fealty and Rent, there the Tenure ſhall be traverſed: But where a man holdeth by 2 s. Rent, and the Lord upon voluntary payment of the Tenant hath had 3 s; there in an Avowry, the Seiſin ſhall be traverſed, and not the Tenure. 2. Reſolved, That Seiſin of more Rent then ought to be, ſhould bind in an Avowry: But in an Ne injuſte vexes, Aſſiſe, Ceſſavit, Reſcous, or Treſpaſſe, ſuch a Seiſin of more Rent ſhould be avoided, becauſe the Tenure, and not the Seiſin, is traverſable. 3. It was Reſolved in the principal Caſe, When the Plaintiff agreed with the Avowant in the Quantity of the Tenancy, and confeſſed the Tenure by Fealty and Rent, and as to the Rent pleaded Nihil arrear, and traverſed the Tenure modo et forma; ſcil. abſq; hoc, that the Tenure was by Fealty, Rent, and Suit of Court, that the Traverſe was good, although that the Avowry was for Rent only. Upon which Iſſue being joyned, It was found for the Plaintiff againſt the Avowant. Cook 9. Part, 31. Bucknall's Caſe.

6. Not

6. Note where, and how Seiſin ſhall be traverſed in Avowry; theſe Rules. 1. The Tenant in an Avowry ſhall not plead, Never ſeiſed of the Services, generally. And therefore, If he be Tenant in Fee-ſimple, he ought to diſclaim or plead, Out of his Fee, and ſo traverſe the Tenure. 2. He that denyes Seiſin after the Statute of Limitation, ought firſt to acknowledg the Tenure; to the intent, that the Lord may have a Writ of Cuſtomes and Services. 3. That if the Lord avoweth for Services, and alledgeth Seiſin by the hands of the Plaintiff, or of another in a Replevin, The Plaintiff may plead, That the Avowant was never ſeiſed by his hands. 4. Seiſin is never traverſable but only for that for which the Avowry is made, unleſſe that Seiſin be alledged of a Superior ſervice, which is a Seiſin in Law of an inferior ſervice: As, where the Tenure is by Rent, and other Services, and Seiſin is alledged in them all, and Avowry is for Rent onely, there the Seiſin of the Rent is onely traverſable. But if the Tenure be by Homage, Fealty and Eſcuage, and Rent of 2 s. and Seiſin is alledged in all, and for Homage he avoweth, he ſhall be received to traverſe the Seiſin of the Eſcuage; for that is Seiſin of the Homage. Cook. 9. Part, ibidem. 36. in Buckwalls Caſe.

Statute of Magna Charta, Cap. 12. Communia Placita, &c.

1. THe Statute of Magna Charta, Cap. 12. is in the Negative; viz. Quod Communia Placita non ſequantur Curiam noſtram, ſed teneantur in aliquo loco certo. Notwithſtanding that, It was adjudged, in 23 H. 3. tit. Bre. and 31 H. 1. tit. Prerogat. 28. That the ſame did not bind the King; but that the King might have a Quare Impedit in the Kings-Bench. See Cook 11. Part, 68. in Magdalen Colledg Caſe, acc. And ſee 20 E. 3. Fitzh. tit. Brev. 881. in the Earl of Cheſter's Caſe, this Statute is alledged, to take away the Juriſdiction of the Kings-Bench. But it was Reſolved, That that Statute did not take away the Juriſdiction of that Court. See Cook 8. Part, in the Prince's Caſe, 23.

2. Treſpaſſe was brought here in Cuſtodia Mariſcalli; and in the Declaration, the Treſpaſs was laid to be done in Cornwall; the Defendant pleaded in abatement of the Action, and ſet forth the Charter of King Ed. 3. granted to the Stannary Court, thereby inabling the Stannary Workers to plead there, and there to be impleaded in the Stannary Court, and therefore prayed the benefit and Priviledg of that place, and to have the tryall there: And that it was alledged, That the Court here if now to hold Plea of this, notwithſtanding their Charter: For that this Court may hold Plea of Debt, Covenant, Detinue, notwithſtanding the Statute of Magna Charta, which is Communia Placita non ſequantur Curiam noſtram, and being here in Cuſtodia Mariſcalli, the Plaintiff may here declare againſt him in what manner he will; and his coming here is not requirable, Hill. 10 Jac. in B. R. Parke and Lock's Caſe. Bulſtr. 2. Part, 122, 123. See Mich. 41 Eliz. in B. R. Braynes and Watts Caſe, Braynes killed Watts within the Cinque-Ports; which was Murder: ſhe did declare here againſt him in B. R. in Cuſtodia Mariſcalli; and he pleaded, That he ought to be tryed before the Conſtable of Dover: But his Plea was not allowed; and he was found guilty, and hanged. And in this Caſe, the Court ſaid, That if one be here in Cuſtodia Mariſcalli, he is not to be fetched away; and if he ſhould not anſwer here, being in Cuſtodia Mariſcalli, none then could have remedy againſt him. Wherefore in the principal Caſe, the Defendant by Rule of the Court, was forced to anſwer.

Statute

Statute of Magna Charta, Cap. 14. of Amercements. And Stat. of Weſt. 1. Cap. 6.

1. AMercements, are Sums of Money aſſeſſed upon ſome perſons properly in Inferiour Courts for ſome Offence: They are called by the Statute of Magna Charta, Cap. 14. Miſericordia, in reſpect of the ſmallneſs of them, and are grounded upon the words of that Statute, viz. Nullus liber homo amercietur, niſi ſecundum quantitatem delicti &c. and therefore, if it be unreaſonable, the Law hath provided a Writ for the ſame, called Moderata Miſericordia. Which ſee, Fitzh. Nat. Br. 181, 182. And although ſuch Amercements be ordinarily aſſeſſed for defects or defaults in Inferiour Courts; as Court-Barons, &c. Yet they may be, and uſually are aſſeſſed in Courts of Record, as well as in inferiour Courts, upon defaults made by the Plaintiffs or Defendants. See Cook 5. Part, Godfrey's Caſe, acc.

2. Every Amercement is to be aſſeſſed upon every perſon ſeverally for his Offence; and one ought not to be amerced for the Offence of another: For the nature of the word Miſericordia, as appears by the ſaid Statute, is, That a man ſhall not be amerced ſo much as he deſerveth; and then if he ſhould be amerced for the Offence of another, it ſhould be unreaſonable; and againſt the words of the ſaid Statute.

3. If two be amerced for one Treſpaſſe joyntly, they ſhall not joyn in Moderata Miſericordia; for that they ſhall be ſeverally amerced, though the Treſpaſſe be joynt. And when any one is amerced for any Treſpaſſe, and the ſame is afferred by his peers, then he ſhall not have the Writ de Moderata Miſericordia; For then it is according to the Statute of Magna Charta. See 10 E. 2. tit. Actions upon the Statute. Fitz. acc.

4. By this Statute, No Spirituall perſon ſhall be amerced according to his Spiritual Benefice, but according to his Lay-Fee, and according to the Quantity of the Treſpaſſe; and if he be otherwiſe amerced, he ſhall have a Writ againſt the Sheriff, or him that amerced him, upon this Statute. Fitzh. Nat. Br. 76. acc.

5. In a Replevin, the Caſe was, The Lord of the Mannor of A. had a Leet within his Mannor, and time out of minde there was a Cuſtome, That the Inhabitants and Reſiants within the Mannor, had uſed within a moneth after the Feaſt of Mich. to chuſe an able man (an Inhabitant) to be Conſtable for the year following; which man ſo cheſen, uſed to execute the ſaid Office; and if he were preſent, he uſed to be ſworn by the Steward of the Mannor, to execute that Office; and ſhewed, That at a Leet holden for the ſaid Mannor by J. S. Steward of the Court; the Defendant being an Inhabitant within the Mannor, was cheſen to be Conſtable of A. and being preſent in Court, was charged by the Steward to take the Oath of Conſtable, which he refuſed to do, but departed in contempt of the Court; for which the Steward of the Court ſet a Fine of 5 l. upon him, for which his Cattel were afterwards diſtreined. In that Caſe, theſe points were Reſolved. 1. That if any contempt be committed in a Court of Record, the Judges of the Court may impoſe a reaſonable Fine upon the Offender; and a Court Leet is a Court of Record, in which the Steward is Judge, and he may Impoſe a reaſonable Fine. 2. That if a man be Fined in a Court of Record for a Contempt, That although it be not afferred by the Jury, or Enqueſt, yet the ſame is good: But by the Statute of Magna Charta, and Weſtm. 1. cap. 6. Amercements ought to be afferred, and taxed per pares; and therefore in every Caſe where the Plaintiff is Nonſuit, or Judgment given againſt the Defendant, the Juſtices do not aſſeſs the Amercement, but the Entry is, Ideo in Miſericordia generally. 3. That the Amercement of any one who is a Miniſter of Juſtice, or of any Officer who hath Execution of the Kings Writ, ſhall be amerced by the Judge of the Court where the Caſe dependeth, and the ſame is out of the Statute of Magna Charta, and Weſtm. for that theſe Statutes extend only to private men, and not to the Miniſters of Juſtice, whoſe Offences are done to the Court it ſelf. Cook 8. Part, 38. in Gurleys Caſe.

6. Error was brought to reverſe a Judgment which was afferred in a Court Leet. The Error aſſigned was, That it was an unreaſonable Amercement. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That after an Amercement is once aſſeſſed, it cannot be reverſed for Errour in the unreaſonableneſs of it, and that no Writ of Miſericordia lyeth in that Caſe. Trin. 7 Jac. in B. R.

B.R. Stubbs and Flowers Case, Bulſtrod. 1. Part, 115.

7. A. brought debt by Quo Minus in the Exchequer againſt B. It was found for the Plaintiff; Afterwards, A. by Attorney entred a Retraxit: ſalvo ſuitatur ſe nolle ulterius proſequi. Upon which, judgment was given, That the Defendant eat ſine die, but no Amercement was upon the Plaintiff: Whereupon, Errour was brought. It was Reſolved in that caſe, amongſt other things, That in the principal Caſe, the Plaintiff ought to have been amerced, becauſe that A. Retraxit, is a voluntary acknowledgment that he had no Cauſe of Action, and is a Barr for ever; and therefore becauſe he was not amerced, It was adjudged to Errour: And although a man ſhall not alledge that for Errour which is for his advantage; yet in the principal Caſe, the Judgment was not perfect; for the Amercement ought to be parcell of the Judgment, and that is for the advantage of the King; and for default of that, the Judgment was Reverſed. And in that Caſe, It was Reſolved, That although the Plaintiff had made a Retraxit in his proper perſon, yet he might have a Writ of Errour either in the Judgment, or in the proceedings: for that no Imperfection in ſuch caſe is ſaved by any Statute, when Judgment is given. Cook 8. Part, 60, 61. in Beethers Caſe.

8. It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That the reaſonableneſs of Fines ſhall be reſolved by the Juſtices; and if they appear to be exceſſive, they are againſt Law: By the Statute of Weſtm. 1. Cap. 35. An Exceſſive or an Outragious Aide, is againſt Law. See Glanvile. Lib. 9. Cap. 71. acc. An Exceſſive Amercement is againſt Law, as appears by this Statute of Magna Charta. Nullus Liber homo Amercietur niſi ſecundum quantitatem delicti; and an Exceſſive Fine at the Will of the Lord, ſhall be ſaid an oppreſſion of the people. And ſee, That Waſte lyeth in exulando A. et B. Natives, quorum quilibet tenuit Meſſuagium et unam virgatam terræ in villa de T. per gravues et inſolerabiles Diſtrictiones. Cook 11. Part, 44. in Gaſeys Caſe.

Statute Merton, cap. 1. of Dower.

1. NOte by the Juſtices, That the Wife Demandant in Dower, ſhall not recover Damages by this Statute, unleſs that her Husband dyeth ſeiſed. Paſc. 11 Eliz. Dyer, 284.

2. In a Writ of Dower ex aſſenſu Patris, or ad Oſtium Eccleſiæ; the Wife Demandant in Dower, ſhall not recover Damages, becauſe ſhe may enter. 2. She ſhall not recover damages, but where her Husband dyed ſeiſed of the Freehold and Inheritance. 3. If the Wife Demandant in Dower delay her ſelf, ſhe ſhall not recover damages by this Statute. And 4. In the mean, rates and damages by this Statute, are to be recovered againſt the Tenant. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 32.

3. The late Wife of a Copyholder in Fee of a Manner, in which by ſpecial Cuſtome, Women were to be endowed, recovered her Dower by Plaint in the Court of the Manner, and becauſe her Husband dyed ſeiſed, ſhe recovered 40 l. of the profits from the death of her Husband. The Woman brought an Action of Debt for the 40 l. In this Caſe, theſe points were Reſolved. 1. That the Wife ſhall not have Dower of a Copyhold, unleſs it be by ſpecial Cuſtome. 2. That when a Woman is to be endowed by Cuſtome of a Copyhold, ſhe ſhall have all incidents to Dower; and therefore by this Statute of Merton, ſhe ſhall recover damages; and therefore the Recovery of the Damages was lawfull, and that they were well warranted by law, although they exceeded 40 l. 3. Reſolved, That no Action of Debt lyeth at the Common Law for the ſaid Damages, for that upon ſuch Judgment, no Writ of Error or falſe Judgment lyeth but her remedy is in the Court of the Mannor, or in the Chancery. Trin. 37 Eliz. Shaw and Thompſons Caſe. Cook 4. Part, 30.

4. By this Statute the Wife ſhall recover damages where her Husband dyeth ſeiſed. The Caſe was, that the Husband made a Feoffment in Fee, and afterwards took back an Eſtate to himſelf for life, the Remainder over and dyed. It was Ruled in that Caſe, That the Wife ſhould not recover damages, becauſe although the Husband dyed ſeiſed, yet he did not dye ſeiſed of ſuch an eſtate of which ſhe is Dowable, and ſo not within the intent of the Statute. See Hill. 14 Jac. in B. R. in Huſſey and Moors Caſe. Bulſtr. 3. Part, 278.

Statute Merton, cap. 4. Of Improvement of Common.

1. A Man preſcribed to have Common appurtenant to his houſe and Land in the Lands of A. and alſo in the Lands of B. B. purchaſed the houſe and Land to which the Common was appendant, and made thereof a Leaſe for years, the Leſſee put in his Cattel into the Land of A. who drove them out; and thereupon the Leſſee brought Treſpaſs. In this Caſe, it was Reſolved. 1. That Common appendant is of common right, and begins by the operation of Law, and in favour of Tillage. And therefore a man need not preſcribe in it, and ſuch Common is appendant to Arrable Land, and for his Cattel to plough his Lands, and for Cows and Sheep to Manure the Land, and it is againſt the Nature of ſuch Common to be appendant to Meadow or Paſture. 2. Reſolved, That Common appendant may be apportioned, and that by purchaſe of part of the Lands to which it is appendant, the Common ſhall be apportioned, but Common appurtenant cannot be apportioned by the act of the parties, and therefore by purchaſe of part of the Land ſuch a Common is extinct. 3. Reſolved, That Common appendant, or by reaſon of Vicinage, ought to be by Preſcription; but Common appurtenant, or in groſs, may commence by Grant. And in this Caſe, it was ſaid by Wray Chief Juſtice, That where two Lords have Common for their Tenants by reaſon of Vicinage, that the one of them may encloſe againſt the other, for that the Tenants of the one Manor cannot put in their Cattel into the Waſte of the other; but they ſhall be excuſed when they come there by Eſcape, and that by reaſon of ancient uſage which the Law hath allowed. Cook 4. Part.

2. Note, It is ſaid in the Statute of Weſt. 2. cap. 25. As before time, Aſſiſe hath held and holden place of Common of Paſture, ſo ſhall it henceforth hold place of Common of Torbary Fiſhing, and of ſuch like Commons which any man had appendant to Freeholds, or without Freeholds by ſpecial Deed at the leaſt for Term of life. And the reaſon why Aſſiſe lay at the Common Law of Common of Paſture, and not of other Commons was, becauſe there was a ſpecial Writ in the Regiſter for Common of Paſture, and not for any other Commons. And yet ſee 12 H. 3. tit. Aſſiſe 417. That an Aſſiſe lay of Common of Piſcary. And ſee, that the Statute of Weſt. 2. cap. 25. is but an affirmance of the Common Law; For in the ſame manner he ſhall have an Aſſiſe for Fiſhing in his ſeveral Piſcary, or Torbary, and the Writ ſhall be general. But the Plaintiff in his Plaint ought to ſhew, That the Defendant claiming Common of Paſture in his ſeveral with his Cattel, &c. and the Judgment ſhall not be, that he ſhall receive Seiſin of the Tenements, &c. but that he ſhall have and hold the ſame in ſeveralty, for the Plaintiff himſelf is ſeiſed of the Freehold, and therefore he cannot make his Plaint to be Diſſeiſed of his Freehold, for it is not ſo. Cook 8. Part, 49, 50. in John Mills Caſe.

3. In an Action upon the Caſe, the Caſe was, A Copyholder in Fee preſcribed to have Common in B. and he alledged that the Defendant put in his Cattel in the Common, and that they had deſtroyed the Common, ſo as he could not have any benefit of his Common; the Jury found, That for the putting in of his Cattel, he was not guilty, but as to the Feeding and conſuming of the Graſs, that he was Guilty. And in this Caſe (amongſt other things) it was Reſolved, That a Commoner ſhould have an Action for the Feeding and the conſuming of his Common, becauſe it was a damage and wrong done to him; and the Commoner may take the Cattel of a ſtranger there damage feaſant; and therefore if he ſhould not have an Action, all the feeding might be taken and fed by Cattel which might be kept there with ſtrong hand, and the Commoner may diſtrein them Damage feaſant, or after the Cattel have conſumed the Common, they might eſcape out, and ſo every one would ſurcharge the Common. But in that Caſe, it was Reſolved, That for every ſmall feeding, the Commoner ſhould not have an Action upon the Caſe, but the Feeding ought to be ſuch per quod communiam habere non potuit ſed totum proficuum ſum amiſit. Cook 9. Part, 112. Robert Marrys Caſe.

4. The Lord of a Town cannot by this Statute improve all the Common, leaving ſufficient Common for the Tenants within the Lands of other Lords, as it was holden in 4 E. 3. tit. Aſſiſe, 178. Cook 2. Part, 25.

5. If one hath Common appendant to his Tenement in a great Waſte. It was holden, That in ſuch Caſe the Lord might improve part of the Waſte, leaving ſufficient Common and way to it in the Waſte. And if afterwards the Lord doth enfeoff the Commoner of the improvement. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the ſame ſhould not extinct the Common in the reſidue of the Waſte. See Mich. 17 Eliz. Dyer, 339. but Quære for the Book of 18 E. 3. 30. ſeems contrary-that if the Feoffee purchaſeth part of the Improvement, that the Common is exiſted.

6. Note, upon this Statute, it was holden, That if the Lord do incloſe, and do not leave ſufficient Common in the reſidue for the Tenants, that the Commoners in ſuch Caſe may break down all the Incloſure, becauſe they have Common in the whole. See 8 E. 3. 38. 16 E. 3. Common. 9. and 22. Aſſ. 412. acc.

7. Note, That the Lord who is in by wrong, may improve by this Statute of Merton, againſt the Tenants and Commoners; and ſo it was adjudged. Trin. 10 Car. in C. B. in Legrad and Linleys Caſe.

Statute of Merton, cap. 6. Of Raviſhment of Wards. And cap. 7. Of Wards. And Weſtm. 2. cap. 35.

1. NOte, That this difference was taken and agreed, upon the Statutes of Merton, cap. 6. and cap. 7. That the profits of the Lands which the Guardian taketh for the double value, ſhall be in ſatisfaction of the double value; but otherwiſe in the Caſe of the ſingle value; for that the words of the Act, cap. 6. in Caſe of the double value, are, Tunc tenat terram ejus ultra terminum ætatis ſuæ per tantum tempus quod poterit inde recipere duplam valorem; ſo as by the expreſs words, the profits ſhall be conſtrued parcel of the double value; but the words of the 7th Chapter concerning the ſingle value, are, Si quis hæres, &c. pro domino ſuo noluit ſe maritare non compellatur hoc facere, ſed cum ad ætatem venerit vel Domino ſuo ei ſatisfaciet ei, &c. pro maritagio ſuo antequam terram ſuam recipiet; by which words it appeareth, that the Guardian ſhall receive the profits to his own uſe, untill the Heir ſatisfy him. Cook 4. Part, 81. in Sir Andrew Corbets Caſe.

2. The Queſtion was upon the ſaid Statutes of Merton; If the Guardian ſhould have the ſingle value without tender of Marriage. It was Objected, he ſhould not. For, 1. The Statute doth not ſay, Quod valor Maritagii ejus de more jure pertinet ad Dominum feodi, ſed Maritagium ejus pertinet. 2. The Lord who is to have the benefit of the Marriage, is to do the firſt act, ſcil. to tender the Woman which the Heir ſhall marry, and when default is in him who is to do the firſt act, the other party is excuſed. 3. That by the words of the Writ de valore Maritagii, and alſo by the Writ of Intruſion, the Lord ſhall not have the ſingle value without tender, and in default of the Heir. But it was anſwered and Reſolved, That the Guardian in Knight Service ſhould have the ſingle value of the Heir within the ſaid Statutes without Tender; and that by the Common Law, it was in the Election of the Lord to have the Marriage of the Heir, or to ſuffer the Heir to marry himſelf where he pleaſed, and to have recompence for it ſcil. the value of the Marriage. Alſo that by the Common Law, not only the Writ de valore Maritagii did lye, but alſo the Writ Quare Intruſit Maritagio non ſatisfacto, and that at the Common Law, if the Heir within age had married himſelf, the Guardian ſhould have recovered in Treſpaſs the value of the Marriage. All which prove, That the ſingle value did appertain to the Lord without any tender. And it was ſaid, That if a tender were neceſſary, the Heir might prevent the Lord of the Marriage by his own act and wrong of that which by Law did belong unto him. Cook 5. Part, 117. Palmers Caſe.

3. It was Reſolved, That for the Heir Female, the Guardian ſhould not have the forfeiture of the Marriage; for at the Common Law, the age of the Heir Female was 14 years: ſo as if ſhe was of ſuch age at the time of the death of her Anceſtor ſhe was out of Ward; and at the Common Law, there was not any forfeiture of Marriage, but only the ſingle value. But the forfeiture of Marriage was given by this Statute of Merton, cap. 6. which Act cannot extend to the Heir Female, becauſe it extends only, when ſuch Heir ſhould be of the age quatuordecim annorum et ultra, and the Heir Female at ſuch age is out of Ward. And alſo the words of the Statute are ultra ætatem 21. annorum, and that ſhall be intended as to Heir Male as to Wardſhip, and not to any Heir Female. But it was agreed in this Caſe, That in Caſe of an Heir Female before the age of 14 years, the Lord ſhould recover the ſingle value without tender. Cook 6. Part, 70. 71. in the Lord Darcies Caſe.

4. A Writ of Raviſhment of Ward was brought upon the Statute of Weſt. 2 cap 35. againſt Huſband and Wife. The Jury found, that the Wife was guilty of the Raviſhment, but the Husband was not; and found alſo, That the Heir Maritatus exiſtit, and that he was of the age of 16 years at the time of the Marriage, and found the value of the Marriage to be 800 l. And in this Caſe, It was Reſolved, 1. That for Raviſhment of a Ward at the Common Law, an Action of Treſpaſs lay againſt the parties in which the Plaintiff was to recover his Coſts and damages; and that ſuch Action lay aſwell againſt a Feme Covert, as againſt a Feme Sole. But no Writ of Raviſhment did lye at the Common Law. 2. Reſolved, That the Statute of Weſt. 2. cap. 35. had made alteration from the Statute of Merton, cap. 6. concerning Raviſhment of Wards. 1. The Statute of Merton did not extend to Heirs Females; but the Statute of Weſtminſt. 2. extends to both, viz. Children, be they Male or Female. 2. The Statute of Merton did not extend to any of the Clergy; but the Statute of Weſtminſt. 2. extendeth to all perſons. 3. The Statute of Merton extends but where the Heir Female was led away within fourteen years. But the Statute of Weſt. 2. extendeth to a Raviſhment after annos nubiles. 4. They differ in words; Merton is, Vi abductis et detentis: the words of Weſtminſt. 2. are, Raptu ſeu detentis. 5. They vary in the Proceſs, for in the Writ upon the Statute of Merton, he ſhall have but the old Proceſs at the Common Law. But the Statute of Weſtminſt. 2. giveth a more ſpeedy Remedy, and that death of the Plaintiff or Defendant ſhall not abate the Writ. 6. The Statute of Weſtminſt. 2. giveth a greater puniſhment then the Statute of Merton. 3. It was holden by Cook and Walmſly in the Principal Caſe, That a Feme Covert was not within the Statute of Weſtminſt. 2. becauſe ſhe is diſabled to ſatisfy, and the goods and Lands of her Husband are not lyable by that Statute to anſwer for the Raviſhment of his Wife; and the Law will never intend ſo ſevere a puniſhment for the not doing of that, which to do, the Law it ſelf hath diſabled him; and the Plaintiff in the Principal Caſe might have had an Action at the Common Law againſt thoſe which Raviſhed him; or a Writ de valore Maritagii againſt the Heir himſelf. Cook 9. Part, 72, 73. Dr. Huſſies Caſe.

Statute of Weſtminſt. 2. Cap. 5.
Of Advowſons.

1. UPon the words (cujus Preſentatus ſit Admiſſus). See in what Caſes Admiſſion is a ſufficient Title, and gains the Advowſon of the Church.

2. A man is Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted into a Benefice with Cure, of the value of 8 l. and afterwards the King Preſents him to the Church of S. which is a Benefice of Cure, and he is Admitted and Inſtituted. The Biſhop Grants to him Letters of Diſpenſation to have Plurality, which the King confirms; and afterwards he is Inducted into the Church of S. It was adjudged in the Caſe, That the ſaid Diſpenſation came too late, becauſe it came after the Inſtitution, for by the Inſtitution Eccleſia plena exiſtit againſt all perſons unleſs it be againſt the King: And as to the Spiritualties he is full Parſon by the Inſtitution, but as to the Temporalties, he hath not the Freehold in them untill Induction. Cook 4. Part, 99. Dyſons Caſe.

3. A. Tenant for life of the Manor of D. to which a Rectory, which was a Benefice, was appendant, remaining to B. in Fee. A. Preſented D. who was Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted, but did not read the Articles for which cauſe he was at the Suit of A. deprived; and he pleaded to the Charge, No notice was given by the Ordinary to the Patron of the Deprivation. The King Preſented for Lapſe J. S. who was Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, 1. That the Church was preſently void by the Statute of 13 Eliz. for not reading the Articles. 2. It was Reſolved, That although the Biſhop had Inſtituted and Inducted the Incumbent, yet the Benefice did remain void, and the right Patron was not put to his Quare Impedit to remove the Incumbent; and if the Ordinary in ſuch Caſe had collated within the ſix Months, yet that ſhould not have put the Patron out of Poſſeſſion, nor put him to a Quare Impedit, but that he might Preſent. Cook 6. Part, 29, 30. Greens Caſe.

4. The King hath Title to Preſent for Lapſe, the Patron uſurps and Preſents his Clark, who is Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted. It was adjudged in that Caſe, That the King had loſt his Preſentment, and ſhould not have the ſecond Preſentment tation; And the Statute of Prerogativa Regis, Nullum tempus, &c. is to be intended when the King hath an Intereſt certain and paramount, and not when his Intereſt is ſpecially limitted for the Tempus occurrit Regi. Cook 7. Part, 28. Baskervile's Caſe.

Upon the words Habeant eandem Actionem qualem haberet ultimus anteceſſor.

1. A Man ſhall not be remitted to an Advowſon Appendant (although he hath right to it) before he hath re-continued the Mannor to which, &c. becauſe that before he hath recovered the Mannor, he hath no any Action to recover the Advowſon. So if a man purchaſe an Advowſon in Fee, and ſuffereth an Uſurpation, and ſix Moneths do paſs, now he hath right; but foraſmuch as he hath not remedy for it, he ſhall never be remitted to it, although that the Advowſon be caſt upon him, either by Diſcent, or by other Act of Law. Cook 3. Part, 3. in the Biſhop of Wincheſter's Caſe.

2. It was Reſolved, That at the Common Law, before this Statute of Weſtminſt. 2. If a common perſon had Preſented his Clark to the Church, who was Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted; that thereby the rightfull Patron was put out of poſſeſſion, and the Uſurper had gained the Inheritance of the Advowſon by wrong, and the Preſentment of the Patron pro hac vice left for ever: And foraſmuch as Biſhops would Admit and Inſtitute Preſentees without Informing themſelves (as they ought to have done of the right of him who Preſented: Many Patrons loſt their Preſentations without any regard to Infancy, Coverture, or the like. And for this cauſe, this Act of Weſtminſt. 2. was made, which reciteth Cum aliquis jus preſentandi non habens, &c. preſentaverit ad aliquam Eccleſiam, cujus Preſentatus ſit admiſſus (id eſt Inſtitutus) ipſe qui eſt verus Patronus per nullum aliud Breve recuperare potuit advocationem ſuam quam per Breve de Recto. And therefore by this Act, three things amongſt other were provided, For, 1. If an Uſurpation had bin upon an Enfant or a Feme-Covert who had an Advowſon by Diſcent; the Enfant at his full age, and the Wife after the death of her Husband, ſhould have the ſame Action by Quare Impedit, or Aſſiſe of Darrein Preſentment, as her late Anceſtor might have had. The ſecond is, That Plenarty is no Plea in an Aſſiſe of Darrein Preſentment, or Quare Impedit. 3. That from thenceforth in the Writs of Darrein Preſentment, and Quare Impedit, damages ſhould be awarded. Cook 6. Part, 50. in Boſwell's Caſe.

3. Note, It was ſaid and holden by Hobart Lord Chief Juſtice; upon this Statute of Weſt. 2. Cap. 5. That there are no perſons Relieved within that Statute but thoſe which are Heirs; for the word (hæres) you find and have in all places and Caſes of the Preamble, and in the Purview layed together. 1. Hæredes infra ætatem exiſtentes per fraudem et negligentiam Cuſtodum. 2. Hæredes etiam, ſive Majores, ſive Minores per negligentiam vel fraudem of Tenant by the Curtely, Dower, &c. and then follows the Purview; Statutum eſt quod hujuſmodi Preſentationes non ſint hujuſmodi reſtis hæredibus, aut illis (ſupply hæredibus) ad quos poſt mortem aliquorum, hujuſmodi advocationes reverti debent, ita prejudiciales qu'n quotieſcunque aliquis jus non habens tempore hujuſmodi Cuſtodiarum Preſentaverit. And the ſtrength of the Proviſo is, Habeat eandem actionem, &c. qualem haberet ultimus anteceſſor hujuſmodi hæredis, &c. See Poſc. 14 Jac. in C. B. in the Lord Stanhope and the Biſhop of Lincoln and Williams's Caſe. Hob. 238, 239. acc.

Upon

Upon the Statute of 13 E. 1. Of Winchester, of Huy-and-Cry. And 27 Eliz. Of Robbery and Huy-and-Cry.

1. UPon this Statute of 13 E. 1. of Winchester, it was Resolved, That if a man be robbed in his house in the day time, or in the night, that the Hundred shall not be charged with the same, because the house of every man is his Castle, which he ought to keep and defend at his peril; and such a Robbery with which the Hundred shall be charged, ought to be done openly, so as the Country may take notice of it. Cook 7. Part, 6. Lendill's Case.

2. The Case was, That a man was robbed in January after the Sun-setting, but during day light. And it was adjudged, That the Hundred should answer for the same, because it was a Convenient time for men to travel about their business. Cook 7. Part, 7. Aspoles Case. See Pasc. 3 Jac. May, and the Inhabitants of Morleyes Case. Cro. 2. Part, 106. acc.

3. A man was robbed in the Hundred of O. in the County of S. and he and his Servants pursued the Felons into another County, and there one of the Felons was taken. It was the Opinion of the Court, That if a stranger make Huy-and-Cry, so that the Felons be taken, the Hundred is discharged. But Quære if it be so, If one of the Felons be only taken. Trin. 29 Eliz. in B. R. Combsords Case. Goldsbr. 55.

4. A Clothier was robbed in the Hundred of S. of 50 l. upon the Sabbath day in the time of Divine Service. The Question was, Whether the Hundred were chargeable for not making of Huy-and-Cry. Mountague Chief Justice was of Opinion, That it was bonum opus, and might lawfully be done, but said, That no man might be compelled upon any penalty to do it upon that day. But the rest of the Justices were against him, and that the Hundred was chargeable. Mich. 16 Jac. in B. R. Waite and the Hundred of Stoakes Case. Godbolt, 280.

5. An Action was brought against the Inhabitants in the half Hundred of W. in the County of L. being found. It was moved in Arrest of Judgment, That the Action would not lye, because it was not brought against the whole Hundred. The Court was of Opinion, That the Writ should have bin brought against them in this manner, Inhabitantes in Hundredo de W. called the Half Hundred of W. But the Writ was held good, for the Writ is, and so shall be intended to be brought against the men Inhabiting in the half Hundred of W. The Jury found that the Robbery was done upon the Sunday; and yet the Court held, That the Hundred was lyable. Trin. 11 Jac. in C. B. Constable and the Inhabitants of the Hundred of Waltham's Case. Brownlow, 1. Part, 155.

6. Note, In an Action brought upon the Statute of Huy-and-Cry against the Inhabitants of the Hundred of G. The Plaintiff declared upon a Robbery done the 9th day of October, 13 Jac. and the Original bore date the 9th of October, 14 Jac. It was the Opinion of the Court, That because the Writ was not brought within one year after the Robbery was done, according to the Form of 27 Eliz. that it was a good Exception. Hil. 14 Jac. in C. B. Norris and the Inhabitants of the Hundred of G. Case. Brownlow, ibid. 116.

7. An Action was brought against an Hundred, upon the Statute of Huy-and-Cry: the point was, If one be robbed in one Hundred, and he escape and fly into another Hundred, and the Thieves instantly pursue him, and rob him there; If the Hundred in which he was robbed should be only charged; and it was the Opinion of the whole Court, That it should be charged. Mich. 10 Jac. in B. R. Deans Case. Hutton 125.

8. Action upon the Statute of Winton of Huy and Cry; The Plaintiff Declared, That A. his servant was robbed of 60 l. by persons unknown, and made Huy and Cry, according to the Statute, and none of the Thieves taken: and A. had made oath before a Justice of the Peace, within 20 days before the Action brought, That he did not know the parties, nor any of them who robbed him. It being found for the Plaintiff, It was moved, That the Action did not lye, because the Plaintiff himself was not sworn; and by the Statute of 29 Eliz. the party who brings the Action, ought to be sworn. But it was Resolved by the Court, That the Action will lye by the Master, and that the servants Oath was sufficient; for it is properly in his power, that he was robbed, and did not know the parties, and not the Master, and it would be very inconvenient if the Master should not bring the Action, but the servant only; for that the servant might release or discontinue the suit. Trin. 2 Car. in C. B. Reymond, and the Hundred of Olnings Case. Cro. 1. Part, 26. See Mich. 4. Car. in B. R. Cro. 1. Part, 244. acc.

9. Action

9. Actions upon the Statute of Huy and Cry, The Plaintiff Declared, That he was robbed of ſuch a ſum, and made Huy and Cry at C. in the ſaid County, near to the place where he was robbed, and gave notice of it to the Inhabitants of C. being found for the Plaintiff, and Error brought, It was aſſigned for Error, becauſe he doth not alledge, that C. was a Village within the Hundred; ſo as notice was given to the Inhabitants within the Hundred where the Robbery was committed, for to give the notice to any Vill which was not within the Hundred, was not the intention of the Statute: But all the Juſtices held, That it is not material it ſhould be given to thoſe of the Hundred, but to the Inhabitants of the Vill near adjoyning: for the words of the Statute do not mention that notice be given to the Inhabitants of the Hundred. And it was ſaid, That it had been adjudged, That notice given to the Inhabitants of the Vill adjoyning, though it was out of the County, was good enough: But at his peril he is to make it at a Village near adjoyning to the place. Paſch. 30 Car. in B. R. Mirick, and the Inhabitants of the Hundred of Repſgates Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 175. See Trin. 2 Car. in C. B. Tutter, and the Inhabitants de Ducurnes Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 30. acc.

10. Action upon the Statute of Winton of Huy and Cry; and ſhewed, That ſuch a day he was robbed of ſo much money within that Hundred, and that he made Huy and Cry, and ſhewed, how according to the Statute of 29 Eliz. and that within 40 dayes before the Action brought, he was ſworn before ſuch a Juſtice of Peace, That he was robbed of ſo much, and did not know the Felons, and that the Defendants had not taken any of the Felons, nor ſatisfied him, contra formam Statuti: It was ſaid, That the Action was no good, becauſe it is founded upon two Statutes, both mentioned in the Declaration, yet concludes contra formam Statuti prædict. The Court was of Opinion, The beſt form was Statuti prædict. and not Statutorum prædictorum; for the Action was grounded only upon the Statute of Winton, which gives penalty and remedy: The other Statute ſhews only how the Examination ſhall be, and in what time the Action ſhall be brought out, but gives not any penalty; and Statuti prædict. refers only to the Statute of Winton, which gives the Action. Mich. 5 Jac. in B. R. Andrew, and the Hundred of Lenkners Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 187.

11. Action upon the Statute of Winton, ſuppoſing that he was robbed of 80 l. of money, and of a Cloak, and divers other things: Upon Not Guilty, It was found, Quod quoad Captionem aſportationem & ſpoliationem infra ſcript. 80 l. That the Defendants were Guilty, and aſſeſs damages to 90 l. and as to the reſidue infra ſcript. Not Guilty. Judgment was for the Plaintiff, for ſo much as was found for him, Et quoad reſiduum quod Quærens Nihil Capiat per Billam, & ſit in Curiam: Error brought and aſſigned, the Verdict was ill, for the Hundred cannot be Guilty de Captione, but they are to be found Guilty for not taking the Thieves, and not anſwering the money. But the Court was of Opinion, it was well enough; and the finding they were guilty of the caption, is as much as to ſay, That the Plaintiff was robbed of ſo much, and that they had not made him amends. The Judgment was affirmed. Trin. 12 Jac. in B. R. Oldfield and the Inhabitants of Witherley. Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 350.

12. In an Action upon the Statute of Huy and Cry, It was, That he was robbed in ſuch a high way, in diviſis Hundredorum, and that he gave notice to the Inhabitants of the Hundred near to the place he was robbed. It was moved, That the notice ought to be given to both Hundreds: But it was Reſolved, That the notice given to the Inhabitants of either Hundred, was ſufficient. Paſch. 21 Jac. in B. R. Foſter, and the Hundred of Iſlleworths Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 675.

Statute 8 Hen. 6. Of Forcible Entries.

1. AN Indictment was upon the Statute of 8 H. 6. of Forcible Entry: It was, Inquiſitio capt. ad Seſſion. Pacis, &c. in Com. S. Tenent. tali die Martis, & die Mercurii, &c. And the Statute was miſrecited in ſome points, and for that cauſe the Indictment was quaſhed: for although the Seſſions may endure two or three days, yet the Record ought to mention, That the Seſſions was holden at one day certain: It was ſaid in that Caſe, That it is not policy in Indictments upon the Statute of 8 H. 6. to recite the Act, for the recital thereof is not neceſſary, and miſrecital thereof is fatal to the Indictment, but the beſt way is to draw the Indictment with concluſion, contra formam Statuti, and not to recite the Act. Hill. 30 Eliz. Cook 4. Part, 48. acc.

2. A. was Indicted upon the Statute of 8 H. 6. for Forcible Entring into the Rectory of H. The forcible Entry, was before the laſt pardon, and he tendred a Traverſe to the Indictment; and after a Venire facias and Diſtringas returned, the pardon came cause which discharged the Fine to the King. It was moved to the Court, That the party Indicted, was ousted from his possession by colour of this Indictment; a Writ of Restitution being awarded upon it, wherefore the party prayed, That he might proceed, and he would relinquish the benefit of the pardon, for that he had no other means to be restored to his possession; and it was not reason, that a general pardon should turn to his prejudice; and some of the Justices were of that Opinion, That he might proceed: But afterwards, upon conference had with all the Judges and Serjants, it was holden, That there ought to be no further proceedings upon this Indictment; for the offence being pardoned by the general pardon, they are to take notice of it, and therefore they cannot proceed to have Restitution, Hill. 4 Jac. in B. R. Fawcett's Case. Cro. 2. Part, 149. And so it was said it had been Resolved before by all the Judges of England, in the Lord Stafford, and Sir Tho. Thynne's Case. See Yelv. 99. the same Case.

3. In Indictment against F. upon the Statute of 8 H. 6. That he entred with force, and disseized H. and held it out with force: The Bill was found quoad the detainer with force, and thereupon Restitution awarded: The Indictment being removed, it was found to be ill; because it was not found that he entred peaceably, according as it ought to be by the words of the Statute; and of that Opinion was the Court: Then it was moved and prayed to have Restitution: But it was moved, That it should be stayed; for if re-restitution should be had, then J. S. who was in Ward to the King, should have benefit of it, and H. who had been 30 years in possession, should be kept out of possession; but yet being but to make re restitution upon an ill restitution, the Justices held it to be but reasonable, and therefore awarded it. Hill. 4 Jac. in B. R. Ford's Case. Cro. 2. Part, 151.

4. Indictment of Forcible Entry into Tythes, The party prayed Restitution; Whether this Indictment was maintenable or not, was the Question. It was moved, That Indictments should be allowed for Tythes, as well as for Rent; and for Rent it appears, That Forcible Entry lies; Fitzh. Nat. Br. 49. 20 H. 6. 11. But afterwards, a Writ of Restitution was awarded. Mich. 6 Car. in B. R. Cro. 1. Part, 146.

5. An Exception was taken to an Indictment upon the Statute of 8 H. 6. of Forcible Entry, because it is not therein shewed, in whom the Freehold is. Cook Chief Justice, This ought clearly to be shewed; and to say, Disseisivit, & intravit, &c. The Statute saith expressly, Disseize, and therefore Tenant by Elegit, or Statute-Merchant, cannot Indict one upon the Statute of 8 H. 6. but he ought to shew, that he did him expulse, and disseize the Reversioner. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Indictment was not good; wherefore it was quashed per Curiam. Trin. 13 Jac. in B. R. Bulst. 3. Part, 71.

6. In an Indictment upon the Statute of 8 H. 6. of Forcible Entry, the Case was, One was Lessee for years, and the Reversion did belong to the Company of Goldsmiths, Et quendam J. S. tenentem expulit. Cook took Exception to the Indictment, and said, That a Disseizin might be to one, although not in possession, as to a Reversioner upon a Term for years, but he could not be expulsed, unless he were in possession; for Privatio, præsuppone Habitum, and two cannot be Expulsi, where one was only in possession. It was also said, That the Indictment is, That the Tenant of the Freehold was expulsed, and dissezed, and then the Termor was expulsed: But as to that, it was said by the Judges, That the latter clause, scil. Et quendam J. S. tenentem, &c. was but surplusage: For if one enter with force, and expel the Tenant of the Freehold, it is within the Statute of 8 H. 6. And as to the Objection made by Cook, That the Indictment is, That he disseized and expelled the Tenant of the Freehold, out of the possession of the Freehold, The Court said, That the possession of the Termor, is the possession of him in the Reversion. Mich. 29 Eliz. in B. R. Godbolt, 45.

7. B. and others were Indicted, pro equal they entred into such Lands existens liberum Tenementum of J. S. & manu forti disseized him; and because the Indictment was not adhuc existens liberum Tenementum, and Existens liberum Tenementum, may refer to the time of the Indictment, and not to the time of the Entry; therefore the Indictment was holden not to be good, and was discharged. Trin. 21 Jac. in B. R. Bridges Case. Cro. 2. Part, 609.

8. J. S. and others, were Indicted for a Forcible Entry into a house, parcel of the Manor of D. which was the Freehold of J. D. and whereof F. was a Customary Tenant, and for Disseizing J. D. and expulsing of F. from thence. In this Case, although it was moved, That no Restitution might be; and it was Objected, That Restitution is only to be made in respect of the Freehold, and J. D. who is supposed to be Tenant of the Freehold, did not require it, but the contrary: Yet by the Court, Restitution was granted in respect of F. the Copyholder; for in as much as the Indictment is a Record, by which appeareth the Disseizin of J. D. and the expulsion of F. the Court ought to reform the wrongs in their several degrees, and to restore F. first, who was expulsed; and upon Ex consequenti, followeth the Restitution of the Free-

Freehold. But if the Indictment had been only of a Diſſeizin, without expulſion, there no Reſtitution might be, but upon the Prayer of him who had the Freehold. Hill. 3 Jac. in B. R. Sir And. Newels Caſe. Yelv. 81. And ſo it was ſaid it was adjudged in the Lord Norris Caſe.

9. Exceptions were taken to an Indictment upon the Statute of 8 H. 6. of Forcible Entry; for that the ſame was, Locum in quo, ad tunc, & adhuc exiſtens liberum Tenementum of him in the Reverſion. It was the Opinion of the Court, That here was a double repugnancy in this Indictment; for after the adhuc exiſtens, it is extra tenet. And 2. being adhuc exiſtens, then it is no diſſeizin; for theſe cauſes the parties were diſcharged, and the Indictment quaſhed. Trin. 11 Jac. in B. R. The King and Speirs Caſe. Bulſtr. 3. Part, 421.

10. An Indictment upon the Statute of 8 H. 6. of Forcible Entry, was, viz. That F. and P. 20 Aug. 44 Eliz. Vi & armis, & manu forti unum Meſſuagium in F. in Com. S. exiſtens ſolum & liberum Tenementum, J. S. illicitè, & contra formam Statuti, &c. ingreſſum fecerint & præfat. J. S. a poſſeſſione ſua, &c. adtunc & ibidem expulerat, & diſſeiſierat. Exception was taken to this Indictment, becauſe it was found that F. his unum Meſſuagium ingreſſum fecerunt; whereas it ſhould be, in unum Meſſuagium: But that Exception was diſallowed, for that the one or the other was good enough. The ſecond Exception was, The Indictment is Exiſtens, and doth not ſay, ad tunc exiſtens: But that was diſallowed alſo; for when it is found, That ſuch a day they entred into a Meſſuage [exiſtens] ſolum & liberum Tenementum, &c. This word exiſtens, ought of neceſſity refer to the time and day of the Entry: And ſo it was ſaid it was adjudged in Savages Caſe: Wherefore it was the Opinion of the Court, That this Indictment was good. Mich. 44 Eliz. in B. R. Fentons Caſe. Yelv. 27.

11. S. and ſeven others, were Indicted of Forcible Entry into a Cottage and Croft, in H. in the County of York; It was, That they manuforti entred upon the poſſeſſion of A. B. Fermor of R. F. and diſſeiſed A. F. Et ſic Diſſeiſium extra tenuerunt. It was moved, That the Indictment was inſufficient, becauſe they have not found, that A. B. the Fermor was amoved and expelled, and that is the force of the whole matter; for the poſſeſſion of the Fermor or Termor, is the poſſeſſion of the Reverſioner; and without ouſting of the Leſſee, there cannot be a diſſeizin to him who hath the Freehold: And ſuch was the Opinion of the Court, and the Indictment was diſcharged: But if the Indictment had not expreſſed A. B. to be Fermor, but generally, the Cottage to be in his Occupation, then it was the Opinion of Williams Juſtice, the Indictment which found the Diſſeizin only, had been good. Mich. 7 Jac. in B. R. Freiſlan and Shellitoes Caſe. Yelv. 165.

Upon the Statute of 23 H. 6. Cap. 10. Of Sheriffs.

1. WBeing a Priſoner in Ludgate upon a Capias utlagatum in Detinue, the Goaler took an Obligation of him, and two Sureties, with Condition to ſave him harmleſs, and to diſcharge his Fees, and to render his body at the time, upon Summons, &c. In Debt againſt one of the Sureties, he pleaded Condations performed; upon which the Plaintiff demurred. It was holden to be an inſufficient Plea; but there it was queſtioned, If the Court (ex Officio) be bounden to take notice of the ſaid Statute, not being pleaded by the party. Dyer held, the Court was not, becauſe but a particular in general; but of a general Statute, the Judges are to take notice, becauſe it makes a Common Law: In that Caſe it was ſaid, That it is not expreſſly averred, That the Plaintiff is Goaler, otherwiſe then that the Plaintiff named himſelf ſervant to J. S. alias dictus T. R. Goaler of Ludgate; then it was ſaid, If he be a ſtranger, and not Goaler, which the Court cannot take notice whether he be or not, then the Bond is good at the Common Law, and not by the Statute; for the Statute ſpeaks of Obligations made to Officers colore Officii. 3. It was ſaid, That it was out of the Statute, becauſe it is not ſhewed, That he was arreſted according to the courſe of Law, but only, That he was Outlawed at N. tali die &c. & poſtea Arreſtatus at London, and ſhewed not by whoſe authority, and without a Writ of Capias utlagatum, it ſhall be unlawful to arreſt him, which ſhall not be intended, becauſe it is not ſhewed. In this Caſe it was ſaid, That Outlawry is one of the ſeven Exceptions in the Statute, of which the Sheriff had commandment not to let to Mainprize; and yet an Obligation upon that, is not out of the Statute. Mich. 2 Mar. Dyer 119. Whittinghams Caſe. See Pla. Com 60. Dove and Maringhams Caſe.

2. The Under-Marſhal took an Obligation of one in Execution, and a ſtranger, to ſave him harmleſs of Eſcapes, and let the Priſoner at large; and although the Statute of 23 H. 6. toucheth only the Sheriff, Warden of the Fleet and Pallace, and Ministers of the Sheriff: Yet the Opinion of the Court was, That the Obligation was void: And it was the Opinion of the Court, That the Condition was against the Law, and then the Obligation void by the Common Law. Pasch. 11 Eliz. Dyer, 284.

3. Note, The Statute of 23 H. 6. cap. 10. is, and makes an Obligation taken in other manner then the Statute prescribes to be void: Yet it is holden in 7 E. 4. 5. That the party against such Obligation, cannot plead Non est factum, but it is avoidable by Plea, with such apt conclusion as the Law doth appoint. Cook 3. Part, 59. in Lincoln Colledge Case. See Cook 5. Part, 119. in Wolpsdales Case acc.

4. It was Resolved by the Court, That the Sheriff who hath a Fieri facias, may take an Obligation of the Defendant, to pay the money in Court at the Return of the Writ, and it shall not be void by the Statute of 23 H. 6. cap. 10. because that the Statute extends only to such Obligations, with any who in his custody maketh to the Sheriff; and also, because such an Obligation was not void by the Common Law. 2. It was Resolved, That if the Sheriff taketh one surety of the party, the same is good enough, because it is at the Sheriffs peril. 3. It was Resolved, That if the Sheriff, or Gaoler, for ease, and enlargement of any one who is in his Custody, taketh a Promise to save him harmless, that the same is within the Statute of 23 H. 6. although that the Statute speaks only of Obligations with Conditions; for an Assumpsit is within the words of the Statute (viz. any Obligations) by Wray Chief Justice: And so it was said it was Resolved, Mich. 27 Eliz. in Darby and Heathcotes Case. Cook 10. Part, 100. Bourchiers Case. See there, Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Rott. 1502. Barney and Kotts Case, and Trin. 34 Eliz. in C. B. Dawsons Case.

5. Debt upon an Obligation of 200 l. upon condition to come to his Lodging, and to go with him to the Councel at Wales. The Defendant pleaded the Statute of 23 H. 6. and that the Plaintiff is a Serjant at Arms attending upon the Council of the Marches there, and took that Bond out of colour of an Attachment out of the said Court, and so the Bond was void. It was said, That he was not an Officer intended within the Statute, which extends only to Sheriffs, and Bayliffs, and other Ministers of Guarding of Prisons, which a Serjant at Arms is not: Also the said Court was erected since the said Statute, and therefore cannot be intended within it. The Court enclined to be of that Opinion, but did not Resolve the point: But afterwards, because it was shewed, That the Plaintiff made the Arrest out of the Marches, viz. in London, they held clearly that this Obligation was out of the intent of the Statute. Mich. 8 Car. in B. R. Johns and Strafords Case. Cro. 1. Part, 225.

6. Debt upon an Obligation of 100 l. The Condition was, If G. R. appeared in the Common Pleas, à die Pasch. in quindecim dies, ad respondendum Thom. Allen, in placito debiti, That then &c. The Defendant pleaded the Statute of 23 H. 6. and that upon Capias out of the Common Pleas, to take the said G. R. ad respondendum to the said Allen, in placito debiti of 310 l. by vertue of which he was Arrested and Imprisoned, until he entred into the said Bond, and so it was not made according to the Statute, and so void, upon which it was demurred. Exception was to the Obligation, because the Obligation was 100 l. being for an appearance only: Whereas it hath been adjudged, That an Obligation of 40 l. for an appearance is sufficient, and therefore the taking of a greater Bond, is extortious, and void by the Statute. But the Exception was disallowed by the Court; for the Statute doth not restrein him to any sum, or any sureties, but he may take them according to his discretion. And although it hath been adjudged, That a Bond of 40 l is sufficient to excuse him for an Escape; because by the Statute he is enforced to let him to Bail, yet not sequiter, that he should be restrained from taking a Bond of a greater sum. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Hill. 7 Jac. in B.R. Villiers and Hallys Case. Cro. 2. Part, 286.

7. In Action upon the Case upon Assumpsit, The Case was, E. a Sergeant at Mace, took and Arrested one H. and having him in Execution, did deliver him over to the Plaintiff, being the Gaoler, ad Custodiendum in salva Custodia. Upon this, J. M. the Defendant came to him, and made him this Promise, grounded upon this consideration, That in consideration that the Plaintiff would suffer H. whom he had in Execution for the debt of one Sparke, ire ad largum, &c. the said debt not being satisfied, he then promised to give him such a sum of money, for which the Action was brought. It was the Opinion of the Court in this Case, That this Obligation was void, the same being grounded upon consideration, which is against the Law, and so the Plaintiff had no cause of Action. Pasch. 12 Jac. in B. R. Blakman and Mortas Case. Rolls. 2. Part, 213.

8. In Debt upon an Obligation, the Condition was to pay 20 l. The Defendant pleaded the Statute of 23 H. 6. That no Sheriff take an Obligation by colour of his Office, in other manner then is prescribed by the Statute; and shewed, that that a Statute of 120 l. was acknowledged to him by J. S. and that it was extended by the Plaintiff, being Sheriff; and that it was agreed between the Brother of the Plaintiff, and the Under-Sheriff, before the Liberate executed, That the Defendant ſhould enter into the ſaid Bond to the uſe of the Plaintiff: The Plaintiff confeſſed this, and pleaded the Statute ut ſtatim; Upon which the Defendant Demurred. There were three points in the Caſe. 1. When the Sheriff doth take an Obligation with a penalty for money, which is given to him for his Fees, which are due by the Statute of 27 Eliz. Whether this be good within the Statute. 2. When the Sheriff extends the Statute, and the Conuſee enter into Bond for the payment of the Fees after the Extent, and before the Liberate returned, Whether this be good? 3. Whether the Statute gives 12 d. in the pound for the firſt 100 l. and if that extend, then but 6 d. It was Reſolved by the Court, That Judgment ſhould be given againſt the Plaintiff. And they agreed, That this Obligation was not within the Statute of 23 H. 8. for that the party was not in the Cuſtody of the Sheriff. 2. Agreed, That the Sheriff may not take his Salary appointed by the Statute, till a compleat Execution; viz. till the Liberate; for the words of the Statute are in the Negative. 3. It was ſaid, That this Obligation was void by the Common Law, and extortion, and a taking by colour of his Office. 4. It was Reſolved, That the Sheriff ſhall have but 6 d. in the pound for all, if it extend 100 l. And afterwards, Judgment was commanded to be entred for the Defendant. Mich. 20 Jac. in C. B. Empſon and Rutherſt Caſe, Winch. 21. and 50.

Upon the Statutes of 18 Ed. 1. 27 E. 1. and Stat. 4 H. 7. Cap. 24. and 32 H. 8. of Fines.

1. NOtwithſtanding the Statute of 27 E. 1. de finibus levatis, which took away Exceptions againſt Fines levied; the Queſtion was, Whether notwithſtanding that Statute, the Iſſue in tail might averr againſt ſuch a Fine levied by his Anceſtor. It was ſaid, That by the Statute of Donis Conditionalibus, It is provided, That as to the Iſſue in tail Finis ipſo jure ſit nullus; And it was ſaid, That where there wanted Seiſin in the one party or the other, there it might be averred, Quod partes finis nihil habuerunt. And it was ſaid, That the Book of 13 Aſſ. is, That it had been adjudged a good Plea, for the Iſſue in tail againſt a Fine and render of his Father, to alledg the Continuance of his Father. But ſee, Cook 3. Part, 88. in the Caſe of Fines, where it is Reſolved, That the Iſſue in tail, although he was not bound by any Fine levied by his Anceſtor, by the Statute of 4 H. 7. yet he was eſtopped to averr, That in ſuch caſe partes finis nihil habuerunt; but being privy, as Heir to him who levied the Fine by the Statute of 27 E. 1. he was eſtopped to annihilate the Fine of his Anceſtor by any ſuch Plea.

2. The Father Tenant for life, the Remainder to his Son and Heir apparant, levied a Fine to a ſtranger ſur Conuſans de Droit come ceo, &c. with Warranty, and took back an Eſtate by the ſame Fine. In that caſe, It was holden, That the Heir ſhould not be received to averr Continuance of the poſſeſſion and Seiſin, ante finem tempore finis, or poſt finem, in the Tenant for life; for that it is a Feoffment upon Retorn, and makes a Diſcontinuance of the Remainder and Reverſion. Mich. 16 Eliz. Dyer, 334.

3. In a Formedon, the Tenant pleaded, Ne dona pas. The Demandant by Replication, ſaid, That a Fine was levied of the ſame Lands between the Father of the Demandant, and one T. by which Fine, the Father of the Demandant did acknowledg to T. the Lands come ceo, &c. and the ſaid T. gave by the ſaid Fine, to the Father of the Demandant in tail. In that caſe it is ſaid by Stone, That ſince the guitt is proved by as high a Record, a man ſhall not averr againſt ſuch a matter in avoidance of the ſaid Fine, and yet the party againſt whom it was, was a ſtranger to the Fine. & 3 E. 3. 12. Fitz. tit. Averment, 42.

4. Ed. Lord Zouch brought a Formedon in the Deſcender of the moyety of a Manor, and divers Lands, againſt Rumfield; who pleaded in Bar, That John, great Grandfather of the Demandant, levied a Fine Sur Conuſans de Droit come ceo, of the ſaid moyety. Paſch. 32 H. 8. which was by the ſaid Fine granted and Rendred to the ſaid John and his Heirs, whoſe Eſtate the Tenant had. The Demandant Replyed, That at the time of the ſaid Fine levied, and at all times after, the ſaid Rumfield now Tenant, was ſeiſed of the Land in demand in his Demeſne as of Fee. In this caſe, It was Reſolved by all the Juſtices of the Common-Pleas, That the Demandant, being Heir in tail againſt ſuch Fine levied by his Anceſtor, whoſe Heir he is, was eſtopped to averr his Seiſin and Continuance thereof in a ſtranger, at the time of the ſaid Fine levied, nor to aver, Quod partes finis nihil habuerunt, Mich. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Zouch and Bampfields Caſe, Leon. 75. to 84.

5. A Fine was levied of a Manor, and of a great number of Acres of Land Meadow, &c. and the Clerk who entred the Kings Silver, entred it in ſuch manner; viz. N. D. dat. Dat Domine Regine 40 s. pro Licentia Concordandi in placito Conventionis of ſo many Acres of Meadow Land, &c. leaving out the Manor; and becauſe it appeared upon examination, and upon View of all the part of the Fine, that the ſame was but the miſpriſion of the Clerk who entred the Kings Silver; and that the ſaid ſum of 40 s. was in truth as well for the Manor, as for the Reſidue of the Land: It was in that Caſe Reſolved, that it was a good Fine, and well levied; and therefore Reſolved, That the ſaid Entry ſhould be amended. Mich. 39 Eliz. in C. B. Cook 5. Part, 44. Bohunns Caſe.

6. Lands were given to the Grandfather and his Wife in ſpecial tail; the Grandfather dyed, the Father diſſeiſed the Grandmother, and levied a Fine with Proclamation; the Grandmother dyed, the Father dyed: In that caſe, It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That the Son was barred; and yet the Father at the time of the Fine levied, had but a poſſibility, the Grandmother living, to the Tail: and yet the Judges did expound the Statute of 32 H. 8. (being an Act of Explanation) according to the Letter; That for as much as the Land was entailed to his Anceſtor, although his Anceſtor was alive, ſo as no Eſtate in right was diſcended to him, which he might paſſe or execute; Yet, becauſe the ſaid Statute ſaith, Entailed to the perſon ſo levying, or to any of his Anceſtors in the disjunctive; It was holden, That the Fine with Proclamations did barr the right which after the Fine ſhould diſcend to him, not only as to himſelf, but to all the Heirs in tail. Mich. 20 Eliz. in C. B. Archers Caſe, vouch. in Cook 3. Part, 90.

7. A man made a Leaſe for years to begin after the end of a Term then in being; The firſt Leaſe determined, the ſecond Leſſee did not enter, but he in the Reverſion entred, and made a Feoffment, and levied a Fine with Proclamations, and 5 years paſſed without claim made by the ſecond Leſſee. It was Reſolved in this caſe, That the ſecond Leſſee was barred of his Term, by the Statute of 4 H. 7. of Fines; for although that the Leſſor for years hath not an Eſtate that he may levy a Fine, yet becauſe that the words of the Statute are general, and extend to all perſons, and the words of the Saving are, [Such Right, Claim, or Intereſt] and he who hath a Term for years, hath an Intereſt, and alſo becauſe he is within the Miſchief, It was Reſolved, That his Intereſt, and the Intereſts of Tenants by Statute Merchant, Statute Staple, Guardian or Executors, are within the ſaid Statute of 4 H. 7. and bound by the Fine; For all theſe have Intereſts in the Land; and he who hath a naked right, or title to any Inheritance, cannot levy a Fine, and yet he ſhall be bound by a Fine levied by the Tenant of the Land. Cook 5. Part, 124. Saffins Caſe.

8. Tenant in tail, the remainder in tail, the Reverſion to the Right Heirs of Tenant in tail: Tenant in tail by Deed enrolled, bargained, and ſold the Land to J. S. and his Heirs; and afterwards levied a Fine with Proclamations to the Bargainee with Warranty: The Conuſee made a Feoffment in Fee; he in the Remainder had Iſſue and dyed, and then Tenant in tail dyed without Iſſue: In this caſe, it was Reſolved, amongſt other Points, That the Fine levied by the Bargainee, was no diſcontinuance of the Remainder, becauſe the ſame did not touch nor diſplace the Remainder, and no Eſtate of Freehold paſſed by the Fine, but the Fine with Proclamations did Corroborate the Eſtate of the Bargainee: for wherein his Eſtate was determinable upon the death of Tenant in tail, now it is not determinable without death without Iſſue; but if the Fine had been levied before the Bargain and Sale enrolled, then it had been a Diſcontinuance. 2. It was Reſolved, That the Feoffment of the Conuſee was not any diſcontinuance of the remainder; for none can diſcontinue a Reverſion or a Remainder, but he only to whom the Land is entailed: And therefore, If Tenant in tail granteth totum ſtatum ſuum, and he maketh a Feoffment in Fee, the ſame ſhall not take away the Entry of him in the Remainder or Reverſion. Cook 10. Part, 96, 97. Edward Symons Caſe.

9. Tenant in tail, the remainder in tail, &c. Tenant in tail in poſſeſſion makes a Leaſe for three Lives, according to the Statute of 32 H. 8. and afterwards dyeth without Iſſue; He in the Remainder before any Entry levieth a Fine: It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That the Fine was good, for that by the death of Tenant in tail without Iſſue, the Freehold was veſted in him in the remainder in tail. Mich. 20 Eliz. in C. B. Lees Caſe.

10. Error brought by J. B. Son and Heir of T. B. againſt J. S. of a Judgment given by default, in a Formedon in the Diſcender, againſt T. B. of a Meſſuage and Lands in S. in the County of B; The Errour was, for want of a Warrant of Attorney: The Defendant in the Writ of Errour pleaded in barr a Fine with 4. Proclamations nations, with warranty; which Fine was levied to J. D. and his Heirs, to the use of him and his Heirs with Warranty; by vertue of which, the said J. D. entred, and was seised to the use of him and his Heirs, and demanded Judgment, Whether the Plaintiff shall be received to bring a Writ of Errour, or assign Errours against this Fine with Proclamations. In this case, two Points were, 1. Whether he who is only Tenant to the Writ, and not Tenant to the Land, as the Defendant here appears to be, may plead this Plea which goeth in bar of Errors? 2. Whether it be a good Barr? In this Case, It was Resolved by the Court, That the Tenant to the Suit might well plead this Plea. 2. Resolved, That this Fine, and 5. years passed without bringing a Writ of Errour, is a good barr (by the word Actions) within the second Saving of the Statute of 4 H. 7. And Cook, Chief Justice, said, That it was Resolved, 27 Eliz. in the Exchequer-Chamber, in Mandevill's Case, That if one hath right to a Writ of Errour, and sufferreth five years to passe, without bringing that Writ, he shall be barred by that Fine and 5. years passed. Trin. 11 Jac. in B. R. Bartholomew and Belfields Case. Cro. 1. Part, 332, 333.

11. Errour of a Judgment in C. B. in Ejectione firmæ, The Case was, A. was seised of Lands in Fee, and conveyed them to the use of T. his Son, and E. his Wife, and the Heirs of their bodies, for the Joynure of the Wife: A. dyed; T. and E. his Wife entred, and had Issue P. their eldest Son, and D. their second Son, the Lessor of the Plaintiff: T. dyed; E. took a second Husband, and they by Deed inrolled, bargained and sold the Land to P. and his Heirs; but no Livery or Inrollment was found of it. Then P. by Indenture bargained and sold the Lands to H. and levied a Fine with Proclamations to the said H. to the use of him and his Heirs; and afterward P. dyed without Issue: E. dyed; D. the second son of F. entred, and made the Lease. The Question was, Whether the Fine by P. the eldest son in the life of his Mother, Tenant in tail; he dying without Issue in the life of his mother, should barr D. the second son of T. or no? It was adjudged in the Common-Pleas, That this Fine levied by P. should not barr D. the second son: Whereupon Errour was brought in B. R. and by the whole Court, the first Judgment was affirmed. For, this Fine levied by the eldest son who was never seised by force of the entail, and dying without Issue before the tail discended upon him, is not a Fine within the Statute of 32 H. 8. or 4 H. 7. to barr the entail; For though he be inheritable to the tail, and, if he had survived, his Fine had been a barr to his brother; yet because he dyed in the life of his Ancestor, and never had the Estate tail, the younger brother shall never mention him in a Formedon in the Discender, he never being Ancestor in tail to his younger Brother, nor any such Ancestor to whom the Land was entailed. Wherefore the Judgment given in the Common-Pleas was affirmed. Trin. 11 Car. in B. R. Bradstock and Stowell's Case. Cro. 1. Part, 313, 314.

12. The Case was; Husband and Wife made a Feoffment of the Manor of B. to one O. to the use of himself and his Wife, and the Heirs males of their two bodies, the remainder in Fee to the Husband; They had Issue a Son and a Daughter; the Husband dyed; the Son made a Lease by Indenture, to begin after the death of his Mother, rendring Rent; and then by agreement levied a Fine with Proclamations, to the use of himself in Fee, and dyed without Issue. The Mother, by the assent of the Daughter and her Husband, sufferred a Common Recovery, in which the daughter and her Husband came in as Vouchees; the use of which Recovery, was to the use of the Mother for life, the Remainder to her Daughter and her Husband in tail, the remainder in Fee to the daughter; and then the Mother dyed. The Opinion of the Court in this case was, That the Fine levied by the brother (being the first Issue in this entail) levied in the life of his Mother, (who was sole Tenant of that entail, and did survive him) should not barr his sister, to whom the Land so entailed discended immediatly from her Mother. Upon Upon the Statute of 11 H. 7. Cap. 20. of Discontinuance of Rights by Women.

1. A Man seised of Lands in Fee, enfeoffed divers, upon Condition, That they should give the Land to him and his Wife in tail, the remainder to his right Heirs; they had Issue a Son; the Husband dyed: the Son in the life of the Wife levied a Fine, with Proclamations, to A. in Fee: The Wife entred, and made a Lease for 3. Lives, not warranted by the Statute of 32 H. 8. the Consuse re-entred. It was Resolved in this Case, That the Lease made by the Wife, although that it was without warranty, was within the Statute of 11 H. 7. Cap. 20. for a Discontinuance stands in equall degree with a Warranty, or Recovery. 2. It was Resolved, That if he in the Remainder had granted over his Remainder in Fee only, that he might have entred for the forfeiture by the expresse words of the Statute, and not he in the Remainder. 3. Resolved, That the Consuse might have entred for the forfeiture, because by the Fine, the Estate tail is barred, and now he is that person, to whom the Interest, Title, and Inheritance, after the death of the wife doth appertain: And in this case, It was agreed for Law, That if a woman Tenant in tail doth accept a Fine sur Conusans de Droit come ceo; and thereby grant and render the Land for 1000 years, that the same is an alienation within the Intent of the Statute of 11 H. 7. Cap. 20. Cook 3. Part, 50. Sir George Browns Case.

2. A. seised of two Mannors, enfeoffed divers, to the intent they should give back the same to A. and B. his wife, whom he did intend to marry, and to the Heirs males of the body of A: A. and B. entermarried, and had Issue C: A. dyed; C. in the life of B. Tenant of the Freehold, suffered a Common Recovery with a single Voucher, to the intent that the Recoverors should make a Feoffment to Uses, and that the Wife, Tenant for life, should release with Warranty; which Feoffment and Release with Warranty, were made accordingly. And, If the Collateral Warranty was a Barr to the Demandant who was Heir in tail; or was void by the Statute of 11 H. 7. Cap. 20. was the Question? And in this case, It was Resolved, 1. That although the said Statute of 11 H. 7. makes the Discontinuance, Alienation, Warranty, and Recovery, utterly void; yet those generall words ought to be expounded, that they are not void betwixt the parties themselves, but stand in force betwixt them, and against all others, but only against such to whom the Interest, Title, and Inheritance, after the death of such woman doth appertain, and they only may make the same void by their Entry. 2. Resolved, That when the Heir in tail conveys the Lands unto another, and the Release and Confirmation of the Wife with Warranty, is but to perfect and strengthen the Estate which the Heir in tail hath made, that such a Warranty is not restrained by the said Statute of 11 H. 7. because it shall be intended to his benefit, and not to his prejudice: And in this case, the Wife with the Heir in tail, might have barred the Estate tail by Fine, and then the Statute will not restrain the Warranty of the Wife made to him who hath the Land by Conveyance of the Heir in tail. 3. Resolved, That when he in the Remainder in tail by a Recovery had against him by agreement, disableth himself to take benefit of the forfeiture given by the Statute of 11 H. 7. after his death, his Heir shall not take benefit thereof, because his Father was in esse at the time of the forfeiture, and could not enter; and a person who is not in esse, or who had not the immediate Interest at the time of the forfeiture, shall not take advange of it. 4. Resolved, That if Tenant in tail, being in of an Estate in tail, suffereth a common Recovery, and a Collateral Ancestor of the Tenant in tail releaseth to the Recoverors with Warranty, that this Warranty shall bind, and the Terr-Tenants may take advantage of it by way of Rebutter. Cook 2. Part, 58, 59, 60. Lincoln-Colledg Case.

3. A. Bishop of E. seised of divers Messuages and Lands in D. as well for service done by N. T. as for divers other Considerations, 36 H. 8. gave the said Messuages and Tenements to the said N. T. and to one Sybel Yardley his Cosen, Habendum the said Tenements, with all their Appurtenances to the said N. T. and Sybell, and the Heirs of their two bodies begotten. It was found, That the said Messuages and Lands were inter alia cognita by the name of a Tenement, and occupied under the Rent of 15 l. and that N. T. was servant to the Bishop, and that Sybell was his Cosen, and that a Marriage was then intended betwixt the said N. T. and Sybell, which was had accordingly, and that they had Issue J. and W; That N. T. dyed, and that afterwards Sybell took to husband J. S; and they 29 Eliz. enfeoffed J: afterwards J. S. dyed, Sybell Sybell re-entred; J. levied a Fine sur Conusans de Droit to the Defendant: Sybell afterwards, 35 Eliz. enfeoffed her second Son; J. Entred: The Question in this Case was, Whether this Guift in this manner, be a guift within the Stat. of 11 H. 7? for if it be a Joyncture within the Statute, and is purchased by her Husband, then the Feoffament by Sybell to her second husband was a forfeiture, of which the eldest son might take advantage. It was Resolved, That it was not a Joyncture within the said Statute; for it was not a guift by the husband, nor by the Auncestor of the husband; And the Consideration of the service of the Husband, is not said to be such a purchase as the Law intends: and although the Deed be for divers other Considerations, that general Clause shall not alter the Case. 2. Resolved, That admitting it were a Joyncture within the said Statute, yet as this Case is, neither the Heir nor the Consusee shall take advantage of the forfeiture, by the alienation to the younger son: For when the Heir is enfeoffed by the second husband and the wife, and afterwards the husband dyes, and she enters, she defeats that Estate: And when the Heir levied a Fine to the Defendant, that Fine gave no Interest, but only by Estoppell; because the Heir had nothing at the time of the Fine, nor the Consusee; yet the Heir hath given his right to the entail, and concluded himself, that he cannot enter; and the Consusee cannot enter, because he hath nothing but by way of Estoppell, and no Reversion. Hill. 3 Jac. in B. R. Ward and Walthewes Case, Cro. 2. Part, 174. 175.

4. In an Ejectione Firme, the Case was; A. was seised of Lands in Fee, and by Indenture Covenanted with B. as well in Consideration of 200 l. paid by B. as in Consideration of a marriage betwixt L. his son, and Anne the Daughter of B. to convey Land to the use of the said L. and Anne, and the Heirs of the body of the said Anne to be begotten, and to his right Heirs: The marriage took effect; The Father dyed before the assurance; L. in performance of his Fathers Covenants, makes the assurance: afterwards L. enfeoffed one W. and L. and his Wife levied a Fine to the said W: R. G. entred for a forfeiture, by the Statute of 11 H. 7. The first Question was, If this shall be said a Joyncture within the Stat. of 11 H. 7? It was Resolved, That it should; for the Conveyance being by the Husband, or his Ancestor, in consideration of a Marriage, although it be conjoyned with a consideration of money, is within the Statute, and shall be expounded a Joyncture within the Statute. The second Question was, If it were an Estate Tail in the Wife only, or in the Husband and the Wife. It was Resolved, That it was an Estate Tail in the Wife, and but an Estate for life in the Husband. The third Question was, If this being a Joyncture within the Statute, whether the alienation of the Wife with her first Husband, who limitted it, be a forfeiture within the Statute. It was Resolved by the whole Court, That it was not a forfeiture, neither within the words, nor within the intent of the Statute: Not within the words, for the words are, If any woman being sole, or with any after-Husband, &c. And here she was not sole, and this Husband who conveyed it, he was married to the woman before the Conveyance. 2. It was out of the intent of the Statute; because the Husband who made the Assurance, joyned with the Wife in the Alienation; and this Statute being in the restraint of the Common Law, shall be taken strictly. Pasch. Jac. in B. R. Kirkham and Thompsons Case. Cro. 2. Part, 474. 475.

5. In an Ejectione firme, The Case was, A. seized of Lands in Fee, of the yearly value of 20 l. having two daughters co-heirs, M. and E. by Indenture 31 Eliz. Covenanted with J. S. in consideration of a marriage betwixt J. S. and the said M. and in consideration of 115 l. to be paid by the said J. S. to assure those Lands to the use of himself for life, and after, to the use of the said J. and M. and the heirs of their bodies, the Remainder to the heirs of E. and her right heirs: The marriage took effect. J. S. paid the 115 l. After, J. and M. had Issue B. the Lessor of the Plaintiff; J. S. dyed, M. took a second Husband, who alienes the Land to the Defendant; B. entred for the forfeiture, and let the Land to the Plaintiff: Whether this was an Estate within 11 H. 7. was the Question. It was much insisted upon, That it was within the words and intent of the Statute, it being purchased by the Husband for a valuable consideration. It was the Opinion of all the Barons in this Case, That this was not any Joyncture within the said Statute, because the Lands moved from the Wives father, and her advancement in marriage, is intended to be the cause of the gift, and not the money; and this appears, because the Limitation is to her, and her husband, in special Tail, and after, to the Wife in general Tail; and for default of her Issue, to her sister, in Fee; so as the Father principally intended the advancement of his daughter: And although the Husband paid the 115 l. that is not intended as a valuable price of the Land, but to have the Estate limitted to him as well as to his Wife, so as he might have the Lands, although he had no Issue: Wherefore it was adjudged for the Defendant. Mich. 19 Jac. in the Exchequer, Kyrsellus, and Lloyds Case. Cro. 2. Part, 624. See Trin. 6 Car. in B. R. Copland and Pyatts Case, adjudge acc. Cro. 1. Part, 177.

6. Husband

6. Husband and Wife, Tenants in tail of the Guift of the Husband, the Remainder to the Husband in Fee: the Husband dyed; the son and heir of the husband and wife levied a Fine with Proclamations to the use of him and his Heirs; the Wife let a Lease of the Land for 21. years, and dyed; the son devised the Land to E. and his Heirs, and dyed: Whether the Lease made by the Wife, were good to bind the Devisee, was the Question? It was the Opinion of the whole Court in this Case, That the Issue in tail was barred by the Fine to avoid this Lease; and that although that the Estate tail was barred; yet it is not extinguished, but remains in Esse to support the Lease, so long as any Issue in tail doth remain alive; And so the Court agreed, That the Lease was good. Trin. 18 Jac. in B. R. Crocker and Kelsy's Case. Bridgman, 28.

7. The Wife had a Joynture with her Husband of his Inheritance, an Estate in speciall tail, the Remainder to the right Heirs of the Husband; they had Issue a Son: the Husband dyed; the Wife took a second husband, and they by Fine aliened the Land in Fee: the Son being within age, entred by colour of the Statute of 11 H. 7. The second husband dyed, the Lord by Knight-Service entred upon the Son, and claimed the Wardship: It was Resolved in that case, That he should not be in Ward, because he was in as a Purchasor during the life of the Wife. The second Question was, If the Mother contrary to her own alienation by Fine, might enter? It is there left a Quære, and not Resolved. Mich. 22 Eliz. Dyer, 362.

8. Note: There is a difference concerning Estates conveyed to Women for their Joyntures; An Estate in Fee conveyed to a woman, is no Joynture within the Statute of 11 H. 7. for to restrain such an Estate, that it shall not be aliened, is repugnant to the Rules of the Common-Law; but an Estate conveyed in Fee, and in satisfaction of Dower, is a good Joynture within the Statute of 27 H. 8. Cap. 10. Cook 4. Part, 4. Vernon's Case.

Upon the Statute of 21 of Hen. the 8th, Cap. 13. Of Non-Residence and Pluralities.

The words of the Statute are. 1. That then and immediately after such possession had thereof, the first Benefice shall be adjudged in Law to be void. 2. And that it shall be lawfull to every Patron to Present another.

1. IT was Resolved by the Court, That before the Statute of 21 H. 8. If a man had a Benefice with Cure, and took another Benefice with Cure, that the first Benefice was void; but that was an Avoydance by the Spiritual Law, and not by the Common Law; of which Avoydance the Patron might take notice if he would, and might Present without any Deprivation or Resignation. But because the Avoydance did accrue by the Ecclesiastical Law, no Lapse did incur without notice, and yet the Patron might Present and take notice of it if he would; so as for the benefit of the Patron, the Church was void, but not for his disadvantage. But now forasmuch as it is affirmed by this Statute of 21 H. 8. cap. 13. if the first Benefice be of the value of 8 l. in the year, the Patron at his perill ought to present unto it; for inasmuch as it is an Avoydance by Act of Parliament every one ought to take notice of it at his perill. Cook 4. Part, 75. in Hollands Case.

2. A man was Admitted, Instituted, and Inducted into a Benefice of Cure, of the value of 8 l. And afterwards the King granted to him the Church of S. which was also a Benefice with Cure, and he was Admitted and Instituted. The Archbishop of Canterbury granted to him Letters of Dispensation for Plurality, which were confirmed by the King, and afterwards he was Inducted into the Church of S. It was in this Case adjudged, That his Dispensation came too late, because it came after the Institution; for by the Institution, the Church is full against all persons unless against the King; and as to the Spiritualties, he is full Person by the Institution, but as to the Temporalties he hath not the Freehold of them in him until he be Inducted. And in this Case, it was Resolved, That by the Statute of 21 H. 8. the first Benefice was void by the Institution to the second Benefice, and the Church full before Induction. 2. It was Resolved, That admit that the first Benefice was not void by the Institution, yet the Dispensation came too late; for the words of the Statute are, [May purchase License to receive and take, and keep two Benefices with Cure of Souls]. And the words of Dispensation are retinere & retinere; and because that by the Institution the Church was full, he could not by License receive that which he had before. Cook 4. Part, 79. Bigbies Case.

The words of the Statute are, (Shall take another Benefice with Cure of Souls of the yearly value of 8 l.); The Question is, What value the Statute intends, Whether the very value of the Benefice; or as it is taxed in the Kings Books.

1. THe King brought a Quare Impedit against the Bishop of B. and Hanleigh Incumbent, for disturbing him to Present to the Church of Swyre in the County of D. which came to him by Lapse; and set forth the Statute of 21 H. 8. and that H. the Defendant was Parson of Swire, being a Benefice with Cure, of the valve of 8 l. viz. of the value of 30 l. per annum; and that the Defendant H. had taken another Benefice with Cure, viz. Milbury Eack in the said County, being also a Benefice with Cure, by which the first Benefice became void, and continued void for two years, and so the King ought to Present. The Defendant H. pleaded a special Plea, viz. by Protestation, That at the time of the making of the Statute, That the Church of Swyre was but of the value of 7 l. 14 s. 4 d. He pleased the Statute of 26 H. 8. By which Statute the Lord Chancellor had Commission to enquire of the values of all Benefices, and to certify the same in the Exchequer. And that upon such Commission awarded, it was returned into the Exchequer, That the Church of Swyre was but of the value of 7 l. 14 s. 4 d. and that he was Inducted into Swyre; and because the same was but of small value, the Archbishop of Canterbury, quantum interest, did grant him Dispensation to take another Benefice, which was confirmed by the Kings Letters Patents, and that thereupon he was Admitted, Instituted, and Inducted into the said Benefice of Milbury Eack, being a Benefice of the value of 8 l. Upon which the Kings Attorney did demur in Law. This Case was argued by the Justices in C. B. and the Court was divided in Opinion. Foster and Walmesly Justices held, That the value should be taken according to the taxed value as the Church was in the Kings Books. Warburton and Cook, That it should be taken according to the very value. Wherefore for difference of Opinion, it was adjourned into the Exchequer Chamber; and afterwards the Case was compounded by Order from the Kings Majesty. For the maintenance of the Opinions of Cook and Warburton, these Presidents were shewed. One 40 Eliz. in C. B. Bash and Swiths Case, where Issue being upon the value of the Benefice, the Jury found the value according to the very value, and not according to the taxed value, as it was in the Book of First Fruits. See Pasc. 7 Eliz. Dyer, 237. though it be valued in the Kings Books but at 6 l. yet the first Benefice is void by this Statute by all the Justices. 2. 41 Eliz. at the Assises, Bond and Trickets Case, Where Anderson Chief Justice directed the Jury, the Issue being upon the value of the Benefice, to find according to the very value, and not according to the taxed value. Quære the Law, for the Case is not yet Resolved, only this point being moved upon another Case. Pasc. 10 Car. in C. B. the Court then seemed to encline against the Opinions of Cook and Warburton before delivered in Hanleighs Case. Pasc. 8 Jac. in C. B. The King and the Bishop of Bristow and Hanleighs Case.

2. In an Ejectione firmæ, the Case was, That the Land in Question was parcel of the Glebe of the Rectory of M. and that A. was Parson of M. and that M. was a Benefice with Cure, of the value of 8 l. and that he was Chaplain to the Earl of S. and obtained a Dispensation to accept of another Benefice, Modo sit within 10 Miles of the former, which was confirmed under the Great Seal. And it was found, That A. had accepted another Benefice with Cure 17 Miles distant from the first, and was Instituted and Inducted thereunto. Both the Benefices being within the Diocess of Lincoln. The Archbishop in his Visitation inhibited the Bishop of Lincoln not to execute any Jurisdiction during his Visitation. And it was found, That the Patron had omitted to Present to the first Benefice within the six Months, and that the Bishop of Lincoln within the second six Months collated the Lessor of the Plaintiff to the first Benefice, who was Admitted and Inducted. The Points in the

Caſe were, 1. If Si modo was a Condition in this Licenſe, and made the firſt Benefice void when he took the ſecond Benefice. 2. Whether the Biſhops Collating during the time of the Biſhops Viſitation, and after his Inhibition were good. This Caſe was argued in the Court by Civilians, and by the Judges: And it was holden, That although the words (Modo ſit) be uſually taken to be a Condition; but in Civil Law was only an Admonition or Caution, and for the great inconvenience which would enſue, that multitude of Benefices would be void by Lapps, which have bin quietly enjoyed. It was Reſolved, That it ſhould not in the Principal Caſe be taken to be a Condition; and then that the Benefice ſhould be void quoad the Patron, as the taking of a ſecond Benefice is by the Statute of 21 H. 8. And then the ſecond point of the Collation by the Biſhop in the time of Viſitation, and after the Inhibition will not be material. It was adjudged for the Defendant in the Ejectione firme. Trin. 11 Car. in B.R. Dodſon and Lyans Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 341.

3. A. was Preſented to a Benefice with Cure: and afterwards having purchaſed a qualification, he accepted another Benefice; and afterwards he accepted of the Arch-Deaconry of Glouceſter. B. Libelled againſt him in the Spiritual Court, and that by the acceptance of the Arch-Deaconry, the firſt Benefice was void. In this Caſe it was argued and holden by the Civilians, That their Law is, That if one having a Benefice of Cure of Souls, and accepts of an Arch-Deaconry, that the firſt Benefice is void. But Wray Chief Juſtice ſaid, That he conceived, that by the Statute of 21 H. 8. the Law is qualified by reaſon of a Proviſo there, ſcil. Provided, That no Deanary, Arch-Deaconry, &c. be taken or comprehended under the name of a Benefice, with Cure of Souls. Paſc. 31 Eliz. in B.R. Underhill and Savages Caſe. Leon. 316.

4. It hath bin a Queſtion, Whether the Preſentation of one man unto two ſeveral Advowſons, or living in one Church, each of them being above the value of 8 l. be a Plurality within the Statute of 21 H. 8. or at the Common Law or nor. It hath bin conceived, That it is not; firſt it is no Plurality by the Eccleſiaſtical Law, for that the words of the Canon Law are, Plurima Beneficia quibus animarum Cura ſalmiſſa eſt, non ſine gravi Eccleſiarum damno ab uno obtineri cum unus in pluribus Eccleſiis rite Officia per ſolvere, aut vibus earum neceſſariis, cum neceſſariam impendere nequeat. But in ſuch Caſe, the Parſon is not in pluribus Eccleſiis but in one Church. 2. When there are ſeveral Advowſons (as in this Caſe) one Parſon hath not the whole Church, nor the whole Cure of Souls. And the words of the Statute of 21 H. 8. are, If any Parſon having one Benefice with Cure of Souls, of the value of 8 l. accept and take another Benefice with Cure of Souls, &c. But in this Caſe he hath not one whole Benefice, nor hath he the whole Cure of Souls. And as in Caſe, If a Conſultation be made of three Churches, they are all now one Incumbency, although the Advowſons be ſeveral for the Patrons to Preſent by Turns; and the Writ ſhall be Quare Impedit preſentato ad Eccleſiam: For now upon the matter, there is but one Church, ſo in this Caſe, the Church upon the matter ſhall be but one, and the Incumbency but one, and ſo the ſame is no Plurality, either by the Common Law, or by the Statute of 21 H. 8. But Quære. See Hughes Parſons Law.

5. Another Queſtion hath bin, If a man be Parſon of a Church Impropriate with a Vicarage endowed, and he that is Parſon accept of a Preſentation to the Vicarage without Diſpenſation; Whether the ſame be a Plurality by the Canon, or by the Statute of 21 H. 8. It hath bin conceived, That although that they are ſeveral Advowſons, and that ſeveral Quare Impedits may be brought and maintained concerning their poſſeſſions. Yet that the Preſentment of one man unto the Patronage and Vicarage, neither before the ſaid Canon, nor ſince to be any Plurality, becauſe the Parſonage and Vicarage are but one Cure; and that appeareth by the Proviſo in the Statute of 21 H. 8. Provided, that no Parſonage that hath a Vicar endowing, be taken under the name of a Benefice with Cure of Souls. And 2. Becauſe the Parſonage and Vicarage are all but one, the Vicarage being endowed out of the Parſonage; and a man may be his own Vicar, and of this Opinion was Hobart Lord Chief Juſtice. Mich. 21 Jac. in C.B. in Woodly and Manwerings Caſe.

6. In an Ejectione firme upon a Special Verdict, the Caſe was three points. 1. When a Chaplin who is Benficed in a living above the value of 8 l. is Admitted and Inſtituted into another Benefice, and before Induction he gets a Qualification, and after is Inducted; If now the Benefice which he had firſt, be void. 2. When the Diſpenſation is entred in the Chancery in a pay book, and not enrolled, if that be ſufficient. 3. When a Parſon is Inhibited by the Archbiſhop, that he ſhall not entermeddle with the Benefice, by means whereof, the Parſon is abſent for the ſpace of 80 dayes. If ſuch abſence ſhall make a Leaſe made by the Parſon void. For the firſt point, it was Reſolved, That the Diſpenſation for qualification to have two Benefices, came too late. To the ſecond, Non fuit reſponſum: but to the third point, all the Juſtices agreed, that ſuch abſence doth not make the Leaſe void, but it muſt be a voluntary abſence; and this is not voluntary, by reaſon of an Inhibition. Hill. 43 Eliz. in C. B. Robbins and Princes Caſe. Goldsbr. 162.

7. Note, It was Reſolved by the Court upon a Special Verdict, That the Parſon ought to abide upon his Rectory, viz. the Parſonage houſe, and not in any other houſe, although it be within the ſame Pariſh; for the Statute is intended, not only for the ſerving of the Cure, and for Hoſpitality, but alſo for the maintaining of the houſes, not only for himſelf, but for his Succeſſors. But it was there agreed, That Impriſonment without Covin, was a good excuſe of non-reſidency; and ſo if there be not any Parſonage houſe there. And ſo alſo is ſickneſs without fraud. If the Patient bona fide remove by the advice of his Phyſitian, for better Ayre for the Recovery of his health.

8. It was Covenanted betwixt A. and B. That A. ſhould Preſent B. to the Church of D. and that afterwards B. ſhould leaſe the Parſonage to A. or to any other perſon named by him, and that the ſaid B. ſhould not be abſent by 80 dayes, and that he ſhould not reſign, and B. was bound to perform theſe Covenants, and afterwards B. was Preſented to the Benefice. A. brought an Action upon the Bond, pretending that he could not enjoy the Leaſe by reaſon of the abſence of the Parſon. The Leaſe was made to the Curate at the nomination of A. The Parſon pleaded, That the Obligation was void by the Statute of 14 Eliz. cap. 11. viz. all Leaſes made by any Curate ſhall be of no better force, than if they had bin made by the Benficed Parſon himſelf. It was ſaid, When a Parſon leaſeth to his Curate, who leaſeth over. The Statute doth not make the Leaſe void by any abſence of the Parſon, but of the Curate for 80 dayes. Quære, for it ſeemeth, That by the Statute of 14 Eliz. the Curate cannot Leaſe, &c. Paſc. 30 Eliz. in B. R. St. John and Petits Caſe. Leon. 100.

9. An Information was exhibited againſt two Parſons upon the Statute of 21 H. 8. The one of them pleaded ſickneſs, and by the advice of his Phyſitians, he removed into better Ayre for recovery of his health; this was holden Juſtifiable by the Court againſt the other. It was for taking a Farm: the other pleaded, That he took the Farm only for maintenance of his houſe and Family, this alſo was holden juſtifiable by the Court. Then it was moved to the Court, That the Plaintiff was a common Informer, and did prefer this Information againſt them for vexation, and to draw them to a compoſition, for which they had proſecuted againſt him an Indictment in the Countrey upon the Statute of 18 Eliz. to puniſh common Informers for abuſes, and prayed, that he might put in Sureties to anſwer Coſts. The Court ſaid, That that could not be done; but the Rule of the Court was, That the Defendants ſhould not anſwer the Information before the Informer appeared in perſon. Mich. 10 Jac. in B. Upon the Statute of 27 of Henry the 8th, Cap. 16. Of Inrollments.

1. A Man ſeiſed of Lands in Fee by Indenture 4. October, 4 and 5 Ma. ſold Lands in Fee, and after in the ſame Term, the 9th of the ſame Moneth, he bargained and ſold, and levyed a Fine of the ſame Lands to another in Fee: and after 21 Martii then following (which was the laſt day of the ſix Moneths, accounting 28 to the Moneth, and accounting the ſaid day of the date of the Indenture for none of them) the Indenture was enrolled in the Chancery. It was demurred in Law, which of the Bargainees ſhould have the Land. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the firſt Bargainee ſhould have the Land, becauſe by the firſt Bargain the uſe was altered before the Statute of Inrolments: And ſee there, from the date, which are the words of the Statute, are the ſame in ſenſe, as from the day of the date. Mich. 5 Eliz. Dyer, 218. Popham's Caſe.

2. A man ſeiſed of divers Mannors, and of divers Lands, part in Leaſe for years, part Copyhold, for valuable conſideration, Demiſed, Granted, Bargained and ſold to J. S. the ſaid Mannors and Lands, with all Rents reſerved upon any Demiſe, to have and to hold after the death of the Bargainor for 17 years, rendring a Roſe to his Heir; the Deed is acknowledged to be enrolled. Afterwards he Covenanted to ſtand ſeiſed of the ſaid Mannors, &c. to the uſe of himſelf and the Heirs of his body, no Attornment was to the Bargainees; and afterwards the Bargainor dyed, his Heir within age. In this Caſe (amongſt other things) it was Reſolved, That the Leſſees had election to take the ſame, either by Deviſe, or by Bargain and Sale; and if the Law ſhould enforce them to take by Demiſe, then they ſhould loſe the Rents reſerved upon the Leaſe for years.

But if the Intereſt paſs by Bargain and Sale, then there needed not any Attornment in the Caſe, becauſe that Statute of 27 H. 8. of Uſes, executes the poſſeſſion to the Uſe, and the Statute of 27 H. 8. of Inrollments, doth not extend to it, becauſe no Eſtates of Freehold paſſe, but only an Eſtate for years. 2. Reſolved, That this Election remained to the Leſſees notwithſtanding the alteration by the ſecond Indentures, and notwithſtanding the death of the Leſſor, or the Kings title of Wardſhip. Cook 2. Part, 36. Sir Rowland Heywards Caſe. See Cook 8. Part, 93. Foxes Caſe.

3. A man made a Leaſe for years, and afterwards Bargained and ſold the Reverſion to one and his Heirs; and before the Enrolment of the Deed, he levyed a Fine of the Lands to him and his Heirs, and afterwards the Deed was enrolled within the ſix Moneths. It was adjudged in this Caſe, That the Conuſee was in by the Fine, and not by the Indenture enrolled, for when the Feeſimple paſſed by the Fine to the Conuſee and his Heirs, the Inrolment of the Indenture of Bargain and Sale could not deveſt the Eſtate which was ſetled in him by the Fine. It is true, that Inrolment ſhall have relation from delivery of the Deed, but that is only to avoid mean Charges made to a ſtranger by the Bargainor after the delivery, and before the Enrolment, but not to deveſt an Eſtate lawfully ſetled in the Interim in the Bargainee himſelf. Cook 4. Part, 71. Hinds Caſe.

4. The Father, Tenant for life of a Copyhold, (where the Cuſtome was to have for two or three lives Succeſſivè) the Remainder to his eldeſt Daughter for life, the Remainder to his ſecond Daughter for life poſt mortem of the one and the other. The Father by Bargain and Sale enrolled, purchaſed the Inheritance of the Copyhold of the Lord, who levyed a Fine thereof to the Father and his Heirs; the Father dyed, his Son entred and levyed a Fine to the uſe of himſelf and his Wife, and to his Heirs, and dyed; ten years paſſed, the Wife entred. It was in this Caſe (amongſt other things) Reſolved, That the Bargain and Sale did not Deveſt the Eſtate of them in Remainder, becauſe the Lord did that which he lawfully might do, and the Copyholder accepted that which he lawfully might. And 3. Becauſe the Bargainee was in by the Statutes of Enrolments, and an Act of Parliament cannot do wrong. Cook 9. Part, 106. Margaret Pogers Caſe.

5. The Caſe was; A man Bargained and ſold Land by Indenture the eighth of July, 20 Jac. the Deed was acknowledged the tenth of July, the ninth of October following, the Bargainor ſuffered a Judgment in C. B. the eighteenth day of October the Indenture was enrolled. The Queſtion was, Whether the Bargainor was ſeaſed in Fee at the time of the Judgment. In this Caſe, Jones and Hide Chief Juſtice conceived, That the Bargainor ſhall be conceived to be ſeiſed untill the Enrolment, and that nothing paſſeth to the Bargainee untill the Enrollment; for it is quaſi Conditio precedens, and till it be performed, nothing veſts in the Bargainee. Cook Juſtice was of Opinion, That when the Inrolment is within the ſix Moneths, he is in ab initio, and the Fee veſts in the Bargainee ab initio; and that the Statute of 27 of H. 8. of Uſes, executes the poſſeſſion to the uſe, but that is not untill the Deed is enrolled, and when the Deed is enrolled, it veſts in him ab initio: And till Enrolment, the Bargainee hath Election whether he will take it by Deed or not; which is the reaſon, That if he himſelf in the interim takes an Eſtate by Feoffment or Fine, he himſelf deſtroyes the Uſe. But when he himſelf doth no act of Diſturbance, and the Enrolment is within the ſix Moneths, it ſhall relate to the date of the Deed; and then the Bargainee is ſeiſed the ſaid ninth of October, being the day of the Judgment, and not the Bargainor. Quære, for the point was not Reſolved. Hill. 4 Car. in B. R. Flower and Baldwin's Caſe. Cro. 11. Part, 158.

6. Note, It was agreed by the Court, That if a man Bargains and ſells his Lands by Indenture to be enrolled, and before the Deed enrolled, he makes a Livery to the Bargainee, that in that Caſe the Livery doth prevent the operation of the Enrollment, and the party ſhall be accounted in by the Livery, which is the more worthy ceremony to paſs Eſtates, then by the Bargain and Sale, and therefore it ſhall be preferred. Mich. 26 Eliz. in B. R. Stantley and Bratebridges Caſe. Leon. 5.

Upon

Upon the Statutes of 31 H. 8. cap. 1. And 32 H. 8. cap. 32. Of Partitions.

1. THree Coparceners of a Reverſion; one of them alliened her part; the particular Tenant dyed, the eldeſt Siſter entred into the whole. It was the Opinion of the Court in this Caſe, That the Grantee and the other Coparcener could not joyn in a Writ of Partition againſt the third, becauſe one of them is entituled by the Common Law, and the other by the Statute of 31 H. 8. But Quære in that Caſe, If the entry of the eldeſt Siſter doth not give Seiſin to the Grantee, as ſhe doth to the other, becauſe of the privity of blood. Hil. 3 Ma. Dyer, 128. See 7 Eliz. Dyer, 243. Mich. 7 and 8 Eliz. in Bendlies Reports. And ſee Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 175.

2. Tenant by Curteſy may have a Writ of Partition upon the Statute of 31 H. 8. cap 32. for although he be not Joynt-Tenant, nor Tenant in Common, yet becauſe that a Precipe lyeth againſt him, he is in equal Miſchief. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 175.

3. In a Writ of Partition brought upon the Statute, the Defendant ſhall not have his age. Trin. 14 Jac. in B. R. Poynts and Gibbons Caſe. Hob. 173. the reaſon is, becauſe he compelled to make Partition. But if the Partition be inequal, the ſame is avoidable only by entry if the Partition be without Writ; but if the Partition be by Writ, the ſame is unavoidable, although it be unequal. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 171.

4. Note, That it was adjudged, That Joynt-Tenants in Common who are compelled by Writ to make Partition, ought to purſue the Statutes, and cannot make Partition by word, becauſe the ſame remains at the Common as it was adjudged. Mich. 16 and 17 Eliz. in C. B. Rott. 1340. in Harris and Edens Caſe. But the Allience of one Coparcener may have a Writ of Partition againſt the other Coparcener, becauſe they are Tenants in Common. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 175.

5. Two Joynt-Tenants are Warranty; Partition is made betwixt them in a Writ of Partition eadem facienda. It was adjudged in that Caſe, That by force of the Statute of 31 H. 8. of Partition, the Warranty did remain. But if they make Partition by Deed after this Statute, then the Warranty is gone. Cook 6. Part, 12. in Maniers Caſe.

6. Out of the Court of Wards, this Caſe was referred to all the Juſtices and Barons of the Exchequer, viz. Two joynt-Tenants, and to their heirs, one of them makes a Conveyance to the uſe of himſelf, and his Wife, for a Joyncture, and the advancement of his ſon: Whether this be an Aſſurance within the Statute of 32 and 34 H. 8. ſo as the King ſhall have the third part; Sir Randolph Crew and the Lord Chief Baron were divided in their Opinions from all the other Juſtices, who conceived it to be out of the Statutes; for the words are, If any ſole ſeized, or ſeized joyntly with others, &c. in ſuch Caſe the Statute provides, That the King ſhall have the third part upon ſuch Conveyance; but where two are joyntly ſeized to them and their heirs, and the one makes a Conveyance, this is out of the Statute of 32 H. 8. and therefore it ought not to be within 34 H. 8. for that is a Statute of Explanation, and ſhall be conſtrued according to the words, and not with any Equity; for there cannot be an Explanation upon an Explanation: And ſo it was ſaid it was Reſolved in 43 Eliz. Paſch. 2 Car. in the Court of Wards. Cro. 1. Part, 23.

7. Sir Walter Lewſon made a Leaſe for 100 years for the payment of his debts, and the performance of his Will; and afterwards, conveyed the Inheritance to ſtrangers, and dyed, his Heir within age, the Lands being holden in Capite. It was Reſolved in that Caſe, That the King ſhould have the Wardſhip, or Livery, as the Caſe required, by reaſon of the particular Eſtate ſo created; and although the Heir hath nothing, yet the King ſhall not be prejudiced of that which is due to him. 2. It was holden, That whereas Sir Walter Lewſon conveyed the Land to Mary Curſon, wife of Sackville, being daughter and heir to his ſiſter, which ſiſter is now heir to him; That this Conveyance is not within the Statute of 32 & 34 H. 8. becauſe it is a more collateral line, alſo his ſiſter ſurvived him, ſo the daughter of his ſiſter was not his heir and ſuch Conveyance is out of the Statute of Marlbridge: And Drapers Caſe was cited in the Court of Wards, for the Wardſhip of B. the ſon of the daughter of Drater, to whom Draper had conveyed his Land, and dyed, and his daughter and heir the mother of B. ſurviving him; It was Reſolved he ſhould not be in Ward. Paſch. 5 Jac. in the Court of Wards: The Lord Buckhurſt, and Sir John Lewſons Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 157.

8. It was a Queſtion upon the Statute of 32 H. 8. If the Incumbent of a Church purchaſeth the Advowſon thereof in Fee, the Advowſon being holden holden in ſoccage, and deviſeth the Inheritance to another in Fee; Whether this be a good Deviſe of the next Avoydance, becauſe that inſtantly by his death, when his Will ſhould take effect, the Church is void, ſo a thing in Action, and not deviſable. But it was the Opinion of the Court, That it was good enough; for the Law is ſo, That all ſhall be good, according to the intent of the party, expreſſed in his Will. Paſch. 13 Jac. in B. R. Sir Edward Pynchon, and Doctor Harris Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 371.

9. A. F. and Eliz. his Wife, ſeized in Fee of the Mannor of D. in the right of the Wife, holden of the King by Knight-ſervice in Capite, 36 Eliz. levyed a Fine thereof, with a Remainder to them, and the heirs of the body of A. the Remainder to the right heirs of A. Afterwards 2 Jac. they levyed a Fine of that Mannor, ſur Conuſans de Droit, &c. to the uſe of themſelves for their lives, the Remainder to B. their firſt Son, in Tail, the Remainder to other of their ſons, the Remainder to the right heirs of A. B. the ſon being within age, Whether he ſhould be in Ward for his Land or body, was the Queſtion. It was Reſolved, That he ſhould not; becauſe the Eſtate limited to the Wife, is her ancient Eſtate, which ſhe had by the firſt Fine, which was extracted out of her own Inheritance; wherefore during her life, there is not any Wardſhip for the third part of the Body or Land; for the Husband was not ſole ſeized at the time of the ſecond Conveyance made, ſo out of the intent of the Statute of 34 H. 8. Mich. 3 Jac. in Cur. Ward. Fleyers Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 294.

10. It was found by Office in London, 5 Sept. 9 Jac. That A. was ſeized in his Demeſne, as of Fee of five Meſſuages and Tenements, with the appurtenances, in the Pariſh of C. London, and 1600. made his Will in Writing, and thereby gave to B. his ſon, and the heirs of his body, the ſaid Meſſuages, the Remainder in Tail to C. his ſon; and ſo being thereof ſeized, dyed 1 May 1602. the ſaid B. his ſon and heir, being found to be of the age of 15 years, and the Land being holden by Soccage in Capite, and that B. his ſon and heir is now of full age of 21 years. The Queſtion was, if any Livery ought to be ſued, and of how much. The Judges did Reſolve, That if the ſaid Lands were deviſeable by the Cuſtome of the City, then all paſſing by the Deviſe, no Livery ought to be ſued of any part, no more then if all had been conveyed by Act executed within the Statute of 32 H. 8. Whereupon it was Ordered, That a Bill ſhould be exhibited, to the intent that a Certificate might be had of the ſaid Cuſtome, which was done accordingly; which was certified to have been accordingly, and divers Preſidents ſhewed of ſuch Certificates: Whereupon the Certificate being found, It was prayed, That the ſame might be allowed, which was done accordingly, and a Decree thereupon. 11. A man ſeized of a Mannor holden by Knight ſervice, made a Feoffment of the Moyety thereof before marriage, to the uſe of himſelf for life; and after, to the uſe of a woman whom he intended to marry, for her Joynture, the marriage took effect; and afterwards, he leaſed the other moyety to A. and B. for years, for payment of his Debts and Legacies; and afterwards he deviſed portions by his Will to his younger ſons, and dyed, his heir within age. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That for as much as the advancement of his Wife is within the ſaid Statute, as payment of his debts, and preferment of his children, that although that the eſtate of the Wife hath the precedence, yet the Kings third part ſhall be taken equally out of both moyeties, and not out of the moyetie ſo deviſed only. Cook 8. Part, 175. Virgil Parkers Caſe.

Upon the Statute of 32 H. 8. cap. 28. Of Leaſes made by Tenant in Tail, by Eccleſiaſtical Perſons, and by Husband and Wife: And what ſhall be good Leaſes, what not; What warranted by the ſaid Statute, what not; And of Leaſes upon the Statute of 13 Eliz. by Eccleſiaſtical perſons.

1. A Tenant in Tail, before the Statute of 32 H. 8. was bound in a Recognizance to him in the Remainder, That he ſhould not make any Eſtate longer then for his own life. It was holden, That if after the Statute he makes a Leaſe for 21 years, or three lives, that in ſuch Caſe he ſhall forfeit his Recognizance, but yet he in the Remainder ſhall not avoid the Leaſe made according to the Statute, if the Tenant in Tail dyeth without Iſſue, for that ſo was the intent of the makers of the Statute. 2. Sir Thomas Wyatt Tenant in Tail to him, and the heirs males of his body, of the gift of the King, made a Leaſe for 30 years to Auſten, rendring 20 s. rent to him, his heirs, and aſſignes, and dyed, having Iſſue, who accepted the Rent, and after, was attainted of Treaſon, and executed, having his ſon in life, and the King accepted the Rent. Note, It was the Opinion of the Court in that Caſe, That for inconvenience of two Feeſimples to be in the King, which cannot be: It was holden, That the King was in point to enter, and ſo the Leaſe was void, and the Kings acceptance could not make it good. Paſch. 3 Eliz. Dyer 115. Sir Thomas Wyatts Caſe. See Cook 7. Part, 8. in the Earl of Bedfords. That becauſe in this Caſe, the King had avoided the Leaſe, but as to Primer Seiſin, that after Livery made, it is in the Election of the Iſſue in Tail, by acceptance of the Rent, to have affirmed the Leaſe, becauſe that the Leaſe was avoided by the King, but for part of the Term. See Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 46. acc.

3. A. purchaſed Lands to him, and his Wife, and their heirs: Afterwards, A. without his Wife, let the Land to L. T. for 60 years, if they lived ſo long, rendring 280 l. per annum at two Feaſts: H. dyed, The Queſtion was, If this Leaſe ſhould binde the Wife, by the Statute of 32 H. 8. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That it ſhould binde her; for the body of the Act is, That all Leaſes made of Land, which the Husband is ſeized of in the right of his Wife, of Inheritance, or jointly with his Wife by purchaſe, during the Coverture, or before, ſhall be good and effectual, and that the Wife ſhall have ſuch remedy for the Rent as he that made the Leaſe: But then it was ſaid, That it appeared upon the Evidence, That anciently the Land was in Leaſe, and occupied by two Tenants, the one paid 60 l. and the other 180 l. and ſo for both, 240 l. yearly; and now they are joyned in one Leaſe, and 280 l. yearly reſerved, which is more by 40 l. a year then both Leaſes were before: Whether this was a good Leaſe within the Statute: It was not Reſolved, but the matter was compounded. Mich. 1. Car. in B. R. Smith and Sanders Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 15. See Cook 6. Rep. 6. The Lord Mountjoyes Caſe.

4. Note, It was agreed by the Juſtices, That Leaſes by which the Eſtate and Intereſt of ſtrangers ſhall be charged or charged, ſhall be taken ſtrictly, becauſe they extend to the defeating or charge of the eſtate of a third perſon; and to that purpoſe, the Caſe was; This Hen. Earl of Suſſex, ſeiſed of the Manor of Bernham in Eſſex, to the uſe of himſelf for life; and afterwards, to the uſe of the Counteſs of Suſſex for life, with divers Remainders over: Proviſo, That it ſhould be lawful to the Earl to make Leaſes for 21 years, rendring the ancient Rent, &c. And afterwards, the Earl made a Leaſe of the ſaid Manor for 21 years, to begin at the Feaſt of S. Mich. then following; and although the power was general, to make Leaſes for 21 years, without being reſtreined to make them in poſſeſſion, or any number of years, but generally, to make Leaſes for 21 years. Yet it was adjudged in that Caſe, That the Leaſe was void: For 1. If by the ſaid Power, he may make any future Leaſe, or Leaſe in Reverſion, then he may make a Leaſe for 21. in poſſeſſion; and afterwards, infinite Leaſes in Reverſion for 21 years, which ſhall be contrary to the meaning of the Parties. 2. Becauſe that for as much as this Proviſo gave power to charge the Eſtate of a third perſon, with a Term of 21 years; ſuch Proviſo ſhall be taken ſtrictly, and ſhall not extend beyond the letter and meaning of the parties. Mich. 28 Eliz. in B. R. Lepar and Wroths Caſe. Leon, 35. See the Caſe vouched in Cook 6. Part, 33. in Fitzwilliams Caſe. But ſee it more certain, and at large, in Leon, 35.

5. Error was brought to reverſe a Judgment given in a Writ of Partition: The Error aſſigned was, That there are two Statutes of Partition, viz. 31 H. 8. cap. 1. and 32 H. 8. cap. 32. And the party doth not ſhew in his Writ upon which of the Statutes he grounds his Action. Another Error was, That the Declaration doth ſhew, Quod tenent proindiviſo, and doth not ſhew what Eſtate they held; and the one Statute gives partition of an Eſtate of Inheritance, and another which gives partition for years, or for life. Tamfield and Suit Juſtice: The Writ is, Quod recuſat facere partitionem contra formam Statuti in hoc caſu proviſo; and that is according to the Statute, and good; for be the Eſtate an Eſtate of Inheritance, Freehold, or Leaſe for years, we leave it indifferent, to be referred to the conſideration of the Law. Gawdy Juſtice was of Opinion, That the Writ is to be deviſed upon his or their caſe or caſes; and therefore the party ought to ſhew his caſe in ſpecial, and what Eſtate he hath: And it is no anſwer, That the Plaintiff cannot know the Eſtate of the Defendant; for in a Practipe at the Common Law, he ought to take notice of the Eſtate of the Tenant, otherwiſe his Writ ſhall abate, for the miſpriſion of it: for if he bring not upon one Statute againſt a Tenant, it is not good; and if the Statute of 31 H. 8. had only been made, and not the Statute of 32 H. 8. If he had brought a Writ upon that Statute, he ought to have ſhewed, that he had an Eſtate of Inheritance, againſt whom he brought the Writ: Quare, The Caſe was not Reſolved. Mich. 29 Eliz. in B. Upon the Statutes of 32 H. 8. cap. 1. and 34 H. 8. cap. 5. Of Wills, Deviſes, Words, &c.

1. A Man ſeiſed of Lands in Fee holden in Socage, lying ſick, ſent for a man Learned in the Law, to make his Will; who took Notes of him of his Will, and afterwards put the ſame in Writing; and afterwards the Deviſor dyed before the Will was read unto him. It was the Opinion of the Court, That it was a good Will in Writing to convey Socage Land, within the Statute of 32 H. 8. And ſee, That Articles being read to the Deviſor of his Will, and written after his death, was adjudged to be a good Will within the ſaid Statute. 4 and 5 Eliz. in Hinton's Caſe. See 6 E. 6. Dyer, 72.

2. A man by his Will did intend to deviſe lands to J. S. for life, the Remainder thereof to J. S. and before the Writing of the Remainder, the Deviſor dyed. In that Caſe it was adjudged, That the Deviſe was void for the whole, within 32 H. 8. Becauſe the one did depend upon the other: But it was agreed, That if a man ſeized of two Acres in Soccage, and by his Will intends one Acre to J. S. and the other Acre to J. D. and for one Acre the Deviſe is put in Writing, and afterwards the Deviſor dyeth, before the Deviſe of the other Acre is put in Writing. It was holden, That it was a good Deviſe for the Acre which was put in Writing, but not for the other. Trin. 11 Jac. in C. B. Caſar and Lakes Caſe.

3. A man ſeized of Lands holden in Soccage, deviſed Lands to his Wife, upon condition to bring up his eldeſt ſon; and after the deceaſe of his wife, to his ſecond in Tail; the Wife did not educate the ſon, the eldeſt ſon entred upon her. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That a Condition might be annexed to a Will by this Statute, which gives liberty to a man to Deviſe Lands for the advancement of his Wife, payment of his Debts, &c. and that a particular Eſtate may be without a condition, although the Remainder be without a Condition. And in this Caſe it was Reſolved, That although the Remainder be without condition, yet he ſhall not take advantage of the breach of it; but the heir becauſe he is prejudiced in the Inheritance by the Deviſe. Hill. 3 Mar. Dyer, 127. Warren and Lee Caſe.

4. A. and B. his Wife, Joynt-Tenants of Lands in Fee, ſuffered a Recovery 23 H. 8. which Recovery was averred to be to the uſe of the Husband, his Heirs, and Aſſigns: Afterwards, in 24 H. 8. he deviſed the ſaid Lands to his Wife for life, the Remainder over, &c. and 37 H. 8. he dyed. It was holden in this Caſe, That the Deviſe was void; for the Deviſe was not within the Statute of 1 R. 3. to convey the poſſeſſion till the Statute of 27 H. 8. which did transfer the uſe into poſſeſſion, which was a Countermand of the Deviſe, by drawing the uſe in the poſſeſſion; and the poſſeſſion could not be deviſed, till the Statute of 32 H. 8. was made, which enabled to Deviſe the poſſeſſion; ſo that by reaſon of the weakneſs of the foundation, the Deviſe was adjudged void ab initio: But if the Will had been publiſhed again after the Statute of 32 H. 8. made, then it had been a good Will, and a good Deviſe. Paſch. 4 Mar. Dyer, 143. Trinitans Caſe.

5. A man ſeized of a Wharf and Houſe in London, holden in Burgage, deviſed the ſame to his Wife, and her Heirs, upon Condition that the wife by the advice of Learned Counſel, and in convenient time, ſhould aſſure all the ſaid Lands for the maintenance of a Free-ſchool, &c. and that his Wife during her life, ſhould have the profits of the Lands, bearing the charges of the School, &c. and made his Wife his Executrix, and dyed, who entred, and made a Leaſe of the Lands for years: In this Caſe (amongſt other things) was Reſolved, That the Statute of 23 H. 8. did not extend to take away charitable uſes, but only extended to ſuperſtitious uſes. 2. Reſolved, That the Statute of 32 and 34 H. 8. of Wills, did take away the force of the Act of 23 H. 8. for that the words are, That all and every perſon, having any Eſtate in Fee ſimple, may diſpoſe, &c. And it was ſaid, That by theſe words, Companies not Incorporate, are included, and not excepted out of the ſaid Statute of 32 H. 8. Cook 1. Part, 25. Pelet's Caſe.

6. A. ſeiſed of the Manner of Toby, and A. and his Wife ſeiſed of the Manner of Hinton, to them and to the heirs of their two bodies, by an Eſtate made to them during the Coverture, for the Joynture of the Wife, the Reverſion to A. in Fee; Toby being and amounting to the value of two parts, and Hinton to the third part, both holden in Capite: A. by his Will Deviſed the Manner of Toby to his Wife for life, upon Condition, that ſhe ſhould not take her former Joynture in Hinton, with divers Remainders over: The wife in the Court did waive by word her Eſtate in Hinton, and agreed to the Mannor of Toby, and entred into that: And, If the Deviſe was good for the whole Mannor of Toby, or but for part of it, was the Queſtion, upon theſe Statutes of 32 and 34 of H. 8. of Wills. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, amongſt other things, That the Deviſor had not power to Deviſe the whole Mannor of Toby by the Statutes; 1. Becauſe the Deviſor was not a perſon [having] within the Statute; for every perſon ought to be a perſon [having] at the time of the making of his Will, and in this caſe; and the Deviſor had not the Mannor of Hinton, but he and his wife had it, betwixt whom are no moyties, ſo as that he was not Owner. 2. The Deviſe was not good, becauſe the Deviſor had not a ſole Eſtate in the Mannor of Hinton, neither at the time of the making of his Will, nor at the time of his death, but joyntly with his Wife, and ſhe could not diſagree during the Coverture. 3. The Deviſe was not good, becauſe by the Statute, the King ought to have the clear value of the third part, without any diminution; but by this Deviſe, the King ſhould have but a poſſibility for his third part; viz. to have the Mannor of Hinton if the Wife, would diſagree, and the Statute hath been conſtrued, that equality ſhall be obſerved, and with equality avoided. Cook 3. Part, 33, 34. Butler & Bakers Caſe.

7. A man ſeiſed of a Reverſion in Fee expectant upon an Eſtate tail, in conſideration of blood, Covenanted to ſtand ſeiſed of the Reverſion, to the uſe of his Neece; and afterwards Tenant in tail in poſſeſſion dyed. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the King ſhould not have Primer Seiſin by the Statutes of 32 and 34 H. 8. 2. It was Reſolved, That the ſaving of Wardſhip and Primer Seiſin in the Statute of 32 H. 8. ſhould have Relation only to acts executed, and not to Wills; for always in Statutes, relation ſhall be according to the matter precedent. But in an Act executed, he may convey all, and therefore, It was neceſſary to add the ſaid Saving as to that. 2. It was Reſolved, If Grandfather, Father, and two Sons be, and the Grandfather in the life of the Father conveyeth his Lands to any of the ſons, the ſame is out of the Statute of 32 H. 8. for the ſame is not vulgar, nor uſual; and the Father ought to have the immediate care of his ſons and Heirs. But if the Father be dead, then the Care of them doth appertain to the Grandfather, and then if he doth Convey any of his Lands to any of the ſaid ſons, the ſame is within the Statute. Cook 6. Part, 76, 77. Sir George Curſons Caſe.

8. A man ſeiſed of 3. Acres of Lands of equal value, the one holden in Capite, and he Deviſeth the Acre holden in Capite, & one of the other Acres to his youngeſt ſon in tail; & afterwards purchaſeth other Lands holden in Socage. In this caſe, theſe Points were Reſolved; 1. That the Reverſion of the Acre holden in Capite upon the Eſtate tail, did reſtrain the Deviſe of the whole Socag. Land newly purchaſed by the words of the Stat. of 34 H. 8. Cap. 5. becauſe the ſame is (holden). 2. Reſolved, That a Reverſion in Fee expectant upon an Eſtate tail, Seek or Frunleſſe, is an Hereditament within the Statute of 34 H. 8. becauſe that although the Reverſion in preſent be not of any value, yet the Land it ſelf is of annual value, and therefore ſuch a Reverſion is deviſeable: And Hereditaments which in their natures are not valuable, are within the Statute of 34 H. 8. and if they be holden in Capite, ſhall reſtrain the Deviſe of the Mannor, &c. and ſhall make them void for a third part; for the Hereditament holden by Knight-Service in Capite, needs not to be deviſeable. 3. Reſolved, That the time of the Having, time of the Holding, and the time of the Diſpoſing, ought to concur together in the perſon who deviſeth. Cook 10. Part, 82. Leonard Lovies Caſe.

9. A. with his proper money purchaſed Lands holden in Capite to him and an Enfant, and to their Heirs. It was Reſolved, That this purchaſe could not be averred to be by Colluſion, to take away Wardſhip which might accrue after his death, becauſe he was never ſole Tenant, nor in reſpect of Survivorſhip, any Wardſhip or Primer Seiſin could accrue to the King. 2. Reſolved, That no Feoffment which A. ſhould make, could be averred to be by Colluſion, to take away Wardſhip or Primer Seiſin after his death, becauſe if no Feoffment was made, no benefit could accrue to the King by his death. 3. Reſolved, That when the Father makes a Feoffment for the advancement of his Wife, preferment of his Children, or payment of his debts, the ſame cannot be averred to be by Covin, and to give cauſe to the King to ſeize the whole Land. 4. Reſolved upon the Statutes of 32 & 34 H. 8. That in all Caſes when the Kings Tenant Conveyes his Lands for years, life, or in tail, to his Children; or when a ſtranger is joyned with the Heir in tail, or when a Remainder is limited in Fee, or when an Eſtate is declared by Will, that in all ſuch caſes by the Statute of 34 H. 8. Covin may be averred for the King, but only for a third part, becauſe the Statutes have enabled him to convey two parts at his will and pleaſure. Cook 8. Part, 164, 165. Mights Caſe.

10. In Treſpaſſe, the Caſe was; A. was ſeiſed in Fee of the Mannors of I. and S. and by his Will Deviſed the ſame to B. his Son for life; the remainder to the firſt ſon of the ſaid B. in tail, the remainder to his ſecond ſon, the remainder to his third ſon, the Remainder to D. his brother of the Deviſor: Proviſo, That if his ſon go about to make any alienation or diſcent, by which the premiſſes cannot remain and come as formerly is appointed by the Will, otherwiſe then is for Joynture for any of their Wives for life onely, or Leaſes for 21 years, whereupon the old and accuſtomed Rent ſhall be reſerved; then ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit his Eſtate. A. dyed, B. his ſon built a new Houſe upon the Land, and 4 Mariæ, Leaſed to C. for 21 years, rendring the ancient Rent; And afterwards, 2 Eliz. levied a Fine of the ſaid Manor and Lands; and 5 Eliz. he made a Joynture to his Wife in this manner; viz. he Covenanted with others to ſtand ſeiſed to the uſe of himſelf and his Wife for their lives, and afterwards to the uſe of his right Heirs. And afterwards, 18 Eliz. he Leaſed the Land to J. S. and his Wife for 23 years, to begin preſently (which was a year before the Leaſe made to C. expired). It was ſaid in this Caſe, That B. had power and authority, not being but Tenant for life, to make a Leaſe for years, or a Joynture; for his meaning was, to give a power as well as an Eſtate; for otherwiſe, the word otherwiſe, ſhould be void. 2. The Queſtion was, If this Joynture was good, or not; for if it be void, then the Leaſe made, ſtands good. It was ſaid, That the Joynture was void, and then the Leaſe ſtood good: for an Uſe cannot riſe out of power, but may riſe out of an Eſtate of the Teſtator, and out of his Will. It was Objected, That a year before the Leaſe made to C. expired, the Leaſe was made to J. S. to begin preſently; and therefore it was not good, for ſo he might make Leaſes in infinitum. To that it was ſaid, That the Leaſe here was good enough, for this Leaſe is to begin preſently, and ſo no charge to him in the Reverſion; as in the Caſe of Fox and Collier; and a Biſhop makes a Leaſe for 3. years after the expiration of a former Leaſe to begin preſently. It was adjudged a good Leaſe to bind the Succeſſor. And it was ſaid, That if Tenant in tail Leaſeth to begin at Mich. next enſuing, It is a good Leaſe by the Statute of 32 H. 8. So is a Leaſe for 10 years, and after for 21 years, and yet the Statutes are in the Negative: but in the principal Caſe, the power is in the Affirmative, and the Inheritance is not charged in the whole with more then 21 years. Wherefore the Opinion was, That the Leaſe was good. Trin. 31 Eliz. in B.R. Read and Naſh's Caſe. Leon. 147 148.

11. The Statute of 32 H. 8. Cap. 28. of Leaſes, is an enabling Statute to ſome perſons; and therefore by that Statute, a Biſhop by his Deed without the Dean and Chapter; a Parſon ſeiſed in the right of his Church, may make Leaſes of their poſſeſſions; but then ſuch Leaſes muſt be made under theſe Proviſoes following; viz. 1. The Leaſe muſt be made in writing by Deed Indented, and not by word, Cook 5. Part, Inſtitutes, 44 b. 2. The Leaſe muſt begin from the day of the date thereof, or from the making thereof, Cook 5. Part, the Lord Mountjoyes Caſe. 3. The Ancient Leaſe muſt be ſurrendred, expired, or ended within one year at the making of the ſecond Leaſe. Cook. 5. Part, 2. Elmers Caſe. And ſuch Surrender muſt be abſolute and not conditionall. 4. There muſt not be a double Leaſe in being at one time. 5. The Leaſe muſt not exceed 21. years or 3 Lives, from the making thereof. 6. The Leaſe muſt be of Lands or Tenements out of which a Rent may be reſerved, Cook 5. Part, 3. Fermes Caſe. 7. The Leaſe muſt be of Lands and Tenements which commonly have been letten to Farm for 20 years before the Leaſe made. Cook 6. Part, 37. The Dean and Chapter of Worceſter's Caſe. 8. There muſt be reſerved to them and their Succeſſors, ſo much yearly Rent, or more, as hath been accuſtomably uſed to be paid for the ſaid Lands or Tenements, within 20 years before the Leaſe made. And, 9. The Statute of 32 H.8. doth not extend to any Leaſe to be made without impeachment of Waſte.

12. The Wardens and Fellowes of All-Soul's Colledg in Oxford, Leaſed Lands to J. S. To have and to hold from the Feaſt of the Annunciation next following, to the end and Term of 20 years; The Leaſe bore date 1. July, 10 Eliz. And made a Letter of Attorney to J. D. to enter into the Manor, and to ſeal and deliver the ſaid Deed of Leaſe in their names to the Plaintiff J. S: J. D. by force thereof entred into part of the Demiſed premiſſes, and did there ſeal and deliver the ſame. But it was not found, That there was not any Manor. It was Objected, That becauſe the Letter of Attorney was to enter into the Manor, and all the Lands and Tenements of the Colledg in ſuch a Town, and to ſeal and deliver a Leaſe in the name of the Leſſor, and to deliver it to the Plaintiff as their Deed, That the Attorney in executing the Warrant had not purſued it, for that he only entred into the Lands; and it is not found, that he entred into the Manor. But it was holden by the Court, That it doth not appear upon the Special Verdict, but that the Colledg was in poſſeſſion at the time of the Leaſe made, and then there needed not any ſuch Entry, but the bare ſealing and delivery of the Deed, had been good enough. And it doth not appear by the Verdict, That the Colledg had any Manor, and then the Caſe is no other, but that a man Leaſeth a Manor, and certain Lands in D. and makes a Letter of Attorney to make Livery of them, where he hath nothing in the Manor, the ſame is a good Livery, and the Authority well executed. But if it had been, That the Colledg had ſuch a Manner there, then the Entry into the Land only, without meddling with the Manner, and the Livery made accordingly, ſhould not have been good. Mich. 33 Eliz. in C. B. Carter and Cleycock's Caſe. Leon. 306.

Upon the Statute of 31 H. 8. Cap. 7. and 37 H. 8. Cap. 12. and 2 Ed. 6. Cap. 13. of Tythes.

1. THe Prior of St. John of Jeruſalem, had a Priviledg from Rome, That he ſhould not pay Tythes for any Land which propriis manibus aut ſumptibus excolant: It was Reſolved notwithſtanding, That upon the Statute of 31 H. 8. that their Fermors ſhould pay Tythes. And in that Caſe, It was holden, That if before the Statute of Diſſolution, the Prior had made a Leaſe for years, and the King after the diſſolution had granted the Reverſion; It was holden, That if the Term expired, the Patentee ſhould hold the Lands diſcharged of payment of Tythes, ſi propriis manibus excolit: But if he make a Leaſe for years, his Leſſee ſhall pay Tythes. 10 Eliz. Dyer 278. See Cook 2. Part, 44. in the Biſhop of Canterburies Caſe.

2. Lands in the hands of an Abbot, and of the Fermors of an Abbot, were, time out of mind, &c. charged but with the Tythe of Lamb and Wool; and now the Parſon ſued to have Tythe in kind of Hay and Corn. It was holden in that Caſe, That a Prohibition ſhould be granted; for that they were diſcharged of payment of Tythes in kind, by the Statute of 31 H 8. Paſch. 28 Eliz. Dyer, 349. Parſon of Pyke's Caſe.

3. In an Attachment upon a Prohibition in the Common Pleas; upon a Suit for the Tythes of 22 Acres of Lands, within the Pariſh of T: the Plaintiff pretended, That they were diſcharged of Tythes: Upon a Special Verdict, it was found, That the Prior of Mountague was Patron of the Church of F; and 20 H. 8. the King gave Licence to the Prior, to appropriate the ſaid Church into their own hands; 21 H. 8. the Church was appropriate to them; the Church being then full, 27 H. 8. the Appropriation was confirmed by the Dean and Chapter, and afterwards the Incumbent dyed; and ſo the Prior was ſeiſed of the ſaid Church, and of the ſaid 22 Acres of Lands ſimul et ſemel, and ſo continued till the Stat. of 31 H. 8. of Diſſolution; & no Tythes paid for the 22 Acres, untill 1 Maria. And, If this unity of poſſeſſion was ſufficient to diſcharge the Land from the payment of Tythes, was the Queſtion? And it was adjudged, It was not. And in that caſe, amongſt other Points, it was Reſolved, That unity of the Parſonage and Lands which ſhould pay Tythes by Appropriation or otherwiſe in the hands of Eccleſiaſtical and Religious perſons, had diſcharged them from the payment of Tythes; and by the Stat. of 31 H. 8. ſuch an unity of poſſeſſion ſhall be a diſcharge for the Kings Patentee, from the payment of Tythes for the Lands which came to the Crown by the ſaid Statute: But then ſuch an Unity muſt have had theſe 4. Qualifications; It muſt have been Juſta, Libera, Æqualis, Perpetua. 1. It muſt have been Juſta, claimed by right; for if either the Parſonages, Vicarages, Lands, or Tythes, had come or been united to their houſes by Diſſeiſins, or other unlawful acts, ſuch an Unity had not been a good diſcharge within the Statute. 2. It muſt have been Libera, free from the payment of any Tythes: For if their Fermors, Tenants at Will or for Years, had paid Tythes, it had not been a ſufficient Unity. 3. It muſt have been Æqualis, there muſt have been a Fee-ſimple both in the Lands and in the Tythes in them; For if the Abbots, Priors, &c. had held but by Leaſe, it had not been ſuch an Unity as the Statute intended. And, 4. It muſt have been Perpetua; ſcil. time out of mind, &c. and then for the infinite impoſſibility, and impoſſible infiniteneſs, That ſuch Immunities and Diſcharges which ſuch Religious perſons and houſes had before the ſaid Statute of 31 H. 8. time out of memory could not be known, ſuch an Unity had been a good diſcharge in their own hands; and ſuch an Unity is a good diſcharge in the Kings Patentee from the payment of Tythes, within the Statute of 31 H. 8. Cook 11. Part, 13, 14, 15. Pridle and Nappers Caſe. See Mich. 15 Jac. in C.B. Slade and Drake's Caſe, Hob. 195. to 200.

4. Action upon the Statute of 2 E. 6. for not ſetting forth of Tythes; and declares, That the Plaintiff was ſeiſed of a Portion of Tythes of Corn and Hay, growing upon ſuch a Grange; and that the Defendant was occupier of 41 Acres of Land ſowed with Wheat, and Rie and Barley, and reaped the Corn, and carried it away without ſetting forth of Tythes, and that the Tythes were worth 40 s. and the treble value 6 l. for which he brought his Action. Being upon Nihil debet found for the Plaintiff, It was moved, That the Declaration ration was not good, for that he entitles himself to a portion of Tythes being a Lay-person, and doth not shew how; and it being a profit apprender in another's Soile, he ought to make a good Title to himself. But the Exception was disallowed, for that the Action is grounded upon the Tort, for not setting out of the Tythes; and the Seisin in Fee is but a Conveyance, and for this Action he need not to make a Title: And it is usuall, that the Plaintiff bring the Action as Firmarius vel proprietarius, without shewing any particular Title; and it differs from the Case of Assignment of Tythes, for there he ought to make Title. 2. It was said, That it was not good, Because it is not shewed what was the quantity of every grain in Specie, for here it is incertain, and the Court knowes not how to judge of it: But non allocatur. For he shews what the Tythes were worth, and the wrong is supposed by carrying them away, which is sufficient. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff, Mich. 15 Jac. in B. R. Sanders and Sanford's Case. Cro. 2. Part, 437, 438.

5. In a Prohibition, the Case was, That an Abbot having a Privilege to be discharged of Tythes, quamdiu manibus propriis in 4 E. 4. made a Guift in tail; and 31 H. 8. the Abby was dissolved: The Question was, Whether the Donee of the Issue in tail should be discharged? It seemed to the Court, That he should not be discharged; for the Statute dischargeth none, but as the Abbot was discharged at the time of the Dissolution, so they must claim the Estate and Discharge under the Abbot, since the Statute; So if by a Common Recovery, the Reversion had been barred before or after the Statute. But if the Land had returned to the Abbot or King before or after the Statute, it had been otherwise. Mich. 16 Jac. in C. B. Farmer and Sheremans Case, Hob. 248.

6. It was moved for a Prohibition to the Spiritual Court, upon a Libell there for Tythe of Underwood, by reason of a Prescription in Non Decimando for the Wilde of Kent, this Wood growing there: And the reasons alledged for the Prohibition, were, 1. That a whole Country generally may prescribe in Non Decimando, in a particular place. And, 2. The Statute of 2 E. 6. in the 8th Proviso, gives life unto this Prescription for this particular place and Precinct. But it was Resolved, That no Prohibition should be granted in this Case. It was agreed, That a whole Country may prescribe in Non Decimando. See Doctor and Student, 166. but that is with this Proviso, so as there is besides sufficient maintenance for the Parson; otherwise it is not good. 2. It was said, That the Statute of 2 E. 6. helps not at all in this Case. And whereas it hath been said, That the Conquror never Conquered this place; this is but Historicall and Apocryphall, for he was a Conquerour by Composition had. It was also said, It is true, That in former time long since, this place in Kent was not Tytheable, because there was no wood there but great Timber-Trees, which were not Tytheable; but these being now cut down, wasted, and destroyed, this place which was not Tytheable before, being now underwood, and converted into Pasture, Tythe shall be there paid; unless the same be within the Proviso of the Statute of Exemption from payment for a time after the Melioration of the same; otherwise Tythes shall be paid presently. It was Resolved, That no Prohibition should be granted in this Case. Mich. 12 Jac. in B. R. Roffill and Rutchaft's Case. Bulst. 2. Part, 235.

7. Note, by the Justices; If Lands holden of J. S. be given to an Abbot and his Successors, or to any other Corporation; In such case, if the Abbot and all the Covent dye, so as the Body Corporate is dissolved, the Donor shall have the Lands again, and not the Lord by Escheat, because in case of a Body Politique or Corporate, the Fee-simple is vested in them in their Politick Capacity. The principal Case was; A Prescription was laid in Abbot and Covent; and it appeared, That the Body was dissolved, because all the Monks dyed, and the Lands came to Lay-mens hands. And it was Resolved by the Court, That the Prescription was determined, and the parties should pay Tythes in kind. Mich. 11 Jac. in C. B. The Dean and Canons of Windsor, and Webb's Case. Godbolt, 211.

8. The Statute of 13 Eliz. Cap. 6. is, That no Master and Fellowes of a Colledg in Cambridg or Oxford, shall make any Lease for life or years of any of their Lands and Tenements, unless a third part at the least, of the Ancient Rent be reserved and payed in Corn for the said Colledge, otherwise the Lease to be void. In an Ejectione Firmæ brought of a Lease made of the Rectory of St. Lawrence Church in London: The Question was, Whether the Lease were void, or not, because Tythes in London do not consist of such things, but only in money, according to the Decree concerning Tythes in London? It was holden by the Court in this Case, That the Lease was good, notwithstanding the defect in the special Reservation which is limited and appointed by the said Statute. And in that Case, It was said and agreed, That a Lease of a House, Mill, Ferry, were out of the Statute. And it was agreed, That the Statute ought to be intended of Tythes of Common right, and not of such Customary Tythes, as those in London; And therefore, If all Parishioners posſcribe in a modo Decimandi, ſcil. to pay a certain ſum of money for all manner of Tythes upon demiſe of ſuch a Rectory, ſuch a Reſervation is not neceſſary; for theſe are Tythes againſt right, and no Tythes are within that Statute, but thoſe which are annuall. Upon the Statute of 5 Eliz. Cap. 4. Of Labourers and Apprentices.

1. NOte: It was agreed by the Juſtices, That the juſtices of the Peace ought not to Certifie into the Chancery, their agreement made upon Servants Wages, Six moneths after Eaſter; according to the Statute of 5 Eliz. of Labourers; upon a penalty of 10 l. and that by the expreſſe words and meaning of the Statute. 32 Eliz. Dyer 265.

2. G. brought a Writ of Errour againſt B; The Caſe was, That B. brought a Replevin in the Court of Ludlow (which is a Court of Record) againſt G. tam pro Domina Regina quam pro ſuipſo, upon the Statute of 4 and 5 Ph. and Mary, which forbiddeth, That none ſhall Weave Woollen Cloth or Kerſies, if he hath not been an Apprentice, or exerciſed the Trade, &c. by 7. years, upon pain of forfeiture of ſuch Cloth, or the value of it, the penalty to be recovered by Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any Court of Record, wherein no Eſſoine, Protection, &c. It was aſſigned for Errour, That the breach of the ſaid Act was taken away by the Statute of 5 Eliz. Cap. 4. But it was the Opinion of the Court, That it was not, for that both Acts do ſtand together. And it was ſaid, That a latter Statute in the Affirmative, ſhall not take away a former Act, and the rather, if the former be particular, and the latter general. Cook 5. Part, 19. Gregories Caſe.

3. The Cuſtome of London was alledged to be, That no perſon whatſoever, not being free of the City, ſhall by any colour, way, or means whatſoever directly or indirectly by himſelf, or by any other keep any Shop, or any other place whatſoever inward or outward, to put to ſale any Wares or Merchandizes by way of Retail, or uſe any Trade, Myſtery, or Handicraft, for hire, gain, or ſale, within the City, upon pain of forfeiture for every time 5 l. It was Reſolved in that caſe, That the ſame was good by way of Cuſtome; but it was not good by way of Grant, or Charter made to the City. Cook 6. Part, 122. The Caſe of the City of London, and Wagoners Caſe.

4. The Corporation of the Taylors of Ipſwich made an Ordinance, That if any exerciſed the Trade of a Taylor, untill he was preſented before them, and untill they had allowed him to be a Workman, that he ſhould forfeit to them 3 l. 13 s. 4 d. to be levied by Diſtreſſe or Action of Debt. A man who had been an Apprentice unto a Taylor 7. years, according to the Statute of 5 Eliz. was Servant to a Gentleman, and by his commandment made Cloathes in the houſe of his Maſter for his family, before he was allowed to be a Workman by the Company. In this caſe, theſe Points were Reſolved, 1. That by the Common-Law, none could be prohibited to work in any lawfull Trade, becauſe the Law abhorreth Idleneſſe as a matter ominum vitiorum. And the Stat. of 5 Eliz. was not made only that Artificers ſhould be skilful; but that young men ſhould not be trained up in Idleneſs. 2. It was Reſolved, That the reſtraint of the Defendant for more then the Stat. of 5 Eliz. had done, was againſt Law; and ſuch Ordinance, That they ought to be preſented to them, was contrary to the Act of 5 Eliz. 3. That the Stat. of 5 Eliz. intendeth the publique uſe of a Trade or Myſtery, and doth not extend to him who is a private Cook, Taylor, &c. in the houſe of any for the uſe of his family; for every one may work in ſuch private manner, although he never had been an Apprentice. Cook 11. Part, 54. The Taylors of Ipſwiches Caſe. See Paſch. 14 Jac. Norris and Stapps Caſe. Hob. 211.

5. Errour of a Judgment in Coventry. In an Information upon the Statute of 5 Eliz. for exerciſing the Trade of an Ironmonger, not being Apprentice. After Verdict, and Judgment for the Plaintiff; The Errour aſſigned was, Becauſe Informers cannot ſue upon the Statute to have the moyty; for that by the expreſs words of the Statute, the forfeiture is given to the Corporation, for the benefit of the Corporation for the Relief of the poor and other Uſes of the Corporation. But the Errour was not allowed: For although that Statute gives one moyty to the Informer, and the other to the King, except in Corporate Towns, to whom ſuch forfeitures are granted, It is to be underſtood, and ſo hath always been expounded, That in that caſe the forfeiture given to the King, belongs to the Corporation, and the Informer is to have his part ſtill. The Judgment was affirmed. Trin. 9 Car. in B. R. Cro. 1. Part, 230. See Hill. 14 Jac. in C. B. Dewſon and Barbers Caſe. Hob. 183.

6. An Information was againſt the Defendant, for uſing the Trade of a Goldſmith, upon the Statute of 5 Eliz. not being an Apprentice: The Defendant ration was not good, for that he entitles himself to a portion of Tythes being a Lay-person, and doth not shew how; and it being a prosit apprender in anothers Soile, he ought to make a good Title to himself. But the Exception was disallowed, for that the Action is grounded upon the Tort, for not setting out of the Tythes; and the Seisin in Fee is but a Conveyance, and for this Action he need not to make a Title: And it is usuall, that the Plaintiff bring the Action as Firmarius vel proprietarius, without shewing any particular Title; and it differs from the Case of Assignment of Tythes, for there he ought to make Title. 2. It was said, That it was not good, Because it is not shewed what was the quantity of every grain in Specie, for here it is incertain, and the Court knowes not how to judge of it: But non allocatur. For he shews what the Tythes were worth, and the wrong is supposed by carrying them away, which is sufficient. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff, Mich. 15 Jac in B. It was moved for a Prohibition to the Spiritual Court, upon a Libell there for Tythe of Underwood, by reason of a Prescription in Non Decimando for the Wilde of Kent, this Wood growing there: And the reasons alledged for the Prohibition, were, 1. That a whole Country generally may prescribe in Non Decimando, in a particular place. And, 2. The Statute of 2 E. 6. in the 8th Proviso, gives life unto this Prescription for this particular place and Precinct. But it was Resolved, That no Prohibition should be granted in this Case. It was agreed, That a whole Country may prescribe in Non Decimando. See Doctor and Student, 166. but that is with this Proviso, so as there is besides sufficient maintenance for the Parson; otherwise it is not good. 2. It was said, That the Statute of 2 E. 6. helps not at all in this Case. And whereas it hath been said, That the Conquror never Conquered this place; this is but Historicall and Apocryphall, for he was a Conquerour by Composition had. It was also said, It is true, That in former time long since, this place in Kent was not Tytheable, because there was no wood there but great Timber-Trees, which were not Tytheable; but these being now cut down, wasted, and destroyed, this place which was not Tytheable before, being now underwood, and converted into Pasture, Tythe shall be there paid; unless the same be within the Proviso of the Statute of Exemption from payment for a time after the Melioration of the same; otherwise Tythes shall be paid presently. It was Resolved, That no Prohibition should be granted in this Case. Mich. 12 Jac. in B. R. Russell and Rathbust's Case. Bulst. 2. Part, 235.

7. Note, by the Justices; If Lands holden of J. S. be given to an Abbot and his Successors, or to any other Corporation; In such case, if the Abbot and all the Convent dye, so as the Body Corporate is dissolved, the Donor shall have the Lands again, and not the Lord by Escheat, because in case of a Body Politique or Corporate, the Fee-simple is vested in them in their Politick Capacity. The principal Case was; A Prescription was laid in Abbot and Covent; and it appeared, That the Body was dissolved, because all the Monks dyed, and the Lands came to Lay-mens hands. And it was Resolved by the Court, That the Prescription now determined, and the parties should pay Tythes in kind. Mich. 11 Jac. in C. B. The Dean and Canons of Windsor, and Wilds Case. Godbolt, 211.

8. The Statute of 18 Eliz. Cap. 6. is, That no Master and Fellowes of a Colledg in Cambrid. or Oxford, shall make any Lease for life or years of any of their Lands and Tenements, unless a third part at the least, of the Ancient Rent be reserved and payed in Corn for the said Colledge, otherwise the Lease to be void. In an Ejectione Firmæ brought of a Lease made of the Rectory of St. Lawrence Church in London: The Question was, Whether the Lease were void, or not, because Tythes in London do not consist of such things, but only in money, according to the Decree concerning Tythes in London? It was holden by the Court in this Case, That the Lease was good, notwithstanding the defect in the special Reservation which is limited and appointed by the said Statute. And in that Case, It was said and agreed, That a Lease of a House, Mill, Ferry, were out of the Statute. And it was agreed, That the Statute ought to be intended of Tythes of Common right, and not of such Customary Tythes, as those in London; And therefore, If all Parishioners prescribe ſcribe in Modo Decimandi, ſcil. to pay a certain ſum of money for all manner of Tythes upon demiſe of ſuch a Rectory, ſuch a Reſervation is not neceſſary; for theſe are Tythes againſt right, and no Tythes are within that Statute, but thoſe which are annuall. Upon the Statute of 5 Eliz. Cap. 4. Of Labourers and Apprentices.

1. NOte: It was agreed by the Juſtices, That the Juſtices of the Peace ought not to Certifie into the Chancery, their agreement made upon Servants Wages, Six moneths after Eaſter; according to the Statute of 5 Eliz. of Labourers; upon a penalty of 10 l. and that by the expreſſe words and meaning of the Statute. 32 Eliz. Dyer 265.

2. G. brought a Writ of Errour againſt B; The Caſe was, That B. brought a Replevin in the Court of Ludlow (which is a Court of Record) againſt G. tam pro Domina Regina quam pro ſeipſo, upon the Statute of 4 and 5 Ph. and Mary, which forbiddeth, That none ſhall Weave Woollen Cloth or Kerſies, if he hath not been an Apprentice, or exercied the Trade, &c. by 7. years, upon pain of forfeiture of ſuch Cloth, or the value of it, the penalty to be recovered by Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any Court of Record, wherein no Eſſoine, Protection, &c. It was aſſigned for Errour, That the breach of the ſaid Act was taken away by the Statute of 5 Eliz. Cap. 4. But it was the Opinion of the Court, That it was not, for that both Acts do ſtand together. And it was ſaid, That a latter Statute in the Affirmative, ſhall not take away a former Act; and the rather, if the former be particular, and the latter general. Cook 5. Part, 19. Gregories Caſe.

3. The Cuſtome of London was alledged to be, That no perſon whatſoever, not being free of the City, ſhall by any colour, way, or means whatſoever directly or indirectly by himſelf, or by any other keep any Shop, or any other place whatſoever inward or outward, to put to ſale any Wares or Merchandizes by way of Retail, or uſe any Trade, Myſtery, or Handicraft, for hire, gain, or ſale, within the City, upon pain of forfeiture for every time 5 l. It was Reſolved in that caſe, That the ſame was good by way of Cuſtome; but it was not good by way of Grant, or Charter made to the City. Cook 6. Part, 122. The Caſe of the City of London, and Wagoners Caſe.

4. The Corporation of the Taylors of Ipſwich made an Ordinance, That if any exerciſed the Trade of a Taylor, untill he was preſented before them, and untill they had allowed him to be a Workman, that he ſhould forfeit to them 3 l. 13 s. 4 d. to be levied by Diſtreſſe or Action of Debt. A man who had been an Apprentice unto a Taylor 7. years, according to the Statute of 5 Eliz. was Servant to a Gentleman, and by his commandment made Cloathes in the houſe of his Maſter for his family, before he was allowed to be a Workman by the Company. In this caſe, theſe Points were Reſolved, 1. That by the Common-Law, none could be prohibited to work in any lawfull Trade, becauſe the Law abhorreth Idleneſſe as a matter omnium vitiorum. And the Stat. of 5 Eliz. was not made only that Artificers ſhould be skilful; but that young men ſhould not be trained up in Idleneſs. 2. It was Reſolved, That the reſtraint of the Defendant for more then the Stat. of 5 Eliz. had done, was againſt Law; and ſuch Ordinance, That they ought to be preſented to them, was contrary to the Act of 5 Eliz. 3. That the Stat. of 5 Eliz. intendeth the publique uſe of a Trade or Myſtery, and doth not extend to him who is a private Cook, Taylor, &c. in the houſe of any for the uſe of his family; for every one may work in ſuch private manner, although he never had been an Apprentice. Cook 11. 5. Errour of a Judgment in Ceveaty. In an Information upon the Statute of 5 Eliz. for exerciſing the Trade of an Ironmonger, not being Apprentice. After Verdict, and Judgment for the Plaintiff; The Errour aſſigned was, Becauſe Informers cannot ſue upon the Statute to have the moyty; for that by the expreſs words of the Statute, the forfeiture is given to the Corporation, for the benefit of the Corporation for the Relief of the poor and other Uſes of the Corporation. But the Errour was not allowed: For although that Statute gives one moyty to the Informer, and the other to the King, except in Corporate Towns, to whom ſuch forfeitures are granted, It is to be underſtood, and ſo hath always been expounded, That in that caſe the forfeiture given to the King, belongs to the Corporation, and the Informer is to have his part ſtill. The Judgment was affirmed. Trin. 9 Car. in B. R. Cro. 1. Part, 230. See Hill. 14 Jac. in C. B. Dreſſon and Barbers Caſe. Hob. 183.

6. An Information was againſt the Defendant, for uſing the Trade of a Goldſmith, upon the Statute of 5 Eliz. not being an Apprentice: The Defendant

Defendant pleaded the Customs of London, That one having been an Apprentice for 7. years, and made a Freeman of London of any Trade, may use any other Trade in the same City. And shewed, That he was bounden an Apprentice in the Art of a Cordwainer, and served 7. years, and was made free, and so justified. It was excepted to the Plea, because he pleaded quod uti possit, any other Trade; and not quod usus fuit. But this was Answered, That this being alledged by way of Custome in the City, and not as a particular Prescription, it was good enough: And so seemed to be the Opinion of the Court. 2. Whereas it was Objected, That the matter of Plea was not good, Because a Custome cannot be alledged against a Statute. It was Answered, That that being the Custome of London, which Customes are Confirmed by Act of Parliament; it was good enough. But that Point the Court doubted, and therefore it was not Resolved. Hill. 9 Jac. in B. R. The King and Bagshaws Case. Cro. 1. Part, 253.

7. Note: In the Case last before, Between the King and Bagshaw; Issue being afterwards joyned, Whether there was such a Custome as was pleaded? The Recordor of London Certified (Ore tenus) that there was not any such Custome generally; for he said, That the Custome is not, That one brought up as an Apprentice in the Trade of a Goldsmith, Taylor, &c. being a Freeman of London, by colour thereof may use any Trade: But one of a Trade who useth buying and selling, may exercise another Trade of buying and selling. Cro. 1. Part, 253.

8. In Debt upon an Obligation taken of the Defendant, being an Apprentice, to deliver up a just and true Account of all such Wares to him to Merchandize withall. The Defendant demurred upon the Declaration, and set forth the Statute of 8 Eliz. cap. 4. That all Indentures, Covenants, Promises, and Bargains, of, or for the having, taking, or keeping of any Apprentice, should be void, and that the Bond here was so taken of the Defendant. It was the Opinion of the Court in this Case, That Bonds taken for Service, were void by the Statute: And here the contract to make him his Apprentice, is void by the Statute. But this Bond is not for the retaining, nor for the having of him as an Apprentice. But as to the Wares to him delivered, the Bond is here taken of him to render a just account of these. And this is a good Bond, and out of the Statute, both out of the words, and out of the intent of the Statute. Pasc. 14 Jac. in B. R. Bennet and Belfields Case. Bulst. 3. Part, 179.

9. Covenant against an Apprentice for departing from his Service. The Defendant pleaded, That at the time of the making of the Indenture, he was within age. It was thereupon demurred: And it was said, That the Indenture should bind him, because it was for his advantage to be instructed in a Trade; also by the Statute of 5 Eliz. he is compellable to be bound out as an Apprentice. But it was Resolved, That although an Enfant may voluntarily bind himself an Apprentice; and if he continue an Apprentice for 7 years, he may have the benefit and use of his Trade: Yet neither at the Common Law, nor by any words of the Statute of 5 Eliz. a Covenant or an Obligation of an Enfant for his Apprentiship, shall bind him; but if he mis-behaveth himself, the Master may correct him in his Service, or complain to a Justice of Peace to have him punished, but no remedy lyeth against the Enfant upon his Covenant. It was adjudged for the Defendant. Trin. 4 Car. in B. R. Gilbert and Fletchers Case. Cro. 1. Part, 119.

10. An Information was brought upon the Statute of 5 Eliz. cap. 4. for using of the Trade of an Upholster, in which he was not brought up. The Defendant pleaded the Customs of London, and that he was a Freeman, and so enabled to use any Trade, and that the said Customs was confirmed, per regem in Parliamento. The Court was clear of Opinion against the Informer, That the Custome as the same was alledged, was good, although ill pleaded. But yet however, the Court inclined to be of Opinion, That an Upholster was not a Trade within the Restraint of the Statute of 5 Eliz. no more then a Brewer or a Pippin-monger. But no judgment was given in the Case, but the matter ended by composition. Trin. 11 Jac. in B. R. The King, Allen, and Todeys Case. Bulst. 2. Part, 187.

11. Information in the Exchequer for using the Trade of a Brewer contrary to the Statute of 5 Eliz. cap. 4. of Apprentices not having been brought up seven years an Apprentice. It was Objected, That the Art of a Brewer is not within the Statute. And 2. That by the Statute of 31 Eliz. that the Offence is punishable only in the Sessions of the Peace. But it was adjudged, That a Brewer is within the Statute. And for the second point, That the Statute of 31 Eliz. cap. 5. is not in the Negative; and this being a Suit for the King, this is a proper Court for him, and the Information is maintainable here. Mich. 4 Jac. in the Exchequer, Sheyle and Taylors Case. Cro. 1. Part, 176.

Upon

Upon the Statutes of 13 Eliz. cap. 5. And 27 Eliz. Cap. 4. Of fraudulent Guifts, Deeds, and Conveyances.

1. A. is endebted to B. in 100 l. and to C. in 100 l. C. brings Debt against A. A. in secret makes a general gift by Deed to B. of all his goods in satisfaction of his Debt, and notwithstanding, kept possession of the goods. C. recovered against A. and had Judgment, and a Scire facias was awarded to the Sheriff, who comming to do Execution upon the goods, B. made a Rescous, and affirmed the gift of the goods to him to be good. It was adjudged in this Case, That the gift was fraudulent, and within the Statute of 13 Eliz. for here were all the badges of fraud. 1. It was general, without exception of things necessary. 2. The giver continued the possession of the goods after the gift. 3. The gift was secret and not sealed nor delivered before his Neighbours. 4. It was pendant the Suit. 5. In this Case, it was Resolved, That although it be a true Debt, and the consideration true; Yet it was not good, because it was not made bona fide. And it was said and Ruled, That an a gift made upon a good consideration, unless it be bona fide, is not within the Proviso of the Statute; so a gift made bona fide, unless it be upon good consideration, is not within the Statute; but it ought to be both upon good consideration, and bona fide. Cook 3. Part, 84. Twines Case.

2. A man conveyed Land to the use of himself for life, and after to the use of divers of his blood, with a power of Revocation, as after such a Feast, and afterwards and before the power of Revocation began, he for valuable consideration, Bargained and Sold the Land to one and his Heirs. It was adjudged in this Case, That this Bargain and Sale was within the remedy of the Statute of 27 Eliz. Of fraudulent Conveyances; for the Act wills not that such a voluntary Conveyance, originally subject to a power of Revocation, should stand against a Purchasor bona fide, for valuable consideration. Mich. 43 Eliz. in B. R. Standen and Bullocks Case.

3. Debt was brought against the Son and Heir upon an Obligation made by his Father. The Defendant pleaded, Nothing by Discent. It was found, That before the Suit began, the Defendant had made a Feoffment in Fee to defraud the Plaintiff of his Action, but this fraud was not pleaded. It was Resolved in this Case, That the fraud might be given in Evidence, and it needed not that the Statute of 13 Eliz. cap. 5. Of fraudulent gifts, he pleaded, because that the Act saith, That the Estate as to the Creditor should be void, and the Act shall be favourably construed against fraudulent Conveyances; and it would be mischievous to enforce a stranger to the Feoffment to plead the certainty of the Feoffment, especially the same being made by fraud, which is so secretly contrived, that it cannot be discovered. Cook 5. Part, 60. Goodes Case.

4. In Debt against an Administrator of J. S. the Case was, J. S. for 20 l. paid by the Plaintiff the ninth of Feb. 2 Car. Granted all his goods mentioned in a Schedule annexed to the Deed, and gave possession of them by a Pewter dish, with a Covenant, that he, his Administrators, &c. should solely keep them, and deliver them to the Plaintiff upon his demand, and bound himself in 40 l. to the Plaintiff to perform that Covenant. The Intestate dyed, the Plaintiff demanded the goods of the Administrator, who would not deliver them: Whereupon the Plaintiff brought his Action, and in his Declaration shewed in specie what goods were contained in the Schedule. The Defendant pleaded the Statute of 13 Eliz. of Fraudulent Gifts, and said, That J. S. the Intestate, 2. Feb. 2 Jac. was endebted to divers in several sums, and set forth the persons and sums amounting to 100 l. and 19. Feb. made the Deed of gift above mentioned, being then of them and other goods possessed, to the value of 80 l. and no more; and that it was made of fraud and Covin betwixt J. S. and the Plaintiff to defraud his Creditors, and that J. S. notwithstanding the gift, occupied all the goods during his life, and that after his death, Administration was committed to the Defendant. The Plaintiff replyed, That the Defendant had Assets in his hands, and that the gift was made upon good consideration. Upon which it was demurred, and the demurrer was adjudged to be good for these Causes. 1. Because the Defendant hath not averred that the Debts due to the Creditors, were unpaid. 2. Because he did not shew that the Debts due to the Creditors were by Specialties. 3. Because the Defendant supposed it would be a Devastavit in him, which would not be so, for that the goods in the Plaintiffs hands, would be lyable to the Creditors. 4. The Defendant is not such a person as is enabled by the Statute to plead that Plea, for that the Statute makes the Deed void as against the Creditors Creditors, but not againſt the party himſelf, his Executors or Adminiſtrators. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Hill. 8 Jac. in B.R. Hawes and Leaders Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 270.

5. Note, upon the Stat. 27 El. of fraudulent Conveyances. It was adjudged, That where one after Marriage voluntarily aſſigned a Leaſe for years quaſi in Joynture for his Wife, and took the profits, and afterwards ſold it to one who had no notice of this Conveyance, That this was within the Statute although at firſt it was not made upon truſt to be revoked, nor any clauſe of recompence therein, becauſe it was a voluntary Conveyance at firſt which ſhall be intended fraudulent. But if at the time of the Marriage, or after, by reaſon of a Portion given by his Wives friends in recompence thereof, and for a Proviſion for the maintenance of the Wife, he had made an Aſſignment of ſuch a Leaſe, and had afterwards taken the profits, and then had ſold the Term, it had not bin within the Statute. Paſc. 5 Jac. Colvile and Parker's Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 258.

6. In Treſpaſs, the Jury found a Special Verdict to this effect. A. ſeiſed of Lands in Fee holden of J. L. as of his Manner of H. by Fealty and Rent, and rendring the Beaſt after every Tenant in Feeſimple by Deed, in conſideration of paternal love to his Son and Heir apparant, and in conſideration of a Marriage between his Son and B. and for the advancement of his Son, enfeoffed his Son and Heir apparant of the ſaid Land; and afterwards the Son, to the intent that B. ſhould not be endowed of thoſe Lands during the life of the Father, re-demiſed the Land to the Father for 40 years, if he ſhould ſo long live: Afterwards the Marriage took effect. The Son did ſuit at the Lords Court, and after the Feoffment, the Father paid the Rent to the Lord, and after the Father dyed, and the Lord took the beſt Beaſt for a Heriot after the death of the Father: And the Jury found the Statute of 13 Eliz. of Fraudulent Conveyances. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, 1. Becauſe that no fraud was found by the Jurors, the Court ſhall not adjudg the ſaid Feoffment fraudulent. And although the Jury have found Circumſtances to incite the Jurors to find a fraud, yet the ſame is but Evidence to the Jurors, and not any matter upon which the Court could judg the ſame to be fraud. 2. The Jurors have not found, That the Feoffment was made to defraud the Lord of his Heriot, and ſo they have not found the ſame to be within the Statute of 13 Eliz. 3. The Feoffment being found to be made in conſideration of Marriage, and to that particular intent concerning the Dower of the Wife of the Son, the ſame ſhall not by conſtruction of Law extend to any other intent. As the Caſe 10 El. in the Court of Wards. Tenant in Capite, his Heir within age, and endebted to many, enfeoffed divers upon Condition, that when he or his Heirs ſhould pay to the Feoffees 30 l. that then they ſhould make ſuch Feoffments to ſuch uſes as he or his Heirs ſhould limit, or otherwiſe the Feoffment ſhould be void. And it was found, Quod nulla alia Cauſa intentio aut colluſio ad defraudandum regem, &c. de Cuſtodia hæred. aut terrarum; and although that the Feoffment was found to be by fraud and Covin, which is illegal; yet becauſe the fraud was to a particular intent, ſcil. to defraud Creditors, It ſhall not be extended to another intent, ſcil. to defraud the King of his Ward. Trin. 10 Jac. in C. B. Tyer and Littletons Caſe, vouched in the Chancellor of Oxfords Caſe. Cook 10. Part, See Brownl. 2. Part, 187, 188. the ſame Caſe.

7. In an Ejectione firmæ, the Caſe was, Grandfather, Father, and Son; the Grandfather upon Marriage of the Father, made the Fathers Wife a Joynture; and at this time Covenanted to Demiſe the Tenements in which, to the Father; and accordingly the Grandfather by Indenture Demiſed the moyety of the Tenements in which, &c. to the Father, to begin after the death of the Grandfather for 1000 years, and of the other moyety for 1000 years, to begin at a day to come. In both which Demiſes were Proviſoes, That if the Father ſhould dye without Iſſue, or if he ſhall make any Leaſe upon which the ancient rent ſhall not be reſerved, that the ſaid Leaſes made to the Father ſhould be void. The Father afterwards aſſigned over the ſaid Leaſes to the uſe of R. his Son an Infant to the end they might not be drowned by Diſcent of the Reverſion, and with an intent that the Infant ſhould pay his Debts. The Grandfather ſhortly after dyed: After the death of the Grandfather, the Father for valuable conſideration, by Deed enrolled, Bargained and Sold the Lands to J.S. and J.D. and their Heirs. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, 1. That the Vendees who came in upon a valuable conſideration, ſhould avoid the ſaid Leaſe by the Statute of 27 Eliz. cap. 4. And in that Caſe it was ſaid, That it is not needfull that he who ſells the Land, be he who makes the fraudulent Conveyance, but be the Eſtate fraudulent, whoever ſells the Lands, the Purchaſor ſhall avoid ſuch fraudulent Eſtate made. 2. Reſolved, That in the principal Caſe, although that the Father had not the Inheritance of the Land at the time of the Aſſignment of his Leaſe (being made to him fraudulently by the Grandfather) but all the Eſtate of Inheritance was in the Grandfather, yet when the Grandfather dyed, and the Father ſold the Land, his Vendee ſhould avoid the ſaid Leaſe by the Statute of 27 El. cap. 4. Cook 6. Part, 72, 73. Lawnds Caſe.

Upon

Upon the Statute of 13 Eliz. cap. 7.
Of Bankrupts.

1. A Man is endebted to A. and B. in 100 l. and afterwards becomes a Bankrupt. A Commiſſion is awarded under the Great Seal according to the Statute of 13 Eliz. cap. 7. to C. and D. to make Sale of the goods to the Creditors, afterwards the Bankrupt gives all his goods to another Creditor for payment of his Debt; and afterwards the Commiſſioners ſell the goods joyntly. It was adjudged in this Caſe, That the Sale of the Commiſſioners was good, and according to the Statute, for the intention of the Statute was to relieve the Creditors equally, and that there be an equal proportion obſerved in the diſtribution of the goods to the Creditors. And it was holden, That after the Commiſſion, the Bankrupt himſelf cannot make any diſtribution of any of his goods to any Creditors; and therefore notwithſtanding his delivery of goods, the ſale by the Commiſſioners is good. 2. It was Reſolved, That the Sale was good made without Deed enrolled by the expreſs words of the Statute itſelf, and ſo the Sale had bin good, although they had not ſeen the goods, for that is referred to their diſcretions. But it was agreed, That the Commiſſioners ought to make ſeveral diſtributions to the ſeveral Creditors, and not a joynt Sale, but that is to be intended, when the Debts are ſeveral; but in the principal Caſe, it was a joynt Debt. Cook 2. Part, 25, 26. the Caſe of Bankrupts.

2. Upon the Statute of Bankrupts, this Caſe was moved to the Court, If a Bankrupt be endebted to one in 200 l. and to another in 10 l. and he hath a Debt due to him by Bond of 20 l. whether the Commiſſioners may aſſign this Bond to the two Creditors joyntly, or whether they muſt divide it, and aſſign 20 Marks to one, and 20 Nobles to the other. The Court was of Opinion, That it was ſo to be divided as the words of the Statute are, viz. to every Creditor a portion, rate and rate like, &c. Then it was moved how they might ſue the Bond, Whether they might joyn in ſuit or not. Et quod non fuit reſponſum. But Warburton Juſtice ſaid, That when part of a Bond is aſſigned to one, and part to another, that now the Act of Parliament doth operate upon it, and therefore they ſhall have ſeverally. For he ſaid, That by the Cuſtome of London part of a Debt might be attached, therefore he conceived part might be ſued. Trin. 10 Jac. in C. B. Godbolt 195.

3. In Treſpaſs, a Verdict was for the Plaintiff, and Damnages aſſeſſed, &c. Execution is ſued forth by a Capias ad ſatisfaciendum, and afterwards the money was levyed by the Sheriff; the Plaintiff became a Bankrupt, and by the Commiſſioners of Bankrupts, the damages, &c. recovered, was aſſigned to A. and B. Creditors and others. The Sheriff brought the money in Court; the Plaintiff who recovered, prayed that the money might be delivered to him, and the Creditors pray it may be delivered to them according to the Aſſignment of the Commiſſioners. It was the Opinion of the Court in this Caſe, That the money in the Sheriffs hand was not aſſignable, although by the Judgment the damages and Coſts were certained and turned into rem judicatam. Yet the Aſſignation therein being as the money of the Plaintiff who was a Bankrupt, which was not his money untill it were paid unto him out of the Court. It was in the hands of the Sheriff quaſi in Cuſtodia legis; and ſo much the ſtronger in this Caſe, becauſe it was upon a Capias ad ſatisfaciendum, and the money paid to the Sheriff to ſatisfy the Execution, ſo as it is not due to the Plaintiff untill it be paid unto him, and none may give a diſcharge thereof but the Plaintiff who is party to the Record. Mich. 5 Car. in B.R. Robſon and Flowers Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 119, 126.

4. In Treſpaſs, upon Not Guilty, It was found, That the Land in Queſtion was Copyhold of Inheritance of the Manour of C. whereof one A. Husband of the Defendant was ſeiſed in Fee; within which Manour the Cuſtome is, That if a Copyholder in Fee ſeiſed of a Copyhold dyeth, having a Wife at the time of his death ſurviving him, that ſhe ſhall have and hold the Copyhold during her life, and for 12 years after, and found the Statute of 13 Eliz. of Bankrupts. And that upon a Commiſſion to enquire upon the complaint of Creditors. It was found, That A. the Husband was a Bankrupt, and ſo adjudged him; and it being found that he was ſeiſed in Fee of the ſaid Copyhold, they Bargained and ſold the ſaid Copyhold to the Plaintiff and other Creditors for 600 l. And they find, That by an Act of Parliament 1 Car. the Cuſtoms of the Manour are eſtabliſhed; and that the Wife at a Court holden April the 12th. It was found that ſhe ſurvived her Husband, and ſo ought to enjoy the Copyhold during her life, and for 12 years after; and that before the Admiſſion of the Plaintiff and the other Creditors, the Wife was admitted Tenant, ſecundum Conſuetudinem Manerii prædict. The points in the Caſe, were firſt, Whether by the Bargain and Sale by the Commiſſioners, the eſtate of the Copyholder was veſted in the Bargainee before admittance by the Lord, ſo as the ſaid A. did not dye Tenant, and is not within the Cuſtome, that his Wife ought to have a Widdows Eſtate. 2. Admitting he did dye Tenant, and the Widdow had ſuch an Eſtate veſted in her. Whether the Vendees by force of the Bargain and Sale ſhall not afterwards deveſt the Eſtate of the Wife by relation. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the Bargain and Sale did bind the Copyholder and his Eſtate, and that he is no Copyholder after the Bargain and Sale enrolled, and the Bargainee is only barred to take the profits, till compoſition with the Lord. 2. That when the Bargainee is admitted by the Lord, it ſhall veſt in the Bargainee, and ſhall have relation to the Bargain and Sale, and ſhall deveſt the Eſtate which the Wife claimeth by the Cuſtome. 3. Reſolved in this Caſe, The Husband did not dye Copyhold-Tenant; and the Wife ought to be the Wife of a Tenant. Wherefore it was agreed, That Judgment ſhould be given for the Plaintiff, which was done accordingly. H.11. 13 Car. in B. R. Parker and Bletke's Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 410, 411.

5. Upon the four Statutes of Bankrupts, viz. 34 H. 8. 13 Eliz. 1. and 21 Jac. the Caſe was this, A. 9 Jac. purchaſed a Copyhold to him and his Son for their lives, the Remainder to his Wife in Fee. In 11 Jac. he became an Inholder, and about 12 years after, a Commiſſion of Bankrupt was ſued out againſt him, and the Copyhold was ſold by the Commiſſioners to the Defendant. A. dyed, and his ſon entred and made a Leaſe to the Plaintiff, the Defendant entred upon him, upon which the Action was brought. There were divers points in this Caſe. 1. Whether an Inholder may be a Bankrupt within theſe Statutes. It was Reſolved by all the Juſtices as to that point, That an Inholder quatenus an Inholder, is not within theſe Statutes, becauſe an Inholder doth not live by buying and ſelling, for he doth not ſell any thing but utter it. He that ſells any thing, doth it by way of Contract, but an Inholder doth not contract with his Gueſts, but provides for them, and cannot take unreaſonable rates, as he who ſells may; and if he doth, he may be endicted of Extortion, which the ſeller cannot: And where the Statutes ſay, Get their Livings by Buying and Selling, that it ought to be for the greater part of their living thereby. And if a Gent. buy and ſell Land, he is not within the Statute, for it ought to be taken thoſe that buy and ſell perſonal things. The ſecond point was, Whether Copyholders were within the Statutes of 13 El. and 1 Jac. It was Reſolved, That it was within the ſaid Statutes, and that the Statutes ſhall be conſtrued moſt Beneficial for the Creditors. The third point, That A. being no Inholder at the time of the Purchaſe, and afterwards becomming an Inholder, Whether he was within the Statute of 13 Eliz. It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That he was not; Not within the words of the Statute, which are (If the Offender purchaſe), and here he was not an Offender at the time of the purchaſe; beſides, here the Son ſhould be puniſhed for the Offence of the Father, which is not to be by the Law of God, and he ought to be indebted at the time, and he might give away his goods before he was in debt. And in this Caſe, it was ſaid, That the thing which makes him an Offender, is his intent to defraud his Creditors, and that doth not appear in this Caſe. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff againſt the Defendant, That he was not a Bankrupt within the Statute, and that the purchaſe was well made, and not to be avoided. Trin. 15 Car. in B.R. Crisp and Pratt's Caſe. Marſh. 34, to 37. See Cro. 1. Part, 195. the ſame Caſe.

6. A Commiſſion was ſued forth by ſome of the Creditors of the Bankrupt, and they purſued it, and his Lands were ſold; and afterwards other Creditors who would neither partake with, nor aid the former, prayed that they might be joyned with them. It was Reſolved in this Caſe. 1. That the Commiſſioners may ſell and prepare for diſtribution preſently upon the Execution of the Commiſſion; but untill the four Moneths paſt, they may not proceed to make Diſtribution. 2. Reſolved, That the offer in this Caſe of the Creditors to be joyned, was not an effectual offer, without offering to be contributary to the Charge; but to offer any particular ſum, it was not neceſſary. And their words, viz. For the Charge of the Commiſſion, is to be extended to all Charges ariſing in ſuing forth of the Commiſſion, and in Execution and diſpence thereof. 3. Reſolved, That at any time before diſtribution, the Creditors may come and pray to be joyned, but after the four Moneths paſt, and diſtribution made, they come too late; for ſo the diſtribution might be made void. Tr. 17 Jac. in B.R. Ruyles Caſe. Hutton 37, 38. See Hob. 287. the ſame Caſe.

Upon

Upon the Statutes Of Uſury, 13 Eliz. Cap. 8. And other Statutes.

1. IN a Scire facias brought to execute a Judgement, The Defendant pleaded, That he borrowed of the Plaintiff 100 l. to give him 120 l. for the Loan thereof for a year; and the Plaintiff for his Aſſurance, would have the Defendant confeſs this Judgment of 120 l. and ſo he pleaded the Statute of Uſury in Bar of the Scire facias; Upon which the Plaintiff demurred: The words of the Statute of Uſury are, All Bonds, Contracts, and Aſſurances collateral, or other, &c. ſhall be void. The whole Court was of Opinion, That this was no Plea to defeat the Judgment; for here the Judgment may not be ſaid any Aſſurance for the money, but it is a Judgment upon the Aſſurance: And, if ſuch matter had been, the Defendant ought to have pleaded, That upon the firſt Action in Bar, and not to ſuffer the Judgment. It was adjudged, That the Plaintiff ſhould recover. Hill. 43 Eliz. in C.B. Goldeſb. 128.

2. In Debt for 120 l. upon a Bond; The Caſe was, W. was Indebted to one A. in 100 l. upon an Uſurious Contract; And A. was indebted to E. in 100 l. for which W. and A. were bound to E. and Debt being brought upon that Obligation, W. pleaded the Uſury between him and A. to void the Bond; E. the Plaintiff replyed, That A. before the making of the Bond, was indebted to him 100 l. a juſt debt, for the which W. and A. were bound to him in the Bond put in Suit; and that he was not any ways knowing of the Uſury between W. and A. upon which the Defendants did demur. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff; for it is not Uſury in the Plaintiff, but only between W. and A. to which the Plaintiff not being privie, he ſhall not be prejudiced; for although the Statute of Uſury is to be taken ſtrongly for the ſuppreſſing of Uſury, yet it muſt be betwixt ſuch perſons as uſe corruption, and not to puniſh the innocent, as the Plaintiff is; but if no debt had been due to the Plaintiff before, then clearly it had been Uſury, for there had been no lawful cauſe to make the Bond to him, but only to countenance the Corruption between W. and A. Trin. 2 Jac. in B.R. Ellis and Warnes Caſe. Brownlow 1. Pa. 63.

3. In Debt upon an Obligation, the Caſe was, J. S. lent 100 l. for a year, and at the end of ſix months, took 5 l. for the Intereſt of it: It was ſaid, That it was not Uſury within the Statute, becauſe it was not above 10 l. for the 100 l. But it was the Opinion of all the Juſtices of England, That it was Uſury; And they ſaid, That this is not like the Caſe of Mortgage, for the Statute which allows the Mortgage, ought of neceſſity to allow the profits to be taken as they do naturally ariſe; but here where 100 l. is lent for a year, the Statute intends, That the profit and increaſe of the 100 l. ought not to be taken till the end of the year; for if the 5 l. Intereſt be received at the end of the ſix months, then he to whom the 100 l. is lent, hath not the uſe and profit but of 95 l. for the whole year; and the Statute is to be taken ſtrict, as to the offender, and largely in the puniſhment of Uſury. It was adjudged againſt the Plaintiff. Mich. 45 Eliz. in B.R. Barnes and Winlaſes Caſe. Yelv. 30, 31.

4. In a Replevin, the Defendant avowed for the Rent of 20 l. The Plaintiff in the Avowry alledged the Statute, and that A. did lend to B. 100 l. and that B. granted to A. and his heirs, an annual Rent of 20 l. upon condition, That if the ſaid B. paid to A. at ſuch a day the 100 l. that then the Rent ſhould ceaſe; B. received the money, and granted the Rent upon ſuch condition; and for Rent arrear, he diſtrained, and avowed. It was in this Caſe adjudged for the Avowant; for it appears, That the ſame was not a corrupt Bargain, within the Statute of 13 Eliz. of Uſury; becauſe that nothing was to be paid until the day; and if the 100 l. had been paid at the day, the Rent ſhould ceaſe, without paying any thing for it: And therefore it was the Opinion of the Court, That it was a clear Bargain, and a purchaſe conditional of ſuch a Rent, and no Uſury within the Statute. Mich. 34 Eliz. in B. R. Cook 5. Part, 70. Burtons Caſe.

5. In Debt upon an Obligation, The Caſe was, A. requeſted B. to lend him 30 l. and upon communication betwixt them, B. lent him the money 6 Decemb. 34 Eliz. until the ſecond of June next following, to pay to him for the principal and Intereſt of it 33 l. the ſaid ſecond of June, if the ſon of the Obligee was then alive; and if he dyed before that day, that he pay to him but 27 l. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That it was an Uſurious Contract, within the Statute of 13 Eliz. for if the Original Contract be uſurious, no ſhadow will ſerve to make it good. Paſch. 37 Eliz. in C. B. Cook 5. Part, 71. Clerkes Caſe.

6. Debt upon an Obligation, The Defendant pleaded the Statute of Uſury, and ſhewed, That a Ship went to Fish in New found-land (which Voyage might be performed in eight moneths) and that the Plaintiff delivered 50 l. to the Defendant, to pay 60 l. upon the return of the Ship to D; and if the said Ship by occasion of Leakage or Tempest should not return from New found land to D. then the Defendant should pay the principal money, viz. 50 l. only; and if the Ship never returned, he should pay nothing. In this Case, it was Resolved, Not to be Usury within the Statute; for if the Ship had stayed at New-found land two or three years, he should have paid at the return of the Ship, but 60 l. and if it never returned, then nothing, so as the Plaintiff ran a hazard of having less than the Interest which the Law allows. Pasch. 6 Jac. in B. R. Sharpley and Harretts Case. Cro. 1. Part, 208, 209.

7. Debt upon an Obligation, conditioned to pay 20 l. per annum, during the lives of the Plaintiffs wife and son: The Defendant pleaded the Statute of Usury, and how that he came to the Plaintiff to borrow of him 120 l. according to the rate of 10 l. for 100 l. who refused to lend the same, but corruptly offered to deliver 120 l. to him, if he would be bounden to pay 20 l. per annum during his, and the Plaintiffs wifes and sons lives; whereupon he entred into such Bond for the security of the payment of the 20 l. per annum which is above the rate of 10 l. per cent. It was Resolved in this Case, That this being an absolute bargain, in consideration of the payment of the 20 l. per annum, during two lives, and no longer, and no agreement to have the principal money, was out of the Statutes of Usury. But if there had been any provision for there payment of the Principal, although not expressed within the Bond, it had been an usurious agreement and lending within the Statute. Mich. 7 Jac. in B. R. Fountain and Grimes Case. Cro. 1. Part, 253.

8. In Trespass for breaking his Close, The Case upon special Verdict was, A. was seized of the Close, &c. And it was agreed, That one M. should lend unto him 150 l. for security of repayment of which, A. Leased the Close to M. for 60 years, to begin at the end of two years, upon condition, that if he paid the 150 l. at the end of the two years, the Lease to be void: It was agreed, That for the deferring and giving day of payment for the said two years, A. should pay to M. for Interest, yearly 22 l. 10 s. quarterly, if M. should so long live: M. lent the 150 l. A. made the Lease, and granted by Fine to M. the rent of 22 l. 10 s. to be paid quarterly, if M. so long lived: Afterwards A. conveyed the Inheritance to the Plaintiff, the 150 l. was not paid, M. took the Defendant to Husband, who entred for not payment: There was several Questions in this Case. 1. If it was an usurious Contract, because it was a casual Bargain. It was Resolved, That it was an usurious Contract; for by intendment, M. might live above two years, and it is apparent, that she should receive that consideration, whereby she is within the Statute. 2. If this Lease being taken for the payment of the principal money, and not for the Interest, be within the Statute: Resolved, it was; because it is for security of money lent upon Interest, and for securing of that which the Statute intended M. should lose. 3. It was Objected against the Verdict, because it is not found, Quod corruptum agreamentum fuit, to draw her to be an Offender within the Statute. It was Resolved, That if the corrupt agreement be not expressed in the Verdict, and the matter is apparent to the Court to be Usury, there the Jury need not to shew, that it was corruptly; for res ipsa loquitur. Trin. 14 Jac. in B. R. Roberts and Thompsons Case. Cro. 2. Part, 507.

Upon the Statute of 13 Eliz. cap. 10. and 14 Eliz. cap. 11. Touching Leases made of their Benefices by Parsons, &c.

1. A Parson made a Lease by Indenture for 11 years; and covenanted to suffer the Lessee and his Assigns, to enjoy the Lands for 11 years, and that he would not do any act by which the Benefice should be void, and that one A. Farmer of part of the Tythes, should pay 8 l. yearly, for seven years, and he was bounden to perform that Covenants. In an Action of Debt brought upon the Bond, he pleaded performance of the Covenants, ex parte sua perimplend. tenend. until 20 Eliz. at which time he himself was absent by the space of 80 days, but spake nothing of the Statute of 13 Eliz. cap. 17. or 14 Eliz. cap. 11. And as to the Covenant, in the Negative, he said nothing, as he ought to have done. It was the Opinion of the Justices, That there needed not an express mention, that the Fermor paid the 8 l. for that they said, it was implyed in the words, in ex parte sua perimplend. tenend. And see, That it is a Quære, if the Covenants and Obligation were void ab initio by the Statute of 14 Eliz. cap. 11. Mich. 23 Eliz. Dyer, 372, 373.

2. The President and Scholars of Corpus Christi Colledge in Oxford, made a Lease for years, Provided

Proviſo, That the Leſſee, nor his Aſſignees, ſhould not alien to any perſon or perſons, without ſpecial licence of the Leſſors; and afterwards, they by their Deed, gave Licence to the Leſſee to alien or demiſe the Land, to any perſon or perſons whatſoever; the Leſſee alienes his Term to J. S. who by his Will deviſed the ſame to his ſon, the Leſſors by their Attorney entred for the Condition broken. In this Caſe it was Reſolved, That the alienation by the licence to J. S. had deſtroyed the Condition, ſo as no alienation after might give cauſe to the Leſſors to enter for the Condition broken; for the Leſſors could not diſpenſe with the Condition in part, but they did diſpenſe with all alienations after to be made. 2. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the Statute of 13 Eliz. concerning Leaſes made by Deans and Chapters, was a general Law, of which the Court ought to take notice, although the ſame be not pleaded. Cook 4. Part, 120. Dumpers Caſe.

3. Note, It was Reſolved in Parliament, That Leaſes made to the Queen by Colledges, Deans and Chapters, Guardians of Hoſpitals, or any other, having Spiritual and Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdictions and Livings, againſt the Proviſion of the Statute of 13 Eliz. cap. 10. Of Leaſes, were reſtrained by the ſame Act, as well as Leaſes made to Common perſons. And 2. It was Reſolved, That the general words of the Statute of 18. had not enabled Eccleſiaſtical perſons to make Leaſes, or Eſtates to the King, which by the Statute of 13 Eliz. were reſtrained; and, That the King being the Head of the Commonwealth, could not be an inſtrument to defeat, or deſtroy an Act of Parliament, which was made for the good of the Commonwealth. Cook 4. Part, 15. The Caſe of Eccleſiaſtical perſons.

4. A Parſon 9 Eliz. demiſed his Rectory to the Patron for 50 years, who 14 Eliz. by Deed aſſigned it over: The Biſhop confirmed the Leaſe 17 Eliz. in the life of the Leſſor. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That becauſe the Leaſe was made before the Statute of 13 Eliz. and ſo not within the Act, the Confirmation after the ſaid Act, to preſent the ſaid Leaſe was not within the privacie, or the Intention of the Act. 2. Reſolved, That the Grant over by the Patron, imported in it ſelf, as well a Grant of the Term, as a Confirmation of the Term it ſelf; and ſo a Deed of one and the ſame thing, by one and the ſame perſon, to one and the ſame perſon, and at one and the ſame time, did enure to divers purpoſes, as to a Grant of his Intereſt, and a Confirmation of the ſame Intereſt, 17 Eliz. in Scaccario. Hodges and Newcomb's Caſe.

5. The Maſter and Fellows of Magdalen Colledge, after the Statute of 13 Eliz. by Indenture Enrolled, conveyed a Houſe, parcel of the poſſeſſions of their Colledge, to the Queen in Fee, rendring Rent at the Feaſt of Mich. with clauſe of Diſtreſs; Proviſo, That the Queen convey the ſame to J. D. in Fee: The Queen by her Letters Patents, conveyed the ſame to J. D. according to the Proviſo: J. D. levyed a Fine, with Proclamations of it; the Maſter dyed, the Succeſſor accepted the Rent of the Conuſee, and made an Acquittance under his Hand and Seal, and after, the Maſter dyed. In this Caſe (amongſt others) theſe points were Reſolved. 1. That the Maſters and Fellows were reſtrained by the Act of 13 Eliz. to convey any of their poſſeſſions to the King, although the King was not expreſſly named in the Act. 2. Reſolved, That the King ſhall not be exempted out of general Acts of Parliament, made for the ſuppreſſing of wrongs, viz. Dilapidations, and Diminution of Spiritual Livings, and the Statute of 13 Eliz. was made to that purpoſe. 3. Reſolved, That the King is within the words of the ſaid Act, viz. Perſon or perſons; and the ſaid Act is Actus remedialis, for it was neceſſary to provide ſuch a remedy for the publique good of the whole Eccleſiaſtical State; alſo, it is an Act of Preſervation, to preſerve the poſſeſſions of Colledges, Hoſpitals, &c. and therefore the King is bound by it. 4. Reſolved, That by the Act of 13 Eliz. the Maſter and Fellows are diſabled to Grant; and then the King cannot take from them who are diſabled to Grant; but yet, that ſuch a Diſability was not ſimpliciter, but ſecundum quid; for that the Maſter and Fellows who made the Grant, ſhould not avoid ſuch a Grant, but it might be avoided by their Succeſſor. 5. Reſolved, That if this Conditional Grant to the King ſhould be good, the King who is the Fountain of Juſtice, Medicus Regni, Pater Patriæ, Sponſus Regni, ſhould be an Inſtrument of doing wrong and injuſtice; and the Law will never make ſuch a conſtruction of an Act of Parliament, to advance the private good of any man, and to take away the good of the Commonwealth. 6. It was Reſolved, That the Statute of 18 Eliz. cap. 2. had not given any vigour or effect to the ſaid Grant made to the Queen; becauſe ſuch Conveyances are eſtabliſhed only by the ſaid Act, which are made for ſatisfaction of debts, ſums of monies, or other good conſiderations; and therefore out of the Letter of the Act: and there was not only an omiſſion of a good conſideration, but the addition of an evil perfect ſo, to make the King an Inſtrument to do a wrong: Alſo the Statute of 18 Eliz. did not enable any perſon to make a Conveyance to the King, who was diſabled by the Common Law. 1. Cook 11. Part, 67. to 79.

6. In

6. In Treſpaſs, The Caſe was, A. Prebendary of the Prebend of A. and F. was ſeized of the Rectory of P. in the right of his Prebend, and 13 Eliz. did demiſe the ſame to J. S. and J. D. for 70 years. C. Biſhop of L. Patron of the Prebend, and Ordinary of the Dioceſs, granted the next avoidance to D. which was confirmed by the Dean and Chapter. After, D. did confirm the Leaſe made by A. to J. S. and J. D. they being then alive; Then J. S. dyed, and the next Avoydance being come to E. and G. they Preſented J. N. who was Inſtalled and Inſtituted into the Prebend. D. dyed, L. ſucceeded him; then dyed J. N; L. did collate K. to the Prebend, who was Inſtituted and Inducted, and entred into the Parſonage, and Leaſed the ſame to W. for five years, which firſt came to the Plaintiff, upon whom the Defendant entred, who claimed under the Leaſe made by A. to J. S. and J. D. In this Caſe it was adjudged for the Plaintiff; for although B. the Prebendary came in after, and under the Confirmation of the Leaſe, yet J. N. the Prebendary before him, came in by a Grant of the next Avoydance, made, confirmed, and preſented before the confirmation of the Leaſe, and ſo conſequently, was not ſubject unto it; and then when he entred upon the Parſonage, he was ſeized in his Demeſne as of Fee, and ſo did defeat the Leaſe totally, ſo as it could never take effect, and revive againſt any Succeſſor whatſoever. Trin. 11 Jac. in C. B. Speadlers and Barkets Caſe. Hob. 7.

7. In an Aſſumpſit, the Caſe was found upon a ſpecial Verdict to be, That the Defendant did demiſe to the Plaintiff, all his Tythe of Corn and Hay; and the Agreement between them was this: The Plaintiff ſhould pay him for the Tythe, 55 l. at a day certain, then next following; and upon this Agreement, the Defendant paſſed his Tythe to the Plaintiff, and upon his Promiſe, which not being performed, he brought the Action. It was found he confeſſed the Agreement to be ſo, but in Bar, he pleaded the Statute of 13 Eliz. cap. 20. and the Statute of 14 Eliz. cap. 11. for the avoiding of Leaſes made by a Parſon by his abſence from his Living by the ſpace of 80 days in one year; and ſhewed, That one J. S. was Parſon of S. (to whom theſe Tythes did belong and in whoſe right the Defendant claimed them) was abſent from his Parſonage by the ſpace of 80 days in one year, and ſhewed in what year, and ſo by this his Intereſt determined, and the Agreement with the Plaintiff by this made void: But they found, That J. S. Parſon of S. was not abſent in manner as was alledged, for they found, That he dwelt in another Town adjoyning, and came conſtantly to his Pariſh Church, and there read Service; and they found, That he had a Parſonage houſe in S. fit for his habitation; and whether this was an abſence to avoid the Leaſe within the Statute, was the Queſtion. It was ſaid by the Juſtices, That upon the ſaid Statutes of 13 and 14 Eliz. the Parſon ought to be abſent from his Church 80 dayes together in one year; ſcil. à Reſſionia, but this was not ſo here; for that he came to his Church, and read Divine Service four days in the week, viz. Sunday, Wedneſday, Friday, and Saturday; and therefore clearly this cannot be intended ſuch an abſence, as was within the ſcope of the Statute, as thereby to avoid his Leaſe: And ſo it was Reſolved by the whole Court, That the Defendants plea in Bar was not good, and Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Paſch. 7 Jac. in B. R. Shepherd and Twoolſirs Caſe. Bulſtrode 1. Part, 111, 112.

8. In an Ejectione firmæ, the Caſe was, The Dean and Chapter of Worceſter, by the name of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Worceſter, and the bleſſed Virgin of S. Mary of Worceſter, made a Leaſe for life; Habendum from the day of the date; and made a Letter of Attorney to one to make Livery, ſecundum formam Chartæ: The Attorney made Livery the next day after, and the Jury found the Leaſe made the 25. day of &c. and that the Livery that was made by the Attorney, was made poſt 25 diem prædict. The Queſtion was, Whether this was a good Leaſe, well made, and executed. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, and ſo Reſolved, That this Leaſe was not good, becauſe the Freehold is not to expect the beginning afterwards; and it is clear, this being a leaſe made à die datus, is not good, for that according to Cook 2. Part, 55. in Bucklers and Harvies Caſe, a Freehold cannot begin in futuro, Et quod ab initio non valet, tractu temporis non convalescit; And in this Caſe the Lord Dacres Caſe was argued, which was, That William Lord Dacres made a Feoffment in Fee to Thomas and Leonard his ſons, upon condition to make a Feoffment over to Parſon Dacres, and to one Middleton: All the Deeds were ready to be delivered; but it ſo happned, That before William Lord Dacres had delivered his Deed of Feoffment to Thomas and Leonard, that they had delivered their Deed to Parſon Dacres and Middleton, with a Letter of Attorney to one to make Livery: Afterwards, William Lord Dacres delivers his Deed; Livery was then by vertue of the Letter of the Attorney. It was adjudged in this Caſe, That this Livery was void, becauſe at the time of the Feoffment, they had nothing to paſs: for if a man makes a Feoffment, and a Letter of Attorney to one, to make Livery, and before ſuch an Eſtate do paſs, Livery is made, the Livery is clearly void. Trin. 12 Jac. in B. R. Baker and Finches Caſe, Bulſtr. 2. Part, 301. 303. 304.

Upon

Upon the Statute of 32 H. 8. cap. 30. And 18. Eliz. cap. 14. Of Jeofails.

1. IN Aſſumpſit, the Defendant pleaded non Aſſumpſit; Iſſue was joyned, and found for the Plaintiff: In Arreſt of Judgment it was alledged, That no place is alledged of the Aſſumpſit; and when an Iſſue is miſ-tryed, it is not helped by the Statute: The Opinion of the Court was, That the Statute ſhall be taken moſt liberally; ſo that if a Verdict be once given, it ſhall be a great cauſe that ſhall hinder Judgment; wherefore although no place be ſhewn, yet when it is tryed and found, he ought to have Judgement. Paſch. 29 Eliz. Goldesbr. 48.

2. In a Replevin, they were at Iſſue upon a Preſcription for Common, in N. appendant to Land in another place, and the Viſne was from N. only, which was found for the Plaintiff. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Viſne ought to be from both places, when the matter ariſeth in two places; and though it be after Verdict, yet in regard it was a miſ-tryal, it is not helped by the Statute of Jeofail. Mich. 28 Eliz. Goldesbr. 38. Knights Caſe.

3. In Aſſault and Battery, the Defendant was condemned by Nihil dicit, and a Writ of Enquiry of damages went out, and then the Attorney of the Plaintiff dyed. It was the Opinion of the Court, That if in an Action after Judgment, the Attorney dye, a new Attorney may pray Execution without Warrant; but in this Caſe, becauſe that he dyed before the ſecond Judgment, he ought to have a Warrant of Attorney; for the firſt Judgment is no final Judgment. It was then moved, That this ſhall not be within the Statute of Jeofails, which ſpeaketh of Verdicts; for this ſhall not be ſaid a Verdict, to which the Court agreed; for a Verdict is that which is put in Iſſue, by the joyning of the parties. Paſch. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Goldesbr. 43.

4. In a Formedon, they were at Iſſue, and a ſpecial Verdict found, and Judgment given for a default in the Writ of the Plaintiff, Error brought, and alledged for Error, That after Verdict given, no default in the Writ ſhall prejudice the Plaintiff by the Statute of 18 Eliz. cap. 14. Popham Chief Juſtice ſaid, That if there be no Writ, it is not helped by the Statute; otherwiſe, if there be inſufficient matter in the Writ; and in every Formedon there be two things requiſite; the one is the gift, the other is the Conveyance to the Defendant; and if either of theſe two fail, the Writ is inſufficient in ſubſtance, and is not holpen by the Statute. Hill. 43 Eliz. in B. R. Dowtall and Catesbyes Caſe. Goldesbr. 116.

5. It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That the Venire facias did vary from the Roll, in the Plaintiffs name; for the Roll was Peter Percy, and the Venire facias was John Percy, and the Poſtea was according to the Roll, which was the true name: The Court doubted whether it might be amended, or whether it ſhould be accounted as if no Venire facias had iſſued, becauſe it is betwixt other parties. But it was holden, That in caſe no Venire facias iſſueth, the ſame is holpen by the Statute of Jeofails, and in this caſe it is in effect as if no Venire facias had iſſued forth; and ſo it was adjudged. Cook Chief Juſtice ſaid, That if there be no Venire facias, or Habeas Corpora, yet if the Sheriff doth return a Jury, the ſame is helped by the Statute of Jeofails. Trin. 10 Jac. in C. B. Godbolt, 194. See there, Trin. 7 Jac. in the Exchequer, Herenden and Taylors Caſe adjudged accordingly.

6. An Action of Treſpaſs was brought, wherefore vi & armis, the Goods and Chattels of the Plaintiff he did take and impound; The Defendant pleaded the Common Bar; The Plaintiff aſſigned the place, and they are at Iſſue upon that: And after a Verdict, it was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That there was no Iſſue joyned, becauſe the Lands are not in queſtion, and ſo no Aſſignment neceſſary; and thereupon Judgment was ſtayed: But afterwards, upon a Motion to the Court, Judgment is given for the Plaintiff, becauſe the Iſſue was holpen by the Statute of Jeofails; and ſo it was ſaid it was adjudged. Trin. 4 Jac. in C. B. Hill. 6 Jac. in B. R. Plaiſt and Thornleys Caſe. Brownlow 1. Part, 200.

7. Debt brought againſt the Defendant, as heir to his father: The Defendant pleaded, That he had nothing by Deſcent but 29 Acres in D. in ſuch a County: The Plaintiff replyed, That he had more Land in the County of S. Upon this they were at Iſſue, and found for the Defendant; viz. That he had nothing in S. by reaſon whereof, the Plaintiff had Judgment to have Execution of the 20 Acres in D. This Judgment was in C. B. Upon which Error was brought, and Error was aſſigned in the Diſcontinuance in the Record of the Plea, from Eaſter Term, to Mich. Term after:

And

And whether it was helped by the Statute of 18 Eliz. becauſe it was after Verdict, was the Queſtion. It was adjudged by the Court out of the Statute, and that it was Error; for the Judgment was not grounded upon the Verdict, but only of the Defendant of Aſſets; and the Verdict was nothing to the purpoſe, but to make the Defendant's Confeſſion the more ſtrong: And therefore, the Statute of 18 Eliz. is to be intended, when the tryal by Verdict, is the means and cauſe of the Judgment, Quod Nota; and therefore the Judgment was reverſed. Hill. 7 Jac. in B. R. Mollineux and Mollineux's Caſe. Brownlow, 1. Part, 106.

3. In an Attachment of Priviledg, the Plaintiff being an Attorney, declared upon an Aſſumpſit; And after a Verdict for the Plaintiff, and Judgment, Errour was brought, and aſſigned, Becauſe there was no pledges entred upon the Imparlance Roll. It was moved, That it might be amended, and pledges inſerted. For in the Niſi Prius Roll, there are pledges mentioned. But the amendment was denyed by the Court; for although the Iſſue Roll ſhall be amended by the Imparlance Roll, becauſe it is precedent; yet the Imparlance Roll ſhall not be amended by the Iſſue Roll: and it was not remedied by the Statute of 18 Eliz. Mich. 3 Car. in C. B. Wolfe and Holes Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 65.

9. In Attaint; One of the Jurors was returned by the name of Alexander Preſcott: In the Reſumnions which is in the nature of Diſtringas, it was Alexandrus Preſcott, and he was ſworn by that name. The Verdict of the Petit Jury was affirmed by them. In ſtay of Judgment, it was moved, That this was tryed by a wrong perſon, and therefore the Verdict is ill, and not helped by any Statute. But the Sheriff and the ſaid Jurour being examined in Court, It appeared, That Alexander was his true name, and that he was the Jurour intended to be returned and ſworn, and that there was not any known by the name of Alexandrus Preſcott in the ſame Town. It was clearly Reſolved by the Court, That it was not aided by the Statute of 21 Jac. for that extends to the Sirname only of Jurours, where their additions are miſtaken, but not where a Chriſtian name is. And Cook 5. Part, 42. was vouched, Where Palus Cheek was returned in the Venire facias, and the Diſtringas was Paulus Cheek, which was his true name, and yet not amended. Note, in that caſe, the Miſpriſion was in the Return of the Venire facias, which was the firſt Proceſs and Return; but in this caſe in the ſecond, which ought to be guided by the former Proceſs. Wherefore the Court doubted of the Caſe; And it was Adjourned. Mich. 6 Car. in B. R. Drewet and Winchcomb Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 147.

10. After a Verdict for the Plaintiff in an Action upon the Caſe; It was moved, That there was a Miſtriall not aided by any Statute: For upon the Venire facias there were but 23 Jurours returned, where there ought to have been 24: The Tryall was by 10 of the Principal, and two of the Tales de Circumſtantibus. It was urged, That where the Tryall is by 12 of the Principall, it is good; but if there was not 12 of the Principal ſworn, it ſhall not be good. And ſo it was ſaid, it was adjudged, 21 Jac. in Colthop and Newes Caſe, where the Tryal was by 10 of the Principal, and two of the Tales, that it was a Miſ-tryall. But afterwards, upon Conference with the reſt of the Juſtices at Serjeants Inne, the greater part of them conceived, That in the principal Caſe, It was but a Miſreturn of the Sheriff, and that it was helped by the Statutes of 18 Eliz. 21 Jac. Wherefore it was adjudged for the Plaintiff, Trin. 7 Car. in B. R. Sankell and Stafford Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 161.

11. Errour of a Judgment in C. B. in an Aſſumpſit: The Error aſſigned was, Becauſe upon the Venire facias 23 Jurors were returned; and in the Habeas Corpora there were 24; viz. the 23 who were returned upon the Venire facias, and one L. who was not therein Returned, and being returned by Diſtringas, 12 of them were ſworn, whereof the ſaid L. was one, and the Iſſue tryed by them. This being aſſigned for Errour, it was holden by the whole Court, That it was Errour, and not aided by any of the Statutes of 32 H. 8. 18 Eliz. or 21 Jac. For a Juror returned who is not a Juror, who was never returned by the Sheriff, ſo as he appearing, is ſworn without warrant, and is one added peradventure by the Nomination of the Plaintiff: Wherefore for this cauſe, the Judgment was Reverſed. Trin. 8 Car. in B. R. Fines and Norton's Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 202, 203.

12. Errour of a Judgment in an Ejectione Firmæ, Becauſe the Original doth not warrant the Declaration; for the Original bears date, 24 Jan. 6 Car. and the Ejectment is ſuppoſed 31 Jan. And after Not Guilty, and Verdict found for the Plaintiff; this was aſſigned for Errour. It was the Opinion of the whole Court in this Caſe, That the Judgment was Erroneous, Becauſe this Original is certified as an Original in this Action which is betwixt the ſame parties of the ſame Land, and of the ſame Term, and being taken out before the cauſe of Action, it is a vicious and ill Original, and not aided by any Statute. Whereupon the Judgment was Reverſed. Mich. 8 Car.

13. Debt by an Adminiſtrator for Arrearages of Rent upon a Leaſe by the Inteſtate: The Plaintiff declared, That Adminiſtration was committed by the Archbiſhop, but did not ſay, profert hic in Curia literas Adminiſtrationis. The Defendant pleaded, And it was found for the Plaintiff. In ſtay of Judgment, it was moved, That the not ſhewing of the Letters of Adminiſtration was matter of ſubſtance, which made the Declaration vitious, and not aided by the Statutes of 32 H. 8. or 18 Eliz. of Verdicts; for that enables the Plaintiff to his Action, and the omiſſion thereof takes from the Defendant the advantage which he might have by demanding Oyer thereof. It was Reſolved by the Court, That it was a matter of ſubſtance which ought to be ſhewen by the Plaintiff, to enable to his Action; and the Defendant ſhall have advantage thereof at any time. Wherefore it was adjudged for the Defendant. Mich. 14 Jac. in B.R. Sir John Cutts and Bennetts Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 409. See Trin. 12 Jac. in C. B. Cope and Lenams Caſe. Hob. 3. acc.

14. Errour to reverſe a Judgment given in C. B. in a Writ of Raviſhment of Ward; The Errour aſſigned was, That neither upon the Return of the Original Writ before the Sheriff, nor after in Court, any pledges were Returned. It was agreed by all the Juſtices, That at the Common-Law, it was Errour; for, for the Kings and parties benefit, the Plaintiff ought to find pledges, that if he be Non-ſuited, he and his Pledges be amerced. The doubt was, Whether it was aided by the Statute of 18 Eliz. which doth aid defects in Returns, defects of Forms &c. It was Objected, That it was within the Body of the Act, and out of the Proviſo: For penal Lawes, are to be intended thoſe actions which are popular, and a penalty in groſs for the King, or for the Plaintiff, but not to thoſe actions which give greater damages as, Actions of Waſte Debt, &c. But the Opinion of the Court was, That it was not aided by the body of the Act; for that only redreſſes defaults in forms or miſreturns, or inſufficient Returns, which may happen by negligence, or inſufficiency of the Clerk: But not finding of Pledges, is merely the act of the party, which is not aided, although it be within the words, yet it is clearly excepted by the Proviſo; for this Action is founded upon a penal Law, which the Proviſo excepts clearly out of the Act. Wherefore it was adjudged, That the firſt Judgment ſhould be reverſed. Hill. 14 Jac. in B. R. Dr. Haſſie and Mores Caſe, Cro. 2. Part, 414.

15. Errour brought of a Judgment in B. R. in an Action upon an Obligation; Iſſue being taken upon payment, the Venire facias was awarded to the Coroners, and Verdict found, and Judgment for the Plaintiff; And Errour brought: The Errour aſſigned was, That where the Venire facias was returned by two Coroners only; and the Diſtringas by 3. Coroners, there was at the time of the Award and Return of the Venire facias and Diſtringas, 4 Coroners; It was agreed, That this was at the Common-Law an Errour; for Coroners or Miniſters muſt all joyn, but as Judges they may divide. But by the Statute of Jeofails, it was made good, by the words of imperfect and inſufficient returning of Proceſs by Sheriffs or other Officers. Yet the Court was of Opinion, That if one Sheriff of London make his Return without his fellow, that this would not be holpen, as being no Return at all. Hill. 11 Jac. in C.B. Lamb and Wiſemans Caſe. Hob. 70.

16. Errour to reverſe a Judgment in C. B. in an Action of Waſte. The Biſhop declared upon a Leaſe made by himſelf; whereas in truth the ſame was made by his Predeceſſor: and this was aſſigned for Errour, for this Variance between the Original Writ and the Declaration. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That it was a material Errour, and was not aided by the Statute of 18 Eliz. and therefore the Judgment was reverſed. See Cook 5. Part, 37. Biſhops Caſe, acc. Mich. 14 Jac. in B. R. Young and the Biſhop of Rocheſters Caſe. Bulſtr. 3. Part, 224.

17. Debt upon a Bill of 6 l. 13 s. 4 d. The Defendant demanded Oyer of the Bill: in which, after the Clauſe, In cujus rei teſtimonium, this Clauſe was added in the nature of a Proviſo; Provided Nevertheleſs, That the ſaid 6 l. 13 s. 4 d. is not to be paid untill ſuch a one hath had a Recovery in ſuch an Action or Suit which he hath hanging againſt the Plaintiff, upon a Bond of 200 l. Conditioned for the ſaving harmleſs, or hath made an end of the ſaid Suit; and then the Concluſion was, Dat. eiſdem die et anno &c. To this the Defendant pleaded in Barr, That no end was made of the ſaid Suit upon the Bond of 200 l. nor any recovery had, but that the ſame ſtill depends, and therefore according to the Proviſo, the 6 l. 13 s. 4 d. is not to be paid to the Plaintiff. The Plaintiff Replyed, That an end was made of the ſaid Suit upon the Obligation by a Compoſition of 20 l. given and accepted of in full ſatisfaction and diſcharge of the ſaid Suit, and ſo the 6 l. 13 s. 4 d. now demanded, is to be paid to him. Upon which, being at Iſſue, a Verdict was for the Plaintiff: It was moved, That the Plaintiff ought not to have Judgment, becauſe upon the matter of Fact, matter of Law ariſeth, which makes againſt the Plaintiff; viz. the giving of 20 l. in satisfaction of 200 l. which in Law is not good. It was the Opinion of the whole Court in this Case, That Judgment ought to be given for the Plaintiff. It was Resolved, That this Proviso was parcell of the Bill, although it came after the words, In cujus rei Testimonium. It must be agreed, That after the day that the money is due, 20 l. cannot be paid in satisfaction of 200 l, but in this case it is not so, the 20 l. being paid to end the Suit for 200 l. and this is good; and before the day that the same was due, 20 l. may be given and accepted of, and good in Law, for to satisfie for 100 l. before the day that the same was due; or this may well end a Suit for 100 l. Wherefore by the whole Court, Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Mich. 1 Car. in B. R. Tompson and Butchers Case. Rolls. 3 Part, 301, 302.

18. Debt upon an Obligation for payment of a lesser sum: The Defendant pleaded a New Bond given at the day in full satisfaction, and so accepted. The Plaintiff did not Demur upon the Plea, but took Issue, That it was not accepted: And by Verdict, it was found against the Plaintiff; And yet Judgment was prayed for the Plaintiff, Because the Bond upon which the Action was brought, and the Action it self was denyed, but as good as confessed, and the Plea to discharge it, was none in Law. On the other side, it was said, That by the Statute of 32 H. 8. of Jeofails, Judgment ought to be given for the Defendant, according to the Verdict. And it was said, That the Case as it was put, was mistaken; for that the Plaintiff was Nonsuit before the Verdict. Trin. 11 Jac. in C. B. Rowden and Strat's Case, Hob. 69. But see, Mich. 6 Jac. in C. B. In Debt brought upon an Obligation by Husband and Wife of 100 l. made to her when she was sole, for the payment of 52 l. 10 s. The Defendant pleaded, That at the day of payment of the 52 l. 10 s. he and his son did make a new Bond of the sum of 100 l. to the said Wife, being then sole, for the payment of the said 52 l. 10 s. at another day then to come, which she accepted of. Upon which, It was Demurred. And it was adjudged for the Plaintiff, for that it was holden no Actual satisfaction at present as it ought to be. Sir Richard Lovelace and Corbets's Case. Hob. 68.

19. An Action was brought upon the Statute of Winchester, of Hue and Cry, against the Hundred of C; and it was found for the Plaintiff; and a Writ of Errour was brought, and all the Record was Certified, and now the Plaintiff prayed, That two things might be amended; The first, the Title of the Action: For upon the Roll, it is an Action upon the Case; whereas it should have been an Action upon the Statute. But it was said by Hobart, Chief Justice, and agreed by the whole Court, That it could not be amended; for that the Statute of 18 Eliz. did not give Amendment upon Indictments, or upon Actions Popular, or Actions upon Penal Statutes. The second was, upon the Venire facias, Where Gregory was returned; but the Clerk of the Assizes returned one George: And it was the Opinion of the whole Court, That there needed no Amendment of it, it being in the Tales de Circumstantibus, and not in the principall Pannel: And also, for that it was by the consent of the parties. And Hobart said, If that Variance had been material, It should not be amended; for that we will not make a new Certificate, for the Court of Kings-Bench may chuse to Credit the first or the second Certificate, and so we shall submit our Judgments to the Censure and Pleasure of another Court; which we will not do. Upon the Statutes of 23 Eliz. Cap. 1. 29 Eliz. Cap. 6. 35 Eliz. Cap. 1. 3 Jac. Cap. 4. and other Statutes against Recusants.

1. IN an Information in the Exchequer; the Case was; A. a Recusant, before 23 Eliz. took a Recognizance in the names of the Defendants, and took a grant of a Rent-Charge to them in Fee, with a Condition of Redemption. The Recognizance was upon Condition, for performance of Covenants in the same Deed. Afterwards, the Statute of 28 Eliz. was made; By which it was Enacted, That if default of payment was made in any part of payment of 20 l. for every moneth, &c. Then and so often, the Queens Majesty by Process out of the Exchequer, may take, secure, and enjoy all the Goods, and two parts, &c. And that after the said Act, and before 24 Eliz. A. had lent great sums of money to S; and for assurance of it, took a Rent-Charge by Deed Indented, in the names of other the Defendants, for performance of Covenants: Which Recognizances did amount in all to 21000 l. all which were to the the uſe of the ſaid A. and were at his diſpoſition; And after 41 Eliz. A. was Convict of Recuſancy, and did not pay the 20 l. a moneth: And, If the King ſhould have the benefit of the ſaid Recognizances, was the Queſtion? It was Objected, 1. That if the Recognizances had been acknowledged to A. himſelf, they ſhould not be forfeited, becauſe the Statute ſpeaks only of goods, and debts are not included in the word [Goods]. 2. They were acknowledged to perform Covenants in an Indenture for a Rent-Charge, and therefore not within the Intent of the Act, which ſpeaks of Goods. 3. No Fraud or Covin appears in the Caſe, and then, for as much as no Act of Parliament extends to this Caſe, the Common-Law doth not give any benefit to the King. 4. Becauſe in this Caſe, A. hath not any goods within 28 Eliz. but only a meer Truſt and Confidence, which is nothing in Conſideration of Law: And the Court cannot adjudge, That they belong to the King by Equity of the ſaid Statute, becauſe it is a Penall Law: and alſo one of the Recognizances was taken before the Statute of 28 Eliz. which gave the forfeiture. But it was ſaid by all the Barons of the Exchequer, upon Conference had with the other Juſtices, 1. That if the Recognizances had been acknowledged to the party himſelf, they were given to the King; for perſonal actions are included within the words, Goods, as goods in poſſeſſion. And it was ſaid, That it had been Reſolved, That debts were forfeited to the King by the ſaid Act. To the ſecond it was ſaid, That as well the Recognizance, as Annuity, were made for the payment of money; and when they are forfeited, they are but Chattels perſonal. To the third it was ſaid, There was Covin apparant; For when he was a Recuſant at the time of the Act of 23 Eliz. It ſhall be intended, He took the ſaid Recognizance in the name of others, to prevent the King of levying of the forfeiture. To the fourth it was ſaid, Non reſpondit, whether the debts doth accrue to the King by the Common-Law, or by the Statute; if it be any the way or other, No ſubterfuge that the party can uſe, can defraud the King: And although one of the Recognizances was taken before the Statute of 28 Eliz. yet it was to his uſe, and ſo in the nature of a Chattel to him. And although A. was not convict, till 41 Eliz. that is not material; for that at all times before, he was ſubject to a forfeiture for his Recognizances. It was adjudged for the King. Paſch. 4 Jac. in Exchequer. Ford and Sheldons Caſe, Cook 12. Part, 1. & 2.

2. Note; This Caſe was moved to the Court; Leaſee for life, the Remainder in Fee; He in the Remainder cuts down Timber-Trees, and ſells them. Tenant for life being a woman, was informed againſt for Recuſancy: The ſale of the Trees was made by the aſſent of the Tenant for life: the money was brought by the Vendee into the Exchequer, who ſhould have the money, was the Queſtion? It was the Opinion of the Court, That he in the remainder cannot cut and ſell without the aſſent of the Tenant for life, who did aſſent; The Recuſant cannot be entituled to the Timber, but he in the Remainder is to have them, Therefore the Rule of the Court was, That the money ſhould be delivered to him in the Remainder upon a Bond entred by him to repay the money, if the Court ſhould ſee cauſe; but that the money ſhould not be paid to him, before the Wood was delivered to the Vendee: But however, the Court was clear of Opinion, That the King could not by any wayes be intituled to have the Timber Trees. Paſch. 9 Jac. in the Exchequer. Baſtr. 1. Part, 133.

3. Errour to reverſe a Judgment upon an Indictment againſt the Lord St. John, for his Recuſancy for his abſence from Church for 2. moneths. Upon pleading, It was found, That he was faulty for the abſence of one moneth parcell of the time, and not for the other. Wherefore it was adjudged, That he ſhould forfeit 20 l. and for the other moneth eat ſine die. The Kings Attorney ſignified to the Court the Kings Majeſties pleaſure to be, That if it was Erroneous, that it ſhould be reverſed. Divers Exceptions were taken to it, None of which by the Court were holden to be material. And it was doubted, Whether any Exception be good upon Conviction of Recuſancy: For the Statute of 3 Jac. is preciſely, That it ſhall not be void, or diſcharged for default of form or other matter, untill after conforming himſelf to the Church. But yet afterwards in the principal Caſe, becauſe the Judgment was not Ideo Capiatur, and the omiſſion thereof is apparant to the Kings prejudice; and for that upon every Conviction in Indictments, the Judgment is Quod Capiatur; For this cauſe the Judgment was Reverſed. Mich. 14 Car. in B. R. The Marquels of Wincheſter's Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 362.

4. Information againſt the Husband upon the Statute of 23 Eliz. Cap. 1. for 240 l. which he was to forfeit for the Recuſancy of his Wife, by abſenting her ſelf from Church for ſo long a time. Upon Tryall, It was found for the King. It was moved, That this Statute doth not extend to the husband, to ſubject him to the penalty of the ſaid Act for the Recuſancy of his Wife, he himſelf being Conformable; and here the husband is not made a party by 23 Eliz. and therefore he ſhall not pay the penalty inflicted by the ſaid Statute. But the Statute of 35 Eliz. Cap. 2. gives an Action of Debt for the penalty, and this brings the husband in. But the ſame was Over-ruled by the Court, according to the Judgment given in Dr. Foſters Caſe. Which Caſe, ſee Cook 11. Part; and after followeth, Mich. 13 Jac. in B. R. The King and Lewis Caſe. Co. Jr. 3. Part, 87.

5. An Informer ſued a Recuſant for the penalty of 20 l. by the moneth, for not repairing to the Parish-Church, or other Chappell or uſuall place of Common-Prayer or Divine Service. The Defendant pleaded the Statute of 23 Eliz. That every Recuſant, being a Recuſant Convict, ſhould forfeit to the King for every moneth 20 l. and pleaded the Statute of 28 Eliz. That every Offendor againſt the Statute of 23 Eliz. ſhall pay for every moneth after ſuch Conviction, without any other Indictment, 20 l. to the King at the Exchequer; and pleaded the Statute of 35 Eliz. quodq; nulla pars, by the ſaid Statute ſhould be paid to the Informer. In this Caſe it was Objected, 1. That none ſhould encur the forfeiture, unleſſe he was lawfully Convicted before; and it doth not appear, that the Defendant was a Recuſant convict before, and Penal Statutes ſhall be taken ſtrictly. 2. That none can Inform upon the Statute of 23 Eliz. but the King only. 3. That the Conviction ought to be by Verdict or Confeſſion, and ſhall not extend to a Judgment upon a Demurrer. 4. That the penalty of 20 l. a moneth is expreſly given to the King, and by Conſequence, the Informer is excluded. And, 5. The Statute of 35 Eliz. by expreſſe words, gives the penalty to the King, Et Leges poſteriores, priores Contrarias abrogant. But in this Caſe, It was Reſolved, 1. That the Statute of 23 Eliz. of Diſtribution, did extend as well to the Clauſe of penalty of Recuſancy, as to the Clauſe of Saying and Receiving of Maſſe. 2. Reſolved, That he againſt whom any Judgment is given upon Nihil dicit, or upon inſufficient Plea pleaded, or Demurrer upon it, is convicted within the purview of the Statute; for he who is Attainted or Adjudged, is Convicted and more. 3. Reſolved, That the Statute of 28 Eliz. had not taken away the Liberty which the Informer had by the Act of 23 Eliz. becauſe the ſaid Act did not intend any Abrogation, but a more ſpeedy execution of the branches of the Act of 23 Eliz. and becauſe this Act doth not give the penalty to any perſon to whom it was not given before: And alſo the Statute is in the affirmative; and Statutes in the Affirmative, do not take away precedent Statutes in the Affirmative. 4. Reſolved, That the Statute of 35 Eliz. doth not abrogate the Statute of 23 Eliz. as to the Action popular; for the purpoſe of the Act was only to auſt delayes, and to give a more ſpeedy remedy againſt the Husbands for the forfeitures of their Wives Recuſancy: ſo as now the Husbands and their Wives may be charged as well at the Kings Suit by Debt, Bill, Plaint, as at the Suit of the Informer: And the words of the Act of 35 Eliz. are not penned ſimpliciter; ſcil. that all and ſingular the paines ſhall be reſtored to his Majeſties uſe, but ſecundum quid et ſub modo. 5. Reſolved, That the Stat. of 23 Eliz. which gives the 20 l. a moneth, doth not take away the Act of 1 Eliz. which gives the forfeiture of 12 d. for every Sunday, but both ſtand together. Cook 11. 6. E. F. being the Kings Ward of Lands holden of the King by Knight-Service in Chief, dyed the Kings Ward; And by Devenerunt after his death, It was found in the 13th year of the King, That Lettice and Eliz. were his Siſters and heirs, and both of full age: And that L. the elder Siſter in the life of her brother the Ward, departed out of the Realm without Licence, to prevent her Religious Education, and was and remained a Nun profeſt at Doway in Flanders, and that the profits of all the Lands by the Statute of 3 Jac. Cap. 5. belong unto her other ſiſter Elizabeth. The Queſtion was, What ſhould become of the part of Lettice? Which caſe being referred to the Juſtices, the Lord Chief Juſtice Mountague and the Lord Hobart; It was agreed by them, That the moyty of Lettice as to the Eſtate of the Land, was not forfeited nor ſettled in Elizabeth her ſiſter; for the Statute ſaith ſhall take no benefit by deſcent, &c. not that ſhe ſhould not take by deſcent; and then proceeds to ſhew the meaning thereof, that the ſaid profits during her unconformity, ſhall be received by the next of Kin, and they ſhall be anſwerable unto her after her Conformity. And therefore it was Reſolved in that Caſe, That the ſaid Eliz. cannot as the next of Kin, challenge or demand of Right to have Livery out of the Kings hands of the part and purpart of the ſaid Lettice by virtue of the Statute of 3 Jac. neither by the words, nor by the intent of the Statute; but the King, if it pleaſe him, might retain the Moyty of the ſaid Lettice, untill ſuch time as according to the Statute made 1 Eliz. ſhe ſhall take the Oath appointed by the ſaid Statute: Which was decreed accordingly. 7. A. B. C. and others were sued in a Quare impedit by the Chancellor, Master and Schollers of Cambridge, and they claimed the Presentation to the Church of C. by the Statute of 3 Jac. because that B. being Patron of the said Church at the time of the Avoidance of the Church by the death of J. P. then last Incumbent, was then a Popish Recusant. To all this, the Defendants pleaded; but the Plea of A. which was most materiall, was this; He did confesse, That B. was seised of the Mannor of E. to which he in his Demesne is of Fee, and that he was a Popish Recusant: but he said, That for non payment of 20 l. a month, by Commission sent forth; and upon Inquisition, it was found, That the said B. was seised at the time of his Conviction, of the said Mannor, &c. and thereupon, the Commissioners did seize two parts of the said Mannor into the Kings hands; and that the King did by Letters Patents Demise to the said A. the said two parts, and all profits to the same belonging for 21 years, si tam diu &c. and there shewed, that the Church became void. A. still remaining a Popish Recusant, by reason whereof he presented C. his Clerk, absq; hoc, That B. was Patron of the same Church at the time of the Avoidance, as the Plaintiffs had declared. Upon this Plea, The Court conceived, That the Title to the Avoidance did appear to be in the King; for the Statute gives two parts of all the Recusants possessions, so that although there be no mention made in the Inquisition and seizure of the Advowson specially; yet two parts of the Advowson will follow two parts of the Mannor, and then the King will present next: Whereupon the Plaintiffs were demanded, What they could say, Why a Writ to the Bishop should not be awarded for the King upon his Title? Whereupon they did confesse, notwithstanding their Title made in their Declaration, which they did disclaim, that the title of Presentation was in the King: And thereupon a Writ was awarded for the King to the Bishop accordingly. Upon the Statute of 31 Eliz. cap. 6. Of Symony.

1. NOte, It was Resolved by the whole Court, That if any shall receive or take money, Fee, reward, or other profit for any Presentation to a Benefice with Cure, although in truth he who is Presented, be not knowing of it, yet the Presentation, Admission, and Induction are void by the expresse words of the Statute of 31 Eliz. cap. 6. and the King shall have the Presentation hac vice; for the Statute intends to inflict punishment upon the Patron, as upon the Author of this corruption, by the loss of his Presentation; and upon the Incumbent who came in by such a corrupt Patron, by the loss of his Incumbency, although that he never knew of it. But if the Presentee be not cognisant of the corruption, then he shall not be within the clause of disability in the same Statute. And so it was said it was Resolved, Mich. 8 Jac. in C. B. per verba Statuti, which are very well penned against the avarice of corrupt Patrons. Mich. 10 Jacobi. Doctor Hutchinsons Case. Cook 12. Part, 101. See ibid. 75. acc.

2. The words of the Statute are (For any sum of money, reward, gift, profit, or benefit) or for, or by reason of any Bond, Promise, Agreement, Covenant, or assurance for any Sum, Reward, Gift, Profit, or Benefit, Present, or Collate.

3. The Question in the Court of Common Pleas, was, That a Feme Sole was seised of an Advowson of a Church; and the Church being void, she Presented J. S. to the Church, upon Condition, That he should take the woman for his Wife, which he did accordingly. It was Resolved in that Case, That this was a Simonaical Contract which made the Presentation void, for that it was a benefit within the Statute to the Woman, and an advancement of her: And in that Case, it was put, That if the Patron of a Church Present J. S. to the Church, being void, upon an agreement that he shall be Tutor to the Son of the Patron: That although this be not properly a gift, or a Reward; yet in regard it was a benefit to the Patron in the Tuition of his Son, that the same was within the intent of the Statute. Mich. 8 Jac. in C. B. Mountfords Case. And in the Argument of that Case, this Case was put, Contention was between the Parson Parſon and the Pariſhoners for Tythe Cyder. The Church afterwards became void, and the Patron did Preſent J. S. to the Church upon Condition that he ſhould not ſue the Pariſhoners for Tythe Cyder. It was ſaid, that it was adjudged in that Caſe, That the ſame was not any Simonaical agreement within the Statute, for that it was only to prevent a Suit, and a Deed of mercy. But if the Patron himſelf were within the Pariſh, and ſhould pay ſuch Tythe, then becauſe the Patron had a benefit and profit by ſuch an agreement, it had bin a Simonaical Contract within the Statute.

4. The Church within the Tower of London being a Donative of the King; one J. S. was Parſon thereof, and reſigned. Afterwards the Defendant agreed with J. S. to give him 20 l. if he might be procured to be Preſented thereunto by the King, and Admitted and Inducted. It was ſaid, That this being a Donative of the Kings Donation, was not within the Statute of 31 Eliz. for that mentions only where one comes in only by Simony by Preſentation. And 2. That this could not be within the Statute, becauſe that the King being Donor, it cannot be intended that he Preſented by Simony. And the Statute is, That the Patron ſhall loſe his Preſentment for that time, and the King is to have it; and therefore it ſhall not extend to any of the Kings Donations. But both the Exceptions were diſallowed by the Court. For the firſt, that though it be a Donative, yet it is in equal miſchief with a Preſentation, and ſo within the remedy: And for the ſecond, For that Simony may be contracted betwixt ſtrangers, and yet within the purview of the Statute. Mich. 9 Car. in B. R. Bowdrock & Mackellars Caſe. Cr. 1. Part, 241.

5. Debt upon an Obligation for performance of Covenants, That T. B. ſon of W. B. ſhould marry A. Daughter of the Defendant, and in conſideration of this Marriage, the Defendant Covenanted to pay 300 l. and amongſt divers other Covenants, the Defendant Covenanted, That he would procure the ſaid T. B. to be Preſented, Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted into ſuch a Benefice upon the next Avoydance of the ſaid Church; and the breach aſſigned was, for not performance of the ſaid Covenant of procuring him to be Admitted, and Inſtituted, &c. And upon this the Defendant demurred, becauſe this Covenant is againſt Law, being a Simonaical Agreement, and a Bond for performance thereof is not good. But it was holden by the whole Court, That if it had appeared to have bin, That in conſideration of the Marriage of his Son, &c. he would procure him to be Preſented, Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted into ſuch a Church, That had bin a Simonaical Contract, and had voided the Obligation. But here this Covenant is not a conſideration of the ſaid former Covenants, nor depending upon them, but it is a meer diſtinct Covenant in it ſelf, and independant upon the former, and without ſpecial averring or ſhewing, That it was a Simonaical Contract, it ſhall not be intended, but it may be a Covenant upon a good conſideration; and therefore it was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Mich. 11 Car. in B. R. Hyde and Mannings Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 307.

6. If the Biſhop of Canterbury Granteth a Diſpenſation to J. S. upon a corrupt Contract, ut ſpero the Church of D. which is void; and afterwards Lapſe incurreth to the Biſhop as Ordinary; and thereupon he Collates J. S. to the ſame Church. It was ſaid, That in this Caſe, that it was a Collation upon a corrupt agreement within the Statute, for that in ſuch Caſe the Law looks back upon the Original Act, the Diſpenſation upon the corrupt Agreement, by Hobart Chief Juſtice, in the Argument of Colt and Glover's Caſe. Hob. 158. 159.

7. A. ſeiſed of a Manour to which an Advowſon is appendant; S. comes to A. and promiſeth him, That if he would Preſent him after the death of the now Incumbent, that he would give him 70 l. to which he agreed; and upon that it is agreed, That the next Avoydance ſhall be granted to S: the Incumbent dyes, A. preſents S. who continues Incumbent from 27 El. to 7 Jac. Then A. grants the Manour with the Appurtenances to W. S. the Incumbent dyeth 7 Jac. and the King Preſents J. S. by Title of Simony. W. brings a Quare Impedit, and adjudged in that Caſe, That it doth not lye; and there it was agreed, That it was Simony, becauſe there was a corrupt contract for the Advowſon. And note, that in the Statute of 31 Eliz. there is not the word Simony, for by that means the Common Law would have bin Judg what ſhould have bin Simony what not; but the words are, Corrupt Agreement: And it was ſaid, That although the next Avoydance might be bought and ſold bona fide, without Simony: Yet it was in the principal Caſe Granted to S. to perform the corrupt Agreement. 2. It was Reſolved in that Caſe, That the death of the Simonaical Incumbent did not hinder but the King might well preſent, for that the Church was never full as to the King, and that turn is preſerved to the King by force of the Statute; and it was agreed in that Caſe, To ſay the Church was full for ſix Months is no Plea, where the party is in by Simony. Paſc. 14 Jac. in C. B. Wincheomb and Pollitons Caſe. Noy 25. See Hob. 165. to 169. more at large, the ſame Caſe.

8. In a Quare Impedit by the King, It was Reſolved by the whole Court, That if an Incumbent were guilty of Simony in obtaining a Benefice, that he was made uncapable of that Benefice for ever by by the words of the Statute of 31 Eliz. which are largely to be expounded; and it was compared to the Caſe of Sir Arthur Ingram, who having bought the Office of Cofferer, being an Office handling and concerning the Kings Treaſure; where it was holden by the Lord Chancellor Egerton and Cook Chief Juſtice, that he was not only removeable for the perſon, but alſo for ever uncapable of that Office by force of the Statute of 5 E. 6. although he had a Non obſtante in his Letters Patents, for that the Perſon being diſabled by the Statute, he could not be enabled by the King to take that Office again. 9. Note, an Arch-Deaconry is an Eccleſiaſtical Preferment, of which there are three ſorts. 1. De jure. 2. By Preſcription. 3. By Covenant. It was a Queſtion moved in the Court of Common Pleas, 9 Car. If an Arch-Deaconry de jure were within the Statute of 31 Eliz. and if a gift or reward were given for ſuch a Dignity, Whether it was within the Statute. It was holden, That it was directly within the Statute. But it was conceived, That where an Arch-deaconry is by Preſcription, or by Covenant between the Biſhop and Arch-deacon, that ſuch an Arch-deaconry might be out of the Statute. For although the word (Covenant) be within the Statute; yet it was ſaid that the ſame ſhall be taken to extend only where a Covenant is made for a ſum of money for ſuch an Arch-deaconry which is de jure, and ſhall not extend to Arch-deaconryes by Preſcription; as to the Arch-deaconry of Richmond, or other the like Arch-deaconryes, which time out of mind have bin holden by Covenant between the Biſhop and the Arch-deacon: and therefore it was ſaid, That if J. S. Covenant with the Biſhop to pay him 10 l. per annum out of ſuch an Arch-deaconry, that ſuch a Covenant was out of the Statute of 31 Eliz. And it was there ſaid, That an Arch-deaconry by Preſcription was as ſtrong as one de Communi jure. Mich. 9 Car. in C. B. acc.

Upon the Statutes of 5 Eliz. Cap. 2. and 39 Eliz. Of Tillage.

1. INformation was in the Exchequer againſt the Defendant upon the Statute of 5 Eliz. of Tillage, ſetting forth, That the Defendant had converted 300 Acres of Arrable Lands of Tillage to Paſture, and the ſame Converſion hath continued from 15 Eliz. to 20 Eliz. The Defendant as to the Converſion pleaded, Not Guilty, and as to the Continuance, the general Pardon of Parliament 23 Eliz. upon which it was demurred in Law. In this Caſe it was argued, That the Pardon did not extend to the Continuance of the ſaid Converſion: And in this Caſe, the Barons were of Opinion, That if A. be ſeiſed of Arrable Lands, and Converts the ſame to Paſture, and ſo converted, leaſeth it to B. who continues it in Paſture as he found it, he ſhall be charged by that Statute; and it was ſaid, It is not any good conſtruction, where the Exception in the Pardon is, Excepting the Converting of any Lands from Tillage to Paſture, made, done, committed, or permitted, that the Converſion out of the Pardon ſhall be intended and conſtrued, the bare act of Converſion, but the whole Offence, ſcil. the continuance and practice of it is underſtood: As if by general Pardon all Intruſions are excepted, now by that, the inſtant act of Intruſion, ſcil. the bare entry is not only excepted, but alſo the Continuance of the Intruſion, and the proportion of the profits. And note the words of the Statute are (Converſion permitted), and Converſion continued, is Converſion permitted, and the Statute doth not punish the Converſion, but alſo the continuance of the Converſion, for the penalty is appointed for each year in which the Converſion continues. It was ſaid on the other ſide, That the Converſion and the Continuance thereof are two ſeveral things each by it ſelf; and ſo the Converſion being only excepted, the Continuance thereof remains in the grant of the Pardon. Quære, for the Caſe was not Reſolved, but it was adjourned, &c. Mich. 26 Eliz. in the Exchequer. Clyppeſtes Caſe. Lett. 274.

2. In

2. In an Information upon the Statute of 39 Eliz. for not reſtoring of Paſture into Tillage, being ancient Tillage Lands, and converted into Paſture: Upon Not Guilty pleaded, It was found, That the Land was ancient Tillable Land, and uſed for Tillage 22 years before the Converſion, and converted before the Statute of 39 Eliz. and not reſtored before 1. May 1599. nor ever ſince. And that the Defendant was an Occupier for the laſt year, being the time in the Information mentioned, but never before: and whether he were puniſhable as an Offender within the Statute, was the Queſtion. For the words of the Statute are, That Lands Converted before the Statute ſhall be reſtored into Tillage before 1. May 1599. and being reſtored ſhall ſo continue for ever. It was ſaid, It was out of the Statute, a ſtranger being Occupier thereof, and not he that converted it. But it was Reſolved, That he was within the Statute; for although he be out of the words, yet he is within the intent thereof: For the Statute extends to puniſh the Occupier and continuer thereof in Paſture, and not only the firſt Converter; and if other conſtruction ſhould be made, then all Lands which were converted before 9 Eliz. and not re-converted before 1. May 1599. ſhould be out of the Statute, which was not the meaning of the Statute: Wherefore it was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Upon the Statute of 43 Eliz. cap. 4. Of Charitable Uſes.

1. UPon a Reference out of the Chancery to the Juſtices upon the Statute of 43 Eliz. of Charitable Uſes; the only Queſtion was, Whether a Decree made by the Commiſſioners upon the Statute, and exceptions put in againſt it in Chancery, and there examined, heard, and confirmed in part, might be there re-examined upon a Bill of Re-view, as other Bills of Review, upon Decrees in Chancery. It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That this Bill of Review is not allowable, but the Decree in Chancery is concluſive, and not to be further examined, becauſe it takes its Authority by Act of Parliament, and the Act doth mention but one Examination, and it is not to be reſembled to the Caſe where a Decree is made by the Chancellor by his Ordinary Authority. M. 2 Car. in Chancery. Tho. Wiaſor, and the Inhabitants of Farahams Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 29.

2. A. was ſeiſed in Fee of the Manor of D. holden of the King by Knight-Service in Capite, and deviſed the ſaid Manor to be ſold by his Executors, part of the money to be paid to his Wife, and part to divers other Legatees, the reſidue to be beſtowed in Charitable Uſes, viz. for the marrying of poor Virgins, and Relief of Priſoners. The Queſtion in this Caſe was, Whether this were a good Deviſe to bind the King, and to bar him of his Primer Seiſin by the Statute of 43 Eliz. of Charitable Uſes. It was the Opinion of all the Juſtices (upon a ſpecial Reference to them from the King), That this ſhall not bar the King of his Intereſt of Wardſhip, Livery, or Primer Seiſin, becauſe general words where the King is not named, ſhall not bind or bar him. The ſecond Queſtion was, Whether ſuch a Deviſe by the ſaid Statute be good againſt him for the whole, and ſhall bar the Heir to claim a third part. It was Reſolved, That admitting it to be a Conveyance within the Statute; yet it is void againſt the Heir for a third part. For by the Statute of 32 and 34 H. 8. he hath no power but to diſpoſe of two parts, ſo for the third part, it is void. The third Queſtion was, Whether this were a Conveyance within the Statute of 43 El. becauſe here is not any diſpoſition of the Land to Charitable Uſes, but an appointment, That the Land ſhall be ſold, and the money divided. As to this, it was Reſolved, That it was not. Hill. 14 Car. in Cur. Ward. Aſcough's Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 378.

3. A man deviſed his Lands to his Executors, to find a Preacher, School-Maſter, and poor people, the Lands then being but of the yearly value of 40 l. per annum. Afterwards the Land encreaſed to the value of 100 l. per annum. It was adjudged in this Caſe, That the whole encreaſed, ſhould be employed for the maintenance of the Preacher and School-Maſter, and poor people; and no part of it converted by the Deviſees to their own uſe. And ſo it was ſaid it ſhould be of the Revenues of a College they ſhall be imployed in the maintenance and increaſe of ſuch works of Charity as the Founder preſcribeth, and no part of it converted to the private uſe of any one. For every College is ſeiſed in jure Collegii, ſcil. that the Members of it might take benefit of the encreaſe of the Revenues, and nothing converted to private Uſes. Paſc. 8 Jac. Coke 8. Upon

Upon the Statute of 21 Jac. Cap. 16. Of Limitation of Actions.

1. IN Aſſumpſit, It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That the promiſe is alledged to be made beyond the time limited by the Statute of 21 Jac. and the action is brought within the time limitted. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, If it appears ſo by the Plaintiffs own ſhewing, the Plaintiff cannot maintain his Action, but Judgment ſhall be given againſt him. But if the Contract in the Aſſumpſit, or debt be alledged to be within the time limited by the Statute, and upon Non debet, or Non Aſſumpſit, it appear upon the Evidence, That the Aſſumpſit or Contract was beyond the time limited, and ſo the Evidence cannot maintain the Action, the Defendant ſhall take advantage thereof, for the Statute is in the Negative, That he ſhall not maintain Action but within ſuch a time limited by the Statute. Trin. 4 Car. in C. B. Brown and Hancock's Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 81.

2. Aſſumpſit againſt an Adminiſtrator upon a promiſe of the Inteſtate, that the Inteſtate 1. Maii 32 Jac. borrowed 20 l. and in conſideration thereof, promiſed to repay it to him upon requeſt. And that the Plaintiff 1. Aug. 32 Jac. requeſted the payment, and that he has not paid it, and dyed, and Adminiſtration was committed to the Defendant, who upon requeſt had not paid it. Upon Non Aſſumpſit pleaded, and Verdict for the Plaintiff, It was moved, That the Aſſumpſit being made his anno 21 Jac. and the breach in the ſame year, the Action is brought too long after, for by the Statute of 21 Jac. it ſhould be brought within 6 years. Two of the Juſtices conceived he might not have advantage of this Statute, unleſs he had pleaded it, or had demurred thereupon, becauſe the Statute hath divers exceptions, ſo as if the Plaintiff were within the Exceptions, it were well enough. The other Juſtices conceived, That foraſmuch as it appeareth by the Plaintiffs own ſhewing in his Declaration, that it is out of the limitation of the Statute, and the Statute is in the Negative, that it ſhall not be brought at all, unleſs it be brought within the time limited by the Statute. The Court would adviſe, et adiornatur. Mich. 5 Car. in B. R. Tankerſley and Robinſons Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 116.

3. Error of a Judgment in C. B. in Aſſumpſit, ſuppoſing that the Defendant 16 Jac. apud B. in Suff. promiſed to pay, &c. After Verdict and Judgment for the Plaintiff, The Defendant brought Error, and upon Diminution alledged, the Original was certified. Hill. 4 Car. upon which the Plaintiff in the Writ of Error pleaded the Statute of 21 Jac. of Limitation of Actions; and that this Action being upon a promiſe in 16 Jac. and not brought within 6 years after the promiſe, nor within three years after the Statute, it did not lye. The Defendant pleaded, That he 2 Car. which was within three years after the Statute, brought an Original Aſſumpſit, ſuppoſed to be made in Kent, againſt the Defendant, now Plaintiff, wherein he was Outlawed, but in 3 Car. the Outlawry in the Common Pleas was declared void, and that within a year after he brought this Action, ſuppoſing the promiſe to be made at B. in Suff. to his damage of 600 l. And in the former Action in Kent, to his damage of 300 l. and avers that it was one promiſe. Upon which Plea, the Plaintiff in the Writ of Error demurred in Law. It was Objected, That foraſmuch as this Outlawry was not reverſed by Error, but avoided by Plea, that the firſt Original was not determined, but he might have proceeded thereupon; and then to bring a new Action, and in another County, is not according to the Statute of 21 Jac. But the Court was of Opinion, That this variance of the County and damages is not material to the Action, being tranſitory, and averred to be for one and the ſame cauſe; and although the Outlawry is not reverſed by Error, but is avoided by plea, it is within the Statute; For the Statute is not, where the Outlawry is reverſed by Error; but where the Outlawry is reverſed. The Judgment was affirmed. Mich. 5 Car. in B. R. Sir Thomas Finch and Lamb's Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 214.

4. Action for words, Whereas the Plaintiff was of good Name and fame, and of chaſt Converſation, and had offered to marry to him their Daughter: And whereas there was a Communication with one W. R. to marry his Daughter, and the ſaid W. R. was willing to have his Daughter to match with him, and offered 40 l. in Marriage, That the Defendant having communication with J. S. and others of the Plaintiff: The Defendant 20 Sept. 7 Car. to diſcredit the Plaintiff, and hinder him in his Marriage, ſaid of the Plaintiff, That the Plaintiff had layen with ſuch a Woman, and others, and them Carnaliter cognovit, by reaſon whereof the ſaid W. R. refuſed to give his Daughter in Marriage to him, and that he cauſed the Plaintiff to be proſecuted in the Arch-Deacons Court for that incontinence; upon which he brought this Action.

Mich. 10 Car. Upon Not Guilty found against the Defendant; It was moved in stay of Judgment, That these words being spoken 20. Septemb. 7 Car. and the Action being brought Mich. 10 Car. (whereas it ought to be brought within two years by the Statute) by his own shewing, it is brought for words spoken above two years, and therefore he ought to be barred by the Statute. It was the Opinion of the Justices, That he should not now have advantage thereof, and that so it had bin adjudged: For otherwise there should be a mischief in that Court, more then in any other Court, viz. the Common Pleas, where they prosecute by Original and Outlawry; and if the Outlawry be reversed, the Statute aids the Plaintiff. But here they proceed by Latitat, whereby the cause of Action doth not appear, and perhaps divers years continues by process before the Defendant may be arrested, and the Plaintiff in his Declaration needs not to shew the cause wherefore he did not begin his Suit sooner. But if the Defendant pleads the Statute of 21 Jac. then the Plaintiff by Replication ought to shew cause why he did not bring his Action according to the time limitted by the Statute, otherwise he is to be barred. Hill. 10 Car. in B. R. Hawkins and Billheads Case. Cro. 1. Part, 293.

5. M. exhibited his Bill in the Court of Requests against B. and set forth, That the Defendant was endebted to him 400 l. and further shewed, How that the Defendant was decayed in his Trade, and was not able to pay him, and thereupon he was content to accept of 100 l. for the whole, and that the Defendant at the payment of the 100 l. required the Plaintiff to give him a Release, and then promised him, in consideration that he would make him a general Release, that he would pay him the residue of the Debt whensoever God should make him able; which Promise he oftentimes renewed: And then set forth, That an Estate of a great value was fallen to the Defendant, and that now he is able to pay him, and refuseth so to do. The Defendant first pleaded the general Issue, That he made no such Promise, and afterwards pleaded the Statute of 21 Jac. of Limitation of Actions, which they there would not admit, and therefore he prayed a Prohibition. It was said for the Defendant, That they ought not to have refused the Plea, because there is no remedy against a Statute. But it was Answered and Resolved, That a Prohibition ought not to be granted. 1. Because the Plaintiff hath no remedy but in Equity, because the Assumpsit made before the Release is discharged by the Release, and the Assumpsit which is after, is void, because there is no consideration, the Debt being discharged before. 2. That this is not within the Statute of Limitations, for that it is but a Trust reposed in the Defendant, that he would pay the residue when God should make him able, and being a bare Trust, is not taken away by the Statute of Limitation of Actions: And it was the Opinion of the Justices, That the Trust need not to be expressed in the Bill, for if it appeareth upon the whole matter of the Bill, That there is a Trust, it is enough, and he need not to express it. Wherefore the Prohibition was denyed by the Court. Hil. 17 Car. in C. B. Mosse and Browns Case. Hob. 151.

Upon the Statutes of 18 Eliz. cap. 2. 43 Eliz. cap. 3. 7 Jac. cap. 4. and 3 Car. cap. 4. Concerning Bastard Children.

1. IN a special Action upon the Case, The Plaintiff layed in his Declaration, That the Defendant did endeavour to Question him, and to charge him at the Quarter Sessions, to be the reputed father of a Bastard childe; Whether the Action did lye, was the Question. It was Resolved per Curiam, That the Action did not lye, this being an Ecclesiastical Sclander, and so to be punished there; But if he had layed, That he had procured an Order of Sessions to be there made against him, for to be the reputed father, and so to keep the childe, then the Action would lye upon the Temporal losse. And in that Case it was agreed per Curiam, That upon the Statute of 18 Eliz. cap. 3. That the Justices of Peace, nor the Justices of Assize have any power to meddle with bastard children, but upon an Appeal and Setting; but this is to be done by the two next Justices. Pasch. in B. R. Bowber and Paniers Case. Bastr. 2. Part, 343.

2. Upon a Habeas Corpus, who was committed and detained in prison in the County of Oxon. The Case was, H. having got a Bastard childe, by the Statute of 18 Eliz. cap. 3. this is to be referred to the examination of the two next Justices of the Peace, to examine and order the same; They did examine the matter, and made their Order therein; the which if the party refuse to perform or to enter into Bond to appear at the next Quarter Sessions, then they are to commit him to Prison without Bayl or Mainprize: H. accordingly comtred into Bond, and after, at the next Quarter Sessions, where he appeared, they did there commit him to prison. It was the Opinion of the Court in this Case, That this Imprisonment of him was illegal, this being out of their power, they having no power given them by the Statute, but upon his refusal to perform their order, they ought to have pursued their ordinary remedy against him, upon his Bond entred into, but not by his Commitment; wherefore he was Bayled by the Rule of the Court. Mich. 3 Car. in B. R. The King and Hammonds Case. Bulst. 2. Part, 341.

3. P. brought to the Bar, upon an Habeas Corpus, upon the Return of it, It appeared, That he at Lincoln, upon complaint to two Justices of Peace next adjoyning, was ordered to keep a Bastard child, he being (according to the said Order) the reputed father: From this Order, he appealed to the next Quarter Sessions: At which Sessions the matter being examined, he was discharged, and the former Order repealed. Afterwards, at another Quarter Sessions, the matter being re-examined, It was Ordered, That according to the first Order, That he should be accompted the reputed father of the Bastard, and should keep it; and if he did not perform it, he should be committed. All this matter appearing upon the Return, The Court held, That he being discharged at the next Quarter Sessions, to which according to the Statute of 18 Eliz. he appealed, That the second Sessions had no power to alter it; whereof, because there was none there for to maintain the Return, It was Ordered, That if no other matter was shewn, That he should be discharged. Hill. 9 Car. in B. R. Bridges Case. Cro. 1. Part, 248. 255. And see there, that it was holden, That the Statute of 3 Car. cap. 4 doth not aid this Case.

4. Error of a Judgment in B. R. in an Action upon the Case for words; whereas one J. D. was delivered of a Bastard childe, That the Defendant having communication with J. D. of the Plaintiff, and of the said Bastard childe, said of the Plaintiff these words, He (meaning the Plaintiff) is the reputed father of that Bastard childe: After Verdict, and Judgment for the Plaintiff, Error was brought, and assigned for Error, That these words were not Actionable: And of that Opinion was the whole Court, unless he had alledged some Temporal loss, viz. That he lost thereby his marriage, or the like; or that it was such a persons Bastard as was not able to keep it, whereby it would be to the Parish chargeable to keep; or that he by this means should be charged for the maintenance of such a Bastard, and to have further punishment: for it was said, That it had been Resolved, That a Bastard childe of persons able to keep it, and not like to be chargeable to the Parish, is not within the Statute of 18 Eliz. and a Reputed father is to be adjudged by the two next Justices of the Peace, or by the Sessions: Wherefore the Judgment in the Principal Case was Reversed. Hill. 10 Car. in B. R. Salter and Browns Case. Cro. 1. Part, 315.

5. A. was charged by B. for the getting of a Bastard childe upon her body; The two next Justices of the Peace did not make any Order in it, according to the Statute of 18 Eliz. but the cause came first to be heard at the general Sessions of the Peace in the County of L; where the Justices Ordered, That whereas it was proved by witnesses, That one J. S. had often used private company with the said B. and had confessed, that he had done as much to her, as a man could do to a woman, and that she had said, That J. S. had the use of her body, That thereupon A. should be discharged of the childe, and she be committed to the house of Correction, and J. S. the reputed father, should pay for the keeping of the childe 14 d. weekly: Afterwards, at the Assizes at L. The Judges Ordered, That the two next Justices of the Peace where the childe was born, should take consideration thereof, and settle such a course as to justice appertained; whereupon two Justices declared A. to be the reputed father, and that he should pay 18 l. to the Overseers of the Parish, and 14 d. weekly, and that he refusing to pay the same, the Justices committed him upon a Certiorari: Upon the Return, A. appeared in the Kings Bench; where it was Resolved, 1. That before the Statute of 3 Car. cap. 4. The Justices at the Sessions had not authority to intermeddle in Case of Bastardy, till the two next Justices of the Peace, according to the Statute of 18 Eliz. had made an Order therein. 2. That by the Statute of 3. Car. The Justices of their several Limits, are to make an Order in case of Bastardy; and therefore the first Order made in the principal Case, was good and Legal, and the second Order made by the two next Justices was void, and could not revoke that Order which was made before by good authority. 3. That the Commitment of B. for her life, was more then the Justices had authority to do: But yet it was Resolved, That an Error in part, and in that part which only concerned her, should not vitiate the whole Order; wherefore it was adjudged, That A. should be discharged. Pasch. 19 Car. in B. R. Slaters Case. Cro. 1. Part, 337. 338.

6. Upon a Petition unto Sir William Jones, Justice of Assize, upon the Statute of 18 Eliz. cap. 4. The Case was, A. P. having a Bastard childe, upon a complaint made at the Quarter Sessions, It was referred to the two next Justices of the Peace,

who heard and examined the matter, and made an Order, that one J. B. to be the reputed father, and Ordered him to allow towards the keeping of the childe, one shilling four pence per week; J. B. refused to perform the Order, but appealed to the Quarter Sessions: The Justices of the Peace at their Quarter Sessions, did re-examine the matter, and did disallow of the former Order, and did make a new Order of Sessions, by which they did charge another person; viz. W. C. to be the reputed father of the Bastard childe: Upon this the Inhabitants Petitioned Justice Jones to hear the matter again, which he did; and after both Orders read in Court, The Justice would not enter into the re-examination of the cause, but did in omnibus affirm the last Order made by the Justices at their Quarter Sessions; affirming, That upon the parties Appeal to them from the first Order, the last Order made at the Quarter Sessions was final, and that no Appeal was to be admitted against the said last Order; and so he said it was adjudged in Pridgeons Case, 13 Car. at the Assizes, Berksfords Case. Bolstrode, 2 Part, 355.

7. R. upon a Habeas Corpus, being brought to the Bar, It appeared by the Return, That he was committed by a Warrant of Mr Shepherd, a Justice of Peace of Middlesex; because he being the reputed Grandfather of one B. G. a poor fatherless and motherless childe, born in the Parish of S. Giles in Campis, and he being a man of ability to maintain and provide for the said childe, refusing to do it, or finde sureties for his appearance at the Quarter Sessions, was Committed. The Court was moved to have R. discharged; because this Warrant of his commitment was against Law: And the Court was informed, That R. did live and inhabite in the Town of A. in the County of Suff. and so the granting of the Warrant, and proceeding upon it, was coram non Judice. It was the Opinion of the Justices, That it is very reasonable that he should contribute to the maintenance of the childe, he being a man of good sufficiency; but in this course as is here taken, he is not compellable to do it: The childe resides here in the Parish of St Giles, and the Contribution is to be here; but the party which is to pay it, doth Inhabite in the County of Suff. and the Justices of Peace there, may make an Order in this, and so cause the money to be sent up: But the Court was clear of Opinion, That they have not any power there to make any Order in this Case; Wherefore the Rule was, That R. appear at the next Quarter Sessions for Middlesex; and upon his performance of that, he was discharged by the Court. Mich. 7 Car. in B. R. The King and Reves Case. Bolstrode 2. Part, 344.

8. This Question was propounded by J. S. a Justice of Peace, to Justice Jones, a Justice of Assize, upon the Statute of 43 Eliz. cap. 2. One had a Bastard childe, but she was not questioned for it, no Proceedings being had against her upon the Statute of 18 Eliz. cap. 8. Afterwards she had a second Bastard childe: The Question now propounded was, Whether she shall now be proceeded against upon the Statute of 7 Jac. cap. 4. as for her second Offence, she not having been punished for her first Offence; and whether this second Offence shall be taken as the first Offence? It was the Opinion of the said Justice, That she shall not be punished upon the Statute of 7 Jac. as for her second Offence, unless she had been before questioned, and punished for her first offence: But she might have been punished for her first offence, either by the Statute of 18 Eliz. cap. 3. or the Statute of 7 Jac. cap. 4. but is not to be punished as her second offence, by the Statute of 7 Jac. unless she had been punished for her first offence. 7 Car. Regis, at the Assizes. Bolstr. 2. Part, 349.

9. A. a single woman, was got with childe by B. a single man, the childe was born in the Parish of D. in the County of S. 11 years since; B. the reputed father, took the childe from the mother, and placed him at Nurse elsewhere: Afterwards, B. married with another woman, and with her did cohabite in the Parish of C. in Villa de S. the Bast childe dwelt with him, and had been maintained by the Reputed father ten years: After, the Reputed father dyed, leaving his Wife, and divers children begotten on her, and also left the Bastard childe: The Question in this Case was, by whom the Bastard childe is to be maintained, and to what place sent? It was the Opinion of the Justices, That this Bastard childe is to be sent to his Mother, to be kept by her, and maintained, if she be of ability to do it; but if not, then to the Vill of S. who are to keep and maintain this Bastard childe, and he is to be sent thither, in regard the said Bastard childe had been there before setled with the reputed father, where he was for ten years: and to this place of his last setling, as to the place of the birth, the Law hath respect; and so it was Ordered by the Justices. 7 Car. Regis, at the Assize in Lent, in the County of Salop. Bolstrode 2. Part, 350.

Where one Statute shall repeal another, without expressing Repeal, where not; and where Statutes in the affirmative imply a Negative, where not.

1. A Man long before the making of the Statute of 21 H. 8. cap. 13. had a Dispensation from the Pope for Plurality, and at the time of the making of the Statute of 21 H. 8. had one Benefice, with Cure of Souls, of the yearly value of 8 l. and within a year after the making of the Statute of 28 H. 8. cap. 16. he obtained a Confirmation of his former Dispensation, with words in the Confirmation, to use and enjoy the effect of his Dispensation. It was the Opinion of Manwood and Manson Justices, in this Case, That the first Benefice was void, by the Statute of 21 H. 8. And that the Statute of 28 H. 8. cap. 16. did not restore him to the same, without a new Presentation, notwithstanding that the Statute of 28 H. 8. made the Bulls of Dispensation made by the Pope, good for one year; and that if they be surrendred within the year, That the Chancellor of the Augmentation might grant a new Dispensation unto him: But the Lord Dyer was of Opinion, That as the Statute of 21 H. 8. made the first Benefice void, so the Statute of 28 H. 8. cap. 16 did restore him unto the Benefice; for when two Statutes are mis in appearance one to the other, and no clause of Non obstante is contained in the second Statute, so as one may stand with the other, such construction shall be made of the Statutes, that both of them may take effect. Hill. 28 Eliz. Dyer, 347. Nelson Case.

2. Cox, who was Chaplain to the Archbishop of Canterbury, having one Benefice of the Gift of the Queen, obtained a Dispensation from the Archbishop his Master, to take, have, and enjoy a Trialty, viz. Three Benefices incompatible: which Dispensation was confirmed by the Queen, by Letters under the Great Seal, aliquo Statuto, actu, restrictione, aut aliquare causa, vel materia quacunque in aliquo non obstante; by force of which Dispensation, he obtained two other Benefices incompatible; and whether the first of the three Benefices was void by the Statute of 21 H. 8. was the Question. It was the Opinion of the Justices, That notwithstanding the Act of 1 and 2 Mar. That by the Act of 1 Eliz. cap. 1. That the first Benefice was void by the Statute of 2 H. 8. cap. 13. But it was said, That in that part of the Act of 21 H. 8. which is revived by the other Statutes there is a Proviso and Restraint to the Archbishop of Canterbury, for granting of Dispensations contrary to the Act of 21 H. 8. which was now said to be in force. Trin. 28 Eliz. Dyer, 372. Coxes Case.

3. The Statute of 1. and 2. Mar. cap. 10. is That all Tryals hereafter to be had, awarded, or made for Treasons, shall be had and used only according to the due order and course of the Common Law of this Realm, and not otherwise. And it was the Opinion of the Justices, That notwithstanding that Statute, yet the Statute of 35 H. 8. made for Tryals committed out of the Realm, did stand in force, and was not Repealed; because no offence of Treason committed out of the Realm, was tryable by the course of the Common Law, so as that Statute did enlarge the power for Tryal of Treason in that point; But for Treason committed in a Forreign Country, The Justices were of Opinion, That it takes away the Statute of 33 H. 8. Mich. 3 Mar. Dyer, 132.

4. Note, It was the Opinion of all the Justices, That the Scature of 33 H. 8. for Indictment and Tryal of Treasons, confessed before three of the Council to be in a Forreign Country, was Repealed by the Statute of 1 and 2 Mar. and therefore it was holden, That the Rebels in the North parts, who had confessed their offences before three of the Council, should be Indicted in the County where the offence was committed, and the Indictment to be removed into the Kings Bench, or the Justices of Oyer and Terminer in Middlesex; and for the Tryal thereof, should come the Freeholders of the County where the Judgment is. Hill. 12 Eliz. Dyer, 291.

5. Husband and Wife alliened the Land of the Wife by Fine, with Proclamations, and the Husband dyed, and the five years expired after his death, without any Action or Entry made by the Wife. It was the Opinion of the Justices, That notwithstanding that the Statute of 32 H. 8. doth not Limit any time of Entry, yet that the Wife and her heirs should be barred for ever by the Statute of 4 H. 7. of Fines and Proclamations, which is a general Law; and also, because the Statute of 32 H. 8. doth not speak but only of Fines levyed without Proclamations. Mich. 6. E. 6. Dyer, 72.

6. A man seized of a Wharf, and houses in London, holden in Burgage, by his Will in writing, devised the same to his Wife, and her Heirs, upon Condition, That his Wife by the advice of Learned Council, within convenient time, should give.

who heard and examined the matter, and made an Order, that one J. B. to be the reputed father, and Ordered him to allow towards the keeping of the childe, one shilling four pence per week; J. B. refused to perform the Order, but appealed to the Quarter Sessions: The Justices of the Peace at their Quarter Sessions, did re-examine the matter, and did disallow of the former Order, and did make a new Order of Sessions, by which they did charge another person; viz. W. C. to be the reputed father of the Bastard childe: Upon this the Inhabitants Petitioned Justice Jones to hear the matter again, which he did; and after both Orders read in Court, The Justice would not enter into the re-examination of the cause, but did in omnibus affirm the last Order made by the Justices at their Quarter Sessions; affirming, That upon the parties Appeal to them from the first Order, the last Order made at the Quarter Sessions was final, and that no Appeal was to be admitted against the said last Order; and so he said it was adjudged in Pridgeons Case, 13 Car. at the Assizes, Berksfords Case. Bolstrode, 2 Part, 355.

7. R. upon a Habeas Corpus, being brought to the Bar, It appeared by the Return, That he was committed by a Warrant of Mr Shepherd, a Justice of Peace of Middlesex; because he being the reputed Grandfather of one B. G. a poor fatherless and motherless childe, born in the Parish of S. Giles in Campis, and he being a man of ability to maintain and provide for the said childe, refusing to do it, or finde sureties for his appearance at the Quarter Sessions, was Committed. The Court was moved to have R. discharged; because this Warrant of his commitment was against Law: And the Court was informed, That R. did live and inhabite in the Town of A. in the County of Suff. and so the granting of the Warrant, and proceeding upon it, was coram non Judice. It was the Opinion of the Justices, That it is very reasonable that he should contribute to the maintenance of the childe, he being a man of good sufficiency; but in this course as is here taken, he is not compellable to do it: The childe resides here in the Parish of St Giles, and the Contribution is to be here; but the party which is to pay it, doth Inhabite in the County of Suff. and the Justices of Peace there, may make an Order in this, and so cause the money to be sent up: But the Court was clear of Opinion, That they have not any power there to make any Order in this Case; Wherefore the Rule was, That R. appear at the next Quarter Sessions for Middlesex; and upon his performance of that, he was discharged by the Court. Mich. 7 Car. in B. R. The King and Reves Case. Bolstrode 2. Part, 344.

8. This Question was propounded by J. S. a Justice of Peace, to Justice Jones, a Justice of Assize, upon the Statute of 43 Eliz. cap. 2. One had a Bastard childe, but she was not questioned for it, no Proceedings being had against her upon the Statute of 18 Eliz. cap. 8. Afterwards she had a second Bastard childe: The Question now propounded was, Whether she shall now be proceeded against upon the Statute of 7 Jac. cap. 4. as for her second Offence, she not having been punished for her first Offence; and whether this second Offence shall be taken as the first Offence? It was the Opinion of the said Justice, That she shall not be punished upon the Statute of 7 Jac. as for her second Offence, unless she had been before questioned, and punished for her first offence: But she might have been punished for her first offence, either by the Statute of 18 Eliz. cap. 3. or the Statute of 7 Jac. cap. 4. but is not to be punished as her second offence, by the Statute of 7 Jac. unless she had been punished for her first offence. 7 Car. Regis, at the Assizes. Bolstr. 2. Part, 349.

9. A. a single woman, was got with childe by B. a single man, the childe was born in the Parish of D. in the County of S. 11 years since; B. the reputed father, took the childe from the mother, and placed him at Nurse elsewhere: Afterwards, B. married with another woman, and with her did cohabite in the Parish of C. in Villa de S. the Bast childe dwelt with him, and had been maintained by the Reputed father ten years: After, the Reputed father dyed, leaving his Wife, and divers children begotten on her, and also left the Bastard childe: The Question in this Case was, by whom the Bastard childe is to be maintained, and to what place sent? It was the Opinion of the Justices, That this Bastard childe is to be sent to his Mother, to be kept by her, and maintained, if she be of ability to do it; but if not, then to the Vill of S. who are to keep and maintain this Bastard childe, and he is to be sent thither, in regard the said Bastard childe had been there before setled with the reputed father, where he was for ten years: and to this place of his last setling, as to the place of the birth, the Law hath respect; and so it was Ordered by the Justices. 7 Car. Regis, at the Assize in Lent, in the County of Salop. Bolstrode 2. Part, 350.

Where one Statute ſhall repeal another, without expreſſing Repeal, where not; and where Statutes in the affirmative imply a Negative, where not.

1. A Man long before the making of the Statute of 21 H. 8. cap. 13. had a Diſpenſation from the Pope for Plurality, and at the time of the making of the Statute of 21 H. 8. had one Benefice, with Cure of Souls, of the yearly value of 8 l. and within a year after the making of the Statute of 28 H. 8. cap. 16. he obtained a Confirmation of his former Diſpenſation, with words in the Confirmation, to uſe and enjoy the effect of his Diſpenſation. It was the Opinion of Manwood and Manſon Juſtices, in this Caſe, That the firſt Benefice was void, by the Statute of 21 H. 8. And that the Statute of 28 H. 8. cap. 16. did not reſtore him to the ſame, without a new Preſentation, notwithſtanding that the Statute of 28 H. 8. made the Bulls of Diſpenſation made by the Pope, good for one year; and that if they be ſurrendred within the year, That the Chancellor of the Augmentation might grant a new Diſpenſation unto him: But the Lord Dyer was of Opinion, That as the Statute of 21 H. 8. made the firſt Benefice void, ſo the Statute of 28 H. 8. cap. 16 did reſtore him him to the Benefice; for when two Statutes are contrary in appearance one to the other, and no clauſe of Non obſtante is contained in the ſecond Statute, ſo as one may ſtand with the other, ſuch conſtruction ſhall be made of the Statutes, that both of them may take effect. Hill. 28 Eliz. Dyer, 347. Pollard's Caſe.

2. Cox, who was Chaplain to the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, having one Benefice of the Gift of the Queen, obtained a Diſpenſation from the Archbiſhop his Maſter, to take, have, and enjoy a Trialty, viz. Three Benefices incompatible: which Diſpenſation was confirmed by the Queen, by Letters under the Great Seal, aliquo Statuto, actu, reſtrictione, aut aliquare cauſa, vel materia quacunque in aliquo non obſtante; by force of which Diſpenſation, he obtained two other Benefices incompatible; and whether the firſt of the three Benefices was void by the Statute of 21 H. 8. was the Queſtion. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That notwithſtanding the Act of 1 and 2 Mar. That by the Act of 1 Eliz. cap. 1. That the firſt Benefice was void by the Statute of 2 H. 8. cap. 13. But it was ſaid, That in that part of the Act of 21 H. 8. which is revived by the other Statutes there is a Proviſo and Reſtraint to the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, for granting of Diſpenſations contrary to the Act of 21 H. 8. which was now ſaid to be in force. Trin. 28 Eliz. Dyer, 352. Coxes Caſe.

3. The Statute of 1. and 2. Mar. cap. 10. is That all Tryals hereafter to be had, awarded, or made for Treaſons, ſhall be had and uſed only according to the due order and courſe of the Common Law of this Realm, and not otherwiſe. And it was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That notwithſtanding that Statute, yet the Statute of 35 H. 8. made for Tryals committed out of the Realm, did ſtand in force, and was not Repealed; becauſe no offence of Treaſon committed out of the Realm, was tryable by the courſe of the Common Law, ſo as that Statute did enlarge the power for Tryal of Treaſon in that point; But for Treaſon committed in a Forreign Countrey, The Juſtices were of Opinion, That it takes away the Statute of 33 H. 8. Mich. 3 Mar. Dyer, 132.

4. Note, It was the Opinion of all the Juſtices, That the Statute of 33 H. 8. for Indictment and Tryal of Treaſons, confeſſed before three of the Council to be in a Forreign Country, was Repealed by the Statute of 1 and 2 Mar. and therefore it was holden, That the Rebels in the North parts, who had confeſſed their offences before three of the Council, ſhould be Indicted in the County where the offence was committed, and the Indictment to be removed into the Kings Bench, or the Juſtices of Oyer and Terminer in Middleſex; and for the Tryal thereof, ſhould come the Freeholders of the County where the Judgment is. Hill. 12 Eliz. Dyer, 291.

5. Husband and Wife alliened the Land of the Wife by Fine, with Proclamations, and the Husband dyed, and the five years expired after his death, without any Action or Entry made by the Wife. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That notwithſtanding that the Statute of 32 H. 8. doth not Limit any time of Entry, yet that the Wife and her heirs ſhould be barred for ever by the Statute of 4 H. 7. of Fines and Proclamations, which is a general Law; and alſo, becauſe the Statute of 32 H. 8. doth not ſpeak but only of Fines levyed without Proclamations. Mich. 6. E. 6. Dyer, 72.

6. A man ſeized of a Wharf, and houſes in London, holden in Burgage, by his Will in writing, deviſed the ſame to his Wife, and her Heirs, upon Condition, That his Wife by the advice of Learned Counſel, within convenient time, ſhould give

give and assure the same, for to maintain a Free-School, and Almesmen, and Almeswomen for ever; and the said Wife should have the Issues and profits of the same during her life, bearing the charges of the said School, &c. It was Objected in that Case, That although the Statute of 23 H. 8. cap. 10. That the erection of a Grammar School to instruct youth, as well in Learning, as in good Manners, was a work of Charity, and good in it self; and so to maintain poor men and women; yet because when such Feoffments were made to such uses, the same was prejudicial to the Lords for their Wards Reliefs and Escheats, and because the benefit of the Lords was respected by that Statute, and it was for his benefit to take away such uses; for that cause it was said, That the Uses and Intents mentioned in the said Will, were void. But in that Case it was Resolved, 1. That the Statute of 23 Eliz. cap. 10. did not extend to take away Charitable Uses; for the Statute took away superstitious Uses, as other Statutes, viz. The Statutes of 26 H. 8. and 31 and 37 H. 8. did. 2. It was Resolved, That the Statute of 32 and 34 H. 8. of Wills, had taken away the first of the said Statute of 23 H. 8. cap. 10. for that the words are, That all and every person, having an Estate in Fee simple, may dispose, &c. By which Statute it appeareth, That even Corporations and Companies not Incorporated, are included, and not excepted out of the said Statute of 32 H. 8. And therefore it was Resolved, That the said good and charitable Uses stood good, notwithstanding the said Statute of 23 H. 8. cap. 10. Cook 1. Part, 25. Porters Case.

7. King Henry 8. by his Letters Patents, erected a Colledge of Physitians in London; and by the said Letters Patents, Granted them, That none should exercise the Art of Physick within the City of London, or seven miles from it, unless he were allowed by the President and others of the said Colledge; And by the said Letters Patents, Granted to them, That there should be four Censors, or Governours, yearly chosen by them, who should have the Tryal and Examination of all Physitians which practised Physick within the said City, or seven miles of it; And further, by the said Letters Patents, Granted to them, That they should have the punishment of all those who practised Physick within the said City, Pro delictis suis in non bene exsequendo, faciendo, & utendo facultate Medicinæ, per Fines, Amerciament. & Imprisonament. Corporum eorum. The said Charter was Confirmed by Act of Parliament, 14. H. 8. By which Act it was further Enacted, That no person should be suffered to practise Physick through England, until he be examined at London by the President, and three of the Censors, except he be a Graduate of the University of Oxford or Cambridge. And afterwards, by an Act of 1 Mar. the said Letters Patents were also confirmed: And by the same Act it was Enacted, That when as the President, or such as the Colledge should yearly authorise, should send or commit any such Offender for any Offence or Disobedience, contrary to any Article of the said Grant, to any Goal or Prison, That the Goaler should keep and receive such person, without Bail or Mainprize: Bonham, who was a Graduate, scil. a Doctor of Physick in the University of Cambridge, practised Physick in London, contrary to the said Letters Patents, and Acts of Parliament, and was summoned to appear before the President and Censors, for practising Physick in London, and he upon the Summons did not come to them; Wherefore it was awarded, That for his disobedience, he should be amerced 10 l. and that he should be Arrested, and committed to Prison: M. Bonham said, That he had practised Physick, and would practise Physick in London, Nisi de Collegio petita venia; and affirmed, That neither the President, nor the Censors, had any authority over them who were Doctors of the Universities: Afterwards, he was committed to Prison; and thereupon he brought a false Imprisonment, and Judgment therein was given for Bonham. And in this Case (amongst other things) it was Resolved by the Justices, That the Act of 1 Mar. did not enlarge the power of the Censors to Fine or Imprison any, for any cause for which they ought not to be Fined by the Act of 14 H. 8. For the words of the Act of 1 Mar. are, According to the Tenor and Meaning of the said Act; But in this Case at Bar, Bonham did not any Act contrary to any Article or Clause in the said Act of 14 H. 8. 2. It was Resolved in this Case, forasmuch as the said Physitians had not any Court granted to them by the said Letters Patents, they could not by any authority implicite granted to them, for any misdemeanour done by Bonham, commit him to Prison without Bayl or Mainprise, until he should be delivered by the Commandment of the President and Censors, as they did in this Case; And for proof thereof, the Case of the Mayor and Communalty of London, 38 Eliz. in a Quo Warranto was remembred; A Grant was made to the Mayor and Communalty, That the Mayor for the time being, should have Plenam & integram scrutationem, Gubernationem, & Correctionem omnium & singulorum Mysteriorum, without Granting to them any Court in which there should be any Proceedings; That the same was good for search, by which a Discovery might be made of such offence, which by Law might be punished in any Court; but the same did not give them any absolute power to commit any Subject of the Realm at their pleaſures. And Note, In the Principal Caſe, It was agreed by the Court, That when an Act of Parliament is againſt Common Right and Reaſon, and repugnant, and impoſſible to be performed, That the Common Law doth judge ſuch an Act of Parliament to be void. See 14 Eliz. Dyer. The Statute of 1 E. 6. gave Chauntries to the King, ſaving to the Donor all ſuch Rents and Services; The Common Law ſhall adjudge it void for the Services; for it ſhould be againſt Common Reaſon, That the King ſhould hold of any, or ſhould do any Service to any of his Subjects, Hill. 7 Jac. in C. B. Cook 8. Part, 94, 95. Doctor Bonhams Caſe.

8. An Informer ſued a Recuſant for the penalty of 20 l. a moneth, for not repairing to the Parish Church, or any other Chappel, or uſual Place of Common Prayer, &c. The Defendant pleaded the Statute of 23 Eliz. That every Recuſant being a Recuſant Convict, ſhould forfeit to the King for every Offence 20 l. and pleaded the Statute of 28 Eliz. That every offender againſt the Statute of 23 Eliz. for every moneth after his Conviction, ſhould pay 20 l. to the King at his Exchequer; and pleaded the Statute of 35 Eliz. That no part by the ſaid Statutes ſhould be paid to the Informer. And it was ſaid, That by the ſaid Statutes, no part of the penalties ſhould be paid to the Informer, but all ſhould be paid to the King; and if the Defendant ſhould be chargeable to the Informer, then he might be double charged: It was Reſolved in this Caſe (amongſt other things) 1. That the Statute of 28 Eliz. had not taken away the Liberty which the Informer had by the Statute of 23 Eliz. Becauſe the ſaid Statute is in the Affirmative; and Regularly, Statutes in the Affirmative do not take away precedent Acts in the Affirmative. 2. Reſolved, That the Statute of 35 Eliz. did not abrogate the Statute of 23 Eliz. as to an Action popular; for that the purpoſe of the Act was only to cut delayes, and to give a more ſpeedy remedy againſt the Husband, for the Wives forfeitures for their Recuſancies; and Acts of Parliament ought not by any ſtrained conſtruction out of general and ambiguous words of a ſubſequent Statute to be abrogated. The Statute of 16 R. 2. cap. 5. is, That all the Lands of one Attainted in a Præmunire, ſhall be forfeited to the King: Yet if Tenant in Tail of Lands be attainted in a Præmunire, It was Reſolved, That thereby the Eſtate Tail is not barred, becauſe theſe general words have not Repealed the Statute of Donis, and therefore he ſhall forfeit the Land but for his life, and his Iſſue ſhall not be barred. Cook 1. Part, from 59. to 64. D. Foſters Caſe.

9. The words of the Statute of 27 H. 8. are, That all Grants by Letters Patents to be made for time of Life, or years of any Office concerning the Lands within the Survey of the Court of Augmentation, &c. ſhall be ſealed with the Great Seal of that Court. It was conceived by the Juſtices, That the ſame implyeth a Negative, ſo as if the Grant be under the Great Seal, it ſhall be void. Mich. 33 H. 8. Dyer, 50. See Cook 11 Part, 64. It is ſaid, That the ſaid Leaſe made under the Great Seal, was not abſolutely void, for that the words are not ſimpliciter general, but ſecundum Quid. See 7 Eliz. Dyer, 232.

10. It was Enacted by the Statute of 6 E. 6. That the Quarter-Seſſions in the County of Angleſey, be alwayes holden at Beaumorris only, Et non alibi infra Com. Angleſey: And a Seſſions was holden at Newburgh in the ſame County; and divers perſons were there Indicted, &c. And 4 & 5 Mar. It was Reſolved by all the Judges of England, That all was Coram non Judice, and void by reaſon of the Negative Prohibition. Cook 11. Part, 65. in Dr. Foſters Caſe.

11. A. brought an Attaint in the Common-Pleas, of a falſe Verdict given in Norwich, upon the Statute of 23 H. 8. againſt a Citizen of N. upon a Verdict given in Curia Civitatis ibidem, againſt him in an Action upon the Caſe; Conuſans of Plea was demanded by reaſon of the Kings Charter of Ed. the 4th, de omnibus placitis et attinctis: Which Charter was Confirmed by King Ed. 6. And yet the Conuſans was denyed by the Court: For the ſaid Writ of Attaint ex neceſſitate, ought to be brought in uno duorum Bancorum; for that the words of the Statute are, That all Attaints here to be taken, ſhall be taken in the Kings Bench, or in the Common Pleas, and in none other Court. Trin. 3 Eliz. Dyer, 202.

12. Lands in London deviſeable by Cuſtome, came to King Henry the 8th, by the Statute of Dr. Colmon, The King granted the Lands to hold of him in Capite; The Patentee deviſed the whole Lands. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That the Deviſe was good againſt the Heir for the whole Land, becauſe the Lands were deviſeable by Cuſtome before the Statute of 32 H. 8. and the Statute is in the affirmative, and doth not take away any Cuſtome. But yet it was agreed in that Caſe, That the Saving in the ſaid Act, gave in ſuch caſe the third part to the King for Wardſhip Primer Seiſin, &c. and yet that the Heir ſhould be barred by the Cuſtome. See 4 & 5 Mar. Dyer, 155. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 111. Cook 9. Part, 133. in Mathew Manes Caſe, 200.

13. A Religious Colledg to which a Rectory was appropriate, and other Lands of the ſaid Col-

ledg came to the King by the Statute of 1 E. 6. the King Conveyed the Rectory to A; and the Lands parcell of the poſſeſſions of the Colledg, to B: The Fermor of B. brought againſt the Fermors of the Rectory, and ſhewed the Statute of 31 H. 8. concerning diſcharge of Tythes, and ſhewed alſo unity of poſſeſſion at the time of oth Statutes. It was adjudged, That in that Caſe, the Prohibition did not lye, and a Conſultation was granted: For it was Reſolved, That this Colledg did not come to the King by the Statute of 31 H. 8. but by the Statute of 1 E. 6. And it was Reſolved, That the branch of the Statute of 31 H. 8. did not extend to any Colledg which came to the King by the Statute of 1 E. 6. Cook 2. Part, 46. The Biſhop of Canterburies Caſe.

Where, and what Statutes ſhall by Equity be Conſtrued to extend to other perſons, other things, other places, other times, other Eſtates, and other Actions or Writs, then are mentioned in the Statutes; And where, and what not.

1. A Man ſeiſed of a Mannor in Fee after the Statute of 27 H 8. of Uſes, enfeoffed divers perſons to the uſe of himſelf and the Heirs males of his body; and for want of ſuch Iſſue, with divers remainders over in tail, the Reverſion to the Feoffor and his Heirs: the Father had Iſſue and dyed; He in the Remainder granted a Rent-Charge out of the Land, and the Iſſue in tail levied a Fine, and ſuffered a Common-Recovery, and afterwards dyed without Iſſue: It was Reſolved in that caſe, That the Recoverors, nor any who came in under their Eſtate, ſhould be ſubject to the charge of him in the Remainder, becauſe the Recoveror is in of an Eſtate which he hath gained under the Tenant in tail in poſſeſſion; which eſtate is not ſubject to the charge of him in the Remainder; and alſo becauſe the Remainder can never come in poſſeſſion after the Recoveror: And it was Reſolved, That no Leaſe, nor Rent, nor Eſtate, made by him in the Remainder, ſhould charge the poſſeſſion of the Recoverors. Cook 2. Part, Capell's Caſe.

2. Tenant in tail, the remainder in Fee; He in the Remainder by Deed Indented and enrolled, for good Conſiderations, Covenanted to ſtand ſeiſed to the uſe of himſelf in tail, the remainder to the Queen, her Heirs and Succeſſors, Kings and Queens of England: Tenant in tail ſuffered a Common Recovery. It was adjudged in this Caſe, That the Iſſue in tail was barred; for it was ſaid, That in that caſe no uſe could be raiſed to the Queen upon ſuch general conſideration, without ſpecial averment was made, That valuable or other good Conſideration was given. And, 2. In that caſe, It was Reſolved, That no Eſtate tail is preſerved by the Statute of 34 H. 8. but that which is created by Letters Patents of the King, or be of the proviſion of the King, and the Eſtate tail created by a common perſon, was not within that Statute. Cook 2. Part, 35. Wiſemans Caſe.

3. Grandfather, Father and Son; The Grandfather held the Mannor of D. of B. as of his Mannor of S. by Knight-Service, and levied a Fine to the uſe of himſelf for life, the remainder to the uſe of the Father in tail, and afterwards to the uſe of the right Heirs of the Grandfather: The Father dyed, his ſon within age. B. the Lord ſuffered a Recovery of the Mannor of S. to the uſe of himſelf and his Wife in tail, the remainder to the uſe of C. and his Wife in tail, the Remainder to the right Heirs of B: B. and his Wife dyed without Iſſue, C. entred, the Grandfather dyed, the Wife dyed, the ſon entred, and made a Leaſe for years, rendring Rent; C. re-entred: In this caſe, theſe Points, amongſt others, were Reſolved, 1. That the Grandfather had an Eſtate in Fee expectant upon an Eſtate tail, as a Reverſion, and as a Remainder. 2. That C. ſhould not have the Wardſhip of the Land, becauſe that a Reverſion in Fee is expectant upon it, and the Reverſion is an Hereditament holden of the Lord, and not of the Eſtate in tail. 3. That a man ſhall never have the Wardſhip of the Heir, when the Land was never in his Fee. 4. Reſolved, That C. ſhould not have the Wardſhip of two parts of the Land by the Statute of 32 H. 8. becauſe the Heir of the Father who is in by diſcent, ſhall be in Ward by the Common-Law, and not by the Statute; alſo the Statute gives two parts to the King, or to the Lord, when the advancement continues in the perſon advanced without any alteration by act in Law, or by diſcent, or act of the party. But when the Land is Conveyed to the advancement of the wife of the Tenant, or payment of his debts, if afterwards the Land be aliened bona fide, before the death of the Tenant, the King nor other Lord ſhall have any Wardſhip. Cook 2. Part, 93. 94. Bingbams Caſe.

4. A. ſeiſed of the Mannor of Toby in Fee; And A. his Wife ſeiſed of the Mannor of Bacton, to them and the Heirs of their two bodies begotten, by an Eſtate made to them before Coverture by the the Joynture of the Wife, the Reverſion to A. in Fee; Toby amounting to the value of two parts of the Lands, and Hinton to a third part, both holden in Capite; by his Will Deviſed the Manner of Toby to his Wife for life, upon Condition, that ſhe ſhould not take her former Joynture in Hinton: The Wife by word (in pais) waived her Eſtate in Hinton, and agreed to the Manner of Toby, and entred into it. And, If the Deviſe were good for the Manner of Toby, or any part of it, was the Queſtion? It was Reſolved in this Caſe (amongſt other Points), That the Deviſor had not power to Deviſe the whole Manner of Toby, by the Statutes of 32 and 34 H. 8. of Wills: 1. Becauſe that the Deviſor was not a perſon [having] within the Statute: For every perſon ought to be having at the time of the making of his Will; and the Deviſor had not the Manner of Hinton, but he and his Wife had it, and ſo he was not Owner. 2. Becauſe the Deviſor had not the ſole Eſtate in the Manner of Hinton, neither at the time of the making of his Will, nor at the time of his death, but with his wife; and ſhe could not diſagree during the Coverture. And, 3. Becauſe by the Statute, the King ought to have the clear yearly value of the third part, without any diminution, but by this Deviſe, the King ſhould have but a poſſibility for his third part; ſcil. to have the Manner of Hinton, if the Wife will diſagree. 2. It was Reſolved, That the third part ought to deſcend immediately after the death of the Deviſor; and in this Caſe, the Manner of Hinton ſurvived to the Wife, untill ſhe diſagreed; and it may be ſhe will not diſagree within two years: And therefore it was Reſolved, That the Deviſe was not good for the whole Manner of Toby; but that the King ſhould have the third part of it. Cook 3. Part, 25. to 37. Butler and Baker's Caſe.

5. In a Replevin, the Caſe was; W. R. was poſſeſſed of a Farm for 30 years, called Coſwellfield Grange, which conſiſted of divers parcels; ſcil. Hob field, Parkfield, and others, and made his Will 4 E. 6. and thereof made H. his Son his Executor; who, 4 Mar. Deviſed all the Grange, except Hob field, to H. B. for 23. years, and excluded Holmfield to W. F. for 23. years; and afterwards granted all the reſidue of his ſaid Term in the ſaid Grange to W. F. and H. B. He in the Reverſion 13 Eliz. granted a Rent iſſuing out of all his Lands and Tenements, commonly called Coſwellfield Grange, Quondam in tenura W. R. et aliorum in tenura ſive occupatione H. B. The Rent was behind, the 30 years expired; He in the Reverſion made a Feoffment in Fee of the ſaid Farm to another; the Grantee made his Executors, and dyed; The Feoffee made a Leaſe at Will; the Executors of the Grantee diſtrained for the Rent behind in the life of the Grantee before the expiration of the Term: And Judgment was given for the Executors. A Doubt did ariſe in this Caſe, upon the words of the Statute of 32 H. 8. Cap. 37. upon theſe words; [viz. And it ſhall be lawfull to every ſuch Executor or any ſuch perſon or perſons to whom ſuch Rent or Fee-Farm ſhall be due, and not paid at the time of his deceaſe, to diſtrain for the Arrearages of all ſuch Rents upon the Lands, &c. ſo long as the ſaid Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments continue, remain, and be in the ſeiſin, or poſſeſſion of the ſaid Tenement in Demeſne, who ought immediately to have paid the ſaid Rent, &c. be in the ſeiſin or poſſeſſion of any other perſon or perſons claiming the ſaid Lands, &c. only by and from the ſaid Tenant by purchaſe, guift, or diſcent, in like manner as the Teſtator might or ought to have done in his life.] It was Objected, That this Caſe was out of the ſaid Act, for the Act doth extend only to Tenants in Demeſne, who immediately ought to have paid it; and that was in the Caſe at Barr to the Grantor, and thoſe who claim only by and from him. And in this Caſe, Leſſee at Will of the Feoffee, doth not claim by, from, or under the Grantor, but he claimeth by, and from the Feoffee, and ſo out of the Statute. But it was Reſolved, That although the Leſſee at Will doth not immediately claim from the Grantor; yet he is within the ſaid Act; for where things are done in right, and in truth, and become remedileſs by the Act of God; ſcil. by death of him to whom they were due; in ſuch Caſes, Acts of Parliament ſhall have a favourable Interpretation, to extend the remedy proportionable to the miſchief: And therefore the ſecond Feoffee, and ſo in infinitum, ſhall be charged by force of this Act. Alſo the ſecond Feoffee is within the words of the Act: For although he be not in by the Grantor, yet he is from him; for from, doth amount to as much as under him. Cook 4. Part, 50. Ognells Caſe.

6. In an Ejectione of the Rectory of A. in A. B. and C; The Defendant pleaded Not guilty; and the Viſne came only out of A: and for that the Judgment was reverſed, that this Tryall was inſufficient; for that the Statute of 32 H. 8. Cap. 30. doth not extend to a Verdict given between the Demandant and the Voucher, nor unto any default in the Original Writ, or in the Return thereof, or to want of an Original; and the Statute of 18 Eliz. Cap. 14. helps many of theſe defects, but doth not remedy any inſufficient Tryall, but that remaineth at the Common-Law. See Goodwin and Franklins Caſe there vouched. See 22 Eliz. Dyer, 367. See Cook 5. Part, Gardiners Case. Trin. 30 Eliz. in the Exchequer. Cook 5. Part, 36. Baynham's Case.

7. The Husband ſeiſed of Lands in Fee, made a Feoffment in Fee to the uſe of himſelf for life, without impeachment of Waſte, and afterwards to the uſe of his Wife for her Joynture, upon Condition, That ſhe ſhould perform his laſt Will: The Husband dyed, the Wife Entred, and agreed to that Eſtate; and afterwards brought Dower. It was Objected, That all the Eſtates limited by the Statute of 27 H. 8. for Joyntures of the Wife, are of a joynt Eſtate made to the Husband and Wife, and none of them to the Wife only, or by way of Remainder: and the letter of the Statute doth import a Joynt-Eſtate; for that the word (Jointure) doth imply a Joynt-Eſtate. But in this Caſe, It was Reſolved, That the Eſtate limited in the Remainder to the Wife for her life, was a good Joynture within the Statute of 27 H. 8. but then the ſame ought to take effect immediately after the death of the Husband. 2. It was Reſolved, That an Eſtate limited to the Wife upon Condition, was a good Joynture within the ſaid Statute, if the Wife after the death of her Huſband accepted of it. So a Feoffment to the Huſband for life, and after to the uſe of the Wife, durante viduitate, is a good Joynture within the Statute; for the ſame is an Eſtate for life, which cannot be determined but by her own act. 3. Reſolved, That an Eſtate made to the Wife upon Condition, to perform the laſt Will of her Husband, might be averred to be for the Joynture of the Wife, and ſuch an averment is given by the expreſs words of the Statute. Cook 4. Part, 1. and 3. Vernon's Caſe.

8. A man held his Lands by Homage, Fealty, Eſcuage, and Suit of Court; the Lord had Seiſin of the Fealty only. It was Reſolved in this caſe, 1. That it was a ſufficient Seiſin of all other Services; for the Seiſin of part of a Service, is the Seiſin of the whole; and Seiſin of Fealty, is Seiſin of Homage. 2. It was Reſolved, That Seiſin in Law, was a ſufficient Seiſin to make an Avowry, within the Statute of 32 H. 8. by the expreſs words of the Statute, which are, Actual Poſſeſſion or Seiſin, in the diſjunctive. 3. It was Reſolved, That the Statute of 32 H. 8. did not extend to ſuch a Rent or Service, which by common poſſibility might not happen or come due within 60 years, as Caſual Services. 4. It was Reſolved upon the ſame Statute, That if a man be out of poſſeſſion 60 years, yet if his Entry be not taken away, he may enter, and bring an Action of his own poſſeſſion; for that the firſt Clauſe of the Statute doth not barr any right, but probability that none ſhall ſue or maintain any Writ of Right for any Tenements, but only of the Seiſin of his Anceſtors within 60 years: but he may have an Action of his own poſſeſſion. Cook 4. Part, 8. and 9. Beville's Caſe.

9. A. ſeiſed of Lands in Fee holden in Socage, Diviſed a Rent, with Clauſe of Diſtreſſe, to B. for life: C. heir of A. Leaſed the Land to D. for life, the Remainder to E. in Fee: The Rent was behind in the life of D; D. dyed; B. diſtrained E. in the Remainder for all the Arrearages encurred in the life of D: It was Objected in this Caſe, That the Statute of 32 H. 8. Cap. 37. is; (In caſe of Diſtreſs by Executors or Adminiſtrators) ſhall diſtrain for the ſame Arrearages upon ſuch Lands and Tenements, out of which the ſaid Rents or Fee-Farms were iſſuing in ſuch manner and form as he ought or might to have done, &c. And in caſe of Executors of Tenant for life, there the diſtreſs is given unto him in whoſe time the Arrearages encurred due, ſo as he in the Reverſion or Remainder ſhould not be charged for the Arrearages encurred in the life of Tenant for life. But it was Reſolved, That as this Caſe is, he in the Remainder by the latter branch ſhould be charged. For the Judges ought not to make Conſtruction againſt the expreſs words of the Statute. And it was ſaid by them, That the ſeveral indeing and penning of the former part of the Act concerning Diſtreſſes given to Executors, and this branch did argue, That the makers of the Act did intend a difference of the Proviſions and Remedies, otherwiſe they would have followed the ſame words: And in the principal caſe, all the Land was charged with the Rent, and the Heir held all his eſtate charged with it, and when he made a Leaſe for life, the Remainder in Fee; he in the Remainder was chargeable, and might have been diſtrained by the Common-Law, but being prevented by the Act of God, by the death of C. the laſt part of the Statute hath ſupplyed that remedy, and given to the Grantee power to diſtrain; as if Cestuy que vie had been alive. Cook 5. Part, 118. Edwards Caſe.

10. A. ſeiſed in Fee by Indenture, in conſideration of blood, Covenanted with B. his Nephew, to ſtand ſeiſed to the uſe of himſelf for life, and after to the uſe of B. in tail, the remainder to the right Heirs of B: Provided, That if the ſaid A. by himſelf or any other perſon during his natural life, tendered to B. a Gold Ring, to the intent, to make void the ſaid Uſes, that then the ſaid Uſes ſhould be void: Afterwards A. was attainted of Treaſon: The Queen by her Letters Patents Leaſed the Land to C. and D. for 40 years; The Attainder was Confirmed by an Act of Parliament

18 Eliz. And by an Act at the ſame Parliament, it was Enacted, That all perſons which claim any Eſtate or Intereſt in the Lands of any perſon attainted, not enrolled ſince 18 Eliz. ſhall within two years after the Seſſion of that Parliament, ſhew and bring into the Court of Exchequer his or their Grant or Aſſurance, then the effect thereof to be enrolled of Record, or elſe the Aſſurance to be good; The King by his Letters Patents reciting the ſaid Proviſo, and that the benefit thereof was given to her by Act of Parliament, authorized E. to deliver the Gold Ring to B. to make the ſaid Uſes void; he tendred the ſame to B, who refuſed to accept of it. It was Objected in this caſe, That the Tender of the Gold Ring was inſeparably annexed to the perſon, and therefore the Tender made by a ſtranger, was not good. But it was Reſolved, That in this Caſe, the Tender of the Gold Ring was not annexed to the perſon of A, but any other might do it; and it was given to the King by the Act of Attainder: and when the Statute gives the Condition to the King, the performance of it which is the ſubſtance, which is not inſeparably annexed to the perſon, is given to the King. 2. It was Objected, That the Conveyance by the ſaid Act of Parliament of 18 Eliz. was void, becauſe the two years were paſt, and the ſame was not enrolled. But it was Reſolved, That at the time of the Tender, that the Conveyance was in force; for by the words of the Act, the Conveyance ought to be exhibited within the two years (as it was in the principal Caſe), but the Act doth not require, that it be enrolled within the two years, but that it might be enrolled at any time after the two years. Cook 7. Part, 13. and 14. Engleſield's Caſe.

11. W. W. and E. his Wife, had Iſſue a Son and two Daughters on the body of E; viz. F. and M: W. W. by his Will appointed the Education and government of his ſaid Son and Daughters, To the Grandfather and his Wife during their Lives, and dyed: F. the Relict of W. W. took to Huſband R. R; The Grandfather dyed; The Grandmother was ſeiſed of Lands in Socage, and Deviſed the ſame by her Will to her ſon in tail, the remainder to F. and M. and to the Heirs of their two bodies, equally to be divided betwixt them, the Remainder to E. the Mother being her Daughter and Heir, and her Heirs. The Grandmother dyed: The ſon died without Iſſue; F. took to Huſband W. A. and ſhe and her Huſband and M. entred into the Lands, and were ſeiſed; and afterwards M. remaining in the houſe of R. R. being above the age of 14 years; and within the age of 16 years, with the conſent of R. R. left the houſe of the ſaid R. R. and went to D. in the ſame County, and was there married to E. R. The Queſtion upon the whole Matter was, Whether E. the Mother had the Cuſtody and government of the ſaid M. at the time of the Contract and Marriage within the Statute of 4 & 5 Ma. Cap. 8. or not? In this caſe, amongſt other Points, It was Reſolved, 1. That E. the Mother had the Cuſtody of her Daughter as Guardian, by coverture and aſſignation within the Statute. And although that it appeareth by the Special Verdict, That the ſaid M. her Daughter departed out of the houſe of the ſaid E. her Mother 6 hours before the Contract; yet in Judgment of Law, E. her Mother had the Cuſtody of her at the time of the Contract of Marriage, becauſe the Cuſtody was a thing inſeparable from the perſon of the Mother. 2. It was Reſolved, That the ſaid M. and F. were Tenants in tail, the Reverſion to E. their Mother. 3. Reſolved, That upon this Verdict, E. R. and M. his Wife had good Title to the Land againſt W. R. and F. his Wife; and, that one daughter, as this Caſe is, ſhall not take benefit of the forfeiture of the other. For the Statute gave the forfeiture to the next of Kin to whom the Inheritance ſhould diſcend, or come after her deceaſe, &c. during the life of ſuch perſon as ſhall ſo contract Matrimony: So as firſt there ought to be blood; and ſecondly, ought to be next of blood to whom the Inheritance ſhall diſcend: and though that F. the daughter be of blood, yet in this caſe by the death of M. the Land, if ſhe hath Iſſue, ſhall diſcend to her Iſſue; and if ſhe have no Iſſue, it ſhall revert to E. the Mother. Hill. 34 Eliz. in B. R. Cook 3. Part, from 38. to 42. Ratcliff's Caſe.

12. In a Quare Impedit, the Caſe was; A man was ſeiſed of a Manor to which an Advowſon was appendant, and Deviſed the ſame to his Wife for life, and dyed: the Wife took another Huſband, and then preſented J. S. who was admitted, inſtituted, and inducted, and dyed, the Church voided again, and they preſented J. D. to the Biſhop, who refuſed the Clerk, becauſe upon his examination of him, he ſaid he was Schiſmaticus inveteratus. And, in the Common-Pleas, it was adjudged for the Plaintiff; and Errour brought, and aſſigned for Errour, That for inſufficiency of the Biſhops Plea, he gave Judgment for the Plaintiff, and Epiſcopus in miſericordia; and after a Writ of Enquiry iſſued to enquire of other Points: which being found and Returned, Upon that, Judgment was entred again; Et predictus Epiſcopus in miſericordia; and ſo the Biſhop was twice amerced, which was ſaid to be Errour. But it was Anſwered, and Reſolved, That the latter was but only a recital of the firſt, and ſo to give a full Judgment of all with Damages, and not a new Judgment: but yet admit the later Judgment was erronious, yet the first Judgment was perfect in it self, for the first Judgment was the Judgment which was given in the Quare Impedit at the Common-Law; for before the Statute of Weſt. 2. Cap. 5. the Plaintiff in a Quare Impedit did not recover Damages: And the Plaintiff after the ſaid Statute, might take the Judgment at the Common Law, and relinquiſh the benefit of the Statute, if he pleaſeth. And for that cauſe, the Judgment was affirmed. Cook 5. Part, 59. Specots Caſe.

13. In a Writ de valore Maritagii, The Plaintiff declared, That the Anceſtor of the Defendant dyed in his Homage, and that the Land diſcended to the Defendant, and that he tendred him a Competent Marriage, and that he refuſed it: The Defendant denyed the Tender. In this caſe it was Reſolved, 1. That the value of the Marriage did belong to the Lord without a Tender, by the Common-Law; But the forfeiture of Marriage was given by the Statute of Merton, Cap. 6. which did not extend to an Heir female; for that extended only to ſuch an Heir as was of the age of 14 years, et ultra: and an Heir female at ſuch age was out of Ward; Alſo the Statute is ultra ætatem 21. annorum, and that is the full age of the Heir male, as to Wardſhip, and not of the Heir female: but before the age of 14, the Lord ſhall recover the ſingle value without Tender. Hill. 14 Jac. in C.B. Cook 6. Part, 71. The Lord Darcies Caſe. Mich. 29 Eliz. in the Court of Wards. Hampdens Caſe, adjudged accordingly.

14. The Lord Sanchar, a Baron of Scotland, of Malice forethought in the County of Middleſex, did procure J. S. to kill J. D. which J. S. aſſociating to him J. N. they killed the ſaid J. D. within the City of London: In this caſe, amongſt other Points, It was Reſolved, That a Baron of Scotland was not a Peer of England, and therefore he ſhould be tryed a Common Jury, and not by the Peers of England. 2. In that caſe, It was Reſolved upon the Statute of 2 E. 6. Cap. 24. That the Indictment of the Acceſſory in the County of Middleſex, needed not to recite, that the Principal was Indicted before Commiſſioners of Oyer and Terminer in London; For that the ſame is no direct affirmance, that the Principal committed the Murder; for an Indictment is but an Accuſation in lieu of the Kings Count, which might be either true or falſe: but the Indictment ſhall recite de facto, that the Principal committed the Murder in London. 3. It was Reſolved, That the Juſtices of the Kings-Bench are the ſoveraign Juſtices of Gaol-Delivery and Oyer and Terminer, and within the words (Juſtices of Gaol Delivery, and Oyer and Terminer) within the Statute of 2 E. 6. and therefore, if an Indictment of Forcible Entry be removed into the Kings Bench, they may award Reſtitution. And yet the Statute of 8 H. 6. Cap. 3. ſpeaks only of Juſtices of the Peace; but the reaſon thereof is, becauſe they have ſoveraign and ſupream authority over them. And it was Reſolved, That by the Common-Law, no Commiſſioners of Oyer and Terminer, nor Gaol-Delivery, could ſit in the County, where the Kings-Bench did ſit. Becauſe the Kings-Bench are greater then the Eyre; Et in præſentia Majoris, ceſſat poteſtas Minoris, Cook 9. Part, 118, 119. The Lord Sanchar's Caſe.

15. A man ſeiſed of a Manor holden by Knights Service, made a Feoffment of the moyety thereof, before Marriage, unto the uſe of himſelf for life, and after to the uſe of the Wife he intended to marry, for her Joynture; the Marriage took effect, and afterwards he let the other moyety to A. and B. for years, for the payment of Debts and Legacies, and afterwards deviſed part to his younger Sons, and dyed, his Heir within age. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That becauſe the advancement of his Wife is aſwell within the Statute of 32 H. 8. as the payment of his Debts, and the portionment of his Children, although that the Eſtate of the Wife hath the precedency; yet the third part of the King ſhould be equally taken out of both halfs, and not out of the half ſo deviſed. Cook 8 Part, 173. Virgil Parkers Caſe.

16. A man by Indenture Covenanted to ſtand ſeiſed to the uſe of himſelf for life, and afterwards to the uſe of divers of his Sons, and the Heirs Males of their bodies; Proviſo, That if they or any of their Heirs Males ſhould reſolve, adviſe, or attempt any act by which the limitation of the ſaid Land, or any Eſtate tail ſhould be undone, barred, or determined, or diſcontinued, that after ſuch act or Diſcontinuance made or executed, the uſes as to him ſo attempting, &c. ſhould ceaſe as if he were naturally Dead; and dyed. The eldeſt Son ſuffered a common Recovery, and the younger Son entred. It was Reſolved in that Caſe, That that Proviſo to ceſſe an Eſtate limited to one and the Heirs Males of his body, was void and repugnant to Law; for that the death of the Tenant in tail is not the ceaſing of the tail, but the death of the Tenant in tail without Iſſue of his body, is the determination of it. But in that Caſe it was ſaid and agreed, That an Act of Parliament, or the Common Law might make an Eſtate void as to one perſon, and good to another, but a man by his words or act cannot ſo do. Land is given to Husband and Wife, and the Heirs of their two bodies; The Husband levyeth a Fine with Proclamations, and hath Iſſue and dyeth; this Fine by force of the Statute of 32 H. 8. cap. 36. ſhall bar the Iſſue in tail, but ſhall not bind the Wife. So if a man hath

Land

Lands as Executor, and ſurrenders it, as to one reſpect the Term is extinct, and as to another reſpect it is Aſſets. See 18 Eliz. Dyer, 351. Cook 1. Part, 87, 88. Corbets Caſe.

17. A. ſeiſed of divers Manners, and of divers Lands, part in Leaſe for years with a Rent reſerved, part in Copyholds for valuable conſideration, Demiſed, Granted, Bargained and ſold to J. S. the ſaid Manners and Lands, with all Rents reſerved upon every Demiſe, to have after the death of the Bargainor for 17 years, rendring a Roſe to his Heirs, the Deed was acknowledged to be enrolled. And afterwards he Covenanted to ſtand ſeiſed of the ſaid Manners and Lands to the uſe of himſelf, and the Heirs of his body; no attornment was to the Bargainee; and afterwards the Bargainor dyed, his Heir within age. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the Leſſees had election to take it, either by Demiſe, or by Bargain and Sale: For when a man for money Grants Bargains, and ſells Lands for years, the owner gives election to the Leſſee to take it, the one way or the other; for if the Law ſhould force them to take by Demiſe, then they ſhould loſe the Rents reſerved upon the Leaſes for years. but if the Intereſt paſſeth by Bargain and Sale, then there needeth no Attornment, for the Statute of 27 H. 8. executes the poſſeſſion to the uſe; and the Statute of 27 H. 8. of Inrolments, doth not extend to it, becauſe no eſtate of Freehold paſſeth, but only an Eſtate for years. 2. Reſolved, That this Election did remain to the Leſſees, notwithſtanding the alteration by the ſecond Indenture, and notwithſtanding the death of the Leſſor, and notwithſtanding that the King was entituled to Wardſhip, becauſe they had an Intereſt in them preſently, which they preſently might have aſſigned over. Cook 2. Part, 35, 36, 37. Sir Rowland Heywards Caſe.

18. A. ſeiſed of a Manner, by Deed Indented, enfeoffed thereof J. S. and his Heirs, rendring yearly to A. his Executors and Aſſigns, 10 l. Rent. A. dyed ſeiſed, the Rent deſcended to his Son and Heir, who dyed in the Eſtate, his Executors diſtrained and avowed for the Rent. In this Caſe, it was Reſolved upon the Statute of 32 H. 8. which gives Diſtreſs to an Executor or Adminiſtratore in like manner and form as the Teſtator might or ought to have done, &c. upon another clauſe of the ſaid Statute, That the Adminiſtrators were not driven in their Avowry for the ſaid Rent to alledg any Seiſin within 40 years; for in Caſe of Reſervation, or Grant of a Rent, there the Deed is the title, and the common courſe of it appeareth within time of memory. But the Statute ſhall be intended, when the Avowant was forced to alledg Seiſin by force of any ancient Statute of Limitation, and that was when the Seiſin was material, and of ſuch force that it ſhould not be avoided in an Avowry, although that it was by encroachment. But the Statute doth not compell any to alledg Seiſin, where Seiſin was not neceſſary before: And note, in that Caſe it is ſaid, That Leſſee for life, or Donee in tail, ſhall not have Ne injuſte vexes againſt the Donor, for inaſmuch as the Reſervation is the Title, no encroachment ſhall hurt them, but they ſhall avoid the ſame in an Avowry; And the Statute of Magna Charta cap. 10. upon which the Ne injuſte vexes is grounded, doth not extend to a Donee in tail, Leſſee for life, or Grantee of a Rent-charge; but extends betwixt very Lord and very Tenant. Cook 8. Part, 65. Sir William Foſters Caſe.

19. By the Statutes of 22 E. 4. cap. 7. And 35 H. 8. cap. 17. If any perſon having Woods of his own within any Forreſt, Chaſe, &c. cauſe to be cut down the Wood, or any part thereof by Licenſe, or without Licenſe, &c. or make Sale of the ſame, That the Subjects poſſeſſors of the ground whereupon the Wood cut did grow, and the perſons to whom the Wood ſhall be ſold, immediately after the Wood ſo cut, incloſe the ſame ground with ſufficient hedges to keep out all manner of Beaſts and Cattel out of the ground for Preſervation of the Spring. Upon this Statute, the Caſe was; A. was ſeiſed of the Forreſt of H. in Fee, in which J. D. had Common appurtenant to his houſe and Land, throughout the whole Forreſt. It was Covenanted betwixt A. and J. S. by Indenture, and the ſaid A. granted to J. S. all the Woods and Underwoods which at any time after ſhould grow upon any parcel of the Forreſt, except the Soil of the Wood, with Liberty to incloſe for preſervation of the Spring of the Wood, and to exclude the Deer, and all Cattel out of the Wood. It was the Queſtion, If by that Statute J. D. was barred of his Common or not. In this Caſe, amongſt other points, it was Reſolved, That the ſaid Statute of 22 E. 4. did not extend to the wood of a Subject; For by the Common Law, he who hath a Wood in which another hath Common, cannot incloſe and exclude the Commoner, be it in a Forreſt, Chaſe, or out of them. But he who hath ſeveral Woods in a Forreſt, may after the cutting of them, incloſe for three years, pura foſſato et haia bofſa ſecundum foſſatum Forreſte. 2. Reſolved, That the Commoners were not any parties betwixt whom the ſaid Act of 22 E. 4. was made; but the parties were Subjects, owners, and Wards of the King, and doth not extend to Commoners. For if was Reſolved, When any Act of Parliament makes any Conveyance good againſt the King, or any other perſon or perſons in certain, the ſame doth not take away the right of any other, although there

there be no saving in such Act of Parliament. 3. Resolved, That the words, Beasts of the Forrest, do not extend to sheep, &c. But Buck, Doe, Roe, Hare, &c. Cook 8. Part, 137, 138. Sir Francis Barrington's Case.

Where, and what Statutes shall bind the King; what not; and of which he shall take advantage, although he be not named in them: What not.

1. HUsband and Wife, Tenants in tail, the Remainder to B. in tail; A Recovery was had against the Husband alone in a Writ of Entry with Voucher. B. in the Remainder was Attainted of Treason. And afterwards it was Enacted by Parliament, That B. should forfeit all such Manors, Lands Rents, Reversions, Remainders, Possessions, Offices, Rights, Conditions, and Hereditaments which he had or ought to have in Fee, or in tail, in use, or possession at the time of the Treason committed: Afterwards Husband and Wife both dyed without Issue. The Queen Granted the Lands to C. the Son of B. and restored to him the Manner; And afterwards the Queen brought a Writ of Error against the Heir of the Recoveror to reverse the Recovery. It was Resolved in this Case (amongst other things), That this Writ of Error was not given to the Queen by any words of the Act of Attainder, because the Tenant was in by Title, and the entry of the person Attainted was not lawfull, and a right of Action was not given to the Queen by any words of the said Act.

2. It was Resolved, That the King Tenant in tail by the gift of any of his Ancestors being Subjects, might levy a Fine upon Grant and Render, and bar the estate tail. 1. Because the King is bound by the Statute of Donis, and it is but reason, That the King shall take benefit of the Statute of 4 H. 7. and 32 H. 8. which enables Tenants in tail to bar the Issues; and it should be hard that the King should be in worse condition then a common person. 2. There is a difference when the King claims in his natural capacity as Heir of the body per formam Doni, for there he shall be bound by the Act of Parliament; and when he claims in his Politick capacity, there a general Act of Parliament shall not bind him if he be not named. But in the principal Case it was the Opinion of the Justices, That after the render made, it was necessary to have Letters Patents to grant to the Consusee, that he might enter into the Land; for otherwise, the Fine being Executory upon Grant and Render, it might be doubted, If the Consusee without such a Grant might enter upon the King. Mich. 2 Jac. Cook 7. Part, 32. In the Case of Fines levyed by the Kings Tenant in tail.

3. The King brought a Prohibition against the Prior of W. That where the King had recovered in a Quare Impedit, the Defendant sent his brother with an Appeal to Rome, and sued there to avoid the Judgment according to the Statute of Premunire, and upon Not-Guilty pleaded, it was found against the Defendant; and there for the King Judgment was prayed upon the Statute of 27 E. 3. cap. 1. in Case of a Premunire; and it was adjudged he should not have it, because that the Judgment ought to be conformable to the Original, and this Suit was not brought according to the Statute, but by Writ of Prohibition at the Common Law. 30 E. 3. 11. Cook 9. Part, in Doctor Huffys Case.

4. The Master and Fellows of Magdalen Colledg; After the Statute of 13 Eliz. by Indenture enrolled, conveyed a house parcel of the possessions of their Colledg to the Queen in Fee, with a Proviso that the Queen convey the same to J. D. in Fee. The Queen by her Letters Patents conveyed the same to J. D. according to the Proviso, who afterwards levyed a Fine with Proclamations of it; the Master dyed, and the Successor accepted of the Rent of the Consusee. In this Case amongst other things it was Resolved. 1. That general Statutes which did provide necessary and profitable remedy for the maintenance of Religion, advancement of Learning, and Relief of the poor, should extend generally according to the words, and the King should not be exempted out of any of them by any construction of Law. 2. Resolved, That the King should not be exempted out of general Acts of Parliament made to suppress wrong; and the Statute of 13 Eliz. was made to suppress wrongful. Dilapidations and diminution of Spiritual Livings; and because the King cannot be supposed to do wrong, therefore he shall be included within the said Act. And in that Case, it was said, That the Statute of West. 2. cap. 5. made to suppress wrong, did bind the King. 3. Resolved, That general Acts of Parliament which tend to perform the Will of the Founder or Donor, shall bind the King, although that he be not named. 4. Resolved, That the Master and Fellows were within the said Act of 13 Eliz. and disabled to Grant; and then the King could not take from them who were disabled disabled to Grant by the words of the Act. But it was not a disability simpliciter, but secundum quid; for if the Master and Fellows made such a Grant, it should not be avoided by the Master himself, but by his Successor. 5. It was Resolved, That the King was bound by the said Statute of 13 Eliz. For in Acts of Parliament, the Original intent and meaning of the Makers of them is to be observed: And if this Conditional Grant to the King should be good, the King who is the Fountain of Justice, and the maintainer of Religion and Justice, should be made an Instrument of wrong and injury; and the Law will not make an Interpretation of an Act to advance the private of any man, and to take away the right of the Subject. Cook 11. Part. 68, 69. Magdalen Colledges Case. Note, These Resolutions in Magdalen Colledges Case, are Rules to know what Acts of Parliament shall bind the King, and what not; and therefore I have entred many particular Cases to shew what Acts of Parliament should bind the King, what not.

5. In a Quare Impedit, the Plaintiff declared, That one R. B. was seised of the Parsonage of Harby, whereunto the Advowson of the Vicarage belonged, and that the Vicarage did become void by the death of A. and that it was in the Kings hands by reason of Wardship of the Son of R. B. who Presented J. S. and then conveyes the Parsonage to J. D. in Fee, who 1. Jan. 1621. Granted to F. the next Avoydance of the Vicarage, who granted it to the Plaintiff, and that J. S. dyed, and so the Plaintiff ought to Present. The Defendant as Parson imparsonee of the Vicarage saied, That King Henry the 8th was seised of the Parsonage of Harley to which the Advowson of the Vicarage, &c. and claims a Discent of it from Hen. 8. to Queen Eliz. who Presented J. S. and that by his death, King James Presented him who was Instituted and Inducted; and traversed, That R. B. was seised of the Rectory ad quam, &c. It was found by Special Verdict, That J. D. and his Wife were seised in Fee to them and the Heirs of the Husband of the Rectory of Hersham, and 20. Mail. 31 H. 8. did give the same Rectory to H. 8. and his Successors, and that the said King seised of the Rectory of Harley, which, &c. by his Letters Patents 21 July, 31 H. 8. in consideration of the aforesaid Rectory of Hersham, by the said J. D. and his Wife, Granted to the said King and his Successors, gave to the said J. D. and his Wife the said Rectory of Harley; and that 26 July, 31 H. 8. and not before, J. D. and his Wife came into the Chancery, and acknowledged the Deed, which was afterwards enrolled. The Question (amongst others) was, That although the Deed to the King was not enrolled at the time of the Grant made by the King; yet the Involment of it afterwards, when the same comes, should make the Kings grant good ab initio. It was the Opinion of the Court, That although the Grant of the King was not compleat nor perfected for want of Involment at the time of the Kings Grant, yet when the Involment comes upon it, it takes effect, neither from the Involment, nor by it, but by the first act, and therefore between the parties it should bind to all purposes ab initio. And it was holden, That if a man giveth Lands to the King by Deed, and afterwards chargeth the Land, and then a Fine is levyed to the King of the same Lands, the King shall hold the Lands discharged. Hill. 12 Jac. in C. B. Needler and the Bishop of Winchesters Case. Hob. 222, 223.

More Statutes; the Interpretation and Construction of them: And of divers other matters concerning Statutes.

1. NOte, It is the Office of Judges to make such Construction of Statutes and Acts of Parliament, as may suppress the mischief, and advance the remedy; and also to suppress such subtile Inventions and evasions as may continue the mischief, and pro privato commodo; and to add force and life to the Cure, according to the Intention of the makers of the Act, pro bono publico. And therefore it was Resolved, That when an Act of Parliament alters the Service, Tenure, Interest of the Land, or other thing in prejudice of the Lord, or of the Custome of the Manour, or in prejudice of the Tenant, there the general words of such an Act shall not extend to Copyholds; but where an Act of Parliament is generally made for the common good, and no prejudice may accrue by reason of the alteration of any Interest, Service, Tenure, or Custome of the Manour; in such Cases, many times, Copyholds and Customary Estates are within the general words of such Statutes or Acts of Parliament. Cook 3. Par. 3, & 7. in Heydons Case.

2. An Act of Parliament that gives power of Imprisonment, ought to be strictly Interpreted, to preserve as much as may be the Liberty of the Subject. And see, That the Act of 14 H. 8. cap. 5. which which gave power to the President and Censors of the Colledg of Physitians in London to Imprison, was adjudged to be so strictly and liberally to be understood, that the Goaler was not thereby bound to receive such as they should commit unto him; because there was no clause in that Statute to give them power so to do: And therefore was the Statute of 1 Ma. cap. 9. made, which commands the Goaler to receive them upon a penalty, and yet the Receipt of the Goaler in that Case seems to be a necessary incident to the power given them to Imprison; but in regard it concerned the Liberty of the Subject, and they had not the Authority of any Court to commit any, therefore it was Resolved, That the Goaler could not receive such as they should commit, without an express provision by Act of Parliament to that purpose. Cook 8. Part, 120. in Dr. Bonhams Case.

3. In a Replevin, the Case was, R. Earl of S. was seised of the Manner of B. in Fee, and leased the same to the King for 21 years, and dyed. The said Manner discended to T. Earl of S. and he being seised, It was Enacted by Parliament, 4 Ma. That the Lady Frances, Wife of the said Earl, by vertue of the said Act, should hold and enjoy during her Widdowhood, for and in consideration of a Joynture, the said Mannor. Provided, That it should be lawful for the Earl by his writing Indented, dimittere vel dimittere facere for 21 years of the said Mannor for any yearly Rent, so as upon all and singular such Lease and Leases, the ancient Rent or more were reserved, and that every such Lease should be good and effectual in Law against the said Lady Frances, for the Term of her life, if the said Term should so long continue. The Earl made a Lease of the Mannor for 21 years, to begin at the Feast of St. Mich. then next following. It was holden in that Case, That although by the said Act of Parliament, the power was general to make Leases for 21 years, without being restrained to make them in possession, or any number of years: Yet in that Case it was adjudged, That the said Lease was void for two causes. 1. If by the power he may make any future Lease or Leases in Reversion, then he might make a Lease for 21 years in possession, and afterwards infinite Leases for 21 in Reversion, which should be contrary to the meaning of the parties. 2. Because That forasmuch as the Proviso gave power to charge the Estate of a third person, such Proviso should be taken strictly, and should not extend beyond the Letter and meaning of the parties. Mich. 28 Eliz. in B. R. Lepar and Wyths Case. Lem. 35.

4. Upon a Reference to the Chief Justice, Chief Baron, and others, Justices out of the Court of Wards; the Case was, Two Joynt-Tenants to them and their Heirs, one of them made a Conveyance to the use of himself and his Wife for a Joynture, and the advancement of his Son. The Question was, If this were an assurance within the Statutes of 32 and 34 H. 8. so as the King should have the third part. The major part of the Justices conceived to be out of the Statutes. For the words are, If any Sole seised, or seised joyntly with others &c. in such Case the Statute provideth, That the King upon such Conveyance shall have a third part. But where two are seised joyntly to them and their Heirs, and one makes a Conveyance, this is out of the words of the Statute of 32 H. 8. and therefore ought not to be within the words of 34 H. 8. being a Statute of explanation only, which shall be construed according to the words, and not with any Equity or intendment: For there cannot be an explanation upon an Explanation: And so it was said it was Resolved, 43 Eliz. in B. R. Pasc. 2 Car. Cro. 1. Part, 23.

5. The Judg of the Prerogative Court upon granting of Administration, took a Bond of an Administrator, That the Administrator should deliver the Surplusage of the goods after Debts paid, according to the Distribution of the Court, but the Wife being Administrator, the Judg did find a Surplusage in her hands, and did sentence that she should give certain Portions to certain of the kindred of her Husband, being not his Children. It was the Opinion of the Court in this Case, That whereas the Statute of 21 H. 8. appoints the Administration to be granted; and that the Ordinary shall take Sureties for the Administration of the goods of the dead, That the Ordinary may not impose any other or further Condition upon the Bond; and although the Ordinary will permit, That the true Administration mentioned in the Statute is to be extended, as well to the disposition of the Surplusage, as to Debts and Legacies. To it was holden by the Court, That that doth not lie under their Judgment, for they must take the Bond according to Law. And when it is sued, the exposition of the Statute, and of the Condition of the Bond is to be judged by the Courts of Common Law. And it was said in this Case, That the Statute of 21 H. 8. cap. 5. did insinuate the mind of the Testator, to prefer them; it is likely he would have preferred if he had made a Will, which is to give the profit of the Estate to them, who not only labor and dolor in suing to bring in and defend the Estate, then to give such a vast power to the Ordinary, to dispose of the Surplusage where he will. Hill. 13 Jac. in C. B. Stevenges Case. Bul. 83.

6. In a Replevin, the Case was, The Predecessor of the Bishop of Chichester seised of a Park in the the right of his Biſhoprick, by Deed 44 Eliz. Granted a Leaſe of keeping of the Park, and all appertaining to it to J. F. for life, Et ulterius, granted pernecessitate Officii predict. five Marks, with clauſe of Diſtreſs, nec cum a Livery and 13 s. 4 d. nec non Pasturam pro duobus equis together with the Windfalls, which Leaſe was confirmed in the Life of the Biſhop, by the Dean and Chapter. The Defendant in Avowry ſhewed, That the ſaid Park had him anciently Granted with the Fee of 5 Marks, and for the Arrerages of the Fee, the Defendant did avow. The Plaintiff pleaded the Statute of 1 Eliz, and ſaid, That this Paſturage was a larger Fee then ever was granted before: Upon which the Avowant did demur. The Queſtion was, If this new addition of the Paſturage to the Grant of the Office of Keeper did make the Grant void. The Court was divided in Opinion, but the better Opinion ſeemed to be, That this Augmentation of the Paſturage did not make the Grant void in all, but for the Augmentation only, and that it was ſeveral in ſpecie from the five Marks, and that this was out of the Statute of 1 Eliz. and that the things are ſeveral and might be recovered as diſtinct things in their nature in the intent of the Grantor, and that therefore the Grant was void quoad the Paſturage, but not to make the Office with the 5 Marks void. 7. A man was Indicted for that he took upon him to be a Juſtice of Peace in the County of B. not having Lands to the value of 40 l. per annum, and for that he ſent his Warrant to have one before him to find Sureties of the Peace. It was the Opinion of the Court, That this was no offence within the Statute which appoints a Penalty in ſuch Caſe. For when a Statute appoints a penalty for doing of a thing which was no offence before, and appoints how it ſhall be recovered, viz. by Bill, Plaint, or Information; in ſuch Caſe the party cannot be proceeded againſt by Indictment. Superſedeas.

What is a Superſedeas, what not; Where grantable, where not; in what Actions it lyeth, and for whom; and where to be allowed, where not.

1. Superſedeas is a Writ which hyeth in divers caſes, but it is alwayes to command ſome ordinary proceedings in Law, which ought otherwiſe to proceed.

2. Note, It was ſaid by Doctor Amy a Doctor of the Civil Law, That if a Church become void, and a Stranger enters a Caveat with the Regiſter of the Biſhop, That none be Inſtituted into the Church, until he be be made privie thereunto; and the Biſhop before he have notice of the Caveat, Inſtitutes the Incumbent; that the Inſtitution is meerly void in the Spiritual Law; for that the Regiſter ought to Notifie the Caveat to the Biſhop, and his negligence in that Caſe ſhall not prejudice him who entred the Caveat: And if the Biſhop have notice of the Caveat, and gives day to him that puts it in, and before that day he Inſtitutes the Incumbent, it is meerly void; for that the entring of the Caveat is a Superſedeas in it ſelf. Mich. 31 Eliz. in the Lord Zouches Caſe. Goldesbr. 146.

3. If a man have Judgment to have a Return upon a Nonſuit in a Replevin, and the Plaintiff bringeth a ſecond Deliverance: It was holden, That this is a Superſedeas of the Return; and yet the Defendant in the firſt Replevin, ſhall have a Writ to enquire of the damages, which ſhall not be ſtayed by the ſecond Deliverance; But if he have Judgment in the ſecond Deliverance, then ſhall be Return irrepleviſable, and he ſhall recover damnages. Hill. 43 Eliz. in C. B. Goldesbr. 185.

4. A man was condemned in Debt, and brought an Audita Querela upon a Releaſe, and had a Superſedeas. It was the Opinion of Periam Juſtice, That if the Sheriff take him before he hath notice of the Writ, although it be after the Teſte, that it is well: But the other Juſtices held the contrary; and ſaid, It had been adjudged contrary to the Opinion of Periam. Trin. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Goldesbr. 96.

5. A. B. was Outlawed after Judgment, and an Elegit was awarded againſt the Defendant: A Superſedeas was prayed, Quia erroniceè emanavit, for that the party might not have any other manner of Execution but a Capias: For a Fieri facias he cannot have, becauſe the Queen is entituled to the goods; and an Elegit he may not have, becauſe the Queen is entituled to all the profits of his Lands. It was ſaid, That it appears by 21 H. 7. 7. That the party outlawed, might make a Feoffment, and ſo out the King of the profits. It was not Reſolved, but the Court would adviſe of the Caſe. Hill. 43 Eliz. in C. B. Goldesbr. 180. acc.

6. A. was arreſted by a Capias ad ſatisfaciendum, by a Bayliff of Middleſex, within the Barrs of Holborn, which is in London; a Superſedeas was prayed, becauſe the Arreſt was falſe. It was agreed by the Court in this Caſe, That a Superſedeas cannot be Granted; for in a Superſedeas, it cannot be Executio erroniceè emanavit; and here the Execution was well granted: And if it be Returned by the Sheriff generally, it ought to be intended, That it was well ſerved, But a Habeas Corpus was granted in the Caſe. 7. A Writ of Error was brought to reverſe a Judgment, which was received and allowed, and notwithſtanding the Plaintiff that had the Judgment had taken out Execution, whereupon a Superſedeas was prayed, to ſuperſede the Execution, and an Attachment againſt the party for his contempt. It was moved by the Councel, That after a Writ of Error is received and allowed, the hands of the Court that gave the Judgment, are foreclоſed from granting out any Execution, and that the Writ of Error in it ſelf is a Superſedeas, Dyer, 283. It was Objected, That the Writ of Errour was not well purſued, becauſe that the Roll was not marked. It was the Opinion of the Court, That whether the Roll be marked or not, or notice given to the Attorney of the other ſide, yet if the party proceed to take out Execution, it is a Contempt to the Court; Wherefore a Superſedeas was awarded, quia improvidè emanavit. Mich. 1649. in B. R. Mercer and Rales Caſe. Styles 159.

8. A Peer of the Realm was arreſted by a Bill of Middleſex, and being in the cuſtody of the Marſhal of this Court, he prayed a Superſedeas to it, becauſe he was a Peer of the Realm: But the Court denyed to grant him a Superſedeas, but ſaid, he muſt plead his Priviledge if he be ſo, for that the Court cannot take notice of it. Mich. 1649. in B. R. The Earl Rivers Caſe. Styles 177.

9. Upon an Affidavit made, it was ſhewed to the Court, That there were two Writs of Execution executed upon one Judgment; and therefore it was prayed, That the laſt Execution might be ſuperſeded, becauſe there ought not to be two Executions for one matter, but where the party is prejudiced by death, or act of Law, that he cannot take benefit of the former Execution. The Court was of Opinion, That if the firſt Writ was Returned and filed, there could not be a ſecond Execution; otherwiſe, if it was not returned and filed. Hill. 1650. in B. R. Sherley and Semaigne Caſe. Styles, 255.

10. An Indictment upon the Statute of 8 H. 6. was found at the Quarter Seſſions, and a Writ of Reſtitution was granted. It is a Quære in 3 Eliz. Dyer, Whether the Juſtices which were abſent, might in ſuch Caſe grant a Superſedeas. But it was holden, That if it were at a ſpecial Seſſions, there none but they which were preſent might grant it, except the Juſtices of the Kings Bench, who have ſupream authority, the King ſiting there. See Mich. 3 Eliz. Dyer, 187. See Dalton, 242.

11. A Fieri facias came to the Sheriff to levie money, who Returned, That he had taken goods into his hands, to the value of part of the debt, and that they remained in his keeping for want of Buyers, and that before the Return of his Writ, a Superſedeas came to him for doing further Execution, which Writ he Returned annexed to the Fieri facias, and that the Superſedeas was awarded in Banco, by reaſon of a Writ of Error there brought. It was the Opinion of the Court in this Caſe, That notwithſtanding that, the Execution was not ſerved, nor the property altered, and the Superſedeas awarded; That a Venditioni exponas ſhould be awarded, which was awarded accordingly. Paſch. 1 Mar. Dyer, 98.

12. Husband and Wife, as Adminiſtrators of the firſt Husband, recovered a Debt; depending which Suit, the ſon of the Inteſtate, by Covin betwixt him and the Defendant, procured new Letters of Adminiſtration to him and another jointly, and after Judgement, releaſed to the Debt; The Husband and Wife thereupon ſued forth Execution; whereupon the Debtor brought an Audita Querela, with a Superſedeas in it, depending which, the ſecond Adminiſtration was Repealed by ſentence, and the Covin and Repeal pleaded in Bar; upon which the Defendant did demur: And in that Caſe it was adjudged againſt the Plaintiff in the Audita Querela, notwithſtanding the ſame was ſued our, and a Superſedeas upon it. Hil. 17 Eliz. Dyer, 339.

13. P. was Outlawed at the ſuit of L. in an Action

Action of Detinue, 19 Octob. and the Exigent was Returned Craſtino Animarum, at which day the Sheriff did not Return the Exigent; but he Returned that the 19 day which was the 5. County, the Defendant appeared, and brought a Writ of Superſedeas, Quia improvidè, because the Defendant had often appeared by his Attorney: The Teſte of the Superſedeas was the 12 day of Octob. which was a week before the 5. County; and in truth, the Superſedeas was then granted, and delivered upon Record in Banco the ſame day: And upon a ſuggeſtion of the Plaintiff that the Defendant was Outlawed, a Certiorare was granted, to certifie if the Defendant was Outlawed or not, and the Teſte of the Writ was 30 Octob. which was a week before the Return of the Exigent; upon which the Coroners Returned that he was Outlawed: by which Return of the Coroners, the Defendant was troubled both in his body and goods: It was in that Caſe adjudged, That the Return of the Coroners was not ſufficient to make the Plaintiff Outlawed, wherefore it was Reverſed, and a Writ of Reſtitution awarded to the Defendant for his goods. Mich. 5 Eliz. Dyer, 223. Proctors Caſe.

14. An Habeas Corpus was awarded, to remove a Caſe in the Court of Gilford in S. notwithſtanding they proceeded; upon Examination it appeared that the Writ was delivered after Iſſue joyned in Debt, viz. per minas pleaded, ſo as by the Statute of 23 Jac. the Judge might refuſe. In this Caſe it was Reſolved by the Court, Becauſe it was in an Action of Debt upon an Obligation of 200 l. not made within the Town; and becauſe the Proceedings was before one who was Town-Clerk, and an Attorney of the Common Pleas, and not an Utter Barriſter, as he ought to be, by the expreſs words of the Statute, the Proceedings was not Warranted by the Statute, and their Proceedings after the Habeas Corpus awarded, were void; wherefore a Superſedeas was awarded. Mich. 3 Car. in C. B. Clapham's Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 56.

15. In an Action upon the Caſe for calling one Whore, in L. upon an Habeas Corpus, a Procedendo was awarded, becauſe it was conceived a good cauſe of Action in London, by the Cuſtome. A Superſedeas was prayed, and the cauſe to be removed, for that it was againſt Law to ſuffer ſuch Actions to be proſecuted in London, whereas no Action lyes at the Common Law for the words. On the other ſide, It was prayed, That no Superſedeas might be awarded, becauſe it is an offence there Puniſhable, at the Wardmoots Enqueſt, and there puniſhable, and the more reaſon the party ſhould have his Action in London: And it was ſaid, That after a Procedendo once granted, no Superſedeas ought to be awarded. But the Opinion of the whole Court was againſt that; for when a Procedendo unduly or improvidè emanavit, the uſe is, to grant a Superſedeas. But in the Principal Caſe, the Court was of Opinion, That the Procedendo was well granted, and thereupon denyed to grant a Superſedeas. Mich. 13 Car. in B. R. Bowes and Cowpers Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 350.

16. Upon Plene Adminiſtravit pleaded by an Executrix, and Judgment againſt her, ſhe brought a Writ of Error; It was moved, That ſhe ſhould not have a Superſedeas to ſtay the Execution, without ſpecial Sureties to pay the Condemnation, if the Judgment ſhould be affirmed upon the Statute of 3 Jac. cap. 8. It was Reſolved, That this Caſe was out of the Statute; for although the Statute be general, yet it is intended in ſuch Caſes where it is againſt the party himſelf. But where the Judgment is Special, That the Execution ſhall be of the goods of the Teſtator, and damages only de Bonis propriis; It is not reaſonable that the party ſhould be enforced to finde Sureties to pay the entire Condemnation with his own goods: And it was ſaid in this Caſe, That ever ſince the ſaid Statute made, That in ſuch Caſe a Superſedeas had been allowed upon a Writ of Errour brought by an Executor or Adminiſtrator; wherefore a Superſedeas was awarded. Mich. 12 Jac. in B. R. Goldſmith and the Lady Platts Caſe. Cro. 2. Part 352.

17. Error brought, for that a Writ of Habeas Corpus with Niſi Prius being awarded; a Superſedeas was granted and delivered to the Sheriff for ſtaying of the Return of the Writ; notwithſtanding which the Sheriff returned the Habeas Corpus at the Aſſiſes, and a Tryal was thereupon had, and Judgment. It was holden by the Court, That it was Error, as is the proceedings in an Inferiour Court after a Habeas Corpus delivered without a Procedendo. The Judgment was reverſed. Hill. 1 Jac. in B. R. King and Hills Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 43.

18. Treſpaſs for that the Defendant took and Impriſoned him for the ſpace of a Moneth. The Defendant juſtified by a Writ out of the Exchequer to take the Plaintiff and his Lands for a Debt to the King; and that ſuch a Sheriff of S. took the Plaintiff in Execution, and that by vertue of a Latitat at the Suit of J. S. he took the Plaintiff, and in exitu ab Officio, left him in Priſon to the Defendant, being Sheriff. The Plaintiff replyed, That quoad the Execution out of the Exchequer, there was a Superſedeas out of the ſame Court delivered to the Defendant quod eam deliberaret ſi ea de Cauſa et non alia fuit impriſonatus; and as to his detainment upon the Latitat, he pleaded, That the ſaid J. S. the Plaintiff in the ſaid Suit commanded, the Sheriff to diſcharge him of his Action before that his Impriſonment, and made a Releaſe to the Sheriff of that Suit. Upon which it was demurred. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the Superſedeas was a good cauſe to diſcharge him, as the firſt proceſs was to Arreſt him, and he ought to obey it at his peril, and in regard he had not done it, he is chargable with a Falſe Impriſonment. And that the detaining him in Priſon is a new Caption; and ſo the Plaintiff may well declare of a Caption and Impriſonment, Hill. 12 Jac. in B. R. Wybers and Henlys Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 379.

19. Debt brought againſt Husband and Wife, Executrix of A, her former Husband, proceſs continued againſt them till the Exigent; upon which the Husband appeared and put in a Superſedeas for himſelf only, without making ment on of his Wife. This being moved, the Juſtices demanded of the Prejnothories what was to be done, for the ſame is a practice, and a dangerous Caſe for example. It was anſwered by them, That the Court cannot remedy it, for now by the Superſedeas the Husband ſine die, and he ſhall not be driven to anſwer without his Wife as this Caſe is, and he is impleaded in the right of his Wife, and therefore the Wife ſhall be waived, and the Husband diſcharged. See Book Entries 187. and ſee 43 E. 3. 8. acc. But at the laſt the Juſtices adviſed thereof, and gave order that the Superſedeas ſhould be ſtayed without recording the appearance of the Husband. And it was ſaid, That that was the Caſe of the Lady Matry and her Husband, who were ſued in an Action of Debt, to the Outlawry; upon which the Husband appeared, and put in a Superſedeas for himſelf without ſpeaking of the Wife, and the Superſedeas was not allowed. Mich. 30 Eliz. in C.B. Bulford and Foxes Caſe. Leon. 138, 139.

20. Shepheard and others brought an Aſſiſe againſt Sir Chriſtopher Heydon in C. B. which was tryed at the Aſſiſes in N. and Judgment was given for the Demandants in the Court of Common Pleas. Sir Chriſtopher Heydon brought a Writ of Error, and aſſigned for Error, That whereas the Judgment was given upon his own Confeſſion, the Judgment was entred, That the Plaintiff did recover per viſum Recognitorum Aſſiſæ ſpradict. And after the ſaid Judgment affirmed in the Kings Bench, Sir Chriſtopher brought another Writ in Parliament to reverſe the Judgment in the Kings Bench. The Queſtion in this Caſe, amongſt others, was, Whether the bringing of the Writ of Error in Parliament, was a Superſedeas in it ſelf. The Court doubted of the point; for Cook Chief Juſtice ſaid, He had ſeen 26 or 27 Writs of Error which were brought in Parliament, where the firſt Judgment was diſaffirmed, and but one where the Judgment was affirmed. It was holden clearly by the Court, That this Writ of Error was a Superſedeas of it ſelf, and that upon the Books of 8 E. 2. Error 88. and 1 H. 7. 19. where it is ſaid, That the Juſtices did proceed to Execution after the Judgment affirmed in Parliament, and therefore ex conſequenti not before. And the Court held, That if a Superſedeas be once granted and determined in default of the party himſelf, that he ſhall never have another Superſedeas. Alſo it was holden by Cook Chief Juſtice, That by this Writ of Error in Parliament Sir Chriſtopher could not have the effect of his Suit, becauſe it is to reverſe a Judgment coram Rege, and ſo the Judgment in the Common Pleas ſtands firm, and Sir Chriſtopher is put to a new Writ of Error in this Court, for the Judgment in the Kings Bench is, Judicium affirmetur, ſit ſine retractatu et effectum, ſo that not being the Fundamental Judgment, the reverſal thereof is but the beginning of a Suit. And therefore the Court adviſed Sir Chriſtopher to ſue to the Kings Majeſty by Petition to have a new Writ of Error, for that without Petition he cannot have the Writ. Paſc. 12 Jac. in B. R. Sir Chriſtopher Heydon and Shepheard and Smiths Caſe. Godbolt 247, 248, 249, 250.

21. After the parties were at Iſſue in Treſpaſs, and a Habeas Corpus awarded againſt the Jury; the Court of Common Pleas where the Action was depending awarded a Superſedeas, quia improvide, which was delivered to the Sheriff, who notwithſtanding proceeded, and found for the Plaintiff. The ſame was aſſigned for Error. The Defendant pleaded in nullo eſt erratum, for the Error aſſigned is a matter in fact depending upon a matter of Record, and then the Defendant by pleading in nullo eſt erratum hath confeſſed it, viz. that ſuch Superſedeas was awarded and delivered to the Sheriff before the Tryal, by which it followed, That the hands of the Sheriff were ſhut, that he could not proceed to diſtrein the Jury, nor return the Writ before the Juſtices of Aſſiſe. Mich. 2 Jac. in B. R. King and Andrews Caſe. Yelverton 517.

22. Judgment was given in the Kings Bench in Ireland. Within two dayes after the Judgment, the Defendant delivered to the Chief Juſtice a Writ of Error, purchaſed out of the Chancery in England returnable in the Kings Bench in England. And whether they might award Execution, was the Queſtion, becauſe the Record remains with them, which they conceived they might do, for that the Record is not ſent into the Kings Bench, but the Tranſcript only. Wherefore they prayed the advice of the Juſtices of England. It was the Opinion of all the Juſtices, That the Writ of Error is in Judgment of Law a Superſedeas, although the Record be not ſent. For if Error be brought in Parliament upon a Judgment in B. R. the Tranſcript only is ſent, and yet the Court is foreclosed pendente placito in diſcuſſo. And in this Caſe it was ſaid, That the Kings Bench in England might not award Execution, but upon a Judgment given, they ſhould ſend a ſpecial Mandate to the Chief Juſtice of Ireland to do it. Paſc. 17 Jac. in B. R. The Biſhop of Oſſories Caſe in Ireland. Cro. 2. Part. 534, 535.

23. Error of a Judgment in B. R. in Debt. A Superſedeas was awarded ad audiendum Errores returnable 11. Mich. 18 Jac. and there was not any ſuch day of Adjournment in the Exchequer Chamber; therefore it was holden by all the Juſtices to be a Diſcontinuance. Wherefore it was moved, That the Plaintiff ſhould have allowance of a new Writ of Error Coram vobis reſident. which was taken under Seal, and certified. It was Reſolved by the Court, That it lay not; for they have power to proceed by ſpecial Statutes, and they are directed by the Statutes that they ſhall proceed upon a Writ of Error awarded to the Chief Juſtice of the Kings Bench to remove the Record, and to reverſe or affirm, and then to remaund, and they have not any power to award Execution; and if ſuch courſe ſhould be allowed, the party might often Diſcontinue, and afterwards have a new Writ of Error, and ſo in infinitum delay the Plaintiff that he ſhould never have Execution. And the Court ſaid, That forſmuch as they might not award Execution, they might not a ſmit of a Writ of Error, but according to the words of the Statute. Mic. 19 Jac. in B. R. Cave and Polewheels Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 620.

24. Upon an Exigent againſt the Husband, the Wife put in a Superſedeas. In this Caſe it was agreed by the Juſtices, That the Wife for the ſafeguard of her ſelf from Impriſonment, being returned upon the Exigent, or upon the Capias, viz. upon the one, Quod reddidit ſe ſoror upon the other Cepi, and as to the Husband (Non eſt inventus) may appear, and ſo long as the proceſs continues againſt the Husband, ſhall have idem dies. But when the Husband is returned Outlawed, ſhe ſhall be diſcharged without idem dies. But whether ſhe ſhall have a Superſedeas is doubtfull. It ſeemed by all to be agreed, That the Husband after he purchaſeth his pardon, or after he comes to reverſe the Outlawry, he ſhall not have allowance of his Pardon nor appearance received, unleſs he bring in his Wife, who by preſumption of Law is to be brought in by him; but the Husband is not to be brought in by the Wife. See 18 E. 4. 4. there the Caſe was, That a Feme Covert was ſued as a Feme Sole, and ſhe was Outlawed, and then the Husband came and brought a Writ of Error for the reverſal of it in his name, and the name of the Wife. It is there ſaid, it is queſtionable, being that he was not party to the Suit. And the Prerogatories ſaid, That no Superſedeas was ever granted for the Wife in ſuch Caſe. H. 2 Car. in B. R. Hutton 86.

25. Four were bound in a Recognizance of debt acknowledged in the Court of Cheſter to Sir John Langford. Afterwards one of the Conuſors dyed, his Heir within age. Sir John Langford brought a Scire facias againſt the other three to have Execution, who pleaded that the Heir of the Conuſor who was dead, was within age, and inaſmuch as during his Minority he cannot be charged, and the Survivors ought not to be charged, they demanded Judgment. Note out of that Caſe, it was obſerved by Cook, That the Heir is not charged only as Ter-Tenant, but in ſome reſpect as Heir, for otherwiſe in that Caſe he ſhould not have his age. And it was ſaid, That it is a Rule in 17 E. 3. 43. That the Heir of the Conuſor ſhall have an Audita Querela before Execution ſued, aſwell as the Conuſor himſelf, and ſhall have a Superſedeas, but ſo ſhall not have a ſtrange Purchaſor un ill he be ouſted by an Execution. See Cook 3. Part, 13. in Sir William Herberts Caſe.

26. Note, It was agreed by the Juſtices in B. R. That when Judgment is given in this Court againſt another, and Execution upon it; That in ſuch Caſe, the Lord Keeper cannot Order that the money ſhall ſtay in the Sheriffs hands, or Order that the Plaintiff ſhall not call for it; for notwithſtanding ſuch Order he may call for it. And it was agreed, That a Writ of Error is a Superſedeas to an Execution, but then there ought to be notice of it given to the Sheriff; otherwiſe if he notwithſtanding the Superſedeas ſerve the Execution, he ſhall not run into Contempt, for which an Attachment ſhall be granted. Surplu-

Surplusage.

1. What shall be said Surplusage; What not: What shall hurt; What not: Where it shall abate a Writ, Count, Plea, and make it vitious; Where not.

1. A Man having Issue 3. sons by his Wife' seised of a House in Fee, in consideration of naturall affection, and to the intent that all his Tenements should continue in his name, Covenanted by Indenture, That he and his Heirs would stand seised of the said house to the use of himself for life; and after his decease, to the use of his Wife for life; and after their deceases, of the one moyty to the use of his second son in tail of the moyty of one house, and of the other moyty to the use of his third son in tail, and dyed: The Question was, If any Use did rise to the Wife, or not; and, if the Wife were within the Consideration; and, if it might be averred? In that case, It was Resolved, 1. That a Consideration which stood with the Deed, and was not repugnant to it, might be averred. 2. Resolved, That admit, that other Consideration then is expressed in the Deed cannot be averred; yet here is an express Consideration in it self: For when he limits the same to the use of his Wife for life, that purports a sufficient Consideration in it self, and needs not any averment, Et manifesta probatione non indiget: As, if the Father, Tenant by Knights-Service, enfeoffeth his Son and Heir apparant within age, it needs not to be averred, that it was by Collusion, because it is apparant. Cook 7. Part, 40. Bedell's Case.

2. In the Case of Alton-Woods, 1. Exception was taken, That the Office doth entitle King Hen. 7th after his death, and found Seisin in H. 7. and a discent to Hen. 8 so as the Office which was found 23 H. 8. doth not entitle King Henry the 8th by force of the Office and Attainder, but entituleth King Hen. 7th, and King Hen. 8th, as Heir to him, and that is the Title which the Office found for King Hen. the 8th, and therefore the Office is not sufficient. But the said Exception was disallowed by the Court; For in as much as it was found by Office, That the Earl of W. was seised of the said Reversion at the time of his Attainder, it was sufficient to entitle King Henry the 8th, without finding the residue of the matter, which was but surplusage, and more then needed. 2. Another Exception was, That the pleading of the Grant made by King Henry the 8th, to W. W. as to the Consideration, was insufficient, Because it was not averred, That the King had Demised the Mannors of G. and C, as he had recited; for in truth there were no such Leases unto W. (as he recites) for his life, and was induced to grant the Mannor of A. unto W. and his Wife, because the Mannor of C. (which he recites, he had granted to W. and his Wife for the Term of their lives) shall be surrendred; but if, in rei veritate there were not such Leases for life, then the King was deceived in the Consideration which was of Record and valuable: And if the Defendant had pleaded, That the King made such Lease, the same had been issuable and traversable. But that Exception was also disallowed; For the Consideration was, That W. W. shall surrender the Letters Patents of the Mannor of C, and all that he hath. That is to say, the surrender of the Letters Patents, and that is the Consideration, and not the Surrender of the Estate Demised. And it was agreed, That he needed not to aver more then is contained within the Consideration it self. And it was said, That although the King doth recite the Demise, yet that is not the Consideration of the new Grant; and false recital of a thing which was not parcell of the Consideration, made not the Grant void. See Cook 1. Part, 42, 43. in Alton-Woods Case: and lege the Principal Case there.

3. A man prescribed to have Common appurtenant to his House and Land in the Land of A, and also in the Land of B: B. purchased the house and Land to which the Common was appertaining, and made a Lease thereof for years; the Lessee put his Cattel into the Land of A who chased them; and the Lessee brought Trespass. It was Resolved, That Common appendant is of Common Right, and beginneth by operation of Law, and in favour of Tillage, and therefore a man need not prescribe in it; and such a Common is only appendant to arrable Land, and for Cattle to manure the Land, and for Coates and Sheep to dung and soile the Land; and that it is not the nature of such Common to be appendant to Meadow and Pasture. And therefore it was Resolved, That the Common in the principal Case was Common appurtenant, and not Common appendant. In that case it was also holden, That Common appendant is not altered, by altering part of the Land to which it is appendant. But in pleading it ought to be alledged, That it is appendant to arrable arable Land only. Cook 5. Part, 37. Terringham's Caſe.

4. Queen Elizabeth made a Leaſe for years, rendring Rent payable at the Exchequer at Weſtminſter, ſeu ad manus baliverum ſeu receptorum, &c. with Condition, to be void for non payment; Afterwards the Queen granted the Reverſion in Fee. It was Reſolved in that caſe, That the demand of the Rent ought now to be made upon the Land; For in the caſe of the King, the limiting to be paid into the Exchequer, or into the hands of Bailiffs or Receivors, was but ſurpluſage, and no more than the Law would have Ordered, if the place or perſon at all had been named in the Letters Patents, ſo as ſuch a Limitation in the Queens caſe operated nothing: And then when the Queen aliened the Reverſion to a ſubject, it is then as if no Limitation had been made where, or to whom, the Rent ſhould be paid, and then the payment ought to be upon the Land. Cook 4. Part, 73. Bromley's Caſe.

5. J. F. and M. his Wife brought a Formedon in Remainder againſt E. B. of 3. Meſſuages in A. which R. L. did give to E. C. and the Heirs of her body, the Remainder to J. P. and his Heirs, Et quia poſt mortem predict. E. et J. P. prefat. J. F. et M. fil. et hared. Roberti P. gen. fratris Hugonis P. filii et haredis predict. J. P. remanere debent per formam reddituum predict. eo quod E. obiit ſine haerede de Corpore ſuo exeunte, &c. The Tenant pleaded in abatement of the Writ, That the Demandant ſhould by the form of the Regiſter have ſuppoſed, that the Meſſuages poſtmodum predict. E. et J. P. prefat. J. F. et M. ut conſanguineum et hared. predict. J. P. remanere debet per formam donationis predict. Which concluſion he hath not made. It was the Opinion of the whole Court in this Caſe, That the Writ was good enough, in as much as it appears to the Court by the pedigree as it is ſet down, that ſhe is, and needs muſt be Coſin and Heir unto J. P; ſo as it is but palma pro pugno, the ſame thing more largely ſpoken, and the form of the Regiſter may bear ſuch an alteration. See 11 H. 6. 20. in a Formedon in Deſcender, The Demandant made himſelf Heir to every one that had been enheritable to the tail, though by the Regiſter he be bound to make himſelf Heir only to them that were ſeiſed by force of the intail. But yet the Writ was holden good, for now we ſee he muſt needs be Heir to all that was ſeiſed, but he muſt not fail to make himſelf Heir to all that were ſeiſed. Hill. 11 Jac. in C. B. Feck and Brinford's Caſe. Hobart, 51.

6. In Waſte by T. H. againſt R. W. the Caſe was; One M. D. was ſeiſed in Fee of the third part of a Meſſuage and certain Lands in B. in the County of W. and Demiſed them to S. W. for 41. years, who aſſigned to R. W: After which, M. D. by Bargain and Sale, Conveyed the Reverſion to J. S. and his Heirs, the ſaid J. S. being ſeiſed of another third part thereof in Fee; after which, viz. 1. June, 17 Eliz. J. S. dyed ſeiſed of the Reverſion of the ſaid two parts, and this diſcended to B. S. his Son and Heir; who, 20. Junii, 28 Eliz. by Bargain and Sale enrolled, conveyed the Reverſion of the two parts to the ſaid T. H. and his Heirs. After which, R. W. committed Waſte in the ſaid houſe. Whereupon T. H. brought an Action of Waſte, and aſſigned the Waſte, in ſuffering the Hall, of price 20 l. and other Rooms to be uncovered, to the diſenheriſin of the Plaintiff: And upon Nihil Dicit, a Writ of Enquiry of Damages was awarded; in which was compriſed, That the Sheriff ſhould go to the place waſted, and there enquire of the ſaid Damages. Who returned the Inquiſition taken of B. without making mention, That he went to the place waſted. Whereupon Judgment was given in C. B. That he ſhould recover Seiſin againſt the Defendant, of the ſaid places, per viſum Juratorum Inquiſitionis predict. et damna ſua occaſione Vaſti predict. in eiſdem locis in triplo, ſecundum formam Statuti. Upon which, a Writ of Errour was brought in B. R. And there it was agreed by all the Judges, That it was but Surpluſage, to comprehend in the Writ of Enquiry of Damages, That the Sheriff ſhall go to the place waſted, and there enquire of the Damages, in as much as by not doing thereof the Waſte is acknowledged, and therefore he needs not go to the place waſted: But where a Writ is awarded to enquire of Waſte upon default made at the grand Diſtreſs, there by the Statute of Weſt. 2. the Sheriff ought in perſon to go to the place Waſted, and enquire of the Waſte done, and therefore in that caſe it was needfull to have the Clauſe in it; for by the View, the Waſte may be better known to them: but where the Waſte is acknowledged, as here, that Clauſe is Surpluſage, and needs not; but he may do it at any place within his Bailywick where he pleaſeth. See Paſch. 35 Eliz. Heydock and Warwards Caſe. Popham, 24.

7. Debt, the Plaint was of 6 l. 14 s. 2 d. and declared, That the money grew due by reaſon of two ſeveral Contracts, ſcil. ſo much for the one, and ſo much for the other; and it appeared upon Accompt, & Computation of theſe two ſums, that it was more by 3 d. then was contained in the Plaint. The Defendant pleaded as to 6 l. 14 s. 2 d. Nihil debet, and found for the Plaintiff, and Judgment in in an Inferiour Court, That the Plaintiff ſhould recover as he declared. Upon which, Errour was brought, brought, and assigned, That 3 d. more is given by the Judgment to be recovered, then was found by the Jury to be due. It was holden by Fenner and Yelverton to be Errour, and they conceived a difference where the Plaint (for the purpose) is 8 l. and he declares for 10 l. viz. 5 l. for a horse, and 5 l. upon another Contract, and Nil debet to the 10 l. and nothing to the other, and so found, yet the same is good; for the 5 l. in the Declaration is but surplusage, because that the Plaint was answered in toto with the principal Contract layed in the Declaration, scil. the horse. But in the principal Case, the moneys mentioned in the Declaration, being upon severall Contracts, and none of the Contracts only amounting per se, to the sum specified in the Plaint, every part of the Declaration was materiall; and so being found too short by the Verdict, the Judgment was Erroneous. Trin. 44 Eliz. in B. R. Crompton and Smiths Case. Yelverton, 5.

2. Where Surplusage in an Indictment, Verdict, Deeds, or Grants, shall make them void; Where not: Where it is not materiall; et è contra. And where Customs to have a thing against Common right, is Surplusage.

1. IN a Writ of Dower, the Issue Ne unq; Seisis que Dower: It was given in Evidence to the Jury, That a Feoffment was made to the Husband, and the Deed shewed. To which it was said, That long before the Feoffment, the husband was seised of the Land to him and his first Wife in tail, and after discontinued, and took back an Estate in Fee by the Feoffment aforesaid, and dyed seised; so the Heir was remitted, and the second Wife not Dowable. Mountague would have demurred, and dismissed the Jury. But the Court was clear of Opinion, That the Jury ought to find for the Demandant, because their charge is only upon the Seisin, scil. if the Husband was seised of such an Estate of which she might have Dower. Knightly would have had the Jury found all the matter at large; as it was in Temps. E. 1. but the Court would not admit a Verdict at large. Pasch. 30 H 8. Dyer, 41.

2. In an Evidence upon an Issue joyned upon Villinage regardant to a Manor; It was holden by the Justices, That he ought to make his Title to the Villein as regardant, and not if he were a Villein in grosse, or not, because they are not charged with that. But Bromley was of another Opinion, because their charge is upon the Right of Villeinage. Pasch. 33 H.8. Dyer, 48.

3. Debt brought against J. S. Executor of the Last Will and Testament of J. N: It was found by Verdict, That J. N. made a Bond in the nature of a Statute-Staple to J. S. and dyed: and J. S. as Executor of his own wrong, retained goods in his own hands, in satisfaction of his own debt. It was Objected, 1. That he might retain, because the Plaintiff hath affirmed him to be Executor in his Declaration, and the Jury cannot find against that which the parties have admitted in pleading, and so the finding of the Jury, that he was Executor of his own wrong, was surplusage. 2. Although that an Executor of his own wrong cannot retain against a lawful Executor, or a lawful Administrator; yet he might retain against a Creditor, who hath affirmed him in his Declaration to be Executor. But it was Resolved by the Court, That the Retainer by an Executor of his own wrong, was not good, for the manifold inconveniencies which would follow. Cook 5. Part, 30. Coulte's Case.

4. Debt against an Executor, the Jury found the death of the Testator in Ireland, and the Defendant took divers Goods of the Testator in Ireland, and administred to the value of the Debt; and that he did not administer any goods of the Intestate within the Kingdom of England. It was Objected, That the Jury cannot find things transitory in another County, or in another Realm; Because by presumption of Law, they cannot have knowledg of the thing; and a thing done meerly beyond Sea, shall not be tryed here. But it was Resolved by the Court, 1. That the Jury may find Affetts in any County, because they are things Transitory: But when the place is materiall, and made parcell of the Issue, there the Jurours cannot find the Point in Issue in any other place, for that by special pleading, the Point in Issue is restrained to a place certain. 2. It was Resolved, That the Jurors have found the substance of the Issue; scil. Affetts, and then the finding, That they are beyond Sea, is but Surplusage; and if an Executor hath goods in any part of the World, he shall be charged in respect of them. Cook 6. Par, 44. Dowdales Case.

5. A man made a Lease for 30 years of a Manor, excepting all Woods and Underwoods growing and being upon the Mannor; And afterwards made another Lease to the same Lesse of all the Woods and underwoods growing or being upon the said Mannor for 60 years, without impeachment of Waſte; and afterwards made a third Demiſe to the Leſſee for 30 years, without any expreſſion to begin from the day of the expiration of the ſaid Leaſe for 30 years: The Term for 30 years expired, the Leſſee cut the Trees, and he in the Reverſion brought an Action of Waſte: And in this caſe it was Reſolved, That by the Exception of the Wood and underwood, the ſoile it ſelf was excepted; and the words, [Growing and being upon the Mannor] were Surpluſage; for by Demiſe of all the Woods upon the Mannor, all Woods growing and being upon the Mannor, paſſe; for that is all one. 2. Reſolved, That notwithſtanding the Exception, the Woods did remain parcell of the Mannor, and by the Demiſe of the Mannor they did paſs. Mich. 40 Eliz. in C.B. Cook 5. Part, 11. Ives Caſe.

6. An Abbot a Covent made a Leaſe for years, rendring yearly during the Term to the Abbot and Covent, or to the Succeſſors, 5 l. Rent at two Feaſts; upon Condition, That if the Rent be behind, to re-enter; The Abbot ſurrendred to the King his Land, which by mean Conveyances came to J. S. who levied a Fine of the Reverſion to B; B. before Attornment granted by Deed the Reverſion to his Son and Heir, to whom the Termor attorned; the Rent was behind; the ſon in the Reverſion entred upon the Land: In this Caſe, (amongſt other Points) it was Reſolved, That the Reſervation in the disjunctive was good, for the Law ſhall make ſuch a Conſtruction as ſhall ſtand with the intention of the party. And it was agreed, That rendring Rent yearly during the Term to him and his Succeſſors, or rendring Rent to him during the Term, or to his Succeſſors, was all one, if the Rent be reſerved to him and his Succeſſors: And although that the words are joyne, and in the Copulative; yet upon conſtruction of the Law, the Leſſor ſhall have the Rent during his life, and his Succeſſors after his deceaſe: And theſe words [To him or to his Succeſſors] are words onely of explanation, for ſuch a Reſervation had been good, being reſerved yearly during the Term, without the words to him and his Succeſſors. Cook 5. Part, 112. Mallories Caſe.

7. In an Indictment of Murders, divers Errors & Exceptions were taken and alledged, 1. Becauſe that in the Indictment it was alledged, That the Indictment was taken before W.S. Coronatore Domine Regine infra Libertat. dicte Domine Regine Ville ſive de Coſſam predict. ſuper viſum Corporis: and it is not alledged to what places the ſaid Liberty did extend, or what part, or if any part of the Town of Coſſam was within the Liberty; ſo as it doth not appear that the Coroner had Juriſdiction. And Indictments which concern the lives of men, and which are the Kings Counſel, ought to have a full and preciſe certainty, to which the party may anſwer, and ſhall not be taken by Argument. But it was Reſolved, That the Indictments was good enough. For if Indictments be certain to a general intent, it is ſufficient: and in this caſe there is a ſufficient certain Intendment, that Coſſam is within the Liberty of Coſſam; and that the Town it ſelf ſhall be preſumed to be out of the Liberty of the Town, is but a conſtrained Conſtruction, which the Law will not allow of. 2. It was Objected, That the Indictment was not good, for that it wanted the word percuſſit. And for this cauſe, it was Reſolved, That the Indictment was inſufficient; For although that a Gun was diſcharged upon the party, yet it might be, that he was not ſtruck with it; And an Indictment may be a percuſſit as well out of ſtroke out of a Gun, or a Bowe, as with a ſword in hand; For this cauſe, the Indictment was Quaſhed. Cook 5. Part, 121. Longs Caſe. See Cook 4. Part, 42. in Heydons Caſe, acc.

Surrender.

What words ſhall make a Surrender, What not; And where the Acceptance of a new Eſtate from the Leſſor, or him in the Reverſion, ſhall be a ſurrender of the firſt Eſtate or Intereſt; and where not.

1. IN a Replevin, the Caſe was; A. poſſeſſed of a Term of Abby Lands aſſigned it to R. rendring 50 l. per annum, ſi R. his Executors or aſſigns, ſhould ſo long occupy virtute dimiſſionis; and R. granted, That it ſhould be lawful to diſtrain it, &c. Afterwards the King granted the Reverſion to D. to whom A. ſurrendred; & afterwards D. deviſed the Land to his Wife for life, upon whom the Adminiſtrator of A. diſtrained, and avowed upon the Aſſignee of R. for the Rent: The Plaintiff pleaded, That her Husband was ſeiſed in Fee, and Deviſed to her for life, and the diſcent of the Reverſion to her ſon, who prayed in Aide of him. The matter aboveſaid being pleaded in bar, the Avowant demurred thereupon: 1. Becauſe it was pleaded, That the Reverſion was given to the King by the Statute of 31 H. 8.

where the Statute gives not any but thoſe which ſhall be ſurrendred, relinquiſhed and yielded up; and in this caſe, the ſurrender was not ſhewed; and for that it was the Opinion of the Court, That the Barr was inſufficient. And, 2. Becauſe he pleaded, That the Reverſion diſcended, which was not true; for that untill the Wife entred, there was not any Reverſion. Hill. 2 Mar. Dyer, 110. Donner's Caſe.

2. A Leaſe was made for years rendring Rent; the Leſſor made a Feoffment of the Land, the Termor being upon the Land, and the Termor held the Land; And, If the Feoffee ſhould have the Freehold and the Rent, was the Queſtion? It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That it was a good Feoffment, for the Termor had an Intereſt in his Chattell, and the Leſſor in the Freehold, and ſo they have diſtinct Intereſts; and ſo the Freehold ſhall paſſe, and the Term be ſaved: But otherwiſe it is in the caſe of a Leaſe for life, although the Termor be content with the ſame, yet that is not a ſurrender. See Paſch. 29 Eliz. Dyer, 33. See Cook 2. Part, 31. ſeem contrary.

3. Leſſee for years rendring Rent; the Reverſion was granted for life, the remainder over in Fee, the Grantee releaſed all his right to him in the Remainder: He in the Remainder granted the Reverſion in Fee, the Tenant for life alſo Releaſed to the ſame Grantee; Yet it was adjudged in that caſe, That the Releaſes were void, becauſe there wanted words of Surrender in them. It is there a Quære, if the ſecond Releaſe ſhall not amount to an Attornment to make the Remainder to paſſe. Paſch. 8 Eliz. Dyer, 251.

4. In Treſpaſſe upon Not guilty, the Caſe was; A. was ſeiſed of the Barton of S. in Fee, and demiſed the ſame to J. T. and to W. R. for the Term of their lives, and dyed; the Reverſion diſcended to Sir John A. as ſon and heir, who by Indenture granted the ſame to E. T. the Defendant, the Reverſion of the ſaid Barton for Term of life; to which Grant J. T. attorned, being then joyntly ſeiſed of the ſaid Barton with W. R. Afterwards J. T. by his Deed ſurrendred to the ſaid E. T. all his Eſtate, Title, and Intereſt in the ſaid Barton, and dyed. E. T. entred into the ſaid Barton, claiming to hold in Common with the ſaid W. R. The point in the Caſe was only, If the Attornment of one Joynt-Tenant did not veſt the Reverſion in him, then the ſurrender made to him was void. And in this Caſe it was Reſolved. 1. That the Attornment of one Tenant for life ſhould veſt the Reverſion in the Grantee, becauſe the Eſtate of joynt Leſſees is entire, and by conſequent the Reverſion is dependant and expectant upon ſuch an Eſtate as entire alſo; and the Attornment is a lawfull act, and alſo becauſe an attornment doth not give an Intereſt, but only perfecteth a Grant made by another. And in this Caſe (amongſt other things) it was put for a Rule, That a Leſſee cannot attorn upon a Condition ſubſequent, but if the Reverſion be once veſted, the ſame cannot after be deveſted by any attornment, but contrary of a Condition precedent; for there it is not any Attornment untill the Condition be performed. Cook 2. Part, 66, 67. Tookers Caſe.

5. A man Attainted of Felony, pleaded his Charter of Pardon, and claimed to be reſtored to his goods and Chattells forfeited to the King by the Felony; the words of the Pardon were, Pardonavit, remiſit et relaxavit. It was the Opinion of the Court, That he was not by theſe words reſtored to his goods and Chattells, for the words do not amount to a ſurrender in the Caſe of a common perſon, much leſs in the Caſe of the King; and there ought to have bin the word reſtituit. Hill. 23 Car. in B. R. Chapell and Drewes Caſe. Styles 41.

6. A man made Leaſe by Indenture for 30 years to begin preſently. Afterwards the ſame Leſſor leaſed the ſame Land, for the ſame Term to a ſtranger to begin at the Feaſt of Mich. following. Afterwards the firſt Leſſee purchaſed the Reverſion in Feeſimple, ſo as his Term was drowned. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the ſecond Leſſee might enter after Mich. and hold his Term. Hill. 2 Ma. Dyer, 112.

7. In an Ejectione firmæ, the Caſe was, A Woman Leſſee for years, took a Husband, and dyed, the Husband was poſſeſſed of the Term; and afterwards the Leſſor by Deed Indented, Granted, and Demiſed to the Plaintiff, Robert Wroteſley, the Tenements by theſe words, viz. The Reverſion of all that his Farm in B. and alſo another Tenement there, with all Lands, Leaſes, Meadows and Paſtures, with all and ſingular their Appurtenances now in the Tenure of J. S. who was the Husband of the firſt Leſſee, To have and to hold all the ſaid Farm and Tenements, with all other, &c. to the ſaid Robert Wroteſley and his Aſſigns, from the end of the expiring of the Term of years Granted unto the ſaid J. S. to the end of 53 years. Afterwards J. S. took another Wife, and made her his Executrix, and to her deviſed his Term, and dyed, his Wife entred, claiming by the Deviſe; and afterwards ſhe married another Husband; and ſhe and her Husband being in poſſeſſion took a Leaſe for the Term of their lives from him who had the Feeſimple, by which the Term was drowned; upon which Robert Wroteſley before the expiration of the Term of years, ſuppoſing that his ſecond Leaſe took effect, entred upon them, and by them ejected brought brought the Action. In this Caſe, all the Juſtices agreed, That the Grant of the Reverſion Habendum the Land for years à ſine termini, &c. did countervail a good Leaſe. 2. That the word (Granted to J. S.) was a good Leaſe; and although it was falſe, yet the falſe recital ſhould not avoid the Grant. 3. That the ſecond Leaſe ſhould begin immediately after the end and determination of the firſt Term, without expectation of the expiration of the years and time of the firſt Term. For to this word termino annorum, the Emphaſis and Accent ſhall be referred, as to the chief part of the ſentence: And it was holden, That in ſuch Caſe, a Writ of ad Terminum qui præteriit would well lye, if after ſurrender the Leſſee would hold out his Leſſor, although that it be infra ſpatium temporis annorum. Hill. 2 Eliz. Dyer, 177, 178. Plow. Com. Wrotteſley and Adam's Caſe. 190, to 199.

8. A man was poſſeſſed of the Capital Meſſuage of H. in S. (which was the Manſion houſe of the late Lord De la Ware) for Term of years by a Leaſe made thereof in the Augmentation Court, rendring a Rent. And afterwards within the Term, the ſame King Granted the Cuſtody and the Office of keeping of the ſaid Meſſuage by his Letters Patents unto the Leſſee for the Term of his life, together with a Fee. It was holden in this Caſe, That it was a ſurrender of the Termor; but the matter was compoſed by Arbitrament. Paſc. 3 Eliz. Dyer, 220.

9. The Prior and Covent of Norwich in 24 H. 8. made a Leaſe to A. for 24 years. Afterwards in 26 H. 8. they made a new Leaſe to C for 99 years. 30 H. 8. the Priory was tranſlated into a Deanry, and then they made a new Leaſe to C. for 99 years, within a year of 31 H. 8. of the Statute of Diſſolution. And 1 E. 6. the Dean and Chapter ſurrendred to the King. In this Caſe (amongſt other points) it was Reſolved, That the taking of the ſecond Leaſe by C. was a ſurrender of the firſt Leaſe, although it was not then in eſſe at the time. See 37 H. 6. 4. acc. And alſo it was holden, That the ſecond Leaſe was void, becauſe it was within the year of 31 H. 8. Mich. 11 Eliz. Dyer, 281. Cobets Caſe.

10. The Prior of St. Johns of Jeruſalem, and his brethren made a Leaſe by Indenture to three a Will, one of the Leſſees dyed. In 4 H. 8. the Leſſees reciting the death of one of them, and that the firſt Indenture is ſurrendred and cancelled, they made a Leaſe to the Survivors, Habendum ris et hereditas, but made no Livery, nor Letter of Attorney to make Livery. In that Caſe it was adjudged, That it was void; for that by the ſurrender of the Indenture, the Eſtate at Will was determined, ſo as the ſecond Leaſe could not now ennure as a Confirmation. It is a Quære in that Caſe, If the death of one of the Leſſees did not determine the Will. See Cook 5. Part, 10. in Heydads Caſe, that Quære Reſolved, That the Eſtate at Will is not determined. Mich. 10 Eliz. Dyer, 268.

11. The King ſeiſed of a Manor in Fee in the right of his Crown, granted Copyhold Lands parcel of his Manor to one in Fee, and afterwards by his Letters Patents under the Exchequer Seal, made a Leaſe of thoſe Lands for 21 years; the Leſſee Granted his Eſtate to the Copyholder, the King reciting the leaſe for years, granted the Reverſion in Fee; the years expired, the Grantee of the Reverſion entred upon the Copyholder, and in this Caſe it was Reſolved, 1. That the Leaſe made by the King under the Exchequer Seal was good. 2. That by the acceptance of the Term for years by the Copyholder, that the Copyhold Eſtate was determined. 3. That the ſeverance of the Freehold, and Inheritance of the Land holden by Copie did not determine the Copy-Eſtate. For although that the Copyholder hath but an Eſtate at Will, yet he is not removeable at the Will of the Lord, ſo long as he performs the Cuſtomes and Services. Cook 2. Part, 17. Lanes Caſe.

12. A. Tenant for life, the Remainder to B. and another for life, the Reverſion to C. and his Heirs, C. levyed a Fine to A. and B. to the uſe of A. for his life, and after to the uſe of B. in Fee. A. dyed. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That by the death of A. the Joynture between B. and the other was ſevered. And that B. was Tenant in Common with them, and this difference was taken, When the Feeſimple is limitted by a new Conveyance, there the one may have the Feeſimple, and the other an Eſtate for life; but when they are Tenants for life firſt, and afterwards one of them gets the Feeſimple, or the Feeſimple diſcends to him, there the Joynture is ſevered: and when an Eſtate is made to three, and to the Heirs of one, he who hath the Fee, cannot grant over his Remainder, and continue in himſelf an Eſtate for life. And if a Reverſion be granted to the Tenant for life, and another in Fee, the Reverſion is extinct for a moyety: for, Tenant for term of life cannot acquire the Reverſion or Remainder of the ſame Term, but the Eſtate for life ſhall be drowned. And if Tenant for life granteth his Eſtate to him in the Reverſion, the ſame is a ſurrender for a moyety. Cook 2. Part, 61. Wiſeits Caſe.

13. Note upon the Statute of 27 H. 8. of Uſes, It was Reſolved, That if he in the Reverſion enfeoffeth Leſſee for years to the uſe of another, that in that Caſe, although that the Leaſe be ſurrendred and extinct by the Common Law, yet by the ſaving of the said Statute, the Term of the Feoffee is saved, 27 Eliz. in the Court of Wards, Chaynes Case. and so it is if the Lord enfeoffeth a Copyholder to the use of another, his Copyhold is saved by the said Statute. 28 Eliz. in the Court of Wards; both Cases vouched in Cook 7. Part, Lillingston's Case.

14. Note, That he who hath an Interesse termini, scil. a future Interest, cannot by express words surrender it; but in such Case acceptance of a new Lease shall drown it, 37 H. 6. 17. Cook 10. Part, 53. in Lampits Case, acc.

15. Upon an Evidence to a Jury, the Case was, That where the Husband made a Lease by Indenture to the Defendant for 90 years; and afterward enfeoffed certain persons, and took back an Estate to him and his Wife in tail; and afterwards the Termor took from the Husband a Lease for 28 years only to begin immediately by word; the Husband dyed, and the Wife ousted the Termor. It was the Opinion of the Justices in that Case, That she might well do it, because the first Lease was surrendred and drowned by the Acceptance of the second Lease. Hill. 4 Ma. Dyer, 140, 141.

16. Tenant for life is content, and agreed with him in the Reversion, that he shall have the Land, and the Interest in it for the yearly Rent of 20 s. but there is no Writing nor Livery and Seisin made upon it. It was Resolved by all the Justices, That the same was no surrender; And the rather in the principal Case, because the agreement was, That if the Tenant should survive and overlive the other, that he should have back the Land again. Pasc. 8 Eliz. Dyer, 252.

17. Note, It was adjudged in this Case, That if Lessee for years of a Manner taketh a Lease of the Bayliwick of the Manor, that the same is no surrender of his Term, because it is of a thing which is collateral. Mich. 5 Jac. in B. R. Gage and Peacocks Case. Godbolt 153. See Trin. 5 Jac. in B. R. Cro. 1. Part, 176. the same Case between Gibs and Searl.

18. In a Replevin, the Defendant made Conusans as Bayliff to J. S. because the Father had Granted a Rent-charge of 6 l. 13 s. 4 d. to the Son for life, and for Rent behind he distrained. The Plaintiff confessed the Grant, but said, That afterwards the Land discended to E. P. who let it to J. S. for 500 years. The Defendant rejoyned, That after this Lease, and before any Rent was arrear, he surrendred the Lease of the Lands to the said E. P. upon which it was demurred. The matter of Law was, When the Grantee of a Rent for life accepts of a Lease of part of the Lands, and after surrenders the said Lease, Whether the Rent remains suspended during the years, or be revived presently by the surrender. It was urged, That it is determined during the Term for years: For if he had granted the Lease over, it had passed the Rent inclusivè: And so where the Lessee surrenders, it is quasi a Grant to him during the Term, and therefore the Rent shall not be revived; but if the Lease had been to the Grantee of the Rent upon Condition, and the Lessor had entred for the Condition broken, the Rent had been revived, for the Lease is absolutely determined. But it was the Opinion of the Court, That in the principal Case the Rent was revived: For by the surrender and agreement of the parties, the Lease is absolutely determined, and not in esse, and none of them can say that it is in esse; but a stranger who is to have benefit thereby, may well say it is in esse as to him, but quoad the Lessor and Lessee it is determined, and the possession and Interest is in them without entry. Hill. 3 Car. in C. B. Sir Ed. Peto and Pembertons Case. Cro. 1. Part, 72.

19. The Case was, A man seised of two Acres of Land, made a Lease for years of one Acre to one, and another Lease for years of the other Acre to another, and then enters and makes a Feoffment, and several Liveries upon the several Acres, and one of the Lessees being absent, doth not assent to the said Livery, and the use of the Feoffment was not to the use of his Will; and then he declares his last Will, and by that recites the said Feoffment, and then declares the use of that to be to the use of himself for life, the Remainder over to a stranger; and afterwards the Tenant for years which did not assent to the Livery, Granted his Estate to the Feoffor, and the Feoffor dyed. It was said, That this ensures as a Grant of the Reversion, and that the Grant of the particular Tenant ensures first as an Attornment, and then as a surrender of his Estate, as if it had been an express surrender. But it was Resolved by the Justices, That this doth not ensure to make an Attornment as an express surrender will, for an express surrender admits the Reversion to be in the Grantee to whom the surrender is made; but in this Case, before Attornment, the Grantee hath nothing; and after Attornment, the particular Estate being granted, it shall be drowned in the Reversion. Hill. 8 Jac. in C. B. Bane and Strettons Case. Bowman 1. Part, 51.

20. Tenant in Socage Leased his Lands for four years, and dyed, his Heir within the age of eight years. The Mother being Guardian in Socage, leased the Land by Indenture to the same Lessee for 14 years. It was holden by the Court, That in this Case, the first Lease was surrendred, but otherwise upon a Lease made by Guardian by Nature.

11. In Ejectione firmæ, it was found by especial Verdict, That W. Lord Mountegle was seised of the Manor of D. and became bound in a Statute to A. who dyed; the Executors of A. sued Execution. Upon the extendi facias, a Liberate issued forth; upon which the Manor was delivered to the Executors, but was not returned. The Executors being possessed of the said Manor, the Lord commanded a Court Baron to be holden there, which was done by the sufferance of the Executors who were present; and in the presence of the Lord, said these words, We have nothing to do with this Manor. The first point was, If the Execution was well done, the Liberate not being returned. It was said that it was, and the Earl of Leicester and Torfield's Case vouched by Egerton to be adjudged in the point. 2. It was moved, That the Executors being in possession by force of that Execution, and permitting and suffering the Consor to hold a Court, and saying in his presence the words aforesaid; If the same doth amount to a surrender to the Consor or not. It was the Opinion of Wray Chief Justice, That hereupon this matter is no surrender, for that here the words are not addressed to the said Consor who is capable of a surrender, nor to any person certain: And it was said by him, That it is not like the Case, 40 E. 3. 23. Chamberlain Assise. Where Tenant for life saith to him in the Reversion, That his Will is, that he enter, for that there is a person certain who can take it. Quære, the Case was adjourned. Hill. 28 Eliz. in B. R. Pendlebeck and Newman's Case. Leon. 279, 280.

12. The Case was, Lessee for 30 years leased for 19 years, and then the first Lessee and one B. by Articles in writing made betwixt them, did conclude and agree, That the Lessee for 19 years should have a Lease for 3 years in the said Lands and others, and that the same should not be any surrender of the first Term. To which Articles the said Lessee for 19 years did after agree and assent unto. It was the Opinion of all the Justices in this Case, That the same was not any surrender; And they were of Opinion, That one Termor could not surrender to another Termor. Trin. 32 Eliz. in C. B. Pury and Allens Case. Leon. 303.

13. A man made a Lease for years by Indenture, and Covenanted with the Lessee upon surrender of his Lease, to make him during the Term, a new Lease. The Lessee accepted a Fine, sur Conusans de droit come ceo, and by the same Fine Granted and rendred the Land to the Conusee for 800 years. In this Case it was adjudged, That Covenant lay against him without any surrender made. 2. It was Resolved, That if the said Lease for 80 years was but an Interest of a future Term, so as the Lessee might make the surrender to the Lessor; yet because the Lessor had disabled himself to make the new Lease, which is the effect and end of the surrender, that the Lessee should not be enforced to make the surrender, for thereby he should forfeit his old Term without any possibility of having a new Term according to the Covenant of the Lessor. Pasc. 38 Eliz. in B. R. Cook 5. Part, Sir Anthony Maynes Case, 21.

14. If a Lease be made for life, the Remainder to Husband and Wife in special tail, and afterwards the Husband dyeth without Issue; the Wife is now Tenant in tail after possibility of this Remainder; and if Tenant for life surrendreth unto her, as he may, such surrender is good (for the life of him in the Remainder is higher then the life of another) and then she is Tenant in tail after possibility of Issue in possession. Cook 11. Part, 81. in Lewis Bowles Case.

15. The President and Schollers of Magdalen College in Oxon, 8 Eliz. let a Messuage in S. to W. S. for 21 years, rendring the ancient Rent, and 23 Eliz. they let the same Messuage to the said W. S. for 20 years from the said Mich. then next ensuing rendring also the ancient Rent. And 31 El. they made a Lease of the same Messuage to J. D. for 21 years from the making of the Lease, which Lease was by mean Assignments conveyed to the Plaintiff, upon which an Action was brought against the Defendant who had the Interest of the said W. S. by mean Assignments. It was the Opinion of Popham, That ipso facto upon the last Lease made to W. S. and accepted by him, that the first Lease was determined, for this last contract determines the first, when the one and the other cannot stand together; and such was the Opinion of the whole Court; and so it was said it was agreed, 1 Eliz. in the Case of the Abbot of Reading. Hill. 35 Eliz. in B. R. Thompson and Trefford's Case. Popham 9.

16. Action upon the Case against W. R. Executor of J. R. for that the Plaintiff in the life of the Testator was possessed of a Messuage in the Parish of, &c. in London for divers years. And whereas the Testator was possessed of the Reversion thereof for divers years then also to come; the said Testator 12. Aprilis at L. in consideration that the Plaintiff at the request of the Testator in his life time would surrender all his Estate and Term of years which he then had to come in the said Messuage, and procure one T. T. to give to the Testator 100 l. for a Lease thereof to be made by the Testator ſtator to the ſaid T. T. promiſed to pay the Plaintiff 30 l. of the ſaid 100 l. and layed in facto, that at the inſtance of the Teſtator, viz. 20. Aprilis, 28 Eliz. at L. he ſurrendred to the Teſtator all his Eſtate in the ſaid Meſſuage; and the ſame 20 Aprilis procured the ſaid T. T. to give the ſaid Teſtator 10 l. for a Leaſe of the ſaid Meſſuage, then and there made for 19 years; And that the Teſtator in his life time, nor the Defendant his Executor, had paid the ſaid 30 l. although required by the Plaintiff. Upon Non Aſſumpſit and Verdict for the Plaintiff, it was moved in ſtay of Judgment, becauſe that the Plaintiff 20 Aprilis, 28 Eliz. ſurrendred all his Eſtate and Term which he had then to come; and for any thing appears, it may be another Term then he had the 12th of April before; for it is not ſaid, That he being ſo poſſeſſed, ſurrendred. 2. It is all his Term, and in the mean time, part of the Term is encurred; and the intent was, That the ſurrender ſhould be made immediately. 3. It was alledged, That a Term for years cannot be ſurrendred to another Termor for years. It was anſwered and Reſolved, That the conſideration is, that the Plaintiff ſhould ſurrender upon requeſt of the Teſtator in his life time, ſo as it is not to be done inſtantly at his peril, until requeſt: and it is alledged, That at the requeſt of the Teſtator 20. Aprilis he ſurrendred; eſpecially it is good here, where the Action is not grounded upon the Term, but upon the Requeſt. 2. Reſolved, That it ſhal be intended, that the Teſtator had ſuch a Term in Reverſion, to which the Term of years in poſſeſſion might be ſurrendred; for he who hath 10 years in poſſeſſion, may ſurrender to him who hath 20 years in Reverſion, for the leſſer may ſurrender to the greater Term. And although it ſhall be taken againſt the Plaintiff, that he had a greater Term in poſſeſſion, then the Teſtator had in the Reverſion; Yet it was holden, That the ſurrender ſhall be good, for that in Law it is greater and more beneficial for him to have a leſſer Term in poſſeſſion, then a greater in Reverſion. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Trin. 35 Eliz. in B. R. Hughes and Robotham Caſe. Poph. 30, 31.

27. The Caſe was; Tenant for life, the remainder for life, the Reverſion in Fee; He in the Remainder for life gives his Deed of Demiſe (with the aſſent of the firſt Tenant for life) upon the Land to a ſtranger in the abſence of the Leſſee, and ſaid, That he ſurrendred to him in the Reverſion. The Point was, Whether he in the Remainder for life can ſurrender without Deed? Two of the Juſtices, viz. Haughton and Mountague agreed, That it might be ſurrendred without Deed, becauſe it had its beginning without Deed; but it could not be granted over without Deed. Doddridge and Croke, Juſtices, ſaid, That it could not be ſurrendred without Deed; but ſaid, That Tenant in poſſeſſion may, or Tenant for life and he in the Reverſion together, may ſurrender to him in the Reverſion: but this ſhall enure as two ſeveral Surrenders; firſt of him in the Remainder to the Tenant for life; and then by the Tenant for life to him in the Reverſion. Paſch. 16 Jac. in B. R. Bennet and Wetherby's Caſe, Popham, 137, 138.

28. A Woman Tenant in tail makes a Leaſe for 31 years, and after takes Husband, and have Iſſue: The Husband being Tenant by the Curteſie, ſurrenders; the Heir doth enter the Leaſe, and the Leſſee brings Ejectment: In this caſe, It was holden by the Court, That the Surrender was good, and that the Privity was ſufficient. See Owen, 32. acc.

29. In a Replevin, the Caſe was; A Leaſe was made Habendum à Datu; the Queſtion was, Whether it be all one with à die datu? It was adjudged, That it was all one. And ſo it was ſaid, It was adjudged, Trin. 8 Jac. in B. R. in Hanlon and Morgans Caſe, Where a Leaſe was made 1 Mail. Habend. à datu præſentium, and declared upon a Leaſe à die datus, and adjudged good, and all one. The ſecond Queſtion in the Caſe was, Leſſee for years made a Leaſe to his Leſſor of all the Term, Excepting one day: The Queſtion was, Whether it was a Surrender, or not? Touching that, it was ſaid by Coke, Chief Juſtice, That if Leſſee for 100 years grants to his Leſſor all his Term (excepting one year) it is clearly no ſurrender: and ſo it is, if there be a Saving to himſelf of a moneth, a week, or a day, it is no Surrender. Mich. 13 Jac. in B. R. Bacon and Wale's Caſe. Bulſt. 3. Part, 203, 204.

30. In Waſte; the Plaintiff declared againſt T. H. and Elizabeth his Wife in Waſte; and ſet forth, That Queen Eliz. Anno 8. under the Exchequer Seal, made a Leaſe to A. B. and E. Juliff. for 3. Lives, and that A. and B. are dead, and conveyed the Remainder to the King, and from him to the Plaintiff; and that the ſaid T. H. the Defendant took the ſaid E. to Wife, who did Waſte: The Defendants confeſs the Leaſe, death, and Marriage, and ſaid, That the ſaid T. H. and E. his Wife, 2. Feb. 40 Eliz. ſurrendred as well the Eſtate of the ſaid E. as the ſaid Letters Patents, to the intent that the Queen ſhould make a new Leaſe to the ſaid Elizabeth, and to C. and D. for their Lives; which Surrender, the Queen accepted, and 3. Feb. next, made ſuch Demiſe: Iſſue being joyned upon the Surrender and Demiſe, the Jury found the new Leaſe made 3. Feb. in which is in-clud-cited, That she had surrendred the Estate and Letters Patents, as in Consideration of 20 nobles paid; And the Jury find, that the said Demise made 3. Feb. was with the consent of the said T. H. and that he and his Wife agreed thereunto, and held claiming by the said Demise. It was adjudged in this Case for the Plaintiff; For the Consideration which procured the new Lease, is the surrender; and the surrender is not absolute, but defensible if the Wife survive, or if the husband will disagree: And therefore, it was said, That if a woman Lessee for years taketh a husband, and after the Feme takes a new Lease of the Queen for life, this extinguisheth the Term; but if the Husband disagree, then the Lease is revived. 2. Because in this case the Freehold which the Husband had in the right of his Wife, could not be given by his bare assent: but if the Lease had been made de novo to the Husband and Wife, then it had been questionable, for the Estate passeth by implication; viz. Surrender in Law, by acceptance of a new Lease. 3. It was said, It shall be taken, of an actuall Surrender made by the Husband and Wife, and of such a surrender which is operated by a Consequent act of Law. Trin. 14 Jac. in C. B. Sturys and Holmans Case. Hutton, 7.

31. The Case was, Lessee for the life of another man, the Remainder to an Infant for the life of J. S. the Remainder to J. S. for the life of another man: The first Lessee, and the Infant, did surrender upon the Land to J. S. in the last Remainder. In this Case it was held, That the surrender was good in Law. The first Question was, If the latter Remainder to J. S. was good, because his life was the enclose of the two last Remainders; and for that it was holden good; for although he could not have the last Remainder limitted to him, the first Remainder being determined by his life, yet because he had the same to Grant, it was holden to be good. The second point was, If this surrender made upon the Land by both, were good, and how the same should enure; As to that it was said, That it should enure as a Surrender for the Tenant for life, and as a Confirmation by the Infant. The third point was, If Lessee for the life of another, doth surrender to him in the Remainder for the life of another, if the same was good; And it was holden, That it was good; because he had equal Estate executory to whom the surrender was made. Mich. 14 Jac. in C. B. adjudged &c.

32. Grandfather, father, and son; the Grandfather dyeth, the father assignes Dower to the Grandmother, as mother; the Grandmother surrendreth to the father, paying 10 l. per annum; the father dyeth, and his Wife brought a Writ of Dower against the son, by reason of the possession of her Husband of the third part of the whole Land, and recovered; because the Father had the Fee, and the Freehold conjoyned in the life of the Grandmother by the surrender: And in such Case, If the father had been within age, it was holden he should have been in Ward; And in a Writ of Entry, his Entry should be supposed by his Ancestor, and not by his Grandmother; and he should deraigne the Warranty against the Feoffor of the Grandfather, but should not have in value, till after the death of the Wife: And here in this Case it was holden, That when the Wife of the Father doth recover in Dower, she shall pay to the Grandmother so much of the Rent as doth belong to her proportion in Dower. And in this Case it was holden, That although the Estate of a man be conditional, or upon a bad Title, yet the Wife shall not be ousted of her Dower, until the conditional or defeasible Title be defeated, and then the Entry is given, as well upon the Wife as upon the Heir: And so where Husband and Wife are Tenants for life, and surrender to him in the Reversion, there the Wife of him in the Reversion shall be endowed, and yet the surrender is but conditional; for if the Wife of the Tenant for life overliveth her Husband, the surrender is defeasible à fortiori, in case where the Surrender is not defeasible. Mich. 45 E. 3. 13. Comment upon Original Writs, 173.

33. Lessee for years of a Rectory, to which the Advowson of a Vicarage was appendant, granted the next Avoidance of the Vicarage to J. S. if it should happen that the same should become void during the Term in esse: The Lessee dyed Intestate, his Administrator surrendred the Term of the Rectory to the Lessor, and afterwards the Advowson of the Vicarage became void. It was adjudged in this Case, That notwithstanding the Surrender, yet J. S. should have the next Avoydance. 1. Because the said Limitation saves no more then the Law says; for if Tenant for years graunteth an Avoydance, the Law implies this Limitation, if the Church become void during the Term. 2. The Grantor shall not derogate from his own Grant: And 3. the Term for the benefit of the Grantee hath to some respect continuance; as if Lessee for years grant a Rent-charge, and afterwards surrendreth, for the benefit of the Grantee the term hath continuance, although that rei veritate it be extinct. Coke 8. Part, 145. Davenports Case.

34. Note, There is a Surrender in Law, as well as a Surrender in Fact; and therefore the Case was, That the King demised a Messuage, rendring rent; and afterwards, the Lessee took a Patent of the Office of keeping the said House, and it was adjudged to be a Surrender in Law of the Lease.

Leaſe. 3 Eliz. Dyer. 200. Set before.

35. In an Information of Intruſion, it was found, That the King was ſeized of a Rectory, and by his Letters Patents, demiſed the ſame to the Wardens of the Church of S. Saviours, for 21 years; and afterwards, the King by other Letters Patents, reciting the ſaid Leaſe with Letters Patent, and all their Eſtate, Intereſt, and Term of years, the ſaid Wardens made habentes & ad præſens poſſidentes, nobis ſurſum reddiderunt, & reſtituerunt cancellend. quam quidem ſurſum redditionem acceptamus. In conſideratione ſurſum reddit. prædict. & pro Fine 20 l. ad recept. Scaccarii per præfatos Guardianos ſolat. demiſed the ſaid Rectory to the ſaid Wardens of the ſaid Church for 50 years: And it was found in Chancery for the Cancelling of them, but no Vacat was made of the Enrolment of them, and that the Defendants entred into the Rectory by force of the ſecond Leaſe. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That there needed not any actual Surrender, becauſe the words Modo habentes & ad præſens poſſidentes proved, That at the making of the ſaid Letters Patents, they had the Leaſe for years in them, and by the acceptance of the new Leaſe, their Eſtate for years was ſurrendred; and in Judgment of Law, the Surrender doth precede the new Grant; and the King is not prejudiced in Eſtate, Intereſt, Value, nor Remedy; and although a Corporation cannot make an expreſs Surrender, without Deed under their Seal, yet they may by act in Law ſurrender their Eſtate without writing. Cook 10. Part, 67. The Caſe of the Wardens of the Church in S. Saviours in Southwark.

36. In a Replevin, the Defendants avowed as Bayliffs to the Dean and Chapter of Windſor, That one R. P. held the place of the Dean and Chanons, as of their Manor of H. by Rent, and Suit of Court, and that he being ſummoned, did not appear at the Court holden in the ſaid Manor, and for Suit, they did diſtrein him: The Plaintiff confeſſed the Seizin, and the Tenure, but ſaid, That 9 Eliz. the Dean and Chapters did by Indenture Leaſe the ſaid Manor to one G. S. for 51 years, who entred, and was yet poſſeſſed, the Reverſion to the Dean and Chapters: The Avowants confeſſed the Leaſe to S. but ſaid, That by the ſaid Leaſe, all Leets, Lawdays, and Courts there to be holden, and all manner of Fines, Perquiſites, and profits of Courts were excepted; and that S. being ſo poſſeſſed 11 Jac. granted all his Eſtate to one B. and that B. 12 Jac. by his Deed, did grant all Leets, Lawdays, Courts, &c. unto the Dean and Chapter, and that they afterwards held the Courts, and the default of Suit, &c. and that the Defendant did diſtrein: The Plaintiff demurred, in that the Courts be ſurrendred and excepted. In this Caſe, it was adjudged for the Plaintiff; for it was agreed, That the Exception in the Original Leaſe of the Courts was void, and a Manner it could not be without a Court; and by the ſame reaſon, the Surrender of the Courts was void, which were inſeparable from the Manner. Trin. 13 Jac. in B. R. Brown and Goldſmiths Caſe. Hob. 108.

2. Of Surrender of the Kings Letters Patents, what ſhall be ſaid a good Surrender of them, and what not.

1. A and B. joynt-Patentees for the Term of their lives, of the Office of the Fourth of W. out of the Court of Augmentation, and Enrolled in the Exchequer; A. in the abſence of B. beyond Sea, ſurrendred the Patent in Chancery, which was there cancelled, and a remembrance of it made in dorſo, but it was not Enrolled, that they both had ſurrendred; whereupon a new Patent was made to J. S. reciting the former Surrender to be in both their names: B upon his Return, ſued to have an Exemplification, or a Conſtat, and required the Lord Keeper of the Great Seal, to Grant a Certiorare to remove the Record of the Enrolment out of the Exchequer. It was a doubt, if the Patentee himſelf ſhould be within the purview of the Statute of 3 & 4 E. 6. cap. 4. But it was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That by the firſt ſentence of the purview, the Patentees themſelves were aided by the ſaid Statute. Hill. 1 Eliz. Dyer, 167. Sir Thomas Wrothes Caſe. See Cook 5. Part, in Pope Caſe.

2. The Clarkſhip of the Hamper was granted to one Sadler, and to one Hales, for the Term of their lives, and the life of the longer liver of them: of the Patents there were two; one a Duplicat, which was in the cuſtody of Hales, the Principal Patent was by Warrant of the Privie Seal, Authoritate Parliamenti, and that remained with Sadler; which Patent was ſurrendred, and cancelled by him, but no Vacat was made of the Involment of it, and a new Grant was made by the Queen, with the recital of the firſt Patent, and Surrender, and Cancelling to Sadler of the ſame Office: Hales was beyond Sea, and afterwards returning, he claimed his Joynt-Eſtate in the ſaid Office. It was the opinion of the Juſtices, That the ſaid Duplicat ſhould not avail the ſaid Hales, becauſe it was made by the Chancellor without any Warrant. Paſch. 1 Eliz. Dyer, 197.

3. King Hen. the 8. granted the cuſtody of the Caſtle of C. to the Lord Darcy, Queen Mary reciting the Grant, and miſtaking the date, and that the ſame was in her hands by Surrender of the Lord Darcy, Granted the Cuſtody to Kemp. Queen Mary dyed, and Queen Elizabeth Granted the Office to Mark Williams, who entred upon Kemp; whereupon he brought an Aſſize: Kemp gave in evidence, a Surrender of the Lord Darcy before Hare Maſter of the Rolls, which was not recorded, nor the Patent cancelled, nor a Vacat entred in the Iſt of Hare, and no time was ſhewed of the Surrender; It was doubted by the Juſtices, if they might record the Surrender after the death of Hare; But the Juſtices were clear of Opinion, That if the Surrender of the Lord Darcy was not before the Patent to Kemp, that then his Patent was void: Afterwards Kemp was Non ſuit. Note in that Caſe, the Surrender was of a Patent bearing date 32 H. 8. whereas in truth it bore date 33 H. 8. And it was ſaid, That the Patent of 32 H. 8. cannot be the Patent of 33 H. 8. by which the Office was granted, and therefore it was adjudged void, notwithſtanding the Statute of 34 H. 8. of Miſrecitals. Hil. 3 Eliz. Dyer, 195.

4. Note, It was ſaid, and Exceptions taken to the Pleadings in the Caſe of Alnutwods, becauſe it was not averred, That the King had demiſed the Manors of G. and C. as he had recited; for if in rei veritate there was not ſuch Leaſes, then the King was deceived; and the King was induced to Grant the Manor of G. in Tail, becauſe that he thought that he had granted the ſame to W. for term of his life; and was induced to Grant the Manor of A. in Tail, becauſe that the Manors of C. which (as he recites) he had granted to W. and his Wife, ſhould be ſurrendred: But the Exception diſallowed; for the conſideration was, That W. ſhall ſurrender the Letters Patents of the Manor of C. and all that he hath averred, viz. The Surrender of the Letters Patents, and that is the conſideration, and not the Surrender of the Eſtate; and it was ſaid, That no more needed to be averred than what was contained in the Conſideration it ſelf; and a falſe recital of that which was not parcel of the Conſideration, makes not the Grant void. See Cook 1. Part, 43. in the Caſe of Alton Woods.

5. King Henry 7. Anno 19 of his Reign, granted by his Letters Patents, the Manour of D. to A. B. in Tail, and after, reciting the former Letters Patents, and that they were Surrendred, and delivered to be Cancelled; the King by other Letters Patents, ex certa ſcientia, &c. granted to the ſaid A. B. and E. his Wife, Maneriam prædict. and to their heirs. In this Caſe it was Reſolved, That the Grant was good, and the Reverſion of the Manour which the King had paſſed by the Grant, in as much as the party had truly informed the King of the Eſtate Tail, and of the delivery of the Letters Patents to be cancelled, although that the King had miſtaken the Law in matter of fact; yet the ſame ſhall not avoid his Grant, eſpecially the ſame being ex certa ſcientia, which ſhall be taken in the moſt beneficial and liberal ſenſe, according to the Kings intent expreſſed in his Grant, and no default being in the party. Cook 6. Part, 55. The Lord Chandos Caſe.

See the Caſe of the Wardens of the Church of S. Saviours, Cook 10. Part, 67. to this Diviſion before.

6. The Caſe was, Queen Eliz. anno. 19. granted to Sir Fulk Grevil, the Office of Clerk of the Council of the Marches of Wales, for his life; and by another Patent 25 Eliz. granted to him the Office of Secretary there for his life: 1 Jac. without recital of theſe Patents, the King granted the ſame Office to him for his life: After. 9 Jac. the King reciting the ſaid firſt Patent 1 Jac. granted the ſaid Office to A. N. for his life, when after the death, ſurrender, or forfeiture of the ſaid Sir Fulk, they ſhould be void: After, 14 Jac. by another Patent, reciting the Patent of 1. & 9 Jac. and omitting the Grant in 15 & 25 Eliz. the King granted the ſaid Offices to J. V. and J. M. Habendum, for their lives, cum poſt mortem of the ſaid Sir Fulk, or A. N. ſurrender, forfeiture, or other determination, vel alia quocunque modo, the ſaid Offices ſhould be void, or ſhould come to the Kings hand, to diſpoſe; non obſtante a malè nominando vel malè recitando prædict. Officia; Et non obſtante malè recitando, vel malè nominando aliquod donum vel conceſſionem prompta fallum de Officiis prædict. And, Whether the Patent of 14 Jac. be good or not, was the Queſtion. It was agreed, That the Patent 19. and 25 Eliz. were good, and then Sir Fulk Grevil being Patentee, and alive, and he accepting a Patent in 1 Jac. without reciting the former Patent, and no Non obſtante therein, it is clearly void; as it was agreed in Harris and Wingates Caſe, That if Leſſee for years of the Queen, take a new Leaſe for years of the ſame thing, without recital of the former Leaſe, it is a void Leaſe, and no Surrender of the firſt Leaſe. Another Queſtion was, Whether the clauſes of Non obſtante in the Patent of 14 Jac. makes it good; becauſe it recites the two Patents which are void, and omits the recital of the two Patents which were good. It was the Opinion of the greater part of the Juſtices, That the Patent of 14 Jac. was meerly void, by reaſon of thoſe recitals, which were not properly miſrecitals, and falſe recitals, but rather falſe informations or ſuggeſti-ons, whereby the King was deceived; for by intendment, the King conceived those Grants to be good, which were void; and so the King is deceived, and the Non obstante shall not aid such false Informations, or false suggestions. Trin. 6 Car. in B. R. The Lord Brook, and the Lord Goring's Case. Cro. 1. Part, 143.

7. In the great Case of Trespass, for cutting down of Trees in Odiham Park in Hampshire, It was found by Verdict, That King Henry the 8. seized of the Manor and Park of Odiham, by Letters Patents 33 of his Reign, Granted to G. the Office of Stewardship of the said Manor, and Parkership of the said Park, with reasonable Herbage: And by the same Letters Patents, did Grant to him the Manor of Q. cum pertinentiis, and 100 Loads of Wood, excepting the Park, the Park, the Deer, and the Wood for 50 years, if he should so long live: That G. did Surrender and Restore the said Letters Patents, in Chancery, to be cancelled, and that they were cancelled, and that the said Surrender was made to the intent to make a new Lease thereof to P. King Henry the 8. anno 36. reciting the Letters Patents to G. to be 32 H. 8. whereas they were dated 33 H. 8. did grant the same to P. as before they were granted to G. That King Ph. and Mar. anno 5. and 6. seized of the said Manor in Jure Coronæ, reciting that Hen. 8. anno 36 of his Reign, had granted to P. as before, and omitting the Proviso, which was for 50 years, if he should so long live, in consideration of 200 l. paid, did grant the Office, as before, and did grant Herbage generally; and by the same Patent, did grant to him the Manor, cum pertinentiis. And here was a Rent Reserved, and a Proviso, That for doing Waste, the Patent should be void. Queen Eliz. reciting the Letters Patents of 5 and 6 Queen Maries truly, did grant the Parkership to Secretary Walsingh m. and Leased the Manor to him, with the appurtenances, with power to take one hundred Loads of Wood, excepting the Deer, Habendum, from the end of the Lease to P. either by Surrender, or forfeiture, for twenty one years rendring Rent: Walsingham granted the same to H. which by mean Assignment came to More the Defendant. King James, Anno 1. granted the said Manor, and the said Offices, by his Letters Patents, to the Lord Zouch, who entred; More entred upon him, and cut down Trees: This Case, being long, was many times learnedly argued at the Bar, and after at the Bench, but no judgement given in it, the matter being ended by Composition. But it was said, That in this Case, the better Opinion of the Justices was, That P. in the Principal Case had but the custody of the Park, and not the Interest of it, and that by acceptance of the custody of the Park, when he had a Lease of the Park before, his Lease was surrendred. See the Case argued at large, and divers points in it. Trin. 21 Jac. in B. R. The Lord Zouch and More's Case. Godbolt 413. to 426.

3. Surrenders made by Copyholders of their Estates; where good, where not; and what, where, and how the Estate passeth upon such Surrender: And divers other matters concerning Surrenders by Copyholders.

1. A Copyholder in Fee, devised his Copyhold to his Wife for life, the Remainder to W. his Son in Fee, and made a Surrender to these uses, and dyed; the Wife was generally admitted: It was said, That this was no Admittance of him in the Remainder, for it is not like the Case of a Discent where the Reversion should have descended; because in this Case W. cannot Surrender before admittance: On the other side, It was said, That one who hath the Land by discent, may Surrender before Admittance; but when it is by purchase, it cannot be surrendred. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Remainder vested when the particular Estate vests, or else it shall never vest; and it is executed, when the particular Estate is executed: And it is like to the Case in 7 R. 2. Scire facias 8. And see Fitzh. Nat. B. 201. Where one deviseth for life, the Remainder in Tail, and an Ex gravi Querela sued, the same shall serve as well for him in the Remainder, as for the Tenant for life; and see Plowd. Com. in Weldens Case, where an assent to the Devisee for life, is an Execution of the Devise to him in the Remainder. Trin. 30 Eliz. in B. R. Kipping's Case. Goldesbr. 95.

2. In Trespass, the Case was, Upon a special Verdict found, That one F. was retained by E. P. Lady of the Manor, to be her Steward there, for the keeping of the Courts of the said Manor; which Retayner was by word only in the Country, and

and no Fee or Annuity given for the exercising of the ſaid Office: He out of Court at S. Dunſtans in the Eaſt, took a Surrender, which was entred in the Rolles of the Court, and that before that time, he had taken divers Surrenders, as well out of Court, as in Court: It was ſaid in this Caſe, That F. is not ſuch a Steward as may take Surrenders out of Court, though as to other Acts he be a ſufficient Steward, for theſe cauſes. 1. No Fee is allowed him for the exerciſing of the ſaid Office. 2. He is not retained by Deed; for although he may be retained without Deed, to hold Court pro hac vice, yet if the Retayner be for life or years, it ought to be by Deed. 3. He is retained to keep Court, but not to be Steward, which ſhall be intended to hold Court, and then when that is paſt, his Authority ſhall ceaſe, and that which he doth afterwards, is void. 4. There is not any Cuſtome found, to finde ſuch a Surrender out of Court: On the other ſide, it was ſaid, That he was Steward at the Will of the Lady of the Mannor, which Will ſhall not be determined till the Lady diſcharge him; And although an Aſſize cannot be brought of ſuch an Office without a Patent of it, for that it cannot paſs for life, without Deed, yet he may be appointed without Deed; and a man may be conſtituted Bayly of a Mannor without Deed, and yet moſt doth appertain to the Office of a Bayliff, then a Steward, and, it is not material as to the Grant, whether he hath a Fee for the exerciſing of the Office or not, but the party is not compellable to do the ſervice without a Fee; and in this Caſe, the Retayner is not to keep one Court, but all the Courts of the Lady of the ſaid Mannor. The Caſe was not adjudged, but adjourned. Paſch. 33 Eliz. in C. B. Blagrave and Hands Caſe. Leon. 227.

3. A Copyholder doth Surrender unto the uſe of a Stranger, for ever, and the Lord admits the Surrenderee to hold to him and his heirs: It was adjudged in this Caſe, That if it were upon a Diviſe, that ſuch a one ſhould have the Copyhold in Fee; and afterwards, a Surrender is made unto the Lord to grant the Copyhold according to the Will, and he grants it to him and his heirs, the Grant is good: But Quære in the firſt Caſe, for that it was but a bare Surrender only. Mich. 29 Eliz. in B. R. Allen and Pulſhills Caſe. Godbolt, 137.

4. In an Ejectione firmæ, the Caſe was, Two Coparceners Copyholders in poſſeſſion, the one did Surrender his Reverſion in the moytie after his death. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That the Surrender was void; and the ſame is all one, as well in Caſe of Copyhold, as of Freehold: And ſo it was ſaid it was adjudged in 26 Eliz. in Platts Caſe, and 3 Car. in Simpſons Caſe. Paſch. 10 Car. in B. R. Barker and Taylors Caſe. Godbolt 451.

5. A Copyholder Surrendred in conſideration of money had, to B. the Lord accepted of the Surrender, and granted the Copyhold to B. for her life; who was admitted, and ſhe dyed: A. being alive, claiming it as her former Eſtate, lett the land to the Defendant; the Lord entred, and lett it to the Plaintiff: It was ſaid in this Caſe, When a Copyholder for life Surrenders to the uſe of another, who is admitted, that the firſt Copyholder hath Quaſi a poſſibility or Remainder of the Eſtate; and if he ſurvive him to whoſe uſe the Surrender was made, that he ſhould have it again. But it was the Opinion of the whole Court in the principal Caſe, That A. ſhould not have the Copyhold again, and there is no difference, as to that purpoſe, to Surrender to the uſe of one, and to Surrender generally. But the Court agreed, That if a Copyholder in Fee doth Surrender to the uſe of another for life, who is admitted, he is in Quaſi by the Copyholder, and by the death of the Copyholder ſhall have it again. Hill. 2 Car. in B. R. King and Lords Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 148.

6. In an Ejectione firmæ, upon a ſpecial Verdict, It was found, That the Cuſtome of the Mannor is, That a Copyholder in Fee may Surrender out of Court into the hands of two other Copyholders of the ſaid Mannor, to the uſe of another in Fee, which ought to be Preſented at the next Court of the ſaid Mannor, otherwiſe it ſhall be void. It was found, That T. H. father of the Leſſor, whoſe heir he is, was a Copyholder in Fee, and Surrendred out of Court, into the hands of A. B. and W. J. Copyholders, to the uſe of R. W. in Fee, who entred, and paid the Rent to the Lord: That T. H. dyed, and that H. B. and J. W. who took the Surrender, are dead, and that no Court was held during that time, and that the Leſſor being heir to him who Surrendred entred, and lett to the Plaintiff. In this Caſe, it was the Opinion of the whole Court for the Plaintiff; for they held, That by the Surrender into the hands of two Tenants, nothing paſſed until it was Preſented in Court, and that till then, the Intereſt remained in him who made the Surrender, which, which Intereſt deſcended to the Heir, who is Leſſor to the Plaintiff, and he might well enter, and make the Leaſe, being but one year without the Licence of the Lord of the Mannor, or without any ſpecial Cuſtome. But the Court held, That it was not of neceſſity, that the parties who took the Surrender, ſhould Preſent it; for as the Cuſtome is found, if it be Preſented by any other Copyholder when the next Court is holden, it is well enough, and he thereupon may be admitted:

But in the Principal Case, for as much as no Court here hath been holden, the Interest doth remain in the heir. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Hill. 13 Jac. in B. R. Frasell and Wessbes Case. Cro. 2. Part, 403.

7. There was a Copyhold Messuage called Symonds, whereunto divers Copyhold Lands were appertaining; The said Messuage, with the appurtenances was surrendred to the Lord, to the use of J. S. The Question was, Whether all his right in the other Lands did passe by the Surrender, or not. It was the Opinion of the Court, That they did not passe, but only the Messuage and the Curtilage? Another Question was in the Case, If there be Husband and Wife Copyholders in the right of the Wife, and they surrender out of Court into the hands of the Steward, and the wife is examined by him, it not being proved, that he was Steward by Patent, nor any Custome to warrant it, Whether the same be good, or not. It was Resolved, That it was good. Pasch. 17 Jac. in B. R. Smithson and Gages Case. Cro. 2. Part, 126. Note; This Case seems to Resolve the Doubt made in Blagrave and Woods Case. Which see before, Sect. 2.

8. In a Replevin, the Case was; J. S. was seised of a Copyhold of the Mannor of D, and by Licence of the Lord by Indenture, demised the same to the Plaintiff for 20 years rendring Rent; J. S. afterwards surrendred the Reversion of one moyty of the said Copyhold to J. D. to which he was admitted, and then he surrendred the other moyty to B. the Wife of J. N. who was also admitted. It was Resolved in this Case, That the Surrender in this case by the name of a Reversion, was good. 2. That there needed no Attornment upon the Surrender made of the moyty by J. S. to J. D. because it passed not by way of Grant of the Reversion. But it was holden, That in this case there might be an Admittance of the Lord; and when the Admittance is given, the Estate is setled. Pasch. 14 Jac. in C. B. Swinnerton and Millers Case, Hob. 177, 178.

9. A Copyholder of Inheritance in Fee-simple (jacens in extremis) surrendred his Copyhold-Lands into the hands of the Lord of the Mannor, Habendum after his death to the use of an Enfant in ventre sa mier; and if such Enfant dye without Heir within age, or before marriage, then to the use of B. and his Heirs, according to the Custome of the Mannor: the Child was born, and dyed within age: In this case it was Resolved, 1. That the surrender to the Enfant in ventre sa mier, was not good as an immediate surrender; for it cannot begin at a day to come. 2. That the Remainder to B. was void, because it was to begin upon a Condition precedent, which was never performed, and therefore the Surrender into the hands of the Lord, was void; for that the Lord doth not take but as an Instrument, to convey the Lands to another. Hill. 7 Jac. in B. R. Simpson and Sutherns Case. Bulstr. 2. Part, 273. See Godbolt, 264. the same Case.

Suit and Suitors.

Suit; the Kinds, and their Difference: Where done, and by whome to be done: And where, and what remedy, if not done. And where Suit done by one, shall discharge the other: And where it shall be apportioned; Where not.

1. NOte: There are severall sorts of Suits; viz. Suit Reall, and Suit Service: Suit reall is by reason of Resiance, due at the County-Court, Wapentake, or Hundred, and the like, which are Suits at Courts Reall, viz. the Kings Courts. These Suits are not done for their Lands or Freeholds, but by their persons by reason of their Resiance within the Precincts: But that which is done by reason of Tenure, is called Suit-Service; and so it seems, That within one Precinct, one may hold by Suit-Service, as also by Suit reall: and where there may be severall reall Suits in respect of Resiance, there, there may be but one entire Service in respect of the Land. See 45 E. 3. 25. acc.

2. Where Land is holden by Fealty and Suit by three; there, if a Cessavit be brought against them for not doing their Suit, if two of them lose their parts, yet the third shall be charged with the whole Suit, because it is not severally: And so where the Lord purchaseth part of the Land, the whole Service is gone and extinct. 40 E. 3. 41. See Cook 4. Part, in Bevill's Case, acc.

3. Where the Land for which the Suit-Service is done, cometh to Coparceners, who make Partition; or to divers by severall Feoffments, there the the Suit done by the one, ſhall diſcharge all the others: But if it be behind, the Lord may avow upon which of them he pleaſeth for the whole; for there ſhall not be a joynt Avowry upon ſeverall Tenures. But ſee, That by the Statute of Marlbridge, Cap. 19. That Coparceners who hath iniam partem, ſhall do the Suit after Partition, and the other ſhall make Contribution to her. But of thoſe who have joynt-Eſtates, Quære, how the Suit ſhall be done. See 24 E. 3. 73.

4. Lord and Tenant by Homage, Fealty, a Hawke yearly, and Suit of Court, the Tenant maketh a Feoffment in Fee of one Acre: It was ſaid in ſuch caſe, By the Common-Law, that the Feoffee ſhould hold by Homage Fealty, a Hawke and Suit of Court; For, Una in partes dividi requerant ſolida à ſingulis præſtantur: And by the Statute of Marlbridge, Cap. 9. If the Tenant who holdeth by Suit, doth enfeoffe another ſeverally; in ſuch caſe the Lord ſhall have but one Suit, and he who doth the Suit, ſhall have Contribution againſt the other. But if the Tenant who enfeoffeth divers joyntly, there he ſhall not have Contribution; and yet the Feoffees ſhall do but one Suit. Cook 6. Part, 1. in Bruerton's Caſe.

5. Note: There is a difference betwixt entire Services which are for the ſole benefit of the Lord, and are a charge to the Tenant, as the ſervice of a Hawk, &c. and Services entire which are pro bono publico, or for Religion, Charity, Devotion: For although that the Lord purchaſeth parcell of the Tenancy, ſuch Services do remain: as if the Tenure be to make a Bridg, to keep a Beacon, or to marry poor Virgins, or to find a Preacher; But if the Tenure be to be Carver, Butler, or Cook to the Lord, or to cover the Lords Hall, &c. in ſuch caſes by purchaſe of parcell, the whole Service is extinct, becauſe theſe are for the ſole benefit of the Lord. Cook 6. Part, 1. Bruerton's Caſe, acc.

6. Note: That the Statute of Marlbridg doth not reſtrain the King; For if Lands holden of the King doth diſcend to two Coparceners or more, all of them ſhall do the Suit as well before Partition, as after Partition. See Plow. Com. 244. acc. But if the Lands be holden of another Lord, then the Coparcener or her Feoffee who hath the part of the elder ſiſter, ſhall only do the Suit; and if the Lord will diſtrein the other Coparceners, they ſhall have a Writ againſt him directed to him, or his Bayliffs, to diſcharge them of that Suit and of the Diſtreſs. See 40 E. 3. 5. 34 Aſs. 15. And ſee Fitzh. Nat. Br. the Writ in ſuch caſe.

7. If the Heirs or Feoffees do do the Suit real at the County-Court, Hundred, or Wapentake, if one do the Suit, all of them are diſcharged. But the Lord cannot alter the Suit which is due to his Court of Dale, to be done at his Court of Sale, nor take money for the ſame; but for his Suit Arrear he may diſtrein. And ſo it was adjudged, Mich. 20 Jac. in C. B. in Sir Ralph Boſville's Caſe.

8. Note: That for Suit-reall, the Tenant ſhall be amerced, and not diſtreined: And the Diſtreſs for the Amerciament ſhall not be of other mens goods, but only of the goods of the party himſelf if it be not by Preſcription: But for Suit-Service a man may diſtrain the Cattell of any man which are upon the Land. See 12 H. 7. 17. & 18. Cook 8. Part, in Talbotts Caſe.

9. A man held a houſe and half a Yard-Land, Meadow, and Paſture, of the Lord by Fealty, Suit of Court, and a Heriot to be paid after the death of every Tenant dying ſeiſed; The Lord purchaſed parcel of the Land, and afterwards the Tenant enfeoffed J. S. of other parcel of the Land: It was adjudged in that Caſe, 1. That by the purchaſe of parcell of the Land by the Lord, that the Heriot-Service was extinct. 2. It was Reſolved in that Caſe, That if the Tenant had firſt enfeoffed J. S. of parcel of the Land, and after had enfeoffed the Lord of other parcell, the Heriot-Service had remained for the Lord which J. S. purchaſed, becauſe that J. S. by his purchaſe holdeth a ſeverall and diſtinct Tenure of Heriot-Service, and therefore the purchaſe of the Lord of any part of the reſidue after, extinguiſhed only the Heriot which the Tenant ought to render, and not the Heriot which J. S. by his diſtinct Tenure ought to pay. 3. It was Reſolved, That if the Lord purchaſeth parcell of the Tenancy, that the Heriot-Service is utterly extinct. But if the Cuſtome of a Mannor be, That upon the death of every Tenant of the Mannor that dyeth ſeiſed of Lands holden of the Mannor, that the Lord ſhall have a Heriot, there although the Lord purchaſeth parcell of the Tenancy, yet the Lord ſhall have a Heriot by the Cuſtome. Cook 8. Part, 105, 106. John Talbotts Caſe.

10. Note: Secta ad Molendinum lyeth, If the party doth not his Suit to the Plaintiff's Mill, becauſe he hath a profit thereby: But for Suit to his Court, the Lord hath no other benefit but appearance at his Court; and therefore Quære, If the Lord ſhall have Secta ad Curiam. Fitzh. Na. Br. 158. d.

11. Secta ad Molendinum was brought de omnibus bladiis creſcend. in 100 Acres of Lands, with the appurtenances in D; and the Plaintiff did ſet forth, forth, That he did withdraw his Suit for 5. years; To which the Defendant pleaded, That he was not ſeiſed by the hands of the Defendant; but that he did it gratis, et ſpontanea, & voluntate ſua, &c. Book of Entries, 504. p. 1.

12. The Steward of a Leet impoſed a Fine joyntly upon A. B. and C. chief pledges, becauſe they refuſed at the Court-Leet to preſent, that they ought to pay pro certo Letto, to the Lord 10 s. and the Lord diſtrein'd them for it, and avowed: It was Reſolved, That in that caſe, the Lord could not diſtrain pro certo Letto, becauſe it was not right, and for the private of the Lord, which he could not have without Preſcription. But it was in that caſe ſaid, That for an Amercement in a Leet, a Diſtreſs was incident of Common Right; but for an Amercement in a Court-Baron, the Lord cannot diſtrain and avow Preſcription. Cook 11. Part, 45, 46. Godfreys Caſe. Cook 8. Part, 39, 40. Griſſyes Caſe, acc.

Suitors. See Lib. 1. Title, Courts.

Suits by way of Action, or otherwiſe.

1. SUit (ſaith Bracton) is pugna Civilis, for ſicut Actores armantur actionibus et quaſi gladiis accinguntur, ita res minuuntur Exceptionibus et defendentur quaſi Clypeis. Hob. 20. And ſee, 162. ibidem. He ſaith, there is a great Reſemblance between pugna Militaris et Civilis; for as in a Battell every Weapon is not put into every mans hand; nor all men appointed confuſedly to all Services; So doth the Law aſſign to every man his proper Action and Office according to the propriety of his Caſe and faculty: And therefore at the Common Law, the Incumbent, or any other who claimed nothing in the Patronage, could not Counterplead the Title of the Plaintiff in a Quare Impedit, becauſe that was for Title to the Patronage, with which he had nothing to do. See in Colt and the Biſhop of Coventry's Caſe, Hob. 162.

2. Actio jus vix perſequendi in judicio quod alicui debetur. And therefore when a man hath not any means to come to his Land, or other thing in demand but by way of Action, that if he releaſeth all Actions, his right inclusively by Judgment of Law is gone, becauſe by his own act he hath bound himſelf from all means to recover or attain thereunto: And although the words are, quod alicui debetur, yet in ſome Caſes, a duty ſhall be barred by the Releaſe of all Actions, although no Action lyeth at the time for the duty: As, if a man be bounden to another to pay a certain ſum of money at Michaelmas next; if the Obligee before the Feaſt releaſe to the Obligor all Actions, he ſhall be barred for ever of the duty; for that it is debitum preſently, although it be not preſently paid. Cook 8. Part, 155. in Altham's Caſe.

3. Querela, is derived à querendo; and Querela, Controverſies, and Debates are Synonyma, and of one ſignification: And for the word (Suit,) it is to know, That by the Releaſe of all Suits, Executions are barred; for that none can have an Execution without Suit, or Prayer. But a Releaſe of all Suits, is not a barr in Dower. Cook ibid.

4. An Action of Covenant was brought, and the breach was aſſigned, That the Plaintiff ſhould quietly enjoy the Lands Demiſed to him; And he ſhewed, That the Defendant exhibited a Bill againſt him in Chancery, pretending the Leaſe was made in truſt, and it was decreed to be otherwiſe: And, Whether the exhibiting of the Bill was a breach of the Covenant, there being no diſturbance, at the Common-Law, was the Queſtion? And the Court was clear of Opinion, That it was no breach of Covenant; for it was no diſturbance at Common-Law, nor Entry, and the Law could not take notice of it. It was adjudged for the Defendant. Trin. 11 Jac. in C. B. Selby and Chutts Caſe. Brownlow, 1. Part, 23.

5. Upon the Statute of Bankrupts, this Caſe was moved to the Court; If a Bankrupt be indebted unto one in 20 l. and to another in 10 l. and he hath a debt due to him by Bond of 20 l; Whether the Commiſſioners may aſſign this Bond to the Creditors jyntly? and, Whether they muſt divide it, and aſſign 20 marks to one, and 20 nobles to the other. It was the Opinion of the Court, That it is ſo to be divided as the words of the Statute are; viz. to every Creditor a portion, rate and rate like. Then it was demanded, How they might ſue the Bond, whether they might join in Suit, or not? Warburton, Juſtice, ſaid, That when part of a Bond is aſſigned to one, and part to another, that now the Act of Parliament doth operate upon it, and therefore they ſhall ſue ſeverally. And he ſaid, That by the Cuſtome of London, part of a debt might be attached; and therefore he conceived, that part of the debt might be ſued for. Trin. 10 Jac. in C. B. Godbolt, 195, 196.

6. Dr. Wells ſued Hye in the Spiritual Court for defamation, for ſaying, That he lyed: After a Prohibition granted, it was moved for a Conſultation: For it was ſaid, That by the Statute of 21 E. 1. of Conſultation; When there is no Writ given in the Chancery for the party grieved in the Temporall Court, there the Spiritual Court ſhall have the Juriſdiction; and in this caſe, there is no Writ given by the Law. 2. That when the party may be puniſhed by either Lawes, there the party had his Election in what Court he would ſue: and therefore if a man were a Drunkard, he might be ſued in the Eccleſiaſtical Court for his Drunkenneſs, and yet he might be bounden to the good behaviour for the ſame by the Juſtices. So the Imputed Father of a Baſtard Child may be ſued for the Offence either in the Spiritual Court, or at the Common Law, by the Statutes of 15 Eliz. and 7 Jac. On the other ſide it was ſaid, That where the Suit is for defamation, there the cauſe ought to be expreſſed, and ought to be wholly ſpirituall; And in the Principal Caſe, It is not a matter affirmative, which is directly ſpirituall: and Crimen falſi in the Spiritual Law, is intended of Counterfetting of the Seal, or of Forgery; and Crimen falſi cannot be intended of a lye: And Lovegrove and Brewers Caſe, Trin. 42 Eliz. was vouched; A man ſaid to a Clerk, a ſpiritual perſon, Thou art a woodcock, and a Fool; for which he ſued him in the Spiritual Court, and a Prohibition was awarded. Trin. 8 Car. in B. R. Hye and Dr. Wells Caſe. Godbolt, 446, 447.

7. An Action upon the Caſe was brought, for ſuing in the Admiral Court for a thing done upon the Land, and not upon the high Sea; and adjudged, That the Action was maintainable. Mich. 11 Jac. in C. B. Rew and Alports Caſe. Brownl. 1. Part, 4.

Surmiſe.

1. AN Audita Querela was brought to avoid an Execution of a Judgment; and the Plaintiff ſurmiſed, That after the Judgment he had paid the whole ſum. Popham, Juſtice, ſaid, That ſuch ſurmiſe, is not any ſurmiſe to avoid a Judgment upon a bare payment, without writing or other matter of Evidence; No more then it is any Plea to barre an Execution demanded by a Fieri facias. But the whole Court held, It was a good Surmiſe in this Caſe; For it is not only a Suit in Law, but a Suit in Equity alſo; and it is as a Commiſſion to examine a Cauſe: For it is not reaſon, that if the money be paid, that the party ſhould lye in Execution. And ſo it was ſaid, it was adjudged in Maſins, and the Lady Haukins Caſe. Paſch. 2 Jac. in B. R. Ognell and Randall's Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 29.

2. Audita Querela: The Caſe was, A. was bounden in a Recognizance to W. in 200 l. and being taken in Execution, brought an Audita Querela in Chancery, ſurmiſing the ſaid Statute to be void: And thereupon found Sureties in Chancery, where every one of them was bound in 200 l. That the ſaid A. ſhould appear in Cancel. 6. Mich. following, et ſtaret juri in ea parte proſecutor. cum effectu. Upon this, being at Iſſue in the Kings Bench, and there tryed, It was adjudged, That the Surmiſe was inſufficient to diſcharge him: and awarded. Quod nihil capiat per Breve. And becauſe he did not render himſelf to the Priſon of B. R. nor pay the Condemnation, a Scire facias was brought upon the Recognizance; and the breach aſſigned, becauſe he paid not this Condemnation, nor rendred himſelf to priſon. It was Objected, That the Recognizance is not but for appearance, and there is not any word that he ſhall render himſelf, or pay the Condemnation. But it was Reſolved by the whole Court, That the Recognizance being ad Comparendum et ad ſtandum juri. &c. It ſhall be intended according to the Intention of the Court there, That when one is in Execution, and delivered out of priſon with ſuch Sureties, it is not only to appear; but, if he be condemned, to ſatisfie tisfie the Condemnation, or to render himself to prison, to remain in Execution for the debt; and of the Course in Chancery, the other Courts at Westminster ought to take Notice: and such Exposition the words, Ad standum juri ought to have; otherwise the party who hath Execution should be at a Mischief: for if it should be only ad comparandum et prosequend. cum effectu; which is only to be without being Nonsuited, or using delay; yet he being condemned, the other should not have remedy for his debt; which is against the Statute of 11 H. 6. which was made to remedy the Mischief, that those who were in Execution, should not be delivered upon Surmises, without good Sureties: And the practice is. Ad standum juri, to satisfie the Condemnation. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Pasch. 3 Jac. in B. R. Wolrich and Massies Case. Cro. 2. Part, 67.

3. In a Prohibition for the staying of a Suit for Tythes in the Spiritual Court; It was Surmised, That the Lord N. was seised of a Messuage and Lands in the Parish of D, and agreed with the Defendant being Parson, in Consideration of 10 l. to be annually paid by the said Lord N. to the Defendant during their joynt Lives and his continuing Parson, in satisfaction of all Tythes growing upon the Low-Lands, that he and his Tenants should retain the Lands without payment of Tythes; And shewed, That the Lord N. paid the 10 l. accordingly: and that, notwithstanding this, the Defendant sued him for the Tythe of the said Lands. And in this Case, It was the clear Opinion of the whole Court, That it was not a sufficient Surmise to maintain a Prohibition: for an Agreement to be discharged from the payment of Tythes for a year, may be good by word; but such an Agreement of discharge during the Parson's life, is not good without Deed. And it was said, That such a Surmise was made, in Nelson and Pretiman's Case; and it was adjudged void. Wherefore a Consultation was awarded. Mich. 4 Jac. in B.R. Hawkins and Brayfields Case. Cro. 2. Part, 137.

4. A. to have a Prohibition to stay a Suit in the Spirituall Court for substraction of Tythes, surmised, That he being Defendant there, had but one Witness to prove a Lease of the Tythes; which was not there allowed, because it was singularis Testis. But in this Case, it was Resolved, That a Consultation should be awarded because it is a Rule, That where Cognitio Principalis is, there Cognitio accessoria necessarily followeth. And, 2. If such Surmise should be alledged in each case, it would oftentimes be made for meer delay; and a President, of Pasch. 35 Eliz. in B. R. Fatter and Wibkins Case, was shewed, where, upon such a Surmise to have a Prohibition, a Consultation was awarded. Hill. 8 Jac. in B.R. Roberts Case.

5. In a Prohibition, the Surmise was, That the Abbot of B. in the County of D. was seised in Fee of the Rectory of N. time whereof, &c. and was seised in Fee of a Close called the Meadow Close in G. in the Parish of N. and held the said Close, and took the profits thereof in right of all Tythes of Hay within the said Hamlet of G. The Defendant pleaded, That the said Abbot was seised of the said Close as parcell of such a Farm; and traversed, That he held it, and took the profits thereof in lieu of Tythes of Hay in the said Hamlet. Upon Issue joyned, being found for the Plaintiff, It was moved in Arrest of Judgment, That the Surmise was not good; For he shewed, that he was seised in Fee, that is as parcell of his Glebe, and it cannot be in recompence of the Tythes, but he ought to have shewed, that it was given in ancient time in Recompence of the tithes. But the Exception was disallowed by the Court; For it is a better form to say, That he was seised in Fee: for it is so ancient, it cannot be shewed when, or by whom it was given, but having had it always in lieu of Tythes, it is good enough, and shall be intended to have been given time whereof, &c. in Recompence of the Tythes, and that in regard of that Land, the discharge of those Tythes had its beginning. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Mich. 16 Jac. in B. R. Moore and Bullocks Case. Cro. 2. Part, 501. See Hill. 42 Eliz. Austen and Pigotts Case, adjudged acc.

6. A. was in Execution upon a Statute Merchant at the Suit of B; he brought an Audita Querela, and shewed certain Articles between him and B. to discharge him of the Statute, and prayed to be let to Mainprise: But the Court denied it, For that one in Execution ought not to be let to Mainprise upon a Surmise; and here the Action which he shews, are not good to discharge him of the Execution; but his Remedy is to have an Action of Covenant. Hil. 6 Jac. in B. R. Pyne and Robinsons Case. Cro. 2. Part, 219.

7. A Prohibition was granted upon this Surmise, That one B. Lessee for years of such Lands, agreed with the Parson, That he should retain the Land free from the payment of Tythes, in Consideration of 10 s. per annum, and of 10. Loads of Wood; And alledged, That he always paid the 10 s. and the 10 Loads of Wood, and the other had accepted of it, and that he assign'd this Land to the Plaintiff in the Prohibition. It was moved, That

That his Surmiſe being parcell of the Agreement, and for Rent arrear, could not be a diſcharge during the Parſons life. Wherefore a Conſultation was prayed. But the Court held the Surmiſe to be good, being by way of Retainer; and that the Aſſignee might take advantage thereof; although it was by Paroll. Trin. 21 Jac. in B. R. Manycomb and Sw ett Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 669.

3. A Parſon, did Covenant with A. his Executors and Aſſigns, That for 10 s. paid to him every year by A. his Executors or Aſſigns, That he, his Executors and Aſſigns ſhould be quit of the Tythes for ſuch Lands during the life of the Parſon. Afterwards, A. made B. an Enfant his Executor, and dyed Adminiſtration durante minore ætate of the Enfant, was committed to another, who Leaſed out the Lands at Will; The Parſon Libelled in the Spirituall Court againſt the Tenant at Will, for to have Tythes in kind of the Land: And upon the Surmiſe of the Matter aforeſaid, It was Reſolved, That he ſhould have a Prohibition, for that the Agreement or Compoſition did bind the Parſon during his life: and although the Aſſignee could not ſue the Parſon upon the Contract, yet he ſhould have a Prohibition to ſtay the Parſons Suit in the Eccleſiaſtical Court; and put the Parſon to his remedy for the 10 s. upon the Contract. Paſch. 21 Jac. in B.R. Snell and Bents Caſe. Godbolt.

Suſpence and Suſpenſion.

Where a Seigniory, Rent, Tythes, or other thing ſhall be in ſuſpence; and by reaſon of what act or means: And where a thing ſuſpended, ſhall be received again; And where not.

1. J. S. is Tenant in Fee-ſimple of the Mannor of Dale, or Tenant in tail thereof, the Reverſion to the King; and after, this Mannor is by expreſs name given by Act of Parliament to the King, Saving the Rights and Intents of all perſons and perſons; It was a Queſtion, Whether the Eſtate of J. S. was ſaved, or not? And it was conceived, That it was not; for that the Saving as to the Honour of the Land, is repugnant, in as much as the Mannor is by expreſs name given to the King. And a Saving in an Act of Parliament which is repugnant to the body of the Act, is void. See Plowd. Com. 463. where the ſuppoſed Attainder of the Duke of Norfolk, was by Act of Parliament, 1 Mar. declared to be null and void ab initio, Saving the Eſtates and Leaſes made by King Ed. 6. In that caſe it was adjudged, That the Saving was void: For when the Attainder was declared to be void, the ſaid Saving was againſt the Body of the Act, and ſo void. And if Land Eſcheat to the King for forfeiture of Treaſon, and afterwards that Land is given to another by Act of Parliament, Saving to all other their Rights and Services, the Saving is repugnant, for that they were extinct by the forfeiture. Cook 1. Part, 47. in the Caſe of Alton-woods.

2. The King ſeiſed of a Mannor in Fee in the Right of his Crown, granted Copyhold-Lands parcell of his Mannor, to one in Fee, and afterwards made a Leaſe of the ſaid Lands for 21 years. The Leſſee for years granted his Eſtate to the Copyholder; the King reciting the Leaſe for years, granted the Reverſion in Fee: It was Reſolved in that caſe, (amongſt other things) That by the acceptance of the Term by the Copyholder, the Copyhold-Eſtate was determined as well as if the Copyholder had immediately accepted a Leaſe for years of the Copyhold; for, the Copyhold Intereſt, and the Eſtate for years in the ſame Land, cannot ſtand together in one perſon at the ſame time, without confounding the leſſer; and they are of divers natures, and therefore they cannot ſtand together in one and the ſame perſon. Cook 2. Part, 17. Lanes Caſe.

3. The King Lord, Abbot Meſne & C. Tenant of the Mannor of D, the Tenant was Attainted of Treaſon; and after Office found, the King by his Letters Patents granted over the Mannor to B. and his Heirs, Tenendum de Nobis, hæred. et ſucc. noſtris, et aliis Capitalibus Dominis feodi illius per Servitia inde debita et de jure conſueta. It was Objected, That in this caſe, the Tenure ſhould be of the King, becauſe that by the Attainder, the Meanalty was extinct, and therefore nulla Servitia were debita ſeu conſueta. And, 2. There is an expreſs Tenure reſerved to the King; and Land cannot immediately be holden of two perſons: But it was Reſolved in that caſe, That the words were ſufficient to create a Tenure in the Meſne, for ſuch was the intent of the King, and the Grant of the King doth in Judgment of Law amount to the reviving of the ancient Seigniory, and that the Tenure ſhall be of the Meſne immediately, and of the King as Lord paramount, as it was before the Attainder. Cook 6. Part, 6. Sir John Molin's Caſe.

4. Note: It was Reſolved, That when a Rent is granted out of Land in Fee, and out of a Term for years, to have and perceive to the Grantee for the Term of his life, that this, as an Eſtate of Freehold according to the purport of the Deed, cannot iſſue out of the Term for years, but out of the Land which the Grantor hath in Fee-ſimple only, becauſe the Freehold of the Rent may go out of that, and not out of a Chattel. And in an Aſſiſe brought of ſuch Rent, It was Reſolved, That the Land in Fee ſhall be only put in View; and if the Grantee accept a Leaſe of this, once in Leaſe for years, it ſhould not ſuſpend the Rent. Cook 7. Part, 27. in Butts Caſe.

5. A. made a Feoffment to the uſe of himſelf for life, and after to the uſe of B. in tail, and after to the uſe of C. in Fee; Proviſo, and with Liberty, to revoke the Uſes, and to limit new Uſes, if A. ſurvive J. S, and J. S. dye without Heir male of his body: A. renounced and ſurrendred to B. and C. all the power and authority of Revocation, and Releaſed alſo, the Proviſo, Conditions and Covenants, as well as the ſaid power and authority: And afterwards J. S. dyed without Iſſue male of his body. It was Objected, That an authority which is collaterall to the right of the Land, could not be given away, or extinguiſhed by a Fine or Feoffment. But it was Reſolved, That a Fine or a Feoffment would extinguiſh a future power of Revocation. And it was holden in the principall Caſe, That if the power of Revocation had been perfect, it might have been extinguiſhed by a Releaſe. Cook 1. Part, 111. Albanies Caſe.

6. Debt upon an Obligation, the Condition was, That the Defendant ſhould perform, fulfill, and keep all and ſingular the Covenants, Grants, Payments, and Conditions expreſſed in certain Indentures bearing date, &c. The Defendant pleads the Indenture, and the performance of all Covenants, &c. The Plaintiff aſſigns the Breach, for non-payment of half a years Rent at our Lady day: 9 Jac. the Defendant Rejoyns, That the Plaintiff entred into the Lands before the ſaid Feaſt, viz. 24. die Martii, Anno 9. Whereupon Iſſue was taken: Judgment being ready to be given for the Plaintiff, It was alledged, That there was no breach layed, becauſe there was no demand of the Rent alledged. The Judges were of Opinion, That that was no fault, becauſe the Iſſue did not riſe upon the Rent not paid, but upon a Collateral Point, that did admit the Rent not paid, becauſe by the Entry which was a Suſpenſion, it was made not payable. Hobart, Chief Juſtice, ſaid, It was plainly made, that the Breach was not the Replication, when the Plaintiff ſaid, That the Rent was behind; which implyes, That it was demanded, and not paid: for in ſuch caſe, the Plaintiff never pleads, that he did demand it, and it was behind. But if indeed it never was demanded, Then after the Plaintiff hath pleaded the Rent behind, which is true prima facie, and then the Defendant Rejoyns, That he was there ready to pay it, and no man did demand it: and ſo the demand comes in Iſſue. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Hil. 11 Jac. in C. B. Baker and Spains Caſe. Hobart, 8.

Taile

Tail.

1. Tail; What it is, whence derived. By what words of Grant, either in the Case of a Common person, or of the King, it shall be created; and of what things an Estate in Tail may be; of what not.

1. Mr. Littleton, Lib. 1. Cap 2. saith, That Taillare, idem est quod ad quandam constitutionem ponere: And therewith agreeth Mr. Plowden in his Comment. 251. in the Lord Berkleyes Case; and because in the gift it is expressed of what body the Heirs who shall inherite shall issue, for that cause it was called Tail; or rather, it might take its name from this word Talier in French, which is to cut off: For à Talier bois is to cut Wood in the French Tongue; and because that the Estate is docked or cut off, for before it was Feesimple, and now the Fee is divided from it, and the Estate is thereby cut off, or made less; It may well thereof be said an Estate tail, scil. an Estate cut asunder, divided, and diminished. See Plow. Com. 251. in the Lord Berkleyes Case.

2. At the Common Law if Lands had bin given to Husband and Wife, and to the Heirs of their two bodies begotten, and the Woman had had Issue, and the Husband dyed, and she had taken a second Husband, and had Issue by him; the second Husband should have bin Tenant by the Curtesy, 30 E. 1. Title Formedon 66. which proves, That the Issue by the second Husband might by possibility have inherited. For at the Common Law after Issue had, Tenant in tail had a Feesimple to three purposes. 1. To give. 2. To forfeit by an Attainder, 7 E. 3. 6. 3. That the Tenant by having of Issue, had a full Feesimple to make the Land descendable to her Issues by any Husband, as a thing annexed to her Estate. And that is proved also by the words of the Statute of Donis, scil. Nisi habeat, &c. for if the Issue of the second Husband should not inherite, the Husband should not have bin Tenant by the Curtesy as it was adjudged, 21 H. 3. that he should be. See Cook 8. Part, in Paines Case.

3. If Land had bin given to one and the Issue of his body, and the Donee had Issue a Son and dyed; in such Case the Son at the Common Law had not an absolute Feesimple in him, but only such power which his Father had, scil. to alien post prolem suscitatam: And if such Issue had dyed without Issue, and without any alienation made, the Land should have reverted to the Donor: For a Collateral Heir which was not of the body of the Donee, was not within the form of the gift. 18 E. 3. 46. Cook 7. Part, 35. acc.

4. A gift to Husband and Wife et uno haredi de corpore suo exeunte sive legitime procreato, et uni haredi ipsius haredis tantum: It was holden to be a good Estate tail, 39 Ass. 3. So a gift to J. S. et haredibus de corpore suo exeuntibus; Habendum filio et haredibus; he had an Estate tail in possession, and a Reversion expectant in Fee. 21 H. 6, 7. 45 E. 3. 20. acc.

5. If a man give Land to a man, et feminæ suæ aut liberis suis de corpore, or prolibus suis, or exitibus aut pueris suis de Corpore: In such Case the Donee hath no Estate tail, but only an Estate for life; because if such gifts had bin made before the Statute of Donis, they had bin no Feesimple Conditional; and therefore by the Rule of Mr. Littleton, they are no Estates tail. Cook 1. Part, 103. in Shelley's Case: For there it was said, That the Statute of Donis was a Nurse, and no Mother of Estates of Inheritances tailed, and that it preserved the Estates of Inheritances in tail, but did not beget or create any Estate tails, which were not Feesimples before at the Common Law.

6. See Cook 8. Part, 103. in Shelleyes Case. It was vouched to have bin adjudged in the Case of Martin Hastings for the Manor of Elsing in Norfolk, That where an Estate was made to one, and to the Issues Males of his body, that in that Case he had but an Eſtate for life; and ſo it was ſaid it was holden by Manwood Juſtice, in 17 Eliz. in Clutches Caſe.

7. A man made a Feoffment in Fee to the uſe of his younger Son in tail, the Remainder to the Donees et hæredibus ſuis in poſterum procreandis; the Father dyed, the younger ſon dyed without Iſſue; the doubt was, If the eldeſt Son of the Father ſhould have the Land; if there being no Heir begotten after the gift, (the Remainder being over) if he in the Remainder might enter preſently. It was the Opinion of Wray Chief Juſtice, That the eldeſt Son ſhould not have the Land by reaſon of this word in poſterum; which is of force to exclude and bar him. But he ſaid, if the gift had bin to his Iſſue procreandis. It had bin all one as if he had ſaid procreatis; And then ſee 18 E. 2. procreandis doth not exclude the Iſſue born before.

8. R. G. ſeiſed of Lands in Fee, gave the ſame by Deed Indented to A. pro termino vitæ ſuæ, rem. inde reſtis hæredibus maſculis de corpore R. diſti, the Donor legitimè procreatis rem. inde reſtis hæredibus ſucc. in perpetuum. Afterwards the Donor had Iſſue two ſons and dyed: H. the Tenant for life dyed; the eldeſt Son entred, and had Iſſue a Daughter, and dyed without Iſſue Male; and if the Daughter or the brother ſhould have the Land, was the Queſtion in Treſpaſs brought: there were two points in the Caſe. 1. If this limitation of tail were good or not. 2. Admitting that, then when the tail once began, and was veſted in the eldeſt Son, when he dyed without Iſſue Male, if the tail was ſpent, or that the Land ſhould go to the younger Son. It was the better Opinion of the Court, That the limitation of the Remainder in tail was void, becauſe the Donor could not make his own right Heir a Purchaſor, without the departing of the Feeſimple out of himſelf: ſo the Opinion of the Court was againſt the tail, and for the Heir general, and ſo it was adjudged. Mich. 5 Ma. Dyer, 156. Griſwalds Caſe.

9. Aden Beresford the Father, made a Feoffment in Fee of a Mannor, to the uſe of the ſaid Aden the Father for life, the Remainder to his Son in tail, and to the Heirs of his body begotten, and for want of ſuch Iſſue, to the uſe of Aden Beresford ſon of James Beresford, and the Heirs Males of the body of the ſaid Aden ſon of the ſaid James, lawfully begotten with divers Remainders over. The Queſtion in this Caſe was, If Aden the ſon of James had a Feeſimple, or a Fee tail, becauſe there wanted the words (of the body). It was Reſolved, That he had an Eſtate tail; and that the Remainders over were lawfully veſted; for that theſe words (of the body) are not neceſſary to the creation of an Eſtate tail, as long as there are words which do amount to ſo much. And that this word (De) or (Ex) accounted with the word ſubſequent (procreatis) did appropriate the Heirs Males to be of the body of Aden. For that de Adæno, ex Adeno, et de Corpore Adeni are all one, and ſuch conſtruction always ſhall be made, that all the words may ſtand together, if they may ſo ſtand by the Rule of Law. Mich. 5 Jac. in the Court of Wards. Cook 7. Part, 41. Beresfords Caſe. But in the Caſe, Hill. 38 El. between Abraham and Teig, where a Feoffment was made to the uſe of certain Indentures, where in one limitation was ad opus et uſum Gabrielis Dymer et hæredum maſculorum ſuorum legitimè procreatorum et pro defectu talis exitus to the uſe of divers others in tail in Remainder. It was adjudged, That Gabriel had a Feeſimple, for it is not limitted of what body the Heirs Males ſhall be begotten; but his intent was, quod ſinguli hæredes ſui maſculi ſhould inherite, which intent of his did not ſtand with the Rule of Law.

10. Note, It was Reſolved, 1. That an Eſtate made to one and his Heirs during the life of J. S. is but an Eſtate for life, upon which a Remainder may depend by the Common Law. 2. That an Eſtate made to one and his Heirs on the body of J. S. begotten, is an Eſtate tail, and no Feeſimple, againſt the Opinion of Aſcough. 20. H. 6. 36. Cook 1. Part, 140. in Chudleighs Caſe.

11. A man having Iſſue three daughters, ſeiſed of Lands in Feeſimple; In conſideration of his Iſſue Male (if he ſhould have any), and for the advancement of the ſaid Daughters and the Heirs of their bodies, and for the continuance of the Land in his bloud, Covenanted to ſtand ſeiſed of the ſaid Lands to the uſe of himſelf for life, and afterwards to the uſe of his three Daughters, and to their Heirs of their bodies: And if any of them dye without Iſſue Male, that then her part ſhall ſurvive with a Proviſo for their ſeveral Husbands; That if they ſurvived their Wives, and ſhould not be entituled to be Tenants by the Curteſy, that then he might limit any of the ſaid Lands by his Will for the payment of his Debts, or for the advancement to any perſon or perſons for life or years: One of the Daughters dyed without Iſſue Male, the Father aſſigned a great part of the Land to his younger daughter for her advancement for 1000 years, without reſervation of any rent: and if it were a good limitation in Law, was the Queſtion. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, 1. That the uſes were well raiſed to the Daughters by the Covenant. 2. That the limitation for 1000 years was aſwell againſt the Intention of the parties, as againſt the words of the Proviſo; for if the ſame ſhould be good, it ſhould be rather a fruſtrating of the eſtate of the other Siſters, ſters, and to defraud the intention grounded upon a good conſideration, then to perform and preſerve it, for it cannot be intended a reaſonable conſideration which tends to the ſubverſion of eſtates. Cook 1. Part, 175. Mildmayes Caſe.

12. Lands were deviſed to Husband and Wife, and after their deceaſe to their Children, they then having Iſſue a Son and a Daughter. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the Husband and Wife had but an eſtate for the Term of their lives; the Remainder to their Children for life, and no eſtate tail, and the intent of the Deviſor ſhall be conſtrued according to the Rules of Law; and by the Common Law, If ſuch Conveyance had b'n made, the Husband and Wife had had but an eſtate for their lives, the Remainder to their Children for their lives. In that Caſe it was put, If A. deviſeth his Land to B. and to his Iſſues or Children, and he hath not any Iſſue at the time of the Deviſe, that the ſame is an Eſtate tail, for the intent of the Deviſor is manifeſt and certain, for they cannot take as immediate Deviſees, becauſe they are not in rerum natura. And by way of Remainder they cannot take, becauſe that it was not the intent of the Deviſor, and therefore thoſe words ſhall be taken by way of limitation, and ſhall be an Eſtate tail. And a Deviſe to Husband and Wife, and to the men Children of their bodies begotten, and they have not Iſſue at the time of the Deviſe; yet it was adjudged an Eſtate tail, 4 Eliz. in Bendloes Reports. But if a man Deviſeth Lands to A. and his Iſſues, and he hath Iſſue of his body living, they have but a joynt Eſtate for their lives, quod Nota. Cook 6. Part, 17. Wyldes Caſe.

13. Note, where a Deed ſpeaketh by general words, and afterwards diſcendeth to ſpecial words, if the ſpecial words agree to the general, the Deed ſhall be intended according to the ſpecial words: As if a man giveth Lands to one and his Heirs, Habendum, to him and the Heirs of his body, he ſhall have but an Eſtate in tail, and no Fee expectant, for that the Habendum doth qualify the general words precedent. But if a man giveth Lands in the premiſes of a Deed to one and the Heirs of his body, Habendum to him and his Heirs, he hath an Eſtate tail, and a Fee expectant. Cook 8. Part, 155. in Altham's Caſe.

14. A Formedon was brought upon ſuch gift, viz. R. dedit W. et J. uxori ejus et hæredibus de corpore alterius ipſorum W. et J. qui diutius viverent communibus, et quod poſt mortem; W. et J. T. filio et hæred. ejuſdem W. qui prædict. J. ſupervixit diſcendere debet. So that the gift was to the Husband and Wife, and to the Heirs of the body of the ſurviver of them. In that Caſe it was ſaid, That as to the Eſtate tail there was incertainty in the perſon: And therefore it was ſaid, That if in ſuch Caſe, ſuch perſons ſhould make a Leaſe for 21 years, obſerving all the Circumſtances required by the Statute of 32 H. 8. yet ſuch a Leaſe ſhould not bind; for, for the incertainty of the perſon of the Survivor, the Eſtate tail was not veſted. See Cook 10. Part, 51. in Lampits Caſe. Regiſt. Originall. 239.

15. In an Ejectione firmæ, the Caſe was; S. B. being Ceſtuy que uſe before the Statute of 27 H. 8. D.viſed to his Wife certain Lands for her life, and that after his deceaſe, R. B. his eldeſt Son ſhall have the Land 30 l. under the ſum or price it coſt, and if he dyed without Iſſue, F. B. his ſecond Son ſhall have the Land 30 l. under the price it coſt; and if he dye without Iſſue of his body, then his two Daughters A. and E. ſhall have the Land paying the value thereof to the Executors of his Wife. The chief Queſtion in this Caſe was, Whether R. B. the Deviſee had an Eſtate tail or not. It was argued and ſaid, That in this Caſe it was an Eſtate tail; and it was compared to the Caſe of 2 El z. Dyer, Frenchmans Caſe, where a man Deviſed Lands to his Wife for life, the Remainder to C. F. and the Heirs Males of his body; and if he dye without Heirs of his body, the Remainder over, and it was clearly taken, that the general limitation, if he dyed without Iſſue of his body, ſhall not alter the ſpecial tail, for that the intent is apparant: Upon the other ſide it was ſaid, That the Eſtate was a Feeſimple, for that the words are, That he ſhall have the Land 30 l. under the price it coſt; and ſo the words (paying) imply a Feeſimple. The Court inclined to be of Opinion, That it ſhould be a Feeſimple. But the Caſe was not Reſolved, but adjourned. Mich. 40 Eliz. in B. R. Bulleyn and Bulleynes Caſe. Golde.br. 134, 135.

16. A man deviſed Lands to his Wife for life, the Remainder to his Son; and if his Son dyed without a Son, that then it ſhould remain over: It ſeemed to the Court, That this was a good Eſtate tail; and it was adjudged accordingly. Trin. 7 Jac. in C. B. Robinſons Caſe.

17. Error brought of a Judgment in Fliſt; the Caſe was, A. gave Lands to B. and his Wife, Habendum to the Husband and Wife, to the uſe of them and the Heirs of their two bodies; and for want of ſuch Iſſue, to the uſe of C. and his Heirs, and whether the Husband and Wife have an Eſtate tail, or but for their lives, was the Queſtion. It was objected, That the Eſtate out of which the uſe ſhould riſe, was but for their lives, and the uſe cannot make the Eſtate longer then the limitation. For where Lands are given to two for their lives, to the uſe of another for his life; If the Leſſees dye, the uſe uſe to him to whom it is limitted, is determined. But the Court held, That there is a difference, where an Eſtate is limited to one, and the uſe to a ſtranger, there the uſe ſhall not be more then the Eſtate out of which it is derived. But when it is limited to two Habendum, to the uſe of the Heirs of their bodies, this is no limitation of the uſe, but a limitation of the Eſtate, and the Heirs of their bodies are in by the Common Law, and ſhall take as a limitation to them and the Heirs of their bodies with a Remainder over, that the Deed might be conſtrued according to the intent of him that made it. Mich. 6 Car. in B. R. Jenkins and Young's Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 167. See the like Caſe adjudged. Hill. 6 Car. in B. R. Meredith and Jones Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 178.

18. In Waſte, the Caſe was; E. S. after the Statute of 27 H. 8. made a Feoffment in Fee to the uſe of the ſaid E. S. and Eldred his Wife, to the uſe of the ſaid E. S. and Eldred for the Term of their lives, ea eorum diutius vivorum, and after the deceaſe of the ſaid E. S. and Eldred; then to the uſe of the Heirs of the body of E. S. to be begotten upon the body of Eldred, &c. It was holden in this Caſe, That Eldred the Wife had but an Eſtate for life, and that the intail and the Inheritance by the form of the limitation aboveſaid, reſted only in the Husband E. S. and it is all one as if it had bin given Hæreditum E. S. de Corpore ſuo ſuper Corpus Eldred, &c. Trin. 12 Jac. in B. R. Stout and Oxenbridges Caſe. Hob. 84.

19. The Caſe was, L. L. ſeiſed of Lands in Fee, deviſed it to T. L. his eldeſt Son, and the Heirs Males of his body from and after his deceaſe, for 500 years, upon Condition, That he ſhould allow all his Grants and Eſtates made by him, Provided, That if the ſaid T. or any Heir Male of his body alien, &c. the premiſes or any part thereof otherwiſe then to Leaſe the ſame to any perſon or perſons for any number of years as ſhall determine upon the deaths of any three perſons, or upon the death of any four perſons to be named in the leaſe whereupon the old Rents ſhall be reſerved; That then all the premiſes for want of ſuch Iſſue Males of the body of the ſaid T. or ſo much thereof as ſhall be alienced, leaſed otherwiſe then as aforeſaid, contrary to the intent of theſe preſents, ſhall remain to W. L. and the Heirs Males of his body. L. L. dyed, T. L. entred and made a Leaſe for 1000 years to J. S. and dyed without Iſſue Male, having a Daughter, J. the Defendant, who entred. W. L. entred as in the Remainder; and if his entry was lawfull or no, was the Queſtion. It was the greater Opinion of this Court, for the Defendant: For that W. L. had not any Remainder; for it is not limited to him, but upon a dying without Iſſue, and an Alienation againſt the Condition, ſo as it is a Conditional limitation, which is void and repugnant to make a Remainder to begin after the limitation of an Eſtate tail: And one of the Juſtices ſaid, That this Leaſe for 1000 years was not a breach of the Condition, becauſe being made by Tenant in tail, it determines by his death. Trin. 2 Jac. in C. B. Love and Goddard's Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 61, 62.

20. W. S. ſeiſed of a Meſſuage holden in Socage, having M. his Wife, F. his Son, and three Daughters, A. B. and E. deviſed the ſame in this manner, I bequeath to F. my Son, my houſe in L. after the death of my Wife; and if my three Daughters, or either of them do outlive their Mother, and F. their Brother, and his Heirs, Then they to enjoy the ſaid houſes for the Term of their lives: And my ſaid houſes then I give to my Siſters Sons, R. W. and J. W. and they to pay yearly to the Company of Merchant Taylors 6l. 10 s. and if they deny the payment of the ſaid ſum, then the ſaid Company to enter. The Deviſor dyed. The Son and two of the Siſters dyed without Iſſue. M. the Wife ſurvived them, and then dyed. E. the third Siſter ſurvived, and entred, having Iſſue the Defendant. J. W. dyed. R. W. entred and dyed. The Queſtion in this Caſe was, Whether F. the Son had a Fee, or a Fee tail by this Will. It was the Opinion of the Court, That he had a Fee tail; for (Heirs) in this place is intended, Heirs of his body: For it is impoſſible the Son ſhould dye without Heirs as long as his Siſters were alive, and therefore the intent of the Deviſor ſhall be conſtrued to extend to the Heirs of his body, and ſo to be an Eſtate tail. Hill. 13 Jac. in B. R. Webb and Herriots Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 415, 416. See Mich. 15 Jac. King and Rumball's Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 448.

21. In a Replevin, the Caſe was; A. ſeiſed of Lands in Fee, deviſed them to his Wife for life, and after to J. his eldeſt Son and his Heirs, upon Condition, That he as ſoon as the Land ſhould come unto him in poſſeſſion, ſhould Grant to S. his ſecond Son, and his Heirs, a Rent of 4l. out of the ſaid Lands: And if the ſaid J. dyed without Heirs of his body, that the Lands ſhould remain to the ſaid S. and the Heirs of his body, and dyed. The Wife entred and dyed. J. entred, and Granted the Rent of 4l. to S. and his Heirs, with clauſe of Diſtreſs. S. Granted the Rent to E. the Defendant, to whom J. Attorned: J. dyed. S. entred and enfeoffed J. D. who let the Land to the Plaintiff. The Queſtion was, Whether J. had an Eſtate in Fee by this Deviſe at the time of the Grant of this Rent; becauſe the Deviſe was to him and his Heirs upon Condition, that he ſhould Grant a Rent to S. and his his Heirs, whereby the intent was ſhewed, That he ſhould have Fee, otherwiſe he could not legally Grant ſuch a Rent to have Continuance after his death. But it was Reſolved to be an Eſtate tail; for being limited, That if he dye without Iſſue, that then it ſhould be to S. and his Heirs of his body, that ſhews what Heirs of J. were intended, ſcil. Heirs of his body: But yet by the limitation of the Will he is to make this Grant of this Rent, which being by the appointment of the Donor, is not contra formam doni, but ſtands with the gift, and ſhall bind the Iſſue in tail. Paſc. 15 Jac. in B. R. Dutton and Bogrum Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 427.

22. A. ſeiſed of Lands in D. and S. and having two ſons, T. and F. deviſeth all his Lands to his Wife for life, and after her death, All his Lands in D. to T. and his Heirs for ever; and his Lands in S. to F. and his Heirs for ever; And I will, That the ſurvivor of them ſhall be Heir to the other if either of them dyeth without Iſſue. The Wife dyes, T. enters into the Lands in D. and deviſeth them to R. his ſecond Son in Fee. The Queſtion was, If this be a Deviſe in tail immediately, or only a contingent Eſtate if he dyed without Iſſue in the life of his brother. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That it was an Eſtate tail, with the Remainder over, ſo as the Deviſe made by T. to R. his younger Son, was void; And that although the firſt part of the Will gives a Fee; yet the ſecond part corrects it, and makes it but an Eſtate in tail. Mich. 22 Jac. in B. R. Chaddock and Cowlyn Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 695. 696.

23. The Caſe was, A Fooffment was made of three Acres to A. and B. to the uſe of R. R. and M. his Wife for their lives, and after to the firſt, ſecond, and third Son, of the body of M. and afterwards to the Heirs of the body of M. by R. begotten. They had not any Son but a Daughter, who was the Plaintiff. R. levyed a Fine of the Land. M. dyed, the Plaintiff entred: The Defendant pleaded the Fine of R. It was adjudged in this Caſe, That the Plaintiff was not barred by the Fine, for R. had but for life, and the Eſtate tail was in the Wife only: For the Juſtices ſaid, That the Husband is not named, but to declare what Heir of the body of the Wife ſhould inherite, not every Heir, but ſuch Heir only as R. her preſent Husband ſhould beget: And they all agreed, That the Inheritance was only in the Wife, because the word (Heir) which made the Inheritance, is annexed only to the body of the Wife; but if it had been to the Heirs which the Husband ſhould beget on the body of the Wife, there the tail had been in both. Trin. 6 Jac. in B. R. Repps and Benhams Caſe. Tabert. 131.

24. If the King de gratia ſua ſpeciali & ex certa ſcientia, & mero motu, Grants Land to one and his Heirs Males, ſuch a Grant is void, as it was adjudged 18 H. 8. and yet if a common perſon had made ſuch a Grant, the Grant had been good; but if it ſhould be good in the Kings Caſe, it ſhould be a general Eſtate in Fee-ſimple deſcendable, as well to Females as to Males, in courſe and order of deſcent, which ſhould be againſt the intent and purpoſe of the Kings Grant, for he intended to Grant an Eſtate in Fee-ſimple only deſcendable to Heirs Males. Cook 1. Part, 49. in the Caſe of Alton woods.

25. Guardian and Channons Regular of a Colledg ſeiſed of ancient Copyhold Lands, parcel of the Manner of D. Granted thoſe Lands to A. and B. for their lives by Copy, according to the Cuſtome of the Manner. Afterwards 30 H. 8. by Indenture they made a Leaſe of the ſaid Lands to C. for 80 years, rendring the ancient Rent, and afterwards ſurrendred their Colledg to the King. Afterwards the Statute of 31 H. 8. was made. A. and B. dyed. C. the Leſſee entred: The King brought Intruſion. In this Caſe, it was Reſolved, That the Leaſe made to C. of the ſaid Lands, whereof the ſaid A. and B. were ſeiſed by Copy, was void. 2. Reſolved, That the ſaid Copyhold Eſtate was an Eſtate for life within the Statute of 31 H. 8. cap. 13. for the intent of the ſaid Statute was to avoid doubling of Eſtates, and but to have one ſingle Eſtate in eſſe at one time. 3. It was Reſolved, That when an Act of Parliament alters the Service, Tenure, Intereſt of the Eſtate, or other thing in prejudice of the Lord, or of the Cuſtome of the Manner, or in prejudice of the Tenant, the general words of ſuch an Act of Parliament doth not extend to Copyholds, but when an Act is generally made for the good of the Commonwealth; and no prejudice accrues by any of the alterations aforeſaid, there Copyholds and Cuſtomary Eſtates are within ſuch Statutes. 4. It was Reſolved, That the Statute of Donis Conditionalibus did not extend to Copyholds, becauſe it ſhould tend to the prejudice of the Lord by alteration of the Cuſtome. But it was holden, That by Cuſtome Copyhold Land might be entailed. Cook 3. Part, 8. 9. Heydons Caſe.

26. Note, It was Reſolved by the Court, That whereas by the Cuſtome of the Manner, Plaints had been made in the Court of the Manner, in the nature of Real Actions; That if a Recovery be in the Court of the Manner, in a Plaint in the nature of a real Action, againſt Tenant in Tail of Lands (admitting that Copyhold Lands by the Cuſtome may be entailed) that it ſhall be a Diſcontinuance, and take away the Entry of the Heir in Tail;

for in as much as Plaints in the nature of Real Actions, are warranted by the Customs: It is an Incident which the Law annexeth to the Customs, That a Recovery shall be a Discontinuance. Trin. 36 Eliz. in B. R. Cook 4. Part, 23. Deal and Rogers Case.

27. King Rich. 2. by his Letters Patents, created Ralph Nevil Lord of Raby, Earl of Westmorland, to him, and the heirs males of his body: Which Honour afterwards descended to Charles Nevill Earl of Westmorland, who was attainted of Treason, and dyed without Issue male. In this Case, three points were referred to the Justices, 1. If the limitation of the said Dignity to Ralph Nevill, and the Heirs males of his body, was within the Statute of Donis, or was a Fee-simple, descendable at the Common Law. 2. Admitting it was within the Statute of Donis, if by the Attainder of Treason, the Estate Tail were forfeited by a Condition in Law, tacite annexed to the said Dignity. 3. If it were forfeited by the Statute of 26 H. 8. cap. 13. of Treason. In this Case it was Resolved, 1. That a Name of Dignity, as of an Earl, Viscount, &c. might be entailed by the Kings Letters Patents to one, and the heirs males of his body, and that it was within the Statute of Donis, because it concerned Land; and every Earl, Baron, &c. is created of some place. 2. It was Resolved, That that Dignity (if the Statute of 26 H. 8. had not been made) by Attainder of Treason might be forfeited, by a Condition in Law annexed to the estate of the Dignity, because it is an Office of great Trust and Confidence reposed in him by the King; and when such a person, against his duty, and the end of his Dignity, commits Treason, by taking up of Arms, or otherwise, against the King, and thereof is attainted, he hath forfeited his Dignity, by a condition in Law annexed to it. 3. Resolved, That if such a Dignity had not been forfeited by the Common Law, yet it was forfeited by the Statute of 26 H. 8. for that a Dignity is an Hereditament; and all Hereditaments are within the said Statute. Cook 7. Part, 33, 34. Nevill's Case.

28. All Inheritances, Corporate or Incorporate, concerning Land, or annexed to Land, or exercised with Lands, whether they lye in Tenure or not, may be entailed; but Inheritances meerly personal, and exercible upon Chattels, and not Issuing out of Land, nor concerning Land, cannot be entailed. Cook 1. Part, Institutes, 20. acc.

29. An Use may be entailed, Plowd. Com. in Manxell's Case. 30 H. 8. Fitzh. Feoffments to uses. 48. And therefore it was adjudged, 14 Jac. in B. R. in Franklyns and Coopers Case, That Tenant in Tail might stand seized to an Use.

30. 18 E. 3. 27. The Office of Serjanty in the Church of D. was entailed.

31. 5 E. 4. The Office of Marshal of England was entailed, and it was adjudged, That a Formedon did lye of it. See Dyer, Humphry Bohun Earl of Essex Case, adjudged accordingly.

32. See 32 H. 6. 28. The Earldom of Shrewsbury was entailed to J. Talbot Knight, and the heirs males of his body.

33. 13 E. 4. 1. The Office of Chamberlain of the Exchequer was granted in Tail, and the Grant was holden good; and it was holden, That the not attendance upon, or the not executing of his said Office, was a forfeiture of it.

34. 4 H. 7. 10. by Kyder. The Stewardship of a Mannor may be entailed, because the same is exerciseable about Land, and so is in the Realty: But the Offices of Master of the Kings Hawks, or of the Kings Horse, cannot be entailed within the Statute of Donis, because they do not savour of the Realty.

35. 18 E. 3. 56. The profits of a Mill were given to one, and the Heirs males of his body. It was holden to be a good gift, and within the Statute of Donis, and a Formedon was brought of the profits of the said Mill, and adjudged it did well lye, and yet the Mill it self did not pass by the Gift. And Note, it was said, That a Discharge of Tythe to one, and the heirs of his body, by a Parson imperpetuel, was a good entail; and that none could take advantage of such a Grant, but the heir of the body: And so it was said, That the King might Grant to one, and the heirs of his body, to be discharged of Toll, and such a Grant was good, and none should take advantage of it but the Issue in Tail: And so it was said it was of Conusance of Pica, view of Frank-pledge, Waifs, Estrays, Wrack of the Sea, they were grantable in Tail within the said Statute of Donis.

36. But see 9 E. 4. 53. That Tail male of a Chattel, was not good, nor within the said Statute; and if Tenant in Tail give away the Chattel, the Issue hath no remedy for them, because they are but Chattels; although that the Executors cannot have them: But for the Deed which doth concern the Entail it self. It was holden, That the Issue in Tail might have an Action of Detinue.

37. In Trespass upon a special Verdict, it was found, That A. Copyholder in Fee, 39 Eliz. surrendred his Copyhold Lands, into the hands of the Tenants of the Mannor, to the use of his Will: A. had Issue two sons, J. and H. and devised his said Lands to J. and the heirs males of his body, the Remainder to H. and the heirs males of his body, with divers Remainders over, and dyed 41 Eliz. the Surrender was Presented, and J. admitted, To have to him and his heirs: Afterwards, J. had Issue three sons, and Surrendred the same to the use of his his Will, and thereby Devised it to K. his Wife, and dyed 42 Eliz. the Surrender was Presented, and she admitted; the three sons of J. dyed without Issue, and the Jury found, That no Copyholder might Surrender, or Devise his Copyhold in Tail, and that afterwards, A. married J. D. who Leased the Land to the Plaintiff: The Question was, when a Copyholder in Fee surrenders to the use of one in Tail, being no Custome to warrant such entail, whether it be an entail by the Statute of Donis, or a Fee-simple conditional at the Common Law. It was holden by all the Justices, That a Copyhold could not be entailed within the Statute of Donis, and that for divers causes. 1. Because it was not within the Letter of the Statute, which speaks only de Tenementis per Chartam datis. 2. It is not within the meaning of the Statute, because before 7 E. 4. 19. they were not of any account, being but Estates at Will. 3. The Statutes provides against those who might make disinheritson by Fine, or Feoffment, which a Copyholder could not do, or make. 4. Because, If they might be entailed, that the Reversion should be left in themselves, which cannot be. And 5. Because it would be mischievous, because that should be no means to dock and cut off the Estate Tail. Mich. 2 Car. in B. R. Snyder and Mouldfers Case. Godbolt, 367. Cro. 1. Part, 131, 132. the same Case. Quære, For this Case hath at no time been absolutely Resolved, nor is it determined at this day, Whether Copyhold might be entailed or not, but still controverted; and therefore see the Case following.

38. In an Ejectione firmæ, the Case was, A. was seized of certain Customary Tenements, holden of the Manour of F. and 3 H. 8. (before which time the Customary Tenements of the said Manour had been always used to be granted by Copy of Court Roll in Fee-simple, for life or years, but never in Tail till then) the said A. surrendred his said Copyhold Lands to the use of Joan his eldest daughter, for life, the Remainder to J. G. the eldest Son of Joan, and to the heirs males of his body, the Remainder to H. G. and the heirs males of his body, the Remainder to the right Heirs of A. and Seizin was given to Joan: A. dyed, having Issue the said Joan and Eliz. And at a Court holden for the said Manour 4 H. 8. it was Presented, That the said Daughters were his Heirs, and that the said Surrender made, was void, because it was not used within the Manour, to make Surrenders of Estates in Tail, and thereupon, the Homage made partition of the Lands, and limited part to Joan, and part to Eliz. and seizin was given them accordingly: Eliz. dyed, M. was found her Heir, and admitted Tenant; Afterwards, Joan dyed, M. took to Husband J. S. who with his Wife, Surrendred his part to the use of J. D. and his heirs; M. dyed without Issue, J. D. held his part, and Surrendred it to the use of R. N. and J. K. and their Heirs, who were admitted, J. G. dyed. In this Case, it was said by some of the Justices, That an Estate could not be of Copyhold Lands, unless in case where it had been used; for that the Statute of Donis shall not enure to such Customary Lands, but to Lands at the Common Law; and they said, That the Remainder be limited to J. G. upon the death of the said R. was in Fee Conditional, which is well warranted by the Custome to devise in Fee; But they said, That during the life of A. nothing was in Eliz. which could discend from her to her daughter M. or might be surrendred to the said M. and her Husband, and therefore, M. dying without Issue, in the life of J. G. who had the Fee simple conditional, nothing was done which might hinder the son of H. G. of his Entry: But yet after long debate, It was holden by the Court, That the Statute of Donis Conditionalibus co-operating with the Custome, That a Copyhold might be entailed: And further, in this Case it was holden, and so Resolved, That such an Estate Tail could not be destroyed by a Surrender, unless by special Custome. 39. Note, It was adjudged in the Court of Common Pleas, upon an Evidence given for Lands within the Manour of Illesworth, in the County of Middlesex, That no Estate Tail might be of a Copyhold, without a special Custome to Warrant it. Trin. 36 Eliz. in C. B. Rott. 547. And Mich. 36 Eliz. in B. R. It was adjudged, That a Copyholder could not suffer a Common Recovery, because the Recovery in value is by reason of the Warranty annexed to an Estate at the Common Law, which cannot be annexed to a Customary Estate, 42 Eliz. in B.R. Keish and Ivet Case. Quære, For at this day, where Copyholds may be entailed by the Custome of the Manour, It is usual at this Tail, to dock such Estate Tail by a Recovery had with Vouchers, in the Court of the Lord of the Manour, which is holden to be a good Bar against the Issue in Tail.

for in as much as Plaints in the nature of Real Actions, are warranted by the Customs: It is an Incident which the Law annexeth to the Custome, That a Recovery shall be a Discontinuance. Trin. 36 Eliz. in B. R. Cook 4. Part, 23. Deal and Rogers Case.

If it were forfeited by the Statute of 26 H. 8. cap. 13. of Treason. In this Case it was Resolved, 1. That a Name of Dignity, as of an Earl, Viscount, &c. might be entailed by the Kings Letters Patents to one, and the heirs males of his body, and that it was within the Statute of Donis, because it concerned Land; and every Earl, Baron, &c. is created of some place. 2. It was Resolved, That that Dignity (if the Statute of 26 H. 8. had not been made) by Attainder of Treason might be forfeited, by a Condition in Law annexed to the estate of the Dignity, because it is an Office of great Trust and Confidence reposed in him by the King; and when such a person, against his duty, and the end of his Dignity, commits Treason, by taking up of Arms, or otherwise, against the King, and thereof is attainted, he hath forfeited his Dignity, by a condition in Law annexed to it. 3. 33. 11 E. 4. 1. The Office of Chamberlain of the Exchequer was granted in Tail, and the Grant was holden good; and it was holden, That the not attendance upon, or the not executing of his said Office, was a forfeiture of it.

34. 4 H. 7. 10. by Kyder. The Stewardship of a Manour may be entailed, because the same is exercisable about Land, and so is in the Realty: But the Offices of Master of the Kings Hawks, or of the Kings Horse, cannot be entailed within the Statute of Donis, because they do not savour of the Realty.

Mich. 36 Eliz. in B.R. Gravenels and Brooks Case. Popham 32, 33.

39. Note, It was adjudged in the Court of Common Pleas, upon an Evidence given for Lands within the Manor of Isleworth, in the County of Middlesex, That no Estate Tail might be of a Copyhold, without a special Custome to Warrant it. Trin. 36 Eliz. in C. B. Rott. 547. And Mich. 36 Eliz. in B. R. It was adjudged, That a Copyholder could not suffer a Common Recovery, because the Recovery in value is by reason of the Warranty annexed to an Estate at the Common Law, which cannot be annexed to a Customary Estate, 42 Eliz. in B. R. Knish and Ivett Case. Quære, For at this day, where Copyholds may be entailed by the Custome of the Manor, It is usual at this Tail, to dock such Estate Tail by a Recovery had with Vouchers, in the Court of the Lord of the Manor, which is holden to be a good Bar against the Issue in Tail.

2. Where, and what Acts done by Tenant in Tail shall binde and bar his Issue, and what not; and where the Issue in Tail shall falsifie a Recovery had against his Ancestor, where not.

3. IF Tenant in Tail be of a Reversion expectant upon an Estate for life, and suffereth a Common Recovery, and hath Judgment to recover over in value, yet his Issue shall avoid the Recovery, for he shall not be estopped, because he claimeth per formam Doni: But if Execution be sued in the life of the Tenant in Tail, then in as much as the Estate Tail doth not descend to the Issue in Tail, and for as much as then he may sue Execution over, to have Recovery in value, it is a good reason to bar the Estate Tail; but if the Issue in Tail be in by a lawful discent in possession, before the Recovery be executed, and the Bar be compleat; there the Issue shall not be bound by such Recovery. And see 14 H. 6. In the Case of an Exchange, That although Assetts do descend unto him of greater value then the Land in Tail, yet it is in the Election of the Issue to have the one Land or the other. Cook 1. Part, 96. in Shelleys Case.

2. Tenant for life of Land, the Remainder in Tail, the Remainder in Tail; Tenant for life, and he in the first Remainder in Taile joyn in a Fine, sur Conusans de Droit, &c. to another in Fee, rendring a Rent of 40 l. to Tenant for life; He in the first Remainder, dyeth without Issue. It was Resolved in that Case, That the Fine levyed by him in the first Remainder, was not any discent of the first Remainder, or of the second Remainder; because every one gives that which he may lawfully give: And also, it was no forfeiture; for that the Law, which abhors wrong, shall construe it to be first the Grant of Tenant in Tail, and afterwards, the Grant of Tenant for life, ut res magis valeat, quam pereat. Cook 2. Part, Bredon's Case.

3. Tenant in Tail, the Remainder in Fee; he in the Remainder by Deed Indented and Enrolled, Covenanted for consideration of blood, and other good considerations, to stand seized to the use of himself in Tail, the Remainder to the Queen, her Heirs and Successors, Kings and Queens of England. Afterwards, Tenant in Tail suffered a Common Recovery. It was Resolved in this Case, That the Issue in Tail was barred by this Recovery, and that no Estate Tail is preserved by the Statute of 34 H. 8. but that which is created by Letters Patents of the King, or else that it be of the Provision of the King; and the Estate Tail created by a Subject, is not preserved by the said Statute: And it was Resolved, That before the Statute of 34 H. 8. a Common Recovery did bar an Estate Tail, which was created by the Kings Letters Patents, although that the Reversion was in the King. Cook 2. Part, 175. Wiseman's Case. See Cook 2. Part, Sir Hugh Cholmley's Case acc.

4. A. seized of two Manners, enfeoffed divers persons, to the intent that they should give back the same Manners to A. and B. who he intended to marry, and to the heirs of the body of A; A. and B. intermarried, and had Issue C; A. dyed, C. in the life of the Tenant of the Freehold, suffered a Common Recovery, with a single Voucher, to the intent, that the Recoverors should make a Feoffment to Uses, and that the Tenant should Release, with Warranty to them; which Feoffment, and Release with Warranty, was made accordingly; and if the Collateral Warranty should bar the Demandant, who was Heir in Tail, or should be void by the Statute of 11 H. 7. cap. 20. was the Question. It was adjudged, That the Estate Tail was barred by the Warranty; for it was Resolved, That when he in the Remainder in Tail, by the common Recovery had against him by his agreement, had disabled himself to take benefit of the forfeiture given by the Statute of 11 H. 7. after his death, his Issue cannot take benefit of it, because his father was in esse at the time of the forfeiture, and could not enter. 2. It was Resolved in this Case, That if Tenant in Tail being in of another Estate, suffereth a Common Recovery, and a collateral Ancestor of Tenant in Tail doth release to the Recoveror with Warrant, this Warranty shall bind, and the Terr-Tenants may take advantage of it by way of Rebutter. Cook 3. Part, Lincoln College Case.

5. A. Tenant for life, the Remainder in Tail to B. the Reversion in Fee to B. and his heirs expectant; B. levies a Fine to C. and D. and to the heirs of C. to the use of them, and their heirs, and hath Issue, and dyeth before the Proclamations be passed, the Issue then being beyond Sea, the Proclamations are made, and afterwards the Issue returns, and makes claim to the Remainder in Tail: It was adjudged, That the Issue in Tail was barred by the ſaid Fine and Proclamations: It was amongſt other things Reſolved, 1. That when the Proclamations paſs without any claim made by the Iſſue in Tail upon the Land, the right which deſcended to him was barred by the Statute of 4 H. 7. of Fines, and 32 H. 8. 2. Reſolved, That the Iſſue in Tail being heir, and privie, cannot by any claim which he can make, ſave the Eſtate Tail which deſcends to him; for that the Savings within the Statutes, extends to Strangers, and not to Parties or Privies: But if Tenant in Tail maketh a Feoffment, and the Feoffee levyeth a Fine with Proclamations, the Iſſue ſhall have five years after the death of Tenant in Tail; Contrary, if Tenant in Tail be Diſſeized, and the Diſſeizor levyeth a Fine, and five years paſs, and afterwards Tenant in Tail dyeth, there the Iſſue in Tail is barred. Coke 3. Part, 85. In the caſe of Fines.

6. The Caſe was, Tenant for life, the Remainder in Tail, He in the Remainder in Tail, levied a Fine to the Tenant for life, and her Huſband, upon a Conuſſit Tenementa, &c. to the ſaid Husband and Wife, for the life of the Wife, and dyed after Proclamations. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That it was not any Diſcontinuance, or Bar of the Entail, but during the life of the Tenant for life; nor was it any Bar or Alienation of the Entail, after that Eſtate determined. Mich. 2 Jac. in Cur. Ward. The Earl of Rutlands Caſe. Co. 2. Part, 40.

7. In a Replevin, the Caſe was, A. Tenant in Tail of a Rent-charge out of the Manner of K. levyed a Fine of the Manner to A. C. and his heirs: This Fine with Proclamations was pleaded in Bar in an Avowry for the Rent, by the Heir in Tail; which Fine was levyed of this Rent per Nomina Manerii, &c. with an averment, That this Fine was levyed with an intent to Bar the Rent by agreement of the parties. The Defendant pleaded Non-compoſed; whereupon it was Demurred. It was the Opinion of Harvy Juſtice, and Hobart Chief Juſtice, That this Rent was barred by this Fine with Proclamations, by the Statute of 4 H. 7. and 32 H. 8. becauſe the Fine being levyed of the Land inclusive, gives the Rent, and is a Fine to Bar it, as well as a Fine of the Rent it ſelf: As, where Tenant in Tail of a Rent enters into the Land, and Enfeoffs a Stranger with Warranty, that gives the Land diſcharged of the Rent, and that Warranty extends thereunto. But Hobart Chief Juſtice ſaid, That this Fine was in Bar of this Rent, unleſs it had been expreſly mentioned in the Fine; and that this Fine is not within the Statute, not being levyed of any thing entailed. Hill. 22 Jac. in C. B. Hallatt and Saunders Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 699.

8. In a Replevin, The Caſe was this, Sir Thomas Wyatt was Tenant in Tail, to him, and the heirs males of his body, the Reverſion in Fee to the King, he 35 H. 8. enfeoffed G. Moulton to the uſe of him and his Heirs; He had Iſſue George Wyatt, who had Iſſue Sir Francis Wyatt: The Plaintiff ſhewed, That Sir Thomas Wyatt 1 Mar. was Attainted of Treaſon, and Executed; which Attainder was confirmed by a ſpecial Act of Parliament, and that he ſhould forfeit all his Lands and Tenements, jura conditionis, & Hereditamenta ſua, and that they ſhould be veſted in the Queen without Office. Upon all this matter diſcloſed in Pleading, The Queſtion was, Whether after this Feoffment, Sir Thomas Wyatt had any Eſtate or Right remaining in him, which is not forfeited, and given to the Queen by this Attainder, and Act of Parliament? For if it be forfeited, the Plaintiff who claims in, under the Kings Title, is in, and hath good Right and Title; but if otherwiſe, Judgment ought to be given for the Defendant, who comes in under the Title of Sir Francis Wyatt. Becauſe this Caſe had been much controverted, and the ſame Caſe in ſubſtance which was Reported in Plowd. Comment. in Walſingham's Caſe; and afterwards, in the Common Pleas, in Aulers Caſe: It was ſolemnly argued by all the Juſtices, and Barons of the Exchequer, in the Exchequer Chamber, and the reaſons in Walſingham's much inſiſted upon: That it being a Feoffment by Tenant in Tail of the Gift of the King, (the Reverſion remaining in the King at the time of the Feoffment) there was no Diſcent of the Eſtate Tail, for it cannot be a Diſcontinuance, the Reverſion being in the King, and therefore the Eſtate Tail remained in him at the time of the Attainder, and then the forfeiture thereof was veſted in the King, by the Statute of 26 H. 8. The greater Opinion of the Juſtices and Barons, was for the Plaintiff. See the reaſons more at large in the Coke at large: And although it was very learnedly argued by ſome of the Juſtices, on the part of the Defendant, and ſome Exceptions taken to the Pleadings, which afterwards were over-ruled; for this cauſe, according to the greater Opinion of the Juſtices of the Exchequer Chamber, Judgement was entred for the Plaintiff in the Kings Bench, and ſo this vexata Queſtion is now Reſolved. And in the Argument of this Caſe, The Judgment which was given in Ratcliffe and the Lord Sheffields Caſe, 21 Jac. in the Exchequer Chamber, was affirmed to be good.

9. Upon a Special Verdict, the Case was thus, Lands were given to Sir Thomas Cotton for life, the Remainder over, to Cheney Cotton, his eldest son, & primogenito filio, & hæredi masculo of the said Cheney, & sic de primogenito in primogenitum filium, the Remainder to the Heirs males of the body of the said Cheney; and for want of such Issue, the Remainder to William Cotton, his second Son, & primogenito filio, in primogenitum filium; the Remainder over to the said Sir Thomas and William, and the Heirs males of their bodies lawfully begotten: Cheney Cotton dyed without Issue, William Cotton having Issue, went beyond Sea; Sir Thomas Cotton 19 Eliz. levyed a Fine, with Proclamations, and afterwards, Cotton dyed in Antwerp beyond Sea, his son being within age: Sir Thomas Cotton by Indenture, limitted the use of the Fine to himself for life, the Remainder over, to Robert Cotton, his third son, in Tail; Sir Thomas dyed, William the son, being yet within age, Entred, and 31 Eliz. Leased the Lands to the Defendant, at Will. This Case was long debated, and often argued at the Bar; and at last it was agreed, and Resolved by the Justices, That for one moyty of the Land, the Infant was bound, for that Sir Thomas Cotton had an Estate Tail in a moyty; for he was the Issue of the body of the Conusor; and for the other moyty, the Fine levyed by Tenant for life, William the Father being Tenant beyond the Sea: It was holden by the Lord Anderson, Windham, and Walmesley Justices, That the Infant was not barred, notwithstanding the Objection, That William the Father never returned, and notwithstanding the words of the Statute of 4 Hen. 7. And it was said by the Lord Anderson, That although William the father did not return, yet, if the son make not his Claim within five years after the death of his father, being of full age, and without impediment, he shall be barred. Mich. 33 Eliz. in C. B. Cottons Case. Leon, 211.

10. Husband and Wife are Joynt-Tenants for life, the Remainder to the Husband in Tail; the Husband suffers a Recovery as Vouchee; It was holden, That this Barrs the Remainder, although the Wife joynes not; for he was a lawful Tenant to the Precipe, and the Husband coming in as Vouchee, comes in in Privity of the Estate, and the Recompence goeth to the Issue in Tail: But if the Wives Inheritance had been joynt with the Husbands, it might have been a doubt, Whether the Issue had been barred: But yet it seems he had been barred for the moyty, in respect of the Recovery in value of the Moyty. See Cook 6. Part, 32. Sir William Fitz-Williams Case.

11. Note, It is holden commonly, That Tenant in Tail cannot allien, or charge the Land entailed, without a Fine or Recovery: And yet if a Disseisor maketh a Gift in Tail, and the Donee in consideration of a Release by the Disseizee, of all his right to the Donee, Granteth a Rent-charge to the Disseizee, and his Heirs, proportionable to the value of his Right; This shall binde the Issue in Tail, although that the Estate Tail doth continue, and this is in respect of the Recompence. Cook 1. Part, Institutes, 143.

Tales.

1. AT the Aſſizes, Tryall was of a Modus Decimandi; One of the principal Pannell did appear only upon the Venire facias: The Queſtion was, If in ſuch caſe, a Tales might be de Circumſtantibus. It was holden by the Court, That ſuch a Tales might be awarded. See 30 Eliz. Dyer, acc. And it was ſaid by the Court, That at the Common-Law (if not in Appeal) the Tales might be of odd number, ut quinq; Tales, or novem Tales; But now ſince the Statute of 35 H. 8. the Tales may be even or odd. But it was adjudged, That in no Caſe, where a Tryall is at the Barr, ſhall not any Tales de Circumſtantibus be awarded. Mich. 11 Jac. in C.B. Norton and Lyſters Caſe. Godbolt, 203.

2. In a Replevin, 24. were returned upon the Venire facias; And upon the Habeas Corpora, only 23 were returned, and the Jury did not appear full: And a Tales was awarded and tryed for the Plaintiff; And it was holden good, becauſe the Venire facias was full returned. Trin. 12 Jac. Trinhouſe and Smith's Caſe. Brownlow, 1. Part, 183.

3. In Treſpaſs upon the generall Iſſue pleaded at the Aſſizes, One of the Jurours of the principall Pannell appeared only; And at the Prayer of the Plaintiff, a Pannell of Tales de Circumſtantibus was returned by the Sheriff in this manner: The Title was, Nomina Decem talium, and under that he Returned 11. Jurours: In this Caſe, concerning Tales, theſe Points were Reſolved; 1. That when but one of the principal Pannel appeareth, the Court may award 11. Tales by the words of the Statute of 35 H.8. Cap. 6. That in the principal Caſe, the Miſpriſion of the Clerk ſhould be amended; and (Decem) put out of the Title, and then the Title ſhall be Nomina Talium only, and good enough. 2. That if at the time of the Tales granted, the principal Pannel ſtood, and afterwards is quaſhed; yet the Tales ſhall ſtand, for it is ſufficient, if there were Tales at the time of the granting of it. 3. If one of the Jurours dyeth before appearance, or before the Verdict given after he is charged, Tales ſhall be awarded. 4. That the Tales ought to be under the Number of the principall Pannel; and although at the Common-Law Tales ought to be of even Number, yet ſince the Statute, it may be of incertain number. 5. That in every New Tales, the Number ſhall be diminiſhed: For if the firſt be Decem Tales, the ſecond ſhall be Octo Tales; but if the Tales be awarded, and afterwards quaſhed by Challenge, the party may have Tales of the ſame number. 6. If the principal Pannell be quaſhed, the Tryall may be by Tales only: and if the Tales do not make an Enqueſt, a Tales to ſupply, the firſt Tales may be granted. 7. The Tales ought to be of the ſame Quality as the Principals are; and therefore if the firſt be per medietatem Linguæ, the Tales ſhall be accordingly. 8. In an Aſſize, If ſo many of the Jurors make default, that there are not 12, the Juſtices of Aſſiſe cannot award a Tales de Circumſtantibus, becauſe the Statute doth not extend to an Aſſize. Cook 4. Part, 103, 104. Denbowds Caſe.

4. In an Fjectione Firmæ of a Cole-Myne, Judgment was for the Plaintiff: Errour brought, and aſſigned, Becauſe the Venire facias was awarded in the time of Queen Elizabeth, and a Diſtringas thereupon, Et pro defectu Jurator. an aliat Diſtringas was awarded in the time of King James, which is, Quod diſtringas Juratores nuper ſummonit. in Curia noſtra; Whereas it ought to have been in Curia nuper Reginæ: And by virtue of this Writ, a Triall was had by the ſame Jurors with a Decem Tales awarded de Circumſtantibus. And Knowls and Beckinſhawes Caſe was vouched; Where a Venire facias being awarded in the Common-Pleas, and Returned in the time of Queen Eliz. and an Habeas Corpora; and an Habeas Corpora pro defectu Juratorum was awarded in the time of King James, which was, Quod Habeas Corpora Juratorum nuper ſummonit. in Curia noſtra et apponat eis Decem Tales: and a Triall being thereupon had, the Judgment was Reverſed. But it was Reſolved, That in the principal Caſe, the Writ ſhould be amended, and the Triall was good. And the Difference was taken between the principal Caſe, and that Caſe of Knowls and Beckinſhawe: for there the Habeas Corpora is of the Jurours ſummonit in Curia noſtra, [Et quod ad illos apponat Decem Tales, ſo that the Sheriff had not authority apponere Decem Tales, but to the Jurours firſt ſummoned in Curia Regis, and there was not any ſuch: But it is not here commanded by the Writ, any Tales to the Jury firſt ſummoned: and ſo there is a great difference betwixt this and that caſe. So the Opinion of the Court was, That the Writ was amendable: and the Judgment was affirmed. Hill. 2 Jac. in B. R. rott. 537, Comyn and Kynaſtons Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 161.

5. In

5. In Treſpaſs before Iſſue tryed, the Sheriff was Challenged, and a Venire facias iſſued to the Coroners; At the Niſi Prius for want of Jurors, a Tales was prayed by the Plaintiff, and as appeareth by the Poſtea returned, the Tales was returned by the Sheriff, and that per mandatum of the Juſtices; and Judgment was given in the Kings-Bench for the Plaintiff. Errour was brought in the Exchequer-Chamber, and that matter aſſigned for Errour. It was Reſolved to be Errour; For when the Proceſs is once awarded to the Coroners, they ſhall ſerve all other mean Proceſs, and they ought to return the Tales, and not the Sheriff, and the ſame is not helped by the Statute of Jeofails, for it is the Award of the Court, to command the Sheriff to return the Tales. The Judgment was Reverſed. Mich. 45 Eliz. in B. R. Corn and Paſlowes Caſe. Telverton 15. See Trin. 36 Eliz. Wie and Morgans Caſe adjunged acc.

6. In Errour, the Caſe was; Upon a Recovery by Verdict, upon Challenge of the Sheriff, The Venire facias iſſued to the Coroners; and at the Triall at the Aſſizes, a Tales was awarded; the name of one of which Tales was Gregory Grigſon, and upon the Poſtea returned by the Clerk of the Aſſizes, the Tales was returned to be by the Sheriff; but the entring up of the Judgment, was made per Coronatores, and the name of the Juroar upon the Tales, which was Gregory, was returned by the Clerk of the Aſſiſe according to his true name: but in the Roll of the Judgment he was named George Grigſon: In this caſe, the Judgment was Reverſed for 3. cauſes, 1. Becauſe the names of the Coroners ought to be added to the Tales in the foot of the Pannell, and in this caſe their names were tantum in Dorſo; which was upon the Retorn of the firſt Pannell. 2. Becauſe it appeareth upon the Retorn of the Poſtea, that the Tales were retorned by the Sheriff, which is Errour, when the firſt Proceſs is iſſued to the Coroners. 3. Becauſe the name of the Juror upon the Tales, which is Gregory, is made in the Entry of the Judgment to be George. For theſe cauſes, the Judgment was reverſed. Hill. 9 Jac. in B.R. The Lord Candiſh and Sir George Savill's Caſe, Yelv. 213.

7. In an Action upon the Caſe for Slander, againſt a Merchant-Stranger; It being found for the Plaintiff, and 200 l. damages given, It was moved in ſtay of Judgment, That the Tryall was by Niſi Prius in L. by a partiall Jury, becauſe upon the default of ſtrangers, one being Challenged, and drawn out, a Tales was awarded de Circumſtantibus by the Juſtices of Niſi Prius; whereas a Tales could not have been granted in this Caſe by the Statute of 35 H. 8. For that Statute ſpeaks only of ſuch Jurours which have 40 s. Freehold, which cannot be intended of Aliens, which cannot have Freehold. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That when the ſaid Statute comes to the Clauſe which gives, that a Tales be granted by the Juſtices of Niſi Prius, It ſhall be intended, ſuch perſons as the firſt Jurors were; which ſhall be of Aliens as well as of Engliſh, where the caſe requires it: And Aliens may be of a County or place where the Niſi Prius is to be taken; and although an Alien cannot purchaſe Land of an Eſtate of Freehold, yet he may have an habitation or a houſe to dwell in. And the Opinion of the Juſtices was, That where the default was only of Strangers, the Tales might have been awarded only of ſtrangers: as, where a thing is to be tryed by Inqueſt within two Counties, and thoſe of one County appear, but not thoſe of the other, the Tales might be of the other County only. Mich. 35 Eliz. in B. R. Sir Julius Ceſar and Carlins Caſe. Popham, 36, 37.

8. In an Ejectione Firmæ, after Verdict, it was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That upon the Venire facias, no Retorn was endorſed, nor any name of any Sheriff appeared upon the back of the Writ; Nor that Executio brevis patuit. &c appear in quodam pancllo: But a Pannell of the Jurours with their Manucaptors, was annexed to the ſaid Writ; And alſo Tales was awarded, and the Pannell of the Tales was annexed, but no Retorn of them, nor of the name of the Sheriff to it: But the Poſtea made mention, that they were retorned per mandatum Juſticiar. It was Reſolved in that caſe, That that would not ſerve; For the Sheriff ought to retorn the Jurours, and the Tales alſo; and where there is not any Retorn of the ſame, the ſame is not remedied by the Statute of 18 Eliz. or by any other Statute. Mich. 36 Eliz. in B. R. Cook 5. Part, 42. Rowlands Caſe.

Tender

Tender and Refusall.

What shall be a good Tender, or Refusall; What not. By whom, of what, and upon what; And where Issue shall be joyned, upon tender, and upon Refusall; and the one or the other traversable at Election.

1. IF a Feoffment be made, upon Condition, That the Feoffor shall pay a certain sum of money at a day certain, &c. If tender of the money be made accordingly, and the Feoffee doth refuse to receive it, the Feoffor and his heirs may enter, and then the Feoffee is without remedy to recover the money at the Common-Law, because it was his folly, that he would not receive it when he might. So, if an Obligation of 100 l. be made for the payment of 50 l. at a day: and at the day, the Obligor Tenders the money, and the Obligee refuse it: In that case, although in an Action of debt upon the Obligation, the 50 l. may be received, because it is still a duty parcell of the Obligation; yet if the Defendant plead the Tender and Refusal (wherein he must say uncore prist) and tender the money in Court, if the Plaintiff will not then receive it, but take Issue upon the Tender, and the same be found against him, he hath lost the money for ever, because he hath made two Refusals, when he might have had it. Cook 1. Part, Institutes, 207.

2. A. brought Debt for 40. Quarters of Mault, and declared upon two Obligations, in which the Defendant acknowledged himself to owe 20 Quarters to be delivered at D. such a day; and if he failed, to forfeit 40. Quarters. The Defendant pleaded a Tender, and that the Plaintiff refused, and demanded Judgment, if Action. Upon which the Plaintiff did Demur. In this case, Judgment was given for the Plaintiff, because the Defendant did not plead, uncore prist; scil. that he was yet ready. Mich. 28 Eliz. Dyer, 24.

3. Debt was brought against the Executors of J. S. in the Debet et Detinet, for Rent behind at the death of the Testator. They pleaded, That part of the Land was evicted in the life of the Testator; and for the residue of it, that they offered it, and were yet ready to pay it: Upon which, the Plaintiff did Demur: but yet afterwards he accepted of the money according to an apportionment, without Costs or Damages on either side. Hill. 7 E. 6. Dyer, 81, 82.

4. A man was bound to pay 20 l. viz. 10 l. at Michaelmas, and 10 l. at Christmas: He tendred the 10 l. at Michaelmas, and it was in Pollards, which was after abased; and he failed of the payment of the 10 l. Upon which, an Action of Debt was brought; And upon Tender pleaded: In this case, the Judgment was, That because in default of the Plaintiff himself, he received not the first 10 l; that he should have it in Pollard; and the second payment in Sterling money. Hill. 7 E. 6. Dyer, 82.

5. A man was bound in 20 l. to pay 10 l. He pleaded, That at the day he was ready to pay the sum, and a Tender at the place; In Debt brought, it was adjudged, That he ought to plead, that he was yet ready, although there was a place certain named where the payment should be made: But otherwise, it was said, it was of a Collateral all thing. Trin. 5 Mar. Dyer, 151. Paull's Case.

6. Debt upon an Obligation, the Defendant demanded Oyer of the Obligation, and afterwards he imparled; and then he pleaded a Tender at the day and place, and that there was none to receive it, and that he now was ready; and did not say, That he was at all times ready. It was adjudged, That the Plea was good, and that the same had excused him of the forfeiture; and that he should not by the Imparlance be estopped to plead, That he was now ready, &c. Pasch. 13 Eliz. Dyer, 300. See Mich. 19 Jac. in B. R. Steward and Cole's Case, Cro. 2. Part, 627. acc.

7. A Copyholder in Fee surrendred to the use of J. S. and his heirs, upon Condition, That if he paid to the Mortgagee 250 l. of lawful money of England, at the Mansion House of the Obligee, That the Condition should be void; at the day and place he tendred the money to the Mortgagee, but parcell of it was in Spanish money: The Mortgagee refused it, and at the last instant of the day, the Mortgager tendred the whole money in bags; who refused it: And if it was a good Tender, or not, was the Question? In this case, these Points were Resolved, 1. That although that the time convenient for the Tender of the money be before Sun-setting, so as the money may be told, yet if the Tender be made to him who ought to receive it at any time of the day in which it ought to be paid, and the other refuseth it, it, that the penalty of the Obligation is saved, and the party needs not to make a new Tender at the last Instance of the day. 2. Resolved, That the Tender in Spanish money being made good by proclamation, was good. 3. Resolved, That the Tender in bags was good, if there be the true sum, without the telling or numbring of the money, and the Mortgagee ought to tell the money, or he may accept of it without telling of it, if he pleaseth. Trin. 43 Eliz. in C. B. Cook 5. Part, 114. Wades Case.

8. If a man enfeoffeth another man by Deed, upon Condition, That the Feoffor shall pay a certain sum of money; in such case, the Feoffor may by accord betwixt them give the Feoffee a Horse, or a Gold Ring, &c. in satisfaction, and yet the money in such case is collateral, having respect to the Land; for if Tender be made, and refusal, he shall never pay the money; and therefore it is meer collateral, quia reprobata pecunia in hoc casu liberat solventem. So if a man by Obligation be bound in 100 Quarters of Wheat, upon Condition to pay 50 Quarters, he cannot give money or other thing in satisfaction thereof, because the Contract was not originally for money, but for a Collateral thing; and in such case, if the Obligor tendreth the same at the day, and the other refuseth, he shall plead the same, without saying, That he is yet ready, because that Corn is bonum perituram, and it is a charge to the Obligor to keep it. Cook 9. Part, 79. in Peytoes Case.

9. In Debt upon an Obligation, the Condition was, That if the Obligor deliver to the Plaintiff the Obligee, at such a day and place 20 l. or 10 Kine, at the then choice of the Obligee, &c. that then, &c. It was the clear Opinion of the Court in this case, That the Defendant in pleading the performance thereof, ought to tender to the Plaintiff as well the 20 l. as the 10 Kine; and for default thereof, Judgment was given against the Defendant. Mich. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Fordley's Case. Leon. 68.

10. In Debt, upon an Obligation, to stand to an Award; The Plaintiff set forth, That the Arbitrators awarded, 1. That the Defendant should pay to the Plaintiff 10 l. 2. That the Defendant should yield up, surrender, and relinquish to the Plaintiff all such Houses and Tenements which he had in possession, by reason of the Custody of the Plaintiff; so that the Defendant should acquit and discharge the Plaintiff of such an Obligation. The Defendant to the first pleaded, That he was ready, and yet is. As to that, the Opinion of the Court was, That the Plea was not good; for that the Defendant ought to have pleaded a Tender. To the second, the Defendant pleaded, That he had yielded up, &c. all such houses generally, without shewing which in certain; And for that cause, the Court was clear of Opinion, That the Plea was not good. To the third, the Defendant pleaded, Quod Querens non fuit damnificatus. The Court held the same to be insufficient, for he ought to have shewed, How he had discharged him; & it is not sufficient to answer only to the damnification. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Mich. 30 Eliz. in C.B. Brett and Anders Case, Leon. 71.

11. In Ejectione Firmæ, the Case was; A. was seised in Fee, and made a Feoffment upon condition of payment of money on the part of the Feoffee at a certain day; before which, the said A. died, his son and heir being within age: Afterwards, at the day of payment, a Stranger at the Instance and request of the Mother of the Heir, tendred the money to the Mortgagee in the name of the heir being within age, who refused it: It was Resolved in this case, That the same was not a sufficient Tender to redeem the Land according to the Mortgagee; for it is found by the Jury, That the Heir at the time of the Tender was within age generally, not particularly, of 6. or 10. years, &c. then it might well stand with the Verdict, That the Heir at such time was of the age of 18 years, at which age he is by Law out of the Ward of his Mother, or any other Prochin Amy: But if the Jury had found, that the Heir at the time of the Tender, was of tender years, viz. of the age of 14. years, in which case by Law he might be in Ward, in such case the Tender had been good. Mich. 28 Eliz. in B.R. Watkins and Atwell's Case. Leon. 34. See Cook 1. Part, Institutes, 206. acc.

12. Debt upon an Obligation, for not performing of an Award; The Defendant shewed, That the Arbitrament was; That whereas there was a Controversie betwixt the Plaintiff and him, concerning the Leasing of a house in C. which the Defendant claimed from J.S. one of the Plaintiffs, for 6. years at 15 l. per annum quarterly, which Rent was behind for a year; That he should pay for this Rent to J. D. the other Plaintiff, 13 l. 6 s. 8 d. and that he should enjoy it for 3. years and an half, and should pay half a charge for it to the said J. D. 15 l. at the Annunciation, and Mich. or within 40 dayes after; and that if he failed of the payment, that then the Award for his enjoying of it, should be void. The Defendant pleaded payment of the said 13 l. 6 s. 8 d. at the days; and pleaded the Tender of the said Rent and all the Tenements, and that none were there to receive it. Upon which it was Demurred. In this case, it was Resolved, 1. That this was a sum in gross, groſs, and payable without demand, at the perill of the Plaintiff. 2. That this Tender (admitting it might be upon the Land) is not ſufficient, for that it is not pleaded to be made the firſt Inſtant, as it ought to be. 3. That this Conditional Award was good, for that it is abſolute, if the Defendant pay the Rent. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Paſch. 14 Jac. in B.R. Furſer, Bond, and Prowds Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 423.

13. A. ſeiſed in Fee, by Indenture in Conſideration of blood, Covenants with B. his Nephew, to ſtand ſeiſed to the uſe of himſelf for life, and after to the uſe of B. in tail, the remainder to the right heirs of B: Proviſo, That if the ſaid A. by himſelf, or by any other during his natural life, tender to B. a Gold Ring, to the intent to make void the ſaid Uſes, that then the ſaid Uſes ſhall be void: And afterwards, A. 26 Eliz. is Attainted of Treaſon, and Outlawed upon it: The King makes a Leaſe of the Lands to C. and D. for 40 years; the Attainder is confirmed by Act of Parliament; and Enacted, That the ſaid Act ſhall not extend to make any Leaſe void, made by the King after the ſaid Treaſon. Alſo enacted, That all perſons which claim any Eſtate or Intereſt in Lands not enrolled ſince 18 Eliz. ſhall within two years after the Seſſion of that Parliament, ſhew and bring into the Court of Exchequer, his or their grant or aſſurance, the effect thereof to be entred and enrolled of Record, or elſe the Aſſurance to be void: The King reciting the Proviſo, and the benefit thereof given him by Act of Parliament, authorizeth E. to deliver the Gold-Ring to B. to the intent to make void the Uſes; he renders the Patent to B, and makes a Tender to him; which he refuſeth to accept of, and Certifies the ſame into the Exchequer: In this caſe, it was Reſolved, (amongſt other things) 1. That the Condition in the principal Caſe, ſcil. the Tender of the Gold-Ring, was not annexed to the perſon of A; but that any one might make the Tender, and that it was given to the King by the Act of Parliament; and when a Statute gives a Condition to the King, the performance of it, which is the ſubſtance, and which is not inſeparably annexed to the perſon, is given to the King. 2. That the Tender and Certificate was good, without Office found: and if the party be grieved, he might traverſe it, becauſe it is a Record only to ſatisfie the King of his Title. 3. Reſolved, That preſently by the Tender, according to the Proviſo, the Uſes were determined, and the Land veſted in the King by force of the Act of Parliament. Cook 7. Part, Engleſields Caſe. See Popham, 10. the ſame Caſe.

14. Upon a Special Verdict, upon redemption of a Mortgage; The Mortgagor at the day and place of the payment of the money came, and ſaid to the Mortgagee, Here, I am ready to pay you (naming him) the 200 l. which was the money due; and yet he held it all the time upon his Arm, in bagges: In this Caſe, It was adjudged to be no Tender; For it might be Counters, or baſe money for any thing appeared. And it was ſaid by the Lord Anderſon, Chief Juſtice, That it is no good Tender to ſay, I am ready &c. Trin. 40 Eliz. in C.B. Suckling and Conrys Caſe. Noy, 74.

15. In a Replevin, the Defendant made Conuſans as Bayliff to his Father for a Rent-Service; The Plaintiff confeſſed the Tenure, but alledged, That at the day of payment, he was upon parcel of the Land, and offered to pay it, and remained there till after Sun-ſetting: The Defendant (proteſtando, that he made no ſuch Tender) ſaid, That after that, and before the Diſtreſs, at ſuch a day, he at the place demanded the Rent, and none came there to pay it; for which he did Diſtrein; and avers, That neither the Plaintiff, nor any other, neither at the time of the Diſtreſs, nor at any time after, offered to pay the Rent. It was adjudged for the Defendant; and a difference taken between this and Homage, where one makes a Tender to the party, and he refuſes, there he cannot Diſtrain, becauſe it is a perſonal thing, which cannot be performed by another hand, as payment of a Rent may. And it was agreed, That the Tender there at the day, is not material; but if he had tendred it when the Diſtreſs was taken, then the Diſtreſs had been wrongful. Hill. 15 Jac. in C.B. Crawley and Kingsmills Caſe. Hutton, 13. Hob. 207. acc.

18. A Pariſhioner of L. in Eſſex, brought an Action upon the Caſe againſt the Parſon of L. and ſet forth, That he at the Pariſh of L. had layed out for the Parſon 15 Cheeſes for his Tythe; and the Defendant ſuffered them to remain in the houſe of the Plaintiff for ſuch a time, and did not fetch them away. In this caſe, It was ſaid, 1. That Action upon the Caſe did not lye, for the refuſing to receive the Tythes. 2. That the Declaration was not good, in as much as the ſetting forth was within the Pariſh of L, and it doth not appear, that there was any Tender at the houſe of the Plaintiff. It was alſo Objected, That the Tender alſo ought to be made at the Church, or to the Parſon, or Rector, and for that the Tender not being alledged to be at his houſe, it was not ſufficient. But the Opinion of the Court in both Points was, 1. That the Action did lye. And, 2. That the Tender was very good, and that it ſhall be intended, that it was made at his houſe. Trin. 21 Jac. in B.R. Wiſeman and Denham's

Caſe. Godbolt, 329. Lea, 70. the ſame Caſe.

17. In an Ejectione firme, the Caſe was, a Leaſe for years was made upon Condition to be afterwards avoided by the Reverſioner upon the Tender of 6 d. the Leſſee enters; afterwards another enters upon him, and doth Diſſeiſe him. It was objected in this Caſe, That this tender of 6 d. to avoid the Leaſe, cannot be made after the Diſſeiſin, But the Opinion of the Court was, That the payment is a Collateral thing, and may be well made notwithſtanding the Diſſeiſin, Paſc. 9 Jac. in B.R. Plat and Sheeps Caſe. Bolſtr. 1. Part, 118.

18. If there be Mortgagor and Mortgagee of Land, and at the day of payment of the money for the Redemption of the Land (a ſtranger of his own head) in the name of the Mortgagor or his Heir, without his conſent or privity, tenders the money, and the Mortgageor accepteth thereof: In ſuch Caſe, it is a good tender and ſatisfaction, and the Mortgageor or his Heirs may re-enter into the Land immediately after ſuch tender and conſent thereunto. But yet the Mortgagee or his Heir may diſagree thereunto if they will. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 206. acc.

19. If a Feoffment be made upon Condition to pay the Feoffee 20 l. upon a certain day. In this Caſe the Feoffor is bound to make tender thereof unto him if he be in England; but if he be out of the Land, he is not bound to ſeek him, nor to go out of the Realm unto him. Nor ſhall the Feoffee take advantage of his own abſence, but the Feoffor ſhall enter upon the Land, as if he had duly tendred it according to the Condition, becauſe the Feoffee himſelf was the cauſe, that the Feoffor could not make due tender at the day limited for the payment thereof. See Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 210. Litt. Sect. 340. acc.

20. Note by Warburton Juſtice, That it was Reſolved in C. B. per Curiam, That where a Rent was reſerved upon a Leaſe, and the Leſſee bound by Obligation to payment, that in ſuch Caſe the Leſſee muſt pay it without demand; but in ſuch Caſe he is not bound to ſeek the Leſſor, but to tender it only upon the Land; for he hath bound himſelf to pay it, but ſtill as a Rent, and that where the Law pill. Trin. 11 Jac. in C. 21. A. ſeiſed in Fee of the Manors of W. and M. in the County of N. 12 Eliz. made a Feoffment thereof to B. and C. to certain uſes, with clauſe of Revocation upon tender of 40 s. and that after ſuch Revocation, he might limit new uſes. The ſaid A. made the like Conveyance of his Lands in the County of S. upon tender of 40 s. Afterwards A. tendred to the ſaid Feoffees one ſum of 40 s. to revoke the uſes raiſed upon both the Feoffments; and afterwards raiſed divers new uſes of the ſaid Manors, and dyed. It was Reſolved in this Caſe by the Juſtices, That by that tender, the uſes were not revoked, but that the Revocation was utterly void; for two ſeveral ſums of 40 s. ought to have bin tendred, for that they were ſeveral Indentures, and could not be ſatisfied by one ſum. Afterwards the ſaid Revocation was made good by a ſpecial Act of Parliament. Mich. 39 Eliz. in the Exchequer. Sir Tho. Greſham's Caſe. Leon. 89.

2. Tender of Marriage in Cauſe of Wardſhip; where good and requiſite; When not.

1. IF the Lord Tender a Covenable Marriage to the Heir Female within two years, and ſhe marrieth within the two years, the Lord in ſuch Caſe ſhall not have the forfeiture of the Marriage, becauſe the only end which the Statute of Weſt. 1. cap. 22. giveth thoſe two years, is, for the Lord to make his Tender, or rather that he ſhould not loſe the advantage of his Tender, and the benefit of thoſe two years are given unto him as it were in lieu of forfeiture in Caſe the Heir Female ſhould refuſe his tender; for if he maketh Tender within the two years, and ſhe accept the ſame and marry, immediately after Marriage, ſhe is out of Ward. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 79. See 35 H. 6. Tit. Gard. 71.

2. Note, It was Reſolved by the whole Court, That Guardian in Knight Service ſhould have the ſimple value of the Heir without Tender: and that at the Common Law it was in the Election of the Lord to have the Marriage of the Heir, or to permit the Heir to marry himſelf; and ſo give recompence, ſcil. the value of it to the Lord for it; and that at the Common Law, not only a Writ de valore Maritagii did lye; but alſo a Writ of Intruſion Maritagio non ſatisfacto: and at the Common Law, If the Heir had bin Raviſhed and married, the Lord ſhould have recovered the value of the Marriage; which prove, that the value of the Marriage did appertain to the Lord without Tender. See Cook 5. Part, Palmers Caſe.

3. In Valore Maritagii the Plaintiff declared, That the Anceſtor of the Defendant dyed in his homage, and that the Land deſcended to the Defendant, fendant, and that he tendred a competent Marriage to her, which ſhe refuſed: The Defendant denyed the Tender; upon which the Plaintiff demurred. In this Caſe, it was Reſolved, That the value of the Marriage did belong unto the Lord without any Tender. 2. That there was no forfeiture of marriage at the Common Law, but the ſame was given by the Statute of Merton, cap. 6. which did not extend to an Heir Female, but to the Heir Male only. 3. That if the Common Law would have forced the Lord to have made a Tender of Marriage to his Ward, it would have given all neceſſary circumſtances for the performance of it; as to have appointed a certain place where the Tender ſhould be made, and not leave the Lord, who was the ſuperiour, to ſeek out the Ward, who was his inferiour, to make the Tender. Cook 6. Part, 70. the Lord Darcys Caſe.

4. The Queen granted the Wardſhip and Marriage of the body of her Ward, ſaving to her the Land. The Grantee tendred a Marriage to the Heir, which was refuſed, and therefore the Grantee prayed, That he might retain the Land at the full age of the Heir for the value of the Marriage. It was holden in this Caſe, That neither the Statute of Marlbridg, nor the Statute of 32 H. 8. by which Statute the Court of Wards was erected, did give any Authority to retain the Land for the value of the Marriage. Mich. 9 Eliz. Dyer, 260.

5. Tenant in Capite, made a Feoffment in Fee to the uſe of his Feoffees and their Heirs, till the Feoffee pay 300 l. to him and his Heirs, and then to the uſe of the Feoffor and his Heirs; the Feoffee dyed, his Heir within age, the 300 l. is paid to the Heir, all this was found by Office, and the King ſeiſed of the Ward: Upon a Monſtraus de droit brought, it was Reſolved in this Caſe, That although the Heir was in Ward to the King, yet the Wardſhip ſhould be revеſted out of him; and that the King upon a Tender made, ſhould not have the value of the Marriage; for by the removal of the Kings hands, all the mean Contingents were removed. Hill. 13 Eliz. Dyer, 299.

6. In an Action upon the Caſe, the Plaintiff ſuppoſed, That the Defendants Father held of him ſuch Lands by Knights Service, and dyed in his homage, his Heir within age, and that he tendred unto him a convenient Marriage, and ſhewed what; and demanded of him the value of the Marriage. The Defendant taking the Tenure by Proteſtation, traverſed the Tender. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Tender was not Traverſable. Then it was moved, That an Action of the Caſe did not lye in the Caſe, but the Plaintiff ſhould have brought a Writ de valore Maritagii. It was holden by ſome of the Juſtices, That Action upon the Caſe did lye, as well as a Writ de valore Maritagii. But becauſe the Plaintiff in his Declaration did not ſhew, That the Anceſtor of the Defendant was ſeiſed in Fee; The Court doubted, Whether the Declaration was good, and upon that would adviſe, Et adjornatur. Hill. 13 Car. in C. B. Arrundell and Sanders Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 361.

3. Tender of Amends; When, and where good; where not: And of other matters concerning Tender made.

1. NOte, It was Reſolved by the Court, That when a Diſtreſs is taken damage feaſant, that the party may tender amends untill the Cattel be in the Pound; but after they are there, they are in Cuſtodia legis, and then tender of amends comes too late. 2. Reſolved, That Tender of amends by a Bayliff, is not good, becauſe he cannot deliver a Diſtreſs which is taken, no more then he can change the Avowry of his Maſter, or demand a Rent upon a Condition to re-enter. Paſc. 43 Eliz. in B. R. Pilkingtons Caſe. Cook 5. Part, 119.

2. Note, and ſee Cook 8. Part, 147. In the ſix Carpenters Caſe, Tender of a Rent upon the Land before Diſtreſs makes the Diſtreſs wrongfull; Tender after the Diſtreſs, and before the Impounding or Imparking of the Diſtreſs, makes the Detainer, and not the Diſtreſs wrongfull, but Tender after the Impariment or Impounding, makes neither the one nor the other tortious, for that then the Tender comes too late, in regard the matter is then put to the Tryal and determination of Law. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes acc.

3. In Treſpaſs, the Defendant pleaded, That according to the Statute of 21 Jac. That he tendred amends before the Action was brought. The Plaintiff Replyed, That before ſuch Tender, that he ſued forth a Latitat Teſte the laſt day of the Term before, and upon that procured the Defendant to be Arreſted, intending to declare in Treſpaſs. It was Reſolved by the Court, That in this Caſe the Tender came too late. For aſwell as a Tender after an Original Writ, comes too late, ſo after an Arreſt upon a Latitat. For the Tender intended by the Statute, is to be immediately after the Treſpaſs, and before any Suit commenced. Trin. 8 Car. in B. R. Watts and Bakers Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 192.

4. Note, It was Reſolved, That if there be Lord Meſne, and Tenant, and the Lord avoweth upon Diſtreſs upon a ſtranger, and not upon the Meſne; there the Tenant is without remedy to have aid upon the Meſne, becauſe that he is Tenant in Feeſimple, and he may plead any plea that the Meſne may plead; and the Meſne cannot joyn with the Tenant, becauſe the Avowry is not made upon the Meſne. But in ſuch Caſe the Tenant is not without remedy, but the Tenant may reſort to the Meſne, and ſhew to him his Caſe, and pray the Meſne to take his Cattel out of the Pound, and put in his own Cattel, and ſo demand acquittal of the Meſne; and if upon ſuch requeſt the Meſne refuſeth, the Tenant may have a Writ of Meſne againſt him, and in that ſhew, That he was diſtreined in default of the Meſne, and he ſhall recover his Coſts and damages againſt him, and by ſuch means the Meſne ſhall compell the Lord to avow upon him, and ſhall abate the Avowry made upon the ſtranger. But if in ſuch Caſe the Tenant ſueth a Replevin, and hath deliverance of his Cattel, and doth not make the requeſt to the Meſne as above is ſaid, Then the Lord ſhall avow upon the ſtranger, and the Tenant is without remedy through his own default. Cook 9. Part, 20, 21. in the Caſe of Avowry.

5. Note at the Common Law, If there be Lord, Meſne, and Tenant; and the Meſne truly doth his Service to the Lord Paramount; and yet the Lord doth diſtrein the Tenant paravail for them; at this time the Diſtreſs is tortious, and the Tenant is not diſtreined in default of the Meſne: but in this Caſe, If the Tenant paravail requeſt the Meſne to take his Cattel out of the Pound, and put in his own Cattel in lieu of them: Or if the Tenant hath a Replevin of his own Cattel, and requeſteth the Meſne to joyn and acquit him, and he refuſeth, by this matter ex poſt facto, the Law ſhall adjudg that the Tenant paravail was diſtreined in default of the Meſne; and if in a Writ of Meſne, the Meſne pleadeth, Not diſtreined in his default. It ſhall be found againſt him, otherwiſe the Tenant paravail ſhall be in no default, and ſhall have wrong, and yet he ſhall be without remedy: And it is all one to the Tenant if the Diſtreſs be wrongfull or not, if he ſhall not have any redreſs. And the Law hath ever endeavoured to put the Rule in Execution Curia Domini Regis non debet deficere Conquerentibus in Juſticia exhibenda. Juſtitia eſt ſuum cuique tribuere. Cook 9. Part, 111. in fine of Mariel Treſham's Caſe.

Tenures.

1. IT was found by Office, That A. held Land of the King as of his Honor of P. and other Lands as of his Manner of D. which came to the King by Attainder of Treaſon of the Marqueſs of L... It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That it was not a Tenure in Capite: And it was holden, That at this day the King may create a Tenure in Capite if he give Lands to hold of his perſon, but not if he give Lands to be holden of a Manner, Honor, &c. And a Tenure in Capite muſt be immediately of the King, and created by the King himſelf; for a Tenure created by a Subject, can never be a Tenure in Capite, nor have any Prerogative annexed to it. And a Tenure in Capite of the perſon of the King cannot be releaſed, although he after Grants the Reverſion, for that it is not incident to the Reverſion, but to the perſon of the King. Mich. 30 H. 8. Dyer, 44.

2. It was holden by the Court, That a Tenure of the King as of the Honor of Glouceſter, whereof two parts came to the King by diſcent; and the third part by the Attainder of the Duke of Buckingham, ſhould not be holden to be a Tenure in chief of the King as of his perſon, nor give Prerogative of other Lands to the King. Trin. 36 H. 8. Dyer, 58.

3. Humfrey Bohun Earl of Eſſex, who held Manors of the King to be Conſtable of England, had Iſſue two Daughters, and dyed; the Daughters took Husbands, and the Husband of the youngeſt was made King; and they made Partition. It was in this Caſe Reſolved. 1. That there was a good Tenure reſerved, which was holden to be Grand-Serjeanty. 2. Reſolved, That the Daughters before Marriage might execute the Office by Deputies, and after Marriage, it ſhall be executed by the Husband of the eldeſt Siſter. Trin. 11 Eliz. Dyer, 285. Humfrey Bohun's Caſe.

4. If the King Grants Lands in Fee, and reſerves nothing, the Patentee ſhall hold of the King by Knight Service in Capite: So it is if the King ſaith, ſine aliquo inde reddendo; yet in ſuch Caſe, becauſe all Lands muſt be holden of ſome perſon, and by ſome Service, the beſt Service ſhall be intended for the King; and therefore in that Caſe againſt the the expreſs words of the King; the Law in ſuch Caſe will create a new Tenure by Knight Service in Capite.

5. The King Granted Lands in Fee, Tenendum de nobis et hæredibus noſtris per ſervitium unius Roſæ rubricæ annuatim ad feſt. Nativitatis Sancti Johannis Baptiſt. ſolummodo pro omnibus Servitiis. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That it was a Tenure by Socage in chief. In this Caſe, it was Objected, That if the King Grants Lands in Fee, and reſerveth nothing, or ſive aliquo inde reddendo, the Tenure ſhall be by Knight Service in Capite. 2. That the Tenure cannot be by a Roſe only, becauſe Fealty is incident, and ſo the King was deceived in his Grant. But it was Reſolved, That foraſmuch as Fealty is incident to every Rent Service, the Law ſhould annex Fealty to the ſaid Rent, ſo as the Tenure ſhould be by a Roſe and Fealty; and then thoſe words pro omnibus aliis Servitiis, ſhall be intended of other Services which the Law doth not imply nor add unto it; and that is a fair conſtruction, and as near the intent of the King as may be: And next, it is there ſaid, That if the King Grants Lands in Fee, and reſerves any Rent ſpecial, the Tenure ſhall be ſuch as he reſerves, be it Socage or other. Cook 6. Part, 7. Wheeler's Caſe.

6. Note, That by Treaſon committed, all Tenures, whether it be of the King or of other perſons, are extinct. But yet the Caſe was, The King was Lord, Abbot, Meſne, and C. Tenant, and the Tenant was Attainted of Treaſon; and after Office found, by his Letters Patents Granted over the Manor to B. and his Heirs, Tenendum de nobis hæredibus et ſucceſſoribus noſtris et aliis Capitalibus Dominis feodi illius per ſervitia inde debita et de jure conſueta: And although that in this Caſe it was Objected, That the Tenure ſhould be of the King becauſe that by the Attainder the Menalty was extinct, and therefore nulla ſervitia fuerant debita vel de jure conſueta. And 2. There is an expreſs Tenure reſerved to the King, and Lands cannot be immediately holden of two perſons, and therefore the words Tenendum de nobis ſhould ſtand; and the words de aliis Capitalibus Dominis ſhould be void. Yet it was Reſolved, That the words were ſufficient to create a Tenure in the Meſne, for ſuch was the intent of the King, That the Meſne who did not offend, ſhould not loſe his Services. Cook 6. Part, 6. Sir John Maſins Caſe.

7. A. held 59 Acres of Lands of the Manor of B. by Suit of Court, which Manor was holden of C. by Knight Service in Capite, and alſo held a Meſſuage and half an Acre of Land of the Manor of C. by Fealty and Rent, both which Manors were parcel of the Dutchy of Lancaſter: King Hen. 8. Anno 15. Granted to A. the Rent and Relief, and did Releaſe to A. and confirm his Eſtate in the ſaid Manors Habendum et Tenend. by Fealty only, pro omni ſervitio ſeculari exactione et demand. 19 H. 8. the King granted the Manor of C. to A. and his Heirs, Habendum, the Manors, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Services of the King by the Rent of 26 l. 10 s. and made Livery accordingly. In this Caſe (amongſt other things), it was Reſolved, That the ſaid 59 Acres, Toft, and half Acre of Land, ſhould be holden by Fealty only. For when the King releaſes, and Grants the Services to the Tenant and his Heirs, the ſame doth not extinguiſh the Tenure in the whole for neceſſity of Tenure; but there the Tenure ſhall be by Fealty. Cook 9. Part, 123. Anthony Lowes Caſe.

8. By the Common Law, if Office be found, But de quo the Land tenetur Juratores ignorant. It was taken to be an immediate Tenure of the King, and was ſufficient to entitle the King to Wardſhip. But now by the Statute of 1 Ed. 6. cap. 4. It ſhall not be ſaid to be a Tenure of the King in Capite, but a Melius inquirendum ſhall be awarded. But if upon the Melius inquirendum the ſame be found again incertainty, viz. de quo vel de quibus Juratores ignorant, in ſuch Caſe the beſt ſhall be intended for the King, viz. that it is a Tenure of the King by Knight Service in Capite. Lea 5. acc.

9. If Lands be given to hold of the King in Fee Farm, it is Socage Tenure, and yet this Tenure ſhall yield no Relief; the reaſon thereof is, becauſe the Law intends that the Farm or Rent which the Tenant payes for the Land, is the full value of the Land, and recompences all other profits of Tenure. See the Caſe of the Inhabitants of Saffron Walden, Lea 5. acc.

10. A man ſeiſed of Lands in Fee, which Lands are holden of a common perſon, ſueth Livery, or an Ouſter le mayne of thoſe Lands out of the Kings hands: Or if a man doth confeſs by any matter of Record, the Lands to be holden in chief of the King. This is a Tenure by Colluſion or Eſtoppel, and ſhall make the Lands to be holden of the King of whomſoever the Land was holden before; and the King ſhall have Wardſhip by reaſon of ſuch Tenure. See 7 E. 3. 37. acc.

11. Upon à Dum clauſit extremum after the death of J. F. Father of the Ward. It was found, That he held a Meſſuage and 20 Acres of Land in K. in the County of C. of the Defendant in Knight-Service, and that he did likewiſe hold one Meſſuage and eight Acres of Land in W. of the Queen, as of her Manner of E. by Fealty, and 3 s. Rent per annum, et per quæ alia Servitia Juratores nesciunt. Afterwards a Melius inquirendum was awarded upon ſuppoſal, that the Land was holden of the King by Knight

Knight Service; Upon which Mellus, it was found, That he held the said Meſſuage and eight Acres of Lands in W. of the Queen by Knight Service. The Queſtion was, Whether the Lands were holden of the King by Knight Service in Capite or not. It was holden in this Caſe by the Juſtices upon a Reference to them out of the Court of Wards, That the Tenure by Knight Service of the Queen found by the Mellus inquirendum ſhall be taken to be found of the Mannor of E. whereof the reaſon is, that the Mellus inquirendum is in its own nature at the Common Law but a ſupplement to the defect or uncertainty of a former Office. And ſo here, the Tenure being firſt found certainly of the Queen, as of a Mannor, and by ſome Service certain, and the uncertainty only for ſome part when the Mellus inquirendum comes, it perfects that, and ſo both make but one Office, and muſt be joyned together. Hil. 12 Jac. in Cur. Ward. Inche and Rolls Caſe. Hob. 50.

12. After the death of J. S. it was found by Mandamus, that he dyed ſeiſed of Lands, Et quod tenentur de Domino Rege ut de uno groſſo per vicesimam partem unius feodi Militis. It was holden by the Juſtices in this Caſe, That it was a Tenure by Knight Service in Capite; and that all Tenures in Chief are in groſs, and that the words ut de groſſo, were of no ſenſe at all in Law, and ſo were void. Hill. 13 Jac. in the Exchequer. Spathurſt Caſe. Hob. 91.

13. Note, when Litt. Sect. 118. ſaith, That every Tenure which is not Knight Service, is a Tenure in Socage, that he there ſpeaketh of Socage as it is largely taken, and ſo called ab effectu; that is, all Tenures which hath the like effects and incidents belonging to them as Socage hath, are termed Tenures in Socage, although originally Service of the Plow was not reſerved; as that if originally a Roſe, or a pair of guilt ſpurs, or a Rent were reſerved. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 86. and 108. acc.

14. Lord, Meſne, and Tenant: the Meſne held of the King in Capite in Socage, and the Tenant held of the Meſne in Socage. The Tenant is Attainted of Treaſon, the King ſeiſeth the Lands, and Grants by his Letters Patents the Tenancy to J. S. Habendum et Tenendum de nobis per Servitium Militare, et faciendo aliis Capitalibus Dominis feodi illius ſi qui fuerint, reddita et Servitia inde debentur, antequam ad manus noſtras devenerunt. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the Tenure of the Meſne ſhould be revived, although that the King by his Letters Patents in the firſt place had reſerved to him other Services, becauſe that the King for his Honor and advancement of the ancient Right expreſſly intended, that the Mean ſhould be revived: And therefore it was Reſolved, That in that Caſe, the clauſe of the Reviver of the Mean ſhould be prevented; and that the Tenant paravail ſhould hold of the Meſne, as he held before the Attainder, and the reſtitution of an ancient Right ſhould be preferred. Cook 9. Part, 123. Bowleyes Caſe.

15. A man held Lands by Homage et Servitium unius periam Calcarium deauratorum vel 6d. et inveniendum unum hominem in Terra London. cum arcubus et ſagittis per 40 dies tempore Guerre, in Borali Anglo locis predict. pro omni Servitio. It was ſaid, That the ſame was a Tenure by Knight Service per Minorem Serjantiam. Hill. 8 E. 1. Roll. 86. Jones de Moſes Caſe. Cook 2. Part, Inſtitutes 3.

16. Note, it is ſaid, That in the County of Weſtmerland there is a double Tenure, viz. unus per album firmam, alius per Carnagium; and that the whole hold per album firmam, ſcil. Blanch Farm of common perſons after the death of their Anceſtors, ought to double the Farm by name of a Relief; but thoſe who hold by Carnage, ſhould pay for Relief the value of the Land for a year. John Grimſtocks Caſe. vouched in Cook 2. Part, Inſtitutes 9.

17. See 17 E. 3. Br. Tenures 69. A Tenure ad inveniendum unum equum, is Petty Serjeanty, becauſe it is not to be done by the body of a man.

Title.

Title.

Where, and in what Caſe, and in what Writs, or Actions, or Pleadings, the Party, Plaintiff, or Defendant, muſt make a Title; and what ſhall be a good Title, what not.

1. IN Intruſion upon an Accompt for a Rent in the Exchequer for the Queen: The Defendant pleaded, That before the Queen had any thing in the Land, That the Abbot of D. was ſeized in Fee, and that he, with the aſſent of his Covent, by Indenture, Leaſed the Land to A. B. by force of which he was poſſeſſed; which Eſtate the Defendant had: The Queens Attorney Traverſed the Leaſe, which was found againſt the Queen. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices in that Caſe, That although the Plea of the Queens Eſtate was inſufficient to make a good Title, yet in Caſe of Freehold, the Queens Attorney cannot now take advantage of it. Paſch. 7 Eliz. Dyer, 238. It being in Caſe of a Termor, who muſt make a Title, or elſe he ſhall be put out of poſſeſſion.

2. Note, It was ſaid in Caſe of an Avowry, That it is ſufficient for the Avowant to plead his Freehold; but if the Plaintiff will Traverſe the ſame, he ought to make himſelf a Title; And Periam Juſtice ſaid, It is not ſufficient to make it of his own ſeizin, but he muſt make it Paramount his own ſeizin. Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. The Lady Rogers Caſe. Goldsbr. 65.

3. Treſpaſs againſt Husband and Wife, who juſtified, That J. was ſeized, and made a Leaſe to them for years, &c. The Plaintiff Replyed, De ſon tort Demeſne. Abſque hoc, that he Leaſed, &c. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Plaintiff ought not to take a Traverſe, unleſs he firſt make a Title to himſelf; but otherwiſe it is, if the Defendant claim Common, or ſuch like, and no poſſeſſion of the Land. Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Foſter and Potters Caſe. Goldsbr. 69.

4. In an Action upon the Caſe, the Plaintiff declared, That within the Mannor of D. there had been time of minde divers Copyholders, and during the ſaid time, there had been an Uſage in the ſaid Mannor, That every Copyholder for every Acre of Land, ſhould have Common in ſuch a Waſte of the Lords; and ſhewed, That he was a Copyholder and poſſeſſed of 20 Acres; and by reaſon thereof, ought to have Commons for forty Beaſts; and that the Defendant being Leſſee for years of the Mannor, had made a Coney-grey within the Waſte, by which he ſo digged the Waſte, that his Beaſts could not take their Common as they were wont. It was Objected, That a Copyholder could not preſcribe, but in the Right of the Lord. But it was the Opinion of the Court, That although a Copyholder may not preſcribe but in Right of his Lord; yet by way of Uſage, as this Caſe is, It hath been adjudged, That he may make Title; and in the Principal Caſe, the Title is well made, and ſet out. Mich. 40 Eliz. in C. B. Pearce and Bakers Caſe. Goldsbr. 133.

5. In debt, by an Adminiſtrator, againſt the Adminiſtrators of one K. for not performance of Covenants, the Caſe was, Tenant for 31 years, deviſed to his Wife ſo long as ſhe ſhould be ſole, and a Widdow, the Occupation and Profits of his Term; and after her Widdowhood expired, all the Leaſe and Intereſt to R. his ſon, and dyed; the Wife had the Term by force of the Deviſe; He in the Reverſion, by Indenture, did give, and grant, bargain, and ſell all that his Tenement to the Wife and her Heirs for ever, and did Covenant to make further Aſſurance; and that at the making thereof, it ſhould be diſcharged of all former Bargains, Sales, Titles, Rights; and afterwards, he levyed a Fine; and after, the Wife married, and the ſon entred, and the Adminiſtrator of the Wife brought debt upon the Obligation againſt the Adminiſtrators of him in the Reverſion, and averred, That the time of the Feoffment, was charged with the ſaid Leaſe for 31 years. It was argued for the Defendans, That here the Term was extinct by the Grant and Sale, and then the Feoffment void, and thereupon no charge at the time of the Feoffment; and Wheelers Caſe 14 H. 8. 17. was vouched, and a Title ſuſpended, is no Title. On the other ſide, it was ſaid, That it was not clearly diſcharged, becauſe of the poſſibility of the charge enſuing, although the charge was not then preſently executed; and in proof thereof it was ſaid, It was not all gone by the acceptation of the Feoffment, and then it is a Bargain; for a Leaſe for years is a Bargain, for there he hath Quid pro quo: And it is alſo a Title, as in Nichols Caſe: And then, although he hath nothing which he could releaſe, becauſe it was caſual, whether it ſhall happen or no, yet now when it happens, it is a charge, ab initio. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That although it be no charge at the time of the Feoffment, ment, yet it is not discharged; for if it be discharged, then it shall never be discharged afterwards: Wherefore all the Court agreed, That it was an Incumbrance, and not discharged; and Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Mich. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Hammington and Richards Case. Goldsbr. 59. & 65.

6. In Trespass, The Defendant pleaded in Bar, That one A. was seized of the Messuage in Fee, and so seized the day and year &c. did Demise it to the Defendant for two years, from such a Feast past; by virtue of which he Entred, and was possessed; until the Plaintiff claiming by colour of a Deed made by the said A. where nothing passed by the Deed, upon which the Defendant Entred, &c. The Plaintiff replyed by Protestation, That the said A. was not seized; and for Plea, said, That he did not lett to the Defendant: Upon that, Issue being joyned, it was found for the Plaintiff. It was moved, That Judgment ought to be against the Plaintiff, because he hath not made any Title by his Replication. It was answered, and Resolved by the Court, That he need not make any Title in this Case, but it is sufficient to Traverse the Bar, without making Title in his Replication; and in as much as it is acknowledged by the Defendant, that A. did Demise it to the Plaintiff, and that this is a Lease at Will, at the least not deserted by his own shewing, but by the Lease made to the Defendant; this being Traversed, and found against the Defendant, the Plaintiff by the acknowledgment of the Defendant himself, hath a good Title against him, to enter into the Land; and by it, the Defendant by his re-entry, is a Trespasser: Wherefore the Court held the Replication good, and Judgment was given for the Plaintiff, 21 E. 4. 1. Mich. 34 and 35 Eliz. in B. R. Fenner and Fforts Case. Pophl. 1. & 2.

7. In a Quare Impedit brought, these points were Resolved, 1. If the Plaintiff in a Quare Impedit, be Non-suit after appearance, the same is peremptory, and a good Bar, in another Quare Impedit brought within the six moneths; because the Defendant upon Title made, by which he is become Actor, shall have a Writ to the Bishop to Admit his Clerk to the same Church, which is a good Bar in another Quare Impedit; so if the Plaintiff discontinueth his Suit, the Defendant upon Title made, shall have a Writ to the Bishop: But if the Quare Impedit within the six moneths, abateth for false Latine, or insufficiency of former, the same is the default of the Clerk, and is not peremptory to the Plaintiff, but that the Plaintiff may have a new Quare Impedit: But if the Plaintiff be made a Knight, pendant the Writ, the Writ shall abate, and the Defendant upon Title, shall have a Writ to the Bishop; And it is peremptory to the Plaintiff, because it is the Plaintiffs own Act. Cook 7. Part, 27. Sir Hugh Portman's Case.

8. A Quare Impedit was brought against the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Bishop of Lincoln, and the Incumbent, they made default at the Grand Distress; upon that, the Plaintiff made Title, and had a Writ to the Bishop, and the Writ was awarded to enquire of the damages of the Plenarty, and at whose Presentation, and how long time since the Vacation, and of what value the Church is per annum; all which points were Returned by Inquisition; and Judgment was given for the Plaintiff to recover his Presentation, and he had a Writ to the Bishop of Lincoln. Trin. 7. Eliz. Dyer, 240, 241.

9. An Assize, or Novel Disseisin, was brought of a Rent in the County of Middlesex, and made his Title, that R. was seized of the Manor of S. holden in Soccage, and, by his Will, Devised to the Plaintiff a Rent issuing out of his said Manor, for his life; and by the same Will, Devised the said Manour to his Wife, to have from the day of his death for 15 years, and dyed; the Wife Entred, and paid the Rent; the Rent after came in Arrear, and the Demandant (the Plaintiff) came to the Manour house, and there remained until Sunset, petendo the Rent and Arrearages, and the Defendants did not pay it, but denyed to pay it, and so disseized the Plaintiff of the said Rent. One of the Defendants made a default, the other pleaded, Nul Tort, Nul Disseisin; the Assize found for the Plaintiff; scil. the Seizin, and Disseisin. The only Question was, Whether the payment of the Rent by the Wife, who was only Tenant for years, was a sufficient seizin of the Rent to maintain the Assize. In that Case it was Resolved, That the payment by the Devisee for years, was not a sufficient payment for to maintain the Assize against the Tenants of the Lands, after the years determined. Note in this Case, The Plaintiff made his Title in his Plaint, which was the cause of remembring this Case under this Title. Cook 6. Part 56. Bedingam's Case. See more where the Plaintiff shall make his Title in an Assize in his Plaint, 7 E. 6. Dyer, in the Serjeants Case, where an Assize was brought de quadam pallina Decimarum; the Demandant made his Title in his Plaint. And see Cook 8. Part, 46. in John Webbs Case accordingly.

10. Note, It was holden by the Court, That if a man hath Common in a Waste for an hundred Sheep, as appurtenant to a house, and certain Acres of Land, Meadow and Pasture; and he purchaseth another house, with certain Lands, which hath hath alſo Common in the ſame Waſte for another hundred Sheep, as appurtenant to that by preſcription; If in Pleading he entituleth himſelf entirely for one Common appurtenant to both Houſes and Lands together, for two hundred Sheep, he hath failed of his Preſcription; for that he ought to make two ſeveral Titles, and Preſcriptions for the two hundred Sheep, and not to have joyned them both in one, becauſe that they are diſtinct Commons. Trin. 5 Mar. Dyer, 164. acc. See 4 Eliz. Dyer, 229. acc.

11. Debt brought for Rent due upon a Leaſe for years by the Adminiſtrator of J. S. and the Plaintiff Declared for Rent due ſince the death of the Inteſtate, and had a Verdict, and Judgment in C. B. Whereupon Error was brought, for that it doth not appear by the Declaration, whether the Rent ſued for, doth belong to the Adminiſtrator, or not; for that he makes not any Title to it, and for any thing that appeareth, it may belong to the Heir as well as to him: It was ſaid, That this exception was not good, being after Verdict, and Non Detinet pleaded, and when the Jury hath found Detinet; which was impoſſible, if the Inteſtate had been ſeized in Fee of the Rent: But the Court inclined to be of Opinion, That the Declaration was naught in ſubſtance, for the Plaintiff therein hath made himſelf no Title to the Rent, and all that is in the Declaration to entitle him, is only by way of Inference or Concluſion: The Court moved the parties, That the Declaration might be amended, paying Coſts, and a new Tryal by conſent, which was agreed unto, and done accordingly. Mich. 1653. in B. R. Eaſton and Drakes Caſe. Styles. 393.

12. In an Action of Aſſault and Battery, The Defendant juſtified a ſervant to J. S. That the Plaintiff came to Fiſh in the ſeveral Piſcary of his Maſter: Judgment was given for the Defendant: Whereupon Error was brought, and two Exceptions taken. 1. Whereas the Defendant had, in his Plea of Juſtification, entituled his Maſter to the ſeveral Piſcary, by the Kings Letters Patents, he did not ſhew, That the King was ſeized of this ſeveral Piſcary, jure Coronæ, and ſo it might be the King had no power to grant it. 2. Becauſe he doth not ſhew the Letters Patents, which he ought to do, becauſe he derives a Title by them. The Court gave day to ſhew cauſe in this Caſe, why the Judgment ſhould not be reverſed. Hill. 22 Car. in B. R. rot. 1857. Jones and Youngs Caſe.

13. In Treſpaſs, for entring into a ſhop, and taking of three Fiſh from his ſervant. The Defendant ſaid, That before the Treſpaſs, &c. H. O. was ſeized of the ſhop in Fee, and 30 Eliz. leaſed the ſame to one S. and derived to himſelf an Intereſt under that Leaſe, and gave colour to the Plaintiff, and ſo juſtified. The Plaintiff replyed, That before H. O. had any thing, T. B. was ſeized of the ſhop in Fee, and 7 E. 6. deviſed the ſame to Tho. his ſon in Tail, the Remainder to J. in Fee, and dyed. Tho. by Deed Indented, Enrolled in the Haſlings, London, Bargained and ſold the ſame to E. in Fee, who Entred; J. dyed without Iſſue, ſo as his Remainder deſcended to Tho. E. deviſed the ſhop to T. O. and R. O. in Fee, and dyed ſeized; they entred, and were ſeized in Fee; Tho. dyed ſeized of the Remainder in Fee, without Iſſue; the ſhop deſcended to R. G. as Coſen and Heir of T. O. and R. O. dyed; after which, H. O. named in the Bar, entred, and ſo intruded in the ſhop, and by ſuch Entry and Intruſion, was ſeized in Fee; and ſo ſeized, R. G. 29 Eliz. dyed, by which the ſhop deſcended to W. G. as couſin and heir: W. G. dyed without Iſſue, by which it deſcended to the Plaintiff, as couſin and heir; and afterwards 30 Eliz. H. O. made the Leaſe prout, and the Plaintiff entred. The Defendant by Rejoynder ſaid, That H. O. was ſeized of the ſhop in Fee, and leaſed ut ſupra in the Bar, abſque hoc that H. O. in Shopam prædict. intravit, & ſe ſic intruſit modo & forma, &c. upon which the Plaintiff demurred in Law, becauſe the Traverſe was not good; for the Intruſion being the means to avoid the Title of H. O. ought to be Traverſed expreſly, and not by circumſtance; as to ſay, abſque hoc quod intruſit, for that had been a full anſwer; but ſo is it not, to ſay Abſque hoc quod H. O. intravit, & ſic ſe intruſit. To that it was anſwered, That it was not material whether the Traverſe was good or not, for that the Replication was naught, and the Title alledged in the Bar, is not anſwered, and the Title of H. O. ought to be avoided directly, and the ſame is only by a ſuppoſal of his Intruſion by H. O. which cannot be by Law upon an Eſtate of Inheritance; and then, if the Title alledged in H. O. is not avoided, but only by alledging his Entry by way of Intruſion, and by the Law there cannot be any Intruſion, the Bar is not anſwered, and ſo the Plaintiff cannot have Judgment, but the Defendant acquit of the Treſpaſs: And ſuch was the Opinion of the whole Court, and that the Plaintiff Nil Capiat per Billam. Hill 7 Jac. in B. R. Goddard and Thorlons Caſe. Yelv. 170, 171.

2. Title, what it is; where the Tenant ſhall pray the Aſſiſe upon Title: And what ſhall be a good Title in Aſſiſe, or other Action, what not.

1. THe word [Title,] hath two ſignifications, one properly and ſtrictly, for a Title, for which an Action lyeth, as for a Condition broken; or upon an Alienation in Mortmain, &c. In another ſignification, it is taken more largely; and in this ſenſe, Titulus eſt juſta cauſa poſſidendi quod noſtrum eſt; and ſignifieth the Title which one hath to Land, as by Fine, Feoffment, Deſcent, &c. And therefore when the Plaintiff maketh Title in an Aſſize, the Tenant may ſay, That the Aſſize came upon the Title, which is as much as to ſay, upon the particular Conveyance, &c. which he maketh to the Land: And it is called Titulus à Tuendo becauſe by the ſame he defendeth his Land, & plerumq; conſtat ex munimentis quæ movent & tuentur cauſam: and there by Releaſe of all Title to Land, all his Right is extinct; for it ſhall be taken ſtrongeſt againſt him, and in the largeſt ſenſe: So when a man hath Title in the proper Leaſe, either by a Condition, or in Alienation in Mortmain, the Releaſe of all his Right doth extinct his Title. Cook 8. Part, 153. in Edw. Alibans Caſe.

2. In Aſſize againſt two, One of them pleaded the Releaſe of the Plaintiff of all Actions; the other pleaded Joynt-Tenancy; The Plaintiff ſaid, That he who pleaded the Releaſe, was Tenant, and to the Plea pleaded by the other, he ſaid, That after the Releaſe aforeſaid, he was ſeized, until by them diſſeized; and prayed the Aſſize. In that Caſe, It was adjudged a good Title, although he did not make a Title but of his own poſſeſſion; becauſe the Defendant did not entitle himſelf to the Term, but pleaded ſuch a Releaſe which every Diſſeiſor might plead; and notwithſtanding, that upon that Judgment, a Writ of Error was brought, yet the Judgment was afterwards affirmed. Mich. 19 Aſſ. acc.

3. In an Aſſize of a Rent, The Tenant took upon him the Term of the Land, and pleaded Fait de ſon Fee: The Plaintiff ſaid, He was Lord of the Manor of B; and that he and his Anceſtors, and thoſe whoſe Eſtate had been ſeized of the Rent time out of minde &c.: Exception was taken to the Plea, becauſe he did not claim the Rent as parcel of the Manor: in which caſe, it ſhall be intended, that it is a Rent-Seck, or a Rent-charge, in which caſe his Title is not good without a Speciality, for he ſhall not preſcribe in the blood; but ſaith, That all thoſe whoſe Eſtate &c. and if ſuch a Rent which one hath by Preſcription be alienated, the Grantee cannot have it, without making a Title to it by Deed, and every mans plea ſhall be taken ſtrongeſt againſt himſelf, for if it be a Rent-Service, he may plead, that it is within his Fee: It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That it was not good; and therefore he amended his Title, and pleaded all, as aforeſaid, and that it was parcel of the Manor of B. It was then Objected, That he doth not deny but the Land put in view, was out of his Fee, and then it ſhall be intended a Rent-Seck, or a Rent-charge, which cannot be parcel of a Manor: But that was denyed; for it was ſaid by Skirwith Juſtice, That if the Lord, before time of memory, releaſeth to the Tenant all his Right which he hath in the Seignory, reſerving Rent, that Rent is parcel of the Manor; and ſo if the Lord Paramount purchaſeth the Term, yet the Rent of the Meſne is parcel of the Manor; for the Meſne had it, and he ſhall have it as a Rent-Seck; and if he alieneth the Manor, the Rent ſhall paſs by Livery and Seiſin of the Manor without Deed. The Aſſize was awarded, to enquire of the verity of the matter. 22 Aſſ. acc.

4. Note, In an Aſſize, If the Tenant plead a Recovery againſt the Plaintiffs Anceſtors, it is a good Title to ſay, That long time after, &c. the ſame Anceſtor dyed ſeized, &c. If it be ſo that the Tenant ſheweth not that he ſued Execution in the life of his Anceſtor; for if he enter after, and dyeth ſeized, the Entry of the Defendant is taken away. Quære, For 21 H. 6. It was ſaid by Fortiſcue, That the contrary was adjudged in the Exchequer Chamber, That it was not a good Title, unleſs that he ſhew how his Anceſtor came to the Land by a Title after the Recovery. In that Caſe it was ſaid, That if the Tenant plead a Recovery againſt the Plaintiff by a Stranger, whoſe Eſtate he hath, That it is a good Title to ſay, That long time before he was ſeized, &c. That he was ſeized, until by the now Tenant diſſeized, without ſhewing the Recovery. Quæ of that. Hill. 33 E. 3.

5. In Treſpaſs, the Caſe was, T. was ſeized of a Houſe, forty four Acres of Land, ſeven Acres of Meadow, and two Acres of Paſture, in D. To which Houſe, Meadow, Paſture, he, and all thoſe thoſe whoſe Eſtate he had, had Common of Paſture for Oxen, Cows, and Calves, levant and couchant upon the Houſe, Land, Meadow, and Paſture, as to the ſaid Houſe, Land, Meadow, and Paſture appertaining, in thirty Acres of Lands, in which J. S. was ſeized in Fee, and Demiſed the ſaid Houſe, Land, Meadow, Paſture to which, to one P. who put his Cattel into the ſaid thirty Acres, and the Farmer of J. S. chaſed them out; upon which P. brought an Action of Treſpaſs. In this Caſe, it was Reſolved, That it was againſt the nature of Common Appendant, to be appendant to Meadow and Paſture; and therefore, becauſe the Preſcription was layed to have Common appendant time out of minde, to a Houſe, Meadow, Paſture, time out of minde, this was Common appurtenant, and not Common appendant: But if a man hath Common for Cattel which ſerve for his Plough, appendant his Land, and perhaps of late time a houſe hath been built upon it, and ſome part is imployed to Paſture, and ſome to Meadow, and the ſame for maintenance of Tillage, which was the Original cauſe of the Common; In ſuch Caſe, the Common doth remain appendant, and ſhall be intended, in reſpect of the Common uſage, for Cattel levant and couchant upon ſuch Land as the beginning as was Arable; but in his Pleading, he ought to alledge it to be appendant to Land: and if he preſcribe to have it appendant to a Houſe or Meadow, it is no good Title; for that upon his own ſhewing, Common appendant cannot be to a Houſe, Meadow, or Paſture. 2. It was Reſolved in the Principal Caſe, That in regard the Common was appurtenant, and not appendant, and ſo againſt common Right; That by the purchaſe of parcel, all the Common was extinct; for Common appurtenant, cannot be extinct in part, and in eſſe for part, by the Act of the parties. Cook 4. Part, 37, and 38. Terringhams Caſe.

6. Ed. Lord Zouch, brought a Formedon in the Diſcender of the Moytie of the Manner of D. againſt Bamfield; who pleaded in Bar, That John, Great Grandfather of the Demandant, levyed a Fine, ſur Conuſans de Droit come ceo, &c. of the ſaid moytie of the ſaid Manner, Paſch. 30 H. 8. which was by the ſaid Fine rendred and granted to the ſaid John his ſon, whoſe Eſtate the Tenant had: The Demandant Replyed, That at the time of the ſaid Fine levyed, and at all times after, the ſaid Bamfield was Tenant, and ſeized of the Land in Demand, in his Demeſne, as of Fee. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the Demandant being Heir in Tail, had not made any good Title to this moytie of the ſaid Manner; for that he could not, being Heir in Tail, againſt ſuch Fine levyed by his Anceſtor, whoſe Heir he is, aver ſeizin, and continuance of the Lands in a Stranger, at the time of the Fine levyed; nor aver, Quod partes Finis nihil habuerunt; and that therefore, he had not, nor could make any Title to the ſame, he being Iſſue in Tail by the Statute of 4 H 7. and 32 H. 8. barred to make ſuch averment againſt the Fine levyed by his Anceſtor. Paſch. 28 Eliz. in C. B. The Lord Zouch and Bamfields Caſe. Leon. 75, 76, 77.

7. Note, When one bringeth an Aſſize of Novel Diſſeiſin, Mordauncteſter, or Writ of Entre ſur Diſſeiſin, or any other Real Action, and he be barred by Judgment upon Demurrer or Verdict; the Demandant and his heirs are not only barred in the ſame Action; but alſo, as long as the Record of the ſaid Judgment ſtandeth in force, he and his heirs are barred of their Entries: But in ſuch Caſe, The ſame is not an utter Bar of their Right or Titles to the ſame Land; but they may bring a Writ of a higher nature, and ſet forth their Right and Title therein; and therein they may try the matter, and their Title again, in an Action or Writ brought of a higher nature then the firſt Action or Writ was: Cook 6. Part, 8. in Ferrers Caſe: And whereas in that Caſe it is ſaid, That a man ſhall not falſifie a Recovery in the point tryed in a Scire facias brought upon the ſame Judgment, or in another Writ of the ſame nature; yet he may bring an Action of a higher Nature, and therein falſifie the firſt Recovery, if in ſuch caſe he have a good Title. Ibid.

Tythes.

More; Not mentioned nor contained in Lib. 1. Title, Diſmes, or Tythes.

1. IN an Action upon the Statute of 2 E. 6. for not ſetting forth of Tythes; The Plaintiff ſhewed, That the Rector of M. had two parts of the Tythes in 3. parts divided, and the Vicar the third part time out of mind by Preſcription; and that the Rector and Vicar by ſeverall Leaſes, had let the Tythes to him by ſeverall Leaſes; and that he being ſo Proprietarius of the Tythes, that the Defendant had ſowed ſo many Acres with Grain within the Pariſh, and carried them away, without ſetting out decimam partem. Upon Nihil in Debt pleaded, it being found for the Plaintiff; It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That the Writ did contain ſeveral Actions; and that he claimed them by ſeveral Titles from the Rector and Vicar, and therefore could not joyn both Titles in one Writ, but he ought to have had ſeveral Actions for the ſeveral Tythes. It was the Opinion of the whole Court in this caſe, That although they could not joyn in Action, viz. The Rector and Vicar; yet when both their Titles are conjoyned in one perſon, the matter of title is conjoyned alſo in one; and that it is ſufficient generally to ſay, That he is Firmarius, or Proprietarius of the Tythes, without ſaying, of whoſe title; this being a perſonal action grounded meerly upon the Contempt for not ſetting forth the Tythes; and not an Action wherein the right of the Tythes comes in debate. Paſc. 3 Jac. in B. R. Sir Rich. Champernon and Hill's Caſe. Yelverton, 63.

2. A man being ſued in the Spiritual Court for Tythes, brought a Prohibition, and ſuggeſted, That the Priory of D. was ſeiſed of the Grange of S. in the right of his Priory; and preſcribed in him and his Predeceſſors, to hold this Grange without payment of any Tythes: and ſhewed how the Priory came to the Crown, 31 H 8. by Diſſolution, to hold as the Prior held, and derived a Leaſe to him for 40 years from Queen Elizabeth; and after ſhewed, How that the Defendant ſued him in the Spiritual Court, for the Tythes of 40 Fleeces of Wooll. The Defendant pleaded, That he ſued the Plaintiff for 400 Fleeces of Wooll, and prayed a Conſultation; which was awarded upon Variance between the Libell and the Suggeſtion; and double Coſts adjudged for the Defendant. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That the ſaid Judgment was erroneous for both Cauſes; for the Variance was not materiall, becauſe the Plaintiff preſcribed in Non Decimando, & ſo utterly ouſted the Spiritual Court of Juriſdiction; otherwiſe it had been, if the Suggeſtion had been upon a Modus Decimandi. And, 2. The Judgment for the double Coſts was Erronious, upon the expreſs words of the Statute of 2 E. 6. which doth not give double Coſts, but only for default of proof of the Suggeſtion, and for no other cauſe. Mich. 3 Jac. in B. R. Hutton and Barns Caſe. Yelverton, 79.

3. A Parſon Leaſed his Tythes of 200 Acres of Lands (of which B. was ſeiſed to him and his Wife, and the Heirs of B.) to B. by Indenture, To have from Mich. next to him and his Heirs during the life of B: B. dyed, his Wife had the 100 Acres for her Joyneture, and married F, who let the 200 Acres to the Plaintiff; the Heir alſo of B. granted the Title of theſe Lands to the Plaintiff at Will: The Parſon ſued the Plaintiff in the Spiritual Court for the Tythes againſt his own Leaſe; The Plaintiff ſued a Prohibition: It was adjudged for the Defendant, becauſe the Leaſe of the Tythe was void, being to begin at a day to come: and this Leaſe cannot enure by way of diſcharge, becauſe there are not any words in the Leaſe to prove it; and it was the intent of the parties, that the ſame ſhould operate by way of Intereſt, which was moſt beneficial to the Leſſee, becauſe then it might be granted over: Which could not be, if it were only by way of diſcharge. Trin. 6 Jac. in B. R. Edmonds and Smith Caſe. Yelverton, 132.

More

More Tythes.

1. THe Parſon of the Church of S. Libelled in the Spiritual Court againſt P. for the Tythes of green Tarts eaten before they were ripe, and for the Tythes of the Herbage of dry Cattel, and for Tythes of Sheep bought and ſold, and for Tythes of Churchings and Burialls; P. prayed a Prohibition; and as to the green Tarts, ſaid, That they had uſed time out of mind, &c. in the ſame Pariſh; In Conſideration, they had not for their Milch-Kine ſufficient Meadow and Paſture, to pay for the Tythes of ripe Tarts, the 10th ſhock; but for their green Tarts which are eaten before they be ripe, In conſideration that they gave them to their Cattel, they uſed to be diſcharged of any Tythes thereof; And the truth of the Caſe was, That 400 Acres of Land within the ſaid Town, had uſed to be ploughed and ſowed every year by the labour of their draught-Cattel: In conſideration of which, and for that there was not ſufficient Meadow or Paſture for their Draught-Cattel, they had uſed to be diſcharged of the Tythes of green Tarts, eaten before they were ripe. It was holden by the Court in this Caſe, To be a good Cuſtome; for the Parſon hath benefit thereby: for otherwiſe, the ſaid 400 Acres could not be ploughed without ſuch ſhift, to eat with their Draught-Cattel the green Tarts, and ſo the Parſon ſhould loſe his Tythes thereof: and for the Tythes of the Green Tarts, he hath the Tythes of the 400 Acres. It was holden a good Preſcription; and a Prohibition was granted. Mich. 30 Eliz. in B. R. Perry and Simes Caſe. Leon. 2. Part, 27.

2. W. Libelled againſt B. in the Spirituall Court for Tythes, and ſurmiſed, That P. was ſeiſed of the Lands, and in Conſideration of 5 l. by him paid to the Parſon: It was Covenanted and agreed betwixt them, That P. and his Aſſigns ſhould be diſcharged of Tythes of the ſaid Lands during his life: It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That no Prohibition ſhould go, for that this is not any expreſs Grant of Tythes, but a Covenant and Agreement only, upon which he may have an Action; but no Prohibition: And ſo it was ſaid, It was adjudged in Weſtlod and Peppers Caſe. Where it was agreed betwixt the Parſon and one of his Pariſh, That for 20 ſhillings rent per annum, the Pariſhioner ſhould be diſcharged of Tythes for 20 years, if he lived ſo long. And it was holden, That no Prohibition did thereupon lye; à fortiori, where the Eſtate is for life. Trin. 30 Eliz. in B. R. Woodward and Baggs Caſe. Leon. 2. Part, 29.

3. The Defendant ſued the Plaintiff in the Spiritual Court for Tythes in kind; The Plaintiff, to have a Prohibition, ſuggeſted, That they had uſed in the ſaid Pariſh time out of mind, to take the 30th Sheaf in ſatisfaction of Tythe of Corn, and that in thoſe years wherein the Plaintiff had ſuppoſed, the ſubſtraction of his Tythes, he had ſevered the 30th Sheaf from the 9. parts, and the Parſon would not take them away; and that he offered that Plea in the Spiritual Court, but they would not allow of it. The Court was clear of Opinion, That the Suggeſtion was good: For if the Pariſhioner ſeiſeth forth his Tythes, and the Parſon will not take them away, or if they be deſtroyed by Caſuall by his Lacheſſe, he ſhall not have Tythes again; for after ſeverance tranſit Decima in Catalla: But if the Pariſhioner doth ſet forth his Tythes, and takes them again; he may be ſued for the Tythes in the Spiritual Court, and the ſetting forth ſhall not excuſe him. Trin. 30 Eliz. in B. R. Bennet and Shortwrights Caſe. Leon. 2. Part, 101.

4. This Caſe was moved in the Exchequer; If one hath a Rectory Impropriate; and by the Statute of 26 H. 8. Cap. 3. is to pay an annuall Rent for the ſame in the name of a Tenth, and by that is diſcharged of Tenths and Firſt-Fruits; If he ſhall have the Priviledg of the Exchequer, for he is to pay the ſame ſum yearly: The Barons were of Opinion, That he ſhould not, for ſo every one who is to pay any Tenths or Firſt-Fruits, ſhould draw another who ſueth him, into the Exchequer, and ſo all Controverſies concerning Tythes and Perſonages ſhould be drawn thither, which would be prejudice to the Spiritual Courts. Egerton, Sollicitor, vouched Coulers Caſe, Where the King gave a Perſonage to a Prior in Frankalmoign, and the Tythes thereof being withdrawn, the Prior impleaded him who withdrew his Tythes in the Exchequer: And it was holden, That the Prior ſhould have the Priviledg, for the King is in danger to loſe his Foundetſhip, if the Rectory be Evicted. Quære, the Caſe was not Reſolved. See 38 E. 3. Grants, 84. Mich. 32 Eliz. in Exchequer. The Dean and Chapter of Windſors Caſe. Leon. 2. Part, 146.

Toll, or Tolne.

1. TOll, or Tolre is a payment uſed in Cities, Towns, Markets, Fairs, &c. for Goods and Cattel brought thither, either to be bought, or ſold; It is alwayes to be paid by the Buyer, and not by the Seller, unleſs there be a ſpecial Cuſtome for it.

2. Tenants in Ancient Demeſne, by the Cuſtome of the Realm, ought to be quit of Toll in every Market, Fair, Town, or City, within the Realm; And alſo the Lord in Auncient Demeſne himſelf ſhall be as well acquitted of Toll throughout the Realm, as the Tenants ſhall be: So alſo of Portage, Paſſage, and the like: and Tenants in Ancient Demeſne at Will, or for Term of years, as Free Tenants, or Tenants for life, ſhall be diſcharged of Toll for their goods; and if they be diſtrained, they may joyn, and ſue a Writ of Monſtraverunt directed to the Sheriff, that he do not diſtrein them, or any of them: And in all Caſes, where Toll is demanded where it ought not to be paid of them that ſhould go to buy or ſell Toll Free, the parties grieved may have a Writ de eſſendi quiet. de Tolonco. Fitz. Nat. Br. 226, 227.

3. The Species of Toll are ſeveral; as Tronage, Paſſage, Portage, Pannage, Toll thorong, Toll-Travers, and Toll Turn; Toll of Mills, and Toll in Markets and Fairs; all which a man may have in his own Land: and yet if he be diſſeiſed of them, he may have an Aſſiſe of them. The ſeveral Species of Toll, and the Deſcription of them, and what they are. See in Cook 8. Part, 46, 47. in The Webbs Caſe.

4. If an Officer take Toll of him who ought to be quit of Toll, he ſhall have a generall Action of Treſpaſs, or an Action upon the Caſe at his Election. Cook 4. Part, 94. in Slades Caſe.

5. In an Action upon the Caſe, The Plaintiff declared, That L. parcell of the Mannor of E. in the County of S. was Ancient Demeſne of the Crown of England; And that all men and Tenants of Ancient Demeſne ought to be quit of Toll in all places within the Realm for their Goods and Cattels. And that Queen Eliz. Anno 19 of her Reign, commanded all Mayors, Bayliffs, &c. to permit and ſuffer the Men and Tenants within Ancient Demeſne, to be quit of Toll, Murage, and other exactions throughout the whole Realm; And ſhewed, That he was an Inhabitant of the Town of L. and ſuch a day carried his goods to Yarmouth in the ſaid County of S; and that the Defendant not ignorant of the premiſſes, took and carried away a Cable of the Plaintiff's Goods, to the value of 8 l. for Toll to his Damage, &c. The Defendant, pleaded by Proteſtation, That L. was not Ancient Demeſne, and by Proteſtation, that the Tenants in Ancient Demeſne ought not to be quit of Toll; And that the Town of Yarmouth was an Ancient Borough, and that they have had time out of mind an Officer called a Water-Baily, and that, time of mind, they and their Predeceſſors have had and Taken Toll of the Tenants and Inhabitants of L. for any their goods brought thither to Merchandize with; And if the Toll be not paid, they have uſed time out of mind to diſtrain for it by their Water-Baily. And further ſaid, That the Plaintiff ſuch a day brought to Yarmouth 2000 Weight of Cable ropes to ſell; For which there was due for Toll 6 d: For Murage 6 d: For Tronage 4 d. And the Defendant being Water-Baily, demanded of the Plaintiff the ſaid ſums which he refuſed to pay: for which he took the ſaid Cable, Nomine diſtrictionis for the ſaid Tronage, &c. In this caſe, two things were Objected againſt the Defendant's Plea, 1. That the Defendant hath not ſet forth in himſelf any authority to demand the duty. 2. That the Preſcription to have Toll of the Tenants in Ancient Demeſne, cannot be good, becauſe it cannot have a lawful beginning: For the Tenants in Ancient Demeſne are quit of Toll by the Common-Law; and ſuch Tenants have an Inheritance in ſuch Liberties, which the King by his Grant cannot take away. To which it was anſwered, As to the firſt Point, That to ſhew the Authority to demand it, is not neceſſary, for that the Preſcription is upon demand to diſtrein: For the Officer hath not any Authority to demand it; for they ought to demand it, who ought to take the thing demanded, and thoſe are the Bayliffs and Burgeſſes: And then when their Water-Baily doth it, it is as much as if it had been done by the Corporation. As to the ſecond Point, It was ſaid, That the Plea is, That the Defendant take Toll only for thoſe things which are brought by Sea by Merchants, and not otherwiſe: And Tenants in Ancient Demeſne are not diſcharged of Toll for all things, but only for ſuch as ariſe out of the Tenements, or are bought for their Tenements or Families there, and their ſuſtentation, or for the Manurancy of their Lands: and the Defendant juſtified not only for Toll, but alſo for Tronage, which their Priviledges doth not extend ment: and therefore the Juſtification in this caſe was good. Afterwards in the principal caſe, Judgment was given againſt the Plaintiff; For that the Juſtices were all of them clear of Opinion, That the Tenants in Ancient Demeſne ſhould pay Toll for their Merchandizes. Trin. 30 Eliz. in B. R. Wood and Knights Caſe, Leon. 231.

6. An Action upon the Caſe was brought againſt the Defendant, for taking of Toll for a paſſage over the Weſt-End of the Bridge of W; and the Plaintiff ſhewed for Title the Letters Patents of King Henry the 6th, Anno 20 of his Reign, to the College of All-Souls in Oxford; For them, their Tenants and Fermors, to be quit of Toll; and ſhewed, How that he was Fermor to the College, and yet that the Defendant had taken Toll of him contrary to the Letters Patents. The Defendant pleaded in bar the Statute of 28 H. 6. of Reſumption of all Liberties formerly granted by King Henry the 6th. The Plaintiff by way of Replication extended the Statute of 4 H. 8. by which all Letters Patents granted by H. 6. to that College were made good; the Statute of 28 H. 6. of Reſumption notwithſtanding: Upon which the Defendant did Demur: The only Queſtion was, Whether the Replication were a departure from the matter contained in the Declaration. It was Objected in this caſe, That the Plaintiff ought to have declared upon the Letters Patents, and to have ſhewed the Statute of Reſumption, and the Statute of 4 H. 7. of Reviver, and all that in his Declaration, and that in this caſe he enforceth his Declaration by a Statute; which is another, and a new thing. But the Opinion of the Court was, That it was no Departure; for there is not any new matter contained in the Replication, other then was in the Declaration; For the title of the Plaintiffs did ſtill remain the ſame upon the Letters Patents, and relyed upon that; and a Departure is always where the matter touching the Point in Action, is Variant in the Replication, otherwiſe then it was in the Declaration. 2. In this caſe, It was agreed by the Court, Although the Grant of Hen. 6th, to be diſcharged of Toll, &c. was tantum pro ſeipſo, and not for him, his Heirs and Succeſſors, yet the ſame was good againſt his Succeſſors; as well as in the Caſe of grant of the Intereſt, which in the Caſe of Sir Thomas Grey, was agreed to be good. Mich. 43 Eliz. in B. R. Wood and Hankſbeads Caſe, Yelverton, 85. 14.

7. Action of Trover and Converſion was brought; The Defendant pleaded a Sale of the goods in Marlborough, which is a Market Overt; and the Bar well pleaded. An Exception was taken, for that it is not ſaid, That Toll was paid: In that caſe, It was ſaid by Hutton, Juſtice, That there are divers places where no Toll is paid upon Sale in Market; and yet the property is changed: and Judgment was given accordingly. Mich. 3 Car. in C. B. Hodges and Franklins Caſe. Hetley, 49.

8. Note: The Law hath Ordained, That he who will be aſſured of his goods, buy them in Market Overt, and ſuch ſale there ſhall bind all ſtrangers as well as the ſeller: but yet it is agreed in 33 H. 6. 5. That a ſale in Market Overt ſhall not bind him who hath right to the goods, if the ſale be by fraud; Or if the Vendee hath Notice that the property of the goods doth belong to another man; no, although that Toll be paid for them. Cook 3. Part, 78. and 83. in Ferrers Caſe, and Twines Caſe.

Traverſe.

What ſhall be ſaid to be a good Traverſe; and what not: Where the Plea not good, for want of Traverſe.

1. A Quare Impedit was brought, and the Plaintiff declared, That his Anceſtor was ſeiſed of the Mannor to which the Advowſon is appendant, and preſented, and dyed ſeiſed, and the Mannor diſcended to him, and ſo he ought to preſent. The Defendant pleaded in bar, That the Anceſtor was joyntly ſeiſed with his Wife, and that ſhe ſurvived, and for default of Preſentation, the Lapſe encurred to the Biſhop, who did Collate, abſq; hoc, that he dyed ſole. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That the Traverſe was void, becauſe he had confeſſed, and avoided him before. See 5 H. 7. 11. Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Gerrards Caſe. Goldsbr. 45.

2. Debt upon an Obligation with Condition, That if the Defendant ſuffer the Plaintiff his Tenants and Fermors to enjoy ſuch a Common, that then, &c. And the Defendant pleaded Conditions performed; and the Plaintiff aſſigned for breach, That he did not ſuffer A. B. his Tenants to enjoy, &c. Abſq; hoc, that he performed the Condition. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That the Traverſe was not good; no more then if one be bound bound to perform the Covenants in an Indenture; And the Defendant pleads, That he hath performed all (generally), if the Plaintiff aſſign a breach, he ſhall not ſay further abſq; hoc, that the Defendant hath performed the Covenants, for ſo much he had ſaid before. Paſch. 29 Eliz. in C.B. Gawen and Whites Caſe. Goldesbr. 62.

3. In Treſpaſs, the Defendant ſaid, That the place where, was the Freehold of A. at the time, and as ſervant, &c. The Plaintiff ſaid, That long time before the Treſpaſs, B. was ſeiſed in Fee, and enfeoffed him, and was thereby ſeiſed, till by A. diſſeiſed, upon whom he reveſted, and was ſeiſed untill the Defendant die et anno prædict. made the Treſpaſs: The Defendant maintained the Barr, and traverſed the Diſſeiſin. It was holden by the Court, That it was a Jeoſail, becauſe in the Replication he had not denyed the Franktenement at the time of the Treſpaſſe. Mich. 3 & 4 Mar. Dyer, 134.

4. In an Avowry, A. Conveyes the Land to himſelf as heir to J. S. becauſe the ſaid J. S. dyed ſeiſed in his Demeſne as of Fee without Iſſue, &c. The Plaintiff confeſſing the dying ſeiſed, conveyed himſelf title to the Land by the Deviſe of J. D. abſq; hoc quod terra diſcendit to the Defendant. In this caſe, it was adjudged againſt the Plaintiff, becauſe he did not traverſe the dying ſeiſed, but the diſcent. Mich. 22 Eliz. Dyer, 366. Vernon's Caſe.

5. In a Replevin, the Defendants made Conuſans as Bayliffs to Sir Fr. L. of the taking in W. Cloſe as Damage-Feaſant, ut in ſolo et Libero tenento ipſius Fr. L. The Plaintiff ſaid, That before the time, and at the time when, &c. he was ſeiſed in his Demeſne as of Fee, of a Cloſe called B. Cloſe, to the ſaid Cloſe of W. adjoyning: and that the ſaid Sir F. L. and all thoſe whoſe Eſtate he had, had uſed, time out of mind, to encloſe the ſaid Cloſe containing two Acres of Paſture, againſt the ſaid Cloſe, called B. Cloſe. The Defendants denying the Preſcription by Proteſtation, ſaid, That the ſaid B. Cloſe was the Soil and Freehold of G. Earl of S; abſq; hoc, that the ſaid Plaintiff was ſeiſed of B. Cloſe in his Demeſne as of Fee. Upon which, there was a Demurrer. The Opinion of the Court in this caſe was, That the preciſe Eſtate which the Plaintiff had in B. Cloſe, was not traverſable by the Defendants, if the Plaintiff had not ſhewed ſome Eſtate in it generally, that he was ſeiſed of it, without ſhewing of what Eſtate, or that it was his Freehold, and then the other party ſhould be driven to ſay, that he had nothing in it; for if he had but Common, or an Eſtate for years, or at Will, or but a Licenſe of the Owner to put in his Cattel for this time, it had been ſufficient; and then the beſt anſwer to that had been, with a flat Negative, ſcil. nihil habent in præd. Clauſo tempore quo, &c. which is the moſt apt pleading: For a Traverſe abſq; hoc, ought to be taken to a thing expreſſly alledged before, and is induced with a former Plea, or ſhewing a croſſe matter contrary to the Plea of the Plaintiff, as here, ſcil. That B. Cloſe was the Freehold of the Earl of S. abſq; hoc, &c. And at laſt, the Traverſe abſq; hoc that he was ſeiſed in Fee, was holden to be a good traverſe, becauſe that the Plaintiff had given that advantage to his adverſary to that preciſeneſs of Eſtate, who beſt knew what Intereſt he had to put his Cattel in B. Cloſe; For if he had nothing in B. Cloſe, nor Common there, nor the Licence of the Owner, but was a meer ſtranger, he was a Treſpaſſor. Mich. 22 Eliz. Dyer, 365. Sir Fr. Leeks Caſe.

6. In Treſpaſſe, the Defendant pleaded, That the place in which, is Copyhold, and pleaded a Grant to S. which granted it to him. The Plaintiff Replyed, That long time before the Grant pleaded by the Defendant, A. G. was Leſſee for life, ſecundum Conſuetudinem Manerii; And that the Cuſtome is, That the Lord may grant Copies as well in Reverſion as in poſſeſſion; And that 5 Eliz. the Lord M. being Lord of the Manor, granted to him a Copy in Remainder before the Grant made to S. which now came in poſſeſſion, and that he entred, untill, &c. The Defendant Rejoyned, That there is a Cuſtome within the Manner, that the Lord may grant Copies in Reverſion, with the agreement and conſent of the Tenants in poſſeſſion; and if any Grants of Copies be without conſent of the Tenant in poſſeſſion, that then there is ſuch a Cuſtome, that ſuch Grants ſhall be void abſq; hoc, that they are demiſeable modo et forma, &c. Whereupon the Plaintiff demurred. It was ſaid and holden, That this Plea is repugnant and void; for by theſe words (If any be granted,) he implyeth, that there is ſuch a Cuſtome: and then when he ſaith, abſq; hoc, that there is ſuch a Cuſtome, this Traverſe is void, and the Plaintiff ſhall have Judgment. Quære, the Caſe was not Reſolved. Mich. 31 Eliz. in C.B. Plympton and Dobyneys Caſe. Goldsbr. 102, 103.

7. Intruſion by the Queen againſt A. B. &c. ſuppoſing they Intruded into the Rectory and Perſonage of Ethelborough in the County of N; and ſhewed, That in the time of Henry the 4th, the Colledg of St. Peter of Ethelborough, was founded at Weſtminſter in the County of Middleſex, by the name of Decani et Capitali, and that the Rectory of Ethelborough was appropriated to the ſaid Colledg; and that afterwards in 1 E. 6. the ſaid Colledg Colledg was diſſolved, and the ſaid Rectory amongſt other Poſſeſſions came to the King, and that the Defendants 1 Eliz. intruded into the Rectory, and took 1000 Sheep, 1000 Calves, 1000 Loads of Corn, &c. diſſa Regina proveniencia ex Decimis Rectoriæ prædict. apud Weſtm. prædict. The Defendant pleaded, That the ſaid Colledg of Ethelborough was founded in Ethelborough, &c. per nomen Decani, Canonicorum, et fratrum, who Leaſed the ſaid Rectory ſo appropriate, to one C. for 40 years, in 30 H. 8. who affirmed the ſame to the Defendants; by force of which, they juſtified the taking at Ethelborough, Abſq; hoc, that the ſaid Colledg of St. Peter in Ethelborough, was founded per nomen Decani et Capituli Eccleſiæ Sancti Petri de Ethelborough at Weſtm. aforeſaid. Upon which, the Queens Attorney did Demur in Law. In this Caſe, (amongſt other Points) It was Reſolved, That the Traverſe of the Foundation was not good: For he hath here traverſed that which was not alledged; For the placing of the words in the Traverſe; ſcil. apud Weſtm. in the end of the Traverſe, ſeems by common Conſtruction, to be intended thereby, that there is no ſuch Colledg at Weſtminſter, and not that the Colledg was not founded at Weſtminſter; for then the Traverſe ſhould be, abſq; hoc, quod Collegium prædict. fundatum fuit at Weſtm. per nomen, &c. But the moſt proper Traverſe which the Defendant could have taken, had been, Abſq; hoc, quod Decanus et Capituli Eccleſiæ Collegiat. de Ethelborough, was ſeiſed; for the Corporation mentioned in the Bill, and that which is mentioned in the Barr, are not all one, but differ in this manner; ſcil. in the Bill, the Dean and Chapter; and in the Barr, Dean, Canons and Brethren: and perhaps there are two ſuch Corporations, and then both cannot be ſeiſed; and therefore upon the Seiſin of one of them, the traverſe ſha'l be taken. Judgment was given for the Queen. Mich. 29 Eliz. in the Exchequer. The Queen and the Lord Vaux's Caſe. Leon. 37, 38, 39, 40.

8. In Treſpaſs, the Plaintiff declared, That the Defendant finul cum quodam J. S. clauſum ſuum fregit. The Defendant pleaded to Iſſue, and it was found for the Plaintiff. It was ſaid, in ſtay of Judgment, That the Declaration was not good, for that it doth appear therein by the Plaintiff's own ſhewing, that the Action ought to be brought againſt another alſo not named in the Writ. Notwithſtanding which, Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. And thereupon Errour brought, and the ſame matter aſſigned for Errour: In this caſe, the Juſtices of the Common-Pleas, and the Barons of the Exchequer, were clear of Opinion, That by the Common-Law, the Declaration was not good, for the reaſon aforeſaid. But if in Treſpaſs againſt one, who pleads, That the Treſpaſs was done by himſelf and one B, to whom the Plaintiff hath Releaſed; and the Plaintiff traverſeth the Releaſe, In that caſe, for as much as the matter doth not appear upon the Plaintiff's own ſhewing, but comes in on the part of the Defendant, and not denyed by him, the Declaration is good enough. Mich. 29 Eliz. Henby & Broads Caſe. Exchеq. Leon. 41.

9. In a Replevin, the Defendants made Conuſans as Bayliffs to G. B. for Damage-feaſant. The Plaintiff in barr of the Conuſans ſhewed, That he and all thoſe whoſe Eſtate he hath in 140 Acres of Land, time out of mind had Common for all manner of Cattel in 6. Acres of Lands, whereof the place where is parcell; and ſo put in his Cattel. Againſt which, the Defendants ſaid, That the Plaintiff had Common in 40 Acres of Lands, whereof the 6. Acres are parcell, lying in Communi Campo; and that the Plaintiff long time before the taking, had purchaſed two Acres parcel of the ſaid 40 Acres. Upon which it was Demurred in Law. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That for want of a Traverſe, the Plea was not good: For, by Periam, Juſtice, the Common ſuppoſed in the Barr, to the Conuſans out of the 6. Acres cannot be intended the Common, ſuppoſed in the Replication; ſcil. out of the 40 Acres; and if in Treſpaſſe the Defendant Juſtifie by reaſon of Common in 6. Acres of Lands, upon which the parties are at Iſſue, and the Defendant in Evidence ſhews, that he hath Common in 40 Acres, whereof the ſaid 6. Acres is parcell, the ſame doth not maintain his Title, but the Iſſue ſhall be found againſt him. But the Lord Anderſon ſaid, in the principal Caſe, Becauſe that this Demurrer is general, the other party ſhall not take advantage of the defect of pleading for want of the Traverſe, and that by reaſon of the Statute of 27 Eliz. for Traverſe is but matter of Form, and the want of the ſame ſhall not prejudice the other party in point of Judgment, but the Judges ought to judge upon the ſubſtance, and not upon the manner and form of pleading. And the Court was clear of Opinion, That by the purchaſe to the 2. Acres, the whole Common was extinct. Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Kimpton and Bellamies Caſe. Leon. 43.

10. In a Replevin, the Defendants made Conuſans as Bayliffs to A. for a Rent reſerved upon a Leaſe for life. The Plaintiff in barr pleaded, That two ſtrangers had right of Entry in the place where, and that the ſaid Bayliffs by their Commandments entred, and took the Cattel, of which the Replevin is brought damage-feaſants abſq; hoc, that they took them as Bayliffs to the ſaid A. Upon on which Traverſe, the Defendants did Demur in Law. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, that as the Traverſe is here, That the Traverſe was good, and well taken; and ſo it was ſaid, it was adjudged, Mich. 29 Eliz. in C.B. rott. 2494. in Lewin and Hardin's Caſe. And in this Caſe, it was ſaid by the Court, That when a Bayliff diſtrains, he ought, if he be required, to ſhew the cauſe of his Diſtreſs; but if he be not required, then he is not tyed to do it. Paſch. 29 Eliz. in C.B. Butlers Caſe. Leon. 50.

11. In a Quare Impedit, the Plaintiff Counted, That he was ſeiſed of the Manor of D, to which the Advowſon was appendant, and that the Church became void, and that he preſented M.S. his Clerk: The Defendant pleaded, That he was ſeiſed of the Advowſon as in groſſe, and preſented one M. S. abſq; hoc, that the Advowſon was appendant. It was moved, That he ought to traverſe the Preſentment, and not the Appendancy, eſpecially here, where both parties preſent one and the ſame perſon. To which it was Anſwered, That that doth not appear; For the Defendant hath pleaded, That he preſented M.S. but doth not ſay, prædict. M. S. ſo as it may be he is not the ſame perſon, but another. See 10 H. 7. 27. the Traverſe is well taken; contrary, where the Plaintiff declares of an Advowſon in groſs, and that he to the ſame preſented; and the Defendant pleadeth, That he is ſeiſed of ſuch a Mannor to which the Advowſon is appendant, &c. without that, that the Advowſon is in groſſe, there he ſhall traverſe the Preſentment; for the Preſentment ſhall make it in groſſe. See 13 H. 8. 12. Trin. 32 Eliz. in C.B. The Lord Buckhurſt and the Biſhop of Wincheſters Caſe: Leon. 154.

12. In a Replevin, The Defendant avowed for Damage Feaſants in his Freehold, The Plaintiff ſaid, That long time before the Plaintiff had any thing, he himſelf was ſeiſed untill by A. B. and C. diſſeiſed, againſt whom he brought an Aſſiſe, and recovered, and the Eſtate of the Defendant was mean between the Aſſiſe and the Recovery in it. The Defendant ſaid, That long time before the Plaintiff had any thing, One G. was ſeiſed, and did enfeoffe him, abſq; hoc, That A. B. and C. vel eorum aliquis aliquid habuerre in the Lands at the time of the Recovery. It was the Opinion of Walmſley, Juſtice, That the Barr unto the Avowry, was not good; for that the Plaintiff hath not alledged, That A. B. and C. were Tenants tempore recuperationis, and that ought to be ſhewed in every Recovery where it is pleaded. But Windham, Juſtice, was of a contrary Opinion; For that the Aſſiſe might be brought againſt others as well as the Tenants; as againſt Diſſeiſors: But other Actions reals, ought to be brought againſt the Terr-Tenants only: and therefore it needs not to ſhew, that they were Terr-Tenants at the time of the Recovery, and the Traverſe is well enough. Mich. 32 Eliz. in C.B. Rigden and Palmers Caſe. Leon. 193.

13. In Trover and Converſion, The Plaintiff declared, That he was poſſeſſed of 27 Ells of Lynnen Cloth as his own goods, and that the Goods came to the Defendants hands by Trover, and that he knowing them to be the Plaintiff's goods, ſold them to perſons unknown, and converted the money to his own uſe. The Defendant as to 24 Ells, ſaid, That long before the loſing, J.S. was poſſeſſed thereof ut de bonis ſuis propriis, and ſold them to the Defendant; who before Notice that they were the Plaintiff's goods, and before requeſt, ſold them to perſons unknown: And as to the other 3. Ells, he was ready to deliver them to the Plaintiff. Upon theſe Pleas, the Plaintiff did Demur in Law. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff; for the Defendant confeſſeth the Converſion, and hath not conveyed a ſufficient Title to himſelf to the goods, by which he might juſtifie the Converſion. For the Plaintiff declares of Converſion of his own goods; and the Defendant juſtifies, becauſe the property of the goods was in J. S. who ſold them to him; which cannot be a good Title in him without a Traverſe, unleſſe he had ſhewed, that he had bought them in Market-Overt: and alſo the Defendant's Plea might be true, and yet the Defendant is guilty; For it may be the Defendant himſelf ſold them to the Plaintiff, or to another who ſold them to the Plaintiff; and afterwards the Defendant found them: and here the Converſion is confeſſed, and not avoided by a ſufficient Juſtification: and as to the laſt Plea, it is not ſufficient; for it amounteth but to Not-guilty: and alſo the ſale in the firſt Plea is not good, That it was made to perſons unknown; for it cannot be, but that he muſt have Notice of the Buyers: and therefore for the Inſufficiency of the Defendant's Plea, It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Mich. 33 Eliz. in C.B. Vandrink and Archers Caſe, Leon. 221.

14. In a Replevin, the Defendant did avow by reaſon that A. held of him an Acre of Land in the place where, by Fealty and 16 s. Rent payable at two Feaſts. The Plaintiff ſaid, That he held the ſame Acre and two others of the Avowant by Fealty and 16 s. payable at one day, abſq; hoc, that he held the ſaid Acre by the Services at two dayes: It was ſaid, That he ſhould not have the Traverſe, That the Tenure cannot be traverſed. But the Opinion of the Court was, That he ſhould have the Traverſe; for if he ſhould traverſe the

Seiſin,

Seiſin, he ſhould thereby confeſſe the Tenure. And the Court ſaid, That the difference commonly taken is this, That where they agree in the Tenure, there the Seiſin is traverſable; but where they do not agree, there the Tenure is traverſable. And in this caſe, the payment at two dayes doth alter the Tenure. Trin. 26 Eliz. in C. B. Thogmorton and Tyringhams Caſe. Godbolt, 23, 24.

15. In Aſſumpſit, the Plaintiff declared, That the Defendant was endebted to him 29. Maii. 29 Eliz. And that the Defendant in conſideration that the Plaintiff would forbear to ſue him untill ſuch a day after promiſed at the ſaid day to pay the Debt. The Defendant pleaded, That 29. Maii. 29 Eliz. He was endebted to the Plaintiff in the ſaid ſum; for aſſurance of which, afterwards he acknowledged a Statute to the Plaintiff, upon which he had Execution, and levyed the money abſque hoc, that he was endebted to the Plaintiff, extra vel poſtea the ſaid day aliquo modo. In this Caſe, it was holden by the Court, That the cauſe of Action is the Aſſumption, and the conſideration is not traverſable, and alwayes the ground of the Action is traverſable. And the Aſſumpſit in this Caſe, is the ground of the Action, and not the Debt. Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Trin. 33 Eliz. in B. R. Smith and Hitchcocks Caſe. Leon. 252.

16. In an Action of Covenant, the Caſe was; A. ſeiſed of Lands, leaſed the ſame for life rendring Rent: afterwards he Deviſed the Reverſion to his Wife, and dyed. The Defendant took to Wife the Wife of the Deviſor. The Deviſee of the Reverſion, afterwards bargained and ſold the Reverſion to one M. and his Daughter during his own life, and afterwards Granted the Rent to the Plaintiff, and Covenanted, that the Plaintiff ſhould enjoy the Rent during his Term abſque aliquo impedimento of him, his Heirs or Aſſigns, or any perſon claiming under the ſaid M. M. dyed ſeiſed, and the Rent diſcended to B. his Heir; the breach was aſſigned in this, ſcil. in the Heir of M. who hath the Rent by reaſon of the Grant of the Reverſion to M. The Defendant pleaded the Grant of the Reverſion to M. per ſcriptum, without ſaying ſigillo ſuo ſigillat. et hic in Curia prolat. abſque hoc, that the ſaid Reverſion diſcended to B. and thereupon the Plaintiff did demur. 1. Becauſe the Grantee of the Reverſion is pleaded per ſcriptum, and doth not ſay ſigillat. for a Reverſion cannot paſs without Deed. And 2. It ought to be pleaded hic in Curia prolat. for the Court is to ſee ſuch Deed, to the end they may know it to be a lawfull Deed without interlining or other defects. 3. Becauſe the Defendant hath traverſed the Diſcent, whereas he ought to have traverſed the dying ſeiſed, for of every thing diſcendable, the dying ſeiſed is the ſubſtance, and the Diſcent is but the effect. See 22 El. 2. Dyer, 366. and 21 H. 7. 31. Paſc. 23 Eliz. in C. B. Maidwell and Andrews Caſe. Leon. 309.

17. In a Quare Impedit againſt N. and P. and the Biſhop of L. the Plaintiff ſhewed, That Sir T. M. was ſeiſed, and Preſented P. and let the Manor to which the Advowſon is appendant, to the Plaintiff, and that the Church became void by Reſignation of P. by reaſon whereof he ought to Preſent. The Biſhop ſaid, He claimed nothing but as Ordinary. P. entituled himſelf unto it by Preſentation, as to an Advowſon in groſs, and traverſed the Appendancy. Upon which the Plaintiff took Iſſue. N. pleaded as Parſon impersonee of the Preſentation of the King, and confeſſing the title of Sir T. M. and the Leaſe for years to the Plaintiff, pleaded over, That Sir Th. M. pro quadam pecunia ſumma betwixt him and one J. Preſented P. and pleaded the Statute of 31 Eliz. of Symony, which made the Inſtitution and Induction void, and that the King having title to Preſent by the Statute by reaſon of the Symony Preſented him, who was Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted; and traverſed that the Church became void by the Reſignation of P. upon which it was demurred, becauſe the Preſentation being the Principal, which being confeſſed and avoided, cannot be traverſed. But it was the Opinion of the Court, That the Plea was good; For the Plea makes the Traverſe but Argumentative, that he might not reſign. And being alledged, That the Church was void per mortem vel reſignationem, or otherwiſe, it ought to be confeſſed or traverſed, for that is the cauſe of his Preſentation, and the Iſſue ought to have been taken, Si vacavit per mortem vel deprivationem vel reſignationem; for the Preſentation, Admiſſion, and Inſtitution are but conducible to the Reſignation, and the Reſignation or Avoydance is the chiefeſt of the matter. Whereupon Judgment by conſent was Reſolved to be given for the Plaintiff. Hill. 22 Jac. in C. B. Sir Gregory Fenner and Nicholſon and Peſfields Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 44.

18. In a Quare Impedit, the Plaintiff ſhewed, That Sir Th. C. was ſeiſed in Fee of the Advowſon of the Church of W. as of an Advowſon in groſs; and Preſented M. and dyed ſeiſed, which diſcended to Sir Th. C. the Husband of the Plaintiff. who 9. Martii, 8 Jac by Deed Granted it to T. E. and another in Fee to the uſe of the Plaintiff for her Joynture; and after to the uſe of himſelf in tail, and afterwards dyed ſeiſed, and that the Church became void by the death of M. wherefore it belonged to the Plaintiff to Preſent: The Defendant pleaded, That he was Perſona impersonata, ex preſenta- tione Regis: And ſhewed, That Sir T. C. the Plaintiffs Husband dyed ſeiſed in Fee of the Church of W. as of an Advowſon in groſs, and of the Manor of P. in the County of C. his Son and Heir being within age, holden of the King by Knight Service in Capite, and that an Office was found, whereby the Tenure and Diſcent was found: Whereupon the King was ſeiſed, and Preſented the Defendant, who was Inſtituted and Inducted, Abſque hoc, That the ſaid Sir Tho. C. Granted the Advowſon to E. and others prout. The Plaintiff ſaid Quod non habetur aliquod tale Recordum de inquiſitione; Upon which it was demurred. In this Caſe, it was ſaid, That this Replication of Traverſing the Inquiſition was not good; for there never ſhall be a Traverſe upon a Traverſe, but where the Traverſe in the bar takes from the Plaintiff the liberty of his Action for the place, or time, or ſuch like, there the Plaintiff may maintain his Action for the place or time, and may traverſe the Inducement to the traverſe, and needs not to joyn with the Defendant in the traverſe; but when the Inducement is made and concluded with a traverſe of a title ſhewen by the Plaintiff, there the Plaintiff is enforced to maintain his title, and not traverſe the Inducement to the traverſe. And of that Opinion was the whole Court. 2. It was Reſolved, That inaſmuch as two titles are compriſed in the bar for the King, ſcil. the dying ſeiſed within age, and the Tenure by Knight Service. That therefore in the Replication they ought to be anſwered, and it was not ſufficient to traverſe the Inquiſition, but the Plaintiff ought to have anſwered to the tenure, and to the Diſcent alledged of the Mannor if the Defendant had relyed upon them; but becauſe the Defendant did not relye upon them, but made them inducements to the traverſe of the Grant which is the Plaintiffs title, that title ought to be maintained, and not to traverſe the Inducements to that Traverſe. It was adjudged for the Defendant. Paſc. 2 Car. in C. B. The Lady Chicheſley and Thompſons Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 74, 75.

19. Treſpaſs, for that at Edenbridge he killed his Maſtiff Dog. The Defendant pleaded, That J. S. was ſeiſed of a Warren in D. in the ſame County where he was then Warrener, and that the Dog was divers times killing of Conies there, and therefore he finding him there tempore quo running at Conies, he killed him abſque hoc that he was guilty apud Edenbridge prout. It was demurred unto, becauſe he traverſeth the place only, and doth not traverſe all other places. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the traverſe was good, becauſe the cauſe of his Juſtification was local: and the Juſtification was holden good, becauſe it is alledged the Dog uſed to be there killing of Conies, and that the Warrener for the Salvation of his Conies may well juſtify the killing of him. Trin. 2 Jac. in B. R. Wanburſt and Dammes Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 44, 45.

20. Ejectione firmæ, The Defendant entituled himſelf by Copy, granted 44 Eliz. The Plaintiff entitles himſelf by Copy granted 1. Junii, 43 Eliz. The Defendant maintains his bar abſque hoc, That the Queen 1. Junii 43 Eliz. Granted the Land by Copy, modo et forma prout. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the day ought not to be made material, unleſs the Queen had Granted before the Grant to the Defendant. The traverſing alſo of the day where it ought not, is matter of ſubſtance; for thereby it makes it parcel of the Iſſue, which ſhould not be: Wherefore it was adjudged for the Plaintiff, and that the traverſe was not good. Hill. 5 Jac. in B. R. Lane and Alexanders Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 202. See Trin. 14 Car. in B. R. Nevilſon and Whiby's Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 360. Set Yelverton 122, 123. the ſame Caſe.

21. Ejectione firmæ, Upon a Leaſe made by Eliz. J. The Defendant pleaded, That before Eliz. had any thing, One M. J. was ſeiſed in Fee, and had Iſſue H. and dyed ſeiſed, and that the Land deſcended to H. as Son and Heir, and that Eliz. entred, and was ſeiſed by Abatement, and made the Leaſe to the Plaintiff. The Plaintiff by Replication confeſſed the Seiſin of M. J. and that he being ſo ſeiſed, by Will Deviſed the Land to Eliz. in Fee, and dyed, and that ſhe entred by force of the Deviſe, and made the Leaſe abſque hoc, that the ſaid Eliz. was ſeiſed by Abatement in manner and form, &c. It was adjudged for the Defendant. For the Plaintiff by his Replication needed not both to confeſs and avoid, and to traverſe the Abatement, for the Plaintiff made a title to his Leaſe under Eliz. the Deviſee, and ſo her entry legall, and not by Abatement; and then to take a traverſe, entr makes the Replication vitious: for no traverſe ought to be taken where the thing traverſed is Iſſuable; and if the traverſe might have bin good, it ſhould have bin Abſque hoc, that ſhe did abate, and not ſeiſed by Abatement. Paſc. 7 Jac. in B. R. Iſdell and Lulls Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 221. Yelverton, 151. the ſame Caſe.

22. Quare Impedit againſt R. T. for diſturbing him to Preſent to the Church of B. and ſhewed, That he was ſeiſed in Fee of the Advowſon in groſs, and Preſented J. T. who was Inſtituted and Inducted, and dyed, and ſo it belonged to him to Preſent. The Defendant ſaid, that he was Parſon impariſonee of the Preſentment of A. T. who is yet alive: and ſaid, That before the Plaintiff had any thing to do with the Advowſon, King H. 8. was ſeiſed ed thereof in Fee, and that the Church became void, and that he Preſented one D. and that H. 8. dyed, and it diſcended to E. 6. and from him to Queen M. and ſo to Queen Eliz. who ſeiſed thereof jure Coronæ, after the death of D. Preſented one K. who was Admitted, and Inſtituted; and by his death, the Church became void, and that the Plaintiff Preſented by Uſurpation the ſaid J. T. who was Inſtituted and Inducted; and that Queen Eliz. dyed ſeiſed, and it diſcended to the King, who by his Letters Patents Granted the next Avoydance to A. T. who by the death of J. T. Preſented him. The Plaintiff replyed and made Proteſtation of the Seiſin in Fee of Queen Mary, Queen Eliz. and the King that now is; and for Plea confeſſing the Seiſin of the Plaintiff, and the Grant of the next Avoydance by him, and the Preſentment thereby; and the Seiſin of King H. 8. and King E. 6. and that King E. 6. by his Letters Anno 4. of his Reign, Granted that Advowſon to Sir Tho. Wyat in Fee, who Granted it to the Plaintiff; and that Queen Eliz. made the ſeveral Preſentments in the Count by Lapſe: And after the Church became void, and the Plaintiff Preſented the ſaid J. T. by whoſe death the Church being void again, it belonged to him to Preſent; and traverſed the dying ſeiſed of King E. 6. upon which it was demurred. It was objected in this Caſe (amongſt other points), That the traverſe was not good, becauſe he traverſeth the dying ſeiſed of King E. 6. but doth not traverſe the Seiſin of Queen Mary, and Queen Eliz. nor the Preſentments alledged in the bar by reaſon of the Seiſin in Fee, it being the principal matter of the bar. But the Opinion of the Court was, That the Replication was good enough, for the dying ſeiſed is the principal matter traverſable, and the other matters are but conſequents thereof; and the Plaintiff hath liberty to traverſe any part of the Defendants Plea; and the Preſentments alledged, are all well confeſſed and avoided, when he ſhewed, that they were Preſentations by Lapſe, and not by reaſon of any Seiſin in Fee. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff, and that the Judgment ſhould be affirmed. Mich. 20 Jac. in B. R. Sir George Saville and Thorntons Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 650, 651.

23. In Treſpaſs, the Defendant pleaded, That before the Treſpaſs J. S. was ſeiſed in Fee, and 21 Eliz. exchaffid T. N. to the uſe of J. B. and M. his Wife, and the Heirs of their bodies, who had Iſſue H. B. and dyed ſeiſed, which diſcended to him, and from him to three Daughters. The Plaintiff replyed, That here before the Treſpaſs, J. D. was ſeiſid in Fee, and gave the Land to E. B. and J. his Wife, and the Heirs Males of their bodies, and that they had Iſſue J. B. and the Plaintiff, and that J. had Iſſue H. and dyed, and H. dyed without Iſſue Male: Wherefore he as Heir Male entred, and traverſed the Seiſin alledged in J. S. It was Objected, That the traverſe of the Seiſin of J. S. was not good, but he ought to have traverſed the gift in tail, which is the principal matter. But it was Reſolved by the Court, That the Replication was good, and that it was in his Election to traverſe the Seiſin in Fee alledged in the bar, or the gift in tail. See Cook 6. Part, 25. acc. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Paſc. 21 Jac. in B. R. Baker and Blackmans Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 681. Godbolt, 427. the ſame Caſe.

24. Action of Treſpaſs, ſuppoſing that the Defendants Father held of him ſuch Lands by Knights Service, and dyed in his Homage, his Heir within age, and that he tendred unto him a convenient Marriage, and ſhewed what, and demanded the value of the Marriage. The Defendant Proteſtando to the Tenure pro placito, traverſed the Tender: Upon which the Plaintiff demurred. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, 1. That the tender is not traverſable. But an Exception was taken to the Declaration, becauſe it was not ſhewed, That the Anceſtor was ſeiſed in Fee of the Land ſuppoſed to be holden, and that was conceived by the Court to be a material Exception. It was adjourned. Hill. 13 Car. in B. R. Arrundell and Sanders Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 361.

25. Note by the Juſtices, That Regularly a man ſhall not traverſe the Diſcent, but the dying ſeiſed: but, in Caſe of a Deviſe, of neceſſity the traverſe muſt be of the Diſcent, for there they cannot traverſe the dying ſeiſed; for if they traverſe the dying ſeiſed, then the parties overthrow their own Title, and the Deviſe. Trin. 21 Jac. in B. R. in Sommers Caſe. Godbolt, 410.

26. Replevin for taking his Beaſts at O. viz. one Gelding, one Mare, to his damage, &c. The Defendant did demur upon the Declaration, becauſe there was no place aſſigned where the taking was but only a Town. It was Reſolved, That the Declaration was not good for the cauſe aforeſaid. For the general Preſidents in Declarations, in Replevins, is to aſſign a place as well as a Town, and in ſuch a Caſe, as well the place as Town are traverſable by the Avowant wherein the Replevin differs from an Action of Treſpaſs, wherein the Plaintiff may aſſign his Treſpaſs only in one Town; and if he do not aſſign a place, the Defendant may plead at another place, without traverſing the place aſſigned by the Plaintiff. But a Replevin is an Action of more certainty, and of neceſſity muſt contain a place in the Declaration. See 35 H. 6. 40. Trin. 10 Jac. in B. R. Read and Hawkers Caſe. Hob. 16.

27. Treſpaſs

27. Treſpaſs for taking a Kettle at Weſtowne, the Defendant Juſtified by reaſon of a Cuſtome in the Mannor of T. and the Plaintiff joyned Iſſue De injuria ſua propria abſque tali Cauſa. The Venire facias was awarded de Vicineto de Weſtowne et manerio de T. by the Roll, and a Verdict for the Plaintiff, and in that Caſe, although it was ſaid, That the Plaintiff ſhould not have traverſed the cauſe generally, but the Cuſtome; Yet it was adjudged that the ſame was holpen by the Statute of Jeofails as matter of form, becauſe abſq; tali Cauſa contained the Cuſtome and more; but becauſe the Sheriff had returned his Pannel de Vicineto de Weſtowne only, It was holden to be incurable, and not to be amended. Mich. 12 Jac. in C. B. Banks and Parkers Caſe. Hob. 76.

28. In a Replevin, the Defendant did avow, That Ellen Enderby was ſeiſed in Fee of three Acres of Land in D. and took to Husband F. P. by whom they had Iſſue Thomas. Ellen dyed; the Husband was in by the Curteſy. T. the Heir in Reverſion granted a Rent of 5 l. out of the three Acres to the Avowant. The Plaintiff in bar ſaid, That before Ellen had any thing, J. S. was ſeiſed in Fee, and gave the ſame to J. Enderly in tail, who had Iſſue Ellen, who after the death of her Father entred, and was ſeiſed in tail, and took Husband ut ſupra, and had Iſſue Tho. ut ſupra, and dyed, and Tho. in Reverſion, Tenant by the Curteſy Granted ut ſupra, abſq; hoc that Ellen E. was ſeiſed of the three Acres in Fee: Upon Iſſue joyned, it was found for the Avowant. It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That there was no Iſſue joyned, for that the traverſe of the Seiſin of Ellen was idle, for no title to the Rent is derived from her, but the Seiſin of Tho. the Grantor ought to have bin traverſed. The Court was of Opinion, though an apter Iſſue might have bin taken, and that the traverſe is not good; yet it is helped by the Statute of Jeofails; for the Eſtate of Ellen was in a ſort, and by Circumſtances material; for if ſhe was ſeiſed in tail, the ſame diſcended to Tho. the Grantor, then by his death the Rent is determined, but if the Fee diſcended to Tho. from Ellen, then the ſame enabled Tho. to grant the Rent. Mich. 2 Jac. in B. R. Pigot and Pigotts Caſe. Yelverton, 54.

29. Waſte by M. againſt E. for Waſte done in Meſſuage, Land, and Wood demiſed to E. for years. The Defendant ſhewed, That the Meſſuage was parcel of the Mannor of C. which came to King H. 8. by Diſſolution; and ſo to Queen Eliz. who by her Letters Pattents Granted the ſame to R. H. in Fee, who conveyed it to the Defendant in Fee, who Granted back the ſame to the Plaintiff and his Heirs ſo long as H. had Iſſue of his body, for which the Plaintiff entred, and leaſed to the Defendant prout: And further ſhewed, That H. dyed at D. without Iſſue of his body 20. Jan. anno 3 Jac. Upon which the Plaintiff demurred, and had Judgment in the Common Pleas. Upon which the Defendant E. brought Error in B. R. And in this Caſe, the firſt Judgment was affirmed: For the defects in the Defendants Plea. 1. Whereas the Plaintiff in the Action of Waſte declared of a Seiſin in Fee in himſelf, out of which the Leaſe to the Defendant was derived, which ought to be intended a pure and abſolute Fee, the Defendant did not diſcloſe any Eſtate in the Plaintiff, but a Fee determinable, which is another kind of Eſtate then the Plaintiff had alledged, and therefore it was not good without a traverſe, for the Plea of the Defendant ought to confeſs and avoid, or traverſe the material point in the Declaration, which is the Seiſin in Fee, and the Defendant by his plea doth not confeſs it. 2. The Plea is not good, becauſe he alledgeth the death of H. without Iſſue 20. Jan. 3. and non conſtat, what January, whether it was before the Writ brought, or after; for if before the Writ brought, then nothing in the Reverſion at the time of the Writ brought, is a good plea for the Defendant; and if he dye after the Writ brought, then he ought to alledg the death without Iſſue, pendant the Writ. Mich. 6 Jac. in B. R. Ewer and Meiles Caſe, in Error. Yelverton 140, 141.

30. In Aſſumpſit, the Caſe was; The Defendant Granted to the Plaintiff 1000 Trees in ſuch a Wood to be cut down within three years after the Grant: Afterwards they agreed, when the Plaintiff had cut down ſome of the Trees, that they ſhould not cut down any more during the 3 years, and that the Defendant would Licenſe them after the three years, to cut ſo many Trees as ſhould amount to the full number of 1000. And becauſe the Defendant hindred after the three years, the Plaintiffs brought Aſſumpſit, and declared upon the matter aforeſaid. The Defendant pleaded That before the promiſe ſuppoſed to be made by the Defendant, the Plaintiffs had cut down 1000 Trees Abſque hoc, that at the time of the promiſe, they had cut but 800 Trees only (as they layed in the Declaration); upon which the Plaintiffs demurred. It was Objected in this Caſe, That the traverſe was idle, for the Defendants Plea had bin good without any traverſe at all, becauſe it was a full anſwer that they had cut 1000 Trees; Alſo the traverſe ought to have bin abſque hoc, that the Plaintiffs at the time of the promiſe had cut but 800 Trees, omitting the word (tantum). But the Opinion of the Court was, That the traverſe was good; for the Plaintiffs by alledging the cutting of the 800 trees only only in their Declaration, which is matter iſſuable, hath given advantage to the Defendant to traverſe in the manner as he hath done; for every matter in fact alledged for the Plaintiffs, may be traverſed by the Defendant; and then the Plaintiffs by their demurrer upon the bar, have confeſſed the cutting of 1000 Trees, which was his full bargain at firſt, and ſo there is no conſideration to ground the Aſſumpſit upon, and Judgment was given for the Defendant againſt the Plaintiffs. Mich. 8 Jac. in B. R. Tatum and Poulter, and Perients Caſe. Yelverton 195.

31. In Treſpaſſe of Aſſault and Falſe Impriſonment, ſuppoſed to be done at ſuch a Pariſh and Ward in London the 20th of May, 35 Eliz. The Defendants juſtified by reaſon of an Execution in the Court of Sandwich within the 5. Ports, in Debt, and traverſed abſq; hoc, that they were guilty in London. The Plaintiff Replyed, and maintained the Aſſault and Impriſonment, and ſaid, and traverſed abſq; hoc quod habetur aliquod tale Recordum ſuper quo prædict. the Defendants had alledged, Et hoc paratus eſt verificare per Recordum illud. And upon this, the Defendants Demurred. The Court ſeemed prima facie, That the Defendants Plea was good, becauſe it was a ſpecial matter of juſtification, which cannot be pleaded and alledged to be in any other place then where it was done. But in the Caſe at Barr it was ſaid, If the ſpeciall matter alledged in the Forreign County be falſe, the Plaintiff may maintain his Action, and traverſe the ſpecial matter alledged by the Defendants; and ſo a Traverſe in ſuch caſe may be upon a Traverſe, when falſity is uſed to ouſte the Plaintiff of that benefit which the Law gives him. Mich. 38 Eliz. in C. B. Paramour and Verrals Caſe. Popham, 101.

32. In an Action of Covenant, The Covenant was, That a Ship ſhould go with the next Wind, and that the Merchant ſhould pay ſo much for the freight. The Defendant ſaid by way of Traverſe, That he did not go with the next wind. It was ſaid, That the Traverſe was not good; but he ought to have traverſed, That the Ship did not go at all, for that which is material, is to be traverſed; and that is, that the Ship did not go with the next Wind. and a Circumſtance cannot be traverſed, and the Wind is alterable. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Paſch. 2 Car. in B.R. Conſtable and Claberies Caſe. Popham, 161.

33. In an Action of Treſpaſs, It was layed to be done, 1. Maii: The Defendant pleads a Releaſe to him made primo Junii, and takes a Traverſe, abſq; hoc, that he was guilty at any time after the firſt of June. It was adjudged in this Caſe, That the day of the Treſpaſs is not material, and that he here ought to have traverſed in this manner: ſcil. abſq; hoc, that he was guilty before or after the firſt of June. Trin. 14 Jac. in B.R. Amſon & Walcotts Caſe. Bulſtr. 3. Part, 209.

34. Debt brought by an Executor, who brought in Court Literas Teſtamentarias; The Defendant by way of Plea ſhewed, That the party which was dead, dyed Inteſtate, and Letters of Adminiſtration were granted to him, abſq; hoc, that the Plaintiff is Executor: It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That the Traverſe as it was here, is not good, But if any Traverſe at all ſhould be taken, it ſhould have been abſq; hoc quod Conſtituet eum Executorem. It was adjudged againſt the Defendant. See 10 H. 6. 26. 9 E. 4. 33. Mich. 14 Jac. in B.R. Bulſtr. 3. Part, 250.

35. In Action upon the Caſe, for a Conſpiracy to Indict him of Felony; For ſtealing of 5. ſheep; upon which the party was acquitted. The Defendant pleaded in barr, and ſhewed, and juſtified his proceedings, That 18. November, at B. he was poſſeſſed of 5. Oxen ſtollen from him by a ſtranger; upon Freſh-ſuit, he heard they were in the poſſeſſion of the Plaintiff; he demanded ſight of them, but he refuſed to let him ſee them: he ſaid he had killed 4. of them, refuſed to ſhew him the Skins, which was the ground of his ſuſpition; upon this, by Warrant he was brought before a Juſtice of Peace, and by him examined, et propter varias et incertas reſponſiones, he ſuſpected him, likewiſe bound him to the Seſſions, and the Defendant to proſecute; and upon this, he was Indicted, and acquitted. The Plaintiff Replyed, confeſſing the goods, that they were ſtollen, and brought to C. to Market, where he being a Butcher, bought them, and did Toll them; That for this he was Indicted, and acquitted, and takes this Traverſe, Abſq; hoc, that he refuſed to ſhew them to the Defendant. Upon this Replication, there was a Demurrer. The Court in this caſe ſeemed to be of Opinion, That the Traverſe here abſq; hoc, that he refuſed to ſhew him the Cattel, was a good Traverſe, and an Iſſue might have been taken upon it; but by ſuch a Traverſe de injuria ſua propria abſq; tali Cauſa, by this the Plaintiff would have been tryed, becauſe that part of the Barr is good, the Traverſe here is good, and no cauſe of Demurrer propter varias et incertas reſponſiones. The parties ſeeing the Opinion of the Court, ended the matter betwixt themſelves, that it was not moved again. Trin. 14 Jac. in B. R. Weale and Wells Caſe. Bulſtr. 3. Part, 284, 285.

36. In Action upon the Caſe upon a Promiſe, The Plaintiff declared, That there was an Accompt betwixt him and the Defendant; and upon the Accompt, the Defendant was found to be in Arrear to the Plaintiff in the ſum of 61. the which he promiſed to pay to the Plaintiff at a time paſt; for for not payment whereof, the Action was brought. The Defendant confeſſed it to be true, that long before there was ſuch an Accompt had between them; and that upon the ſame Accompt, he was found in arrearages to the Plaintiff for the ſaid ſum: for which he entred into a Bond unto the Plaintiff, and concluded his Plea with a Traverſe abſq; hoc, that there was any other Accompt between them after this time. Upon which it was Demurred. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That the Traverſe in this caſe taken by the Defendant in the Concluſion of his Plea, abſq; hoc, that there was any other Accompt made between them, after the entring into the Bond for the payment of the money demanded, was a good Traverſe and well taken. Wherefore it was adjudged, That the Plaintiff Nil Capiat per Breve. Hill. 7 Jac. in B. R. Talby and Cooks Caſe. Bollſr. 1. Part, 16.

37. In a Replevin, the Defendant Juſtifies the taking; for that the place where was called R. Mead, parcell of the Mannor of D, the Freehold of one C; and ſo Juſtifies the taking of the Cattel Damage-Feaſants to C. as his ſervant, and in his right. The Plaintiff ſaid, That long before C. was ſeiſed of this, That J. S. a ſtranger was ſeiſed, and ſo conveyes a Title to himſelf, but takes no Traverſe of the Freehold to be alledged in C; It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Replication without a Traverſe was not good: For he ought to have ſaid, That long time C. was ſeiſed, that J. S. was ſeiſed, and to have concluded with a Traverſe abſq; hoc, that the ſame was the Freehold of C. tempore Captionis. It was adjudged for the Avowant. Mich. 8 Jac. in B R. Pompier and Chamberlains Caſe. Bollſr. 1. Part, 48.

38. In Treſpaſs, Quare vi & armis, for Cancelling a Deed; The Plaintiff Declared, That the Defendant was ſeized in Fee of certain Lands, and of this enfeoffed J. S. and his heirs with Warranty, reſerving to himſelf a yearly rent, with clauſe of Diſtreſs, if not paid; and after, the Defendant did bargain and ſell the ſaid Rent to the Plaintiff; for the Cancelling of which Deed (the which the Plaintiff caſualiter amiſit) the Action was brought; but doth not ſhew, that he was at any time poſſeſſed of this Deed, but only by Implication argumentative. The Defendant Traverſed the Grant of the Rent, That no ſuch Bargain was made: The Queſtion was, Whether here was a good Traverſe taken, or not? Whether the matter were Traverſeable, or no? It was Objected, That the Traverſe was well taken, nor could the Defendant in this Caſe, have taken a better Traverſe; for in regard the Plaintiff in his own Declaration hath ſet forth his Title; by this, he hath given to the Defendant ſuch an advantage for to Traverſe thus if he will, which otherwiſe the Law would not have given him. But the whole Court was clear of Opinion, That the Grant here is not Traverſeable, and ſo the Traverſe taken to it, is not good: But by the whole Court, the Plaintiff in his Declaration ought to have ſhewed, That he was poſſeſſed of the Deed before, which he hath not done, and for the omiſſion of this, the Declaration is not good; and for that cauſe the Rule was, Quod Querens nil Capiat per Billam. Mich. 9 Jac. in B. R. Suſfield and Conſtable's Caſe. Bollſrode, 1. Part, 214.

39. In Treſpaſs, the Defendant ſhewed, That King James was ſeized in jure Coronæ, of the Mannor of D; within which Mannor, there were divers Copyholders demiſeable in Fee, in Tail, for life or years; and that the Copyholders of the ſaid Mannor, by Cuſtome might make Leaſes for three years without Licence; and that the King anno did grant the Copyhold in Queſtion, to A. who was Admitted; under whom the Defendant claims. The Plaintiff by Replication ſet forth, That long before, Queen Eliz. was ſeized of the ſaid Mannor, whereof the Land in Queſtion is parcel, and that ſhe anno 22. of her Reign, did Grant the ſaid Copyhold in Fee to one B. who was admitted thereunto, and dyed ſeized; and that his ſon and heir was alſo admitted, and did Leaſe the Copyhold to the Plaintiff; and that afterwards, by the death of the Queen, the Mannor did deſcend to the King, who (as before) made the ſecond Grant, and ſo demands Judgment: Upon this Replication, the Defendant did demur in Law, and for cauſe, ſhewed, That the Plaintiff had not traverſed the ſecond Grant alledged. It was the Opinion of the whole Court in this Caſe, That the Replication was good, without any Traverſe; for that the Plaintiff by his Replication, hath confeſſed and avoided the Title made by the Defendant, which is ſufficient, without any Traverſe; and the Plaintiff here is not to Traverſe the ſecond Leaſe under which the Defendant claims; for that the Law ſaith, That being a former Leaſe made, the ſecond is void: And ſo it was ſaid it was adjudged in one Alexanders Caſe, Mich. 10 Jac. in B. R. Rice and Rees Caſe. Bollſr. 2. Part, 1. & 2.

40. In a Replevin, the Defendant avowth becauſe A. was ſeized, and Leaſed to B. for ninety years, who granted the Term to C. who granted it over to D. who granted it to E. whoſe Eſtate the Defendant had: The Plaintiff confeſſed the Aſſignment made to C. but ſaid, That C. took Husband, and the Husband granted the Term to the Plaintiff, without that, That C. granted the Term to D. It was adjudged in this Caſe, That the Traverſe made made to the Bar to the Avowry, was inſufficient; becauſe a Leaſe for years cannot be gained but by a lawful Grant: And therefore, when one claims a Leaſe for years, and another claims by an Eigne Grant, there he ſhall not Traverſe the laſt Grant, but the other may Traverſe the elder Grant: But it is otherwiſe in caſe of a Feoffment; for there, if the other claim by a former Feoffment, he ought to confeſs, and avoid the latter Feoffment, as by Diſſeizin; for a Diſſeizure may gain a Fee, but a Leaſe for years cannot be gained but by a lawful Conveyance. Cook 6. Part, 24. Hethars Caſe.

41. In a Prohibition to ſtay a Suit in the Eccleſiaſtical Court for the ſurpluſage of profits: The Plaintiff ſhewed, That the Fee-ſimple Land, and other Land, was charged with the payment of Fifteens, and five ſhillings yearly to the poor; and that the reſidue of the profits he was to have to his own uſe; the others do maintain their Libel, and aver the Surpluſage, and to go to the Reparation of the Church, and the Reſidue to be diſpoſed of to charitable uſes, and takes a Traverſe abſque hoc, that the ſurpluſage of the profits was to be to the uſe of the Plaintiff himſelf; Upon which Plea the Plaintiff demurred. It was Objected, That this Traverſe was not good; for if a man pleads in Bar, and takes a Traverſe, by this Traverſe he waives his Plea in Bar, and this which is Traverſed, is but an Inducement to the Plea, and not a Plea in it ſelf; and no Traverſe is to be taken to an Inducement, nor yet to the Concluſion of a Plea. But it was the Opinion of the Court, That the Traverſe was good, and well taken, for the point of Suggeſtion is always Traverſeable; the Plaintiff ſuggeſts here, that he is to have the Surpluſage of the profits to his own uſe, the Defendant doth Traverſe that, the taking of the profits is always Traverſeable, for that makes him Tenant, or not Tenant. It was adjudged againſt the Plaintiff. Paſch. 10 Jac. in B. R. Audlis and Cliffons Caſe. Bulſtrode 2. Par. 10.

42. In Trover and Converſion of certain goods, The Defendant pleaded, and juſtified the taking at ſuch a place at L. as Bell-man there, by Cuſtome to take out of every bag of Corn holding a Buſh. l, and no more, a Pint; and if it did hold more, then a Quart; and ſhewed, That he was choſen Bell man & tempore quo did take the ſame, as by Cuſtome it belonged to him to do, and lays the taking at one place by the Cuſtome, and the Converſion at another; And upon this Plea, the Plaintiff Demurred in Law. The Queſtions in this Caſe (amongſt others) were, 1. If this Cuſtome were a good Cuſtome. 2. Whether any Traverſe here ought to have been: For the firſt point, It was Reſolved, That this Cuſtome was good, and reaſonable, and ſhall be conſtrued to have a reaſonable Commencement; for the Office of a Bellman is to clean the ſtreets, and pro labore ſuo, he had this allowed him, and it is pro bono Publico; and the Converſion is here the point, and the Trover is but the Inducement to the Action; and he ſheweth here, That he hath not converted the goods of the Plaintiff, but his own goods, when he conveyes himſelf a property: And as to the point of Traverſe, the Court at the firſt over-ruled this, That no Traverſe here needs to be, for that the Converſion is the point of the Action, and not the Trover. Paſch. 12 Jac. in B. R. Hill and Hawks Caſe. Bulſtr. 2. Part, 201.

43. Treſpaſs for Aſſault, Battery, Fining, and Impriſoning the Plaintiff at C. The Defendant as to the Aſſault and Battery pleaded Not Guilty: As to the Impriſonment, the Defendant juſtifies the ſame at A. in this manner; ſetting forth, That there the Court was held before him for the Stannery, he being he Steward of the Court; In which Court there was a Suit between the now Plaintiff, and another, for debt; which Suit there, went againſt the now Plaintiff, who was condemned in the Suit, and taken by his command, and in Execution for this, until he ſhould pay it, and his Fine, which is the ſame Impriſonment, and Juſtifies, and takes a Traverſe abſque hoc, that he was culpabilis at any place extra Curiam Stanneriæ: Upon this Plea, the Plaintiff demurred in Law. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Traverſe here was not good; for by this it doth not appear what Juriſdiction the Court of Stannery is, nor how far the ſame doth extend it ſelf; the Treſpaſs here is layed to be at C. he pleads a Suit between the Plaintiff and another at A. That the Plaintiff in the Suit there, was Condemned and Impriſoned, until he paid the Debt and Fine, with a Traverſe abſque hoc, that he was Guilty ubi, extra Curiam of the Stanneries, this is not good; for by this plea in this manner, abſque hoc, that he was guilty in any place in Com. Devon. out of the Juriſdiction of the Court of Stanneries; by this it doth not at all appear to the Court, whether C. be within or without the Stannery; Wherefore it was Reſolved, That both the Plea and the Traverſe were not good, and Judgment for the Plaintiff. Trin. 12 Jac. in B. R. Evdy and Stanleys Caſe. Bulſtr. 2. Part, 316, 317, 318.

44. In a Replevin, the Defendants made Conuſans as Bayliffs to J. S. Executor of R. G. and that the place where did contain twenty Acres, parcel of the Manour of T. and that the Archbiſhop of York, and others, were ſeized of the ſaid Manor in Fee, and 1 Junii 11 H. 7. by Deed enrolled, granted to King Hen. 8. a Rent-charge of 50 marks per annum, to rent in Fee, with clause of Distress, and so convey the Rent down to Queen Eliz. who by her Letters Patents, granted it to R. G. for Life, who made J. S. his Executor, and avowed for Arrearages. The Plaintiff pleaded in Bar, and confessed the seizin of the Archbishop, and others, and said, That 4 Junii 11 H. 8. they enfeoffed P. E. in Fee of the said Manner, who conveyed it to R. E. who entred, and licensed the Plaintiff to put in his Beasts, which he did, and they were there, till the Defendants distrained them, absque hoc, That the Archbishop and others, 3 Junii 11 H. 8. granted the Rent to the said King and his Heirs, modo & forma prout. The Defendants say, That the Archbishop and others, did grant to the King the Rent, modo & forma, as they alledged: Issue thereupon joyned. It was found, That the Archbishop and others 11 H. 8. recovered the Lands against P. E. and it was to the intent, to grant the Rent to the King and his Heirs, and then of the Recovery of the Manner out of which, to the said P. E. in Tail, the Remainder to the King; and they being seized, by their Deed dated 3 Junii, Sealed and Delivered, which was enrolled afterwards 7 Junii, granted the said Rent to the King Hen. 8. The Judges upon conference in this Case, Declared their Opinion to be, That Judgment should be given for the Defendants, for that the Issue is joyned upon the Grant, modo & forma, and not upon the day, as is offered by the Traverse, and the matter found is generally; and see Litt. that modo & forma avoids, and prevents the matter of day, and goes solely to that which is material; and for any thing appears, there is no Intervening matter after the third day, and before the seventh day, that the Deed is enrolled, and then it is a good Grant, 3 Junii, so Judgment was given for the Defendants. Mich. 8 Car. in B. R. Hicks and Mountfords Case. Hutton, 120, 121.

45. In Trespass; The Defendant in Bar to the new Assignment pleaded, That before the time of the Trespass, A. was seized in Fee, and so seized, dyed; and that the Tenements where &c. descended to his son and heir; who so seized 8 Car. Demised it to the Defendants for two years, by vertue whereof, he entred, and gave colour to the Plaintiff by a Grant by his Father, where nothing passed: The Plaintiff replyed, That before the son had any thing, one E. the Grandfather was seized in Fee, and 8 Jac. in consideration of a marriage between A. his son, and the Plaintiff for her Joynture made a Feoffment thereof to the said A. and the Plaintiff his Wife, and to the heirs of the said A. upon the body of the Plaintiff begotten, the Remainders to the heirs of the said A. in Fee, and shewed the marriage; and that by the Statute of 27 H. 8. they were seized ut supra, absque hoc: That the said A. the Father dyed seized of the Tenements, with the Appurtenances de novo assignat. in his Demesne as of Fee, prout the Defendant alleged: Whereupon it was demurred. In this Case, it was adjudged for the Plaintiff, because no dying seized is pleaded, so that it might be Traversed, but with a sic seizitus obiit. Also the matter only Traversable here, is the seizin modo & forma; for by the Replication, seizin joyntly with the Plaintiff, and to the heirs of the body of the said A. with a Fee-simple in him, is confessed, and that is good, with the Traverse: The Court agreed it a good Traverse, and Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Trin. 9 Car. in C. B. Edwards and Lawrences Case. Hutton, 123.

46. In Ejectione firmæ, The Plaintiff declared of a Lease made at H; The Defendant pleaded, That H. prædict. ubi Tenement. prædict. jacent, is within the five Ports, where the Kings Writ runs not, and so pleaded to the Jurisdiction: The other replyed, That the Town of H. was within the County of S. absque hoc, that it was within the five Ports; Upon that the Defendant Demurred. It was said, That the Traverse was not good, for he ought to have Traversed, absque hoc quod Villa de H. ubi Tenementa jacent, is within the five Ports, for the truth was, it was part in the five Ports, and part in Suffex, and the Land lyes in that part which is within the five Ports. It was answered, and Resolved, That the Traverse was good, and that the Bar was naught, and that the Plaintiff may not Traverse in other manner; and the Defendant in his Bar ought to have made the distinction; and every Plea which goes to the Jurisdiction of the Court, shall be taken strong against him that pleads it: It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Mich. 21 Jac. in C. B. Austin and Beadles Case. Hutt. 113.

47. In an Action upon the Case, The Plaintiff Declared, That he was seized of the Manner and Castle of H. in the County of S. by purchase from G. Lord Audley, and that he was in Communication to demise the said Castle and Manner for a Fine, and 100 l. Rent per annum to R. E; and that the Defendant promissorum non ignarus, said; I have a Lease of the Castle and Manner of H. for 99 years, and then published a Demise, supposed to be made by the Grandfather of the Lord Audley, to E. D. her husband, and offered to sell it, ubi revera the said Lease was counterfeit by her Husband; by reason of which Publication, the said R. E. did not proceed to accept of the said Lease. The Defendant pleaded in Bar, Quod Talis Indentura, qualis in the Declaration came to the Defendants hand hands by Trover, and Traverſed, ſhe knew of the Forgery; Upon which the Plaintiff did demur. It was Reſolved in this Caſe (amongſt other points) That the Bar was inſufficient; for the knowing of the Defendant of the Forgery, is not Traverſeable: Alſo, the manner of pleading, Talis Indentura quæ-ſita, is no direct anſwer to the Indenture alledged in the Declaration; for Talis Indentura, non eſt eadem Indentura. It was adjudged againſt the Defendant. Mich. 33 Eliz. Sir Gilbert Gerrard, and Dickenſons Caſe. Cook 4. Part, 18.

48. A Quare Impedit brought by divers, The Defendant pleaded the Releaſe of one of them, pendant the Writ; In this Caſe it was adjudged, That the ſame goeth in Bar of him only. 2. It was Reſolved, That a Preſentment alledged in the Grantee of the next Avoydance, and not in the Grantor himſelf, was a good Title for the Grantee and his Heirs in a Quare Impedit: And in this Caſe it was ſaid, That if Grantee for years of a Sanctuary or Guardian happen, ſeizin of the Services, it ſhall be a good ſeizin for him in the Reverſion: And a Preſentment alledged in the Leſſor or Donor, or Leſſee or Donee, is not double; for that the Preſentment of the Leſſor or Donor is only Traverſeable. Cook 5. Part, 98. The Counteſs of Northumberlands Caſe.

49. In Treſpaſs for a way; The Defendant did juſtifie, and ſaid, That he had a way, not only ire, equitare, & Averia ſua fugare, but alſo Carrucas ſuas, & Carragias currere, &c. The Plaintiff Traverſed it abſque hoc, That he had a way, not only ire, equitare, &c. in the words aforeſaid; and thereupon they were at Iſſue, and found for the Plaintiff. It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That the Iſſue was not well joyned, becauſe it was not a direct affirmative, but by inducement only: But the whole Court was againſt that. It was ſaid by Jones Juſtice, That if I ſay, That not only J. S. hath been at ſuch a place, but alſo J. D. (without Queſtion it is a good affirmative, that both of them have been there: But all the Juſtices agreed, That in the Principal Caſe, the Pleading was more elegant then formal. Mich. 15 Car. in B. R. Hicks and Webbs Caſe. Mar. 55.

50. Debt upon an Obligation, The Condition was, to perform an Award: The Defendant ſaid, That the Award was made, That the Defendant ſhould forceaſe all Suits depending betwixt them, which he had done. The Plaintiff replyed, That the Arbitrators made the Award, ut ſupra; and alſo awarded, That the Defendant ſhould pay to the Plaintiff 20 l. at the houſe of J. S. abſque hoc, that they made the other award only: The Defendant Rejoyned, It is true, they made thoſe awards; but they further awarded, That the Plaintiff ſhould Releaſe to the Defendant, which he hath not done: Upon which Rejoynder, the Plaintiff did Demur in Law. It was Objected, That the Award was void, becauſe it is to do a thing upon the Land of another, which he cannot lawfully do; And although the Arbitrators may award to do a thing which is inconvenient, yet not to do a thing which is impoſſible. But the Opinion of all the Juſtices was, That the Award was good; for the money is to be paid apud domum J. S. and not in domo. 2. Reſolved, That although the award ſhould not be good, as to that part, yet for the Reſidue it is good, and therefore for non performance of the Reſidue, the Bond was forfeited. In this Caſe, whereas it was alledged, That the Replication was inſufficient, for that the Plaintiff ought not to have Traverſed as this Caſe is; for a man ſhall not Traverſe that which is alledged by Implication, but that ought to be Traverſed, which is alledged de facto, upon which an Iſſue may be joyned; yet that Exception was diſallowed by the Court, and the Traverſe was ſaid to be good. Paſch. 12 Jac. in B. R. Linſey and Aſhtons Caſe.

51. In Avowry for damage feaſant, The Defendant pleaded a Leaſe made to him by J. S; the other ſaid, That before the Leaſe made, J. S. did Enfeoff him; The other replyed, and maintained the ſaid Leaſe abſque hoc, that J. S. Seiſitus feoffavit: Gawdy, This Traverſe is not formal; for the word [Seiſitus] is merely idle, and ought to be left out; for he cannot Enfeoff, unleſs he be Seized; and it never hath been ſeen that the Seizin in ſuch caſe hath been Traverſed, but generally, abſque hoc, quod feoffavit: And ſuch was the Opinion of the whole Court. Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Hales and Homes Caſe.

52. In a Quare Impedit, It was Counted, That the Defendant being Parſon of the Church in queſtion, was Preſented to another Benefice, and Inducted the 15 of April, by which the firſt Benefice became void, &c. The Defendant ſaid, That he was Qualified ſuch a day, which was after the 15 of April, abſque hoc, that he was Inducted the 15 of April. It was the Opinion of the Court, That it was no good Traverſe; for he ought to have ſaid generally, abſque hoc, That he was Inducted before the day at which he is alledged to be qualified; for if one declareth of a Treſpaſs done 1 Aprilis, and the Defendant plead a Releaſe 1 Feb. he ought to Traverſe abſque hoc, That the Treſpaſs was done after the Releaſe, by Periam Juſtice. Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Godbolt.

53. In ſecond Deliverance, The Plaintiff Declared, of a taking and detayner of Cattel in a place called Nunt-field, in Swattam Balbeck, againſt gages and pledges: The Defendant made Conuſans as Bayliff to Thom. Marſh; and ſaid, That long before the taking, Thom. Marſh the Father was ſeized of the Manour of Michel-Hall in Swattam Bulbeck, of which the Land there was parcel; and that one A. Gage, and D. his Wife, and T. Grange, and F. his Wife, were ſeized of the Land in which, in the Rights of the ſaid D. and F. their Wives in Fee, and that they held the Land, as of the Manour of Michel-Hall, by Soccage, viz. Fealty and certain Rent: And that the ſaid Thom. Marſh the father, by the hands of the ſaid Husbands and Wives, was ſeized of the ſaid Services, as by the hands of his very Tenants, and derived the Tenancy to Sir Anthony Gage, and the Surrendry to Thom. Marſh the ſon; and becauſe that Fealty was not done by Sir Anthony, the Defendant as Bayliff to Thom. Marſh the ſon did juſtifie, ut infra Dominium, & Feoda ſua: The Plaintiff by Proteſtation ſaid, Non tenet the ſaid Lands of the ſaid Thom. Marſh, as of his Manour of Michel-Hall by Soccage, Fealty, and Rent, as aforeſaid, pro placito ſaid, That the Defendant took the Cattel againſt gages and pledges: And Traverſed abſque hoc, That the ſaid Thom. Marſh the Father, was ſeized of the ſaid Services by the hands of the ſaid Husbands and Wives, as by the hands of their very Tenants; Upon which the Defendant did demur in Law; and for cauſe ſhewed, that the Plaintiff had Traverſed a thing not Traverſeable. This Caſe was argued by the Judges, and by them Reſolved, 1. That at the Common Law, the Plaintiff at the Common Law was not enabled to take this Plea; for a Stranger at the Common Law, could not plead any thing but Hors de ſon Fee, or a thing which did amount to ſo much, and could not plead any thing to the Title of the Tenure. See Brown and Goldſmiths Caſe. Hob. 119. acc. 2. That the Plaintiff is enabled by the Statute of 21 H. 8. and becauſe the Statute enables the Lord to avow upon the Land, not naming any perſon certain, it is but Juſtice and Equity that the Plaintiff ſhould be enabled to plead any thing in diſcharge of it; and although the Plaintiff be a Stranger, and claimeth no Intereſt in the Land, yet for the ſaving his goods, he may plead this plea. 3. Reſolved, That the Traverſe here, was not well taken; for being but an equitable Conſtruction, that the Plaintiff may plead the plea, he ought to purſue the form of the Common Law, in the form of Traverſe, which he hath not here done, and therefore the Traverſe is not good; and where the Seizin is not material, there it is not Traverſeable; where the Surrendry is not in queſtion, there no Traverſe of the Seizin; where the Lord and Tenant differ in the Services, there no Traverſe of the Seizin, but of the Tenancy; but where they agree in the Services, there the Seizin may be Traverſed. Cook 9. Part, 33. Rachrel's Caſe. Alſo, it is not good, becauſe it is a general Traverſe of the Seizin per Manus, the Tenure not being admitted; and it is a general Rule, That a man ſhall never Traverſe the Seizin of Services, without admitting of the Tenure: Alſo the Traverſe is not good, becauſe he hath Traverſed a thing not in demand, which is the Rent; for he ought to have Traverſed the Seizin of the Fealty only, for which the Diſtreſs was taken, and not the Rent: And Note, In this Caſe it was Reſolved by all the Juſtices, That a Traverſe of Seizin per manus generally, without admitting of a Tenure, is not good. Hill. 17 Car. in C. B. Leyton and Granges Caſe. Marſh 166. to 176.

Traverſe of Offices found before the Eſcheator.

1. IT was found by Office by Writ of Mandamus, that T. C. was ſeized in Fee of certain Meſſuages and Gardens in London, and dyed without Heir, the Lands holden of the King in Soccage; The Corporation of Sadlers ſhewed their right, That R. M. was ſeized in Fee of them, and by his Will, deviſed the ſaid Meſſuages, &c. to the Warden and Communalty of Sadlers, in Fee, and that they were diſſeized by T. C. who dyed without Heir, and ſhewed the Cuſtome in London; That a Freeman might Deviſe in Mortmain: And in this Caſe theſe points were Reſolved, 1. When the King was ſeized of any Eſtate of Freehold or Inheritance by matter of Record, whether it be by Record Judicial, or Miniſterial, by Conveyance of Record, or by matter found by Office of Record, he who had right, could not have any Traverſe, upon which he was to have Amoveas manum, but was put to his Petition of Right: But where the King is Entituled by matter in Fact, and found by Record, if in the ſame Office the Title and Intereſt of the party be found, there the party grieved, at the Common Law ſhould not be put to Petition, but might Traverſe. 2. Reſolved, That when the King's Tenant ſeized in Fee, dyeth without heir, the Fee and Freehold is preſently in the King without Office, if the Tenant was in poſſeſſion at the time of his death; but when a Stranger is in poſſeſſion at the time of the Eſcheat, there the King ſhall not be adjudged in poſſeſſion, until this Seizin and poſſeſſion diſſion be removed. 3. When a common perſon againſt another common perſon is put to his real Action, In ſuch Caſe, he ſhall be put to his Petition, which is in the nature of a Real Action againſt the King: And the difference was taken, when the Anceſtor of the King diſſeizeth another, and dyeth, and the Lands diſcend to the King, there becauſe by the diſcent the entry of the Diſſeiſee is taken away, the party ſhall be put to his Petition: But in the Caſe of Eſcheat, when the Diſſeizee dyeth without heir, if it were in the Caſe of a common perſon, the Entry of the Diſſeizee was not taken away, and therefore there in the Caſe of the King, he ſhall not be put to his Petition, but may Traverſe the Office. Cook 4. Part, 55, 56. The Warden and Communalty of Sadlers Caſe.

2. A. ſeized of a Manner holden by Knight-Service in Capite, took B. to Wife, who had Iſſue C: Afterwards the marriage betwixt A. and B. in the Court of Audience by ſentence, was declared to be void, becauſe they were infra annos nubiles, and they were Divorced; A. took to Wife D. and afterwards, before Commiſſioners Eccleſiaſtical, the marriage betwixt A. and D. is declared to be lawful, and that the ſaid A. was never lawfully married to B. D. dyed, afterwards A. took E. to Wife, by whom he had Iſſue F. and dyed; Office found after his death, That F. was his only daughter and heir, within age: The King granted the Cuſtody and Wardſhip of F. to J. S. and E. then his Wife; C. exhibited a Bill in the Court of Wards, pretending that ſhe was daughter and heir of A. and alledged, That A. and B. at the time of their marriage, were both above the age of Conſent, and that they did cohabite ten years together before the ſuppoſed Divorce, during which time, they had Iſſue the ſaid C. and prayed, That ſhe might Traverſe the ſaid Office, J. S. and his Wife, Witneſſes, were examined on the part of C. and before publication, J. S. dyed; C. exhibited a Bill of Reviver againſt E. and afterwards, C. had Iſſue G. and dyed: G. took husband, and ſhe and her husband brought a Bill of Reviver, to revive the firſt Suit againſt E. In this Caſe (amongſt other) theſe points were Reſolved, That G. who was the Plaintiff in the Bill of Reviver, ought to have an Office found, before ſhe might Traverſe; for when the King is ſure of Wardſhip, and Primer Seiſin by Office, there is no reaſon that any one who pretendeth himſelf to be heir ſhould Traverſe the Office that the other was not heir, until the King be ſure to have profit by him, either by Wardſhip, or Primer Seiſin; for then after the firſt Office avoided, he might ſhew matter to have the King of Wardſhip and Primer Seiſin; which ſhall be unreaſonable. 2. Reſolved, That the Statute of 2 E. 6. Cap. 8. doth not give any Traverſe to him who pretends himſelf to be Heir, againſt an Office found for another Heir, without an Office be found for him; but the intent of the Act was, to take away a doubt at the Common Law: which was, That if one be found Heir within age by an Office, and another is found Heir in the ſame County, and of full age, If the party grieved ſhould have a Traverſe immediately? Cook 7. Part, 43, 44, 45. Kynas Caſe.

3. Note: It was Reſolved, That if an Office be found againſt the King, and a Melius Inquirendum awarded, and in that it is found for the King, but the Melius is void for repugnancy in the Writ; a new Writ of Melius Inquirendum ſhall be awarded. But if upon the Writ of Melius, it be found againſt the King, there the King ſhall not have a new Writ of Melius Inquirendum; for then there ſhould be no end, but new Writs ſhould infinitely iſſue forth: And if an Office be found for the King, the party grieved may traverſe it; and if the Traverſe be found againſt him, the ſame makes an end of the buſineſs; and ſo it is if it be found for him who traverſeth. Hill. 7 Jac. Cook 8. Part, 168. Paris Stoughtons Caſe.

4. Where an Office is imperfectly found againſt the King, In ſuch caſe, the King cannot traverſe the Office, as a Subject may upon a Surmiſe made in the Court of Wards, that the Lands are of greater value; that they are holden by other Services; that the Tenant was ſeiſed of another Eſtate; that there are more Heirs, or other Heirs, then were found in the Office, or whereby the Office was found within age, where indeed the Tenant dyed without Heir, ſo that the Land ought to Eſcheat; or where by the firſt Office one is found Heir of full age, where he was under age: and generally where his Highneſs hath better Title then was found for him by the firſt Office; In ſuch Caſes, a Melius Inquirendum may be awarded for the King. See Lee, 25. acc.

5. At the Common-Law, a Melius Inquirendum is grantable, Where the Office was found, quod tenementa tenentur of the Heir of J. S. not named in the Writ. But it was doubted, upon the Clauſe in the Statute of 2 E. 6. Cap. 8. (That where de quo vel de quibus ignorant, there a Tenure of the King is found but by Due Servitia ignorant, that a Melius Inquirend. ſhall be awarded, as is uſed, any Law Cuſtome to the contrary notwithſtanding) If notwithſtanding the Proviſo in the ſaid Act, which extends not to prejudice or take away the Title of the King, or of any other accrued by any other Inquiſition before the ſaid day, but that they ſhall enjoy as if the Act had not been made, If upon ſuch ancient Offices a

Melius

Melius Inquirendum lyeth? And the better Opinion was, That it did not. In that caſe, it is ſaid, If a man be found by Office of the age of 15 years, and when he comes to 20, he is found by ætate probanda of full age, If the Queen had no remedy, but ought to make Livery; See the words of the Act, That at his full age indeed, he ſhall have an Ætate probanda; and if it be granted before, it ſeems a Traverſe ſhall be admitted. And ſo it was Ruled, Mich. 5 Mar. Dyer, 155, 156.

6. King Henry the 8th gave Lands in tail to Tho. Culpepper, the remainder in tail to John Culpepper: Thomas was attainted of Treaſon; which Attainder was confirmed by Parliament, and the Actual Seiſin of the Lands given by the Act to King Hen. 8th, ſaving all rights, &c. of ſtrangers. The King ſeiſed the Lands, and granted the ſame to one Baſſe in Fee. Tho. Culpepper dyed without Iſſue, John entred, and being ouſted by Baſſe, brought a Writ of Entre Sur Diſſeiſin againſt him, who ſhewed all the matter and the diſcent to King Ed. 6. and prayed in Aide of him, and the Aide was granted, and 4. Searches were granted in the Chancery; depending which, a Mandamus was awarded at the Suit of Baſſe; and upon that, the Grant in tail to Tho. Culpepper was found, and the Attainder, Execution, and the dates being falſe, a Melius Inquirendum was awarded; The true dates of the Letters Patents upon it was found, but the Attainder and Execution were found to be before the Grant: Upon which Return in Chancery, for the apparent untruths, a Procedendo was awarded; and the Demandant was not put to his Petition, or Monſtrans de Droit, becauſe it ſeemed to the Juſtices upon the matter in Law, That the baſe Fee of the King was determined by the death of Tho. Culpepper without Iſſue, and that the remainder and Entry of the Plaintiff was ſaved by the ſaid Act of Parliament. See Trin. 1 Mar. Dyer, 100. Culpeppers Caſe.

7. Upon a Commiſſion in the Nature of Diem clauſit extremum, a Tenure of the Queen as of the Barony of S. was returned; After, a ſecond Commiſſion found a Tenure in Knight-Service as of the ſaid Barony: After that, a third Commiſſion iſſued, reciting, Quod compertum eſt per Inquiſitionem Caput poſt mortem A. tempore H. 5. that the ſaid Land was holden of the King in Knight-Service in Capite; upon which, Knight-Service in Capite was now returned prout prædict. Inquiſitionem tempore H. 5. liquit. It was holden by the Juſtices in this caſe, That the Heir need not to traverſe the two laſt Inquiſitions, for they were without warrant; but the firſt Office although againſt the Queen ſhall be allowed, till diſproved by a Scire facias which ſhall iſſue out of the Record of H. 5. according to the Statute of 29 E. 1. of Eſcheators. Paſch. 8 Eliz. Dyer 249. Baſſetts Caſe. See 12 Eliz. Dyer, 291. acc.

8. It was found by an Inquiſition after the death of the Lord Powis, who dyed ſeiſed of Land holden in Capite, That V. was his Coſen and Heir, and within age; and E. G. the huſband ſon of the Lord Powis tendred a Traverſe to the dying ſeiſed, and that V. was not his Heir, but A. B. and to have the Land to Farm. V. being of full age, tendred a ſpeciall Livery, the Land being of the value of 100 l. It is there a Quære, If the Queen ex debito Juſtitiæ ought to grant a ſpecial Livery? or if it be in her Election to ſue a general Livery, notwithſtanding the Statute of 33 H. 8. and, if Livery ſhall be ſtayed, untill Traverſe be found or not. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Queen had the Election: And it was the Opinion of the Court, That if the Office was not found for E. G. that V. ſhould proceed with his Livery. Trin. 22 Eliz. Dyer, 377. Vernons Caſe.

Trade.

1. THE Corporation of the Taylors of Ipſwich made an Ordinance, That if any one ſhould exerciſe the Trade of a Taylor, untill he be preſented before them, and they had allowed him to be a Workmar; that he ſhould forfeit to them 3 l. 13 s. 4 d. to be levied by Diſtreſſe or Action of Debt; A man who had been Apprentice to a Taylor 7 years according to the Statute of 5 Eliz. was ſworn to a Gentleman, and by his Commandment made Cleathes in the houſe of his Maſter for his Children, before he was allowed to be a Workman by the Corporation: In this caſe, theſe Points were Reſolved, 1. That by the Common-Law, no man might be prohibited to work in any lawfull Trade, becauſe the Law abhorred Idleneſs as mater omnium vitiorum. See 2 H. 5. 6. A Dyer was bound, that he ſhould not uſe the Dyers Craft for two years; And it was adjudged in that caſe, That the Obligation was void and againſt Law: and the Statute of 5 Eliz. was not made only that Artificers ſhould be skilfull; but that young men ſhould not be brought up in Idleneſs. 2. Reſolved, That the Reſtraint of the Defendant for more then the ſaid Statute was made, was againſt Law; and ſuch Ordinance, That they ſhould be preſented to them, and allowed by them, was contrary to the Act of 5 Eliz. But Ordinances made for the Government of men of Trades and Myſteries are good, but not to reſtrain them in a lawful Trade. 3. Reſolved, That the Statute of 5 Eliz. is intended of a publique uſe of a Trade or Myſtery, and not of him a private Taylor, Cook, Brewer, Baker, &c. in the houſe of any one in his family, for there every one may uſe it in ſuch private manner, although he never had been an Apprentice. 4. Reſolved, That the Statute of 19 H. 7. Cap. 7. doth not allow or diſallow any Ordinances made by a Corporation to be good and lawful; but leaves them to the Common-Law: but only by ſuch allowance they ſhall not incur the penalty of 40 l. if they put in uſe any Ordinances againſt the Kings Prerogative, or the Common profit of the people. Cook 11. Part, 53. The Caſe of the Taylors of Ipſwich. Note; In that Caſe, it was holden further by the Juſtices, That if a man hath brought a new Invention, or a new Trade within the Kingdome in perill of his life, and conſumption of his Eſtate or Stock; Or if a man hath made a new diſcovery of a thing: In ſuch caſes, The King of his Grace and Favour, in recompence of his Coſts and Travail, may grant by Charter unto him, That he only ſhall uſe ſuch a Trade or Traffique for a certain time, Becauſe at the firſt, the people of the Kingdom are ignorant, and have not knowledg or skill to uſe it; but when that Patent is expired, the King cannot make a new Grant thereof; For when a Trade is become Common, and others have been bounden Apprentices in the ſame Trade, there is no reaſon that ſuch ſhould be forbidden to uſe it. See in the ſame Caſe, Godfol. 253. b.

2. J. W. was arreſted at the Suit of the Chamberlain of London, upon the forfeiture of the payment of 5 l. for that he non exiſtens Liber perſona, &c. uſus eſt manuali occupatione de Tallow Chandler, &c. And upon the Return of the Habeas Corpus in the King's-Bench, the Court took adviſement upon that part of it, whereby it was averred, That he non exiſtens, &c. uſus eſt manuali occupatione de Tallow Chandler, &c. and ſhewed not, that he ſold any Candles, &c. For if he made them for his own uſe, and ſold none for gain, he might well do it; as every one is permitted to bake or brew, &c. for their own uſe, &c. but it ſeemed to be implyed by the ſame averment, That it was his Trade by which he got his Living; viz. by ſelling Commodities of his Trade, and not that he made them for his own uſe: For it is not properly ſaid, That one uſeth a Manual Occupation, when he only doth it for himſelf. And Note, the Caſe there was, That the Cuſtome of London was, That no perſon whatſoever not being Free of the City, ſhall by any colour, way, or means whatſoever directly or indirectly by himſelf, or by any other, keep any Shop or any place whatſoever inward or outward, to put to ſale any Wares or Merchandizes by way of Retail, or uſe any Trade, Myſtery, or Handicraft, for hire, gain, or ſale within the City of London, upon pain of Forfeiture for every time 5 l. It was Reſolved, That the ſame was good by way of Cuſtome, but it was not good by way of Grant or Charter made to the City. Hill. 7 Jac. in C. B. Wagoners Caſe. Cook. Caſe of the City of London. Cook 8. Part, 122. to 129.

3. The Queen by her Letters Patents granted to Darcy, the making of playing Cards, and the ſole Importation of all playing Cards into England for two years; and by the ſame Letters Patents did forbid that no other ſhould buy, Import, or ſell any playing Cards within the Realm during the Term. In this caſe, It was Reſolved, That the Grant of the ſole making of playing Cards within the Realm, was void; firſt, becauſe it is a Monopoly; which is againſt the benefit and Liberty of the Subject. Secondly, Becauſe the ſole Trade of any Mechanical Artifice, is a prejudice to all the Subjects, and only for the private Commodity of the Patentee; and a Grant of the King to the Grievance of the People, is void in Law. Cook 11. Part, 85, 86.

4. Note: Upon a Motion made for a Conſultation upon a Prohibition awarded: It was ſaid by Cook, Chief Juſtice, That no Subject of the King may Trade with any Realm of Infidells without Licence of the King; and the reaſon of that is, That he may relinquiſh the Catholick Faith, and adhere to Infidelliſm; and he ſaid, that he had ſeen a Licence made in the time of King Ed. 3. where the King recited, That he having ſpeciall Truſt and Confidence, That his Subject will not decline from his Faith and Religion, Licenſed him, ut ſupra. And Note, this Queſtion did ariſe upon the Recital of a Licence made to a Merchant to trade into the Eaſt-Indies. Hill. 7 Jac. in C.B. Mitchelburn and Mitchelburn's Caſe. Brownlow 2. Part. 196.

5. In an Aſſumpſit, the Plaintiff declared, That the Defendant was a Mercer, and kept a Shop in N, and had his Shop furniſhed with old ſullied Wares; and the Plaintiff had a Shop furniſhed with new and Freſh Wares; and in Conſideration that the Plaintiff would buy of him his Wares in his Shop, and pay for them ſuch prizes as he paid when he firſt bought them; The Defendant promiſed, That he would not any longer keep

keep any Shop in N: and the Plaintiff declared, That he bought the Defendant's said Wares, and paid 300 l. for them, the price the Defendant bought them at; whereas they were not worth 100 l: and yet the Defendant contrary to his promise kept his Shop there, and furnished it with new Wares to the Plaintiff's damage of 500 l. It was moved in Arrest of Judgment, it being found for the Plaintiff, That the Assumpsit was against Law, being to restrain the use of a lawful Trade. But all the Justices held, That it was a good Assumpsit, for it is voluntary, and that a man upon a valuable Consideration, may restrain himself, that he will not use his Trade in such a Town, which is usual in London, et volenti non fit injuria. And it was said, It is not like the case of 2 H. 4. of the Dyer; for there he was compelled to enter into Bond, Not to use the Trade of a Dyer: and yet in that case, the Defendant durst not Demur. And upon the matter, it is but the selling of his Custome, and leaving another to gain it! And a Prescription to restrain one to use a Trade in such a place, is good. And Pasch. 18 Jac. Bragg and Tanners Case, was agreed, Where one for 30 l. promised to pay 100 l. if he thence forward kept a Drapers Shop in Newgate-Market, that the Assumpsit was good. And in the principal case, upon a Writ of Errour brought in the Exchequer-Chamber, the Judgment was affirmed by all the Justices. Mich. 17 Jac. in B. R. Broad and Folletts Case, Cro. 2. Part, 596.

High-Treason, and Petit-Treason.

What Treason by the Common-Law, by the Statute of 25 Ed. 3. And what Treason by other Particular Statutes: Treason by Acts done; and Treason by Words spoken.

1. IF any one shall Imagine, Intend, or Compasse the death of the King, or of his Royal Consort the Queen, and shall by Writing, or open act declare the same, Hic est omnes Lesæ Majestatis, an Offence against the Head of the Common-wealth, and therefore High-Treason, by the Common-Law, and so declared by the Act of 25 E. 3. Cook 8. Part, 28. in the Prince's Case.

2. If any one shall kill the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England; who is the dispeser of the Kings Conscience; The Treasurer, the Lord Keeper and dispeser of the Kings Treasure and Revenue; The Lord Chief Justice of England, Lord Chief Justice of the Common-Pleas, Justices of Assise, or any other Justice, in the time of the Execution of their Places, who are as it were the distributive hands of the Kings Ordinary Justice, this is an Offence against the Person of the King himself; and hath been accounted High-Treason.

3. Tho. Bensted was Indicted and Arraigned before Commissioners of Oyer and Terminer, wherein all the Justices and Barons were in Commission: In which case, It was Resolved by them, That he going to Lambeth-House in Warlike manner to surprise the Archbishop who was a Privy Counsellor, it being with Drum and a Multitude of 300 persons, that it was Treason. 2. That the breaking of a Prison wherein Traytors be in durance, and causing them to Escape, was Treason, although that the parties did not know that there were any Traytors there; and that upon the Statute of 1 H. 6. Cap. 5. Pasch. 16 Car. in B. R. Thomas Bensted's Case. Cro. 1. Part, 421. See 5 R. 2. Rott. Parliament, membr. 31 32. acc.

4 Nott,

4. Note: If Subjects of the King Levy War, they are not Enemies, but Traytors and Rebells: And he which is over-Sea at the time of Rebellion, and there succours a Rebell who did fly thither, knowing it is a Traytor, by 25 E. 3. by 4 Justices, Hill. 13 Eliz. Dyer, 298. And see there, Story being beyond Sea, practised with a Foreign Prince, to invade the Realm. Also he practised the Destruction of the Queen. It was holden, That they were both Treasons, and Tryable by 35 H. 8. an Act in force, notwithstanding the Repeal, and the Clause of 1 & 2 Mar. That Tryals for Treason shall be according to the Common-Law. Hill. 13 Eliz. Dyer, 298. Stories Case. Dyer, 310.

5. If a man joyn the Arms of England with his own Arms, the same is Treason; and so it is, if he Counterfeiteth the Arms of the King. 33 H. 8. Pr. Treason, 2. Kitchin 12. acc.

6. Note: It is said, That if at this day a man be aiding to the Kings Enemies, or be killed in open Rebellion against the King, he shall not forfeit his Lands or his Goods. But if the Chief Justice of the Kings-Bench (who is Head-Coroner of England) in person upon view of the body of him killed, make a Record thereof, and retorneth the same into the Kings-Bench. It is such a Treason, for which he shall forfeit his Lands and Goods; And so it was said, It was Resolved in the time of H. 7. by Fineux, Chief Justice, Cook 4. Part, 57. in the Case of the Wardens and Comminalty of Sadlers.

7. A. Crohogan, an Irish-man, was arraigned for Treason; For that being the Kings Subject, 9. July, 7 Car. at Lisbone in Spain, he used these words, I will kill the King, (innuendo Dominum Carolum Regem Angliæ) if I may come to him: And in August, 9 Car. he came into England for the same purpose. To this he pleaded, Not guilty; and it was proved by two Merchants, That he spake these words on Shipboard at Lisbone in Spain: and added in great heat these words, Because he is an Heretique. This his Traytorous intent and imagination of his heart, declared by these words, were holden to be High-Treason, by the Course of the Common-Law; He coming into England, was Arrested and Arraigned, and found guilty, and had Judgment as a Traytor: and although his Returning into England, (he being a Dominican Fryer, and made Priest in Spain) to seduce the Kings people, was Treason, by the Statute of 23 Eliz. yet he was proceeded against for Treason, upon the Statute of 25 Ed. 3. of Treason. Mich. 9 Car. in B. R. Arthur Crohogan's Case. Cro. 1. Part, 242.

8. John Owen, alias Collins, was Indicted and Arraigned of High-Treason, for speaking these Traytorous English words at Sandwich in the County of Kent; viz. If the King be excommunicate by the Pope, It is lawful for every man to kill him, and it is no Murder: For as it is lawful to put a man to death who is condemned by a Temporal Judge, so it is lawful to kill the King, if he be excommunicate by the Pope; for that is the execution of Law; and this, of the Pope's Supream Sentence: The Pope being the greater, includes the King being the lesser. He pleaded, Not Guilty. The sum of the Evidence was, That the said Owen coming from St. Lucar in Spain, spake the said words to divers persons, who told them to the Mayor of Sandwich, who having Conference with him, he spake the like words to the Mayor: Whereupon, the Mayor tendred him the Oath of Allegiance; which he refused to take; and he put his hand to a Writing, containing the said words, as his Opinion. The Exception taken by Owen, was, That he did not speak of the King of England. But that was said to be a simple Exception; For that before he spake the words to the Mayor, the Mayor asked him, If he were an Englishman, or not? He answered, He was, and then spake the said words to the Mayor. The Chief Justice, Cook, said, That if he had not spoken of the King of England, but of the King generally, it had included the King of England: The Matter of his Indictment was not grounded upon the Statute of Supremacy, but upon the Common-Law, his Intent to compass the death of the King; of which the Statute of 25 E. 3. is but an Explanation. And he said, That notwithstanding that the words were but Conditionable; viz. (If he were Excommunicated) yet he said, It was High Treason. And so it was said, It was adjudged in the Duke of Buckingham's Case, in the time of King Hen. 8th, and in the Lord Stanley's Case, in the time of King Hen. the 7th. Owen was found Guilty, and had Judgment of Treason. Pasch. 13 Jac. in B. R. Owen alias Collins Case. Godbolt, 363.

9. Note: It was said per Curiam, That words spoken may be Treason; as, to say, That the King is a Bastard, and that another hath better Title to the Crown; for that may draw the Subjects from their Allegiance, and beget Mutiny in the Kingdome. And therefore, It was Resolved in an Action upon the Case, for words spoken, which were these, I will hang him, for he hath spoken words which be High-Treason; that an Action will lye for the words, although the words be general. And it was said by Flemming, Chief Justice, That in such case, it is not safe for the Plaintiff to put incertain, what words the Defendant dant ſpake; For words which are Treaſon, are Arcana Imperii, and not to be vulgarly bruited and uttered; but are only to be diſcovered to the King or his Councel, or other Magiſtrate; for otherwiſe by his ordinary report of the words without diſcovering them, the Plaintiff may endanger himſelf. 10. M. and two others were Indicted for counterfeiting 20 ſhillings pieces of the Kings Coyn, and M. for offering thoſe pieces to the Kings Subjects, knowing them to be Counterfeit; He being thereupon Arraigned, pleaded Not-Guilty. But the Evidence being pregnant againſt him, he was found guilty, and the others were acquitted, and Judgment given, That he ſhould be drawn, and hanged, but not quartered, according to the Opinion of Stamford, 182. 11. Note: It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, in the Caſe of Rich. Bradſhaw, and Robert Burton, who with others by word entred into an agreement one with the other, to riſe and put themſelves into Arms, and ſo to go from one Gentlemans houſe to another, and ſo from houſe to houſe, to pull down Incloſures: This appearing by their own Confeſſion, and two Witneſſes, was adjudged to be High-Treaſon within the Statute of 13 Eliz. Cap. 1. The words of which Statute are, That if any intend to levy War againſt the Queen, and this malitiouſly, adviſedly, and expreſly declare, or utter by any words or ſayings, that this ſhall be high Treaſon. For all the Court agreed, That Rebellion of Subjects againſt the Queen, hath been alwayes High Treaſon at the Common-Law. For the Statute of 25 E. 3. Cap. 1. is, That levying of War within the Realm, is Treaſon, and Rebellion is all the War which a Subject can make againſt the King. Paſch. 39 Eliz. Bradſhaw and Burtons Caſe. Popham, 122.

12. Note: Upon the Arraignment of Robert Earl of Eſſex, and others for Treaſon, which was, 19 Feb. 44 Eliz. It was holden by Popham Chief Juſtice of England; Periam, Lord Chief Baron of the Exchequer; Gawdy, Fenner, Wolmeſley, Clark, and Kingsmill, Juſtices, and ſo adjudged, That the Conſultation of them in Drury Houſe, was Treaſon, although the ſame came not to effect; and the Rebellion in the City, was a proſecution of that their Conſultation, for if they could have got Aide at London amongſt the Citizens, they would have invaded the Court: And in that caſe, It was by the ſame Judges further Reſolved, That he who intendeth to preſcribe Lawes to his King or Prince, whereby he reſtraineth his power, doth intend miſchief, and deſtruction of his Prince, and doth intend both to take the Crown and life from him. 2. That if a man be ignorant of the determination of thoſe that take up Arms againſt the Prince, and yet joyneth himſelf in Action with them that do it, he is guilty of Treaſon. 3. If any man ſhall attempt to ſtrengthen himſelf ſo far, that the Prince cannot reſiſt him, he is guilty of Treaſon. Alſo, That every Rebellion the Law conſtrueth to be a Plot againſt the Kings life, and a depoſing of him, in as much as the Rebell will not ſuffer the King to continue or Raign, that ſhall after puniſh or revenge ſuch a Rebellion. See for theſe Reſolutions of the Juſtices upon the Arraignment of the Earl of Eſſex, 19. Febr. 44 Eliz. Mr. Cambden's Book of the Life of Queen Elizabeth; and Quære.

Preſidents of Treaſon.

1. Thomas Heber, 18 E. 4. was Indicted of Treaſon for theſe words, viz. That the laſt Parliament was the moſt ſimple and inſufficient Parliament that ever had bin in England, That the King was gone to live in Kent, becauſe that at the preſent he had not the love of the Citizens of London, nor ſhould he have it for the future. That if the Biſhop of Bath and Wells were dead, the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, being Cardinal of England, would loſe his Head. It was adjudged in this Caſe, That theſe words were ſufficient Evidence to prove, that they were ſpoken to withdraw the affection of the people from the King, and to ſtir them up againſt him in mortem et deſtructionem Regis, and therefore were High Treaſon. 18 E. 4. in B. R. Tho. Hebers Caſe. See 3 Ma. Dyer, 128. Conſtables Caſe. Cook 1. Part, 10. Calvins Caſe.

2. Elizabeth Barton the Holy maid of Kent, for pretending Revelations from God, That God was highly diſpleaſed with the King for being Divorced from the Lady Katharine, and that in Caſe he perſiſted in that ſeparation, and ſhould marry another, that he would not continue King above a Month after; becauſe that the ſame tended to the depriving of the lawful Succeſſion of the Crown: ſhe was Attainted of Treason by the Statute of 25 H. 8. Elie, Bartons Case.

3. Rich. Cole, for putting Poyson in a Pot of Pottage in the Kitchin of the Bishop of Rochester; whereby two persons dyed, was Attainted of Treason; and by the Statute of 22 H. 8. cap. 9. It was Enacted, That he should be boyled to death. 22 H. 8. Richard Coles Case.

4. John Imperiall that came into England upon Letters of safe Conduct, as an Agent from the State of Genoa, sitting in the Evening before his Door in Bread-street (as the words are of the Record) paulo ante ignitegium, John Kirby another Citizen coming that way, casually Kirby trode upon his Toe, it being twilight, this grew to an affray, and the Ambassador was slayn. Kirby was Indicted of Treason, the Indictment found all this, and that it was se defendendo, and without Malice. Yet afterwards by Parliament it was declared Treason, because the same did concern the honour of the Nation, that publick Faith should be strictly kept; and it might endanger the Traffique of the Kingdome; and therefore Judgement was given against him for Treason, and Kirby was Attainted. See 2 R. 2. Rott. Parliament. Mich. 18. 3 R. 2. Ter. Hill. Rott. 31. in B. R. John de Imperialls Case.

5. John Hall for a barbarous Murder committed upon the Duke of Glocester, stifling him between two Fether beds at Calice, was adjudged to be hanged, drawn, and quartered by Parliament in 1 H. 4. And yet it was but Murder. But the Parliament added the greater punishment to it in respect of the foulness of the fact. 1 H. 4. John Halls Case.

6. John Sparkewke, upon the way amongst other discourse said, That King Henry the fourth was not rightfull King, but the Earl of March, and that the Pope would Grant Indulgencies to all that would assist the Earls Title; and that within half a year, there would be no Liveries nor Cognizances of the King; That the King had not kept promises with the people, but had layed Taxes upon them. This denying the Title, with motives, though but implyedly of Action against it, was adjudged Treason, and a compassing of the Kings death. Pasc. 3 H. 4. Rott. 12. in B. R. Sparkewes Case.

7. An Indictment was Presented against John Awater, for these words, That he had bin servant to the Earl of Warwick, That though he were dead, the Earl of Oxford was alive, and should have the Government of part of the Countrey; That Edward whom they call King of England was a false man, and had by Art and subtilty slain the Earl of Warwick, and the Duke of Orleans his brother without any cause, who before had both of them bin Attainted of High Treason. It was adjudged, That these words were High Treason. Trin. 18 E. 4. Awaters Case.

8. Henry Lord Grey, being Lieutenant of Ireland, was Attainted of High Treason, and had Judgment for letting divers Rebells out of the Castle of Dublin, and discharging Irish Hostages and Pledges that had bin given for the securing of the Peace, and for not punishing one who said, The King was an Heretick. He pleaded, This was no adhering to the Kings Enemies; and yet it was adjudged Treason, and they cost his life. Trin. 33 H. 8. in B. R. Leon. Lord Grey's Case.

9. Sir John Mortimer being committed to the Tower for suspition of Treason, he brake the Prison and escaped; and although that was not Treason within the Statute of 25 E. 3. yet 2 H. 6. he was Attainted of Treason for the same by Bill. See 2 H. 6. Sir John Mortimers Case.

10. Bassball comming from London, found Bernard at Plough in the Parish of Offley, in the County of Hertford. Bernard asked him, What News? He said to him, That King Richard the second was alive in Scotland (which was false), and that at Midsummer he would come into England. Bernard said, What is then to be done? Bassball answered, Get men, and go to King Richard. This Advice was adjudged to be High Treason. Mich. 3 H. 4. in B. R. rott. 4.

11. Grant, and divers other Apprentices of London assembled at Tower Hill, carried a Cloak upon a Pole instead of a Banner; their intent was to deliver divers Apprentices out of Prison, being committed by a Sentence in the Star-Chamber for Ryots. To kill the Mayor, and to set prizes upon Victualls. It was Resolved in that Case, That it was a levying of War against the Queen, being intended against the Government, and the Officers of the Queen. Trin. 37 Eliz. in B. R. adjudged, Grants Case.

12. Note, it was Resolved, That if Inhabitants of a Town consult to take up Arms to throw in Inclosures upon a private Interest or claim of Common, that the same is but a great Ryot. But where divers of the County of Oxford consulted together, and stirred up others to take up Arms for the throwing in of all Inclosures in England, although that nothing was done, nor no assembly made to that purpose of them: Yet forasmuch as the Statute of Merton gives power of Inclosures in many Cases; the same was adjudged a levying of War against the Queen, and Treason within the Statute of 13 Eliz. cap. 1. Pasc. 39 Eliz. in B. R. Bradshawes Case.

13. A Bull was publiſhed, Anno 11 of the Reign of Queen Eliz. by Pope Pius Quintus, by which the Queens Majeſty was excommunicated, and deprived of her Kingdome, and thereby declared, That her Subjects were diſcharged of all Obedience to her. It was Reſolved by all the Judges, That the publiſhing of this Bull by a Subject againſt his Soveraign, was Treaſon in the higheſt degree by the ancient Common Law of England: For, if to publiſh a Bull of Excommunication within this Realm againſt a Subject thereof, was adjudged Treaſon in the time of King E. 1. as it was; à fortiori, it is Treaſon in the higheſt degree to publiſh ſuch a Bull againſt the Soveraign Monarch her ſelf. And therefore Anno 13 Eliz. cap. 1. by Act of Parliament it was declared, That if any perſon after the firſt day of July next comming, ſhould uſe or put in ure in any place within the Realm, or any of the Queens Dominions; any ſuch Bull, Writing, or Inſtrument, from the Biſhop of Rome, or any his Succeſſors; not only to bring the Realm and the Imperial Crown thereof into the thraldome and ſubjection of Forreign and unlawfull Juriſdiction and Authority claimed by the See of Rome, but to eſtrange and alienate the minds of the Queens Subjects from their dutifull obedience, and to raiſe and ſtir up ſedition and rebellion within the Realm, that the ſame ſhould be High Treaſon. See Stat. 13 Eliz. cap. 1, and it was ſaid, That this was High Treaſon by the Ancient Common Law. And thereupon Campian, Sherwin, and many other Popiſh Prieſts being apprehended, and confeſſing that they came into England to make a party for the Catholick cauſe when need ſhould require, were in the 23th year of the late Queen, Indicted, Arraigned, tryed, adjudged, and executed by the ancient Common Law, for their High Treaſon againſt their natural Prince. Cook 5. Part. In the Caſe of the Kings Eccleſiaſtical Law. p. 2, and 15.

Pettit Treaſon.

1. PEtit Treaſon is an Offence againſt the Head, although not againſt the Supream Head of the Common Wealth: If therefore the Wife killeth her Husband, or the Servant his Maſter, or the Maid Servant her Miſtreſs, unto whom as unto their Heads they are Subordinate. Or if the Clerk ſhall kill his Ordinary who is his ſuper-intendent, this is Petit-Treaſon. See 12 Aſſ. 30. 1 R. 3. 4. acc. And it hath bin holden for Law, That if a Servant intendeth to kill his Maſter, or a Maid her Miſtreſs, and leave their Service, and afterwards do put their Intention into Act, that this is Petit Treaſon. See 39 Aſſ. 17. and Plow. Comm. 260. and Quære.

2. A Woman Servant conſpired to rob her Miſtreſs, and in the Night ſhe let in a Felon at the door, and had him to the bed of her Miſtreſs, where he killed her Miſtreſs, the Servant holding the Candle, but ſaid nothing. It is a Quære in 3 M. Dyer, 128. If ſhe be a Principal, and if it be Petit Treaſon. See 40 E. 3. Br. Corone 119. Plow. Comment. 100. and Dalton Juſtice of Peace. 231.

3. The Wife conſpired with her Servant to kill her Husband, which ſhe did in the abſence of the Wife. It was holden by the Juſtices, that it was Petit Treaſon in the Wife being Acceſſary, becauſe it was Petit Treaſon in the Servant, but otherwiſe if the Conſpiracy had bin with a ſtranger. Paſc. 16 Eliz. Dyer, 332.

4. Appeal was brought by the Son of the death of his Father, againſt Mary Pigot, and Eliz. Lewes, becauſe that they felonicè conſpired the death of Robert Pigot the Plaintiffs Father, late Husband of the ſaid Mary; and that for that purpoſe, the ſaid Mary proditoriè, and the ſaid Eliz. felonicè miniſtred unto him a kind of Poyſon in a Poſſet, which he not knowing, drank up, and after within a ſhort time dyed. After full Evidence againſt Mary, and doubtfull againſt Eliz. Exception was taken that there was but one Venire facias, whereas there ought to have been ſeveral Venire facias's in the Appeal, for that they were ſeveral Offenders, the one one being charged with Treason, the other with Felony. But it was the Opinion of the Court, That the Plaintiff might take one Venire facias, or several Venire facias's for doubt of alleage. See 9 E. 4. 27. Wherefore it was adjudged for the Plaintiff, and Judgment given, that the said Mary should be burnt. Trin. 14 Car. in B. R. Pigot and Pigots Case. Cro. 1. Part, 382.

5. One Butler and others upon the Sea, next to the Town of Leyfast in Suffolk, robbed divers of the Queens Subjects, and spoiled them of their goods, which they brought into Norfolk, and there they were apprehended and brought before a Justice of Peace of the same County, who being examined, confessed a cruel and barbarous Piracy, and that those goods which they then had with them, were part of the goods which they had robbed from the Queens Subjects upon the Sea. It was the Opinion of Wray and Periam Justices, That forasmuch as the Common Law doth not take notice of the Original Offence, scil. the Piracy, the bringing of the stolen goods upon the Sea into a County, did not make the same punishable at the Common Law; and therefore their Offence was committed to the Vice-Admiral of the said County. 28 Eliz. Butlers Case.

6. A Master or Captain of a Ship, a Norman, together with some English men, robbed the Kings Subjects upon the High Seas. It was said by Fisher in that Case, That it was Felony in the Norman Captain, and Treason in the English men; and the reason of the Case was, because the Normans were not then under the Obedience and Allegiance of the King of England (for King John lost Normandy) and for that cause Piracy was but Felony in the Norman Captain; but in the English, which were under the Obedience of the King of England, the same was adjudged Treason (which is to be understood of Pettit Treason) which was High Treason before, and therefore in that Case the Pirats being apprehended, the Norman Captain was hanged, and the English men were hanged and drawn. See Stamford 10. 40 Aff. 25. vouched in the Case of the Admiralty. Trin. 7 Jac. Regis. Cook 8th Cases 54.

Where and what Lands shall be forfeited to the King for High Treason; and what not.

1. KIng Henry the 8th, Tenant in tail to him, and the Heirs Males of his body of the Mannor of A. by force of a Fine lavyed 3 H. 7. with the Reversion to him, his Heirs, and Successors by force of an Attainder, and Office, gave the same Lands by his Letters Patents to W. W. in tail. And after it was Enacted by Parliament, That the said Mannor of A. for the cause of the Grant, Profit, and Pleasure of it, should be vested in the King, his Heirs, and Successors, saving to all their rights, &c. W. W. bargained and sold the said Mannor to J. S. who entred, against whom Intrusion was brought. In that Case, Exception was taken to the pleading; It being that King H. 7. was seised of the Reversion in Fee by the said Act of Attainder. By which it is Enacted, That the said Earl of Warwick shall forfeit all his Lands, &c. and that King H. 7. dyed seised of the said Reversion, and that that did discend to King H. 8. is repugnant and insufficient. For inasmuch as it doth not appear, when Ed. Earl of Warwick dyed who was Attainted, it is clear, That untill his death, or Office found, nothing rested in King Henry the 7th. For so it was said it was Resolved 27 H. 8. Br. Tit. Office 17. 15 Eliz. Dyer. 325. And the Statute of 26 H. 8. cap. 13. by which Land in tail is forfeit. And 33 H. 8. cap. 20. which Land forfeit for Treason, is by the said vested in the King without Office prout, that this word (shall forfeit) vests nothing in the King till Office, or death at the Common Law: And so it was Resolved in this Case. But then it was Resolved, That an Office found before the Escheator, and returned into the Chancery is good; and if it be found upon Examination of the Escheator that he hath seised the Lands into the Kings hands, although that such Office be never returned, yet it is sufficient to entitle the King. Cook 1. Part, 42. The Case of Alton Woods.

2. In Intrusion it was found, That A. was seised of divers Messuages, and by Deed Indented and Inrolled, Bargained and sold all his Lands and Messuages lying in the Parish of St. Andrew, in the Tenure and Occupation of J. S. to B. for life, the Remainder to C. in Fee. B. entred and took Husband who who made a Leaſe for years; A. is Attainted of Treaſon. The King granted the ſaid Meſſuages to D. and his Heirs; Proviſo, That if they were not concealed, that then the Letters Pattents ſhould be void; and it was found that the Lands lay in the Pariſh of St. Sepulchres, and that they were in the Tenure of J. S. In this Caſe it was Reſolved, 1. That nothing paſſed by the ſaid Bargain and Sale, becauſe that the firſt certainty, viz. in the Pariſh of St. Andrews in Holborn was falſe. 2. Reſolved, That by the Common Law, and by the Statute of 26 H. 8. cap. 13. for Lands in tail, the actual poſſeſſion was not in the King by Attainder before Office. But when Tenant in Feeſimple is Attainted of Treaſon, and dyeth, the Fee, and Freehold without Office found, ſhall be in the King. For neceſſity that a Freehold cannot be in Abeyance; but otherwiſe it is, If Tenant in tail be Attainted, for that it ſhall diſcend to his Iſſue untill Office found: For the Act of 26 H. 8. gives only the Forfeiture, and Attainder was no corruption of bloud for Lands Intailed, untill the Statute of 33 H. 8. cap. 20. 2. It was Reſolved, That although by the Statute of 33 of Henry the Eighth the King ſhall be in actual poſſeſſion without Office, yet when the Diſſeiſee is Attainted of Treaſon, preſently the King by his Attainder had but a Right; And if a Diſſeiſee at the Common Law is Attainted of Treaſon, and the Seiſin and Diſſeiſin be found by Office, the King ſhall not be in poſſeſſion without ſeizure. Afterwards in the principal Caſe Office was found, and by that the Meſſuages were ſeiſed into the Kings hands, and new Letters Pattents were thereof made by the King, and the ſecond Pattentee peaceably enjoyed the Lands. Cook 3. Part, 10. Dowties Caſe.

3. Tenant in tail of the gift of the King by Knight Service, before the Statute of 26 H. 8. is Attainted of Treaſon, and dyeth, his Heir within age; although that the bloud be corrupted, yet it was holden in ſuch Caſe, That by force of the Statute of Divis, he ſhall be in Ward, becauſe he is a ſpecial Heir in ſuch Caſe. And although the King ſeiſed the Land in ſuch Caſe as forfeit for Treaſon; yet when the King is in poſſeſſion, the Law ſhall adjudg him in by reaſon of Wardſhip, which is his beſt title: & the Law doth more reſpect a ſmall Eſtate during the Minority by right, then a great Eſtate in Fee by wrong: And in that Caſe it was agreed, That if there be Grandfather, Father, and Son, and the Father is Attainted of Treaſon, and dyeth, and then the Grandfather dyeth ſeiſed, That in ſuch Caſe, although that the bloud be corrupted, yet the Land ſhall diſcend to the Son per formam Doni, and that Diſcent ſhall take away Entry, for that the Son is in by Diſcent. See 7 H. 4. 32. Hollands Caſe vouched in Cook 8. Part, 166. in Digbyes Caſe.

4. Husband and Wife, Dontes in ſpecial tail; The Husband is Attainted of Treaſon, and executed, having Iſſue, the Wife dyes. In that Caſe it was ſaid, That the Iſſue ſhould not have the Land, for that he ought to make Conveyance by both, as it was holden by the Juſtices there. See 5 H. 7. 33. But ſee Cook 9. Part, 139. in Beaumonts Caſe, the reaſon of that Caſe, That in the ſaid Caſe of Treaſon, the bar and forfeiture is made by the Statute of 26 H. 8. But yet by that Statute, The Eſtate of the Wife, if ſhe overliveth her Husband, is ſaved, and the bar is only as to the Iſſues in tail, and not as to the Eſtate of the Wife. See Caſe, 16 Eliz. Dyer, 332. Cook 9. Part, 139, 140. Beaumonts Caſe.

5. Note, It was Reſolved, That a Name of Dignity, as of a Viſcount, Earl, &c. may be entailed by the Kings Letters Pattents, to one and the Heirs Males of his body, and the ſame is within the Statute of Donis, for that it concerns Land, and every Baron or Earl is Created of ſome place. 2. That the Dignity, if the Statute of 26 H. 8. had not bin made by Attainder of Treaſon, might be forfeited by a Condition in Law annexed to the Eſtate of the Dignity. For the ſame is an Office of great truſt and confidence repoſed in him by the King; and when ſuch a perſon doth a thing againſt his Duty, and the end of his Dignity in taking up of Arms, or otherwiſe againſt the King, and is thereof Attainted, he ſhall forfeit his Dignity by a Condition in Law annexed to the Eſtate of it. 2. In that Caſe it was Reſolved, That if ſuch a Dignity had not bin forfeited for Treaſon at the Common Law, yet it was forfeited by the Statute of 26 H. 8. cap. 13. For a Dignity is an Hereditament, and an Inheritance was of it. Cook 7. Part, 33. 34. Nevills Caſe.

6. It was found by Office in 43 Aſſ. 28. Returned into the Chancery, That one W. of Hilgton who was ſeiſed of certain Lands in the County of York, was aiding to Gilbert de M. who was the Kings Enemy, and that the Lands were ſeiſed into the Kings hands; and thereupon came W. into the Chancery, and traverſed the Office, and it was found for him, and he had Reſtitution by Judgment of the Court. Note, Cook 4. Part, 57. in the Caſe of the Warden of the Sadlers, gave a Covent to the Recorder upon that Caſe. For there he ſaith, That at this day although a man be aiding to the Kings Enemy, or be killed in open Rebellion againſt the King, he ſhall not forfeit his Lands, or his goods. But if the Chief Juſtice of the Kings Bench (who is head Coroner of all England) in perſon upon view of the body of him killed in open Rebellion, Rebellion, make a Record thereof, and retorneth the ſame into the Kings Bench, he ſhall forfeit his Lands and his goods, as it was done and Reſolved in the time of Henry the 7th by Fineux Chief Juſtice. Cook 4. Part, 57. in the Sadlers Caſe.

7. In a Monſtrans de droit, the Caſe was this; In 17 E. 2. John de Malo Lacu, gave to Peter de Mal Lacu, and the Heirs Males of his body, the Caſtle and Mannor of Mulgrave, which came to Sir Ralph Bigod; Sir Ralph Bigod 6 H. 8. made thereof a Feoffment in Fee to W. and others, to the uſe of his laſt Will, and dyed; the right of the Lands, together with the entail and the uſe, diſcended to Sir Francis Bigod. 21 H. 8. Sir Francis made a Feoffment to J. S. and others, to the uſe of himſelf and Katharine his Wife, and the Heirs of their two bodies, and had Iſſue Ralph Bigod, and Dorothy. 26 H. 8. the Statute of forfeiture for Treaſon was made. 29 H. 8. Sir Francis was Attainted of Treaſon, and Executed, and Katharine ſurvived him. 31 H. 8. a ſpecial Act of Parliament was made of his Attainder and forfeiture. 6 Eliz. Ralph Bigod, Son of Sir Francis and Katharine, was reſtored in bloud by Parliament, and dyed without Iſſue: Dorothy married Roger Ratcliff, and they had Iſſue Francis Ratcliff. 8 Eliz. Katharine dyed, Francis entred. 33 Eliz. all this was found by Office. 34 Eliz. The Queen Granted the Caſtle and Mannor to Edmund Lord Sheffeild, and the Heirs Males of his body, Roger Ratcliff brought his Monſtrans de droit, and had Judgment: Whereupon Error was brought in the Exchequer Chamber. There were two main Queſtions in the Caſe. 1. Whether Francis Bigod who had an Eſtate in ſpecial tail in poſſeſſion, and alſo a right of the old entail in him at the time of the Attainder, or whether it was in Abeyance in reſpect of the Feoffment made in 21 H. 8. And the Opinion of the Court was, That the Feoffment gave away all the Eſtate de Tenant in tail the Feoffor had concerning himſelf, or any benefit he might receive thereby; but as concerning his Iſſue to that in tail Inheritable, and to him in the Reverſion, and for their good; there remained ſtill to him a right by force of the Statute of weſt. 2. for the good of thoſe that are ſaved by that Statute; but whether it be in the Feoffor ſleeping till there be an Heir in tail, or in Abeyance, or in conſideration of the Law, is a Queſtion. 2. It was Reſolved, That this old right of the Eſtate tail was forfeited to the Crown by the Statute of 26 H. 8. for that there was an actual Eſtate in tail in the perſon Attainted at the time of the Attainder. 3. It was Reſolved, That their Rights were bound by the expreſs words of the Statute, there being no ſaving therein for them. 4. Reſolved, That when the Office was found, the Iſſue in tail was barred notwithſtanding any Remitter pretended to be in the Caſe. Wherefore Judgment was given for the King and the Lord Sheffield, and that the former Judgment ſhould be reverſed. And the Heirs of the Lord Sheffeild peaceably hold the Caſtle, Mannor, and Lands at this day. Mich. 13 Jac. in the Exchequer Chamber. rott. 96. The Lord Sheffeild and Ratcliffs Caſe. Hob. 334. See Godbolt, 314. long argued the ſame Caſe.

8. The Biſhop of Durham had Jura Regalia within his Dioceſs. Then came the Statute of 26 H. 8. Whether the forfeiture of Treaſon ſhould be taken away from the Biſhop by reaſon of that Statute, and given to the King, was the Queſtion. It was holden in that Caſe, That for new Treaſons, the Biſhop ſhould not have the forfeitures, for thoſe were at the Common Law; but that he ſhould have the forfeitures of Lands in Feeſimple within his Dioceſs, and that he had by force of the ſaving in the ſaid Statute. 12 Eliz. Dyer, 289. the Biſhop of Durhams Caſe.

9. By the Statute of 26 H. 8. Church Land was forfeited; for ſo you ſhall find it in the Statute of Monaſteries, which excepts Church Lands to be forfeited for Treaſon. Cardinal Pool being Attainted did forfeit his Deanary, and yet he was not ſeiſed thereof in Jure proprio. For it was Jus Eccleſiæ. For ſee 27 E. 3. 89. A Writ of Right of Advowſon was brought by a Dean, and he Counted, That it was Jus Eccleſiæ; and Exception was taken, That it is not Jus ſuæ Eccleſiæ; but the exception was diſallowed: for the Jus is not in his natural capacity, but in his Politick capacity; and yet by the Statute of 26 H. 8. ſuch Church Land was forfeited for Treaſon. See Godbolt, 324. acc. 27 E. 3. 89.

Treſpaſs

Treſpaſs.

Where it lyeth; by whom, for whom, againſt whom, and for what: where vi & armis, where not; And what ſhall be a good Bar in the Action, what not.

1. THere are two ſorts of Writs of Treſpaſs, the one is, Treſpaſs upon the Caſe, which is Vicountiel, and is directed to the Sheriff, and the Treſpaſs is to be determined by him; It is in the concluſion of the Writ, Contra Pacem, but the Writ is not Vi & Armis, nor is it retornable, as other Writs of Treſpaſs are; but if the Writs which are retornable in the Common Pleas, or Kings Bench, want the words, Quare vi & armis in the Writ, the Writs ſhall abate.

2. Treſpaſs, Quare vi & armis againſt Tenant at Will; The Defendant Demurred in Law; Whether any ſuch Action will lye againſt him or no; The Action was for cutting down of Trees: It was agreed by all the Juſtices, That the Action will well lye vi & armis; for otherwiſe he ſhall have no Action; for Waſte is not maintainable. And Littleton ſaith, That Treſpaſs lyeth, and ſo is 12 E. 4. 33. for otherwiſe, this being a common caſe, it ſhall be a common miſchief. Mich. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Walgrave and Sommerſets Caſe. Goldesbr. 72.

3. It was moved to the Court, That if the ſervant of a Mercer taketh his goods, That an Action of Treſpaſs will not lye; and if he imbezel the goods, That it is not Felony; 2 E. 4. 3 H. 7. 12. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the ſervant hath neither general nor ſpecial property in the goods, and he ſhall have no Action of Treſpaſs if they be taken away; and therefore, if he taketh them, Treſpaſs lyeth againſt him; and if he imbezel them, it is Felony; and ſo it was adjudged, Mich. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Moſſes Caſe. Goldesbr. 72. Mich. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Glaſs and Haymes Caſe. Leon 87.

4. H. and three others brought an Action of Treſpaſs, Quare vi & armis clauſum fregit: The Jury found a ſpecial Verdict, That H. only was ſeized of the Cloſe, containing ſixteen Acres, & expoſuit eas to the three other plaintiffs to be ſowen; and that he ſhould finde half the ſeed, and they three ſhould finde the other half, whereby the land was ſowed accordingly; and that the Boar of O. came and deſtroyed the Corn. The whole Court was of Opinion, That the Verdict ſhould abate the Writ, for that they all four joyned in the Writ, and it appeareth, That three of them had nothing there, and the Defendant cannot break their Cloſe, where three of them hath nothing. And Cheny and Bunyes Caſe was vouched by Rhodes Juſtice; In a Partition brought, the Defendant pleaded, That they did not hold in Common, and the Jury found, That he and his Wife held in Common, and yet the Verdict abated the Writ: And it was the Opinion in the Principal Caſe, That there was but a Bargain, and no Intereſt, and then the three had no colour to bring Treſpaſs, Quare Clauſum fregit. Hill. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Harets Caſe. Goldesbr. 77.

5. Note, It was Reſolved amongſt other points, That if there be Lord and Tenant, rendring Rent, and the Lord doth diſtrein, when no rent is behind, that in ſuch caſe the Tenant may make Reſcous; or if he be often diſtreined, he may have an Aſſiſe of Soven faits diſtreined: And in ſuch Caſe, the Tenant may do Reſcous: But for a wrongful Diſtreſs where nothing is behinde, the Tenant ſhall not have an Action of Treſpaſs vi & armis againſt the Lord, becauſe the ſame is prohibited by the Statute of Marlebridge, cap. 3. Cook 4. Part, 11. in Probil's Caſe.

6. The Lord may beat his Villein for cauſe, or without cauſe, and the Villein ſhall not have any remedy; but if the Lord commandeth another to beat his Villein without cauſe, he ſhall have an Action of Battery againſt him that beateth him: So if the Lord doth diſtrein the Cattel of his Tenant, although nothing be behinde, the Tenant in reſpect of the duty which belongeth to the Lord, ſhall not have Treſpaſs vi & armis againſt him: But if the Lord commandeth his Bayliff or Servant in ſuch Caſe to diſtrein, where nothing is behinde, the Tenant ſhall have an Action of Treſpaſs vi & armis, againſt the Bayliff or Servant. Cook 9. Part, 76. in Combs Caſe.

7. In Treſpaſs, The Plaintiff Declared, That he levyed a Plaint of Debt in the Counter of London, againſt one W. and by Proceſs, he was Arreſted by one B. a Sergeant; and that the Defendant, vi & armis did reſcue him, whereby he loſt his debt: Upon Iſſue, Not Guilty, and Verdict for the Plaintiff, Judgment was given, quod defend. Capiatur: Upon which, Error was brought in the Exchequer Chamber, and the Judgment was affirmed; ſuit; for although the nature of the Action is properly upon the Caſe, as touching the Plaintiffs loſs of damage and debt; yet being done with force, and that force being done, although not to the Plaintiff himſelf, he may have his Action, vi & armis, Paſch. 14 Jac. in B. R. Wheatly and Stowrs Caſe. mo. 180. Mich. 35 Eliz. Aſtell and Ridgett Caſe. Mich. 43 Eliz. in B. R. Pawling and Morris Caſe acc. Mich. 6 Jac. in B. R. It was Reſolved, Though the Reſcous were layed vi & armis, yet it would bear either Treſpaſs vi & armis, or Treſpaſs upon the Caſe. Note, In that Caſe, it was ſaid, That the Plaintiff muſt beware that he follow his Original, if it be by Writ; for if it be vi & armis, or upon the Caſe, the Judgment muſt be ſuitable.

8. A. brought an Action of Treſpaſs againſt B. for that vi & armis, he took and led away Quendam Canem Venaticum pradict. &c. and a Verdict was found for the Plaintiff, and Judgment was given for the Plaintiff by the Court. Trin. 17 Jac. in C. B. Rott. 944. Edwards and Engletons Caſe. Hob. 283.

9. Error brought of a Judgment in Treſpaſs in B. R. The Error aſſigned was, That the Declaration was not good, becauſe in Treſpaſs, the Plaintiff ſuppoſeth, that the Defendant 31 Maii 13 Jac. at London, at ſuch a place aſſaulted him, & adhuc & ibidem, beat and wounded him, and a Bag of the value of 12 d. with 100 l. in money therein, took and carried away, & alia Enormia, &c. and doth not ſay, adtunc & ibidem, and ſo no time is mentioned for carrying away the Bag. The Court held the Declaration was well enough, for the word [Et] couples it with the time and place of the Battery: But becauſe there wanted the words [vi & armis] in the Declaration, which is not matter of form, but of ſubſtance, and not aided by any of the Statutes, the Judgment was reverſed. Hill. 13 Jac. in B. R. Tyler and Walſeds Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 44.

10. Treſpaſs for taking of a Greyhound with a Collar: The Defendant ſaid, That the Dog was courſing a Hare in his land, and therefore he took him, and led him away; upon which it was Demurred. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff, becauſe the plea is frivolous; whereby it ſeems that Treſpaſs lyeth. Hill. 15 Jac. in B. R. Athill and Corbets Caſe. Cro. 2. Part 463.

11. Treſpaſs, Quare vi & armis Clauſum fregit. The Defendant juſtified, upon Report, That a Vermine called a Badger was there, ad damnum Inhabitantium; by reaſon whereof, with his hounds he hunted there, and found the Badger, and chaſed him, till he expelled him in the place where, and thereupon digged the ground, and took the Badger, and killed him: Upon which the Plaintiff Demurred. It was adjudged, That the Action did lye; for although the Common Law warrants the hunting of ſuch ravenous Beaſts of Prey in another mans land, yet it requires it ſhould be done in an ordinary and uſual manner; and therefore, there being an ordinary courſe (viz. Hunting) to kill the Badger, the digging for him was unlawful. See 37 Eliz. Nicholas Caſe. The ſame for a Fox. Paſc. 11 Jac. in B. R. Geoſs and Mynns Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 321.

12. Treſpaſs upon the Caſe upon Trover, The Caſe was this, The Detendants Bayliff ſeized the Beaſts for an Heriot, whereas there was not any due, whereunto the Defendant agreed, and convicted them, whereupon the Action was brought. The Queſtion was, Whether he ought to have this Action, or Action of Treſpaſs. It was Objected, That Treſpaſs and Trover are contrary Actions, and it cannot be, that he ſhould have property, and no property, at the ſame time: And the Writ is not true, for he hath not any property at the time of the converſion. But the Opinion of the whole Court was, That he had election to bring either of the Actions at his pleaſure. Paſch. 42 Eliz. in B. R. Biſhop and Viſcount Montagues Caſe. Mich. 2 Car. in C. B. Cro. 2. Part, 50.

13. Treſpaſs of Aſſault and Battery, The Defendant pleaded, That he was amongſt others, by command of the Lords of the Council, a Trained Souldier in London, of the Band of Captain A. and ſo was the Plaintiff, and that they were skirmiſhing with their Muskets, charged with powder for their exerciſe in re Militari, againſt another Captain and his Band; and as they were ſo skirmiſhing, the Defendant caſualiter, & per infortunium, & contra voluntatem ſuam in diſcharging his Peece, did hurt and wound the Plaintiff, which is the ſame treſpaſs, abſque hoc that he was guilty aliter five alio modo. Upon Demurrer by the Plaintiff, Judgment was given for the Plaintiff: For although it was agreed, That if two men at Tilt or Turney in the preſence of the King, kill one another, this is not Felony; yet in Treſpaſs, which tends only to give damages according to the hurt or loſs, it is not ſo; and no man ſhall be excuſed of Treſpaſs, except it may be judged utterly without his fault: But if the Defendant in the Principal Caſe had ſaid, That the Plaintiff came croſs his Peece when it was diſcharging, or had ſet forth the Caſe with the circumſtances, ſo as it had appeared to the Court, that it had been inevitable, and that the Defendant had committed no negligence to give occaſion to the hurt, then the Action would not have lain. Paſch. 14 Jac. in B. R. Weaver and Wards Caſe. Hob. 134.

14. In an Action of Treſpaſs, The point only was this; I chaſe the Sheep of another out of my ground with a Dog, and the Dog purſues them into another mans Land next adjoyning, and I chid my Dog, and the Owner of the Sheep brings Treſpaſs for chaſing of them: It was ſaid, That the Juſtification was not good: A man may have Cattel out of his own ground, but cannot exceed his authority; and an authority in Law abuſed, is void in all, and to hunt them into the next ground, is not juſtifiable. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Action did not lye; for that here was not any hedge, as appereth: and when the Defendant ſaw them out of his own ground, he rated the Dog, and the nature of a Dog is ſuch, that he cannot be ruled ſuddenly: And this difference was taken, If I ſee Sheep in my Land, I may chaſe them out; but if another ſeeth them, and chaſeth them out, I may have an Action of Treſpaſs againſt him, becauſe he hath taken away my advantage. And in the account of this Caſe, this Caſe was vouched to have been adjudged: Treſpaſs was brought for hunting, and breaking of hedges, and the Caſe was, A man ſtarted a Fox in his own land, and his Hounds purſued him into another mans lands; and it was holden, That he might hunt and purſue him into another mans Lands; becauſe a Fox is a noyſome creature to the Commonwealth. In the Principal Caſe, Judgment was given, That the Plaintiff Nil Capiat per Billam. Hil. 22 Jac. in B. R. Miſten and Fandyes Caſe. Poph. 161.

15. A Copyholder brought Treſpaſs againſt the Lord for cutting down of Trees; and alledged a Cuſtome, that he might cut down to repair his houſe, and that there was not ſufficient Trees left to repair it. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, 1. That without a Cuſtome, a Copyholder might cut down Trees to repair. 2. That the Treſpaſs did lye againſt the Lord, for that the Copyholder hath an Intereſt in the Trees as well as in the Land, and the Lord might as well pull down his houſe, as cut down his Trees. Mich. 8 Jac. in C. B. Hyden and Smiths Caſe: Godbolt, 173.

16. Note, It was Reſolved by the Court, That if one in Trade upon the poſſeſſion of the King, and another man entreth upon him, that he ſhall not have and maintain an Action of Treſpaſs; for he who is to have Treſpaſs, ought to have a poſſeſſion; and in this Caſe he had not, for that every Intruder ſhall anſwer to the King for his time, and therefore ſhall not anſwer to the other party; and he cannot ſay, Quare Clauſum ſuum fregit, as the Writ requireth. Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Godbolt, 133.

17. Note, It was Ruled by the Court in an Action of Treſpaſs, Quare Clauſum fregit, & cuniculos ſuos vel ipſum A. &c. cepit &c. and good. Paſch. 8 Jac. in C. B. Newton and Richards Caſe. Godbolt, 174.

18. In Treſpaſs brought, the Defendant did juſtifie as Leſſee to the Lord Mountegue, and that the Lord, for him and his Farmors, had uſed to have a way over the Land in which the Treſpaſs is ſuppoſed to be done, and that by reaſon of a Cart wherewith the way was ſo digged and diverted, that he could not ſo well uſe his way as before, and that therefore he did fill up the Cart roots, and digged a Trench to let out the water; upon which the Plaintiff did demur. It was Objected, That Treſpaſs did not lye, for that it was no loſs nor hindrance to him, but it is for his profit, and the Land is not the worſe. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Action did well lye; for that he who claims a way in this Caſe, hath not an Intereſt in the ſoil, and therefore cannot dig it: It was then aſked, what remedy he ſhould have, the way being ſo ſurrounded? Suit Juſtice ſaid, If he had went before that way in his ſhooes, let him now pluck on his Boots: Alſo, the Opinion of the Court was, That the pleading was not good; for he ſaith, He could not uſe his way ſo well as before, whereas he ought to plead, That he could not uſe the way at all. Mich. 29 Eliz. in B. R. Dyke and Dunſtons Caſe. Godbolt, 52, 53.

19. An Action was brought againſt Joyce, an Inn-keeper of the Bell in Maidſtone in Kent, for not ſcouring of a Ditch, betwixt the houſe of the ſaid Joyce, and another man; and Judgment was given for the Plaintiff againſt the Defendant; Whereupon Error was brought, and divers Errors aſſigned. 1. That the Plaintiff doth preſcribe, That all the Inhabitants of the Bell had uſed to ſcour the Cutter, &c. And it was ſaid, That that was no good form of Preſcription; for it ought to have been, Quod ipſi & Prædeceſſores ſui de tempore cujus contrarium, &c. Or, That ſuch a one, and his Anceſtors and Predeceſſors, whoſe Eſtate the Defendant hath, &c. 2. That the Preſcription was uncertain; for it is, That all Tenants, &c. which extendeth as well to Tenants in Fee, in Tail, for life, or years; and the Preſcription is the foundation and ground of the Action. 3. The Plaintiff hath not alledged, That the Defendant was Tenant at the time of the Action brought; as in the Caſe of Black fryers, where the Plaintiff brought his Action, for that the Defendant had turned the Courſe of a Water of a Conduit-pipe, and the Declaration was, Quod cum Querens ſeiſitus exiſtit, and doth not ſay, exiſtit; ſo the Plaintiff was not ſuppoſed Owner of the Scite and Meſſuage in Black fryers, but only at the time of the Action brought, brought, and not at the time of the diverſion of the Water. 4. Becauſe it was for ſcouring a Gutter betwixt houſes, and he doth not ſay, That it was contigui adjacens to the Houſe. It was the Opinion of the Court, That it was not good; for that it is, Quod emanet illi qui tenuerant, and doth not allege a Seiſin, but by way of Argument; and alſo, becauſe the words were not contigui adjacens. The Judgment was reverſed. Mich. 29 Eliz. in B. R. John Joyces Caſe. Godbolt, 54, 55.

20. In Treſpaſs, for ſtopping of a way. It was found for the Plaintiff. It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, 1. That the Plaintiff claims a way from his houſe to his Mill, and ſo back again from the Mill to his houſe, and claims an Inheritance in the Houſe, and therefore he ought to have Aſſize or Nuſance, and not Treſpaſs. 2. Becauſe every way ought to be either appendant, or in groſs, and it is not layed, that the way was appertaining to his houſe. For the firſt Exception, It was the Opinion, That the Plaintiff might have either the one or the other Election at his Election: But for the ſecond, It was holden, In regard that in this Action the Plaintiff is only to recover damages for the Treſpaſs done; he need not ſay, the way to be Appendant; And ſo the Declaration was holden good, and Judgment given for the Plaintiff. Mich. 8 Jac. in B. R. Pilard and Cafars Caſe. Bolſtr. 1. Part, 47.

21. Treſpaſs of Aſſault and Battery, & damnum of the Plaintiff; The Defendants pleaded, Not Guilty, and found againſt them, and ſeveral damages given by the Jury to the Plaintiff, viz. given one ſo much, and viz. given to the other ſo much, ſeverally, and Coſts to the Plaintiff entire. It was moved, That the damages ought to have been joynt. The Opinion of the whole Court was, That this Battery is ſeveral, and ſo the damages ought to be; and the reaſon is, becauſe the Battery of the one, is not the Battery of the other; and that the Battery of the one, may be greater then the Battery of the other: But in Treſpaſs for cutting down and carrying away of Trees, for that this a joynt Act, the damages are to be entire. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Trin. 9 Jac. in B. R. Sampſon and Craſfelds Caſe. Billrode, 1. Part 157.

22. In Treſpaſs of Aſſault and Battery, & quod eundem ferum & capit; The Caſe was, The Plaintiff and the Defendant being at play, the Plaintiff threw his money into the Defendants heap, and ſo intermingled them together; the Defendant kept all; and upon this ſtriving for the money, the Plaintiff brought the Action. It was adjudged in this Caſe, That the Action would not lye, and that by this Act done by the Plaintiff, it is done by him of his own wrong; for what is his own proper money, cannot now be known; and therefore the Law ſaith, That he ſhall loſe all, by his own Act; And ſo it was ſaid it was adjudged, That if J. S. hath a heap of Corn, and J. D. will mingle his Corn with the Corn of J. S. he ſhall have all the Corn, becauſe this was ſo done by J. D. of his own wrong. In Shorditeh and Mores Caſe; And alſo in Sir Richard Martins Caſe. Hill. 12 Jac. in B. R. Ward and Eyres Caſe. Bolſtr. 2. Part, 323.

23. In Treſpaſs, The Plaintiff Declared, That ſuch a day, the Defendant aſſaulted him, unum equum precii 6 l. à perſona ipſius [the Plaintiff] adunc & ibidem cepit. It was the Opinion of the Court in this Caſe, That the Declaration was not good; for that the Plaintiff doth not ſuppoſe any property in the Horſe, but he ought to have ſaid Equum ſuum, aut Equum ipſius Querentis; for as it is layed, the Declaration may have two Intendments. 1. That the Horſe was the Defendants, and then the taking was lawful; or the Plaintiffs, and then tortious; and being indifferent in conſtruction, it ſhall be taken ſtrongeſt againſt the Plaintiff; and then, when the Jury aſſeſs entire damages for both the Treſpaſſes, and for one there is no cauſe of Action, the Verdict is not good, per Curiam. It was adjudged againſt the Plaintiff. Paſch. 1 Jac. in B. R. Parcell and Bradleys Caſe. Yelverton, 36.

24. Treſpaſs, Quare Clauſum fregit, and ſpoiled his graſs. The Defendant pleaded, That in the Cloſe where &c. there had been time out of mind, a foot-way for all the Kings people, in, per, & trans the ſaid Cloſe, to ſuch a place; and that the Plaintiff ſuch a day ploughed up the ſaid Foot-way, and ſowed the ſame with Corn, and layed Thorns at the ſide of it; and pleaded, That within the ſame Cloſe, near the old Foot-way, the Plaintiff before the Treſpaſs, reliquit, & aſſignavit, another Foot-way for all the Kings people, to go over the new way; which way, from the time it had been layed forth, had been uſed by all Foot-paſſengers: Wherefore the Defendant went over the ſaid way at the time when, to ſuch a place, which is the ſame Treſpaſs. And in this Caſe, It was adjudged againſt the Plaintiff. And although in that Caſe the Defendant pleaded generally, That the Plaintiff aſſignavit viam, and did not ſhew to whom, yet that was not material; for quod eſt commune omnibus, cannot be aſſigned to any particular perſon. Mich. 6 Jac. in B. R. Howe and Widlakes Caſe. Yelv. 141, 142.

25. In Treſpaſs, The Plaintiff Declared, That the Defendant entred his Land, and cut down, and carried away two Loads of Graſs in the Plaintiffs Soil, which was ſuppoſed to be done to ſtrow the floor of the Church. It was the Opinion of the Court in this Caſe, That a Preſcription for cutting of graſs to eſtrow the Church, was good, becauſe it was but in the nature of an eaſement; and ſo it was ſaid, It was for Inhabitants to have a way over the Land of another to their Church. It was Objected, That the Inhabitants by Cuſtome, might have an eaſement over the Freehold, or in the Freehold of another, but not a profit appendant: But in the Principal Caſe, becauſe the Plaintiffs Freehold lay near to the Church, the Court conceived, That the ſame was but a matter of Eaſement, and not a profit appendant; and therefore, that the Action would not lye. Paſch. 15 Car. in B. R. Bonds Caſe. Maſſ 16 17.

26. A. brought Treſpaſs againſt B. for fiſhing in ſeperali Piſcaria of the Plaintiff, and Declared, That the Defendant Piſces ipſius cepit, being found for the Plaintiff. In ſtay of Judgment it was moved, becauſe the Plaintiff Declared of taking Piſces ſuos, whereas they being feræ naturæ, the Plaintiff hath not property in them; and the ſame being matter of ſubſtance, is not helped by the Verdict. It was the Opinion of the Court in this Caſe, That in a general ſenſe, they cannot be ſaid Piſces ipſius, but in a particular ſenſe they may; and a man may have a ſpecial and qualified property in things which are feræ naturæ three ways, ratione imprimitatis, ratione loci, & ratione privilegii; and in this Caſe, the Plaintiff hath them by way of Priviledge. It was the Rule of the Court, That the Judgment ſhould be affirmed, upon this difference, where a man brings Treſpaſs for taking Piſces ſuos, and Lepores ſuos, and the like, the Action will not lye; but if he bring Treſpaſs for Fiſhing in his ſeveral Piſcary, as in the Principal Caſe, or for breaking his Cloſe, and taking Lepores ſuos, there the Action will lye. Trin. 15 Car. in B. R. Childe and Greenhills Caſe. Maſſ 48, 49.

27. Treſpaſs for a way, The Defendant did Juſtifie, and ſaid, That he had a way, not only ire, equitare, & Averia ſua fugare, but alſo Carrucis, & Carretagiis carriare; The Plaintiff Traverſed abſq; hoc, that he had a way, not only ire, equitare, &c. in the words aforeſaid; and Iſſue being thereupon joyned, It was found for the Plaintiff: It was moved, That this was not a direct affirmative, that he had a way, but by way of Indictment only. The whole Court were of Opinion, That it was a good affirmative; But it was ſaid by the Court, That the Pleading was more elegant then formal. Mich. 15 Car. in B. R. Hicks and Webbs Caſe. Maſſ, 55.

28. Treſpaſs, Quare Clauſum fregit, 20 Junii Anno 2. and the continuance till 6 Novemb. after. After Not Guilty Pleaded, It was found for the Plaintiff, and Judgment given, That it was entred, Nihil de fine, quia Pardonatur: And upon Error brought, It was aſſigned, That it ought to be Capiatur, becauſe by reaſon of the pardon of the King, Anno 3. which pardons all offences before the 25 of Sept. before; he alledgeth, That but part of the Treſpaſs was pardoned. But the Opinion of the Court was, That the Judgment was well entred; for the firſt Entry in Treſpaſs being only vi & armis, being pardoned, all that depended upon it, was pardoned; Alſo it appears by the Declaration, that the continuance of the Treſpaſs is not layed in the Entry, but only Quoad depaſturationem, & conſumptionem herbæ, which is added only for encreaſing of damages to the party. Paſch. 6 Jac. in B. R. Strickland and Thorps Caſe. Yelv. 126.

29. In Treſpaſs, The Plaintiff Declared of the taking of his horſe at B. the 14 Nov. 3 Jac. The Defendant pleaded, That the ſame 14 day he ſeized him within his Mannor of D. as an Eſtray; and ſhewed, That he had Title to have Eſtrays, and that the ſame day the Plaintiff took back the horſe, and was thereof repoſſeſſed. The Plaintiff Replyed, That the 16 Nov. the Defendant did uſe, and ride the Horſe to B. upon which it was Demurred: And it was adjudged for the Plaintiff; for the matter alledged in the Replication, is not any departure: for when the Defendant by his Demurrer hath confeſſed that he rid the Horſe the 16 of Novemb. although the taking of the Horſe as an Eſtray was juſtifiable; yet becauſe by the ſeizure of the Eſtray he had not a property, but a bare cuſtody, the Riding of him made the ſeizure tortious, and ſo the Action maintainable. Hill. 4 Jac. in B. R. Bagſhaw and Gerwards Caſe. Yelverton, 96, 97.

30. Treſpaſs vi et Armis, one ſuch being his Servant, Cepit et abduxit at D. in the County of E; The Defendant pleaded, That he was a Vagrant in the ſame County, and he not having notice that he was ſervant to another, retained him. It was ſaid, That if I retain the ſervant of another man in the ſame County where I and his Maſter inhabit, it is not juſtifiable, though in truth I had not notice of that. The Court ſaid, It is a hard matter to make me take Notice of every ſervant which is retained in the ſame County; and yet perhaps if this Retainer be upon the Statute of Labourers at the Seſſions, this is Notorious, and I ought to take Notice thereof at my perill: But it is otherwiſe of a private Retainer, for though it be within the ſame County, yet being a private matter in fact, the Law will not compell me to take Notice of that at my perill; otherwiſe if this be matter of Record. In this caſe, It was ſaid by the Court, That the Receiving and entertaining of a Servant may not be ſaid to be Vi et Armis. Mich. 22 Jac. in C. B. Winch. 51.

31. Note: It was Reſolved by the Court, That

That if a man hath Conyboroughs in his own Land, which do encreaſe to ſo great a number, that they deſtroy his Neighbours Land adjoyning. That in this caſe, His Neighbour cannot have an Action upon the Caſe againſt him who maketh the Conyboroughs: nor ſo ſoon as the Conies come into his Neighbours Land, he may kill them, for they are feræ naturæ, and he who maketh the Conyboroughs hath no property in them; and he ſhall not be puniſhed in Treſpaſs or otherwiſe, for the hurt which the Conies do wherein he hath no lawful property, and which the other may lawfully kill. Cook 5. Part, 104. Bealſtons Caſe.

32. Note: It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That every Anceſtor male or female, ſhall have Treſpaſs or Ravishment of Ward againſt a ſtranger, who wrongfully raviſheth the Heir apparent of any perſon, be they male or female; and the Writ of Treſpaſs ſhall ſay, Quare J. Conſanguineum & hæredem, cujus Maritagium ad ipſum pertinet, tali die rapuit & abduxit contra pacem: and in that the Law hath great reaſon; For whereas in truth all the Eſtate of the Anceſtor, and the eſtabliſhing of his Inheritance, conſiſteth in providing a Convenable Marriage for his Heir apparent; for that cauſe the Law giveth remedy againſt him who wrongfully deprives him by their Raviſhment, of the means to accompliſh the ſame: and it is not material of what age in ſuch caſe the Heir be. But ſuch Action lyeth not againſt Guardian in Knight-Service by any Anceſtor, but only for the Father, and for him the Action lyeth againſt the Lord of whom the Land is holden by Knight-Service, where his Son and Heir apparent is raviſhed by him. Cook 3. Part, 38, 39. in Ratcliffs Caſe.

33. An Action of Treſpaſs was brought, for breaking of his Cloſe, and beating of his Servant; but he doth not ſay, per quod Servitium amiſit. The Defendant pleaded, Not guilty, and the Jury found him guilty, and aſſeſſed damages entirely. It was holden in that caſe, That becauſe the Plaintiff had no cauſe of Action for beating of his ſervant, becauſe he had not averred, That thereby he loſt his Service, That it was adjudged, That the Plaintiff Nil Capiat per Billam. Mich. 25 Eliz. Pudy and Osburns Caſe. Vouch. in Cook 5. Part, 116. in Sir Henry Conſtables Caſe.

34. If the Servant be beaten. The Maſter ſhall not have an Action of Treſpaſs of Battery, if that the Battery be not ſo great, that by reaſon thereof he loſeth the ſervice of his Servant; but the Servant himſelf for every little battery, ſhall have an Action, and the Cauſe of the difference is, That the Maſter hath not any damage by the perſonal beating of his Servant, but by the reaſon of a per Quod Servitium amiſit, ſo as the original act is not the cauſe of his Action, but the Conſequence upon it; viz. the loſſe of his Service, is the cauſe of Action; For, be the battery great or little, if the Maſter doth not loſe the Service of his Servant, the Action will not lye. See Cook 4. Part, 113. in Robert Mercys Caſe.

35. Note: It was holden by the Court, That if a man be diſfranchiſed without a juſt cauſe, and be for the Cauſes of his diſfranchiſement committed to Priſon, or his Shop ſhut up; or if with force he be removed out of their Aſſembly, &c. in theſe and the like Caſes, he may have an Action of Falſe Impriſonment, or an Action of Treſpaſs, Quare domum fregit; or an Action of Aſſault and Battery: And in theſe Actions, the Cauſes of the diſenfranchiſement ought to be pleaded, and be decided by the Law. Cook 11. Part, 99. in James Beggs Caſe.

36. Six Carpenters came to a Tavern, and called for a Quart of Wine, and drank it; and upon requeſt made, they refuſed to pay for it: The Queſtion was, Whether their denying to pay for it, made their entry tortious ab initio? And in this caſe, It was Reſolved, That when an Entry, authority, or Licence is given by the Law; and the party doth amiſs, That he ſhall be ſaid a Treſpaſſor ab initio. As if the Lord who diſtrains for Rent or Damage-feaſants, doth labour or kill the Diſtreſs; So if a man entreth into a Common Inne or Tavern, and carrieth away any thing out of it. But when the entry, authority, or Licence, is given by the party, and there he doth amiſs, there he ſhall be puniſhed for his miſdoing, but ſhall not be a Treſpaſſor ab initio. 2. Reſolved, That not doing of a thing, cannot make the party who hath authority or Licenſe, by the Law to be a Treſpaſſor ab initio; becauſe Not doing, is no Treſpaſs. A man diſtrains for Rent, or Damage-feaſants, the Leſſee tenders the Rent or Amends, and requires his Cattel, and the other will not deliver them; this doth not make him to be a Treſpaſſor ab initio, but damages there ſhall be recovered only for the detaining of the Cattel, and not for the diſtraining of them: And therefore in the principal Caſe, It was adjudged, That for the not paying for the Wine, the Defendants were not Treſpaſſors ab initio, but in ſuch caſe, the Tavernor might have an Action of Debt againſt them. Cook 8. Part, 146, 147. The Six Carpenters Caſe.

37. In Treſpaſſe for breaking of his Cloſe, The Defendant pleaded, That before this, he had brought an Ejectione Firmæ againſt the now Plaintiff, and recovered, and had Execution, &c. Judgment, if Action. It was agreed by all the Juſtices in this caſe, That it was a good barr, and that the Concluſion of the Plea, was alſo good: Judgment, if Action, without relying upon the Eſtoppell. Mich. 32 Eliz. in C. B. Kempton and Cooper Caſe, Leon. 313.

3. In an Ejectione Firmæ, The Defendant pleaded in barr, a Recovery had in the Kings-Bench againſt the Leſſor of the Plaintiff. It was Objected, That it was no barr, no more then in Treſpaſs, becauſe the Plaintiff is but Leſſee to him who was barred, and that which is between the parties, cannot be an Eſtoppell againſt the Plaintiff here, who is a ſtranger. But it was the Opinion of the whole Court, That it was a good Barr. For this Action is as ſtrong to bind the poſſeſſion as a Writ of Right, is to barr the right. And although the party ſhall not plead this by way of Eſtoppel, yet he ſhall conclude, Judgment if Action. As if in Aſſiſe, a Recovery in another Action be pleaded in barr, he ſhall not conclude by way of Eſtoppel, but Judgment, if Action: And there, he is driven to a higher Action, and the Law ſhall never have an end, If after a man be barred in his Action, he may bring the ſame Action he may bring the ſame Action again. Trin. 28 Eliz. in C.B. Payton and Lawſons Caſe, Goldsbr. 43.

39. In an Ejectione Firmæ, et bona et Catalla ibidem invent. vi et armis capt. The Plaintiff declared of a Leaſe for 40 years, to begin at Mich. next after the death of J. S. and averred, That J. S. dyed, and he entred: The Defendant pleaded in barr, non Ejecit. It was found, quod Ejecit; and Judgment given, That he ſhould recover the Term; and in that caſe, becauſe he did not ſhew the time of his Entry, for if he entred before Mich. after the death of J. S. he was a Diſſeiſor, and not a Termor; and alſo becauſe he pleaded Non Ejecit; which was found: For the Plea ſhould have been, Not guilty. For theſe and other Cauſes, upon a Writ of Errour brought, the Judgment was reverſed. 7 E. 6. Dyer, 89. Clifford's Caſe.

40. In Trover and Converſion of certain Goods; The Defendant pleaded, That the Plaintiff had brought the like Action againſt J. S. for the ſame goods before this Action brought, in which Suit he proſecuted ſo far againſt J. S. that he had Judgment and Execution againſt J. S. and averred, That the goods comprehended in both the Actions, were the ſame goods. Upon which the Plaintiff demurred in Law. And in that caſe, It was adjudged againſt the Plaintiff: And a difference was taken by the whole Court, Where the demand and Recovery is of a thing certain; and where of a thing which is uncertain. As if two be bound in 100 l. to J. S. jointly and ſeverally, there a Recovery and Execution againſt one, is no barr againſt the other; for Execution is not any ſatisfaction of the 100 l. demanded, 4 H. 7. 22 E. 4. But where Treſpaſs is done by two, which reſts only in damages, and the Plaintiff recovers againſt one of them, and hath Execution, the ſame is a good barr againſt the other. And it was agreed, That the very Judgment is a ſufficient barr, for tranſit in rem judicatam; and the thing incertain is now by the Judgment made certain, and ſo altered and changed into another nature then it was at the firſt; and therefore he cannot now reſort to demand the incertainty again, for the firſt Judgment ſhall be a barr to it. The ſame Law is of an Action of Battery brought by divers, and a Recovery againſt one of them, in an Action afterwards brought of the ſame Battery, the firſt Recovery is a barr. And ſo it was adjudged in Hitchens and Sir John Poyns Caſe and his Servants, for a Battery. Trin. 3 Jac. in B.R. Broom and Waters Caſe. Telverton, 67, 68.

41. If a man recover in Treſpaſs at the Common-Law, it ſhall bar him in Writ of Raviſhment of Ward; et è contra: As in the Treſpaſs of Battery and Appeal of Maihem, and in Common Treſpaſs, and the Treſpaſſe upon the Statute of 5 R. 2. and 8 H. 6. or de Malefactoribus in parcis. See Hob. in Moor and Huffey's Caſe, 94. acc.

42. In Treſpaſſe; The Plaintiff declared of a Treſpaſs in Great Long Meade in D. 12. Mail, 1 Jac. with a Continuando, &c. The Defendant Proteſtando, That the Treſpaſs did not continue modo et forma, for Plea ſaid, That at the time of the Treſpaſſe ſuppoſed, He was poſſeſſed of a Cloſe called Wood-end in D. for a certain Term then to come, Cuidam Clauſo, called Little long Meade, contiguè adjacens; and that Great Long Meade to the ſame Cloſe called Little Long Meade, is contiguè adjacens in D. prædict. And that the Plaintiff likewiſe was poſſeſſed of the ſaid ſeveral Cloſe called Little long Meade, and Great long Meade, for a Term to come; and that the Plaintiff ought to repair, make, and maintain the Hedges, as well between the Cloſe called Wood-End, as the other two Cloſes; and that the Defendant being ſo poſſeſſed of the Cloſe called Wood-End, tempore quo, put in his Cattel to feed there; and that the Plaintiff ſuffered the Hedges and Fences between that Cloſe and the other Cloſes, to remain open, and not repaired, by reaſon of which, the Cattel put in Wood-end by the breach of the Hedges and Incloſures, entred into the other two Cloſes of the Plaintiffs, and ſpoyled the graſſe, &c. In this Caſe, two two Exceptions were taken to the Barr: 1. Becauſe the Defendant pleaded generally, That he was poſſeſſed of the Cloſe called Wood-End, and did not ſhew of whoſe Leaſe, or for how long time. 2. Becauſe the Defendant ſayes only, Quod Querens debuit reparare, and doth not ſhew by what Title, and in what ſort. For the firſt, The Opinion of the Court was, That he needed not to do it, becauſe the Intereſt of the Cloſe called Wood-End, was not in Queſtion, but is merely collateral to the thing in Queſtion, and is but conveyance to the ſubſequent matter. And the ſecond Exception was diſallowed by the Court; For they ſaid, There is a difference where the right to endite or charge the Inheritance is in Queſtion, and where the Plea goes only to excuſe a Treſpaſs; but in this caſe it goes only to excuſe a Treſpaſſe pro hac vice: Alſo the Defendant is a ſtranger to the Title of the Plaintiff, and cannot by preſumption know by what Title he ought to repair. Wherefore it was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Mich. 3 Jac. in B.R. Falde and Ridges Caſe. Telverton, 74-77.

43. In Treſpaſs de uxore rapta et abduſta cum bonis viri, brought in London, in the Common-Pleas at Weſtminſter; and the Treſpaſſe ſuppoſed to be in Parochia de Bow, in Warda de Cheap. The words of the Writ were, Et ea injuſtè detinet contra pacem, et contra formam Statuti in hoc caſu provis. &c. The Defendant pleaded Not guilty. Upon the Evidence in London, at Guild-Hall, it appeared, That the Defendant had committed Adultery with the Woman in Southwark, where both parties dwelt: and that the Woman afterwards of her own accord, went from her husband to Ratcliff in Middleſex, and there remained a day and a night; and thither came the Defendant to her, and conveyed the Woman from Ratcliff to Richmond in Surrey; and if this would prove him guilty in London, was the Doubt? The Lord Dyer would have had the Jury found a Speciall Verdict, but they found the Defendant guilty generally, and aſſeſſed 300 l. Damages. It was the Opinion of many, That the Action did not lye in London: But afterwards the Judgment was ſtayed, becauſe the Original was returned in B.R. ſcil. coram vobis aliquibus, See in what County the Action ſhould be brought. Cook 7. Part, Bulwer's Caſe. Mich. 9 Eliz. Dyer, 256.

44. Treſpaſſe was brought upon the Statute, That none ſhall diſtrain the Beaſts of the Plough, if any other reaſonable Diſtreſs may be had, and declared of a taking contra formam Statuti, he did not ſhew ſpecially how he had other diſtreſs; yet it was adjudged good, and implyed in the words, Contra formam Statuti. And it was ſaid, That it ſhall come on the other ſide, viz. on the part of the Defendant; After he hath ſhewed the cauſe of the Diſtreſs, he ſhall alſo ſhew, That there was no other Diſtreſs. Trin. 14 Eliz. Dyer, 312.

2. Where in Treſpaſs, the Plaintiff ought to make a new Aſſignment; And what ſhall be good; what not.

1. NOte: It was holden by the Court, in Treſpaſſe for breaking of his Cloſe; If the Defendant ſaid, That the place where the Treſpaſſe is ſuppoſed to be done, is 6. Acres of Land in D, which are his Freehold; and the Plaintiff ſaith, That it is his Freehold, and not the Freehold of the Defendant: If the Defendant hath 6. Acres in D, and the Plaintiff other ſix Acres; The Defendant cannot give in Evidence, that he did the Treſpaſſe in his own Land, but by his Plea it ſhall be intended, that his meaning reſers to the 6. Acres of the Plaintiff, and not to his own 6. Acres, becauſe untill he gave a name to the place where the Treſpaſs was done, the Plaintiff needeth not for to alledg a new Aſſignment, becauſe that the Defendant hath not varied from the meaning of the Plaintiff, if he doth not give a name certain to the 6. Acres; As to ſay, That the place where, &c. is 6. Acres in D. called Green Meade, &c. Mich. 28. 18. Dyer, 23.

2. If the Plaintiff in Treſpaſſe doth make a new Aſſignment, and giveth a ſpecial name to the place, and alſo aſſigns Batells Circa quamlibet partem loci; viz. Eaſt, Weſt, North, and South; and gives alſo names to the Batells: It was a doubt, Whether he ought to prove the Abatells to be true, as well as the name of the place, or not? It was the Opinion of many, That he ought ſo to do; For that every word which is put in the Aſſignment to make the place certain to be known to the Jury, before the words, ſcil. alia quæ in bonis, are effectual, and the Abatells are parcell of the Aſſignment. Trin. 5 Ma. Dyer, 161.

3. The new Aſſignment in Treſpaſſe, Quod Clauſum fregit, was this. ſcil. in una acra Terræ ſive prati jacen. in quodam Campo in S. prædict. vocato Northfield. To that the Defendant pleaded, Quod præd. Tranſgreſs. de novo aſſign.

in

in predict. acra Terræ, Not Guilty; and for this incertainty of Land, or Meadow, and without any abatells or name of the Acre, and alſo the Anſwer to the Acre of Land only, by the Opinion of the Court, the Jury was diſcharged, becauſe the Aſſignment ought to have been without any fuit, &c. And the Plaintiff might have the two Acres, one of Land, the other of Meadow; and no Abatell is made; and the Anſwer is not full, &c. Trin. 9 Eliz. Dyer, 264.

More Treſpaſs.

1. IN Treſpaſſe, the Caſe was this; A Woman being poſſeſſed of a Copyhold for her Widowes Eſtate, ſowed the Land, and after took the Plaintiff to husband; and the Defendant being Lord of the Mannor, entred and took the Corn, and the husband brought Treſpaſs. It was Objected, That the Womans Eſtate was certain, viz. for her life, but yet determinable by Limitation if ſhe marry: And if a man who hath a Eſtate determinable by Limitation, ſoweth the ground, and before ſeverance, the Limitation endeth the Eſtate, yet the party ſhall have the Corn which he hath ſowed. But it was the Opinion of the Court in the principal caſe, That the Action did not lye, becauſe in the principal Caſe, It was the Act of the Woman, the taking of husband, and ſhe is the cauſe of the determination of her Eſtate, and therefore the Lord, and not the Husband, ſhall have the Corn: But if the Woman had Leaſed for years, and the Leſſee had ſowed the Land, and after ſhe had taken husband, in ſuch caſe the Leſſee, and not the Lord, ſhould have the Corn; for that the Act of the Woman ſhall not prejudice a third perſon. Hill. 43 Eliz. in B R. Oland and Bardwicks Caſe, Goldsbr. 189. See Cook 5. Part, Oland's Caſe, &c.

2. Treſpaſſe brought by the Committee of a Lunatique being a Copyholder, to whom the Lord had committed the Lunatique, and a ſtranger ſowed the Land; The Queſtion was, Whether the Committee or the Lunatique ſhould have the Action? The Court was of Opinion in this Caſe, That the Action ſhould be brought in the name of the Lunatique. Mich. 15 Jac. in C.B. Cook and Dawſons Caſe. Brownlow 1. Part, 197.

3. In Treſpaſſe: Whereſore by force and Arms, the Servant of the Plaintiff, out of the Service of the Plaintiff he had taken; and layed the Treſpaſſe to be at H: The Defendant juſtified, That one was poſſeſſed of Corn at S; and that the Servant by the Command of his Maſter, had carried away the Corn; and that the Owner came to the Defendant being Conſtable, and prayed him to detain the Servant, untill he could procure a Warrant of a Juſtice of Peace, and traverſeth, That he was guilty at H: Upon which the Plaintiff demurred. It was holden by the Court, to be a naughty Plea. 1. Becauſe the Conſtable cannot detain any man, but for Felony. 2. Becauſe the Traverſe is naught, becauſe the Treſpaſſe is in the ſame County, and ſo he might have juſtified as well in H. as in S. Mich. 30 Jac. in C.B. Ringhall and Wilſey's Caſe. Brownlow, 1. Part, 198.

4. Treſpaſſe for breaking his Cloſe, and for Cropping 200 Pear-Trees, and 200 Apple-Trees, to his damage of 40 l. Upon Not guilty, it was found for the Plaintiff, and damages aſſeſſed 40 l. It was prayed, That the damages might be mitigated; for that is appeared by Affidavit, that the Plaintiff before the Action brought, would have accepted of 5 l. But it was denyed by the Court: For they ſaid, They could not diminiſh the Damages in Treſpaſs, which was locall, and therefore could not appear to them, and the Damages might well amount to 40 l. for Cropping an Orchard: And Judgment was entred accordingly. Mich. 3 Jac. in C.B. Delves and Wynes Caſe, Brownl. 1. Part, 204.

5. Treſpaſſe brought againſt Husband and Wife, and the Plaintiff declared, That they did beat one Mare of the Plaintiffs, and committed divers other Treſpaſſes. Upon Not guilty, it was found, that the Wife did beat the Mare; and for the reſidue they found for the Defendant, and gave no Verdict concerning that for the husband, either by way of Acquittal, or Condemnation. It was ſaid by the Juſtices in this Caſe, Where a Battery is brought againſt husband and wife, ſuppoſing that they both beat the Plaintiff, or the Plaintiff's Mare; and upon Not guilty pleading, It is found, that the Wife only made the Battery, and not the husband, That in ſuch caſe, the Verdict is againſt the Plaintiff, for that now it appears, that the Plaintiff's Action was falſe, for the Husband in this caſe ſhall not be joyned for Conformity ſake, and there is a Special Writ in the Regiſter for this purpoſe: and it is not like a Battery charged upon J. S. and J. D. for there one may be acquitted, and the other found guilty, and good, becauſe they are in Law ſeveral Treſpaſſes. Mich. 5 Jac.

in C. B. Drewry and Dennis Caſe. Brownlow, 1. Part, 209.

6. Treſpaſſe for breaking the Plaintiff's Cloſe 5. Aug. 21 L. in com. S. and ſpoyling his graſſe with his Cattel. The Defendant pleaded, That the time where, &c. the Freehold of the Land where, was to J. S. and that the Defendant as ſervant, and by his Commandment entred, and put in his Cattel. The Plaintiff Replyed, It is true, that the Freehold was to J. S; but that long before the Treſpaſs, J. S. Leaſed the Land to the Plaintiff at Will, by reaſon whereof he entred, and was poſſeſſed untill the Defendant did the Treſpaſſe, and traverſeth without that, That the Defendant by the Command of J. S. and put in his Cattel: Upon which the Defendant demurred. In this caſe, It was adjudged againſt the Plaintiff, for the Plea in bar is good, and in no wiſe avoided by the Replication; for the Replication muſt be good only by way of Title, and the Plaintiff doth not entitle himſelf to any good Leaſe at Will, for he doth not alledg indeed any Seiſin in J. S. or any poſſeſſion in him, out of which a Leaſe at Will may be derived: And Judgment was given accordingly. Mich. 6 Jac. in C. B. Mitham and Barkers Caſe. Brownlow. 1. Part, 213.

7. In Treſpaſſe for breaking his houſe, and carying away a braſſe Chafer: The Defendant plaines, That the houſe is parcell of a half Yard in P; and that it was holden of the Earl of Northumberland as of his Manner of W. by Homage, Fealty, Eſcuage, Incertain, Suit of Court, Incloſure of the Park pale, and Rent ere pound of Cummin; and for the Rent behind for 3. years, and the Homage and Fealty, the Defendant as Servant to the Earl, and by his Command juſtified the Entry and taking, &c. The Plaintiff Replyed, That the houſe was holden of R. S. as of his Manner of L, without that, that it was held of the Earl in manner and form: Upon which they were at Iſſue: and the Jury found, That it was holden of the Earl as of his Manner of P. by Homage, Fealty, Incloſure of the Park, Rent a pound of Cummin, and no otherwiſe. In this caſe, It was adjudged for the Defendant. For although the Verdict did not agree with the Plea in manner and form of the Tenure, yet it agreed in ſubſtance in the Point, for which the taking was; to wit, That the Land was holden of the Earl. and that is ſufficient. And difference was taken between Replevin and Treſpaſs; For in a Replevin, becauſe the Avowant is to have Return, it behoves the Avowant to make good Title in all things, but it is otherwiſe in Treſpaſſe, for there, the Defendant is heard only to excuſe the Treſpaſs, and therefore if there be any tenure, it ſufficeth. See 33 H. 8. Dyer, 48. Where the Iſſue was, Whether a Villein regardant or Free, &c? The Jury found a Villein in groſſe; yet it was holden good, for that the ſubſtance was the Villeinage, which was found. Mich. 6 Jac. in C. B. Goodman and Aylings Caſe. Brownlow, 1. Part, 212.

8. In Treſpaſſe, the Plaintiff declared, That the Defendant 20. Febr. 5 Jac. brake his Cloſe called Sandy Heath, and entred, killed and carried away 100. Conies; and that the Defendant the ſame day did enter, and chaſe and killed 50. Conies, and carried them away to his damage, &c. The Defendant to the whole, but the entring and breaking of the Cloſe, pleaded Not guilty: and as to that, pleaded, That William Lord Ruſſell and Elizabeth his Wife were, and yet are, ſeiſed in Fee in the right of the Wife, in a certain piece of of Heath containing 10 Acres in Sandy Cloſe, adjoyning and on every ſide ſeparated from the place called Sandy-Heath; and that they in thoſe whoſe Eſtate, &c. have uſed to have for themſelves and the Fermors of the ſaid piece of Heath, a paſſage unto the ſaid peece of Heath, and from the ſaid peece, in, by, and through the ſaid Cloſe called Sandy Heath, &c. the whole year, at their pleaſure, to receive and take the profits of the ſaid peece; and ſaid, That long before the Treſpaſs, &c. many Conies were wandring in the ſaid piece of Heath, and many Conies holes were there made, and were in the ſaid peece eating the graſſe, and the Defendant as Servant to the ſaid Lord, and by his Command, the time in which, in, by, and through the ſaid Cloſe, in which, towards, and to the ſaid piece, did walk over to hunt and take the ſaid Conies in the ſaid Peece then being, and feeding, which is the entring and breaking the Cloſe of which the Plaintiff complains, and avers, That the place by which the Defendant walked, was the next paſſage by which he could go to the ſaid peece of Heath. Upon which the Plaintiff demurred in Law. In this caſe, It was adjudged for the Plaintiff: And that for theſe Cauſes; 1. For that a paſſage, is properly a paſſage over Water, and not over Land, and the Defendant ought to have preſcribed for the way, and not for the paſſage, for he ought to have obſerved the uſual words in the Law, for a Preſcription and uſage is for a Way, and not for a paſſage. 2. The Preſcription is not good, becauſe he doth not ſhew from what place, nor to what place the paſſage or Way is; for although a Way be in groſs, yet it ought to be bounded and circumſcribed to ſome certain place, eſpecially when it appears to lye in uſage, time out of mind. 3. The bar is not good, becauſe he doth not ſhew what manner of paſſage it is, Whether a Foot Way, or Horſe Way and Cart Way: and for theſe cauſes, it was holden, the Plea was not good, and Judgment was given againſt the Defendant. Mich. 9 Jac. in C. B. Alban and Bremſalls Caſe. Brownlow, 1. Part, 214.

9. Treſpaſs for chaſing the Plaintiffs Cattel in ſuch a Cloſe. The Defendant juſtified damage feaſants in his Freehold. The Plaintiff Replyed and ſhewed a Grant of Common in the place, whereby the Defendant did grant to the Plaintiff; and that afterwards the Defendant had erected a Rick of Corn, and the Plaintiff put in his Beaſts to uſe his Common, and the Defendant chaſed them. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That the chaſing of the Defendant was not lawful, for by ſuch means he may defeat his own Grant; for by the Grant of Common in ſuch a place, the Grantee may uſe the whole Common; and when the Grantor erects a Rick of Corn or Hay upon the Common, he will diminiſh the Common, which will tend to the enfeebling of his Grant, which ought not to be; for the Beaſts ought to range over the whole place, and eat the Hay or Corn without doing any wrong, for that the wrong did firſt begin in the Grantor, which is the Defendant, of which he ſhall never take advantage. But in the Caſe becauſe the Plaintiff did not ſhew to the Court the Indenture of Grant, for that very cauſe only Judgment was given againſt the Plaintiff. Hill. 8 Jac. in C. B. Farmer and Hauts Caſe. Brownl. 1. Part, 220.

10. Treſpaſs of Aſſault and Battery againſt 3; Two of them pleaded, Not Guilty, and Judgment was given againſt the third by Non ſum informatus. The two were found Guilty for all, and the Jury gave damages ſeverally, againſt one 100 l. againſt the other 5 l. and what Judgment ſhould be given, the Court at firſt doubted. But at laſt Reſolved, That the damages which were given by the firſt Jury, viz. the 100 l. ſhould be recovered againſt all the Defendants in that Writ named; and that in Treſpaſs, the firſt Jury taxes the damages for the whole Treſpaſs, & ſhall bind all the Defendants, & therefore Execution was commanded againſt all the Defendants for the 100 l. Trin. 9 Jac. in C. B. Rott. 1835. Heyden and Styles Caſe.

11. Treſpaſs for cutting his Nets and Oars. The Defendant juſtified, for that he was ſeiſed of a ſeveral Piſcary, and that the Defendant with divers others endeavoured with the Oars to row upon the Water, and with their Nets to catch his Fiſh; and for ſafeguard of his Fiſhing, he did cut the Nets and Oars, upon which the Plaintiff did demur. It was the Opinion of the whole Court in this Caſe, That the Plea of the Defendant was not good; but he might have taken the Nets and Oars, and detained them damage feaſants, and ſtop their further Fiſhing. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Mich. 7 Car. in B. R. Reynel and Champernoons Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 165.

12. Treſpaſs for ſtriking the Plaintiffs Hawk with a ſtaff, by which ſtroak his Hawk dyed; being found for the Plaintiff, and damages aſſeſſed, It was moved that the Declaration was not good, becauſe the Plaintiff doth not ſhew what kind of Hawk ſhe was, as Goſhawk, Lanner, &c. For Accipter is the genus, and the Declaration ought to ſhew the ſpecies. 2. It is not ſhewed that ſhe was a Reclaimed Hawk; for a Hawk is fera naturæ, and if ſhe be not reclaimed, the Plaintiff cannot have any property in her. But the Court held the Declaration to be good enough, being in an Action of Treſpaſs for ſtriking and killing, &c. which he only may have who hath the poſſeſſion; And this Caſe differs from Fines Caſe in Dyer, and from Spencers Caſe, Cook 5. Part, for there it was an Action of Trover and Converſion, which lyes not but of an Hawk reclaimed, and which may be known by her Vervells, Bells, or ſome other mark, whereby notice can be taken of her owner. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Mich. 1 Car. in B. R. Sir Francis Vincent and Loſneyes Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 13.

13. In Treſpaſs, the Defendant juſtified the taking of the Cattel damage feaſants, pretending a Cuſtome, That the Plaintiff being Lord, hath the place in which entirely to himſelf till Lammas day, and that afterwards it is Common for the Tenants, ſo as the Plaintiff can put in but three Horſes only, and becauſe the Plaintiff after Lammas day put in more then three Horſes, the Defendant took them Damage feaſant. It being found for the Defendant, it was moved, That the Defendant could not take the Cattel damage feaſants, becauſe he was only a Commoner, and the place where is the Plaintiffs Soil. Two of the Juſtices of the Court held the taking to be good, becauſe the Lord is to be excluded by the Cuſtome for all but his ſtint; and the Commoners have no other remedy to preſerve their right, and feeding their Cattel, but by taking the Lords Cattel if he offend. But two other Juſtices doubted of it, becauſe they did not ſhew the uſage to diſtrein the Lords Cattel for damage feaſants. Trin. 6 Jac. in B. R. Kenrick and Perjeers Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 208.

14. In Treſpaſs, Quare clauſum fregit, the Caſe was this, The Defendant had a Cloſe adjoyning to the High way, being the Waſte, as was ſuppoſed, of the Plaintiff, Lord of the Manor. The Cattel of the Defendant coming out of his Cloſe, did did caſually ſtray into the High way; and for this Treſpaſs done by them in the High way, or Waſte, the Lord brought the Action. The Court were of Opinion, That if the Cattel ſtay there any time, and feed upon the Paſture, the Plaintiff being Lord, may have Treſpaſs. But it appeared to be uſa via regia; and therefore the Court much diſliked of the Action, and were of Opinion againſt the Plaintiff. But no Judgment was given, the matter being ended by Compromiſe. Hill. 8 Jac. in B.R. Durand and Childs Caſe. Bolſtr. 2. Part, 157.

15. In Treſpaſs, the Caſe was; A man made his Will, and made the Plaintiff his Executor. An Adminiſtration was granted to the Defendant, who took the goods into his hands; the Plaintiff being Executor, proves the Will, and afterwards brought Treſpaſs againſt the Defendant for taking of theſe his goods. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That the Action was well brought, and that an Executor may have an Action of Treſpaſs qu' et armis before Scire, becauſe he hath a property being made Executor, otherwiſe an Adminiſtrator may ſue an Executor by getting the goods into his hands before probate. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Mich. 12 Jac. in B.R. Fiſher and Young's Caſe. Bolſtr. 2. Part, 268.

16. Treſpaſs brought for taking away his Hay; Upon Not Guilty found for the Plaintiff. It was ſaid, That the Declaration was not good, for that the Plaintiff hath not purſued his Title made in the Declaration. It was the Opinion of the Court, That if a man bring an Action of Treſpaſs for taking his Hay, and conveyes himſelf a Title to it, this is more than he ought to do; but he ought to have ſaid generally Quare Fenum ſuum Cepit; and it is but Surpluſage for a Plaintiff in his Declaration for a Treſpaſs done, to make a Title to himſelf; and if he doth make a Title and not purſue it, or if his Title be not good, this is not material, being but matter of Surpluſage, and nugatory. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Mich. 12 Jac. in B.R. Williams and Ramſeds Caſe. Bolſtr. 2. Part, 188.

17. Treſpaſs for an Aſſault, wounding, taking, and Impriſoning the Plaintiff. The Defendant ſaith quoad the Aſſault and wounding, Not Guilty; and quoad the taking and Impriſoning he doth juſtify by force of a Warrant he had from the Lord Mayor of London, but doth not ſhew in his Plea any time when the Warrant was made, nor yet any place where the ſame was made: he doth juſtify in this manner, quoad Captionem et Impriſonamentum, but in his Juſtification he leaves out the Aſſault; Upon this Plea the Plaintiff demurred in Law. The Court ſaid, Here are ſeveral Aſſaults layed, ſcil. the Aſſault in the Wounding, and the Aſſault in the taking, here he hath in his Plea juſtified quoad Captionem et impriſonamentum; but in his Juſtification he hath left out the Aſſault, which is the chief cauſe of the Demurrer; where the Court held, That the Plea was not good, and a Rule given to begin again. Trin. 12 Jac. in B. R. Wilſon and Dodd's Caſe. Bulſtrod. 2. Part, 335, 336.

18. In Treſpaſs by J. S. againſt A. and B. for breaking his Cloſe, and Aſſaulting his Servants: For Title ſhewed that this was Copyhold, parcel of ſuch a Manner, of which one J. D. was Lord, who 34 Eliz. Granted this Copyhold to the Plaintiff and his Heirs. The Defendants as to the Aſſault, plead Not Guilty; and for the Treſpaſs in the Cloſe, the Defendants do juſtify in this manner, ſcil. They confeſs the Cloſe to be Copyhold Land, but plead, that long before it was parcel of the Manor of C. in the County of E. and that long before the Treſpaſs ſuppoſed, one P. and M. his Wife was Lord of the ſaid Manor in the right of the Wife for life, the Remainder in tail to A. one of the Defendants, and made a Leaſe thereof to B. the Defendant, by force of which he was poſſeſſed, and cut down the Trees, and his Servants aided him in carrying them away, and ſo Juſtifies by this his Plea in bar; but doth not ſhew how P. and his Wife came to this Eſtate for life, the Remainder over. The whole Court clearly agreed, That this Plea was not good, becauſe it is not therein ſhewed how the particular Eſtate pleaded to P. and his Wife for life, the Remainder to B. hath his commencement, they claiming under a derivative eſtate for years, which ought in pleading in bar to be ſet forth, for which omiſſion the Plea is not good. The matter in Law was, If a Copyholder by Cuſtome might cut down Timber Trees for Reparation. It was the clear Opinion of the whole Court, That by the Cuſtome, the Copyholder is to employ the Timber for the Reparation, with the top and bark he cannot repair, but theſe he is to have, and may ſell them towards his Charge in reparation; and ſo it was ſaid it was adjudged. Trin. 14 Jac. in B. R. in Lewis and Smiths Caſe. Trin. 14 Jac. in B. R. Sanford and Stephens Caſe. Bolſtr. 2. Part, 281, 282.

19. Treſpaſs for Aſſault and Battery, layed to be at Biſhop-Stanford, in Com. Hertford. The Defendant comes in and pleads, and ſhews that he was Servant to a Scholler in St. Johns Colledg in Cambridg; and that they are to have Conuſans there, and are not to be drawn out of the Univerſity: And ſhewed, That their Charters for Cambridg and for Oxford; and the Act of 13 Eliz. for the Confirmation of the Charter for Oxford, and ſo, Cambridg. To this Plea the Plaintiff did demur in Law, becauſe the Defendant hath taken no traverſe, which he ought to have done, with an abſque hoc, that he was guilty in any place extra Univerſitatem Cantabrigiæ, that ſo they might have taken Iſſue. It was the clear Opinion of the Court in this Caſe, That the Defendant here ought to have concluded his Plea with a traverſe, and that for this omiſſion, the plea was not good, and the Plaintiff had good cauſe of Demurrer. Judgment was for the Plaintiff. Hill. 14 Jac. in B. R. Payn and Wrothes Caſe. Bolſtrod. 3. Part, 282, 283.

20. Treſpaſs of Battery ſuch a day. The Defendant pleaded, That tempore quo, he was ſeiſed of ſuch a Rectory in the place where, &c. in Fee, and that tempore quo, There was Corn ſeverted from the nine parts, and that the Plaintiffs came to carry away the Corn, and the Defendant in defence of his Corn, and to keep the Plaintiff from taking of it, ſtood there to defend it; and if the Plaintiff had any hurt, it was of his own wrong. The Plaintiff replyed De injuria ſua propria abſque tali Cauſa; upon which the Defendant demurred. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff, for that ſuch general Replication is good, and the Plaintiff needs not to anſwer to the Title of the Defendant, becauſe the Plaintiff by his Action doth not claim any thing in the Soil, or Corn, but only damages for the Battery, which is meerly collateral to the Title. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Trin. 7 Jac. in B. R. Taylor and Markham's Caſe. Telverton, 157, 158.

Tryall, and Miſ-Tryall.

1. Where, and in what Caſes the Iſſue joyned ſhall be tryed by the Ordinary: And where, and in what Caſes not.

1. IN a Quare Impedit, the Plaintiff made Title by Survivor, upon a Grant made to him and others by A. who had Advocatio quarte partis in groſs, and had Preſented B. &c. and after another as in groſs, and after a third as in groſs; and then the Defendant Preſented as Appendant; and every of them had Advocationem quarte partis, and that the Church was now void by the death of the Preſentee of the Defendant, and ſo now remains. The Defendant ſaid, That the entire Advowſon was Appendant to the Mannor of D. the moyety of which he had by Diſcent, and that now it belonged to him to Preſent without that, that B. was Admitted and Inſtituted at the Preſentation of A. It was the Opinion of the Court in this Caſe, the Admiſſion and Inſtitution being traverſed, That the ſame ſhould be tryed by the Certificate of the Ordinary. Mich. 6 E. 6. Dyer, 78.

2. Quare Impedit was brought by Sir Henry Sidney againſt the Biſhop of Glouceſt. and R. who was late Incumbent, who was created Biſhop by the Queen. But the Iſſue was joyned upon the Avoydance by reſignation of the late Incumbent. It was doubted how the ſaid Iſſue ſhould be tryed. It was Ruled by the Court, That the Iſſue ſhould be tryed by the Countrey, becauſe the principal part of the Iſſue is the Avoydance, and that is beſt known to the Countrey, and the Reſignation is but an Evidence of it. Hill. 6 Eliz. Dyer, 229. Sir Henry Sidneys Caſe.

3. Iſſue was joyned in a Writ of Dower brought; If accoupled in lawfull Matrimony, and a Writ was awarded to the Biſhop to certify the ſame. The Biſhop made a ſpecial Certificate, viz. the Marriage to be of the age of 12 years of the Husband, and 16 years of the Wife. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Retorn of the Biſhop was inſufficient, cient, for he ought to retorn the lawfulneſs of the Marriage only, viz. If accoupled in lawfull Matrimony, and not have made ſuch ſpecial Retorn; and in ſuch Caſe, that the Iſſue is to be tryed only, by the Biſhop as Spiritual Judg of it; and therefore for making of ſuch inſufficient Retorn, the Biſhop was Amerced 20 l. by the Court, and a new Writ awarded to the Biſhop to certify. Mich. 14 El. Dyer, 305, and 313. See Paſc. 22 Eliz. Dyer, 368. acc.

4. See for the manner of the Biſhops Certificate in Caſe of Loyalty of Matrimony. Ballon Lib. 5. De exceptionibus cap. 14. 39 E. 3. 20. And ſee the form of the Certificate in this manner, 14 Eliz. Dyer, 305, and 313. viz. Breve Domini Regis præſentibus annexum omni qua decuit reverentia accepimus, virtute cujus brevis vobis Certificamus, Quod omnibus et ſingulis in brevi illo ſpecificat. rite et debitè juxta juris exigentiam obſervat. et vocatis in exparte vocandis, diligentem et celerem ſui fecimus Inquiſitionem deres veritate de et ſuper matriis in brevi illo content. Per quam Inculenter et evidenter, comperimus et invenimus, per legitimos proboines, et alia in hac parte canonicè requiſ. Quod diſt. A. in brevi prædict. nominata quod B. in Com. N. in Dioceſi N. D. in prædict. brevi ſuccitur nominato legitimo Matrimonio Copulata fuit. In cujus rei Teſtimonium, &c. By which it appeareth, That the Ordinary muſt certify the point in Iſſue generally, viz. Copulata, vel non Copulata fuit in legitimo Matrimonio, and muſt not make a Special Verdict of it, or expreſs the manner of the Marriage at large.

5. If a Writ of Dower be brought againſt the Biſhop of N. and others by ſeveral Præcipe's; and they plead, That the Demandant was never accoupled in loyal Matrimony; yet the Writ ſhall go to the ſame Biſhop to try and certify the loyalty of the Matrimony, and not unto the Metropolitan: For although the Biſhop be a party to the Writ, and a Defendant in the cauſe; yet becauſe there are other parties and Defendants beſides himſelf, who ſhall be bound by his Certificate; It ſhall be preſumed that the Biſhop will do right; and therefore he himſelf ſhall be Judg of the Matrimony. But if the Biſhop himſelf alone had bin Defendant, and had pleaded ſuch a Plea, and Iſſue joyned. In that Caſe he ſhall not try the Matrimony, for then he ſhould be Judg in his own Cauſe, which the Law will not ſuffer. And therefore the Certificate of the loyalty of the Marriage in ſuch Caſe ſhall be by the Metropolitan. 10 R. 2. Tryall, 100. But if in a Writ of Dower, or other Writ the Iſſue is, Whether A. the Demandant were the Wife of J. S. or not: th ſame ſhall not be tryed by the Certificate of the Biſhop, but by a Jury at the Common Law. 39 E. 3. 15. acc.

6. Baſtardy is an Eccleſiaſtical cauſe; and if general Baſtardy be pleaded in diſability of the Plaintiff, the ſame ſhall be tryed by the Certificate of the Biſhop, Whether it be in a real or a perſonal Action. See Cook 5. Part, in the Caſe of the Abbot of Strata Marcella, and 47 E. 3. 14. But if it be pleaded, That the Plaintiff was born at ſuch a place before the Marriage ſolemnized, and ſo a Baſtard. This is a ſpecial Baſtardy, and ſhall be tryed by a Jury at the Common Law where the Birth is alledged. See 38 Aſſ. 24. 7 E. 6. Dyer, 89. 46 E. 3. 3. 8 H. 6. 3. acc. See Trin. 14 Jac. in C. B. Where in an Action upon the Caſe for calling one Baſtard, and the Defendant juſtified, that he was a Baſtard, and it was awarded, That this ſhould be tryed by the Countrey, and not by the Ordinary. Hob. 179.

7. Profeſſion is a Spiritual thing, and ſhall be tryed by the Certificate of the Biſhop. 40 E. 3. 27. By Bellknap, Cook 4. Part, 71. in Hinds Caſe, acc. For ſo was Profeſſion alledged in a Knight of the Order of St. John of Jeruſalem tryed by the Certificate of the Biſhop where the Profeſſion was alledged in 31 E. 3. Fitz. Tryal. 98. But if the time of the Profeſſion be in Iſſue, it ſhall be tryable by a Jury at the Common Law, and not by the Certificate of the Biſhop, as it is adjudged in Cook 4. Part, 71. in Hinds Caſe.

8. If a man plead Profeſſion in another man, which is traverſed, it ſhall be tryed by the Certificate of the Ordinary. But if he plead, That at the time of the making of ſuch a Deed, or the doing of ſuch a thing, that the party was profeſſed in Religion, the ſame ſhall be tryed by Jury, becauſe the Profeſſion refers to a certain time, 9 H. 7. 2. by Huſſey Juſtice. But if Profeſſion, or Baſtardy be alledged in a ſtranger, who is no party to the Writ, then the Profeſſion or Baſtardy ſhall be tryed by a Jury at Law. For that if the Tryall ſhould be by the Ordinary, and he make his Certificate of the ſame, the ſame remains a Record for ever, and ſhould conclude and bind the party for ever, for that he can make no averment againſt it, which would be dangerous and prejudicial to him who is no party to the Writ. See 43 E. 3. 37. 6. 33 H. 6. Fitz. Tryall 90 acc. Cook 8. Part, 32. in the Caſe of the Abbot of Strata Marcella, acc.

9. Admiſſion, Inſtitution, and Deprivation, are Spiritual things, and ſhall be tryable by the Certificate of the Biſhop; for Inſtitution is but the Letter of the Biſhop, of which a Jury cannot take notice 22 H. 6. 27. 8 H. 5. 9. acc. But Induction is a Temporal Act, and ſhall be tryed by a Jury at the Common Law. 22 H. 6. 27. by Brown. 2 H 4. 17. 12 H. 4. 11. 32 H. 6. 24. acc. See Cook 6. Part, Part, 49. in Boſwell's Caſe, accordingly.

10. Note, In Cook 7. Part, 43. in Kenns Caſe, That a Sentence of Divorce may be repealed in the Spiritual Court by a Suit there after the death of the parties; but if any of the parties be dead before the Sentence, there and in ſuch Caſe, they cannot ſue in the Spiritual Court to declare the Marriage to be void, and to Baſtardize the Iſſue, becauſe the Tryal doth appertain originally to the Common Law, and to the Kings Court where no diſability is by ſentence in the Eccleſiaſtical Court. See there 39 Aſſ. 10. 39 E. 3. 31. 24 H. 8. Baſtardy, 44.

11. A Quare Impedit was brought by Specot and his Wife againſt the Biſhop of Exeter; and declared, That A. F. was ſeiſed of the Mannor to which the Advowſon was appendant, and deviſed the ſame to the Wife, and ſhe took Husband the Plaintiff, and then the Church became void, and they Preſented their Clerk, and the Biſhop diſturbed them. The Biſhop pleaded, That he claimed nothing but as Ordinary, and confeſſeth the Title of the Plaintiffs, but further ſaid, That he examined their Clerk, and upon examination found him fore Schiſmaticum Inveteratum, ſo as by the Law of the Church, he could not admit him to the Church; upon which the Plaintiff demurred. It was objected in this Caſe, That the Plaintiff ought to be barred, for that when a Parſon is once Preſented to the Biſhop, the examination fully appertains to the Biſhop, as appears by the Statute De Articulis Cleri; and if he deprive him for being a Schiſmatick generally, it is ſufficient, and he is not to ſhew the particular Schiſme; and of thoſe things which touch the learning or ſufficiency of the Clerk, they ſhall be tryed by the Spiritual Court; and if the Biſhop ſay he is an Heretick, it is ſufficient, and he need not ſhew wherein. See 9 E. 4. 2. br. Depoſition 5. where a Depoſition of A. was pleaded, there he ought to ſhew before what Judges he was depoſed, but not wherein. But it was Reſolved, That the Plea of the Biſhop was inſufficient. For by the Statute of Articuli ſuper Chartas, there ought to be a reaſonable cauſe of his refuſal et Cauſa vaga et incerta non eſt Cauſa rationalis; and therefore to alledg that he was Schiſmaticus Inveteratus generally, was not good, for that no certain Iſſue could be taken upon the ſame; and therefore it is too general for Tryal, and although that it may be ſaid, That it ſhall not be tryed by a Jury, but by the Metropolitan, as perhaps it ſhall be, yet the Plea is too general as it is pleaded; for how can he know wherein he is a Schiſmatick, ſo as he might examine him thereof. See Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Specots Caſe. Goldesbr. 36. Cook 5. Part, 57, 58. acc.

12. In a Quare Impedit, the Caſe was, The Biſhop of Landaff refuſed to admit S. who was Preſented to the Vicarage of P. and Admitted one M. B. to the Parſonage of P. at the Preſentation of the Lord St. John. S. ſued the Biſhop for contumacy per duplicem querelam. The Biſhop pleaded, Non habetur Talis Vicaria; upon which matter he ſued a Prohibition. It was ſaid a Prohibition did not lye; for a Vicar is but he that gerit vicem Perſonæ to ſupply his place in his abſence, ſo as the ſame is a Spiritual matter which ought not to be tryed here. Alſo the Libell is to have Admiſſion and Inſtitution, and the other matter ariſeth by their Plea, ſcil. Quod Reſtoria de P. eſt Eccleſia cum cura animarum, abſque hoc quod habetur talis Vicaria; and ſo it is but an Incident to the Principal matter. Wherefore it ſhall be tryed there, and a Conſultation prayed. On the other ſide, it was ſaid, That we do alledg and ſhew, That in the time of E. 3. one L. was ſeiſed of the Mannor of P. to which the Church of P. is appendant, and alledg Preſentments from that time, and we convey it to the Lord St. John, and they would now defeat us upon this promiſe. It was the Opinion of the Court in this Caſe, That the Libell doth contain nothing but only contumacy in the Biſhop in that he hath not Admitted S. and the other matter comes in in the Replication; and therefore it was awarded, That a Conſultation ſhould be granted Quoad Inſtitutionem of S. only, and that they ſhould not proceed further. Trin. 31 Eliz. in B. R. Slugg and the Biſhop of Landaff's Caſe. Lin. 181, 182.

13. Excommunication is a Spiritual thing, and if it be pleaded in Diſability of the party in the Kings Temporal Courts, the ſame muſt be certified thither by the Biſhop himſelf, 41 E. 3. 12. Cook 1. Part Inſtitutes, 134. for no man can certifie an Excomengement, but only the Biſhop, who is the immediate Officer to the Kings Court for that purpoſe, 12 E. 4. 15, 20 H. 6. 17. But if the Biſhop be in remotis, or ſede vacante, an Excommengement certified by the Guardian of the Spiritualties is ſufficient, 8 H. 6. 3. 20 H. 6. 1. Cook 8. Part, in Trollops Caſe.

14. An Excommengement certified by the Commiſſary, or Official of the Biſhop, is not good at this day, although in ancient times the ſame had been allowed, 7 E. 4. 14. 11 H. 4. 64. in Debt. If the Pope, or any other having forraign authority, doth Excommunicate a ſubject of this Realm, it is no diſability of his perſon; for the Common Law doth diſallow of all Acts done by Forreign Power in diſability of any ſubject within the Realm. See Dr. and Stud. 125.

15. If a Biſhop certifieth the Kings Courts, That

That another Biſhop certified him that the party is Excommunicate in his Dioceſs; This Certificate, upon the Certificate of another, is not good, 25 E. 3. Excommengement 29. for the Biſhop muſt certifie the party to be Excommunicate, upon his own knowledge: But if a man be Excommunicate by the Official, or Commiſſary of the Biſhop, the ſame being done in the Biſhops right, and in his Court, is ſufficient, although the ſame cannot be certified into the Kings Court, but it muſt be certified under the Seal of the Biſhop. 7 E. 4. 14. Coke 8. Part, in Trollops Caſe.

16. If a Biſhop be Defendant in an Action brought againſt him, and Excommengement of the Plaintiff in that Caſe certified by him to have been in his own Court, is not allowed to be any diſability of the Plaintiff, for that the Biſhop ſhall not be Judge in his own Caſe, and the Temporal Court ſhall intend the ſame to be in the ſame cauſe. See 5 E. 38. 16 E. 3. Excomm. 5 10 H. 7. 9. &c.

2. Tryal of other Things; Upon Iſſue joyned in the Courts of Common Law; How, and where, and in what manner, and by whom they ſhall be: And where the Jury ſhall enquire of the intent of a man, where not.

1. H Being of full age, brought an Audita Querela in the Chancery, to avoid a Recognizance in the nature of a Statute Staple acknowledged by him within age. But becauſe his Age was to be tryed by Inſpection of the Court, which now could not be, he being of full age, It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Audita Querela did not lye. Mich. 7 Eliz. Dyer, 232. Herriſons Caſe.

2. Cheney levied a Fine, and after brought a Writ of Errour to Reverſe it, and aſſigned Nonage, and had a Scire facias againſt the Conuſee: And upon two Nihils returned, the Court proceeded, and by Witneſſes and Inſpection they reverſed the Fine. Cheney ſold the Lands to others, upon whom the firſt Conuſee entred; And the Vendees brought a Writ of Entre ſur Diſſeiſin: and againſt the Judgment before, The Tenant gave an Exemplification of Examination of Witneſſes in the Chancery, proving him to be of full age: and although it ſeemed not to the Court available againſt the Judgment, yet the Verdict paſſed with thoſe Witneſſes; and was afterwards affirmed in an Attaint. Afterwards, the Vendees of Cheney being duly barred in the Writ of Entry, and in the Attaint, They brought a Writ of Right; Where the Tenant chuſe Tryall by Battail: and the Liſts of the Champions, and all being prepared, the Plaintiff being called, was Nonſuit, and ſo Judgment final was given. See Mich. 7 Eliz. Dyer, 201. & 301. Cheney's Caſe. And ſee there, the manner of Tryal in a Writ of Right, and the proceedings in it, in Lib. 1. Title, Battail.

3. Note: Concerning Tryals, upon Iſſues joyned, Theſe Grounds were taken, and Reſolved to be Law:

1. That Matters in Suit, ſhall be tryed by the Country; matter in Law, by the Judges; and matter of Record, by the Record it ſelf: And ſee there for ſeveral manners of Tryals; viz. Coke 8. Part, in the Caſe of Strata Marcella.

2. A Peer of the Realm ſhall be tryed by his Peers, without Oath: but in an Appeal at the Suit of the party, a Peer of the Realm ſhall be tryed by a Common Jury. 10 E. 4. 6.

3. Cuſtome of a Court ſhall be tryed by the Judges of the ſame Court, if the Cuſtome be pleaded in the ſame Court. 11 E. 4. 2.

4. In Dower or Appeal brought by a Woman of the death of her husband, If it be pleaded, That the husband is alive, it ſhall be tryed by the Juſtices upon proof made before them, for the greater Expedition. 6 E 3. 19.

5. Age of an Enfant ſhall be tryed by Inſpection of the Juſtices, upon Errour to reverſe the Fine levied by him: And if Aide be prayed of him in the Reverſion who is ſaid to be within age, if the Iſſue be upon it, It ſhall be tryed by the Juſtices, by Inſpection of him. 17 E. 2. Tit. Accompt, 121.

6. In an Appeal of Mayheim; the Mayheim ſhall be tryed by the Inſpection of the Court. 28 Aſs. 5.

7. Earl or not Earl. Baron or not Baron, ſhall be tryed by the Kings Writ. 33 H. 6. 19. Coke 5. Part.

8. If a Mannor be Ancient Demeſne or not, it ſhall be tryed by the Book of Doomeſday, Which Book remains in the Exchequer: but if an Acre be parcell of ſuch a Mannor, it ſhall be tryed by the Country. 22 Aſs. 45.

9. If the Sheriff make ſuch a Return; Or if ſuch a one be Sheriff, or not, It ſhall be tryed by the the Examination of the Sheriff himſelf. 9 H.4.1. 10 H. 4. 7.

10. If an Approver ſaith, That he brought his Appeal before the Coroner by Dureſſe, the ſame ſhall be tryed by the Coroner; and if he deny it, the Approver ſhall be hanged. 12 Aſs. 29. Coron. 118.

11. If a Statute-Merchant, or Staple, be a true Statute, or not, the ſame ſhall be tryed by the Examination of the Mayor and Clerk of the Statutes, 21 E. 3. 24. Fitzh. Nat. Br. 114.

12. Cuſtome of London ſhall be tryed by the Mayor and Aldermen; and Certified by the Record Ore Tenus. 5 E.4.30. 21 E.4.16.

13. Not Attached by 15 dayes, ſhall be tryed by the Examination of the Baily. 15 R.2. Exam. 22.

14. If a man was beyond Sea at B. in France, &c. It ſhall be tryed by the Certificate of the Mayor of B. 4 E.4.10. See Litt. 21. And if one be beyond Sea in the Kings Service, It ſhall be tryed by the Certificate of the Marſhall of the Kings Hoſt. 2 Eliz. Dyer, 176. Bartues Caſe, See Cook 8. Part, 31. The Abbot of Strata Miretta's Caſe, for all theſe manner of Tryals.

4. Note: The Statutes of 27 E.3. Cap.8. and 28 E. 3. Cap.13. of the Staple, were made for the benefit et in favorem alienigenarum, for Tryals by Medietatem Linguæ: And yet, If an Alien be Plaintiff, and omitteth the Advantage of the requeſting tryal per medietatem Linguæ, whereupon a Venire facias iſſueth out, and the ſame is returned. It was holden, That in ſuch caſe he hath ſlipt his time; and that the Judges not bound Ex Officio to award ſuch a Writ, for that it doth not appear unto them by the Record, quod una pars ſit alienigena: And ſee there, That Treaſon ſhall not be tryed per medietatem Linguæ. For there Sherley a Frenchman was Arraigned for Treaſon in the Kings-Bench, and the Venire facias was awarded in York generally, and not per medietatem Linguæ. 5. Sir Julius Cæſar, Maſter of the Requeſts brought an Action in B. R. for ſclanderous words againſt Ph. Corſini. The Defendant pleaded Not Guilty, and ſaid, That he was an Alien born, &c. and prayed Tryal, per Medietatem Linguæ, which was Granted: And at the Niſi Prius in London, but ſix Engliſhmen and five Aliens appeared; And the Plaintiff prayed a Tales de Circumſtantibus per medietatem Linguæ, and it was granted, ſo as there wanted one Alien: And the Record was, Ideo alius Alienigena de Circumſtantibus per Vicom. London, ad requiſitionem inſius Nominati Julii Cæſaris per Mandat. Juſticiar. de novo appoſit. cujus nomen Panello prædict. affidator ſecundum formam Statuti in hujuſmodi caſu ſup. edit. et proviſ. Qui quidem Juratus, ſic de Novo appoſitus, viz. Chriſtianus Detbick Alicnigena, exactè venit ac in Juratam illam cum aliis Juratoribus prædict. prius Impanellat., & Juratis, Juratus fuit. And the Jury found for the Plaintiff. It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That no Tales was to be granted the Circumſtantibus by the Juſtices, when the Tryal is per medietatem Linguæ by the Juſtices of Niſi Prius, by the Act of 35 H. 8. becauſe in the Act it is ſpoken of Freehold of Jurors, and an Allien is not properly ſaid of any County, or to have Freehold, nor can have Iſſues returned upon him: But it was adjudged, becauſe that the Statute was made for ſpeedy Execution, That it ſhould be expounded favourably, according to the intent and meaning of the Makers of the Act: And although, that in the Principal Caſe, the Tales was prayed by the Plaintiff, whereas it ought to be ad requiſitionem Defendentis, yet that ſhould be taken to be but miſpriſion of the Clerk, and that it ſhould be amended. Mich. 36 Eliz. in B. R. Sir Julius Cæſars Caſe. See Cook 10. Part, 104. Denbawdies Caſe acc.

6. If a Peer of Ireland commit Treaſon in Ireland, he cannot be tryed in England, for that he is not a Subject of England, but of Ireland; and the Tryal in Ireland is by Parliament, and not per Pares. 20 Eliz. Dyer, 360. acc.

7. Note, It was ſaid by the Juſtices, That Indictments and Tryals for Treaſon, confeſſed to be before three of the Council, was Repealed by the Statute of 1 & 2 Mar. And therefore it was holden by them, That in the Caſe of the Rebellion which was in the North, That the Rebells ſhould be Indicted in the County where the Treaſon was committed, and the Indictments ſhould be removed before the King in the Kings Bench, and that a Jury ſhould come from the place where the Indictments were, of Jurors of the County there. Hil. 12 Eliz. Dyer, 286.

8. In a Caſe of a Prohibition to the Admiralty, It was Reſolved, That if a Pyrate taketh goods upon the Sea, and ſelleth them, that the property of them is no more changed, then if a Thief upon the Land ſteals goods, and ſelleth them: And therefore in the Principal Caſe there; for that it appeared in the Libel exhibited into the Court of Admiralty, That Bona Piratica fuerunt infra Portum Argier ſuper alium Mare; for that cauſe a Prohibition was denyed, becauſe the Juſtices ſaid, That Argier being a Forreign Port, the Court could not take notice whether there was ſuch a place of the Sea called the Port, or whether it were within the Land or not: Afterwards, by the mediation of the

Chi

Chief Juſtice, the parties agreed to try the Caſe in the Guild-Hall in London. Trin. 10 Jac. in C. B. Greenway and Barker's Caſe. Godbolt, 133.

9. A Woman brought an Appeal of Murder in the County of Salop, being the next County adjoyning to Montgomery in Wales for the Murder of her Husband. After a Verdict for the Plaintiff, It being Tryed by a Jury of the County of Salop. It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That the Appeal ought to have bin brought in the County of Montgomery where the fact was done, and not in the County of Salop. In this Caſe it was Reſolved by the whole Court, That the Writ ſhould abate. For it was ſaid, That it was a fundamental Rule in Law, That a Tryal for Murder by Appeal or otherwiſe, ſhould not be out of the County where it was committed. And it was ſaid, That no Preſidents can be ſhewed, where Appeals have bin allowed in Counties adjoyning for Murders done in Wales. Hill. 5 Car. in B. R. Sentley and Prices Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 179.

10. After Verdict, in an Action upon the Caſe, it being found for the Plaintiff, it was ſaid, That there was a Miſ-Tryal. For upon the Venire facias, there were but 23 Jurors returned, where there ought to have bin 24, and the Tryal was by ten o the Principal, and two of the Tales, de Circumſtantibus. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the ſame was but a Miſ-return of the Sheriff, which was aided by the Statute of 18 Eliz. Trin. 7 Car. in B. R. Sankill and Stockers Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 161. See Cook 5. Part, in Gardiners Caſe, accordingly.

11. Copyholder in Fee by Licenſe, makes a Leaſe for years, and dyes, the eldeſt Son dyes before Admittance. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, Though the Copyholder in Judgment of Law hath but an Eſtate at will, yet Cuſtome hath ſo eſtabliſhed his Eſtate, that by the Cuſtome it is diſcendable to his Heirs. 2. That the Heir before Admittance, may take the Profits and ſurrender to the uſe of another. For although that every Admittance amounts to a Grant, and ſo may be pleaded; and therefore (as was objected) nothing veſts before Admittance: Yet after Admittance, the Heir in pleading may alledg this is a Grant. For if he ſhould be compelled to ſhew the firſt Grant, it was before memory, and ſo not to be tryed, and then the Cuſtome fails. Yet he may alledg the Admittance of his Anceſtor as a Grant, and ſhew the Diſcent to him, and that he entred, and this without Admittance. But he cannot plead, That his Father was ſeiſed by Copy and dyed ſeiſed, and that the ſame diſcended to him, for that he cannot prove upon Tryall, becauſe it is but a particular Eſtate at Will in Judgment of Law diſcendable by the Cuſtome. Cook 4. Part, 22. Browns Caſe.

12. Action upon the Caſe was brought for ſpeaking theſe words, viz. B. is a perjured old Knave, and that is proved by a Stake parting the Land of A. and B. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That upon all the words taken together, the Action did not lye: For that the intent of the party cannot be enquired of by the Jury, nor put in Tryal: Alſo if it could, the laſt words do explain his intent to be of no Judicial perjury. For it is impoſſible that a ſtake can prove a man perjured. But if the Plaintiff had diſcloſed the truth of the Caſe in his Declaration, ſo as the matter in Iſſue might have bin put in Tryal, and enquired of; As that there was a Controverſy betwixt two, Whether the Stake ſtood upon the Land of the one, or the other, or as an indifferent boundary, and the Plaintiff was depoſed in an Action for this as a Witneſs, and had perjured himſelf in his Depoſition; perhaps upon matter in Iſſue, which might be enquired of, and Tryable by Jury, the Action would have lyen. Cook 4. Part, 19. Britteridges Caſe.

More Tryall, and Miſ-Tryall.

1. ERror to reverſe a Judgment upon an Indictment, where the party was Indicted in the County of D. of being a common Barretor, where having traverſed it before the Juſtices of Aſſiſe there, and the Indictment found, and a Verdict was againſt him, and Judgment given, that he ſhould pay a Fine, and be Impriſoned: And the Error aſſigned was, becauſe upon the Endictment, proceſs being awarded, he appeared gratis at the following Aſſiſes, and pleaded, Not Guilty: And then a Venue facias was Returnable the ſame Aſſiſes, and was thereupon tryed and found Guilty; That this Venire facias was miſ-awarded to make it Returnable at the ſame Aſſiſes, whereas there ought to have bin 15 dayes betwixt the teſte of the Writ, and the day of the Return thereof, and not to have made it returnable the ſame day. But the Opinion of the Court was, That it was well enough; and that al-well when the party is at large, and comes gratis, as where he is then in the Goal: wher fore it was adjudged, That the Tryall was good. Hill. 9 Car. in B. R. Chapmans Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 248.

2. In Action upon the Caſe, the Plaintiff declared, That whereas he lent to the Defendant a Gelding to ride from London to the City of Exon; and there ſate to deliver it to the Plaintiff, That the Defendant intending to deceive the Plaintiff, rode the ſaid Gelding from London to Exon, and from Exon to London, and by that riding ſo abuſed his horſe, that it came of little value: Upon Not Guilty, it was found againſt the Defendant, and damages. It was objected (amongſt other things), That here was no good Tryall, becauſe the Bargain was at London, and the fact was alledged in riding back to London, and the miſuſer in the Journey, and the Tryall ought to have bin at London, where the beginning of the contract was, and not at Exon, where the Converſion was alledged. But the Court was of Opinion, That the Tryall was good, becauſe the Principal wrong was the not delivering upon requeſt at Exon according to the Contract, and then when he denyed the delivery, and converted him to his own uſe, the Plaintiff might well have an Action for both together. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Mich. 1 Car. in C. B. White and Ryſdens Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 14.

3. In Action upon the Caſe, the Plaintiff declared, That he had procured a Writ of Entry ſur Diſſeiſin againſt one A. and thereupon had a ſummons of Lands in London, and delivered the ſaid ſummons to the Defendant being Under-Sheriff of the ſaid County, virtute cujus the ſaid Defendant ſummoned the ſaid A. upon the Land; but notwithſtanding that, did not return the ſummons. A. pleaded, Not Guilty: The matter was tryed at London, where the Action was brought for the Plaintiff. It was moved, That here was a Miſ-Tryal, for that the Iſſue ought to be tryed in the County where the Land is, becauſe that the cauſe is local. But the Exception was diſallowed by the Court, for that the Action is well layed in London, and ſo the Tryall there alſo is good. Trin. 31 Eliz. in B. R. Maſh and Abreys Caſe. Leon. 146.

4. Error brought to reverſe an Outlawry pronounced againſt him, and ſhewed that he was Outlawed by the name of J. B. of Humby in the County of Lincoln, Gent. And that within the ſaid County, there are two Humbyes, ſc. Magna Humby & parva Humby, and none without addition. To which it was ſaid on the other ſide. That the truth is, there are two ſuch Towns, and that Magna Humby is known as well by the name of Humby only, as taken for the name of Humby Magna; and upon that they were at Iſſue. It was moved in this Caſe, If the Inqueſt to try this Iſſue ſhall come de Corpore Comitatus, or from Humby Magna. It was ſaid it ſhall be tryed by an Inqueſt of Humby Magna; but if the Iſſue had bin no ſuch Town, then the Inqueſt ought to have bin de Corpore Comitatus: and wherefoever an Inqueſt may be tryed out of a ſpecial Viſne, there it ſhall never be tryed by the body of the County. Sir 22 E. 4. 4. But the Opinion of Wray Chief Juſtice in the Principal Caſe was, That the Iſſue doth amount to no ſuch Town, for that the purcloſe of the Plea is, and no Humby without addition; and he ſaid, that the book of 22 E. 4. is not ruled, but is only the Opinion of Bryan only. But yet afterwards in the Principal Caſe it was adjudged, that the Tryall was well. Paſc. 30 Eliz. in B. R. Beverly and Bowds Caſe. Leon. 109.

5. A. was bound by a Statute to F. and there was not two Seals put to the Statute, and Execution was ſued upon the Statute; and the Conuſee brought an Audita Querela, and they were at Iſſue, If two Seals were to the Statute, and tryed for the Plaintiff in the Audita Querela by the Sheriff of Lincoln. It was moved, That the Iſſue ought to have bin tryed by the Certificate of the Mayor of Lincoln, before whom the acknowledgment was. But the Opinion of the Court was againſt that, for that the Iſſue is not, Whether any ſuch Statute was acknowledged or not; but whether the Statute in queſtion hath two Seals or not; and that is not recorded by the Mayor, as the Statute it ſelf is. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Paſc. 33 Eliz. in C. B. Aſcew and Fulcants Caſe. Leon. 228, 229.

6. Action was brought againſt one as Executor, who pleaded, That he refuſed; upon which they were at Iſſue. The Biſhop did certify Quod non recuſavit, whereas in truth he had refuſed before the Commiſſary. It was argued, That the Court ought to write to the Commiſſary to certify. But that was denyed by the whole Court, and the party cannot aver againſt the Certificate of the Biſhop, no more then againſt the Return of the Sheriff, and the Court ſaid, that the only remedy for the Defendant, was to have an Action upon the Caſe againſt the Biſhop for his falſe Return. Then it was moved, That the Iſſue joyned upon the Refuſal ought to be tryed by Jury, and not by Certificate of the Biſhop. And ſuch was the Opinion of the Juſtices, where the Iſſue is, Whether the Executor did refuſe before ſuch a day, or after, there the Tryal ſhall be by Jury; contrary where the Iſſue is upon refuſal generally, becauſe the refuſal is before him as a Judg; as alſo is Reſignation. Trin. 31 Eliz. in C. B. Leon. 205, 206.

7. Action

7. Action upon the Caſe, for calling the Plaintiff, Perjured Knave. The Defendant Juſtified, for that the Plaintiff had ſworn in the Exchequer, That the Defendant had refuſed to pay the Subſidy; whereas in truth he had not ſo done. The Plaintiff replyed, De injuria ſua propria, the Action was brought in London, and tryed for the Plaintiff. The Court ſaid, That the matter was tryable in both Counties; but if the Counties cannot joyn, as London cannot with the County of Middleſex, there the Iſſue is vitious. And it was the Opinion of the Court, That where the Tryal is evill, the ſame is not helped by the Statute of Jeofails. Mich. 28 Eliz. in C.B. Box and Newſlewes Caſe. Godbolt, 107. Goldsbr. 28. the ſame Caſe.

8. Aſſumpſit; The Defendant pleaded, Non aſſumpſit; The Iſſue was found for the Plaintiff. It was alledged in ſtay of Judgment, That no place was alledged of the Aſſumpſit; and when an Iſſue is miſ-tryed, as here, there it is not helped by the Statute of Jeofails. It was the Opinion of Periam, Juſtice, That the Statute ſhall be taken liberally; ſo that if a Verdict once be given, it muſt be a great cauſe that ſhall ſtay Judgment: Wherefore although in the principal Caſe, no place is ſhewed; yet when the matter is once tryed, the Plaintiff ought to have Judgment: And ſo was the Opinion of the Court. Paſch. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Goldsbr. 47.

9. Debt upon the Statute of 2 E. 6. for not ſetting forth of Tythes, The Caſe was; A man being poſſeſſed of Tythes in the right of his Wife, as Executrix of her former husband, grants totam jus, titulum, et Interreſſe ſuum de et in Decimis predict. It was found for the Plaintiff. It was moved, That the Plaintiff had not ſet forth any good Title to himſelf. It was Reſolved, That the Grant was good, and that the Leaſe which he had of the Tythes in the right of his Wife, did thereby paſſe; for the word (ſuam) doth import a property in poſſeſſion. It was then Objected, That it was a Leaſe made by an Abbot within the year before the Diſſolution; and therefore void. It was Anſwered, That the Iſſue here only was, Whether he were diſcharged of Tythes; and the Jury have given their Verdict, That at the time of the Diſſolution, there was no diſcharge of Tythes; and this Leaſe being but an Inducement to the Title of the Plaintiff, therefore the Iſſue was good enough, and the ſame was well tryed. Hill. 10 Jac. in B.R. Arnold and Bidgoods Caſe, Cro. 2. Part, 308.

10. Treſpaſs, for entring his Cloſe and houſe at G: The Defendant juſtified, That a Capias Utlagum was by a Warrant from the Sheriff directed to him to execute upon one S; and becauſe J. S. was the Common voice, That S. was at the Plaintiff's houſe, he went in a Foot path through the Cloſe to the ſaid houſe, and asked leave of the Plaintiff to enter his houſe to ſearch for the ſaid S; and that the Plaintiff licenſed him; whereupon he entred, and not finding S, he returned the ſame way. Iſſue being joyned upon the Licenſe, It was found for the Plaintiff. It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That there was not any Replication for the Cloſe, nor Iſſue joyned thereupon, ſo as all was diſcontinued. But the Opinion of the Court was, That the Triall was good, and that Judgment ſhould be given for that which was found; and that for the other matter, that the ſame was helped by the Statute of Jeofails. Mich. 12 Jac. in B.R. Watts and King's Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 353.

11. In Treſpaſſe, the parties being at Iſſue, upon a Venire facias awarded, Twenty five were Returned, and at the Niſi Prius, 12. of them were ſworn, whereof the 25th perſon was one. It was moved in this Caſe, That the Triall was ill, and not aided by the Statute of Jeofails. The Court held, That although 25. were Returned, and 12. of the firſt 24. had been ſworn, and not the 25th perſon, the Triall had been well enough; but as the Caſe now is, it is a Miſ-Trial, and not warranted to ſwear the 25th perſon: Wherefore a Venire facias de Novo was awarded. Trin. 20 Jac. in B. R. Calthrop and Newtons Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 647.

12. Treſpaſſe, for taking 20 Loads of Wheat in E; The Defendant pleaded to all but 2. Loads, Not Guilty; and as to them, That J. S. was ſeiſed in Fee of the Rectory of W; and Deviſed it by Will to the Defendant in Fee, and dyed; and the Defendant entred, and that the Corn was Tythes ſeverd, and ſo juſtified. The Plaintiff Proteſtando, That E. was not within the Pariſh of W, pleaded, That the ſaid J. S. was ſeiſed of the Rectory prout, and dyed ſeiſed thereof without Iſſue, which diſcended to the Plaintiff as Coſen and Heir; whereupon he entred, and Traverſed the Deviſe. Upon which, Iſſue was joyned, And a Venire facias to try thoſe two Iſſues De vicineto Parochia de W: The Jury found the Iſſue of Not guilty for the Defendant, and the other Iſſue for the Plaintiff. It was moved, That it was good enough; For although the Plaintiff in the Declaration ſuppoſeth E. to be, and doth not ſhew it to be within the Pariſh of W; yet the Defendant by his Plea confeſſeth it to be within the Pariſh of W, and entitles himſelf thereunto as parcel of the Rectory; and then the Venire facias is well awarded from vicineto de Parochia. To which it was Anſwered, and Reſolved, That although the Defendant in the one part of his Plea confeſſeth, That E. is within the Pariſh of W; yet that ſhall not help this Trial: For the firſt Plea, of Not Guilty, is diſtinct by it ſelf, and the Iſſue is joyned upon it. The ſecond part of the Plea is alſo diſtinct from the firſt, and hath not any relation thereunto, and nothing which is therein ſhall help the Plaintiff, quoad the trial of the firſt. But peradventure, ſuch a Confeſſion in one entire Plea, would have helped him; but as it is, it is not good, and therefore the Juſtices were of Opinion, That it was a Miſ-Tryall, and a Venire facias de novo was awarded to try the ſame Iſſues. Mich. 3 Jac. in B. R. Lepworth's Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 86, 87.

13. A Scire facias upon a Recognizance againſt J. H. for the good Behaviour, For that the ſaid J. H. with other riotous perſons, 4 Maii, 17 Jac. riotouſly at 11 of the Clock at night, entred into the Cloſe of one J. F. in L. and cut up a Quick-ſet Hedg of the ſaid Cloſe: the Defendant pleaded to all but ſides the entring of the Cloſe, and cutting down the Quick ſet Hedg, Not Guilty. And as to that he juſtified, That the ſaid Cloſe in L. called D. Cloſe, is, and time whereof, &c. was an High Way leading from Shelley in the ſaid County, over the ſaid Cloſe to Newport; and becauſe the Way was ſtopped by the ſaid Quick ſet hedg, he cut it down: as was lawfull to do to uſe the ſaid Way. The Replication was, That the ſaid J. H. de injuria ſua propria ex malitia ſua præcogitata with the others, cut down the ſaid Quick ſet Hedg prout as alledged, Et hoc petit quod inquiratur. Et prædict. Defendens ſimiliter. And the Verdict was found againſt the Defendant. It was in this Caſe ſaid, and ſo holden, That admitting that the Iſſue was good, yet that here was a Miſ-Tryall, for that the Venire facias is only de L. where the Cloſe is; whereas it ought to have bin from Shelley and Newport, from which places, and to which places the Way is ſuppoſed to lead: Wherefore it was adjudged for the Defendant, that he ſhould be diſcharged. Mich. 38 Jac. in B. R. The King and Hoppers Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 598, 599.

14. A. brought Debt againſt B. upon a Leaſe for years: The Caſe was, The Grandfather of the Plaintiff ſeiſed of Lands in Southwark, made a Leaſe of the ſame to the Defendant at London, rendring Rent. Afterwards he Deviſed the Reverſion to A. the Plaintiff in Fee; and in his Will declared his intent to be, That his Executors ſhould have the Reverſion during the Term, upon Condition, that they enter Bond to pay 34 l. per annum at the uſual Feaſts; and Deviſed, That this Bond ſhould be made by the advice of his Overſeers; all this to be done within ſix Months after his deceaſe; And if his Executors refuſe, his Will was, That the Overſeers ſhould take the profits upon the ſame Condition: The Deviſor dyed, no Obligation was made within the three Months, and the Plaintiff required the Executors to enter the Bond, and pay the Rent, which was not done: Whereupon he brought his Action in London, and not in Southwark where the Land did lye. It was agreed in this Caſe, That the Plaintiff had good Title to have the Rent; but becauſe the Plaintiff had miſtaken the laying of his Action, it was for that Caſe only adjudged againſt the Plaintiff. Then it was moved, That in this Caſe the Plaintiff might pay Coſts. But it was Reſolved, That this Caſe was not within the Statute of 32 H. 8. and 4 Jac. where the words of the Statute are, That if the Plaintiff be Nonſuit, or a Verdict given againſt him upon a lawfull Tryall, that he ſhould pay Coſts; for that he ſhall not pay Coſts, for no Verdict is found againſt the Plaintiff, but rather for him, and Judgment is given againſt him, becauſe he only miſtook his Action. Hill. 21 Jac. in C. B. Tothern and Clybrooks Caſe. Winch. 69.

15. Debt brought upon an Obligation of 60 l. Iſſue was taken, that the money was paid at Coventry, and yet by conſent of parties and a paper Rule, the Iſſue was tryed at London, and found for the Plaintiff, and Judgment given. And upon Error brought in the Exchequer Chamber, the Judgment was reverſed, for that the conſent of parties may not change the Law. Paſc. 7 Jac. in the Exchequer. Crow and Edwards Caſe. Hob. 5.

16. In Waſte, the Plaintiff in the Writ layd the Waſte in the Caſtle of Burgham, and other Waſts in the Towns of Burgham, Flaxbridg, and Appleby; and then aſſigned Waſtes in the Towns mentioned in the Writ, and in another Town called Langton, not mentioned in the Writ. Whereupon 18 ſeveral Iſſues were joynted, whereof one was concerning the Reparation of the Caſtle of B. and none concerning any thing of Flaxbridg. And there was one Venire facias for Tryall of all theſe Iſſues. It was moved, That it was a Miſ-Tryall. But it was Reſolved, Though they were all ſeveral Iſſues, and might be Tryed by ſeveral Venire facias's, and then every Venire facias ſhould have come from the place where the particular Iſſue did ariſe: Yet in ſuch Caſes as this, One Venire facias was allowed to try them all for avoiding of multiplicity; but then that Venire facias muſt ariſe from all the places from whence the Iſſues do ariſe, and from no more; but in this Caſe, the Venire offended in both, for the Venire facias did not come inter alia de Vicineto Caſtri de Burgham. And

2. The Venire facias was awarded from one Town mutt alia, from whence no Iſſue did ariſe; and the Venire facias being one in Deed, could not be made good in part, and void in part, eſpecially where a Town was added to the Venire facias, which could not be applyed more to one Iſſue then the other; And therefore the Court held it vitious in all. The Earl of Cumberland, and Counteſs Dower of Cumberlands Caſe, Hob. 37.

17. In Falſe Impriſonment brought for Impriſoning him at Briſtow; The Defendant pleaded, That time out of mind there hath been a Court of Record holden at Briſtow every Monday before the Mayor, &c. according to the Cuſtome; and that according to the Cuſtome, J. S. levied a Plaint there againſt the Plaintiff; whereupon the Defendants being Sergeants, were commanded to Arreſt him; which they did, &c. The Plaintiff took Iſſue, That J. S. did levy no ſuch Plaint: which was found for the Plaintiff. It was moved, That it ought to have been tryed by the Record. But it was Reſolved, It was well tryed, for that the matter of Record is mixt with matter in fact, that is, whether the Court were kept, and the Plaint entred according to the Cuſtome, which is a matter of fact triable by Jury: and the levying of a Plaint, is like the ſuing of an Original, which is out of Record, untill it be returned in Court. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Mich. 16 Jac. in C. B. Potts and Stafford's Caſe. Hob. 124.

18. Error to reverſe a Judgment in a Quare Impedit; The Caſe was, The Biſhop of London 11 H. in the County of Middleſex, did grant the next Avoidance to a Church of his Preſentation in the County of Worceſter; Upon Iſſue taken Quod non Conteſſit. It was tryed in the County of Worceſter; Error was brought, and alledged, That it was a Miſ-tryal: But againſt that it was ſaid and alledged, That the Tryal was good; for that the Tryal ſhall be where the Land is, according to the Book, 43 E. 1. And of that Opinion was the whole Court; And ſo it was ſaid, It was adjudged in Heale and Sprotts Caſe. Mich. 8 Jac. in B. R. The Biſhop of London, and Drews Caſe. Hob. 1. Part, 47.

19. Note: It was Reſolved in the Caſe of the Lord Vaux, who was Indicted for his refuſal to take the Oath of Allegiance, That at the Common-Law, In theſe 4. Caſes only, a Peer ſhall be tryed by his Peers; viz. in Treaſon, Felony, Miſpriſion of Treaſon, and Miſpriſion of Felony; and the Statutes which give ſuch Tryall have Reference to theſe, or to other Offences made Treaſon or Felony: But in caſe of a Præmunire, the ſame being only in effect but a Contempt; no Tryal ſhall be of him by his Peers: The Lord Vaux afterwards confeſſed the Indictment, and therefore Judgment was given againſt him according to the Statute of 16 R. 2. viz. To be out of the Kings Protection, his Lands, Tenements, Goods and Chattels to be perpetually forfeited to the King, and to be impriſoned during his life. Paſch. 10 Jac. in B. R. The Lord Vaux's Caſe. Bollſtr. 1. Part, 198, 199.

20. Error to reverſe a Judgment given in the Court of Pipowders at Rocheſter upon a Bond of 300 l. The Plaintiff declared upon a Bond long before entred into; and ſet forth, That the Court was there holden, ſecundum Conſuetudinem, and by Charter before the Mayor calling to him two Citizens; which Bond was entred into for payment of money to the Plaintiff at his houſe in Rocheſter. The Defendant there pleaded payment of the money at the Plaintiff's houſe. The Plaintiff Replyed, That the money was not paid: Upon which Iſſue was joyned, And a Venire facias was awarded Returnable before the Mayor, or his Deputy, calling to him two Citizens upon the Tryall, and Verdict and Judgment was given for the Plaintiff: Whereupon Error was brought. The ſole Queſtion was, Whether the Judgment given there, was erroneous or not. In this caſe, It was the Opinion of the Court and Juſtices, That by Preſcription, a man may well have and hold a Court of Pipowders, without a Fair, or a Market, as to have Contracts made long before: and here in this caſe, the Court is layed to be held by Cuſtome, viz. ſecundum Conſuetudinem and by Charter, in the Copulative: And ſo it was ſaid, It was Reſolved, Mich. 8 Jac. in White and Howes Caſe, In an Action upon the Caſe, for ſlanderous words brought in a Court of Pipowders for words ſpoken long before the Court was held: It was adjudged for the Plaintiff, and affirmed in a Writ of Errour, becauſe the Court was there layed to be held by Preſcription. 2. It was holden, That this Preſcription is not altered nor changed by this Grant and Confirmation by Charter; but that they may well ſtand together: And the difference was taken, where the Charter doth deſtroy the Cuſtome; and where it is only by way of Addition to it: and in this manner, as in the principal Caſe, the Cuſtome, Preſcriptions and Charter may well ſtand together. 3 Reſolved, That as to the Iſſue here, and Tryall thereupon, The payment here is pretended to be at the Plaintiff's houſe, being in the City of R: this cannot be made good any wayes; but he ſhould have ſaid, That this money was paid to the Plaintiff; viz. at the City of Rocheſter, at the Plaintiff's houſe in the City of R. 4. Reſolved, As to the Venire facias, and awarding of the ſame, The ſame ought to be done by the

the Mayor alone, for he alone is the ſole Judg, and the other Citizens are not Judges, untill they be called to ſit with him. 5. Reſolved, That as to the Return of the Venire facias Coram me vel Deputatum meum, unleſs it appear and be proved by ſpecial words in their Charter, that he may hold his Court by his Deputy. The parties in the principal Caſe, perceiving that the Opinion of the Court was, That the Judgment was Erroneous, agreed to go to a new Tryal. Hill. 9 Jac. in B.R. rott. 231. Goodſon and Duffills Caſe. Bulſtr. 2. Part, 21, 22, to 26.

21. Debt upon a Bond made at S; The Defendant pleaded, That the ſame was made at another place, upon a corrupt Contract, ſo to avoid the Bond upon the Statute of 13 Eliz. of Uſury. The Plaintiff Replyed, That it was made bona fide, and takes a Traverſe, That it was entred into upon any corrupt Contract: Hereupon Iſſue joyned; And the Venire facias awarded from the place where the corrupt Contract was layed to be: And the Jury found for the Plaintiff. It was moved, That the Venire facias was not well awarded, but it ought to have been from both places, viz. where the Bond was ſealed, and from the place where the corrupt Contract was laid to be. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That the Tryall ought to be by a Jury from the place only where the corrupt Contract was layed to be; and therefore the Tryal was good, and the Venire facias well awarded, and Judgment was entred for the Plaintiff. Mich. 10 Jac. in B. R. Stanton and Barions Caſe. Bulſtr. 2. Part, 34, 35.

22. Quare Impedit by F. C. againſt S. T. Clerk, Sir Philip T. and Rich. Biſhop of Lincoln, Quod permittat præſentare ad Eccleſiam de Ulceby: He confeſſed, That A. was ſeiſed of the Advowſon in Fee, and that it was holden in Socage, and ſo ſeiſed, Deviſed it in tail, and entailed himſelf as heir in tail: S. T. the Incumbent pleaded, That there was no ſuch Biſhop of L. in rerum Natura, and delivered Judgment of the Writ: Sir Ph. T. pleaded, That there was no ſuch Church called Ulceby, in the County of L: The Plaintiff demurred upon the Incumbents Plea; and to the Plea of Sir Ph. T. replyed, That there was ſuch a Church in the County of L: This being tryed at London, It was found for the Defendant; for there was an union of the Church of F. to Ulceby: and it was called Ulceby cum Fardington. It was moved, That it being tryed by Venire facias de vicinto de Ulceby, it was a Miſ-Tryal; for when Nul tiel Vill is pleaded, it ſhall be tryed per Corpus Comitatus. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That it was a good Tryal; and that it is admitted, That there is ſuch a Town, and that the Writ implyes it. Trin. 16 Jac. in C. B. Capledick and Tauſey's Caſe. Hutton, 31, 32.

23. In falſe Impriſonment, The Defendant juſtified, That Briſtow is an Ancient City, &c. and that there had been a Court holden there before the Sheriffs, &c. and juſtified, That there was a Plaint levied, and Judgment, and the now Plaintiff taken in Execution. The Plaintiff Replyed, Quod non fuit aliqua querela levata, according to the Cuſtome, and prayes, Quod Inquiratur, &c. It was found at Briſtow for the Plaintiff. It was moved, in ſtay of Judgment, That this being matter of Record, viz. the Entry of a Plaint in a Court of Record; It ſhould be tryed by the Record, and not by the Country. But it was adjudged, That the Tryal was good, becauſe it was not merely Record; but whether it was according to the Cuſtome. And it was ſaid, That Non preſentis eſt ullum Brevet, is tryable by the Country. Mich. 16 Jac. in C. B. Stafford's Caſe. Hutton, 20, 21.

24. Note: That in Parliament holden 1 Car. It was Reſolved by the Judges, upon Conference concerning the Lord Digby, That when any Peer ſhall be proceeded againſt for Treaſon; that ought to be by Indictment; and that being done, Then the King is to appoint a Peer to be Steward for the time, and then to proceed to Arraign him or elſe to tranſmit the Indictment by Certiorari the Parliament, and there to proceed: Or otherwiſe to prefer a Bill in Parliament, which ought to be paſſed by both Houſes, and then it is an Attainder by Parliament. But in this Caſe, being that part of the Treaſon Objected againſt him, was ſuppoſed to be done beyond Sea, and made Treaſon by the Act of 3 Jac. Cap. 4. That cannot be tryed but by Indictment to be taken before Juſtices of Aſſiſe and Gool-delivery, where the party was taken, or before Juſtices of the Kings-Bench; and ſo it cannot be tryed by the Statute of 35 H. 8. Cap. 2. Mich. 14 Car. The Lord Digbies Caſe. Hutton, 131.

25. The Caſe was; One Everet was arraigned for ſtealing of a horſe, and Reprieved after Judgment; and Indicted again for ſtealing of another Horſe before this Attainder. And the Vicar of P. in the County of S. was Indicted as Acceſſary, before this Felony, for the procurement of it; And Everet again being Indicted upon this laſt Indictment, did not plead, that he was formerly Indicted of another Felony, &c. but acknowledged the Indictment; whereby the Acceſſary was Arraigned, tryed, and found guilty, and had his Judgment alſo as the Principal: But the Execution of the Acceſſary was reſpited. It was moved to the Juſtices, Whether upon this matter, it ſhall be in cessary the Accessary, the Principal being executed. It seemed to all the Judges and Barons, That the matter was clear in this case, Because the Principal did not take advantage of his first Attainder by way of Plea; but acknowledged the Deed, in which Case the Accessary may be well arraigned. But if the Principal had pleaded his former Attainder, Now whether he shall be put to answer for the benefit of the Queen, having regard to his Accessary; or otherwise shall go quit, because there is not any Principal? It seemed to Popham, and some Justices, That it shall be in the same manner, as if the same person so formerly Attainted, should be tryed now for Treason made before his Attainder, because it is for the Advantage of the King in his Escheat of the Land: And there is a difference where the Treason was made before the Felony of which he is Attainted, and where after. But it was agreed, That the party Attaint shall not be again arraigned for any other Felony done before the Attainder in Case where no Accessary was touched. But upon the Statute of 1 El. cap. 4. he who shall have his Clergy in such manner, shall not be drawn in question for any other Felony done before his Attainder, for which he might have his Clergy. Mich. 38 & 39. Eliz. Everetts Case. Popham, 107.

26. In Debt upon the Statute of 2 E. 6. for not using such of Tythes. Upon Nihil Debet pleaded, it was found against the Defendant, and Judgment given. It was moved in stay of Judgment, That it was a Mis-Tryal; for the Jurata upon the Nil Debet is, That Jurat. ponitur in respectum Inter Merchant Plaintiff, et Rawson Defendant, in Placito Transgressionis absque pace Oblat. Mich. 8 Pasc. In by this Jurata, which is the Warrant of the Justices of Nisi Prius, there is not any Authority to try the Issue. It was holden to be plain Misprision. The Issue being in Placito debiti, and not in Placito Transgress. But it was, notwithstanding, holden by the Court, That it was but by default of the Clerk, and therefore that it was amendable by the Statute of 8 H. 6. cap. 12. But least it was the default of the Clerk of the Treasury to commit such a gross offence, he was fined 40*l*. Mich. 8 Car. in B. R. le Merchant and Lawsons Case. Cro. 1. Part, 200, 201.

27. Error of a Judgment in Cornwall, In debt upon an Obligation: the Error was, because the Tryal of the Issue was by six only. It was said to be no Error, because the Court was holden by Adjournment, and the Tryall there secundum Consuetudinem, & tempore quo, &c. before used. But it was holden by the Court, That such a Custome may by law, was a void Customs, and against the Common Law, and there cannot be an exemption of persons from being Jurours, unless there be sufficient Jurours besides the persons exempted to make Tryalls. Wherefore the Judgment was reversed. Mich. 7 Car. in B. R. Tredimock and Perrymans Case. Cro. 1. Part, 188, 189.

28. A. and B. Sheriffs of London, brought Debt upon an Obligation against G. upon Condition of appearance at a certain day in B. R. The Defendant pleaded, That he being Arrested by a Precept out of B. R. appeared at the day, upon which they were at Issue to be tryed by the Countrey. In this Case, a Repleader was Awarded by the Court, because it was tryable by the Record; for although the Sheriff doth not Return the Process; yet the Defendant ought to come into the Court at the day, and there a special entry shall be made of his appearance; and so it was said it was adjudged in Brett and Shepheards Case. Mich. 30 Eliz. in B. R. Howse and Gibbons Case. Owen 53.

29. It was moved for a Prohibition to the Prerogative Court upon a surmise, that the party did endeavour to Bastardize one there who was legitimate. It was answered, That the surmise was not true, and that the Suit there only was, Whether Letters of Administration were by them well granted; and the Case there was, A. had a Wife called Bridget, who dyed, he took another Wife called also Bridget, and dyed Intestate. The second Wife took Letters of Administration of the goods of her Husband; the son of A. sued in the Prerogative Court to repeal those Letters of Administration, upon pretence, That Bridget the first Wife was living. In this Case, these ensuing positions were delivered by the Court. 1. That one ought not to sue in the Ecclesiastical Court to Bastardize an Issue, but at the Common Law. 2. Where the Ordinary hath Granted Letters of Administration to one who ought to have them, they ought not to repeal them. 3. Where a Suit is in the Ecclesiastical Court for Lands and goods, a Prohibition may be granted as to the Lands. 4. That in the Principal Case, neither Bastardy of the Issue nor Marriage is in question as is surmised, but the validity of the Administration, and the other things are but as incidents to the matter in question. 5. That Wife, or no Wife, is tryable at the Common Law, but whether lawfully married, is tryable by the Ecclesiastical Court. 6. Where a thing is tryable in the Spiritual Court, and there is a matter incident to it which is tryable at the Common Law, there a Prohibition is Grantable. The Rule of the Court was, That a Prohibition should be Granted, and that the other should demur upon it, and so being the matter in Question to be debated, Whether it would lye or not. Pasc. 13 Eliz. in B. R. Bisworth and Bisworths Case.

30. In an Action upon the Case upon Assumpsit, ſit, after a Verdict and Judgment, Error was brought and aſſigned for Error. 1. That there was 18 returned upon the Jury, and but two of them tryed the Iſſue. 2. Part of the Declaration to ground the Aſſumpſit upon, was in another County, and not within the Juriſdiction of the Court where the Iſſue was tryed. And for theſe Errors, the Judgment was reverſed. Trin. 23 Car. in B.R. Chudley and Stiuches Caſe. Styles 33.

31. In Treſpaſs againſt the Defendant and others for taking away divers parcells of Ribbon from him. The Defendant pleaded by way of Juſtification the Cuſtome of London againſt Hawkers, viz. to take away Wares from any that ſold them up and down the Streets. The Plaintiff replyed, there was no ſuch Cuſtome, and Iſſue was taken upon it, and thereupon the Cuſtome was Certified by the mouth of the Recorder, and a Tryal upon it in London, and a Verdict for the Defendant; the Plaintiff moved, That it was a Miſ-Tryall, becauſe it was before them which were intereſſed in the Cauſe, and prayed another Tryal. It was the Opinion of the Court in this Caſe, That here is a point of Intereſt, as well as a part of Priviledg; for part of the goods taken come to the benefit of the City, and therefore they ought not to be their own Judges, for this is againſt natural reaſon, and ſo it is a Miſ-Tryal. A new Tryal was Awarded. But Quære if there ſhall be a Repleader, or a new Venire. Mich. 24 Car. in B. R. Smith and Hancocks Caſe. Styles 137.

32. Treſpaſs againſt a Parſon for not carrying away his Tythes in due time. The Defendant pleaded, That the Plaintiff gave him no notice to fetch them away. The Plaintiff replyed, That he did give him notice, but doth not ſhew where he gave him notice. It was ſaid by the Court, That there are many Caſes where the place is not material; yet it muſt be alledged for the Venue. If Debt be brought againſt an Executor, and he plead fully Adminiſtred. If the Plaintiff reply, he hath Aſſets, he ought to alledg the place where he hath aſſets: And ſo in this Caſe, the place ought to be alledged, That a Jury who are neareſt the place, and who have beſt knowledg of the matter may try it, although it may be tryed in another place; but if the Tryal be ill, the Verdict will not help it, but there muſt be a new Tryal. Mich. 1652. Liniſton and Mawicers Caſe. Styles 342.

33. The Caſe was this, One of the Juſtices of Aſſiſe falling ſick, and dying at Chelmsford in Eſſex, the Aſſiſes were adjourned to Brentwood; the other Judg fell ſick and dyed at London, and a new Commiſſion iſſued to another Judg to ſit at Brentwood; and there a Tryal was had upon the old Jurata returned before the other Judges. The Queſtion was, If this was not a Miſ-Tryall in regard there was not a new Jury returned. The Opinion of the Court was, That it was not a Miſ-Tryall, becauſe the death of the Juſtices was not material to make it void, for the Juſtices are not named in the Jurata, but the cauſe is expreſſed generally to be tryed by the Juſtices. And in this Caſe, it was ſaid for a Rule, That if a Clerk miſ-enter a thing uſual in matter and form, it is to be amended, but the Error of the Judg may not be amended as it was holden in this Court, in Sawyer and Hortons Caſe. Mich. 13 Car. and Hill. 15 Car. in B. R. in Relch and Fates Caſe. Hill. 1654. Barker and Elmers Caſe. Styles 412.

34. Error brought to reverſe a Judgment againſt a Taylor, upon an Information exhibited againſt him at the Aſſiſes at Oxford, for taking more money of one who was bound Appentice to him, then he might by the Law. The Error Aſſigned was, That the Juſtices of Aſſiſe had no power to determine of Offences of this nature. It was ſaid, That as they are Juſtices of Oyer and Terminer, they have power by their Commiſſion to determine Offences of this nature; and it ſhall be intended here that they proceeded by vertue of that Commiſſion. It was ſaid by the Court, That it appears not here by vertue of which of their Commiſſions they have tryed the Offence, but both the Commiſſions are jumbled together in the Record, and they have not Authority by all their Commiſſions: and beſides in this Caſe, there is another fault in the Judgment; for it is not ſaid, It is conſidered by the Court, but only it is conſidered. The Rule of the Court was, That cauſe be ſhewed, why the Judgment ſhould not be reverſed. Hill. 1654. in B.R. Richardſons Caſe. Styles 430.

35. Debt upon an Obligation, the Condition was, That the Defendant ſhould pay ſo much in the houſe of the Plaintiff at Lincoln. The Defendant pleaded payment at Lincoln aforeſaid: Upon which they were at Iſſue, and the Venire facias was De Vicineto Civitatis Lincolne, and found for the Plaintiff. It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That it was a Miſ-Tryall, becauſe the Venire facias ought to have bin of the body of the County, and not of the City, which was alſo a County of it ſelf. It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That the Tryal was good, and their Reſolution was grounded upon the Book, 34 H. 6. 49. 50 there being no other Authority in the Law in that point, but that Caſe. And this was taken for a Rule by them, That where it doth appear upon the Record, that there is a more proper place for Tryall, then where the Tryal was, that there the Tryal is good, but here is not a more proper place: And it was ſaid, It was impoſſible to be tryed in the body of the County, becauſe the payment was to be in the City; but yet if a man ſpeak generally of the County of Lincoln, it ſhall be intended extended of the body of the County, and not the City, becauſe the City is but a Corporation out of the County. But it was Reſolved, That the Tryal was in the moſt proper place, and therefore good. Mich. 17 Car. in C. B. Thorndike and Thrapſton's Caſe.

36. In a Prohibition, the Caſe was, Queen Eliz. was ſeiſed of the Manour of Nanington, which did extend into four Pariſhes, viz. Stangrave, and three others: and the Plaintiff ſhewed, That he was ſeiſed of three Cloſes in Stangrave; and preſcribed, That the Queen, and all whoſe Eſtate, &c. had a Modus Decimandi for all thoſe Cloſes; and for all other the Demeſnes in the ſaid Pariſh of Stangrave; And if the Venire facias ſhould be de Parochia de Stangrave; or of the Manour, was the Queſtion: And it was Reſolved by the whole Court, That the Venire facias ſhould be, and the Viſne be of the Pariſh, and not of the Manour, and a difference was taken, when a man claims any thing which goes to the whole manner, and when only in parcels; for then in the one Caſe, the Viſne ſhall be of the Manour, and in the other Caſe not. See 9 Eliz. Dyer, 262. But it was ſaid, That in the Caſe at bar, the Modus did ſtretch only to things in Stangrave, and therefore the Venire facias ſhould be only the Parochia de Stangrave. Mich. 11 Jac. in C. B. Norton and Iſſlers Caſe.

37. Quad had Judgment in an Action upon the Caſe at the Aſſizes, and damages given to him 30 l. It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That the Venire facias was, de Duodecim, and that one of them did not appear; and ſo there was one de Circumſtantibus; and the Entry in the Roll was, That the ſaid Juror exaffat. venit, but the word Juratus was omitted; and for this cauſe the Judgment was ſtayed. Paſc. 8 Jac. in C.B. Quads Caſe. Godbolt, 177.

38. Adherence to the Kings Enemies out of the Realm, is Treaſon; And by the Statute of 33 H. 8. cap. 2. ſhall be tryed by a Jury of 12 men in the Kings Bench in England, or by Commiſſion Aſſigned for that purpoſe. Mich. 34 Eliz. Sir John Perots Caſe. Cook 3. Part, Inſtitutes 261. And ſo there, when part of an Act. ſcil. the Original Act is done in England, and another part is done beyond the Sea, there the Tryall ſhall be by a Jury in England, and the Venire ſhall be from the place where the Writ bears date. A man by Indenture Covenants by Charter party, That a Ship ſhall Sail from Mackary Haven in Norfolk, to Matterell in Spain: In an Action of Covenant brought upon this Charter party, being made at Thetford in Norfolk, was tryed by a Jury of 12 men in the County of Norfolk, where the Contract began. Paſc 28 Eliz. in B. R. Conſtantines Caſe vouch. in Cook 6. Part, 47. in Dendales Caſe.

39. In an Action perſonal againſt two; If one pleads in bar unto parcel, which extends only to himſelf, and the other pleads a plea which goeth to the whole, and to both. The latter Plea ſhall be firſt tryed, and both of them ſhall have advantage of it, becauſe in a perſonal Action, the diſcharge of the one is the diſcharge of the other; but it is otherwiſe in a Plea real, becauſe every Tenant may loſe his part of the Land by his Miſ-pleading. But in Caſe where an Iſſue is joyned for part, and a Demurrer of the reſidue, there the Court may direct the Tryall of the Iſſue, or Judg the Demurrer firſt at their pleaſure. 15 E. 4. 25. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 125.

40. See before, That there are ſix Certificates allowed for Tryal at the Common Law. 1. In time of War, the Certificate of the Marſhall of the Kings Hoſt out of the Realm. 2. In time of Peace out of the Realm, as an Outlawry, If it be alledged by the Defendant, that he was Impriſoned at Bordeaux in France, it ſhall be tryed by the Certificate of the Mayor of Bordeaux there. 3. Cuſtome of London ſhall be tryed by Certificate of the Recorder Ore tenus. 4. By Certificate of the Sheriff upon a Writ to him directed in Caſe of Priviledg. 5. Tryal of Records ſhall be by the Certificate of the Judges in whoſe Cuſtody they are by the Law. 6. Loyalty of Matrimony, Baſtardy, &c. ſhall be tryed by the Certificate of the Ordinary. See Cook 9. Part, 30, 31. in the Caſe of the Abbot of Strata Marcella. See before.

41. Note, Concerning the courſe of Tryal of Legitimation and Baſtardy, theſe Reſolutions following, viz. 1. It was Reſolved, That Cauſes Matrimonial and Teſtamentary, were Civil Cauſes, and did appertain to the Juriſdiction of the Civil Magiſtrate, untill they were granted to the Clergy by Kings and Emperours; and the King by the Common Law of England had ſuperintendency upon all the proceedings of Prelates, with power of reſtraint and correction if they did not duly proceed in them. 2. Reſolved, That the Queſtion of Baſtardy or Legitimation ought firſt to be moved in the Kings Temporal Court, and Iſſue ought to be joyned upon it there; and then it ought to be tranſmitted to the Eccleſiaſtical Court to be tryed and examined there: and of that the Biſhop ſhall make a Certificate to the King. But if a Suit to prove Baſtardy or Legitimation be commenced in the Spiritual Court before the matter is begun in the Kings Court, in ſuch Caſe a Prohibition lyeth. 3. Reſolved, That the Eccleſiaſtical Judg cannot enquire of Baſtardy or Legitimation without ſpecial direction or commandment from the King: ſo when he hath received the Kings Writ to make the Inquiſition, two cannot ſuccede for any Appeal or Inhibition, hibition, but ought alwayes to proceed untill he hath certified the King thereof. 4. Resolved, That the very cause and reason wherefore the Ecclesiastical Judg cannot enquire of Bastardy or Legitimation before he hath received the Kings Writ, is, because the Spiritual Court never had jurisdiction or power to meddle with Temporal Inheritances, either directly, or indirectly. See Sir John Davyes Reports. The Case of Tryall of Legitimation and Bastardy.

42. Goods were devised to W. Son and Heir of J. S. who sued for them in the Spiritual Court. The Executors said, That W. was not Son and Heir of J. S. and Issue was joyned upon that. It was the Opinion of the Justices, That the same should be tryed in the Spiritual Court, because that the matter did depend upon another matter, of which that Court had Jurisdiction. See Kellowey 110. p. 33. But if the Issue be upon a thing which is meerly Temporal, and is not pursuant upon the principal matter, there the Tryal shall be at the Common Law. Cook 9. Part, in Henslows Case, acc.

43. In an Indictment of Murder, The Murder was alledged to be apud Civitatem Westm. in Com. Middlesex in Parochia Sanctæ Margaretæ. The Jury was returned for the Tryal De Vicineto Civitatis Westm. which found the Defendant guilty. It was moved in Arrest of Judgment, That the Tryall ought to be by men of the Parish, and not of the City; and it was Resolved accordingly, because the Tryall was insufficient, and a new Venire facias was awarded to try the Issue again, because the life of the party was never in jeopardy. Cook 6. Part, 24. Arundells Case.

44. In Trespass, the Defendant pleaded a grant of the Queen by her Letters Patents under the Great Seal. The Plaintiff took Issue Non concessit Tenementa predicta per predict. Litteras Patentes. It was adjudged in this Case, That the Issue should be tryed where the Land lay, and not where the Letters Pattents bore date. For the Letters Pattents being matter of Record, cannot be denyed. And therfore the effect of the Issue of Non concessit was, That the Queen had not any thing in the Land, or that the Tenements did not pass by the Letters Pattents, which shall be tryed where the Land lyeth. Cook 6. Part, 15. Edens Case. See 8 Eliz. Dyer, 253. 37 Eliz. Dyer, 342. acc.

45. Note, It was Resolved by the Court, That when a Jury, returned by force of a Venire facias to try an Issue, hath given a Verdict which is accepted and recorded by the Court, be the same perfect, or imperfect, the Jurours are discharged thereof for ever, and shall never in the same cause be recalled to try the same Issue. But if the Verdict be so imperfect, That Judgment cannot be given upon it, Then the Court shall award a Venire facias de novo to try the said Issue by others, 38 E. 3. 48. in a Cessavit, 27 H. 6. 4. in Conspiracy. But where the Recognitors of an Assise give a Verdict, which is not well examined by the Justices, who take the Assise, There the first imperfection shall be enquired of by the first Jurors, for there no new process can be made; but the Recognitors which are Returned, shall alwayes stand, because they are returned upon the Original. Cook 8. Part, 65. in Loudays Case.

46. In a Mesne traverunt, the Lord prayed, That the Tenant might ascertain the Court, That the Manner is Auncient Demesne; and thereupon the Tenant shewed a Charter of King E. 3. which recites of Inspeximus the Charter of Hen. 1. which Charter rehearsed Inspeximus the Charter of William the Conquerror, who had Granted and confirmed the Manner to one H. B. which Charter of William the Conqueror had Inspeximus, Chartam Ed. Regis Anglia; so as it appeared by the Charters, That William the Conqueror was possessed, and St. Edward also, as the Plaintiff said. In that Case it was said by the Court, That the Charters are not material, for the words therein are but form, although the King never had possession, and might ensure as a Confirmation; and it is but Inspeximus. And if the Charters themselves were shewed, they would not prove that the Land was in the possession of St. Edward, or William the Conquerror; and they are not Records now, and therefore they cannot adjudg what is Auncient Demesne. But the Court said and agreed, That Auncient Demesne shall be only tryed and adjudged by the Book of Doomsday which is in the Exchequer. See 43 E. 3. 23. acc.

1. ACtion upon the Caſe of Trover of his Beaſts. The Defendant juſtified by reaſon of a Rent Granted to A. his Executors and Aſſigns for the life of B. out of Bl. Acre, and ſhewed how that A. is dead, and he as Adminiſtrator Diſtreyned for the Rent in Black Acre after the death of A. and averred the life of B. It was adjudged, That the Juſtification was not good, both for the manner and manner of it; for by the death of A. the Rent was determined, and could never come to the Executors or Adminiſtrators; for it was not a thing Teſtamentary, but a Freehold, and ſo not like where a Grant is to A. and his Heirs for the life of another. Yet Popham Juſtice agreed, That if a Rent be Granted to A. for the life of another, the Remainder to B. although that A. dyeth, by which the Rent is determined an Intereſt as to the perception of it; Yet becauſe the Terr-Tenant during that time holds the Land diſcharged of it, it is ſufficient to ſupport the Remainder: Alſo the Court was of Opinion, That if the Rent had continued, then the taking of the Cattel by a lawfull Diſtreſs for the Rent, had not bin any Converſion at all; but otherwiſe if the Diſtreſs was not lawfully taken. Mich. 45 Eliz. in B. R. Salters Caſe. Tilverton 19.

2. The Plaintiff declared, That 8 Maii. 4 Jac. he was poſſeſſed of ſuch goods at London, in ſuch a Ward, and named them, and that he caſually loſt them, and that they came to the Defendants hands, 1. Oct. Anno 5. who knew them to be the Plaintiffs goods, converted them to his own uſe. The Defendant pleaded, That before the Plaintiff had any thing, W. D. was poſſeſſed of the ſaid goods, as of his proper goods, and ſuch a day, Anno 4 Jac. for good conſideration, gave them to the Defendant, by force whereof he was poſſeſſed of them. And the Defendant, 1. Maii, Anno 5. loſt them; and 2. Maii, Anno 5. they came to the hands of W. D. at London, who the ſame day, gave them to the Plaintiff, by which he was poſſeſſed, and loſt them, 1. Octobr, Anno 6. and they came to the Defendants hands, and he converted them to his own uſe, upon which the Plaintiff demurred; and it was adjudged for the Plaintiff, becauſe the bar is not good, becauſe it doth not confeſs nor avoid, nor Traverſe the Title of the Plaintiff to the goods alledged in the Declaration, but gives to the Plaintiff only a colour to the poſſeſſion without any right or property; and that upon the ill and defeaſible gift made to him by W. D. and in an Action of Trover, and all other Actions where the Plaintiff makes a Title to the thing demanded, or to a thing for which he demands damages, there the Defendant ought to make a better Title to himſelf, and to traverſe the Plaintiffs Title, or otherwiſe confeſs and avoid it. Hill. 7 Jac. in B. R. Priſley and Whites Caſe. Tilverton, 173, 174.

3. In Trover and Converſion, the Caſe was: Tenant for Life, without Impeachment of Waſte, excepting voluntary Waſte; He, in the Reverſion, Bargained, and ſold the Timber-trees, and ſells them to the Plaintiff; Tenant for life cuts them down, and ſells them to I. S. and Whether the Bargainee ſhall have Trover againſt the Vendee of Tenant for life, the Tenant for life being alive, was the Queſtion. It was argued, he ſhould not; for during the life of Tenant for life, although he in the Reverſion hath the general property, yet he hath no authority to ſell them, and his ſale being void, his Bargainee hath no Intereſt to maintain the Action. See Cook. Lyford's Caſe. Cook. 8. part. Bowlers Caſe. Tr. 7. Jac. in B. R. Waller and Sand's Caſe. Cro. 1. part 199.

4. In an Action of Trover of Goods, and converting them, the Defendant pleaded a Sale in Market overt, whereby he juſtified the Converſion: It was holden in that Caſe to be no Plea, becauſe it anſwers but to the general iſſue; wherefore adjudged, That if he did not plead, Nihil dicit ſhould be entered. Trin. 5. Jac. in B. R. Johns and Witham's Caſe, Cro. 2 Part. 165.

5. In Trover and Converſion, the Caſe was:

A. B. and C: A. was indebted unto C. in ſuch a ſumm of money; and B. in ſuch a ſumm was indebted to A. It was agreed between A, B. & C, that B, in diſcharge of his debt unto A, ſhould diſcharge the debt of A. unto C, in paying, and delivvring unto him certain Commodities, which he then had in his hands, being properly the Goods and Commodities of A; and which B, by, and with the conſent of A, did promiſe and undertake to deliver them to C. in diſcharge of the debt of A. to him, and C. was content to accept thereof: B. did not according to his promiſe diſcharge the debt of A. to C, but converted the goods to his own uſe. It was agreed by the whole Court in that Caſe, That the Action was maintainable: For, if a man bail goods to one, to bail them over to another; if he to whom the bailment was thus made, contrary to the truſt in him repoſed, do not deliver them over, as he was to have done, but convert them to his own uſe, ; by this deceit, he hath made himſelf lyable to an Action, both of the firſt bailor, and alſo of the party to whom they were to be bailed over. And in this Caſe here, although the Third Perſon to whom the goods ought to have been bailed, had never the poſſeſſion of them, yet the Converſion, and non-ſeiſure, is a wrong to C. the Third Perſon; for which he may have his Action. It was adjudged for C. the Third Perſon, who brought the Action. See 28 H. 8. Dyer. 20, 21. M. 8 Jac. in B. A. Flewellin and Reves Caſe. Bolſtr. 1. Part. 68.

6. Error brought to reverſe a Judgment in C. B, in an Action upon the Caſe, upon Trover and Converſion of 300 Toddas Lane at C: the Error aſſigned was; That the Declaration was not good, being Toddas Lane; but the Opinion of the whole Court was, That it was no Error, for Toddas Lane is good enough, and very ſignificant; and this is as well known, as Barellas Cerviſiæ, & Pipas Vini, for theſe are Vocabula artis only, to certifie the Court of this, and ſo it was agreed clearly, that Toddas Lane was no Error. Paſc. 8 Jac. on B. R. Proctor and Cliſtor's Caſe. Bolſt. 1. Part 127.

7. Trover againſt Husband and Wife: The Plaintiff declared of a Trover of the goods of the Plaintiff by the Wife, which ſhe Converted to her own uſe. It was moved, That the Action ought to be brought againſt the Husband onely, becauſe that a woman could not Convert them to her own uſe during the vCoverture, but onely to the Husbands uſe. But the Opinion of the Court was, That the Writ was good againſt them both, and that the Converſion was in nature of a Treſpaſs, and ſo the Action would lye M. 31. Eliz. in B. R. Owen. 48.

8. In Trover and Converſion againſt Husband and Wife, the Plaintiff declared, That he was poſſeſſed of diverſe goods in Specie, until ſuch a day, and then loſt them; and that they came to the poſſeſſion of both the Defendants, and that they Converted them to his damage. It was found for the Plaintiff in C. B. and upon a Writ of Error, brought in B. R; the Judgment was affirmed, and yet exception was taken to the Declaration, becauſe the Converſion was laid to the charge of the Wife, and a Feme-Covert could not Convert goods, but it ſhall be ſaid the Converſion of the Husband onely. But the Reaſon of the Judgment was, becauſe the Action was not grounded upon any Property ſuppoſed to be in the Defendants, but upon the Poſſeſſion onely; and the point of the Action, is the Converſion; which is a wrong, with which the Wife may be charged. But in this Caſe, it was holden, That Husband and Wife cannot have an Action of Trover, and ſuppoſe a poſſeſſion in them both, becauſe the Law in point of Owner-ſhip doth transfer all the Intereſt to the Husband. M. 7 Jac. in B. R. Draper and Fulkes Caſe. Yelverton. 165. 166.

9. In Trover and Converſion of two Tunn of Wine. That the King was ſeized in the Right of his Crown, of the Prizage of all Wines imported by any Subject, or Alien from the parts beyond Sea: And that, for the ſaid Prizage, was confirmed to the King and his Farmers, out of every Veſſel bringing in 20 Tunn, two Tunn of Wine; one before the Maſt, and the other behinde; and that the King ſo ſeized before the coming of the two Tunns to the Defendants hands, The King granted to Sir Tho. Walter the Office of chief Butlerage, with all Fees, and made him chief Butler for life, to be exerciſed by him and his Deputy; and that the chief Butler for the time being, had uſed, by himſelf, or his Deputy, to take for the uſe of the King, the ſaid Prizage; and ſhewed, that a Ship laden with 20 Tunn of Wine, arrived from beyond the Sea, at the City of Exeter, and that at the ſaid City, nine Tunns and an half of the ſaid 20 Tunns being the Plaintiffs Wines, were unladen there; whereof two Tunns were due to the King for Prizage: And that being Deputy of Sir Tho. Walter, and by his Command, he took the ſaid two Tunns of Wine, for the uſe of the King, and carryed them away. Upon which Plea, the Plaintiff did demur. Divers exceptions were taken to the Plea, amongſt which, one was, Becauſe the Defendant doth not traverſe the Converſion ſuppoſed by the Plaintiff, for that is a Converſion in the Defendant himſelf, and he juſtifies a Converſion to the uſe of the King, which is another Converſion, than that with which the Defendant is charged. But the Opinion of the whole Court was, That he needed not to traverſe the the Converſion, nor Plead in other manner than he hath done: 1. Becauſe the coming to the hands, and the inter-medling with the two Tunns ſuppoſed by the Plaintiff, is confeſſed by the Defendant to be to the uſe of the King; and that is the matter in Law upon the Plea in Barr, and matter in Law, ſhall not be traverſed. 2. If the ſeizure to the uſe of the King ſhall not be adjudged Lawful, then he himſelf ſhall be adjudged guilty of the Converſion; becauſe he hath confeſſed in point of Judgment poſſeſſion of the goods, and a medling with them: It was adjudged for the Defendant. Hill. 1 Jac. in B. A. Kenicot and Bogans Caſe. Therein 198. 199. 200. 201.

10. Note: It was ſaid, Mich. 3 Jac. in B. R. That Trover and Converſion lyeth for Money, although it be not in a Bagg: But not Detinue, and ſo it was ſaid it was Reſolved, 40 Eliz. in Holyday and Hicks Caſe. And it was ſaid, That if the Maſter delivers Corn to his Servant to ſell, who doth accordingly, and converts the Money; the Maſter may bring an Action of Trover and Converſion for the Money, againſt his Servant, and that ſo it had been adjudged. Mich. 3 Jac. in B. R. Noy 32.

11. Trover and Converſion of a Bagg of Money. The Caſe was: A. received againſt B. Forty pounds, in the County Court; a Capias iſſued againſt B, and Non eſt inventus returned by the Defendant, Serjant at Mace; a Scire facias iſſued againſt W. one of the Pledges of B: And upon this there Goods of W. his goods, were taken in Execution; the Plaintiff being preſent to ſtay the Sale of the goods, pawned the ſaid Bagg of Money, and left it in the hands of the Defendant; to the end, that he ſhould keep the ſame till the next Court-day; and this only is a Pledge for the Re-delivery of the goods to the Defendant, upon his requeſt; if W. in the interim did not obtain from A. the ſuing of the Execution, and the Jury found no Requeſt made, nor W. had procured the ſtay of the Execution, but found the Requeſt of the Plaintiff to the Defendant, to deliver the Bagg of Money, and his refuſal; the Opinion of the Court in this Caſe was, That this being a Bailment, and the Writ of Execution being expired, and the time limited to the Defendant by the Writ to ſell the goods, it was impoſſible for the Defendant to have the goods again; but he was to have the Bagg of Money, which was adjudged for them, and therefore he was to keep the ſame for his ſatisfaction; and this Retainer of the Bagg of Money, though upon requeſt, in this Caſe, was no Converſion; and ſo the Principal, Judgment was given for the Defendant againſt the Plaintiff. Trin. 11 Jac. in B. R. Hawk and Clerks Caſe, Rolls. 2. Part 307. 308.

12. In an Action of Trover and Converſion to his own uſe, per venditionem quibuſdam hominibus ignotis: The Defendant pleaded, That the goods were bailed to him, to deliver over to I. S, to whom he had delivered them; abſque hoc, that he did convert them to his own uſe; per venditionem hominibus ignotis. It was moved, That the matter was not traverſable: And ſuch was the Opinion of Wray, Chief Juſtice; for the Converſion to his own uſe, is the cauſe and ground of the Action, and not the ſelling of the goods. Mich. 19 Eliz. in B. R. Leon. 2. Part 14.

13. In Action of Trover, the Plaintiff declared, That the Dean and Chapter of Weſt. did Leaſe to him an Houſe, by deed indented; of which Indenture he was poſſeſſed, and afterwards loſt it, and by Trover it came to the Defendants hands, who ſold it, and Converted the Money thereof coming, to his own uſe. The Defendant pleaded Not guilty; The Plaintiff gave in Evidence, That the Leaſe was made to him, and to one B. and that the ſaid Indenture was delivered to the ſaid B. (and that was agreed to be the Poſſeſſion of them both) and B. dyed, and afterwards A the Plaintiff was the ſole Owner of it. It was holden by the Court, That that was good Evidence in the part of the Plaintiff, and if the Plaintiff can prove the other part of the Declaration, ſcil. That the Indenture came to the hands of the Defendant, and that he ſold it, that then he ſhould recover; But on the Defendants part, it was given in Evidence, That the ſaid B. ſold to the Defendant his part and Intereſt in the ſaid Leaſe, and alſo in the Indenture, ſo as now he is become Tenant in common with the Plaintiff, and then his ſale doth not give any cauſe of Action to the Plaintiff; and that alſo was holden by the Court to be good Evidence, without pleading of it. Afterwards in the Caſe, the Plaintiff was Non-ſuit. Paſc. 16 Eliz. in B. R. Leon. 2. Part 210.

Trusts and Confidence.

1. IN the Chauncery, this Question arose: If A be seized upon Trust and Confidence to the use of B. and his Heirs, and A. selleth the Land to one, who hath notice of the Trust, to whose use shall the Vendee be seized? And if before the sale, one cometh to the Vendee, and saith to him, Take heed how you buy such Land, for A. hath nothing in that, but onely in Trust, to the use of B: And another comes to the Vendee, and saith to him, It is not so as he is informed, for A. is seized of this Land absolutely, by which the Vendee buyeth the Land, If this first Caveat given to him, ut supra, be a sufficient notice of the Trust, or not? In this Case it was said, by the Lord Keeper of the great Seal, that it is not, for flying Reports, are many times Fables, and not Truths; and if it should be admitted for a sufficient notice, then the Inheritance of every man might easily be slandered. Note, It was said, That it had been adjudged in the Star-Chamber, in one Booth's Case; where a man said to another, Take heed how you publish such a Writing, for it was forged; and notwithstanding the Party doth publish it, that this is a sufficient notice to the Publisher, that the Deed was forged. And the Lord Popham put this Case: Take heed how you receive or entertain A. B, for he hath committed such a Felony; and I giving no credit to it, receive the Party, whereas in truth he had committed the Felony, that now I am accessary to that Felony: But the Lord Keeper said, That he would not draw blood upon such an opinion. Hill. 43 Eliz. in Cancel. Wildegoose and Wayland's Case. Goldsbr. 147.

2. This Case was referred, by special Command of the King to the Judges, scil. King James made a Lease to I. D. and others, of the provision of Wines for His Majesties House, for Ten years, in Trust for the Earl of S. They made a Lease of all the Tearm besides one Month, rendring 9 l. per Annum. The Earl of S. was after attainted of Felony. If this Trust which was for the Earl, was forfeited to the King, by that Attainder; It was the Opinion of all the Judges, that this Trust was forfeited to the King, and that the Executors shall be compelled to assign the rest of the Tearm, and the Rent to the King: And Burket's Case was cited, 24 Eliz. where one took a Bond in another's name, and afterwards was Out-Lawed, that the King should have the Bond. And also 24 Eliz. Armstrong's Case, Lessee for years assigned over in Trust to another for himself, and afterwards was attainted of Felony, and adjudged that this Trust was forfeited to the King: But all the Judges held, That a Trust in a Free-hold, was not forfeited upon an Attainder of Treason. M. 13 Jac. in B. R. The King, and the Executors of Sir John Daccomb's Case, Cro. 2. Part. 512, 513.

3. The Case was, A Feoffment was made unto another man, ad eam intentionem, that he should convey the same to such a one, to whom he sold it, and he sold the Land to another, and did refuse to convey it; whereupon an Action upon the Case was brought. It was agreed by the Court in this Case, That the Action would lye, for it was said, that it was a Trust, that he should assure it to another; and it is a good consideration in Equity in the Chauncery, The Conveyance in Trust; and thereupon an Action upon the Case will lye. M. 29 Eliz. in B. R. Megods Case. Godbolt, 64.

4. In Trespass, the Case was: A man made his Will, and made A. E. I. O. his Executors; and deviled his Lands to A. E. I. and O. by special names, and to their Heirs; and further deviled, That the said Devisees should sell the Lands to A. D. if before such a day he would give for the same 100 l. and if not, then they should sell them to any other, to perform his Will; viz.: for the payment of his Debts: I. D. would not give the 100 l. one of the Executors refused to inter-meddle, and the other three sold the Lands: The Question was, If the sale was good or no: It was said, That the sale was not good, because it is a special, and a joynt Trust, and a joynt Trust shall never survive; and perhaps the Devisee reposed more Trust in him who refused, than in the other: Also the Devisees have an Interest in the Land, and each of them hath a part, and therefore one cannot sell without the other. But if the Devise was, that Four should sell, they have not an Interest, but an Authority: It was said on the other side, That although the Devise was to them by their proper names, and not by the names of Executors, yet the intent appeareth, that they were to sell as Executors; because it was to the performance of his Will, and that might be by Three, and the sale of the Lands doth refer to the performance of his Will, in which Debts and Legacies are to be paid; and al-although there are diverſe Authorities to be executed, yet it is but one Truſt. The Court enclined, That the Sale was not good, but the Caſe was not reſolved. M. 39 Eliz. in B. R. Bonifant, and Sir Rich. Grimſtolds Caſe. Godbolt. 77, 78.

5. In a Prohibition prayed to the Court of Requeſt, the Caſe was: A. Feme ſole, poſſeſſed of a Terme, conveyed the ſame over in Truſt for her, and Covenanted with I. S. whom ſhe did intend to marry, that he ſhould not meddle with it; and for that purpoſe, took a Bond of him, they entermarried: It was the Opinion of the Court, That he may inter-meddle with it, but he ſhall not have it, and by equity he cannot aſſign it, by reaſon of the Covenant before Marriage; and therefore the Opinion of the Court was, That a Prohibition ſhould not be, but that it is matter onely for Equity: But the Opinion of the Juſtices was, That if that Court direct Diviſit, or non Diviſit; Aſſignavit, or non Aſſignavit; then they do exceed their Juriſdiction, and then in ſuch Caſe a Prohibition will lye. Paſc. 17. Car. in B. R. Marſh. 88. Paſc. 32 Eliz. in Counſellor Wisbam's Caſe adjudg. Cook 1 Part. Inſtitutes 351.

6. M. exhibited a Bill in the Court of Requeſts againſt B, and ſet forth That the Defendant was indebted to him in 400l. for Wares delivered; and further, That the Defendant was decayed in his Eſtate, and not able to pay him, and therefore he was to accept 100l. for the whole; and that the Defendant, at the day of payment of the 100l., required the Plaintiff to give him a general Releaſe, and then promiſed him in conſideration that he would make him a general Releaſe, that he would pay him the reſidue of his Debt, whenſoever afterwards God ſhould make him able; and that the Defendant afterwards, diverſe times did renew his promiſe to the Plaintiff. The Defendant firſt pleaded the general Iſſue, that he made no ſuch promiſe; which being found againſt him, he afterwards pleaded the Statute of 21 Jac. of Limitations of Actions; and upon the whole matter, prayed a Prohibition, becauſe the Bill was in the nature of an Action upon the Caſe; and alſo becauſe the Court refuſed the Plea of the Statute of Limitations, which they ought not to do, becauſe there is no remedy in equity againſt a Statute; To that, it was anſwered: 1. That the Plaintiff hath no other remedy, but in equity, becauſe the Aſſumpſit made before the Releaſe, is diſcharged by the Releaſe, and the Aſſumpſit, which is after, is void, becauſe there is no Conſideration, the Debt being releaſed before. 2. It is not within the Statute of Limitations, for it is but a Truſt repoſed in the Defendant, that he would pay the reſidue, when God ſhould make him able; and being a bare Truſt, is not taken away by the Statute of Limitations. It was reſolved by the Court in this Caſe, That no Prohibition ought to be granted, for the Reaſons laſt before; and it was ſaid by them, that although no Truſt be expreſſed, yet if it appeareth upon the whole Bill, that there was a Truſt, it is enough; and the Party ought not to expreſs it. It was adjudged, That no Prohibition ſhould iſſue forth. Hill. 17 Car. in C. B. Moſt and Browns Caſe. Marſh. 151, 152.

7. Note: It was reſolved by the Lord Keeper, and the Judges, called Aſſiſtants, in a Caſe there depending; That when Lands or Leaſes were conveyed to two, or more upon Truſt, and the one of them receives all, or the moſt part of the Profits, and after dyeth, or decayeth in his Eſtate, that his Co-Truſtees ſhall not be charged, or compelled by that Court, to anſwer for the Receipts of him ſo dying or decayed, unleſs ſome fraud or ill dealing appear to have been in them, to prejudice their Truſt; for they being by Law Joynt-Tenants, or Tenants in Common, every one by Law may recover either all, or as much of the Profits as he can come by; and it it is no breach of Truſt, to permit one of the Truſtees to receive all, or the moſt part of the Profits, it falling out many times, that ſome of the Truſtees live far from the Lands, and are put in Truſt out of other reſpects, than to be troubled with the receipt of the Profits. But his Lordſhip and the Judges were of Opinion, That if two Truſtees were, and one of them without Warrant of the Party that truſted them, or of a Court of Equity aſſigneth his Eſtate, and the Aſſignee doth receive the Profits, and becometh Non ſolvent, he that made the Aſſignment ſhall anſwer it for him; but the other Original Truſtee ſhall anſwer no more than what he received himſelf; becauſe the Aſſignee cometh not in by him, or his Aſſent or appointment. But his Lordſhip and the Judges were of Opinion, and did reſolve, That if upon the Proof and Circumſtances, the Court be ſatisfied, that there be a Dolus malus, or any evil practice, fraud, or ill intent in him, that permitted his Companion to receive the whole Profits, he may be charged, although that he receiveth nothing. 8. In an Action upon the Caſe, brought againſt the Lord of a Mannour, for refuſing to admit the Plaintiff to a Copy-hold Eſtate: The cuſtom of the Mannour was laid to be, That every Copy-holder might nominate one to his Copy-hold Eſtate and that he being thus nominated by the cuſtom, he alſo is to have the ſame priviledge of the like no-nomination afterwards; and that the Plaintiff being nominated to the Copyhold Estate, did tender his Fine to the Lord in Court, and prayed to be Admitted, and the Lord refused to do this, and for this Refusal he brought his Action. It was objected, That it was a Trust reposed in the Lord, for the breach of which, he shall have remedy to compell him to perform the Trust; and Customs hath confirmed this Copyhold Estate to pass in this manner. And if the Lord may cut them off from their Inheritances in this manner, this may prove prejudicial to them. But it was Resolved in the Principal Case, That he cannot have this Action against the Lord for this his refusal to admit him, without a special Custome. For it is clear in this Case, That by this nomination he hath no right at all, the Interest is in the Lord; the nominatee hath neither jus in re, nor ad rem, he hath only a Nomination, which is only matter in equity: And here in this Case he hath neither damnum, nor Injuria, because he hath no Interest; and he shall not draw an Interest to himself from the Lord against his Will. It was said, That this Case is prima Impressionis of this kind, and the Rule of the Court was, That Quærens nil Capiat per Billam. Hill. 32 Jac. in B. R. Ford and Hoskins Case. Bulst. 2. Part, 337.

9. The Case was, A Copyhold was surrendred to J. S. in Trust, That H. an Allien should receive and take the profits thereof to his own use and benefit: Upon this, an Inquisition was taken for the King, That the King should have the Trust, and that this Trust was not a thing meerly in Action, but an Hereditament; and every Allien that purchaseth, is said to purchase to the Kings use; and it is here a Trust mixed with an Interest; and a Feoffment made in Trust for an Allien, is all one with an Use for an Allien. But it was adjudged in this Case, That the Inquisition found for the King to entitle him to the Copyhold Land, should be quashed, because that the King cannot be entituled to Copyhold Lands, much less to the use of Copyhold Lands; and such an use is a thing which lyeth only in paivity: And in this Case it was a Trust for the Allien to take the profits, and the Allien had no Estate in the Land: and it is a thing which lyeth only in Action, and in privity, and therefore not to be seised upon by another. And it was said, That if the King should have it, the Lord should be wronged, which the King cannot do. Also it is not for the Honour of the King to have Copyhold Estates, which is a base Tenure: Also it was said, That the Commissioners who found the Inquisition for the King, had no power to seize the Lands into the Kings hands, but only to enquire what Lands the Allien had: Wherefore Judgment was given, That the Lands should be restored. Pasc. 23 Car. in B. R. The King and Hollands Case. See before, Sir John Dutcombs Case.

10. Note, There is a difference between a naked Trust and Authority; and a Trust and Authority joynted with an Interest, and an Authority created by the Act of the party, and by Act of the Law for the Execution of Justice; as a Letter of Attorney made to three jointly and severally to make Livery and Seisin, two of them cannot make Livery. But if the Sheriff directeth his Warrant to three jointly and severally to Arrest J. S. two of them may Arrest him, because it is for the Execution of Justice & pro bono publico. Cook 1. 1. From what time, and to what time, and from whom Damages shall be recovered in severall Writs and Actions; and from what not.

1. NOte, for a Rule, per Curiam, That in all personall Actions, The Plaintiff shall declare to his damages certain, because he shall recover damages only for the wrong done before the Writ brought, and shall recover no damages for any thing done, pendant the Writ. But in a real Action, the Plaintiff shall not Count to his damages, because he is to recover damages pendant the Writ. In a Writ of Entre sur Disseisin, a man shall recover damages, and shall have a Writ to enquire of the damages, and the Plaintiff shall recover damages from the time of the Disseisin, untill the time of the awarding of the Writ of enquiry of damages, and not after. But in a Precipe quod reddat of a Rent, he shall recover the Arrerages behind, as well those depending the Writ as those before, unto the time of the Judgment given, because that it is his Inheritance.

2. It was Resolved by the Justices, That if a man hath a Rent-Seck payable yearly at the Feast of Easter, and hath once Seisin of the Rent, and the Feast passeth, and no tender or demand is made, he may after the day demand the Rent upon the Land, and if none be ready to pay it, it is a denyer of the Rent, upon which he may have an Assise. But if the Tenant be at the laſt inſtant of the day ready upon the Land to pay the Rent, and none come to demand or receive it, there he cannot after in the abſence of the Tenant come upon the Land and demand it, and make the other a Diſſeiſor, and recover damages in his default. But in ſuch Caſe, the Rent ought to be demanded upon the Land, with all the Arrerages, and although the ſame be in the abſence of the Tenant, yet the ſame ſhall amount to a denyal in Law, and he may have an Aſſiſe, and recover the Arrerages and damages. Cook 7. Part, 29. in Mounds Caſe.

3. In a Formedon in the Diſcender, the Tenant vouched J. S. the Demandant counter-pleaded the voucher; and ſhewed, That he had before brought a Formedon in the Diſcender againſt the ſame Tenant for the ſame Land, and had Judgment, and there the Judgment was reverſed, becauſe that the ſummons was not duly made, and that he hath brought this Writ by Journeyes Accounts. In this Caſe it was Reſolved, 1. When a Writ abates by the Act or default of the Demandant, as in miſ-information of the name of the Tenant, or of the Town, &c. there the Demandant ſhall never have a Writ by Journeyes Accounts; but where a Writ abates by default of the Clerk, or for falſe Latine, variance, or other matter of form, there he ſhall have a new Writ by Journeyes Accounts. 2. That a Judicial Writ ſhall never be brought by Journeyes Accounts, becauſe that Judicial Writs ſhall not abate for form. 3. That the Writ now brought by Journeyes Accounts, in quadam modo a Continuance of the firſt Writ; and therfore if ſuch Writ be brought againſt Executors, they ought to plead fully Adminiſtred the day of the firſt Writ brought; And in this Writ, the Demandant ought to ſhew the certainty of the time of the Abatement of the firſt Writ, ſo as it may appear to the Court, That the latter Writ is brought by Journeyes Accounts. Cook 6. Part, 11. Spencers Caſe.

4. In a Replevin, it was Reſolved by the Court, That when a Diſtreſs is taken for Damage Feaſants that the party may tender amends till the Cattell are impounded, but after they are in the Cuſtody of the Law, then ſuch a Tender commeth too late; and Tender of amends to the Bayliff is not good, for that he cannot deliver the Diſtreſs once taken. 5. Action of Treſpaſs againſt A. B. and C. A. appeared, and the Plaintiff declared againſt him ſimul cum, &c. and he pleaded, Not Guilty. Afterwards B. appeared, againſt whom the Plaintiff alſo declared ſimul cum, &c. And upon Not Guilty, A Venire facias was awarded, and both Iſſues tryed at the Aſſiſes: and the Iſſue againſt A. being firſt tryed, the Jury aſſeſſed upon that Iſſue for the Plaintiff 200 l. damages; and afterwards the Iſſue was tryed againſt B. and 50 l. damages aſſeſſed by the ſecond Tryall: C. appeared and confeſſed the Action, and a Writ of Enquiry of damages was awarded upon the Roll, but none iſſued. In this Caſe it was Reſolved, 1. When in Treſpaſs againſt divers Defendants, they plead, Not Guilty, or ſeveral Pleas, and the Jury find for the Plaintiff in the whole. The Jurors cannot aſſeſs ſeveral damages, becauſe that all is but one Treſpaſs, and made joynt by the Writ and Count; but if the Jury find one Guilty at one time, and another at another, there ſeveral damages may be taxed. 2. Reſolved, That the Defendants who pleaded laſt, ſhould be charged with the damages taxed by the firſt Jury, and the ſecond Enqueſt ſhall not aſſeſs damages, but the party ſhall be contributory to the damages aſſeſſed by the former Inqueſt. 3 Reſolved, That becauſe in Judgment of Law the ſeveral Juries gave one Verdict at one time, the Plaintiff had Election to have Judgment of the beſt damages, and that ſhall bind them all, but he ſhall have but one Execution. 4. Reſolved, Where in Treſpaſs the Defendants plead ſeveral Pleas, tryable at one and the ſame time by the ſame Jury, and found for the Plaintiff, the Jury cannot ſever the damages; and if they do, the Verdict is naught. Cook 11. Part, 5, 6, and 7. Sir John Heydon's Caſe.

6. Note, upon the Judgment given in the Common Pleas in Specots Caſe; in a Quare Impedit, Error was brought, and amongſt others, it was Aſſigned for Error, That for the inſufficiency of the Biſhops plea, the Court gave Judgment, viz. Ideo conſideratum eſt quod pradict. H. et E. recuperent verſus pradict. Epiſcopum preſentationem ſuam ad Eccleſiam pradict. et habeant breve Arch. Cant. totius Angliæ Primat. loci illius Metropolitano eo quod pradict. Epiſcopus eſt pars, et idem Epiſcopus in curiam. And after a Writ of Enquiry of the value of the Church was awarded, and other points found and returned, and upon that Judgment was entred again, ſcil. That the Plaintiff have a Writ to the Biſhop ut ſupra, Et quod recuperet verſus pradict. Epiſcopum damna, &c. ſo as the Biſhop was twice amerced, which ought not by Law to be; and thereupon this difference was taken, That if a man bring Treſpaſs againſt two, and one is found Guilty to damages by himſelf, and the other is found guilty to damages by himſelf, that in this Caſe each Defendant ſhall be ſeverally amerced, and the Plaintiff ſhall be ſeverally amerced againſt each of them. But in an Action againſt one Defendant or Tenant, one pleads one plea to part, and another to the reſidue, or confeſſeth part, and pleadeth to Iſſue for other part, and the ſeveral Iſſues be found againſt him, the Defendant ſhall not be twice amerced. And therefore becauſe the Biſhop being one perſon, was twice amerced, it was Error. But to this it was anſwered, That the latter was but only a recital of the firſt, and ſo to give a full Judgment of all with the damages, and not a new Judgment. But it was ſaid, That admit the latter Judgment was Erronious, yet the firſt Judgment was good and perfect in it ſelf, and ſhould not be impeached for any Error in the ſecond Judgment, for the firſt Judgment was the Judgment in a Quare Impedit at the Common Law, for before Stat. Weſt. 2. the Plaintiff did not recover damages in a Quare Impedit, and ſo the Plaintiff may leave the benefit of that Statute if he will, and take his Judgment at the Common Law. Wherefore the firſt Judgment in C. B. was affirmed. Cook 5. Part, 58, 59. Specotts Caſe.

2. Where a time Convenient ſhall be allowed to the performance of a Condition after notice given, and requeſt made: What ſhall be ſaid a Convenient time, what not. Where Grants, Leaſes, ſhall be avoided for a time, and ſtand for a time: How a Condition ſhall be performed, when no day or time is expreſſed for the performance of it; and of divers other matters concerning time.

1. A Man ſeiſed of a Wharf and Houſe holden in Burgage, deviſed the ſame to his Wife, and his Heirs, upon Condition, That the Wife by the advice of learned Council, and in convenient time, ſhould give the ſame to maintain a Free-School, Alms-men, and Alms-women for ever; and that his ſaid Wife ſhould have the Profits of the ſaid Lands during her life, beaing the Charges of the ſaid School, &c. and made his Wife his Executrix and dyed; ſhe entred and Leaſed the ſame for years, and the Heir entred for the Condition broken. In this Caſe (amongſt other things) it was Reſolved, That the Condition was not void; for the Teſtator hath deviſed, That Council Learned ſhall adviſe how the ſaid Lands and Tenements ſhall be aſſured for the maintenance and continuance of the ſaid Acts, which well might be. 1. By making them a Corporation by the Kings Letters Pattents, and then by Licenſe of the King to aſſure the Lands to them, and ſuch was the intent of the Teſtator. 2. Reſolved, That the Condition was broken, becauſe the Wife had not done the ſame in convenient time, ſcil. after eight years. And 3. Becauſe ſhe had now diſabled her ſelf to perform the Condition, by making of the Leaſe for years. Cook 1. Part, 25. Porters Caſe.

2. A man made a Feoffment in Fee of his Land, and for the better aſſurance, bound himſelf, that he and his Son ſhould do all acts deviſed by the Obligee. The Obligee deviſed a Deed of Releaſe, the Father delivered the ſame as his Deed, but the Son did not deliver it, but becauſe he was unlearned, he required the Obligee to read the ſame unto him, or to have the ſame read unto him, which he refuſed, but brought an Action againſt the Father upon the Obligation. In this Caſe it was Reſolved, That the Son was bound to deliver the Deed at his perill, becauſe the Father had bound himſelf that he ſhould ſo do. Cook 2. Part, 3. Maſſes Caſe.

3. Debt upon an Obligation, the Condition was, That if the Defendant deliver to the Plaintiff one Obligation of the ſum of 10 l. wherein the Plaintiff ſtood bound with one T. to the Defendant for the payment of 5 l. And alſo if the Defendant do acknowledg ſatisfaction of a Judgment upon the ſaid Bond, and alſo deliver true notes of all Bills of Charges as do concern the ſame, That then, &c. The Defendant pleaded, Quod non fuerunt aliqua Bilia miſarum pro et contern. fact. paſſat. and did not anſwer to the reſidue of the Condition. In this Caſe, it was adjudged againſt the Defendant, for that he ought to have performed the reſidue in convenient time, and that without requeſt? And in that Caſe, theſe differences were taken and Reſolved, 1. When the Act by the Condition of the Obligation to be done to the Obligee, is in its nature a tranſitory Act, as payment of money, &c. and no time is appointed, although that the place be expreſſed, there the Act ought to be performed in convenient time. 2. There is a difference between the concurrence of the Obligor and a ſtranger, and of the Obligor and Obligee. As if I be bounden to enfeoff a ſtranger, and no time is limitted, although that the concurrence of the Obligor is requiſite, the Obligor ſhall not have time to do it during his life, but ought to do it perſonally, ſtantly, becauſe the Obligor hath taken upon him to do that to a ſtranger, and that may be done without the concurrence of the Obligee; but when the Obligee himſelf is party to the Act, and the act cannot be done without his concurrence, there it is reaſon that the Obligor have time during his life, if the Obligee doth not [illegible] him to do it upon requeſt. 3. Reſolved, That when the Act which the Obligor by the Condition ought to do, doth not concern in any manner the Obligee, nor his benefit, but is to be done by the ſole act and labour of the Obligor, and no time is limited in the Condition for the performance thereof; there the Obligor hath time to do it during his life; and the performance thereof cannot be reſtored by requeſt. Cook 6. Part, 31, 32. Bothies Caſe.

4. Debt upon an Obligation, the Condition was, That if the Defendant do permit the Plaintiff, his Executors, and Aſſigns, not only to threſh the Corn in the Defendants Barn, but alſo to carry it away from time to time: and at all times hereafter convenient, with free egreſs and regreſs, or elſe to pay 8 l. upon requeſt, that then, &c. the truth was, The Defendant permitted the Corn to be there two years, in which time Rats had devoured much of it, and then the Plaintiff threſhed the reſidue, and the Earl brought his Action, upon which it was demurred. It was ſaid, That the Bond was not forfeit, for the Earl had not taken it out in time convenient, and time convenient is that which is not prejudicial to any perſon; and there it is a prejudice to the Defendant if the Plaintiff will not carry away his Corn. But the Opinion of the Court was againſt that, That for here the party hath bound himſelf, and the Condition is (at time convenient), and if he will come in the night or on the Sabbath day, this is no convenient time; but although that he come a long time after, yet it may be at convenient time; and the words are not within convenient time; Wherefore it was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Windham Juſtice ſaid, if it had bin within convenient time, there would have bin a diſtreſs. Hill. 30 Eliz. in C. B. The Earl of Kents Caſe. Goldsbr. 76, 77.

5. A. ſeiſed of a Manner to which an Advowſon was Appendant, by Deed Indented, Granted, Bargained and ſold the Mannor with the appurtenances for good conſideration to B. and his Heirs. In which Indentures there were divers Covenants, ſcil. to ſuffer a Recovery, and levy a Fine, to the uſes in the Indenture. Proviſo, That B. ſhall give the Advowſon to A. for his life, and if it happen not void, then one time to his Executors. A. ſuffers a Recovery according to the Indenture. Afterwards A and B. levy a Fine with a Render of a Rent of 42 l. to A. the Remainder to D. in Fee, with a Nonint ſolut and Diſtreſs. B. in his life doth not Grant the Advowſon to A. and dyeth; the Church voids. E. the Son of B. enters into the Mannor. A. enters for the Condition broken. In this Caſe (amongſt other things) it was Reſolved, 1. That the Proviſo was a Condition, and the Law hath not appointed any proper place for a Condition, but the ſame is left to the Election of the parties. 2. That in this Caſe, by the death of B. the Condition was broken: For it was put for a Rule, That when the Grantee upon Condition is to make an Eſtate to the Feoffor, or Grantor, he hath time to do it during his life; but if requeſt be made by the Feoffor or Grantor, to the Feoffee or Grantee, and the Feoffee or Grantee dye before any Eſtate made to the Feoffor or Grantor, there the Condition is broken: But when the parties by mutual agreement give a certain time within which the Condition ſhall be performed, and within the time he who ought to perform the Condition dyeth, ſo as the Condition is become impoſſible by the Act of God, there the Eſtate remains abſolutely diſcharged of the Condition: and in that Caſe it was agreed, That when an Eſtate is to be made by the Feoffee upon Condition to a ſtranger, the Feoffee ought to do the ſame within convenient time, and the ſtranger needeth not to make any requeſt. Cook 3. Part, 79. the Lord Cromwells Caſe.

6. A. ſeiſed in Fee by Indenture, Covenanted with B. to ſtand ſeiſed to the uſe of himſelf for life, and after to the uſe of B. in tail, with divers Remainders over; Proviſo, That if A. by himſelf, or by any other during his life, tender to B. a Gold Ring, to the intent to make void the ſaid Uſes, that then the ſaid Uſes ſhall be void. Afterwards A. is Attainted of Treaſon. The King leaſeth the Lands to C. and D. for 40 years; the Attainder is confirmed by Act of Parliament; and by another Act, it is Enacted, That the ſaid Act ſhall not extend to make any Leaſe made by the King after the Treaſon void: And it is alſo Enacted, That all perſons which claim any Eſtate or Intereſt in the Lands of any perſon Attainted, not enrolled ſince 18 Eliz. ſhall within two years after the Seſſion of that Parliament, ſhew and bring into the Exchequer, his or their Grant, Conveyance, or Aſſurance to be enrolled and entred of Record, or elſe the Aſſurance to be void. The King reciting the Proviſo, and that the benefit thereof is given to him by Act of Parliament, doth Authorize E. to deliver the Ring of Gold to B. to the intent to make the ſaid uſes void; who tenders the ſame to B. who refuſeth. In this Caſe amongſt many other points, Reſolved, That preſently upon the tender, according to the Proviſo, that the uſes were determined, and the Land vested in the King by force of the Act of 33 H. 8. of the Attainder. And in that Case, whereas it was Objected, That the Conveyance by the Act of Parliament 28 Eliz. was void, because that the two years were past, and the Conveyance was not enrolled, and so the Condition void; and then the King was seised in Fee; and so the Lease for 40 years did remain good. It was Resolved in that point, That at the time of the Tender, the Conveyance was in force; for that by the words of the said Act, the Conveyance ought to be exhibited within the two years, but the Act doth not require that it be enrolled within the two years, for that it might be enrolled at any time after the two years. Cook 7. Part, Englefield's Case.

7. A. seised of Lands in Fee, having Issue, six Sons, and one Daughter; deviſed the same to I. S. and his Wife for 99 years, if any of them should so long live; and afterwards deviſed the same to his eldeſt Son, and the Heirs males of his Body, the remainder to his other Sons, the remainders over: Provided, That if his said Son, or any of his Sons, or the Heirs Males of their Bodyes should go about to sell, allien, or discontinue; That immediately from and after such time or times, and before any such Sale, Bargain, or Alienation, the Eſtate of the Perſon so dying, should ceaſe; and as if the Perſon so attempting, were naturally dead, and that such Perſon, to whom the premiſes should deſcend, remain, &c. should have the Land, &c. and dyed: The Eldeſt Son levyed a Fine of the Lands with Proclamations, the second Son claimed the Reverſion by force of the Deviſee, and if he had the Reverſion in him, so as he might, maintain an Action of Waſte, was the Queſtions In this Case it was reſolved, 1. That the Proviſo was void, and againſt Law; for that be it a Proviſo, Condition, or Limitation, it cannot determine the Eſtate for Part, and continue the same for the Reſidue; and an Eſtate in Land, cannot ceaſe for a time, and revive, and reveſt again. 2. When a man giveth Lands to one, and the Heirs Males of his Body, with remainders over; he cannot by Law determine this Eſtate in tail, as to one Perſon, and diſpoſe of the same to another Perſon. 8. A man made a Leaſe for 30 years of a Manor, Except the Wood, and Under-Wood growing upon the Manor; and after made a Leaſe to the same Leſſee, of all the Wood, and Under-Wood, growing, and being, upon the said Manor for 60 years, without impeaching of Waſte, and afterwards made a third Deviſe of the Manor to the Leſſee for 30 years, without any exception to begin at a day to come, ſcil. from the expiration of the firſt Leaſe for 30. years, it was reſolved in this Case (amongſt other things), That by the acceptance of the future Leaſe, to begin diverſe years after the said Leaſe for 60 years was a Surrender; likewiſe the Leſſee by his acceptance hath affirmed the Leaſe to have ability to make the Leaſe; which he had not, if the firſt had ſtood: as if Leſſee for 20 years, accepts a Leaſe for 30 years, to begin ten years after, it is a preſent ſurrender of the Terme; and he who hath a Leaſe for 20 years, cannot ſurrender the laſt 20 years, ſaving to him the firſt 20 years, and so make a fraction of the Terme. Cook 5 Part, 11 Jues Case.

9. In a Quod permittat, by H. B. and Eliz. his Wife, againſt G. S, the Plaintiff declares; That I P. was seised of a Meſſuage, in the Parish of D: and that the Defendant did erect upon his Free-hold a house, so near the said Meſſuage, nuper J. P. modo ipſorum H. & Eliz., ſic quod Orientalis pars ejuſdem domus ipſius G. ſuperpendet the Meſſuage late of the said I. P; and now the said Hen. and Eliz. 17 inches, to his damage of 100l. It was objected in this Case, That there was variance between the Writ and the Count; because the Writ was Levavit ad nocumentum liberi tenementi nuper Johannis P. & modo H. & Eliz. And the Count was, Levavit Meſſuag. jam prope Meſſuage predict. I. P. & modo predict. H. & Eliz.: So as the Writ is ad nocumentum liberi tenementi nuper Johan. P. and the Count is liberi tenementi ipſorum, H. & Eliz. But this Exception was not allowed by the Court, for that the Plaintiffs ſhew in their Count, that the levying was in the time of I. P. which agreeth with the Writ; because that the levying was, ad nocumentum Johan. I. P. and the Concluſion ad nocumentum of the Plaintiffs was neceſſary, for that otherwiſe they cannot maintain their Action, nor recover Damages. Note, in this Case, That the Quod permittat was brought for a Nuſance done in the time of another, and not in the time of them who brought the Action, and yet maintainable. Cook 9 Part, 54. 55. Battens Case. vid. Cook, 5 Part. 101. in Penruddocks Case. acc.

10. Note: In the Case of Appeal of Murther, Exception was taken unto it, because the wound was given the Fourth of Auguſt, and the death was laid, the 19th of December next following; and the Indictment ſaith, That predict. T. M. & W. M., &c. tempore Felonie & Murdri predict. fact. ſcil. 4. Auguſt. felonice fuerunt preſentes ad felonias & Murd. predicta. in forma predict. faciend. But in this Case it was ſaid, That the death hath relation to the ſtroak; for if a man non compos mentis, ſtriketh himſelf, and afterwards is of Sane memory, and dyeth, the death hath relation to the ſtroke, ſtroke; and he ſhall forfeit nothing. And ſee Stamford: That the Appeal ſhall be brought within the year after the ſtroke, and not the death; for when death followeth, in Judgment of Law the Felonie was committed the day when the blow was given; for the death, in a manner, is but the execution of the Felony. But the whole Court was againſt that, for they ſaid, it had been often adjudged, That Indictments were inſufficient, when the ſtroke is one day, and the death is another day. Vid. Hill. 28 Eliz. in B. 11. In the Caſe of Diſcontinuance of Proceſs, by the demiſe of the King, theſe Points (amongſt other) were reſolved. 1. Upon the Statute of 1 E. 6. Cap. 7. it was reſolved, That if any Judicial Writ, or any Proceſs in a Court of Record be awarded, in the time of the Predeceſſor-King, it may be executed in the time of the Succeſſor. 2. That if an Appeal be brought and delivered to the Sheriff within the year, and before the Return thereof, the King dyeth; by the Common-Law, the Plaintiff upon a Certiorari to the Sheriff returned in B. R. ſhall have a Re-attachment; although the ſame comes not in by Return of the Sheriff, but by Certiorari for neceſſity; otherwiſe, the Plaintiff, who Lawfully brought his Writ within the year without any default in him, ſhould loſe his Appeal. 3. Reſolved, That if an Information be preferred, either for the King, or as well for the King, as the Informer, and Iſſue or demurrer is joyned in it, and the King dyeth; that all is ſtayed, but onely the Information, and that ſhall ſtand; and upon that, an Attachment is awarded; and upon the Return of which, the Defendant appears, and ſhall plead De Novo. For although the King in genere doth not dye, and there is no Interregnum, yet in individuo, he dyeth; and that ſtands with Reaſon, for upon many Penal Statutes, the Suit is to be begun within a certain time, and if the Information ſhould not be in force after the death of the King, the offence ſhould not be puniſhed: But if the King bringeth an Original Writ, as a Quare impedit, &c. then by the death of the King, the Writ ſhall abate; becauſe the King, for whom the Judgment ought to be given, is dead at the time, and no Proceſs can be awarded upon the Original, as there may be upon an Information. Cook 7 Part, 30, 31. The Caſe of Diſcontinuance of Proceſs by the death of the King.

12. A. by Indenture covenanteth with B, that A ſhall recover of him the Mannor of B, within one year then next following; and that the ſaid Recovery, and the Execution thereupon, to be had within the ſaid year, ſhall be had to the uſe of the Recoverer in tail, &c. And after the Recovery is had within the year, and the Execution iſſued after the year; It was holden in this Caſe, That although that the Covenant is not purſued in time, according to the preciſe form thereof, yet the uſe ſhall be guided by the ſaid Indenture; and ſo in that Caſe, If the ſame Recovery between the ſame Parties of the ſame Land were ſuffered after the year, yet if no intervenient agreement were between the Parties, the Recovery ſhall be intended to the uſes in the ſame Indentures; for that variance of time in theſe caſes, ſhall not ſubvert the Original agreement and contract of the Parties. Cook 1 Part, 99. in Shelleys Caſe.

13. Note: It was ſaid by the Court, That the time of the Birth of a man or woman, is chiefly to be conſidered, to make them Subjects born, or not; and is as it were the Eſſence of a Subject born: For a man cannot be ſubject to the King of England, unleſs at the time of his Birth, he were under the Allegiance and Obedience of the King of England; although the Kingdom of the King, under whoſe Allegiance he was born, do afterwards deſcend to the King of England. And therefore it was Reſolved, That that was the Cauſe, that Antinati in Scotland (for at that time of their Birth, they were under the Allegiance, and Obedience of another King) were Aliens born, in reſpect of the time of their Birth. Cook 7 Part, 18. in Calvins Caſe.

14. In a Quod permittat prosternere novam quandam domum, that being new built, hindred the light of the next Houſe by over-charging: Upon Iſſue joyned, and Verdict, it appeared; That the Defendant had built the ſaid Houſe, upon the old Foundation of an houſe, which had been built there before, and had been pulled down by one, who was then Owner of both Houſes. It was the Opinion of the Court in this Caſe, That the unity of poſſeſſion of both Houſes now in one man, did ſuſpend that eaſement, ſo as the Defendant could not be charged with any damage, but for that which ſhould be cauſed by making it hang over more than it did before; for that that being done in another time, was now gone; although that afterwards the Houſes came to ſeveral hands. Hill. 13 Jac. in C. B. Robins and Barns Caſe. Hob. 131.

15. Debt upon an Obligation. The Condition was, That if the Defendant did ſell the Tythes in D. that he ſhould pay to the Plaintiff ſuch a ſumm of Money; but if he ſold them not, that then he ſhould deliver an Obligation to the Plaintiff for the payment of a certain ſumm, at a certain day that is limitted. A Verdict being for the Plaintiff, it was moved, to ſtay Judgment; That he ought to have convenient time for the doing of the thing, things expreſſed, and it appears not by the Record, that he had convenient time. But the Court held, that the time between the date of the Obligation, and the bringing of the Action, was convenient time; and that there being a ſecond thing to be performed in the Caſe, the former was not done; that therefore that former thing ought to be done within ſome reaſonable time, elſe the Party ſhould be prejudiced by ſtaying to have the ſecond thing performed. Trin. 21 Car. in B. R. Williamſon and Houlby's Caſe.

16. In Aſſumpſit, the Plaintiff declared, That the Defendant, in conſideration of a Marriage to be had, between the Plaintiffs Son, and the Defendants Daughter; and of ſetling of Lands upon him, upon the Marriage, did promiſe, that within ſuch a time after the Marriage had, he and his Son ſhould be bound, Per ſcriptum ſuum debita juris forma, fiend. to the Plaintiff, for the payment of 3000l. for a Marriage-Portion; and aſſignes for Breach, that the Defendant did not become bound Per ſcriptum ſuum Obligatorium. The Plaintiff had a Verdict: The Defendant in ſtay of Judgment, ſaid that the Breach was not well aſſigned; For the Breach aſſigned, leads to a Perſonal engagement, for paying of 3000 l., which is not ſo expreſſed in the promiſe, but a general ſecurity to be given for the money, and a Recognizance and a Judgment are not properly Scriptum; and the Declaration doth not ſet forth by whom the ſecurity was to be given, nor whether he had convenient time to do it, as he ought to have had; and the Plaintiff was to do the firſt act, viz. to tender the Obligation. But it was Reſolved by the Court, 1. That the promiſe did extend to a Judgment or a Recognizance: For a Judgment, Statute, or Recognizance, is Scriptum. 2. Here appears by the Declaration to be two Months for the performing of the promiſe, which is a convenient time, and there doth not appear any hinderance, and the Defendant was bound to do it without requeſt; and there was no neceſſity for the Plaintiff to make any election of the time when he will have it done. Judgment was for the Plaintiff, which was after affirmed in a Writ of Error brought in the Exchequer Chamber. Trin. 24 Car. in B. R. Treby and Pools Caſe. Styles 143, 144.

17. In Ejectione firmæ brought in the Exchequer. The Plaintiff declared, That William More 5. Maii, 10 Jac. let to the Plaintiff a Meſſuage and Lands with the appurtenances in C. Habendum, from the Feaſt of the Annunciation of St. Mary, then paſt for 21 years ex tunc next following. And the Ejectment was alledged to be the ſaid 5. Maii, 10 Jac. Upon Not Guilty, it was found to this effect, That before the ſaid Demiſe, W. More was ſeiſed of the Lands in Fee; and the ſaid W. More the ſaid 5. Maii, 10 Jac. ſupradict. made an Indenture of Leaſe to the ſaid Tho. More of the ſaid Meſſuage and Tenements, Habendum from the Feaſt of the Annunciation of the Virgin Mary laſt paſt, for and during the Term of 21 years next enſuing the date hereof, fully to be compleat and ended, by force of which the Plaintiff was poſſeſſed untill he was Ejected by the Defendant the ſaid 5. Maii 10 Jac. The Queſtion was, If the Leaſe found by the Jury did agree with the Leaſe mentioned in the Declaration for one Term of years or not, becauſe the Leaſe by the Declaration, was a Leaſe made 5. Maii 10 Jac. Habendum from the Feaſt of the Annunciation then laſt paſt, for 21 years extunc, ſcil. from the ſaid Feaſt next enſuing. But the Leaſe found by the Jury, was a Leaſe made 5. Maii 10 Jac. by Indenture, bearing date 5. Maii 10 Jac. Regis Habendum de feſto Annunciationis Beatæ Mariæ tunc ult. præterito pro termino 21 annorum proxſequend. dat. diſſ. Indenturæ. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff in the Exchequer; and afterwards affirmed in the Exchequer Chamber in a Writ of Error there brought. Trin. 11 Jac. More and Muſgraves Caſe. Hob. 18, 19.

18. Debt upon an Obligation for not performance of Covenants. The Caſe was, Sir Robert Brown was ſeiſed of the Mannor of G. with the Advowſon appendant: and Sir Robert Strowd was ſeiſed of the Mannor of D. in the ſame County. It was agreed betwixt them, That there ſhould be an Exchange betwixt them of the ſaid Mannors; and becauſe G. was the better, Strowd Covenanted with Sir Robert Brown and his Son to pay 1100 l. to the Father for the Demeſnes of the ſaid Mannor of G. and that at Mich. next, there ſhould be a mutual entry into the ſaid Mannors, and that in the mean time they ſhould take the profits of their own Mannors. And the Plaintiffs declared, That they had performed all the Covenants on their part, and the Defendant had not paid the 1100 l. The Defendant by proteſtation, that the Plaintiffs had not performed the Covenants, ſaid, That the Plaintiff after Mich. ſold the Mannor of G. to J. S. and his Heirs: Upon which it was demurred in Law. It was ſaid for the Defendant, That the Action could not lye, for the Contract is Executory, and there is no money to be paid untill he hath the Mannor; for the Covenant is, pro Maneriis, and Pro implyes a Condition, and being Executory on the one part, it ſhall be alſo Executory on the other part. Alſo there is no time limited when the 1100 l ſhall be paid; and it being a tranſitory act, it ought to be done within convenient time. And in this Caſe the Law will appoint no time, becauſe the other party hath diſabled himſelf to perform his part.

part. On the other ſide, it was ſaid, That an Act here is to be done upon an indefinite time, and the Defendant is to do the firſt Act, and the Defendant ought to procure Councel to adviſe for mutual Aſſurances were to be made, and the one ought not to be Carver to the other. And for the time it ought to be before Mich. or otherwiſe the Plaintiff ſhall be enforced to keep his Mannor all his life, and ſhall be hindred of the ſale of it for the payment of his Debts; and by the Articles every thing is to be done before Mich. And 37 Eliz. in B. R. Mills and Perſons Caſe was, A man Covenanted in conſideration of 4 l. rent to be granted to him payable at Mich. and our Lady day yearly, to levy a Fine of the Mannor of, &c. to the uſe of, &c. and the Aſſurance is not made before Mich. And it was Reſolved, That the Covenant was not performed, for the Grant of the Rent ought to be before Mich. otherwiſe he could not have the benefit of it. The Principal Caſe was not Reſolved, but adjourned. Mich. 2 Car. in B. R. Sir Robert Brown and Sir Robert Strowds Caſe. Poph. 198, 199.

19. Debt upon an Obligation, the Condition was, Whereas the Defendant had Granted an Annuity to the Plaintiff, that the Defendant ſhould make further aſſurance to the Plaintiff for the enjoying thereof within one Moneth, when he ſhould be thereunto required. Upon a Special Verdict, the Queſtion was, from what time the Moneth ſhould begin, from the date of the Obligation, or from the time of the requeſt to be made. It was the Opinion of the Court, That if there be an indifferent conſtruction which may be taken two ways, the Court ſhall take it that way which ſhall be moſt reaſonable to make the Obligation ſtand in force: And therefore after ſuch requeſt, the Aſſurance ſhall be made, and the Obligation ſhall be intended for the benefit of the Obligee. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Hill. 1650. in B. R. Wentworth and Wentworths Caſe. Styles 242.

20. In Coverant, the Caſe was, That the Defendant Covenanted that ſhe would make a lawfull ſurrender of Copyhold Land, and that ſhe would permit the Plaintiff to enjoy the Lands, and to take the Rents and Profits quietly without interruption. And ſhewed, That the Defendant was Copyholder of ſuch Lands; and ſhewed the Cuſtome, That a Copyholder might ſurrender by Letter of Attorney into the hands of two Tenants out of Court, and that he cauſed a Letter of Attorney to be made for the Defendant to Seal, to give Authority to them to ſurrender, and tendred it to the Defendant, which ſhe refuſed to Seal, and to ſurrender at the next Court, but took and received the Rents and profits of the Lands. The Defendant pleaded, That the Plaintiff tendred to her ſuch a Letter of Attorney to Seal, and becauſe ſhe did not know what was therein contained, ſhe required time to be adviſed by her Councill, and the Plaintiff refuſed to give her any time, for which cauſe ſhe did not Seal it. It was Reſolved by the Court in this Caſe, That the breach was not well aſſigned; For the Defendant by her Covenant was to ſurrender upon requeſt, but ſhe was not bound to make a Letter of Attorney, thereby to make a ſurrender. 2. That in ſuch Caſe ſhe need not to make ſurrender till ſhe had had convenient time to adviſe with her Councill; and to ſurrender upon requeſt, and reaſonable requeſt is all one. 3. It was Reſolved, That the requeſt made to her to Seal the Letter of Attorney, was not an expreſs requeſt, but an implyed requeſt, and therefore not good. It was adjudged for the Defendant. Hill. 8 Car. in B. R. Symms and the Lady Smiths Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 218.

21. In Aſſumpſit, the Plaintiff declared, That in conſideration of 130 l. paid, the Defendant ſold him 7. Martii, Anno 9 Car. all the Furzes growing upon ſuch a parcel of Land; to be taken before Mich. 1635. and promiſed the Plaintiff, That he would peaceably permit him to enjoy the ſaid Furze, and quietly to carry them away without diſturbance. And though the Defendant had permitted him to carry away 50 Loads of the ſaid Furze, yet he did not permit him to enjoy the ſaid Furze, but diſturbed him from taking 1000 Loads of them, which were growing upon the Land at the time of the Bargain. Upon Non Aſſumpſit, it was found for the Plaintiff, and Judgment; and Error brought and aſſigned, becauſe he doth not ſhew the certain time of the diſturbance, Whether it were before Mich. 1635. But the Court Reſolved, That this being after Verdict, it ſhall be intended, That it was within the time, the Defendant having pleaded Non Aſſumpſit, and the cauſe of damage appearing upon the Tryal, for otherwiſe there had bin no cauſe to have damages; and it is not material that the time of the diſturbance be layed in the Declaration, for that it is collateral to the promiſe. The Judgment was affirmed. Mich. 13 Car. in B. R. Hall and Marſhalls Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 317.

22. A man granted a Rent out of certain Lands pro Conſilio impenſo, et impendendo. To have and to hold, to him and his Aſſigns for the Term of his life, payable at four Feaſts in the year, and for want of payment upon demand, that it ſhould be lawful for him to diſtrein; the Grantee granted the rent over. The Aſſignee after one of the dayes, demanded the Rent, and diſtreined. In that Caſe it was adjudged, That the Diſtreſs was lawfull. For in ſuch Caſe, he needed not to make any demand at any of the dayes, as in Caſe of a Re-entry; but he might demand it when he pleaſed, becauſe it was only to entitle him to his remedy for his duty. For it is not neceſſary that the Grantee of a Rent-charge, or of a Rent-Seck, demand it at the very time when it becommeth due, but at any time after, it is ſufficient. And it is not like to the demand of a Rent upon a Condition, becauſe that is parcel, and overthroweth the whole Eſtate; and therefore in that Caſe, the time of the Demand muſt be certain, to the end that the Leſſee, Donee, or Feoffee may pay the Rent. But the demand of a Rent-Seck, or of a Rent-charge, is only a formal mean to recover that which is due; and therefore in Caſe it be demanded after it is behind at any time, whether the Tenant be preſent or not, it is ſufficient. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 144, 153.

23. Note, there are four times of payment of a Rent which is iſſuing out of Land; the firſt is voluntary and not ſatisfactory, and yet it is good to ſome purpoſes; the ſecond is voluntary, and in ſome Caſes ſatisfactory, and in ſome not. The third is legal and ſatisfactory abſolutely, but not coercive. The fourth is legally ſatisfactory and coercive. And there as to the firſt, If the Leſſee pay his Rent before the day, this is a voluntary payment, but not ſatisfactory; but if it be paid in the name of a Seiſin of Rent, although it ſhall not ennure by way of ſatisfaction, yet it ſhall give ſufficient Seiſin in Aſſiſe: For the ſecond, If the rent be payable at Eaſter, in that Caſe, If the Tenant pay the Rent in the morning, and the Leſſor dye before noon, this payment was voluntary, and yet is good and ſatisfactory againſt the Heir. As to the third, the legal time is a convenient time before the laſt inſtant of the day, and ſo the moſt extream time which is ſatisfactory, and not coercive, for that untill the end of the day, no remedy by Law is given forth. The fourth is, When the Rent being once due and behind, is recovered by courſe and order of Law; but this is ſatisfactory, and withall Coercive. Cook 10. Part, 127. in Clun's Caſe.

24. Note, That in many Caſes concerning time, the Law determines what ſhall be a convenient time. And therefore in Caſe of Eſtray, if the owner doth not claim it within a year and a day, it ſhall be forfeited: And ſo it is in Caſe of Diſtreſs after entry or claim. But in Caſe of Wreck of the Sea, the year ſhall be accounted from the taking or ſeizure of the goods as Wreck; for although the property is veſted in the owner before ſeizure, yet till he ſeize them and take them into his actual poſſeſſion, it is not known who claims the Wreck, nor to whom the owner ſhall reſort to make his claim; and if the owner bring his Aſſion for them within the year and the day, it is ſufficient. See Cook 5. Part, 107. in Sir Henry Conſtables Caſe.

Vacation,

Vacation, Voydance, and Avoydance.

1. KIng Hen. the 8th Translated the Abbey and Priory of Norwich by his Letters Patentes, and created them by the name of Dean and Chapter, who surrendred to King E. 6. their poſſeſſions. And after the King Incorporated them by the name of Decani et Capitul' ex fundatione E. 6. and after re-granted their poſſeſſions to them by the name of Decani et Capitul' Sanctæ et individuæ Trinitatis Norwich, omitting the words Ex fundatione E. 6. It was adjudged in this Caſe, That the Foundation was good, and the re-grant of their poſſeſſions good, and that the King was Founder. And in this Caſe it was further Reſolved. 1. That Tranſlations made by King Henry the Eighth of Priors and Covent, into Dean and Chapters, were adjudged good in Parliament by the Statute of 33 H. 8. 2. That admit that the Tranſlation was imperfect, yet it was made good by the Statute of 35 Eliz. 3. That by the ſurrender made by King E. 6. the Corporation of Dean and Chapter was not gon; for although that they had departed with their poſſeſſion, yet it was no vacation, becauſe for neceſſity the Corporation did remain as well to aſſiſt the Biſhop in his function, as to give their aſſent to Eſtates which he ſhould make of the Temporalties; and it was ſaid, That as long as the Biſhoprick did remain, they did remain, although they had not any poſſeſſions. And it was ſaid, That if a Prebendary hath a Manner, and the Manner be recovered by Eigne Title, yet his Corporation remains, for he hath Stallum in Choro, et vocem in Capitulo. Cook 3. Part, 74. The Dean and Chapter of Norwich's Caſe.

2. Note, It is put for a Principle in Law, That all Lands in Fee-ſimple may be charged with a Rent, or otherwiſe, when all thoſe who have Intereſt join in a Grant of it, for that the Grant is made Concurrentibus his qui in lege requiruntur: And therefore if the Patron and Ordinary do charge the Glebe in the time of Vacation, the ſame ſhall bind, becauſe that no other hath Intereſt therein during the Vacation, but they only. Cook 1. Part, 144. in Mayowes Caſe.

3. A Prebend made a Leaſe for ſeventy years. The Dean and Chapter reciting the Leaſe, did Confirm Dimiſſionem prædict. in forma prædict. fact. pro termino 51 years. It was adjudged in that Caſe, That the Confirmation did not extend to the whole Term of ſeventy years. But if they had confirmed the Land for one and fifty years, it had bin good, and no repugnancy had bin in the Confirmation. In that Caſe, a difference was taken between a bare aſſent, and an aſſent accompanied with an Intereſt. That the Patron, and Dean and Chapter have an aſſent accompanied with an Intereſt in the Prebendary; and therefore they may confirm a Grant in part, or in all, or upon a Condition. And in that Caſe it was ſaid, That a Releaſe to the Patron in time of Vacation of an Annuity, is good, and the Patron and Ordinary in time of Vacation, may charge the Glebe, becauſe they have an Intereſt in it; and the right is in the Patron and Ordinary. Cook 5. Part, 81. Fords Caſe.

4. Leſſee for years of a Rectory, to which the Advowſon of the Vicarage was appendant, Granted the next Avoydance of the Vicarage to J. S. if it happened that it became void during the Term in eſſe. The Leſſee dyed Inteſtate, his Adminiſtrator ſurrendred the Term of the Rectory to the Leſſor, and afterwards the Church of the Vicarage became void. In this Caſe, it was adjudged, That notwithſtanding the ſurrender, that J. S. ſhould have the next Avoydance. 1. Becauſe the limitation is no more but what the Law ſayes. For if Tenant for years granteth the next Avoydance, the Law implyes this Limitation if the Church be void during the Term. 2. Becauſe the Grantor ſhall not derogate from his own Grant, which ſhall be taken ſtrongeſt againſt him, and moſt beneficial for the Grantee. 3. Reſolved, That the Term for the benefit of the Grantee, hath to ſome reſpect continuance. As if Leſſee for years Grant a Rent-charge, and afterwards ſurrendreth for the benefit of the Grantee, the Term hath continuance; although in truth it be determinted. Cook 8. Part, 145. in Davenport's Caſe.

5. A Church may become void by ſeverall means and Laws, ſcil. by the Eccleſiaſtical Law; and by Poſitive Law. And in ſome Caſes by the Act of the Incumbent, and in ſome Caſes by ſentence in the Eccleſiaſtical Court, grounded upon the Act or defect of the party. Death natural doth make a preſent Avoydance de facto. Death Civil, de jure, non de facto. And therefore it is ſaid in Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 132. That if a man had entred into Religion, and bin profeſſed (renunciavit omnibus quæ ſecum ſunt), and he was Civilly dead in Law, ſo as his Profeſſion were in ſome houſe of Religion within the Realm, for of Forreign Profeſſions, the Judges were not to take notice. And by ſuch Profeſſion, his Benefices had bin void. Yet it is ſaid, That the King being perſona Mixta, and having the Juriſdiction aſwell Eccleſiaſticall as Civil in him, might have diſpenſed with ſuch a perſon, to have holden his Benefices, notwithſtanding his Profeſſion; and the Patron by the Common Law had no remedy for ſuch Avoydance, becauſe by the Profeſſion, the Church was not ſaid to be abſolutely void de facto, but de jure only, See 11 H. 4. 37. and 213. But in that Caſe it was ſaid, If the Profeſſion had bin certified by the Ordinary, and no Diſpenſation or Licenſe had bin obtained from the King. This Civil death by the Eccleſiaſtical Law had bin an Avoydance of the Church, of which the Patron might have taken advantage, and Preſented another to be Inveſted into the Benefice. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 132.

6. By a Canon made in the Councel of Lateran, holden 1215. under Innocent the third, It is Ordeyned Quod Quicunque receperit aliquod Beneficium, cum Cura animarum, ſi prius tale Beneficium obtinebit ſit eo jure ipſo privatus. This Decree or Canon is general. And if a Parſon or Vicar that had one Benefice with Cure, had taken another without diſpenſation, the ſame had bin an Avoydance of the firſt Benefice, called Ceſſion by the ſaid Canon without any ſentence Declaratory to have made the Church void. See 24 E. 3. 30. and 24 E. 3. 26. acc. Yet by ſuch Ceſſion the Church was not ſo abſolutely void de facto, that Lapſe ſhould have encurred upon the Patron if he had not Preſented another Clerk to the ſame Church within ſix Moneths, unleſs notice had bin given to the Patron by the Ordinary of ſuch Ceſſion. See Cook 4. Part, 77. in Hollands Caſe. And ſee that the King might have diſpenſed with the ſaid Canon, and ſo did in many Caſes. See 29 E. 3. 44. the Prior of Ongates Caſe.

7. A. was Preſented to a Benefice, and after to another; and then purchaſed a Diſpenſation, and was qualified; and afterwards accepted of the Arch-Deaconry of Glouceſter. In this Caſe it was Reſolved, That by the acceptance of a ſecond Benefice, the firſt Benefice was void by Ceſſion without any ſentence Declaratory. The ſecond point was, Whether the Acceptance of the Arch-deaconry was a Benefice with Cure of Souls within the Statute of 21 H. 8. cap. 13. Quære for this point was not Reſolved. Paſc. 31 Eliz. in C. B. Hadohill and Savages Caſe. Lon. 316.

8. Deprivation by a Sentence Declaratory in the Eccleſiaſticall Court, is an Avoydance of a Church or Benefice. The cauſes of Deprivation being ſuch as are allowable by the Common Law; as Conſcientia criminis, Debilitas Corporis, Defectus Scientiæ, Malitia plebis, Grave ſcandalum, Irregularitas perſonæ, Hereſy, Schiſme, Buſtardy. See Doddridge in his Book of Advowſons, acc.

9. If the Patron Preſenteth a meer Lay man within the age of 23 years, to a Church, or to a Benefice with Cure, and he is Admitted, Inſtituted and Inducted: And afterwards is ſued to be deprived in the Spiritual Court for Incapacity by a ſtranger; and afterwards a Quare Impedit be brought againſt the Ordinary and Incumbent, and Judgment be given againſt the Defendant, Incumbent, for his default at the Grand Diſtreſſe. If afterwards the Incumbent by a ſentence pronounced in the Spiritual Court, be deprived for his Incapacity at the ſtrangers ſuit. In that Caſe it was holden, That the Deprivation is good, although he were removed before upon the Judgment given in the Quare Impedit. But in that Caſe, it was holden, That if the Incumbent who was deprived, doth bring a Writ of Diſceit upon the Judgment given againſt him in the Quare Impedit for default, for that he was not ſummoned. In that Caſe, it was holden, That he ſhall have Judgment, and the deprivation in the Spiritual Court ſhall be no impediment unto him, for that in the Quare Impedit the Incumbency was not in Queſtion, but the Diſturbance only; and it ſhall be ſaid to be no Avoydance of the Church, but he ſhall be reſtored to what he loſt. See 19 Eliz. Dyer, 353. Bowers Caſe.

10. An

10. An Incumbent was Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted into a Benefice with Cure in the time of King E. 6. And afterwards in the time of Queen Mary, he was deprived, becauſe he was a married man, and a favourer of the Religion then on foot in the time of King Edward the ſixth, and the Church being void by his Deprivation, another man was Inſtituted and Inducted into the ſame Church in the time of Queen Mary; And afterwards in the time of Queen Elizabeth, the laſt Clerk was deprived, and the firſt ſentence of Deprivation in the time of Queen Mary declared and adjudged to be void. In that Caſe it was adjudged, That the Deprivation of the firſt Incumbent was good, and ſtood good untill the ſame was afterwards declared to be void, and untill then the Clerk Preſented by Queen Mary, was lawfull Incumbent. But when the Sentence of Repeal came, and made void the firſt Deprivation; Then was the firſt Incumbent in again by force of his firſt Preſentation, and he needed no new Inſtitution and Induction, for that now upon the matter there was never a full Avoydance of the Church. See Cook 4. Part, 101. Winſors Caſe.

Valore Maritagii, Value, and Valuation.

1. THe Writ de Valore Maritagii lyeth, where the Tenant who holdeth of the Lord by Knights Service dyeth, his Heir within age, and in the Cuſtody of the Lord; and the Lord tendreth him a convenient Marriage, which the Heir refuſeth, but entreth upon the Lands, then the Lord ſhall have this Writ, and ſhall thereby recover the value againſt the marriage, and alſo to recover the Land. And in Caſe the Lord dyeth, then his Executors ſhall maintain this Writ againſt the Heir. See for that, Kelloway 133. 134. It hath bin a Queſtion, Whether the value be due to the Lord without Tender. See 40 E. 3. 6. 31 E. 3. br. Aſſiſe, 331. and 21 E. 4.

2. A Writ of Intruſion was brought Mariagio non ſatisfacto by A. againſt B. The Writ and the Count did ſuppoſe a tender of the Marriage to the Defendant, when he was within age, without diſparagement; and that he Mariagium illud renuens ſe intruſit Mariagio ſuo non ſatisfacto: The Defendant traverſed the Tender, and upon that they were at Iſſue. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Traverſe was good, becauſe the Plaintiff had expreſſly ſuppoſed by his Writ and Count a Tender: And ſee, that Iſſue joyned, was upon the Refuſal; 40 E. 3. and 21 E. 4. 51. It was decreed by the whole Court, that the Tender in this Action is Traverſable, notwithſtanding the words of the Statute of Merton. Mich. 8 Eliz. Dyer 255. Penery's Caſe.

3. See, That it was reſolved, and adjudged, That Guardian in Knights ſervice, ſhall have the ſingle value without Tender; and that by the Common-Law, it was in the Election of the Lord, to have the Marriage of the Heir, or to permit the Heir to Marry himſelf where he pleaſeth, and to have recompence, viz. the value of it. And alſo reſolved, That at the Common-Law, not only a Writ de valore Maritagii lay, but alſo the Writ, Quare ſe intruſit, Maritagio, non ſatisfacto: And it was ſaid, That if the Heir within age, had been Raviſhed, that the Guardian ſhould have recovered for Treſpaſs, the value of the Marriage; which is a proof, that the value of the Marriage did appertain to the Lord without Tender. Cook 5 Part, 117. Palmers Caſe. See Cook 7 Part, 70 Druses Caſe. And ſee now, that the ſaid doubt in Mich. 8 Eliz. Dyer 255. is now Reſolved.

4. Two Co-partners were, one within age, and in Ward; the Lord purchaſed the part of her who was of full age, and afterwards he tendred a Marriage to her that was within age; who refuſed it: Afterwards the Lord and the Infant by their Deed, made partition, and afterwards the Infant did diſagree. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices in that Caſe, That the Lord ſhould loſe the value of the Marriage, becauſe the ſame was due to the Lord without tender. See 31. Aſſ. 26. acc.

5. When Tenant in Knight ſervice dyeth, his Heir within age, preſently the value of his Marriage is veſted in the Lord, as a Chattel; and therefore although that he be made a Knight, he then, in the Judgment of Law, being of full age, the Lord ſhall have the value of the Marriage: But yet if he ſhall be in Ward as to his Land, by the Statute of Merton; and if the heir ſhould be diſcharged of the value of the Marriage, by the making of him a Knight, many inconveniences would follow, both to the King and Subjects; for then none would give any thing, or little for the Kings Wards, and it would be prejudicial to the Subjects; for by this means they ſhould be deprived of their Ward-ſhips by making of them Knights; eſpecially when one might be made a Knight, ſo ſoon as he is baptized. Cook 6 Part, 44, 45. Sir Drue Drurie's Caſe.

6. Tenant in Capite dyed, his Heir within age, the Heir at his full age tendred his Livery, and was admitted to it, and within the time given to him for the proſecution of his Livery, he Bargained, and ſold part of the Lands to another in Fee, and within that time alſo dyed; In this Caſe it was Reſolved, That at the Common Law, the King ſhould have Primer Seiſin after the death of ſuch, as held of him in chief, of all the Lands and Tenements, of what age ſoever the Heir was; and ſhould take the Iſſues and Profits, until he hath taken homage of ſuch Heir; and when he was of full age, he ſhall pay the full whole years value or Profits; but when the Heir was in Ward, and within age, there upon his Livery ſued, he ſhould pay but the half years Profit of the Land for a Primer Seiſin. 2. It was Reſolved, That when the Heir at his full age tendred his Livery, that was all which the Heir could do; then when he dyed within the time given him, for the proſecution of his Livery; ſo as the ſuing of the ſame was become impoſſible by the act of God, the Intereſt which the King had, is determined by the death of the Heir. So if the Heir of full age, at the time of the death of his Anceſtor dyeth, without any tender of Livery, the Livery is gone: But yet in ſuch Caſe, the King ſhall have all the Mean Rates, Profits, to the value of the Lands, until the death, for default of Tender. Cook 8 Part, 172. Hall's Caſe.

7. Note, It appeareth by the Statute of Magna Charta, Cap. 2. That alwayes the fourth part of the Revenue, requiſite to the dignity of the Perſon, was to be paid to the King for a Relief: The Relief of a Knight, was five times the value of his Revenue, being 20l. per Annum. Of a Baron, 100 Marks: Which was the fourth part of the value of the Revenue of a Baron. And of an Earl, ten times the value of his Revenue, being 400l. per Ann. And the Relief of a Duke, now ſince the Statute (for there were no Dukes at the time of the making of the ſaid Statute) is 200l., the value of his Revenue being accounted to be 800l. per Annum. Cook 7 Part, 34. in Neuils Caſe. Cook 9 Part. 124. Anthony Law's Caſe. &c.

8. Note, It is enacted by the Statute of 1 Hen. 4. Cap. 6. That thoſe, who demand of the King Lands, Tenements, Offices, &c. that they make expreſs mention of the value of them. But it was holden by Priſot, Juſtice, That if the Office be of a certain value, there it behoveth that he make mention of the value; but if it be of a Caſual thing, there it needeth not; as if the King grant to me a Market, I need not to ſet the value thereof, becauſe it is not yearly certain: So that when the King in his Grants requireth, that the value be mentioned, it is to be intended of a thing, which is of a certain yearly value: But if a man hath a Hundred, with the goods of Felons, Outlawes, Fines, Amercements, Return of Writs, and ſuch like Caſual hereditaments within the Hundred, and ſuch Hundred, with the ſaid Caſual hereditaments, have been accuſtomably Let to Farm for a yearly Rent, then the ſame may be demiſed within the purview of the Acts of 32, and 34 Hen. 8. Cook 3 Part, 33. in Butler and Bakers Caſe.

9. A man ſeized of three Acres of Land, of equal value; the one holden in Capite, deviſed the Acre holden in Capite, and one of the other Acres, to his younger ſon in tail; and afterwards purchaſed other Lands holden in Socage. It was Reſolved in that Caſe, That the Reverſion of the Acres holden in Capite upon the Eſtate tail, did reſtrain the Deviſe of the whole Socage-Land, now purchaſed by the words of the Statute of 34 Hen. 8. And in that Caſe it was Reſolved, That a Reverſion expectant upon an Eſtate tail, ſeck and fruitleſs, was an hereditament with the ſaid Statute; becauſe, that although the Reverſion in preſent was not of any value, yet the Land it ſelf is of an annual value, and therefore is deviſeable; and hereditaments, which of their nature are not valuable, within the ſaid Statute; and if they be holden in Capite, ſhall reſtrain the Deviſee of Manors, &c. and ſhall make them void for a third Part. Cook 10. Part, 82. Leonard Lewes Caſe. See there, 34 Eliz. in the Court of Wards. Bedingfields Caſe. adjudge acc.

10. A Copyholder in Fee ſurrendred his Lands to the uſe of J. S. and his Heirs upon Condition, That if he paid to the Mortgagee 250 l. Legalis monete Angliæ ad domum manſionalem of the Mortgagee, that the ſurrender ſhould be void. At the day and place he tendred the money to the Mortgagee, but part of it was in Spaniſh money, which the Mortgagee refuſed to accept of. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, amongſt other things, That the tender in Spaniſh money being lawfull by the

King

Kings Proclamation, was good: And that the King by his Prerogative might make the Coyn of any Forrign King current within his Realm by his Proclamation. Cook 5. Part, 114. Wades Case.

11. Queen Eliz. Anno 43. of her Reign, made mint moneyes in the Tower of London in England, and sent the same into Ireland, with a Proclamation, that the said money should be current in that Realm, and should be accepted and received by all her Subjects using Trade and Merchandizing within that Realm, with punishment for contempt upon them who refused the same; and made by the same Proclamation, all Coyns current in that Realm of no effect. A Merchant of Ireland was bound in an Obligation in 200 l. to J. S. of London, upon Condition to pay to J. S. 100 l. sterling, current and lawful money of England in the Church of Dublin in Ireland. The day of payment fell after the Proclamation; at which day the Merchant tendred the 100 l. in mixt moneyes. The Question was, If the tender in mixt money were good enough after the Proclamation to save the forfeiture of the Bond. It was adjudged, That the Tender made in mixt money, was good. In that Case, concerning Monies, and the value of them, These points were Resolved. 1. That a standard of money was necessary in every Commonwealth, because there could not be any equality in contracts without money; and for the facility of commerce, money was invented. For it is said Moneta est justum medium et mensura rerum Commutabilium, and every thing may be valued by money. 2. Resolved, That it belongs only to the King of England to Coyn money within his Dominions, and none can do it without a special License, or commandment; and if any one doth it of his own head, it is High Treason: And to the making of money compleat and current, it was said that there were six incidents, 1. Weight. 2. Fineness. 3. Impression. 4. Denomination. 5. Authority of the Prince. 6. Proclamation. And there it was agreed, That the King by his Proclamation might make any Coyn lawful money of England, and then à fortiori, he may establish a standard of monies within his own Dominions. But it was shewed out of Lambert's peramulation of Kent, 191. That this Prerogative and Privilege hath bin communicated to Subjects within England, as to the Arch-bishop of Canterbury: And the Abbot of St. Edmondsburyes Case 21 E. 3. 6. was put, scil. Si Talents, Besanuits, or other Coyn be of uncertain value, the King himself hath power to put a certain value upon it. 3. It was Resolved, That the King might change his money in substance, and in impression, and in enhaunsing or abasing of it, and of the value of it, or might utterly decry it, or make it of no effect, as he did in the Case at bar at his pleasure, and that by his Prerogative. See 9 E. 4. 49. by Danby, 6 Ed. 6. Dyer, 82. and such changes have bin made by the sole Authority of the King in all ages without Parliament. 12. Husband and Wife seised of the moyety of the Mannor of J. to them, and the Heirs of the Husband, the Husband levyes a Fine to J. S. who suffers a Recovery in which the Husband only is vouched, which Recovery was to the use of the Cousuee and his Heirs; the Cousuee made a Feoffment to A. who enfeoffed B. and C. in Fee, and after Exchange is made between A. B. and C. and is executed, and the exchange was of the moyety of the Mannor of J. for the 4th part of the Mannor of D. B. and C. exchangers of the 4th part enter, and thereof enfeoff E. the Husband dyeth, the Wife entreth into the Mannor of J. A. re-entreth into the fourth part of the Mannor of D. In this Case, amongst other things, it was Resolved, That the word Exchange implyed a Warranty, but none should vouch by force of that Warranty, but the Exchangers or their Heirs; and no Land shall be recovered in value, but only the Land put in exchange. And there note, it was said, That if Land be evicted, he who loseth the Land shall recover in value, according to the value which he hath lost; and in an Exchange, when the whole Estate is evicted, the whole exchange is defeated. Cook 4. Part, Bullards Case.

Vari-

Variance:

1. Variance in Deeds, Grants, Leaſes: And what ſhall be ſuch a Variance in in them, as ſhall make the Deeds, Goods, Grants, &c. void, what not.

FOr a Prohibition to the Spiritual Court for Tythe-Hay. The Plaintiff made ſurmiſe, That there was an Agreement betwixt the Parties, that for the yearly ſum of 7 l. paid by the Plaintiff to the Defendant, that the Defendant promiſed to the Plaintiff, that he ſhould have the Tythes of the Lands, during his life; and upon an Attachment upon a Prohibition, the Plaintiff declared, That for the ſaid Annual ſumm, the Defendant Leaſed to the Plaintiff the Tythes for his life; The Defendant demurred upon the Declaration, for the Variance between the Surmiſe and the Declaration; for in the Surmiſe, a Promiſe is ſuppoſed, for which the Plaintiff might have his Action upon the Caſe; and in the Declaration a Leaſe. It was the Opinion of the Court in this Caſe, That the Surmiſe is as a Writ, for which if Variance be between the ſame and Declaration, all is naught. Trin. 30 Eliz. in B. R. Gomerſall and Biſhops Caſe. Leon. 128.

2. In an Ejectione firmæ, the Caſe was: King Henry the 7th. erected, and founded an Hoſpital, by the name of the Maſter and Chaplains of the Hoſpitall of King Henry the 7th. de le Savoy; and afterwards Queen Mary made a Leaſe of Lands, parcell of the Hoſpital, by the name of Maſter of the Hoſpitall, Henrici nuper Regis Angliæ vocat. le Savoy; and if this was a good Leaſe, or not, was the Queſtion. And in the Court of Exchequer, upon the Arguments of two of the Barons there, viz. Clerk. and Gent. it was adjudged, that it was a good Leaſe; upon which Judgment, a Writ of Error was brought into the Exchequer-Chamber: It was objected, That here was Variance in Subſtance, from the name given in the Foundation, and the name reported in the Leaſe, for that they are not Idem Senſus; for the word, De, as De Savoy, aſſignes a place; but the word Vocat. locum non denotat, but only the very name: alſo the word, De, ſuppoſeth a place before the Foundation, as a place upon which the Hoſpital was erected, called Le Savoy, before the erection of it; but the words, Vocat. le Savoy, ſuppoſeth the name, only Savoy was impoſed upon the Foundation, and Le, is matter of certainty and verity, but, Vocat, matter of Reputation onely: And in maintainance of that ſide, this Caſe was put by the Lord Bowleigh, Lord Treaſr. The Guild of Boſton in Lincolnſhire, was incorporated by the name of the Guild of Saint Nicholas, and our Lady the Virgin Mary, and he made a Leaſe for years, by the name of the Guild of our Lady the Virgin, and St. Nicholas; Religioſæ quodam motus, ut nomen Virginis Mariæ in Charta dimiſſionis pro poterunt nomini, St. Nicholas: And it was adjudged, a void Leaſe, for the Variance aforeſaid. On the other ſide, it was ſaid, That there was no Variance, for that there is a difference, where the word in the name of the Corporation which precedes De, is all one, and of the ſame nature, with the word which follows De; and where, on the contrary, in this Caſe, the word which precedes De, is Hoſpital, and the words which follow De, Le Savoy, they are all one and the ſame thing, ſo as the Hoſpital and Savoy, are all one and the ſame, and therefore may be called Le Savoy; and this Hoſpital was erected upon the Manor of Savoy, and therefore now commonly called, Savoy, without any addition. This Caſe was very oftentimes argued at large, and much ſtood upon on both ſides; See the Arguments at large: But afterwards the matter was compounded by mediation of friends. 3. The Caſe was, The Hoſpital of Donington, in the County of Berks, was founded by the name of Miniſter Dei pauperis domus de Donington; and they made a Leaſe of parcell of the Lands of the Hoſpital in Engliſh, by theſe words; viz: Maiſter of the Alms-houſe of God of Donington, juxta Newbery: And, If this were a good Leaſe or not for the Variance of the name, in the Foundation, and in the Leaſe, was the Queſtion. It was the better Opinion of the Juſtices in this Caſe, That the Leaſe was good, for that here, if he be Miniſter pauperis Domus Dei de Donington, he is Miniſter Dei; and the addition of the word Dei, after Domus, notwithſtanding the ſeeming Variance, ſhall do no hurt: for if they do agree in common underſtanding, it ſhall be good. 4. It was found by Inqueſt, upon an Elegit, That H. F, againſt whom the Elegit was, was poſſeſſed of a Leaſe for 100 years, to begin at the Feaſt of Saint Mich. 3. and 4. Ma. Cujus quidem H.F. & Jam, intereſſe & terminum in tenement. poſſeſſ. the Jurors appraiſed to 80l., and that the Sheriff ſold the Leaſe as a Chattel for 80l.; the Queſtion was, if the ſale by the Sheriff was good. It was ſaid, That although the Leaſe was miſrecited, and that H. F. had not any ſuch Leaſe when the Jury comes to praiſe it, and the Sheriff ſells his Eſtate in the Land, they do not refer that to the Record before, but generally that they ſell all the Eſtate, Intereſt, and Terme of H. F. But upon conſideration had of the Record, it was ſaid by Popham, Chief Juſtice, That the ſale of the Terme by an Elegit, was void; and the difference between an Elegit, and a Fieri facias, was to be conſidered further. Elegit is, That per Inquiſitionem & ſacrament. 12 hominum per rationabile pretium & extent. the Sheriff apprize the Goods, and extend the Lands ſo, as without enquiry the the Sheriff may not ſell. Then if the Sheriff enquire of one Terme, and ſells another, as this Caſe is, the Terme ſole, was never found by Inquiſition, and for that, the ſale is not good. But if it had been found by Inquiſition generally, that he is poſſeſſed of ſuch Lands for diverſe years, ad tunc now, which they have apprized to ſuch a ſum, this had been good; becauſe they have not any means to come to the knowledge of the certainty of the Terme: But when by enquiry, a Terme is particularly found, they may not vary from that, and ſell another: And ſo it was adjudged Hill. 43 Eliz. in B. R. Palmer and Humphrey's Caſe. Goldesbr. 173.

5. A. ſeized of Lands in Fee, having Iſſue, two Daughters by B. C. D, and E. B, had Iſſue; R.A. deviſed the Lands to his Wife for life, and after her deceaſe, the ſame to be equally divided amongſt his Daughters, or their Heirs. A. dyed, the Wife dyed; the Defendant in the Right of C. D. and E. entred: F. the Daughter of B. entred into the Lands, and Leaſed them to the Plaintiff; whether F, who was the Daughter of B. one of the Sifters, ſhould have the fourth part of the Lands, was the Queſtion. It was the Opinion of the Court, That ſhe ſhould have the fourth part of the Lands; for in this Caſe the word (Heirs) was not added of neceſſity, for the Heir of any of the Sifters to take by purchaſe, but only to make the Heir of B. to take part of the Lands: And it was the Opinion of the Court, That being in the diſjunctive, it was the ſtronger for the Plaintiff; for they ſaid, If it were (And) then it would bar from the firſt, and give the three Sifters the Fee; but being in the Diſjunctive (Or), there is more colour that ſhe ſhould take the fourth part, by the deviſe Mich. 1 Car. in B. R. Taylor, and Hodskin's Caſe. Goldesbr. 363.

6. The Caſe concerning Trinity-Colledge in Cambridge, was this: King Hen. 8. incorporated the Schollars of Trinity Colledge in Cambridge, by the name of Mr. Fellows, and Schollars, Collegij ſanctæ & Individuæ Trinitatis, in the Town and Univerſity of Cambridge: And in 6 Ed. 6. they made a Leaſe by the name of Maſter and Fellows of Trinity-Colledge in Cambridge, leaving out the Univerſity: If the Leaſe were good, was the Queſtion. It was argued, that the Leaſe was not good: It was ſaid, That to every Corporation, two things were incident; the Name, and the Place; and if any of them fail, and be not recited in the Leaſe, the Leaſe is not good; and the Corporation in this Caſe being founded upon two Places, and one Place being left out, the Leaſe is not good, but both Places ought to be inſerted. On the other ſide, it was ſaid, That that the Leaſe was good; and ſaid, That there is a certain Place in this Caſe, that is the Town of Cambridge; and it was denied, that it was founded upon two Places; for no more than a Material body may be but in one place, Simul & ſemel; no more may it be, of a body Corporate, which hath his reſemblance to a body Natural. But admit that a Corporation may be founded upon two Places, yet it was ſaid, That an Univerſity was not Local, but Perſonal: Vid. 48 Hen. 3. and 49 Eliz. 3. vouched in the Caſe at large; and the Caſe 26 Eliz. the Dean and Canons of Windſor made a Leaſe, by the name of Dean and Canons of New Windſor; and it was adjudged a good Leaſe, and not void for Variance. And the Lord North's Caſe was vouched, That Chriſts-Church in Oxford was incorporated by the name of Dean and Canons of Chriſts-Church in Oxford; and they made a Feoffment by the name of Dean and Canons of Chriſts-Church, in the Univerſity of Oxf. and the Feoffment was holden good, notwithſtanding the Variance. This Caſe being argued by the Juſtices, Mich. 7 Jac. the Court was divided in Opinion; for Croke and Williams Juſtices, held that the Leaſe was good: But Fenner and Yelverton held the contrary. And Flemming Juſtice ſaid, That he conceived the Leaſe was not good; but ſaid, this ſhould not be abſolutely his Opinion. Williams, Juſtice, brought in the Decree out of the Court of Wards, concerning the Caſe of Trinity-Colledge, 7 Eliz. which, ſee vouched in Cook. 2 Part, in Porters Caſe: But to

o the Decree it was ſaid, That there was a diffe-rence between the Caſe of a Deviſe, and a Grant; and Flemming Chief Juſtice ſaid, That the Decree had not changed his Opinion; and thereupon he moved the Parties to an Agreement, and would not as then give Judgment. Paſch. 7 Jac. in B. R. Trinity Colledge Caſe. Brown 2 Part, 243, to 247.

7. Husband and Wife. The Wife by Indentures declares the uſes of a Fine, that it ſhall be onely to the uſe of her ſelf for life, and afterwards to the uſes of the Conuſees. Afterwards, the Husband by another Deed, without the aſſent of the Wife, declares the uſes, to the uſe of the Husband and Wife for the Terme of their lives, without impeachment of Waſte, and afterwards to the uſe of the Conuſees; and afterward the Fine is levyed by the Husband and Wife. It was in this Caſe adjudged, That both the Declarations in both Indentures were void, and that the ſaid Fine ſhould be to the uſe of the Wife and her Heirs, as if no other uſes had been declared. It was ſaid, That every one might diſpoſe of the uſe of the Land, according to his Eſtate which he hath in the Land, and therefore the Husband alone could not declare the uſe, nor the Wife alone; but they ought to joyn in the Declaration of the uſes. But it was reſolved, When the Huſband and Wife vary in the Declaration of the uſes, all the uſes limitted in the remainder are void, although they be limitted with both conſents. But it was holden, That if Joynt-tenants vary in Declaration of uſes upon a Fine, the ſame is yet good, becauſe the uſe ſhall be directed accoeding to their Eſtates. Cook 2 Part, Beckwiths Caſe.

8. Note: If it be agreed by Indenture, That a Fine ſhall be levyed of certain Lands, by a certain number of Acres to diverſe Perſons, and that they ſhall grant, and render the Land again in Fee-ſimple, which ſhall be to certain uſes: The Find is levyed of the Land, but there is ſome Variance in the number of Acres compriſed in the Fine, or the Fine is levyed to one of the Parties only, who grants, and renders the Land, ſo as there is Variance between the Covenant and Fine in Number and Perſons: It was nevertheleſs holden in this Caſe, That the Fine ſhall be averred to the uſes of the Indentures; for the Original Bargain and Agreement of the Parties was declared by writing, and although there be ſome little Variance found in Quantity, Perſons, Tyme, or other Circumſtances between the Fine and the Indentures, yet the Law will permit Averment to agree the Fine and the Indenture, notwithſtanding thoſe Circumſtances of Number, Perſons, Tyme, and the like; when the Party avers there was not any new Conſideration, or new Agreement betwixt the Parties, but that the Fine was levyed according to the Indentures, and to the uſes, & intents contained in the ſame: And therefore it was adjudged in Taverners Caſe, 42 Eliz. That if A. hath 10 Acres in D. and B. hath as many in the ſame Town; and A. levyeth a Fine to B. of 20 Acres, and B. grants and renders 20 Acres to A. in Fee, that in that Caſe, A. ſhall not have the 10 Acres of B, unleſs there was an eſpeciall Agreement betwixt them to that effect. Vid. Cook 2 Part, 76. in the Lord Cromwells Caſe. Cook 5 Part, 26. in the Earl of Rutlands Caſe, &c.

9. A. by Deed Indented, covenanteth with B, That B. ſhall recover the Mannor of D. againſt him, within a year next following; and that the Recovery and execution thereof, to be had within the ſaid year, ſhall be had to the uſe of the Recoverer in tail, &c. and afterwards the Recovery is had within the year, and Execution is ſued after the year: It was holden in this Caſe, Although that the Covenant was not purſued in ſtrictneſs of time, but varied from the Agreement of the Parties; yet the uſes ſhould be guided by the ſame Indentures, and ſo if the Recovery had been between the ſame Parties, if it had been after the year, if it were of the ſame Land; for that no Variance of time ſhall ſubvert the Original Agreement or the Parties, or their Contracts. Cook 1 Part, 99. in Shelleys Caſe.

2. Variance betwixt the Writ, Bill, Count, Pleadings, Judgment; where it ſhall make them void, or to be erronious: Where not:

In Debt brought upon the Statute of 32 Hen. 8. Cap. 9. which was made againſt buying pretenced Titles, &c. the Statute was recited in the Declaration, to begin the 28th day of April Anno 32 C. 8. whereas in truth it did begin the 28th day of April, 32 Hen. 8. and was continued by Prorogations untill 32 Hen. 8. And it was adjudged in that Caſe, That for that Variance the Declaration was not good. Vid. Pla. Com. 79. Partridges Caſe.

2. Note: It was reſolved by the Court, That Variance betwixt the Original Writ, and the Count Count, or Declaration, is not remedied by any of the Statutes of jeofails; and a difference was taken, 1. When the Original Writ, which in matter of Substance, varieth from the Count, or Declaration; that, that is not remedied by the Statute of 18 Eliz.: But when there is no Original Writ, the ſame is remedied by the expreſs words of the Statute. 2. It was reſolved, That when the Original Writ is once removed, (whether it be before it nulle eſt Erratum pleaded, or after), and a material Variance appeareth to the Court, between the Writ and the Count or Declaration; in that Caſe the Judgment ſhall be reverſed. 3. In an Appeal of the death of a Brother, againſt I. S. of M. as Principal, and one F. as Acceſſary; whereas the name of the Principal, was F. S. the Acceſſary pleaded, Nul tiel, in rerum natura, as I. S. the day of the Writ brought, or at any time ſince. In that Caſe, it was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That although there was another I. S, if he were not in the ſame County, where the Tenement of M. is, or if he were dead before the Writ brought, that it was ſufficient; and it was there holden, That in favorem vitæ, a man might traverſe the Return of the Sheriff. Mich. 18 Eliz. Dyer 338.

4. In a Replevin: A man avowed for an Heriot upon a Leaſe, made by Deed to R. C. his Executors and Aſſignes, for 99 years: If R. C. I. B. and G. B, or any of them, ſhould ſo long live; rendring Rent, and rendring Paying, after the death of the ſaid R. C. his Executors and Aſſignes, his, or their beſt Beaſt for an Heriot, or 50 s., at the Election of the Leſſor, his Heirs and Aſſignes; and becauſe the ſaid R. C. aſſigned this Leaſe to the Plaintiff, and dyed; for non-payment of the Heriot, after the death of the ſaid R. he diſtrained and avowed. Now in the Deed the clauſe for the Heriot was, Rendring, and paying to the Leſſor, his Heirs, and Aſſignes, after the death of the ſaid R. C. I. B. and G. B; and ſome of them, his or their beſt Beaſt in the name of a Heriot; or 50 s. in money: For this Variance, the Plaintiff demurred, and Judgment was given for the Plaintiff, and Error was aſſigned in the Point of Law; for it was ſaid, that this was no Variance; for the Leaſe being to him, his Executors, and Aſſignes, the Reſervation of the Heriot in conſtruction of Law, is the Reſervation of him, his Executors, and Aſſignes; viz: after the death of him, his Executors, or Aſſignes, his, or their beſt Beaſt: And it cannot be conſtrued the Beaſt of B, and B, becauſe they are ſtrangers to the Deed. But it was the Opinion of the Court, That it was a manifeſt Variance; for although the Beaſt of B. and B, cannot be conſtrued to be meant thereby, yet the Reſervation is not, That it ſhall be paid, after the death of the Executors, or Aſſignes, but only after the death of R. C. B. and B, and ſo they are the Parties after whoſe death, the Heriot is to be paid, and not after the death of the Executors or Aſſignes. Paſc. 8 Car. in B. R. Randall and Scarges Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 228, 229.

5. Error of a Judgment in C. B. in Trover and Converſion; where it was found, and Judgment for the Plaintiff. The Error aſſigned was, becauſe the Original Writ was de quibuſdam bonis & cattellis, and doth not ſhew any at all in the Writ. But that was holden to be no Error, but another Error was aſſigned; for that the Venire facias, is awarded, de vicineto Civitatis Covantriæ, which ought not to be; for Civitatis Covantriæ being in the M. Court, is intended the County; and as a Venire facias ought not to be from a County, ſo it ought not to be from a City. The Court doubted of it: But afterwards upon view of Preſidents, That all Venire facias's are awarded De vicineto Civitatis, which is intended as well De Civitate it ſelf, as De vicineto infra hanc diſtinctam Civitatis. It was Reſolved by the Court, that it was good enough; and the Judgment was affirmed. Mich. 10 Jac. in B. R. Cliſon and Proctors Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 307.

6. Error of a Judgment in C. B. The Error aſſigned, was, Becauſe the Original in the Common-Pleas was, That E. the Plaintiff was ſeized in Fee, of a Meſſuage, and 60 Acres of Land, 60 Acres of Meadow, 80 Acres of Paſture in H; and that he and his Anceſtors had Common Appurtenances in 200 Acres of Waſte, and that the Defendant had incloſed three Acres thereof, and diſturbed him of his Common, to his damage of 40 l., and the Declaration ſuppoſeth to his damage of 100 l., ſo as there is Variance betwixt the Original and the Declaration, And there it was ſaid, That the Plaintiff ought not to recover, but be barred; for, otherwiſe the King ſhould loſe his Fine; and it is not a Tryal, without an Original, but an ill Original. It was reſolved by the Court, That although it had been a good Exception in C. B. before the Plea pleaded for the Variance, yet now being after Verdict upon Not guilty pleaded, the Jury finding but 12 damages, it is well enough, and not aſſignable for Error. But if the Verdict had found more damages, than was comprized in the Writ, and leſs than is in the Declaration, yet it had been ill, and the Judgment Erroneous, for that there is not any Writ to warrant it: And the Court held it, now ſince the Statute of 18 Eliz. that the Variance not being in matter of Subſtance, or in point of Judgment, that it was well enough. Mich. 18 Jac. in B. R. Eardly and Tarnoths Case. Cro. 2 Part, 629. See Mich. 8 Jac. in B. R. Hobbins and Kimbles Case. Bulst. 1 Part, 49. acc.

7. Raphael Hunt, in an inferior Court, after Verdict obtained a Judgment in Debt, upon a Contract for 20 Sheep; which being removed by Error, into the Kings-Bench, it was shewed; That there was no Declaration in the inferior Court, for the Declaration was thus: Raphael Hunt complains against H. F. of a Plea, that he render to him 20 l. which he owes him, and unjustly detains, and whereof the same Plaintiff, by M. his Attorney, &c. whereas the Defendant, &c. It was holden by the Court to be no Declaration, for want of the word Dicit, and the sense is imperfect: And although it was objected, that the Declaration is sufficient, if it be good to a common intent, and Quer. being writ short, it may be Queritur, and then it is, and whereof the same complains: Yet the Court held, that would not help it; for it is not certain to which the word Item should refer, whether to the Plaintiff, or Defendant; and of the two, it should rather refer to the Defendant, which is the next Antecedent; and the Court held it matter of Substance which is wanting, and the Judgment was reversed. Mich. 5 Jac. in B. R. Field and Hunts Case Brownlow 1 Part, 96.

8. Debt by an Executor: For that the Testator and the Defendant accounted together, and the Defendant was found 94 l. in Arrearage, which he had not paid; The Writ was recited in the Declaration, and the Declaration supposed the account to be apud Exon. upon Non-debet, it was found for the Plaintiff. In stay of Judgment, it was moved, That the Original was in the County of Devon, supposing the account to be there, and all the matter there; so the Writ lies not upon this Declaration. Upon Examination it appeared, that there was not any in Exon. it was therefore prayed for stay of Judgment: But notwithstanding, the Court held, that the Plaintiff should have Judgment; for this is not any Original for this Action in the County of Exon.; and so it shall be taken, as if there had been no Original, and to be within the purview of the Statute; and so it was said it was adjudged in B. R, where in Trespas of Battery, the Bill upon the File was in London, and supposed the fact to be at London, and the Declaration was in Middlesex. In that Case it was holden, That because it was no Bill for this Declaration, and within the Equity of the Statute, it was adjudged for the Plaintiff; although it was objected it varies from the Declaration, and doth not warrant it. Mich. 21 Jac. in C. B. Reynell and Kilseys Case. Cro. 2 Part, 674, 675. See Hill. 20 Jac. in B. R. Calthrop and Culpeppers Case. Cro. 2 Part, 654, acc.

9. Debt upon the Statute of 2 E. 6. for not setting forth of Tythes. The Plaintiff declared, That J. S. Parson of the Rectory of S. let him the Rectory for six years, if he lived so long, and continued Parson there. And that the Defendant being an Occupier of Lands within the Parish sowed with Wheat, reaped and carried away the same, the Tythes not set forth; and averred the life of J. S. and that he continued Parson. It was found by Verdict, That the Parson made the Lease for six years, if he so long lived, and that the words (If he continued Parson) were not within the Leafe. It was the Opinion of all the Justices, That the Variance betwixt the Lease and the Declaration, and the Leafe found, was not any prejudice, for it is all one in substance, and the addition in the Declaration (If he so long continue Parson) is no more then the Law tacitè implyes: Also the Lease is not the ground of the Action, but the taking away of the Tythes, and for remedy of the wrong, the Action is, and the allegation of the Leafe is but an Inducement to the Action. But if Debt had bin brought upon the Leafe for years, perhaps such variance would have bin material, because the Leafe is the ground of the Action. Mich. 11 Jac. in B. R. Wheeler and Heydons Case. Cro. 8. Part, 328.

10. In Covenant, the Plaintiff declared, That William K. the Defendant, and one A. K. enfeoffed him of certain Lands in W. reciting thereby, That one Robert K. by his Will in writing, devised those Lands to him in Fee, and Covenanted with the Plaintiff, That he and the said A. K. haberent virtute predict. voluntatis plenam potestatem, bonum jus, &c. to allien the said Lands to the Plaintiff. And for breach assigned, That Robert K. dyed seised of the Lands, and made not any Will; whereby the Lands discended to J. K. his Heir at Law, who entred and expelled the Plaintiff. The Defendant demurred, because the Declaration varies from the Indenture, because the Covenant is in this manner. And the said William K. and T. K. (whereas T. K. was not party to the Indenture, nor sealed the same) do Covenant for them and their Heirs, to, and with the Plaintiff, That they the said William K. and A. K. now have, his Heirs and Assigns by force and vertue of the said Will, do own full power, good right, and lawfull Authority to allien, &c. and for this Variance, it was said, The Declaration was not good, for the Covenant is void and insensible. But the Opinion of the Court was, That the Declaration was good, and the Addition of Tho. K. in the Covenant was idle, he being no party, and his words in the Covenant, his Heirs and Aſſigns by force, &c. do own, &c. being inſenſible, the party omitting them in the Declaration, and reciting the Covenant in that which was ſenſible, was good enough. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Trin. 11 Jac. in B. R. Goodman and Knights Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 358, 359.

Heirs

11. In an Action upon the Caſe for ſcandalous words, the Defendant denyed the ſpeaking of the words, and traverſed abſque hoc, that he ſpake the words as they are layed in the Declaration. The Jury upon a Special Verdict, found the words to be theſe, ſpoken by the Defendant, ſcil. I think in my Conſcience, if Sir John Sydenham might have his will, he would kill all the true Subjects of England, and the King too; and he is a maintainer of Popiſhry. The Jury do find the words in the Declaration, but they do further add unto them theſe words, which they likewiſe find, which he then alſo ſpake (I think in my Conſcience). It was objected, The words in the Declaration are abſolute in the affirmative, but the Jury have found words which are not abſolutely in the affirmative, viz. I think in my Conſcience; and if this be a Variance, was the Queſtion, ſo as the Plaintiff cannot have Judgment. The Court was of Opinion, That this was no material Variance; and the omitting of them in the Declaration being but Circumſtances; and the adding of the words by the Jury, is not ſuch a Variance as is material: For all is found by the Verdict which he did ſpeak, et aliquid amplius, which doth aggravate, and nothing alter the words before. Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Mich. 14 Jac. in B. R. Sir John Sydnham and Mayes Caſe. Bolſtr. 3. Part, 260.

12. Error to reverſe a Judgment in C. B. in Treſpaſs and Ejectment. The Plaintiff declared upon the Imparlance Roll upon a Leaſe made 21 Jan. 10 Jac. Habendum 20 December in the ſame year, for four years. And upon the Iſſue Roll he declared upon a Leaſe made 30. Jan. 10 Jac. Habendum à viceſimo Decembris in the ſame year for four years. Upon Not Guilty, the Jury gave a Special Verdict for the Plaintiff upon the latter Leaſe, 30. Jan. And Judgment given for the Plaintiff. Error was brought. The Queſtion was, Whether theſe by intendment might be taken for one and the ſame Leaſe. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That the ſecond Leaſe doth vary from the firſt, and therefore cannot be intended to be the ſame Leaſe. And if upon the Imparlance, the Plaintiff doth declare in Debt, and upon the Plea Roll he declares in Treſpaſs, and hath Judgment, it is a materiall Variance in a Writ of Error to reverſe it. Trin. 14 Jac. in B. R. Milward and Wath's Caſe. Bolſtr. 3. Part, 213.

13. In Covenant brought againſt Leſſee for years; the Plaintiff declared, That the Defendant had Covenanted, That he would not cut down more Timber growing upon the Lands demiſed then ſufficient for needfull and neceſſary Reparations of the houſes and buildings let to him. And aſſigned for breach, That he had cut down Timber to the value of 10 l. and had converted them to his proper uſe. A Verdict and Judgment being againſt the Defendant: He brought Error, and aſſigned there was Variance between the Covenant expreſſed in the Leaſe, and the Covenant in the Declaration; and ſo a Judgment was not given upon a breach of the Covenant expreſſed in the Leaſe, viz. That he ſhould not cut down more Timber then was neceſſary for Reparations; for by this breach the Plaintiff ſuppoſeth that the Defendant had Covenanted not to cut down any Timber to imploy to his own uſe, which is not the Covenant expreſſed in the Leaſe; and although the Defendant had cut down Timber, and converted it to his own uſe, this was not a breach of the Covenant expreſſed in the Indenture, except it be averred he cut down more then was neceſſary for Reparations; and ſuch was the Opinion of the Court, and the Judgment was reverſed. Hill. 21 Jac. in B. R. Wingfield and Sherwood's Caſe. Style 5.

Venditioni Exponas.

1. A. Being Defendant in Debt at the Suit of J. S. A Fieri facias iſſued to the Sheriff to levy the Debt for J. S. The Sheriff by force of the Fieri facias ſeiſed the goods, but did not return the Writ. Afterwards the Sheriff was diſcharged of his Office, and a new Sheriff made. The old Sheriff after his diſcharge, ſold the goods to the Defendant, againſt whom A. brought an Action of Trover and Converſion: It being found for the Plaintiff, It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That the Sale made by the old Sheriff after his diſcharge, was void, becauſe his Authority ceaſed with his Office. And in Caſe where the Sheriff hath ſeiſed the goods by Writ of Execution, and after is diſcharged, he ought to turn over the goods to the new Sheriff, as he doth the Priſoners; and by ſeizure of the goods, the property of the Owner is not altered, for the ſeizure is not the Execution, but the beginning of it, and the Sheriff after ſuch ſeizure ought to return the Writ executed in tanto, and cannot by Law deliver them to the Plaintiff. For as the Writ of Execution is Warranted by the Roll, ſo ought the diſcharge and executing of it appear by Record; and the Sheriff after the Seizure, although he continueth in his Office, cannot ſell the goods without a Writ de Venditioni Exponas; and that is not grantable untill it appears by the Retorn of the Sheriff, quod remanent pro defectu Emptorum. Hill. 2 Jac. in B. R. Ayer and Aden's Caſe. Yelverton, 44. See Cook 2. Part, 73. the ſame Caſe.

2. In a Scire facias to have Execution, the Sheriff retorned, That by vertue of a Writ of Fieri Facias, he took the goods in Execution ad valentiam 11 l. which remained in poſſeſſion for want of buyers, and that they were reſcued out of his poſſeſſion. Mountague and Dodderidge Juſtices were of Opinion, That the Plaintiff ſhould have Execution againſt the Sheriff, and that by this Retorn he had concluded himſelf, and was lyable to the value of 11 l. And they took a difference where the Sheriff by vertue of the Writ of Venditioni Exponas ſells the thing under the value, there he ſhall be diſcharged, but otherwiſe where he ſells the goods Ex Officio. Crook and Haughton Juſtices ſaid, That the Plaintiff ſhall not have a Scire facias againſt the Sheriff, but where he hath the money in his purſe, and that the Plaintiff muſt have a Diſtringas directed to the new Sheriff, or a Venditioni Exponas. The Court was divided in Opinion. Quære idem. Hill. 16 Jac. in B. R. Slye's Caſe. Godbolt, 276.

3. Judgment was given in Debt in the Common Pleas againſt the Defendant. Error brought, and the Judgment was affirmed, and thereupon a Fieri facias directed to the Sheriff, who levyed the money and dyed, the Writ not being retorned. Whereupon Debt was brought againſt his Executors. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That Debt would lye againſt the Sheriff where he ſells goods upon a Fieri facias, for that he in Law is now become Debtor, and the Defendant is diſcharged againſt the Plaintiff; and a difference was taken betwixt ſeiſure of goods only, and where the Sheriff ſeiſeth and ſelleth the goods, for till ſale, no debt will lye againſt him. Alſo it was agreed, That Debt will lye againſt his Executors, and a difference taken where the wrong is ex malefitio, for there it dyeth with the perſon, and where it is ex contractu; for there it doth not dye with the perſon. Alſo it was ſaid, That in this Caſe the Sheriff could not have waged his Law, for that the Debt is brought upon matter of Record. And it was ſaid, That it was reaſon to charge the Sheriff in this Caſe; and ſo by conſequent his Executor, becauſe that the Defendant is diſcharged, and may plead, That his goods were taken in Execution by the Sheriff in ſatisfaction of the ſame Debt, and the Executors may be charged, becauſe no wager of Law lyeth, becauſe the Debt is brought here upon matter of Record. And ſo it was ſaid it was adjudged in Speke's Caſe in C. B. Paſc. 15 Car. in B.R. Parkinſon and Cakiſord's Caſe. Mariſh. 13.

4. Note, It was holden by the whole Court, That if a Writ of Fieri facias iſſueth forth to the Sheriff to levy money in Execution, and the Sheriff levyeth the money, and delivers it to the party, and doth not retorn his Writ. In that Caſe, That the party may ſue forth a new Writ of Execution, or elſe he may have his Action againſt the Sheriff for the money; and the Sheriff in ſuch Caſe cannot plead, That he hath delivered over the money to the party, for it doth not appear that the ſame was delivered in Execution to the party, unleſs the Writ be retorned in Court. For the words of the Writ are Ita quod habeas Denarios hic in Curia. And if the Sheriff levy the Execution upon goods, and ſelleth the goods, and doth not retorn his Writ, he is chargeable to the party; for he ought not to ſell the goods but by Writ of Venditioni Exponas, if they remain in his hands, and that upon his retorn, that that they remain in his hands for want of Buyers. Paſc. 3 Jac. in C. B. Gages Caſe adjudged.

Venire facias: Viſne, or Venue.

1. Where good, where not. Where well awarded; and from what Place, Town, it muſt be; from what not: And where and in what Caſe Venire facias de novo ſhall be awarded; What not.

1. ERror was brought to reverſe a Judgment. And the Error aſſigned was, For that the Suit was commenced, 35 Eliz. And the Venire facias to try the Iſſue bore date, 33 Eliz. It was ſaid, That a Venire facias which bears date 33 Eliz. cannot poſſibly be to try an Iſſue which is in 35 Eliz. which is two years after; and therefore here is no Venire facias, and ſo it is holpen by the Statute of 18 Eliz. after Verdict. But it was ſaid, That this was one Yorks Caſe, which was adjudged in this Court, That it was not helped by the ſaid Statute. Mich. 40 Eliz. in B. R. Boyer and Jenkins Caſe. Goldesbr. 118.

2. In a Replevin, they were at Iſſue upon a Preſcription for Common in N. appendant to Land in another, and the Venue was of N. only. And it was found for the Plaintiff, and he prayed his Judgment, for that the Tryal might be in the one place aſwell as in the other. But the Opinion of the Court was, That it ought to be from both places when the matter ariſeth in both; and if they had bin in ſeveral Counties, the Counties ought to have joyned. Then it was ſaid, That it was after Verdict. But the Court ſaid, That the Verdict did not amend the matter, if the Iſſue be miſ-Tryed, as it is in this Caſe. Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Knight's Caſe. Goldesbr. 38.

3. Aſſumpſit, the Plaintiff declared, That in conſideration of 10 l. the Defendant aſſumed to make two lights into one. Upon Non-Aſſumpſit, they were at Iſſue: and the Record of the Niſi Prius was to make two Lights, and one where it ought to be into one. And upon that the Plaintiff was Non ſuit. It was moved, Whether he might have a new Venire facias upon the firſt Iſſue, inſomuch as the Venire facias did not iſſue forth upon the firſt Record. The Opinion of the Court was, That he might go to a new Tryall. But whether he ſhould have a Venire facias de novo, or that the old Venire ſhould ſerve, the Court doubted, for that the firſt Jury was ſworn. Mich. 40 Eliz. in C. B. Shelt and Wrights Caſe. Goldesbr. 136.

4. Debt upon the Statute of 2 E. 6. for Tythes. The Plaintiff declared, That one was ſeiſed of the Rectory of Eveley, alias Kirkley, in Kingſton upon Hull in his Demeſne as of Fee, and ſo ſeiſed ſuch a day and year at Eveley, alias Kirkley, demiſed to the Plaintiff the ſaid Rectory for years; by vertue whereof he hath bin, and yet is poſſeſſed, and the Defendant ſuch a day, and before and afterwards held and occupied 30 Acres of Land in S. in Kingſton, in a place called F. and that the Tythes did belong unto him. The Defendant pleaded, Nil debet per patriam. After Verdict in Arreſt of Judgment, it was moved, That the Iſſue was miſtryed, becauſe the Venire facias was of Eveley alias Kirkley, whereas it ſhould be of S. where the Tythes grew; and ſuch was the Opinion of the Court. Paſc. 44 Eliz. in C. B. Cooper and Batons Caſe. Brownlow 1. Part, 76.

5. In a Replevin for taking of Cattel at A. in a place called R. the Defendant avowed Damage feaſants. The Plaintiff in bar ſaid, That he was ſeiſed of a Meſſuage, &c. in C. in the Pariſh of A. and preſcribed for Common. After Tryall, it was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That the Venire facias was ill awarded, becauſe it was of A. only: and ſuch was the Opinion of the Court. And in that Caſe it was ſaid, That at C. or in C. implyed a Village, and therefore the Venire facias ought to have bin of C. and A. to which the Preignotories agreed. Trin. 9 Jac. in C. B. Francis and Forteſts Caſe. Brownlow 1. Part. 176.

6. In Treſpaſs againſt S. and others for entring his Cloſe. Judgment was entred againſt D. one of the Defendants by Nihil Dicit. S. pleaded, Not Guilty. A Venire faciat was awarded upon the Roll between the parties, as well to try the Iſſue, as to enquire of the damages. The Plaintiffs took out their Venire facias to try the Iſſue between the two Defendants, and the two Plaintiffs. And according to that was the Habeas Corpus and Diſtringas: But the Plaintiffs knowing D. to be dead, took their Record of Niſi Prius againſt S. only, and he was found guilty. In ſtay of Judgment, it was ſhewed, That there was no Iſſue joyned betwixt the Plaintiffs and D. for the Judgment was given againſt him him by Nihil dicit, and the Niſi Prius ought to have mentioned the Iſſue only betwixt the Plaintiffs and S. and there ought to have bin an Enquiry of damages between the Plaintiffs and D. according to the Award upon the Roll, which is the Warrant for the Venire facias; and of that Opinion was the whole Court, except Williams Juſtice, who relyed upon 9 Eliz. Dyer, Cook and Wortons Caſe; where in Partition againſt two, one confeſſed the Action, and the other pleaded to Iſſue: And the Venire facias was to try the Plaintiffs, and the two Defendants, and by the Opinion of the Court it was amended. But to that it was anſwered, That there was a difference between that Caſe and this, for no damages are to be recovered in a Partition, but it is otherwiſe in Treſpaſs; and therefore it was ſaid, That in that Caſe, it was as if a ſtranger had bin named in the Venire facias. Mich. 5 Jac. in B. R. Sands and Scullards Caſe. Brownlow, 1. Part, 209.

7. Treſpaſs againſt P. and his Servant, for breaking his Cloſe, and taking a Cow at P. in the County of B. One of the Defendants pleaded, Not Guilty: The Servant pleaded, That the Plaintiff held of Sir Peter P. as of, &c. in the County aforeſaid, and for ſervice behind by the command of his Maſter, he ſeiſed the Cow. The Plaintiff traverſed, &c. and one Venire facias was awarded out of both Villages; and being found for the Plaintiff. In ſtay of Judgment it was ſaid, That the Venire facias ought to be awarded, becauſe the Iſſue is of things in ſeveral places. For if there be ſeveral Iſſues in one place, one Jury ſhall be only impanelled; but if in ſeveral places, ſeveral things local, ſeveral Venires ſhall be. The Court was of Opinion, that one Jury ſhould be only impanelled, and one Venue ſhould be awarded out of both places, and it is all one as if it had bin in one place; but otherwiſe if it had bin in ſeveral Counties. Mich. 21 Jac. in B. R. Fuller and Petteſworths Caſe. Brownlow 1. Part, 229.

8. E. W. did recover her Dower in the Common Pleas, in which Writ ſhe demanded tertiam partem Manerii de D. nec non tertiam partem quarundam terrarum jacent. in H. And upon Ne unque ſeiſique Dower; the parties were at Iſſue, and the Venire facias award of H. and it was found for the Plaintiff, and Judgment given. Upon Error brought in B. R. It was aſſigned, That it was a Miſ-Tryal, for that the Venire facias ought to have bin de Manerio. See 6 H. 7. 3. Yet it was holden good for the Land in H. And it was alſo holden, That it being found, that the Husband was ſeiſed De Manerio de D. that now the Tryall was good for the whole. Paſc. 21 Jac. in B. R. Wrotſley and Candiſhes Caſe. Godbolt, 257.

9. Treſpaſs for entring his Cloſe, abutted on one ſide with Pancras, and butted on the other ſide Graves-Inn Lane. Upon Not Guilty, the parties were at Iſſue, and the Record of Niſi Prius was Grayes-Inn Lane, and the Plaintiff was Non-ſuit. It was moved to have a Venire facias de novo. And 9 Jac. Rott. 1349. Farthing and Duppers Caſe was vouched in the point. It was ſaid by Lea Chief Juſtice, You cannot have a new Venire facias if the Nonſuit be recorded. And if the Record of Niſi Prius varieth from the Record, then it can be no Nonſuit, becauſe there is no Record upon which the Nonſuit can be, and the Niſi Prius was proſecuted without Warrant and Judicial proceſs are of Record, becauſe they are by the Award of the Court. But if the Tranſcript of a Record be miſtaken by a Clark, it iſſueth out by the Award of the Court; and if it vary, then it is no Record. I conceive there is a difference where the Jury is ſworn, as it is in the Preſident, and then the Plaintiff is Nonſuit; but in the Principal Caſe, the Plaintiff was Nonſuit before the Jury was ſworn. But the whole Court ſaid to Lea Chief Juſtice, the Caſe is the ſtronger to have a new Tryall. Trin. 21 Jac. in B. R. Young and Englefield's Caſe. Godbolt, 328.

10. The parties were at Iſſue in the Chancery, and a Venire facias was awarded out of the Chancery to try the Iſſue, and it was Quod Vicecomes faciat coram, &c. duodecim Liberos et legales homines de vicineto de &c. quorum quilibet habeat quatuor libras Terre, Tenementorum vel redditus per annum ad minus, per quos rei veritas melius ſciri poterit. It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That the Venire facias was not well awarded, For it ought to be Quorum quilibet habeat quadraginta ſolidos terre, Tenementorum vel reddit. per annum ad minus according to the Statute of 35 H. 8. which appoints that every one of the Jurours ought by Law to expend 40 s. per annum of Freehold, and it ought not to be Quatuor Libr. terre according to the Statute of 27 Eliz. cap. 6. It was ſaid by the Juſtices, That it was a plain Caſe, For the Venire facias ought to be according to the Statute of 35 H. 8. becauſe the Statute of 27 Eliz. ſpeaks nothing of the Chancery, but only of the Courts of Kings Bench, Common Pleas, and the Exchequer: Wherefore the Venire facias in the Caſe at bar was not well awarded. Trin. 16 Jac. in B. R. Philpot and Feilder's Caſe. Godbolt, 334.

11. Ejectione firme of a houſe in Rochester. The Ejectment was layed to be of a houſe which was in Auſtrali parte vicie Anglice the High ſtreet. It was ſaid by the Chief Juſtices, If it had bin ex Auſtrali parte vici, then the South part had bin but a boundary, but here it was well laid. Then it was moved, That the Venire facias is Duodecim liberos & legales homines de Winton, and doth not say of any Parish of Winton. But notwithstanding that, it was holden good. For it is not like Arundell's Case, Cook 6 Part, for there the Offence was laid to be done in Parochia Sanctæ Margaretæ de Winchester; and therefore the Visne ought to be of the Parish: But in this Case, it being laid generally in Winton, it is sufficient if the Visne come out of Winton. Trin. 21 Jac. in B. R. Howet and Pyrt Case. Godbolt. 335.

12. Error was brought, and Error assigned; That an Action was laid in Lancestion, and the Venire facias was awarded de vicineto de Lancestion. It was said, That the Neighbour-hood might be of those, of which the Maior and Baliffs had no power; viz. those out of their Jurisdiction; and there the Venire facias was mis-awarded. See 19 Jac. in C. B. Barkley's Case. There the Venire facias was, De vicineto Civitatis Eborum; and well enough, for vicineto shall imply those within the Jurisdiction, and not the Neighbour-hood. See 19 Jac. Proffer and Clifford's Case adjudged contrary. Where it was Venire facias de vicineto Civitatis Coventry, and adjudged not good; for it ought to be, De vicineto Coventry. Doderidge Justice, said, That Vicinetto goeth about the Precinct: And he said, That when he was a Counsellor, he then moved for Bristol; and to maintain it good De tribus de Bristol; but in the Lease it was rated, that it was not good, but that it ought to be de Civitate Bristol. 13. In a Prohibition, the Case was: Queen Elizabeth was seized of the Manor of N, which did extend into four Parishes, viz. Stangrave, and three others. The Plaintiff shewed, That he was seized of three Closes in Stangrave, and prescribed that the said Queen, and all those whose Estate he had in the said three Closes, had a Modus Decimandi, for the said three Closes, and for all the Demaines of the said Manor in Stangrave. And whether the Venire facias should be de Parochia de Stangrave, or de Manerio, was the Question. It was resolved by the whole Court, That the Visne should be of the Parish of Stangrave, and not of the Manor; and the difference was taken, when one claims any thing which goes to the whole Manor, and where only to parcell of it; for in the one Case, the Visne shall be of the Manor, and in the other not. See 9 Eliz. Dyer. In the Principal Case it was observed, that the Pleading was, That the Manor was in Parochia, and the Modus alledged to be in Parochia, and the Prohibition de Parochia; and therefore the Venire facias ought to be de Parochia, and not de Manerio, or de Villa. And Cook cited 4 Eliz. 4. and 23 Eliz. 4. That in Trespas, de Parochia is a good addition; for it shall not be intended, that there are two Owners in one Parish. Mich. 11 Jac. in C. B. Norton and Lyster's Case. Godbolt 203.

14. Action upon the Case. Whereas the Under-Stewardship of the Courts of the Manor of K, and other the Manors of the Bishop of G, was anciently an Office for terme of life, with the Fee of 3*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* per annum. And whereas a former Bishop of G. had granted to the Plaintiff the said Office for life, with the Fee payable yearly at Mich. and our Lady, issuing out of the said Manor; that the Bishop dyed, and the Plaintiff set forth, that he was ready to keep the Courts of the now Bishop, but that the Defendant pretending a grant to be made to him from the Bishops Successor, disturbed him from seizing of them; upon Not guilty, it was found for the Plaintiff. Many Exceptions were taken, both to the Grant, and also to the Declaration, which were over-ruled by the Court. See Libr. It was then moved, That here was a Mis-tryal, the disturbance being alledged to be in the Court at K; and so the other Courts, where more Vills are, and the Tryal being per vicinetum of the Mannors, whereas it ought to be of the Vills wherein the Mannors are; and therefore it was not ayded by the Statute of 21 Jac. But the Court held, That in regard some of the Manners are alledged to be within those Vills, and the Venue being of the Mannors, it shall be good by the Statute, although it were of fewer, or more Places then it ought to be: Judgment was for the Plaintiff. Mich. 1 Car. in C. B. Cook and Youngers Case. Cro. 1 Part, 11.

15. Error to reverse a Judgment in C. B. an Ejectione firmæ. The Error assigned was, for that I. C. apud D, demisit a House, and 40 Acres of Lands in B; per nomina omnium Messuagiorum, Terrarum & Tenementorum suorum in Parochia de D, seu alibi in Comitatu K. Upon Not guilty, it was surmised, That the Parish of D. is in Rumney within one of the 5 Parishes; ubi breve Domini Regis non currit; and that A. is the next Village adjoyning thereunto, in the said County of K: Whereupon, a Venire facias was awarded, De vicineto de A; and it was found for the Plaintiff. It was assigned for Error, that the Venire facias was mis-awarded, and that it was a Mis-tryal not ayded by the Statute; for it ought to be, that D. is within the 5 Parishes, and not that the Parish of B. is within the Cinque-Ports; for D. may be a Village of it self. But the Court held, That the the Vill and Parish are intended all one, unless the contrary be shewed, and that it is not Error: The Judgment was affirmed. Pasc. 4 Car. in B. R. Bath. and Gilberts Case. Cro. 1 Part, 102.

16. Error brought of a Judgment in B. R, in an Assumpsit, where a Verdict and Judgment was for the Plaintiff: The Error assigned was, That the Issue was joyned, Trin. 2 Car. and the Venire facias bears date, Quarto die Maij, which was before the Issue joyned; so as that the Tryal was ill thereupon. And upon a Writ of Certiorari, upon Diminution, alledged to certifie the Venire facias, and the Distringas, they certified, That the Writ et Venire facias, which was of the Date 4. Maij, which was in Easter Term: But the Error was not allowed by the Court, for the Court shall intend there was no other Venire facias, and the Roll awarding the Venire facias being good, the mis-dating of it is no cause to stay the Judgment: The Judgment was affirmed. Mich. 3 Car. in Exchequer Chamber. Moor and Hodge's Case. Cro. 1 Part, 64.

17. W. Keeper of the Gate-house, was sued in an Action upon the Case, for suffering I. S. to escape, who was in Execution upon a Judgment, Trin. 2 Car. He Pleaded Not guilty in London, and it was found by Nisi Prius: and because the Record of the Nisi Prius mentions the Judgment to be Trin. 3 Car., which was a mis-prision of the Record, the Plaintiff was Nonsuit. It was now moved for the Plaintiff, That by reason of this mis-prision, the Record of the Nisi Prius is not warranted by the Roll; and the Nonsuit being thereupon null, the Postea shal not be Recorded, nor Entred: Wherefore it was prayed, that a Distringas de Novo might be awarded; and by the Rule of the Court, upon shewing of Presidents, a Distringas was awarded. Mich. 6 Car. in B. R. Aquila Weeks Case. Cro. 1 Part, 147.

18. Assumpsit A. was seized of Lands in C, in the County of K. 21 May, 1631. in Fee; and was in Communication with the Plaintiff to sell the same for such a summ. That the Defendant, Ad tunc & ibidem, viz. Prædict. 21. die Maij, Anno 1631. apud London, in Parochia, &c. in consideration of such a summ promised, &c. upon Non Assumpsit. The Tryal was in London, Exception was taken that it was a Mis-tryal, not ayded by any of the Statutes; for it ought to have been in Kent, where the Land lyeth, and whereby the Ad tunc & ibidem, the promise is; and the Venue cannot be altered; and of that Opinion was the whole Court, and that the viz. was idle, and could not alter it: A Venire facias de Novo was awarded. Mich. 8 Car. in B. R. Delves and Clarks Case. Cro. 1 Part, 207.

19. An Assumpsit was laid at Maidston in the County of Kent, and upon Non-Assumpsit pleaded, the Venire facias was de vicinet Villa & Parochia de Maidston; and thereupon a Tryal. It was the Opinion of the Court, that it was Error, and an insufficient Tryal; for that the Tryal ought not to be of a larger precinct, then the Plaintiff himself supposeth the Substance of his matter to be. Mich. 5 Jac. in B. R. Parkhurst and Palmers Case. Yelverton. 104.

20. Debt upon the Statute of 2 E. 6. for not setting forth of Tythes. Issue being joyned upon Nihil debet, and the Parson in his Declaration, shewing that he was Parson de Parva Lavar, in the County of Essex, and that the Defendant had so many Acres of Land, infra Parochiam de Parva Lavar, sowed with Wheat, &c.; the Defendant at Parva Lavar, took and carryed away the Wheat, not setting forth of the Tythe of it. Being found for the Plaintiff, amongst other Exceptions, it was moved, That the matter was mis-tryed, and that ought to be a new Tryal; because the Venire facias was de Parva Lavar, where it ought to have been de Parochia de Parva Lavar. It was the Opinion of the Court, upon great deliberation had, That the Tryal was good; for by this Action, no damages are demanded, or recovered; but the Defendant only punished for the contempt against the Statute, in not setting forth of his Tythes; and this wrong of which the Plaintiff complains, is laid only in the Town of Parva Lavar, and not in the Parish. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Pasc. 6 Jac. in B. R. Oliver and Collins Case. Yelverton. 127. And so it was said, it was adjudged in Barnard and Cotterdams Case.

21. In Trespass. The Plaintiff declared for taking of certain Corn, Hay, &c. severed from the 9 parts at E, in the County of W. The Defendant, as to part of the Tythes, pleaded Not guilty, and Issue joyned upon it; and as to other part, pleaded a Devise of the Parsonage, wherein, &c. from T. L. to the Defendant, at W. in the same County; and to enable the Devise of the Tythes in E. alledged, E. to be a Hamlet of W; to the end that all the Tythes might pass: and upon Non Devisavit, being at Issue, the Visne was only from W, and found for the Plaintiff; Quod T. L. non devisavit: And the other Issue of Not guilty, they found for the Defendant. It was moved in stay of Judgment, That the Venue was mistaken, because it was from W. only, and not of E; and those of W, cannot tryt a matter in E. And although it was answered, That Trespass lyeth of a Trespass in a Hamlet, and it is confessed that E. is a Hamlet; yet it was the Opinion of the Court, that that it was a miſ-tryal, for when the Plaintiff declares generally of a Treſpaſs in E, it ſhall be preſumed to be a Town; of which Town, the matter in Iſſue ought to be Tryed: And although the Defendant hath confeſſed E. to be a Hamlet, that is only to enable the Deviſe, and not to extend to the other Iſſue before: A Venire facias de Novo was awarded. Mich. 3 Jac. in B. R. Leyworth and Wyth Caſe. Yelverton. 77. See Cro. 2 Part, 86. the ſame Caſe.

22. In a Replevin, for taking 4 Oxen at C, in the County of L, in a place called Dowgate-Leys; The Defendant ſaid, That the place contained 4 Acres of Paſtures in C. Magna, which was his Free-hold, and juſtified, damage feaſants: The Plaintiff in bar ſaid, that the place where, &c. lyeth in a place called Have-acre-Quarter, parcel of a great Common-field, called Raſſfield, in C. prædict. Camp, the Plaintiff at the time aforeſaid, was ſeized in Fee of a Meſſuage, and 14 Acres of Land, &c. to the ſaid Meſſuage belonging; and that the Plaintiff, and all thoſe, whoſe Eſtates he preſcribed to have Common for him, his Farmers, and Tenants, in loco in quo, &c. pro omnibus averiis communicabilibus ſuper tenement. prædict. Levant and Couchant. And upon that, Iſſue was taken upon the Common, and found for the Plaintiff: In ſtay of Judgment it was moved, That it doth not appear by the barr, in what place the Meſſuage and Land, to which the Common did appertain, did lye, whether in C, or in another Town or County; and that of neceſſity ought certainly to be ſhewed, becauſe the Venue ought to be from the place where the Meſſuage and Land lyeth, as well as from the place where the Land in which the Common is claimed; and therefore it ſhall not of neceſſity be intended in C, where the Common is, for that Common may be appendant, or appurtenant to Land in another County; and for this Caſe, the Judgment was ſtayed, and a Repleader awarded. Trin. 8 Jac. in B. R. Broxolme and Thwaits Caſe. Yelverton. 177.

23. In a Replevin. The Defendant avowed, becauſe the Plaintiff held certain Land in D. of him by Fealty, and certain Rent, as of his Manner of D, and for ſuch ſervice behind, he avowed the taking of the Cattel: The Iſſue being joyned upon the Tenure, a Venire facias was awarded to D, and it was found for the Avowant, and Judgment given in C. B, and Error was brought and aſſigned, That the Venire facias ought to have been as well of the Manner of D, as of thoſe of D; for Notice upon Tryal (the Iſſue being upon the Tenure) ariſeth as fully out of the Manner, as out of D. Note, In the Principal Caſe, the place where the Land lay, was called Kingſdown, and the Manner of which the Tenure was, was called the Manner of Kingſdown; and thereupon this difference was taken, That where the Tenant holds his Land as of a Manner, and where he holds his Land of a Signory in groſſe; for where the Avowant hath but a Signory in groſſe, there the Venue ſhall be only where the Land lyeth; But where, of the Manner which is Local, and which by intendment hath Free-hold by, there the Venue ſhall be as well from the Manner, as from the place where the Land lyeth. Alſo it was agreed, That where it appeareth by the Record, the Land to lye in D, and to be holden of the Manner of D. in D, and where of the Manner of D. only; for in the firſt Caſe, the Venire of D. is ſufficient, becauſe it appeareth the Land, and the Manner to be in D; but in the other Caſe, the Venire ought to be of both; becauſe it doth not appear that the Manner and Land do lye in one Town; and the Manner of D. may be in S. or V. as well as in D; and for this cauſe, it was holden to be Error in the principal Caſe, and the Judgment was Reverſed. Mich. 45 Eliz. in B. R. Lovelaces Caſe. Yelverton. 26.

24. In Debt for Rent, the Plaintiff declared, That ſhe by Deed demiſed to the Defendant, a Capital Meſſuage, Manner, or Houſe, called C, in the Pariſh of D, in the County of W. The Defendant proteſtando that the Rent was not behinde, ſaid, That before any Rent arear, the Plaintiff entred into ſeveral parts of the Houſe, and him diſpoſſeſſed; upon which Iſſue was joyned, and the Venire facias was de vicineto de C, within the Pariſh of D. It was moved, That the Venire ſhould be of the Pariſh only, and not of C; for that C. is not alledged as a Town, but the name of the Houſe. But the Court reſolved, the Venire was good; for C. is alledged as a Town in the Pariſh of D: And Hobart, Juſtice, ſaid, That it had been often adjudged, That on the allegation of a thing, to be done at the Town of D. in the Pariſh of S, that the Venire facias of the Pariſh is good; for though the Pariſh may contain many Towns, yet it is not preſumed, but that it is one Continent, if the contrary doth not appear by the Record: And ſo he ſaid it was holden. Paſc. 9 Jac. in the Lord Candiſh, and Sir George Savels Caſe. Mich. 15 Jac. in C. B. Dorrel and Andrewes Caſe. Hutton. 6.

25. Action upon the Caſe. The Plaintiff declared, That whereas he is, and, by the ſpace of 20 years paſt, hath been an Inhabitant within the Town of Long L. in the Pariſh of B; and whereas the Inhabitants of Long L, time out of mind, uſed to make a Common-way, as well for Foot-men, as Horſe-men, to go and ride from the ſaid Town of L, to the Parish-Church of B, to hear Divine Service in the said Church, and to carry Bodies, dying in the said Town, to the said Church, to be interred, modo & forma sequent. viz. &c. and shewes the way through diverse Closes in Long L, Little L, and G; and over the Church-yard of the said Church of B, and from thence unto the Church aforesaid, and backward &c. That the Defendant made a Ditch in one of the said Closes in G, and shewed disturbance. The Defendant pleaded Not guilty, and found for the Plaintiff. In stay of Judgment it was moved, That the Venire facias was of G. only. It was the Opinion of the Court, that the same should be quashed, and a new Venire from all the said four Towns. Hill. 12 Jac. in C. B. Reynor and Waterhouses Case. Hutton. 27. See Mich. 18 Jac. in C. B. Clark and Woods Case. Ibidem 39. how it varies, and in what, from this Case.

26. Note, and see, That it was holden and adjudged, that a Venire facias de vicinetto, of a place known in a Town, without making the Venue of the Town, was not good. Mich. 5 Car. in C. R. in Baker and Johnsons Case. Hutt. 105.

27. Error to reverse a Judgment in Debt. The Error assigned was, That there was a Mis-tryal, the Venire facias being mis-awarded. The Case was, The payment was to be made in Lincolns-Inn-Hall, and the Venire facias was from Holbourn; whereas it should have been of Lincolns-Inn, being the most certain place. The Court was of Opinion, That the Venire was well awarded; and said, That they never heard of any Venire to be of any of the Inns of Court,; and in the Principal Case, the payment was to be at Lincolns-Inn-Hall, in Holbourn; and then the Venire ought to be of Holbourn, for this is the Town: The Judgment was affirmed. Trin. 11 Jac. in B. R. Baker and Cherwes Case. Bolstr. 2 Part. 120.

28. In Trespass, the Case was: A Lease was made apud Cudworth, of the Land lying in Parochia de Cudworth, pradict. The Venire facias was, De vicinetu Parochiæ de Cudworth. It was urged, That it was a Mis-tryal, and the Venire facias not well awarded. The Lease was made at Cudworth. This is to be tryed by a Venire facias of the same Parish, which lyeth in Cudworth only. But it was answered, and resolved by the whole Court, that here was no Mis-tryal, but the Venire facias well awarded; (pradict.) Here is such an averment, as that of necessity it must be taken, That Cudworth the Town, and Cudworth the Parish, is all one; and if so, then the Venire facias of the one, or of the other, shall be good; but if the Parish be of a larger Continent than the Town, then it is otherwise. Mich. 44 Eliz. in B. R. between wright and whitington, in an Ejectione firmæ: The Lease there, upon which the Tryal was had, was made apud Abington, of Land lying in Burgo de Abington pradict. The Venire facias was, de vicinetu de Burg. de Abington pradict: This Tryal was held to be good, and the Venire facias to be well awarded; for pradict. makes this by intendment of Law to be all one. And Cook vouched a Case, which was in the Common Pleas: A man was bound to pay so much money, in the South-Porch of the Parish Church of D; he pleaded the payment of this money, in the South Porch of the Parish-Church of B, and doth not say in the Parish of D, but of D. pradict.; The Venire facias was, de Parochia Ecclesia Parochialis de D. If a Town be layed to be in a Parish, there the Venire facias is to be of the Town, not of the Parish; for this is a sure Maxim to be observed, That the Venire facias is alwayes to be from the place which is most certain, and a Town is more certain then a Parish, which may contain diverse Towns. In the principal Case, the whole Court agreed, that there was no mis-tryal, and that the Venire facias was well awarded: And Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Pasc. 12 Jac. in B. R. Vale and Fields Case. Bulstr. 3 Part, 209, 210.

29. Ejectione firmæ of the Rectory of A. in A. B. and C; the Defendant pleaded Not guilty, and the Visne came only out of A. It was adjudged an insufficient Tryal, and not remedyed by the Statute of 32 Hen. 8. or 18 Eliz.; for that it was resolved, That the Venue ought to have been of the three Towns. Cook 5 Part, 41. Bretons Case.

30. In an Indictment of Murther: The Murther was alledged to be done apud Civitatem Westminster, in Com. Midd. in Parochia Sancte Margaretæ; and for the Tryal, a Jury was returned De vicinetu Civitatis Westmonst. It was resolved, That the Tryal was insufficient; for the Venue ought to have been of the Parish, and not of the City; for a Parish is intended more certain than a City, and when a Parish is alledged to be in a City, the Venue shall come out of the Parish, and a Parish shall be intended lesser than a City; and alwayes the Tryal shall be from such place, as by presumption shall have best Consuance of the fact. Cook 6 Part, 14. Arundells Case.

31. Note: It was resolved by the Court, When a Jury returned by force of a Venire facias, to try any Issue, giveth a Verdict, which is accepted, and recorded by the Court, the Jurors are discharged for ever, and shall never be called again, to try the same Issue. But if the Verdict be so imper-

ſaid, that Judgment cannot be given upon it, that the Court ſhall award Venire facias de Novo, to try the ſame Iſſue by others. But if the Recognizors of an Aſſize give a Verdict, which is not well examined by the Juſtices, but is imperfect for default of good examination, there the Plaintiff ſhall have a Certificate of the Aſſize, and the imperfection ſhall be enquired of by the firſt Jurors; for the Recognizors of Aſſize, are not returned to try any Iſſue certain, and there is a Jury the firſt day, before any Plaint, Plea, or Iſſue; and there no new Proceſs can be awarded: for the Recognizors which are once returned, ſhall ſtand; becauſe they are returned upon the Original, and there becauſe the Aſſize is feſtinum remedium, the Plaintiff ſhall have a Certificate of the Aſſize, to ſupply the firſt imperfections. But when a Jury is returned upon a Venire facias, which is a Judicial Proceſs, to try a certain Iſſue, there the Court, if the Verdict be imperfect, ſhall award a new Judicial Proceſs, ſcil. a new Venire facias. 1 Cook 3 Part, 66. Lovedayes Caſe.

Venire facias miſ-awarded, where amended; and where, and for what other Miſtakes, or Cauſes, it ſhall be amended; and where, and for what not.

1. AFter a Verdict for the Plaintiff, for ſtay of Judgment, it was moved; That the name of the Sheriff was not endorſed to the Writ of Diſtringas with Niſi prius, and therefore was ill; for by the Statute of York, to every Venire facias, the name of the Sheriff ought to be endorſed. It was ſaid, that this being but a Judicial Proceſs, and the Venire facias well returned, the name of the Sheriff is not ſo neceſſary, and that it might be amended; as it was ſaid it was in the Caſe of an Habeas Corpus, in C. B. But all the Court held, That it was ill, and not amendable, nor aided by any of the Statutes of 32 Hen. 8. or 18 Eliz., and is all one with the Caſe of a Venire facias, where the name of the Sheriff is not thereunto, which hath often times been ruled to be ill; wherefore it was ruled that the Tryal was ill. Mich. 5 Jac. in B. R. Holdeſworth and Sir Steven Proctors Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 188.

2. Error of a Judgment in B. R. in Debt upon an Obligation: The Condition was, That if ſuch a one appeared in the Kings Bench the next Term following, and put in good Bail at the ſuit of H. H. that then, &c. He pleaded that the Term was adjourned to the Caſtle of Hartford, and that he there put in good Bail; upon which Iſſue was. It was found for the Plaintiff, and Judgment for him, and Error brought and aſſigned, becauſe the Venire facias was de vicineto, de Hartford, where it ought to have been de Caſtrum de Hartford. It was holden by all the Judges and Barons, to be a manifeſt Error; for Caſtro Hertford, is a diſtinct name of a place, as Manerium de Dale; and it is not like, where a thing is to be done at the Capital Meſſuage of B, there the Venue ſhall be of D; for that is intended to be all one with the Town. But Caſtrum Hartford is intended a diſtinct place by it ſelf. Paſc. 8 Jac. in B. R. Exchequer Chamber. Cuningham and Hugh Hares Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 234.

3. Error of a Judgment in the Court of Pipowders in Rochester in Debt. Amongſt many other Errors aſſigned, one was aſſigned; one being, That the Court, being (as it is the ſtyle of the Court) coram Majore, & duobus Concivibus. The Venire facias is made, returnable Coram I. S. Majore, vel deputato ſuo, & coram duobus Concivibus, at ſuch an Hour, which is not good; for it doth not appear, that either by Cuſtom or Charter, the Mayor might make a Deputy, or that Proceſs ſhould be returnable before the Deputy; and therefore the Venire facias was miſ-awarded, and not helped by the Statute of Jeofails. The Court ſeemed to encline to that Opinion, but wiſhed the Parties, that the Defendant ſhould put in new Bail, and the Plaintiff declare de Novo. Hill. 9 Jac. in B. R. Goodſon and Daffields Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 313.

5. Treſpaſs for entring into Land in Langgame. The Defendant pleaded, That the place where, is parcel of a Waſte, called Hope, in Langgame, and that the Earl of B. was ſeized in Fee of the Manor of Biſhops Taunton, where a Houſe, and 20 Acres of Land in Langgame is Copy-hold, and by cuſtom as a Copy-holder claimed Common of Eſtovers, in the ſaid Waſte, called the Hope, &c. and ſo juſtified. The Iſſue was upon the Cuſtom, and found for the Plaintiff, that there was no ſuch Cuſtom. It was objected, That the Tryal was good; for the Copy-hold being in Langgame, and the place where being in Langgame, they in Langgame may well try that Cuſtom; for the one part of the Manor, may well know the Cuſtoms of the other part. But it was holden by all the Juſtices, that it was a miſ-tryal; for the Venue ought to be of the place as the extent of the Iſſue, and the Iſſue being, Whether there were ſuch a Cuſtome within the Manner. The Manner may extend into divers Towns, and therefore the Venire facias ought to be of the Manor, and not of the particular Town within the Manor. Mich. 11 Jac. in B. R. the Earl of Bedford's Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 329.

5. Error to reverſe a Judgment in B. R. becauſe the Bill was filed dic Mercur. poſt Octab. Purific. which was upon the 12th of Feb. and the Venire facias bore date 30. Feb. which was before the Bill filed, or any Iſſue joyned; which was ſaid to be ill, and not holpen by the Statutes. But all the Juſtices and Barons held, That it ſhould be as if there had bin no Venire facias, being before the Action brought; and it is contrary to the Roll, which mentions it to be awarded after the Iſſue joyned. See Bowyer and Johnſons Caſe, in this Title, Sect. 1. Hill. 15 Jac. in the Exchequer. Marſham and Bulwers Caſe, Cro. 2. Part, 458.

6. Debt upon the Statute of 2 E. 6. for not ſetzing forth of Tythes. The Plaintiff ſhewed, That he is ſeiſed in Fee of the Rectory of Y. and that the Defendant was Occupier of certain Lands in P. within the ſaid Pariſh whereof the Tythes were due unto him, and that he cut and carried away the Corn, without ſetting out the Tythes. The Defendant pleaded, That Sir John White was ſeiſed of the Manor of P. within which Manor is a Cuſtome, That he and all thoſe whoſe Eſtate, &c. have uſed to pay 35 s. to the owner of the Rectory of the Pariſh of Y. in lieu of all Tythes growing within the ſaid Manor, and that the ſaid Sir John let to him the ſaid Lands. Iſſue was upon the Preſcription, and found for the Plaintiff. It was the Opinion of the Court in this Caſe, That the Tryall was ill, becauſe the Venire facias ought to have bin aſwell from Y. as from P. for that the Cuſtome is to pay to the Church of Y. ſo as the Venire facias ought to have bin as well from the place of the payment, as of the place out of which the payment ought to have bin. A Venire facias de novo was awarded. Mich. 21 Jac. in B. R. Sir Robert Phillips and Sladers Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 676. See before in the Title, Sect. 3. Cooper and Bacons Caſe.

7. A Venire facias was made in this form, viz. Liberos et legales homines de B. It was by the Rule of the Court amendable by the Roll, for it ſhall be intended that the Jurours are inhabiting in the Town of B. although the Sheriff retorned the Jurours of other places, and none of them be named of B. Alſo the Venire facias was retorned by A. B. Armiger, without naming him Sheriff; and it was amended by the Rule of the Court. Trin. 14 Jac. in C. B. Bullen and Jervis's Caſe. Brownl. 1. Part, 43.

8. In Ejectione firmæ after Verdict; Exception was, That the appearance and the Iſſue were in Ter. Hillarii, 1 Jac. and the Bail was Craſtino Purificationis, and thereupon was the Declaration and Iſſue; and a Venire facias awarded, dated 23. Jan. 1 Jac. and upon it a Diſtringas 12. Feb. ſo as the Venire was awarded before the appearance and Declaration to try the Action, which was ſaid could not be good: Yet the Court held, That it was amendable, for the Roll is the Warrant for the Venire facias, which being variant from it, the Teſte thereof ſhall be amended to be made ſubſequent to the Iſſue joyned. Paſc. 3 Jac. in B. R. Dolphin and Clarks Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 64.

9. In Treſpaſs after Verdict, it was moved, That the Venire facias was awarded, That viz. Jacobus, &c. Vicecomiti ſalutem, omitting of what County he was Sheriff; and it was retorned by the Sheriff of the County of S. where the Action was brought. It was ſaid to be an ill Tryal, and an ill Writ, for non conſtat Curiæ, by what Sheriff of the County it is retorned, nor by whom it is returnable. But notwithſtanding all this, becauſe the Writ was Warranted by the Roll, it being a Judicial Writ. It was Ruled by the Court, That it ſhould be amended. Trin. 3 Jac. in B. R. Lea and Lacies Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 78.

10. Error of a Judgment in B. R. was aſſigned, For that W. B. of Bradfield was retorned upon the Venire facias and Habeas Corpora; and W. B. of Metfield who was another perſon, and not retorned, was ſworn. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That that was not aſſignable for Error, for that it is contrary to the Record, and he is eſtopped to ſay the contrary, for then every Record might be brought in Queſtion. Trin. 8 Jac. in B. R. Bewſe and Cunningtons Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 244. See Hill. 15 Jac. in B. R. Sir Philip Stanhops Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 457. acc.

11. Scire facias upon a Judgment againſt the Inteſtate againſt the Defendant, Adminiſtrator of Tho. M. The Defendant pleaded fully Adminiſtred, and found againſt him. Divers Errors aſſigned, 1. That the Venire facias was not good, becauſe it is ad triandum Exitum inter Ed. M. miſtem, et Tho. W. and he is not named Adminiſtrator of Tho. M. and there might be another Action and Tryal betwixt them in their proper right. 2. The Niſi Prius Roll upon which the Tryal was, That Challenge being made to the Sheriff after Iſſue, and confeſſed; Venire facias was awarded to the Coroner, but the Roll of Niſi Prius was, That the Venire facias was awarded to the Sheriff. It was holden,

holden, That this Roll of the Nisi Prius is a Miſpriſion, and ought to be Warranted by the Record, and therefore ruled that it ſhould be amended. Mich. 12 Jac. in B. R. Sir Ed. Muſgrave and others Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 354.

11. Treſpaſs for taking a Kettle at Weſt-Town, The Defendant juſtified by reaſon of a Cuſtome in the Manour of T. The Plaintiff joyned Iſſue de injuria ſua propria. The Venire facias was awarded de Vicineto de Weſt-Town et Maneria de T. by the Roll, and a Verdict was for the Plaintiff. But becauſe the Sheriff had returned the Panel de Vicineto de Weſt-Town only, the ſame was holden to be incurable, though the award was by the Roll de Vicineto de Weſt-Town et de Maneria both. And it was Ruled, That the Venire facias was not to be amended for two reaſons. 1. It ought not to be de Weſt-Town at all, becauſe the taking was confeſſed on both ſides, ſo required no Tryal; but the cauſe only controuled, was the Cuſtome, and other things ariſing from the Manour of T. and although the Roll had bin perfect from the Manour only (as it ought to have bin) ſo as the Venire facias might be amended by Warrant of it. Yet now, when P. appears to the Court, that the Tryal was not had by ſuch a Jury as the Roll and the Law required to the prejudice of the truth, it ought not to be allowed, and therefore it was Ruled not to be amended. Mich. 12 Jac. in C. B. Banks and Parkers Caſe. Bul. 76, 77.

13. In a Replevin, the Defendant pleaded, That it was his Freehold. The Plaintiff replyed, That the Beaſts eſcaped thence by default of the Encloſure. The Defendant ſaid, That tempore Capionis, the Hedg was well repaired; and Iſſue upon that. It was found againſt the Plaintiff. It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That it was not a good Iſſue: For it ought to have bin tempore Eſcapii, or intra-vamis. But the Exception was diſallowed by the Court, being after Verdict. But becauſe upon view of the Return of the Venire facias, nothing was underſtood but the names of the Jurours, the Court awarded a Repleader. Mich. 4 Jac. in B.R. Aſford and Venners Caſe. Noy 115.

3. Where, and in what Caſe the Venire facias ſhall be to the Coroners; and not to the Sheriff: and in what Caſe not.

1. IN an Ejectment brought upon a Demiſe made by C. the Defendant pleaded Not Guilty, and a Challenge to the Sheriff. And prayed a Venire facias to the Coroners, becauſe the Sheriff is Cozen to the Plaintiff, and ſhews how; and becauſe the Defendant did not deny it, a Venire facias was awarded to the Coroners. And after a Verdict, That matter was alledged in Arreſt of Judgment, becauſe it was not a principal Challenge. Whereupon it was Ruled, That a Venire facias de novo ſhould be awarded to the Sheriff.

2. Upon Iſſue joyned in an Ejectione firmæ, The Plaintiff ſuggeſted, That he and the Sheriff, and one of the Coroners were all of the Livery of the Earl of Worceſter, and prayed a Venire facias to the other Coroner. And the Defendant confeſſed the ſuggeſtion. Whereupon proceſs was made according to the prayer, and the Jury found for the Plaintiff. And now in Arreſt of Judgment, it was moved againſt it, becauſe it was not a principal Challenge, but becauſe it was ex aſſenſu partium, and that the Statute of 32 H. 8. helps the miſconceivance of proceſs. Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Mic. 22 Eliz. Dyer, 367.

3. Note, It was ſaid by the Court, That the Statute of 18 Eliz. cap. 14. helpeth not any inſufficient Tryal. And therefore whereas a Venire facias was awarded to the Coroners, whereas it ought to have bin awarded to the Sheriff, and ſo the Jurors returned by one who had not Authority. It was holden to be in the nature of an inſufficient Tryal, and not remedyed by the Statutes of 32 H.8. or 18 Eliz. as it was ſaid. It was adjudged in Goodwin and Franklins Caſe, vouch. in Cook 5. Part, 36. in Reynhams Caſe.

4. Treſpaſs for taking his Cattel, and detaining them until a Fine of 10 l. was paid. The taking was layed to be apud H. one of the Defendants pleaded Not Guilty; the other juſtified, becauſe Harwell was in the Hundred of H. and the Sheriffs Torn of the ſaid Hundred, and that at a Leet within the Hundred. It was Preſented, That the Defendant ought to repair a High way which he had not not repaired; whereupon the pain of 10 l. was assessed upon him, and the same Estreated, and so justified. The Plaintiff Replyed, That the Bishop of Winton was seised in Fee of the Mannor of Harwell, and that he and his Predecessors have used always to have a Leet of all the Inhabitants there; And trav rsed, that it was not within the Leet of the Hundred. Amongst other things in this Case, It being found for the Plaintiff; In stay of Judgment, it was moved, That it being a thing which concerned the Sheriff and his Interest, the Venire facias ought to have bin awarded to the Coroners, and not to the Sheriff himself. And also it ought not to have bin awarded from Harwell, but from the Hundred, or from the body of the County. But the Exception was disallowed by the Court; for being awarded to the Sheriff himself when he was party, and not to the Coroners, that is no Exception for the Sheriff, it being done for his advantage and favour. But perhaps the Plaintiff might well have taken that Exception: Also Harwell is a place which is alledged by both parties where the Leet is, wherefore from that place the Venire shall be, and not from any other. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Mich. 17 Jac. in B. R. Leader and Samuells Case. Cro. 2. Part, 551.

5. Error upon a Judgment given in B. R. upon an Obligation, The Issue taken upon payment upon a good surmise. The Venire facias was awarded to the Coroners, and a Verdict and Judgment for the Plaintiff. The Error assigned was, where the Venire facias was returned by two Coroners only, and the Distringas by three Coroners, that there were at the time of the Award, Return, and Distringas, four Coroners. It was agreed, That this at the Common Law was Error, for Coroners as Ministers, must all joyn; but as Judges they may divide. But the Court said, That by the Statute of Jeofails it was made good by the words of imperfect, and insufficient returning of process by Sheriffs or other Officers. Yet the Court was of Opinion, That if one Sheriff of London make his Return without his fellow, this was not holpen, being no Return at all. Hill. 11 Jac. in C. B. rott. 1036. Lambe and Wiseman's Case. Hob. 70.

More Venire facias, Visne, or Venue.

1. Quare Impedit was brought for the Church of B. The Issue was, That there was no such Church; the Venire facias was, de Vicineto de B. And Exception was taken, because it was not of the body of the County; but the Exception was salved, because in the Declaration that one dyed at B. aforesaid: And it was said, That every place alledged shall be intended a Town, and by the uses of the Writ, it is presumed in Law to be a Parish; And then if there be a Parish and a Town, If the Venire facias be either of the Parish or Town, it is good. Trin. 16 Jac. in C. B. Capel and Tanfes Case. Brownlow 1. Part, 161.

2. In Debt brought upon an Escape against a Bailiff of a Liberty. Exception was taken to the Declaration after a Tryall, because it was not alledged therein, That the Sheriff made a Warrant to the Bailiff upon an Execution; but it was only alledged, That at A. aforesaid, by vertue of the Warrant aforesaid, he took the Prisoner, and saith not, within the Liberty aforesaid. It was the Opinion of the Court, That it was a void Exception. Trin. 10 Jac. in C. B. Brownsworth and Fessors Case. Brownlow 1. Part, 79.

3. A. B. brought an Action against W. and Issue was joyned; and then the Plaintiff surmised, That he was Bayliff and servant to C. the Sheriff of Essex, and therefore prayed process to the Coroner, et ei Conceditur. And yet afterwards a Venire facias went to the Sheriff, and the Jury found for the Plaintiff. It was moved in Arrest of Judgment, and the Question was, Whether this Grant to the Coroners, and being meerly in favour of the Plaintiff to avoid his delay by Challenge, may not be left, aswell after it is Granted, as it hath bin required at the first. 2. Whether this be not a mis-awarding of process remedied by the Statute of Jeofails. Quære, For the Case was put only, but not Resolved. Trin. 12 Jac. in C. B. Webbs Case. Hob. 64.

4. T. L. brought Trespass against J. R. and C. M. for imprisoning him five dayes. J. R. pleaded, Not Guilty to four dayes; where, upon Issue, and to the other day, a Justification, and thereupon another the Iſſue. C. M. did likewiſe divide his plea into two, whereof the latter was a Juſtification, and thereupon Iſſue taken. Then follows the Venire facias in theſe words, viz. Ideo quod triandum exinde illum quem prædict. alium exitum inter prædict. T. L. et præfat. J. R. ſuperius mentionat. Præceptum eſt Vicecomit. It was excepted unto, That this award was inſufficient, being in certain, and could not be applyed to all, though the Jury had given Verdict for all, but notwithſtanding, the Court ruled it to be good, becauſe exitus may reſpectively ſerve for all, reddendo ſingula ſingulis. Trin. 13 Jac. in C. B. Leiſham and Rowes Caſe. Hob. 66.

5. In Trover and Converſion, The Declaration upon the Imparlance Roll had ſpaces for the day and year, of loſing, finding, and Converſion of the goods; but the Iſſue Roll and all the reſt were perfect in theſe points: The Court was of Opinion, That the Imparlance Roll could not be amended by the Iſſue Roll, becauſe it was the Original, and was a Warrant to the other, and not è converſo. But yet becauſe upon the Iſſue Not Guilty, Verdict was given for the Plaintiff, the Court gave Judgment for him, becauſe the Declaration as it was found in the Imparlance Roll, was good enough in matter, for the Trover and Converſion was layed in the Preterperfect Tenſe, and ſo before the Action brought; and ſo but default in form, was helpen by the Statute of Jeofails. Hill. 12 Jac. Parker and Parkers Caſe. Hob. 76.

6. Hylliard & ux. the Plaintiff declared, That R. H. and other, 9 Oct. 5 Jac. at St. Genarys in the County of, &c. did demiſe, and to Farm let to the Demiſees, one Meſſuage, four Gardens, 200 Acres of Land, &c. with the Appurtenances called Eaſt Digard, alias Digard, in the ſaid County for five years. Upon Not Guilty, Judgment was for the Plaintiff. Error brought and aſſigned for Error, that the Plaintiff in his Declaration did not ſhew in what Town, Pariſh, Hamlet, or place the ſaid Tenement called Digard lay, but in the general County aforeſaid; and for that cauſe the Judgment was mewed in the Exchequer Chamber. Note in that Caſe, it was ſaid, Here is a Tryal without a Viſne, if the Jury were from St. Genarys, and if it were de Corpore Comitat. it was not good, for that it is not to be called where a nearer place may be. Hill. 5 Jac. in C. B. Rich and Sheers Caſe. Hob. 98.

7. Quare impedit brought quod permittat præſentare ad Eccleſiam de ubicunque. The Defendant pleaded, Quod nulla talis habetur Eccleſia vocat. ubicunque in Com. prædict. Whereupon Iſſue was joyned, and after a Verdict for the Defendant, It was moved, That the Venire facias was miſtaken; For it was de Vicineto de ubicunque, whereas it ſhould be de Corpore Comitat. as where the Iſſue is, that there is no ſuch Town. But the Court gave Judgment, Quod Coſſetur Breve. For although it be denyed, That there is any ſuch Church, yet the Town is not denyed; and the Count of Eccleſia de ubicunque is an allegation that there is a Town called ubicunque whereof whether there be a Church. The Viſne properly ariſeth from the Town; and although it was obſerved, That the Iſſue did not meet in words, for the Writ is Eccleſia de ubicunque, and the Plea, Eccleſia vocat. ubicunque, yet the ſame in effect is the ſame. Note, that another of the Defendants had pleaded to the Writ, that there was no ſuch Biſhop of Lincoln as was named: Whereupon there was another Demurrer. Yet the whole Writ was abated againſt them all upon the Verdict, but no Judgment was given upon the other Demurrer. Trin. 16 Jac. in C. B. Rott. 3210. Capledick and Sir Phil. Tirwhits Caſe. Hob. 249.

8. In a Prohibition, the parties were at Iſſue upon a Cuſtome, de non Decimando of Wood infra wildam Suſſex. It was moved from whence the Venire facias ſhould be. The Court directed, That it ſhould be de Corpore Comitatus, for that Wilde is no Viſne whereof the Court can take knowledg, and by aſſent it was awarded accordingly. Trin. 17 Jac. in C. B. Fawkner and Andrews Caſe. Hob. 266.

9. In a ſecond Deliverance for taking his horſe at Wilkſitz pain, in quodam loco vocat. Ore Peeces. The Defendant ſaid, That the place contained 20 Acres, parcel of 1020 Acres, which 1000 Acres, time out of mind, were parcel of the Manor of Wilkſitz pain in the County aforeſaid: Of which Manor the Earl of N. was ſeiſed in Fee, and acknowledged the taking as Bayliff to the Earl. Upon Traverſe abſque hoc, That the place was parcell de Wilkſitz pain. The Venire facias was awarded de Vicineto de Wilkſitz pain. After Tryall and Verdict, Judgment was ſtayed in that Caſe, becauſe the Venire facias ought to have bin de Vicineto Manerii, and not de Vicineto of the Town. Trin. 16 Jac. in C. B. Gayhurſt and Millers Caſe. Hob. 284.

10. S. brought a Replevin againſt H. for taking a Diſtreſs in Baildon, in a place there called Steed houſe. The Defendant made Conuſans as Bayliff to W. H. becauſe the houſe was holden of him as of his Manor of Baildon. The Plaintiff ſaid, It was out of his Fee. The Venire facias was de vicineto de Baildon. After Verdict, It was moved, That the Venire facias ſhould have bin aſwell from the Manor as the Town. The Court gave Judgment for the Plaintiff, becauſe it doth not appear that the Manor was larger then the Town; and the Court ſhall not defeat it upon a poſſibility, it may be, or not be. But if the Viſne were to come from two Towns by the Records, and were taken but in one, the Case were clean contrary. Trin. 18 Jac. in C. B. Steed and Harleys Case. Hob. 305.

11. In an Action upon the Case, the Plaintiff layed, That he was seised of a Messuage in Fairfield, to which he had Common appendant, and seven Acres in F. aforesaid; and that he also had a Way from his Messuage to the said 7 Acres, in, by, and over it to B. and that the Defendant had ploughed up the said 7 Acres, whereby he lost both the use of his Common and Way. Upon Not Guilty, the Venire facias was from Fairfield only. It was said it should have bin from B. also. But the Court gave Judgment for the Plaintiff. For although it is true, That if the Issue had bin about the Prescription, it must have bin from both: Yet the Issue Not Guilty respects chiefly the grief, which is the Ploughing up of part of the Way in F. which is a Trespass upon the Case there though the Way went no further, so as the rest of the Way is but an inducement to the Action. Trin. 18 Jac. in C. B. Clark and Woods Case. Hob. 315.

12. Debt upon an Obligation, the Condition was, That the Defendant should pay so much in the House of the Plaintiff at Lincoln. The Defendant pleaded payment at Lincoln aforesaid; upon which they were at Issue, and the Venire was awarded, De vicinetu Civitatis Lincoln, and found for the Plaintiff. It was moved, That it was a Mis-tryal; because the Venire facias ought to have been of the Body of the County, and not of the City. It was resolved by the Justices, that the Tryal was good, and the Resolution grounded upon 34 H. 6. 49. and 50. P. 17. there being no other Authority in the Law in the Point; and it was taken for a Rule, That where it doth not appear upon the Record, that there is a more proper place for Tryal, then where the Tryal was, that there the Tryal is good; but here is no more proper place: And it was said, it was not possible to be tryed in the County; because that the payment was to be in the City: And yet it was said, It is true, that if a man speak Generally of the County of Lincoln, it shall be intended the Body of the County: It was resolved, that the Tryal was good. Mich. 17 Car. in C. B. Thorndike and Turpingtons Case. Mar. 125.

13. Error of a Judgment in Newbury, because the Assumpsit was there; The Defendant pleaded Non-Assumpsit; yet the Venire facias was, De vicinetu de Newbury, when it ought not to be De vicinetu de Newbury; for that they have not found Action out of Newbury, and Logeins and Ferns Case was vouched to be according. But upon view of diverse Presidents, that the Venire facias hath been good both ways; although the Corporation do not extend their jurisdiction out of the Town, yet the Venire facias being awarded, De viginti de Newbury, it was holden, that those of the Town might be well returned: The Judgment was affirmed. Trin. 16 Jac. in B.R. Walker and Mansfields Case. Cro. 1 Part, 493.

14. Trespass. The Defendant justified the putting in his Cattel, as a Copy-holder of the Lord N. of his Mannor of D. for Common; the Issue was upon the prescription. B, another of the Defendants, justified as Tenant to Sir John T. who was a Free-holder in Dorcester, who claims Common as appurtenant to his Free-hold: The Plaintiff surmising that the Lord N. was Lord of the Mannor of Dorcester, where all the Free-holders are his Tenants, pray a Venire facias to the next Town which was W, in the Hundred of E; which was awarded accordingly, and tryed at the Bar. It was moved, That it was a Mis-tryal for Quod B. Tenant of Sir J. T. there was no Challenge; wherefore there ought to have been several Venire facias. But the Court after resolved several motions, that the Tryal was good; for there shall never be several *Venire facias*es to try several Issues in one County, but to several Issues in several Counties, it is otherwise: It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Mich. 17 Jac. in B. R. Dance and Elden, and Buckleys Case. Cro. 12. part, 550.

15. A Venire facias was awarded returnable, Mens. Mich. It was not returned at the day; Whereupon the Defendant sued a Venire facias, with Proviso returnable, Octab. 6 Hill. But in the mean time, the first Venire facias was filed, Mich. Terme, post diem. Afterwards the second Venire facias was returned, and upon that second a Panel. The Plaintiff pursued a Habeas Corpus, and the Jury appeared and found for him. It was holden in that Case, That although it was erroneous by the Common-Law, yet upon consideration of the Statute of 32 Hen. 8. of Jeofails, upon the point of misconceivence of Process, Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Mich. 11 Eliz. Dyer 284. Grogs Case.

16. The Son and Heir brought an Appeal against M. P. Proditorie, and E. L. Felonice, for that they conspired the death of R. P. his Father; and that the said M. P. to that purpose, and the said E. L. Felonice, gave him such a kind of poyson in a Posset; which he not knowing, drank up; and afterwards within a time dyed: The Defendant pleaded Not Guilty: They were tryed at the Bar. M. P. was found guilty, but the other not. It was moved, That there was no Declaration upon the File of Mich. Terme: Also, that there ought to have been several Venire facias, because they were several Offenders, and not one Offender. But the Opinion of the Court was, That the Plaintiff might take out one ; or ſeveral Venires, for doubt of Challenge. Trin. 14 Car. in B. R. Pigot and Pigots Caſe, Cro. 1 Part, 383.

17. Error of a Judgment at the Seſſions of Peace, upon an Indictment of Barretry; where the party was Indicted the ſame Seſſions Arraigned, and he traverſed, and a Venire facias was awarded immediately to try it, and he was convicted, fined, and impriſoned. It was aſſigned for Error, That this Tryal and awarding a Venire facias, the ſame Seſſions he was Indicted, and pleaded it could not be good; for it ought to have been made returnable at the next Seſſions, and not to be made returnable the next day. But the Exception was diſallowed by the Court; for the Party being preſent, may be tryed as well the ſame day, as at another time. Trin. 14 Jac. Rice and the Kings Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 404.

Verdict:

what: what ſhall be ſaid, a good Verdict, what not: And where a Verdict findes more then is put in Iſſue, where good, where not.

1. ACtion of Aſſault and Battery was brought, and the Defendant was condemned by Nihil Dicit, and a Writ of Enquiry of Damages went forth, and then the Attorney of the Plaintiff dyed, and another Attorney without Warrant, prayed the ſecond Judgment and Execution. It was agreed by the Court in this Caſe, That if in an Action after Judgment the Attorney dyeth, a new Attorney may pray Execution without Warrant; but in this Caſe, becauſe that he dyed before the ſecond Judgment, it ſeemed to them that he ought to have a Warrant of Attorney, for the firſt Judgment is not final; and the Preignochories ſaid, If after the firſt Judgment one of the Parties had dyed, the Writ ſhould abate. And it was ſaid, That this was not within the Statute of Jeofails, for that a Verdict is that which is put in Iſſue by the joyning of the Parties. Paſc. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Goldesbr. 49.

2. Husband and Wife brought Waſte, and declared, That the Defendant was ſeized in Fee, and made a Feoffment to the uſe of himſelf for life, and after to the uſe of the Mother of the Wife, who dyed, and it deſcended to her, and after the Defendant made Waſte. The Defendant pleaded, That he was, and yet is ſeiſed in Fee, abſque hoc, that he made a Feoffment in manner and form prout, and the Jury found a ſpecial Verdict, That the Defendant made a Feoffment to the uſe of himſelf for life, without impeachment of Waſte, the remainder in Fee pro ut. It was objected, That the Plaintiff ought not to have Judgment; for where a Verdict diſcloſeth any thing, whereby it appeareth that the Plaintiff ought not to recover, Judgment thereupon ought to be given againſt him. But the Opinion of the Court was, that Judgment ſhould be entred for the Plaintiff; for it was ſaid by Anderſon, chief Juſtice, That which was found more than their Iſſue, was void; as 33 Hen. 6. where the Tenant in Aſſize pleads, Nul Tenant. de franck Tenement, noſme en le Aſſize, et ſi home ne ſoit, &c. and the Jury found that he was Tenant, but that he held joyntly with another: Yet there the Plaintiff recovered, and had Judgment, and ſo in the principal Caſe. Mich. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Faire and Peters Caſe. Goldesbr. 72, 73. See this Caſe more at large in Leon. 66.

3. A Scire facias was brought upon a Recognizſance: The Defendant pleaded in abatement of the Writ, That one B. was ſeized of three Acres of Land, not named; Judgment ſi executio. The Iſſue was, If the ſaid three Acres of Land was the Land of the ſaid B. or not. The Jury found, That B. and I. L. were Joynt-Tenants of the ſaid Land of three Acres: If the Jury found for the Plaintiff or Defendant, was the Queſtion. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Verdict was found for the Plaintiff: For if in caſe one plead his Free-hold, and another ſay his Free-hold abſque hoc, that it is the Free-hold of the Plaintiff, and upon that they are at Iſſue, and the Verdict findes that the Plaintiff and Defendants are Tenants in Common, this Verdict is found for the Plaintiff; for he that makes the firſt lye, ſhall be tried, and that was the Defendant. And ſee 46 E. 3. That in caſe Proviſo, if the Iſſue be upon an Alienation in Fee, and the Jury finde an Alienation pro termino vitæ, this is a Verdict good enough, and the Plaintiff ſhall recover; for the Alienation is the Queſtion, and whether it be in Fee, or for life, is but Form. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Hill.

4. In Debt for Rent: The Plaintiff declared upon the demiſe of 26 Acre, rendring Rent; the Defendant pleaded, That the Plaintiff Lett to him the 26 Acre, and four Acres more, abſque hoc, that he demiſed to him the 26 Acres only; and upon Iſſue joyned, it was found, that he Lett unto him 21 Acres. It was a Query, If upon this Verdict the Plaintiff ſhould have Judgment: But the better Opinion of the Court ſeemed to be, That the Plaintiff ſhould have Judgment, and that the Verdict was a good Verdict. For thta, the Defendant confeſſed the 26 Acres by implication; and then the Verdict is to no other purpoſe, but to maniſeſt, that he did not Let to him the four Acres. Paſc. 28 Hen. 8. Dyer 33. Hill. 17 Jac. in B. R. Hughs and Boreman's Caſe adjudged accordingly.

5. In a Writ of Entry in ſe Quibus of 70 Acres of Land in H. the Tenant pleaded, That one C. was ſeized in Fee, and demiſed the ſaid Land to him for life; The Demandant intituled himſelf by the ſaid C, abſque hoc quod demiſit modo, & forma. It was found by Verdict, That C, and ſix others, were ſeized to the uſe of C, of the ſaid 70 Acres, and of a Houſe in H; which Houſe and Land had been time, &c. called W; and that the ſaid C. and the other, joyned in a Leaſe of the ſaid Houſe, with the Appurtenances, unto the Tenant. In this Caſe it was adjudged, That Judgment ſhould be for the Plaintiff, and that this demiſe found by the Verdict, would not maintain an Iſſue for the Tenant. Hill. 5. Ma. Dyer 158. Marrow's Caſe.

6. A man is Indicted of Murther, before the Coroner, upon viſum corporis & quod fugam fecit: Afterwards he is arraigned upon that Indictment, and he pleads Not Guilty, and he is acquitted, and it is found that another man is Guilty, yet becauſe of the firſt Judgment upon the Indictment, he ſhall forfeit his goods; and that is of more force, than is his acquittance; for that upon his Arraignment, his flying ſhall not be given in Charge, and the goods were forfeit upon the firſt Indictment. Paſc. 7 Eliz. Dyer 238.

7. B. entred upon C. into Land, as a perquiſite of his Villain regardant, to his Manor G, in the County of G, and thereof made a Leaſe to F. for life; who being diſſeiſed by C, brought an Aſſize. The Iſſue was, If B. and his Anceſtors, and all thoſe, whoſe Eſtate he had in the Manor of G, had been ſeized of C. and his Anceſtors, as villains regardant, time out of mind, &c. The Jury found a ſpecial Verdict, viz. That the ſaid B. and his Anceſtors, were ſeized of the ſaid Manor time, &c. and that the Anceſtors of B, was ſeized all times of the Anceſtors of the ſaid C, as villains regardants, untill 1 Hen. 7. and that C. was villain regardant to the ſaid Manor, and that no other Seiſin of C. or his Anceſtors, was after had. It was in this Caſe, amongſt other points reſolved, That the Plaintiff ſhould not recover upon this Verdict, becauſe that no actual or full Seiſin of B. and his Anceſtors, of C. and his Anceſtors as villains regardants is found, but only a Seiſin in Law; and it was ſaid, that it matters not, That the Jury have given a Verdict upon the Right of villains, upon which a good Iſſue might have been taken; and all the Preſidents are, where villenage is objected, although he hath alledged alſo Seiſin of the Perſon of the villain, and his Anceſtors; yet the Iſſue is joyned upon the Right of villeinage, ſcil. Frank and Free of Eſtate; and not villain pro ut, and it is not ſo found in this Caſe. Alſo in this Caſe, the preſumption doth fail in part, ſcil. in the Plaintiff himſelf, who is Party, and all his Anceſtors ſince 1 Hen. 7. Wherefore it was adjudged againſt the Plaintiff. Paſc. 11 Eliz. Dyer 283, 284. Butler and Crowches Caſe.

8. Note: If the Jury give a Verdict of the whole matter and more, &c. it is but ſurpluſage, and ſhall not ſtay Judgment, for that utile per inutile non vitiatur; and the Jury may find all neceſſary circumſtances in Law, which tend to the point in Iſſue: But if the matter which is found be doubtful and ambiguous, it is an inſufficient Verdict, and no Judgment ſhall be given thereupon: As in caſe, If an Executor plead, Fully Adminiſtred, and Iſſue is joyned thereupon, and the Jury finde that the Defendant hath goods in his hands to be Adminiſtred, but do not finde to what value, this Verdict is very incertain and inſufficient; ſo a Verdict which findes part of the Iſſue, and nothing of the reſt, it is inſufficient for the whole; as in caſe, If a Writ of Intruſion be brought againſt one, for intruding into a Meſſuage, and 100 Acres of Land; and upon the general Iſſue pleaded, the Jury find againſt the Defendant for the Land, but ſay nothing as to the Meſſuage, this is an inſufficient Verdict for the whole; as it was adjudged, Hen. 25 Eliz. in the Exchequer Chamber, in the Queen and Bracts Caſe. See Cook 1 Part, Inſtitut. 227.

9. In Accompt. The Plaintiff charged the Defendant as Bayliff of his Shop, cum habuit, & adminiſtrationem bonorum; the Defendant anſwered as to the Goods only, and ſaid nothing to the Shop: It was ſaid by Cook in this Caſe, that here is a thing put in Iſſue, which is not in the Verdict; nor found, nor touched in the Verdict; and that that makes all that was found in the Verdict to be be void; and that that was not helped by any of the Statutes of Jeofails: And therefore it was ſaid, That in that Caſe the whole Plea was diſcontinued; becauſe he did not anſwer to parcel, and of parcel the Plaintiff could not have Judgment according to his Declaration. But notwithſtanding, in that Caſe, it was the Opinion of the whole Court, That the Statute of 32 Hen. 8. Cap. 30. did extend to it; for that it is thereby Enacted, That after Verdict, Judgment ſhall be given, notwithſtanding any diſcontinuance. Mich. 29 Eliz. in B. R. Gomerſal and Gomerſals Caſe. Godbolt. 55.

10. In a Raviſhment of Ward, brought upon the Statute of Weſtminſter, 2. Cap. 35. The Jurors found that the Ward was married, and that at the time of his marriage, he was of the age of 18 years and upwards: It was in this Caſe adjudged, That this was not a good Verdict; becauſe it is not only left uncertain who procured him to be married, or whether the Raviſher himſelf, or a ſtranger, or that the Ward of his own accord married himſelf; and alſo for that it was incertain in the time when he was married, whether before the Raviſhment, or after; and Verdicts ought to be ſuch, that the Judges may proceed to Judgment, and doubtfull and incertain Verdicts are void in Law; as it is holden 30 E. 3. 23. Cook 9 Part, 74. Dr Huſſie's Caſe.

11. A. brought a Writ of Annuity againſt B, and they being at Iſſue, the Jury found for the Plaintiff, and alſo the Arrearages; but did not aſſeſs any Damages or Coſts. It was Reſolved, That this Verdict being imperfect, could not be ſupplyed by a Writ of Enquiry of Damages: Whereupon the Plaintiff afterwards releaſed his Damages and Coſts, and thereupon had Judgment. The Defendant thereupon brought a Writ of Error, and aſſigned for Error, that the Verdict was inſufficient; but yet notwithſtanding, in that Caſe, the Judgment was affirmed, becauſe that the Plaintiffs Releaſe of his Damages and Coſts, was for the benefit and advantage of the Defendant. Cook 11 Part, 56. Brabams Caſe.

12. In a Replevin: The Defendant avowed as Bailiff to I. S, Lord of the Mannor of H, ſuppoſing that the Land was holden of I. S. as of his Mannor by fealty 21d. Rent, and ſuit in Court, and alledged Seiſin of all the ſaid ſervices within 30 years, and for fealty and ſuit of Court undone; th. Conuſans was made, ut in terris, tenement. de prædict.; the Lord, in forma prædicta & infra feudum ſuum. The Plaintiff conveyed the Land by him, of whoſe hands the Seiſin was alledged; ſaying, that he held the ſame by fealty, and 12 d. Rent, and ſuit of Court, pro omnibus ſervitiis, and traverſed the Seiſin of the fealty, redendo 21d. Rent. The Jury at Niſi Prius, found the Seiſin of the 21 d. Rent prout, and aſſeſſed damages for that, but of the reſidue of the ſervices, that he was not ſeiſed. It was the Opinion of the Court, That upon this Verdict, no Judgment could be given; becauſe that all the other things compriſed in the Travers, abſque hoc, were not found for the Plaintiff in the affirmative. Mich. 26 Eliz. Dyer 330.

13. The Caſe was: The Biſhop of E, in the time of Hen. 8. by his Deed, gave Land to N. T. and S. his Coſſin, in conſideration of ſervice done by N. T, and to the Heirs of their Bodies, and dyes; they have Iſſue, I. and W. N. T. dyed, S. took to Husband I. D, and they alliened the Land to I. in Fee; S. and I. afterwards levyed a Fine of the Land to W, and afterwards S. infeoffed W, being her younger ſon who infeoffed the Defendant I. N; the Defendant I. N, for the tryal of his Title, ſealed a Leaſe to the Plaintiff; who declared of ſo many Acres of Land in Sutton Coſfield; the Jury, upon Not Guilty, found by Verdict, that the Biſhop gave the Tenements aforeſaid, by his Deed, and by the Deed it did appear, that the Land did lye in Little Sutton, within the Lap of Sutton Coſfield. In this Caſe it was holden, 1. That this was not to be any Joynture within the Statute of 11 H. 7. for the Biſhop was not any Anceſtor of the Husband, and the Husband took nothing by that, but it was a voluntary recompence given by the Biſhop, in reward of the ſervice paſſed; alſo the Biſhop might well intend it, for the advancement of the Woman, who was his Coſin. 2. It was holden, that the Fine of I. the elder ſon, and of S. levyed to W, deſtroyed the Entry of I. and W; for although in truth the Fine paſſed nothing, but by concluſion: yet I. the ſon, and W. his Conuſee, ſhould be eſtopped to claim any thing by way of forfeiture againſt that Fine. 3. It was holden, That although upon view of the Deed made by the Biſhop, the Land, which by the Declaration is ſaid to be in Sutton Coſfield, by the Deed appears to be in Little Sutton; yet it was reſolved, that this was helped by the Verdict, by which it was found expreſſly, That the Biſhop gave the Land within written, and therefore being ſo preciſly found, the Deed is not material. Paſc. 5 Jac. in C. B. Ward and Willoughby's Caſe. Brownl. 1 Part, 137.

14. B. and his Wife brought Dower againſt T. A, ſon and Heir of B. A, the firſt Husband of the Wife, the Plaintiff, and demanded Dower of Lands in D. and S. The Tenant pleaded Ne unque ſeiſi que Dower. The Jury found that B. A. was ſeized during the Coverture, de omnibus. Tenemen is infrà ſcript. præterquam, the Tenements in &c. ſo as diſt. the Wife, Plaintiff, Datari potuit. Exception was taken to this Verdict, becauſe that this præterquam doth confound the Verdict. But it was Reſolved by the Court, That the præterquam was idle and ſurpluſage; for it is of another thing than that which is in demand, and the Seiſin of the firſt Husband of Lands in D. and S, is confeſſed, and the præterquam works nothing. Then it was moved in this Caſe, That here the Jury have Aſſeſſed Damages; as, In caſe where the Husband dyeth ſeized, the which dying ſeized, is not found by the Verdict: To which it was ſaid by the Court, That the Husband might pray Judgment of the Lands, and releaſe the Damages, or may aver that the Husband dyed ſeized, and have a Writ of Enquiry of Damages. Mich. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Butler and Agret Caſe. Leon. 92.

15. Note: It was holden by the whole Court, That if one of the Witneſſes, after the Jury departed from the Bar, doth repeat unto the Jury the ſame Evidence which he gave before, and no more; yet that doth make the Verdict to be void. Mich. 32 Eliz. in C. B. Elmes and Medcalfs Caſe. Leon. 305.

16. In Treſpaſs, the Defendant pleaded, That the place where, &c. was parcel of a yard Land in P, holden of the Lord North, as his Mannor of W. by Homage, Fealty, Eſcuage, and ſuit of Court, incloſure of the Park-pale, and for the Rent behind for three years, and the Fealty; and that the Tenant the Defendant, juſtified as ſervant of his Maſter, and by his Command. The Plaintiff replyed That the Land was holden of I. S, as of his Mannor of L, without that that it was holden of the Lord North, in manner and form; upon which, they were at Iſſue, and the Jury found that it was holden of the Lord N. as of his Mannor of W. W, by Homage, Fealty, Incloſure of the Pale, and a pound of Cummin, and not otherwiſe. In this Caſe it was adjudged for the Defendant; for although that the Verdict did not agree with the Plea, in manner and form of the Tenure, yet it agreed in Subſtance in the point, for which the taking was; viz. that the Land was holden of the Lord N, and that is ſufficient.

17. Aſſumpſit againſt an Executor. The Plaintiff declared, That the Teſtator in his life, viz. 16 Oct. 18 Jac. in conſideration of 5 l. lent him, promiſed to pay, &c. The Defendant pleaded, That the Teſtator Non aſſumpſit: The Jury found that the Teſtator Aſſumpſit modo et forma, but that the Teſtator dyed ſuch a day, 17 Jac. ſo as he was dead a year and more, before the time found in the Record. It was adjudged in this Caſe, That the Verdict being, that the Teſtator Aſſumpſit modo et forma, the finding over that the Teſtator dyed, before the time mentioned in the Declaration, was but idle, and ſurpluſage; nor is the day of the Aſſumpſit material: It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Mich. 4 Car. in B. R. Lukerſall and Swanes Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 92.

18. Treſpaſs, for that the Defendant beat and aſſaulted the Plaintiffs Wife, and carryed away with her ſuch goods, and detained her for half a year, per quod ſolamen et conſortium quod habere potuiſſet with his Wife amiſit & alia enormia; Upon NotGuilty, it was found for the Plaintiff; Error brought in the Exchequer-Chamber, and aſſigned, That the Husband hath brought the Action, which he cannot do without his Wife, and hath recovered damages for the Battery. But all the Juſtices and Barons held in this Caſe, That the Husband in this Action did not recover damages for the Battery, but for the loſs which he had for the want of his Wifes company; and the per quod conſortium amiſit, and the abduction of her, is one entire act; and for that cauſe the damages were given: And it was holden in this Caſe, That this Verdict and Judgment do not bar the Wife to have an Action after the death of her Husband for the Battery; and ſo it was ſaid it was adjudged. Paſc. 17 Jac. in B. R. Rot. 187. See Hide and Sciſſors Caſe. The Judgment was affirmed, Hill. 2 Car. in Ex. Chamb. Young and Pridds Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 63.

18. Error of a Judgment in B. R. upon an Obligation conditioned for the payment of 100l. by A. B. and C, or any of them. The Defendant A. pleaded that he paid it at the day: The Plaintiff replyed, That neither the ſaid A. B. nor C, nor any of them, paid the 100l. at the day. The Jury found, That the ſaid A. had not paid the 100l. as the Defendant had pleaded; and Judgment given for the Plaintiff, Error brought and aſſigned; becauſe the Verdict was not according to the Iſſue, for it might be paid by any of the other. But the Court held it well enough; for that the addition of B. and C. not mentioned in the bar, was but ſurpluſage; and their finding that A. did not pay the money, is ſufficient, and it ſhall not be intended that any of the other paid it, when the Defendant A. ſaith, that he himſelf paid it: The Judgment was affirmed. Paſc. 1 Car. in C. B. Abſcot and Heals Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 4.

19. In Treſpaſs, the Defendant juſtified, becauſe it was the Free-hold of I. S, and he entred by his command, the Plaintiff entitles himſelf, becauſe the Land was Copy-hold, and demiſable in Fee, and that I. N. was ſeized in Fee by Copy, and that the Land deſcended to two Daughters and Heirs, who were admitted, and demiſed to the Plain-

Plaintiff for years; and Iſſue being joyned upon a collateral matter, and the Verdict given for the Plaintiff, it was moved, That the Plaintiff had not made good Title; for none may entitle himſelf to Copy, but he ought to ſhew a Grant thereof; and not ſhewing a Grant in this Caſe, it was not good: And of that Opinion was the whole Court. But it was ſaid, That it was but a default in Form, and the Iſſue being taken upon a collateral matter, and found for the Plaintiff, it was good, and helped by the Statute of Jeofails. Paſc. 6 Car. in B. R. Shepherds Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 137.

10. Eiſdem ſ. me of Meſſuages. 3000 Acres of Land, 3000 Acres of Paſture in D, per nomina of the Manor of M. and 5 Cloſes per nomina, &c. The Defendant pleaded Not guilty, and the Jury gave a ſpecial Verdict; viz. Quoad four Cloſes of Paſture, containing by eſtimation 2000 Acres of Paſture, was not Guilty Quoad reſiduum; they finde matter in Law. It was the Opinion of the Court, That this Verdict was incertain; for that it doth not appear, for how much they acquit him; and when they finde Quoad reſiduum the ſpeciall matter, it is incertain what that reſiduum is; ſo as there cannot any Judgment be given thereupon: Therefore by the Rule of the Court, A Venire facias de Novo was awarded, to try that Iſſue. Hill. 3 Jac. in B. R. Woolmor and Caſtons Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 113.

11. A Verdict being imperfect, a Venire facias de Novo was awarded, and then a general Verdict was given againſt both the Defendants, whereby they were found Guilty: It was moved, That this was a void Verdict, viz. as to the Wife; whereas by the firſt Verdict, ſhe was found Not Guilty. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That the firſt Verdict was void, by reaſon of the imperfection therein, and is as no Verdict, and all that is found therein void, although it be entred in the Roll; wherefore the ſecond Verdict is good, being found upon better Evidence. Mich. 19 Jac. in B. R. Langley and Pains Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 627.

12. Treſpaſs by Husband and Wife, for breaking the Cloſe of the Husband, and for Battery of the Wife, ad damnum ipſorum. The Defendant as to the breaking of the Cloſe, pleaded Not guilty; and as to the Battery, juſtifies: For the firſt Iſſue it was found for the Defendant, and for the ſecond, for the Plaintiff. It was moved, That the Declaration was not good, becauſe the Husband joins the Wife with him in Treſpaſs, de clauſo fracto; but for the Battery they may joyn. Then it was moved, That in regard it was found againſt the Plaintiff, for the Iſſue in which they ought not to joyn; that the Defendant is diſcharged for that part which is ill, and is good for the reſidue. The Court was divided in Opinion in the point. But the better Opinion ſeemed to be, That the Declaration being ill in it ſelf in ſubſtance, the Verdict ſhall never make it good. Hill. 21 Jac. in B. R. Buckley and Cales Caſe. Cro. 3 Part, 655.

13. Error of a Judgment in Treſpaſs in B. R. The Error was, That a Treſpaſs of Clauſum fregit de aſcendo, &c. viz. Equas bobus vaccis, porcis, et bidentibus. The Defendant pleaded Quoad, the Treſpaſs aſſignat ave ips depaſcendo Quoad, any Treſpaſs, cum aliquibus averiis, præterquam cum duobus ſpadonibus & tribus vaccis. Not Guilty; and Quoad, the Treſpaſs Clauſum fregit, cum duobus ſpadonibus, & vaccis, he juſtified for preſcription of Common; upon which they were at Iſſue: The Verdict for the firſt Iſſue, That the Defendant was Guilty cum aliquibus averiis, and aſſeſſed damages. And for the ſecond Iſſue, they found for the Plaintiff; and upon this Verdict, Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. The Error aſſigned was, That the Verdict finding that he was Guilty, cum aliquibus averiis, not ſhewing what was in certain: but the Exception was diſallowed by the Court, for being found that he was Guilty, cum aliquibus averiis, it is as general as the Declaration, and it is not material for what number, or for what head of Cattel, but the Verdict good enough: The Judgment was affirmed. Hill. 20 Jac. in B. R. Elſton and Burrows Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 662.

14. Replevin of his ſheep, taken in Cotteſmore Common. The Defendant made Conuſance as Bayliff, to the Provoſt of Eaton Colledge; becauſe the Common belonged to the Provoſt, &c. and the Sheep were there damage feſant: The Plaintiff ſets forth, That Cotteſmore Common contained Acre (but did not ſet forth what number), but left a Blank for the ſame; and that he was ſeized of 100 Acres, parcel thereof in Fee; and that he, and all thoſe whoſe Eſtate, &c. had Common in the reſidue of Cotteſmore Common, for 400 Sheep, as appurtenant to the ſaid 100 Acres. The Defendant traverſed the preſcription, it was found for the Plaintiff: It was moved in ſtay Judgment, by reaſon of the number of the Acres omitted by the Plaintiff in the bar to the Conuſance; becauſe Non conſtat Curiæ, what the reſidue of the Acres were. But it was adjudged for the Plaintiff, becauſe in this Action he is not to recover any Land, but only damages, for the Bailiffs taking of the Cattel; ſo the Land is not in queſtion: And both Parties agree, that there is a Reſiduum of the Common, and ſo it is found by the Verdict, and be it more or leſs, it is all one; for in that which remains above the 100 Acres, the Plaintiff ought to have Com-

Common. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Mich. 6 Jac. in B. R. Sir Anthony Cope, and Temples Caſe. Yelverton. 146.

25. Treſpaſs againſt Husband and Wife: The Plaintiff declared, that they did beat his Mare; and of diverſe other Treſpaſſes: Upon Not guilty, the Jury found, That the Wife beat the Mare; and for the reſidue they found Not guilty. The Opinion of the Court was, That the Plaintiff Nil capiat per Billam; for the Verdict is altogether imperfect, for they have found the Wife Guilty of beating of the Mare, and have given in Verdict, as to the taxing the Husband, either by way of acquittal, or condemnation, and ſo finding for the reſidue Not guilty, doth not extend but to the Treſpaſſes, and not to the Battery of the Mare: Alſo it appeareth by the Verdict, That the Action of the Plaintiff is falſe; for the Husband ſhall not be joyned in ſuch Caſe, but for conformity; and it is not like a Battery charged upon I. S. and I. D; for there one may be acquitted, and the other found Guilty; becauſe in Law they are ſeveral Treſpaſſes. Mich. 5 Jac. in B. R. Drury and Dennis Caſe. Yelverton. 106.

26. In a Replevin: The Defendant avowes the taking as a Commoner damage-feaſants in April 11 Jac. The Plaintiff in bar ſayes, That one A. was ſeized of a Houſe and Land, whereunto he had Common, and demiſed the ſame to him, the 30th. of March, 11 Jac. to hold from the Feaſt of the Annunciation next, for a year: The Avowant traverſed the Caſe modo & forma, where, upon Iſſue taken, the Jury found, That A. made a Leaſe to the Plaintiff, the 25th. day of March for a year, from thence next following; and although this be not the ſame Leaſe that the Plaintiff pleaded, after this begins one day, and the other not ſo ſoon, nor was to take his limitation, but from that day excluded; yet the Court gave Judgment for the Plaintiff: for the ſubſtance of the Iſſue is, Whether the Plaintiff have ſuch a Leaſe from A. or not, as by force thereof, he might have Common at the time; which appeared for him in this Caſe, and the Modo & forma in the reſt, is not material; and yet it muſt not depart altogether from the form of this Iſſue, for if it had been found that he had right of Common by a Leaſe from another, or as an Owner, it would not have ſerved his turn; for that had been clear out of the Iſſue, both for Matter and Form. Trin. 12 Jac. in C. B. Pope and Skinners Caſe. Hob. 73.

27. T. brought Treſpaſs againſt S. The Defendant juſtified, by conveying himſelf an Eſtate by Copy, in a piece of ground, parcel of the Manor of C. whereof A. was ſeized; and the Plaintiff came upon it, and he laid his hands, Molliter, &c. The Plaintiff conveyed himſelf an Eſtate by Copy of another parcel of the ſame Mannor, and then laid, That the ſaid A, Lord of the ſaid Manor, had had for him and his Tenants, in this piece of ground, a way over the Defendants piece; Thereupon Iſſue taken, it was found for the Plaintiff. It was the better Opinion of the Court in this Caſe, That this was not holpen by the Statute, becauſe indeed this is no Iſſue at all, nor thing, nor poſſibly Iſſuable, & therefore the Verdict muſt alſo be utterly void; for a Verdict cannot make that good, that the Court ſees cannot be in Law; and although it was ſaid, that the ſubſtance of the Iſſue, was, no way; and if it had been laid in the Iſſue by way of Cuſtom, the ſame Evidence would have maintained the Iſſue: It was anſwered, That ſince it is put in Iſſue as before, ſo as it cannot ſtand in Law, there Verdict is not to be taken againſt him, to make him ſubject to an Attaint, if in another ſenſe it be falſe: And it was ſaid, That if they had found a Cuſtom for the way, the Court would not have given Judgment; for the ſpecial matter of the Cuſtom, did not bar the Iſſue, as it is taken upon a preſcription void in Law. Hill. 13 Jac. in C. B. Tucker and Salters Caſe. Hob. 111, 113.

28. In Treſpaſs, Iſſue was taken, That R. I. Prebendary of the Prebend of P, in the Church of S, and all his Predeceſſors, Prebendarie, &c. had uſed time out of mind, to keep a Shepherd of certain Sheep of theirs, following the ſame Sheep, for the better keeping of them, feeding together in a certain Paſture, from the Sheep of F. Earl of S. in the ſame place, and the Iſſue was found accordingly. It was moved, That it was a void Verdict; for the preſcription was ſenſleſs, and could not ſtand; That the Sheep could be kept time out of minde, from the Sheep of the Earl, being but one mans life: But yet Judgment was given according to the Verdict for the Plaintiff; for the ſubſtance of the Iſſue was, the keeping of the Sheep of the Prebendary feeding together, and the other part was but a Conſequent of it; that thereby they were kept from the Sheep of the Earl. Trin. in Jac. in C. B. Napier and Juſtars Caſe. Hob. 117.

29. Error for the reverſing of a Judgment in C. B. in an Action of Covenant, to make a Leaſe; and ſhewed, That Nihil habuit, of which he could make a Leaſe; The Defendant pleaded, Quod habuit vide, &c. upon which they were at Iſſue, and the Jury found, that he had Land, whereof he might make a Leaſe, and they finde what Eſtate he had therein: It was a Queſtion, Whether the Verdict ſhould make the Plea good: The Court was clear of Opinion, That the Plea was not good, becauſe he doth not ſhew what Eſtate he

he had in the Land: for the Plea of Habuit, of it ſelf was no good Plea, without ſhewing in ſpecial the Eſtate that he had. But yet the Court was clear of Opinion, that the Verdict here hath made the Plea good, and ſo the Judgment was well given. M. 10 Jac. in B. R. Gloſſe and Gills Caſe. Bulſtr. 2 Part, 41.

2. Special Verdicts, or Verdicts at Large, in what Actions; how to be taken and conſtrued, where favoured, where not; where good, though finde not the Parties Title, and the different Effects between them, and a general Verdict.

1. A Special Verdict, or a Verdict at large, may be given in any Action, and upon any Iſſue, General, or ſpecial; becauſe the truth of the Caſes may be the better diſcovered and diſcuſſed, and Juſtice and Right done. As if a man ſeized of Lands for life, Leaſeth the ſame for life, without Deed, rendring Rent, upon condition of re-entry, upon Non-payment of the Rent; whereupon the Leſſor enters, and the Leſſee brings an Aſſize: In that Caſe, the Jurors may finde the matter at large; and in ſuch Caſe the Judges ought to judge it for the Tenant: although regularly a Condition is not available, without a Deed ſhewed; and although the Leſſor ſheweth not a Deed. Cook 1 Part, Inſtit. 227.

2. In a Special Verdict, all matters ſhall be intended and ſupplyed, but only that which the Jurors have referred to the conſideration of the Court; and ſo it was adjudged, 31 Eliz. in B. R. in Scobel and Gabells Caſe. Vouch in Cook. 5 Part, in Gondales Caſe.

3. A man poſſeſſed of Land in Fee, upon Condition, that if the Feoffor, within a year after the death of the Feoffee, pay to his Heirs, Executors, or Adminiſtrators, 100l.; that then the Feoffment ſhall be void. The Feoffee makes a Feoffment over, and dyeth; and afterwards within the year, it was agreed between the Feoffor, and the Heir of the Feoffee, that the Feoffor pay the 100l., and that the Heir pay back all to the Feoffor, but only 30l. who doth accordingly; and the Feoffor enters into the Land, pretending the Condition to be broken. It was in this Caſe, amongſt other Points reſolved, That becauſe the Jurors replyed, and concluded upon the payment, if it were a perfect manner of the Condition or not, That in ſuch Caſe, the Court ought not to give Judgment, untill they had reſolved that, which the Jurors referred to their Conſiderations; and that all other matters ſhould be intended and ſupplyed; but that only which the Jurors had referred, to the conſideration of the Court. Cook 5 Part, 97. Goodale's Caſe.

4. In an Ejectione firme brought, the Defendant pleaded Not guilty; and the Jury found it ſpecially, That one W. was ſeized of the Land in Fee, and did enfeoff the Husband and Wife, To have, to hold, to the Husband and Wife, and the Heirs of their Bodies, between them to be begotten; by vertue of which Feoffment, the Husband and Wife was ſeized of the whole Land in Fee-tail, &c. The Husband enfeoffed the youngeſt ſon of the Land in Fee, and afterwards, the Husband dyed, and the Wife ſurvived; afterwards, ſhe dyed, before any Entry made by her into the Land, & the Jurors further find the Leſſor to be the eldeſt ſon of their Bodies, and that the youngeſt ſon enfeoffed the Defendant; and that afterwards the eldeſt ſon entred into the Land, and made the Leaſe in the Declaration; and whether his Entry was Lawful or no, upon the Statute of 32 H. 8. That Fines and Feoffments made by the Husband &c. during the Coverture, be, or make any diſcontinuance, or be hurtful to the Wife, or her Heirs, was the Queſtion; and upon this ſpecial Verdict found, It was holden, That the Heir was not barred of Entry by the Statute. Hill. 5 Jac. in C. B. Greale's and Poſſyes Caſe. Brownlo. 1 Part, 131.

5. In Treſpaſs, the Jury found a ſpecial Verdict, to this effect: A. ſeized of Lands in Fee, holden of Th. L. as of his Mannor of H, by Fealty, Rent, and rendring the beſt Beaſt, after the death of every Tenant in Fee-ſimple, by Deed, in conſideration of Paternal love to his ſon and Heir Apparent, and in conſideration of Marriage between his ſon and B, and for the agreement of his ſon enfeoffed his ſon and Heir Apparent of the ſaid Land. Afterwards the ſon, to the intent that B. ſhould not be endowed of the ſame Land, during the life of the Father, re-demiſed the Lands to the Father for 40 years, if he ſhould ſo long live; and afterwards the Marriage took effect. The ſon did ſuit at the Lords Court, and after the Feoffment, the Father paid the Rent to the Lord; and after the Father dyed, the Lord took a Beaſt for a Heriot poſt mortem of the Father; and the Jury found the Statute of 13 Eliz. of fraudulent conveyances. It was reſolved in this Caſe, amongſt other other things, That becauſe no fraud is found by the Jurors, that the Court ſhall not adjudge the ſaid Feoffment fraudulent; and although the Jurors have found circumſtances to incite the Jurors to finde a fraud, yet the ſame is but as Evidence to the Jurors, and not any matter upon which the Court ſhall adjudge the ſame to be fraud. 2. The Jurors have not found, that the ſaid Feoffment was to defraud the Lord of his Heriot, and ſo they have not found the ſame to be within the Statute of 13 Eliz. Trin. 10 Jac. in C. B. Tyrer and Littletons Caſe. Brownlo. 2 Part, 187. See the ſame Caſe vouched in Cook 10 Part, in the Caſe of the Chancellor, Maſter, and Scholars of Oxfords Caſe.

6. The Sheriffs of Norwich brought an Action upon the Caſe againſt B. becauſe they being Sheriffs, a Capias ad ſatisfaciendum was awarded to them; and that they, 20 Febr. 25 Eliz. directed the Warrant in writing, by three Serjants of the City to Arreſt B, by force of which, the Serjants the 26 of Febr. in the ſame year, did Arreſt him in Execution, and that he was reſcued, and eſcaped: The Defendant pleaded Not guilty, and upon Tryal of the Iſſue, a ſpecial Verdict was found, That about 20 Feb. 25 Eliz. ſuch a Warrant was made by but not 20 Feb. and that the Serjants by force thereof, about 20 Febr. did Arreſt him; but not the 26 of Febr. Upon which there was a demurrer: It was ſaid, amongſt other things, That as to the Verdict, the ſore and foundation of the Action is the wrong, and that here is not found certain; for it is ſuppoſed to be 26 Febr. And alſo the Warrant was Circa 26 Febr., and if it were at any time before, then it was maintainable, but not if it was at any time after; and here the Verdict finding it to be Circa 26 Feb. is not good. But the Opinion of the Court was, That the Verdict was certain and good enough; for it ſaith, That ad tunc & ibi dem ipſum ſeipſum recuſſit, and that cannot but be referred to a time certain before, viz. the 26 h. of Febr.; Wherefore, though it was very much oppoſed, Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. H. 29 Eliz. in B. R. Yarraw and Bradſhaw's Caſe, Godbolt. 125.

3. Where and what Acts done by the Jurors, and when ſhall make their Verdict void: And how the Jurors muſt demean themſelves in the giving of their Verdict.

1. NOte, That to prevent falſe Verdicts, If the Jury after their Evidence given unto them at the Bar, do at their own Charges eat and drink, before they be agreed on their Verdict, it is finable only; but it ſhall not avoid the Verdict. But yet if that before they be agreed of their Verdict, if they do eat or drink at the charge of the Plaintiff, if the Verdict be given for the Plaintiff, it ſhall make the Verdict to be void; but if the Verdict be given for the Defendant, it ſhall ſtand good: And ſic è Converſo. Cook 1 Part, Inſtitutes, 228. acc. See Pafc. 35. H. 8. Dyer 55. acc.

2. At the Niſi Prius, the Jury after Evidence given, and that they were departed from the Bar, came and returned, and ſaid, That they all, but one who had eaten Pears, and had drank Ale, were agreed of their Verdict, who would not agree with them; at the requeſt of the Plaintiff, they were ſent back again, and afterwards they returned, and gave Verdict for the Plaintiff, and the Verdict was holden to be good, and a Fine was aſſeſſed of 10l. upon the ſaid Juror who had eaten and drunk, and Judgment was entred for the Plaintiff. Mich. 5 Eliz. Dyer 218. See 29 H. 8. Dyer 37. 14 H. 7. 31. 20 H. 7. 3. Pafc. 24 H. 8. in Spilmans Reports. acc.

3. If the Plaintiff after Evidence given, and that the Jury is departed from the Bar, or any for him, do deliver any Writing, Note, or Letter from the Plaintiff to any of the Jurors, which doth, or may concern the matter in Iſſue; or deliver any further Evidence or eſcroll, touching the matter in Iſſue, which was not before given in Evidence; if thereupon the matter ſhall be found for the Plaintiff, it ſhall make the Verdict to be void, as to the Plaintiff; but if notwithſtanding, they give their Verdict for the Defendant, then it ſhall be a good Verdict; and ſic è Converſo. But if the Jury carry away any Writing unſealed, which was not given in Evidence in open Court, this ſhall not make the Verdict to be void, although the Juors ſhould not have taken and carryed away ſuch Writing with them. Cook 1 Part, Inſtitutes. 227, 228, &c. And ſee there, that after the Jurors are agreed, of their Verdict, they may in Caſes between Party and Party, if the Court be riſen, give a privy Verdict, before any of the Judges of the ſame Court in which the Tryal is; and the next Morning they may in open Court, either affirm, or alter their Privy Verdict, and that which is given in Court ſhall ſtand: But in criminal Cauſes of life and member, the Jury can give no privy Verdict, but they muſt give it openly in Court. Cook 1 Part, Inſtitutes. 295. acc.

3. In Treſpas, the Caſe was, The Jury being charged, and Evidence given, and being retyred into a houſe to conſider of their Verdict, they remained there a long time, without concluding any thing; The Officers who attended them, ſeeing their delay, ſearched if they had any thing about them to eat; and found, that ſome of them had Figgs, other Pippings; which being moved to the Court, they were examined upon Oath; and two of them did confeſs that they had eaten Figgs, before they had agreed on their Verdict; and three of them confeſſed, that they had Pippings, but did not eat them. It was holden, That this was a great miſdemeanor in the Jurors, and thoſe who had eaten, were Fined every of them 5l.; and thoſe who had not eaten, every of them 40 s. apiece: But upon great advice, and conſideration had, and conferrect with the reſt of the Judges, the Verdict was taken to be good, notwithſtanding the miſdemeanor aforeſaid. See Book. Entryes. 251. Hill. 3 Eliz. in C. B. Mounſon and Porters Caſe. Leon. 132, 133.

More Verdict.

1. DEbt for 19l. 10s. The Plaintiff declared upon a Leaſe for years, of certain Copy-hold-Lands, rendring 30l. per Annum, at Mich. and the Annunciation, by equal portions; and upon a Leaſe of certain Free-hold Lands, in the ſame Town, rendring 20s. per An. at the ſame Feaſt; and for 19l. 10s. for the Copy-hold Lands Rent Arrear, and 10s. for the Free-hold: The Action was brought, the Defendant pleaded Nil debet, and found for the Plaintiff quoad the 10s. for the Free-hold; & quoad the 17l. 10s. for the Copy-hold. It was found for the Defendant; The Clerk of the Aſſizes retorned the Poſtea, that it was found for the Plaintiff, and the 10s. parcel of the 19l. 10s. and Quoad the reſidue of the 19l. 10s. the Defendant, Non debet. In ſtay of Judgment it was moved, That the Verdict was incertain which of thoſe Rents was not paid; but becauſe the Judge before whom the Iſſue was Tryed, did well remember, that the Jury found for the Copy-hold-Rent for the Defendant, and for the Free-hold-Rent, for the Plaintiff: By the Rule of the Court, the retorn of the Poſtea was amended. Mich. 9 Car. in B. R. Eliot and Skippers Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 246.

2. The Executor of A. brought Debt upon an Obligation againſt the Executor of I. D: the Defendant pleaded, That I. D. dyed Inteſtate, and that before the Writ brought, Adminiſtration of the goods was committed to I. M, who Adminiſtred, and yet doth Adminiſter: The Plaintiff replyed, That I. D. dyed Inteſtate, and that before the Adminiſtration granted, diverſe Goods of his came to the Defendants hands; which Goods the Defendant as Executor to the ſaid I. D, Adminiſtravit, ſeu alter ad uſum ſuum propriam diſpoſuit et convertit, et hoc, &c. Whereupon Iſſue was joyned, and found againſt the Defendant in the diſjunctive, as aforeſaid. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff, for the point in Iſſue is directly found, and the Iſſue alſo is not improper; for though the Verdict be true, if either he did Adminiſter, or otherwiſe convert them to his own uſe, yet both muſt be as Executor; for ſo is the Pleading and Verdict, and then it is but the ſame thing ſpoken two wayes; and ſince there was an Execution in wrong, before the Adminiſtration granted, the Plaintiff had cauſe of Action veſted in him, which ſhall not be taken away by the Adminiſtration granted, though it be before the Action brought. Trin. 11 Jac. in C. B. Rott. 4081. Stebie and Oxbaſtons Caſe. Hob 49.

3. Note, It was ſaid by the Court, and put as a Rule in Law, That although a Verdict ſeemeth to ſtray, or not conclude formally, or punctually unto the Iſſue, ſo as you cannot find the words of the Iſſue in the Verdict; yet if a Verdict may be concluded out of it, to the Point in Iſſue, the Court ſhall work it into a form, and make it ſerve; and therefore ſee 47 E. 3. 19. In a Precipe one came and ſaid, That the Tenant was Tenant for life, and prayed to be received for the Reverſion; the Defendant on the other ſide, pleaded, That the Tenant in the Action had Fee; whereupon Iſſue was taken that he had not Fee: But it was found, that neither the Tenant, nor he in the Reverſion, had any thing in the Land, which is clean beſides the Iſſue, and againſt the Reaſon of Reſſit. Yet it was adjudged, that he ſhould be received, for by this Verdict, it was found, that the Tenant had not Fee, which was all that was put in Iſſue: For both the Demandant and the Tenant praying the Receit, allowed a Tenant to the Action, which muſt be a Tenant of the Freehold, and that being agreed by the parties, the Jurours cannot falſify that. See in Foſter and Jackſons Caſe, Hob. 54.

4. In Waſte, the Plaintiff declared that the Defendant was ſeiſed, and made a Feoffment in Fee to the uſe of himſelf for life, the Remainder to the Plaintiff in Fee, after which he committed Waſte. The Defendant ſaid, That he was ſeiſed in Fee, without that that he made the Feoffment post, the Plaintiff declared; the Jury found, That he was ſeiſed of ſuch Eſtate as the Plaintiff declared, but with the Priviledg to be diſ-puniſhed of Waſte. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the Defendant might waive the Priviledg, and then the Jury cannot find any thing out of the Iſſue, and the Verdict was therefore void, and it was adjudged for the Defendant. Paſc. 25 Eliz. in C. B. rott. 603. Keyre and Deucatts Caſe. Owen 91.

5. It was found by Diem clauſit extremum, That A. was ſeiſed of Lands, and that J. was his Heir within age, and that the Land was holden of the King in Capite; J. dyed within age. By Inquiſition by vertue of a Writ of Devenerunt, after the death of J. it was found, That the Lands were holden of J. D. as of his Mannor of D. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That although the firſt Office was executed, and doth remain as Evidence for the King whileſt it remains in force: Yet the Jurors are at liberty to find the certainty of the Tenure, and are not concluded by the firſt Inquiſition. Cook 12. Part, 102. Heyes Caſe.

6. In Ejectione firmæ, the Defendants pleaded, Not Guilty; the Jury found them Guilty in tanto unius Meſſuagii in occupatione, &c. quantum ſtat ſuper ripam: And whether this Verdict were ſufficiently certain, ſo as the Court might give Judgment upon it, and execution thereupon had, was the Queſtion. It was ſaid, Id certum eſt, quod certum reddi poteſt, and this may be reduced to a certainty upon the view of the Sheriff. It was Reſolved by the whole Court, That the Verdict was inſufficient for the incertainty, and a difference was taken betwixt Treſpaſs, and Ejectione firmæ, for ſuch a Verdict in Treſpaſs may be good, for there damages only are to be recovered but in an Ejectione firmæ, the thing it ſelf. It was objected, That the Verdict was good, becauſe the demand was certain although the Jury found it in tanto; and where there may be certain deſcription for the Jury, it is good enough. But to that it was anſwered, That that which is naught in demand, is not in the Verdict, and therefore would be naught in the Judgment. Trin. 17 Car. in C.B. Juxton and Andrews Caſe. Marſh. 97.

7. E. brought an Action upon the Caſe againſt F. becauſe whereas the Plaintiff had ſold to the Defendant ſo much Wood; the Defendant in conſideration thereof did promiſe to pay ſo much money to the Plaintiff, and to carry away the Wood before ſuch a day. The Defendant pleaded, That he paid the money at the day aforeſaid, but as to the carrying of it away before the day, he pleaded Non aſſumpſit, and the Jury found, that he did not pay the money at the day; but as to the other they found that he did aſſume and promiſe as aforeſaid. It was moved in ſtay of Judgment, that the finding of the Jury was naught: For being but one Aſſumpſit, and the ſame being an entire thing, it could not be apportioned, and therefore they ought to find the entire Aſſumpſit for the Plaintiff, or all againſt him. It was Reſolved that the Verdict was not good. Trin. 17 Car. in B.R. Eaſt and Farmers Caſe. Mar. 100.

8. In Treſpaſs, the Verdict was found for the Defendants. It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment for the Plaintiff, becauſe no bail was entred for one of the Defendants, for every Defendant is ſuppoſed in Cuſtodia Marſhalli, and in this Caſe the Venire facias is awarded to try the Iſſue betwixt the Plaintiff and Defendants, where one of the Defendants is no party in Court; and it was ſaid, that in ſuch Caſe it was Reſolved in the Lord Chandys and Scullers Caſe, that the Judgment was erroneous. It was the Opinion of the Court in this Caſe, That becauſe no fraud appeared in the Plaintiff, That he ſhould not be bound to ſtand to the Verdict. But it was ſaid in that Caſe, That if the ſame Defendant had appeared at the Suit of any other that Term, it had bin ſufficient. Trin. 16 Jac. in B. R. Dean and Sir Arthur Manneringe's Caſe. Hob. 145.

Vicar

Vicar and Vicarages.

1. Vicarages were Originally endowed out of Parſonages. And the Vicar was to have aid of the Patron if he was impleaded for any thing concerning his Vicarage, and the Parſon was ſubject to every Charge of the Vicarage; and the Vicar in ancient time was not eſteemed the Tenant of the Freehold of the Land of the Vicarage, but the Freehold thereof was in the Parſon; and the Vicar himſelf was not ſuch a perſon againſt whom the Lands of the Vicarage could be demanded; nor did any Precipe lye againſt him as Vicar, nor could he maintain an Aſſiſe in his own name as Vicar. See for all theſe points before. 31 H. 6. 13. by Yelverton. 8. Aſſ. 36. 40 E. 3. 27.

2. In 22 E. 3. fitz. Title Brief, 256. In an Aſſiſe brought againſt a Vicar, he pleaded that he had nothing but as Vicar, and demanded Judgment of the Writ. The Plaintiff ſaid, That he was ſeiſed untill Diſſeiſed by him. In that Caſe, it was holden, That if he had found the vicarage ſeiſed, that then it was a good plea. But in that Caſe it is holden, That a Vicar ſhall not have an Aſſiſe in his own name.

4. In 4 E. 3. Fitz. Tit. Brief, 704. a Writ of Intruſion was brought againſt a Vicar, who pleaded to the Writ, That the Freehold was in the Parſon, and notwithſtanding that plea, the Writ did not abate; but the reaſon of that Caſe might be, For that the Intruſion was a tortious act and a perſonal wrong, and therefore the perſon of the vicar was charged with the ſame. But yet note, That in that very Caſe, the vicar had aid of the Patron and Ordinary, by which it appeareth that the Freehold was in the vicar himſelf, but not the Feeſimple of the Gleab of the vicarage. And note there, That the Poſſeſſions of the vicar and Parſon are ſevered; and it is ſaid, That every of them ſhall have ſeveral Writs concerning the Rights which do appertain unto them, and they ſhall not joyn in one Writ. They ſhall likewiſe pay the Charges lyable upon their ſeveral Gleabs ſeverally. And note, it is ſaid, That now at this day, a Vicar may have and maintain a Writ of Juriſdictum againſt the Parſon, who is the Patron of his Vicarage for the Gleab of the Vicarage. And by this it appeareth, That upon the Endowment at firſt of Land upon the Vicarage, that the Freehold of the Land is in the Vicar; but that the abſolute Feeſimple of the Gleab of the Vicarage is in the conſideration and intendment of Law, in ſuch manner as the Feeſimple of the Gleab of the Parſonage is.

4. If there be contention de Jure Decimarum originem habeat de jure Patronatus, tunc ſpectat ad legem Civilem: as it was holden by the Opinion of all the Juſtices, Mich. 29 Eliz. in Buſby the Vicar of Paneas Caſe. See Godbolt, 63. And in that Caſe it was ſaid, That de mero jure, The Parſon is to have all Tythes if there be no endowment of the Vicarage. And ſo it was ſaid it was Reſolved, 15 Car. in B. R. That a Vicar cannot have Tythes but by gift, Compoſition, or Preſcription, for that all Tythes de Jure do belong to the Parſon.

5. Note, there are Decima Majores, et Decima minores. In Treſpaſs for taking of two load of Woad. The Jury found, That if they were Minuta Decima, then the Jury found the Defendant guilty. If they were not Minuta Decima, then for the Plaintiff. It was ſaid for the Plaintiff, that without more circumſtances, Woad ſhall not be intended Minuta Decima. For it may be, That a great quantity of Woad may be ſowed, and the greateſt part of the Pariſh may conſiſt in it; For Minuta Decima are but of ſmall conſideration, as herbs in a Garden, or ſuch like. And therefore Woad ſowed in a Field is not Minuta Decima. But it was Reſolved, That Woad growing in the nature of an Hearb, the Tythe thereof ought to be accounted Minuta Decima, and ſo to belong to the Vicar. And 42 Eliz. it was adjudged, That the Tythe of fourty Acres of Lands ſowed with Saffron, was Minuta Decima, and did belong to the Vicar.

6. The Prior of D. was ſeiſed of the Advowſon of N. appropriated to his Priory; and alſo of the Vicarage of N. endowed with ſmall Tythes. This Appropriation and Endowment was in the time of King John, and ſo continued, untill the time of King Henry the 6th, when the Pope Granted by his Bulls, That the Prior ſhould appoint one of his Monks to Officiate the Cure, who ſhould be removable ad natum Prioris. The Queſtion was, Whether thereby the Vicarage was diſſolved. It was objected, That it was in regard the Pope was then Supream Ordinary: And it was good without the Kings Licenſe, in regard the endowing was a Spiritual act, and the Patron had nothing to do therein: And as the endowment of a Vicarage is a Spiritual act, ſo is the diſſolving of it. But it was holden. 1. That a Vicarage perpetual could not be diſſolved after the Statute of 4 H. 4. 2. That the Pope had not any power to make any Ordinance againſt the Statute, and the Pope could not diſſolve the Vicarage in this Caſe, for that by the Statute he had not any right to meddle with Advowſons, Benefices, &c. And the Pope by his Bulls cannot diſpence with the Law, though they tend in Ordine ad Spiritualia. 3. That there was no diſſolving of the Vicarage alledged in the Caſe, or any words that did amount to it, but the words only are, That the Vicar ſhould dot ad naturam Prioris. 4. It was ſaid, That a Parſonage and a Vicarage are two diſtinct Benefices, and both have Curam animarum, the Parſon habitualiter, and the Vicar actualiter: And although the Vicarage be Spiritual, yet the Corporation is Temporal, which the Pope cannot diſſolve. And in this Caſe, Parry and Banks Caſe, 12 Jac. in the Exchequer was vouched, which was, A Parſonage was Appropriated to the Deanary of St. Aſaph, 24 H. 8, and a Vicarage endowed. The Biſhop 24 Eliz. diſſolved the Vicarage. Parry pretending the Vicarage was not diſſolved, but remained in the Kings hands, obtained a Preſentation to it. It was Reſolved in that Caſe, That after the Statute of 31 H. 8. which made Parſonages Lay-Fees, that the Ordinary might not diſſolve the Vicarage, when the Parſonage is in a Temporal hand, for that ſhould be to deſtroy the Cure. In the Principal Caſe, it was holden, That the Vicarage was not diſſolved. Mich. 16 Jac. in B. R. Britton and Wades Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 516, 517, 518.

7. Note, In Cook 11. Part, 10. in Pridle and Hoppers Caſe, it is ſaid, That upon the Appropriation of every Church to a Religious houſe, &c. there muſt be a Vicar endowed, and a competent ſum of money to be yearly diſtributed to the Poor. And ſee Trin. 16 Jac. in B. R. in Wards Caſe. It was Reſolved, That a Vicarage endowed might alſo be appropriated, but then ſuch an Appropriation cannot be made to the Parſon. And ſee 31 H. 6. Fitz. Title Indicavit, ſuch a Vicarage endowed, appropriated, may be alſo diſſolved; but in the Caſe of Appropriation, aſwell of the Vicarage endowed, as of a Parſon; the Appropriation muſt be made by a Spiritual perſon, as by the Biſhop or Ordinary by an Inſtrument under their hands and Seals; and it muſt be by Licenſe from the King, for that no perſon whatſoever can make any Appropriation without the Kings Licenſe.

8. The Caſe was, The Abbot of S. held the Parſonage of L. in the County of L. to his proper uſe, as a Parſonage Appropriated. The Parſonage 31 H 8. came to the King by the Diſſolution of Monaſteries, who in 37 H. 8. granted it in Fee-Farm, under which grant the Plaintiff claimed. The Defendant had obtained a Preſentation of the Queen, and ſo deſtroy the Appropriation, did ſhew the Original of it, which was in Anno 22 E. 4. with a Condition in it a Vicarage ſhould be competently endowed. And alledged, That the Vicarage was never endowed, and for that cauſe the Appropriation was void, and in truth there was no Inſtrument, nor any direct proof made of the Endowment of the Vicarage. But in that Caſe, foraſmuch as the ſaid Rectory was for all the time of the Appropriation ſuppoſed, reputed, and taken to be appropriate, and by all that time, a Vicar Preſented, Inſtituted and Inducted, as a Vicar rightfully endowed. It was Reſolved by all the Juſtices, That it ſhall be preſumed, That the Vicarage in reſpect of Continuance, was lawfully endowed; and it ſhall be of dangerous Preſident to examine the Originalls of Appropriations of any Parſonages, and the endowments of Vicarages, for that the Original of them in time will periſh. Trin. 37 Eliz. in the Exchequer Chamber. Grimes and Smiths Caſe. Poph. 4. See Mich. 1609. in Carle Ward. Stafford's Caſe. Lea 25. acc.

9. In a Quare Impedit brought, The Plaintiff declared, That the Defendant had diſturbed him to Preſent ad Vicariam de D. and ſhewed, That the Queen was ſeiſed of the Rectory of D. and of the Advowſon of the Vicarage of D. and by her Letters Patents, gave to the Plaintiff Rectoriam prædictam cum pertinentiis et etiam Vicariam Eccleſiæ prædict. In that Caſe it was holden by the Court, That by theſe words the Advowſon of the Vicarage did not paſs; and that it did not paſs in the Caſe of a common perſon, may leſs in the Caſe of the King. But it was holden, That if the Queen had Granted Eccleſiam ſuam de D. that then the Advowſon of the Vicarage had paſſed. Mich. 32 Eliz. in C.B. Aſhgells and Dennis's Caſe. Leo. 191.

10. It hath bin a Queſtion much controverted in old Books, viz. If there be Parſon and Vicar endowed in one Church, and the Vicarage doth become void, Who ſhall be ſaid to be Patron, and have right to Preſent to the Avoydance, Whether the Patron of the Parſonage, or the Parſon the Incumbent of the Parſonage. In 17 E. 3. 51. ſome of the Judges are of Opinion, That the Advowſon of the Vicarage doth appertain to the Parſon, others, that it doth belong to the firſt Patron, and the Court is divided in Opinion. And ſee Mich. 16 E. 3. Fitz. Quare Imp. 145. b Perning and Hil. The Ordinary cannot make a Vicar without the aſſent of the Patron. 5 H. 2. Fitz. Quare Imp. 161. puts the Caſe, That although the Vicarage be made with the assent of the Patron and Ordinary, yet the Advowson of the Vicarage doth remain in the Patron, because it is parcel of the Advowson of the Parsonage. In 16 E. 3. Fitz. Grant, 56. It was a Question, If by the Grant of the Advowson of the Church, the Vicarage did pass. It was said there by Stunt, That it doth pass as incident to the Parsonage. And see 31 H. 6. 13, 14. by Hengist, The Parsonage and Vicarage are all one: and he that is Patron of the Parsonage, is Patron of the Vicarage, and Fortescue doth agree the same. But notwithstanding the said Authorities, it hath bin conceived, and such is the Opinion at this day (ut credo), That de Jure, the Parson is the Patron of the Vicarage, unless upon the endowment of it, it be otherwise provided. And see Fitzh. Nat. Brev. 33. where it is said, That the Presentation to the Vicarage doth belong unto the Parson of Common right, if it be not otherwise agreed unto. See 2 H. 3. Fitz. Grants 89. If a man by Fine Grant his Parsonage, saving the Presentation to the Vicarage, it is a void Saving. And common experience is, That where there is an Appropriation, and a Vicar endowed, That the Parsons to whom the Appropriations were made, were always accounted Patrons of the Vicarage. And see 50 E. 3. 26. An Abbot who had the Advowson Appropriate upon which there was a Vicarage endowed, did Present to the Vicarage. See 17 E. 2. Fitz. Quare Imp. 178. acc. Also in regard the Endowment of the Vicarage is taken out of the Parsonage, and out of the Estate of the Parson; and if he be impleaded of Glebe, of which he is so endowed, he shall have aid of the Parson; and if the same endowment be diminished, the Ordinary may new endow it out of the Parsonage, as 31 H. 6. 13. is, for these reasons it hath bin conceived, That the Advowson of the Vicarage doth appertain to the Parson, and not to the first Patron of the Parsonage. Quære, what the Law is at this day. For that in our late Books of Reports, I do not find this point to have bin Resolved, or determined; and therefore I have thought fit to mention this point here, and leave it to the consideration of the Learned.

with

11. A Vicar did contract by these words, viz. Inter se convenerunt, with a Parishioner to pay so much for encrease of Tythes, and dyed; his Successor sued in the Ecclesiastical Court for them, and a Prohibition was prayed. It was adjudged in this Case, That although it was confirmed by the Ordinary, yet the same could not bind the Successor, and thereupon a Prohibition denyed. Pas. 17 Car. in B. R. Hitchcock's Case.

12. In the Case of a Prohibition where the Vicar Libelled in the Spiritual Court for Tythe of Herbage and Agistment of Cattel upon Grounds after Harvest: Where the Parishioners alledged a Custome to pay a Tythe of Hay to the Parson. It was Resolved, 1. That the payment of Tythes to the Parson is a sufficient discharge of the Vicar, because de jure all Tythes belong to the Parson, and the Vicarage is derived out of the Parsonage, and so no Tythes de jure doth belong to him but onely upon Endowment or Prescription, which must be shewed by the Vicar, for that the Court shal not intend it; for the Vicarage is a diminution, and impairing to the Parsonage. 2. That the Custome was good; for inasmuch as the owner of the ground hath paid Tythe of Hay, he is of common right discharged of Agistment upon the same Land; and the Land shall answer but one Tythe. And it was adjudged in Adolphs Case, That paying of Tythes of Rye and Wheat by the Sheaf, that the party shall not pay Tythe of the Halme of the same Land, because the Halme is but part of the stalk upon which the Tythe Sheaf grew. Pasc. 4 Jac. in B. R. Green and Allen's Case, Yelverton 86.

See in all the Titles before, concerning Vicars and Vicarages. And note where, and what act done to them and by them, and Parsons, shall have one Construction in Law; for although they be distinct Nomine, yet they be idem in Spiritualibus, and in consideration of Law. And the Cases concerning one of them, may be generally applyed to the other. Ideo, Quære the Tytles.

View:

View.

View; where it lyeth; and for whom, and in what Actions to be Granted, in what not: And what things ſhall be put in View; what not.

1. VIew generally is when an Action real is brought, and the Tenant knoweth not what Land it is that the Demandant demandeth by his Writ, Then the Tenant may pray the View; that is to ſay, That he may ſee the Land which he demandeth: But if the Tenant hath had the View in one Writ, If that Writ be abated for Miſnomer or other cauſe, and he bringeth another Writ againſt the ſame Tenant, in the ſecond Writ, the Tenant ſhall not have the View.

2. In a Precipe quod reddat, the Tenant demanded the View; and an Habere facias viſum iſſued forth, and the Tenant came not to the Sheriff to take the View. It was the Opinion of the whole Court in that Caſe, That the Sheriff may return, That none came to take the View; and it was ſaid, That the Habere facias Viſum being at the Suit of the Tenant if he make default to take the View, it is good reaſon to exclude him from the View. Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Ho and Hoes Caſe. Goldesbr. 44.

3. In a plea of Land, the Queſtion was Whether after a general Imparlance, the Tenant ſhould have the View. It was the Opinion of the Court, That in that Caſe, the View was not Grantable, no more are Joynt-Tenancy or Non-Tenure pleadable after Imparlance, for the firſt, See Hill. 4 Eliz. Dyer, 210. 20 H. 6. 18. 8 H. 5. 8. 4 H. 7. 17. 35 H. 6. 31. 9 E. 4. 31. But the Preignothories ſaid, That the Preſidents were contrary.

4. In a Writ of Right of the Manor of D. Et de duabus partibus Cuſtodia Foreſte de C. The Tenant demanded the View, and the Writ of Habere facias viſum was awarded by the Court, and it was Manerii et duarum partium Cuſtodia. &c. It was holden by the Court to be an inſufficient View, for the Foreſt it ſelf ought to be put in View, and not duæ partes tantum. As where a Rent or Common is demanded, the Land out of which the Rent or Common is comming ought to be put in View, and therefore in the principal Caſe, a Writ of Habere facias viſum de novo was awarded. Mich. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Liverſyns Caſe. Leon. 56.

5. In an Action of Waſte, the Waſte was aſſigned in a Wood. The Jury viewed the Wood only, without entring into it. It was holden by the Court, That the ſame was ſufficient: for otherwiſe it ſhould be tedious to the Jury to have had the View of every ſtub of a Tree which had been felled. Yet it was ſaid, That if the Waſte had been aſſigned in ſeveral corners of the Wood, then the Jury is to have the View of every corner; but contrary where it is aſſigned in the whole Wood; and it was ſaid in this Caſe, That if Waſte be aſſigned in every room of a houſe, the View of the houſe generally is ſufficient; and the Lord Dyer ſaid, That if Waſte be aſſigned in ſeveral places, and of ſome of them, the Jury had not the View, that of that they may find, No Waſte done. Mich. 20 Eliz. in C. B. Leon. 267.

6. Note, It was ſaid and agreed by the Juſtices, That by the name of all Hereditaments ſcituate, lying and being in D. that the Advowſon of the Vicarage ſhall paſs; for although the Advowſon be not viſible, nor palpable, nor lyeth in Livery. Yet in a Writ of Right of Advowſon, the Church ſhall be put in View, ſo as that it had a being in the Town and Church. Paſc. 15 Eliz. Dyer, 314. See 43 E. 3. 1. acc.

7. A man may have a Writ of Right of Advowſon, de Advocatione Eccleſiæ de D. and then if there be two Churches in one Town, the Tenant ſhall have the View; but if there be two Churches in one Town Dedicated to two ſeveral Saints, viz. St. Mary, and St. Peter; then if a Writ of Right be brought de advocatione Eccleſiæ Sanctæ Mariæ of D. the Tenant ſhall not have the View. Coke 11. Part, 22. in Dr. Ayries Caſe.

8. Note, B. brought a Writ of Quod permittat againſt G. and after Imparlance, the Defendant demanded the View. It was Ruled by the Court, That he might well do it. See 34 H. 6. 9. and 10. 6 E. 4. 1. and the View was de tenementis prædict. which was ſaid aſwell of the Lands to which the Nuſance was, as to the Lands which was the Nuſance. And it was ſaid, That in this Action, the View is but for 15 dayes. Hill. 36 Jac. in C. B. Brooke and Greaves Caſe. Hutton 18.

9. In a Writ of Dower, the Tenants demanded the View, and the Demandant counterpleaded the View, Quod le tenement. nul entry niſi by the Huſband; hand, and thereupon the Tenant did demur; and it was adjudged a good counterplea, and the Tenant was ousted of his View. Hill. 18 Jac. in C.B. rott. 933. Bridgland and Poſt's Caſe, Hutton 44. See 9 E. 4. 6. 2 H. 4. 24. acc.

10. In an Aſſiſe brought for the Office of a Herauld at the Funeral of the Earl of Exeter. The Queſtion was, Where the View ſhould be made. It was alledged that it ſhould be made in the place where he exerciſed his Office; but the Court doubted of that, but they were examined of the View made in the Abbey of Weſtminſter being the place where the Funeral was performed. And in that Caſe, The Court was of Opinion, That in Dower where Tythes are demanded, there no View lyes, for of things that are inviſible, no View lyes. Trin. 7 Jac. in C. B. Brownlow 1. Part, 27.

11. If a Manour be divided betwixt Coparceners, Demand may be made of the moyety of the Manour, and View may be made of that part only which is demanded. But it is otherwiſe if the Manour were not ſevered; for there although the demand be but of the moyety, yet the View ſhall be of the whole Manour. See 26 H. 8. 4. 9 E. 4 13.

12. In Dower of two parts of two Mills, and Rent in other Towns, whereas they were two Tofts at the death of the Husband. As to parcel, the Tenant pleaded a Remitter, and as to the reſt, he demanded the View; and although the View was demanded of the Lands, yet by the Award of the Court, the Tenant was ouſted of the View. 14 H. 4 33.

13. A man ſeiſed of Black Acre in Fee, and of White Acre for years, by Deed granted a Rent out of both of them to J. S. for life, with clauſe of Diſtreſs in both Acres: the Rent was behind, J. S. Diſtreyned in White Acre. In this Caſe, amongſt other things, it was Reſolved, That when a man Grants a Rent out of Land in Fee, and out of a Terme for years to have for life, that the Freehold of the Rent ſhall iſſue out of the Land in Fee, and not out of the Term for years, which is but a Chattel; and the agreement of the parties cannot charge ſuch a thing which is not chargeable by Law, as a Rent cannot be granted out of an Advowſon, a Hundred, a Fair, and the like, becauſe in an Aſſiſe brought of them, they cannot be put in View, nor any Diſtreſs taken in them; and it was ſaid, If in the Principal Caſe, an Aſſiſe be brought, that the Acre in Fee ſhould be only put in View. Cook 7. Part, Butts Caſe.

14. If a man at the Common Law hath a rent iſſuing out of two Counties, he cannot have an Aſſiſe in one County, becauſe every part of the Lands in the two Counties is charged with this Rent, and ſhall be put in View, as it is agreed 18 E. 2. Fitz. Tit. Aſſiſe, 380. But if a man maketh a Leaſe of Lands in two Counties for another mans life, rendring Rent, and the Rent is behind, and Ceſtuy que vie dyeth, the Leſſor ſhall have an Action of Debt in which of the Counties he will, for now it is changed into Debt; and in that Caſe, no Land ſhall be put in View, but the perſon of the Debtor ſhall be only charged by the Common Law. Cook 7. Part, 3. in Elbrers Caſe.

15. A Writ of Dower was brought by Husband and Wife againſt divers perſons; ſome of them confeſſed the Action, and the others demanded the View: the Queſtion was, If they ſhould have it, The Juſtices at the firſt ſeemed they ſhould have it, but at laſt upon the ſight of divers Books, as 33 H. 6. 14 H. 6. 6. becauſe Dower was favoured in Law, they were ouſted of the View. Paſc. 8 Eliz. Dyer, 179.

16. Note, It was agreed by the Juſtices in an Aſſiſe brought of Lands in Kent, where the Plaint was of a Meſſuage and four Acres of Land in Eaſt-Malling, that the Plaintiff might abridg his Plaint of the Meſſuage, becauſe that the Jurours had not the View, but of the Land, et hoc fuit ex errum propria autoritie, without making of it by the Sheriff. And it was holden, That the View was well enough, for it was ſaid, That if the Jury have good knowledg of the thing in Plaint, ſo as they can put the Plaintiff into poſſeſſion if he doth recover, the ſame is good enough, although the Sheriff never gave them the view of it. Paſc. 28 H. 8. Dyer, 62. Pennington and Marſes Caſe.

17. Aſſiſe was brought de Libero Tenemento in Weſtmin. and the Plaint was of the Office of Philizer, and the Plaintiff made his Title in his Plaint, and alledged Seiſin, by taking of a Capias, &c. and ſee there in that Caſe, That the Poſt where the Officers ſit when they are made Officers, was put in view. See Paſc. 3 Ma. Dyer, 214. And ſee Cook 8. Part, in John Webbs Caſe, acc.

18. Note, That to Feoffment, Livery and Seiſin is requiſite; but yet if there is not any Deed of the Feoffment, yet if the Land doth lye in another County, Livery made within the view of the Land, is good, as the books of 9 E. 4. 39. and 38 E. 3. are.

19. If a Feoffment be made, and Livery be within the view, and the Feoffee dares not enter into the Land for fear, but claims the Land: In ſuch Caſe the Inheritance of the Land is veſted in him, although that by the Livery no Eſtate paſſed unto him, neither in fact, nor in Law. And ſo note, That a Livery in Law is executed by an Entry in Law. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 48.

20. If a man maketh a Feoffment in Fee, and maketh Livery within the view, the Eſtate of the Land is not bound untill entry by the Feoffee; but yet in ſuch Caſe, if the Lands do lye in ſeveral Counties, and the Feoffee dareth not to enter, there Livery of it made within the view, ſhall be a good Livery, which afterwards may be executed by an Entry. Cook 1. Part, 156. acc. And ſee, That if Lands which do lye in ſeveral Counties be put in Exchange, if the Lands be in view, the Exchange is good, and preſently executed, without any entry, by Moile in 9 E. 4. 35. Quod Nota.

Vi Laica removenda.

1. THis is a Writ which lyeth in Caſe where there is debate or Controverſy betwixt two Incumbents, Parſons; or by two Proviſors for a Church, and one of them entreth into the Church with a great Lay power with force, and keepeth the other out with force and Arms. In ſuch Caſe, he who is kept out by ſuch force, may have this Writ directed to the Sheriff, that he remove ſuch Lay power which is in or upon the Church: And to remove ſuch Lay power and force; if need require, the Sheriff may take with him poſſe Comitatus; and ſome have bin of Opinion, That he may Arreſt the perſons, and Impriſon them for the contempt (but Quære of that): The Writ is only that he remove the force, but upon ſuch Writ, the Sheriff ought not to remove the Incumbent, or perſon Sheriff is in poſſeſſion, whether the poſſeſſion be of right or wrong, but only to remove the force, and ſuffer the Incumbent to continue the poſſeſſion; and if the Sheriff doth, contrary to the Writ, remove the Incumbent, he is to make him amends preſently for the wrong, otherwiſe the Incumbent hath remedy in Law againſt the Sheriff. See Fitz. Nat. Brev. and Old Nat. Brev. 31. acc.

2. Note that this Writ of Vi Laica removenda will not lye untill a Return be made by the Biſhop or Ordinary into the Chancery; and then upon ſuch Certificate made into any of the Kings Courts, the Kings Bench or Common Pleas at the pleaſure of the party. If the King ſuch collate any one to a Prebend, which commeth to the King by Title, and the Biſhop doth make ſuch a reſiſtance, that the Kings Preſentee cannot have the Corporal poſſeſſion of the Prebend, but is kept out of poſſeſſion by Lay power or force. Then was the Kings Preſentee to have this Writ directed to the Sheriff, with a poſſe Comitatus in the Writ, to remove the ſaid power of reſiſtance. See Fitz. Nat. Brev. ibid. acc.

Victualls, and Victuallers.

1. NOte by the Statute of York, No Victualler ſhall uſe the Occupation to ſell victual or Wine in groſs, or by Retail, ſo long as he is in Office in any Town, Borough, or City, to keep the Aſſiſe upon Bread and Wine upon forfeiture, &c. If a man who is a Victualler be choſen to be Mayor, Sheriff, or other Officer in a Town, Borough, or City; who by reaſon of his Office is to keep the Aſſiſe. By the Statute of 3 H. 8. cap. 18. It is Ordeyned, That two diſcreet perſons of the ſame Town, &c. who are not Victuallers, be choſen and ſworn to aſſeſs the Aſſiſe of Bread, Wine, and Victual during the time that he is in his Office. And then after the price aſſeſſed of Wine and victual for the time, it ſhall be lawfull for him who is choſen Mayor or Sheriff, to ſell Wine and victual for the time that he is Officer. See the Statute of York, and the Statute of 3 H. 8. cap. 18. in Raſtall.

2. An Action upon the Caſe was brought for the ſpeaking of theſe words, viz. Sir a Juſtice, I will give him 5 l. every year for his Gifts for Juſtice matters. It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That the words were not actionable: For it was ſaid, That one might take Preſents of victuals without offence. Mich. 3 Jac. in B. R. Kemp and Howſgate Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 90.

3. An Information was in the Exchequer upon the Statute of 5 E. 6. for Ingroſſing of Apples, being dead victualls, the Defendant being a Coſtermonger.

monger. It was demurred thereupon, and that it is out of the Statute, for it is not ſuch a victual as the Law intends, and ſo it was Reſolved by all the Judges upon Conference had in the ſame Caſe. And Coke Chief Juſtice ſaid, That there was not any thing Prohibited within the Statute, but it had a Proviſo how in ſome kind it might be brought. But there was not any ſuch Proviſo for Appetals, and therefore it was never intended to be reſtreyned. Mich. 6 Jac. in B. R. Braddon and Brewer's Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 214.

4. Information upon the Statute of 5 E. 6. for ingroſſing 100 Buſhells of Salt to ſell again. It was demurred upon the Declaration, becauſe it is not any victual within the intent and meaning of the Statute. And it was ſaid, That it would be a great inconvenience, if Salt ſhould be within the Law as victualls, for then it ſhould extend to them who carry Salt to be ſould in Waynes, and it would enforce every one by the Buſhel or Peck at the Ship or Saltpits, which the Law never intended; but the Law intends thoſe things which are ſold in great quantities uſually at every Market in every County; as Corn, Butter, Cheeſe, &c. But if any one ingroſs Salt with an Intent to ſell it at his own price, and at unreaſonable prices, he may be thereof Indicted at the Common Law, and if it be found, he ſhall be fined. And it was ſaid in this Caſe, That it was adjudged 18 Eliz. in the Kings Bench, That buying of Barley, and converting it into Malt, and ſelling it, was no Offence puniſhable in a Mayor who ſold it, nor made him to be a Victualler, (the Mayor being prohibited to ſell victualls) and it was ſaid alſo, That 21 Jac. it was adjudged, That Hops were not victualls within this Statute. Mich. 17 Car. in B. R. the King and Reynolds Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 167.

Vill, or Town:

1. IN an Action upon the Caſe, Whereas the Mayor and Burgeſſes of Liskarrell, in the County of, &c. were ſeiſed in Fee of three Water Mills in L. predict. That the Mayor and Burgeſſes and all thoſe, &c. in the ſaid Mills for them, their Tenants and Farmers, time whereof, &c. have had their Watercourſes running from a place called H. in Parochia de L. predict. to the ſaid Mills, to ſerve them with water to grind Corn: and declared, That ſuch a day they demiſed to him the ſaid Mills for 21 years; and that he being poſſeſſed, the Defendant 1. Oct. 5 Jac. at L. predict. between H. and the aforeſaid Mills, digged a breach and diverted the Watercourſe. That whereas he uſed to grind every Week 30 Quarters of Corn, he could now grind but only 10 Quarters. The Defendant pleaded Not Guilty, and found againſt him. It was moved, That the Venire facias was from the Town of L. whereas it ought to have bin from the Pariſh of L. for the Watercourſe is alledged to be current from the place called H. in Parochia de L. predict. But the Exception was diſallowed by the Court; For the Court ſaid, That the Pariſh of L. and the Town of L. are intended to be all one, and H. is but a place known, and no Town by intendment. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Mich. 8 Jac. in B. R. Sir William Wray and Veſpers Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 163. See Hob. 6. the ſame Caſe.

2. Ejectione firmæ of a Leaſe of R. A. and the Plaintiff declares of a Leaſe made at C. of Lands in Parochia de C. predict. The Defendant pleaded Not Guilty. It being found againſt him, It was moved in ſtay of Judgment, That the Venire facias was awarded de Parochia de C. where it ought to have bin de Villa de C. For Parochia de C. is not the Village before mentioned. But the Opinion of the Court was, That it was good enough, for that (predict.) made them all one, and the Court ſhall not intend that the Pariſh did extend into other Towns then C. and although a Pariſh may extend into more Towns, yet it ſhall not be ſo intended, eſpecially when it is ſaid, Parochia de C. predict. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Paſc. 12 Jac. in B. R. Vale and Fields Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 340.

3. In Ejectione firmæ upon a Verdict, the Caſe was, There being two Towns, Walton, and Street in the Pariſh of Street, a Fine was levyed of ſuch Lands in Street; and whether the Lands in Walton did paſs by that Fine, was the Queſtion. It was adjudged in that Caſe, That they ſhould not paſs; for Street being a diſtinct Town by it ſelf, and ſo found by the Verdict; Although that Street the Pariſh doth comprehend both, yet in the Fine the Lands in Walton ſhall not be ſaid to be compriſed, unleſs Walton had bin a Hamlet of Street. But if the Fine had bin levyed of all Lands within the Pariſh of Street, then all had paſſed. Mich. 2 Jac. in B. R. Stork and Foxes Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 120.

4. In an Action upon the Caſe, the Plaintiff declared, That whereas he for the ſpace of 20 years, had bin an Inhabitant within the Town of Long-Leverſeidge in the Pariſh of B. and whereas the Inhabitants of Long-Leverſeidg had uſed time out of mind, to have a common High way, aſwell for Footmen as Horſemen, to go and ride from the Town of L. to the Pariſh Church of B. aforeſaid, to hear Divine Service within the ſaid Church, and to carry bodies dying in the ſaid Town, to the Church of B. to be buried, modo et forma ſequente, viz. and ſhews the way through divers Cloſes in Long-Leverſeidge; little L. and G. and over the Church yard of the ſaid Church of B. and from thence to the Church aforeſaid, and backwards. That the Defendant had made a Ditch in one of the Cloſes of G. and ſo diſturbed him, &c. The Defendant pleaded, Not Guilty. It was found for the Plaintiff; It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That the Venire facias was only of G. whereas it ought to have bin from the ſaid ſeveral Vills, or Towns. The Court was of Opinion, That the Venire facias was not well awarded; and therefore a new Venire was awarded of Long-Leverſeidg, Little L. and Goverſall to try the Cauſe again. Hill. 11 Jac. in C. B. Reynr and Waterbowſes Caſe. Hutton 20.

5. In an Ejectione firmæ upon a Leaſe by J. B. who was ſeiſed of two Marſhes (amongſt others, called Knigheſwick, and Southwick, which lye in the Iſland of Camby, in the Pariſh there called North-Benfleet), He being Tenant in tail, and intending to bar it, by Indenture Covenanted to ſuffer a Common Recovery of thoſe two Marſhes by name, and of many other Lands, to the uſe of himſelf in Fee; the Recovery was had, and therein South-Benfleet and many other Pariſhes named, and Camby; but the Pariſh of North Benfleet was omitted. It was the Opinion of the Court in this Caſe, although that Camby was a place known, yet being in a Town, that the Recovery extends not thereunto; no more then if one had a Mannor in the Town of D. which Mannor is called B. and in the Mannor is a place known which is called B. Wood, it is not good; And the Court agreed, That a Common Recovery is good in a Town, Pariſh, or Hamlet. But if it ſhould be admitted, That a Common Recovery ſhould be good in a place known, in a Town or Hamlet, the ſame ſhould be abſurd; for there is no Town wherein there is not twenty places known. And it was agreed, That the Venire facias of a place known, was not good, without the making the Venire of the Town. Mich. 5 Car. in C. B. Baker and Johnſons Caſe. Hutton 105.

Villein and Villeinage.

1. Britton ſaith, That Villeinage began firſt after Noahs Floud, when all things were in Common; and when they did encreaſe, Battails did encreaſe amongſt them. For the Avoyding of which miſchief, it was ordained, That none ſhould kill another in Battail, but that thoſe who they vanquiſhed ſhould be their Villeins to uſe at their pleaſure, or to kill them. In ſome Countries they were called Servi, viz. Slaves, over whom the Lord had power of life and death, as appeareth by Juſtin, Inſtitutes Lib. 1. gloſſ. Servitus. See Britton 70, 77. The Lord Chief Juſtice Hobart, in the Argument of Moor and Huſſes Caſe, Hob. 99. ſaith, That Villenage came ex jure gentium by reaſon of Captivity, they were called Servi; not à Serviendo, but à Servando. There were Villeins almoſt in all Nations, and in England before the Norman Conqueſt, as appeareth by Ingulphus Hiſt. 861. and 903, 913. in a Grant made of the Mannor of Spalding to the Abbot of Crowland, wherein many Villeins and their Services are particularly recited. And Suit doth alſo appear by many other Records and Grants before the Conqueſt. This Servitude and Tenure by Villeinage continued here in England untill the time of King Richard the ſecond, and is ſince by degrees rather worn out, then aboliſhed by any Law, nothing being now left, but the name of it. The laſt man which was claimed for a Villein, being Cruch of Somerſetſhire, in the time of Queen Elizabeth, Mich.

Mich. 10 Eliz. Dyer, 266. Butler and Crouches Case.

2. Mr. Fitzherbert in his Natura Brevium, out of the Book of 14 H. 6. saith, That those who held their Lands in base Tenure in Auncient Demesne, or by the Rod, held them in Villeinage, and that Copy-Tenants, Copyholders, or Tenants by Copy, is but a new found Term: For that in ancient time they were called and named Tenants who held in Villeinage; and that they were not named in the Court Rolls, Copyholders, or Tenants by Copy, but they were called Tenants in Villeinage, or Tenants by Base Tenure.

3. Mr. Littleton, Lib. 1. cap. 11. saith, That Tenure in Villeinage properly is, Where a Villein holds of his Lord to whom he is a Villein, Lands or Tenements according to the Customs of the Manor, or otherwise at the Will of the Lord to do to his Lord Villein Service, as to carry out the Lords Dung out of his Mannor, and lay it upon the Lords Land. And yet he saith, That a Tenure may be to do such a Service as is called Villeinage; and yet they which do the Service are not Villeins, Lit. 38. acc. For as he saith, No Land holden in Villeinage, or Villein Land, nor any Customs arising out of the Land, shall never make a Freeman to be a Villein; But a Villein make Lands which is fit to be holden in Villeinage of the Lord.

4. Villeins are either Regardants, or in gross. And every Villein is a Villein, either by Title of Prescription, viz. that he and his Auncestors have bin time out of mind, or by Confession in a Court of Record. But vid. Hob. 99. That the Confession in a Court of Record, is not the Creation of the Villeinage, but rather a Declaration of a righ full Villeinage.

5. Tenant in tail of a Mannor, to which a Villein was regardant, enfeoffed J. S. of an Acre of Land, parcel of the said Mannor, by these words, viz. Dedi unum Acram Terræ; and further the Grant was, Dedi R. Villanum meum. It was [a Quæ. Whether the Villein did pass as Regardant or in gross, because it was by several Grants, although it was in one Deed. It was conceived that the Villein passed as a Villein in gross, because it was by several Guifts. Pasc. 33 H. 8. Dyer, 48. And see Plow. Com. 104. 6. That if a man leaseth his Mannor for life or years, except the Villeins that by such Exceptions the Villeins are become in gross, although they were before Regardants to the Mannor.

6. See 40 E. 3. 17. and 43 E. 3. 4. Where Villeinage Regardant is pleaded. It was holden by Thorp That it is a good Avoydance of it, to say, That his Father was an Adventiff, viz. such a man from which no man knew from whence he came, nor where he was born; but Belknap held the contrary.

7. In an Action of Trespass brought, it was found by the Jury, That the Defendant held the same Land of the Plaintiff by the Roll at Will, because it was Neif Land, and because the Defendant would not do his Services to the Plaintiff, he entred, and the Defendant put him out, and thereupon he brought his Action; and it was adjudged the Action was well brought, 42 E. 3. 25. Quære in that Case, If it were Copy-Land, for that it is agreed in the Books of 41 E. 3. 8. and 46 E. 3. 6. That the Freehold of the Land holden in Villenage, is in the Lord.

8. Grandfather, Father, and Son: The Grandfather was a Villein, and went from the Manor, and remained out of it, without returning into the Mannor for 60 years, and afterwards dyed without any seizure had or any service done by him, and had issue a Son born out of the Mannor, and dyed. The Son also remained 40 years out of the Mannor, and was taken as a Freeman, without any seizure or claim made by the Lord. It was the Opinion of the Justices in that Case, That he was not seizable as a Villein. Pasc. 10 Eliz. Dyer, 266. Butler and Crouches Case.

9. If a man will confess himself to be a Villein in a Court of Record, although he was not a Villein before; yet now by this his Confession he is become a Villein in gross. Butt see 18 Ass. 10. Fitz. Tit. Villeinage, 16. That a Feme Covert cannot confess her self to be a Neif; but the Husband and Wife in the right of his Wife may so do. See 27 E. 3. Villeinage 27. and 41 E. 3. Vill. 6. If in a Precipe quod reddat the Tenant for life saith, That he is Villein to J. S. and the Plaintiff saith, That he is Frank, and it is found that he is Frank, scil. Free accordingly: Yet upon such his Confession, he shall remain Villein to J. S. during his life. And see 10 Ass. 13. That by Confession of the Husband that he is a Villein, the Land shall be vested in the Lord, although the Tenant hath the same but in the right of his Wife; but that shall be only for the life of him who makes the confession.

10. If the Lord sueth a Writ of Nativo Habendo before the Sheriff, whereby he claimeth the Inheritance of his Villein; yet the Lord may remove the Plaint before the Justices of the Common-Pleas, and then the matter shall be tryed by them; and thereupon he shall have Process against the Villein; for the Sheriff cannot determine the Title of Villeinage in the County: But in such Case, it is good for the Lord; that when he sueth the Nativo habendo to the Sheriff, that forthwith he sue his Pone, to remove the Plaint before the Justices in Banco, for if after the Writ of Nativo habendo issued, the Lord sueth a Pone, to remove the Plaint in Banco; and before it be delivered to the Sheriff, the Villein sueth a libertate probanda, and delivereth the same to the Sheriff, by which the Sheriff adjourneth the Plaint before Justices in Eyre, and returneth the matter upon the Pone before the Justices of the Bench; in that Case, the Justices de Banco, ought not to proceed upon that Pone, because the Sheriff hath returned, that he hath adjourned the Plaint before Justices in Eyre, by the Writ of Libertate probanda; and yet the Pone was of elder date, than the Writ of Libertate probanda. See 11 H. 4. 48. by Gascoigne. and see Old. Nat. Brev. 46. 45 E. 49. Vill. The Party in that Case is without remedy, if not against the Sheriff.

11. A. brought a Nativo habendo against B. in the County before the Sheriff, the same was removed by Pone in C. B. at the day of the return. A. did not appear, Judgment was given, that B. should be enfranchised for ever: Upon that Judgment, Error was brought in the Kings Bench, and it was adjudged, That the Judgment should be reversed; for the Judgment only ought to be, that the Plaintiff be in misericordia, and not the Defendant be enfranchised; for the not appearance of the Plaintiff at the day of return of the Pone, is but a Nonsuit before appearance; for both the Action, and the Pone, might be brought as well by a stranger, as by the Plaintiff: And although the Pone doth say, ad Petitionem petent. yet that is but a suppofal, and shall not conclude the Plaintiff in this Writ, which is a Writ of Right. And if at the day of the Pone, return, the Plaintiff and Defendant do appear, the Plaintiff shall then count upon the Writ de Nativo habendo, alledging of Seisin. Explees, and producing of some of the blood of the Defendant, who know him to be a villein, as the Books of 19 H. 6. and 13 E. 1. in villeinage. See Pase. 1 Jac. in B. R. Dighton and Bartholomewes Case. Yelverton. 12.

12. In a Pretipe quod reddat brought, the Tenant would have confessed himself to have been villein to another by his Attorney: But he was not admitted so to do; but the Confession must be in Person, by himself in Court: But otherwise it is, where he pleads that he holds the Land in villeinage, such a Plea may be by Attorney; because that a Free-man may hold Lands in villeinage. 41 E. 3. 8. Yet see 44 E. 3. 2. and 13. H. 4. Villeinage 40. Where in Trespass brought, the Defendant pleaded villeinage in the Plaintiff, and the Attorney of the Plaintiff confesseth the same; and the Plea and Confession was holden to be good. Vid. 31 E. 3. Vill. 8. If villein bring Rent as Executor, and the Lord pleads villeinage, and the Plaintiff saith that he brings the Action as Executor, it is a Quære if that shall not be a Confession of him, that he is a villein; Finchden held that it should be.

13. If villeinage be pleaded by the Lord, in an Action real, mixt, or Personal, and it is found that he is no villein, If a Writ of Error be thereupon brought, it is no enfranchisment; because the Plaintiff in the Writ of Error, is thereby to defeat the former Judgment; and if in the mean time the villein bringeth an Action against the Lord, the Lord in such Case, need make no protestation, so long as the Record remains in force; for at that time he is free. Cook 1 Part, Institutes. 127.

14. It was found by Office, That T. by Licence of the King, did marry the Kings Neise, and that certain Lands descended to the same Neise, which her Husband alliened without the Kings Licence to another, and for this cause the Land was seized; The Allienee came into the Chancery, and shewed all this matter, viz. That the Neise was married with the Kings Licence, the descent, to the Niese after the marriage. It was holden in this Case, That the Wife being married with the Kings Licence, it was an enfranchisment at least, during the Coverture; and that the Husband in such Case, should be Tenant by the Curtesie. See 33 E. 3. in Traverse. 36 Avouch. in Cook 4 Part, in the Case of the Wardens and Commonalty of Sadlers, 55.

15. Note, It is Enacted by the Statute of Malstbridge, Cap. 6. That the Lord by Knights service shall not lose the Wardship by a Feoffment made by Collusion; yet if the Tenant enfeoffeth the villein of the Lord upon Collusion, the Lord may enter and expell him, and shall not be put to his Action; as it is holden, 33 H. 6. 16. For the general words of the Act, shall not enable the villein, who is disabled, against the Lord by the common Law; and therefore it is holden, That if in such Case, the Lord bringeth an Action against the villein, the same is an enfranchisement of him. Cro. 11 Part, 77. in Magdalene-College Case.

16. In 19. E. 2. in a Nativo habendo, the Plaintiff counted upon a Confession, and the Defendant did acknowledge the same; and afterwards the Plaintiff was Nonsuit. In that Case it was holden, that the same was an enfranchisment of the villein for ever.

17. If a Villain purchaseth Lands and dyeth before the Lord entreth, the Lord is barred for ever; for before the Lord entreth, he hath neither jus in re, nor ad rem, but only a possibility of an Estate, Eſtate, which eſtate he muſt gain by his entry. And therefore if the Villein doth by way of prevention alien before the Lord entreth; the Lord is for ever barred of the poſſibility which he had to enjoy the Land. But yet if the King Villein purchaſeth Lands and alieneth before the King (upon an Office found for him) doth enter; yet the King after Office found, ſhall have the Land; and yet after Office found, the King ſhall not have the mean Profits, becauſe the Kings Title cometh to the Land by ſeiſure. But if the Kings Villein getteth any Goods or Chattels, in ſuch Caſe the property of them is in the King, before any ſeiſure or Office. Cook 1 Part, Inſtitutes. 158. acc.

18. If a Villein be diſſeiſed before the Lord doth enter, the Lord may enter into the Lands in the name of the Villein, and thereby gain the Inheritance of the Land; but if there be a diſcent caſt, ſo as the entry of the Villein is taken away, then the Villein muſt re-continue the Eſtate of the Land by Judgment and Execution, before the Lord of Villein can enter. So if the Villein purchaſeth the Lands in tail, and alieneth before the Lord entreth, the Lords entry is taken away; but if the Villein dyeth, and his Iſſue recovereth the Land entailed in a Formedon, in that Caſe the Lord may enter.

19. Note, concerning enfranchiſments and Manumiſſions of Villeins, theſe Rules and Caſes following; viz. If the Lord delivereth Seiſin of Lands to his villein, to hold in Fee, Fee-tail for life or years, or make him any other Eſtate: Or if the Lord ſueth againſt this Villein a Precipe quod reddat, and Recover, or be Nonſuit: Or if he ſueth his Villein in any other Perſonal Action, as Debt, Accompt, Covenant, Treſpaſs, or the like; theſe are enfranchiſments of the Villein: Becauſe that in ſome of the ſaid Caſes, the Lord might enter into the Lands of his Villein, or take his goods without ſuit; but by ſuch ſuits, the Lord enableth the Villein, and to render the Land in ſome Caſes to the Lord, and in other of the Caſes damages. So, if before Indictment the Lord bringeth an Appeal of Felony againſt his Villein, whereupon the Villein is acquitted, this is an enfranchiſment of the Villein; becauſe upon the acquittance, by the Statute of Weſtminſt. 2. Cap. 12. the Defendant ſhall recover damages. And Note, That in every Caſe where the Lord giveth to the Villein a juſt cauſe of Action, he is thereby enfranchiſed. Cook 1 Part, Inſtitutes. 138. And ſee diverſe Books there vouched to prove the Rules and Grounds aboveſaid.

20. Lord and Villein. The Lord is bound in a Statute: The Conuſee ſueth Execution of the Statute upon the Lands of the Villein. It was holden, 20 Eliz. that the ſame was good, and that the ſame did veſt the reverſion of the Lands purchaſed in the Conuſor: And alſo it was then holden, upon the Statute of 32 H. 8. which giveth re-entent upon eviction, that the ſame ſhall veſt in the Conuſor; and if after the Villein do oust the Conuſee, it was conceived, that the ſame was no ſuch eviction, as was Lawful; and therefore, in ſuch Caſe, the Party ſhould not have re-entent upon the ſaid Statute 20 Eliz.

21. If the Lord deviſeth Lands to his Villein: It was the Opinion of Mr Plowden, That it ſhould be an enfranchiſment againſt the Heir, and yet he was Villein to the Heir, as ſoon as the Deviſe took effect. But in ſuch Caſe, becauſe the Father had power to enfranchiſe him, he ſhall be enfranchiſed, becauſe he is now in by the Father: As if the Father had delivered a Deed of enfranchiſment to one, to deliver to his Villein ſeven years after; and the Father being Lord dyeth, and the Deed is afterwards delivered, it ſhall be an enfranchiſment: So, if a man makes a Leaſe for life, the remainder to the right Heirs of I. S. who hath Iſſue, a ſon, who is a Villein by the confeſſion of the Feoffor, and the Feoffor dyeth, and afterwards I. S. dyeth, and the Tenant for life dyeth; and the ſon of I. S. entreth; he ſhall be enfranchiſed. See Plow. Cogitat. 48. acc.

22. If the Lord doth preſent his Villein to a Church which is void: It was ſaid, It was no enfranchiſment of him, and ſo it was ſaid it was adjudged, in the time of Queen Eliz. in Topfields Caſe. See Mich. 8 Jac. in C. B. Waters Caſe adjudged acc. Godbolt. 179.

23. Lord of Lands holden in Soccage had a Villein in groſſe, and deviſed that his Executors ſhould ſell his Lands, for the payment of his Debts: They ſold the Lands to the Villein: The Lord had Iſſue, a Daughter, who was married to I. S, and they had Iſſue: I. S. dyed, the Lord dyed; the Daughter being Seignoreſs, enter-married with the Villein. In this Caſe, there were two Points conſiderable: The firſt was, If the ſale of the Executors unto the Villein, was an enfranchiſment of him. And 2. If the enter-marriage of the Seignioreſs with the Villein, was a perpetual enfranchiſment of him. Quære. The Poynts were not reſolved. Trin. 8 Jac. in C. B.

24. Where a Free man marrieth a Neif, it hath been holden by ſome, That by this enter-marriage, the Wife ſhall be free for ever. But the better Opinion of our Books are, ſhe ſhall be priviledged during the Coverture only, unleſs the Lord himſelf marrieth the Neif; and then it hath been holden, that ſhe ſhall be free for ever. Cook 1 Part, Inſtitutes. 156.

Union and Conſolidation of Churches.

1. BY the Common Law, If two Churches were ſo poor, and of ſo ſmall Revenues that the Incumbents could not live and maintain their charge of the profits of them. The Ordinaries, Patrons, and Incumbents might make a Conſolidation, or an Union of the two Churches into one. 50 E. 3. 27. 40 E. 3. 28. acc. And upon ſuch Union, it muſt be appointed who ſhall Preſent next after the Union, one of them, or both, or joyntly, or ſeverally by turns. See Doctor and Student, 116. And upon ſuch union and Agreement made, each of the Patrons, if he were diſturbed in his time, might have a Quare Impedit præſentare ad Eccleſiam: For although that by the Union the Incumbency of one Church be loſt and extinguiſhed, yet the Patronage doth ſtill remain: And therefore if an Annuity be Granted out of the Church of D. and afterwards D. be united to S. If the Grantee doth Releaſe to the Patron of S. the Annuity is not extinct; but a Releaſe to the Patron of D. although in the time of Vacation, will extinguiſh the Annuity.

2. It hath bin a Queſtion, Wether at the Common Law, an Union may be made of one Church or Chappell unto another, without the Kings Licenſe or conſent. It was conceived, That it might be, for that the Union is the act of the Ordinary, unio eſt actus Spiritualis; and as it is ſaid Munus Epiſcopale eſt unire, quia tota Dioceſis eſt Cura Epiſcopi: and the Licenſe of the King is not ſo neceſſary in the Caſe of Union of one Church to another, as the ſame is in the Appropriation of Advowſons. See 34 E. 3. Fitz. Quare Imp. 197. 12 H. 8. 8. by Elliot. And ſee, That in Caſes of Union, It is ſaid, That the Union was made by the Patron and Ordinary, or Concurrentibus his qui in lege requiruntur. And ſee 11 H. 7. 9. The Chappel of Wanborow was united to Magdalen Colledg in Oxford, and it was pleaded, That the Union was made by the Patron and Ordinary, but it is not pleaded to be with the Kings Licenſe. 11 H. 7. 9. And ſee, That the Pariſh Churches of Ilerfield and St. Martins, in the County of Southampton, were united by the Ordinaries with the conſents of the Patrons, but it is not ſet forth to be with Licenſe of the King. See 9 Eliz. Dyer, 259.

3. Note, a Church, with Parochial Chappel, or Colledg, cannot be founded or erected by any perſon, without the Kings Licenſe, as it appeareth by the Caſe of the Church of Greyſtock, where the Pope erected and founded a Colledg without the Kings Licenſe, and the Foundation was void. See 7 E. 6. Dyer, 81. But yet it is conceived, That if one Church be united unto another without the Kings Licenſe, that ſuch union is not void for theſe Cauſes. 1. Becauſe the Parſon who was Incumbent, the Patron and the Ordinary at the Common Law might have alliened the poſſeſſions of the Church, or have layed a Charge upon it without the Kings Licenſe, à fortiori, therefore they might unite two Churches into one, for that the King loſeth nothing thereby. 2. If an Advowſon holden of a common perſon be appropriated without the Kings Licenſe. It was holden 21 E. 3. 5. by Shard, That it was no forfeiture of the Advowſon, but that the King ſhould Preſent to the Avoydance Nomine diſtrictionis tantum, untill a Fine be paid to the King for the Allienation without Licenſe, but it doth not make the Appropriation void; à fortiori then an Union ſhall not be void, which is leſs than an Appropriation, although it be without the Kings Licenſe. See 38 Aſſ. 22. Fitz. Title Grants 1. 3. The Right of the King to the Church is only to Preſent for Lapps, which is but a caſual and a collateral Right; and therefore for theſe reaſon, it was conceived, That an Union made of two Churches into one without the Kings Licenſe, might be good and ſtand good at the Common Law.

4. By the Statute of 37 H. 8. cap. 29. It is enacted, That whereas there are many poor Pariſhes within one Mile of another, the Tythes and Revenues whereof be not ſufficient to maintain the Curats, and for the maintenance, Reparations and Ornaments, and duties of the Church, That an Union or Conſolidation of two ſuch Churches may be into one, with the conſents of the Ordinaries, lawfull Patrons and Incumbents, by writings under their hands and Seals. Note in this Statute there is no mention made of the Licenſe of the King to be had, which if the Licenſe or conſent of the King, had bin neceſſary, the makers of that Law, (as is conceived) would not have omitted. And the King doth not loſe any thing by ſuch an Union; For that all Tenths and Firſt-fruits of Chappels or Churches United according to that Statute are ſaved, and reſerved to the Crown. See Stat. 37 H. 8. cap. 29. See Roſtall Abridgment of Statutes, 483. acc.

5. Trin.

5. Trin. 9. Car. in C. B. in Dr. Rawlins, and Sir Henry Yaxleys Caſe, for the Church of Bowthorp in Norfolk, the Queſtion was, Whether the Statute of 37 H. 8. Cap. 19. did extend to a Parochial Church only, or unto other Churches? And whether by that Statute a Church Parochial might be united to a Collegiate Church, and whether the ſame might be without the Kings Licence or conſent. The Caſe was not reſolved, but in the Argument of that Caſe, it was conceived to be the ſafeſt and ſureſt Courſe to have, or obtain the Kings Licence or Conſent, although it be ſubſequent to the Union made; for ſo it was ſaid it was holden to be in the Caſe of 11 H. 7. 7. For there after the Union made, the King granted his Pardon, which was holden to be a ſubſequent aſſent, and ſufficient to make the Union. And in the Argument of that Caſe, it was ſaid to have been adjudged, Trin. 37 Eliz. in C. B. in Auſtin and Tayars Caſe, That the Confirmation by the Kings Letters Patents, of an Union made of the Pariſh Church of Aſh. unto the Deanery of N, after the Union made, was good and ſufficient.

6. There was a Pariſh in the County of W, called A; and there was likewiſe in the Pariſh a Chappel, called Birmidg Chappel, and a precinct, called Caſtle B; the Inhabitants whereof did reſort to the Chappel, and there Married, Chriſtned, and received the Sacraments, and had Churchwardens, and perambulation by it ſelf; but they buried not there, but at A; A. Church being in decay, the Paritioners of B. Chappel were Taxed towards the Reparations, with the reſt of the Pariſhioners of A, and obtained a Prohibition upon a ſurmiſe, That there was a Chappel Parochial, and that they alone had uſed to Repair that, and their own Church, and by reaſon thereof, had been diſcharged from the Reparation of A. Church; yet confeſſed they were within the Pariſh of A. It was holden by the Court, That although the Service were matter of Fact, and Tryable by Jury; yet it was in the diſcretion of the Court to deny a Prohibition, when it appears to them, that the ſurmiſe is not true; eſpecially in Caſe of this Nature when the delay of Reparation is to the utter decay of the Church, and the intolerable charge of the Pariſhioners, and is apparent to the Court, that they were to all purpoſes a Part of the Pariſh of A. (though it doth not appear to have been any Union) and therefore de communi jure, lyable to Reparation with the reſt. Trin. 12 Jac. in B. R. The Caſe of the Pariſh of Aſton and Caſtle Birmidge Chappel. Hob. 66, 67.

Unity of Poſſeſſion.

1. IN an Action upon the Caſe by Husband and Wife, the Plaintiff ſet forth, That the Wife before Marriage, was poſſeſſed of a Cloſe in Saint M, in which a Houſe was builded; and the Defendant was Occupier of another Cloſe, called the Yard, in the ſaid Pariſh of Saint M, adjoyning to the Plaintiff's Cloſe; and that within the ſaid Pariſh there was a Cuſtom, Quod omnes occupatores, of ſuch a Cloſe of the Plaintiff's, time out of mind, had uſed to have for them, and their ſervants, quandam viam tam pedeſtrem, quam equeſtrem, at all times of the year, for all Carts and Carriages from the Plaintiffs Cloſe, in vel ultra the Cloſe called the Yard, to a place uſually called the Leyſtall, in Saint M. aforeſaid, and back again from the ſaid Leyſtall, in, and over the ſaid Yard, to the Plaintiff's Cloſe; and that ſhe being ſo poſſeſſed, and having the occupation of the ſaid Cloſe, the Defendant, to hinder her of her way, and totally to exclude her ſuch a day and year, erected a Building upon the ſaid Cloſe called the Yard, ex tranſverſo via prædict. that ſhe might not have, or uſe her way; and that afterwards ſhe took Husband, the Plaintiff, and that they, after the Marriage, could not uſe the way. Upon Not guilty pleaded, found againſt the Defendant, it was moved in arreſt of Judgment, That ſuch a Cuſtom alledged, within a Pariſh, for an Occupier of ſuch a Cloſe, to have a way &c. was not good, but he ought to preſcribe in him who hath the inheritance; and that a Cuſtom in a Pariſh cannot be applyed to a Cloſe in a Pariſh; and ſuch was the Opinion of the Court: Although it was ſaid, that he could not otherwiſe preſcribe, becauſe one man was once Owner of both Cloſes, and Unity may not deſtroy the way: But to that it was anſwered, That it ought to have been ſo particularly ſhewed, which doth not appear here; and peradventure it will not ſerve in Caſe of a way, but in Caſe of neceſſity; as a Water-courſe betwixt two Houſes. All the Juſtices held, That Inhabitants may alledge preſcription for a way to a Church, or a Market, which is of neceſſity, but not in a matter of profit or charge in another Soil. Paſc. 11. Car. in B. R. Baker and Brereman's Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 302.

2. Leſſee

2. Leſſee for 99 years of two Houſes, deviſeth them to his Wife for all the ſaid term, if ſhe live ſo long unmarried, and after her death to B; and if his Wife marrieth, then ſhe ſhall have one Houſe, and 20 l. per annum out of all other his Land, and then B. ſhall have the other Houſe, and makes his Wife his Executrix, and dyeth; the Wife enters claiming by the Deviſe, and then marrieth; and then the Husband and Wife claims the Houſe deviſed to her after her marriage, by the aſſent of the Executor, enters into the other Houſe, the Wife dyeth. It was reſolved in this Caſe, That becauſe the Wife took the whole terme as Executrix, that ſhe ſhould not have the Rent out of it, becauſe that the Rent was extinguiſhed by Unity of Poſſeſſion: But if the Rent ſhall be determined by the death of the Wife, Quære, for it was not reſolved. Trin. 12 Jac. in B. R. Gouge and Heywards Caſe. Bridgman, 54. 55.

3. Debtors of the King, ſeized in Fee of diverſe Mannors, conveighed the ſame to A. and his Heirs, who, by Deed Indented, did grant the premiſes to the King in Fee; afterwards the King did regrant the ſaid Mannors and Lands to A. and his Heirs, 20 s. Rent, pro omnibus ſerviciis et demandis: Afterwards the ſame Debtor became further indebted to the King. It was reſolved in this Caſe, That the ſaid Mannors were not extendible, or lyable to any of the Kings Debtors, but diſcharged in Law, by the poſſeſſion of the King. Paſc. 13 Jac. Sir John Mallets Caſe. Leon. 50.

4. Leſſee for years of 20 Acres, rendring Rent, grants all his Eſtate in one of the Acres to I. S; the Leſſor confirms the Eſtate of I. S. It was reſolved in this Caſe, That the Rent was gone; for being an entire Contract by his own act, there can be no apportionment for part, and extinguiſhment for other part; and no Contract ſhall be apportioned. Mich. 43 Eliz. in C. B. Goddards Caſe. Owen. 10.

5. If the Tenant doth enfeoff the Lord and others, all the Seignory is extinct by the Unity of Poſſeſſion; and ſo it is, if he enfeoffeth the Lord but of the moyety of the Land; But if the Tenant doth enfeoff the Lord and a Stranger, to the uſe of another, and his Heirs, and makes Livery to the Stranger, it in ſuch Caſe is not extinguiſhment of the Seigniory, though he was a Party to the Deed of the feoffment. Paſc. 6 Eliz. Sutton and Robinſons Caſe. Owen 31.

6. A. holds Lands of the Mannor of B, by ſuit of Court and Rent, and afterwards he is attainted of Treaſon; The King grants the Lands by his Letters Patents, to I. S. It was reſolved in this Caſe, That while the Lands were in the Crown, the Rent was not extinct by any Unity, or otherwiſe, but ſuſpended only; and that then by the grant of the Lands to I. S, that the Rent was revived, and and that I. S. ſhould pay the ſame. Mich. 7 Jac. in Cur. Ward. Longs Caſe. Leon. 5.

7. An Advowſon is granted for years, the Leſſor during the Leaſe, preſents the Leſſee to the Church, which becomes void: It was reſolved in this Caſe, That it was an extinguiſhment of his Right, and not a Surrender; and in that Caſe it was ſaid, and agreed, That if a man preſents to his own Church, as Procurator to another, that by that act of his, he loſeth his own Advowſon: But Quære of that, Paſc. 42. Eliz. in C. B. Rudd and Topſhyes Caſe. Owen, 142.

8. It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That if a man hath a Leaſe for years which is good in Law, that the taking of a new Leaſe of the ſame Land which is void, is no ſurrender of the former Leaſe which is good; ſo if Leſſee for years, takes a new Leaſe after the death of his Leſſor, of his Guardian in Socage, it is no ſurrender. Hil. 3 Car. in B. R. Baker and Willoughby's Caſe. Hutton 101. 13 Eliz. in C. B. Wells and Whitewoods Caſe. ibid. But it was holden, That if Leſſee for 20 years of an Avowſon, when the Church is void, enters a Preſentation to himſelf of the Leſſor, and he is Admitted and Inſtituted, it is a ſurrender of his Leaſe, for that they both cannot ſtand together in him; for that by the Unity, the one of them would be extinguiſhed; as in it was adjudged. 42 Eliz. in Sir Arthur Capels Caſe. See Hutton 105.

9. If a Copy-holder bargaineth, and ſelleth his Copy-hold to the Lord, who hath a Leaſe for years of the Mannor, the Copy-hold is thereby extinct, becauſe they cannot ſtand together in one Perſon; and ſo if he releaſeth to the Lord. Quære of the firſt Caſe. It was not reſolved. Trin. 19 Jac. in C. B. Huſſet and Humberſtons Caſe. Hutton 59.

10. Action upon the Caſe, for ſtopping of his Water-courſe. The Plaintiff declared, That 22 Jac. he was poſſeſſed of the Rectory of M, of which a Curtilage was parcel; and that in this Curtilage, is, and hath been, time out of mind, a Water-courſe, for the watering of the Cattel of the Plaintiff and others, and for other neceſſary uſes; and that a certain Water-courſe time out of mind flowed from Medford-ſtream to the Curtilage, & filled the Pond, and that the Defendant knowing this, intending to Damm up the ſaid Water-courſe, had builded a ſtone-Wall thereupon; whereby the Water-courſe was ſtopped up to his damage, and laid it to be with a Continuando. The Defendant ſhewed, That King Hen. the 8 th. was ſeized of the ſaid Mannor and Rectory in Fee, and of a piece of Land lying between the ſaid Water-courſe and Stream; and that by Letters-Patents they came both to one Box, and by mean conveyance to the Defendant; who was ſeized, and ſo juſtified the filling up of the ſaid Water-courſe. The only Queſtion was, Whether the Unity of poſſeſſion, had extinguiſhed the Water-courſe, or not: And upon long Argument, wherein many Caſes are vouched, it was at laſt adjudged, That the Action did well lye, and that the Water-courſe was not extinguiſhed by the Unity of poſſeſſion; and that the preſcription was not gone. Hill. 1 Car. in B. R. Scory and Piggets Caſe. Paſc. 166. 167.

11. Two were ſeized of two ſeveral Acres of Land, of which the one ought to encloſe againſt the other; one purchaſed them both, and then lett them to ſeveral men. It was adjudged in that Caſe, That the Encloſure by the Purchaſe, was extinguiſhed by the Union of the poſſeſſion of both; and was not revived by the grant. Hill. 36 Eliz. Rott. 1332. Hendon and Crowches Caſe. And ſee 4 Jac. One had a way from one Acre to another, and after he purchaſed the Acre, upon which he had the way, and afterwards ſold it: Yet it was reſolved, That upon the Purchaſe, the way was extinguiſhed by the Unity; and was not afterwards revived. See 4 Jac. Jorden and Aſhffs Caſe. See Popham. 164. acc.

12. In Treſpaſs, for taking of Turff and Stones in the Waſte of the Lord of the Mannor: The Defendant juſtified by an uſitatum eſt that it had been there uſed time out of mind, That every Tenant for years, of antient Tenements and Cloſes within the Mannor, have uſed to have Common of Turbary and Lime-ſtones, in the Waſte of the ſaid Mannor; and ſhowed, That he was Tenant of an antient Tenement and Cloſe, and that the ſame was granted to him, with all Commons appurtenant to the ſaid Meſſuage, &c. and ſo juſtified. It was found by Verdict, That the Abbot of F. was ſeized of the ſaid Mannor, and that there was ſuch a preſcription for Common; That the Poſſeſſions of the Abby came to the Crown, and that by mean conveyances, the ſaid Mannor came to the Plaintiff; and that the ſaid Tenement and Cloſe came to the Defendant. The Queſtion in the Caſe was, When a Lord of the Mannor is ſeiſed of a Waſte, and a Tenant of an antient Tenement preſcribes to have Common in the Waſte, and afterwards the Tenement is ſevered from the Mannor, and both are in the hands of the Lord; and afterwards the Lord grants the Tenement and Cloſe for a terme, with all Commons to the ſame belonging, whether the Common which was before belonging to the antient Common ſhall pay, and whether the ſame was not extſtent by the Unity of Poſſeſſion, in the hands of the Lord. In this Caſe it was ſaid, 1. That if this Common was appurtenant to the antient Meſſuage and Cloſe, that then, when the ſaid Mannor, and alſo the ſaid Meſſuage and Cloſe came both into the hands of the Lord, that the Unity of Poſſeſſion in the Lords hands, did deſtroy the Common. And 2. Admitting it was a Common appurtenant to the ſaid Meſſuage and Cloſe, that the Leſſee here cannot have the Common, the preſcription being grounded upon a weak Foundation; for where it is ſaid, That the Leſſee of the ſaid Meſſuage and Cloſe have uſed to have Common, this is no ſuch uſitatum to have a clear Right to the Common; for that every new Leaſe and Contract is an Interruption of it; and ſuch an uſage ought to be perpetual, which it it not here. 2. The Termor cannot have Common by preſcription, becauſe there is a Commencement and Determination of his Eſtate; and then by the ſenſe of the Leaſe and Cloſe, although it be with all Commons belonging to it, it will not paſs. And it was ſaid, That here the uſitatum is annexed unto the Eſtate of a Termor, which cannot be good; and therefore it was adjudged, That for this cauſe, among the other, that this preſcription laid by a Termor by uſitatum eſt, was not good, to make the Juſtification good; and alſo, that by the Unity in the hands of the Lord, the Common was gone, and Judgment was given againſt the Defendant. 7 Jac. in B. R. Sir Thomas Grimes and Peacocks Caſe. Bolſtr. 1 Part, 17, 18.

13. In a Prohibition, the Caſe was: The Prior and Covent of Hatfield Broadoak, was ſeized of the Rectory appropriate of Hatfield Broadoak, and of a Farm called D. in the ſame Pariſh, time whereof, &c. The ſaid Priory being diſſolved by the Statute of 27 H. 8. being one of the ſmall Monaſteries: King H. 8. Cro. 29 granted all the Priory of H. and all their Poſſeſſions, to the Prioreſs and Nunns of Barking; they by Deed Indented and enrolled, ſurrendred their Poſſeſſions to the King: Afterwards the Statute of 31 H. 8. was made, the Rectory of H. was granted to Trinity-Colledge in Cambridge, who lett it to the Defendant. The Farm of H. was afterwards granted to one, who lett it to the Plaintiff: The Defendant ſued the Plaintiff in the Spiritual Court, for Tythes of the ſaid Farm: Whereupon a Prohibition was brought, and all this matter appearing upon a demur, it was adjudged, That a Conſultation be awarded. In this Caſe (amongſt other points) it was reſolved, That a perpetual Unity of a Church appropriated, and the Land, is not any diſcharge of Tythes of it ſelf; and the Statute of 27 H. 8. doth not give any diſcharge, but gives only the Poſſeſſions as they were in the hands of the Abbots; and that refers to the Poſſeſſions, and not to the Tythes out of them; and there is no clauſe of diſcharge of Tythes in the Statute of 27 H. 8. as there is in the Statute of 31. H. 8; and the Statute of 31 H. 8. doth not extend to the Statute of 27. H. 8. And therefore it was holden, That the Unity of Poſſeſſion in it ſelf, is not any diſcharge of it ſelf of the Tythes. Hill. 15 Jac. in C. B. Gerrard and Wrights Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 607. See Liver and Read's Caſe in the Exchequer. 37 Eliz. adjudge acc. See Sir Marmaduke Stricklands Caſe, adjudged acc. at the Aſſizes at York. Anno 1639. See Claytons Reports. 117.

14. Note: It was reſolved, That Unity of the Perſonage and Lands, which ſhould pay Tythes by Appropriation, or otherwiſe, in the hands of Religious and Eccleſiaſtical Perſons, had diſcharged them from the payment of Tythes; and ſince the Statute of 31 H. 8 ſuch an Unity of Poſſeſſion in the ſaid Religious Houſes, Lands, and Perſons ſhall be a diſcharge for the Kings Patentee, for the Lands that came to the Crown by the ſaid Statute of 31 H. 8. But then it was reſolved, That ſuch an Unity muſt have had theſe Incidents: It muſt have been Juſta, Libera, Æqualis, & Perpetua. It muſt have been Juſta, claimed by Right; for if either the Perſonages, Vicarages, Lands, or Tythes had come, or had been United to their houſes by Diſſeiſins, or other tortious and unlawful acts; ſuch an Unity had not been a good diſcharge within the Statute. 2. It muſt have been Æqualis, there muſt have been a Fee ſimple, both in the Lands, and Tythes in the ſame Perſons; for if the Abbots, Priors, or other Religious Perſons had held but by Leaſe, that had not been ſuch an Unity as the Statute did intend. 3. It muſt have been Libera, free from the payment of any Tythes; for if there Farmers, Tenants at will, or years, had paid Tythes, that was not ſuch an Unity as the Law intended. And 4. It muſt have been Perpetua, time out of mind, &c. and then for the Infinite poſſibility, and impoſſible Infinitenes, that ſuch immunities and diſcharges, which ſuch Religious Perſons and Houſes had before time of memory, could not be known; ſuch an Unity had been a good diſcharge in their own hands, and ſuch an Unity is a good diſcharge in the hands of the Kings Patentee, within the Statute of 31 H. 8. Cook 11 Part, 13. Pridle and Nappers Caſe.

15. An Abbot, who held a Parſonage Impropriate, which was diſcharged of Tythes, purchaſed parcel of the Lands: The Tythes were ſuſpended in the hands of the Abbot: Afterwards the Poſſeſſions of the Abby came to the Crown by the Statute of 31 H. 8. of Diſſolution. The Queſtion was, Whether Lands ſo purchaſed by the Abbot before his ſurrender to the King, were by the Statute diſcharged of Tythes. It was the Opinion of Mr Plowden in that Caſe, that they were not diſcharged; for he ſaid, That no Lands were diſcharged, but ſuch as were lawfully diſcharged by right, as Compoſition, or other Lawful diſcharge; and in that Caſe, the Lands were not diſcharged in right, but ſuſpended only, during the time that the Lands were in the Abbots hands. Mich. 17 Eliz. in B. R. Godbolt. acc.

16. In a Prohibition, the Plaintiff did ſurmiſe, That the Lands were parcel of the Priory of Cree-Church, who held them diſcharged of Tythes, at the time of the Diſſolution; upon which, Iſſue was joyned: It was moved, That there was not ſet forth any diſcharge as Compoſition, Unity of Poſſeſſion, Priviledge of Order, &c. It was holden by the Court in that Caſe, That although the ſpecial manner of diſcharge be not ſet forth, yet the Court ought to take it to be a Lawful diſcharge, as Compoſition, &c. for that the King ſhall hold as the Prior held, and it ought to be taken that it was a Lawful diſcharge tempore diſſolutionis. Mich. 33 Eliz. in B. R. Naſh and Allens Caſe. Leon. 240.

17. Thoſe of the Order of Præmonſtratenſes, claimed the Priviledge to be diſcharged of Tythes, granted them by the Pope; viz. Vt decimas prædiorum ſuorum, quas in manibus ſuis propriis excolunt, non tenentur ſolvere: (Note, Pope Adrian reſtrained this Priviledge to three Orders only, and left out the Præmonſtratenſes; and our Law-Books takes notice only of Templars, Ciſtertians, and Hoſpitles;) which was never granted, or confirmed by any Act of Parliament. The Queſtion in the Caſe was, If the diſcharge was good: It was for part of the Poſſeſſion of the Abbot of Cockersam, in the County of Lancaſter, which afterwards was ſurrendred to King Hen. the 8th. The Caſe was only argued, but not adjudged. And there it is ſaid cur. of 11 H. 4. That the Pope cannot alter the Lawes of the Land, by his Bulls, Councils, or Decrees: It was ſaid, That this Bull was confirmed to them, in the 24 th year of King John, and 22 E. 1 November 5. That the King took the Præmonſtratenſes, and their Immunities into protection; and it was ſaid, That 25 R. 2. John of Gaunt having Jura Regalia in Lancaſhire, did confirm this Bull of the Pope; and therefore it was ſaid, That at the time of the Diſſolution de facto, although not de jure, they were diſcharged of Tythes. Hill. 2 Car. Dickenſon and Greenhowes Caſe. Hob. 156.

18. The Biſhop of Lincoln ſued a Prohibition againſt Cooper, who had Libelled in the Spiritual Court againſt him, for Tythes of the Manor of D. And the Biſhop did ſuggeſt, that he, and his Predeceſſors had been ſeized of the ſaid Manor; and that as long as it was in their poſſeſſions, had been been discharged of Tythes, and shewed, that in the time of King Edw. the 6th, the said Mannor was conveyed to the Duke of Somerset in Fee, and afterwards was re-granted to the Bishop and his Successors. It was moved, That the Prescription was not good; because de non Decimando. And 2. Admit that the same be good, yet it is interrupted by the Seisin of the Duke of Somerset; and although that the Mannor be re-assured to the Bishop of Lincoln; yet the Prescription is not revived, as Homage Auncestrel, if it be once in a forrein Seisin, although it be re-assured; yet it is not revived. But it was the Opinion of the Court in this Case, That the Prescription was good in the Case of a Spiritual Person, but not in the Case of a Common Person: And all the Court were clear of Opinion, That in this Case the Prescription was not gone by this Interruption; for that Tythes are not issuing out of the Lands, neither can Unity of Possession extinguish them; nor are they extinguished by a Release of all Right unto the Land. Mich. 33 Eliz. in B. R. The Bishop of Lincoln, and Coopers Case. Leon. 249.

Voucher.

Voucher, what it is, where, and in what Actions or writts; for whom, by whom, and against whom it lyeth; and the proceedings in it.

1. VOucher, is when a Precipe quod reddat, or other real Action is brought against a man, to warrant the Land to the Tenant; then the Tenant shall Vouch him to Warranty, and thereupon he shall have a Writ, called Summoneas ad Warrantizandum; and if the Sheriff returneth, that he hath nothing by which he may be summoned, then shall issue forth another Writ, called Sequatur sub periculo; and when he cometh, and appeareth, he shall plead with the Demandant; but if he appeareth not, or that he cannot bar the Demandant, then shall the Demandant recover the Land against the Tenant, and the Tenant shall recover Land over in value against the Vouchee; and thereupon shall have a Writ of Capias ad valentiam against the Vouchee.

2. This Writ lyeth in an Assize of Mortdauncestor, and therefore if any such Assize brought and voucher, at the first day the Vouchee maketh default, a Re-summons thereupon shall issue forth against him, ; and so if the Tenant, or Vouchee, at the first day be Essoigned, and if at the day given by the Essoign, the Tenant or Vouchee make default, in such Case a Re-summons shall be awarded: But if the Tenant at the first day be Essoigned ut in servitio Regis, and at another day he maketh default, in such Case the Assize shall be taken by his default. See 8 Ass. 13. Br. Default and appearance. 88. acc.

3. In a Writ de rationabili parte, which is a Writ which lyeth against, and amongst Co-partners, who hold the Land, Voucher doth not lye, because of the privity of the Blood. F.N.B. 9. acc. But in an Assize of Mort-Dauncester, or in a Nuper Obiit, where the Ancestor dyeth seized of Lands in Fee-simple, which descend to several Heirs, and one of the Heirs entreth and deforceth the other; in such Case, the one Co-partner may have a Nuper Obiit against the other; and it seemeth, by Fitzh. Na. Br. 196, and 197, that in such Writs, Voucher lyeth.

4. In a Writ of Right after the Count, The Tenant shall make defence, and demand Oyer of the Writ, and afterwards rehearse the Count, and shall make defence de Novo; and then after all that, he shall vouch to Warranty, and plead in Bar. See 2 H. 6. 21. acc.

5. In Ancient Demesne, If the Tenant voucheth a Forreigner, which Voucher cannot be tryed within the Lordship, a Supersedeas thereupon shall be directed to the Lord to surcease, and the Party, Defendant, or Tenant, may sue his Writ of Warrantia Chartæ against the Voucher, returnable in the Common Pleas, and thereupon have a Supersedeas; and if they do proceed in Ancient Demesne, after the Supersedeas delivered, an Attachment lyeth against the Bayliff in Ancient Demesne; but if the Plea which was the Forreign Voucher in the Common-Pleas, be determined, or discontinued; then may he who was Demandant in the Writ of Right Close in Ancient Demesne, have a Writ out of the Chancery directed to the Justices of the Common-Pleas, to certifie if the Plea warranted be dependant, discontinued, or determined; and then the Demandant may proceed in his Writ in Ancient Demesne again. Fitzh. Nat. Br. acc.

6. Note, That in Case of a Forreign Voucher in London. That at the Common-Law the Plea was adjourned before the Justices in Eyre, when they came to the Tower of London. Lambert. 136. But at this day, if a Forreign Voucher be in London, a Summonetas ad Warrantizandum shall issue forth out of the Chancery, returnable before the Justices of the Common-Pleas; and the Maior and Sheriffs shall send the Record before them, and adjourn the Parties to be before them at a certain day. And after the Warranty upon the Voucher is determined there the Justices of the Common-Pleas shall send back the Record by a Writ, which shall issue out of the Rolls of the Justices, commanding them to proceed in the Plaint in London; be it in a Writ of Right, or any other Writ wherein Voucher lyeth. See Cook 4 Part, Institutes. 325. acc. 40 E. 3. 2. 35 H. 6. 30. acc.

7. In a Writ of Dower brought in London, the Tenant vouched a Forreigner: Process was made to try the Warranty in Common-Pleas at a certain day; at which day, the Vouchee did enter into the Warranty, and was ready to render Dower in Attests, but said he had not Attests; The Demandant sued Attests by descent in the County of M, and demanded Seisin of the Land: The Court in that Case declared, that they had not Power to award Seisin of the Land, but only to try the Warranty; and because in such Case, the Warranty was in point confessed, the Plea was remanded. 42 E. 3. 11. 41 E. 3. 31. acc.

8. In a Writ of Dower, unde nihil habet, the Tenant vouched the son and Heir of the Husband of the Demandant, and at the sequatur sub suo periculo, the Vouchee did not appear: Wherefore it was awarded, That the Wife should recover against the Vouchee, if he had Lands in the County, ad valentiam; and that the Tenant should hold the Lands in peace: And if he had not any Lands within the County, then against the Tenant, and the Tenant over in value. But in that Case, the Court examined, Whether the Vouchee was Heir of the Husband, from whom the Wife demanded her Dower. Mich. 2 H. 4. 48. Pl 1.

9. The Tenant in Ancient Demesne, vouched one at the Common-Law, within the same County, because the Vouchee had nothing to be summoned within, &c. And upon a Demurrer, the Voucher was adjudged good, and day was given in Banco to determine the Warranty, and a Summoneas ad Warrantizandum was awarded to the Vouchee in the Forreign County, who entred into the Warranty, and vouched over into another Forreign County. Pasc. 5 E. 6. Dyer 66.

10. A. B. brought Dower, unde nihil habet. The Tenant vouched the Heir of the Husband, who was Ward to the King, for cause of Wardship, and prayed in Aid of the King, and the Aid was granted, and afterwards a Procedendo was awarded, and she had Judgment to recover against the Tenants, and the suit against the Heir in value. But in that Case there was a Cessat Executio, as to the Recovery in value, until the Lands were out of the Kings hands. Mich. 9 Eliz. Dyer, 256.

11. Note, That at the Common-Law, an Assize was Remedium maximè festinum, a remedium maximè beneficiale festinum, for therein the Defendant was not to be essoined, nor admitted to call a Protection, nor to pray in Aid; nor could he vouch a Stranger, or any one who was not Party to the Writ, unless that he entred presently into the Warranty: And so was it of Tenant by Reliefe, Cook 8 Part, 50. in John Webbs Case.

12. It is Enacted by the Statute of 4 H. 7. Cap. 1. That the Demandant may maintain a Formedan in the Discender or Remainder, against the Pernor of the Profits; and the same Pernor to vouch, &c. as if they were Tenants in Dedd. The Case was, That I. D. brought a Scire facias, against the Pernor of the Profits. It was holden in that Case, That the Pernor should not vouch in a Scire facias, for that the Statute shall be intended, and construed in such an Action, in which he may vouch: And the words of that Act, do not alter the Law of Voucher in any other point, than in that to which the Reference is made; viz. That notwithstanding that he is not Tenant of the Land, but Pernor of the Profits, that yet he shall vouch; but it gave him no new Voucher in other respects: And therefore the Pernor of the Profits shall not vouch in any Action brought against him, wherein no Voucher before did lye. See 14 H. 7. 17, 18. Cook 1 Part, 62. in Doctor Foster's Case.

13. The Statute of West. 2. Cap. 4. giveth Quod ei deforceat to him, who hath lost by default; and giveth also to the Demandant to vouch in it: but that non simpliciter, sed secundum quid, viz. Ac si esset tenens in prima brevi si Warrantum habuit; the same extends only to the point to which it is referred; viz. that notwithstanding that he be Demandant; but the same doth not alter the Law in other Cases: and therefore if the Tenant pleadeth another Plea in Bar, and doth not maintain the first Recovery, he shall not vouch at all; also he shall not vouch another than him in the Reversion; nor shall he vouch in any Action in which no Voucher lyeth. See 23 E. 3. Counter-Plea of Voucher. 101. Cook 11 Part, 61. acc.

14. If a man seized of Lands in Fee hath Issue, two Sons, Bastard Eigne, and Mulier Puisne; the Bastard Eigne entreth, and is seized of the Land as Heir, he shall be vouched as Heir, in regard regard of the Poſſeſſion which he hath; and if he be within age, the Plea ſhall demur for his Nonage. 20 E. 3. Tit. Voucher. 329. Cook 8 Part, 101. in Talbots Caſe.

15. If the Father be enfeoffed in Fee with Warranty, and the Feoffor Warant the Land to him and his Heirs, in this Caſe the Aſſignee ſhall not vouch; but if the Father infeoffeth his ſon and Heir apparent, with Warranty, and dyeth: In this Caſe, the Heir (being in truth Aſſignee) ſhall vouch, for that the Law hath determined the Warranty of the Father to the Son; and therefore will give the ſon benefit of the firſt Warranty. And ſo it was ſaid it was adjudged, 41 E. 3. 5. Cook 6 Part, 69. in Sir Moile Finches Caſe.

16. Note, That in deraigning of a Warranty, againſt Heirs in Gavel-kind, the eldeſt ſon may be vouched as Heir to the Warranty, and the other ſons alſo, in reſpect of the Inheritance deſcended unto them: So likewiſe the Heir at the Common-Law, and the Heir of the part of the Mother, may be both vouched; and yet in both theſe Caſes, the Heir at the Common-Law may be vouched alone, at the Election of the Tenant. Cook 1 Part, Inſtitutes. 376. See Hob. 35. acc.

17. If a man make a Feoffment in Fee, to A. his Heirs and Aſſignes, and A. enfeoffeth B. in Fee, who re-enfeoffeth A, he, or his Aſſignes, ſhall never vouch, becauſe he cannot be his own Aſſignee; but in ſuch Caſe, If B. had enfeoffed the Heir of A, he might in ſuch Caſe vouch as Aſſignee; for that the Heir of A, might be Aſſignee to A; foraſmuch as he claimeth not as Heir. Cook 1 Part, Inſtitutes. 385.

18. Note, That a man may have a Writ of Warrantia Chartæ, although he may vouch in the Action which is brought againſt him; and if he recover, and afterwards loſe in the Action in which he is vouched, he ſhall have a Writ of Habere facias ad valentiam, within the year after the Recovery in the Warrantia Chartæ for he ſhall bind the Land from the Teſte of the Writ; and upon the Voucher, he ſhall have it but from the time of the Voucher, which may be delayed; and therefore it is beſt to bring it preſently after the Voucher, becauſe that Action may be diſcontinued, and ſundry wayes, and ſo the Warranty of Charters be neceſſary: But yet he muſt not rely upon the Warrantia Chartæ only, but he muſt alſo vouch, and ſummon a Plea, according as his Caſe ſhall require. 41 E. 3. Fitz. Garranty. 19. in a Formedon. Hob. 23. in Sir Hen. Rolls, and Sir Oſbornes Caſe.

2. When a man may enter into Warranty gratis, without Proceſs; where not: Where a man may Vouch alone, upon a Warranty made to him and another; and where a man may be vouched of a thing, which is not in the Deed; Where not.

1. A Man maketh a feoffment in Fee, with Warranty, and dyeth; the Heir of the Feoffor ſhall have all the charges, which the Feoffor himſelf might detain, though he have nothing by diſcent, by reaſon of the poſſibility of the diſcent; and the Feoffor ſhall have the Deed, to have the benefit of the Warranty paramount. Alſo the Lord by Eſcheat ſhall have all Charters which do concern the Land, becauſe that the Lord by Eſcheat is in the Poſt, and cannot vouch; and therefore if A. enfeoffeth B. with Warranty, B. ſhall not have the Deed which do contain Warranty; but if B. dyeth without Heir, then the Warranty made to B. is firſt, and A. cannot be vouched: And therefore, the Lord by Eſcheat in ſuch Caſe, ſhall have the Charters. Cook 1 Part, 2. in the Lord Buckhurſts Caſe.

2. Common Recoveries (which generally are with Warranyes and Vouchers) are ſo uſual, and their form of order and proceedings, ſo notorious in them, by appearances the firſt day, and that gratis, that the Law taketh knowledge of them; and therefore it was ſaid, That the Judges ex officio, without allegation of the Party, ſhall take knowledge of them, that they are Common Recoveries, and had by aſſent of the Parties for aſſurance of Lands: And ſee in Plow. Com. 56. in Wimbiſh and Talbois Caſe, Recovery in a Formedon, appeareth to the Judges to be by the conſent of the Parties; becauſe the Tenant was not Eſſoigned, nor did demand the view, but appeared gratis the firſt day, and confeſſed the Action. See Cook 5 Part, 41. in Downes Caſe.

3. If a man ſeized of a Rent, diſſeizeth the Tenant of the Land, and maketh a feoffment in Fee with Warranty; in ſuch Caſe, in a Pracipe brought, the Feoffee ſhall vouch, as of Land, diſcharged of the Rent, and yet the Rent was but ſuſpended; but every ſuſpenſion is a diſcharge for a time.

a time, and the diſcharge being referred to the time of the Warranty, extendeth to ſuſpenſion. Cook 2 Part, 48. in the Biſhop of Canterburies Caſe.

4. Note, for a Rule in Law, That no Warranty ſhall extend to bar any Eſtate of Free-hold, or Inheritance, which is in Eſſe, in Poſſeſſion, Reverſion, or Remainder (and not diſplaced, and put to a right) before, or at the time of the Warranty made, although that afterwards, and at the time of the diſcent of the Warranty, the Eſtate of the Free-hold or Inheritance be diſplaced or deveſted; and therefore, if there be Father and ſon, and the ſon hath a Rent ſervice, Rent-charge, or Rent-ſeck, or Common of Paſture, iſſuing out of certain Lands, and the Father releaſeth to the Tenant of the Land with Warranty, and dyeth, it ſhall not bar the ſon; for of the Rent or Common, the ſon was actually ſeized, at the time of the Warranty made, and he who is in Poſſeſſion, needeth not to put in his claim to avoid the Collateral Warranty; and although the ſon, after the Warranty made, be diſſeized of the Rent, and after the Father dyeth; it ſhall not bar him, becauſe that the Warranty at the time of the creation of it, did not extend to any Eſtate of Free-hold or Inheritance: But, if the ſon be diſſeized of the Rent or Common, and affirmeth himſelf to be diſſeized by bringing an Aſſize, and afterwards the Father releaſeth with Warranty and dyeth; there the Collateral Warranty ſhall bar the ſon of his Rent or Common, becauſe he had but a bare Right at the time of the Warranty made. Cook 10 Part, 97. in Edward Seyntors Caſe.

5. If two men allien Lands with Warranty, the Lands of the one only, ſhall not be rendred in value, nor if one dyeth, the Land of the Surviver ſhall not be only rendred; but they ſhall be both vouched, and the charge ſhall be equall upon them both: For a Joynt-Lien, which bindeth the Land, ſhall not ſurvive, or lye upon the Surviver; as in Caſe of Joynt-Warranty, Where two, for them and their Heirs, warrant Lands unto another and his Heirs; the Surviver ſhall not be only vouched, and the Sheriff cannot deliver the Land of the one, or of the other, at his pleaſure. And ſo if two bind themſelves to Warranty, and both dye, both their Heirs ought to be vouched, and they ſhall be equally charged. Againſt that, it was obj ected, That each of them warranteth the whole, &c. But it was reſolved, That although each of them be bound to warrant the whole, Non ſequitur, that the recompence in value, ſhould be made by one of them only; for if the Heir be vouched in the Ward of three ſeveral Perſons, one alone ſhall not be charged, but all equally; and yet the Anceſtor did warrant the whole. Cook 3 Part, 14. in Sir William Herberts Caſe.

6. A. and his Wife brought a Formedon in the Reverter againſt B, wherein he was Eſſoigned after the view, and then pleaded in abatement of the Writ; and then vouched two, whereof one was firſt Eſſoigned, and then the other, with an Idem dies alwayes to the Demandant, Tenant in Vouchee, at the laſt day of the Eſſoign, both the Vouchees appeared, and at the ſame day, the Tenant caſt an Eſſoign, both for himſelf, and his Attorney. It was ſaid, That the Eſſoign did not lye according to 3 H. 7. 13. But it was agreed by the Court, that the Eſſoign did well lye; and ſo it was ſaid, it was adjudged, 22 H. 6. and Trin. 34. H. 6. in Bigrave and Hopding's Caſe; and the Reaſon was, That although the Tenant had an Eſſoign before between him & the other Defendants, yet now he was in of another Order and Degree of Plea between him and the Vouchee; who being not yet entred into the Warranty, might (as before) either him ſelf vouch, or the Tenant; but if he were once actually entred into the Warranty, then he could be no more Eſſoigned, nor the Tenant, who had now done with the Vouchee. And ſee in 29 E. 3. 41. in Symkin Symons Caſe Reſolved, That the Vouch and Tenant, may either of them have one Eſſoign, before they enter into the Warranty. In the principal Caſe, the Eſſoign was adjudged good. The Earl of Clanrikard, and Viſcount Liſle's Caſe. Hob. 46, 47.

7. If a man enfeoffeth another of an Acre of Land with Warranty, and hath Iſſue, two ſons, and dyeth ſeized of another Acre of Land, of the nature of Borrough Engliſh, and the Feoffee is impleaded, that in that Caſe, although the Warranty diſcendeth only upon the eldeſt ſon, yet may he vouch them both; the one as Heir to the Warranty, the other as Heir to the Land; for if he ſhould vouch the eldeſt ſon only, then he ſhould not have the fruit of his Warranty; viz. a Recovery in value; and the youngeſt ſon only he cannot vouch, becauſe he is not Heir at the Common-Law to him, upon whom the Warranty diſcendeth. Cook 1 Part Inſtitutes. 376.

8. A Recovery in a Writ of Entry of the Manor of D. was drawn, and ſuffered at the Bar; wherein the Tenant prayed in Aid of the King, by reaſon of a Warranty in the King, by which he warranted that Land, and granted to make recompence upon Eviction; and this Aid, Prayer, was inſtead of a Vouchers; and the Warranty being created by Fine, and Recovery, wherein the Tenant vouched the King, and the Kings Attorney by a Warrant from the King entred into the Warranty, and prayed that the Demandant might Count; and it was drawn, That the Demandant petit versus Dominum Regem, that Land; and the Attorney of the King vouched over the common Vouchee. This Recovery being perused by the Court, because that such course had not been seen, nor any President shewed, that ever any should Count against the King as Voucher, and this being devised, to bar a Remainder upon an Estate tail in the King, therefore the Court would not suffer this Recovery to pass, for that the King shall never render in value upon Vouchers. But in such Case they ought to sue to the King by Petition, to have in value, and not by way of Voucher. Mich. 13. Car. in B. R. Co. 1 Part, 68.

9. In a Writ of Right Close in Antient Demesne, the Demandant made Protestation in the nature of an Assize of Mortd Ancestor: The Tenant, as to parcel, pleaded, That I. was seized, and took the Defendants Husband, and dyed; and so he held the Lands to Tenant, by the courtesie of England, without that, that the Father dyed seized: And as to parcel, the Tenant vouched a Forreigner. The Question was, How the Record should be removed, because it is entire. In that Case, it was said by Fitz Herbert Justice, as to that parcel, of which the Tenant hath vouched a stranger, the Record shalbe sent hither, and Proceſs shall be against the Vouchee; and as to the other parcel, day shall be given by the other Parties in Antient Demesne, and the Plea continue till the Voucher be determined here: And in this Case it was holden, That the other points of the Writ, should not be enquired of, but the dying seized. Pasc. 27 H. 8 12.

10. Note, 8 E. 2. Fitz Title Voucher. A man cannot vouch a Clerk attaint, or a Man Outlaw'd, but rather have a Warrantia Chartæ against them: But contrary of an Idiot, Quære if it be Law this day, and see Bre. War. Chartæ 29. 8 E. 4 10. by Markham. See 24 E. 3. Bre. Warrantia chartæ, 13. And see, That a man may sue forth a Warrantia Chartæ before he is Impleaded; quia tunc implacitari, and shall recover pro loco & tempore, and yet the Writ doth suppose that he is Impleaded. See Hob. in Rolls and Osborn Case acc. And in such Case, if the Defendant appeareth, and saith that he is not Impleaded, it is as much as a confession of the Warranty upon a Voucher, and the Plaintiff shall have Judgment to recover his Warranty: But generally a man shall not vouch before he be Impleaded; but if he be Impleaded, and voucheth, and loseth, he shall recover in value against the Vouchee. See for this, 21 H 6. 41. 13 H. 7. 17 12 H 4 12. And see 1 E. 3. 11. Fitz. Garr. de Chartes 2. The Lands which he had at the time of the Judgment upon a Recovery in value, shall be put in Execution.

Usury and Usurious Contracts.

1. THE Statute of 13 Eliz. cap. 8. is, That all Bonds, Contracts, and Assurances, Collateral, or other, to be made for any Principal, or money to be lent, &c. The Case was, A Scire facias was brought to execute a Judgment in Debt. The Defendant pleaded, That he borrowed of the Plaintiff 100 l. to give him 120 l. for the loan thereof for a year. And the Plaintiff for his assurance would have the Defendant confess this Judgment, and so he pleaded the Statute of Usury in Bar to the Scire facias, upon which the Plaintiff demurred in Law. It was prayed, That Judgment might be for the Plaintiff. It was said, That this Judgment may not be said any Assurance for the money, but is a Judgment upon the Assurance, for which, &c. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That this was no Plea to defeat the Judgment. But if such matter had bin, the Defendant ought to have pleaded it, That upon the first Action in bar, and so not to suffer the Judgment, Judgment was after given for the Plaintiff. Mich. 31 Eliz. in B. R. Middleton and Hall's Case. Goldesbr. 128.

2. Debt was brought upon the Statute of 5 E. 6. cap. 20. for Usury. The Defendant pleaded, Quod non recepit, &c. It was the Opinion of the Justices, That the same is a Confession of the Contract, thus it is within the Statute, and that therefore the Court ex Officio ought to take notice, and give Judgment. Hill. 1 Ma. Dyer, 95. Oliver Whitton's Case.

3. In a Replevin, the Defendant avowed for a Rent of 20 l. The Plaintiff in bar of the Avowry alledged the Statute of Usury, and that A. lent to B. 100 l. and that B. granted to A. and his Heirs an yearly Rent of 20 l. upon Condition, that if he paid to A. such a day 100 l. that then the Rent should ſhould ceaſe. B. received the money, and granted the Rent upon ſuch Condition. And for Rent behind, he diſtreyned and avowed. In this Caſe, it was adjudged for the Avowant; for it appeareth that the ſame was not any corrupt Bargain within the Statute of 13 Eliz. becauſe that nothing was to be paid to B. untill the day; and if the money had bin paid at the day, the Rent had ceaſed without any thing paid for it: And therefore it was the Opinion of the Court, That it was a plain Bargain and Purchaſe conditional of ſuch Rent, and no Uſury. But if it had bin agreed betwixt the Grantor and Grantee, that the 100 l. ſhould not be paid at the day, then it had bin an Uſurious Bargain within the Statute. Mich. 34 Eliz. in B. R. Cook 5. Part, Batons Caſe.

4. In Debt upon an Obligation, the Caſe was, A. requeſted B. to lend him 30 l. And upon a Communication had between them, B. lent him 30 l. 6. December, 34 Eliz. till the ſecond of June next, to pay to him for the Principal and the Loan of it, 33 l. the ſaid ſecond of June, if the Son of the Obligee was then alive; and if he dyed before the ſaid day, that then he ſhould pay him but 27 l. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the ſame was an Uſurious Contract within the Statute of 13 Eliz. For if the Original Contract be Uſurious, no colour or ſhaddow put upon it will make it good. Paſc. 37 Eliz. in C. B. Cook 5. Part, Clayons Caſe. 70.

5. Note, this difference was agreed by the Juſtices, That if I have a Rent-charge of 30 l. per annum, for 10 years, and another comes to me, and demands of me what he ſhall give to me for that Rent, and I anſwer him, that he ſhall give me 100 l. that the ſame is not Uſury, for it is but a void contract. But if A. comes to B. and ſayes to him, that he needeth 100 l. and demands of him how much he ſhall give him for 100 l. and he anſwereth him, 30 l. per annum, the ſame is Uſury if he doth ſo accordingly, becauſe there is a meer contract for money. But if one in conſideration of 100 l. received, grants to him that lends it to him, 30 l. per annum for 10 years; It was left a Quere in that Caſe, If it was not Uſury within the Statute. Paſc. 6 Jac. in C. B. rott. 1545. Cockerells Caſe. Brownl. 150.

6. Debt upon an Obligation, The Caſe was, W. the Defendant was endebted to one A. in 100 l. upon an Uſurious Contract, and A. was endebted to E. the Plaintiff in 100 l. for which W. and A. were bound to the Plaintiff; and debt being brought upon that Obligation, W. pleaded the Uſury between him and A. to avoid the Bond. The Plaintiff E. replyed, That A. before the making of the Bond, was endebted to him 100 l. being a juſt and due debt, for payment whereof, W. and A. were bound unto him in the Bond put in Suit, and that he was not in any wiſe knowing of the Uſury between W. and A. upon which Plea, W. did demur. In this Caſe, the Opinion of the Court was for the Plaintiff, for it is not Uſury in the Plaintiff, but only between W. and A. to which the Plaintiff is a ſtranger, not being privy to it; and therefore ſhall not be prejudiced by it; for although the Statute is to be taken ſtrongly for ſuppreſſing of Uſury, yet it muſt be betwixt ſuch Parties as are corruption, and not to puniſh the Innocent; but if no Debt had been due to the Plaintiff before, then it had been clearly Uſury; for then there had been no lawful cauſe to make the Bond unto him, but only to countenance the corrupt agreement betwixt W. and A. Trin. 2 Jac. in B. R. Ellis and Warnes Caſe. Brownl. 1 Part, 85. See Yelverton, 47. the ſame Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 33. the ſame Caſe.

7. Debt upon an Obligation of 100 l. to pay 54 l. at the end of 6 Moneth's. The Defendant pleaded the Statute of 21 Jac. of Uſury, and ſaved. That th Plaintiff lent him 50 l. the 12 th of July, and agreed that he ſhould pay for the Intereſt thereof 4 l. The Plaintiff replyed, That he lent the 50 l. for a year, and that the Defendant ſhould pay 4 l. for the forbearance for a year, and by the Scrivenors miſtake, it was made to be paid at the half years end; and he not knowing thereof, accepted of the Bond. The Defendant re-joyned, That the lending only was for half a year, and that he was to pay 4 l. for that time, and traverſed: The 12 th of July, it was agreed, the Loan ſhould be for one whole year, or that he ſhould forbear it for a year: Upon which the Plaintiff did demur in Law, and ſaid, That the Bar was ill, becauſe it was not pleaded, Quod corruptum agreamen fuit; and the Plea is, that he ſhould have Intereſt for forbearing; but doth not ſay, Corrupte, &c. And for that cauſe the Court was of Opinion, that the Bar was ill. Alſo it was ſaid, that the Rejoynder was ill, becauſe the Defendant thereby makes the day to be parcel of the Iſſue; which ought not to be, but he ought to traverſe the Agreement only: And of that Opinion was the Court, but no Judgment was given in the Caſe; becauſe the Plaintiff offered to accept of his Debt, and the Defendant agreed to pay. Trin. 14. Car. in B. R. Nevilſon and Whalleys Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 360.

8. In Ejectione firmæ, the Queſtion was, If one Mortgage Land for 100 l. and taketh a Bond for the payment of 8 l. Intereſt per An. payable half-yearly, whether this makes the Bargain Uſurious againſt the Statute; becauſe, as it was ſaid, the the uſe ought not to be paid untill the end of the year; and contrarily to pay it half-yearly, is not warranted by the Statute. But it was the Opinion of the whole Court, That it was not an Uſurious Contract, becauſe the 100*l.* is lent for a year, and the reſervation is not of more, but of what is permitted by the Statute; and although that the Intereſt is reſerved payable half-yearly, it is allowable; for he doth not receive any Intereſt for more or leſs time, than his money is forborn. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff, and the Judgment affirmed upon a Writ of Error, brought in the Exchequer-Chamber. Trin. 8 Car. in B. R. Gryſſil and Whitgrove's Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 206.

9. The Caſe was, I. S. lent 100*l.* for a year and took 5*l.* Intereſt, at the end of 6 months. It was the Opinion of Popham and Gawdy, Juſtices, That it was not Uſury, becauſe it is not above the rate of 10*l.* for a 100*l.* and it is as if a man lend 100*l.* for a year, and taketh the profits of a Manner, of the value of a 100*l. per an.* although the profits be received every day, yet it is no Uſury. But Fenner and Yelverton, Juſtices, held the contrary; and it is not like the Caſe of Mortgage, for the Statute intends that the profit and increaſe of the 100*l.* ought not to be received untill the end of the year; for if the 5*l.* Intereſt be received at the end of the 6 months, then he to whom the 100*l.* is lent, hath not the uſe and profit but of 95*l.* for the whole year, and the Statute is to be taken ſtrictly as to the Offender; and therefore, If a 100*l.* be lent for a year, and he who lends it, two dayes next after takes back 30*l.* of it, this taking back of the 30*l.* is Uſury. Judgment was given by the Opinion of all the Judges of England in this Caſe againſt the Plaintiff. Mich. 45 Eliz. in B. R. Barnes and Rowlands Caſe. Yelverton, 30, 31. See Cro. 1 Part, 26. the ſame Caſe.

10. Debt upon the Statute of 37 H. 8. of Uſury: The Writ was, That he corruptivè lent 40*l.* againſt the forms of the Statute, and that ſuch a one he lent 20*l.* &c. againſt the Statute, and doth ſo ſay corruptivè. The Defendant pleaded Non debet, and found againſt him: It was moved, That the Plaintiff ſhould not have Judgment for any of the ſummes, for it is clearly ill for the 20*l.* for want of the word corruptivè. But the Opinion of the Court was, That it being good for part, he ſhould have Judgment for that part; and being for ſeveral ſums, it is in nature as two ſeveral Actions; ſo that though it be void for the one, it is good for the other; being it is but a miſpriſion in his Writ or Count. Mich. 3 Jac. in C. B. Grandy's Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 104.

11. Debt upon an Obligation. The Defendant pleaded the Statute of Uſury, and ſhewed That a Ship went to Eſtin New found land, (which journy might be performed in eight Months) and that the Plaintiff delivered 50*l.* to the Defendant, to pay 60*l.* at the return of the Ship to D; and if the ſaid Ship by Leaking, or Tempeſt ſhould not return from New found land to D, then the Defendant ſhould pay the 50*l.* principal money only; and if the Ship were returned, he ſhould pay nothing. It was reſolved by the whole Court in this Caſe, That this was not Uſury, for if the Ship had ſtayed at New found-land two or three years, he ſhould have paid at the return of the Ship but 60*l.*, and if it never returned, then nothing; ſo as the Plaintiff ran a hazard of having leſs than the Principal and Intereſt. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Paſc. 6 Jac. in B. R. Shapley and Harrets Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 209.

12. Debt upon an Obligation, for payment of 20*l. per Annum*, during the lives of the Plaintiff's Wife and Son: The Defendant pleaded the Statute of Uſury, and ſhewed, How he came to the Plaintiff to borrow 110*l.* &c. to the Rate of 10*l. per Cent.* who refuſed to lend the ſame, but corruptly offered to deliver 120*l.* to him, if he would be bounden to pay 20*l. per Annum*, during his, the Plaintiff's Wives and Sons lives; and thereupon he entred into the ſaid Bond, which is above the rate of 10*l. per Cent.* and ſo the Bond is void: Upon which it was demurred. It was reſolved, That this being an abſolute Bargain, in conſideration of payment of 20*l. per Annum*, during two Lives, and no agreement to have the Principal money, was out of the Statute of Uſury: But if there had been any proviſion made for the payment of the Principal money, it had been an Uſurious agreement, and within the Statute. Mich. 7 Jac. in B. R. Foulkes and Gynes Caſe. Cro. 3 Part, 235. See before, Barnes Caſe, and Cook 1 Part, Clayton's Caſe, 20*c.*

13. In Treſpaſs, the Caſe was, C. ſeized of Lands, it was agreed that M. A. ſhould lend him 150*l.*, and for ſecurity of re payment of it, C. Leaſed to the ſaid M. A. the Lands in Queſtion for 60 years, to begin at the end of two years, upon Condition, that if he paid the 150*l.* at the end of two years, the Caſe to be void. It was further agreed between them, That the ſaid C, for differing, and giving day of payment of the ſaid 150*l.* for two years, ſhould pay to the ſaid M. A. for the Intereſt thereof, 22*l.* 10*s.* Quarterly, if the ſaid M. A. ſhould ſo long live: In performance of the Agreement, A lent the 150*l.*, C. made the Leaſe, and granted by Fine an Annual Rent

ſhould ceaſe. B. received the money, and granted the Rent upon ſuch Condition. And for Rent behind, he diſtreyned and avowed. In this Caſe, it was adjudged for the Avowant; for it appeareth that the ſame was not any corrupt Bargain within the Statute of 13 Eliz. becauſe that nothing was to be paid to B. untill the day; and if the money had bin paid at the day, the Rent had ceſſed without any thing paid for it: And therefore it was the Opinion of the Court, That it was a plain Bargain and Purchaſe conditional of ſuch Rent, and no Uſury. But if it had bin agreed betwixt the Grantor and Grantee, that the 100 l. ſhould not be paid at the day, then it had bin an Uſurious Bargain within the Statute. Mich. 34 Eliz. in B. R. Cook 5. Part, Bartons Caſe.

4. In Debt upon an Obligation, the Caſe was, A. requeſted B. to lend him 30 l. And upon a Communication had between them, B. lent him 30 l. 6. December, 34 Eliz. till the ſecond of June next, to pay to him for the Principal and the Loan of it, 33 l. the ſaid ſecond of June, if the Son of the Obligee was then alive; and if he dyed before the ſaid day, that then he ſhould pay him but 27 l. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the ſame was an Uſurious Contract within the Statute of 13 Eliz. For if the Original Contract be Uſurious, no colour or ſhaddow put upon it will make it good. Paſc. 37 Eliz. in C. B. Cook 5. Part, Clayons Caſe. 70.

5. Note, this difference was agreed by the Juſtices, That if I have a Rent-charge of 30 l. per annum, for 10 years, and another comes to me, and demands of me what he ſhall give to me for that Rent, and I anſwer him, that he ſhall give me 100 l. that the ſame is not Uſury, for it is but a void contract. But if A. comes to B. and ſayes to him, that he needeth 100 l. and demands of him how much he ſhall give him for 100 l. and he anſwereth him, 30 l. per annum, the ſame is Uſury if he doth ſo accordingly, becauſe there is a meer contract for money. But if one in conſideration of 100 l. received, grants to him that lends it to him, 30 l. per annum for 10 years; It was left a Quære in that Caſe, If it was not Uſury within the Statute. Paſc. 6 Jac. in C. B. rott. 1545. Cockerells Caſe. Brownl. 150.

6. Debt upon an Obligation, The Caſe was, W. the Defendant was endebted to one A. in 100 l. upon an Uſurious Contract, and A. was endebted to E. the Plaintiff in 100 l. for which W. and A. were bound to the Plaintiff; and debt being brought upon that Obligation, W. pleaded the Uſury between him and A. to avoid the Bond. The Plaintiff E. replyed, That A. before the making of the Bond, was endebted to him 100 l. being a juſt and due debt, for payment whereof, W. and A. were bound unto him in the Bond put in Suit, and that he was not in any wiſe knowing of the Uſury between W. and A. upon which Plea, W. did demur. In this Caſe, the Opinion of the Court was for the Plaintiff, for it is not Uſury in the Plaintiff, but only between W. and A. to which the Plaintiff is a ſtranger, not being privy to it; and therefore ſhall not be prejudiced by it; for although the Statute is to be taken ſtrongly for ſuppreſſing of Uſury, yet it muſt be betwixt ſuch Parties as are corruption, and not to puniſh the Innocent; but if no Debt had been due to the Plaintiff before, then it had been clearly Uſury; for then there had been no lawful cauſe to make the Bond unto him, but only to countenance the corrupt agreement between W. and A. 7. Debt upon an Obligation of 100 l. to pay 54 l. at the end of 6 Moneths. The Defendant pleaded the Statute of 21 Jac. of Uſury, and ſhewed. That th Plaintiff lent him 50 l. the 31 th of July, and agreed that he ſhould pay for the Intereſt thereof 4 l. The Plaintiff replyed, That he lent the 50 l. for a year, and that the Defendant ſhould pay 4 l. for the forbearance for a year, and by the Scrivenors miſtake, it was made to be paid at the half years end; and he not knowing thereof, accepted of the Bond. The Defendant re-joyned, That the lending only was for half a year, and that he was to pay 4 l. for that time, and traverſed: The 12 th of July, it was agreed, the Loan ſhould be for one whole year, or that he ſhould forbear it for a year: Upon which the Plaintiff did demur in Law, and ſaid, That the Bar was ill, becauſe it was not pleaded, Quod corruptum agreamen fuit; and the Plea is, that he ſhould have Intereſt for forbearing; but doth not ſay, Corrupte, &c. And for that cauſe the Court was of Opinion, that the Bar was ill. Alſo it was ſaid, that the Rejoynder was ill, becauſe the Defendant thereby makes the day to be parcel of the Iſſue; which ought not to be, but he ought to traverſe the Agreement only: And of that Opinion was the Court, but no Judgment was given in the Caſe; becauſe the Plaintiff offered to accept of his Debt, and the Defendant agreed to pay. Trin. 14. Car. in B. R. Nevilon and Whalleys Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 360.

8. In Ejectione firmæ, the Queſtion was, If one Morgage Land for 100 l. and taketh a Bond for the payment of 8 l. Intereſt per An. payable half-yearly, whether this makes the Bargain Uſurious againſt the Statute; becauſe, as it was ſaid, the the uſe ought not to be paid untill the end of the year; and contrarily to pay it half-yearly, is not warranted by the Statute. But it was the Opinion of the whole Court, That it was not an Uſurious Contract, becauſe the 100l. is lent for a year, and the reſervation is not of more, but of what is permitted by the Statute; and although that the Intereſt is reſerved payable half-yearly, it is allowable; for he doth not receive any Intereſt for more or leſs time, than his money is forborn. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff, and the Judgment affirmed upon a Writ of Error, brought in the Exchequer-Chamber. Trin. 8 Car. in B. R. Gryſſil and Whitehorn's Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 206.

9. The Caſe was, I. S. lent 100l. for a year and took 5l. Intereſt, at the end of 6 moneths. It was the Opinion of Popham and Gawdy, Juſtices, That it was not Uſury, becauſe it is not above the rate of 10l. for a 100l. and it is as if a man lend 100l. for a year, and takith the profits of a Mannor, of the value of a 100l. per an. although the profits be received every day, yet it is no Uſury. But Fenner and Yelverton, Juſtices, held the contrary; and it is not like the Caſe of Mortgage, for the Statute which allowes the Mortgage, muſt allow allow the profits to be taken, as they naturally ariſe; but when a 100l. is lent for a year, the Statute intends that the profit and increaſe of the 100l. ought not to be received untill the end of the year; for if the 5l Intereſt be received at the end of the 6 moneths, then he to whom the 100l. is lent, hath not the uſe and profit but of 95l. for the whole year, and the Statute is to be taken ſtrictly as to the Offender; and therefore, If a 100l. be lent for a year, and he who lends it, two dayes next after takes back 30l. of it, this taking back of the 10l. is Uſury. Judgment was given by the Opinion of all the Judges of England in this Caſe againſt the Plaintiff. Mich. 45 Eliz. in B. R. Barnes and Warbolds Caſe. Yelverton, 30, 31. See Cro. 2 Part, 26. the ſame Caſe.

10. Debt upon the Statute of 37 H. 8. of Uſury: The Writ was, That he corruptivè lent 40l. againſt the forms of the Statute, and that ſuch a one he lent 20l. &c. againſt the Statute, and doth not ſay corruptivè. The Defendant pleaded Non debet, and found againſt him: It was moved, That the Plaintiff ſhould not have Judgment for any of the ſummes, for it is clearly ill for the 20l. for want of the word corruptivè. But the Opinion of the Court was, That it being good for part, he ſhou'd have Judgment for that part; and being for ſeveral ſums, it is in nature as two ſeveral Actions; ſo that though it be void for the one, it is good for the other; being it is but a miſpriſion in his Writ or Count. Mich. 3 Jac. in C. B. Wendy's Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 104.

11. Debt upon an Obligation. The Defendant pleaded the Statute of Uſury, and ſhewed That a Ship went to Eſtin in New-found land, (which journey might be performed in eight Moneths) and that the Plaintiff delivered 50l. to the Defendant, to pay 60l. at the return of the Ship to D; and if the ſaid Ship, by Leaking, or Tempeſt ſhould not return from New found land to D, then the Defendant ſhould pay the 50l. principal money only; and if the Ship were returned, he ſhou'd pay nothing. It was reſolved by the whole Court in this Caſe, That this was not Uſury, for if the Ship had ſtayed at New found-land two or three years, he ſhould have paid at the return of the Ship but 60l., and if it never returned, then nothing; ſo as the Plaintiff ran a hazard of having leſs than the Principal and Intereſt. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Paſc. 6 Jac. in B. R. Sharpley and Harrets Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 209.

12. Debt upon an Obligation, for payment of 20l. per Annum, during the lives of the Plaintiff's Wife and Son: The Defendant pleaded the Statute of Uſury, and ſhewed, How he came to the Plaintiff to borrow 120l. &c. to the Rate of 10l. per Cent. who refuſed to lend the ſame, but corruptly offered to deliver 120l. to him, if he would be bounden to pay 20l. per Annum, during his, the Plaintiffs Wives and Sons lives; and thereupon he entred into the ſaid Bond, which is above the rate of 10l. per Cent. and ſo the Bond is void: Upon which it was demurred. It was reſolved, That this being an abſolute Bargain, in conſideration of payment of 20l. per Annum, during two Lives, and no agreement to have the Principal money, was out of the Statute of Uſury: But if there had been any proviſion made for the payment of the Principal money, it had been an Uſurious agreement, and within the Statute. Mich. 7 Jac. in B. R. Foubtain and Gaynes Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 235. See before, Barnes Caſe, and Cook 1 Part, Clayton's Caſe, &c.

13. In Treſpaſs, the Caſe was, C. ſeized of Lands, it was agreed that M. A. ſhould lend him 150l., and for ſecurity of re payment of it, C. Leaſed to the ſaid M. A. the Lands in Queſtion for 60 years, to begin at the end of two years, upon Condition, that if he paid the 150l. at the end of two years, the Caſe to be void. It was further agreed between them, That the ſaid C, for diſcharging, and giving day of payment of the ſaid 150l. for two years, ſhould pay to the ſaid M. A. for the Intereſt thereof, 22l. 10s. Quarterly, if the ſaid M. A. ſhould ſo long live: In performance of the Agreement, A lent the 150l., C. made the Leaſe, and granted by Fine an Annual Rent of 22l. 10s. to be paid Quarterly, if M. A. ſo long lived, and afterwards conveyed the Inheritance to the Plaintiff. There were divers Queſtions in this Caſe: 1. If it was an Uſurious Contract within the Statute, becauſe it was a meer caſual Bargain. It was as to that point Reſolved, That it was an Uſurious Bargain; for by intendment ſhe might live about two years, and it is an Agreement, poſſibly, that ſhe ſhould receive that conſideration. 2. Queſt. If this Leaſe, being taken for the payment of the Principal money, and not for the payment of any part of the Uſury, be within the Statute. It was Reſolved, That it was becauſe it was for the ſecurity of money lent upon Intereſt. 3. It was Objected, That this Verdict found that there was an Agreement in the ſame manner, prout, &c. but doth not find but it was Corruptum agretamentum. It was Anſwered by the Court, That it needs not be ſet forth that it was Corruptum, for that in this Caſe res ipſa loquitur; and if the Corrupt Agreement be not expreſſed in the Verdict, yet if the matter be apparent to the Court, it is ſufficient; otherwiſe, if the matter be only implyed, and ſo it was ſaid it was adjudged in one Biggens and Mervens Caſe. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Trin. 14 Jac. in B. R. Roberts and Tremans Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 507.

14. Upon a ſpecial Verdict, in Ejectione firme, It was found, that R. G. the Defendant, was poſſeſſed of a Leaſe for years, of a Houſe, and 23 Maij. 17 Jac. it was agreed betwixt him, and one I. S. that he ſhould lend to the ſaid R. G. 120l. for a year then next following, upon ſecurity for re-paying of the ſaid 120l., and 12l. for the Intereſt thereof, upon 24 May, 1618. He lent the money, and R. G. 23 May, &c. was bound in a Bond with him of 260l. with condition for the payment of the ſaid 132l. upon the 25th of May next inſuing; and for the better aſſurance of the payment of the ſaid 232l., he made the Leaſe by Indenture to the ſaid I. S. (being the Leſſor of the Plaintiff) upon condition, That if he paid the ſaid 132l. at the day and place mentioned in the Condition of the ſaid Obligation, then the Aſſignment to be void; and found, that the Scrivener who drew the Obligation and Aſſignment, by miſtaking the ſaid Agreement between them, drew it in this manner, and that the ſaid I. S. ſealed the counterpart of the ſaid Indenture: And found the Statute of Uſury, and that the ſaid 132l. was not yet paid; whereupon I. S. entred, and made the Leaſe to the Plaintiff. The Queſtions in this Caſe, were: 1. Whether theſe words, viz. The 24th. of May next enſuing, ſhall be intended the ſame moneth of May, which was the next day following. And 2. Then if it was Uſurious, or not. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That; Next inſuing ſhall be intended the ſame moneth of May; unleſs the circumſtances of their Agreement had been found. But the Juſtices held, That although it ſhould be Expounded to refer to May 24. the ſame moneth and year, which is the next day; yet foraſmuch as the Agreement is made to be, to make the Loan for a year, and that the Aſſurances were for payment at the years end, and by the Scriveners miſtake, it is made payment the next day, that it was not Uſury within the Statute, for there was not any corrupt Agreement betwixt them, and the act of a ſtranger, ſhall not bring him within the danger of the Statute; eſpecially, it being found, that he did not require his payment untill after the year. 1. Uſurpation is, where a Stranger, who hath no Title to the Advowſon, the Church being void, doth preſent his Clerk to the Biſhop, or Ordinary, who doth thereupon Admit, Inſtitute, and Induct the Clerk preſented to the Church. This Preſentation is a Diſturbance and Uſurpation, and doth put the Patron out of the Poſſeſſion of the Church. This appeareth by the Statute of Weſtminſt. 2. Chap. 5. Cum aliquis jus preſentandi non habens preſentavit venit ad aliquam Eccleſiam cujus præſentatus ſit admiſſus: For no man can be put out of his Advowſon, but upon Admiſſion and Inſtitution upon a Preſentation only. Cook 6 Part, 30. acc. For if the Biſhop doth Collate unto the Church without Title, and his Clerk be Inducted, this doth not put the Rightful Patron out of Poſſeſſion, for that it ſhall be taken to be only proviſionally made for the Celebration of Divine Service, until the Patron doth Preſent. See 14 H. 7. 2. and ſo it was Reſolved, Mich. 3 Eliz. in C. B. in Jurdens Caſe.

2. At the Common-Law, Every Preſentation to the Church, did put the Rightful Patron out of Poſſeſſion, and put him to his Writ of Right of Advowſon, whether the Preſentation were by Title, or without Title: And therefore, If A. being ſeized of an Advowſon, had levyed a Fine to B. and his Heirs, and after the Church had become void, and A. had Preſented by uſurpation his Clerk to the Ordinary, who had been Admitted Inſtituted, and Inducted; this ſhould have put the Patron out of Poſſeſſion. See 8 E. 2. Quare Imp. 168. And ſo it was, if A. had recovered againſt B. an Advowſon, in a Writ of Right of Advowſon, and had final Judgment, and afterwards the Incumbent had dyed, and B. by uſurpation had preſented his Clerk to the Church, who had been Admitted and Inſtituted, and afterwards B. had dyed; this ſhould have put A. out of Poſſeſſion, and the Heir of B. ſhould not have been bounden by the Judgment, either in Blood or Eſtate; but that he ſhould have Preſented, 44 E. 3. Quare Imp. 139. Cook 1 Part, Inſtitutes. 248. And the Reaſon of both the ſaid Caſes was, for that every Preſentation did put the Lawful Patron out of Poſſeſſion; and therefore although that in both the ſaid Caſes, the uſurpation was before Execution, yet the Rightful Patron was thereby put out of Poſſeſſion of that Church, and the Uſurper had gained the Inheritance of the Advowſon thereby, and the Preſentment by the Rightful Patron hac vice loſt.

3. At the Common-Law, If an uſurpation had been made upon an Infant, or a Feme-Covert, they had been thereby put out of Poſſeſſion; and ſo is 35 H. 6. 60. by Priſot, if they were in by Purchaſe, and they had been put to their Writs of Right of Advowſon, as all the old Books are; 1 E. 3. Quare Imp. 43. 39 E. 3. 24. 50. E. 3. 13. 6. E. 3. 27. And the Reaſon given in the ſaid Books, was, Becauſe that the Clerk Preſented, came in by Judicial act of the Ordinary's Admiſſion and Inſtitution; and it was preſumed, that the Ordinary would not have done any wrong, or aſſented to any wrong to be done to the Patronage of the Church. But yet at the Common-Law, If one had uſurped upon the Poſſeſſion of the King, and his Clerk had been Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted; yet this would not have put the King out of the Poſſeſſion of the Advowſon, by reaſon of his Prerogative of Nullum tempus occurrit Regi: but the King might have here recovered his preſentment by a Quare Impedit, for that the King was not bound by the Plenarty. See Cook 6 Part, Baſwil's Caſe.

4. If the King hath an Advowſon in the Right of his Ward, and a Stranger uſurps, and his Clerk is in by 6 Months, before the King brings his Quare Impedit; yet this Plenarty ſhall be no good Bar againſt the King; and the Reaſon thereof, is, becauſe the King ſhould otherwiſe be without remedy; for a Writ of Right of Advowſon, he cannot have, having an Eſtate in the Advowſon but as Guardian; and therefore, in that Caſe, Nullum tempus occurrit Regi; for elſe a Stranger might hold a thing only by wrong againſt him, and without any good ground. Stamford 32, and 33. acc. Yet in ſuch Caſe, the King ſhall not put out the Incumbent, without a Quare Impedit firſt brought. But if the King hath Title to Preſent, by reaſon of Lapſe, and the Patron doth uſurp, and Preſents his Clerk, who is Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted, and then dyes; the King in ſuch Caſe hath loſt his Preſentation, and ſhall not have the ſecond Preſentation by his Prerogative; for there Tempus occurrit Regi, and the Kings Title, was ſpecially limited, and the 6 Months was the ſubſtance of his Title. Cook 7 Part, Baſkervils Caſe.

5. Note, It was holden by all the Juſtices. Paſc. 25 El 2. in C. B. That by two Uſurpation, the King might be put out of Poſſeſſion of his Advowſon, and put to his Writ of Right; and that a Grant made by the King of his Advowſon, after two Uſurpation was void. See 47 E. 3. 7. b. acc. and ſo it was ſaid, that it was adjudged, Mich. 13 Jac. in C. B. But Quære of it. Yardley's Caſe.

6. Note alſo, that it was ſaid, and agreed by the Juſtices, That Collation cannot gain any Patronage, or be an uſurpation againſt a common Perſon, à fortiori not againſt the King. And note, that it is there ſaid, That Collation is a giving of the Church to the Parſon, but Preſentation, is an offering of the Parſon to the Church. See Paſc. 30 Eliz. in C. B. The Queen, and the Biſhop of Yorks Caſe. Leon. 226.

7. In a Writ of Error, to reverſe a Judgment in a Quare Impedit, for the Church of Moreton Valence; It was Reſolved, 1. That as the King hath ſuch a Priviledge, that he cannot be ouſted of his Inheritance concerning Land, ſo he cannot be ouſted of an Advowſon; but uſurpation, and Plenart narty ſhall bind him, quoad the Poſſeſſion, until he remove the Incumbent by Quare Impedit. 2. That a Stranger cannot put the King out of an Advowſon, but that it is in him, to grant or diſpoſe; and therefore 20 Preſentations ſhall not gain any Poſſeſſion from him, but that he alwayes remains ſeized. 3. That the King remaining in Poſſeſſion, after the firſt Preſentment, and the Plenarty thereby, there is no more ouſted from him by the ſecond Preſentation, then by the firſt. 4. It was ſaid, that it was Reſolved, Mich. 39 Eliz. in Haſtes Caſe, That two, or three uſurpations upon the King, did not gain ſuch a Poſſeſſion againſt him, but that the Advowſon remains alwayes in him, which he muſt grant, and upon Avoydance Preſent thereunto, and maintain a Quare Impedit upon Diſturbance. Trin. 4 Jac. in B. R. The King and Champions Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 123. See Trin. 4 Jac. in B. R. The King and Matthew's Caſe. Yelverton 91.

8. If a man uſurp upon an Infant, and Preſents, which Infant hath an Advowſon by diſcent, and after the Incumbent dyeth, the Infant ſhall Preſent; and if he be diſturbed, he ſhall have and maintain an Aſſize of Darrein Preſentment: But if the Infant purchaſeth the Advowſon, and Preſents, and afterwards the Church voids, and a Stranger Preſents, and uſurps upon the Infant, and after the Incumbent dyes; in ſuch Caſe, that Infant ſhall not have an Aſſize of Darrein Preſentment, but ſhall be put to his Writ of Right of Advowſon; becauſe in the firſt Caſe he is in by act of Law, viz. Diſcent; and in the laſt Caſe, by act of the Party, i. e. by Purchaſe. See F. N. B. 31. And ſo ſee, If a woman purchaſeth an Advowſon, and takes a Husband, and the Church becomes void, and a Stranger Preſents, and the Husband ſuffereth this uſurpation, the Wife thereby ſhall be put out of Poſſeſſion, after the ſix Moneths be paſt, and ſhall be put to her Writ of Right of Advowſon, if ſhe had Preſented before; but if not, then ſhe is without remedy: but otherwiſe, it is in Caſe where ſhe hath the Inheritance of the Advowſon by Diſcent. See Fitz. Nat. Bre. 34. acc.

9. Note, That in Caſe of Preſentation, the Intereſt of the Preſentor is to be conſidered; for in ſome Caſes, a Preſentation, although it ſeemeth to be by uſurpation, yet it ſhall not put the Patron out of Poſſeſſion: And therefore if a man be ſeized of an Advowſon in Fee, and grants three Avoydances unto one man, the one next after the other, and the Church doth become void, and the Grantor himſelf preſents his Clerk, who is Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted, and then the Church doth become void again; the Grantee in that Caſe, ſhall Preſent to the ſecond Avoydance, for that he was not put out of Poſſeſſion by the firſt Preſentment; for the Grantor had the Fee, and the Francktenements of the Advowſon in him, ſo that he could not make any uſurpation, to gain any Eſtate, to put the Grantee out of Poſſeſſion as an Uſurper; and alſo in reſpect of the privity of Contract, betwixt the Grantor and the Grantee, ſuch Preſentation made by the Grantor, ſhall not be termed an Uſurpation, or amount to an act to put the Grantee out of the two laſt Avoydances. Cook 1 Part, Inſtitutes, 249.

10. If an Advowſon be granted to one for life, the remainder to another in Fee, and the Tenant for life dyeth, and afterwards a Stranger uſurps and Preſents, and ſix Moneths paſs: In that Caſe, he in the remainder was without remedy at the Common-Law, for he could not have a Writ of Right of Advowſon upon ſuch an uſurpation, becauſe that Writ is not maintainable, but of his own Poſſeſſion, or of his Anceſtors. See 1 H. 4. 3. 22 H. 6 26. and 21 E. 4 1. are: and an Aſſize of Darrein Preſentment he could not have, or a Quare Impedit, becauſe the ſix Moneths were paſt; and ſo, although he had the Right of Advowſon in him, yet ſuch an uſurpation ſhould have bounden him, and gained the Poſſeſſion from him, becauſe he had not any Action for the Recovery of his Right. And ſo it was, If Tenant for life of a Mannor, in which an Advowſon is appendant, had ſuffered an uſurpation, and the Tenant for life had dyed, he in the remainder had no remedy for the uſurpation. And although the words of the Statute of Weſtminſt. 2. Cap. 5. are, Habeat eadem Actionem, & Recuperationem per breve de Advocatione poſſeſſorium qualem haberet ultimus Anteceſſor; yet at this day the Law is conceived, that they ſhall be ayded by the ſaid Statute. See 7. E. 2. Statham. Quare Imp. 34. A Purchaſor was received in an Aſſize of Darrein Preſentment, to avoid an uſurpation had upon Tenant in Dower, 17 E. 3. 19. It is admitted for Law, That if Tenant for life ſuffereth an uſurpation, he in the reverſion ſhall avoid it after the death of the Tenant for life. And ſee 45 E. 3. where it is ſaid, by Finchden, That if a Stranger uſurpeth upon my Tenant for life, and afterwards the Tenant confirmeth his Eſtate in Fee, and the Stranger Preſenteth two or three times, and the Tenant for life dyeth, and the Church doth become void, that I ſhall Preſent, and upon any Diſturbance, I ſhall have a Quare Impedit; for that the Statute of Weſt. 2. being made to ſuppreſs wrong doing ſhall be taken largely; and ſo it was adjudged in the Court of Common-Pleas, Paſc. 14 Jac. Rott. 1038. in the Lord Stanhope and Williams Caſe.

11. A Quare Impedit was brought by the Queen,

Queen, and declared, That William Lord Say, was ſeized of the Mannor of B, to which the Advowſon was appendant, and Preſented C, and after dyed ſeized, having Iſſue two Daughters; viz. M. married to the Earl of Eſſex, and A. married to the Lord Mounjoy, who made Partition; and the Mannor of B. was (inter alia) allotted to M, and after M. and her Husband dyed, leaving Iſſue, E, who took to Husband the Marqueſſe of Northampton: That afterwards, 33 H. 8. a Fine was levyed of the ſaid Mannor, by which the ſaid Mannor was rendred to the Marqueſſe for life, the remainder to E. his Wife in Tail, the remainder to King Henry the 8th. in Fee: That the Marqueſs was attainted of Treaſon, and the King ſeized; and that afterwards E. dyed without Iſſue, after which in the Seiſin of the Queen Plaintiff, the Church became void, and ſo the ought to Preſent: The Defendant confeſſed all the matter untill the Attainder, and pleaded further, That Queen Mary Leaſed the Mannor, with the Advowſon to R. and W. for 40 years, and in their Poſſeſſion the Church became void, to which Avoydance, I. S. did Preſent the Defendant, who was Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted: Upon which Plea, the Queens Counſel did demur in Law; the Queſtion was, If the Queen had Title, or was Barred by the ſaid uſurpation of I. S. In this Caſe, after a long debate, and ſolemn Argument by the Judges, it was agreed by them all, That Judgment ſhould be given againſt the Queen; and the Reaſon of their Judgment was, For that here was not only a bare Preſentation pleaded againſt the Queen, but alſo an Eſtate for years, derived in the ſaid Advowſon from Queen Mary; and that the Avoydance upon the Action brought, falleth within the ſaid Terme, and ſo the Queen, who is Plaintiff, is encountred with the Leaſe of her Anceſtors; againſt which, ſhe cannot make Title to Preſent, without ſpecial matter: Judgment was given againſt the Queen. Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. The Queen and Middletons Caſe. Leon. 43, 44.

12. King E. 3. did grant Licenſe to Robert de Eglesfield, to found Quandam Aulam Collegialem ſub nomine Aulæ Scholarium Reginæ de Oxon, quæ per unum Prepoſitum de dictis Scholaribus juxta Ordinationem prefati Roberti inde faciend. gubernabitur, &c. Doctor Aray being Provoſt of the ſaid Colledge, did Preſent a Clerk to a Church being void, by the name of the Provoſt of the Colledge of the Queen in Oxon, and omitted the word Scholarium. The Queſtion was, Whether this Preſentation thus made, by a contrary name, of their Foundation, with Admiſſion, Inſtitution, and Induction thereupon, ſhould be an uſurpation, and ſo gain the Patronage to them; they having done this many times, without any diſturbance: In this Caſe it was holden clearly by the Court, That this Preſentation thus made, by the contrary name of their Foundation, ſhould make no Uſurpation, nor gain any Patronage to themſelves, and that a Confirmation upon ſuch a Preſentation, ſhould not make it good; but the Patronage remained ſuch as it was before the Confirmation made. Then the Queſtion was in this Caſe: If there ſhould be an Uſurper, or not. The Court agreed, That if there be any Uſurper in the Caſe, the ſame is the Biſhop; for that his Collation ſhould amount to an Uſurpation; but the Point was not Reſolved by the Court: Afterwards, upon a reference, the matter was agreed betwixt the Parties. Mich. 8 Jac. in B. R. Doctor Aray and Sir Richard Lovelace's Caſe. Bollſr. 1 Part, 91.

13. In a Quare Impedit brought, theſe Points were Reſolved: 1. When one preſents upon a Leaſe for years, that this uſurpation gains a Fee, and puts the very Patron out of Poſſeſſion; and although he in the Reverſion after the Leaſe, by Will two may have a Quare Impedit when the Church is void, or may preſent; and if his Clerk be Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted, that then he is remitted; yet till it be recovered, the Uſurper hath the Fee, and againſt him lies the Writ of Right. 2. When the King preſents one by Lapſe, not having any Title of Lapſe, and a Recovery is had againſt him in a Quare Impedit, by one which had no Title, if this gain the Patronage; It is clear in this Caſe, the King had no Title to preſent; and although he who comes in by ſuch Lapſe, is not Incumbent, nor gains the Poſſeſſion, yet he is Incumbent as to all Eccleſiaſtical matters; as to have Offerings, Tythes, &c. for it is only as to the Rightful Patron, no gaining of the Patronage: In the principal Caſe, it was Thirdly Reſolved: When one recovers in a Quare Impedit, although that no Writ be awarded to the Biſhop, yet if upon Non-preſentment, the Biſhop will admit and preſent his Clerk, and Inſtitute him, and he is Inducted; this is good, as well as a man may enter without a Writ of Habere facias ſeiſinam after a Recovery. So may the Patron, who hath Recovered in a Quare Impedit preſent, and that being accepted, and Inſtitution and Induction enſuing thereupon, it is good. 4. Reſolved, When one having good Title to preſent, and an Incumbent by uſurpation is Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted; and after the Patron preſents and the Biſhop doth refuſe his Clerk, and after the Patron Recovers, and then he which had this Preſentation exhibits it to the Biſhop; this is now a good Preſentation, and the Patron cannot revoke, or give him a new Preſentation: But if the Patron, before the death of the Incumbent, makes Letters of Preſentation, the ſame is void, becauſe he had no Title to preſent ſent. Mich. 21 Jac. in C. B. Rudd, and the Biſhop of Lincoln's Caſe. Hutton 66.

14. In a Quare Impedit againſt the Biſhop of Bath, and others; The Defendant pleaded, Quod ipſe nihil habet, nec habere clamat, niſi de Preſentatione G. S. militis, not named in the Writ, and demanded Judgment of the Writ; upon which, the Plaintiff did demur in Law. It was ſaid, the Writ was well brought, without naming the Patron; for if a Quare Impedit be brought againſt the Patron and Incumbent, and the Patron dyeth pendant the Writ, it ſhall not abate: And it was ſaid, That it might be that the Plaintiffs did not know, nor could tell who preſented the ſaid Incumbent; but he findeth the Incumbent a Diſturber by his Incumbency, and if of neceſſity ſuch Patron ought to be named, then if ſuch an Uſurper ſhould dye before the Writ brought, then he which hath the cauſe of Action, ſhould be remedileſs. The Court conceived, that the Writ was good enough for the Reaſons aforeſaid; and Anderſon, Chief Juſtice put this Caſe: If A. wrongfully by uſurpation doth preſent, and his Clerk is Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted, and afterwards A. having gained the Patronage, grants it over to B, againſt whom ſhould the Quare Impedit be brought? Walmſley ſaid, againſt B: But Anderſon ſaid, that he doubted of it. Mich. 32 Eliz. in C. B. Hall, and the Biſhop of Bathes Caſe. Leon. 2 Part, 58.

15. Note, upon every uſurpation, the time when it was made, is conſiderable: If an uſurpation be had upon one to an Advowſon, in the time of War, this uſurpation doth not put the Rightful Patron out of Poſſeſſion of the Advowſon, although that the Incumbent be Inſtituted and Inducted into the Church, in the time of peace. 7 E. 3. Tit. Darrein, Preſentment 2. 18 E. 3. Fitz. Quare impedit 175. acc. The Reaſon is, becauſe it reſpects and looks back to the Original Act, which is the Preſentment; and that being in the time of War, the War doth not give only priviledge to them that be in the War, but to all thoſe that be in the Kingdom; and therefore although the Admiſſion and Inſtitution be in the time of Peace, yet the Preſentment being in the time of War, the ſame doth not put the Patron out of the Poſſeſſion of the Advowſon. And ſo it is, if an uſurpation be had upon an Abbot, or Biſhop, Sede vacante; ſuch uſurpation ſhall not prejudice the Succeſſor, but that he ſhall have a Quare Impedit, and thereupon ſhall remove the Incumbent, and he ſhall preſent; but if ſuch Preſentation by uſurpation had been in the time of his Predeceſſor, the ſame ſhould have put the Succeſſor out of Poſſeſſion, if the ſix Moneths were paſt. See 9 E. 3. 16. Fitz. Nat. Bre. 34. Cook. 1 Part, Inſtitutes. in Shelleys Caſe. accordingly.

16. If the Patron of a Benefice be Out-lawed, and the Church becometh void, ſo as the Title of Preſentment is come to the King, in regard of the outlawry, and the Church doth become void, and a Stranger uſurps upon the King, and preſents his Clerk, and the ſix Moneths paſs, and then the King brings a Quare Impedit, and removes the Incumbent; by this act of the King, the Advowſon is re-continued to the Rightful Patron; and the uſurpation, whileſt the Title was in the King, did not gain the Inheritance of the Advowſon, out of the Rightful Patron, ſo as he after the Outlawry reverſed, or pardoned, might preſent to the Church being void. See 22 Aſſ. 33. acc.

17. Two Co-partners be of an Advowſon, and they make compoſition, to preſent by turns, and one of them doth uſurp in the turn of the other; this uſurpation doth not put the other out of Poſſeſſion, becauſe they claim both by one Title. See 12 H. 8. 1. in Kelloway. 22 E. 4. 4. and 6 E. 3. tit. Quare Imp. 39. acc. And ſo it is, if two Joynt-Tenants be of an Advowſon, and one of them preſenteth his Clerk, who is Inſtituted, and Inducted; this doth not put the other out of Poſſeſſion. But in ſuch Caſe, if the Joynt-Tenant that preſenteth dyeth, his Preſentation ſhall ſerve for a Title in a Quare Imp. brought by the other. See 35 H. 8. See 370. 27 H. 8. 11. 15 E. 3. Darrein Preſentment, acc.

18. If an uſurpation be had upon the Patron of his Advowſon, or that he be diſturbed in his Preſentation, when the Church becomes void, the Law hath not left him Remedileſs, but hath provided ſeveral Remedies and Writs, for the Recovery of his Inheritance, or Poſſeſſion, and the removing of the Incumbent, who is the Diſturber; as viz. a Writ of Right of Advowſon; an Aſſize of Darrein Preſentment; a Writ of Quare Impedit: The firſt is a Writ for the recovery of the Right of the Patronage, and lyeth only for him who hath a Fee-ſimple in the Advowſon. The two other Writs, are Writs which doth concern the Poſſeſſion. Of theſe ſeveral Writs, and of the proceedings in them, ſee in their ſeveral Titles.

Vſage and Vſitatum

1. NOte, it is ſaid, in Plow. Com. 63. That there are ſeveral and different Cuſtomes and uſages of Mannors and Places, which diverſities of uſages and Cuſtoms, have grown, by reaſon of the ſeveral Nations, which have had the Government over this Realm; as Brittains, Romans, Saxons, Danes, Normans, who have left part of their Language, and part of their uſages and Cuſtomes here amongſt us; and therefore ſuch difference of Uſages, and Cuſtomes of Places is to be obſerved.

2. In a common Recovery, which is had by conſent and agreement of Parties, of Acres of Land: The Acres ſhall be accounted according to the uſual, and cuſtomable meaſure of the Acres of the Country, and ſhall not be according to the Statute of 33 E. 1. de terris menſurandis. See 1 Eliz. Dyer, acc. So if a man bargaineth, and ſelleth ſo many Acres of Wood, they ſhall be meaſured according to the uſage of the Country, and that is according to 20 Foot to the Rod, and not according to the ſaid Act; for that the uſage of the Place is to be obſerved. See 47 E. 3. 18. acc,

3. Note, it was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That the ſeveral Commiſſioners of Sewers throughout England, are not bounden to purſue the Lawes, Uſages, and Cuſtomes of Rumney-Marſh; but in Caſe where any particular place within their Commiſſion, have ſuch Lawes, Uſages, and Cuſtomes, as Rumney-Marſh hath, there they may preſerve them; for that the uſage of the place is to be obſerved. Cook. 10 Part, 140. in Keighley's Caſe.

4. In a Writ of Dower, an Eſſoign was caſt, and Challenged; for that by the Statute of Eſſoigns 12 E. 2. it is provided, Quod non jacet Eſſoinium, in breve de Dote. Notwithſtanding which, becauſe the common Eſſoign hath always been allowed in a Writ of Dower, therefore the Juſtices did conſtrue that Statue, to extend to an Eſſoign of the King's Service, and not to a common Eſſoign. Cook 9 Part, 15. in Anne Redingfield's Caſe.

5. A Writ directed to Coroners, viz. Coronatoribus de Comitatu, or in Comitatu, have the ſame conſtruction; (De and In) in ſuch Caſe, ſignifying one and the ſame thing: Yet it was holden by the Juſtices, becauſe that (In) in ſuch Caſe, hath been moſt frequently uſed; that upon ſuch a direction of the Writ to Coroners, the word (De) ought to be rejected and laid aſide, and the word (In) retained; for that the order of the Regiſter is, That all Writs directed to the Sheriff, ſhall be Vicecomiti de Comitatu, but thoſe directed to the Coroners, are Coronatoribus in Comitatu. See Plow. Com. 76. in Wimbiſh and Willoughby's Caſe. acc.

6. A. made a Feoffment in Fee of a Mannor to the uſe of himſelf, and his Wife, and his Heirs in the Mannor; there were Woods uſually to be cut every one and twenty years, and afterwards the Husband ſuffered the Wood to grow 25 years, and afterwards he dyed: The Queſtion was, Whether the Wife, being Tenant for life, might cut that under-Wood: It was holden in that Caſe, 1. That a Termor or Tenant for life, might cut all under-Woods, which had been uſually cut within 20 years: But in the Wood-Countryes, they may fell ſeaſonable Wood, which is called Sylva Cædua, at 26, 28, or 30 years, by the cuſtom of that Countrey. 2. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices in this Caſe, That this permiſſion of the Husband to ſuffer the Wood to grow to 25 years during the Coverture, ſhould bind the Wife; for that the time is limitted for the cutting of it by the Law, and the uſage of the Countrey; notwithſtanding that at the time of the limitting her eſtate to the Wife, ſhe might have cut the Trees; and if ſhe doth, that then in ſuch Caſe it is Waſte. Hill. 23 Eliz. in C. B. Godbolt. 5.

7. In Treſpaſs, the Defendant juſtified, That it was uſed within the Mannor of D, that every Farmer of ſuch a Houſe (& averred the Houſe to have been uſually lett to Farm) had Common in the Lands Waſte, and the Houſe came into the hands of the Lord, and he granted the Houſe and Waſte to I. S. in Fee; I. S. bargained, and ſold the Houſe to I. N, with all Commons, Profits, and Commodities uſed, occupied, and pertaining to the ſame, and after granted the Waſte to another; and if the Grantee of the Houſe, ſhould have Common in the Waſte, was the Queſtion. It was objected, that the Common was gone; for if he ſhould have Common, it ſhould as a new Grant of Common, which it cannot be; and if it be a new Grant, yet it hath reference to the uſage, that is, uſitatum eſt, &c. and this uſitatum is void: for Leſſee for years, cannot alledge an uſage; for every uſitatum ought to go in one ſelf ſame Current not interrupted; but here, every new Leaſe, is a new Contract, and ſo the uſage is interrupted; and then the not having the reference to the uſage, and that is is a void uſage, and ſo nothing paſs by the Grant; on the other ſide, it was found, That the Grantee of the Houſe ſhould have Common; for that the uſage is not a thing in ſtrictneſs of Law appertaining to the Land, but this hath gained his Reputation, it ſhall paſs in a Conveyance by apt words: The greater part of the Juſtices, viz. Crook, Yelverton, and Fleming conceived, That in Reaſon the Leſſee of the Houſe ſhould have the Common, but did not give any abſolute Opinion as to th t. Williams, Juſtice, held, That the Leſſee for years could not have more than he contracted for in his Leaſe, and then the uſitatum eſt was void, and then the Grant having reference to a void, and wrongful uſage, was not good. Hill. 7 Jac. in B. R. Grymes and Peacocks Caſe. Browal. 2 Part, 222, 223.

8. In an Action upon the Caſe, Judgment was given upon Nihil dicit; a Writ of Enquiry was awarded to the Sheriff of N, thus, Præceptum eſt vic. quod per Sacramentum 12 bonorum & legalium hominum, de bal. ſua diligenter inquirat; Quæ damna, &c. The Sheriff returned, Quod mandavit I. G. Bal. libertate R. H. hundred. de B. cui executio prædict. Brevis totaliter reſtat fiend. Et quod alibi infra Com. prædict. per ſe fieri non potuit; Qui quidem Bal. ſic ſibi reſpondit, and ſet down the Inquiſition before the Bayliff, and Forty damages upon Error brought in the Exchequer. It was agreed by the Juſtices, That the Return was inſufficient; for it was apparently untrue, and againſt Law; becauſe the Warrant was directed to the Sheriff himſelf, to be executed in any part of the Shire: But yet the Court would not reverſe the Judgment, becauſe the uſages had been ſuch, and there was diverſe of the like Preſidents, both in the Kings-Bench, and Common-Pleas. Trin. 12 Jac. Excheq. Wirley and Gunſtons Caſe. Hob. 83.

Vſe and Vſes.

What it is, of what it may be; who may ſtand ſeized to an Vſe, who not; By, or upon what it may be raiſed; and what ſhall be ſaid a good Conſideration to raiſe an Uſe; and out of what it may be raiſed, what not.

1. AN Uſe is a Truſt and Confidence which is not iſſuing out of the Land, but as a thing collateral, annexed to the Privity of the Eſtate, and to the perſon touching the Land; ſcil. That Ceſtuy Que uſe ſhall take the profits of the Land, and that the Tenant of the Land ſhall make an Eſtate according to his direction; and confidence of the perſon and privity of the Eſtate, are incidents inſeparable to every Uſe: And Ceſtuy que uſe at the Common Law, had neque jus ad rem, nor in re, but only had a Subpæna in the Chancery againſt the Feoffees to execute the Uſe. Cook 1. Part, in Chudleigh's Caſe, 101. Cook 2. Part, 58. in Beckwiths Caſe acc. Or, An Uſe at Common Law is no other, then a Confidence which one perſon puts in another; for a Confidence cannot be in Land, or other dead thing, but ought alwayes to be in ſuch a thing which hath underſtanding of the Truſt put in him, which cannot be no other then ſuch an one who hath reaſon and underſtanding to confirm what the other hath committed to him, which Confidence ſhall binde but in Privity, and yet the Confidence is in reſpect of the Land; but every one who hath the Land, is not bound to the Confidence, but in Privity ſhall be ſaid to be in the heir, and the Feoffee who hath knowledge of the Confidence, and in him who cometh to the Land by Feoffment without conſideration, although he hath no knowledge thereof; and yet every Feoffee is not bound, although he hath knowledge of the Confidence, as an Allien born, a perſon attainted, and the like; nor the King, he ſhall not be ſeized to anothers uſe, becauſe he is not compellable to perform the Confidence; Nor a Corporation, becauſe it is a dead Body, although it conſiſteth of natural perſons; and in this dead Body, a Confidence cannot be put but in Bodies Natural. 2. A

2. A man delivered a ſum of money to another man, to the uſe and behoof of a woman, to be delivered to her at the day of her Marriage; before the Marriage, the Bayler did countermand and revoke the ſaid money, and, if he might ſo do, it was the Queſtion. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That he might well countermand it, for that the property of the money was not changed or altered by the words of Uſe and Behoof; for it was ſaid, That an Uſe could not be of Chattels perſonals; and that, was ſaid, was proved by the Statute of 50 E. 3. cap. 6. Of fraudulent Gifts made of Goods and Chattels, to defraud Creditors: That the Law before was, That a Gift of Goods to an Uſe, was not good, but that the property did remain in the Donee; and the word [Uſe] void, for that otherwiſe the Statute had been made in vain, Paſch. 33 Eliz. D. 367, 49.

3. A. for conſideration of 400 l. by G. by Indenture, bargained, ſold, gave, granted, and conveyed Land to the ſaid G. and his heirs, Habendum, to the uſe of the Bargainor for life, the Remainder to G. in Tail, the Remainder to the right heirs of the Bargainor. In this Caſe it was holden by the Juſtices, That the Limitation by the Habendum was void, becauſe it is of an Uſe riſing out of an Uſe, 5 Mar. Dyer, 155. Tyrrells Caſe. See Cook 1 Part, 137. in Chudleighs Caſe acc.

4. In Ejectione firme, the Caſe was, T. B. father of the Defendant, ſeized to him and the heirs males of his body, of the Mannor of K. 32 H. 8. leaſed a Field called S. parcel thereof, to T. C. for years, Afterwards 4 E. 6. he leaſed the ſaid field to G. G. for 70 years, who aſſigned it to A. B. brother of the Leſſor, and to J. the Wife of the Leſſor; And after, 5 E. 6. T. B. the Leſſor, by his Deed Indented, gave the ſaid Mannor to the ſaid G. G. upon condition the ſaid G. G. ſhould pay to the ſaid T. B. within 15 days, 1000 l. and if he fail the payment thereof, that then after the ſaid fifteen dayes, That the ſaid G. G. ſhould be ſeized of a Tenement, parcel of the ſaid Mannor, of the yearly value of 3 l. to the uſe of the ſaid T. B. for his life, and after, to the ſaid G. G. till he had levyed 500 l. for the debts, and education of the children of the ſaid T. B. and after, to the uſe of the Defendant in Tail, and of the reſidue of the ſaid Mannor to the uſe of the ſaid T. B. and of the ſaid J. his Wife, for their lives, &c. T. B. made Livery to the ſaid G. G. in one place, parcel of the ſaid Mannor, which was in his own Occupation, in the name of the whole Mannor; the fifteen days incurr without payment of 1000 l. the Indenture is enrolled, T. C. returns, J. dyes, T. B. grants the Lands to a ſtranger by Fine, and before Proclamations paſt, T. his ſon and heir apparent within age, enters in the name of the Feoffees, by reaſon of the forfeiture; the Proclamations paſs; T. B. the Father dyeth, the Term of T. C. expireth, T. B. the ſon entreth, upon which Entry, the Action is brought. In this Caſe it was argued, That all the Mannor did paſs to the ſaid G. G. by the Livery, and nothing of it by the Enrolment, and that the meaning of the parties was, That all ſhould paſs by the Livery; for if the aſſurance ſhould enure by the Bargain and Sale, then the ſecondary uſes limitted upon the default of payment, ſhould never riſe; for that an uſe upon an uſe cannot riſe, and then the ſaid uſes limitted upon the default of payment, ſhould be defeated: But after, upon conſideration had of this caſe by a conference had amongſt the Juſtices, It was the Opinion of all the Juſtices, That the one moytie of the Leaſe was extinct by the Livery, viz. the moytie of J. the Wife of the Leſſor; and as to the other moytie, that it was in being, for that here is no Remitter; for if any Remitter had been in the caſe, it ſhould be after the Uſe raiſed, which is not yet raiſed; for that the Land ought to remain in G. G. until the 500 l. be levyed, and that is not found to be done by the ſpecial Verdict; and therefore for the ſaid moyties the Plaintiff had Judgment. Mich. 26 Eliz. in B. R. Stonely and Bracebridges Caſe. Leon. 5. 264, 265. acc.

5. In a Monſtrans de Droit, the Caſe was, The Lord Paget ſeized of divers Mannors, by Deed Indented, Covenanted with J. S. That in conſideration of diſcharge of his Funerals, payment of his Debts and Legacies, and the advancement of his Son, and others of his blood, to ſtand ſeized of the ſaid Mannors to the uſe of the ſaid J. S. for the life of the ſaid Lord Paget, and, after his deceaſe, to the uſe of C. P. and others, for 21 years; and after, to the uſe of William Paget his ſon in Tail; And afterwards, the Lord Paget was attainted of Treaſon. In this Caſe (amongſt other points) it was Reſolved, That the ſaid Term to the ſaid C. P. and others, was void, becauſe the ſame wanted a good Conſideration; but if he had made him his Executor, and chargable to his debts, then the conſideration had been good. Then the Queſtion was, That this Leaſe being void, If the Uſe limitted to the ſaid William Paget, ſon of the ſaid Lord Paget, ſhould begin preſently upon the death of the ſaid Lord Paget, or ſhould expect until the 21 years were expired and incurred after the death of the Lord, or not at all. It was ſaid, That an Uſe to be raiſed upon a poſſibility, ſhould never riſe: And in this Caſe it was ſaid, That the Uſe is limitted to begin when the Term of 21 years is ended, and therefore, till the Term be ended, no Uſe ſhould riſe to the ſon: and here the Uſe is limitted to riſe upon the end of the Term of 21 years, and not upon the end of the Eſtate; and ſo the Monſtrans de Droit brought in this Caſe, by William the ſon, was brought before his time, quare, for the Caſe was not Reſolved. Mich. 32 Eliz. in the Exchequer chamber: The Lord Paget's Caſe. Leon. 194. to 202. See the Book at large, for the debate of this point.

6. Lands were given to one, and the heirs of his body, Habendum, unto the Donee, to the uſe of him, his heirs, and aſſigns for ever. In this Caſe two points were Reſolved. 1. That the Limitation in the Habendum did not encreaſe, nor alter the Eſtate limitted in the Premiſſes of the Deed. 2. That Tenant in Tail might ſtand ſeized to an uſe expreſſed; but ſuch uſe cannot be averred. Paſch. 14 Jac. in B. R. Frankyns Caſe. Godbol. 269.

7. Note, It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, amongſt other points, That the Stat. of 27 H. 8. of Uſes, doth not transfer any Poſſeſſion to any uſe, but only to uſes in eſſe, and not to any future uſe or incontingency, until they come into poſſeſſion; for as there ought to be a perſon in eſſe ſeized to the uſe, ſo there ought to be an uſe in eſſe, which ſhould riſe out of the Eſtate, and there ought to be a perſon in eſſe who ſhall take the uſe, before any poſſeſſion can be transferred and executed to the uſe; for if the perſon who ſhall take the uſe be not in eſſe, or if the perſon be in eſſe, and no uſe be in eſſe, but only a poſſibility of an uſe, then there cannot be any execution of the poſſeſſion to that uſe; and as at the Common Law there cannot be any uſe in eſſe, if there be not ſeiſin out of which the uſe ſhall riſe, ſo no uſe can be executed by the Statute of 27 H. 8. if there be no ſeiſin in ſome perſon ſeized to ſuch uſe at the time of the execution thereof; for the expreſs words of the Statute are, Where any perſon or perſons ſtand or be ſeized, or hereafter &c. ſhall ſtand or be ſeized to the uſe of any other perſon or perſons, ſo as there ought to be a perſon in eſſe, of both parties, ſcil. who ſhall be ſeized to the uſe, and who ſhall take the uſe; and therefore if the perſon faileth, it is not poſſible to have the poſſeſſion executed by the Statute, to one who is not in rerum natura ſo, as perſons in eſſe, and uſes in eſſe, and not in Contingency, ſhall be executed by the ſaid Statute of 27 H. 8. Cook 1 Part, 136. in Chudleighs Caſe.

8. The Caſe was, W. R. 18 H. 8. made a Feoffment in Fee to the uſe of himſelf, and his heirs, 21 H. 8. he made his Will, by which he deviſed his Land to C. his younger ſon, and to the heirs males of his body, the Remainder to J. his eldeſt ſon in Fee, upon condition, That if C. or his Iſſue ſhould diſcontinue or alien, but only to make a Joynture for their Wives, for Term of their lives, that then &c. and dyed. The Statute of 27 H. 8. of uſes came; C. made Leaſe to the Defendants for their lives, according to the Statute of 32 H. 8. and levyed a Fine, with Proclamation, to the uſe of himſelf and his wife, and the heirs of their two bodies begotten, the Remainder to the right heirs of the Deviſor. J. the eldeſt ſon entred for the Condition broken. It was holden in this Caſe, 1. That this Condition to reſtrain an unlawful diſcontinuance, was good, and was annexed for good purpoſe; for that W. R. being a Serjeant at Law, well knew that Ceſtuy que uſe might have levyed a Fine, or ſuffered a Recovery, and this Condition had or annexed to the uſe by the Will, is now knit to the poſſeſſion, and by conſequence, the Condition annexed to it: And all the Juſtices held, That the Condition, and Intent of it, was broken; for it might be, that C. had Iſſue by a former Wife, which by this Fine ſhould be diſ-inherited, and a new Tail ſet on foot, againſt the meaning of the Deviſor. Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Ruddall and Millers Caſe. Leon. 298, 299.

9. Action upon the Caſe for a diſturbance in uſing a way; The Plaintiff ſhewed, That the Defendant was ſeized in Fee of the Land over which the way is, and of other Land; And by Indenture enrolled, bargained and ſold to J. S. land in Fee, with a way over his Land, and that J. S. lett unto him the land for years, and that the Defendant diſturbed him. In arreſt of Judgment, it was moved, becauſe a Leaſe is pleaded of Land, without expreſs words of the way, and therefore not good: and of that Opinion was the Court. Another Exception was, That there was not any Grant of the way in the Indenture, but only a Bargain and Sale of Land, and of a way out of his other Land, which cannot be good; for nothing but the uſe paſſed by the Deed, and there cannot be an uſe of a thing which is not in eſſe, as a way common, &c. which are not ſo created, and until they be created, no uſe can be raiſed by Bargain and Sale, and by conſequence, nothing paſſed by this Indenture: And of that Opinion was the whole Court. Mich. 5 Jac. in B. R. Beaudley and Brooks Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 189, 190.

10. Note, If I convey Lands which I have on the part of the Mother, or in Borough English, to J. S. and his heirs without conſideration, the uſe ſhall be void, and ſo the Land ſhall return again to me and my heirs of the Mother, or in Borough English, as before; for the Law doth conſtrue the uſe, in the ſame ſtate and quality as the Land was: But if I do Declare the uſe to me and my heirs, or, upon ſuch a Feoffment, reſerve a Rent to me and my heirs, it ſhall go to my heirs at Common Law; for it is not within the Cuſtome, but it is a new thing derived from the Land it ſelf. See 4 & 5 Mar. Dyer, 163. Hob. 31. in Cundes and Clarks Caſe acc.

11. Upon

11. Upon a ſpecial Verdict in Treſpaſs and Ejectment, the Caſe was I. W. being ſeized of Lands in Socage, in Fee-ſimple, conveyed the ſame by Deed of Feoffment, to Thomas his Son, in this manner, viz. to him and the Heirs of his Body, Habendū to the uſe of him and his Heirs for ever; who after deviſed all the Land by his Will to one, under whom the Plaintiff claimed; The Points in the Caſe were, 1. What Eſtate Thomas had by this Feoffment limitted in this manner, whether an Eſtate Tail, or a Fee-ſimple. 2. Whether Tenant in Tail might be ſeized to anothers Uſe? It was the clear Opinion of the Court in this Caſe, That here is an Eſtate Tail; and this ſubſequent uſe limitted, doth not alter the Eſtate, and the rather, being made to the Party himſelf, and it is ſtronger than if it had been by a Stranger; and here it is to the uſe of him and the Heirs of his Body, and the laſt words are more by way of Explanation, than of limitation; and the words ought to be applyed according to the meaning of the Partie, and not to the enlarging of the Eſtate, no more than a Warranty ſhall do. For the 2. Point it was Reſolved, Be it by way of limitation, or by way of Explanation, it was reſolved, That Tenant in Tail cannot be ſeized to anothers uſe; for it is ſaid, in Plow. Com. 555. in Walſingham's Caſe, That if one at this day be ſeized in Fee, and makes a gift in Tail to one, to the uſe of another in Fee, now by this Ciſtuy que uſe, who hath the Land by the Statute of 27 H. 8. One Fee-ſimple is the Land by the Statute determinable upon the Eſtate tail, and the Dower another: But note there by Plowden, that this cannot be ſo by Law; for that an Uſe cannot be limitted upon an Eſtate Tail: and there are Reaſons why, before the Statute of 27 H. 8. Tenants in Tail cannot ſtand ſeized to the uſe of another, becauſe he cannot be compelled to execute it; and if he do execute it, his Iſſue might fetch it back again by his Formedon. Trin. 18 Jac. in B. R. Rott. 941. Cooper and Frankyers Caſe Bulſt. 3 Part, 185, 186. See the ſame Caſe before.

13. A. ſeized of green Mead by Copy holden of the Manor of T; which Manor I. S. held of the King by Knights ſervice in Capite: I. S. by Indenture 22 Decemb. 1 Jac. made between him of the one part, I. D. and G. D. Son and Heir Apparent of the ſaid I. D. did bargain, ſell, grant, enfeoff, &c. Leaſe and Confirm unto the ſaid I. D. the ſaid Mead, called Green Mead, To have, and to hold the ſame Mead, unto the ſaid I. D. and G. D. their Heirs and Aſſignes, to the only uſe, and behoof of the ſaid I. D. and G. D. their Heirs and Aſſigns for ever. And by the ſaid Indenture, the ſaid I. S. did Covenant with the ſaid I. D. and G. D. to make further aſſurance to the ſaid I. and G. and their Heirs, to the uſe of them and their Heirs, and Livery and Seiſin was made according to the intent of the Indenture, to the uſes therein mentioned; I. D. the Father dyed, G. D. his Son and Heir within age. In this Caſe three Points were reſolved: 1. Foraſmuch as G. was not named in the Premiſſes, that he could not take by the Habendum; and the Livery made according to the intent of the Indenture, doth not give any thing to G. becauſe the Indenture, as to him, was void; but although the Feoffment be only good to I. and his Heirs, yet the uſe limitted to I. and G. and their Heirs is good. 2. If an Eſtate had been well conveyed to I. and his Heirs, by the Releaſe or Confirmation, as it well may be to a Tenant by copy of Court-Roll, the uſe limitted to them is good; for upon a Releaſe, which creates an Eſtate, a uſe may be limitted, or a Rent reſerved; but upon a Releaſe or Confirmation, which enures by way of Mitter le droit, an uſe cannot be limitted. 3. In this Caſe the Queſtion was, If the Father and Son were Joynt-Tenants, or Tenants in Common? It was Objected, that they were Tenants in Common; for when the Father is only enfeoffed to the uſe of him, and his Son, and their Heirs, in that Caſe they are in the Per, and then the limitation to him and his Son, and their Heirs, cannot deveſt the Eſtate which was veſted in him by the Common-Law out of him, and veſt it in the Poſt, by vertue of the Statute according to the limitation of the uſe in the Poſt. But it was Reſolved, That they were Joynt-Tenants, and that the Son ſhould have the ſaid Land by ſurviver; for if at the Common-Law A. had been enfeoffed to the uſe of him, and B. and their Heirs; although that he was only ſeized of the Land, the uſe was joyntly to A. and B; for an uſe ſhall not be ſuſpended or extinct by a ſole Seiſin, or at that Seiſin of the Land: And therefore if A. and B. be enfeoffed to the uſe of A. and his Heirs, and A. dyeth, the entire uſe ſhall deſcend to his Heirs; as appeareth 13 H. 7. 6. in Stones Caſe. And now by the Statute of 27 H. 8. of Uſes, when ſeveral Perſons are ſeiſed to the uſe of any of them, the Eſtate ſhall be executed according to the uſe: And in this Caſe it was further Reſolved, That Joynt-Tenants might be ſeized to an uſe, although that they come to it at ſeveral times. In the Principal Caſe upon the whole matter it was Reſolved, That the Father and Son were Joynt-Tenants by the Original Purchaſe, and that the Son having the Land by ſurvivor, ſhould not be in Ward. 13. In an Ejectione firmæ, the Defendant pleads ed, That a feoffment was made to the use of I. S, the Lessor of the Defendant; who by force thereof, and of the Statute, was seised, and made a Lease to the Defendant; and that one G. entred, and made a Lease to the Plaintiff, and did not say that he entred upon I. S.: All the Question was, When a feoffment is made to the use of another, if he hath a Free-hold before? It was holden in this Case, As he might have Possession by force of a Devise at the Common-Law, so he shall have Possession of the Land here, by force of the Statute; and it is in Cestuy que use, before agreement or entry; but if he dilagree, then it shall be out of him presently, but not before he disagreeth. 14. A. granted a Rent of 20 l. per An. out of Land to B. his Heirs, and Assignes; to be paid at two dayes, with clause of distress; and for further assurance, Covenanted to levy a Fine to I. S, and I. D, which should be to the uses in certain Indentures expressed; and further Covenanted, that then, and from thenceforth, if the said Rent should be behind, in part, or in all, and no Distress upon the Land, that then it should be Lawful for the Grantor, his Heirs, or Assignes, to enter the Land, and to retain the same until he was satisfied the Rent. I. S. dyes before the Fine levyed, the Grantee assigned the Rent over to W, his Heirs, and Assignes, who sold the same to F; afterwards 30 l. of the Rent was behind: Afterwards, the Fine was levyed to the said uses, the Assignee of the Rent, for the Rent, before the Fine levyed came to destrain; and upon a Replevin sued, entred into the Land for that whole Rent, by force of the said use. In this Case, these Points were agreed and Resolved: 1. That the use should well rise, the Covenant being, That if the 20 l. or any part thereof, should be behind. 2. That these contingent benefits might be assigned over, because they are annexed to an Estate, as to an Interest, and so they are well assignable. 3. That the Assignee should have the same benefit as the Grantor should have had. 4. That the Assignee hath such an Estate, as that he may make a Lease for years, and that he hath not only a bare occupation, but also an absolute Possession, of which he might make a Lease for years. But whether the Assignee should have benefit of such Contingencies as happened in the Interim, before the Fine was levyed, and whether the Assignee shall now come to have the Land to arise to him, by reason of a thing which happened, before the Fine was levyed; which was the 30 l. Rent behind; and whether he should have such an Estate in the Land, of which he might make a Lease for years; the Court was divided in Opinion, and so the Principal point was not Resolved. 15. T. K. seized of Land in Fee, enfeoffed thereof I. S. an Alien born, and I. D. of Gray's-Inn, to the use of himself and his Wife, and the Heirs of their Bodies, the Remainder to his right Heirs; The Question was, Whether in such Case the Queen was entituled to the moyety of the Land presently, or not? It was the Opinion of the Justices, That if the same be found by Office, that the Queen should have the moyety of the Land by her Prerogative presently, and that for the other moyety, the use of it is gone for ever; for the King cannot stand seised to anothers use. 16. By Indenture between the Lady Vere, and Sir Anthony Wingfield, and Elizabeth his Wife: The Lady Vere did Covenant and agree, for consideration of Love, and affection, and diverse other considerations, to suffer a Recovery before such a day, of diverse Lands, to the said Sir Anthony, his Heirs, and Assignes, to such uses, as in the Indentures should be declared. And Sir Anthony covenanted and agreed with the said Lady Vere, within 8 months after the said Assurance, that he, his Heirs, or Assignes, would grant back an Estate of the premises, to the said Lady Vere for her life, the Remainder, to the said Sir A. and Eliz. his Wife, in special Tail, the Remainder over to the said Eliz. in Fee, she being the Daughter of the said Lady Vere; and no more words of any use, were declared in the Indenture. Afterwards the Recovery was had accordingly; but there was no Estate executed back again, by the said Sir Anthony. It was the Opinion of the Justices in this Case, That no use was changed, or raised by the Indenture and Recovery only, without an Estate executed; and no use is afterwards declared. Trin. 5. 17. A. seized of Lands in Fee, in consideration of a Marriage of his Daughter, Covenanted, that he would stand seized of the Land, for the term of his life, and after his death, that his Daughter and her Husband should have the said Land, to them, and to the Heirs of their two Bodies, Lawfully begotten: And further, that he, and all other Persons, then, or at any times after seized of the premisses, should stand seized to the said uses. The marriage took effect: Afterwards A. bargained, and sold the Land to one for 300 l. (but nothing paid) to one, that had notice of the former uses; and thereupon levyed a Fine, and suffered a common Recovery; but he himſelf kept the Land during his life, and dyed. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices in this Caſe, That the uſe was well raiſed by the Covenant, and that the Bargain and Sale had not changed the uſes; and therefore, whereas the Husband and Wife after entred, and made a Feoffment in Fee of the Land; it was adjudged to be a good Feoffment. Mich. 7 Eliz. Dyer. 335. The Lady Mamers Caſe.

18. A, in conſideration of a Marriage of his younger Son, promiſed the friends of the Woman by word, that after his death, and the death of his own Wife, that his Son ſhould have the Land to him and his Heirs, and no other conſideration was on the part of the Woman. The Marriage took effect: It was the Opinion of all the Juſtices, That no uſe was raiſed upon this verbal promiſe, and ſo it was adjudged. Mich. 13 Eliz. Dyer 297. 100.

19. The Lord Borough ſeized of Lands in Poſſeſſion, and in Uſe, Covenanted upon the marriage of his Son; That his Son immediately after his deceaſe, ſhould have all his Lands, according to the ſame courſe of Inheritance that then ſtood; and that all Perſons, now ſeized, or to be ſeized, ſhould ſtand ſeized to the uſes aforeſaid: His Son dyed his Heir within age, the Land being holden in Capite, the Queſtion was, If his Heir ſhould be in Ward; and that depended upon this, If the Fee-ſimple of the Uſe, was preſently out of the Father, and veſted in the Son, by the words aforeſaid. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, that the Uſe was not diveſted out of the Father, for that it was but a Covenant; but it was ſaid, That if the words had been, that immediately after his deceaſe, that the Land ſhould endure and remain to the Son, perhaps it had been otherwiſe. Paſc. 35 H. 8. Dyer 55. The Lord Burroughs Caſe.

20. A. Covenanted with B, that in Conſideration that the ſaid B. had conveyed to him certain Lands, after his death to levy a Fine, to the uſe of himſelf for life, the Remainder to B. in Tail. It was holden, That till the Fine was levyed, that the uſe was not changed; for that then the Covenant ſhould not be performed. But the Juſtices agreed, That if I Covenant in conſideration of Marriage, or for a certain ſumm of money, to me paid, that the Party ſhall have the Manour of D, the ſame ſhall raiſe the uſe preſently, for that there is not any Eſtate to be made; ſo they ſaid, If Ceſtuy que uſe, wills that his Feoffee ſhall make an Eſtate to I. S, in Tail, or in Fee, and dyeth, that in ſuch Caſe, the Uſe is changed, and an Uſe raiſed before the Eſtate is executed. Mich. 4 Ma. Dyer 68. Raintons Caſe.

21. A man ſeized of Lands in Fee-ſimple, having Iſſue, three Daughters, in conſideration of his Iſſue Males, if he ſhould have any, and for the advancement of the ſaid daughters, and the Heirs of their Bodies, and for the continuance of the Land in his Blood, Covenanted to ſtand ſeized of the ſaid Lands to the uſe of himſelf for life, and after to the uſe of his three Daughters, and to the Heirs of their two Bodies; and if any of them dye without Iſſue Male, that then her part ſhall ſurvive with a Proviſo, for their ſeveral Husbands; that if they over-live their Wives, and are entituled to be Tenants by the Courteſie, that then he might limit any of thoſe Lands, by his laſt Will in writing, for the payment of his Debts, or for advancement to any Perſon or Perſons, for life, lives, or years. One of the Daughters dyed, without Iſſue Male, the Father aſſigned a great part of that Land to his youngeſt Daughter, for her advancement for 1000 years, without reſervation of any Rent; and if this was a good Limitation in Law, was the Queſtion: It was adjudged, that the limitation was void, and not warranted by the Proviſo; and in this Caſe it was Reſolved, 1. That an uſe cannot be raiſed by any Covenant, Proviſo, or Bargain and Sale upon a general conſideration, without a ſpecial averment; but in ſuch Caſe, the Bargainee, or he who ſhall take the Uſe, may averre that the ſame was for valuable conſideration of money, or for the advancement of his Blood, if the Perſon who ſhould take the Uſe, were certain; for an averment may be taken, which ſtands with the Deed, although it be not expreſſly comprized with the Deed. 2. When Uſes are raiſed by Covenant in conſideration of Fatherly affection to his Sons or Daughters, and by the ſame Deed Proviſo is added, That the Covenanter for diverſe good conſiderations may make Leaſes for years, the Covenanter cannot make a Leaſe to any Perſon, for the Covenant upon ſuch general conſideration cannot raiſe an Uſe, and no particular averment can be taken, that his intent, at the time of the delivery of the Deed, was not to deviſe the ſame to any Perſon certain; and therefore his Power to make Leaſes void, ab initio: But if the Uſes had been limitted upon a Recovery, Fine, or Feoffment there, there needed not any conſideration to raiſe the Uſes. 3. Reſolved in the Principal Caſe, That the limitation for 1000 years, was as well againſt the intent of the Partie, as againſt the words of the Proviſo; becauſe it ſhall be taken to tend to the ſubverſion of the Eſtates, which were grounded upon good conſideration. Cook 1 Part, 175, Maldmayes Caſe.

22. Tenant in Tail, the Remainder in Fee, he in the Remainder, by Deed Indented and enrolled, Covenant for conſideration of Blood, and other other conſiderations, to ſtand ſeized, to the uſe of himſelf in Tail, the Remainder to the Queen, her Heirs and Succeſſors, Kings and Queens of England; Tenant in Tail ſuffered a common Recovery. It was adjudged, That the Iſſue in Tail was barred: And in this Caſe it was Reſolved, 1. That no Uſe could be raiſed to the Queen upon ſuch general conſideration, without ſpecial averment, that valuable, or other good conſideration was given. 2. That the conſideration that the Land ſhould continue in his Blood, was no conſideration to raiſe the Uſe to the Queen. 3. The conſideration, that the King is the Head of the Commonwealth, and to preſerve the peace of the Realm, is no conſideration to raiſe an Uſe; becauſe that Kings ought to preſent their Subjects ex Officio, in peace and quietneſs. Cook 2 Part, 11. Wiſeman's Caſe.

23. The Caſe was, A. ſeized of a Manor, to which an Advowſon was appendant by Deed Indented, Granted, Bargained, and Sold the Manor with the appurtenances, for good conſideration, to B. and his Heirs; in which Indentures were diverſe Covenants, to ſuffer a Recovery, and levy a Fine to the uſes in the Indenture: Provided, that B. ſhall give the Advowſon to A. for his life; and if it happen not void, then one time to his Executors. A. ſuffered a Recovery according to the Indenture, and afterwards A. and B. levyed a Fine, with a ſurrender of 42*l.* rent to A. in Tail, the Remainder to D. in Fee, with clauſe of Diſtreſs and nomine pœnæ: B. in his life, did not grant the Advowſon to A. and dyed. 1. It was in this Caſe, amongſt many other things, reſolved, That although that the Fine, which did enure by way of Releaſe, and which goeth by way of Mitter d'eſt, or by way of extinguiſhment, cannot be to an uſe, no more than the ſurrender of a particular Eſtate can be; yet after ſuch Releaſe, which extinguiſheth the firſt Rent or Condition, another uſe may be raiſed by an Original agreement of the Parties, then Owners of the Land, and who hath the abſolute Power and Diſpenſation to raiſe it; and therefore, if at the Common-Law, before the Statute of Uſes, a man had made a Feoffment, by Deed Indented, rendring Rent, with Condition to Reenter; and further it is Covenanted, and agreed betwixt the Parties, that, notwithſtanding any Fine, or other conveyance made by the Feoffor to the Feoffee, by which the Rent and Condition ſhall be extinct, that the Feoffor and his Heirs, ſhall be ſeized, to the intent that they ſhould pay the like Rent, and be ſeized of the Land, upon the like Condition as before in that Caſe. If the Feoffor levyeth a Fine, or Releaſeth his Right, or doth any act or other conveyance to the Feoffee, by which the Rent ſhall be extinct; yet by the Original Agreement of the Parties, a new Rent, and a new Condition may be annexed to the uſe of the Land. 2. In the ſame Caſe it was holden, That a Fine upon Grant and Render, cannot be averred by word to be to another Uſe than is expreſſed in the Fine, Feoffment, or other Conveyances, if not in ſpecial Caſes upon agreement of the Parties; and a difference then was taken between an Uſe, and a Conſideration; for when a Fine, Feoffment, or other Conveyance imports an expreſs conſideration, a man may averre by word another conſideration, which ſtands with the conſideration expreſſed: But the Parties by word cannot averr any other Uſe, than is contained in the Conveyance, and there ſhall be no averment againſt a Conſideration expreſſed. Cook 2 Part, 75, 76. The Lord Cromwell's Caſe.

24. Note, It was reſolved by the Juſtices, That if a man deviſeth Land to his Wife, for the term of her Life generally, it cannot be averred to be for the Joyncture of the Wife; becauſe a Deviſe maketh a Conſideration in it ſelf: And therefore, as a Deviſe cannot be averred to be to another uſe, than to the uſe of the Deviſee, if it be not expreſſed in the Will, no more can a Deviſe be averred to be for a Joyncture, unleſs it be expreſſed in the Will. But if a man deviſeth Lands unto a woman, for the term of her life, or in Tail, &c. for her Joyncture, and in ſatisfaction of her Dower, the ſame is a good Joyncture, within the Statute of 27 H. 8; for as an Eſtate for life, made to a woman before marriage, when ſhe is no Wife, is within the equity of the ſaid Act; ſo an Eſtate deviſed to a woman for her life, which taketh effect preſently after his death, when the marriage is diſſolved, is alſo within the equity of the ſaid Act; for that it well agreeth with the intent of the makers of the Act, and with the Deſcription of a Joyncture. See Cook 4 Part, 3, and 4. Purvies Caſe, Mich. 39 Eliz. in the Court of Wards. Leak and Rendall's Caſe. ibid. acc.

25. A man by Deed Indented and enrolled, Covenanted with I. S. and others, That he, before ſuch a Feaſt, for the Joyncture of his Wife, would levy a Fine of the Manour of D. to them, to the uſe of him and his Wife, and to his Heirs. And afterwards by another Deed, he Covenanted with other Perſons, to convey the ſaid Manour to them, to the uſe of himſelf, and the Heirs of his Body, with diverſe Remainders over; afterwards he acknowledged a Note of a Fine, to I. S. and the other; and the ſame day he acknowledged another Note of a Fine, to the Parties, who were Parties to the ſecond Indentures, both which Notes were ingroſſed in one and the ſame Term; and it was proved, void, that the Conſtor, before the Indentures, and after the Fine levyed, ſaid, that his Wife ſhould have the ſaid Manour for her Joynture. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, that although the Indentures being made by declaring of ſubſequent uſes, are but directory, and do not bind the Eſtate or Intereſt in the Land; yet if the Fine, or other aſſurance be purſued, there cannot be any averment that the Indentures ſhall be to other uſes: But if other agreement or limitation of Uſes be made, by writing, or by matter of as high nature, then the laſt agreement ſhall ſtand. 2. Reſolved that the Fine could not be directed by both the Indentures, and ſo operate upon both the Indentures; becauſe that the Declaration of the Uſes by the firſt Indentures, were fruſtrate by the ſecond Indentures. Cook 5 Part, 25. The Counteſs of Rutlands Caſe.

26. A man having Iſſue, three Sons by his Wife; ſeized of an Houſe in Fee, Covenanted, in Conſideration of natural affection, and to the intent that all the Tenements ſhould continue in his name by Indenture, That he, and his Heirs would ſtand ſeized of the ſaid Houſe, to the uſe of himſelf for life, and after his deceaſe, to the uſe of his Wife for life, and after their deceaſe, of the one moyety, to the uſe of his ſecond Son, and of the other moyety, to the uſe of his third Son in Tail, and dyed. The Queſtion was, If any uſe ſhould ariſe to the Wife, or not, and if the Wife be in the Conſideration, if it might be averred? It was reſolved in this Caſe, 1. That a Conſideration which ſtood with the Deed, and which was not repugnant to it, might be averred. 2. That here was an expreſs Conſideration in itſelf, for when he limits the ſame to the uſe of his Wife for life, the ſame imports ſufficient Conſideration in it ſelf, and there needs not any other averment. 3. It was reſolved, That if a man Covenant to ſtand ſeized to the uſe of his Wife, Son, or Coſin, the ſame will raiſe an Uſe, without any expreſs Conſideration; but if the Father by Deed Indented, in conſideration of 100l. paid by his Son, Covenants to ſtand ſeized to the uſe of his Son, there, no uſe ſhall be raiſed, unleſs that the Deed be enrolled, becauſe it is in the Nature of a Bargain and Sale. Cook 7 Part, 40. Bedells Caſe. See Cook 8 Part, 94. Foxes Caſe. &c.

27. Note, It was agreed, That if a man Covenanteth, in conſideration of natural love to his Son, to ſtand ſeized of certain Lands, to the uſe of himſelf for life, the Remainder to the ſame Son in Fee, with a Proviſo, that it ſhall be Lawful for himſelf to make Leaſes for 21 years, or three Lives: Now he may not make ſuch Leaſes, notwithſtanding ſuch Proviſo; this Proviſo being by way of Covenant, to raiſe an Uſe; contrary perhaps, if it had been by way of Feoffment to Uſes: And in that Caſe, this Caſe was vouched, and cited to be adjudged in B. R. upon a Writ of Error, That if a man Covenanteth with his eldeſt Son, in conſideration of natural love, to ſtand ſeiſed to the uſe of himſelf for life, the Remainder to his eldeſt ſon in Tail, with Proviſo, that he himſelf might make Leaſes to his ſecond Son, or unto any other of his kindred for 21 years, or three lives, and he made Leaſes to him accordingly, that this was good; for that they to whom the Leaſes are made, are within the Conſideration, viz. of the Blood; and for that the Uſe might well riſe to maintain the Leaſes: But if the Proviſo had been to make Leaſes to any man, albeit that afterwards he made Leaſes by force of that to his ſecond Son, that thoſe Leaſes were void; for that they were not within the Conſideration of the Covenant, by intendment of Law at the firſt; for the Law at the beginning, intended the Proviſo to be meerly void. Sharrington's Caſe. See Mich. 40 Eliz. in B. R. Goldsbr. 174.

28. In an Ejectione firmæ, the Caſe was, That Feoffees ſeized to the uſe of R. before the Statute of 27 H. 8. made a Feoffment to another and his Heirs, to the uſe of the ſaid Feoffee and his Heirs; and the Feoffee had notice of the firſt uſe. Now, If he ſhould be ſeized to his own uſe, or no, was the Queſtion? It was the Opinion of all the Juſtices, that he ſhould be ſeized to his own uſe; becauſe the uſe was ſo expreſſed upon the Feoffment. And it was ſaid, That ſo is the Law, if the ſecond Feoffment had been in conſideration of money; although if no uſe hath been limitted, yet it ſhould have been to the uſe of the Feoffee and his Heirs, and not to the firſt uſe. Hill. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Stapley and Lewis Caſe. Goldsbr. 82.

29. In Ejectione firmæ, the Caſe was, A. ſeized of Lands, by Indenture Covenanteth with B. C. and D. the Brother of A. and W, That for the love and affection that he did bear to his Children, in the Deed mentioned; and for the better maintenance and preferment of them, and to ſettle the Lands in the name and blood of the ſaid A, did Covenant with the ſaid four Parties, and their Heirs, That he and his Heirs, at all times from thence forth, ſhould ſtand, and be ſeized of the ſaid Lands, &c. to the uſe of the ſaid A. for his life, and after his deceaſe, to E. his Wife for her life, and after her deceaſe, to the uſe of the ſaid Covenantees and their Heirs, upon truſt and confidence, nevertheleſs, That they ſhall make Leaſes and Eſtates thereof, or any part thereof, as A. ſhall appoint by any Deed; and in caſe he make not ſuch appointment, then the Covenanters and their Heirs ſhall levy out of the Rents and Profits for his younger Children, K, L, & M. his younger Sons, and for F. I. and S. his three Daughters 200l. apiece; the Daughters Portions to be paid, at their ages of 21 years, and the Sons Portions at their ſeveral ages of 20 years; and ſhould further pay out of the Rents, &c. to every of his Sons and Daughters, ſuch Reaſonable for maintenance, as they ſhould appoint: And after the deceaſe of the ſaid A. and E. his Wife, and the ſaid portions levyed, to the uſe of K. ſecond Son of the ſaid A. and the Heirs of his Body, then to the ſaid M. and the Heirs of his Body, and ſo to his other Sons, and then to the uſe of his Daughters, and the Heirs of their Bodies, with the remainder to the right Heirs of the Daughters. A. dyed, E. his Wife entred, and afterwards B. and the other three Covenantees by Indenture enrolled, bargained, and ſold to the ſaid D. the Brother of A. Habendum to him, and the Heirs of his Body; to the intent, to perform the Truſts in the firſt Indenture mentioned, the Remainder over as in the firſt Indenture. F. one of the Daughters of A, attained her age of 21 years, in the life of her Father; I. another of the Daughters, attained her age in the life of her Mother: None of their portions were paid. W. Son and Heir of A. entred, and made the Leaſe to the Plaintiff, and the Defendants ouſted him. It was Objected in this Caſe, That this Deed raiſed no uſes, becauſe all the four Covenantees, but B. the Brother, were ſtrangers in Blood to the Covenanter; and the intent was to ſettle an uſe in them four, or elſe in none of them. But it was reſolved by the whole Court, That all the uſes were well raiſed, and veſted in D the Brother, becauſe he is of the Blood, which is one of the Conſiderations of ſettling in the Brother, although it be not mentioned, that it is in conſideration that he is his Brother; and is ſufficient, becauſe the Brother is to take the Eſtate to raiſe Portions to his Nephewes and Nieces, and alſo to ſettle Eſtates upon them, according to the appointment; and that here is not any contingent uſe, but a Truſt and Confidence in the Covenantees, to execute the Eſtate to the Children of A; but no Eſtate is in the Children, by any Eſtate limitted to them; and then when the other Covenantees joyn in a Bargain and Sale to the younger Son, he hath a good Eſtate. It was adjudged for the Defendant. Trin. 14 Car. in B. R. Smith and Riſley, and others Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 380, 381, 382.

30. The Caſe was, Francis, Earl of Bedford ſeized in Fee of the Mannor of B. and C. 4 Eliz. enfeoffed thereof I. S. and others, to the uſe of himſelf for 40 years, and after to the uſe of John his ſecond Son, and the Heirs Males of his Body; and for want of ſuch Iſſue, to the uſe of the right Heirs of the ſaid Earl the Feoffor for ever. Afterwards John Lord Ruſſel dyed without Iſſue Male, having Iſſue, two Daughters, E. and A. Afterwards, 27 Eliz. the ſaid Fr. Earl of Bedford, by Indenture made between him, and I. D. and others, in conſideration of the Advancement of the Heirs Males of his Body, and the eſtabliſhment of his Mannors, &c. in the name and Blood of the ſaid Earl Covenanted, That he and his Heirs hereafter, ſhall ſtand ſeized of the ſaid Mannors, to the uſe of himſelf for life, and after his decreaſe, to the uſe of Fr. the Lord Ruſſell, and the Heirs Males of his Body; and for want of ſuch Iſſue, to the uſe of Sir William Ruſſell Knight, his youngeſt Son, and the Heirs Males of his Body, with diverſe Remainders over: After which, Francis Lord Ruſſel dyed, having Iſſue, Edward Earl of Bedford, and after the ſaid Francis, Earl of Bedford dyed; and If the Daughters of John Lord Ruſſel, or Edward Earl of Bedford, ſhould have the ſaid Mannors, was the Queſtion. It was Objected, That the Daughters ſhould have them as Purchaſers; for it being an Eſtate for 40 years in him, it may remain to be executed to be an uſe in Eſſe, when the Heir ſhall be; and an uſe is always guided according to that, which may be collected to be the intent and purpoſe of the Parties; and in this Caſe, inaſmuch as the Earl reſerves to himſelf but an uſe for years, it is evident his intent was never to have the Fee, and to ſurrender his Term, which perhaps he intended to be for the benefit of his Wife, which ſhall be defeated contrary to his purpoſe, if the Fee ſhould be in him after the death of John Lord Ruſſel without Iſſue Male. But it was Reſolved by all the Juſtices, That the Daughters ſhould not have the ſaid Mannors, becauſe there was no right Heir to take as Purchaſer, when the mean Eſtate Tail was determined; which was, by the death of the Lord John Lord Ruſſel, without Iſſue Male; for all the Juſtices agreed, That the Remainder to the right Heirs, if it be a Remainder, cannot be preſerved by the mean Eſtate for years; for it ought to be a Free-hold at the leaſt, which ought to ſupport ſuch a Remainder, untill there be one to take it by name of Purchaſe, as Right Heir; and the Juſtices ſaid, That they did not think there was any diverſity between the Caſe of a Remainder in Poſſeſſion, limited to the Right Heir of one, and of a Remainder in uſe ſo limited over unto another. 2. Uſes,

2, Uses, where well limitted, and Declared, and by whom, where not; where they may be averred, as well by Assurance, Fine, Recovery, and matter of Record, as by Word: where another Use may be averred by Word against a Deed, or contrary to the Use expressed in the Deed, where not; where they may be revoked, and what shall be said a good Revocation of Uses, what not.

1. HUsband and Wife; The Wife by Indenture Declares the Uses of a Fine, that it shall be levyed only to the use of her self for life, and afterwards, to the use of the Conusees; Afterwards, the Husband by another Deed, without the assent of the Wife, declares the uses, to the use of the husband and Wife for the term of their lives, without impeachment of Waste, and after, to the use of the Conusees: And afterwards, the Fine is levyed by the Husband and Wife. It was adjudged in this Case, That both the Limitations, and Declarations of both the Indentures, were void; and that the said Fine should be to the use of the Wife, and her heirs, as if no use had been declared: And in this Case it was Resolved, 1. That if the Husband and Wife levie a Fine of Land in the right of the Wife, and the husband only declares the uses, this declaration of the uses, shall binde the Wife, if her disagreement doth not appear. 2. Resolved, That if the Husband and Wife do bargain and sell the Land of the Wife for money, and afterwards, they levie a Fine to the Vendee, and his heirs, the same is good, and shall binde the Wife without any writing proving her assent. 3. Resolved, That every one may dispose of the Land, according to the Estate which he hath in the Land, and therefore the Husband alone cannot declare the use, nor the wife alone, but they ought to have joyned in the Declaration of the uses in the principal Case. Cook 2 Part, 57, 58. Rotchwiths Case.

2. A. seized in Fee of the Mannor of D. by deed Indented, Covenanteth with B. that B. shall recover the said Mannor against him, within a year next following, and that the execution of the said Recovery to be had within the year, shall be to the use of the Reuerter in Tail, &c. and afterwards the Recovery is had within the year. It was holden in this Case, although that the Recovery is not pursued in time according to the precise form thereof, yet the use shall be guided by the said Indentures; so if the same Recovery betwixt the same parties of the same Land were suffered after the year, yet if no intervenient agreement were between the parties, the Recovery shall be intended to the uses of the same Indenture, and no variance of time shall subvert the original agreement of the parties: Cook 1. Part, 99. in Shelleyes Case.

3. A. seized in Fee of the Mannor of L. in the County of D. by Indenture 30 Feb. 8. Eliz. Covenanted with J. D. that for the advancement of such heirs males as he had begotten, or should beget upon the body of M. his Wife, before the Feast of S. John Baptist next following, to levie a Fine of the said Mannor, to the use of the said A. for life, and afterwards to the use of the eldest Issue male of the body of the said A. and M. his Wife begotten, in Tail, and so to the Issue of their Issues, with the Remainder to his right heirs. Afterwards A. by covin to defeat the said Covenant, made a Lease of the said Mannor for a great number of years to J. S. and afterwards levyed a Fine accordingly. It was Resolved by the Justices in this case, That although the Issue was a Purchasor, yet he was not a purchasor in vulgar and common intendment. Also it was holden, That consideration of natural affection, is a good consideration, but not such a good consideration which is intended by the Statute of 27 Eliz. of Fraudulent Conveyances; for a valuable consideration is only a consideration within the said Act. Pasch. 32 Eliz. Needham and Bramwells Case, vouch. in Cook 3 Part 83. in Twyns Case.

4. See Trin. 2 Jac. in B. R. The Countess of Rutlands Case, in the Devision precedent to the matter of this Division; That where Indentures are made declaring the uses of a subsequent Fine, Recovery, or other Assurance, within a certain time, and to certain uses; if the Fine be pursued according to the said Indentures, that there can be no Averment after the making of the said Indentures, that the Assurance should be to other uses then are declared by the same Indentures.

5. Note, It was Resolved by the Justices, That Common Recoveries are so notorious and usual, That the Judges ex Officio, ought to take notice of them to be ex assensu partium, and they may be averred to be to an use. Cook 1. Part, 40. in Dormers Case.

6. A. seized of divers Mannors holden in Capite, Covenanted with J. S. and J. D. to suffer a Common Recovery, to the use of himself for life, and after, to the use of B. in Tail, and after, to the use of C. in Tail, and after, to the use of B. in Fee, with power of Revocation, and Declaration of new uses in his life time, or by his last Will: The King licensed the said A. to alien the said Mannors to J. S. and J. D. and their heirs, without mention of any Declaration of any use within the Licence: The Recovery was had; A. revoked the first uses, and declared, That presently after his death, C. should have the said Mannors in Tail, with divers Remainders over. It was adjudged in that Case, That the King should not have a Fine upon that Revocation and Declaration of new uses; And in this Case it was Resolved, 1. That although no use was mentioned in the Licence, and the Licence was only to alien to J. S. and J. D. and although that the estate of the Land was transferred to another, so as the King was not knowing of his Tenant, yet the same being executed by the Statute of 27 H. 8. of Uses, and an Act of Parliament to which every one is party, can do no wrong; for that cause when the King gave Licence to alien to J. S. and J. D. and the Statute executed the possession in another, that there should not be any Fine due to the King for execution of the estate by force of the Act of Parliament. Cork 6. Part, 18. Viscount Mountague's Case. And in that Case, this Case was put, Tenant in Capite levyed a Fine without Licence, to the use of himself for life, and after, to the use of his eldest son in Tail, and after, to the use of his second son in Tail, with divers Remainders over; Proviso, That it should be lawful for him to limit by writing, the same Lands to any woman which after he should marry, for her life, in the name of a Joynture: Afterwards, the King pardoned his alienation without Licence; and afterwards by writing, he limitted the said Lands to one whom he married, for life; and it was adjudged, That for the said alienation, no new Fine should be paid. Mich. 43 Eliz. in the Exchequer Chamber. Sir William Mounsons Case.

7. In Ejectione firmæ, The Case was, A. Covenanted in consideration of natural love and affection to stand seised to the use of W. his son, for life, and afterwards, to the use of such woman as he should afterwards marry, for life, the Remainder to the first son of the said W. in Tail; Afterwards, W. being unthrifty, A. to disturb the rising of the use of the woman whom his son should marry, lett the Land to his younger son for 1000 years, W. took to wife the Jaylors daughter, and after dyed without Issue. It was Objected in this Case, That no use did rise at all to the woman, although no Lease had been made; for the Consideration being special, in consideration of affection to his son, to stand seized to the use of, &c. that only being for Blood, cannot extend to the Woman, who he afterwards should marry, for that she was a stranger to that consideration. 2. Admitting it did rise, yet it being a future use, and in contingency, the Lease made before the use arose, was good. But it was Resolved by the Court, that this was a good use; for the consideration extends to the Wife which should be, as if it had been in Consideration of Marriage; for the love and affection to the Son, extends to the Sons Wife, who is quasi part of the Son, as to himself. 2. Resolved, That this Lease should not bind the Estate of the Wife, because there was a good Estate by the first limitation; which if it be not destroyed, cannot be charged or incumbred after it is raised; because it hath relation to the first Covenant, and none hath interest to charge it. Hill. 3 Jac. in B. R. Bond and Sir Henry Wyalls Case. Cro. 2 Part, 168.

8. A. seized of Lands in Fee, Covenanted by Indenture, in consideration of love to his eldest Son, and settling his Lands in his name and Blood, according to the Provisoes and limitations in the Deed mentioned, before Easter to convey his Lands to I. S. and others, to the use of himself for life, the Remainder to his said Son (the Lessee of the Plaintiff) in Tail, with diverse Remainders over, the Remainder to his right Heirs, and that all the Estates made, should be to the uses, with a Proviso, that he might make Leases for 21 years of part thereof; and that the Conveyances should be to the use of the Lessee, with a Proviso, that he might revoke all the uses or Estates, by any his Writing, or his Will: And also that he would stand seized, after Easter, of so much of the said Lands, which should not be sufficiently conveyed to the said several uses, &c. No assurance was made before Easter, that after A. for 30*l.* paid, demised the Lands to the Defendant for 21 years; and the Jury found the Statute of 27 Eliz. Cap. 4. That if one make conveyance, with clause of Revocation, and after, for consideration of money, bargains, and sells the Land to a Stranger, the conveyance shall be void and revoked. A. dyed: I. his Son entred, and lett the Land to the Plaintiff. It was Resolved in this Case, That the uses raised by this Covenant, in this Indenture, being made in consideration of love to his Son, the Covenant extended to all the Land; for the consideration being sufficient, the Covenant well extends to all, there being nothing conveyed by the state executed. 2. That the Estate not being executed, (the uses arising by Covenant only) the Provisoes to make Leases are void; for the Lessees are Strangers to the consideration of Blood, and therefore cannot take benefit of such Estate there-thereby. 3. It was Reſolved, That this Leaſe being made by him, who had power to revoke it, the Law ſhall conſtrue it as revoked and void quoad the Leſſee, and that he was as Tenant in Fee, when he made that Leaſe, and that it was expreſſly within the Statute of 27 Eliz. Cap. 4. And ſo it was ſaid it had bin Reſolved, 29 Eliz. in Hinde and Collins Caſe. Hill. 2 Jac. in B. R. Croſſe and Fauſtendiches Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 180, 181.

9. The Caſe was, A. Tenant for life, granted by Fine his Eſtate to B, and by Indenture limited the uſe to B, for the life of B. and A; and if he dyed, living A, that it ſhould remain to C; afterwards B. dyed, living A: C. entred, and lett the Land to D. for years, and dyed, living A, Whether the Leſſee ſhould retain the Land as an Occupant, living A, or, That A. ſhould have it again, was the Queſtion? It was adjudged, That C. ſhould have it as an Occupant, and his Leſſee ſhould hold it as an Occupant, and that A. had not any reſidue of the uſe in him; for though where Tenant in Fee makes a feoffment, and limits the uſe for life, or in Tail, and doth not ſpeak of the Reſidue, it ſhall be in the Feoffor; yet when Tenant for life, or he who hath a particular Eſtate, grants his Eſtate by Fine, and limits the uſe for years, it ſhall not return to him, but be to the Conuſee, although the Fine were without any conſideration. Mich. 5 Jac. in C. B. Caſtle and Dodds Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 201.

10. A. made a feoffment in Fee of Land, to the uſe of himſelf for life, and after to the uſe of B. in Tail, and after to the uſe of C. in Fee; Proviſo, and with Liberty to revoke the uſes, and to limit new uſes, if A. ſurvived I. S, and I. S. dyed without Iſſue Male of his body; A. did renounce, and ſurrender to B. and C. all the Power and Authority of Revocation, and releaſed alſo the Proviſo, Condition, Covenants, and Agreements, as well as the ſaid Power and Authority; and afterwards I. S. dyed without Iſſue of his body. It was Objected in this Caſe, That an Authority which is collateral to the right of the Land, could not be given away, or extinguiſhed by a Fine or feoffment. But it was reſolved, That a Fine or feoffment would extinguiſh a future Power of Revocation; and it was holden in the Principal Caſe, That if the Power of Revocation had bin preſent, yet it might have bin releaſed; and it was put for a Rule in Law, That when a thing executory is created by Deed, the ſame thing by the conſent of the Parties to the Creation of it, might by their Deed be defeated and annulled; as Warrants, Rents, Charges, Annuities, Conditions, Covenants, Powers of Revocation of Uſes, by aſſent of the Parties to the Creation of them, might be defeated and annulled. Cook. 1 Part, 111, 112. Albanies Caſe.

11. A. ſeized of Lands in Fee, Covenanted to ſtand thereof ſeized to the uſe of himſelf for life, and after to his Son in Tail; Proviſo, That at any time during his life, with the conſent of diverſe, by Indenture to be Enrolled in any Court of the King, to revoke the ſaid uſes and Eſtates, and to limit new uſes: Afterwards, by Deed Indented, Enrolled in the Chauncery, he revoked the uſes in part of the Land, and limitted the ſame to him and his Heirs; and afterwards by another Deed he declared, that from the time of the Enrollment of that Deed in the Chauncery, that all the firſt uſes in the firſt Indenture ſhould be void, and that the Land ſhould be to the uſe of himſelf in Fee; and afterwards he levyed a Fine, of the whole Land. In this Caſe it was reſolved (amongſt other points), That the Fine levyed before the Enrollment, had extinguiſhed the Power of Revocation. 2. Reſolved, That if the Fine had not bin levyed, then by the Revocation the antient uſes had bin deſtroyed, without entry or claim; becauſe that he himſelf was Tenant for life of the Land: for an act of Revocation, is as ſtrong as a claim. 3. Reſolved, That by the ſame Conveyance as the antient uſes might be revoked, by the ſame Conveyance, other uſes might be limitted, and the Law ſhall adjudge priority of the operation of the Deed; for firſt, it ſhall be a Revocation of the old uſes, and afterwards a limitation of new uſes. Cook 1 Part, 173, 174. Diggs Caſe.

12. Note, It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That when a man had conveyed his Lands to the uſe of himſelf for life, and afterwards to the uſe of diverſe others of his Blood, with future Power of Revocation, as after ſuch a Feaſt, or after the death of ſuch a one; and afterwards, and before the Power of Revocation began, he for valuable conſideration bargained, and ſold the Land to another and his Heirs; that this Bargain was within the Statute of 27 Eliz. Cap. 4. For although the Statute ſaith, The firſt conveyance not by him revoked, according to the power by him reſerved, which ſeemeth by the literal ſenſe to be intended of a preſent Power of Revocation; for no Revocation can be made by Fine of a future Power, until it come in eſſe, yet it was holden, that the Intent of the Act was, That ſuch voluntary Conveyances, which was Originally ſubject to Power of Revocation, be it in præſenti, or in futuro, ſhould not ſtand good againſt a Purchaſor bona fide, for valuable conſideration; and if other conſtruction ſhou'd be made, the act ſhould ſtand to little Purpoſe. Cook. 3 Part, Mich. 43 Eliz. in C. 3. Contingent Uſes, whether executed by the Statute of 27 H. 8. of Uſes. By what Acts they may be deſtroyed, and by what Acts transferred, and who ſhall have the benefit of them.

1. THE Caſe was, That A. after the Statute of 27 H. 8. of Uſes, did enfeoff diverſe Perſons, to the uſe of the Feoffees and their Heirs, for the life of B. his eldeſt Son, and after to the firſt Iſſue Male of the body of B, with diverſe limitations to the 10th Son, with Remainders over, and dyed. The Feoffees enfeoffed B. by Deed indented, having notice of the firſt uſes to him and his Heirs, without any conſideration; B. had Iſſue, C. and D, and afterwards, and according to the Statute of 27 H. 8. of Enrollments, bargained, and ſold the Lands to I. S, and his Heirs, The principal Queſtion in the Caſe was, If the contingent uſes before their Eſſence, by the feoffment of the Feoffees was deſtroyed, ſo as they ſhould never riſe out of the Eſtate of the Feoffees, after the Birth of the Iſſues? It was Objected, That in this Caſe, the contingent Uſes were not deſtroyed: It was ſaid, That before the Statute of 27 H. 8. the Feoffees had only Power to diſpoſe of the Lands; and that by the Statute the Power is transferred to Ceſtuy que uſe; and the Power which the Feoffees had only taken away: And that the Statute was not made to extirpate, or extinguiſh any uſes; but to extirpate all Fines, Feoffments, Recoveries, &c. ſubtilely and unjuſtly practiſed, not by extinguiſhment of the uſes, but by diveſting of all the Eſtate out of the Feoffees, Conuſees, or Recoverors; and ſetling of the ſame in Ceſtuy que uſe. And it was Objected, That no good lawful uſe, either future or preſent, was taken away by the Statute, but ſuch uſes are advanced by the Statute. But it was Reſolved, That the Statute of 27 H. 8. did not transfer any Poſſeſſion to any uſe in contingency, until they came in eſſe; for as there ought to be an uſe in eſſe, ſo there ought to be a Perſon in eſſe, who ſhould take the uſe, before any Poſſeſſion could be executed to the uſe. And it was agreed by them, That if the future uſes had not been deſtroyed, by the feoffment of the Feoffees, when the future uſe came in eſſe, they might enter by the Original Agreement of the Parties to revive the future uſes; and the Feoffees had by the Statute a qualified Eſtate, ſufficient to ſerve the future uſes. But it was Reſolved by them, That becauſe that the Statute of 27 H. 8. did not extend but to uſes in Eſſe, and to Perſons in eſſe, and not to any uſes which depended upon poſſibility; that for thoſe cauſes the contingent uſes did remain ſo long, as they depended in poſſibility at the Common-Law; and by conſequence they might be deſtroyed, and diſcontinued before they came in eſſe, by ſuch means as uſes might have bin deſtroyed, or diſcontinued at the Common-Law: And therefore it was holden by them, That if the contingent uſes in the Principal Caſe had come in eſſe, without alteration of the Eſtate of the Land, that the ſame ſhould have bin executed by the Statute; but the alteration of the Eſtate, before they came in eſſe, by the feoffment of the Feoffees, had deſtroyed them. Cook 1 Part, Chudleighs Caſe. See Popham 72, and 81, accordingly.

2. Upon a Demurrer, the Caſe was, A man ſeized of Lands in Fee, conveyed it by feoffment to the uſe of himſelf and his Wife, and to the Heirs of the Survivor of them. The Husband afterwards made a feoffment of this Land, and dyed; the Wife entred, and enfeoffed a Stranger, and dyed: The Queſtion in the Caſe was, Whether by the Wifes entry, the Fee ſhould veſt in her ſurviving, ſo as her Iſſue ſhould enjoy it? It was reſolved and adjudged in this Caſe, That the feoffment of the Husband, had deſtroped this future contingent uſe of the Fee; for that whatſoever cannot accrue at the time of the death of the Party who firſt dyeth, cannot afterwards by any act be revived, but is abſolutely extinguiſhed. Upon which Judgment a Writ of Error being brought in the Exchequer-Chamber, the Judgment was affirmed. Hill. 3 Car. in Exchequer. Bigott and Smiths Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 73.

3. In Treſpaſs, the Caſe was, A. ſeized in Fee of the Mannor of K, in the County of N, and of the Mannor of A, in the County of D. by Fine, 41 Eliz. conveyed the ſaid two Mannors to G, Earl of S, and his Wife, to the uſes following; viz. Of the Mannor of K. to the uſe of them, their Heirs and Aſſignes; and of the Mannor of A, to the uſe of the Wife of A. for her life, and after to the uſe of the Heirs of A, until the Wife of A. ſhall evict and expel the Earl or Counteſs, their Heirs, or Aſſignes, Farmers, Tenants of, and from the Mannor of K, or any parcel thereof; and after ſuch Eviction, then to the uſe of the ſaid Earl and his Wife, their Heirs and Aſſignes, until they ſhould be be ſatisfied with the profits for their lives: A. 43 Eliz. for money, by Fine, conveys the Mannor of A. to I. S. and his Heirs, to the uſe of him, his Heirs and Aſſigns: The Earl of S. and his Wife, by Fine, 43 Eliz. conveys the Mannor of K. to the Earl of Kent and his Wife, to the uſe of the ſaid Earl of Kent and his Wife, and their Heirs. 1 Apr. 17 Jac. I. S. deviſeth the Mannor of A. to I. D. and others, for 2000 years. 1. May. 17 Jac. I. S. dyed ſeized of the Mannor of A. 1. Sept. 17 Jac. A. dyed, and after his death, the Wife of A. evicted from the Earl of Kent parcel of the Mannor of K, for her Dower, and entred. The Earl of K. entred into the Mannor of A, upon the Defendants, being Aſſigns of the ſaid Leaſe. The Queſtion in this Caſe was, Whether the limitation of the Mannor of A, being to the uſe of the Wife of A. for life, and after to the uſe of the right Heirs of A, till the Wife of the ſaid A, ſhould evict the Earl of S: and his Wife, their Heirs or Aſſigns, Farmers, Leſſees, &c. the Earl of K. as Aſſignee, ſhall by entry take the benefit thereof? It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That he as Aſſignee might not enter, but that the uſe upon the Eviction, ought firſt to veſt in the Earl of S. and his Heirs, and that this conveyance before Eviction cannot give him Title of entry as Aſſignee; for it is not ſuch an Intereſt aſſignable over before Eviction, and the Power of entry is not transferred with the Mannor of K: But whether the conveyance of the Mannor of K, and the conveyance of the Mannor of A, by A. before any Eviction had deſtroyed the privity of entry after Eviction, the Eſtate being transferred to another before the Eviction; the Juſtices did not deliver any Opinion therein, nor agreed. But for the firſt Cauſe, they all agreed, That the Earl of Kent had no Title of Entry as Aſſignee. Hill. 8 Car. in B. R. The Earl of Kent, and Stewards Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 261.

4. In Treſpaſs, the Caſe was, A. was poſſeſſed of a Leaſe for 300 years, and by his Will deviſed, that his Brother C. ſhould have the uſe and occupation thereof, during his life; and after his death, the uſe and occupation thereof ſhould remain to the Wife of C. during her Widow-hood; and after her Widow-hood, the uſe, occupation, and Profits of the premiſes to be to the eldeſt Son of C; which he ſhould happen to have during his life: And after ſuch Son dying without Iſſue Male, to any other Son which the ſaid C. ſhould happen to have, one after the other; and if C. dye without Heir Male of his body, that the uſe, Profits, and occupation ſhall remain, and be to I. S. in manner as before: The Queſtion was, Whether this Deviſe of a Term in this manner be good to go in Remainder, and of ſuch Remainders, the one after the other, and the limitation of the Deviſe of a Leaſe might be good? The Court inclined to be of Opinion, That the Deviſe of a Terme in this manner to make a perpetuity could not be good; for to limit a poſſibility after a poſſibility, and to limit the Remainder of a Terme, after a dying without Iſſue, ſtood not with the Rules of Law. But the Court ſaid, They would adviſe of the Caſe, Trin. 5 Car. in B. R. Sanders and Corniſhes Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 366.

More Vſes.

1. THe Caſe was, The Father Covenanted with A, in Conſideration of a Marriage to be had, betwixt the Son of the Covenantor, and the Daughter of A, that he would before ſuch a day, levy a Fine of Lands, to the uſes of the ſaid Son and Daughter in Tail, for the Joyneure of the Daughter; the Fine is levyed according to the uſes aforeſaid, but no mention is made in the Fine of the Marriage; the Father dyeth. It was the Opinion of the Court in this Caſe, That notwithſtanding that the Marriage was not accompliſhed, yet the Eſtate-tail was well executed in the Son and Daughter; for that the Fine without any conſideration, doth carry the Uſes; but without a Fine, ſuch a Conſideration could not raiſe an Uſe, without accompliſhment of the Marriage; for that the Conſideration executed, ought to precede the Uſe. It was further holden in this Caſe, That A. might have had Covenant againſt the Father, to have the Fine before the Marriage. Hill. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Stephens Caſe. Leon. 138.

2. The Caſe was, A. ſeized of Lands in Fee, made a Feoffment in Fee, to the uſe of himſelf in Tail, the Remainder to B. in Tail, and for want of ſuch Iſſue, to the uſe of C. in Tail: Provided, That if the ſaid B. or C. do go about to avoid any Eſtate, or demiſe by Copy made, or to be made of the Premiſes, or any part thereof, that then his Eſtate ſhould ceaſe. A. dyed without Iſſue, B. entred, and levyed a Fine Sur Conuſans de Droit, &c. of the Lands. It was the Opinion of the whole Court in this Caſe, That this Fine was not any offence againſt the Proviſo, for that theſe words (made, or to be made) did not extend to the Eſtates made or limitted by the ſaid Feoffment, but only to the Eſtates before made, or after to be be made. Mich. 33 Eliz. in C. B. Bradſtocks Caſe. Leon. 207.

3. In Treſpaſs, the Caſe was, William Lord Vaux ſeized of Lands in Fee, levyed a Fine of the ſame, to the uſe of the Lord Vaux that then was, for life, and after his deceaſe, to the uſe of A. and M. Daughters of the ſaid Lord Vaux, and their Aſſignes, until Ambroſe Vaux ſhould return from the parts beyond the Seas, and ſhould come to the age of 21 years, or dye, if they ſhould ſo long live; and after the return of Ambroſe from beyond the Seas, and the age of 21 years, or death; which of the ſaid dayes or times ſhould firſt happen, to the uſe of the ſaid Ambroſe, and the Heirs of his body begotten, with diverſe Remainders over. Ambroſe returned, and 31 Eliz. before he came of full age, levyed a Fine to the uſe of G. Vaux the Defendant in Tail, with divers Remainders over: Afterwards the Lord Vaux being Tenant for life, enfeoffed the Lord Mordant in Fee, upon whom G. Vaux entred for a forfeiture, upon which the Lord Mordant brought the Action. For the Plaintiff it was ſaid, That Ambroſe Vaux had nothing in the Lands in Queſtion, until his return from beyond the Seas; and his full age and the Eſtate, doth not begin till both be paſt, and that no Uſe did riſe to Ambroſe, until the time encurred; for the time of the beginning is incertain, and upon a contingent. On the other ſide it was ſaid, That the Eſtate of Ambroſe accrued, and did riſe, when any of the ſaid times came, full age, return, death: So that the words are, And after the return of Ambroſe, from beyond the Seas, and the age of 21 years, or death, &c. This word (Or) before death, diſjoyns all, and makes the Sentence in the Diſjunctive. The Caſe was ſpoken to by the Juſtices, but no Reſolution given in the Caſe, Whether the Eſtate to Ambroſe upon the limitation was well raiſed, or executed, or not; It was adjorned. Paſc. 17 Eliz. in B. R. The Lord Mordant and Vaux's Caſe. Leon. 243.

4. Hugh Stamford ſeized in Fee, had Iſſue, A. his eldeſt Son, and B. his younger; A. had Iſſue, G. and E. by ſeveral women; Hugh made a feoffment in Fee, to the uſe of himſelf for life, the Remainder to the uſe of G. in Tail; and afterwards to the uſe of A. in Tail, and afterwards to the uſe of the Right Heirs of Hugh: Hugh dyed; A. dyed, G. levyed a Fine to the uſe of himſelf in Tail, the Remainder over to B. in Fee, and dyed without Iſſue. It was holden by all the Juſtices in this Caſe, That E. was barred by this Fine, by the Statute of 4 H. 7. and 32 H. 8. Mich. 7 Eliz. in C. B. Stamfords Caſe. Leon. 3 Part. 1.

Waiver.

1. Where, and in what Caſe a thing may be Waived, in what not: What ſhall be ſaid a Waiver of Eſtates or Goods, and who ſhall take advantage of it; and of Waiver in Pais, and in a Court of Record, and their difference.

IN Ejectione firmæ, the Caſe was, S. B. Ceſtuy que uſe, before the Statute of 27 H. 8. deviſed to his Wife certain Lands for her life; and that after her deceaſe, T. B. his eldeſt Son ſhould have the Land 10l. under the Price it coſt; and if he dyed without Iſſue, that R. B. his ſecond Son ſhou'd have it 10l. under the Price it coſt; and if he dye without Iſſue of his body, that his two Daughters, A. and E. ſhall have the Land, paying the value thereof, to the Executor of his Wife. The principal Point in this Caſe was, Whether T. B. the Deviſee had an Eſtate Tail, or Fee-ſimple? This Point was not adjudged, but the better Opinion of the Court ſeemed to be, that it ſhould be an Eſtate in Fee-ſimple. In this Caſe it was Objected, That it was but an eſtabliſhment in the Deviſee, and that the Deviſee, though he was his eldeſt Son, yet he could not Waive the Deviſe, and take by Deſcent. Alſo it was ſaid, When he enters firſt, he is ſeized by force of the Deviſe; and that he might not Waive that Eſtate, for that if he might, then he in the Remainder ſhould not take; which was againſt the intent of the Deviſor. The Caſe was adjourned but not Reſolved. Hill. 43 Eliz. in B. R. Bulleyn and Bulleyns Caſe; Goldesbr. 135.

2. A. being Tenant in Tail of certain Lands, ex-exchanged the ſame with B, B. entred, and being ſeized in Fee of other Lands, deviſed ſeveral parcels thereof to others; and amongſt the reſt, a particular Eſtate to his Heir; Proviſo, that he do not re-enter, nor claim any of his other Lands in deſtruction of his Will; and if he do, that then the Eſtate of the Lands deviſed to him, ceaſe. A. dyed, his Iſſue entred into the Lands in Tail, and Waived the Lands taken in exchange, and before any other entry, the Heir of B. enters upon the Land which was given in exchange. It was the Opinion of the whole Court in this Caſe, That it was no breach of the Condition, becauſe it was not the Land of the Deviſor at the time of the Deviſe; and therefore it was out of the Condition. Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Barber and Topſfields Caſe. Godbolt. 99. 100.

3. Debt was brought for Rent againſt an Executor, upon a Leaſe made to the Teſtator for Rent, incurred after his death. The Defendant pleaded, That after the death of the Teſtator, ſhe relinquiſhed the Poſſeſſion of the Land, and did not intermeddle therewith; and that ſhe had fully Adminiſtred all the Teſtators goods. The Action was brought in the Debet & Detinet for Rent, incurred after the Teſtators death; and whether the Action did lye in the Debet & Detinet was the Queſtion? It was Reſolved, That it might well lye in the Debet & Detinet, according to the Opinion in Hargraves Caſe, Cro. 5 Part, 31. The ſecond Queſtion was, If by this Waiver of the Term and Poſſeſſion, ſhe ſhould be diſcharged of the Rent, ſo as ſhe ſhould not be charged in her own Right? It was Reſolved, that ſhe could not Waive it, unleſs it had been eſpecially alledged, That the Rent was greater then the value of the Land, and then peradventure by ſpecial pleading ſhe might have been diſcharged. Paſc. 17 Jac. in B. R. Mawle and Cacy Fyt's Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 549. See Mich. 23 Car. in B. R. Vandicoots Caſe. Styles 52. Mich. 23 Car. in B. R. Hale and Jottinets Caſe. Styles 61. As to the bringing of the Action in the Debet et Detinet, and a difference taken where the Action is meerly in the Perſonalty, and where in the Realty. And ſee 21 H. 6. 42. Br. tit. Waiver. pl. 9. where an Executor of a Term may Waive, and be diſcharged of the Rent, and where not.

4. Debt brought for Rent, The Plaintiff declared upon a Leaſe made by him to the Defendant, being an Infant, rendring yearly Rent, and for Rent behind; The Action was brought, the Defendant demurred, but afterwards Waived his demurrer, and pleaded to Iſſue. It was the Opinion of the Court, that an Infant might Waive his demurrer, and plead to Iſſue; but it muſt be the ſame Terme, and not in another Term. The Queſtion then further was, If he ſhould be charged with the payment of this Rent? Haughton, Juſtice; If a Leaſe be made of an Acre of Land to an Infant, rendring 100l. Rent per An. and he doth occupy and enjoy it, he ſhould be charged with the Rent, he being here to be taken as a Purchaſer. Dodd, Juſtice; If a greater Rent be reſerved than the Land is worth, peradventure the Infant ſhall not be charged with it. If an Infant Executor make a Leaſe, without any conſideration, he may well avoid this, becauſe he was herein circumvented. If a Leaſe be made to Husband and Wife rendring Rent, the Husband dyeth, the Wife may Waive the Leaſe, and ſo avoid the payment of the Rent; but if ſhe continueth the Poſſeſſion, ſhe ſhall be charged with the Rent. In the Principal Caſe the whole Court was clear of Opinion, That the Infant Leſſee was liable to pay the Rent; and ſo the Action was well brought, and Judgment given for the Plaintiff. Hill. 10 Jac. in B. R. Rott. 422. Kirton and Eliots Caſe. Bolſtr. 2 Part, 69.

5. A. ſeized of the Mannor of F. in Fee, and A. and his Wife ſeized of the Mannor of H. to them and the Heirs of their bodies begotten, by an eſtate made to them before Coverture for the Joynture of the Wife, the reverſion to H. in Fee, F. amounting to the value of two Parts, and H. to the third Part, both holden in Capite; A. by his Will deviſed the Mannor of F. to his Wife for life, upon condition, that ſhe ſhould not take her former Eſtate in H, with diverſe Remainders over; The Wife in Pais by word, Waived her Eſtate in H, and agreed to the Mannor of F, and entred thereinto; and if the Deviſe was good for the whole Mannor of F, or but for part, was the Queſtion? And in this Caſe, amongſt many other Points, it was Reſolved, 1. That at the Common Law, if Lands are given to Husband and Wife in Tail, or Fee, and the Husband dyeth, the Wife cannot deveſt the Free-hold out of her, by any verbal Waiver or diſagreement in Pais: But if ſhe doth agree to the Eſtate by word in Pais, ſhe may afterwards Waive it in a Court of Record; but if ſhe entreth into the Lands, and taketh the Profits, the ſame is a good Agreement in Law; for the Law more reſpects acts without words, than words without acts. 2. Reſolved, That the refuſal in Pais to have the Mannor of H. and the entring, and agreement to the Mannor of F, was a good Agreement to the one, and a Refuſal to the other; and thereby the Inheritance was deveſted by force of the Statute of 27 H. 8. of Uſes; ſes; by which Statute, a woman may refuſe her Joynture in Pais, and be endowed by conſent in Pais, or by Writ of Dower. Cook 3 Part, 26. Butler and Bakers Caſe. See Cook 4 Part, 3, and 4. Vernons Caſe, acc.

6. If A. maketh an Obligation to B, and delivereth the ſame to C, to the uſe of B, it is the Deed of A. preſently, but if C. offereth it to B, in ſuch Caſe, B. may Refuſe and Waive the ſame in Pais, and thereby the Obligation ſhall loſe its force. Hill. 1 Eliz. Dyer. 167. in Taules Caſe, and ſo it is of a gift of Goods and Chattels, if the Deed be delivered to the uſe of the Donee, the Goods and Chattels are in the Donee preſently before notice or agreement; but the Donee may in Pais Waive the gift, and by that the Property and Intereſt ſhall be diveſted; and ſuch Waiver and diſagreement needs not to be in a Court of Record. Cook 3 Part, 26, 27. acc.

2. Waiver of Action, Plea, Judgment, Iſſue, Demurrer, where, and in what Caſe it may be done; and where it may be without aſſent of the Parties, where not; and where, and in what Caſe the King may waive his Plea, or Demurrer: Of Waiver of Goods by a Felon, and in whom the Goods thereupon are.

1 B. Being indebted to A. in the ſumm of 100l., A. ſued B. in the Court of the Maior of London; and C. a third Perſon being indebted likewiſe to B. in 100l., A. ſued forth an Attachment, according to the cuſtom of London, and Attached the debt of C. owing to B, and Condemned him upon that Attachment, and had Judgment thereupon. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices in this Caſe, That notwithſtanding the Judgment, the Plaintiff A. might Waive the ſame, and have Judgment and Execution againſt B. the Defendant himſelf, being his Principal debtor. Hill. 7 E. 6. Dyer 82.

2. A man by Deed made a Leaſe of a houſe, with diverſe implements in it, for years, rendring Rent; and afterwards the Leſſor entred upon the Leſſee, and thereof enfeoffed a Stranger; the Leſſee re-entred, the Stranger dyed, and his Heir brought an Action of debt againſt the Leſſee for the whole Rent: There was a Demurrer upon the Declaration, which was argued afterwards by conſent of Parties; the Demurrer was Waived, and an Iſſue joyned upon the Feoffment, and found for the Plaintiff; notwithſtanding, there was not any privity betwixt them. And in this Caſe it was holden, amongſt other Points, That the Rent was not extinct by the Feoffment, becauſe it was incident to the reverſion; which was revived by the re-entry of the Leſſee. Paſc. 4 Eliz. Dyer 213.

3. An information was exhibited againſt a Merchant, for tranſporting Cloaths beyond Sea, the Subſidy and Cuſtom not being paid; and the Caſe was thus: After that Subſidy and Cuſtom was paid for Cloaths, in a Tempeſt upon Sea the Clothes were caſt out of the Ship, for the ſafegard of the Ship, and the lives of the Mariners; the Ship was brought back to the firſt Port, where notice was given to the Deputy-Cuſtomer of all the miſchance; and he was asked, If he might ſhip as many more Clothes in liew of them which were caſt out of the Ship, without payment of any Cuſtom for them: Who anſwered, that he might, & gave him Licenſe ſo to do. All which matter being pleaded in Bar, the King demurred upon the Plea: Afterwards, the King Waived his Demurrer, and joyned Iſſue, that Cuſtom and Subſidy Domini Regi debet. Concelat. & Subſtract. &c. and it was found, that he did not Conceal and withdraw in manner and form as was ſuppoſed by the Declaration: It was doubted, whether this Verdict ſhould be taken againſt the King, or for the King: It was not Reſolved, only Read Juſtice ſaid, That it ſeemed to be the intent of the Jurors to acquit the Defendant of the concealment: But in this Caſe it was fully agreed by the whole Court, That after a Demurrer by the King, he might at any time after Waive this Demurrer, and joyn Iſſue with the Party upon the matter in fact. Mich. 30 H. 8. Dyer 43, 44.

4. In an Accompt brought againſt one as Forreigner, the Plaintiff declared of a Receipt of diverſe ſumms; ſome by his own hands, and ſome by the hands of others. The Defendant as to the ſumms by the proper hands of the Plaintiff, pleaded, That he was never Receivor, and was ready to wage his Law; and for the reſt, he pleaded to the Country, and day was given at another Term to wage his Law; at which day, for part of the ſumms, for which he had demanded his Law, he would have Waived the ſame, and confeſſed the Action; and for the reſidue of them, he would have waged his Law; and if he might ſo do, without the aſſent of the Plaintiff, the Court at the firſt doubted; but afterwards by the adviſe of the Court, ex offenſa Querentis, he waived his whole Plea as to the Wager of Law, and afterwards joyned Iſſue. Mich. 9 Eliz. Dyer 265.

5. In Trover and Converſion of a Load of Bark, It was found by Verdict, That the Bark was the Bark of an Oak, being Timber growing upon Land of which the Plaintiff was ſeiſed in Fee, and had lett the Land upon which the Oak grew to I. S. for years; and that the Defendant being a ſtranger entred into the Land and cut down the Tree, and carryed away the Bark thereof, and converted the ſame to his own uſe: The Queſtion was, If a Stranger cuts down a Tree in the time of Leſſee for years, and carrieth the Bark thereof away; Whether the Leſſor during the Term may have an Action of Trover for it, or be put to take his remedy againſt the Leſſee by an Action of Waſte, and the Leſſee to have his remedy by Action of Trover againſt him that cut it down; or, Whether the Leſſor at his Election may puniſh the one or the other. It was Objected, That the Leſſee only during the Term ought to have an Action for the carrying away of it, for that the poſſeſſion and property thereof was veſted in him during the whole Term, and is not loſt by the cutting of it down by a Stranger. But it was the Opinion of the Court, That the Action did well lye for the Leſſor, and that he had Election to ſue the Leſſee for the Waſte, or him that cut down the Tree; for the Leſſee for years hath but a ſpecial property therein to have the ſhadow and fruits thereof as long as it is growing, and when it is ſevered from the Land, the property which the Leſſee had in it is loſt; ſo as the Leſſor may have an Action for the carrying of it away, or an Action upon Trover and Converſion. Hill. 19 Jac. in B.R. Berry and Heard's Caſe, Cro. 1 Part. 176.

6. Note, It was Reſolved by the Court, That if the Plaintiff in Evidence ſheweth any matter in writing, or of Record, or any Sentence in the Eccleſiaſtical Court, upon which Queſtion in Law ariſeth, and the Defendant offereth to demurr in Law; the Plaintiff in ſuch Caſe cannot refuſe to joyn in Demurrer, but he ought to joyn in Demurrer, or elſe waive his Evidence: And ſo the Law is, If he produceth witneſſes to prove matter in fact, upon which Queſtion in Law ariſeth; there if the Defendant admitteth their Teſtimonies true, he may demurr upon it; and the Reaſon is, Becauſe matter of Law ſhall not be put in the mouths of Lay-men. But if an Evidence be given for the King, and the Defendant offereth for to demurr upon it, the King is not bound to joyn in Demurrer: But the Court may direct the Jury to find the ſpeciall matter, and thereupon adjudge what the Law is; and in this Caſe it was holden, That the King may waive his Demurrer, and take Iſſue at his pleaſure. Trin. 42 Eliz. in B. R. Cook 5 Part. 104. Baker's Caſe.

7. Note, It was the Opinion of the Court, That if a ſuit be before an Arch-Deacon, where by the Statute of 23 H. 8. the Ordinary may licence the ſuit to a higher Court; That the Arch Deacon in ſuch Caſe cannot balk his Ordinary, and ſend the Cauſe immediately to the Arches; for he hath no power to give a Court, but to remit or waive his own Court, and to leave it to the next; for ſince his power is derived from the Biſhop to whom he is ſubordinate, he muſt yield it to him of whom he received it; and it was ſaid that ſo it had been ruled heretofore. See Hob. 16. and ſee the Caſe where the Chancellors of the Juſtice or Ordinary did make Requeſt to Dr. Donn Dean of the Arches, to take the Cauſe to his hearing; and the reaſon given by the Chancellor for the ſending of it was, that the Cauſe (being in deed a Cauſe of Modus Decimandi) was ſo difficult that the Plaintiff could not have ſufficient Councell here for that Cauſe; and the Queſtion was, Whether this tranſmitting of this Cauſe was warranted by the Exception in the ſaid Statute. Quære, The Caſe was not Reſolved. Trin. 15 Jac. Jones and Jones Caſe. Hob. 135, 186.

8. In Debt upon an Obligation the Defendant pleaded, that it was with condition to perform Covenants of a Deed Poll, and that he had performed them all, not ſhewing what they were; whereupon the Plaintiff demurred in Law, and Plea was adjourned and continued from Term to Term; from which laſt Continuance granted to the Plaintiff, was revoked and committed to the Defendant: It was agreed, That upon theſe Adjournments and Continuances the Plaintiff might be Non-ſuit, and by the ſame reaſon might plead a Plea after the Darrein Continuance; and if the Defendant or the Plaintiff ſhould take Iſſue or Demurr upon the Plea, yet the Court muſt conſider upon the firſt Demurrer; for if upon that ſtanding confeſſed the Plaintiff could not have his Action, the Court cannot give Judgment for him, however the latter Iſſue or Demurrer paſs. But otherwiſe it were, if the firſt had been an Iſſue, for then nothing were confeſſed to his prejudice, and then that had been utterly relinquiſhed, by a ſecond Iſſue or Demurrer. Warrants of Attorney, and other Warrants.

2. A Recovery was had by A. M. against Sir O. H. of divers Lands 12 years passed, and by negligence of the Attorney, no Warrant of Attorney was entred for him; and Suit was now made to the Justices, that it might be entred; which the Justices consented unto; whereupon it was immediately entred, but for it the party made Oath, that he had reteined an Attorney, and that this was the negligence of his Attorney. Trin. 30 Eliz. in C.B. Mills and Sir Owen Hopton's Case. Goldesbr. 31.

2. A Judgment was confessed in Trin. 42 Eliz. Rot. 504. and afterwards, in Trin. 43 Eliz. the Defendant brought a Writ of Error, bearing date 12 Maii, 43. And upon that Writ, the Record was certified 25 Maii; and afterwards, Error was assigned in B. R. for want of a Warrant of Attorney by the Defendant: And Mich. 44 Eliz. the Warrant of Attorney was received, and entred upon record by Order of the Court of Common Pleas. Pasch. 12 Jac. Sheriff and Whitsandes Case. Pasch. 2 Jac. in C. B. Rot. 1956. Baltgrone and Smiths Case. Mich. 1. Jac. in C. B. Rot. 1306. Smith and Kents Case acc. Brownlow 1. Part 46.

3. Error was brought upon a Judgment by Nihil dicit, for want of a Warrant of Attorney, and the Record certified, and a Certiorari to the Clerk of the Warrants, and Error assigned for want of a Warrant. The Court was moved, That the Warrant might be filed, which was Ordered accordingly, and so the Warrant was filed. Trin. 11 Jac. in C. B. Olive and Hannys Case. Brownlow 1 Part, 46.

4. Error brought to reverse a common Recovery in the City of Worcester, upon a Writ of Right Patent: The Error assigned (amongst other) was, That no Warrant of Attorney was entred, but that such a one posuit loco suo W. H. and did not write the name at length, but in the Plea-Role it was at length. It was said, That all the Records of the City were of the same form, viz. That such a one posuit loco suo W. H. and if it were not good, they should be all overthrown and avoided, which should be contrary to the ancient Custome of the City: The Justices seem'd to encline to Opinion, That the Warrant of Attorney was not good, although it was usual, for that they ought to follow the course of the Common Law: And Clinche Justice, said, That the reason why the name of the Attorney ought to be put, is, because, if any appear as my Attorney, without my authority, I may have an Action upon the Case against him, which I cannot have against W. H. M. 29 Eliz. in B.R. Bilford and Doddington's Case, Godbolt, 73, 74.

5. Error of a Judgment given in Trespass, (amongst other Errors) one was assigned, scil. That the Defendant Obtulit se per Higgins Attornatum suum, without shewing his Christian name; for Higgins only without a Christian name, is not any name. It was said, That the same was helped by the Statute of 32 H. 8. where it is Enacted, That after Verdict, Judgment shall be given, notwithstanding the lack of Warrant of Attorney of the party against whom the Issue shall be tryed, or any default of negligence of any parties, their Counsellors, or Attorneys, and of necessity here, this default here in the Christian name, ought to be the default of one of them. Afterwards it was alledged, That there was a Warrant of Attorney in the Common Pleas, and that it appeareth upon Record, That the Defendant did appear upon the Supersedeas by Attorney, who had his full name, and therefore prayed a Certiorari de Novo, to certifie the same matter. Afterwards, the Writ of Error was allowed; and upon the day of Return thereof, it appeared upon the Record of Supersedeas, That the Defendant did appear by such a one his Attorney. But it was said by the Court, That there ought to be two appearances, the one upon the Supersedeas, and the other when the Plaintiff Declares: And as to the name of the Attorney, See 1 Mar. Dyer, 93. Tyrrills Case. Hill. 31 Eliz. in B. R. Tempest and Millets Case. Leon 175.

6. Error of a Judgment in C. B. The Error assigned, was, That there was not any Warrant of Attorney for the Plaintiff. A Certiorari being awarded, It was returned, That there was not any Warrant of Attorney in that Term wherein the Action was brought, and Judgment given; whereupon there were two Scire facias sued, and returned Nihil, and and the Record was marked, that it ſhould be reverſed; but the Judgment was not entred upon the Roll, which the Defendant in the Writ of Error, ut amicus Curiæ, ſuggeſted to the Court, and prayed a new Certiorari: It was the Opinion of the Court, that he might have it; for otherwiſe, by the falſe ſurmiſe of the want of an Entry of a Warrant of Attorney in one Term, (where perhaps it is in another Term), it ſhould be reverſed: And the Court ſaid, It is not materiall in what Term it is entred; and therefore commanded, that the entry upon Record for the Reverſall of the Judgment ſhould be ſtayed untill it was certified. Paſch. 5 Jac. in B. R. Smith and Sir Hen. Skipwier's Caſe, Cro. 2 Part. 177.

7. A. brought an Audita Querela againſt C. for that he was bound in an Obligation with J. S. he being within age. The Defendant preſented an originall Writ of Debt againſt the Plaintiff, and procured one W. L. an Attorney without his notice to appear to the Action, without any Warrant from him; and upon Non ſum informatus entred, and Judgment upon default, he was taken in Execution, and upon this matter he prayed to be diſcharged out of Execution; upon which it was demurred, It was adjudged without argument for the Defendant, that it was not a ſufficient ſurmiſe for to diſcharge him; for that in ſuch Caſes he ought to bring his Writ of Deceipt againſt the Attorney, and not to relieve himſelf by Audita Querela. Mich. 22 Car. in C. B. Alleley and Coily's Caſe, Cro. 2 Part. 694.

8. Sir Chriſtopher Hilliard, Executor of Sir Chriſtopher Hilliard, brought Debt againſt R. Son and Heir of Redare, and recovered by default in C. B. Error was brought and aſſigned, becauſe there wanted a Warrant of Attorney for the Plaintiff. Upon Certiorari, the Warrant of Attorney was certified in this manner, ſcil. Chriſtopher Hilliard Miles poſuit loco ſuo J. S. Attornatum ſuum verſus Joh. Redare. It was moved, It was not a ſufficient Warrant of Attorney, becauſe he is not named Executor. It was the Opinion of the Court, that it ſhould be amended, becauſe there is not any other Action depending, and the Judgment was affirmed. Mich. 4 Jac. in B. R. Sir Chriſtopher Hilliard and Redare's Caſe. Cro. 2 Part. 135.

9. In Debt, Judgment was given againſt the principall, whereupon a Scire facias iſſued forth againſt th. Bail, and Judgment upon Nihil dicit was given againſt them: Whereupon Error was brought and aſſigned, That there was no Warrant of Attorney filed for the Plaintiff, and Whether it may now be filed or no, was the Queſtion. In this Caſe, theſe differences were put: 1. Where it appears there was a Warrant of Attorney, and where not? If there was not any Warrant of Attorney, there the Court cannot order the making of one; but if there be one, they might order the filing of it. 2. Difference, Where the Warrant is wanting on the part of the Defendant, and where on the part of the Plaintiff: If it be of the part of the Plaintiff, ſuch a Warrant ſhall not be granted, becauſe he ſhall not take advantage of his own wrong. 3. Where the Record by the Laches of the Plaintiff in the Writ of Error is not certified in due time, there the Warrant of Attorney ſhall be filed: And in this Caſe, It was holden by Banks Chief Juſtice, That in the principal Caſe the ſame was not holpen by the Statute of 18 Eliz. for that helps the Warrant of Attorney after Verdict only, and not upon Nihil dicit, as this Caſe is, or upon Wager of Law, or upon Confeſſion, or Non ſum Informatus. And the Court ſaid, It ſhould be a miſchievous Caſe, if Attorneys ſhould be ſuffered to file their Warrants of Attorney when they pleaſed. See Mich. 17 Car. in C. B. Marſh. 121, 122. Farburn and Crate's Caſe, Marſh. 123.

10. Judgment was given for J. againſt L. in an Action brought in C. B. L. brought Error & aſſigned for Error, That he was an Enfant at the time of the Action brought againſt him, and that he appeared by Attorney whereas he ought to appear by Guardian or Prochein amy. The Defendant pleaded in avoydance of the Writ of Error, that there was no Warrant of Attorney; the Plaintiff allegando ſhewed the Error before, and the Defendant pleaded In nullo eſt erratum, and the Judgment was reverſed: But the Opinion of the Court was, That the better way for the Plaintiff had been to have demurred in Law; for there being no Warrant of Attorney, there was no appearance at all. Paſch. 15 Car. in B. R. Lewes and Jones Caſe. Marſh. 24.

11. F. brought an Action upon the Caſe againſt V. and declared, That the Defendant brought an Action againſt him at the ſuit of H. and without his privity, and thereupon did arreſt and impriſon the Plaintiff, by reaſon whereof all his Creditors came upon him, and thereby that he loſt his Credit. Upon Iſſue joyned, It was found for the Plaintiff, and Error brought and Errors aſſigned, 1. That the Action will not lye, becauſe in truth there was a juſt Debt due to H. in whoſe name he ſued. 2. Becauſe it is not ſhewed, That the other cauſes of Actions which the other Creditors had againſt him did ariſe within the Juriſdiction of the Court where the firſt Action was: But notwithſtanding theſe pretended Errors, the Judgment was affirmed. and that upon this difference; Where H. himſelf ſueth, or commenceth ſuit againſt the Plaintiff, there, although by that ſuit he draw all the Creditors upon the back of him, and ſo perhaps undo him, yet becauſe it was a lawful Action, there no Action upon the Caſe lyeth: But when one commenceth ſuit againſt another without his privity, that is Maynetnance, which is a tortious Act, and therefore an Action will lye; and therefore in the principal Caſe, it was adjudged, That the Action did well lye, and was well brought. Trin. 15 Car. in B.R. Thurſton and Summers Caſe, Moſh. 47, 48.

12. A man was Outlawed for Murder, and dyed. His Adminiſtrator brought a Writ of Error to reverſe the Outlawry, and it was prayed that he might appear by Attorney: It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, that they might; for they ſaid, The reaſon wherefore the party was bound to appear in proper perſon, was, that he may ſtand Rotlus in Curia, and that he may anſwer to the matter in fait, which reaſon fails in this Caſe; and therefore the Opinion of the Court was, that the Adminiſtrator might appear by Attorney, and to that purpoſe he gave a Warrant of Attorney to appear accordingly. Trin. 17 Car. in B.R. Moſh. 113.

13. Note, It was holden in B. R. That after a Writ of Error granted, a Warrant of Attorney cannot be filed if the party be alive, who made the Warrant; but otherwiſe if he be dead. Trin. 16 Car. B.R. Moſh. 95.

14. In Treſpaſs upon the new Aſſignment the Treſpaſs was alledged to be in a houſe called the Entry, and a houſe called the Kitchin, and in his Garden, and a Cloſe called a Court: The Defendant, to all but the Entry, pleaded Not Guilty; and to the Entry, as to the Court, Kitchin, and Tenements of the new Aſſignment, he pleaded that he had brought an Action againſt a Woman for a Treſpaſs, and recovered; and had Execution directed to the Sheriff of S. and thereupon a Warrant was directed to four Bayliffs to arreſt the Woman and two of them at M. in the ſaid County of S. arreſted her, and carryed her to the Plaintiff's houſe in M. being a Common Inn; and the Defendant entred into the ſaid houſe called the Entry, and Kitchin, and the Tenements of the new Aſſignment, to ſpeak to the Bayliffs, and to warn them to keep her ſafe, and ſo ſoon as he could be returned: Upon which the Plaintiff did demurr, for that the Warrant was to all four, and not conjunctim & diviſim, and therefore it ſhould have been executed by them all, and not by two of them only: But it was Reſolved by the Court, That when a Sheriff makes ſuch a Warrant which is for the Execution of Juſtice, that may be by any of them, for that it is pro bono publico; and ſo it was ſaid. It was adjudged. 45 Eliz. in the King and Hobbs Caſe. M. 11 Car. in C. B. Lofthirooks Caſe. Hutton, 127. See Hobbs Caſe, in Yelverton, 45.

15. In an Action upon the Caſe, The Plaintiff declared, that W. P. Senior, and W. P. Junior were indebted to him by ſeverall Contracts, and that he procured a Latitat out of the Kings Bench, directed to the Sheriff of S. to arreſt them, & that the Sheriff made a Warrant to J. S. and others to arreſt them, who by vertue thereof arreſt W. P. Junior, and that the Defendants reſcued him. The Defendants pleaded Not Guilty: It was found by a ſpecial Verdict, viz. 1. They found the Debt due to the Plaintiff, the proſecuting of the Latitat for this cauſe, the making of the Warrant thereupon to the Sheriff; and 2. Further they found, That the ſaid W. P. and to J. S. Senior, and that he ſued a Latitat againſt him, who made alſo a Warrant to the ſame Bayliff to arreſt him at the ſuit of the ſaid J. S. Senior, and that it was directed to them conjunctim & diviſim, and that they were all known Bayliffs; and that upon 8. Junii, 12 Jac. in the Night, they entred into the houſe of R. M. Senior, the Door being open, and W. P. being there preſent, the ſaid J. S. Junior layed his hands upon him, and then, having both the Warrants in his Pocket, ſaid to him, Here I do arreſt you by vertue of a Warrant that I have; but he did not ſhew unto him the Warrant, nor had it in his hand, nor told him at whoſe ſuit he arreſted him, and that W. P. did not demand to ſee the Warrant, nor at whoſe ſuit he was arreſted, and that the Defendants reſcued him from the Bayliffs, Et ſi &c. In this caſe, It was Reſolved (amongſt other things), that this Arreſt, without ſhewing the Warrant, and without telling at whoſe ſuit untill the other demanded, was legall; and that he nedd not to ſhew the Warrant untill the other objected and demanded it, Cook 8 Part, Mackally's Caſe, acc. 2. That this Arreſt, without having the Warrant, and having both Warrants about him, was well enough although he did not ſhew by vertue of which of the Warrants he arreſted him; for he being under the Bayliffs Arreſt is in Cuſtody for all Cauſes for which the Sheriff had made his Warrants againſt him. See Cook 5 Part. 81. Gamon's Caſe, acc. Trin. 6 Jac. in B.R. Hodges and Mark's Caſe, Cro. 2 Part. 485, 486.

16. Note, There is a difference between a Warrant of Record, and a Warrant or Authority in Law; for if a Capias be awarded to the Sheriff to arreſt a man for Felony, although the party be innocent, yet cannot he make Reſcous. But if the Sheriff will by the Authority which the Law giveth him arreſt a Man for Felony, which is Not Guilty, he may Reſcous himſelf. Cook 1 Part, Inſtit. 161.

Warren.

1. TRespaſs for 30 Hares and 300 Coneys hunted in his Warren, taken, and carried away, which Treſpaſs was layed with Continuando from ſuch a time to ſuch a time; The Defendant juſtified, becauſe he had Common in the place where to a Meſſuage ſix Yard-land for 140 Sheep, and that he, and all thoſe whoſe eſtate he hath, time out of mind, had uſed ſuch a time as the Common was ſurcharged with Coneys, to hunt them, kill them, and carry them away, as to his Meſſuage appertaining; upon which the Plaintiff did demurr in Law, becauſe a man cannot make ſuch a Preſcription in a Free Warren, and Freehold of another man. 2. Becauſe a man cannot ſo preſcribe to hunt, kill, and carry away his Coneys, as appertaining to his Meſſuage; but a man may preſcribe to have ſo many Coneys to ſpend in his houſe. In the principall Caſe, The Preſcription was holden by the Court to be a void Preſcription, and Judgment was for the Plaintiff. Hill. 9 Jac. in B. R. Sanſo d and Hovels Caſe. Godb. 184.

2. Treſpaſs for killing his Maſtive Dogg at E. in Com. K. The Defendant pleaded, That J. S. was ſeiſed in Fee of a Warren in D. in the ſaid County, whereof he was then Warrenter, and that the Dogg was diverſe times killing Coneys there, and that he finding him there tempore quo killed him, abſque hoc that he was guilty at E. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the matter of Juſtification was good, becauſe it being alledged that the Dogg uſed to be there killing of Coneys, it is a good Cauſe for killing him in ſalvation of his Coneys, for having uſed to hunt the Warren he cannot otherwayes be reſtrained. Trin. 2 Jac. in B. R. Wallwyn and Dannets Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 44. 55.

3. Note, It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That if one hath Warren by Charter in all his Manour, that he may erect a Lodg and make Coney-berries in any part of the Manour at his pleaſure. Paſch. 5 Jac. in B. R. in the Caſe of Leiceſter Forreſt. Cro. 2 Part, 155.

4. Treſpaſs, Quare clauſum fregit, aut unam liberam warrennam of the Plaintiff intravit, and took and carried away Coneys: The Defendant juſtified, for that he was ſeiſed of a Meſſuage and Land, and had Common by Preſcription to it in the place where, and that he was ready to uſe his Common, and many Coneys being there Damage Feaſants, and ſpoyling the Graſs, he entred and chaſed them out leaſt they ſhould encreaſe: Upon which the Plaintiff demurred. In this Caſe, at the firſt motion, the Court was of Opinion againſt the Plaintiff, That a Commoner might deſtroy Coneys for that they are feræ naturæ: But afterwards upon better conſideration, and upon view of a Preſident in this Court, Paſch. 44 Eliz. between Bulkley and Langden; and for that the Commoner hath nothing to do with the Land, and becauſe as the Lord may have great Beaſts there, ſo he may have Beaſts of Warren, and the Commoner cannot deſtroy them; and becauſe the Entry of the Defendant was tortious, it appearing by his own Plea that his intent of Entry was to chaſe the Coneys, all the Judges upon better advice adjudged for the Plaintiff, and Judgment was entred accordingly. Paſch. 5 Jac. in B. R. Haſleſden and Gryſſill's Caſe, Cro. 2 Part, 195. See Mich. 10 Jac. in B. R. Carroll and Park and Baker's Caſe. Baſſr. 2 Part, 15.

5. In an Action of Waſte, the Plaintiff declared, That he had leaſed to the Defendant a Manour and a Warren, and that he had deſtroyed a Coney-borough, and ſubverted it, and aſſigned other Waſts in cutting down of Thorps, &c. It was ſaid, That the Action of Waſt would well lye; for it was ſaid, That a Warren conſiſted of two things, Of a place of game, and of a Liberty; and to prove that Waſte did lye for a Liberty, the Statute of Magna Charta, Cap. 5. in which a Warren is intended, and the Statute of Marlebridg, Cap. 24. and the Statute of Articuli ſuper Chartas, Cap. 18. by which Statute it is evident that Waſte lyes for Warrens; and a Warren is more than a Liberty, for that a Writ lyes, Quare Warrennam ſuam intravit. And by 12 H. 8. if Leſſee of a Warren doth break the Pale, it is Waſte. To all which the Court agreed except to the principall, for the Court held it was not Waſte to deſtroy Coney-boroughs; for Waſte will not lye for Coneys, becauſe a man hath not an Inheritance in them, and a man cannot have any property in them but only poſſeſſion; and although by a ſpecial Law, Keepers are to preſerve the Land they keep in the ſame plight they found it, yet this doth not bind any Leſſee of Land: It was ſaid, That the Subverſion of Coney-boroughs was not Waſte; for it was uſual to have Waſte againſt thoſe who made holes in Land, but not againſt thoſe who ſtop them up becauſe thereby the Land is made better. Trin. 41 Eliz. in C. B. May's and Mynſ's Caſe. Owen. 66.

6. Note, In an Action of Treſpaſs, It was ſaid by Cook, Chief Juſtice, That when a man claims a Warren infrà omnes terras Dominicales, that he cannot extend this unto the Lands of Freeholders; for when one claims a Warren by Charter, he cannot enlarge this beyond the Charter, but he ought to take the ſame as it is expreſſed in the Charter, and not otherwiſe: But it is otherwiſe where he claims the Warren by Preſcription, to which difference the whole Court agreed. Mich. 12 Jac. in B.R. Fowler and Seagrave's Caſe. Bulſtr. 2 Part, 254.

7. Note, It is ſaid in Cook 11 Part, in the Caſe of Monopolies, That no man ever made a Park, Chaſe, or Warren, without the King's Licence; for that were quodam modo to appropriate thoſe things which were feræ Naturæ, & nullius in bonis to himſelf, and to reſtrein them of their naturall Liberty, which he cannot do without the Kings Licence: But for Hawking, Hunting, &c. which are matters of Paſtime and Recreation, there there needeth nor any Licence, but every man may in his own Land uſe them without reſtraint to be made if it be not by Parliament.

8. Note, It was ſaid, That it is not lawfull for the Tenant for Life of the Land, to kill the Coneys of him who hath a Free Warren in the Ground; for where a man brought an Action of Treſpaſs, Quare Warrandi ſuâ intravit, & Cuniculos ſuos cepit &c. It is no Plea, That it is his Free-hold, & ſee L. 5. f. 4. Treſpaſs, Quare clauſum fregit, & Cuniculos ſuos cepit &c. The Defendant ſaid, That the Plaintiff made a Leaſe at Will to ſuch a man of the Land, and that he as Servant did kill the Coneys: And it was holden to be no Plea, and yet it is there ſaid, That by the grant of the Lands, the Coneys do not paſs; and therefore in the principall Caſe, It was Reſolved and Adjudged, That where a Commoner claimed Common of Paſture for his Sheep in ſuch a Heath and Lands of the Lord, in which was a Coney borough, and the Coneys eat up the graſs, that the Commoner could not juſtify the killing of the Coneys. Hill. 29 Eliz. in B. R. Coneys Caſe. Godbolt. 122, 123.

Waſte.

Where it lyeth, and for whom, and against whom, and for what: Where and in what Waſte may be done and committed: In what Caſes it lay at the Common Law, and in what Caſes it now lyeth ſince the Statute of Glouceſter; and who may puniſh Waſte, who not.

1. LEſſee for Life, and he in the Reverſion joyned in a Leaſe by Indenture for years; the Leſſee for life dyed, the Leſſee for years committed Waſte; he in the Reverſion brought an Action of Waſte, ſuppoſing that the Leaſe was ex diviſione ſua propriâ, without ſetting forth the eſpeciall matter: It was the Opinion of the Court, that although it was but the Confirmation of him in the Reverſion during the life of the firſt Leſſee, yet now by the death of the firſt Leſſee, it became in Law to be the diviſion of him in the Reverſion; and ſo the Action maintainable. Mich. 7 Eliz. Dyer, 234. Newdigate and the Lady Haſtings Caſe.

2. Leſſee for years, the Reverſion in Fee to J. S. the Leſſee granted all his Term and Intereſt to A.B. reſerving and excepting all Trees growing and being in and upon the Premiſſes; the Leſſee committed Waſte and Deſtruction in the Trees, and J.S. brought Waſte againſt the Aſſignee, and, If it did lye was the Queſtion: In which Caſe, it was debated whether the Exception and Reſervation by the Leſſee was good; and thereupon diverſe Caſes were put to ſhew what Intereſt the Leſſe and Leſſee had in the Trees: But to prove the Reſervation to be void, this was layed for a ground, viz. That thing which a man cannot grant he cannot reſerve, and the Leſſee cannot grant the Trees, therefore he cannot reſerve them. The Court was divided in the matter of Law, two of the Judges being againſt two other of them: But for default of pleading on the Defendant's part, afterwards Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Paſch. 29 Eliz. in C.B. Goldsbr. 63.

3. The

3. Tenant for life, the Remainder for life, the Remainder in Fee; Tenant for life committed Waſte in cutting down of Trees: It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That after the death or ſurrender of the Tenant for life in the Remainder, that he in the Remainder in Fee ſhould have an Action of Waſte againſt the Tenant for life; for the Waſte was to his diſinheritance, and remota impedimenta energit actio. 2. It was Reſolved in that Caſe, That when a Tree is ſevered, that the ſame doth belong to him in the Remainder. Mich. 35 Eliz. in C.B. Cook 8 Part, 76. Page's Caſe.

4. See before in the Title of Waiver, Diviſo 12 Sell. 5. Hill. 19 Jac. in B.R. Berry and Heards Caſe, to this diviſion.

5. In Waſte, the Plaintiff declared upon a Leaſe for years, the Remainder to D. B. for life without impeachment of Waſte, the Remainder to G. B. in Tail; for that the ſaid D. B. is dead, and that the Tenant had committed Waſte in cutting down divers Oaks to his diſinheritance: Upon Nul waſte pleaded, the Jury found all the matter in the Declaration, and that the Tenant had committed Waſte in the life time of him who is now dead: It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Plaintiff ſhould recover, and that there is not any variance betwixt the Declaration and the Eſtate found; for he committing Waſte in the Caſe of Tenant for life, when he dyes, he in the Remainder may have the Action; for although in the life of the Tenant for life, the Termor by his aſſent might have done Waſte, and he had not been puniſhable afterwards; yet when he is dead, he who complained the Waſte hath done it to the diſinheritance of him in the Remainder, and it is all one as if it had been done after the death of the Tenant for life. Trin. 21 Jac. in B. R. Bray and Sir Paul Treſyes Caſe. Cro. 2 Par. 618.

6. The Grantee by Fine of the Reverſion ſhall not have an Action of Waſte againſt the Tenant before the Tenant doth attorn, 49 E. 3. 3, 4 H. 7. 13. 13 H. 7. 27. by Vavaſour. But if the Reverſion eſcheat to the Lord, and Waſte be committed by the Tenant, in ſuch Caſe he ſhall have an Action of Waſte without Attornment. See Br. Attornment, 186. And ſo if one deviſeth a Reverſion to one in Fee; if Waſte be committed by the Tenant, the Deviſee in ſuch Caſe ſhall have and maintain an Action of Waſte without Attornment, 5 H. 7. 19. acc.

7. Note, That regularly none ſhall have an Action of Waſte, but he who hath an Eſtate in Fee ſimple or elſe in Fee tail: But yet it hath been holden, That a Parſon of a Church or a Prebendary, for Waſte done upon their Glebe upon Leaſes made by them, may have and maintain Waſte, and yet (ſome ſay) that they have not the Fee-ſimple of their Glebe or Lands in themſelves alone. See 10 H. 7. 5.

8. If two Coparceners be, and they leaſe their Lands to one for life, and Waſte is committed, and then one of them dyeth: In ſuch Caſe, the Aunt and the Niece may joyn in an Action of Waſte for the Waſte done before; and yet in ſuch Caſe the Niece ſhall not recover any damages for the Waſte done, but only the place waſted, and they ſhall hold the ſame in Coparcenary. See 35 H. 6. 23. 41 E. 3 9. 48 E. 3. 15. acc.

9. Sir Roger Lewkner, ſeiſed of the Manner of W. leaſed the ſame to A. for years, and dyed, having Iſſue only three Daughters: The Daughters married three Husbands, and had Iſſue by them; A. aſſigned his Intereſt in the ſaid Manner to B. C. D. and E; B. C. and D. aſſigned their Intereſt to J. S. and E. aſſigned his Intereſt to F. excepting the Woods and the Underwoods. One of the Daughters having Iſſue dyed, living her Husband: The two ſurviving Siſters and their Husbands, the Term being expired, brought an Action of Waſte, leaving out the Husband of the third Siſter, who was Tenant by the Courteſy, againſt J. S. and E. who tenuerunt. Diverſe Exceptions were taken to the Writ; one was, for that the Writ is tenuerunt, which ſhall be intended prima facie conjunctim tenuerunt, and in the Declaration it appeareth, That one of the Defendants is Aſſignee of three parts of the Land demiſed, and the other Defendant of the fourth part, and ſo ſeparatim tenuerunt; but that Exception was diſallowed, becauſe originally it was one and entire demiſed Intereſt and Eſtate, and ſo remaineth as to the Plaintiffs, although it be divided by the Leſſee himſelf; another Exception was, becauſe it appears here upon the Plaintiffs ſhewing, That they had all taken Husbands, and all had Iſſue, and that one of the Daughters is dead, living her Husband, who is not named in the Writ, for which cauſe the Writ ought to abate: But that Exception was diſallowed alſo; for as this Caſe is, There is not any reaſon that Tenant by the Courteſy ſhould joyn in this Action, for no Judgment ſhall be given here, that the Plaintiffs ſhall recover the place waſted; for the Term is expired as it appears by the words of the Writ, viz. quas tenuerunt, and the Tenant by the Courteſy is in poſſeſſion; and where Tenant by the Courteſy and the Heir joyn in an Action of Waſte, the Tenant for life ſhall have locum vaſtatum, and the Heir the Damages. See Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Sir Roger Lewkner and Fina's Caſe. Leonard 48, 49.

10. If

10. If Tenant in Dower or Tenant by the Courteſy grant over their Eſtates, yet the privity or Contract remaineth betwixt the Heir and them, and he ſhall have an Action of Waſte for Waſte done by them after the Aſſignment: But if the Heir granteth over the Reverſion, the privity of the Action is deſtroyed, and the Grantee cannot have an Action of Waſte, but only againſt the Aſſignee; for between them is privity in Eſtate, and between the Grantee and the Tenant in Dower, or the Tenant by the Courteſy is no privity at all. Cook 3 Part, 230 in Walker's Caſe.

11. The Dean and Chapter in Worceſter ſeiſed of the Mannor of H. in the Right of the Church, wherein was a Copyholder for life, rendring the Rent of 8 l. 8 d. quarterly; where the Cuſtom was, that a Leaſe might be made for three lives of the Copyhold: The ſaid Dean and Chapter demiſed the ſaid Lands to a Copyholder, for the lives of A. B. and C. and the ſurvivor of them: It was Objected, That this Leaſe was void by the Statute of 13 Eliz. becauſe in this Caſe it might happen, that there might be an Occupant who ſhall not be ſubject to Waſte, no more than Tenant by Statute Merchant, Tenant by Elegit, who come in by the Law without demiſe. But it was Reſolved in this Caſe amongſt other Points, If the Caſe ſhould happen ſo to be, that an Occupant ſhall be puniſhed for Waſte, and an Action will lye againſt him for Waſte done, becauſe he hath the Eſtate of the Leſſee for life, and the Statute of Glouceſter giveth the Action againſt him who holds in any manner for life; but Tenant by Statute Merchant, Staple, and Elegit, do not hold for life or years, and therefore they are out of the ſaid Statute. Trin. 3 Jac. in B. R. Cook 6 Part, 37. The Dean and Chapter of Worceſter's Caſe.

12. Note, If Tenant in Dower grant over her Eſtate, yet for Waſte done the Action ſhall be brought againſt the Tenant in Dower, and Damages ſhall be recovered againſt her; and if in this Caſe, to ouſte and take away the Charge of Tenant in Dower, he in the Reverſion by his Deed, doth confirm her Eſtate to have and to hold for the Term of her life, and dyeth, and afterwards ſhe granteth over her Eſtate; and for Waſte done by the Aſſignee the Heir bringeth an Action of Waſte againſt the Tenant in Dower, who pleadeth the Confirmation made to her to have and hold the Land for the Term of her life: In this caſe, Notwithſtanding this Confirmation, the Action of Waſte ſhall be maintainable againſt her; for the Confirmation doth not enlarge her Eſtate, and therefore cannot take away this diſcendable Quality to the Heirs, to have an Action of Waſte againſt her after her Aſſignment made of her Eſtate, Cook 9 Part, 142. in Beaumont's Caſe.

If a man deviſeth Land to one and his Heirs during the life of J. S. or if Tenant for life granteth his Eſtate to one and his Heirs: In theſe Caſes the Leſſee or Grantee hath an Eſtate of Freehold deſcendable, but no Eſtate of Inheritance; for he ſhall be puniſhed for Waſte, and he in the Remainder or Reverſion ſhall enter for a forfeiture by him, and an Heir in ſuch Caſe ſhall not have his Age; for he in ſuch Caſe in a manner is but a ſpeciall Occupant, and an Occupant ſhall be charged for Waſte. Cook 10 Part, 98. in Ld. Symon's Caſe.

13. If the Gardian doth commit Waſte, and the Heir within Age bringeth an Action of Waſte, the Gardian ſhall loſe the Wardſhip: But if the Heir bringeth an Action of Waſte againſt the Gardian at his full age, the Heir in that Caſe ſhall recover treble damages; for when the Law at his full Age of 21 years takes away from him his advantage of the forfeiture of the Wardſhip; in lieu thereof it giveth the Heir the treble damages, becauſe otherwiſe, the Gardian might do him wrong and make him no recompence for it, for that then the Gardian cannot loſe the Wardſhip. Cook 1 Part, Inſtitutes 54.

14. After the Statute of 27 H. 8. of Uſes, a man made a Feoffment in Fee to the uſe of himſelf for the Term of his life, and after his death to the Uſe of J. S. and his Heirs: The Feoffee committed Waſte, and J. S. brought his Action of Waſte; and if his Writ ſhould be generall or ſpeciall was the Queſtion, upon a Demurrer. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices in this Caſe, That in this Caſe the Plaintiff ought to have a ſpeciall Writ, and ſo it was adjudged. Hill. 3 Car. in C. B. Foſſam's Caſe. Hetley 79.

15. Note, It was holden by the Juſtices, That the eradicating of White-thorns is Waſte: But in ſuccidendo & vendendo no Waſte, unleſs it be layed that they grew in Paſture for defence of the Caſtell, and were of the greateſt of Timber. Trin. 4 Jac. in C. B. Cook 2 Part, 126.

16. The Mayor and Citizens of London covenanted to find eight men to grind every day in Bridewell Mill, which they left to the Defendant; and agreed, That if they failed therein, the Defendant ſhould receive ſo much out of the Rent: The Defendant pulled down the Corn-Mill, and made it an Horſe-Mill, and would not deduct ſo much out of the rent, as he ought to be allowed for the 8 men: It was agreed by the whole Court in this Caſe, That by the alteration of the Mill in this manner, the Leſſors were diſcharged of their Covenant: And alſo that this Converſion was Waſte, although that it was for the advantage of the Leſ-ers: And ſo it is to convert a Corn-mill to a Fulling-mill. Trin. 5 Jac. in C.B. Rot. 1607. The City of London and Greyes Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 182.

17. Tenant for years may cut down Trees to amend the Houſes &c. and to do Reparations; but if the Houſes do decay by the default of the Tenant, if he cut down Trees to amend it, it is Waſte. 7 H. 6. 38. acc.

18. Cutting down of dead Wood is not Waſte; and if a man doth cut down Wood to burn where he hath ſufficient other dead Wood, he ſhall be puniſhed for it in Waſte. 20 E. 3. tit. Waſte, 32. acc.

19. It is not Waſte to ſuffer Lands to lye forth, and not to manure them, or to ſuffer them to grow full of Thorns, &c. So it is not Waſte to fell ſeaſonable Wood, which is uſed to be felled every twenty years, or within that time: But if a man fells Timber-Trees without authority or Licence, it is Waſte; and if after he ſuffer the Germins upon the Roots of the Trees to be again newly deſtroyed, the ſame is a double Waſte. See 7 H. 6. 38. 40 E. 3. 25. 9 H. 6. 66. 22 H. 6. 12. acc.

20. A man leaſed his Lands for years, excepting the Woods, and afterwards the Leſſor granted the Woods to the Leſſee; and, If the Woods were ſo united to the Term again, that by Leaſe of the Land the Woods did paſs as a thing annexed to it; or, If the Woods remained as an Intereſt diſtinct and ſeverall from the Lands, was the Queſtion. In this Caſe theſe Points were Reſolved, 1. That the Leſſee for life or years hath a ſpeciall Intereſt or Property in the Trees, as things annexed to the Land ſo long as they are annexed to the Land: But if the Leſſor or other ſeverech them from the Land, the Property and Intereſt of the Leſſee is determined, and the Leſſee may take them as things annexed to his Inheritance. 2. That if a houſe falleth down by Tempeſt, or other Act of God, the Leſſee hath a ſpeciall Intereſt to take the Timber to re-build the houſe again; but if the Leſſee pulleth down the houſe, the Leſſor may take the Timber as parcell of the Inheritance, and the Intereſt of the Leſſee is determined. 3. That if Trees, being Timber, are overthrown by wind, the Leſſee ſhall have them, and not the Tenant for life or years; but if they be Dotards, though there be ſome Timber in them, the Leſſee ſhall have them. 4. Reſolved, That Waſte may be committed in Glaſs annexed to the Windows, becauſe it is parcell of the houſe, and ſhall deſcend with the houſe to the Heir. 5. That Glaſs, Wainſcot, annexed and faſtned to the Houſe or Windows by Nails, or by Screws, or Irons put through the Poſts, or in any other manner, by the Leſſee or Leſſee cannot be removed by the Leſſee, but by the grantee of the Houſe they ſhall paſs. Cook 4 Part, 63. 64 Holdenden's Caſe.

21. Leſſee for years opened a Coal-myne, and afterwards aſſigned over all his Intereſt in the lands, and all Profits excepting the Profit in the Coal-mine: The Aſſignee digged in the Coal-myne, and the Leſſor brought an Action of Waſte; and in that Caſe theſe Points were Reſolved: 1. That if a man hath Land, in part of which is a Coal-myne, and he leaſeth the Land for life or years, the Leſſee may digg in it; for it ſhall be intended, that he ſhall take all the profits of the Lands: But if the Myne be not open, there by Leaſe of the Land, the Leſſee cannot make and open Myne, for that ſhall be Waſte. 2. That if a man hath a Myne which is hid in the Land, and leaſeth the Land and all Mynes in it, that the Leſſee there may digg; but if the Leaſe be not with ſuch Clauſe [and all Mynes], and the Leſſee opens a Myne, and afterwards granteth over his Eſtate, yet it is Waſte in the firſt Leſſee. 3. Reſolved, That the Myne was open in the former Caſe, yet if the Grantee digg-eth in it, it is Waſte. 4. It was Reſolved, That in the principall Caſe the Exception was void, for that a man cannot except a thing which doth not belong unto him; and that by Exception of the Myne, the Land it ſelf is excepted; and further in the principall Caſe, It was Reſolved, That the Leſſee could not appropriate the Myne to himſelf, and ſubject himſelf only to Waſte and treble Damages; for the Leſſee by his own wrong ſhall not deveſt the Intereſt in the Myne out of the Leſſor. Cook 5 Part, 12. Saunders Caſe.

22. A man made a Feoffment in Fee of a Manor, to the uſe of himſelf, and his wife, and his heirs: In the Manor were Underwoods uſually to be cut every 21. years; the Husband ſuffered the Woods to grow to 25. years, and, If the Wife being Tenant for life might cut that Underwood, was the Queſtion: In this Caſe, It was holden by the Juſtices, That a Tenant for life might cut down all Underwood which had uſually been cut within 20. years: But in Wood-Countries they may fell ſeaſonable Wood, which is called Sylva cedua, at 16. 18. or 20. years, by the Cuſtome of the Country; and ſo the Uſage in ſeverall Countries makes the Law. But they agreed, That the cutting down of Oaks of 8. or 10. years growth was Waſte; but the cutting of Hornbeams, Hazels, Willows, Sallows, &c. of the age of 40. was no Waſte, becauſe at no time they would be Timber. Then Queſtion was further moved, If this ſuffering of the Husband of it to grow to 25. years during the Coverture ſhould bind the Wife: It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That this permiſſion of the Husband ſhould bind the Wife, ſo that the Wife could not fell the Woods, notwithſtanding that at the time of her Eſtate ſhe might; and becauſe the Law hath appointed a time, which, if it be not felled before ſuch time by a Termor, or a Tenant for life, if felled, it ſhall be Waſte. Hill. 23 Eliz. in C.B. Godbolt. 4 & 5.

23. One had certain Minerall Lands leaſed to him for years, with liberty to digg and make her profit of the Mynes: The Leſſee afterwards digged for Myne, and ſold the Gravel which came of it. It was the opinion of the whole Court in this caſe, that the Sale was no Waſte if the firſt Act be not Waſte, as the Sale of Trees by Tenant for life or years is not Waſte, if the cutting or felling down of them was not Waſte before; for the Vendition is but a ſubſequent Act to the Act precedent, which Act if it was lawfull, the Sale alſo is lawfull, for the Sale alone is not Waſte: But they ſaid, That if a Leſſee fell and cut Timber Trees, and ſell them, it is Waſte, non quia vendebat ſed quia ſcindebat; for if he ſuffereth them to lye upon the ground without doing more with them, yet it is Waſte; but he may uſe them for the Reparations of his Houſe, and then it is no Waſte; but if he ſells them with an intent to repaire and afterwards ſells them, it is Waſte, Non propter vendicionem only, but for the felling: But it was holden in the principall Caſe, Becauſe he might digg the Land, the ſubſequent Act could not be unlawful. Mich. 27 Eliz. in C.B. Godbolt. 28, 29.

24. In Waſte the Plaintiff declared, That the Leſſee had committed Waſte and Deſtruction in uncovering of a Barn by which the Timber thereof was become rotten, and in the deſtroying of the Stocks of Elms, Aſhes, White-thorn, and Black-thorn, to his Damages of 300 l. and for Title ſhewed, that his Father was ſeiſed of Land where &c. in Fee, and leaſed the ſame to the Defendant for 21. years, and dyed, and that the Land diſcended to him as Son and Heir, and that the Waſte was done in his time, and that the Leaſe is now expired. In this Caſe, amongſt other things, It was Reſolved, 1. That the eradicating of White-thorn is Waſte, but not of Black-thorn, according to 46 E. 3. and 9 H. 6. But if the Black-thorn groweth in a Hedge, and the whole Hedge be deſtroyed, the ſame is Waſte. 2. Reſolved, That it is not Waſte to cut Quick-ſet Hedges, but it ſhall be accounted rather good Husbandry, for that they will grow the better. 3. That if a man hath Underwoods of Hazel, Willows, Thorns, if he uſeth to cut them and ſell them every ten years, if the Leſſee fell them, the ſame is no Waſte; but if he diggeth them up by the Roots, or ſuffereth the Germines to be bitten, ſo as they will not grow again, the ſame is a deſtruction of the Inheritance, and Waſte will lye: But if he moweth up the Stocks with a Wood-Sythe (as he did in the principal Caſe) the ſame was adjudged to be a malicious Waſte. Mich. 11 Jac. in C.B. Sir John Gage and Smiths Caſe. Godbolt. 209.

25. Note, That Regularly, when the Reverſion is deveſted, the Leſſor cannot have an Action of Waſte: But yet in ſome ſpeciall Caſes an Action of Waſte will lye and ſhall be maintainable, although that the Leſſor hath nothing in the Reverſion at the time of the Waſte done or committed: And therefore if Tenant for life maketh a Feoffment in Fee upon Condition, and Waſte is committed and done, and then the Tenant for life doth re-enter for the Condition broken: In that Caſe, the Leſſor ſhall have and maintain an Action of Waſte; and ſo it is, If Leſſee for life be diſſeiſed, and then Waſte is done, and afterwards the Leſſee doth re-enter upon the Diſſeiſor: In ſuch Caſe an Action of Waſte will lye, and ſhall be maintainable againſt the Leſſee. Cook 1 Part, Inſtitutes, 356. acc.

26. It is Waſte to ſuffer a Wall of the Sea to be in decay, ſo as by the flowing and re-flowing of the Sea, the Meadow or Marſh be drowned, whereby the ſame becomes unprofitable: But yet, if it be ſurrounded ſuddenly by the rage and violence of the Sea, occaſioned by Wind, Tempeſt, or the like, without default of the Tenant, this is no Waſte puniſhable, becauſe it cannot be imputed to the Tenant's neglect or default. Cook 1 Part, Inſtitutes, 53.

27. Note, It was ſaid, That an Action of Waſte did lye againſt a Gardian in Knight's Service for the taking of Fiſh out of a Pool belonging to the Heir, and that by the Statute of Magna Charta. Set to that 5 R. 3. Waſte, 97. But Quære, If it lyes againſt a Termor, or a Gardian in Socage upon an Accompt for Fiſh. See Mich. 37 Eliz. in B.R. Rot. 25. Gregs Caſe. Owen, 20.

28. An Action of Waſte was brought by the Lord Darcy againſt Askwith, for cutting down and ſelling of diverſe Oaks in ſeveral Cloſes in Swillington and Preſton: The Defendant pleaded a leaſe of the Manner of Swillington to him for years and alſo of the Mynes, and juſtified the ſhowding of the Trees to make Punchons, Poles, Stakes, and other Utenſils in and about certain Pits called Coal-Mynes in one of the ſaid Cloſes, without which the Defendant could not digg and take the Coals out of the Pits, and averred the employment of them about the ſaid Coal-Myne, and juſtified the cutting down of other Trees, for the making of Inſtruments for the extracting of the water out of the ſaid Pits, and and that without which he could not digg any Coals, and that they were neceſſary for the digging of the Coals, and for the ſupporting of of the ſaid Pits, and did averr the employment accordingly: It was the Opinion of the whole Court, in this Caſe, That the Plea was not good; for the digging of a Mynt is the impairing of the Inheritance, and a great benefit to the Leſſee: And it was ſaid, That if Leſſee for years build a new houſe, if he cut Trees of the ſame Lands for the making of it, it is Waſte, 17 E. 2. Fitzh. tit. Waſte, 118. acc. and no more then one may make a Brick-kill and burn Brick, or a Lime-Kiln and burn Lime, with Wood growing upon the ground, and ſell the Brick and Lime; no more may the Defendant in this Caſe cut down Wood for the making and ſupporting of thoſe Mynts for Coals which they ſell: It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Trin. 15 Jac. in C. B. The Lord Darcy and Aſkwiths Caſe. Hutton 19. See Hobart Reports, the ſame Caſe.

29. It ſeemeth by Cook 5. Part, 32. That Waſte lieth againſt an Executor: But Quare, If againſt an Executor of an Executor. For ſee 38 E. 3. 17. Waſte was brought againſt one as Executor; The Defendant pleaded, That the Teſtator made A. Executor, who died, and made him his Executor; and becauſe the Writ was brought againſt the Defendant as Executor, the Writ did abate.

30. The Commitee of the King of a Ward committed Waſte in the Ward's Lands, and afterwards he tendred a Marriage to the Heir, which he refuſed to accept of, and married himſelf elſe-where, and afterwards the Waſte was found by Enqueſt of Office; and afterwards the Commitee brought a Writ of Forfeiture of the Marriage againſt the Heir: It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That the Writ did lye; For that by the Waſte done by the Commitee only, the Commitee was to loſe only the Cuſtody of the Land; and not of the Body of the Heir, and that by the expreſſe words of the Statute. Hill. 29 H. 8. Dyer 25. So if the Eſchetors do commit Waſte in the Lands which they have in their Cuſtodies; The Heir within age, or of full age, ſhall have an Action of Waſte, and ſhall recover Damages againſt them, and they ſhall ſuffer Impriſonment for two years at the leaſt at the Kings pleaſure, and ſo if they do commit Waſte in other Lands ſeized into the Kings hands by Enqueſt of Office. See the Statute 36 E. 3. Cap. 13.

2. The Form of the Writ, Where it ſhall be in the Tenet, Where in the Tenuit; And where one Writ ſhall be maintainable upon ſeveral Leſſees, et è contra.

1. THe form of the Writ of Waſte againſt Tenant in Dower doth vary from the form againſt other Tenants: For in that Writ, he doth not recite the Statute of Glouceſter, which gave the Writ of Waſte, nor in the Writ of Waſte againſt the Gardian, becauſe they were puniſhable at the Common Law by prohibition, and attaint thereupon if they did Waſte. And ſee Temp. E 9. Fitz. Waſt. 132. At the Common Law an Action of Waſte lay againſt them as well as a Prohibition. But in a Writ of Waſte againſt Tenant for life or years, the Statute of Glouceſter muſt be recited. See, If a man make a Leaſe to J. S. his Heirs and Aſſigns, for the term of his Life, and for a year over: If he doth commit Waſte, the Writ ſhall be brought againſt him as Tenant for life only. See 39 E. 3. 25. acc.

2. The Biſhop of Carliel brought a Writ of Waſte, and the Writ was ad Exhæredationem Epiſcopi: It was doubted, if it were well brought, or that it ought to have been ad Exhæredationem Eccleſiæ; But the better Opinion ſeemed to be, That it ought to be ad Exhæredationem Eccleſiæ & non Epiſcopi, for that the Biſhop is ſeiſed of the Fee in the right of his Church; as the Prebendary is ſeiſed of the Land in the Right of his Prebend; and if he bring Waſte, the Writ muſt be ad exhæredationem Prebendi. Quare, becauſe the Regiſter varies in the Writ.

3. Leſſee for years deviſeth his Lands or Term to another, and maketh his Executors, and dyeth, the Executors do commit Waſte, and afterwards do aſſent to the deviſe. It was holden in this caſe, That although between the Executors and the Deviſee, it hath relation, and the Deviſee is in by the Deviſor; yet an Action of Waſte ſhall be maintainable againſt the Executors in the Tenuit; and ſo it is, If Grantee of a Term upon Condition doth commit Waſt, and afterwards the Grantor entereth for the Condition broken; The Action of Waſte ſhall be maintainable againſt the Grantee in the Tenuit. Cook 5. Part, 12. In Saunder's Caſe.

4. A woman who was Tenant for life took Husband, who committed Waſte, and then the woman dyed; It was adjudged in this Caſe, That an Action of Waſte did not ly againſt the Husband in the Tenuit, becauſe the Husband had not the Eſtate for Life in the Land, but the Wife had the Eſtate for Life, and the Husband had the Land but in the Right of his Wife, ſo as he was not within the Statute of Glouceſter. Mich. 39 Eliz. in C. B. Cook 5. Part, 75. Cliſton's Caſe.

5. Note; There is a great difference in bringing of the Action of Waſte in the Tenet and in the Tenuit: For in an Action of Waſte brought in the Tenuit, where Damages only are to be recovered, there the Action in the Tenuit is well brought, and accord. is a good Plea in it. But if an Action of Writ be brought againſt Leſſee for years in the Tenet, accord. is no Plea, Cook 6. Part, 44. in Blake's Caſe.

6. Note; It is put for a Rule, That in perſonal Actions the Plaintiff may comprehend ſeveral Wrongs, and ſeveral Cauſes of Action in one Action; and he may bring one Action of Waſte upon ſeveral Leaſes: For on the prohibition of Waſte at the Common Law againſt Tenant in Dower, Damages were only recovered, which was in the perſonalty. Cook 8. Part, 88. in Bathmer's Caſe.

7. In Error brought to Reverſe a Judgment in C. B, the Caſe was, Two Coparceners were of a Houſe, and one of them Lett her part to a Stranger, and the other Lett her part to a Stranger alſo, and then both Leaſes came to the hands of one Tenant; and then one of the Coparceners bargained and ſold the Reverſion to the other Coparcener: The Leſſee commited Waſte, by Letting the Houſe Cadere; and the Grantee of the Reverſion brought an Action of Waſte. And amongſt other Errors, It was aſſigned for Error, becauſe he brought but one Action of Waſte, although there were ſeveral Demiſes by ſeveral Actions, whereas he ought to have brought two ſeveral Actions; And whereas it is ſaid in Fitzh. Na. Br. 60. That a man may have one Action of Waſte, and declare upon ſeveral Leaſes, that is intented where the Leaſes be made by one perſon, and 22 H. 7. 39. was Vouched, Where it is agreed at the Juſtices, That if a man hold two Acres of J. S. by ſeveral Services, and dyeth without Heirs, the Lord ſhall not have one Writ of Eſcheat, but ought to have two ſeveral Writs. But it was the Opinion of Popham and Gawdy Juſtices, That the Writ was well brought; For although at the firſt the Leſſor were intituled to ſeveral Actions; yet by matter, ex poſt facto, the Action may be united; and therefore he ſaid, That in the Principal Caſe, he might have one Action of Waſte, and declared, Ex aſſignatione, And alſo Ex dimiſſione. Mich. 34 Eliz. in B. R. Rott. 472. Wardſon's Caſe, Owen 11.

8. A man made a Leaſe for years, to begin at a day to come, and before the day the Reverſion was granted over diverſe years afterwards; the Termor entred and committed Waſte, and the fourth Aſſignee of the Reverſion brought an Action of Waſte, and declared upon the Aſſignments and Tenures of every one of them, to whom the Reverſion of the Land came after the Leaſe; and it was holden to be good, although there was no Tenure before the Leaſe began. Mich. 4 Eliz. Dyer 206. See Fitzh. Na. Br. 57. acc.

9. B. and C. Joynt-tenants for years, A. granted his part to B: B. and C. make a Leaſe to W. for years, who is ouſted, and brings an Ejectione firmæ, and declares of a Demiſe made to him by B. and C. The Queſtion was, If W. ought to have brought two ſeveral Actions, for that B. was Tenant in Common with C: of the third Part: It was the Opinion of Popham and Fenner Juſtices, That the Writ and Declaration upon it was good, For Tenants in Common may joyn in an Action. And ſee 44 E. 3. 34. Br. Waſt. 78. One Writ of Waſte lyeth upon ſeveral Leaſes. But Williams and Yelverton Juſtices were of the Contrary Opinion, becauſe that the Action is in the realty: But it was agreed by them all, That it had been good policy for W. to have made a Leaſe to another, and then the Leſſee might have had one Ejectione firmæ well enough. For ſo it was adjudged in Chapman and Hitts Caſe. Mich. 3. Jac. in B. R. Blackſpers Caſe. Noy 13.

3. Barr in Waſt; And what ſhall be ſaid a good Barr to an Action of Waſte brought: What not.

1. LEſſee of a Meadow Covenanted to repair the Banks, and the Banks were broken down by a ſudden Flood: It was objected, That he was bound to repair them by reaſon of his Covenant; but it was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That he ſhould have ſufficient time to repair them, becauſe the decay was great; and it was occaſioned by the act of God. See 40 E. 61. 12 H. 8. 1. Paſch. 29 H. 8. Dyer 33.

M. brought an Action of Waſte, and declared, That he Lett a Houſe and ſix Acres of Land, and ſix ſix Acres of Wood to the Defendant who had committed Waſte, cutting and felling 20 Oaks in woods, Sparſim growing. The Defendant pleaded in bar for ten, That the houſe aforeſaid in tempore quo, &c. was in decay of Timber, for which cauſe he had beſtowed them in Reparations. And as to the other ten Oaks he pleaded, That they grew upon an Acre of Land of the Tenements aforeſaid, which ſometimes had bin arrable, and that he employed them pro melioratione of the Land: Upon which Plea the Plaintiff did demur. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That the Plea was not good. For if that he ſold them, and afterwards redeemed them, and beſtowed them in the Reparations, as the book is 5 E. 4. is. Yet the wrong by the ſale of them is not gone. Trin. 29 H. 8. Dyer 35. Malverets Caſe. See Cook 11. Part, 81. Bowles Caſe. Cook 11. Part, 18. in Lyfords Caſe.

3. A Leaſe was made of a houſe, and certain Land and Wood with it by Indenture. The Leſſee Covenanted to repair the houſe in omnibus at his own proper Coſts and Charges. Afterwards the houſe was decayed in the Ground-ſells, and the Leſſee cut down Trees growing upon the Lands, and imployed the ſame in the Reparations aforeſaid. The Leſſor brought an Action of Waſte for cutting down the Trees. The Defendant pleaded in bar, and juſtified by the Leaſe aforeſaid, and the Plaintiff would have charged the Defendant by his Replication by the ſaid Covenant. But it was the Opinion of the Court, That he could not ſo do in this Action of Waſte; but that he was put to bring his Action of Covenant againſt the Leſſee. And in that Caſe it was ſaid and agreed, That if the Leſſor be bounden by Covenant to repair a houſe, and he doth not do it, but the Leſſee cuts down Trees, and repairs it, that the ſame is juſtifiable in an Action of Waſte brought. Paſc. 3 Eliz. Dyer, 198.

4. The Leſſee of a Farm Covenanted in an Indenture of Leaſe to repair the houſing at his own Coſts and Charges ſo often as need ſhould require. Afterwards he took great Trees growing upon the Farm to repair the houſes, being decayed by age, and Tempeſts, and employed them in the Reparations: For which an Action of Waſte was brought againſt him. The Defendant pleaded the matter aforeſaid in bar, and the Plea was holden to be good; and the Plaintiff was put to his Action of Covenant. Trin. 14 Eliz. Dyer, 314. See before, Sect. 2.

5. An Action of Waſte was brought for cutting down of 10 Oaks in 80 Acres of Lands Sparſim growing. As to three of the Oaks, the Defendant pleaded and juſtified the cutting down of them, and pleaded further, That he had made ſix Poſts of them, and fixed them in the ſaid Tenements ad ſeperandum ſeperalia Clauſa ibidem, &c. without alledging the number of the Cloſes, and alſo he did not alledg that by Preſcription, there was ſuch an Incloſure there, nor that all the three Oaks were ſo employed; and for thoſe cauſes as for them, it was adjudged againſt the Defendant. For the ſeven reſidue of the Oaks, he juſtified, becauſe they were dry, hollow, and putrified in the top, not being ſufficient Timber for building. It was the Opinion of Mounſon and Harper Juſtices, That the Plea was inſufficient: but the Lord Dyer conceived, That the Plea amounted to that which is uſual in Preſidents, ſcil. that they were dead, and not bearing fruit, atque folia in aſtate, nec exiſtens Maremium, and that therefore the Juſtification was good. Paſc. 16 Eliz. Dyer 332.

6. Note, That in Waſte brought, the Waſte was aſſigned in proſternendo unum murum Lignum, and alſo in permittendo unum coſtilum, called a Brick Wall penitus Cadere, and alſo in trumpando et diſtruendo aream Lignum called Plaunches et preſepia, called Maungers of a certain Stable, without alledging that they were then fixed to the Land. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the ſame was not Waſte, and ſo it was ſued in the other Caſes before, becauſe it was not expreſly alledged, that they were Copid, or covered; for elſe it is not Waſte, as the Books of 44 E. 3. and 26 H. 6. are. Mich. 2. Ma. Dyer, 108.

7. In an Action of Waſte brought, amongſt divers other, the Waſte was aſſigned in breaking down of a Copper of Lead which was fixed to the ground by the Leſſee for years. The Defendant pleaded in bar, That the ſame was a Legacy given by the Leſſee; and that he with the aſſent of the Executors, took it down and removed it; the Plaintiff traverſed the Deviſe, upon which they were at Iſſue. It was the Opinion of the Court, That it was Waſte, which being confeſſed, Quære, if in that Caſe, the Plaintiff ſhall not have Judgement. Paſc. 10 Eliz. Dyer. The Lord Abergavenny and Plamers Caſe, 272.

More

More Waſte.

1. IN the Caſe of a Prohibition for Tythes of Willows, upon a ſurmiſe that they are of uſe as Timber in the ſaid County. It was holden by the Juſtices, That if Willows grow within the ſcite of an houſe, and the Tenant or Leſſee cutteth them, that is Waſte, and an Action of Waſte will lye againſt him for cutting of them down: And this is no good Plea in bar, to ſay that they were Willows, and not Timber-Trees. But yet in that Caſe it was holden, That if the Tenant or Leſſee cutteth them down, Tythes ſhould be paid for them. Hill. 15 Jac. in C. B. Gaſſley and Pindars Caſe. Hob. 219.

2. D. brought a Quare Impedit againſt K. Incumbent of the Church, and others: And upon a ſurmiſe made to the Court, that K. did fell Timber upon the Gleab, and upon the Lands of Copyholders holding of a Mannor parcel of the Reftory, the Court granted a Prohibition. Hill. 10 Jac. in B. R. Drury and Kents Caſe. Hob. 36.

3. M. brought Waſte againſt E. for Waſte done in a Meſſuage, Land, Meadow, Woods, &c. to him lett for years; and declared, That he was ſeiſed of the Meſſuage, Lands, &c. The Defendant pleaded, That the Meſſuage and Lands were parcel of the Mannor of C. which came to King Henry the 8th by the Statute of Diſſolution, and ſo to the Queen, who by her Letters Patents granted the ſame to R. H. in Fee, who conveyed the ſame to the Defendant in Fee, who re-granted the ſame to the Plaintiff and his Heirs as long as H. had Iſſue of his body; and that the Plaintiff entred and leaſed to the Defendant prout in the Declaration. And in facto ſaid, That H. dyed at D. without Iſſue of his body, 20. Jan. 3. (which was after the Writ of Waſte brought, and the very day of the Return of it), upon which the Plaintiff generally did demur, and had Judgment in C. B. upon which the Defendant brought Error in B. R. And in this Caſe, the Judgment was affirmed for defaults in the Defendants Plea. 1. Where the Plaintiff in the Action of Waſte declared of a Seiſin in Fee in himſelf, out of which the Leaſe to the Defendant is derived, which ought to be intended a pure and abſolute Fee, the Defendant did not diſcloſe any Eſtate in the Plaintiff, but a Fee determinable, which is another kind of Eſtate that the Plaintiff hath alledged, and therefore it was not good without a traverſe, for the Plea of the Defendant ought to confeſs, avoid, or traverſe the material point in the Declaration, which is the Seiſin in Fee. 2. The Plea is not good, becauſe he alledgeth the death of H. without Iſſue, 20. Jan. 3. and non conſtat what Jan. anno. 3. was, Whether the 20th of January before the Writ brought, or after, and that was material: for, If he dyed before the Writ brought, then he had nothing in the Reverſion at the time of the Writ brought, is a good plea for the Defendant, and if he dyed after the Writ brought, then he ought to alledg the death without Iſſue, pendant the Writ, by which the Plaintiff was but Tenant in tail, after poſſibility of Iſſue extinct. The Judgment was affirmed. Mich. 6 Jac. in B. R. Ewr and Moiles Caſe. Yelverton 140, 141.

4. A. ſeiſed of the Mannor of D. in Fee, Covenanted to ſtand ſeiſed thereof, to the uſe of himſelf and B. whom he intended to marry for the Term of their lives without impeachment of Waſte, and after their deceaſe to the uſe of their firſt Iſſue Male, and to the Heirs Males of ſuch Iſſue Male, and for want of ſuch Iſſue, to the uſe of the Heirs Males of the body of the ſaid A. and B. lawfully begotten; and for want of ſuch Iſſue, to the uſe of C. in tail, with divers Remainders over. They intermarry, and had Iſſue D. Afterwards A. dyed, without having any other Iſſue of the body of B. but the ſaid D: B. entred, and a Barn by the Wind was caſt down. B. took the Timber of the ſaid Barn, and converted it to his own uſe, and dyed. His Aſſignee brought an Action of Trover and Converſion againſt the Executors of B. for the ſaid Timber. In this Caſe, theſe points amongſt other were Reſolved. 1. That till Iſſue, A. and B. were ſeiſed of an Eſtate tail executed, ſub modo, untill the Birth of the Iſſue Male, and then they became Tenants for life, the Remainder to the Iſſue in tail, the Reverſion to the Heirs Males of A. and B. for the Eſtate for their lives was not abſolutely drowned, until they had Iſſue Male. 2. Reſolved, That the Eſtate of a Tenant in tail after poſſibility, &c. ought to be the Remainder of an Eſtate tail by the act of God. 3. That in this Caſe, B. ſhould have the priviledg of a Tenant in tail after poſſibility for the Inheritance which once was in her. 4. Reſolved, That if Tenant for life or years cut down Timber, or overthrow houſes, the Leſſor ſhall have the Timber, for that the Leſſee had not them but as things annexed to the Land; and therefore when they are ſevered from the Land, the property of them is in the Leſſor, and the Leſſee hath but a particular profit in them, but the Leſſor hath the general property, becauſe they are his Inheritance. 5. Reſolved, That if a houſe falleth by wind in the time of Leſſee for life, or years, or of Tenant in Dower, or by the Curteſy, ſuch particular Tenants have a ſpecial property in the Timber, to rebuild the like houſe as the other was, for habitation; but ſuch particular Tenants cannot ſell the Timber, becauſe the general property is in the Leſſor. 6. Reſolved, That the privileg of [without impeachment of Waſte] is annexed to the privity of the Eſtate, for if he changeth his Eſtate, the privileg is gone. 7. Reſolved, That in the principal Caſe, B. by force of the ſaid clauſe (without impeachment of Waſte) had ſuch a power and privileg, that although that no Waſte was done, and although the houſe was overturned with the wind, that yet ſhe ſhould have the Timber, becauſe it was parcel of it, and when it is ſevered from the Land by the Act of [God, the Law, or party] the property of the Trees was in her by the clauſe [without impeachment of Waſte.] Cook 11. Part, Lewis Bowles Caſe.

5. Action of Waſte was brought againſt Huſband and Wife. After Iſſue joyned, the parties appeared at the Niſi Prius, and there a Verdict was given for the Plaintiff. At the day in Bank, it was moved, That the Wife might be received. It was denyed by the Court, which ſaid, It was a ſtrange motion. Trin. 14 Jac. in C. B. Bilt and Hartleyes Caſe. Hob. 177.

6. E. S. brought Waſte againſt O. and El. his Wife: And the Writ was, de omnibus terris, &c. is L. de quibus E. S. now deceaſed, was ſeized in his Demeſne as of Fee; and ſo being ſeiſed after 4. Feb. 27 H. 8. enfeoffed J. D. and others, to the uſe of the ſaid E. S. deceaſed, and the ſaid El. for the Term of their lives, and the longer liver of them. And after the deceaſe of the ſaid E. S. deceaſed, and El. to the uſe of the Heirs of the body of the ſaid E. S. deceaſed, begotten on the body of the ſaid El. Upon Nul Waſte pleaded, it being found for the Plaintiff, Exception was taken to the Writ, becauſe it did not lay the Feoffment to be to the Feoffees and their Heirs, without which there could be no Inheritance in Ceſtuy que uſe. The Court agreed, That it ought to be ſo: Yet becauſe ſeveral Preſidents were ſhewed, That ſince the making of the Statute, this form had bin uſed. 2. It was holden in this Caſe, That El. the Wife had but an Eſtate for life, and that the entail and Inheritance by the former limitation, reſted only in the Husband E. S. and that it was all one as if it had bin heredibus E. S. de corpore ſuo, ſuper Corpus, &c. Trin. 12 Jac. in C. B. Skeat and Oxenbridges Caſe. Hob. 84.

7. A man ſeiſed of a Meſſuage in ſuch a Pariſh in London, lett to the Plaintiff the Cellar of the ſaid houſe from Week to Week, at ſuch a Rent, ſo long as the parties ſhould pleaſe. The Defendant entred and was poſſeſſed, and the Defendant was poſſeſſed of a Warehouſe over the ſaid Cellar; and the Plaintiff having three Butts of Sack in the Cellar; The Defendant put ſuch a quantity and burthen of Merchandizes into the Warehouſe, that by the force and weight of the burthen, the floor thereof was broken, and fell into the Cellar upon the Plaintiffs Wines, that the Wines did fly out of the Veſſels, and became of no value. The Defendant ſaid, That the floor of the ſaid Warehouſe ſuſtained as great a burthen of Merchandizes as that was. And for want of Reparations by them to whom the Warehouſe did belong, it was ſo ruinous, that the poſts of the Cellar brake ſuddenly. It was Reſolved, That in this Caſe an Action upon the Caſe being brought in B. R. that the Action did lye. Whereupon Error was brought, and the Judgment affirmed; For that the Plaintiff had alledged that the floor brake by the weight of Merchandizes put upon it; and that it did bear weight before, is but an anſwer by argument. And in this Caſe, it was ſaid and agreed, That if a man taketh an Eſtate for life or years in a ruinous houſe, if he pull it down, he ſhall be charged in Waſte, ſo as there is a difference where the default is in the party, where not. And in the Principal Caſe the Defendant ought to have taken care, that he did not put upon ſuch a ruinous floor more then that it might well bear, and if it would not bear any thing, he ought not to put any thing upon it to the prejudice of a third perſon. Paſc. 36 Eliz. Edwards and Hadiaders Caſe. Poph. 46, 47. Leon. acc.

8. In Waſte, the Plaintiff declared, That A. was ſeiſed of the Land, and gave it to B. and C. his Wife, and to the Heirs of their two bodies (whoſe Heir the Plaintiff is). And that B. and C. his Wife made a Leaſe to the Defendant for 21 years, and that B. and C. were dead, and that the Plaintiff was Heir in tail, and that the Defendant had done Waſte. The Defendant pleaded, That the ſaid B. and C. did not demiſe: Upon which, being at Iſſue, The Jury found, That B. and C. by their Deed Indented, made the Leaſe prout ut ſupra, &c. and that B. dyed; and that after his death, C. entred and diſagreed to the Leaſe: And if the Iſſue was found for the Plaintiff, becauſe it is found that they both made the Leaſe; or for the Defendant, the diſagreement of the Wife being found. In this Caſe, it was adjudged for the Defendant: for by the diſagreement of the Wife in Judgment of Law, it was the Leaſe of the Husband only, and yet during the life of the Husband, it was the Leaſe of them both; but now by the diſagreement by matter ex poſt facto, it ſhall be intended ab initio the Leaſe of the Husband; and then the Action will not entlye. Paſc. 28 Eliz. in C. B. Tottford and Tottfords Caſe. Leon. 204.

9. Error of a Judgment in C.B. in Waſte. The Error aſſigned was, That divers Waſtes being alledged, To ſome of them the Defendant pleaded Nul waſte fait: To others he pleaded juſtifiable Waſtes; and to a third he pleaded a plea in excuſe of the Waſte: upon theſe Pleas, Iſſues were joyned, and a Venire facias awarded, reciting the Iſſues, commanding the Jury to enquire, If the Defendant did commit the Waſte as the Plaintiff had declared. It was aſſigned for Error, becauſe they ought to have enquired of the ſeveral Iſſues, as they be joyned. But becauſe divers Venire facias's were in this manner; and enquiry, If Waſte be made as the Plaintiff hath declared, implyes that they ſhall enquire according to the ſeveral Iſſues; The Court held it to be good enough, and no Error. Mich. 10 Car. in B. R. Stencil ouſe and Corbets Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 277.

10. Error to reverſe a Judgment in C. B. in Waſte. The Error was, 1. Becauſe the Waſte being aſſigned in three houſes, two Gardens, &c. upon the Writ of Enquiry, Waſte was found in the houſes and Gardens, and entire damages found, whereas the damages ought to be found ſeveral for every of them; for if it were but of ſmall value for any of them, viz. to the value of 12 d. the Court would not adjudg it Waſte. But that Error was diſallowed by the Court, becauſe when the Sheriff and Jury have had the View, and find damages for the Waſte, it ſhall not be intended Petit damages in any. The ſecond Error was, Becauſe upon the Writ of Enquiry, 13 were returned to be ſworn, whereas there ought to be but 12, for this is not like other Writs of Enquiry, which are meer Enqueſts of Office; but here is a Verdict, and in the nature of a Verdict, upon which an Attaint lyeth. The Court conceived the ſame to be Error, and day given to ſhew cauſe why the Judgment ſhould not be reverſed. But yet afterwards it was holden, That it was good enough. Mich. 11 Car. in B.R. King and Fitches Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 299.

11. In an Action of Waſte brought, the Caſe was, Lands were deviſed to the Father of the Defendant for life, and to his eldeſt Iſſue Male de Corpore ſuo exeunt. and in this Caſe, upon a Demurrer, it was adjudged, That by this Deviſe, no Eſtate paſſed, but an Eſtate for life unto the Father of the Defendant, the Remainder to his eldeſt Son for life, ſo as no Inheritance paſſed thereby, but an Eſtate puniſhable for Waſte. Trin. 27 Eliz. in C. B. Leonard Lovelaces Caſe. Leon. 2. Part, 35.

12. Note, it was ſaid, That the diviſion of a great Meadow into many parcels, is not Waſte, for the Meadow may be the better for it, and it is for the profit and eaſe of the Occupiers of it. And by Windham and Rhodes Juſtices, If a Termor converteth a Meadow into a Hop ground, the ſame is not Waſte, for it is imployed to a greater profit, and it may be Meadow again. Periam Juſtice, Though it be a greater profit, yet it is alſo with greater labour and Charges: And the Converſion of a Meadow in o an Orchard is Waſte, although it may be to the greater profit of the Occupier. Trin. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Leon. 2. Part, 174.

13. The Caſe was; N E. ſeiſed of the Manor of W. leaſed the ſame to W. Vavaſor and his Wife for the life of the Wife, the Remainder to the right Heirs of the Huſband. The Huſband made a Feoffment in Fee to the uſe of himſelf and his Wife for their lives, the Remainder to his right Heirs, the Huſband dyed; the Wife held in and committed Waſte in a Park parcel of the Manor. It was moved, If in the Writ of Waſte, the Writ ſhall ſuppoſe, that the Wife holdeth in, Ex dimiſſa N. E. or ex dimiſſione viri. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That it ſhould be neither way; but that the Writ ſhould be general, ſcil. de hereditate J. S. hæredis, &c. In that Caſe, the Waſte was aſſigned in a Park. It was ſaid, That Waſte cannot be aſſigned in the Deer, unleſs the Defendant hath deſtroyed all the Deer, to which Dyer Juſtice agreed. But if he doth deſtroy the Deer, ſo as the ground is become not Parkable, the ſame is Waſte, although he hath not deſtroyed the whole, by Manwood Juſtice. See 8 R. 2. Fitz. Waſte 97. If there be ſufficient ſtore left in the Park, Pond, &c. it is well enough, and no Waſte. Hill. 16 Eliz. in C. B. Vavaſors Caſe. Leon. 221.

13. Waſte brought by Tindall Knight againſt Jeffery Cobb. The Plaintiff declared upon Demiſe of the moyety of the Mannor of Wolverton, and of the moyety of a Wood called Wolverton-Wood. The Defendant pleaded, That before the Waſte ſuppoſed, J. S. was ſeiſed of, and in tertia parte alterius Medietatis of the ſaid Mannor, and of and in tertia parte alterius Medietatis of the ſaid Wood, and held the ſame in ſimul et pro indiviſo with the Plaintiff. And that the ſaid J. S. by his Deed ſold to the Defendant omnes et omnimodas arbores et ſubboſcos ſua creſcent. in prædict. tertia parte alterius medietatis prædict. boſci ad libitum ipſius defendentis ſuccidend. And ſo juſtified the cutting down of 300 Oaks, in which the Waſte is aſſigned, and did aver that the ſaid 300 Oaks were the third part only in numero et precio medietatis omnium arborum et ſubboſcorum, the ſaid time when the Waſte was ſuppoſed to be done. And demanded Judgment if Action. Divers Exceptions were taken to the Declaration. 1. Becauſe he ſheweth, That the Demiſe of the moyety of of the Manor: was per nomen, &c. and doth not ſhew it was by writing, and if not, then he cannot plead it per nomen. 2. The Waſte is aſſigned in digging of Coles in 100 Acres of Lands, parcel Mediatatis Manerii de Wolverton, and doth not ſhew in what Town the Land is, for he hath ſhewed before, the Demiſe of the moyety of the Manor of Wolverton in Wolverton. 3. He ſhews the Demiſe of the Moyety of the Mannor of Wolverton, and of other Lands, and aſſigns the Waſte in cutting down Oaks in quodam boſco vocat. Wolverton-wood, parcel. premiſſorum, and that cannot be; for this Wood cannot be parcel of the Mannor of Wolverton, and of the other Lands alſo. And for theſe cauſes, It was holden by the whole Court, That the Declaration was inſufficient. Mich. 7 Eliz. in C. B. Tindal and Cobbs Caſe. Leon. 3. Part, acc.

14. The Caſe was, a Leaſe was made to A. for life, the Remainder to B. in tail, the Remainder to the right Heirs of B. who bargained and ſold all his Eſtate, and levied a Fine of it with proclamations to D: Afterwards A. committed Waſte. It was holden in this caſe by the whole Court, That D. ſhall not puniſh him in an Action of Waſte, for that nothing paſſeth to him but during the life of the Grantor; ſcil. as to the Remainder in tail, in reſpect of which eſtate, the Action of Waſte is only maintainable: For although that the Fee-ſimple paſſeth to the Grantee, or Conuſee, yet in reſpect of that, an Action of Waſte is not maintainable, untill the Eſtate tail be ſpent. Hill. 18 Eliz. in C. B. Owen and Sadlers Caſe. Leon. 3. Part, acc.

15. In Treſpaſſe, for cutting down of 4. Oaks in a Foreſt; The Defendant pleaded, That the place where was a Forreſt, and that he was ſeiſed of a Meſſuage in D; and that he and all thoſe whoſe eſtate he hath, &c. habere conſueverant rationabile eſtoverium ſuum for ſewell ad Libitum ſuum capiend. in boſcis, ſubboſcis, et arboribus ibidem Creſcentibus, and that in Quolibet tempore anni, unleſs in Fawning time. The Plaintiff by Replication ſaid, That the place where is in the Forreſt of D, &c. and that the Defendant, and all thoſe whoſe eſtate, &c. habere conſueverunt rationabile eſtoverium ſuum de boſcis, &c. per Liberationem Forreſtarii, aut ejus Deputati, prout boſcus pati potuit, et non ad exigentiam petentis: And upon that Replication, the Defendant did Demur in Law. It was the clear Opinion of the Court, That Judgment ſhould be given againſt the Plaintiff; For if he would have ouſted the Defendant of his Preſcription by the Law of the Forreſt, he ought to have ſhewed the Law of the Forreſt in ſuch caſe; Lex Forreſtæ talis eſt, &c. For the Law of the Forreſt, is not the Common-Law of the Land, and the Judges are not to take notice of it, but it ought to be pleaded: Or elſe the Plaintiff ought to have traverſed the Preſcription of the Defendant; for here are two Preſcriptions, one pleaded by the Defendant by way of Bar; the other ſet forth by the Plaintiff in his Replication, without any traverſe of that which is ſet forth in the Barr; which cannot be good. But if the Plaintiff had ſhewed in his Replication, Lex Forreſtæ talis eſt, &c. then the Preſcription of the Defendant had been anſwered without any more, for that none can preſcribe againſt a Statute. Then Exception was taken to the Barr, Becauſe the Defendant hath Juſtified the cutting down of Oaks, without alledging, that there was any Underwoods; but that was Over-ruled, for that he hath his choice at Libitum ſuum, &c. 2. Becauſe he hath not ſhewed, That at the time of the Cutting, it was not Fawning time; That by the Court was holden to be a material Exception: But becauſe the Plaintiff had replyed, and upon his Replication, the Defendant had demurred, the Court would not Reſort back to the Barr. But Judgment was given, That the Plaintiff Nihil Capiat per Billam. Mich. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Ruſſel and Brookers Caſe. Leon. 3. Part, acc.

16. In Waſte, the Plaintiff declared upon a Leaſe for years generally; and the truth of the Caſe was, That the Plaintiff had made a Leaſe for years to one A: which Leaſe being in force for two years, he Leaſed the ſame Lands for years, as he hath declared, to begin preſently: And the Waſte which is aſſigned in the Declaration, was done during the firſt Leaſe; And now, If the Defendant upon the matter might plead, No Waſte done, was the Queſtion? It was ſaid by the Court, That ſuch a Plea ſhould be perilous for the Defendant; for it ſhall be found againſt him: And if he pleadeth the ſpeciall matter aforeſaid, ſcil. the former Leaſe in eſſe at the time of the Waſte done; after the expiration of which Leaſe, no Waſte was done, If the ſecond Leaſe be not by Indenture, it ſhould be a good Plea: But if it be by Indenture, Then the Plaintiff would eſtopp him by the Indenture to ſay, That the ſecond Leaſe hath not any other beginning then what the Indenture imports, and then the Waſte ſhall charge the Defendant. Hill. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Thorpe and Wingfields Caſe. Leon. 3. Part, acc.

17. In an Action of Waſte brought, the Plaintiff in his Declaration conveyed a good Term to the Defendant, and a Reverſion to himſelf: And upon the general Iſſue, It was found by Verdict, That J. D. was ſeiſed of the Land in Fee, and 16 Eliz. made this Leaſe for divers years to J. S; and he being ſo ſeiſed of the Reverſion, conveyed that to the uſe of himſelf for life, without impeachment of Waſte, and then to the uſe of his eldeſt ſon, and E. his Wife, and to the heirs of the body of the ſon upon the body of E. to be begotten; and then the ſon dyed, having iſſue in tail the Plaintiff, and then this Leaſe was aſſigned to the Defendant, and then the ſaid E. dyed; and then the Waſte was committed, and then J. D. the Grandfather dyed: And, If the Action of Waſte did lye or not, was the Queſtion? It was ſaid, That the Action did lye for the priviledg or the diſpenſation which was annexed to the Reverſion; for life of the Grandfather, is no diſpenſation to the eſtate of the Leſſee; for although the Action be ſuſpended during his life, yet now it is on foot again: and many Caſes were put, where an eſtate may be unpuniſhable of Waſte, and yet by matter ex poſt facto, ſhall be puniſhable: As in caſe a Leaſe for years be made without impeachment of Waſte, and then the Leſſor releaſes to the Leſſee, &c. the firſt Privity is gone, and he is now puniſhable in Waſte. And of this Opinion was the whole Court. And it was ſaid, That there was no difference where the Frankitenement is intercedent; for if this be not puniſhable, yet the particular Eſtate ſhall not participate of that priviledg of him in the Remainder. And whereas it was Objected, That the Plaintiff in his Declaration, had declared of a Waſte after the Eſtate for life determined, and the Jury find it was done in the time of him in the Reverſion for life: The Court ſaid, That was nothing to the purpoſe, for that is but variance of time, and not of the matter; for it is not materiall, Whether it was before his death or after, becauſe in both Caſes, it is puniſhable. Paſch. 22 Jac. in C. B. Bray and Sir Paul Tracies Caſe. Winch. 79 & 86.

18. Waſte for Cutting down of Elms and other Trees, Judgment was given for the Plaintiff by Nihil dicit, and a Writ of Enquiry of Damages iſſued, and the Jury found to the damage of 8 s. It was moved for a new Writ of Enquiry, and that the old might not be returned, for that the damages are too little. It was ſaid by the Court in this caſe, That if a man recover in Waſte by Nihil dicit, and a Writ of Enquiry iſſueth, In this Caſe, the Jury may Enquire of the damages, but not of the place waſted, for this is confeſſed. And Hobart, Chief Juſtice, ſaid, If the Defendant is bound by the Nihil dicit, as to the place waſted; for what cauſe ſhall he not be bound to the damages? And all the Court were of Opinion, That if the Jury find damages only to 8 s. the Plaintiff ſhall not have Judgment, for it ought to be above 40 s. And in this caſe it was ſaid, upon the grant of all Trees, and after the Grantee cuts them, and new grow upon the Stumps, which in time will be Trees, that in ſuch caſe, the Grantee ſhall have them. Paſch. 19 Jac. in C. B. Sir George Topping and Kings Caſe, Winch. 5.

19. A Recovery was had by default againſt Tenant in Dower, or Tenant by the Courteſie, in an Action of Waſte: In ſuch caſe, If a Quod ei deforceat lyeth by the Statute of Weſt. 2. cap. 4. is the Queſtion, becauſe that the Judgment is not given upon the default; for notwithſtanding the default, a Writ of Enquiry of the Waſte ſhall iſſue; and upon that, the Defendant may give Evidence, and the Jury find, that no Waſte was done: It was Reſolved in that Caſe, That the Quod ei deforceat doth lye, becauſe the default is the principal; and the awarding of the Writ of Enquiry is but an incident to it, and the Law reſpects the principal caſe, and upon ſuch Recovery, a Writ of Diſceit lyeth, and becauſe it is but an Enqueſt of Office, although it be taken upon the Oath of 12 men: and the place waſted being in the Realty, is more worthy then the damages; and alſo becauſe, If an Action be brought againſt two, in the Tenuit, there the Releaſe of one is a good barr againſt the other: but in an Action of Waſte by two in the Tenet, againſt Tenant for years or life, there the Releaſe of one ſhall not barr the other, becauſe there Summons and Severance lyeth. See Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 384. acc.

20. Note, If Tenant by the Curteſy or Tenant in Dower, Grant over their Eſtates, and afterwards the Heir granteth the Reverſion, the Tenant in Dower, or by the Curteſy may Attorn; but Waſte doth not lye againſt them by the Grantee of the Reverſion; but in ſuch Caſe, Waſte lyeth againſt their Aſſigns, and Attornment by the Aſſignes, is good, becauſe they are Attendants to the Reverſion, and ſubject to Action of Waſte. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 306.

VVay.

1. IN Treſpaſs, the Defendant did juſtify as Leſſee to the Lord Mountague, and ſaid, That the ſaid Lord, for him and his Fermors, had uſed to have a Way over the Land in which the Treſpaſs is ſuppoſed to be done, and that by rooting of a Cart Wheel, the Way was ſo digged and drowned with Water, that he could not uſe his Way as before, and that therefore he did fill up the Cart-Roots, and digged a Trench to let out the Water. Upon which the Plaintiff did demur in Law. It was ſaid in the behalf of the Defendant, That if Leſſee for years be of a Meadow, he may dig to avoid the Water, and may juſtify ſo doing in Waſte brought againſt him. To which it was anſwered, That in that Caſe the Leſſee hath an Intereſt in the ſoil, ſo hath not he who claims a Way only. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That he could not dig the Land. Then it was demanded for the Defendant, What remedy he ſhould have? To which, Suit Juſtice anſwered, If he went that Way before in his Shoes, let him now pluck on his boots. Alſo the Court held, That the pleading was not good; for he ſaith, he could not uſe his Way ſo well as he did before, which is not good, but he ought to plead that he could not uſe the Way at all. Mich. 29 Eliz. in B. R. Dike and Dawſons Caſe. Godbolt, 52.

2. In an Action upon the Caſe, the Plaintiff declared, That one M. was ſeiſed of a houſe in A. and that he and all thoſe whoſe Eſtate, &c. time out of mind, have had a Way over certain Lands of the Defendants called C. pro quibuſdam averiis ſuis; and that M. enfeoffed him of the ſaid houſe, and that the Defendant ſtopt up the ſaid Way to his damage, being found for the Plaintiff. In ſtay of Judgment, it was ſaid, That the Title to the Way was not ſet forth certainly; it is, pro quibuſdam averiis ſuis: Quod omnes Juſtic. conteſſerunt. Only Gaudy conceived, That the ſame was no cauſe to ſtay Judgment; for it appeareth to us, That the Plaintiff hath cauſe of Action, although the matter be incertainly alledged, and of this incertainty the Defendant hath loſt the advantage, having ſurceaſed his time, by pleading to it; and divers books were vouched by him, as 20 E. 3. Treſpaſs for taking and carrying away of Charters. The Defendant pleaded, Not Guilty. It was found for the Plaintiff to damage, &c. Error was brought, becauſe the Plaintiff had not ſet down in his Declaration the certainty of the Lands comprized in the Declaration. But Non allocatur, for that the Defendant ought to have challenged that before. Alſo 47 E. 3. 3. which ſee. But it was anſwered by Fenner Juſtice, That thoſe Caſes were not like the Caſe at Bar; for in the ſaid Caſes, the certainty is not needful, but here the certainty of the number of the Cattel is parcel of the Title. Mich. 33 Eliz. in B. R. Martingall and Andrews Caſe. Leon. 1. Part, 236.

3. Treſpaſs for breaking of his Cloſe, and ſpoiling of his Graſs. The Defendant pleaded, That in the Cloſe where, &c. there had bin time out of mind, a Footway for all the Kings liege people, in per et trans the ſaid Cloſe to ſuch a place, and that the Plaintiff ſuch a day ploughed up the Foot-Way, and ſowed the ſame with Corn, and layed Thorns at the ſide of it, and that within the ſaid Cloſe, near to the old Foot-Way, the Plaintiff before the Treſpaſs, left and aſſigned another Foot-Way for the people to go over this new Way; and that the Defendant tempore quo went over the Way ſo aſſigned to ſuch a place. Upon which the Plaintiff did demur. In this Caſe, it was adjudged againſt the Plaintiff, becauſe the Plaintiff did the firſt wrong in ſtopping up the old Way, and alſo had aſſigned this new Way for Paſſengers: wherefore contrary to his own agreement, he ſhould not puniſh the Defendant: And it was holden in this Caſe, That although that the Defendant pleaded generally, that the Plaintiff aſſignavit viam, and did not ſhew to whom, that is not material, becauſe what is common to all, cannot be aſſigned to any particular perſon. Mich. 6 Jac. in B. R. Horn and Widlakes Caſe. Yelverton 141.

4. In an Action upon the Caſe, the Plaintiff declared, That he was ſeiſed of a Meſſuage, &c. and that he and his Auncеſtors, and thoſe whoſe Eſtate, &c. had had a Way from his Meſſuage to ſuch a place, for him, his Servants, Fermors, &c. aſwell on Foot, as with Carts, and ſo back again. And that the Defendant had ſtope up the Way to his damage, &c. Upon Not Guilty, the Jury found the Way as the Plaintiff declared, but did not find the ſame to be appurtenant to the Meſſuage. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Verdict had not found any thing againſt the Plaintiff, but that he ſhall recover. For the Plaintiff ſhall never in his Declaration lay the Way to be appendant or appurtenant, becauſe it is only an eaſe, and not an Intereſt. And all the Preſidents are according to the Declaration here, without laying the Way to be appendant or appurtenant. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Trin. 7 Jac. in B. R. Godley and Frithe

Frith's Case. Yelverton 159.

5. Treſpaſs for entring of the Plaintiffs Cloſe, called Sandy Heath, ſpoiling of his Graſs, Hunting, killing, and carrying away of his Conies. The Defendant to all the Treſpaſs, but entring into the Cloſe, and treading of his graſs, pleaded Not Guilty, upon which Iſſue was joyned: And as to the breaking of the Cloſe, the Plaintiff ſaid, That William Lord Ruſſell, and Eliz. his Wife, were ſeiſed in Fee in the right of Eliz. in a certain piece of Heath, containing 10 Acres in S. contigue jacent. to the Heath called Sandy Heath, and that they and all thoſe whoſe Eſtate they had, &c. in the ſaid piece of Heath, had uſed to have for them, their Fermors, &c. of the ſaid piece of Heath Paſſagium uſque eandem peciam bruerre, et ab eadem pecia in per et trans the ſaid Cloſe called Sandy Heath, in quo, &c. at all times at their pleaſures, to take the profits of the ſaid piece of Heath. And ſaid, That before the Treſpaſs, many Conies were in the ſaid piece of Heath, and divers Cony-holes there digged, and were there feeding and conſuming the Graſs, and that he as ſervant to the Lord Ruſſell, the time when, &c. went in and through the ſaid Cloſe on foot to the ſaid piece of Heath to hunt, and take the ſaid Conies in the ſaid piece of Heath, which is the ſame Treſpaſs, &c. and averred, That it was propinquum Paſſagium, that he could go to the ſaid piece of Heath, conteyning ten Acres. Upon which the Plaintiff did demur in Law. It was holden by the Court in this Caſe, That the plea in bar was not good; for that Paſſagium is properly a paſſage over the Water, and not over Land; and here the Defendant ought to have preſcribed in the Way, and not in the paſſage. 2. That the Preſcription is not good, becauſe it is not ſhewed à quo loco ad quem locum, the Paſſage or Way is; and although that a Way may be in groſs, yet it ought to be bounded and circumſcribed to ſome certain place, eſpecially when it appears to lye in uſage, time out of mind, &c. 3. The bar was not good, becauſe it is not ſhewed, what manner of paſſage it was, ſcil. a Foot, Horſe, or Cart Way, ſo as all was very incertain. And therefore Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Mich. 7 Jac. in B. R. Alban and Brounſall's Caſe. Yelv. 163.

6. Treſpaſs for breaking his Cloſe, and cutting and caſting down a Gate. The Defendant juſtified, becauſe the Gate was placed croſs the High-way; and ſo fixed, that the Kings Subjects could not paſs without interruption by reaſon of the ſaid Gate; and therefore he pulled it up, cut, and caſt down the ſaid Gate to uſe the ſaid Way. The Plaintiff ſet forth, That he ſet up two poſts of each ſide of the Way, and hung the Gate upon one of the ſaid poſts for the preſervation of the Springs of the Woods there, from Cattel, ſo as the Subjects might paſs the ſaid Gate, without prejudice or impediment. And traverſed, That the Gate was ſo fixed and tyed, that the Kings Subjects could not paſs without Interruption by the Gate. Upon which the Defendant demurred in Law. The Queſtion was, Whether the Erecting of a Gate croſs an High-Way which may be open and ſhut at the pleaſure of the Paſſengers, be a common Nuſance in it ſelf in the Eye of Law. And 2. Admitting it be, If every one may pull up, and caſt down the Gate at their pleaſure. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, 1. That the ſame was a Nuſance, for it is not ſo free and eaſy a paſſage as if no ſuch Incloſure had bin. 2. That admitting it to be a Nuſance, although that the uſual courſe is to redreſs it by Indictment, yet every perſon may remove the Nuſance. 3. That the cutting of the Gate was lawful. It was adjudged for the Defendant. And it was ſaid in this Caſe, That for ancient Gates upon High-wayes. It ſhall be intended, That they were by Licenſe from the King, and upon Ad quod Damnum ſued out of the Chancery. Paſc. 6 Car. in B. R. James and Haywards Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 133.

7. Action upon the Caſe for diſturbance and uſing a Way. The Plaintiff ſhewed, That the Defendant was ſeiſed of Land over which the Way is, and by Indenture of Bargain and Sale, ſold the Land to J. S. in Fee with a Way over his Land, and that J. S. let the Land to the Plaintiff for years, and the Defendant did diſturb him. It was moved for ſtay of Judgment, becauſe he doth not ſhew the Deed of Leaſe, and becauſe a Way is pleaded of Lands without expreſs words of a Way. But for that point, the Court held the Declaration good, for when Land is Granted with a Way, it is quaſi appendant to it, and a thing of neceſſity, and therefore it paſſeth without being expreſſed in the Deed, and Land cannot be uſed without a Way. But upon View of the Record, It appeared, That there was not any grant of the Way in the Indenture, but only a Sale of the Land, and of a Way out of other Land, for nothing but the uſe paſſed by the Deed, and there cannot be an uſe of a thing which is not in eſſe as a Way common, &c. which are newly created, and no uſe paſſed by the Indenture until they were created. And of that Opinion was the whole Court, and for this cauſe, the Court was of Opinion, That the Plaintiff had not ſhewed any good Title, and therefore it was adjudged againſt the Plaintiff. Mich. 5 Jac. in B. R. Beardley and Brooks Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 190.

8. In Treſpaſs upon a Demurrer, the Caſe was, One ſold Land, and afterwards the Vendee by reaſon thereof, claimed a Way over part of the Plain-

this Land, there being no other convenient Way adjoyning. And if this was a lawfull claim, was the Queſtion. It was Reſolved, That the Way remained, and that he might well juſtify the uſing thereof, becauſe it is a thing of neceſſity, Et è converſo it was ſaid, That if a man hath four Cloſes lying together, and ſells three of them, reſerving the middle Cloſe, and hath not any Way thereto, but through one of the Cloſes which he ſold, although that he reſerved not a Way, yet he ſhould have it as reſerved to him by the Law. And there is not any extinguiſhment of a Way by having both Lands. It was adjudged for the Defendant. Paſc. 4 Jac. in B. R. Clark and Coggs Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 170.

9. Note, That all Wayes which are not peculiar and proper to any Town certain, are called the Kings High-Wayes. But a common Way is, Where one Town hath a Way to go to their Church, in that, or in another Town; and every Nuſance done in ſuch common Way ſhall be puniſhed by an Action upon the Caſe, unleſs it be by the Tenant of the Land. See 27 H. 8. 27. acc. and 6 E. 3. 23. by Paniager.

10. In Treſpaſs, the Defendant juſtified for a Way appurtenant to his houſe in D. by Preſcription to go to 8 Acres of Wood in S. The Plaintiff ſaid, That after time of memory, J. N. was ſeiſed of the Land where the Defendant claimed the Way, and in the Wood alſo to which he claimed the Way. It was the better Opinion of the Court in that Caſe, That the Way was gone for ever, aſwel where there is unity of poſſeſſion of the Land and houſe to which he claimeth it. See 3 H. 6. 31. acc. But yet ſee 21 E. 3. 2. Where an Aſſiſe of Nuſance was brought for ſtrengthning of a Way which the Plaintiff ought to have to his Mill. The Defendant pleaded unity of poſſeſſion of the Lands and of the Mill in W. and demanded Judgment of the Writ. The Plaintiff ſaid, That after that, W. had two Daughters, and dyed ſeiſed, and that the Mill was allotted to one of them in Partition, and the Land to the other. And the Aſſiſe was awarded. And ſo by the Partition, the Way was revived, and appendant as it was before.

Wales.

1. NOte, That it was holden by the Court, That a Fieri facias, or a Capias ad ſatisfaciendum, or other Judicial proceſs, did not run into Wales. But it was agreed, That a Capias utlagatum did run into Wales, and Brownlow Prothonotary, ſaid, That he had known, That an extent had gone into Wales. Mich. 11 Jac. in C. B. Godbolt 214.

2. Judgment was given in Debt in the Great Seſſions in Wales againſt the Defendant inhabiting in one of thoſe Counties; the Defendant dyed Inteſtate: One who Inhabited in London took Letters of Adminiſtration. The Queſtion was, Whether any Execution might be into Wales, becauſe he neither Inhabites, nor hath any thing there; and if not, then, Whether the Record might be removed into the Chancery by Certiorari, and ſent by Mittimus into the Kings Bench, or Common-Pleas to the intent to take forth a Scire facias upon it, and to have Lands out of Wales, or goods in the hands of the Adminiſtrator lyable to it there. It was the Opinion of all the Judges and Barons, That it could not be; For he might not have a Scire facias in any Court, but where the Judgment is given: And if ſuch courſe ſhould be uſed, all Judgment in Inferiour Corporations, might be removed and executed here, which would be a great inconvenience to the Subjects. Wherefore the Court ſaid, That there was no remedy but to execute ſuch Judgment in their peculiar Juriſdictions. Paſc. 2 Car. in C. B. Cro. 1. Part, 23.

3. C. being Indict in the Grand Seſſions at Angleſey in Wales of Petit Treaſon; A Certiorari was prayed to have the Indictment removed, and to have it tryed in another adjoyning County. The Court doubted what to do in it: But upon Preſidents ſhewed, That a Certiorari had bin awarded in ſuch Caſes into Wales by reaſon of the Statute of 26 H. 8. which allows, that Indictments in Caſes of Felony may be enquired in the adjoyning Counties, and that in 32 Eliz. ſuch a Certiorari was granted upon debate. They awarded ſuch a Certiorari, and ſaid, That when the Record was removed, they would adviſe how it ſhould be tryed. But yet afterwards it was ſtayed, and appointed to be argued, Whether a Certiorari was Grantable. Mic. 9 Car. in B. R. Chudleys Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 241.

4. An

4. An Appeal of Murder was brought by a Woman, and awarded to the Sheriff of Salop, being the next County adjoyning to that of Montgomery for the Murder of her Husband at Montgomery in the County of Montgome-y. Upon Not Guilty pleaded, being tryed by a Jury of the County of Salop at the bar, The Defendant was found Guilty. It was moved in Arrest of Judgment, that the Writ of Appeal ought to be brought in the County of Montgomery where the fact was committed, and not in any other County adjoyning. It was Resolved by the whole Court, That the Writ should abate, for that it was against a Fundamental Rule of Law, That a Tryal for Murder by appeal, or otherwise, shou'd be out of the County where it is committed. But the Statute of 26 H. 8. cap. 6. allows, That Indictments may be in Counties next adjoyning, but there is not any mention therein of Appeals. Wherefore all the Court Resolved, That this Writ of Appeal lyes not; and therefore adjudged for the Defendant. Hill. 5 Car. in B. R. Soutley and Prices Case. Cro. 1. Part, 179.

5. Error of a Judgment in Wales in a Quod ei deforceat. 1. Because the Writ being general, The Count is, That he deforced him of a Messuage, 20 Acres of Land, 30 Acres of Meadow, 40 Acres of Pasture, and 20 Acres de Jampna & Bruera, which ought to be certainly expressed how many of each, and the particular quantities and natures of them, which here is not done. But the Court held it well enough, for that Jampna & Bruera are not intended Lands of several natures, but one and the same Land whereupon Gorze and Furz are growing. 2. Error, That the Issue was not well joyned, because he pleads he had majus jus tenendi tenementa prædict. then the Plaintiff, but doth not say, sibi et hæredibus. Sed non allocatur. 3. Because the Venire facias had not 15 dayes betwixt the Teste and the Return, but was the next day after the Teste. Sed non allocatur, for that the Court said, That in Wales they have their process from day to day in one and the same Session. The Judgment was affirmed. Hill. 5 Car. in B. R. Griffith and Jenkins Case. Cro. 1. Part, 128.

6. Note, It was said by Jones Justice, That in some parts of Wales Tryals have bin by six Jurours only; but that is by reason of an Act of Parliament, 34 H. 8. which appoints such Tryals may be by six only where the Custome hath bin so. Otherwise when Wales was united to England, and to be governed by the Laws here, such Tryalls could not be unless they had bin so provided for by Parliament. The Principal Case was to reverse a Judgment in Error brought in Cornwall, where an Issue was tryed by six Jurors, which was said to be there secundum Consuetudinem ibidem à tempore quo &c. which the Court held to be a void Custome, and against Law, and for that cause the Judgment was reversed. Mich. 7 Car. in B. R. Treasurer and Perrymans Case. Cro. 1. Part, 188.

7. Error of a Judgment in the County of Flint in Wales. The Error was assigned in the matter in Law. The Case was: M. gave Land to Ed. R. and his Wife, Habendum to the said Husband and Wife, to the use of them and the Heirs of their two bodies; and for default of such Issue, to the use of J. S. and his Heirs, and Whether Husband and Wife had an Estate tail, or but for their lives, was the Question: and it was adjudged there for the then Plaintiffs, That it was an Estate tail which was assigned to be Error: For it was alledged, That the Estate out of which the use should rise, was but for their lives, and the use cannot make the Estate larger then the limitation. But the Court conceived, That there was a difference where an Estate is limited to one, and the use to a stranger, there the use shall not be more then the Estate out of which it is derived, but not when the limitation is to two, Habendum to them, to the use of the Heirs of their bodies; this is no limitation of the use, nor is the use to be executed by the Statute, but it is a limitation of the Estate to them, and the Heirs of their bodies, and they are in by the Common Law. And Jones Justice said, That so it had bin adjudged in Wales before this time. It was adjourned. Pasc. 6 Car. in B. R. Jenkins and Youngs Case. Cro. 1. Part, 167.

8. Certiorari was prayed to remove Indictments taken in Wales of Ryots; And it was granted by the Court, there being divers Presidents shewed to that purpose. And in that Case, it was said by Dodd. Justice, That if Debt be brought against one in London, and the Defendant afterwards removes and Inhabites in Wales, a Capias ad satisfaciendum may be awarded against him into Wales, or into any other County Palatine. And he said, That the Register makes mention of a Certiorari to remove a Record taken at Collice, Trin. 16 Jac. in B. R. Sir John Curwens Case. Cro. 2. Part, 414. See Mich. 10 Jac. in B. R. in Hall and Rabbards Case. Bulstr. 2. Part. 55. where two Witnesses were bail for one in B. R. and a Judgment was for the Plaintiff, and a Capias ad satisfaciendum was awarded into Wales against the Bail. And so, where an Action of Debt upon a Bond, the Action was layed in Herefordshire; and upon Nihil dicit, a Verdict and Judgment and Execution directed to a Sheriff of Wales, of the County of Radnor. The Sheriff returned, That Breve Regis there non currit: He was amerced for his ill Return 10 l. and adjudged, That the Execution awarded into Wales, was good. Mich. 11 Jac. in B. Wills and Teſtaments.

what they are; What Perſons may make them; The ſeverall ſorts of them: Where, and what ſhall be a ſufficient will to paſſe Lands or Goods; And where Wills ſhall be void, and for what Cauſes: And of Revocation of it; where good, & e contra.

A Will or Teſtament is by moſt men taken to be Voluntatis noſtræ juſta ſententia de eo quod quis poſt mortem ſuam fieri velit, cum Executoris inſtitutione; which two are ſo Relative and Reciprocall, that the one cannot be without the other; for, if there be no Will, there is no Executor; and if no Executor, there is no Will. See Plow. Com. 185. in Woodward and Dareyes Caſe. But this muſt be intended of a Teſtament only which concerneth Goods and Legacies, and not of Lands; for Lands are not Teſtamentary, nor hath the Executor any thing to do or intermeddle therewith; but a Will of Lands may be good if it be in Writing, though no Executor be named; but this is by reaſon of an Act of Parliament enabling to diſpoſe Lands by Will in writing.

1. All Perſons, as well Males as Females, but ſuch as are prohibited by Law, may make Teſtaments, if they have not defect in their minds, or Underſtandings, Memories, &c. Mad-folks, Idiots, or thoſe of ſuch Quality, cannot make a Teſtament; no more can thoſe who are hindered by Deafneſs or Dumbneſs, unleſs it be in ſome ſpeciall Caſes: Alſo ſuch as are prohibited by Law, and have no Eſtate, or Ability; as Traytors, Felons Convict, Perſons Outlawed, &c. who have not any Goods or Property in them, cannot make Wills or Teſtaments. See the Caſes following. See Paſch. 4 Ma. Dyer, 143. acc.

2. A. Executor of J. S. brought an Accompt againſt B. as Receivor of the Moneys of the ſaid J. S. Upon Ne unq; Receivor pleaded: It was found for the Plaintiff, and Judgment given that he ſhould Accompt; and being in Cuſtody upon a Capias ad Computandum; he was found in Arrearages, and his Body taken in Execution. Afterwards the Will was made void in the Spiritual Court, becauſe that the ſaid J. S. was an Ideot à Nativitate, which was Certified by Writ into the Chancery, and from thence by Mittimus into the Kings Bench: B. thereupon brought an Audita Querela, ſetting forth all the ſaid matter upon which the Executor did demurr. Trin. 3 Eliz. Dyer 203. See Cook 8 Part, 143. in Dr. Dravie's Caſe: It was ſaid by Cook, That in 35 H. 8. It had been adjudged, That in that Caſe, the Audita Querela did well lye.

4. The Marqueſs of Wincheſter, as it was ſuppoſed by his Will in writing, deviſed diverſe Manors to his reputed Sons; and deviſed further, That diverſe Manors ſhould be ſold by them, and bequeathed diverſe Legacies and Plate to them. This Will was endeavoured to be proved in the Prerogative Court; and becauſe it appeared by Circumſtances, That the Marqueſs was not of ſane memoria at the time of the making of the ſuppoſed Will; It was moved in the Kings Bench to have a Prohibition; and the reaſon was, becauſe a Will concerning Lands, and a Will concerning Goods were mixt together; and if they ſhould proceed there concerning the Goods, the ſame would prevent the Tryal in B. R, where a Will of Land ſhall be tryed; and therefore a prohibition in that Caſe was generally awarded. 2. It was Reſolved in that Caſe, When the Teſtator, when he makes his Will, he ought to be of a Memory not only to anſwer to ordinary and familiar Queſtions; but he ought to have a diſpoſing Memory, ſo as he is able to make a Diſpoſition of his Lands with Underſtanding and Reaſon, and that is ſuch a Memory which the Law calls ſane memoria. Trin. 31 Eliz. in B. R. Cook 6 Part, 23. The Marqueſs of Wincheſter's Caſe.

5. If Debt be brought againſt an Executor, and he pleadeth, That his Teſta or was, and dyed Outlawed; It was holden in that Caſe, That this doth not prove a Nullity of the Will, for then he might have pleaded, That he was never Executor; but it tends only to this, That no Goods did come to his Hands for ſatisfaction of the Teſtators Debts, by reaſon of the Outlawry. See 49 E. 3. 5. 29 Aſſ. 63. 33 H. 6. 27. acc. and yet it hath been lately holden, That Debts upon Contract, where the Defendant might wage his Law, are not forfeited by Outlawry, no more then uncertain damages for Treſpaſſe in Battery, falſe Impriſonment, &c. 16 E. 4. 7. See Cook 2 Part, 95. contrary in Slade's Caſe.

6. A man took Notes of a Will of one who lay Sick, and afterwards he drew up the Will in writing; writing; but before he ſhewed the perſon to him who was Sick, he dyed. Yet it was the Opinion of the whole Court, That the ſame was a good Will within the Statute of 32 H.8. to convey Socage Land. Trin. 6 E.6. Dyer 72. So was it adjudged in 4 & 5 Eliz. in Hinton's Caſe, Where Articles were read to the Deviſor concerning the diſpoſition of his Lands, and the Articles were written and engroſſed after his Death; and yet it was a good Will within the ſaid Statute of 32 H. 8.

7. A man intended Land to J. S. for Life, the Remainder to J. D; and before the Remainder was written, the Deviſor dyed: It was the Opinion of the Court, That the ſame was a void Deviſe for the whole Lands within the Statute of 32 H. 8. becauſe that the one did depend upon the other. But in that Caſe, It was holden, That if a man ſeiſed of two Acres, intends one of them to J. S, and the other to J. D; and the Deviſe to one is written, but the Deviſor dyeth before the Deviſe of the other Acre to the other is written; It is a good Deviſe for the Acre which is written, and not for the other Acre. Trin. 11. Jac. in C. B. Caſar and Lake's Caſe adjudged accordingly.

8. In a Replevin upon Evidence given, the Caſe was this, J. W. was ſeiſed of the Lands in Queſtion, and of diverſe other Lands, and by his laſt Will deviſed all his Lands and Tenements to A. W. of London in Fee, and after and before his Death he made a Feoffment in Fee of the ſame Lands which he had deviſed to the ſaid A; and when he ſealed the Feoffment, he demanded and ſaid, Will not this hurt my Will? To which it was anſwered, That it would not: And he ſaid, If this will not hurt my Will, I will ſeal it, and then he ſealed it, and a Letter of Attorney to make Livery: The Attorney made Livery in ſome of the Lands, but not in the Lands in Queſtion; afterwards the Teſtator dyed. It was ſaid, That the Feoffment was a Revocation; For if the Teſtator had ſaid, That this ſhall not be his Will; then it had been a plain Revocation, and then the making of the Feoffment is as much as to ſay, That the Will ſhall not ſtand. But it was anſwered, and Reſolved by the whole Court, That it appeared, That the mind of the Teſtator was, That his Will ſhould ſtand, and when he made the Feoffment, this was a Revocation in Law; and here is no Revocation in Deed. For he ſaid, If this will not hurt my Will, I will ſeal it; and although that the Attorney made Livery in part, ſo as the Feoffment was perfect in part: yet for the Lands in Queſtion, whereof no Livery was made, the Will ſhall ſtand: For a Will may be effectual for part, and for part it may be revoked; and the Court told the Jury, That this was their Opinion, and the Jury found accordingly. Mich. 29 Eliz. in B. R. Gibſon and Plaiſtowe's Caſe, Goldeſb. 32, 33. See Owen 76. the ſame Caſe.

9. A ſeiſed of the Manor of Toby in Fee, and A. and his wife ſeiſed of the Manor of Hinton to them and the Heirs of their two Bodies lawfully begotten, upon an eſtate made unto them before Coverture for the Joyncture of the wife, the Reverſion to A. in Fee. Toby amounting to the value of two parts, and Hinton to the third part, both holden in Capite. A. by his Will deviſed the Manor of Toby to his wife upon Condition that ſhe ſhould not take her Joyncture in Hinton, with divers Remainders over. The wife by Parol waived her eſtate in Hinton, and agreed to the Manor of Toby: If it were a good Will and Deviſe for the whole Manor of Toby, or for part only, was the Queſtion. In this caſe amongſt other points it was Reſolved, 1. That the Deviſor had not power to Deviſe the whole Manor of Toby by the Statutes of 32 & 34 H. 8. becauſe the Deviſor was not a perſon having at the time of the making of his Will; and the Deviſe had not the Manor of Hinton; but he and his wife had it, betwixt whom there are no Moyeties, and ſo he was not Owner. 2. By the Statute the third part ought to deſcend immediately after the Death of the Deviſor; and in the principal Caſe, the Manor of H. was derived to the Wife until ſhe diſagreed; and it might be, that ſhe would not diſagree or agree within two years; and therefore it was Reſolved, That the Deviſe was not good for the whole Manor of Toby, but that the King ſhould have a third part of the ſame. Cook 3 Part. Butler and Baker's Caſe. See Paſch. 17 Jac. in the Court of Wards, Mountagu's Caſe, Lit. 65. acc.

10. Debt upon an Obligation, the Condition was, Whereas the Defendant had taken A. S. to wife, who was a widdow, being poſſeſſed of divers Goods; If he ſhould permit his ſaid wife to make a Will, and to diſpoſe in Legacies ſo much as ſhe would, not exceeding 50 l. and perform what ſhe appointed, That then, &c. The Defendant pleaded, That ſhe did not make a Will; whereupon Iſſue joyned, It was found, That ſhe made a Will, and thereby diſpoſed of divers Legacies, not exceeding 50 l. but that ſhe was a Feme Covert at the time of the making of the Will: In this Caſe, It was adjudged for the Plaintiff; For, although ſhe being a Feme Covert, could not in Law be permitted to make a Will to diſpoſe of any Goods without the Husbands aſſent; yet it is a Will within the intent of the Condition: for it was the intent of the Condition, That ſhe ſhould make a Will to that purpoſe, notwithſtanding the Coverture; and it is but her appointment, which the Husband Husband by his Obligation is bound to perform; and the finding that she was a Feme Covert, was not material. Mich. 5 Car. in B. R. Marlot and Kingman's Caſe, Cro. 1 Part, 159.

11. The Caſe in Chancery was this, C. E. the Teſtator, 15 Jac. made his Will in writing, and thereby deviſed Legacies to charitable Uſes, and to R. and W. his Brothers, viz. To one 100 l. to the other 1000 Land other Legacies to his Kindred, and made his wife his Executrix, and appointed his two Brothers to be joyned with her as Executors in truſt for his wife; Afterwards, 22 Jac. he ſent for ſeveral perſons to come to him: when they came, they demanded of him, What Friend he thought beſt to be his Executor, and to ſee his Will performed? and whether he truſted any perſon more then his Wife? He anſwered, That his Wife was the firſt perſon, and therefore ſhould be his ſole Executrix. Being then moved to give other Legacies to his Father, Brethren, and Kindred; He anſwered, he would not leave them any thing. But requeſted to J. S. his God-ſon 30 l. and being requeſted by his Wife to give him a greater Legacy, he anſwered her, Thou knoweſt not what thou doeſt; do not wrong thy ſelf, 30 l. is many in a poor Bodies Purſe: And the Teſtator did ſpeak theſe words, Animo teſtandi, & ultimam voluntatem declarandi; and all this was ſet down in a Codicill, and the firſt Will and that Codicill proved in Communi forma. Whether this Codicill was a Revocation of the Legacies given to his 2 Brothers was the Queſtion: It was Reſolved both by Civilians and by the Judges of the Common Law, That it was not a Revocation of the Legacies. Their Reaſon were, becauſe there was an abſolute formal Will made in his health, and there being no ſpeech made by him of his former Will, nor of the Legacies thereby deviſed; The anſwer to a doubtful Queſtion ſhall not take away the Legacies before deviſed: and his anſwering, I will not give them any thing: upon ſuch doubtful ſpeeches to nullify a Will adviſedly made ſhall not be permitted, without clear or perſpicuous Revocation or words which do amount to ſo much: And thereupon, upon this Opinion of the Civilians and Judges, The Lord-Keeper decreed the Legacies to the Brother, the Codicill having made no Revocation of them. Mich. 2 Car. in the Chancery, Eyres and Eyres Caſe, Cro. 1 Part, 37.

12. Upon Evidence in Treſpaſs, the Caſe was, A. made his Will in writing, and thereby deviſed his Lands to E. H. and her Heirs, and afterwards lying Sick, becauſe the ſaid E. H. did not come to viſit him; he affirmed, That E. H. ſhould not have any part of his Lands or Goods; It was the Opinion of the Court, That it was no Revocation of the Will, being but by Way of diſcourſe, and not mentioning his Will: but the Revocation ought to be by expreſs words, that he did revoke his Will, and that it ſhould not have any of his Lands given her by his Will. Paſc. 4 Jac. in B.R. Kirton and Simpſons Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 115.

13. A. ſeiſed of Lands in Socage, deviſed the ſame by word to his three Siſters. A ſtranger being preſent, recited to the Deviſor the ſaid words of his Will, and he did affirm them. Afterwards the ſtranger put the ſaid words in writing for his own remembrance, but did not read them to the Deviſor, who afterwards dyed. It was a Queſtion, If this Deviſe being reduced into writing modo & forma was good or not. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That the Deviſe was void. And Wray Chief Juſtice ſaid, That if he appoint A. to write his Will, and it is written by B. it is void. But if after he had written the Will, if he had read it to the Deviſor, and he had confirmed it, it had been a good Will. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Plaintiff being Heir at Law, ſhould have Judgment to recover the Lands againſt the 3 Siſters. Paſ. 30 Eliz. in B.R. Naſh and Edwards Caſe. Leon. 113.

14. The Caſe was, A. was poſſeſſed of a Term for years, and of goods and Chattels, and made his Will in theſe words, That if the Wife of the Deviſor would permit J. S. to enjoy ſuch a Term for the Term of three years next following, That then ſhe ſhould have all the reſidue of his goods and Chattels as his ſole Executrix. It was obj. That ſhe could not be Executrix, for ſhe is to be Executrix upon a Condition precedent to be performed before ſhe be Executrix, and where the Condition is impoſſible to be performed, and then ſhe ſhall never be Executrix. For where an Eſtate is to be created upon a Condition impoſſible to be performed, there the Eſtate ſhall never come in eſſe, and here the Condition is impoſſible: For how can ſhe ſuffer J. S. to enjoy the Term for three years next following, and the three years are not to be paſt before ſhe hath any power to permit or reſiſt, for till the three years be incurred, ſhe cannot be Executrix, nor before three years expired can ſhe have any Action as Executrix, for her authority doth not begin before the three years be expired. But it was holden by the whole Court, That although a Grant upon a Condition precedent doth not take effect untill the Condition be performed; Yet ſuch a conſtruction ought to be made in this Caſe, ſo as the Will of the Deviſor ought to ſtand. If the Condition had bin, That if the Wife will find meat and drink to ſuch a perſon untill his death, then ſhe ſhall be Executrix; ſhall not the Wife be Executrix till after the death of ſuch perſon? Truly yes, for otherwiſe ſhe could never be Executrix, which is againſt the meaning of the Teſtator; and it was not his intent, That the Ordinary ſhould commit Adminiſtration of his goods in the mean time. And the ſubſequent words prove directly, That the Teſtators meaning was, That his Wife ſhould be Executor immediately, untill ſhe diſturbed J. S. for the words are, If ſhe refuſe to ſuffer J. S. to enjoy the Term, then his Son ſhall be his Executor, which implies, That by a diſturbance made by the Wife, her Executorſhip ſhould ceaſe, and that the Son ſhould have it, which cannot properly be if ſhe were not Executrix from the beginning. 2. Where a Will may be revoked, countermanded, or changed; and what ſhall be a good revocation of the ſame. How doubtfull Wills ſhall be conſtrued. And divers Rules concerning conſtruction of Wills.

1. THE Lord Bou cher, ſeiſed of the Manner of O. and others in the County of S. made his Will, 3. Martii, 23 H. 8. and dyed the 19th day of the ſame Moneth. The Will was this, I beſeech the King to be ſo gracious to me, as for the 500 l. which I owe him, to accept, after the deceaſe of my Wife, the Manners of O. and D. in the Counties of S. to have and to hold, to him and his Heirs for ever, paying for the ſame to my Executors, over and above the ſaid 500 l. ſuch ſums of money as ſhall pleaſe his Highneſſe, towards the perfourmance of my laſt Will and Teſtament. Afterwards, between the making of this Will, and his death, viz. the 11th day of the ſame Moneth, his Feoffees at the requeſt of the ſaid Lord, did enfeoffe others to the uſe of himſelf for life, the Remainder to H. B. who was his Baſtard, and to the Heirs of his body begotten, the Remainder to his right Heirs. After the Statute of 27 H. 8. H. B. bargained and ſold the ſaid Manner of O. to J. S. in Fee, and ſuffered a Recovery to the uſe of the ſaid J. S. who entred and took the profits. And an Information of Intruſion was exhibited for intruding upon the ſaid Manner of O. with an Averment, That the ſaid L. Bourcher, and Katherine his Wife were dead. Upon which J. S. appeared, and demanded Oyer of the Will, and pleaded all the ſaid matter in bar, and prayed Judgment of the Information without taking averment of the life of H. B. or his Iſſue; upon which the Kings Attorney demurred in Law. It was in this Caſe, amongſt other points Reſolved by the Juſtices, That whereas after his Will made, his Feoffees by his commandment made a Feoffment to the uſe of himſelf for life, the Remainder to the uſe of a ſtranger, That the ſame was a countermand and Revocation of his Will, for that a Will cannot take effect untill the death of the Teſtator. Trin. 6 E. 6. Dyer, 74. the Lord Bourchers Caſe.

2. T. and A. his Wife were Joynt-Tenants in Fee, and 23 H. 8. they ſuffered a common Recovery, which was averred to be to the uſe of the Husband only: Afterwards in 24 H. 8. he deviſed the Land to A. his Wife for life, the Remainder over; but he dyed not till 37 H. 8. It was holden by the Juſtices to be a void deviſe, for the Deviſe was not within the Statute of 1 R. 3. to convey the poſſeſſion till the Statute of 27 H. 8. which transferred the uſe into poſſeſſion, and was a countermand of the Deviſe by drowning of the uſe in the poſſeſſion, and the poſſeſſion could not be deviſed, till 32 H. 8. which enables to Deviſe the poſſeſſion. But if there had bin a new publication after the Statute of 32 H. 8. perhaps it might have bin a good Will, and a good Deviſe. Paſc. 4 Ma. Dyer, 144. Triſtilians Caſe.

3. If a Feme-Sole make a Will, and afterwards ſhe taketh a Husband, the ſame is a Revocation thereof: For the making of a Will, is but the inception of it, and it takes not effect untill the death of the Deviſor, becauſe Omne Teſtamentum, morte conſummatum eſt; et Voluntas eſt ambulatoria uſque ad extremum vitæ exitum: And therefore it being no perfect Will when ſhe takes Husband: and after Marriage, her Will being her Husbands and ſubject to it by her taking a Husband ſhe hath wholly revoked the Will formerly made by her. Cook 4. Part, 61. in Forſe and Hembligs Caſe.

4. In an Ejectione firmæ brought, the Tenant pleaded, Not Guilty. And the Jury found a Special Verdict. And the Queſtion did ariſe upon the words of a Will, which were theſe, viz. I give to K. my Wife all the profits of my houſes and Lands lying and being in the Pariſh of B. and L. at a Street there called Brook-ſtreet. And the Jury found, That there was not any Village or Hamlet in the ſaid County called (Billing); which were the words in the Will; but that the Land ſurveyed by the Will to be a Deviſe, lay in Billing Street. It was the Opinion of the Court in this Caſe, That no mans verbal averment ſhould be taken, or admitted to be contrary to the Will, which is expreſſly ſet out in the Will. Trin. 6 Jac. in B. R.

Pary and Knellt Caſe. Brownlow, 1. Part, 131.

5. In Eyellions ſame upon a Special Verdict, it was found, That W. S. was ſeiſed of the Manor of S. in the Parith of S. whereof the Lands in Queſtion were parcel, and of other Tenements within the ſame Parith, and within a place known within the ſaid Parith, which is neither Town nor Hamlet, called E. in which the ſaid W. S. had a Tenement which was in the Tenure of one J. D. by Copy of Court Roll. Afterwards he deviſed to his Brother, All that new Tenement, with the appurtenances wherein J. D. dwelleth in E. The Queſtion was, Whether the Lands in S. appertaining thereunto ſhould paſs, or not. It was ſaid, That it ſhould paſs, for that the word Tenement refereth to his dwelling, which is in E. and not to the place where the Lands lye. Alſo it paſſeth by the word appurtenances. For although that Lands ſhall not paſs by the word appurtenances as ſome Books are: Yet it is otherwiſe in a Will, as of late it hath been adjudged in this Court in a Cambridgeſhire Caſe. The Court inclined to be of that Opinion, but gave no Judgment in the Caſe. It was adjourned. Mich. 31 Eliz. in B. R. Goldsbr. 109.

6. In Treſpaſs, It was found by Verdict, That J. D. ſeiſed of certain Lands, had Iſſue three children, viz. A. B. and C. and by Will deviſed, That after his debts paid, he giveth all his goods, Lands, and Moveables unto his three Children equally between them. There were two Queſtions in the Caſe. 1. What Eſtate the Children have by the Deviſe, whether Fee, or for life. 2. Whether they be Joynt-Tenants, or Tenants in Common. It was the Opinion of Popham and Clench Juſtices, That no Eſtate, but for life, paſſeth, if any Eſtate paſs, for it is doubtful if any Eſtate paſs or not; for the Will is, That after his debts paid, he giveth all his Lands, goods, and moveables; and therefore Popham conceived, That ſuch Lands as were lyable to Debts, ſhould paſs, and no others; For if the Deviſor had a Term, then it ſeemed to him no Land ſhould paſs: But admit the Lands do paſs, then they conceived, That if I Deviſe Lands to two equally divided between them, they are Tenants in Common. But if I Deviſe Lands to two equally to be divided between them by J. S. till ſuch diviſion be made, they are Joynt-Tenants, ſo here Land is Deviſed equally to be divided between them, that they are Joynt-Tenants quouſque the Diviſion, becauſe of the reference future. Mich. 31 Eliz. in B. R. Dickens and Marſh Caſe. Goldsbr. 182, 183.

7. It was found by Special Verdict in Eyellions ſame, That Sir Ed. M. and the Tenants, of a Piſcary in Fee, and held them in Socage, and by his Will in writing deviſed in this manner; I make my Will as concerning the diſpoſition and order of certain Annuities or Rents, to be iſſuing out of certain of my Lands and Tenements, viz. Whereas I have Lands in T. in the County of N. I will that my younger Children not married, viz. Ed. Tho. and Chriſt. &c. ſhall have ſuch ſeveral Annuities or Rents as be expreſſed in ſeveral Writings, ſigned with my hand, and ſealed with my Seal: And whereas my ſaid Lands are of greater value than the ſaid Annuities, I will, that if my Heir after my deceaſe pay the ſaid Annuities, that then my ſaid Heirs ſhall have the order and diſpoſition of my Lands as long as he ſhall perform my Will: And if my Heir do not perform my Will therein, then I will that my Executors and the Survivor of them ſhall have the order and diſpoſition of my ſaid Lands, to perform my Will: And if there be default in my Heir, that my Will be not performed, and alſo my Executors; then I will that all my Lands be to my younger Children during their lives: And made J. his eldeſt Son, and Ed. and Tho. and two others, his Executors, and dyed. They found, that he made writing of a Grant of 6 l. 13 s. 4 d. to Chriſt. out of all his Lands for life, with Clauſe of Diſtreſs, ſigned and ſealed by him: That J. his eldeſt Son paid it during his life, and had Iſſue E. and dyed: That E. aſſured the Land to B. the Leſſee for life: That the Rent was not paid by Ed. nor the Executors to Chriſt. and then E. the Son of J. dyed. In this Caſe, It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That this Will, deviſing ſuch Rents which are mentioned in ſuch a Writing under his Hand and Seal, was a good Deviſe in writing of the Rents themſelves. 2. That theſe being Rent charges by the Will, and the condition being to pay them according to the Contents of other Writings, It was a Demand; for otherwiſe the Eſtate ſhould be defeated, for it is payable in the Nature of a Rent, and not as a Collateral Sum. 3. That this Condition extended to the Heir of the Heir of the Deviſor, and ſo to every Heir, becauſe it is Nomen Collectivum. 4. That although the ſaid Sums were not Rents out of the Lands, nor payable by the Heir without Demand; yet Chriſt. the younger Son had not any Title, becauſe there ought to be default in the Heir, and in the Executors, before he could enter and there can be no default in the Executors for Non-payment, till notice be given them of the Non-payment of the Heir; wherefore no Notice being found to be given to the Executors, and that there was a default after, there is not any Condition broken, ſo as the younger Brother might enter to take advantage thereof: It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Hill. 2 Jac. in B. R. Molineux and Molineux's Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 144, 145, 146.

8. In Treſpaſs, the Caſe, Tho. B. the Grandfather, Tenant for years of the Lands, &c. having Iſſue two Sons: B. Father to the Plaintiff, and L. the Defendant, deviſed his Term to his Wife for life, and after her deceaſe to B. and L. and if they have no Sons, equally and joyntly together; but if it pleaſe God to beſtow upon them Male Children, then my Will is, that it ſhall be put out and reſerved to the uſe and profit of both their Sons jointly together, or to one of them, if they both have not Men-Children: And if it fall out they have no Iſſue-Male, then my Will is, That after the Deceaſe of my Son, it ſhall be to H.B. his Children; and made his Wife his Executrix and dyed: She aſſented to the Legacy and dyed. B. and L. enter having then no Children: B. three years after hath a Son the Plaintiff, who enters, and ouſted by the Defendant. The Queſtion was about the Expoſition of this Will, viz. B. and L. having no ſons at the time of the death of the Wife, and one of them having after a Son, Whether he ſhall ouſte his Uncle L. preſently, or ſhall expect untill his Uncle and Father be dead: It was Reſolved by all the Juſtices, That the Son born ſhall have it preſently, and that his intention in the Will was, that his two Sons B. and L. ſhould not have it if they had a Son, for his Care was rather for his Grand-Children, then his own Children. Trin. 8 Jac. in B. R. Blandford and Blandford's Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 394, 395.

9. In the time of Queen Mary, Bendloes Serjeant moved this Caſe: A man ſeiſed of Lands and Tenements in London, deviſed them by theſe words, viz. I will and bequeath unto my Wife A. my livelyhood in London for the term of her life; and that by this Will the Lands in London paſs to the Wife by this word [Livelyhood]. Note, for Brook Juſtice ſaid, That it was in ancient time uſed ſo in diverſe places of this Realm, and had been taken for an Inheritance; to which Dyer agreed. 5 Phil. & Ma. Sir Owen 30.

10. In an Action upon the Caſe for a Reſcous, The Caſe upon a Will was this: B. poſſeſſed of a Leaſe for years of two Meſſuages, made his Will, and by this he did deviſe both of them to E. his Wife for the whole Term, if ſhe lived ſo long, and remained unmarried: But if ſhe happed for to marry, then he deviſed to her his Dwelling-Houſe during the whole Term; and alſo I deviſe unto her an Annuity of 20 l. per annum out of the other Houſe, without limiting what Eſtate ſhe ſhall have in this Rent, and then he deviſeth this Houſe to one of his Nephews: There is a Proviſo in the Will, That if the Annuity be not paid unto her, but be in Arrear, that then it ſhould be lawful for her and her Aſſigns, into the ſaid Meſſuage to enter and diſtrein: Afterwards he makes his Wife his Executrix and dyed; The Wife proved the Will, and entred as a Legatee, and after took the Plaintiff to Husband, and dyed during the Term, and for Rent behind, the Husband the Plaintiff diſtreyned. There were divers Queſtions in this Caſe, 1. Whether there be any good Rent at all at the beginning. 2. Whether there be any ſufficient agreement to take this as a Legatee. 3. How long this Rent ſhall have continuance: Whether during the life of the Wife, or during the Term of years. This Caſe was oftentimes argued at the Barr, and after by the Bench: And the Court was divided in Opinion, being two againſt two, ſtil. for the main Point, viz. the time for the continuance of this Rent; and in ſome other Points they differed in Opinion. See Librum. But they ſaid, That notwithſtanding we do differ in Opinion, yet there is here Digitus Dei: For the Will here is not truly found, and if ſo, then it is to go to the Blood: By this Will the Plaintiff hath a good Right to the Rent, and ſo Judgment ought to be given for him. 3. Of Probate of Wills; and of divers other matters ariſing and concerning Wills and Teſtaments.

1. A Leſſee for years of Lands, by his laſt Will deviſed his Term to one whom he made his Executor and dyed, the Deviſee entred before any Probate of the Will, and held the land for a year and more with out any Probate, and then dyed. If his Executor or Adminiſtrator ſhould have the Term, or that the Ordinary ſhould commit Adminiſtration of the Goods of the firſt Teſtator, was the Queſtion. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That the property of the Term was lawfully in the Executor by his Entry, and the Deviſe well executed without any Probate. Mich. 22 Eliz. Dyer, 367.

2. Note, It was Reſolved by all the Juſtices of England, That the Releaſe of a Debt or a Duty by an Enfant Executor, after Probate made of the Will, is not good, becauſe it ſhould be a Devaſtavit, and and charge the Enfant of his own Goods, and alſo it ſhould be a wrong which an Enfant by his Realſe cannot do, and alſo becauſe it is not purſuant to the Office of an Executor. Hill. 26 Eliz. in B. R. Cook 5. Part, Roſſil's Caſe, 27. And ſee ibid. 28. That an Executor before Probate of the Will may Releaſe an Action, but he cannot bring an Action before Probate of it. Harriſon's Caſe.

3. In Debt againſt Executors, It was Reſolved, That if any of the Executors refuſe before the Ordinary, yet he that refuſed may adminiſter the Goods of the Teſtator at his pleaſure, and prove the Will; but if all the Executors do refuſe before the Ordinary, there Adminiſtration ſhall be granted, and they cannot after adminiſter. 2. That in Debt brought againſt an Executor, it is a good Plea, That the Teſtator made him and another Executor, who is alive not named, without ſaying that the Teſtament is proved. 3. Reſolved, That the Probate of Wills and Teſtaments did belong to the ſpiritual Courts but of late times, and that they had not the Power thereof by the Spirituall Law; for the Lords of Mannors had the Probate of Wills in their Courts; and in ancient time when a man dyed Inteſtate, and had made no diſpoſition of his Goods, the Truſt of them was committed to the King, who was and is Patres Patriæ. But the Ordinary was conſtituted by the King in loco Parentis, and his Power was given to him by the Statute of 31 E. 3. cap. 11. by Conſent of the King and Parliament. 4. Reſolved, That although that the Ordinary had the Power given to him as before, yet no Power thereby is given to the Ordinary to ſell or diſpoſe of the Goods either to his own uſe, or to the uſe of any other, and that he hath not any abſolute property in the Goods, but a property only ſecundum quid. See Cook 9. Part, 37, 38. in Henſlow's Caſe.

4. A Prohibition was prayed, to ſtay a ſuit for the Probate of a Teſtament concerning Lands and Goods, wherein the Land was charged with a condition in part for Payment of certain Legacies, and it being provided, That they ſhould not meddle with the Probate quoad the Lands: It was prayed to have a Conſultation, Jones and Berkley Juſtices agreed that they ſhould have a Conſultation, becauſe the Probate of Teſtaments properly belongeth to the Spiritual Court; and the Probate or Non-Probate cannot be any prejudice to the heir, nor to him who claims the Land by the Deviſe, and the Will being entire cannot be ſtayed in part, and if there ſhould be no Probate, the Executors might not have Actions for Debts, nor diſpoſe of the Goods. See Cook 6. Part, 23. the Marquels of Winchſter's Caſe; There a Conſultation in ſuch Caſe was awarded. Crook Juſtice doubted of it, becauſe the Land is the principal, and they have not any Authority to entermeddle with any Will which concerneth Land. But yet afterwards a Conſultation was awarded. Mich. 10 Car. in B. R. Nutter and Brett's Caſe, Cro. 1. Part, 284, and 287.

5. Sir R. Rowly made the Lord Keeper, Sir Robert Catline, and the Maſter of the Rolls, his Executors, and did deviſe a Term to Sir Robert Catline, & dyed, & they writ their Letters to the Ordinary, certifying that they were made Executors, but that they could not attend the executing of the Executorſhip, and therefore they required him to commit the Adminiſtration to the next of Kin. The Ordinary enters in the Regiſter, Quod Executores prædicti per Teſtamentum prædict. diſtulerunt &c. and thereupon committed the Adminiſtration over: Afterwards the Lord Catline received the Rent of the Farms, and granted it to a Stranger. The Adminiſtrator ouſted the Leſſee, whereupon he brought an Ejectment, and if this Writing was a Refuſall in the Executor or non, was the Queſtion. It was argued by Ford, Doctor of the Civill Law, that it was a Refuſal; and he ſaid, that if Legatees being Executors do refuſe to prove the Will, yet by the Civill Law they ſhould have their Legacies. But it was adjudged by the Court, That if the Legatees do refuſe to prove the Will, that by the Common Law, they have no remedy for their Legacies; for by the refuſal, there is a dying inteſtate, and then nothing could be deviſed. Alſo they ſaid, That this Writing was a refuſal of the Executors, ſo as the Ordinary might preſently commit Adminiſtration; And therefore that Sir Robert Catline could take nothing as a Legatee. 31 Eliz. in C. B. Sir Robert Catlins Caſe. Owen 44.

6. This Caſe was argued before the Lord Treaſurer privately, and the parties agreed to refer themſelves to the Opinions of Wray and Anderſon, Juſtices. The Caſe was, The Earl of Northumberland deviſed by his Will, his Jewells to his Wife, and dyed poſſeſſed of a Collar of S's, and of a Garter of Gold, and of a Button annexed to his Bonnet, and alſo of many other Buttons of Gold, and precious ſtones annexed to his Robes, and of many other Chaynes, Bracelets, and Rings of Gold, and pretious ſtones. The Queſtion was, If all theſe would paſs by the Deviſe under the name of Jewells. It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That the Garter and Collar of S's did not paſs, becauſe they were not properly Jewells, but Enſigns of Honor and State; and that the Buckle of his Bonner, and the Buttons did not paſs, becauſe they are annexed to his Robes, and were no Jewells. But for the other Chains, Bracelets, and Jewells, they paſſed ſed by virtue of the ſaid Will. 26 Eliz. the Earl of Northumberland's Caſe. Owen, 124.

7. A Prohibition was prayed to the Prerogative Court, to reſtrein their proceedings in proving the Will of Sir John Egerton, who thereby had diſpoſed of all his Perſonal Eſtate, and all his Real Eſtate, and had diſinherited his Right Heire, and gave nothing to his Grand-Children. The ground wherefore to have a Prohibition for the whole Will was, in regard it was intended to have a Tryall at Law, Whether it were a Will or not: And if they ſhould be ſuffered to proceed, and prove the Will there, and to allow it there for the Perſonal Eſtate, it would be a very great Evidence to induce the Jury upon a Tryal to paſs for the Will: To prevent which prejudice at the Tryall the Prohibition was prayed for the whole. It was further ſhewed, That Sir John Egerton's Daughters during the ſuit for the Probate of the Will, had taken Letters of Adminiſtration out of the Prerogative Court for the Perſonal Eſtate, by which they had in a manner diſallowed of the Will. The Court conceived this to be very ſtrange, and therefore granted a Prohibition for the whole both for Lands and Goods: In this Caſe this difference was taken and agreed by the whole Court, That where a Will doth contain in it Lands and Goods, the Court ſhall not grant a Prohibition for the whole in generalty: But if ſuch a ſpecial Caſe be alledged, That the party who made the Will was then De non ſane Memorie, a Prohibition ſhould there be granted for the whole. But ſuch a Prohibition is not to be granted in all Caſes; for then it would hinder the proceedings in the Eccleſiaſtical Court, which is not to be granted but in ſpeciall Caſes only. Paſch. 12 Jac. in B. R. Sir Rowland Egerton and Egerton's Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 348. See before Nettor and Brett's Caſe.

8. A man ſeiſed of Lands in A. had Iſſue four Daughters, A. B. C. and D. and deviſed all his Lands in A. to A. and B. his two Daughters, and made them his Executrix. Afterwards he purchaſed other Lands in A; a Stranger was deſirous to purchaſe this Land of him newly purchaſed: And he ſaid, That that Land ſhould go with the reſidue of his Lands to his Executors, as his other Lands ſhould go. After, the Teſtator made a Codicill, and cauſed it to be annexed to his Will, but in the Codicil no mention was made of this Land: And Whether this new purchaſed Land ſhould paſs by the Will without a new Publication of the Will for this Land, was the Queſtion. It was holden by the Court, That this Land newly purchaſed ſhould not paſſe; for notwithſtanding that the readring of the Will, and the making of a new Codicil may amount to a new Publication, yet it doth not manifeſt the Intent of the Deviſor to be, That more ſhall paſs by that than he intended at the firſt; alſo the new reading of the Will, and the annexing of a Codicil may not properly be termed a new Publication, and without an expreſs Publication for this Land newly purchaſed, this Land ſhall not paſſe. Witneſſe and Witneſſes.

1. NOte, It was ſaid by Rolls Chief Juſtice, That although one who is a Legatee, by a Will, may not be admitted to prove that Will; yet he may be examined to prove a Deed, or any thing which hath not Relation to that Will in reſpect of the Intereſt which he claims by the Will. Paſc. 1653. in B.R. by Rolls Chief Juſtice.

2. Upon a Triall at the Barr, J. S. Counſeller at Law was examined upon his Oath, to prove the Death of J. D: It was thereupon prayed on the other ſide, That he might be examined as a Witneſs in ſome matters, whereof he had been made privy as of Counſell in the Cauſe. It was the Opinion of the Court, That he is not bound to make Anſwer for things which may diſcloſe the ſecrets of his Client's Cauſe. Paſch. 1654 in B. R. Waldos and Ward's Caſe.

3. In a Tryal at the Bar in Treſpaſs and Ejectment, Exception was taken to a Witneſs that was produced to prove the Leaſe of Ejectment, becauſe he had the Inheritance in the Land lett; but becauſe the Defendant did claim under the ſame perſon that the Plaintiff did, the Witneſs was admitted to be ſworn. Mich. 1655. in B.R. Fox and Swan's Caſe. Styles 480.

4. In the Starr-Chamber, Exception was taken to a Witneſs, viz. Dr. S. becauſe he had ſtollen Plate, and had been pardoned for it: But notwithſtanding the ſaid Exception, the Court did allow of the Teſtimony of the ſaid Dr. S. and in that Caſe, the Caſe of Cuddington was vouched, which was, Cuddington 44 Eliz. commiered Felony, and 1 Jac. by the generall Pardon he was pardoned; and & afterwards for calling him Thief, he brought his Action: It was the Opinion of the Juſtices that the Action would lye, being upon a general Pardon, becauſe it was not known whether he committed the Felony or not; but if it had been a particular pardon, then they were of Opinion that the Action would not have lyen. Paſch. 21 Jac. in Cam. Stel. Sir Henry Finets Caſe. Godbolt. 288.

5. Note, It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That the Defendant's Anſwer in an Engliſh Court is a good Evidence to be given to a Jury againſt the Defendant himſelf, but it is no Evidence againſt other parties; and in this Caſe, It was ſaid by them, That if an Action be brought againſt two men, and at the Aſſiſe the Plaintiff proceedeth againſt one of them only: In that Caſe, he againſt whom the Plaintiff did ſurceaſe his ſuit, may be allowed to give Witneſs and Evidence, in the ſame Cauſe; and it was further agreed by the Juſtices, in the ſaid Caſe, That if the party cannot find his Witneſs to give Teſtimony vivâ voce, then he is as it were dead unto him, and his Depoſition in an Engliſh Court betwixt the ſame parties, Plaintiff and Defendant, may be allowed to be read to the Jury, ſo as the party do make Oath that he did his endeavour to find his Witneſs, but he could not ſee nor hear of him. 6. In the Caſe in Chancery between the Lord Abigny Plaintiff, and the Lord Clifton Defendant, concerning a Promiſe ſuppoſed to be made by him of aſſurance of Land upon the Marriage of his Lady, being Daughter and Heir of the Lord Clifton and his Lady: The King by his Letters under his Signe manual, Certified to the Lord Chancellor, the manner and ſubſtance of the Promiſe, as it was made to his Majeſty, in regard whereof his Majeſty gave to the Lord Abigny 1800 l. in lieu of 1000 l. per annum, which he had promiſed; which Certificate was allowed of upon the hearing for a ſufficient Teſtimony and Proof of ſo much. Mich. 9 Jac. in the Chancery, the Lord Abigny and the Lord Clifton's Caſe. Hobart. 213. See Trin. 10 Jac. in the Caſe between Henry Lea and Sir Henry Lea, concerning Title to certain Lands: And the King being informed thereof, Sir Henry Lea promiſed, That if he would not moleſt him for any of the ſaid Land, that then he would give him 200 l. per annum; and being ſued for not performance of that Promiſe: The King certified the Promiſe into the Court under his Seal, and it was holden to be a ſufficient Teſtimony and Proof of the Promiſe, whereupon a Decree was made for the performance thereof. Trin. 10 Jac. in the Court of Requeſts, and after in C. B. Sir Henry Lea and Lea's Caſe. Godbolt, 199.

7. Note, It is taken for a Rule in Law, That a man cannot be Witneſs in his own Cauſe, for that the Law preſumeth a man will ſpeak for his moſt advantage; and hence it is that the party to an Uſurious Contract ſhall not be admitted to be a Witneſs againſt the Uſurer, for then in effect he ſhould be Witneſs in propria Cauſa, and ſhould avoid his own Bond and Aſſurances, and diſcharge himſelf of the Mony borrowed; and although that commonly he raiſeth up an Informer to exhibite the Information, yet in truth he himſelf is the Informer: and ſo it is that he who hath a Right in the thing in Demand cannot be a Witneſs, for that he is a party in the Intereſt. Cook 1. Part, Inſtit. M. ch. 8 Jac. in B. R. Smith's Caſe, adjudged, &c.

8. Note, It was holden by the two Lord Chief Juſtices in the Star-Chamber, That the Tenants of the Manner of G. claiming Tenant's Right, being impeached by the Plaintiff, Lord of the Manner, who ſuppoſed their Eſtates to be void in Law, that they might all joyn in a quiet and peaceable manner in defence of the Cauſe, being common to them all, and therefore though ſome particular perſons were ſued, yet they might defend the Suit upon the common Charge; and the reaſon was, that ſince the Title was one againſt all, it was in effect but one Defence and one Defendant, for the Tryall of one man's Cauſe tryed all; and therefore the Juſtices ſaid, That the Courts of Juſtice do every day deny them to be Witneſſes one for another in ſuch general Caſes, as in Caſes of Common, Modus Decimandi, and the like. And the Caſe of Mich. 14 Jac. of Dutch and Bettiſton was vouched, where the Queſtion being between the Plaintiff and Defendants, Tenants of the Lord Norris of the Manner of D. for Common claimed, although the Action was between him and one of them, upon a particular Cuſtome laid for his Tenement: Yet it was Reſolved, That they might all joyn, and maintain the Cauſe with their Purſes. Paſch. 14 Jac. in the Star-Chamber. The Lord William Howard, and Bell and others Caſe. Hob. 92.

9. If Wreck doth belong to the King, the party may have a Commiſſion to hear and to determine the truth of it, and that by Verdict of twelve honeſt men; for that no Proof is allowable in Law, but the Verdict of twelve men: And if it doth belong to another than to the King, then if the Owner cannot ſatisfy atisfy him who claimeth the Wreck, by his Mark, or Cocquet, or by the Book of Cuſtomes, or by the Teſtimony and Witneſs of honeſt men; then the Owner in ſuch Caſe may have a Commiſſion, or bring his Action at the Common Law, and prove the ſame by Verdict of a Jury. Cook 5. Part, 108. in Sir Henry Conſtable's Caſe.

10. A. was Indicted upon the Statute of Perjury, becauſe he was produced as a Witneſs for the King, upon a Tryal in an Information, and ſworn, &c. ſetting forth the Oath, and the falſity thereof: Exception was taken to the Indictment, That a Witneſs produced and depoſed for the King might not be puniſhed by way of Indictment, which is the Suit of the King; for he cannot puniſh his own Witneſs who ſwears for him. And ſo it was ſaid, It was Reſolved in the Starr-Chamber, That a Bill lyes not againſt him there upon that Statute; and of ſuch Opinion was the whole Court, That ſuch a Witneſs is not puniſhable by way of Indictment, whereupon he was diſcharged. Trin. 4 Jac. in in B. R. Price's Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 120.

11. In Debt, upon the Statute of 5 Eliz. The Plaintiff declared, That whereas he having a Suit depending in C. B. againſt J. S. in an Action upon the Caſe for words, wherein he ſhewed that he was a Suitor to the now Defendant, to have married (ſhe being a Woman of good Eſtate), That the ſaid J. S. to defame him and deprive him of the hopes of the ſaid Marriage, ſaid of the Plaintiff, That he hath a Baſtard by one A. S. Upon Not Guilty, a Niſi prius being awarded to be tryed at Glouceſter, the 21. of July following, he ſued a Subpœna directed to the Defendant to teſtify in the ſaid Cauſe, at the ſaid Aſſiſes, and that 17. July 4 Car. he ſhewed it to the Defendant, and left a Note with her of the day and place of Appearance, and delivered to her 12. d. towards her Expences and Charges; and promiſed unto her, that if ſhe would come at the ſaid day and place, and teſtify, he would give her ſo much pro expenſis & oneribus as ſhe ſhould reaſonably require, which Sum of 12. d. ſhe accepted of. Upon Nihil debet pleaded, It being found for the Plaintiff: It was ſaid that the Declaration was not good, becauſe the Plaintiff doth not averr that the ſaid 12 d. was ſufficient, otherwiſe ſhe is not to ſtir out of her Doors; and ſhe is not compellable to come to teſtify upon a Promiſe; and of ſuch Opinion was Brampton, Juſtice: But two other of the Juſtices held it to be good, when ſhe accepted the 12 d. and ſhe did not ſay ſhe would have more for her Expences. Quære, for the Caſe was not Reſolved. Hill. 13 Car. in B. R. Goodwyn and Web's Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 376. See Paſch. 15 Car. in B. R. Marſh, 18. the ſame Caſe adjudged, That the Action would not lye for want of Averment, that the Plaintiff was damnified by the not appearing of the Defendant.

12. In Hillary Term, 22 Jac. a Commiſſion was awarded to examine Witneſſes returnable in Eaſter Term following. The Commiſſioners began the Examination of Witneſſes upon Munday the 28th. of March, 1625. which was the day after the Demiſe of King James, and continued in Examination of divers Witneſſes, untill Friday following; at which day, and not before, having notice of the Demiſe of the King, they ſurceaſed: And Whether this Examination of Witneſſes and their Depoſitions, ſhould be ſuppreſſed, was the Queſtion: It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That the Depoſitions ſhould ſtand; for although legally, the Commiſſion was determined by the Demiſe of the King; yet the Commiſſioners having not notice thereof, and having examined concerning the ſame, they held that ſuch Witneſſes were duly ſworn, and their Depoſitions ſhould be allowed, eſpecially in a Court of Equity, where the proceedings be de jure naturali, and not according to the ſtrict Courſe of Law; and the Juſtices approved of the Courſe which was uſed in the principall Caſe, which was this, That the Witneſſes ſhould be called, and their former Examinations and the Interrogatories tendred to ſuch of them as were alive, and whether they approved of them, and not to examine them de novo. It was then propounded to the Juſtices, If any Witneſſes examined upon ſuch a Commiſſion ſhould be perjured, Whether they might be puniſhed by the Statute of 5 Eliz. for that Perjury: It was Reſolved by them all, that they might; for being examined before Notice of the King's Demiſe, what they did was Legall. Mich. 3 Car. in C. B. Sir Randall Crew and Sir George Vernon's Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 69, 70.

Wither-

V Withernam.

1. Withernam is the taking or the driving a Diſtreſs to a Pound, or other place out of the County, ſo as the Sheriff upon a Replevin ſued forth, cannot make delivery of the Cattle to the Party who is diſtreyned, and therefore in ſuch Caſe, he ſhall have a Writ of withernam directed to the Sheriff, for the taking of as many of his Beaſts that did thus unlawfully diſtrein, untill he hath made deliverance of the firſt Diſtreſs: Or Withernam is a taking and Repriſall of other Goods in lieu of them that were formerly taken and eſſoyned or with holden. F. N. B. acc. And this Writ lyeth for the Defendant as for the Plaintiff; for if the Defendant hath a Retorn awarded him, and he ſueth forth a Writ de Retorno habendo, and the Sheriff retorneth upon the Pluries, Quod averia elongata ſunt: In ſuch Caſe, he ſhall have a Scire facias againſt the Pledges, according to the Statute of Weſt. 2. Cap. and if they have nothing, then he ſhall have Withernam againſt the Plaintiff of the Plaintiff's Cattle. See 7 E. 4. 15. 13 H 7. 18. acc.

2. If a Replevin be ſued by Writ, and the Sheriff retorneth thereupon, That the Cattle are not to be found, then a Withernam ſhall be awarded againſt the Defendant: And if a Nihil be retorned, then an Alias, and Pluries Withernam, and thereupon an Exigent; and if he do at the Retorn of the Exigent find Pledges to make Deliverance, and be admitted to his Fine, then the Plaintiff ſhall declare upon an Vicore detent. and go to Tryal upon the Right of the Cauſe of Diſtreſs; and if it be found for the Plaintiff, he ſhall recover his Coſts and Damages; and if for the Defendant, he ſhall have a Retorno habendo: But if upon the Retorn of the Pluries Replegiare, the Defendant doth appear, then no Withernam lyeth, but he muſt gage Deliverance or be committed, and the Plaintiff ſhall declare againſt him upon an Vicore detent. And, if it be found for the Plaintiff, and the Cattle be not delivered, he ſhall recover the value of the Goods, and Coſts, and Damages; if for the Defendant, Coſts, and Damages, and a Retorno habendo ſhall be awarded. Rowl. 1. Part, 180.

3. It was moved to the Court as a Queſtion, If Beaſts taken in Withernam might be uſed and worked by the party as his proper Beaſts: It was ſaid by the Court, That Beaſts diſtreined, as Cows, could not be milked, nor Horſes wrought, but they ought to be put in Pound Overt, and there the Owner might milk them, and fodder them: But if Cows be taken in Withernam, becauſe they were delivered to the party in lieu of his own Cattle, he may milk them; or, if they be Oxen, or Horſes, reaſonably work them, otherwiſe he ſhould be at a great Charge in keeping and diſtreining of them, and have no profit or conſideration for it. Mich. 33 Eliz. in C. B. Chamberlain's Caſe. Leonard, 220.

4. In a Replevin the Plaintiff was Non ſuit; for which the Defendant had a Retorno habendo in Michaelmas Term Retornable, Oct. h. Hillarii: And the Writ was delivered to the Sheriff 29. Novemb. and the Entry of the Non-ſuit was, Quod poſtea, ſcil. 25. Novemb. the Plaintiff brought a Writ of ſecond Deliverance, Retornable Craſtino Purific. and at 8. Hill. the Sheriff Retorned the Retorno habendo, and that the Plaintiff had eſſoyned the Cattle, and the next day after the Purific. the ſecond Deliverance was Retorned. In this Caſe, It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That the Plaintiff in the Replevin ſhould recover his Damages, for that the ſecond Deliverance was to no other purpoſe, but to revive the firſt Plaint; and it was a Scire-facias to the Retorno habendo: Alſo it appeareth by the Entry, that the Retorno habendo was awarded to the Sheriff after the ſecond Deliverance prayed; in which Caſe the Sheriff had not power to ſerve the Retorno habendo, but the ſecond Deliverance: And the whole Court was of an Opinion, That it was uſuall to award a ſecond Deliverance in ſuch Caſe. Trin. 30 H 8. Dyer. Arnold and Bingham's Caſe, 41.

5. In a Replevin, the Plaintiff was Non ſuit, and a Retorno habendo awarded: Upon which Writ the Sheriff retorned, Quod averia elongata fuerunt per Vicecom. and upon that a Withernam was awarded, and upon the Withernam the Defendant had as many Cattle of the Plaintiffs delivered unto him, and thereupon the Plaintiff ſued a ſecond Deliverance. The Queſtion was, Whether he ſhould ſue the ſecond Deliverance upon the firſt Diſtreſs, or upon the Withernam: It was the Opinion of the Court, that the ſecond Deliverance ſhould be upon the firſt Diſtreſs taken, and not for the Withernam. See Paſch. 37 H 8. Dyer, 59. See F. N. B. 68 & 74. acc.

Upon a Pluries Replegiare, the Sheriff Retorned in Bank, Averia elongata, & quod nullum aliud Breve, &c. Upon that a Withernam was awarded, and according to that Writ the Sheriff Retorned, That the Plaintiff found pledges to proſecute and retorne; and that he took ſix Beaſts in Witherna.m which he had had delivered to the Plaintiff, quousq; &c. and that he had attached the Defendant. Both parties appeared, and the Plaintiff declared of the taking and yet detaining of the Cattle, and the value of them, and they were at Iſſue upon the property: It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That in that Caſe, the Defendant ſhould not gage deliverance, but the Plaintiff ſhould uſe the Cattle taken in Withernam. Note, It appeared in this Caſe by the Return, (quod nullum aliud Breve) that no Plaint was before the Sheriff; for the firſt Replegiare gave authority to him only, and no; the Alias or Pluries, for the parties have day in Bank upon the Return of the Replevin without a Pone. Mich. 3 Eliz. Dyer, 189.

VVords.

The Expoſition, Interpretation, Conſtruction, Reference, and Relation of them, in Writs, Bills, Bonds, Grants, Wills, and Teſtaments: And to what referred, or related: And divers other Matters and Things concerning words.

1. C. Deviſed his Houſe, in which J. S. inhabited, to his three Brothers; and the Houſe in which F. his Brother inhabited, to his ſaid three Brothers, and he to pay 30 l. to C. C. or otherwiſe to remain to the Houſe. Preciſo, That the Houſe ſhall not be ſold but go to the next of Blood being Male. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, in this Caſe, That it was an Eſtate Tail; and that theſe words [go to the next of Blood] ſhall be conſtrued to the moſt worthy perſon of the Family, being Male. Paſch. 16 Eliz. Dyer, 333. Chapman's Caſe.

2. Land was demiſed to A. for nine years, if he ſhould ſo long live; and if he dyed within the Term, that B. his Wife ſhould have it durante toto reſiduo termini prædict. The Husband dyed during the Term: It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That the Limitation of the Term was void, for the incertainty; and in that Caſe it was ſaid, That the word [Term] ſhall be taken for Intereſt, and not for the Time. See 35 H. 8. Br. Conditions, 203. Mich. 33 Eliz. in C. B. Green and Edwards Caſe. Leon. 218.

3. S. F. and two others were Indicted upon the Statute of 23 Eliz. of Recuſancy: The words were, Quod illi, nec eorum uterq; venerunt to any Pariſh Church. It was ſaid, That the Indictment was not good, for that [uterq;] doth refer unto one of them; and ſuch was the Opinion of Grammarians to whom the Conſtruction of the word [uterq;] was referred. The Juſtices ſaid, That the word [uterq;] was no unuſual word in our Law, and that the word uterq; doth amount to Quilibet. And ſee 15 El. Dyer, 327. Three Joyntenants in Fee, and by Indenture, Tripartite, each of them covenanted, and granted to the others, & utiiſq; eorum, to make an Aſſurance; and there it was holden, That the word uterq; doth amount to Quilibet. Mic. 33 Eliz. in B. R. Sheldon's Caſe. Leon. 141.

4. If the King, or a Common Perſon, grant Omnia illa Meſſuagia in tenura J. B. ſcituat. in W. whereas in truth the Meſſuages ly in D. It was holden in this Caſe, That becauſe the Grant is generall, and is reſtrained to a certain Town, the Parentee or Grantee, ſhall not have Lands out of that Town; becauſe the Pronoun [illa]; for Omnia illa Meſſuagia, referreth as well to the Town, as to the Tenure of J. B. ſo as if either of them fail, the generall Grant is void: for this word [illa] is not ſatisfied untill the Sentence be ended, but it governs the whole Sentence. Cook 2. Part, 33. in Duddington's Caſe.

5. Sir Thos Cheney in 1 Eliz. deviſeth to H. his Son, divers Lands, and to the Heirs Males of his Body, the Remainder to Thos Cheney of D. and the Heirs Males of his Body, upon Condition, that he, or they, or any of them, ſhall not diſcontinue, &c. The Queſtion in that Caſe was, Whether H. the Son ſhould be conſtrued to be within theſe words [he, or they]: It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That thoſe words ſhould not be conſtrued to have reference to the Grant made to H. his Son, but ſhould be conſtrued onely to extend to the Grant made to the ſaid Thos Cheney of D. Cook 5. Part, 68. The Lord Cheney's Caſe.

6. Treſpaſs by T. L. againſt J. R. and C. M. for impriſoning him five dayes: J. R. pleaded not guilty to four dayes, and to the other day pleaded a Juſtification, upon which they were at Iſſue: Afterwards C. M. pleaded a Juſtification, upon which an Iſſue was taken. A Venire facias was awarded in theſe words, Ideo quoad triandum tam exitum iſtum, quam prædict. alium exitum, inter prædict. T. & præfatum J. R. ſuperius mentionat. Præceptum eſt Vicecomiti, &c. It was excepted unto, That this award of the Venire facias was inſufficient, as being being uncertain, and could not be applyed to all: But the Opinion of the Court was, That it was good, becauſe that the word [Exitus] may reſpectively ſerve for all, reddendo ſingula ſingulis. See Leigham and Rowes Caſe, in C. B. Hobart, 66. acc.

7. The Queen ſeiſed of the Rectory of L. had Portion of Tythes belonging to it; and by her Letters Patents granted unto A. and B. totam illam portionem Decimarum in L. in Com. N. cum duabus aliis Decimis in L. in dict. Com. N. tunc in occupatione J. S. And further by her Letters Patents granted, That her ſaid Letters Patents ſhould be in force againſt the Queen, her Heirs, and Succeſſors, notwithſtanding the ill naming or reciting of the ſaid portion of Tythes, &c. And in this Caſe, it was Reſolved, 1. That theſe words (illam portionem) were not ſatisfied untill it came to the end of the ſentence, and that refers to the Occupation of J. S. for that is uſed to reduce the intention of the Kings Grant to a certainty. 2. Reſolved, That the word (Portio) ſignifies a part or portion in groſs divided, and not parcel of the Rectory of L. and the Kings Grant ſhall not extend beyond the Kings intention, and the expreſs meaning of his Grant, Cook 4. Part. Bozouns Caſe. Mich. 27 Eliz. in B. R. Futter and Bozouns Caſe. Godbolt, 39. acc.

8. An Appeal of Maim was, That percuſſit ſuper manum dextram, viz. inter manum dextram et brachium dextrum. Exception was taken to this Indictment, that it was repugnant. For if it was inter brachium et manum dextram, then it could not be ſuper manum dextram. But it was holden good enough, becauſe it ſaith ſuper manum dextram, and the Indictment is ſufficient in matter, and it being upon the Wriſt, it is upon the riſing of the hand. Mich. 29 Eliz. in B. R. Godbolt, 67.

9. The Abbot of S did Grant annualem penſionem to B. ad rogatum J. S. illam ſcil. quam J. S. habuit ad Terminum vitæ ſuæ ſolvend. quouſque (ſibi) &c. de Beneficio proviſum fuerit. In this Caſe, it was holden by the whole Court in a Writ of Annuity brought, that the word (ſibi) did refer to B. the Grantee, and not to J. S. See 22 E. 4 9 The Abbot of Selbyes Caſe.

10. Error to reverſe a Judgment in C. B. in Ejectione firmæ; wherein the Plaintiff declared, de uno Meſſuagio, et uno Repoſitorio. The Error aſſigned was, That Repoſitorium was here put for a Warehouſe, which is a word incertain, and hath divers ſignifications: And therefore it was ſaid, That Ejectione firmæ de uno Repoſitorio was not good, and Ejectment ought to be of a thing certain, of which the Sheriff may give a Seiſin. The Court ſaid, That Repoſitorium is not properly a Warehouſe, but that in which a man repoſeth any thing. The Judgment was reverſed. Paſc. 17 Car. in B. R. Sprig and Rowlinſons Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 339. Maſſ. 96. the ſame Caſe.

11. Covenant againſt an Aſſignee of an Aſſignee for not repairing of a houſe. Inter alia, The Plaintiff declared upon a Leaſe; and being found for the Plaintiff, After Verdict, In Arreſt of Judgment, Exception was taken to the Declaration, becauſe the breach was aſſigned in ſuch a houſe parcel premiſſorum, and doth not ſay premiſſorum prædimiſſorum, and to him aſſigned; for in Leaſes there are divers things excepted, and it may be, that this is a parcel of the thing excepted. But the Opinion of the Court was, That the Declaration and breach aſſigned was well enough, for premiſſa ſhall be intended prædimiſſa et aſſignata, and ſhall not be extended to any Lands not dimiſſa. Hill. 6 Car. in B. R. Congham and Kings Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 161.

12. In Ejectione firmæ, the Caſe was; An Abbot 21 H. 8. made a Leaſe for Octogiata et Terdecem annos. The Queſtion was, Whether Terdecem ſhould be ſaid, Thirty, or Thirteen years. It was ſaid it ſhould be Thirty years, becauſe it ſhall be taken moſt ſtrong againſt the Leſſor. But the Court was of Opinion, That it ſhould be taken according to the common parlance for 13 years, for Terdecem, and Treſdecem are all one; and it is ſo writ Euphoniæ gratia, and it being one entire word, it cannot otherwiſe be taken. But if it were written as ſeveral words, then it ſhould be otherwiſe. Hill. 9 Car. in B. R. Hopewell and Searls Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 281.

13. Error of a Judgment in C. B. in Debt upon an Obligation. The Condition was, That if the Obligor accepted of a Leaſe by Indenture of ſuch Lands as the Plaintiff ſhould requeſt, and ſealed a Counterpart thereof, that then, &c. The Defendant pleaded, That the Plaintiff did not requeſt him to accept a Leaſe. The Plaintiff replyed, That he cauſed an Indenture of a Leaſe to be drawn according to the ſaid Condition, and to be engroſſed, and a Label to be affixed thereunto cum cera aſperſa, and required and offered to deliver to the Defendant to accept thereof, and he refuſed. Upon Error brought, it was aſſigned for Error, That it was cum cera Labello annexa, and cera is no Latine word for Wax, but ſignifies a Lock. But it was diſallowed by the Court, for that cera may be well intended for Wax ſecundum ſubjectam materiam. The Judgment was affirmed. Trin. 19 Car. in B. R. Lee and Ruſſell's Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 405.

14. Debt upon a Demiſe of a Meſſuage with a Sheep-walk, the Latine word being [Ovile]. It was holden by Doddridge Juſtice in this Caſe, That by the word (Ovile), although it be tranſlated in Engliſh a Sheep-walk, yet a Sheep walk did not paſs by it, but a Sheep-Cote; and by that the Land it ſelf did paſs. Hill. 16 Jac. in B. R. Hurſton and Woodcock's Caſe. Godbolt, 273.

15. The Sheriff made a Warrant to four men et cuilibet eorum quod ipſi caperent J. S. Two of the four Arreſted J. S. and J. S. promiſed J. D. at whoſe requeſt and ſuit he was taken, That if he would diſcharge him of the Arreſt, that he would pay him 10 l. quando requiſitus &c. J. D. diſcharged him of the Arreſt, and brought Aſſumpſit for the 10 l. It was moved in ſtay of Judgment, That the conſideration was not good, becauſe the Arreſt was not lawful, the Arreſt being made by two, whereas the Authority given by the Sheriff ought to be by four or one only, and the promiſe to pay upon diſcharge of an unlawfull Arreſt is not good. But the Opinion of Gawdy and Yelverton Juſtices was, That the Arreſt was well made, for they ſaid, Warrants in this kind are not to be reſembled to other Warrants in Caſes of Authority, as to make or accept of Livery: For there a Warrant to three Conjunctim et Diviſim to make Livery, two cannot make Livery. So where three are bound, et quilibet eorum, the Bond cannot be ſued againſt two. But a Warrant to do Execution, or the like, ought not to be conſtrued ſo ſtrictly, for the intent of the Sheriff was to have the party Arreſted, and whether by all or two of them, Non reſert. Mich. 45 Eliz. in B.R. King and Hobbs Caſe. Yelverton 25, 26.

16. Note, It was ſaid, That the word (Subject) might have ſeveral ſignifications according to the circumſtances whereupon it is ſpoken. As ſubject generally without more, is to be intended of the Queen; but according to the Circumſtances, it may be ſaid, Subject of England, or Subject of Ireland, or ſubject to the Law, or ſubject to any other Authority or power ſet over him, or ſubject to his Affections. And there it was ſaid, That if a man ſaith of another, That he is a Subject, and therefore ought to ſerve the Queen in her Wars. And he anſwers, That he is ſorry for that, and is grieved for it, no Action will lye for this, becauſe the grievance refers to Service which is to be done, and not to ſubjection as a Subject. See the Earl of Shrewsbury and Sir Tho. Stanhops Caſe. Poph. 69, and 70.

17. Note, It was ſaid, That the word (ſcilicet) in a Declaration ſhall not make any alteration of that which went before. In Trover and Converſion, the Plaintiff declared, That he was poſſeſſed of goods, 1. Jan. 15 Jac. And that Poſtea, (ſcil.) the laſt day of May, in the year aforeſaid, loſt them, and that they came to the Defendants hands. Upon Iſſue joyned, being found for the Plaintiff, and this was moved in Arreſt of Judgment. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the (ſcilicet) was void, and the Poſtea good, Mich. 15 Jac. in B. R. Deſmond and Johnſons Caſe, vouched in Dicher and Molands Caſe. Mich. 2 Car. in B. R. Popham 204.

18. Debt upon an Obligation, the Condition was, That if the Defendant ſhould make compoſition with one E. for Lands, then he ſhould pay the Plaintiff 30 l. The Defendant pleaded, That he made no compoſition. The Plaintiff replyed, That the ſaid E. did grant to the Defendant a Rent of five Marks in Fee in ſatisfaction of his Title, which the Defendant did accept in ſatisfaction, &c. The Defendant proteſtando, that E. non Conceſſit for plea ſaid, That the Defendant did not accept of it in ſatisfaction, &c. The Opinion of the Court was, That it was a good plea; for it is no compoſition without conſent, which depends upon the acceptance, and the Grant is but at the moſt argumentative. Hill. 14 Jac. in C. B. Earl and Tuſts Caſe. Hob. 178, 179.

19. Note by Hobart Chief Juſtice, That the word (videlicet) or (ſcilicet), or in Engliſh, (That is to ſay) is neither a direct ſeveral clauſe, nor a direct entire clauſe, but it is inter media. It is not a ſubſtantive clauſe of it ſelf, and therefore you can neither begin a ſentence with it, nor make a ſentence of it ſelf by it, but it is Clauſula ancillaris, a kind of Handmaid to another clauſe, to deliver her mind, not her own. It is a kind of Interpreter, the nature and proper uſe of which, is to particularize that which was before general, or to diſtribute that which is in groſs, or to explain that which is doubtful and obſcure. Alſo it muſt neither encreaſe or diminiſh, for it is not the nature of it to give of it ſelf. As if I have in D. Black Acre, White Acre, and Green Acre, and I Grant unto you all my Lands in D. (viz.) (ſcil.) (or that is to ſay) Black Acre, and White Acre; yet Green Acre ſhall paſs: but if I add under the (viz.) (ſcil.) Land lying out of the Town of D. it ſhall not paſs. But yet on the other ſide (viz.) (ſcil.) may work a reſtriction where the former words were not expreſs and ſpecial, but ſo indifferent as they may receive ſuch a Reſtriction without apparant injury; though the former words by conſtruction of Law would have had a larger Leaſe if the (viz.) or (ſcil.) had not been. 7 E. 3. 9. One granted 10 l. of Rent in his Manner of D. to receive by the hands of one Tenant ſo much, and ſo from one Tenant to another, till he made up 10 l. ſaving his Seignory. The Opinion of the Court was, That this was but a Grant of ſeveral Rents of thoſe Tenants nants as Rent-Seck by this (videlicet), which had bin otherwise if he had left at the premises, without the (viz.) for then it would have bin a new entire Rent of 10 l. out of the whole Demeans of the Manner. But if the particular Rents had made but 5 l. that then the premises would have taken place, and the (viz.) or (scil.) had bin void. See by Hubert Justice. Hill. 12 Jac. in C.B. in Stukely and Butlers Case. Hob. 172.

20. A Prior seised of divers houses with the consent of his Covent, made a Lease of them for years, rending the yearly rent of 5 l. 10 s. 11 d. at the four Feasts of the year usual in the City of L. (viz.) for one house 3 l. for another 20 s. and for the other houses several Rents residue of the said 5 l. 10 s. 11 d. upon Condition, That if the Rent of 5 l. 10 s. 11 d. be behind in part, or in all at any of the said Feasts, that then the Prior and his Successors to re-enter. In this Case (amongst other points) it was Resolved, That it was one entire Lease, consisting upon several unities (scil.) 1. One Demise. 2. One Lessee. 3. One beginning. 4. One Term. 5. One determination. And 6. One Reservation of Rent in gross. And that the scil. afterwards did not make severance of it, but that that was rather a several Declaration of the values of the Land; and therefore it was Resolved, That it was one entire Rent by the intention of the parties. Cook 5. Part, Knights Case.

21. H. G. brought Debt upon an Obligation against H. D. Executor of J. D. The Condition was, That whereas H. G. had taken A. D. as an Apprentice; If the said A. should waste or consume any of his goods, and that duly proved by the confession of the said A. or otherwise, that then J. D. his Executors within three Moneths next after due proof and notice thereof given to him or them, should render him recompence. The Defendant pleaded, There was no proof made. The Plaintiff replyed, that there came 3000 l. to the Apprentices hands, whereof he had imbesled and wasted as much as came to 400 l. and that he confessed it by a writing under his hand. It being adjudged for the Plaintiff; and Error thereupon brought in the Exchequer Chamber, the Judgment was affirmed. For it was said, That although the word (Proof) put generally shall be understood by Law such a proof as is legal; that is to say by Jury: Yet when the party expresseth himself to mean and allow another form of proof that shall prevail against that that is but by construction of Law. Pasc. 14 Jac. in C. B. Gold and Deathes Case. Hob. 92, 93.

22. Debt upon an Obligation, to perform an Arbitrament between the Plaintiff on the one part, and A. B. of the other part, Ita quod arbitramentum predict. fiat et deliberetur utrique partium predict. The Defendant pleaded, That the Arbitrament was delivered to the one of the Defendants only. In that Case it was adjudged, That the Action would not lye: For it was Resolved, That this word uterque in this Case shall be taken collective; for that it is reason, that every one that is subject to the penalty and danger should have the Arbitrament severally delivered to him; and therefore in this Case it ought to have bin delivered to both the Defendants. Cook 5. Part, Hungates Case.

23. If a man deviseth Lands to his Son Tho. to have and to hold, to him and the Heirs Males of his body for the Term of 500 years, his Heir shall not have the Land, but his Executors, because that this Term is but a Chattel, and cannot be entailed, but such a Devisee may Allien the Term if he please. And it is but an Estate for years, because it is so in expres words Devised, and against expres words no inference or interpretation shall be admitted. Cook 10 Part, 880. in Leonard Loviet Case.

24. If a Rent be granted out of the Manner of D. and the Grantor further Granteth, That if the Rent be behind, That the Grantee shall distrein for it in the Manner of S. It was holden in that Case, That the same is no Grant of Rent out of S. but a penalty only in the Manner of S. because in this Case the Law needs not to make a Construction that this shall amount to a Grant of a Rent; For in this Case, The Rent is expresly Granted to be issuing out of the Manner of D. and the parties have expresly limited out of what Land the Rent shall issue, and the Law will not make any exposition against the expres words and intent of the parties. Cook 7. Part, 24. in Butts Case.

25. If a man be bound in an Obligation to stand to, abide, observe, &c. the Rule, Order, Arbitrament of J. S. yet may he after countermand it: For a man by his Act cannot make an Authority, Power, or Warrant to be uncountermandable, which by the Law, and of its own nature is countermandable. As if I make a Letter of Attorney to make Livery, or to sue one upon an Action in my name: Or if I do assign Auditors to take an Account, or I make J. S. my Executor; although that all these things by expres words, that they shall stand and be irrevocable: Or if I Grant, or am bound, That all these shall stand irrevocable. Yet notwithstanding that, they may be revoked. And so if a man makes his Will irrevocable, yet he may after revoke it: For that a mans Act, or his words, cannot alter the Judgment of the Law, and make that irrevocable which in its own nature is revocable. Cook 8. Part, 82. in Vincents Case.

26. Queen

26. Queen Eliz. made a Lease for years of Lands rendring Rent payable at the Exchequer at Westminster, seu ad manus Baliorum et receptorum, &c. without Condition to be void upon non-payment. Afterwards the Queen Granted the Reversion over in Fee. It was holden in that Case, That the Rent now ought to be demanded upon the Land. For it was said, That in the Queens Case, the limitting of the payment of the Rent at the Exchequer, or to the hands of the Bailiff, &c. is no more then what the Law would have ordered, if no place or person at all had bin named in the Letters Patents. So as such a limitation in the Queens Case operates nothing. Cook 4. Part, 73. Brough's Case.

27. In Trespass, the Plaintiff declared, That the Defendant had broken his house, and had taken away Quinque instrumenta ferrea Anglicè Fetters. It was moved in Arrest of Judgment, That Instrumenta ferrea was not a good expression in Latine, because there was a proper word for Fetters, namely Compes, so as it ought to have bin Quinque Compedes, or Quinque parium Compedum, and not as it is: for the word instrumentum may be used to signify any thing else with an Anglice added to it, as well as Fetters. The Opinion of the Court was, That it would be a hard thing to maintain the Declaration to be good, for that if it should be admitted good, it would bring in all Barbarism in pleading, and any senseless word might be used with an Anglice. But the Case was not Resolved, but adjourned. Trin. 23 Car. in B. R. Parker and Martins Case. Styles 37.

28. Note, for the construction of words in a Will, this Rule, That an Estate which by Rules of the Common Law, cannot be conveyed by Act executed in the life of the Devisor by apt words in the Conveyance, by advice of Counsel Learned in the Law, such an Estate cannot be devised by the Testator by his Will. As if a man deviseth Lands to another for ever, there the Devisee hath a Fee, because such an Estate by apt words may be conveyed by act executed, &c. But if he Deviseth further, That if the Devisee doth not such an Act, that another shall have the Land to him and his Heirs, because such a limitation is not good by any words at the Common Law, such Devise is void. Cook 1. Part, 85. in Corbets Case.

More Writs.

1. Writ, otherwise Breve, is termed in Law, the Processe that issueth out of the Chancery or other the Kings Courts, directed to the Sheriff, commanding him thereby, to Summon, Attach, &c. J. S. to answer the Suit of A, &c. But most largely, It is the Letter or Mandatum Domini Regis, whereby any thing is to be done, for the furtherance and doing of Execution and Justice between both parties; It is a very Compendious thing containing in it, the substance, and cause of the Action; Cook 3 Part, 44. in Bastons Case, 44. Dicuntur Brevia, propter eorum brevitatem. Or Cook 5. Part, 117. in Palmers Case, Quia rem breviter enarrat.

2. Writs; Some are Original, issuing out of the Chancery; Which see Register. Some Judiciall, issuing out of the Kings Courts. Some are Adversaria; Some Amicabilia, Cook 6. Part, 66. in Sir Moile Finch's Case. Amicabila, are such as are brought by Consent and Agreement amongst Friends. Adversaria, are such as are brought to force the party to do a thing, or to appear, or answer. There are six kinds of Writs which are called Brevia anticipantia, because they may be maintained quia timet, before Molestation, Distresse, or Impleading. As, 1. A Writ of Mesne before the Distresse taken. 2. Warrantia Chartæ, before the Impleading. 3. The Writ of Monstraverunt, before the Distresse, or Molestation. 4. The Writ of Audita Querela, before Execution be sued. 5. The Writ of Curia Claudenda, brought before the Enclosure. 6. The Writ of Ne injuste vexes, brought before the Distresse.

ſtreſſe, or Moleſtation. Cook 2. Part, Inſtitutes, 99, 100.

3. Of Original Writs; Some are Writs Patent; as the Writ of Right Patent, which lyeth of Lands and Tenements in Fee-ſimple, and is directed to the Lord, quod reſtituat Tenet. to the Tenant ſuch Land. Some, Writs of Right Cloſe, which are not Patent, but enclоſed in Wax: Of which, ſome lye for Tenant in Fee-ſimple, ſome for thoſe who have leſſer eſtate.

4. In a Writ of Droit Patent brought of Land, it is a good Plea for the Defendant to ſay, That the Demandant hath nothing in the Land but in taile, 5 E. 4. 2. And ſee 7 E. 4. 27. That he who claimeth but an Eſtate taile, cannot have a Writ of Right, if he leſeth in another Action.

5. A Writ of Right Cloſe of Lands, in London lyeth for none but for him who claims a Fee-ſimple: And ſo it is of the Writ de Rationabili parte, which is a Writ of Right, and lyeth between Privies in blood, and lyeth but of a Fee-ſimple. There are divers other kinds of Writs of Right: As, a Writ of Right of Cuſtomes and Services, which is called, or is in the nature of a Prohibition. A Writ of Right of Advowſon, which lyeth only for him who claimeth Fee in the Advowſon: for if Tenant in taile of an Advowſon recovereth by a Writ of Right, yet he ſhall hold but in taile: and in ſuch caſe, although he cannot properly have a Writ of Right of Advowſon; yet he ſhall and may have a Quare Impedit, and thereby recover taile. See Fitz. Tit. Judgment, 37. A Writ of Quo Jure, is a Writ of Right, and lyeth where another claimeth Common in his Lands; and lyeth only for Tenant in Fee-ſimple: and in this Writ, View lyeth, becauſe it is a Writ of Right, 5 E. 42. A Writ de rationabilibus diviſis, is a Writ of Right, which lyeth for Tenant in Fee-ſimple, againſt Tenant for life. A Writ of Cuſtomes and Services, lyeth for the Lord in Fee, in taile, or for life; and ſo doth a Writ of Droit Cloſe for Tenants in Ancient Demeſne, 48 E. 3. 27. acc. A Writ of Right Sur Diſclaimer, lyeth for none, but for him who claimeth Fee. Caſſavit, is a Writ which lyeth only by the Lord in Fee-ſimple, but it lyeth againſt Tenant for life, 20 H. 6. 46. And Note; That it was holden, 20 Eliz. in C. B. That Tenant for life, ſhould not have a Writ of Ceſſavit, becauſe it is in the Debet, which is in point of Right; and in the Salet, in point of Continuance. An Audita Querela, is in the Nature of a Writ of Right at the Common Law, to execute the Deviſe, M. 34 H. 6. 7. A Writ of Nativo Habendo, is a Writ of Right, which none ſhall have, but he who hath an Inheritance; and he ſhall have the Writ but once. Formedon, and Writs of Juris utrum, are Writs of Right in their Natures, becauſe they are the Higheſt Writs, which Tenants in taile, Parſons, Vicars, &c. can have. See more of what Writs of Right do lye; and of what Eſtate, and againſt whom, in the ſeverall Titles before.

6. A Writ of Right was brought by the College of All-Souls in Oxford, againſt J. S. And the Writ was, Quod clamat tenere de Nobis in Liberam, puram, et perpetuam Elemoſynam; Many Exceptions were taken to the Writ: As, 1. Becauſe it ought to be, in Liberam Elemoſinam, without the words, pura et perpetua. 2. Becauſe Elmoſina, was written with a ſingle E ſ whereas it ought to be ee. 3. Becauſe the Writ was, Quod Clamat eſſe jus et hereditatem ſuam, without ſaying; in Jure Collegii. But notwithſtanding all theſe Exceptions, the Writ, by the Opinion of the Court, was in all good. Trin. 31 Eliz. in in C. B. The Schollers of All-Souls and Tamworth's Caſe, 153.

7. A Writ of Right was brought; and the Writ was, Meſſuagium, et 200 Acr. pampinorum et bruera. Exception was taken to it, becauſe they were counted together; whereas they ought to be diſtinguiſhed ſeverally, as ſo many Acr. pampinorum, and ſo many Acr. bruera. And it was ſaid, That in a Writ of Right, we ought to follow the Regiſter; and in the Writ of Right in the Regiſter, the Writ was abated, becauſe the word Pomarium, was put in the Writ; for in the Regiſter there is no ſuch Writ, becauſe the word, Gardinum, comprehends it. But the Exception was diſallowed by the Court; for that it may be pampinorum et bruera, are ſo promiſcuous, that they cannot be diſtinguiſhed. Another Exception was to the Writ, becauſe thereby the Demandant did demand Duas partes Cuſtodiæ del Hay in the Forreſt of C: The Opinion of the Court was, That the Writ ought to be (being of an Office) de Officio Cuſtodiæ duarum partium de Hay; and not duas partes. Another Exception was, Becauſe it was not ſet down in the Writ in what Town the Forreſt of C. is; ſo as the Court doth not know from whence the Veniet ſhould come. The Points were not all Reſolved. Mich. 31 Eliz. in C. B. Salway and Loſeas Caſe. Leon. 169.

8. A Writ of Right of Advowſon was brought againſt A. B. and others, as Coparceners: Upon a Speciall Verdict by the Grand Aſſiſe, It was ſhewed, That the Tenants were Coparceners, and that one of the Defendants was dead after ter the Darrein Continuance before the Term, which was pleaded in abatement of the Writ. The Kings Attorney Traversed, That they were not Parceners: Upon which, it was Demurred. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Writ should abate: For all the Court agreed, That although that it were admitted, that they were not Coparceners, but Joynt-Tenants; yet the death of one of them should abate the Writ, suing in a Reall Action: And they said, It is not like to the Case of an Assise of Novel disseisin, or of an Assise of Mordauncestor, where the death of one shall not abate the Writ, as long as there is a Tenant living. Hill. 15 Car. in B. R. The King and Sir John Dryden's Case, Cro. 1. Part, 415.

9. Note; It was holden in the Court of Common Pleas, That if a man Presenteth by usurpation to my Advowson within 6. moneths, I may have a Quare Impedit; But after the six moneths, if the Church do become void, I cannot present, but am put to my Writ of Right of Advowson. And in that Case, It was holden, That if a man usurpeth upon the King, he is put to his Quare Impedit within the six moneths; and that a double usurpation upon the King, should put him to his Writ of Right; as 24 E. 3. in. But Quære of that; for that it hath often been Resolved to the contrary, That where the King hath a Right jure suo, that 20 usurpations upon him cannot put him out of possession. Mich. 13 Jac. in C. B. Godbolt, 263.

10. Note; That although properly a man cannot be said to recover Land from another, who never entred into the Land, nor ever had the Actual possession thereof; Yet, if a Pracipe quod reddat be brought, and the Sheriff return the Tenant summoned, whereas in truth he was not summoned, whereby the Tenant upon the Grand Cape returned, loseth his Land by default; In such case, The Tenant shall have a Writ of Discein, both against him that recovered, and also against the Sheriff for his false Return; and by such Writs of Deceit, the Tenant shall be restored to his Land again; and this Writ may be brought by the Tenant after Judgment, and before any Entry made into possession by the Demandant; for if the Tenant should not have the Writ before the Demandant entreth, it may be that the Demandant will not enter, until all the Summoners in the Pracipe quod reddat, Vouers and Pernors are dead, and so the Tenant be left without remedy to recover his Land. See Fitzh. Na. Br. 97. acc.

11. Errour brought upon a Judgment in a Second Deliverance; The Errour assigned was, That there was not any Writ of Second Deliverance certified; In nullo Erratum being pleaded, it was moved, That that was not materiall; For it is awarded upon the Roll, and the parties appearing, and pleading thereunto, it is not now materiall. But the Opinion of the Court was, That it was ill; And for that Cause the Judgment was Reversed; for there ought to be a Writ, and it vary in substance from the Declaration in the Replevin, it shall be abated. Pasch. 15 Jac. in B. R. Newman and Mares Case. Cro. 2. Par. 424.

12. A. T. Cosen and Heir of W. T. after the death of W. T. (because he had not any Son alive at the time of his death), but M. his Wife was supposed to be enseint by him; who died 15 Feb. 1623. (and she was married again to I. D. within a week after the death of her first Husband) procured a Writ de ventre inspiciendo of the said M. directed to the Sheriff of London, to cause the said M. to be searched, whether she were with child by the said W. T. Et quatenus sit pariturus. (no mention being made of her second Marriage in it;) The Sheriff returned in C. B. That he had caused her to be searched, and found her to be with Child, Et quod pariturus est within 20 Weeks: Upon that, a second Writ was prayed to be directed to the Sheriff of S. because she was removed thither with her Husband, and there Inhibited; That the Sheriff might take her into his Custody, and keep her till she was delivered of her Child; and that in the mean time he should cause her to be viewed every day by certain Matrons named by the Court in the Writ: And so it was said, it was done in the Lady Wingfield's Case, in 20 Eliz. But here in this Case, because she was a Feme Covert, who ought to cohabit with her Husband, The Court would not take such a Course with her, but left her with her Husband, he entring into a Recognizance, That she should not remove from the house wherein they then dwelt; and that one or two of the Women returned by the Sheriff, should every day see her, and that 3. of them should be present at her Travail. Note; Afterwards she was delivered of a Daughter, who by Inquisition was found to be a Daughter and Heir of the said W. T. Pasch. 22 Jac. Thacker and Duncomb's Case. Cro. 2. Part, 605.

13. In an Action upon the Case, the Plaintiff declared, That certain Goods of the Testator came to the Defendant's hands. Upon the Matter in Law, Judgment was given for the Plaintiff; And thereupon a Writ of Enquiry of Damages sued; And now the Defendant brought Error in the Exchequer Chamber upon the Statute of 27 Eliz. Cap.

Cap. 8. Note; The Judgment was given before the Statute; but the Writ of Enquiry of Damages was returned after the Statute, and the Statute doth not extend but to Judgments given after the making of it. It was the Opinion of all the Juſtices, and of the Barons, That the Writ of Error did well lye by the Statute; For in an Action of Treſpaſſe (as this Caſe is) full Judgment is not given till the Writ of Damages be returned; and that if before the return of it, any of the parties dyeth, the Writ ſhall abate; and that the firſt Judgment is not properly a Judgment, but a Rule and Order of Court. 2. In this Caſe, It was holden, That an Executor ſhall have an Action upon the Caſe de bonis teſtatoris caſually come to the hands of another, and converted to his own uſe in vita Teſtatoris. Mich. 32 Eliz. in the Exchequer Chamber. Ruſſell and Prats Caſe, Leon. 193.

14. Error of a Judgment in C. B. in Waſte, where upon default of the Defendant, a Writ of Enquiry of Damages was awarded: The firſt Error was, Becauſe the Waſt being aſſigned in two houſes, and 3 Gardens; upon their Enquiry, the Waſte was found in the Houſes and Gardens, and entire Damages found; whereas there ought to be ſeveral Damages found for every of them. But that was diſallowed by the Court, for that when the Sheriff and Jury have had the View, and found Damages for the Waſte, It ſhall not be intended petit Damages in any (as was Objected) and for that it is the uſual courſe in all Preſidents, to find entire damages. Mich. 11 Car. in B. R. King and Fitch's Caſe, Cro. 1. Part, 199.

15. Covenant in London, for not repairing of Hedges, and not plowing of Land in the County of H; Upon Nihil Dicit, a Writ of Enquiry of Damages was awarded to the Sheriffs of London, and the Writ Returned: It was moved, The Writ iſſued erroneouſly, becauſe it was not awarded to the Sheriff of H. where the Land lay. But the Exception was diſallowed, becauſe the Covenant was founded upon a Writing made in London. Mich. 4 Jac. in B. R. Smith and Batten's Caſe, Cro. 1. Part, 142.

16. Error of a Judgment in the Kings Bench; The Bill was Trover for 400 Buſhells of Pippins, and the Declaration was 40 Buſhels, and thereupon damages found 40 l: The Error aſſigned was, Becauſe the Writ of Enquiry of Damages varied from the Declaration upon Record, there being more in the Writ, than in the Record upon which the Judgment was entred. All the Juſtices and Barons held, it was Error, for that the Bill doth not warrant the Declaration, and the Judgment ought to be warranted by the Declaration on Record. And it cannot be amended, for that it is the Record to which the party was to plead. Mich. 19 Jac. in Exchequer Chamber. Clogdan and Taylor's Caſe, Cro. 1. Part, 194.

17. C. of Hertford, being expelled from being a Burgeſſe there, procured a Writ to the Mayor and Burgeſſes to reſtore him, or to ſignifie the Cauſe; Who returned, That he being Churchwarden, preſented one of the Burgeſſes malitiouſly, for being abſent from the perambulation, for which being reproved by the Mayor, He ſaid contemptuouſly, I care not for Mr. Mayor, nor any of his Burgeſſes; and for this cauſe he was expelled. It was the Opinion of the Court, That it was no cauſe of expulſion. Wherefore a Writ of Reſtitution of him was awarded. Mich. 16 Jac. in B. R. Clarke's Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 506.

18. W. being one of the Councel at Coventry, was removed, and had a Writ of Reſtitution. The Corporation thereupon returned, That they had a Cuſtome to elect any to be of the Common-Council, and to remove him ad libitum; and that W. was removed, &c. The Court was of Opinion, That it was a good Return: And the difference is, Where a man is a Freeman or Alderman, &c. there, they cannot remove him from his Freedome or place without cauſe; and in ſuch a Caſe, ſuch Cuſtome is void. But to be of Councel, is a thing Collateral to the Corporation, and there it is otherwiſe. It was then ſurmiſed, That he was Alderman: Whereupon a Writ of Reſtitution was awarded to reſtore him to his Aldermanſhip. Trin. 17 Jac. in B. R. Warren's Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 540.

19. An Aſſiſe was brought of the Superſedeas Office. The Kings Councel came into Court, and ſaid to the Judges, That the King did Greet them well: And as to this Aſſiſe, Jure Regali, being a thing which concerns the King and his Prerogative, that they were not further to proceed in this: And ſo delivered to them a Writ De ſuperſedendo interim proſequendo Rege Inconſulto. It was accepted of by the Judges. It was firſt doubted, Whether Councel for the Plaintiff might argue againſt his Writ brought: But that at length was admitted that they might do; and ſo afterwards learned Arguments were made on both ſides. But afterwards the matters were compoſed between the parties. But the Court agreed in this, That after allowance of ſuch Writ, that they could not proceed again, without having a Procedendo ad Inquiſitionem, &c. and a Procedendo ad Judicium, and without theſe Writs they could not proceed. Brownlow and Cox and Mitchell's Caſe. Paſc.

13 Jac. in B. R. Bulstr. 3. Part, 32, 33, 34.

20. In Waste, the Case was: M. D. seised of the third part of a Messuage, and certain Lands in B. in the County of W. in April. 9 Eliz. Demised them to S. W. for fourty one years, from Michaelmas next; who assigned it over to R. W. Afterward M. D. by Deed Inrolled, conveyed the Reversion to J. S. and his Heirs, the said J. S. being then seised of another third part thereof in Fee: After which, 17 Eliz. J. S. demised the said third part which was his before the Purchase to the said R. W. for 21 years, then next comming. Afterwards J. S. dyed seised of the Reversion of the two parts, and this discended to B. S. his Son and Heir, who 28 Eliz. Bargained and sold the same to T. H. and his Heirs. After which R. W. committed Waste, and T. H. brought an Action of Waste according to the said two several Leases, and assigned the Waste in a Hall and a Kitchin, suffered to be uncovered to his disinherison. Upon Nihil dicit, a Writ of Enquiry of damages was awarded, in which it was comprised, That the Sheriff should go to the place wasted, and there enquire of the damages. Who returned an Inquisition taken at B, without making mention that he went to the place Wasted, and that it was taken there; and thereupon Judgment was given in C. B. and that he should recover Seisin against the Defendant of the places Wasted: Per visum Juratorum Inquisitionis predict. et damna sua occasionat vasti predict. in triplo, &c. Upon which Error was brought. In this Case, It was amongst other things Resolved, That it was but surplusage to comprehend in the Writ of Enquiry of Damages, That the Sheriff shall go to the place Wasted, and there enquire of the Damages, inasmuch as that by the not doing thereof, the Waste is acknowledged, and therefore he need not to go to the place Wasted to enquire of it. But where a Writ of Enquiry is awarded to enquire of Waste upon a default made, there it is needfull that the Writ have this clause in it, That he shall go to the place Wasted: For by the View, the Waste may be better known by them; but where the Waste is acknowledged, as here, there it needs not. 2. Resolved, That the Action was well brought upon the Demises of two third parts of it; for it cannot be done in the two parts, but in the whole, nor in the whole, but it must be in the two parts. 3. That it was well brought, because neither the Interest of the Term, nor of the Inheritance was severed at the time of the Waste done, but the second Term in one, viz. W. and the Inheritance in H. Mich. 35 Eliz. in B. R. Haydock and Wansfords Case. Pasch. 24, 25.

21. In Trespass, the Case was: An Original bore date in June, 18 Jac. And another Original in September, 18 Jac. and both were Returnable in Michaelmas Term following. And the Trespass was done after the first Original sued forth, and before the latter, and both the Writs were in Court. And it was the Question upon which of the Originalls the Judges should judg. The Case was often debated in Court; And Plow and Trevertons Case, Pasc. 20 H. 8. Rott. 25. was vouched. Where after the Record was removed, Diminution of the Original was alledged; and it was pretended, That Judgment was given upon another Original, and one of the Originalls was before, and the other after the Judgment; and there the Judgment was reversed, because it cannot appear to the contrary, but that the Judgment was given upon the later Original. Also Trin. 11 Jac. Rott. 1613. Brown and Jones Case. In an Action upon the Case upon an Assumpsit, Error was assigned, because no place was limited where the payment should be made. The Original was, That the promise was in consideration that the Plaintif did lend to the Defendant so much money; he at London did promise to pay him the same again. There were two Originals which bore date the same day, In that Case, Judgment was for the Plaintiff. The Defendant brought Error, and alledged Diminution of the Original, and then the other Original was certified. The Defendant in the Writ of Error said, That the Original upon which the Recovery was grounded, had a plea certain. In that Case, the Judges did affirm the same to be the true Original, which did maintain the Judgment, and agree with the proceedings, otherwise great mischief would ensue. Mich. 19 Jac. in B. R. Rott. 322. Crouch and Hayns Cas. Golbol, 407.

22. In Waste brought by the Heirs of Sir Roger Lewkner against the Assignee of Lease for years. It was brought by two Coparceners, and the Heir of the third Coparcener, her Husband being dead. Exception was taken to the Writ, because that it was general, viz. Quod sint vastum in terris, quas Sir Roger Lewkner pater predict. the Plaintiff cujus hæredes ipsa sunt prefat. defend. dimisit: and the Declaration was, That the Revercion was entailed by Parliament unto the Heirs of the body of Sir Roger; and so the Writ ought to have been special, scil. cujus hæredes de Corpore ipsa sunt. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Writ was good, although there was not any such Writ in the Register. cujus hæredes de corpore; and the Court said, It was sufficient to ſhew the ſpecial matter in the Count: and the words of the Writ were true, for they are Heirs of Sir Roger, although they are not ſpecial Heirs of his body. Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. The Heirs of Sir Roger Lewkner and Fords Caſe. Godbolt, 115.

23. Error was brought upon a Fine levyed, 7 Eliz. of Lands in the County of Lanc. It was brought by the Heir in tail: the Defendant pleaded a Recovery in bar after the ſaid Fine, wherein the ſaid R. the Heir was vouched, who after vouched over the common Voucher. It was the Opinion of the Court, That a Common Recovery which is with Vouchers, is a bar by reaſon of the Vouchee to every manner of Right which the Vouchee or his Heir by means of him hath to the Land which is paramount to the Recovery. In the Principal Caſe, the Error aſſigned was, That the Writ of Entry bore date, 1. March 7 Eliz. returned die Lunæ in 4. Septimam Quadrageſim. pur. futura; and the Voucher was in 4. Septimana quadrageſimæ, 7 Eliz. the ſaid firſt day of March, being the firſt Week of this Lent, 7 Eliz. Upon which it was offered, That the Tenant was not to appear untill Monday the fourth Week of Lent, 8 Eliz. which was a long time after the Vouchee appeared and Vouched over. But the Opinion of the Court was, That the Original ſhould be taken as it was written to be returnable on Monday in the fourth Week of the ſame Lent, 7 Eliz. for it ſhall be taken as it is written ſtrongly, moſt beneficially that it can be, to make the Recovery good: And if it had bin written proximè, it ſhould refer to the Week before, and ſo good; and if the word futur. had bin written at large, it ſhould refer to Septimana, and therefore being written briefly, it ſhall refer to make the Recovery good. Mich. 31 Eliz. in B. R. Barters Caſe. Pepb. 101.

24. Fourdon in the Remainder was brought by J. F. and M. his Wife againſt B. of three Meſſuages in A. which R. L. did give to E. C. and the Heirs of her body, the Remainder to J. P. and his Heirs, Quæ poſt mortem prædict. E. ad proſat. J. F. et M. hered. prædict. R. P. frutis et hered. H. P. filii et hæredis J. P. prædict. J. P. remanere debent per formam donationis prædict. Et quod prædict. E. obiit ſine hærede de corpore, &c. The Defendant pleaded, That the Demandant ſhould by the form of the Register have ſuppoſed the ſaid Meſſuage poſt mortem prædict. E. et J. P. proſat. J. F. et M. et Conſanguin. et hæred prædict. J. P. remanere debet per formam Donationis prædict. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That the Writ although it did not agree with the Regiſter in all things; yet if it was equivalent to it, it was good enough. Hill. 11 Jac. in C. B. Rot. 30. Frak and Binfords Caſe. Hob. 51.

25. Debt brought upon the Statute of 37 H. 8. of Uſury. The Writ was, That he corruptiſ lent 40 l. &c. againſt the form of the Statute, and that he ſuch a day lent 20 l. &c. againſt the Statute. But doth not ſay Corruptiſ. The Defendant pleaded Non debet, and found againſt him. It was objected, That the Plaintiff ſhould not have Judgment for any of the ſums; for it is clearly ill for the 20 l. for want of the word Corruptiſ. But it was the Opinion of the Court, That it being good for part, he ſhall have Judgment for that part: For being for ſeveral ſums, it is in the nature of ſeveral Actions. But where one brings an Action for two things, and ſhews by his own confeſſion, That for the one he had no any cauſe of Action, or is to have another Action, there it is otherwiſe. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff, Mich. 3 Jac. in C. B. Wrayes Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 104.

26. Debt upon the Statute of 2 E. 6. for not ſetting forth of Tythes. The Plaintiff ſhewed how that the Rector of M. had two parts of the Tythes in three parts divided, and that the Vicar of the ſame place had the third part of the Tythes: and layed the perception of the Tythes to have bin ſuch, time out of mind, &c. and ſhewed, That the Parſon and Vicar by ſeveral Leaſes, demiſed the Tythes to him, ſo that he being Proprietarius of the Tythes, The Defendant ſowed ſo many Acres in the Parith, viz. with Wheat, Rye, &c. and carryed them away without ſetting forth Decimam partem proveniorum, &c. Upon Nihil debet pleaded, It was found for the Plaintiff. In Arreſt of Judgment, it was moved, That in one Writ the Plaintiff had compiled ſeveral Actions upon the Statute upon his own ſhewing, for he claims not the Tythes upon one Title, but under ſeveral Titles, viz. two parts from the Parſon, and the third part from the Vicar; and no more than the Parſon and Vicar could join in one Action by reaſon of their divided Titles; no more might the Plaintiff, who claims ſeverally under them. But the Opinion of the Court was, That although in this Caſe, The Parſon and Vicar could not join in one Action or Writ: yet when both their Titles are conjoyned in one perſon, as it is here in the Plaintiff, It is ſufficient generally to ſhew, that he is formarius, or Proprietarius of the Tythes without ſaying by what Title: And alſo this is but a perſonal Action grounded meerly upon the contempt for not ſetting forth of the Tythes, and the Title doth not come in debate, but the Defendant is onely to excuſe him of the contempt, and there the Action brought did well lye. Paſc. 3 Jac. in B. R. Sir Richard Champernon and Hills Caſe. Yelverton, 63.

27. Debt upon the Statute of 1 and 2. Philip and Mary, cap. 12. the words of the Statute are, That no man ſhall take for keeping in Pound, Impounding, or Pounding of any Cattel, or Poundage of any Diſtreſs above the ſum of four pence, upon pain of forfeiture of 5 l. to the party grieved; and the Plaintiff ſhewed, That his Cattel were diſtreyned and Impounded, and that the Defendant took of him 10 d. for the Poundage. And thereupon the Plaintiff brought an Action for the Penalty of 5 l. and it was found for the Plaintiff: And Judgment was, That he ſhould recover the 5 l. and damages ultra et præter the money taken for the Poundage: And Error being brought upon this Judgment, It was aſſigned for Error (amongſt other), becauſe the Action was brought for the penalty of 5 l. onely, and not for the 6 d. which was taken above the allowance of the Statute which ought not to be divided. But the Opinion of the Court was, That notwithſtanding that it was good. For it is true, he cannot bring his Action for 5 0 2. part of the Penalty, becauſe it is entire; but in this Caſe here are two ſeveral penalties, and he may divide them, and diſjoyn them if he will, or he may waive the 6 d. For Quilibet poteſt renunciare juri pro ſe introducto. Mich. 15 Car. in B. R. North and Muſgraves Caſe. Moſh. 57.

28. The Caſe was, A man ſeiſed of a Meſſuage Gavelkind, having Iſſue three Daughters, A, B, and C. gave the ſaid Meſſuage to A. and the Heirs of her body, the Remainder of the moyety thereof to B. in tail, the Remainder of the other moyety to C. in tail; and if B. dyed without Iſſue, the Remainder of her moyety to C. with the like Remainder for default of Iſſue of C. to B. A. Tenant in tail diſcontinued, and dyed without Iſſue. B. dyed without Iſſue, by which the right of her moyety came to C. afterwards C. dyed, and her right diſcended to divers Heirs in Gavelkind, who brought one Formedon in Remainder, and by one Writ demanded ſeveral Remainders. It was adjudged in this Caſe, That when all is given to A. in tail, that although that the Donor doth divide the Remainder by moyeties; yet when all the Land doth remain to C. and all the Remainders do depend upon one Eſtate, and are derived out of one Root, and commence by a gift at one time, That the Heirs of C. might have one Writ of Formedon, and ſhall not be driven to bring ſeveral Writs of Formedon. And in the Argument of this Caſe, theſe Rules were taken and agreed, 1. That in Actions real founded upon Title, If there be two ſeveral diſtinct gifts to one, with ſeveral Remainders over to one, there, becauſe the foundation of them is the gift which was ſeveral, there there ought to be ſeveral Writs brought. But if the Foundation be one, and at one time, and out of one Root, there although that there are ſeveral Inheritances, yet one Writ of Formedon lyeth, and not ſeveral Formedons. 2. That in all Actions realls founded upon wrong and not upon Title. The Demandant may demand by one Writ divers Lands which come to him by ſeveral Titles. As if divers Remainders diſcend from divers, ſeveral Auncеſtors, to me; and I be diſſeiſed of them, I may have a Writ of Right, or of entry in the nature of Aſſiſe, and comprehend all theſe Rights in one Writ, becauſe in theſe Caſes, no Title is made in the Writ. But if I bring a Writ of Entry, ſur diſſeiſin made to my Mother and my Aunt Copartceners in Fee-ſimple, the Writ ſhall abate, for that her Title is to be made in the Writ. 3. That in all Actions perſonalls, The Plaintiff may comprehend ſeveral wrongs, and ſeveral cauſes of Action in one Writ, as Treſpaſs, for ſeveral Treſpaſſes, at ſeveral places, and at ſeveral dayes. Cook 8. Part, 87. Buckmores Caſe.

Writ to the Biſhop.

1. IF a man doth recover his Preſentation in a Quare Impedit brought in the Common Pleas againſt any other man, than againſt the Biſhop, he may thereupon have a Writ to the Biſhop to admit his Clark unto the Church. But in ſuch Caſe, If the Recovery be had againſt the Biſhop himſelf, then as the Books in 7 H. 4. 32. and 8 H. 4. 22. are, becauſe the Biſhop is a party, the Writ ſhall iſſue forth to the Metropolitan.

2. A man Recovers in a Quare Impedit, and hath a Writ to the Biſhop to admit his Clark, and before he is admitted, a ſtranger brings another Quare Impedit againſt him who recovered, and the Patron and the Incumbent, and hath a Nt admittas of the firſt who recovered. It was the Opinion of the Court in that Caſe, That the Biſhop ought to admit his Clark who recovered; for otherwiſe the Judgment ſhould not be executed, and Lapſe might incur; although it was ſaid, That in that Caſe the bringing of the ſecond Writ was in the nature of a Writ of Error. See 18 E. 47.

3. In a Writ of Right of Advowſon, &c. If the Defendant claims the ſame Advowſon as Paſſon impropriate; Although that in that Caſe the title be found for the Defendant: Yet he ſhall not in that Caſe have a Writ to the Biſhop ad admittendum Clericum, becauſe that in Conſtruction of Law, he is already in the Church. See Fitzh. Nat. Br. 31. 16 H. 6. Br. al. Everſque 6. acc.

4 Note, 7 H. 4. 31. by Gaſcoigne; A man ſhall never have a Writ to the Biſhop where his Preſentee is in, and his right continues. But Hull held the contrary: For if a Clark be Preſented, and Inſtituted to a Church to which I do pretend Right: and I do bring a Quare Impedit, and it is found for the Defendant that he hath right: Yet his Preſentee ſhall have a Writ to the Biſhop, and he ſhall have general Judgment, and ſhall recover his damages for the diſturbance.

5. A. brought a Quare Impedit againſt the Biſhop of Glouceſter and C. and counted upon a diſturbance to Preſent 1. Nov. C. as Incumbent pleaded, That 1. May, next after the ſaid 1. Nov. he himſelf was Preſented to the Church by the Queen, the Preſentment being devolved to her by Lapſe, upon which the Plaintiff did demur in Law. It was holden in that Caſe, That the Plea was inſufficient, for that the Plaintiff counted upon a Diſturbance to him 1. Nov. and the Defendant entitles himſelf to an Incumbency 1. May after, in which Caſe, the diſturbance ſet forth in the Count is not traverſed, confeſſed nor avoided. It was then moved, That a Writ might be awarded to the Biſhop for the Queen, for that the title of the Queen appeareth to be by Lapſe, which is confeſſed. But the whole Court was clear of Opinion againſt that: For that it appeareth that the Title of the Queen was once executed, and ſo gone, and nothing remains in the Queen; and now when the Defendant hath loſt his Incumbency by ill pleading, yet the ſame ſhall not turn to the advantage of the Queen, for where the Queen Preſents for Lapſe, and her Clark is Inſtituted and Inducted, the Queen hath no more to do. Afterwards in the principal Caſe, the Patron had a Writ to the Biſhop to Preſent his Clark. Mich. 32 Eliz. in C. B. Arundell and the Biſhop of Glouceſter's Caſe. Lenv. 194.

6. In a Quare Impedit by L. againſt H. and the Biſhop of Glouceſter, of the Church of F. Upon the pleading, the Iſſue was, If T. L. Father of the Plaintiff did enfeoff the Plaintiff of the Manner of F. to which the Advowſon of the Church was appendant before he Granted the Advowſon to one S. who granted it to the Defendant. The Jury gave a Special Verdict, That the Abbot of S. was ſeiſed of a Capital Meſſuage in F. and of 100 Acres of Lands there, and that there was a Tenancy holden of the ſaid Capital Meſſuage by ſuch Services, and that the ſaid Capital Meſſuage time out of mind, had been known by the name of the Manner of F. and that the Advowſon was appendant to it, and conveyed the Capital Meſſuage and Advowſon to the King by the Statute of Diſſolution, and from the King to T. L. who ſeiſed, did without Deed enfeoff the Plaintiff of the ſaid Manner, and made Livery and Seiſin upon the Demeſnes: and that afterwards the ſaid T. L. by Deed made a Grant of the ſaid Advowſon to the ſaid S. It was the clear Opinion of the whole Court in this Caſe, That here was a ſufficient Manner to which an Advowſon may be appendant, and that the Advowſon did inclufive paſs in the Livery, and that the Grant of the Advowſon made meanbetween the Livery and Attornment, was void; and afterwards Judgment was given, and a Writ to the Biſhop for the Plaintiff. Mich. 33 Eliz. in C. B. Long and Hemmings Caſe. Leon. 207.

7. B. had Judgment in a Quare Impedit upon a Demurrer to recover againſt C. The Queen afterwards brought a Scire facias upon the matter, That the ſaid B. after the ſaid Judgment was Outlawed in in an Action of Trespass at the Suit of J. S. and upon that a Scire facias issued ad respondendum Quare dict. Dominus Regina should not have Execution of the Judgment aforesaid, and set forth, that C. had resigned, upon which B. did demur in Law. It was Objected, That by Outlawry in an Action personal, the King cannot seise Land; and that in this Case nothing did accrue to the Queen by the Outlawry, because the Queen her self usurpando præsentavit, and her Clerk admitted; and although B. hath recovered in the Quare Impedit against the Presentee of the Queen; yet because he is not removed by a Writ to the Bishop, the Queen remains Patron, and nothing remains in B. that can be forfeited. Also it was said, That the Scire facias did not lye for the Queen, for that that Writ runs alwayes in privity of the Record upon which it is grounded, to which Record the Queen is a stranger. It was the Opinion of Rhodes and Periam Justices, That if after Recovery in a Quare Impedit, the Incumbent dyeth, the Patronage is presently vested in the Patron; and if he dyeth, his Executors shall have a Writ to the Bishop: So in this Case, the Presentment by the Outlawry of B. is presently vested in the Queen; And as to the Scire facias, it was said, That when the King is disturbed in his Presentment, he shall have a Scire facias upon a composition, notwithstanding that he is a stranger to it. And all the Judges agreed, That upon the whole matter in the Principal, the Scire facias did well lye by the Queen. See the Book at large. Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Bewly and Cornwalls Case. Leon. 63.
